Board Meets Thursday

The Colorado City School Board held a special called meeting Thursday in the Administration Building at 7 p.m. The meeting was a public hearing for the budget.

The school board approved the local budget in the amount of $4,226,830.00. The school's revenue increased by $925,946.77 and their expenditures increased by $631,300.00. This results in a cost per pupil of $2,644.80.

Gerald Anderson came before the school board and questioned them about why his personal property taxes had increased 285 percent. S. L. (Mac) Morris, president of the school board, gave Anderson several reasons for the increase. The utility and oil companies had been carrying their fair share of taxes and that there had not been an appraisal of farm and agricultural property since 1965 and with the county-wide appraisal, the property owners are being hit with large increases.

Announcement Of Queen Will Be The Highlight Of The Fall Festival

The St. Ann's Catholic Fall Festival will be held on September 19 and 20 at the Mitchell County Agricultural Barn on West Highway 80.

The doors open at 11 a.m., Saturday and Sunday. There will be a drawing for prizes. There will be every kind of booth imaginable to entertain both children and adults alike, according to Father John Busch, priest.

The highlight of the Festival will come Sunday night when they will announce the Festival Queen. There are two lovely girls in the running for this title, Lisa Deloera and Mona Molina, added Father Busch.

Lisa is the daughter of Tommy and Virginia Deloera of Colorado City. Her father is employed by Texas Electric Service Company and her mother works at the Colorado High School as a lunchroom worker. Lisa is 15 years-old and is a sophomore at Colorado High School. In her spare time, Ms. Deloera enjoys running and twirling. She is a member of the Colorado High School Wolf Band and plays the flute. She also is treasurer of The Future Teachers of America and is a member of the Wolverines. Lisa would like to thank everyone for their attendance and support of her dinners, sale of tamales, bake sales, dances, tickets for the raffle and donations in the jars all around the county.

Mona Molina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel C. Molina of Colorado City. Her father is the manager of Perrys in Snyder and her mother is employed by the City National Bank. She is 16 years-old and is a junior at Colorado High School. She is active in athletics, especially in volleyball. Her hobby is drawing. Ms. Molina would like to express her appreciation for the support of the dances that she held dinners, the tickets bought for the raffle and all the donations that are in the jars.

The queen will be crowned two weeks after the festival at the Civic Center.

All of the money made at the festival will be used to pay off the debt on the Educational Building at St. Ann's Catholic Church.

Bridgford Elected To The Tax Appraisal District Board Monday

The Mitchell County Tax Appraisal District held a special called meeting Thursday night in the Curriculum Room of the Colorado Independent School District Administration Building at 8 p.m.

The first item on the agenda was the election of a person to fill the vacancy of board member Fleta Lewis. All of the taxing districts in the county nominated one person for this position. The board elected Billy Bruce Bridgford, who was the Colorado Independent School District's nominee, unanimously.

Jay Craddock, Jr., Secretary of the Board, gave a report from the Office Committee. The report was about the awarding of the bids for renovation of the Mitchell County Appraisal District's office in the Administration Building and the new parking lot outside the Tax Appraisal office. The bid for the renovation of the office was awarded to Aston and Hubbard of Colorado City and the bid for the parking lot was awarded to Bob and Bobby Nobles Construction, also of Colorado City.

After the meeting was adjourned, the board took a tour of the tax appraisal office.

When the office is completed, it will have a permanently installed computer, its own thermostat, and new vinyl covering on the walls. There will be a room to store the maps in, a full length counter and a place where the customers can observe all of the on going transactions.

RECEIVING THE BID TO renovate rooms in the Colorado Independent School Administration Building into the Mitchell County Tax Appraisal District office, was Aston and Hubbard Construction Company of Colorado City. Renovations have already begun for the new facilities.

After being the victim of a hit and run accident, I was compelled to write this article as my first column.

There have been three hit and run accidents here in Colorado City recently, two occurring on the weekend of August 15 and 16 and the other on Thursday, which involved my car.

Why a person would not stop after striking another person's property is beyond me. I wonder, if it's a lack of responsibility or lack of respect for another's property.

Some may come by their possessions easier than others and do not sense the damage that is done when they leave the scene of an accident or they may panic because of fear of their punishment.

If a person is caught, the punishment is much worse than if he had stayed and faced the consequences. On the other hand, the violator may never be apprehended, but it will remain on his conscience.

One may think they are cool and how lucky they are that no one saw them, but disobeying the law is never a funny or lucky incident. What goes around, comes around.

Hanks United In Marriage To Hargis

Miss Beth Hanks became the bride of Tucker Hargis Saturday evening, August 8, in a candlelight ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Colorado City.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene B. Hanks of Colorado City and the groom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Hargis of Jasper, Texas.

Rev. M. Ron Hamby, pastor, officiated in the double ring ceremony. Upon entering, the bride presented her mother with a long stem yellow rose and leaving, she presented the groom's mother with a long stem yellow rose.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Cecile Hubbard, organist, and James Hanks, cousin of the bride, sang "Annie's Song" during the lighting of the unity candle and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

The couple exchanged vows before an arch entwined with fresh greenery, accented with yellow and peach silk flowers, with Boston ferns on each side of the arch and flanked by a pair of spiral candleabras. Completing the garden setting were two trees full of silk peach blossoms. The chancel and alter rail were covered with arrangements of greenery and hurricane globes with yellow candles extending into the windows. The aisles were marked with hurricane globes, fresh greenery and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown designed by Alfred Angelo of French silk organza. The gown had a Queen Anne neckline and bishop sleeves. The skirt was accordian pleated with a ruffle of accordian pleated lace that extended into a chapel length train. The bodice was applicated with French alecon lace and seed pearls. The three tiered veil fell from a Julet cap applicated with lace and seed pearls.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of gardinias, yellow roses, daisies and baby's breath atop her white rainbow Bible.

For traditional something old, the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Bob Chalker, for something borrowered a diamond drop necklace belonging to her cousin, Susan Hanks, her dress was something new and her blue garter was made by Mrs. Wayne Shawn. In her shoe she carried pennies with her and the groom's birthdate.

Miss Laura Frambro of San Angelo was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Shirley Brown of Lubbock and Doris Sands of Snyder. They were attired in identical dresses of peach with a lace bodice featuring a Queen Anne's neckline and bishop sleeves. The long full skirt was made of peach mirror mist with a flounce around the bottom. They wore hats of peach with peach flowers in the back nestled in yellow tulle. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Flower girl was Andrea Chalker who carried a white basket of yellow rose petals. She wore a dress of peach mirror mist with short puffed sleeves and a ruffle around the neck and the bottom. Her hair was adorned with a ringlet of yellow and white daisies.

Ring bearer was Josh Whitehad, of Odessa, nephew of the groom.

Troy Castleman of Abilene was best man and groomsmen were Mark Walton of San Angelo and Tim Watkins of Midland.

Ushers and candlelighters were brothers of the bride, Griff of San Angelo and Squeeky of Sonora. They wore brown tuxedos trimmed in tan identical to the best man and groomsmen. The groom was attired in a brown tuxedo.

After the wedding ceremony, the couple were honored at a reception in the fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and featured a three tiered fountain cake topped with yellow daisies. A centerpiece of peach glads graced the table and yellow punch was served from a silver punch bowl. Completing the table setting were peach and yellow mints and nuts.

The groom's table had an ecru crocheted cloth and was ladden with a silver coffee service, watermelon boat filled with melon balls and fresh fruit. Cheese and crackers were also served from the groom's table.

Decorating the reception area were assorted silk plants and wrought iron garden furniture.

Registering guests was Miss Jamie Harris. The registry table was covered with a white cloth and featured the bride's book and a basket of peach and yellow rice roses. Passing out the rice roses were Andrea and Cheryl Chalker.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Carl Guelker, Mrs. Bob Chalker, Miss Tracie Nobles of San Angelo, Mrs. Terri Whitehead, sister of the groom, Misses Leslie and Dana Lenard all of Odessa.

Following their honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Abilene.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Abilene, Friona, Honey Grove, Ira, Jasper, Midland, Odessa, San Angelo, Snyder and Carlsbad, New Mexico.

After the rehearsal dinner Friday night, the wedding party were honored at a bar-b-que and backyard party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Guelker.

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING FREE OR REDUCED PRICE MEALS

Recently enacted Federal legislation made some changes in the income scale used at the beginning of the school year to determine students eligible for free and reduced-price meals. The new law requires that each application be examined and determination made regarding eligibility for free and reduced-price meals, based upon the new income scale.

The Colorado Independent School District, in participation with the National School Program, is announcing a revised free or reduced price meal policy statement for the 1981-82 School Year.

Local School Officials have adopted the following family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility.

Children from families whose income is at or below levels shown on the above scale are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. The reduced price for lunch is 20 cents and for breakfast 10 cents.

The school children of parents or guardians who become unemployed are eligible for free or reduced-price meals during the period of unemployment, provided that the loss of income caused the family income during the period of unemployment to be at or below the levels shown on the scale.

To apply at any time during the year for free meals or reduced-price meals for your children, complete the application and return it to the school. The information given on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility for free meals or reduced-price meals. Within ten days of receiving your application, the school will let you know whether or not your children are eligible. If you do not agree with the school's decision, you have the right to a fair hearing. This can be done by phoning or writing your child's principal.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If you have foster children living with you and wish to apply for such meals for them, please notify us or indicate it on the application.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, or national origin.

By Aaron Carpenter

Q. I've heard the argument about changing filters every time you change your oil - or not changing them - for so many years. I'm really confused. Can you settle it for once and for all: Should the filter be changed every time the oil is?

A. The basic argument for not changing the filter with each oil change is monetary: It costs less. At least, at first glance it does. Consider, however, that when you do not replace the filter, you are leaving a pretty sizable amount of dirty, broken-down oil in the engine. This immediately mixes with the new oil, quickly lessening its useful life. Many mechanics believe it is almost more critical to change the filter frequently than it is to change the oil. The point is, the longer a filter stays in place, the more clogged it gets, with the end result being - the oil doesn't get filtered.

Hester & Anderson United Saturday

Miss Kimberly Ann Hester became the bride of Randall Craig Anderson in a double ring ceremony in the Ellis Chapel of Park Cities Baptist Church in Dallas, Saturday.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ed F. Crow of Dallas and James E. Hester of Arlington. Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Anderson of Colorado City are the parents of the bridegroom.

Dr. Hardy Clemons, pastor of Second Baptist Church of Lubbock officiated in the 6 p.m., ceremony. Steve Roddy of Fort Worth was the organist and he accompanied Leslie Anderson, Julianne Hester and Charles Campbell as they sang wedding selections for the ceremony.

The chapel was decorated with two brass candlabra, one on each side of the altar, greenery and a large two-tiered cascading floral arrangement flanked by a pair of candelabra on the center altar table. Reserved seats were marked with satin ribbons and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white wedding gown made of a silk blend chiffonette designed by Jena. The gown featured a high Victorian neckline and sheer organza and alencon lace sleeves. The empire bodice was appliqued in alencon lace and beaded with seed pearls. The cathedral length train featured two wide alencon lace borders and lace appliques scattered about the hemline. Her cathedral length bridal veil of illusion was bordered with matching alencon lace falling from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis, white baby roses, baby's breath and a touch of greenery.

Miss Lea Anne Hester of Dallas, was the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Hester, Miss Julie Hester, Beth Ann Herring, Joy Weinhiemer and Valerie Turinsky.

They were dressed in a pale lavender moire' taffeta gown trimmed with an off-the-shoulder neckline with wide ruffles of white venetian lace and each carried bouquets of lavender silk irises accented with baby's breath and pale blue and deep purple rosebuds of silk. Bridesmaids also wore wide-brimmed lavender straw hats trimmed with white venetian lace and crushed lavender illusion around the crown. The hat brims were caught up in back with a large poof of lavender illusion which falls into a short veil.

J. B. Latimer of Colorado City, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Jon Shaw, John Boyd, Kirk Stubblefield, Jeff Trulock and Woody Anderson.

Ushers were Blake Reynolds, Alan Richey, Kraig Kupatt, Keith Crow and Bob Rolston.

The couple was honored with a reception in the parlor of Ellis Chapel. A lavender and blue color theme carried out with lavender moire' taffeta runners trimmed in white ventian lace used on mahogany banquet tables and was placed down the center of the tables.

Members of the house party were Leslie Moore, Beverly Fuller, Annie Lauri Hyde, Liz Terny, Ann Tally, Mary Jane Carlisle, Leslie Danniel, Sheri Baucom, Shelly Gillis and Gindy and Leah Tachett.

The bride's table featured a white three-tiered wedding cake trimmed with touches of lavender and blue and silver punch bowls at either end of the table.

The bride and groom traveled to Las Vegas where they spent their honeymoon.

Following their honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Lubbock.

The Country Club Church

The Rev. Monte Jones, Vicar

All Saints Episcopal Church

How often, these days, we hear about the church being exclusive, that is, excluding or keeping out, certain people. Or even worse, some branches of the church state the belief that unless one is a member of that particular denomination and adhere to their particular tenet of faith, that person is already a sure-fire candidate for Hell (pun intended). This type of "country-club" mentality, that of keeping out undesirables, is a far cry from the ministry and teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. If ever there was an unexclusive person in the world, it was Jesus. He spent a considerable amount of time enduring the wrath of so-called "religious" people, because he welcomed so many whom society in general shunned.

If, indeed, Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior, he should also be our primary role model. He ministered through loving and caring for those who were difficult to love and to care for or about. He included, never excluded. So who are we to do less, to turn away, to say us or else? God loved us enough to show it with the gift of His Son.

His Son loved us enough to say "come to me, all ye..." and to give us the gift of his Holy Spirit, through whose Grace we are called to believe. Can we return this love by rejecting anyone who is trying also to answer this call?

If you say "yes," you need to examine the depth and sincerity of your own faith. God loves us, and he expects us to love and accept each other, for it is when this becomes the norm rather than the exception that the work of Jesus Christ will be completed.

Amen

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The following article is a public service through the cooperation of Rusty Carroll, district attorney. Its purpose is to make persons aware of a prosecutor's role, of their responsibility as a resident of Mitchell County and how each can work together to alleviate some of society's problems.

Protecting Children From Crime

September means school and for parents of young children, their child's trek to and from school each day can be a constant source of apprehension.

Parents should teach their children basic, commonsense precautions and work with school officials and the PTA to initiate crime prevention strategies in and around schools.

Give your child a healthy suspicion for "strangers," and a stranger is anyone a child's parents don't know, even if the person knows the child's name or "seems like a friend."

Children should never accept food or an automobile ride from a stranger and should never play around public restrooms.

Teach your children to never open the door to a stranger and never enter a stranger's home. If you child is selling Girl Scout cookies, Easter Seals or Christmas cards door-to-door, make sure he or she is accompanied by at least one friend.

If a stranger bothers your child, he or she should remember the stranger's description, his clothing and the color and license number of his car. Phone the police immediately.

Know the length of time it takes your child to walk to and from school. Immediately check any delay in arrival home. Also know the safest route to and from school and instruct your children to follow that route. If your child en are to arrive home after dark, arrange to meet them.

Know your children's playmates and where they congregate. Visit the school and become acquainted with teachers and school officials. You may learn of delinquent behavior before it becomes a serious problem. Give the school instructions to release your children only to persons you have designated in writing.

Tell your children never to admit being home alone—on the phone or to someone at the door. Be sure your babysitter is a responsibile person and capable of acting in an emergency.

Children should be encouraged to talk with their parents any time they have a problem, whether the problem is with a stranger, friend or relative. Remind your children that the police officer is a friend who can be called on any time there is trouble.

This article is provided by the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council in cooperation with Rusty Carroll, District Attorney for Nolan, Mitchell and Fisher Counties, and the Texas Crime Prevention Institute.
