Edgar Glasscock Selected To Receive Highest State 4-H Adult Leader Award

Edgar Glasscock

Edgar Glasscock of Sonora has been selected along with 25 others of 15,000 Texas 4-H Club Volunteer Adult Leaders to receive the highest award conferred by the Texas 4-H Club movement on adult leaders. The Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation, whose Trustees are drawn from many walks of life, makes the annual award possible.

Recipients of the Volunteer Adult Leader Award arrived in College Station June 4, 1963, to participate in the Annual Texas 4-H State Roundup. A press conference for Volunteer Leader Award recipients was held at 11:30 a.m. followed by a luncheon in their honor on June 5.

Glasscock was selected for the 4-H Club State Award because of 16 years service as an adult leader in Sutton County and for encouraging youth in Sutton County and adjoining counties to participate in 4-H work through his leadership, awards, and assistance in obtaining livestock for projects. Glasscock has also trained winning grass judging teams for the Sutton County 4-H Club.

The Sutton County 4-H Club and the Sutton County 4-H Parent's Club are pleased that the state 4-H Recognition Committee has selected Glasscock for this honor on the basis of his many contributions to 4-H Club work in this area.

Swimming Pool Season Tickets Now For Sale

Season tickets for use at the municipal swimming pool are now on sale, according to Bob Painter, pool manager. Swimmers 12 years of age and under may purchase a season ticket for $10.00 and those 12 and over will pay $14.00.

Swimming classes will begin at the pool at ten o'clock Monday morning, June 10, with Painter and Doyle V. Morgan as instructors. Beginning swimmers will meet at ten and intermediates at eleven o'clock, Painter said. He anticipates a good turnout for the classes since over 50 youngsters are already signed up for lessons.

Painter also reminded ladies of the community that each Monday night is Ladies' Night, beginning at 6:30; and that swimming parties may be arranged by making reservations.

The Sonora Lions Club's 26th annual Wool and Mohair Show will get underway here Wednesday, June 12, with entries of wool and mohair due in the warehouse of Sonora Wool and Mohair Company by five o'clock Tuesday, June 11.

Entries received as of Monday at the warehouse indicated there will be an unusually large number of bags of wool entered this year and single fleeces are being received daily, coming from as far away as Colorado.

An extra event designed to increase interest among the ladies is a style show by Miss Wool of Texas and Miss Mohair, slated at ten o'clock Thursday, June 13.

Increase in both local and national judging contests has been indicated and County Agent D. C. Langford reports he expects a large number of entries in all phases of the judging events. One team is entered from Colorado and two teams from New Mexico, one from Eddy County and one from Quay County.

Each year since 1949 the Sutton County 4-H Club has received the trophy as the best all-around club and has six times been overall high team, although Crockett 4-H took this honor in 1958 and 1961, and Ozona FFA in 1957 and 1960.

Overall high individual awards have been won locally by Oscar Lee Carpenter in 1950, Carlos Loeffler in 1953, Gene Brodhead in 1956, Claire Jones in 1957, and John Paul Friess in 1960 and 1961.

Junior championships for bags of wool have stayed consistently in the county since 1949 with Connie Mack Locklin, Nancy Hunt (Now Mrs. James L. Powell), Clair and Cleve T. Jones, Curt Schwiening, Jr., Joe and John Paul Friess, Dick McMillan (twice), Ray Glasscock, Chris Berger and Robert Brown showing championship bags.

As for single wool fleeces, junior championships have gone to Nancy Hunt in 1950, Rodney Davis 1952, Connie Mack Locklin 1953 and 1954, Jan Vander Stucken 1956, Anna Rose Glasscock (now Mrs. Billy Gillet) 1957, Jack David Wardlaw 1959 and Chris Berger 1960, 1961 and 1962.

Since 1949 when Joe David Ross exhibited the Junior Grand Champion Mohair Fleece, the award has gone out of county, four times each to Bandera and Menard counties, twice to Kimble County and once each to Harper, Medina and Edwards.

In the National 4-H Wool Judging Contest, held for the first time in 1961, the Sutton County 4-H team of John Paul Friess, Dick McMillan, Cleve T. Jones III and Preston Neely was first. Last year Bandera 4-H was first, San Saba second and the Sutton County team of Ray Glasscock, Libb Mills Wallace, Jerry Shurley, Jr. and Diana Cahill third.

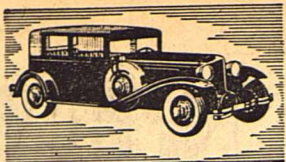

Presented for the first time last year, the Joe Berger Memorial Trophy went to Dick McMillan as premier junior wool exhibitor. The rotating trophy is awarded annually by Mrs. Joe Berger and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Berger. If won by the same individual three times, it will remain in his possession.

In local judging, Bandera County 4-H won first in livestock, San Saba County 4-H in wool and mohair judging, and Sutton County 4-H Club's team of Ray Glasscock, John Paul Friess and Libb Mills Wallace first in range management.

Last year's adult championship awards went to George E. (Bud) Smith, Single Wool Fleece, Fred T. Earwood, Bag of Wool, and Bill Craddock of Bandera, Mohair Fleece.

THE HOLIDAYS.

The Christmas celebration at Sonora opened with a splendid Christmas Tree and interesting programme at the High School auditorium that was largely attended in defiance of the mud and inclement weather.

Special services were conducted at the Methodist Church Sunday by Rev. J. D. Worrell.

Saturday and Sunday the young people who had been attending school elsewhere and others who had formerly made

Sonora their home, were arriving under difficulties of bad roads but all wore the happy smile and were given the glad hand of welcome always extended Sonora visitors.

Christmas day was bright and cold and a large crowd was assembled at the Public Park in West Sonora when the first event on the days programme, the tournament was called. There were but five entries, Orvil Word, Joe Bridge, Pink Glasscock, M. M. Stokes, H. Holman. Bridge was 1st with 10 rings, Stokes 2nd with 9.

The next event was the goat roping with 17 entries: Lem Johnson, M. M. Stokes, Joe Bridge, P. Glasscock, J. Brasher, Sam Ensley, W. Stephenson, Earl Binyon, Chas. Evans, E. C. Adams, T. E. Johnson, John Moore, Lem Stokes, C. O. Ridley, H. L. Bridge, Jim Brown, Lee Binyon; Lem Johnson 1st; Wert Stephenson 2nd.

The goat roping was very amusing but owing to the length of time required to pull off the "Thread the Needle" race was postponed.

Then came the big free dance at the Court House and numerous other social events. The Court House was thronged. It was just like it used to be, bright lights, happy faces, pretty women and gallant men tripping the light fantastic to good music and viewed by many spectators who seemed to enjoy the scene as much as any.

Tuesday afternoon 4 horses were entered for the Sutton County 250 dash, and the 4 were tapped off finished in the order named: G. Stephenson, Sid Gilbert, Bill Holman, Will Wilson.

The second event was the quarter mile dash, free for all. Four were entered tapped off and finished in the order named W. T. O. Holman, Joe Blakeney, A. F. Clarkson, Wilson and Stokes.

The races were closely contested and each horse had many admirers.

Then came the cigar race with six entries as follows: Lem Johnson, Pink Glasscock, Lee Binyon, Joe Bridge, Albert Owens, Henry Sharp; Lem Johnson first, time 28 2/5 seconds Lee Binyon second, 33 1/5; although Joe Bridge made the score in 29 1/5 but did not have his cigar smoking.

But the fun continued and

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

It all started with Sir Walter Raleigh and a Y-shaped pipe.

The pipe was a gift to Raleigh from Sir Francis Drake—a souvenir from the West Indies, where natives put the pipe prongs in their nostrils and inhaled the smoke of a smoldering substance they called "tobacco."

Raleigh apparently set the style of his day, for when he took up smoking the practice soon became fashionable.

All this happened nearly 400 years ago—in 1584. Since then smoking has become perhaps the most deeply ingrained habit of humanity.

Today in the United States alone, more than half the men and a fourth of the women smoke cigarettes daily, and additional million smoke pipes and cigars. And the habit is winning more and more young recruits each day.

Teen-aged youngsters in increasing numbers are succumbing to the blandishments of national advertisers who depict smokers as virile men or beautiful girls, or to the pull of "belonging" to a sophisticated group whose smoking members frown on non-smokers.

Studies by the U. S. National Institutes of Health, the British Ministry of Health, and other scientific organizations of equal prominence, purport to show a strong statistical relationship between smoking and higher death rates from heart diseases, lung cancer and other pulmonary diseases.

The position is attracting support from many organizations—among them the Texas Medical Association, the American Cancer and Heart Association, the American Public Health Association, the U.S. Public Health Service and departments of health in most states.

Some researchers are so firmly convinced of the connection

Old Trails Not Forgotten
Very few of today's highways are known throughout the country. Even fewer will be remembered in the years to come.

This is not true of the old trails and the men who guided early-day travelers across the country.

Thanks to a Federal government appropriation to commemorate one hundred years of Texas Independence, a monument dedicated to the old Mackenzie Trail was erected at Plainview in Northwest Texas' Hale County.

This trail first was crossed by General Ronald Slidell Mackenzie, 4th United States Cavalry, in 1871. He was in quest of warring bands of Indians.

This unique monument relates the story of the trail by means of a poem written by Larry Chittendon. In part, it reads:

Where are now that trail's processions,
Winding westward sure and slow?

Lost: Oh, yes; destroyed by progress,
Gone to realms of long ago.

between cigarette smoking and higher death rates that they say they would support a ban on cigarettes for public sale if introduced as a new product on today's market.

A fewer number of capable researchers are unimpressed by the statistical studies, claim they are inconclusive and actually contradictory. But they are finding it increasingly difficult to defend their stand in the face of ominous facts and evidence which continues to build up.

The late Dr. William Mayo used to say cigarettes, cigars and pipes were mere "adult pacifiers," something for idle hands to play with. If true, breaking the smoking habit probably isn't as hard as it has been represented.

Should you, personally, make the effort? That's your decision, just as the decision for or against beginning to smoke must be made by teenagers themselves.

lead us
Through the borders of the past.

Proud of First Shot
First shot of the Texas revolution was followed by the cry of "Come and take it."

This was the response from a small band of Texans in answer to the Mexican Government's demand to surrender the now famous cannon of Gonzales.

Although the cannon was small and was loaded with chains and scrap iron, its mighty shot started the war that resulted in adding more territory to the United States than was acquired in the American Revolution.

Gonzales rightfully is proud of this moment in its history.

This is evident by the fact that any resident of this Central South Texas town gladly will tell you all about its historic past.

And you hardly can miss the city's imposing monuments erected in commemoration of this great moment in history.

The President Slept Here
Texas, long known for its accommodating nature, also has been famous for its fine hotel accommodations.

Certainly among the latter you would have to include the old Excelsior Hotel, located at Jefferson, in Northeast Texas near the Louisiana border.

The Excelsior is not just a memory. It still stands today, equipped with its original furniture dating back to the mid-1800's.

Many tourists marvel at the original hotel register which includes such names as President Hays and Jay Gould.

Y'all Come
Come on out and use my 2,123 acre East Texas Ranch just anytime you want to, pardner.

Yep, it's just six miles south of Huntsville in Walker County. Lots of people camp out here and use my picnic grounds. There's more'n enough room for all. Got a lunch counter, bait house for you fishermen, swimmin' hole, playground equipment and a nice dance terrace where you can kick up yer heels too.

To tell the truth, it's really just as much your ranch as it is mine. Ya see, it's just another one of them wonderful Texas Parks that we all can use just anytime we like.

Best Known Town In Texas
How can a town of only 3,000 or so population become world renowned?

Even if it is unique or has a lot to offer, 3,000 people aren't many to spread the word so far and wide.

Yet, Decatur, Texas, in the northern part of the state, has done just that.

It was through gaming circles that the saying of "eighter from Decatur, county seat of Wise" rapidly spread throughout the country.

Nobody seems to know how it happened, but it sure didn't hurt for Decatur to be on the Butterfield Overland Stage Line back around 1860. This was a semi-weekly stage and mail route connecting St. Louis and San Francisco, stretching some 2,795 miles.

-GREEN NEWS-

By Betty Jones

Saturday, June 1, was a red letter day in Sonora.

Weeks of free-will labor by members and interested citizens made the Ladies Golf Tournament an overall success. Family day at the course started at 7 o'clock and was over around eleven that night. Golfing friends from Del Rio, Big Lake, McCombs, San Angelo, Brownwood and Ozona were glad to see each other and all agreed that it was one of the best times they ever had.

The clubhouse and patio were running over with beaming faces.

Weeks before the tournament, the men worked on fairways, mowed grass, and did all the thousand and one odd jobs that only a woman can think of. And the wonderful new road to the clubhouse, pouring the patio, finishing the clubhouse and restrooms—they did that, too. They wound all this up by preparing and hosting a barbecue for everybody that night. Don't want you to get the idea that the women were idle. The clubhouse was shining, and the decorations were the cleverest yet. There were delicious cakes, and turkey, ham, etc. Each committee worked like beavers. Fact is, the whole family and their friends and relatives pitched in and did their part and more.

After the supper Mike Stewart asked me, "Who do I tell I had a good time to?" After I told him, "Just everybody, Mike," he had a bewildered expression on his face, looked the huge crowd over and left muttering, "I had a good time, EVERYBODY." The Ladies Auxiliary will go along with Mike—we had a wonderful time and thanks. EVERYBODY.

WE ENJOYED SEEING:

The children running to greet mother with, "Did you win? What'da shoot?"

Tina washing dishes for me. Jess Penick enjoying "Green's" rocker.

The men making grocery lists for supper.

Lucille McMillan and Jo Neville getting the bread sliced for lunch.

Norm Rousselot and Jerry Hopkins trying to announce posted scores while 48 ladies talked over their games.

Reggie Trainer dancing with daughter Regina. Juanita McCoy's tiny daughter dressed in blue.

The little boys with Mother's clubs, trying to get in one more round of golf.

Our special friend, with a delightful sense of humor, Mary Jorden of McCombs.

The clubhouse filled with the younger set.

Brothers Chuck and Paul Browne tying square knots while sisters Evelyn Jane and Jo Ann Lowe did the limbo, while parents tried to talk over the loud limbo music.

Phil Bond's proud smile when friends asked about her new grandson.

Velma Berger and grandson Chris getting plates ready for supper.

The men on the patio discussing their wives' golf games and wondering if a five iron might have been better, etc.

(Aunt) Nila Trainer being greeted by all her "younger set" friends with shrieks of excitement and our age-group with hugs.

The Bryan Hunts, the Dorsey Hardemans of San Angelo, and the Fred Earwoods.

Diana Cahill running errands for Mother and Betty.

Lea Allison carrying a real man-talk with Bob Whitehead.

Charlie Howell and Dick McMillan getting in a couple of rounds of golf after chatting with the clubhouse and patio folks.

Jana Ruth Harris' polka-dot sunback and bonnet to match a real little doll.

This could go on and on but must of all—of Sonora and friends from surrounding communities are enjoying the Sonora Golf Club. And last year at this time we just couldn't have dreamed that we would be enjoying a EDEN—Seventeen members of the 1963 graduating class of Eden High, returned home at 5:45 p.m. Wednesday from a six-day jaunt that took them to New Orleans, La., Houston and Galveston, Texas, by a chartered bus of the Kerrville Bus Co.

Tired, but happy to be back to good 'ole Texas, with bags of pleasant memories, as well as dirty clothes, and their funds of four years of savings down to rock bottom, the group had a wonderful time that will be long remembered. "Eden Echo".

UVALDE—The Summer Recreation Program for Uvalde begins Monday morning, June 3, with Miss Sally Anderson as instructor. Boys and girls of all ages are urged to participate.

Instruction will be at Memorial Park and the City tennis courts. Classes include tennis, basketball, badminton, softball and volleyball. "Uvalde Leader-News".

ROCKSPRINGS—The office at the Rocksprings City Hall has been repaired and painted and the entire building will be repaired for gas. An accumulation of butane in the vault about a month ago caused an explosion that damaged the interior of the council room and office.

The building was checked for butane leaks after all outlets were plugged. The exact location of the leak was not found, but pressure on the lines showed the gas was escaping, therefore the building will be piped with an entirely new gas system. "Texas Mohair Weekly".

FORT STOCKTON—2 Herford steers belonging to Dick Posey, 4-H Club boy and son of County Agent and Mrs. W. T. Posey, were stolen from their pen Friday night at the Posey place on the Sanderson Highway.

A lock was broken to gain entry, and it was believed the steers were loaded into a pickup or truck and hauled away. "Fort Stockton Pioneer".

KERRVILLE—There have been 49 new homes built inside the city limits since January, and the total building permits for this period are $925,088, according to City Clerk Fred West.

The permits for May showed a total of 10 new homes and permit were for $125,000. By way of comparison, there were nine homes and a total of $183,850 for the same month last year. "Kerrville Mountain Sun".

ELDORADO—All youngsters, (primary, elementary, junior high and teenagers) are invited to participate in the "world's largest reading club", sponsored by the Eldorado Public Library and Texas State Library. Membership is free, Miss Ruth Baker, librarian, announced.

The purpose of the club is to encourage and stimulate interest in reading among the younger age group. "Eldorado Success".

MARFA—Marfa has received 3.70 inches of rain since the first of the year. We received .73 inch of rain in the past week. There have been no dust storms, although there have been occasions when the wind was high. The area around Marfa is beginning to look like it did in the "good old days" when it rained regularly.

The high and low for the week were recorded the same day,

Monday, May 27 with a high of 88 and low of 52. "Big Bend Sentinel".

McCAMEY—Letters indicating McCamey's interest in being chosen as site for a state school for retarded children have been sent to the proper authorities by the Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber president Bill Ramsey reported at the last board of directors meeting that a letter requesting that McCamey be considered was sent to Raymond W. Vowell, president of the Board of Special Schools. The letter requested that McCamey be notified so it could provide more complete information and present a formal bid for the school at the proper time. "McCamey News".

Devil's River Philosopher Says He's In Favor Of Graduates Who Won't Set The World On Fire

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-sweet ranch on Devil's River may have his tongue in his cheek this week. Maybe it beats a foot. Dear editor:

As you know, this is the time of year when graduating classes get to hear a lot of advice and I've been reading some of it from around the country and so far I haven't heard something mentioned which I'd like to bring out myself.

I don't mean to say the advice isn't sound, it is, regardless of how little of it will be taken. In the world's entire history there never has been a shortage of advice, and like everything else we've got a surplus of, the price has never been high.

Most commencement speakers, especially at colleges, exhort the graduates to work hard and achieve and amount to as much as the speakers, but they've got to do better than that if the world's going to hold together. Right now, we're at the point where a disarmament conference feels safer if it's meeting close to a bomb shelter.

Now the point I'd like to bring out is that in nearly every graduating class, except of course the one in Sonora, there's always a certain number about whom some folks predict, with about the accuracy of a weather forecast. "Well, they won't set the world on fire."

I tell you, that's exactly the kind of young people I'm looking for. If this world needs anything, it's somebody who won't set it on fire.

Go to the moon, orbit the earth, invent a tail pipe that won't rust out, perfect a drip-dry car fender that straightens out its own dents, eliminate ra-

Bring on those mountains! They're not so high and mighty when you've got Corvair's gummy six and rear-engine air traction working on them.

You scurry up the meanest grades. You move with sure-footed agility on wet pavement, muddy lanes, gravel and other would-be miseries.

And with most of Corvair's weight on the rear wheels, you have easy steering, too. Fact is, the handling's so light and responsive we don't even offer power steering for the car.

And there's more to feel good about. No problems with your radiator boiling

LIONS ROAR

Visitors at the Tuesday meeting of the Sonora Lions Club included Kenneth Babcock of McCamey and Arthur Brink of Coleman. Brink is the grandson of Joe F. Logan.

Dr. Charles F. Browne reported that about 2,000 people took the polio oral vaccine, or about 82 percent of the population. Donations to the program totaled $1,120, while expenses totaled $850. Part of the $270 surplus was used in giving smallpox vaccination to over 100 children. Some 25 injections are being given for diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough. The Sonora Lions Club had agreed to underwrite the polio program in the event expenses were more than donations.

Oliver Wuest reported that around 100 boys are participating in the Little League program. Wuest gave a breakdown of expenses, which total about $1,600 per year. This includes $750 for salary, $400 for supplies, $150 for utilities, $110 for insurance, $80 for a new mower, plus other incidentals.

Operating funds available include $100 each from the four team sponsors: Evans Foodway, J & S Motors, First National Bank and Sonora TV Service Co., Inc. Thirty-five fence signs are rented to advertisers. The Sonora Down-town Lions Club contributed $425 and the West Side Lions Club $25. It is hoped that donations at the games will raise the balance needed.

The Lions Club will meet at the school cafeteria next Thursday noon in connection with the Sonora Wool and Mohair Show awards luncheon.

Ground Control Vital Part Of Screwworm Program Over State

Ground control (immediate treatment of all wounds regardless of cause) is of major importance in the screwworm eradication program at this time. County Agent D. C. Langford said Wednesday that it's that time of year when screwworm cases normally begin a rapid increase and cautioned all livestock producers to be even more alert in their checking for possible worm cases.

The screwworm will be eradicated by constant vigilance, Langford said. He advised livestock producers to treat every wound regardless of cause, including those from castration, sheep and goat sheering, docking, dehorning, wire cuts, or others, with approved materials. These include EQ-335 or 5 percent Korlan as smears or 5 percent Co-Ral as a dust. These are recommended for use on all surgical cases, Langford said.

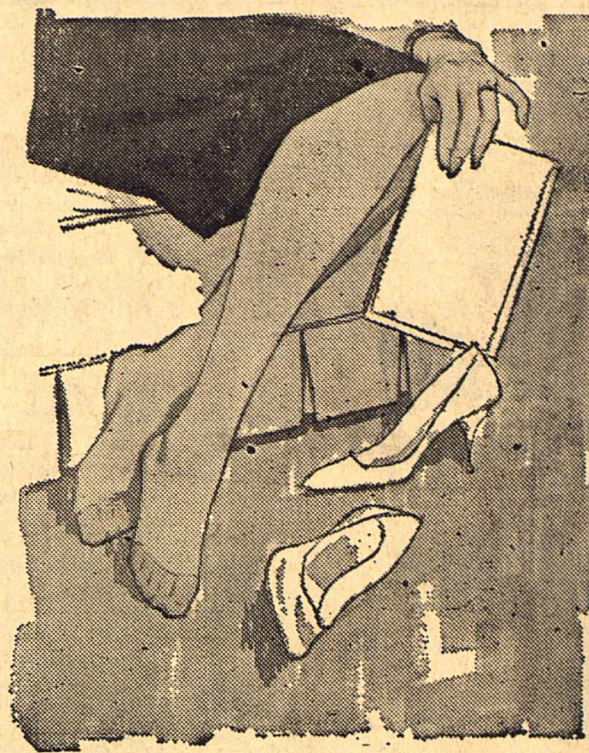

He listed the use of .25 percent (twenty-five hundredths) Co-Ral or .5 percent (five-tenths) Korlan as sprays for control of livestock pests.

Langford further suggested that all livestock be checked at least once each week and more often if practical for screwworm signs.

He emphasized the need for even better reporting of all worm cases and the importance of taking worm samples from every infested wound. Be extra observant of all new livestock brought onto the farm or ranch, Langford said.

No screwworms have been reported in Sutton County during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Nevill have as their guest Mrs. John Ed Nevill of Carlsbad, New Mexico.
