Repeal Possible Within 10 Weeks

FIFTEEN STATES ARE TO VOTE ON ISSUE BY NOVEMBER 8

BY JOHN F. CHESTER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—A clear-cut possibility that the Eighteenth amendment could be voted void within the next 10 weeks emerged today from the three-one repeal majority cast by voters representing nearly three-fifths of the nation's population.

The heavy recording of Washington as the twenty-fourth state to ballot in favor of the twenty-first or repealing amendment carried the anti-prohibition surge across two-thirds of the distance to its goal.

Fifteen More To Vote

At least 15 or more states will vote before November 8—providing a minimum of three more than necessary for repeal—should the uninterrupted procession of the first 24 be continued.

New England became the focal point of national wet and dry interest today as Vermont and Maine sharpened pencils for early September balloting. They were the first of seven states to vote within the next three weeks.

Should 12 of the 15 states sure to vote before the eighth of November, follow the line of the first 24, the prohibition amendment would be formally abolished on December 5, or 6. Three ratifying conventions meet on December 5 and two more on the 6th.

Statisticians adding up and analyzing the vote thus far figured today that although only half the states had ballotted, more than 72,000,000 of the nation's 122,698,190 population lived within their borders on the basis of the 1930 census.

Over Three To One

The popular vote in the 24 recorded states stands in round numbers at 9,800,000 in favor of repeal to 3,000,000 against. These figures, of course, do not include the recordings in Nevada and Wyoming, where delegates were elected by mass meetings and county conventions.

On the basis of present voting dates, all but nine states holding 14,565,076 of the nation's population will have balloted by November 8.

MAROONED SCOUTS BACK HOME TODAY

The youths, trapped on the ledge early Tuesday when a piece of rock broke off behind them, were lifted to safety one at a time on the end of a 225-foot rope.

They were pronounced by Dr. Clarence F. Graham of Albany to be none the worse for their experience except that they were nearly exhausted from lack of sleep and food.

"Blonde Tigress" Given 199 Years

CHICAGO, Aug. 31. (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Jarman, called the "blonde tigress" by police because of her alleged participation in holdups, was under a 199-year prison sentence today following her conviction on a charge of murder in connection with the recent slaying of Gustave Hoeh, 71, in his haberdashery.

Mrs. Jarman's companions, George Dale, her alleged sweetheart, and Leo Minneci were convicted at the same time. Dale, accused of being the actual slayer, was sentenced to death in the electric chair, while Minneci received a 199-year prison sentence when a jury in criminal court returned its verdict last night.

STATE RIGHTS ARE ARGUED

GOVERNMENT AND BAR DISAGREE ON WAR AGAINST CRIME

(By The Associated Press)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 31.—The old issue of states rights, raised by the disclosure of revolutionary federal plans to crush the underworld, pushed itself to the foreground as the American Bar association assembled for the second session of its annual convention here today.

The constitutional question, which has been a subject of cloak room debate since the first delegates arrived, came to a head late yesterday as a result of the proposal by Pat Malloy, assistant United States attorney general, of a huge federalized police force which would mobilize all federal, state, county and municipal law enforcement officers in a nationwide war on crime.

Bar Opposes Plan

In answer to the suggestion the bar today had indicated that it would not sanction any plan of fighting crime which entailed the setting aside of constitutional perogatives and the jurisdiction of the courts.

Malloy appeared before the association at his own request. After he had outlined his far-reaching program he heard the convention applaud Dean Justin Miller, of the Duke university law school, when, in response to cries from the floor of "answer him!" the latter remarked that "when the official steps outside the law and the courts he provides the criminal with his greatest protection and defense."

These developments focussed extraordinary interest on the appearance before the convention tonight of United States Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who, Malloy told the association, approved the plans for the federalized police force.

OFFICERS ARE HUNTING FOR TWO BLACKS

WOMAN FEARED SLAIN; COUPLE SURPRISED IN PARKED CAR

BULLETIN!

DALLAS, Aug. 31 (AP)—The body of Miss Katherine Prince, kidnaped from an automobile last night by two negroes who shot her escort, was found in a cotton field southeast of Dallas today. The two negroes were arrested and jailed as citizens of Mesquite, near Dallas, expressed great anger.

The negroes confessed to county officers that they killed her after attacking her in a field near where she and Mace Carver had parked.

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Aug. 31.—Mace Carver, 27-year-old ice plant employe, was shot and critically wounded and Miss Katherine Prince, 21, was abducted by two negroes who surprised them as they sat in their parked car east of Dallas last night.

Miss Prince had not been found today and city and county officers who began a search for the negroes expressed fear she might have been killed.

"Have they found Katherine yet?" Carver kept inquiring as he lay on the operating table at a hospital here. "I do hope they didn't kill her."

Carver was found beside a road several miles from the place his car was found. He had been shot once in the left side of the neck and again in the left wrist. Weakened from loss of blood he was barely conscious when brought to Dallas.

The negroes accosted the couple as they listened to the radio in Carver's automobile. Carver said he and Miss Prince started earlier in the evening to Dallas to visit a friend of his companion. Not finding her at home they started to Miss Prince's home near New Hope, east of Dallas, and drove to the ice plant where Carver worked.

He told "the boys at the station" that he would be back to work at midnight after he took Miss Prince home.

Parked In Lane

"We drove around some more and finally parked the car on Dash lane, about a mile off the Scyene road," Carver related. "We had the radio in the car playing when the two negroes walked up."

He described the negroes as under 30 years of age and said the taller of the two wore a cap and had a pistol in his hand as he approached the automobile.

"MASTER MIND" BELIEVED IN TEXAS PEN

OPERATIONS DESIGNED TO NET FROM THREE TO FIVE MILLIONS

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—A nation-wide check forging ring that authorities said had been traced to the Texas prison cell of Aaron Moshiek, alleged master forger, resulted in a hunt today for 25 men by federal and state agents and private detectives.

The operations, authorities said, were designed to net from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 for the ring and were revealed following the arrest of Leland M. Johnson, who has been held in the Crown Point, Ind., jail since July along with William "Tut" Seymour, former Chicago fighter, and W. N. Saunders, described as a former Texas newspaperman.

The information police said Johnson gave the authorities said they based the belief that Moshiek directed the activities of the 25 men now sought and that profits were to be devoted to a defense fund to win his freedom from the sentence he is now serving for conviction upon a charge to forge utility bonds.

Numbered among the victims of the alleged plot were the Pennsylvania railroad, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, the Sinclair Refining company, the Phillips Petroleum company, the Shell Oil corporation, the Standard Oil corporation and others.

Operations, the authorities said, were principally confined to Texas with men under the direction of Moshiek going from city to city forming local sales organizations to distribute and cash the forged paper upon unsuspecting merchants.

Scores of checks drawn on oil companies and refineries in Gary and Whiting, Ind. were found on the person of Johnson and the others when they were arrested. Authorities said Johnson had given them names of all members of the ring he knew and all are being kept secret pending their arrest.

BEER ELECTIONS MAY BE BARRED

The beer election season in Lubbock county in all probability will remain closed until after February 26, 1934.

When and if beer election petitions now circulating in Slaton are presented to county coommissioners' court, County Attorney Vaughn E. Wilson is expected to rule that the court cannot call an election until six months have elapsed after the August 26 vote.

The county attorney also is to hold that the election must be county-wide. Mr. Wilson said he had made an exhaustive study of statutes before reaching his decision.

The Slaton petitions, which are said to have a large number of names, possibly will be presented to the court tomorrow. In last Saturday's election Slaton voted for the sale of 3.2 beer.

WAR DEPARTMENT GIVEN $70,000,000 FOR NINETY PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31— The public works administration today turned $70,000,000 over to the war department for rivers and harbors work on ninety projects in all parts of the country.

It was a lump sum from the $3,300,000,000 public works fund, and in addition to $43,000,000 already set aside for flood control and previous separate allotments of $11,500,000 for rivers and harbors work on the upper Mississippi river and $14,158,000 for channel work on the Missouri river as far as Sioux City.

War department officials expected to announce the specific allotment for the 90 individual projects later in the day.

The projects include 13 on rivers, one ocean inlet, seven intra-costal waterways projects, six great lakes connecting channels, 19 seacoast harbor projects on the Atlantic coast, 12 seacoast harbor projects on the gulf, 11 seacoast harbor projects on the Pacific coast, 17 harbor projects on the Great Lakes, three seacoast harbor projects in the Hawaiian islands and one in Puerto Rico.

The army chief of engineers said the $70,000,000 will provide 40,000 man-years of work, meaning employment of 40,000 men for a year.

Projects approved include:

V-8 And NRA In Dramatic Fight

JOHNSON RIDES BLUE EAGLE AND HENRY FORD DRIVES THE CAR; PRESIDENT IS UMPIRE

BY DALE HARRISON

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—The V-8 and the NRA, symbols of far more than a mere motorcar and a mere blue eagle, are engaged today in a race for principle on an untried speedway.

At the wheel of the car is Henry Ford. Riding the eagle is General Hugh S. Johnson. Behind the one is a lifetime of invention and industrialism raised to a science. Behind the other is high resolve, laudable purpose—and the law.

President Is Umpire

The umpire is the president of the United States.

For Henry Ford, who dedicated one of the world's monster industries to shorter hours and a minimum wage, the NRA flat to sign up or face whatever music the administration should elect to play may quite conceivably be climactic in a strictly personal way, leaving entirely aside its economic aspects. He has, in a degree, dedicated his industrialism to the development of efficiency aimed at personal benefit to both his consumer public and his employes.

At a time when employer and employe in the motor as well as other major trades were in economic conflict, each seeking advantage according to his lights, Ford pioneered with the five dollar-a-day minimum wage; pioneered, that is, among the big employers. Falling by reason of his position into the class called "capital," he fought nonetheless to function independently of "capital," and often contrary to it.

ONE KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT

DOZEN INJURED WHEN STRIKERS, POLICE CLASH TODAY

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31—One man was killed and at least a dozen persons were injured today as rioting silk hosiery strikers and sympathizers clashed with police at the Cambria Hosiery mills, in the northeastern part of the city.

The dead man was Clem H. Norwood, one of the strikers. He was shot in the head during a melee which followed the attempt of 12 workers to enter the plant in a truck.

Pickets Upset Truck

Pickets rushed the truck and upset it, injuring a number of the occupants.

Several shots were fired, hitting Norwood and two other demonstrators and throwing the pickets, estimated by police at 2,800, into wild excitement.

Strong details of police have been on duty at the mill since a strike started there several weeks ago. More than 200 additional police were rushed to the scene and battled the demonstrators for more than an hour.

Eleven In Hospitals

Eleven persons, including a police sergeant and two women, were taken to hospitals and a number of other persons, said to have been occupants of the truck, were less seriously hurt.

The question of union recognition is the principal obstacle to a settlement of the Cambria strike.

A short time before the shooting seven automobile loads of workers attempted to enter the plant through a side gate, but were met by a barrage of stones and other missiles. Despite the efforts of the police the vehicles were badly damaged.

Economic Struggle Held Equal To War

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 31 (AP)—The struggle to restore economic equilibrium is as grim and as real as any war, Col. Paul V. McNutt, governor of Indiana, told the Young Democrats clubs of America in the keynote address before their national convention here today.

"It calls for the same unselfish service, energy, intelligence, and solidarity; it requires the same willingness to give all that we are and all that we hope to be without thought of reward save the accomplishment of high purposes," said the former national commander of the American Legion.

August Results Counted By NRA

DRIVE IS STARTED TO OPEN UP JOBS FOR MORE UNEMPLOYED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Hugh S. Johnson and his Recovery administrators counted August employment gains under the blue eagle today and launched a new effort to open the doors of factories, mines and stores to an even greater number of idle in September.

Their immediate problems were the speedy formulation of permanent codes of competition for bituminous coal operators and the retail trade—affecting more than a million workers—and the question of bringing Henry Ford and his huge plants within the scope of the automobile agreement.

Ten Millions Aided

Recapitulating August activities in President Roosevelt's drive to stimulate employment and purchasing power before winter sets in, the NRA chieftains found that eighteen permanent codes and 240 temporary trade pacts had been approved, bringing upwards of 10,000,000 workers under shorter hours and higher minimum wage agreements.

Simultaneously, Johnson was confronted with a demand by labor's chief spokesman—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor—that even shorter

Wholesale Prices Reveal An Increase

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—After weeks of steady decline, an upswing in the wholesale prices on farm and food products for the week ended August 26, paved the way today for an increase in the general wholesale price level for the week.

The bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor today placed the index of the general level of wholesale prices for the period at 69.6, as compared with 69.3 for the preceding week.

The figures are based on average prices for the year 1926 as 100.

Farm products, after declining from 59.6 to 57.5 during the four preceding weeks, stepped back to a 58.2 level.

CAMPAIGN FOR RECOVERY IS LAUNCHED

OVER 250 CIVIC AND BUSINESS LEADERS CONDUCT CANVASS

Harking back to World war days when patriotic citizens marshaled forces for Liberty Loan drives, more than 250 civic leaders and business men, soldiers in the NRA army of Lubbock, were tramping the streets of the downtown section today, enlisting employers under the sign of the Blue Eagle in President Roosevelt's war on depression.

Gathering in the ballroom of the Hilton hotel at 9 o'clock this morning, 25 NRA campaign captains and their companies of eight or more men heard plans for the campaign outlined and immediately set out to "get Lubbock under the Blue Eagle by Labor Day." Squads of men were visiting business firms this morning, filling out questionaires on the NRA, aiding those not signed up to iron out their difficulties and enlisting downtown consumers in the NRA Consumers pledge.

Women Take Part

Following canvass of business firms, women of the city under the direction of Mrs. H. F. Godeke, lieutenant-general of the local NRA drive, will start out forces of Lubbock women to sign up housewives in the consumers pledge in a house-to-house campaign.

With A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, explaining details of the campaign after General Sam C. Arnett had spoken briefly and Mrs. Godeke had told of the women's part, workers joined the drive more than 100 per cent and immediately set out on the drive which is expected to close this afternoon.

In order that no hardships will be suffered by firms not yet signed under the NRA agreement, the house-to-house canvass of housewives will be delayed until Saturday, it was stated in the meeting, thereby giving every merchant and employer a chance to get his Blue

A Cauliflower Bouquet For Your Vegetable Dinner

By NEA Service

Cold vegetable plates are about the nicest things you can serve on a hot, midsummer day. Vegetables supply enough nourishment for the body, but do not overtax the stomach.

Vegetable plates are best served on one large platter, placed right on the table. Everybody helps himself. A few fresh vegetables with an appetizing dressing, crisp rolls and some kind of a sweet dessert constitutes a whole meal.

Your lettuce must be crisp and cold. After washing, wrap it in a clean cloth and put it in the ice box until you are ready to prepare the platter of cold vegetables. In this way it is sure to be crisp and fairly dry. Lettuce, dripping with water, will spoil the appearance of the salad and dilute the salad dressing.

If you plan to serve a cold vegetable platter for lunch, get your vegetables all cleaned and cooked in the early hours of the morning before the kitchen gets unbearably hot.

Here's what you'll need for a vegetable luncheon. Other vegetables can, of course, be substituted for the one listed here.

One large tomato, 3 tablespoons of diced chicken and celery salad, 1 large head of cauliflower (quartered), 2 whole beets, 6 fresh asparagus tips, lettuce, sweet pepper and chopped egg for garnish.

On a platter lined with lettuce, place a peeled fresh tomato stuffed with diced chicken and celery mixed with a teaspoon of mayonnaise.

At each end put a bundle of three fresh asparagus tips covered with a ring of sweet green pepper. Around the tomato place a fan of sliced beets topped with the quartered cauliflower bouquet. This recipe serves two people adequately.

You can serve vegetable luncheons again and again if you vary the salad dressings from time to time. Here's the way they make a nice dressing at the Half Moon:

Into a bowl put two tablespoons of prepared mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon of chili sauce, one-four teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and 1 tablespoon of whipped cream. Stir the ingredients until they are evenly blended and serve ice cold in a bowl.

Egyptians Aim At Crime Prevention

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Aug. 31—(AP)—"Prevention is better than cure" is the slogan of the minister of the interior who hopes that by training the rising generation to be good citizens, the tendency for crime will be diminished.

The minister, Mahmoud Fahmi El-Keissy Pasha, is drawing up plans whereby orphans and children of penniless parents will be educated in government homes and given employment when they attain a suitable age.

Japs Go To Brazil For Colonization

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 31 (AP)—Almost every Japanese ship this year brings several hundred Nipponese immigrants, all of them with a rudimentary knowledge of Portuguese and Brazilian customs.

The Japanese colonization society, which holds a contract to bring a total of 25,000 Japanese settlers this year, gives the immigrants a fortnight's schooling before they sail for Brazil. During the ocean trip, classes are held aboard ship.

As many as 1,200 come at a time, most of the immigrants disembarking in Santos, for settlement in the interior of Sao Paulo. The Japanese engage successfully in coffee growing, cotton and rice raising and tea planting. The tea industry is new, but several plantations are about to enter the production stage.

PARIS (AP)—Furs are among the first notes in the winter book of styles.

Besides the lavishly-furred coats shown by leading designers, scores of short fur wraps, jackets, muffs and waistcoats are displayed. Some of the short fur wraps are designed to wear only with a frock, others can be slipped on over a coat, but all are fashioned with an eye to the elegance Paris has decreed for 1934.

Many Kinds Of Pelts

There is a wider variety of pelts than has been shown in many years. Foxes of every variety—silver, blue, stone, brown and dyed navy blue—share honors with lynx, astrakhan, beaver, broadtail, galyak, mink, sable, seal, pony, Indian lamb, leopard, panther and ermine.

Silver fox capes, fashioned in the height of luxurious elegance, are foremost in the short wrap mode.

They are designed of four or five pelts, two over the shoulders and two or three around the arms, and are ready to be worn from October to April.

Waist-length jackets, sometimes with long and sometimes with elbow-length sleeves designed of flat pelts such as astrakhan, galyak or seal, are another noteworthy item.

Waistcoats Stylish

Little fur waistcoats of black seal, gray galyak or brown Indian lamb give a fashionable fillip to many woolen ensembles.

Muffs are everywhere. This year's design is a larger and more expensive version than last year's little melon model, however. It varies from a flat kangaroo pouch to a big pillow design and is made of fluffy fox pelts as well as broadtail, galyak, astrakhan or seal.

Paris shows luxurious for capes among its 1934 autumn and winter styles. Heim designs this model of four silver foxes with the upper two arranged to give shoulder width and the four heads coming together in front.

DRY LAW REPEAL

These nine include Kansas and Louisiana.

Governor Landon has called a special session of the Kansas legislature to meet in September, and probably a voting day will be set during the present year. Governor O. K. Allen of Louisiana has stated he also would call a special session. Should both these states vote this year, only about 10,000,00 of the population would not have been given an opportunity to ballot on repeal during this period.

Here are the election days already established during the next 10 weeks:

Vermont, Sept. 5; Maine, Sept. 11; Colorado, Maryland and Minnesota, Sept. 12; Idaho and New Mexico, Sept. 19; Virginia, Oct. 3; Florida, Oct. 10; North and South Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah and Kentucky (tentative), Nov. 7.

The young man is survived by his widow and a daughter, Nora Dell, 15 months old; his mother, Mrs. R. F. Fisher, one brother, H. L. Fisher, Oklahoma City; and three sisters, Mrs. J. E. Wright, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Elizabeth Conner and Mrs. Ruby Borders, both of Lubbock.

BERLE TO GET CUBAN POST

FDR ADVISER WILL BE FINANCIAL EXPERT FOR EMBASSY

BY SAM BLEDSOE
Associated Press Staff Writer
(Copyright, 1933, by The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Adolf A. Berle, jr., one of President Roosevelt's professional advisers, virtually has been decided upon as the financial expert to assist the American embassy in working out plans for Cuban economic rehabilitation. The announcement that Berle, one time law teacher at Columbia, assigned financial advisor to the embassy is expected within the next few days.

Berle is acting as legal adviser to the farm adjustment administration on the proposed sugar stabilization agreement and only yesterday domestic cane sugar refineries requested that he be removed.

rejudice Claimed

They charged that Berle was prejudiced in favor of refining interests in Cuba and cited the former professor's association with Charles W. Taussig, whom they asserted had an interest in refineries on the island.

It was understood however, that President Roosevelt has already tentatively approved Berle's designation as the Havana embassy's financial adviser and that the attack by domestic cane interests had caused no change in plans.

Berle is to work with Jefferson Caffery, ambassador designate to Cuba, who will succeed Sumner Welles, when the latter returns to his post as assistant secretary of state, Caffery's rank now.

Knows Conditions

Berle has an intimate knowledge of sugar, the central factor in Cuba's economic affairs. He also has first hand knowledge of conditions on the island, gained during a visit there with Taussig.

They reported the result of that survey to President Roosevelt and it is credited with having shaped the administration's attitude during the turmoil which led to the flight of former President Machado.

The appointment of Berle would be a part of the general plan that is being considered by the administration to help Cuba. The tentative selection of a man who has aided in framing general administration policies was taken as a further, indication of the chief executives keen interest in the island's welfare.

To Consider Debts

One of the things upon which Berle will center, in the event he is sent to Havana as is expected, would be Cuba's large external funded indebtedness, estimated at about $145,000,000. Dwindling tax collections have caused doubt as to the future ability of the country to pay on securities, many of which are American owned.

Berle may be a factor in shaping the administration's decision with regard to a lowering of the duty of Cuban sugar or an expansion in the quota of 1,750,000 tons annually that has been tentatively allotted under the stabilization agreement.

Neuritis Sufferers

"Dear Sirs: I was so crippled with neuritis all down left side of my head and arm and both knees so swollen that I could hardly get up and down. At times my feet pained so badly I thought my toes would break off. I tried everything. The doctor told me I would be no better while I lived here but I stopped in a drug store in Brooklyn, N. Y., one day last November and the man in charge told me to take Kruschen for 3 weeks steady and I would get relief which I did. Never felt better and along with it, have lost weight. I weighed 210 then. Now I weigh 154 and while I'm over 50 yrs. old I feel 30. I took it for one thing—got two—so I now have 6 others here taking it," Mrs. A. V. Carr, Ft. Tilden, N. Y.

"It's the little daily dose that does it" so take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast. Get Kruschen at Mark Halsey Drug or any live druggist in the world—a jar lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle. adv.

TEXAN LAST ONE TO WARRANT GOLD CARNEGIE AWARD

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 31 (AP)—Nearly ten years ago the widow of Charles Coe, a driller, received a gold medal from the Carnegie hero fund. Coe died trying to save two children from a burning Texas shack.

Three times a year the hero fund commission, in its 23rd floor Pittsburgh office, sits in judgment on personal bravery. Since 1923, the date on Coe's medal, the commission has awarded to no person the highest honor it bestows. Coe's was the last.

Since the fund was established by Andrew Carnegie 29 years ago, 2,691 medals have been awarded. Of these 2,128 were of bronze, 544 of silver, and 19 of gold.

Coe's sacrifice was marked by a circumstance common to almost every act of heroism for which gold medals have been struck off. Fully realizing his danger he persisted in trying to save human life under perils which another refused to risk.

Knowing that two children were trapped in a smoke-filled bedroom in Burkburnett, Texas, Coe groped his way into the dwelling with a companion, who left after pulling Coe around to view the flames seeping through the walls.

Coe jerked away and turned back to the bed. He found the children and shoved one of them, alive, through a door panel to safety. He died with the other in his arms.

Announce Plan For Giving Away Meat

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. (AP)—Plans for giving millions of dollars worth of meat to the states to feed the hungry were announced today by the federal relief administration.

At the same time C. M. Bookman, assistant relief administrator, predicted the need for jobless aid would be considerbly less during the approaching winter than now.

Bookman disclosed that meat from the millions of pigs and sows the government is buying in its campaign to relieve the hog market would be distributed to the states free in addition to their allotments from the $500,000,000 unemployment aid fund.

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Marty Fiedler is back in Lubbock.

Some of you remember meeting Marty. Others recall newspaper editions in which his name figured prominently. Marty Fiedler (not Fielder or Fiddler) came here early this spring in an effort to organize a West Texas professional baseball league, of which Lubbock was to be a member.

We all know the resounding flop which followed, with Lubbock figuring most prominently. Marty had been here several times, spending good time and money in an effort to "line up Lubbock" as a league baseball town. But that's ancient history. Fiedler is back with us, coming here from Amarillo yesterday where he testified in the district courtroom there in connection with Jerry Malin's damage suit against the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago White Sox. Former president, owner and manager of the Albuquerque Dons in the Texas-Arizona and proposed West Texas-New Mexico leagues, Fiedler reports he has severed connections at the New Mexico metropolis.

Baseball wasn't all of Fiedler's business at Albuquerque. He was boxing and wrestling promoter the last two seasons, and, next to baseball, loves the fight game with everything he has. Just what he plans to do here remains to be seen, but it shouldn't surprise this department if we had to mention the name of Fiedler quite frequently from now on. Discouraged and disappointed, of course, but unashamed, Fiedler may have something to say about Lubbock's baseball next spring. By this time he should be convinced that Lubbock isn't much of a baseball town, but he seems to have a peculiar faith in the increase of Lubbock's faithful few. Marty may be accorded considerable sporting news space for reasons other than baseball, too.

Although the season is young, they're already started the old psychology stuff up at Amarillo. They're going around with long faces, wagging heads and looked-down noses. "... Too bad for Blair Cherry and Amarillo high. . . look at that little squad. . . only 35 of 'em, and none over 160 pounds heavy. . . line ought to average 155 or 160. . . backfield about 140. . . tsk! tsk. . . . too bad . . . why, Lubbock'll go farther than Amarillo in the district race. . . . and Pampa'll win the championship. . . poorest prospects in years . . ."—that's the talk you hear around and about on Amarillo's streets these days.

We haven't made a close inspection of the Lubbock Westerners yet but a casual glance shows that some psychology or sumpin' should be worked on the Chappo-men. Either that or some black magic worked on the Westerner opponents when they tangle up. Chapman and Huffman are not singing the blues very loudly because they never do—they realize, however, that they've got a very tough sapling to saw.

ALLEN, MUNN, BUSSEY AND BIHL FIGHT FOR REMAINING PLACES

Second round matches are due to be concluded today in the City Open golf tournament at Meadowbrook, clearing the way for semi-final matches tomorrow and Saturday. Meadowbrook is the scene of competition through Saturday, the remaining golfers moving to Lubbock Country club Sunday for 36-hole finals in all flights.

More than half the second round matches were played yesterday, and the day saw two crack shots enter the semi-final round in the championship flight. The other two are due to play second round matches today. Bays Bryant, tournament medalist, fired a snappy 67—three under par—to defeat T. H. Buckingham, another Country club first flighter, 2 and 1, in one second round match. In another, Cotton McAfee defeated Buster Fluke, 4 and 3.

Buckingham Breaks Par

Buckingham made it tough on the medalist, shooting a 69 to shave par by a stroke and making it necessary for Bryant to scrape three strokes from perfect figures. McAfee had less trouble with Fluke, but carded a round bordering closely on par golf.

Hot Foursome Today

The other two places in the semi-finals were to be established today when Manson Allen and Clinton Bussey, both of Meadowbrook, meet in a second round match in the upper bracket and John D. Munn, Country club ace, takes on Joe Bihl, sensational shooter from Meadowbrook's caddy ranks.

Allen, Bussey, Bihl and Munn were to play in a foursome today, beginning at 1:30 o'clock. A large gallery was expected to follow the matches at Meadowbrook. On Friday or Saturday, McAfee will meet the winner of the Allen-Bussey match and Bryant will tackle the winner of the Munn-Bihl scramble.

Consolations Played

Three first round consolations matches in the championship flight were decided yesterday. John Edmisson, who lost to Allen Tuesday, won over Carl Nail, loser to Bussey, by default, and Jo Dick Slaughter, loser to Bihl, won the same way over Alfred Holton. Sid Thrash defeated Roy Hall, 1 up, 19 holes. Francis Finberg and Howell Young are scheduled to meet today in a first round consolation match.

Three second flight matches were completed yesterday, leaving only one semi-final vacancy. Otis Felty defeated V. O. Jennings, 2 up; Ted Tipps, Country club team captain, won over Weldon Counts, 1 up, 21 holes, and Lee Jones had to go to the 20th hole before eliminating Ross McWhorter, 1 up. Charles Moore and D. A. Dowell are scheduled to play a second round match today.

Three consolation matches were completed in the second flight. Howard McIlroy won over Frank Wright by default; Jess Lockhart defeated Guy Minatra, 2 up, and O. K. O'Kelly downed J. W. Branch, 2 up.

F. L. McRee and Windy Watkins advanced to the semi-final round in the third flight, McRee defeating S. I. Fluke, 4 and 2, while Watkins was winning a 2 and 1 victory over Bill Briscoe. Bill Honey meets Bob Harvey, and Sandlin takes on Chandler in first round matches today. In the consolations of the flight, W. D. Girand, sr., defeated Jay Harston, 5 and 4 and Ed Hambright beat Seth Bertram, 3 and 2; McGee won over W. F. Helwig by default.

All second round matches in the fourth flight were played yesterday, bringing the field to the semi-final round for Friday and Saturday play. A. C. Jackson won over Lefty Bettes, 1 up; Rufus Bradshaw downed J. B. Acton, 5 and 3; N. L. Ball eliminated Anthony Borho, 5 and 4 and Bagwell downed McCarty, 2 and 1. No consolations were played yesterday in this flight. The pairings are: Patterson vs. Shepard; Brown vs. Parris; Alls vs. Mowery and Heard vs. Looney.

TWO GAMES TODAY IN SOFTBALL LOOP

The National league is idle today, but two games are scheduled in the American softball organization. A. W. McKee company meets Weiss-Truck terminal at the Ave. R field and Huie-Ribble tackles Lubbock Compress at the Ave. K park.

Three contests were played yesterday with Quicksall-Pryor, Lubbock Compress and Avalanche-Journal teams emerging victorious.

Including three circuit blows in their attack, the Compress team defeated the Weiss-Truck terminal outfit, 10 to 8. H. Freeland knocked two home runs and McClure batted out one.

Quicksall-Pryor scored two runs in the first inning and the Federal Employees tallied three times, but that was all the government boys got and the auto parts clubs banged out a 7 to 3 victory.

Gassers Beaten

In the National league, Manager Mickey Henly's Reporters from the Avalanche-Journal defeated the West Texas Gas company, 7 to 6. Although they were outplayed in all departments of the game, the Reporters took advantage of errors in the last inning to come from behind and win the contest. The Gassers scored five times in the sixth. John Scott banged out a homer for the other run. Dick Green clouted a four-bagger for the Reporters.

Yesterday's lineups:

West Texas Gas—Lackey, c; Quinlan, p; McKinney, 1b; Scott, 2b; Aderton, ss; Leach, 3b; McKeever, lf; Hale, rf; Whitis, cf; Bege, ss.

GIANTS CLASH WITH BRAVES IN SERIES

BOSTON HAS HOPES OF OVERCOMING LEAD IN "CRUCIAL" STAND

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's deep passion—a truly "crucial" series—gripped Boston and the National league today as Bill Terry's New York Giants ran their pennant chances into the gauntlet of the second place Braves.

The Giants brought a full six-game lead to Braves field. They play six games in four days, and therein lies Boston's stoutest hopes. Terry's pitching staff has been worked overtime beating off the Cubs, Pirates, and Cardinals for the past two weeks.

Giants Beat Cards

Setting the scene for the start of today's big battle, the Giants outbelted the Cards 5 to 4 yesterday with Hal Schumacher showing signs of wear and tear as he staggered Dizzy Dean. Meanwhile, the Braves, regaining their stride, knocked down the Reds 3 to 2 to even the series as Huck Betts turned in a neat five-hit performance.

St. Louis ran up a lead of 4 to 0 on Schumacher, who was beaten by the Cards Monday, before the Giants' long range guns got into action. Bill Terry hit a home run after Hughie Critz singled for the first hit off Dean in the fourth. Then Mel Ott singled and Lefty O'Doul smashed his 14th homer of the season into the rightfield stands.

Score Winning Run

Dean and Schumacher went along to the ninth, mixing brilliance with wildness but always pulling out of holes. Then in the final half with the bases filled O'Doul rolled to short, Frankie Frisch and Pepper Martin collided trying to field the ball, and the winning run was over.

The impish figure of Walter James Vincent Maranville, going on 42, stuck out all over the Braves conquest of the Reds to even the series. The waggish little man they call "Schoolboy" pumped a single over first to score Pinkey Whitney with the winning run in the ninth.

Pirates Advance

The Pittsburgh Pirates edged into third place by two point margin through taking the fourth straight from the Phillies 5 to 1 while the Cubs split a doubleheader with Brooklyn. Charlie Root edged Hollis Thurston to give the Cubs the first 2 to 1 but Rosy Ryan, in relief, held the Cubs in the second as a rookie shortstop, Linus Frey, drovt in four runs in the Dodger victory 7 to 3.

Ralph Birkofer held the Phillies to four hits to win his second victory for the Pirates since being recalled from the International league.

No games were scheduled in the American league.

STARTS FOURTH TERM AS NATIONAL CHAMP TO EQUAL TILDEN

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 31 (AP)—Short-legged George M. Lott, jr., of Chicago, today started on his fourth term as a national doubles champion, a record equalled only by Bill Tilden since the abandonment of the challenge round, the dividing mark that separates ancient and modern tennis in this country.

Like Tilden, Lott's four titles were won with three partners but George's feat appeared a bit more impressive than that of the Philadelphia super-star, for he teamed up with his latest partner, lanky Lester Stoefen of Los Angeles, only two weeks ago at Newport.

This combination paired at the request of Bernon S. Prentice, U. S. Davis Cup team captain, who has already started planning for next year's international competition.

Stoefen Promising

Although Lott is generally recognized as the world's outstanding doubles player, and Stoefen as one of the most promising of the younger players, they were far from being a well-balanced team yesterday when they gained their titles, held last year by Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, by conquering Frank X. Shields of New York, and Frankie Parker, Milwaukee, 11-13, 9-7, 9-7, 6-3 at Longwood.

It required all of Lott's uncanny finesse and amazing steadiness to keep the erratic Stoefen from tossing away the match during his numerous wild streaks, during which he piled up the surprising total of 80 errors. Their prospects appeared extremely slim when the two Franks won the long first-set battle.

FINDS SOGDIAN WRITING

LENINGRAD (AP)—A report to the Academy of Sciences says that a manuscript in the Sogdian language, probably 1,200 years old, has been found in Vanzaminorsk, central Asia, seat of the ancient Sogdian race. The find is 23 lines on a piece of Chinese paper which appears to have been torn from a scroll.

"Might As Well Hang Up Spikes"

"I CAN'T SIGN UP AS PLAYER NEXT YEAR—THE LEGS WON'T STAND IT—I AM THROUGH," SAYS THE MIGHTY BABE

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—The habit of writing finis to Babe Ruth's baseball career, a popular winter pastime for years, now has extended to the home run king himself.

"I guess I might as well hang up my spikes," he said mournfully last night. "I can't sign up as a player next year. The legs won't stand it. I might get by at first base, but not in the outfield. I'm through."

While the boys have been guessing him into the management of either the White Sox or the Red Sox next season, Ruth knows nothing about it.

"That's up to several other people besides myself," he said. "I'm still the property of the Yankees if another club wanted me for manager, they would have to make some sort of a deal with Col. Ruppert. It's up to the owners of the other clubs. I haven't been approached, even unofficially, by anyone."

The Babe then had another idea.

"Maybe I'll just voluntarily retire for a year. I could stand a long vacation and then see how things work out in 1935."

He'd like to go to Bermuda and Mrs. Ruth would prefer Europe. The Babe guessed they'd probably compromise on Europe.

McKechnie Signs Up Five-Year Contract

BOSTON, Aug. 31 (AP) — Emil Fuchs, president of the up-and-coming Boston Braves, has announced that Manager Bill McKechnie had signed a new five-year contract.

McKechnie, when he came to the Braves four years ago, told Fuchs he would need at least that much time to reorganize the club on a winning basis. He signed his new contract on the eve of the Braves' crucial series with the top place New York Giants.

Nelson Again Wins In Swim Marathon

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 31 (AP)—Winning Canada's annual 15-mile swim in Lake Ontario, was getting to be a habit today with Marvin Nelson, brawny distance champion from Fort Dodge, Ia.

He won the event for the second time yesterday, becoming the first man in the history of the grind to repeat. And in the bargain he clipped more than 19 minutes from the course record by ploughing the distance in seven hours, 37 2-5 seconds.

There are 86 paper and pulp mills in the south, with an annual capacity of more than a million and a quarter tons of paper and boards.

TULSA OILERS BEAT STEERS TWO GAMES

DALLAS IS SENT BACK TO FOURTH PLACE IN STANDINGS

(By The Associated Press)

The Tulsa Oilers put the skids under the Dallas Steers again Wednesday night, walloping them in both games of a double header. The twin victory made it three straight for Tulsa, Dallas having taken a lacing in the series opener Tuesday.

As a result, the Steers found themselves in fourth place in team standings and faced with a necessity of snapping out of their slump or possibly losing their chance of being in the pennant playoff. San Antonio moved up into third place and Beaumont, four and a half games behind the Steers, was trying desperately to reach the first division before Labor day.

Steer Errors Costly

In the first game the Oilers pounded Whitehead and Erickson for a dozen hits to win easily, 9 to 1. The Steers helped things along by making four errors. Beside that, the Steers could do practically nothing with Charlie Wood's pitching. He held them to three hits.

The Steers put up a fight in the second game but Tulsa nosed them out in the last inning. Tulsa gained a big advantage by piling up four runs in the fourth inning. The Steers tied the score in their half of the seventh after rallying for three runs in the sixth. Then Tulsa put over the winning run in their half of the inning.

The only other game played Wednesday night was between Fort Worth and Oklahoma City, the Cats taking it, 4 to 2, behind the six-hit pitching of White. Fort Worth connected with fourteen hits off Matuzak and Benton.

Wet grounds caused postponement of the Houston game at Beaumont and the Galveston game at San Antonio. Double headers were scheduled at both cities for Thursday.

Forty Football Candidates Out

INEXPERIENCED SQUAD GETS FIRST WORKOUT HERE WEDNESDAY

Candidates for the 1933 Lubbock High school football team frolicked about the Fair Park practice field yesterday afternoon in the first official workout of the season.

Coaches Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman looked on and wondered . . . wondered if they could build a team with that bunch of youngsters whose previous experience is limited almost entirely to freshman and second string practice and play. But the coaches didn't take much time out for wondering. They jumped in the huddle and gave orders, and the first practice got under way.

Forty Hopefuls Report

More than 40 moleskin-clad youngsters skirted around the field, then formed a big circle for a session of calisthenics. Following this, the squad was divided, linemen going one way, backs another.

Five new candidates reported for the first time yesterday, swelling the total enrollment to 41. Thirty-six reported Tuesday for uniforms. It was thought that the squad would be increased to 50 by next week.

Unknown Qualities

There is quantity, to be sure, but it's the quality that's bothering the coaches. They know very little about the majority of the candidates. Only five or six came within their vision last year, and the coaches have a lot of good will work to do. Getting acquainted with the strangers in moleskins is the job for the next few days.

Chapman, who coaches the linemen, followed warm-up exercises yesterday with instructions and some practice on blocking. At the other end of the field, Burl Huffman, assistant coach, was running his backfield prospects through a series of side-stepping, hip-shifting movements calculated to assist the youngsters in gaining the knack of evading tacklers.

Those who reported for the first time yesterday were Waymond Newton, Howell Young, Charles Lamb, Delbert Vaughn and Wayne Smith. Of these, Newton is the only one who received any notice last year. As an end for the Cowhand team, he became somewhat popular. He was shifted to the backfield during spring training, and probably will stay there. Young, bronzed and hardened, may be the man Chapman is looking for to replace Robert Dowell, who had been counted upon as a center. Dowell's recent ankle injury will prevent his playing. The others are newcomers, and will be making their first bids for Westerner popularity.

Practice continues today and every day this week. Chapman said the two-a-day practice probably would start next Monday.

"Dizzy's" Brother Signed Up By Cards

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31 (AP)—Paul Dean, strikeout king of the American association and "kid" brother of "Dizzy" Dean, spectacular Cardinal hurler, has just been bought by the St. Louis National league ball club from its Columbus farm for delivery next spring.

Acquisition of the 20-year-old hurler was announced last night by Branch Rickey, vice-president of the Cardinals, who said nearly every major league club was after the services of Dean.

HISTORY IS IN THE MAKING AS THE NEW DEAL SWINGS ALONG

REPORTER'S NOTES OF TODAY ARE HISTORY BY TOMORROW

BY BYRON PRICE
(Chief Of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

IN these times of touch-and-go at Washington, when so many vast enterprises are afoot and today's news has receded into the dim past by tomorrow, the reporter's scrapbook is crammed with random footnotes to history-in-the-making.

Strangely, the cabinet officer who was least known when he was appointed has become the most conspicuous. All Secretary Ickes has to do is to boss the Interior department, rule the tempestuous oil industry, spend $3,300,000,000 on public works and a few other things. Every day brings new evidence how greatly he is trusted by the White House. . . The politicians are just getting it through their heads that the real patronage dispenser of the administration is Franklin D. Roosevelt. Day after day Postmaster General Farley has taken lists of prospective appointees to the executive offices and has gone away again with the slate still clear of action. . . . Railroad Coordinator Eastman, finding many avenues of consolidation closed by the law's stipulation that no laborer can be discharged, is spending some of his spare time considering what new rail legislation should be passed. Such a bill now seems certain of a place on the calendar of the January session.

Hull Scores One

Secretary Hull's closing speech at the London conference made a strong impression in Washington, where most of his colleagues feel he has endured many dissappointments with great patience. Long beforehand he was assured a warm welcome home. . . As details of the Hull-Moley relations at London percolate across the Atlantic the impression grows that Dr. Moley's days in the state department are about over, but that he will be transferred to some other post where he can continue in the close confidence of the President. . . Gen. Hugh Johnson and his deputies have a clever way of deciding the question "When is a code not a code?" Business groups may think they have submitted trade agreements, but until the administrators consider the offering in shape for a hearing they deny any "code" is in . . . Few government agencies ever began life with such a shining set of ideals as the Tennessee Valley Authority, created to take over Muscle Shoals and develop industrially a large part of the south. Chairman Morgan declares men with political involvements are not wanted as employes and inquires searchingly about educational back grounds and social-mindedness.

Persuasion Is Used

Who has a harder job than Chairman Stevenson of the home loan board? To make the new law a success he and his assistants must persuade holders of 6 per cent mortgages to exchange them for 4 per cent bonds. Thus far the response is not overwhelming. . . . Farm Administrator Peek has heard the rise in wheat prices was not an unmixed blessing. Farmers in some sections got the idea they would get a government bounty automatically and prepared to collect the money and then sow all the wheat they could. It's taking a lot of work to straighten this out. . . Reports that Secretary Woodin of the treasury will resign this fall have reached the stage where there is wide speculation as to his successor. Much mentioned is Senator Couzens of Michigan, but no decision has been reached. . . . Budget Director Douglas also is mentioned, but his insistence on expense cuts has stirred up a lot of people against him. He foresaw this when he took office.

"In every administration," he said then, "there must be one martinet, and I'm it." (Only the word he used was much stronger.)

Says Oil Increase Is Not High Enough

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—D. J. Moran, president of the Continental Oil company, declared in a statement today that the 10-cent a barrel price increase on midcontinent and Texas crude initiated this week by the Standard Oil company of New Jersey subsidiaries "is not high enough."

"It is regrettable that leaders in the last price advance seemingly hold the opinion that a ten-cent advance will be enough to meet the code provisions as to hours of labor and employment without evasion," he said. "This company is making effective all provisions of the oil code and on September 2 it will give consideration to a more adequate price for crude, unless it has been fixed by the president prior to that time."

CITIES ARE ZONED

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Most American cities of more than 25,000 inhabitants now have zoning regulations. The 1932 roster of zoned cities drawn up by the department of commerce shows 1,236 municipalities in this class.

RAISES SUBMARINE TOMB

KRONSTDAT, U. S. S. R. (AP)—The soviet training submarine, No. 9, which sank in May, 1931, with all hands, has been raised from the Gulf of Finland and towed here. The bodies of the crew of 21 were buried with full naval honors.

'Gin Marriage' Law Void After Today

Texas' "gin marriage" license law goes off the books tomorrow, and persons may secure marriage licenses on application, County Clerk Ed Allen said.

Since June, 1929, when the state law requiring a three-day notice of intention went into effect, New Mexico and Oklahoma towns began reaping a harvest from Texas couples going there to be married.

APPLICATIONS DOCKETED

PUBLIC WORKS BOARD CONSIDERS PROJECTS WORTH $10,000,000

FORT WORTH, Aug. 31 (AP) — Formal applications totaling nearly $10,000,000 Wednesday were docketed for consideration by the Texas public works advisory board, bringing the day's total to $32,205,505.

The largest single request under the P. W. A. program on the first day of business was $2,600,000 for the Red Bluff water control district in Reeves, Loving, Ward and Pecos counties, for a water storage reservoir and an electric plant.

Amarillo Asks Loan

Amarillo applied for $170,000 to extend the water supply. Applications totaling $1,237,000 from Austin were filed, of which $1,003,000 was for enlargement and improvement of the water, light and power plant, the loan to be retired in ten years from the income of the plant. Most of the applications provide for retirement of the obligation through bonds or warrants to be paid through taxation.

Galveston county, however, is prepared to put up the cash for its share of the cost of completing a sea wall at Texas City, if the federal government will make a grant of 30 per cent—$37,050, said the application.

Maverick county water control and improvement district No. 1, is asking $1,853,926 for reconstruction after flood damage and construction of 46 miles of irrigation canal. Cameron county water improvement district No. 8 has spent $538,905 and desires $404,752 to complete an irrigation system.

Others Not Docketed

The 94 projects that were docketed do not represent all the applications that have been received.

Aplications docketed were:

CLAIRE WINDSOR TESTIFIES SHE WAS DECEIVED BY BROKER; TELLS OF KISS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP)—Claire Windsor, actress, says she allowed her acquaintance with handsome Alfred C. Read to blossom into a love affair because she believed the broker's statement that he was unmarried.

The assertion was made in testimony in the alienation of affections trial in which Mrs. Marian Read, former wife of the Oakland, Calif., business man, seeks $100,000 from Miss Windsor. The actress had only begun her story when court adjourned yesterday.

Miss Windsor testified her romance with Read progressed on a transcontinental train as it rolled through the farm lands of Kansas and as she and Read sat on the observation platform during "a gorgeous moonlight night."

The actress said she was walking on a desert railroad station platform during a stop when Read introduced himself and asked if she would play bridge. She was willing.

Read, Miss Windsor intimated, was a fast worker. The next night—"a gorgeous moonlit night somewhere in Kansas"—he kissed her as they stood on the observation car platform.

"I pushed him away the first time," she said.

"But you were not resentful after the first kiss?" the plaintiff's counsel asked.

"No," the actress replied.

"They were very affectionate kisses?"

"Yes."

NEWSPAPER SAYS HUEY OVERLOOKED AIM OF ADDRESS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 31 (AP)—The Milwaukee Journal, which with other local newspapers was verbally flayed by Senator Huey Long of Louisiana on his visit here, today reminded him he had overlooked the chief purpose of his address to the Veterns of Foreign Wars.

He had intended to invite the convention to New Orleans next year but apparently in the ire that curiosity over a scar above his eye invoked that detail slipped his mind, the paper said. It added that delegates from Louisville, also planning to invite the veterans, were jubilant.

The Sentinel admitted "it received with lifted eyebrows the senator's fantastic explanation (of the scar) that he was the victim of a gang attack" but said it trusted he had been "sufficiently refreshed by his northern trip to return with renewed vigor to the conflicts with the various enemies who seem to be forever camping on his trail."

The Wisconsin-News regretted that the senator did not remain to contribute to the "levity of the veterans' convention." It stated that one of the photographers removed from the municipal auditorium at Senator Long's request was a war veteran, and "his war wasn't fought in a washroom."

CODE PROFITS GROWERS

SAN JOSE, Cal. (AP) —California this season is harvesting 23,188 acres of tomatoes of an estimated market value of $3,242,880. The NRA code-increased price of 25 per cent means an added profit of more than half a million to growers.

Tree Filling Out Hundred-Year Hoop

CHAGRIN FALLS, O., Apg. 31 (AP) —Year by year a tree in the village park of Chagrin Falls is vindicating the judgment of Henry Church, blacksmith-sculptor, whose carved stone animal figures stood in front of his shop for many years.

Around the tree is an iron ring, placed there by Church in 1873, bearing the inscription "Please let me be, upon this tree, until a century I shall see."

Church estimated the size the tree would be in 100 years, and made the ring to fit. The hoop is being filled out gradually.

What causes blow-outs

When the speedometer reads 40, 50 and 60—mile after mile . . . the heat inside the tire carcass becomes terrific. Rubber and fabric begin to separate. A blister starts . . . inside the tire where you can't see it . . . And grows . . . Until BANG! A blow-out!

Every new Goodrich Safety Silvertown has the amazing Life-Saver Golden Ply. This invention resists terrific heat — rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form inside the tire. Blow-outs are prevented by overcoming the very cause of blow-outs before they start.

Thought For Today

Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.—Proverbs. 10:9.

* * *

It is a statistical fact that the wicked work harder to reach hell than the righteous do to enter heaven.—H. W. Shaw.

Fewer Hogs

When the French peasants were unendurably oppressed by the depression which brought on the French revolution, they started cutting the throats of their landlords. So did the farmers of Russia when the hard times of 1917 led to a revolution.

And in America today the farmers, desperately trying to get out of the pit of hard times, are also starting to cut throats. They are beginning to cut the throats—of 5,000,000 hogs, under Uncle Sam's supervision.

The parallel between these cases isn't so far-fetched as you might think. If the French and Russian governments had had the sense to try some agricultural relief scheme such as this current hog-butchering plan, they might have prevented a whole lot of trouble.

"Model Prisons"

Some time ago New York state spent a good deal of money on a model prison—an institution out in the open country, without walls or iron bars, very different from the ordinary penitentiary. It was hoped that it could be a place for the rehabilitation of young criminals.

Right now the state is somewhat disturbed because certain convicts who have a good deal of political influence are getting transferred to that prison from such places as Sing Sing and Dannemora. The most recent transfer is that of a former deputy county treasurer, who was sent up a couple of months ago for going south with $248,000 of county funds.

And right here you have a pretty good explanation of the widespread public hostility to "model prison" schemes. A model prison that is actually used to reform young criminals is a good thing; one that merely serves as a comfortable refuge for crooks who have a drag is something entirely different. Until that sort of thing ends the public will continue to look on prison reform movements with suspicion.

California's governor refused to approve state income tax law on ground it was "unsound in principle." No doubt Californians received this news with a great deal of interest.

Flapper Fanny

Some girls are more concerned over bows than beaux.

The PLAINSMAN Says:

That Girl on Broadway says the kind of a person to marry is one you can learn to love after you get through "being in love."

* * *

"Doughboys" is an excellent name except they weren't the ones who got the dough.

JUST the other day a reader of this column wrote a letter to The Plainsman charging that "the Associated Press is evidently controlled by the breweries".

Every once in awhile in a hot political campaign the Associated Press is charged with being 'controlled' by some individual, party or clique, and since that does not happen perhaps readers of newspapers would like to know a little more about the organization which gives them at least 60 percent of their news.

Probably the first big cooperative organization, the Associated Press has been disseminating news at home and abroad for something like 35 years.

It is just what the name implies—a press organization made up of its members. Incorporated under the laws of New York, Associated Press is not a profit-sharing organization. It gets all its money for operating expenses from its members in regular assessments and is not allowed to make a profit.

PRACTICALLY all the leading papers of the country are members of the Associated Press and one executive on each paper is designated as the member to represent his paper.

Because of that fact it is easily discernible that Associated Press cannot be 'controlled' by any group, political or otherwise.

Some Associated Press members are Protestants, some are Catholics and some are Jews.

Some are Democrats, some Republicans, some Socialists, some are independent politically.

And, of course, some are dry and some are wet.

The Hearst papers, for instance, are committed to repeal of the 18th amendment. There are 26 Associated Press members in the Hearst chain.

The Gannett string of more than a dozen Eastern metropolitan papers are committed to prohibition and every one of them are members of the Associated Press.

Those are just two examples of differing opinions among members of the organization and disprove any charge that "the breweries control" the Associated Press.

IN the state of Texas there is no leading paper not a member of the organization.

The Dallas News is for prohibition; the Houston Chronicle is against it.

And that's about the way it works all along the line.

Simply because Associated Press reports go to millions of readers with differing views along all public questions, the organization must be fair and neutral in its news reports.

If it weren't it couldn't exist.

And for more than 30 years the Associated Press has been by a great majority the most successful, most powerful and best news disseminating organization the world has ever seen.

"By The Associated Press" on a news story is like "sterling on silver" and the general public, through many years of reading Associated Press dispatches, has learned as much.

AVALANCHE-JOURNAL papers are proud of their membership in Associated Press, proud of their connection with scores of great papers such as the New York Times, the Chicago Tribune and many other leaders in the field of the public prints.

The Associated Press is a vital part of Lubbock's newspapers and through its fair and impartial reports the people of this city and section twice daily keep in touch with all the news the world over.

There is nothing else like the Associated Press.

It stands alone.

About the only place where authority and tyranny are widely separated is in the dictionary.

That Man on Avenue Q says every child now comes into the world endowed with liberty, opportunity—and a share in the war debts.

STILL one of the greatest hitters, surpassed in his home run specialty this year by only Jimmy Foxx, George Herman 'Babe' Ruth has announced that he's "all washed up" as a ball player.

The old legs won't stand another year of regular play, the Babe feels, and he's talking about hanging up his spikes.

Retirement of Babe Ruth means considerably more than the retirement of a ball player.

With golf and other sports making deep inroads in the popularity of the one-time national pastime and club owners everywhere looking at red figures, baseball can at this time sorely spare the man who, more than any other, has kept baseball in the limelight.

Ruth is almost as big as baseball. He is the outstanding feature of the game.

It was in district court damage suit here not so long ago.

"Was your car under complete control at the time of the accident?" lawyer asked the little defendant on the stand.

"Yes, sir", was the response. "My wife was riding in the back seat!"

And a jury of married men rose in the box as a man, crying:

"Not guilty!"

Two old friends happened to bump into each other on the street here the other day—meeting for the first time in several years.

"Hello, Bill", said one. "What is it that's making you look so old?"

"Trying to keep young", was the glum reply.

"Trying to keep young?" the other repeated. "What do you mean—'trying to keep young'?"

"Well," said the first, "I'm trying to keep nine of them—five boys and four girls!"

Secretary Of The Interior Ickes Wants More Action In Starting Public Works Program; Personnel Claimed Weak

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Evening Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. — Secretary of the Interior Ickes, who doubles as public works administrator, is chafing at criticism of the slow getaway on his $3,300,000,000 program.

Ickes

He got after other cabinet members and their assistants at the public works board's last executive session, demanding that they report within two days their progress in translating money grants into actual operations and jobs.

He was talking to the heads of the War, Post Office, Treasury, Commerce and Labor Departments.

About $1,200,000,000 had been allocated, but little actually expended and relatively few persons put to work.

Among the reasons is the inadequacy of the P. W. A. personnel.

Personnel Weak

Deputy Administrator Henry M. Waite, General Counsel Henry T. Hunt and Director of Housing Robert Kohn, with one or two other specialists, are high grade. Otherwise the outfit looks weak, with a notable lack of outstanding engineers and other experts.

Some P. W. A. employes are political appointees. Some were picked by Waite and a few by Ickes. Recent assignment to P. W. A. of Emil Hurja, Jim Farley's patronage agent, doesn't raise anybody's hopes.

Protecting The Communists

The latest wise crack on Recovery Row is that the four policemen stationed outside the administrator's office when Communists were reported on the way were simply there to protect the Communists from Johnson.

Detecting Monopoly

How can the NRA discern a monopoly on the basis of an industry's mere paper evidence and so uphold the Borah amendment to the recovery act forbidding codes which permit monopolistic practices?

Oswald F. Schuette, the famous "trust-buster" who is now concentrating on Andy Mellon's "aluminum trust," says it can't. He proposes that when an industry has been investigated by the Justice Department or Federal Trade Commission its code be sent to that body for scrutiny.

Attorney General Cummings has just finished an investigation of the Aluminum Company of America. Schuette says the Mellon concern makes all the crude aluminum and has maintained a price of 23.3 cents a pound through the depression; that its control enables it to sell the semi-finished metal at 26 cents while independents, whom Schuette represents, must sell at 33.

Campaign Material

This story may be apocryphal, but it's told of a well known gent who has received a fine advisory job from the government of a small republic. He enjoyed the friendship and the highballs of the country's legation officials here. Last winter they told him their president was having reelection difficulties on the issue of which candidate would make the biggest hit with Washington.

He went to Albany and obtained a large photograph of Roosevelt, then president-elect, autographed to the man who was already a president. The picture was used to excellent effect in the campaign. The American, a genuinely able citizen, was later invited to visit with his beneficiary—and was given the job.

Defining N-R-A.

The "N. R. A" initials have been humorously translated into many versions. A hard-boiled and disgusted coal operator, who apparently had been given his first real lesson about the New Deal, was heard to exclaim as he staggered down the corridor:

"Nuts Run America!"

120 Prairie Dogs To An Acre Found

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 31 (AP)—One hundred and twenty prairie dogs to the acre make up some of the populous cities of these denizens still extant in Texas, says Joe B. Lindsey of the U. S. biological survey. The average "dog town" has about 15 holes to the acre, with eight inhabitants to the hole, he explained.

Lindsey recently supervised placing of 4,800 pounds of poison in Runnels and Martin counties. He estimates 75,000 acres are still infested in Martin and Howard counties. Those counties are credited with having the largest colonies in Texas, Lindsey said.

Brothers All Even In Domino Playing

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Aug. 31 (AP)—It may be several years before the Bullington brothers—J. W., mayor of Tucumcari, and L. G., of Wellington, Texas—decide who is the better domino player.

L. G. has just concluded a six weeks visit with the local mayor during which time the brothers engaged in a marathon of 383 games. The Texan won 200 games. Six years ago the brothers played a similar marathon, but the results were reversed.

With one victory each and their visits six years apart, it may be some time before the champion is decided.

GRADING URGED

URBANA, Ill., (AP)—Illinois' 1933 peach crop may not be up to the $4,500,000 record of 1929, but growers can make the most of what they have and consumers can more easily get the kind of peaches they wish if orchardists will grade and size their fruit to improve the market quality, says the college of agriculture of the University of Illinois.

Research experts at Ohio State University are trying to develop better china-ware. How about a self-washing dish for tired housewives?

With 'Whir' BARRY

Under The Capitol Dome

BY R. W. BARRY.
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—Homer De Wolfe, assistant attorney general, spent a vacation in his home county of Mills, near Goldthwaite. He went squirrel hunting two or three times and brought forty of them back to Austin. He presented them to his chief, Attorney General James V. Allred.

"That's a fine idea, I've been wanting to entertain the newspaper correspondents for quite a while, and now's my opportunity," said Allred.

Correspondents Accept

The capitol correspondents accepted the invitation and spent one evening in the back yard of the Allred home feasting on barbecued squirrels.

The attorney general served grape juice. The party was a success. A good time was had by all.

"MA" REVIEWS TROOPS

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson went to Palacios to review the troops of the 36th division, Texas national guard, in annual encampment there.

Some of the colonels on the governor's staff told about an attack conducted by the mosquito army on the soldier boys.

Capt. Al C. Deutsch told this story:

"Two mosquitos got hold of an infantryman in his tent and dragged him to the bath house.

"'Shall we eat him here,' asked the first, 'or take him down to the beach'?"

"'Eat him here,' said the second. 'If we got to the beach those big mosquitos will take him away from us'."

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Can't Do Any Harm

NEW YORK—The dress suit renting industry has decided to get itself a code. As Lou J. Harris, once a prosperous soup-and-fish renter, phrased it, "it can't do us any harm."

"Take this last fiscal year," he said. "My average weeks have been pathetic, terrible, if you know what I mean. Oh, my, oh, my, what a fiscal year! For weddings we used to get the guy that got married, the guy that gave the bride, the best man, ushers—all of 'em. Now we're lucky if we get the bridegroom."

His Good Deed

HATTIESBURG, Miss.— One of the good deeds daily to which William Henry Smith, 13, is pledged as a boy scout won him acclaim as a hero today.

A rattlesnake bit his friend, Shelby Jones, 13. Young Smith sucked the blood from the wound, lifted the boy on to a bicycle and hurried him to a hospital.

Physicians said Jones would recover as a result.

We've just been waiting for some reformer to insist that the nudists should be covered by a blanket code.

V-8 AND NRA

al philosophy as evidenced in e Ford factories, assembly plants, ip lines, mines, forests, farms, boratories and railroads is much e same as the essence of the NRA. a consequence the country sees ay two principles, identic in ny ways, in conflict.

Ford, operating his business on a le he contends is more liberal n blue eagle rules, says that to n up" with the NRA would n to "sign down" to it.

one aspect it may be said that d believes that to sign the motor ustry code would be to accept ms of industrial conduct laid wn by his competitors; for the ational Automobile Chamber of mmerce, numbering virtually the tire industry in its membership excepting Henry Ford—approved e code and will administer it.

Against Unionization

Henry Ford has lived his indus-ial career along these lines. He s never favored unionization of s employes, and his weapon ainst unionism has been to pro-de working conditions and wages hich he felt met or even exceeded ose which unions required. In a y, his stand has been much the me toward organized labor as it pears to be today toward the otor industry code: a standard lly up to the requirements, yet oof from them.

He has been an industrialist who ught as nearly as possible to con-ol completely all the resources of w material, production, distribu-n, delivery and labor, even to the nt of widespread servicing of his oducts after they reached the nsumer. His basic program is not s alone now, but it blazed trails the early days of motor car man-acture.

Johnson Determined

The determination of General hnson not to permit the Ford otor company to be an exception a national program for prosper-y is predicated on the same ground that taken by Ford on the other e; that is, that a definite, care-ly prepared program shall not be mpered merely because one view-int opposes it.

"The only way you can get peo-e to act together," General John-n has said, in discussing the Ford uation, "is to get them to agree act together. It makes no dif-rence what an individual em-oyers does on his own." (This was reference to the Ford contention at the Ford Motor company al-dy is operating on a "plus-NRA" sis). "The motor industry code a great national compact among ployers, and everybody has got to ree to all the terms of that agree-nt in order to get the blue eagle." General Johnson has expressed ite frankly the belief that the erican public might "crack wn" on Ford if he declines to sign e code.

Issues Magnified

Ford is a personality as well as employer. For him to withhold his nature from an NRA code which fellow motor car makers have epted creates definite public in-st. This public interest serves to gnify the issues involved. The ac-n of the president in interesting nself personally in the situation has added to the public importance.

Should Ford fail to sign the code by September 5—which is the date when it becomes operative and binding—, the gauntlet would be down. The NRA administration then would have three courses open. It could provide a separate code for Ford. (General Johnson has said he would not follow this course). It could withhold the blue eagle and, in so doing, single out the company from all the others and thus, possibly, create a public opinion which might react against the manufacturer's products.

Punishment Possible

The third course would be to license the motor car industry under the National Recovery act, and seek punishment of any firm operating without a permit. The law provides a fine of $500 and six months imprisonment. Each day's operation of a company is regarded, by the language of the act, as a separate offense.

Aside from the expression some days ago of dissatisfaction over the insistence that he sign the code, Ford has declined comment. There are many who believe he will sign in the days remaining before the code becomes operative. Mr. Roosevelt's action in calling for the facts in the matter is generally accepted as an omen of eventual harmony.

Christy will return to China as an air instructor.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31 (AP) — Cotton opened rather easy today although cables were about as due. First trades were 7 to 9 points down and the market declined somewhat further after the start on hedge-selling and some selling by ring traders. October declined to 9.33 and December to 9.55, or 9 oints under yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour the market recovered 3 to 5 points from the lows on some short covering. Trades generally, however, appeared to be awaiting the opening of the wheat market.

Cotton ruled very quiet all morning, owing to the impending long holiday and the government crop report due September 8 which caused traders to hold off. Early in the second hour, December eased to 9.5₃, or 10 points down from yesterday's close but later there was some buying in the ring and covering by shorts, which caused October to advance to 9.40 and December to 9.62, or 7 to 8 points up from the lows to levels 2 points under yesterday's close.

Near mid-session the market eased again, losing 3 to 4 points of the recovery with October at 9.36 and December at 9.59, down 6 to 7 points net.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 7 to 10 points lower under liquidation and foreign selling. Oct. 9.37; Dec. 9.59; Jan. 9.68; March 9.87; May 10.01; July 10.14.

There was some selling here through houses with continental and Bombay connections at the start, while there was also a little pressure from the south but the offerings were moderate and the market was a shade steadier after the call on covering and trade buying. December contracts after selling off to 9.59 rallied to 9.61 with the general list showing net declines of about 2 to 5 points at the end of the first half hour.

Trading continued quiet later in the morning with fluctuations narrow. Private reports of crop deterioration in Oklahoma and further reports of increasing boll weevil infestation had little effect on the market and general business was restricted by the approach of the holidays. At midday December was ruling around 9.61 and May 10.05 with active months showing net losses of about 4 to 6 points.

COTTON FUTURES

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31 (AP)—Cotton futures closed quiet at net declines of 8 to 9 points.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 31. (AP)—Erratic fluctuations characterized the grain markets today.

Wheat dropped abruptly more than two cents a bushel at the start on profit-taking from speculators who thought yesterday's six cent advance was too steep. This was followed by breaks and rallies in rapid succession over a two cent range with a late bulge reaching the best prices of the day. All other grains swung up and down with wheat.

Some evening-up trades for the triple holiday ahead were noted. A private crop report, issued a day ahead of most, indicated a corn crop of 2,160,000,000 bushels, a drop of 113,000,000 bushels from the official estimate last month, but had no appreciable effect on the market.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-4 to 5-8 below yesterday's finish.

Corn easy and 5-8 to 1, 1-8 off.

Oats 1-4, 3-4 down, rye 3-8, 3-4 higher, and provisions mixed, 8 cents lower to 10 cents advanced.

LOCAL NRA DRIVE

Eagle before the consumers sign throughout the city.

Mullican Makes Appeal

A stirring appeal for a successful campaign was given by Judge Clark M. Mullican who declared "this is the most serious mission we have engaged in in the past 15 or 16 years and whether we make it a success is a question of whether we do or die."

"The big question is whether we shall put this thing over and live or fail and die insofar as our government and the welfare of the American people is concerned.

"One hundred and forty-six years ago, the best minds of this country at that time gathered together and drew up a document—the constitution of the United States. Today that document is being weighed, word by word, in the balance of the minds of the people—For that reason, it makes it imperative that we try to make this great campaign a success for it is a question of do or die just as it was with those men."

The judge appealed for a united front in the campaign here, declaring that that was the only method the problem could be solved.

To Determine Results

The campaign here is being conducted to ascertain just how much has been done under the NRA agreement and how much more can be done. Questionaire cards provide for answers on how many new employes each firm has put on since signing the agreement and how much the payroll has been increased.

Homer Grant is a colonel in charge of the drive today. His personnel consists of five majors, M. B. Hilburn, H. L. Allen, S. A. Wells, R. J. Murray and W. O. Daniels; and twenty-five captains, J. D. Hassell, W. C. Wood, M. N. Hale, J. B. Maxey, Roche Newton, Riley Huie, R. F. Bayless, J. A. Raley, jr., A. F. Holt, L. E. Davis, Wesley Read, Dr. F. W. Standefer, Neal H. Wright, Homer Gholson, Parker Prouty, J. A. Rix, O. W. Ribble, K. N. Clapp, W. T. Gaston, George Kuykendall, R. E. Stroup, Roy D. McKinney, Ray Dickey, A. E. Miller and Hugh Harbert.

TO LUBBOCK CITIZENS

"Lubbock must do its part in this great plan. We have never failed when the nation called and we will not fail now."

Sam C. Arnett,
General, NRA Committee.

"Lubbock will have a definite share in this increased prosperity to the extent that it participates in the plan, so there is a responsibility on every citizen to cooperate to the utmost to make this gigantic national plan a complete success," said General Sam C. Arnett of the NRA in a statement last night. "Every employer and every consumer has a definite responsibility to assume.

Calls On All Employers

"NRA calls on every employer to shorten hours of labor so as to make room for more employes.

"Every individual, man and woman, who buys anything, owes it to himself or to herself, the community and the nation, to buy only from those employers who have taken the increased burden of increasing payrolls to bring back prosperity. This is to the self interest of the consumer, because no citizen can fail to share in this added prosperity. It will reflect itself in increased values for everything he owns. It will make his present position more secure by reversing the process of deflation."

Members of the general committee in charge are: Mayor J. J. Clements; Dr. I. E. Barr, chamber of commerce; Paul Hardwick, Lubbock Clearing House; George W. Dupree, Rotary club; J. D. Hassell, jr., Kiwanis club; Robert H. Bean, Lions club; Ellis Carter, American Business club; W. G. Alderson, Retail Merchants association; Tom Carter, Lubbock labor council; Mrs. M. C. Butler, Lubbock Federated Women's clubs; Mrs. G. N. Atkinson, Lubbock County Federated women's clubs; C. A. Burrus, county welfare work; C. W. Benson, Red Cross chapter; Dr. Jack M. Lewis, Lubbock Ministerial association; Jack Randall, Lubbock County Bar association; Mrs. Ed Wilson, Business and Professional Women's club; J. A. Raley, jr., Boy Scout area and L. Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 31 (AP)—Pre-holiday apathy brought trading in the security markets almost to a standstill today and prices generally shifted about lazily over an extremely narrow range.

Stocks started out with a mild rally, led by the alcohols, but the moderate upward flurry was of brief duration and most quotations soon drifted back to around their levels of yesterday. Wheat was a trifle heavy at one time, but other grains and cotton fluctuated in unimportant fractions. The dollar sagged a bit in foreign exchange dealings, but there was no pronounced pressure against the American currency. Bonds moved listlessly.

Shares of National Distillers got up some 4 points at one time and those of Schenley, U. S. Industrial Alcohol and American Commercial Alcohol advanced 1 to 2. Homestake Mining gained 5 and Alaska Juneau was slightly higher. Small gains were recovered by Case U. S. Smelting, Consolidated Gas, American Telephone, Western Union, Chrysler and U. S. Steel. Liggett & Myers B was somewhat heavy, and issues of Du Pont, New York Central, General Motors and others eased.

Kemper Seeking To Avoid Tax Payment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—William T. Kemper, Democratic national committeeman for Missouri, has filed a petition with the board of tax appeals seeking to avoid payment of $777,443 which the government alleges is due in back income taxes.

For the years 1927 and 1928, Kemper paid a total tax of $626,483. The treasury contends, however, that the amount should have been $1,403,927.

AUGUST RESULTS

hour provisions be inserted in codes so as to spread employment at a faster and greater rate.

Green said federation figures showed that 2,000,000 idle had found jobs since March 1. This estimate agreed in substance with an estimate made by Johnson, the only reemployment figure announced by NRA officials.

Report On Ford Asked

Johnson returned last night from a speaking trip to Boston to find a request from President Roosevelt for a detailed report on the failure of Ford to sign the automobile code approved last Sunday.

The Recovery administrator declined to comment. He has said repeatedly he has no word from the Detroit manufacturer. It appeared today that a showdown between the administration and Ford was near.

Ford has until September 5, to come in under the code and obtain his blue eagle. If he fails to do this, Johnson said he thought the American people would "crack down on him when the blue eagle is on other cars."

Retail Code Sought

A. D. Whiteside, deputy administrator, sought to shape a master code for the entire retail trade, including druggists and grocers, for dispatch to Mr. Roosevelt by the middle of next week. A tentative plan was worked out yesterday by which the small stores, especially those family operated, would bear a share of the labor load imposed by the code.

Approval by Johnson of a modified re-employment agreement for small daily and weekly newspapers and job printers throughout the country was announced by officers of the National Editorial association. The agreement provided a 40-hour average work week with a 48-hour maximum, but exempted from these provisions reporters earning $25 and more a week.

RULE REINSTATED

AUSTIN, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission has reinstated its rule permitting the running of back allowable in the East Texas oil field, effective on September 1.

The commission said it would consider applications of operators who, through no fault or neglect of his own, could not run or sell his oil under the daily allowables when available, and of those who declined to run their oil and sell it when the price of petroleum had declined to 10 cents per barrel.

The northern herd of elk in Yellowstone national park numbers about 11,000.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The weather bureau this morning issued the following storm warning:

Caution advised Bahamas and east and south Florida waters next twenty four hours. Storm warnings are displayed on the east Florida coast between Jacksonville and Key West.

DEER'S INNATE DISTRUST OF MAN MAY DEFEAT RESCUE ON HAZARDOUS LEDGE

WATKINS GLEN, N. Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—A wild deer's innate distrust of man today threatened to defeat efforts to rescue a sensitive seven point buck from a hazardous ledge in Watkins Glen state park where he has been trapped for six days.

Although he nimbly trots back and forth along his narrow runway unconcerned while scores of visitors, attracted by his predicament, watch him from the opposite side of the gorge a few feet away, his fear of man has blocked every plan of rescue.

He becomes so terrified when approached that his would-be rescuers have to give up their efforts for fear he will leap to his death in the torrent 200 feet below. It was fear of a dog that drove him and his mate into the perilous position from which he cannot escape and it was fear that caused his mate to hurl herself down through the gorge to a rocky death.

The big buck is skeptical about eating luscious ears of sweet corn, one of his favorite foods, because they have been placed there by man; he prefers to slake his thirst with the dew from foliage rather than drink the water lowered over the cliff to him; he spurns the bridge which was thrown across the chasm in the hope that he would venture across it to safety; most of all he fears any attempt to approach him.

NEW GROUP TO HANDLE WORK

LENDING FUNCTION OF FARM BOARD GIVEN NEW DIVISION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—The money-lending functions of the Hoover-created Federal Farm board today passed to a new division of the Farm Credit administration, the central bank for cooperatives, with appointment of a board of directors for the New York agency.

The central bank will have headquarters here and its activities in making loans to national farm marketing, and purchasing cooperative organizations will be supplemented by cooperative banks in each of the twelve cities where federal land and intermediate credit banks are situated.

First At St. Louis

The first of the regional banks has been established at St. Louis. Another is being organized at Berkeley, California, with ten more to be set up in coming months.

Interest rates will be from three to six per cent.

Seven directors will have charge of the new institution. F. W. Peck, St. Paul, who is cooperative bank commissioner, is ex-officio chairman of the board. Harry Morgenthau, jr., selected three members to represent the public and three others to represent the cooperatives.

Members Selected

Members of the group representing the public were Dean Thomas Cooper, Lexington, Kentucky of the University of Kentucky college of agriculture for a three-year term; J. D. Miller, Susquehanna, Pennsylvania, president of the National Cooperative council, two years; H. Lane Young, executive manager of the Citizens and Southern National bank of Atlanta, one year.

Directors selected to represent cooperatives were H. E. Babcock, Ithaca, New York, president of the Cooperative Grange League Federation Holding corporation, three years; F. M. Hayner, Las Cruces, New Mexico; director of the Southwestern Irrigation Cotton Growers association, two years; U. M. Dickey, Seattle, president of the United Dairymen's association, one year.

Fat and Fifty

Prince Eitel Friedrich, second son of the former Kaiser Wilhelm, doesn't carry much weight in German affairs these days, but he's growing much heavier, this new portrait shows. The prince, who is active in the Steel Helmet organization, recently celebrated his fiftieth birthday.

New Chief

OIL COMMITTEE IS TO GATHER TODAY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (AP)—Members of the committee of 15 named by President Roosevelt to deal with oil's problems will meet this afternoon to start their task of governing the industry under its trade code.

Secretary Ickes, chosen by the chief executive as oil administrator, planned to take up with the industry's spokesmen the questions of price and production control.

Indications were that several revisions of the code, which becomes effective Saturday, will be ready for discussions with the committee, among these a broadening of the price regulation section.

REPORT SAYS GARMENT INDUSTRY IN TEXAS BASED ON SWEATED HOME WORK

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. —(AP)—The U. S. Department of Labor has announced that the children's garment industry in Texas is based on sweated home work.

Behind the dainty children's dresses bought enthusiastically by mothers lies too often a story as tragic as "the song of the shirt." This fact is revealed in a report just issued by the women's bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor on its survey in the spring of 1932 of how these garments are made in Texas.

Texas Ranks Second

Texas ranks next to New York in the production of infants' dresses, according to census figures. New York is the headquarters of the children's dress industry, and most of the Texas plants visited in the survey were branches of New York firms or contracting with them.

In Texas comparatively little of the work is actually done inside factory walls, most of the garments being given out to be made and embroidered by workers in their homes, the women's bureau found.

The home workers are chiefly Mexican women, skilled in producing exquisite little garments, many of which are made entirely by hand and finished with fine tucks, hemstitching, drawn work, and embroidery.

How much do the women who make these dresses, retailing in northern cities for from $1.95 to $8, receive for their skilled labor? Factory workers failed to receive a living wage, but even so they earned considerably more than did the home workers in the study. A median of $5.70 was reported for 368 women employed in four factories—half the women earning more and half less than this amount for the representative week studied.

Figures Not Available

As accurate figures on individual home workers were not available on factory pay rolls, visits were made by the government agents to over a hundred women in their homes to get information on their earnings.

Long experience in the trade had taught these women to calculate closely the number of dresses they could make in a week and the amount they could earn. Based upon definite statements by the workers, a fair estimate of weekly earnings for 107 women showed that half earned less than $2, a third from $2 to $3, and only one woman as much as $5. The hourly estimated earnings of 89 women ranged from about 1 to 11 1-2 cents, well over two fifths earning less than 4 cents.

One woman unusually fast and skilful in making children's silk dresses, embroidered and lace trimmed, had to work steadily at least 8 1-2 hours daily for 4 days to make a dozen dresses, for which she was paid $1.75, or less than 15 cents a dress.

All Earnings Small

In another family two sisters, by steady work, could turn out in a week 20 machine-stitched dresses with hand fagoting, earning together only $3. A couple of women, makers of a very fine style of infants' wear, could not earn more than 42 cents for a long day's work.

In no case was embroidery considered as "pick-up work" or a casual diversion. This type of work provided the only source of income in many families. Housekeeping interfered but little with the routine of sewing, and woman after woman described the steadiness and regularity of her sewing hours, necessary in many instances to keep the wolf from the door.

"I work from 8 a. m. to about 10 p. m.—rest 1 hour at twilight—don't stop for anything—mother does all the housework," one girl said. "I make from 1 1-2 to 2 dozen dresses a week, sewing all I can, getting 70 cents a dozen, or about 3 cents an hour," another stated.

Speed as well as skill was essential to meet the demands of the New York contractors that orders be filled rapidly despite low pay. One Texas employer on complaining to the New York office of the unfair and greatly reduced rates for the workers, was told, "you must compete with the cheap Puerto Rican labor or lose the contract."

Conditions in this trade are strikingly similar in Texas and Puerto Rico—with the contract system, home work, and low wages prevailing in both places, the women's bureau points out. "Both localities, although remote from the centers of the industry, are competitors of factories located elsewhere and undoubtedly cause low wages in New York and Connecticut."
