DELAY ACTION ON PETITION FOR REPEAL

INVESTIGATION ASKED OF ALLEGED FRAUD IN PRIMARIES

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 1.—Prohibition, alleged irregularities of last Saturday's Democratic gubernatorial primary and other extraneous matters crowded tax relief legislation out of both houses of the special session of the Texas legislature today.

The legislators had been called by Governor R. S. Sterling for the purpose of passing laws to transfer highway bonded indebtedness of counties to the state highway fund; remit interest and penalties on delinquent taxes and pave the way for insurance companies and building and loan associations to invest in stock of the federal home loan banks.

Resolution Postponed

The house definitely rejected a resolution petitioning Texas members of the national congress to vote for submission or repeal or modification of the Eighteenth amendment to the people. A motion to indefinitely postpone consideration carried 71 to 43. Such procedure precludes later consideration of that subject.

The senate was sent on a rampage of debate by a resolution, sponsored by Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman, proposing an investigation by a committee from that body of alleged irregularities in the Democratic primaries of last July and August. There was a fight over which committee should receive and consider the resolution. That point had not been determined at noon.

The resolution would have the investigating committee report its findings to the senate of the 43d Texas legislature when it assembled in regular session next January.

Supported Sterling

Woodward, who made speeches for Governor Sterling in his race for renomination, asked that the lieutenant governor name nine members of the senate to investigate "all charges of illegal voting in either the first or second primary election of the Democratic party held in Texas during the year 1932, and the fraudulent and unlawful casting and counting of ballots in said primary elections." The committee also would investigate "all mistakes or errors in counting and casting and returning the votes in said primary elections."

Contract Approved For Canyon Museum

CANYON, Sept. 1 (AP)—Word has been received here that contracts for the construction of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society museum, let a week ago, have been approved by the state board of control at Austin. Work is expected to begin immediately.

Directors of the society said the entire fund of $50,000, of which $25,000 was appropriated by the state and the balance raised by public subscription, would be required to cover construction and heating and plumbing contracts, and architects fees.

McAdoo Will Face Tubbs In Election

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1 (AP)—William Gibbs McAdoo, member of the Woodrow Wilson cabinet, and young Tallant Tubbs, San Francisco rope manufacturer, will be opponents in the November election for the California senate seat held by Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican.

With only 336 precincts unrecorded of the state's 10,531, returns from Tuesday's primary indicated definitely the nomination of Tubbs, Republican, and McAdoo, Democrat, and the defeat of Shortridge, for 12 years California's junior senator.

THE WEATHER

GERMANY HURLS THREAT

RAINS DAMAGE GRAIN CROPS IN SECTION

COTTON MAY BE HURT BY INFESTATION OF WORMS IN AREA

Heavy rainfall of this week in virtually all sections of the South Plains is resulting in considerable damage to maize heads which many farmers have cut and stacked on the ground, and the excessive precipitation may result in an infestation of worms in cotton, farmers have reported.

Rainfall, amounting to .56 inch here early today, apparently was confined to Lubbock and vicinity, a check of railroads indicated. The Fort Worth & Denver City railway reported no precipitation today on its South Plains line, although heavy rainfall was general on the main line from Amarillo to Wichita Falls.

Rainfall ranging from a light mist at Brownfield to one-half inch at Ralls was reported this morning by the Santa Fe. Those reports included: Ropesville, and Meadow, one-quarter inch; Idalou and Crosbyton, one-eighth inch; Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Lockney, and Floydada, light showers. Neither Littlefield nor Seagraves reported rainfall this morning.

Temperature Drops

Late this morning clouds continued to hang low over the South Plains, and a north wind at 7 o'clock this morning had sent the mercury down to 60 here.

Condition of dirt roads was said at the union bus terminal to be very slick, but it was said that all bus schedules were being operated on time.

Precipitation here already this week totals more than one and three-quarter inches, according to the state experiment substation.

To Continue Probe In Shooting Case

HOUSTON, Sept. 1. (AP)—Questioning of Eugene Holmes, 27, mysteriously shot Saturday night, will be continued, B. W. Payne, captain of detectives, said today in spite of Holmes' statement that he could "remember nothing about it."

"I think that we can refresh his memory if we try hard enough," Payne said. "Mr. Holmes is still suffering from shock."

Holmes was found lying on the running board of his automobile with a bullet wound in his side. A girl companion lay asleep in the car. The girl said she knew nothing of the shooting.

Two Youths Held As Kidnaping Suspects

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 1. (AP)—Two youths were held today for the kidnaping of two teachers from their classrooms in the Woodall country school.

Lee Hyatt, 17, and Dolphus Philpott, 21, were arrested on Sugar mountain in the automobile stolen by three armed ruffians from Mrs. Leola Durham, 25, after they had kidnaped Mrs. Durham and Lawrence Panell, 30, before the eyes of their frightened pupils yesterday.

The teachers were released unharmed.

Over Two Hundred Arrests In August

Police reported a total of 203 arrests for August and collection of $549.80 in fines for the month.

Arrests in cases transferred to county officials for prosecution totaled 17, including eight for theft and burglary, four for violation of the liquor law, two for adultery, and one each for attempting to pass a forged check, non-support of a family, and aggravated assault.

Traffic law violation arrests led with 67. There were 136 arrests for other offenses.

Total number of persons charged was 134, divided as follows:

Traffic violations, 67; drunks, 28; vagrancy, 5; fighting, 12; disturbing the peace, 7; thefts, 3; running a disorderly house, 1; violating the pure food law, three, and gambling, 17.

CHICAGO'S SECRET SIX AND STATE'S ATTORNEY ARE SPYING ON EACH OTHER

PROBE CHARGE OF PEONAGE

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES TOLD OF VIRTUAL NEGRO SLAVERY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1—Charges that negro laborers work under "conditions of virtual slavery" on Mississippi river flood control projects today again were subjects of a federal investigation.

Brigadier General Harley D. Ferguson of Vicksburg, president of the Mississippi River commission, was making the inquiry by direction of Major General Lytle Brown, chief of engineers. It was ordered by Secretary Hurley after complaints to President Hoover from the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

This organization, in a statement by Roy Wilkins of New York, assistant secretary, said a special investigator surveyed construction camps between Memphis and New Orleans. These camps are operated by contractors doing the flood control work.

"Abuses found to be general" according to the association investigator, were:

Long hours, wages as low as 10 cents an hour for 12 to 14 hours work daily, overcharging through camp commissaries, unsanitary living conditions and physical violence.

Mayor Walker Is Recovering Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 1. (AP)—Mayor James J. Walker was described today as recovering from the nervous exhaustion which sent him to bed Tuesday.

He planned to attend the funeral of his brother, George Walker, today and go to Albany Friday to attend the resumption of his hearing on removal charges.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The secret was out today.

The Cook county state's attorney's office and the Secret Six, anti-crime organization sponsored by Chicago business men, have been spying on each other.

The spying, which included the tapping of a wire into a secret office of the Secret Six, has been going on 18 months. Lately, a woman got mixed up in the secret investigations and, ere long, the secret was spilled. Whether she was responsible for the fact that the secret was no longer a secret remained undetermined, however.

Three men, one an investigator for State's Attorney John A. Swanson, were seized and later released by detectives assigned to the Secret Six. They were Gordon White, the investigator; James H. McQueeney, detective agency owner, and Frank "Cock-Eyed" Carroll.

It was admitted by these three—and State's Attorney Swanson—that wire tapping had been engaged in but the state's attorney declared his men thought they had located the headquarter of a blackmail ring and did not know the office was connected with the Secret Six.

Alexander Jamic, head investigator for the Secret Six, then made known that an investigation of the state's attorney's office his agency had been conducting was, unlike Mr. Swanson declared the wire tapping to have been, intentional.

"I have been investigating the state's attorney's office for eighteen months," Jamic said. "Lately it has been an intensive drive. I have made satisfactory progress and have found that a political-criminal Cabal exists."

Pampa Scout Killed In Fall From Truck

PAMPA, Sept. 1 (AP)—Harry Dunlap, 14-year-old Boy Scout, was killed last night when he tumbled off a truck in which he and other Pampa boys were returning from a summer camp in New Mexico.

Apparently he was struck by a car travelling in the opposite direction after he fell. His body had been dragged about 50 feet.

MIGHT RESIGN FROM LEAGUE OF NATIONS

GERMAN DEMANDS FOR ARMS EQUALITY ARE TO BE PUSHED

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Sept. 1—A threat by Germany to withdraw from the League of Nations disarmament conference unless her demands for equality in armaments are met accompanied unofficially today a reich note to France on the subject.

The contents of the note were not divulged but the views of Gen. Kurt Von Schleicher, the junker minister of defense, were generously quoted on all sides. The general is regarded as the mainspring of the Von Papen government.

Interview Published

The minister's latest pronouncement appeared in the form of an interview published in the Italian newspaper, Resto Del Carlino, at Bologna.

Asked what Germany would do if her claim to equality were rejected, the general told the newspaper:

"The German government will no longer participate in the world disarmament conference. It is evident what non-participation means to the existence of the League of Nations.

"The German government will then be forced by breaches of promise on the part of the signers of the Versailles treaty to take her national security problem in her own hands, should international solution prove impossible."

Only yesterday was published in the officially subsidized Heimatdeinst a Gen. Von Schleicher statement headed, "Germany's Security," which critically reviewed the disarmament conference.

The general recalled his recent announcement that Germany must reorganize her defense forces so as to modernize them, even if they were not increased.

HERRIOT TO STUDY GERMANY'S DEMAND

PARIS, Sept. 1 (AP)—Premier Herriot, back in Paris for a cabinet meeting which will consider Germany's formal demand for equality in armament, conferred this morning with the British charge d'affaires before summoning his ministers.

The government was uncommunicative regarding details of the demand presented by the German ambassador, but it was understood its principal points are these:

Modification of the Versailles treaty with a provision for a twelve year service basis in the German army.

Amalgamation of compulsory military service and the period served by the militia.

Sanction for a German army of 300,000 men.

Permission for Germany to maintain heavy, light and costal artillery.

Permission for maintenance of tanks by the German army.

Establishment of a complete German military aviation corps.

Sanction for the construction of forts along the German frontier.

Tropical Storm Is Gradually Abating

MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 1. (AP)—The tropical storm that swept into the United States from the Bahamas by way of Florida three days ago was reported moving inland north northwestwardly over the southwest Alabama gulf coast with abating intensity early today.

E. W. Holcomb, government observer said the "worst is over and the storm will gradually abate."

IMPORTANT RADIO DISCOVERY, QUEER EXPERIENCES OCCUR DURING ECLIPSE

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 1 (AP)—One important radio discovery, several new scientific feats and some queer human experiences summed up today the accomplishments of the 52 total eclipse expeditions.

Clouds completely ruined the work of more than half the largest expeditions, but a few had perfect views.

Two persons were reported so frightened at Island Pond as to require medical attention.

A disgusted sightseer at another big eclipse expedition camp, where clouds dimmed the corona, dropped his eye shield and worked a cross word puzzle during "totality."

The "cows came home" for milking at a number of farms. Flocks of birds got wildly excited, then calmed down and dived from sight, evidently putting up bird-fashion for the night.

The radio discovery throws new light on the invisible layer of electrified air—the Kennelly-heaviside layer—which reflects radio waves back to earth. As the sun passed completely from sight, radio reception on special

STERLING NOT TO CONCEDE ELECTION

GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES PLANS TO CONTEST "MA'S" MAJORITY

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 1.—Governor R. S. Sterling refused to concede the nomination of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, ex-governor and his opponent in Saturday's Democratic gubernatorial primary.

In a statement last night, indicating he would contest any decision that would return Mrs. Ferguson winner, he said there was no doubt "whatever that I received a substantial majority of all the votes lawfully cast" in the primary.

Sure of Nomination

He said "this will be conclusively demonstrated" and "I will be declared the nominee for governor of Texas in accordance with the orderly processes of our primary election laws."

"This statement is based upon reliable information and advices from all over Texas," Governor Sterling said.

"Jim Ferguson has charged that there were many thousands of illegal votes cast in this year's primaries, and his supporters are repeating similar charges," Governor Sterling said. "I believe that thousands of illegal votes were cast, and that gross errors occurred in the count; and I propose to leave nothing undone that is within my power to secure an honest ballot and an honest count, and to eliminate every unlawful vote cast in Texas last Saturday. This is my simple duty under my oath of office, and it is a duty I owe to the friends of good government. Having put my hand to the plow I will not turn back.

"The friends of good government may be of good cheer. I have been nominated and will be re-elected governor. I thank them for the manifestations I am receiving of their widespread interest and support, which I know I shall have in increasing measure."

Governor Sterling charged after

CALL TRUCE IN FARM STRIKE

FIGHT FOR ADVANCED PRICES SUSPENDED FOR NINE DAYS

(By The Associated Press)

DES MOINES, Sept. 1.—The farmers' war for higher produce prices was officially suspended for a nine-day period today, but an air of tenseness still hung over the affected areas as news of the truce permeated the west.

Some farmers, who have been picketing highways in an attempt to keep all farm produce off the markets, evidently were inclined to accept the suspension, while others continued at their posts and stopped trucks trying to run blockades.

Conference Called

The order for the truce was issued last night by Milo Reno, president of the National Farmers' Holiday association. It stipulated that activity should cease until after the conference of midwestern governors at Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 9. Plans for the conference, which will seek to arbitrate differences between producers and buyers and plan legal methods of increasing farm prices, were going forward today.

Declaring he did not wish to jeopardize the safety of farmers in clashes with armed groups, Reno issued his statement shortly after Gov. Turner announced that the highways of the state would be kept open and that "mob rule" would not be tolerated.

American Fliers To Challenge Air Marks

THREE RACERS SEEK NEW WORLD RECORD

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Sept. 1—A flying triumvirate challenged France for the speed supremacy of the world today.

The trio—Major James H. Doolittle, James G. Haizlip and James R. Wedell—took to the starting line three of the fastest racing ships of the country for an official try at the eight-year-old mark of 278 miles an hour set in 1924 by Warrant Officer Bonnett of France.

Father Time received his first jouncing at the National air races yesterday when Doolittle rocketed his supercharged 800 horsepower low wing monoplane over a measured three kilometer course for an unofficial record of 293.193 miles per hour.

Doolittle's spectacular straight-away dash, although the fastest ever flown in a land plane, will not be recognized by the Federation Aeronautic internationale because he did not carry a barograph or file formal notice in advance of his flight.

Today, however, he had installed two barographs in his ship and made formal notice of his official attempt on the world record.

Likewise filing notice were Haizlip, who Tuesday set a new transcontinental speed record, and Wedell, veteran pilot and designer of Patterson, La.

Doolittle said before his official dash that he expected to extract a 300-mile an hour speed from his stubby little racer. Wedell and Haizlip are flying ships designed and built by Wedell, one of them the plane in which Haizlip crossed the continent. Both are low winged jobs and supercharged for racing.

Foreign War Vets Rap BEF Ejection

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 1. (AP)—The thirty-third encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has termed the army's rout of bonus seekers from Washington, D. C., as "criminally brutal."

The convention late yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution in "solemn protest" against the use last July of "charging calvary, drawn sabres, fixed bayonets, with guns loaded and ready to shoot, with tanks (whose use the United States would prohibit in times of war) against unarmed men, women and children weakened by hunger and unemployment."

Cholera Epidemic Fatal To Thousands

HANKOW, China, Sept. 1. (AP)—The cholera epidemic in Shensi province has killed 30,000 persons up to August 15, says a provincial government report from the capital, Sianfu.

The epidemic has been widespread several months, intensified in several parts of China by flood conditions. Until recently, when cool weather came, 100 persons were dying daily in Sianfu alone.

Torrential Rains Fall Near Sonora

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 1 (AP)—Near floods prevailed around Sonora today after rains estimated at 10.57 inches, while general precipitation over the ranch country west of here was around 4 inches. Range conditions were made excellent, but some damage was done to cotton. Two men, Travis Dunn and S. D. Gibson, en route from Lubbock to Del Rio, were washed off a crossing in a draw north of Sonora but were able to clamber to safety this morning. Total rainfall here for the last 48 hours was 4.08 inhches and for the year 23.97, about five inches more than normal.

DENIES FRAUD ON HIS PART IN PRIMARY

"MA'S" HUSBAND WILL ACCEPT CONTEST OF GOV. STERLING

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Sept. 1.—James E. Ferguson, ex-governor husband of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, who opposed Governor R. S. Sterling in last Saturday's Democratic gubernatorial campaign, today said he would meet Sterling's challenge to determine the regularity of the vote.

"Everybody knows that the Ferguson campaign was the campaign of the poor people of this state who had neither money nor official patronage with which to corrupt and influence the voters," Ferguson said.

Governor Sterling last night issued a statement in which he claimed he had received "a substantial majority of all the votes lawfully cast" in the primary.

Mrs. Ferguson Leads

The Texas Election Bureau, unofficial gatherer of the returns, in its final tabulation showed Mrs. Ferguson had 2,398 votes more than the governor.

Ferguson said if Sterling "will just have his highway commission to furnish their affidavit showing how many thousand extra employes were put on the payrolls in the last six weeks before the election, and the amount of money paid them, the public won't hear any more talk about contesting the election."

"Sterling knows that for six weeks before the election the highway department ceased to function so far as doing an honest day's work is concerned, and seven hundred employes right here in Austin under Sterling's nose closed up their offices and hit the political highway to get votes for Sterling," Ferguson said.

"Every other Sterling department in the capitol did the same thing, and the pay of these employes who quit their business amounted to no less than one million dollars in the last five weeks before the election and it is the grossest example of unmitigated official gall for Sterling to be talking about an honest election and an honest count."

Ferguson said "if Sterling wants to open up the ballot boxes, then let us start at San Antonio, then let's go down to the Mexican border from Brownsville to El Paso and open up the ballot boxes where an outraged citizenship suffered in the wake of the most flagrant and outrageous prostitution of the ballot box ever witnessed in Texas."

Changes Cited

"Go to Dallas, Fort Worth, and Houston where innocent girls under voting age were hired to besiege and beset the voters by telephone to vote for Governor Sterling, a man whom they did not know or had never seen," Ferguson said. "Go into other cities of Texas and behold prominent women in club circles who had openly supported my wife in the first primary, had continued to support her until a week before election, then under some magic influence, changed their votes and support of my wife, and announced for Sterling.

"Yes, the Ferguson campaign was one of the poor people and the

FIVE OF FAMILY BURNED TO DEATH

BEAUMONT, Sept. 1 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vincent and their three small children were burned to death when their home south of Sulphur, La., was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning. A coroner's jury was holding an investigation at Lake Charles, La., this afternoon.

Two negroes, a man and a woman, were held in the parish jail at Lake Charles as incendiary suspects.

Two Are Believed Drowned In Creek

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 1 (AP)—Two unidentified San Antonians, a man and a woman, were believed to have been swept down the flooded Pinto creek near Del Rio and drowned in an attempt to cross the stream last night in their automobile.

Sheriff M. L. Whistler of Del Rio notified Chief Deputy Sheriff Lawrence here that the couple was last seen in the car near the center of the swollen creek by J. W. Crandall, a Fort Clark soldier. A trailer was attached to the machine.

MAN, LIKE NAPOLEON'S ARMY, GOES FORWARD ON STOMACH, SCIENCE TOLD

(By The Associated Press)

YORK, Eng., Sept. 1—Man, like Napoleon's army, marched to his present heights on his stomach, science is told.

Shakespeare, this theory would indicate, wrote "Hamlet" because he did not have to spend all day absorbing food.

The British association for the advancement of science heard Dr. C. M. Yonge declare today that efficient digestion aided evolution. It has enabled higher animals to spend less time on absorbing food and more on improving themselves.

Low forms of life, consisting of one or a few cells, live as slaves to the nourishment processes. They spend most of their time "swallowing" or absorbing food, digesting it and eliminating indigestible parts. They have little time or energy left for development.

The higher animals digest food outside the cells of the body. The cells get only "predigested", liquid food. As a result these animals take much less time and trouble for feeding. They are free to develop.

That's one reason, it seems, why Albert Einstein is smarter than the amoeba.

STATE DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN OF PROCEDURE IN ELECTION

W. O. Huggins of Houston, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, explains the procedure in event of an election contest in this article. Huggins shows a full recount is impossible.

Upon the face of the returns, it is now plain that the result in the gubernatorial race will be so close that election contests both within the party proceedings and in the courts need not be unexpected. Questions repeatedly asked lead me to think that many will be interested to know in a general way how this is carried on.

You should keep in mind that the occasion Saturday was a party primary. Nobody was elected. The voters expressed their choice as to the Democratic nominee. The results are certified by mail to Albert Sidney Johnson, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee at Dallas. The secretary promptly puts a clerical force to work tabulating these results. He is expected to have this tabulation complete when the State Executive Committee meets at Lubbock September 12.

Executive Committee Meets

When the executive committee meets at Lubbock, it will appoint a sub-committee to canvass the returns of the primary. As a usual thing, the result is decisive and unquestioned. So the subcommittee goes far enough into the work which has been done by the secretary and his staff in tabulating and totaling the results to satisfy its members of its thoroughness, accuracy and integrity. Having done this, the subcommittee prepares a report adopting the tabulation and totals submitted by the secretary. This report is then submitted to the main committee and, as a rule, is adopted unanimously.

On the next day, Sept. 13, the state convention meets. The State Executive Committee submits its report, recommending as a result of these tabulations and totals, who shall be declared the nominee. Heretofore, the report of the State Executive Committee has always been unanimously adopted by the convention. It is the resolution adopting that report of the State Executive Committee which officially declares the nominee. The chairman and secretary of the state convention then certify to the Secretary of State the names of the persons who have thus been declared the nominees of the party and, upon authority of that certificate, the Secretary of State is required to place the names on the official ballot at the November election as the party nominees.

Convention Names Nominee

es Nominee that, at the Executive Com- e totals reach- ed and the result found by the secretary of the committee will be challenged by the friends of the candidate who, on the face of the totals, is in the minority. It is not at all certain that the members of the subcommittee will agree unanimously with the result reached by the secretary and his staff. In that event, a minority as well as a majority report may be expected.

On the floor of the convention the next day, both the majority and the minority reports will be submitted to the convention and the nominee will be declared according as the majority or minority report is adopted.

If there should be such a contest at the Lubbock convention, litigation is likely to follow. The contest at court would probably be in the nature of an application for a writ of mandamus, requiring the chairman and secretary of the committee to certify the name of the contestant to the Secretary of State to be placed on the ballot as the nominee. Possibly it might take the form of an application for a writ of mandamus directly to the Secretary of State requiring her to place the name of the contestant on the ballot as the nominee.

"Demanding a Recount."

Quite generally, you have no doubt been hearing that a "recount will be demanded." Such an idea grows out of a misunderstanding of the nature of an election contest. A candidate, dissatisfied with the result as shown by the face of the returns, can not make a sweeping demand that the ballots be counted again. As a lawyer would say, "he can't go fishing in the ballot boxes."

In order to have the ballots recounted in any precinct, he must, by a proper petition filed in court, allege that the ballots have been miscounted, giving the details, and he must offer evidence upon which he bases that contention before the judge will direct a recount of the ballots cast in that precinct. The contestant must do more. He must set out every particular in which the election has been unfair and must further show that the sum of all of these particular instances of unfairness will, when corrected show a result in his favor.

It is a very difficult thing to do. It will at once occur to you that it places an unfair burden on the contestant, because he can not very well know the particulars in which he has been mistreated unless he is permitted to go into the ballot boxes and find out.

The Lesser Evil

On the other hand, we must remember that courts and laws are, after all, subject to the imperfections and limitations to which all human institutions are subject and often lesser evils must be chosen. If a dissatisfied candidate could demand a recount of all the ballots cast for him and all the ballots cast for his opponent it would immeasurably burden the courts. The work of the election officials would too often be merely preliminary to the election work which would have to be done all over at court. So, making the necessary choice between an occasional burden placed upon a candidate who has, upon the face of the returns, been defeated, as compared to the very burdensome result of giving all defeated candidates a free chance to count the entire election over again at court, the law has chosen much the lesser evil of placing the burden upon the candidate.

In view of a possible contest in the Governor's race, you may be interested in the mechanics of the ballots and returns. The officials in charge at a polling place put a seal over the slot through which the ballots have been deposited. A report of the result of each contest is made out and signed by these officials and sent to the chairman of the county executive committee. The tally sheets and poll lists, together with a copy of the report, are sealed in an envelope and delivered with the sealed ballot boxes to the county clerk. The results as shown by the report of the precinct officials are tabulated and the result certified by the county chairmen to the state executive committee. Upon the results thus certified the secretary of the state executive committee tabulates and totals the general result. This final result as found by the secretary of the committee may be adopted or rejected by the state executive committee and the finding of the state executive committee may in turn be adopted or rejected by the state convention.

But the findings of the executive committee and the state convention must be upon the facts as to who the nominee is and not upon their judgment as to who the nominee ought to be. The time for considering who should be the next Governor of Texas ended, let us hope, when the polls closed at 7 o'clock Saturday night. We are now to find judicially, deliberately and fairly who the nominee actually is.

Texas Election Bureau

The results which we have before us now are given to us by the Texas Election Bureau. Some years ago, the Texas association of managing editors formed this bureau. Each paper which is a member of the bureau sends to the central office of the bureau, which is located in the office of the Dallas News at Dallas, the result of the election news which it gathers. In counties where there are no member papers, reliable correspondents are appointed. This bureau assembles this information and sends the total results back to the member papers.

It has been a wonderful success. The vast expanses of our State cause it to be perhaps the most difficult State in the Union in which to assemble election news. The efficient work of this bureau has probably brought Texas up to be one of the first States in the Union in promptly and accurately assembling election news and totaling results.

In the last 12 years the bureau's decision as to the winner in a statewide race has never been upset by the official returns. The task of assembling and totaling, within 48 hours, the result of nearly a million votes is a staggering one. After all, it is but the work of human men and therefore subject to error. Its remarkable record justifies us, however, in having every confidence that it is now giving us the correct results.

ABERNATHY "HOME PRODUCTS WEEK" PROVES SUCCESS; BIG CROWDS ATTEND

ABERNATHY, Sept. 1.—(Special)—Abernathy's first "Home Products Week", which closed last Saturday, was a decided success, with record crowds attending, and a family reunion at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Givens. Dr. and Mrs. Givens celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Products were displayed in the J. W. Poole building on Main street. Fifty persons exhibited more than 200 articles. The room was crowded most of the time.

Farmers and others exhibiting crops and vegetables included: Ed Hardin, H. E. and W. A. Richter, J. J. Vineyard, Flin Dunn, G. C. Pope, W. A. Perry, W. A. Goeth, B. F. Taylor, C. R. and R. W. Owens, Fritz Struve, Chris Benn, Mrs. M. St. Clair, Leonard Harral, Clarence Ramsey, Shorty Brunson, J. J. Merrill, Al Hughes, Ed Abney and W. H. Cain.

Canned goods exhibitors included; Mesdames G. C. Pope, B. F. Taylor, W. H. Cain, J. C. Self, O. A. Rea, W. H. Sandidge, Ed Martin, R. W. Owens, F. R. Struve, M. St. Clair, J. W. Poole, W. A. Richter, E. T. Maupin and Miss Mary Rea.

Quilts made by the following were exhibited: Mesdames W. A. Richter, J. E. Jackson, S. W. Cannon and J. B. Fowlkes. Mrs. O. A. Rea displayed a dress she had made and Mrs. F. W. Struve and Mrs. A. M. Medlin exhibited paintings.

Industrial exhibits were from Struve Cheese factory, Pinson Pharmacy, Abernathy Oil company, Coffman Dairy, Ed Hardin, G. M. Young, Mrs. Charles Hurst, Ruddick Shoe company, Tedford Blacksmith shop, Peel Blacksmith shop, Zeman Auto Co., G. W. Tannehill Sucker Rod company, Rea Milling company, Abernathy Review and W. A. Goeth. Vocational agriculture boys also displayed their work, with V. S. Payne, teacher, in charge.

Sulphur Water Is Found In Wildcat

Another South Plains oil test has found the sulphur water, the Shira and Davidson, et al. No. 1 John Sparks, having run the bit into the water at 4,775-60 feet. The hole was bottomed at 4,776 feet.

Owners are expected to decide this week whether they will continue drilling operations or plug the hole. Location, 18 miles south and west of Seminole, is in section 397, block G, of C. S. D. and R. G. N. G. Ry. survey.

One-Act Play Will Be Given At Meadow

"The Turn in the Lane," a one-act play presented last week by a group of Becton people, under the direction of Charles Lail, principal of the school, will be given Saturday night at Meadow. It will be a part of a farmers' institute promoted by merchants of that town.

Miss Myrtle Murray, College Station, district home demonstration agent leader, is to talk on "Home Beautification."

MORE THAN THIRTY GRID ASPIRANTS ANSWER WESTERNER CALL

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Football practice starts this afternoon for the Lubbock High school Westerners, defending champions of Districts 1 and 2 in the Texas Interscholastic league.

Practice starts also at Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Plainview and Slaton, other members of the District 1 family. Matter of fact, the training season opens at nearly all of the Class A institutions of the state. But we are primarily concerned with the Westerners.

Generally speaking, it looks like a lean year for Lubbock High. The proverbial blaze of glory which attended the winding up of the high school football careers of about a dozen crack athletes also may have brought to a temporary halt the winning probabilities of the institution's teams. At first glance, there appears only the barest possibilities that valuable graduates will be replaced this year.

Burl Huffman, assistant Westerner coach, came to town early this week ahead of Coach Chapman, and there were signs of optimism on the countenance and in the conversation of the burly Burl. Huff has been harvesting wheat, wrangling bronchos, milking wild cattle, laying railroads or something this summer and is "in shape." Personally, we'd hate to be the steer bulldogged by Coach Huffman at any time. He has a gleam in his eye that forecasts some hard work for backfield neophytes.

Huffman was here to attend the coaching school in July but at all other times he's been doing manual labor around and about in the Texas Panhandle. He's been up there around the strongholds of the Amarillo Sandies and the Pampa Harvesters. Come to think of it, there might have been a purpose in selecting that particular area in which to spend the summer. At any rate, he has a line on the prospects at Amarillo, Plainview, Pampa and Borger, and he says it didn't take long to get a line on Amarillo. Pampa supporters are cultivating a strong faith in the Harvesters of 1932, while Amarillo is trying to live down the reputation for having the strongest possibilities in the circuit.

If Lubbock gets anywhere in the ace this fall, you must give a lot f credit to her coaches. Certainy the material which will answer he call today does not compare ith that which finished the 1931 eason.

Ross Ayers, the Cuero boy who made good at Texas Tech, loses no time in taking charge as captain of the 1932 Matadors. He's been in town several days, and yesterday he mailed out letters to all candidates of the Matador team, advising them as to the opening of the training season and asking their cooperation from the start. It's a fine move on the part of Captain Ross Ayers, guard.

After explaining that the training eason opens on September 10 and hat Mrs. J. A. Barton, Whacker's nother, will be in charge of the raining table at Cheri Casa, Ross escribes the new uniforms which he Matadors will wear and reminds the boys of the schedule hich faces them.

"With everything in our favor," writes Ayers, "we should play the class of ball our schedule demands of us. Remember that eight days after the training season opens, we start the campaign. . . .

"Please get in shape; you owe it yourself, to Tech and the oaches. Those who report in poor hape can rest assured you will ide the bench,' because Coacher ys the boy in shape is the boy to ay. . . work out every day beween now and then, do not wear ox, and put powdered alum in our shoes twice daily to toughen our feet."

LUBBOCK HIGH TEAM OPENS TRAINING

LOCAL ELEVEN TO BE DEFENDING CHAMPS IN COMING RACE

A few more than thirty more or less promising football players had answered the first call for candidates for the 1932 Lubbock High school team and had received equipment this morning. Coaches Chapman and Huffman were expecting the number to go above forty this morning.

The first practice session for the Westerners was scheduled for this afternoon at Fair Park, but rain this morning may have interfered with the initial workout. A light drill, consisting mostly of tunning and calisthenics, was to compose the first day's workout.

Prospects Not Bright

Judging from outside and early appearances, the Lubbock High school football season does not loom as a highly successful venture. The Westerners will be cast in the role of defending title champions of Districts 1 and 2, but at the outset there looms at least one stronger team in the circuit than Lubbock. The Westerners won the title last fall by playing four games within a period of ten days, following a hectic season in which the championship lead was thrown into a three-way tie between Lubbock, Amarillo and Pampa.

This much may be said, however, before the boys take the field this afternoon in the first limbering up session: Coaches Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman will tackle the material they have as if it were a sure thing for another district and bi-district championship, and the material they have will put forth their best efforts to represent Lubbock High school in a tough football season.

Coach Chapman returned yesterday from a short holiday and announced that candidates for the 1932 Lubbock High school football team would be received at the high school gymnasium this morning, beginning at 8 o'clock, and would be given regulation football equipment.

The first practice session is carded for this afternoon at Fair Park, but all candidates are asked to report at the gymnasium this morning in order to receive uniforms, shoes and all that goes with the regulation outfit.

Expect 31 Candidates

Of the 31 prospects who engaged in spring training, exactly seven helped to represent the school in "first squad" games, but only three of them, four at the outside, have played anything like regularly with the Westerners.

Louis Spear, all-district tackle last year and Dalton Blagg, regular right end, are the only regulars to return. Bill Davidson saw considerable backfield service last season. Chester McCarty was understudy to Bob Crawford, all-district center, but failed to get in many important games. This quartet is fairly certain to place in the starting lineup for the Westerners when they open the playing season on or about October 1.

McCarty At Center

McCarty is seen as the regular center, provided Chapman does not need his brains in the backfield. Howard Bain is another center candidate who played with the Cowhands most of last year. John Henry Scoggin is a hold over from the "scrub" list who goes out for center.

Hugh Newton, Robert Hale, Bob Vaught and Frank Duncan are the guard candidates expected to make good. Newton and Hale appear the early favorites.

Louis Spear is virtually certain of a tackle position, and there are five other lads to contest for the other side. George Janes, Harold Gaines, Edgar Doherty, Charles Rice and G. B. Wimberley are the boys.

Dalton Blagg at one end is a fixture. O'Dell Blackwell, Robert Stone, Alton Hankins, Lewis Speer, Wayman Newton and Sterling Cone are other end candidates.

The battle for quarterback position to succeed O. H. Britton promises to be a tight scrap between Rufus Ryan, Joe Nelson and Arthur Bradshaw, with the first two outstanding favorites.

Tol Terrill, Rayburn Hale, Sam Bradley, Weldon Hall, and Maurice Snyder are some of the halfbacks expected to report. Bill Davidson is listed as a halfback.

Robert Godeke and Truman Hutson are the leading fullback candidates on paper, with Godeke given a slight advantage in spite of Hutson's superior weight and strength. Godeke's work in spring training branded him as a contestant for the position.

Other District 1 teams are due to tee off on the practice field today. With the addition of Borger to the Class A family, six teams are in the District 1 race this year. Amarillo is given the pre-season edge, with Pampa and Plainview running strong. Little is known of Coach Wright's prospects at Slaton High.

Besides receiving the ginning, Brannen was given $40 in premiums by merchants and cotton men.

Army, Navy Grid Game Scheduled

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—The Army and the Navy will resume gridiron relations at Franklin field, Philadelphia, Dec. 3.

Five years ago—in December 1927, the two service academies decided they couldn't agree on a common basis of eligibility requirements and broke off relations. Twice since then they have played football at the call of charity and yesterday, still without yielding an inch in their ideas of what should be required of a player to make him eligible, they got together and decided to ignore the question and sign a new three-year agreement.

The demands of charity, which brought them together in 1930 and 1931 for post season games, was a primary cause of the resumption. Since they wound up by playing anyway and at a time that was injurious to the academic standing of the players, they decided to go ahead and make it official.

Navy still stands on its rule of three-year eligibility and Army holds its theory that all cadets must be considered as equal no matter how long they have played elsewhere.

A recent test has revealed that steam whistle used as inefficient as they are noisy. In a test, a 12-inch whistle used 4000 horsepower in tooting just once.

OUIMET LEADS GOLF FORCES

ENGLISH WALKER CUP TEAM STRONGEST TO BE ASSEMBLED

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 1 (AP)—Francis Ouimet, Brookline's greatest gift to golf, led his American Walker Cup forces against the strongest team England has assembled in 10 years of international play before his home folks today at the Country club.

This historic course was the scene of the present national amateur champion's greatest triumph. Just 19 years ago, while still in his teens, he astounded the world by defeating the great Britons, Vardon and Ray, for the national open title.

Four foursome matches opened the competition today and tomorrow the eight singles will be played.

Gus Moreland, the Texas star and Charlie Seaver were scheduled to meet Tony Torrance and John De Forest at 8:45 a. m.

the fresher it is—the better it is!

GASOLINE won't "keep." The older it gets—the weaker it gets. And as staleness increases—power decreases.

The "light ends" of gas—important "easy starting" elements—evaporate and a chemical change takes place—so that the longer gas is stored, the less power it gives. Too, stale gas is stickier—more apt to foul valves and carbureter. More apt to knock and thump.

The whole petroleum industry has long known these facts—has searched for a way to halt the deterioration of gasoline.

During the past several years, Gulf has worked on the problem—has finally developed a refining and distributing system that assures the motorist of getting FRESH, full-powered gasoline.

First, by giving you the best gasoline that can be made—by so refining this gas as to take out certain complex elements that cause rapid deterioration. Hence, Gulf gas stays FRESH longer.

Second, by getting this FRESH-MADE, FULL-POWERED gas to you in a hurry. The whole vast Gulf organization has been geared up to handle gas almost as a dairy handles milk. Gulf has carefully located its huge refineries in many sections of the country, so that a stream of FRESH gas can be easily kept flowing into every one of the 45,000 Gulf filling stations. Gulf tank trucks speed FRESH gas to Gulf pumps every day in the year.

You pay for power. Get it—all of it. Get FRESH-MADE gas—delivered FRESH. Get Gulf. Use it exclusively. Your motor will be cleaner, quieter, faster.

PITTSBURGH EXTENDS WINNING STREAK TO FIVE STRAIGHT

HICAGO CUBS WIN TWELVE IN A ROW

IRATES FIGHTING TO HOLD RUNNER-UP PLACE IN RACE

BY ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates, fighting hold their runner-up position in e National league pennant race e away on another winning reak. They accounted for their fth consecutive victory yesterday hen Captain Pie Traynor hit e ome run to defeat the Braves 3 1.

The Chicago Cubs ran their winning record to 12 consecutive games a weird 10 to 9 decision over New ork. The Giants chased Lon arneke, the league's leading urler, to the showers in the first nning only to have the Cubs tie the ount in the ninth when Kiki Cuyr singled, scoring Demaree. The iants came right back with four ns, thanks to Guy Bush's wildss, but Mark Koenig and Cuyr teamed to give the league leads five in their half of the frame. The Dodgers took two from the eds, winning the opener 7 to 1 behind the four-hit pitching of Bill lark and the nightcap 11 to 10.

In the American league the igers broke Tony Freitas's winng streak at ten straight, when lon Hogsett hit two homers and ehringer one to defeat the Athtics, 5 to 4.

The Washington Senators completed their sweep of a three-game eries with the Browns, winning 7 o 6 with the aid of some hard and imely hitting and six errors.

Other teams were idle.

Partial Eclipse Is Viewed In Lubbock

Thousands of South Plains residents caught glimpses of a partial eclipse yesterday afternoon as the moon knifed nearly half-way into the heart of the sun.

On every residential street in Lubbock scores of youngsters, and many elders, watched the phenomenon through smoked glasses or exposed film. The eclipse was hidden at times by banks of clouds. The moon first edged into the sun here shortly after 1 o'clock from the northwest, and it was not until about 3:30 p. m. that the spectacle ended.

Duggan Given Lead On Complete Count

Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield has a lead of 718 votes over G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock for state senator from the 30th district with the unofficial returns complete from all 24 counties of the district and with totals revised from two counties.

Dawson county, reporting complete, gave Duggan 1,235 votes and Lockhart 1,007. Martin county, previously reported complete, voted 376 for Duggan, 507 for Lockhart. Revised totals for Andrews gave Duggan 98 and Lockhart 167.

LONG DISTANCE GOLF RECORDS FALL IN PRO TOURNEY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 1 (AP)—Long distance golf records blew over Keller today as the fight for the national professional championship entered the second round minus all but four qualifiers from the 1931 show.

Walter Hagen, five times king of the big professional championship, was among the missing—the victim of a record smashing 43-hole struggle against the iron nerved Johnny Golden of Noroton, Conn. "Wee Bobby" Cruickshank of New York was still in there pitching with one of the most valiant uphill fights in golf on the right side of his ledger. Of the 1931 qualifiers, only Golden, Ed Dudley of Wilmington, Del., Abe Espinosa of Chicago and the defending titleholder, Tom Creavy of Albany, carried on the fight.

Hagen's stirring struggle against Golden, which ended after almost seven hours with a 10-foot putt for a birdie, shattered all marathon records for modern day match play golf. The former mark was a 40-hole tussle between Reggie Lewis and "Chick" Evans in the 1920 National Amateur.

Two other overtime struggles marked the furious first round, which saw a tiny Scot named Reggie Myles of Ashland, O., eliminate Horton Smith, Chicago, on the thirty-seventh and Vincent Eldred, Pittsburgh, overcome Paul Runyan, White Plains, N. Y., star a green later.

EXPORTERS IN LEAD AGAIN

DALLAS LOSES WHILE BEAUMONT DEFEATS FT. WORTH CATS

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Paul "Pound 'Em" Easterling pounded the Fort Worth Cats into submission yesterday and elevated his mates, the Beaumont Exporters, into undisputed first place in the second half pennant race.

The Beaumont lefthander sent his thirty-third and thirty-fourth home runs out of the park to help Pitcher Luke Hamlin win his twentieth game this season with a 6 to 1 victory.

Beside hitting those homers Easterling knocked in four runs. Hamlin was nicked for nine hits but he managed to be at his best in the pinches.

Dallas Defeated

Dallas failed to stay in a tie with the Exporters through a 11 to 2 defeat by Houston. Erickson and Garland were trusted with the pitching job of keeping Dallas at the pinnacle with Beaumont, but they couldn't get Houston out.

Scoring six runs in the first three innings, Galveston walked in with a 7 to 2 victory over Longview. Thormahlen, ace of the Galveston staff, pitched seven-hit ball.

Today the Fort Worth and Beaumont series was to close, and tonight the Dallas and Houston series. Tomorrow the Dallas Steers hit Beaumont for a four-game series that many claim will determine the second half pennant.

San Antonio and Tyler were rained out yesterday.

AN UNLOVELY SPRING

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — A weak spring cost Norman Smith $10. While he was driving in the suburbs, he noticed a tan roadster, driven by four colored men, following. He speeded up. So did the other car, when suddenly an auto-spring broke. Cornered, he yielded a 10-dollar bill to the band.

Homer Jacobs Wins In Rifle Contest

CAMP PERRY, O., Sept. 1 (AP)—A target score rarely equalled was chalked up yesterday by Homer H. Jacobs of Dayton, O., in winning the Camp Perry individual small bore contest of the national rifle matches.

Jacobs scored 298 out of a possible 300, getting 100 points at 50 yards, 99 at 100 yards, and 99 at 200 yards.

In the individual long range small bore match, Wylie Montgomery Avinger, Tex., took third with 193.

LOCAL NIMRODS TAKE TO THE BRUSH AS PRAIRIE CHICKEN SEASON OPENS

While recent heavy precipitation and today's low-hanging clouds were discouraging to many hunters, the prairie chicken season opened this morning to the beat of shotgun reports and the bark of imported dogs in the Lubbock area as local and sectional gunmen sought to steal a march on the four-day season.

Local hardware stores report heavy sales of ammunition and hunting licenses during the last few days, implying that the brush will be full of hunters intent upon grabbing the bag limit of ten birds per day or per season.

Most of the hunters from Lubbock, perhaps a couple or three hundred of them, will frequent prairie chicken habitats of Yoakum, Hockley, Terry and Cochran counties, where the birds await in advertised numbers.

The mourning dove season also opens today, and continues through October. Said to be quite numerous this season, the doves are due to catch their share of lead also, as South Plains sportsmen shoulder shotguns today and throughout the season.

AMARILLO, Sept. 1. (AP)—Game wardens and ranch owners of West Texas report a plentiful crop of prairie chickens for the four-day season, September 1 to 4, which will initiate fall and winter hunting.

Only two counties in the north Panhandle, Wheeler and Collingsworth, will be closed this year. Most of the other counties in this area, north of Hall and Childress, are said to have plenty of chickens. Gaines, Yoakum, Cochran, Terry, Hockley, Bailey and Lamb counties of the South Plains also have reported the birds in large numbers.

The limit is 10 birds for one day, or for the season.

The season on mourning doves will be open during September and October. These birds are always numerous in the Panhandle.

Peelings of apples are said to contain six times as much vitamin C as the pulp near the core.

Changes Are Made In Salvation Army

Plainview will become an outpost of the Lubbock Salvation Army post with the transfer of George Wilson to Graham, Captain W. T. Wilson, local commandant, said. Plainview has had army work for about two years.

Captain Wilson plans to spend some time each week in Plainview. He is sending his tent there and soon will begin a three weeks revival meeting.

Lieut. Truman Cox, who has been here since June, was sent to Pampa and Cadet Nona Jordan transferred here from Big Spring.

A Solution

China's ills have long disturbed the world, and after nearly 20 years of almost constant revolution and battling, seem just about as far from a permanent solution as they were when Sun Yat Sen first began experimenting with democracy in the Far East.

But there is at least a ray of hope in the suggestion recently made by T. V. Soong, minister of finance and one of the leading figures in China. His suggestion is that the Nanking government start taxing the foreign concessions within China's vast domains and use the money obtained therefrom to promote a stable government, stamp out communism by educational methods, and to promote economic development.

One of China's great problems has always been the raising of sufficient money to carry on the work of government. The real reason for this situation has been that the richest parts of the nation—the foreign concessions—paid no federal taxes.

American and British investors in China have no more right to go tax free than have American and British concerns in Argentina or Canada.

And if Mr. Soong's suggestion is finally adopted a long step forward will have been taken—a step looking to the emergence of China as a greater nation able to buy and sell more goods to pay her debts, and hold up her head in world affairs.

Some people have their big moments in the wee hours.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says the main thing wrong with married life is that there are too many wash days and not enough pay days.

It takes a contractor, eight carpenters, five bricklayers, two plumbers and four painters six weeks to build a home, but it only takes 'the other woman' five minutes to wreck it.

Another thing The Plainsman has a hard time working up a sweat about is a partial eclipse of the sun.

IF you tried to get The Avalanche-Journal office on the telephone any time between Saturday at 6 p. m. and Tuesday at the same time and were unable to 'get through', don't feel badly.

According to latest statistics presented by the local phone company, there were approximately 9,999 others in the same boat with you.

Oren Thomas, district Bell company manager, offered the statistics to The Plainsman yesterday after what was unquestionably the longest 'run' ever made upon a South Plains telephone.

The two trunk lines which run into the newspaper office—Numbers 13 and 14—were swamped with calls day and night.

The Plainsman offered this report to the 'little woman' at home and she seemed unimpressed.

"That doesn't interest me", was her remark. "What I'd like to have is the report on how many misguided souls called here at the house and got me out of bed at all hours of the night, when you were helping get the paper out!"

THE Plainsman's private and confidential scout, who reports intermittently upon business conditions over the South Plains, was in yesterday—this time with a good report.

"In the last three weeks", he said, "my business has been exactly double that of the same three-week period of last year. Things are looking a lot better."

The gentleman in question travels for a large concern does business with all sorts of mercantile houses over the broad territory. He has his finger pretty well on the pulse of retail business and knows that of which he speaks.

He commented, also, upon the fact that people are feeling a lot better than they have been for some time—a condition which he feels bodes well for fall and winter and in which the representative of a large eastern mortgage company concurs.

THIS mortgage company representative was telling The Plainsman yesterday that things are likewise brightening up for his company, which has holdings scattered over a large part of West Texas as well as in other localities. He feels pretty good now, since a month ago it looked like there was nothing under the shining sun to keep his company from folding up.

"People who have been having a lot of trouble with their payments", he said, "apparently have taken a new lease on life. Give us a little time, they are saving now, and we'll come out all right. They're seeing the light of day."

As this column offered a couple of days ago, the depression isn't over and won't be over until we batter through quite a few more obstacles still standing between us and normalcy.

But conditions are undeniably better, as the presidents of two Lubbock banks have said to your humble servant in the past couple of days.

If everything keeps rocking along as it has been for the past couple of weeks these two Lubbock bankers believe we'll soon be in better shape than we've been for two years.

Two old maid school teachers from Central Texas stopped in a small West Texas town recently, enroute to Carlsbad caverns. They put up for the night in a little, oldfashioned two-story frame hotel. One of the pair, inclined to be worrisome when traveling, couldn't rest until she had made a tour of the corridors to hunt out exits in case of fire.

The first door she opened unfortunately happened to be a bathroom, occupied at the time by a gentleman.

"Oh! Excuse me!" stammered the old maid. "I'm looking for the fire escape." Then she ran for it.

To her dismay she hadn't gotten far along the hall until she heard a shout behind her and, looking around, saw the gentleman wearing only a towel running after her.

"Hey, wait!" he bawled. "Where's the fire?"

THE Plainsman has sympathy for farmers in Iowa, Nebraska and adjoining territories who seek a living wage for their produce but does not sympathize with their methods in attempting to attain their goal.

And when the facts are all marshalled, you may bet there is somebody behind those farmers, advising lawlessness as a means of reaching their end.

Public highways are public highways; the term means what it says and even though farmers aren't being paid enough for their produce they have no right to attempt a blockade and, by force, keep others from carrying on lawful business.

Use of force on the part of strikers of any kind cannot help but hurt any cause.

An educated, intelligent public simply will not stand for it, even though many may sympathize with strikers in some particular endeavor.

Old Man Gandhi may be right or wrong in his contention of freedom for India, but regardless of that he caused more world attention to be focussed upon himself and his cause by his campaign of 'passive resistance' than if his followers had slaughtered a regiment of British troopers.

They Made It, But It Doesn't Do Them Any Good!

Will Everett Sanders And James A. Farley Suffer Usual Fate Of Campaign Managers And Drop Off Into Oblivion?

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1 — The men who manage and help manage political campaigns are a hapless lot. Nobody loves them and usually they are not especially lovable. If their candidate loses they usually drop off into oblivion and even when he wins they are likely to learn that theirs is a jinxed and thankless job.

Dutcher

In fact you might say that Democratic political managers have usually been happily forgotten once their man lost the election whereas Republican managers more often than not have remained in the picture a while only to squirm and suffer.

William M. Butler, the Massachusetts millionaire, was Calvin Coolidge's campaign manager and all he got out of it was a temporary appointment to the Senate and a couple of tragic tries at being elected to that job with Cal's endorsement. He has faded back into the position of a campaign contributor, if he is that.

The Hoover Henchmen

Mr. Hoover's hand-picked Republican national chairmen have been successively Dr. Hubert Work, Claudius Huston, Senator Simeon Fess of Ohio and former Congressman Everett Sanders, whose last public job was that of secretary to Coolidge.

Sanders is new at the post, having been appointed for the 1932 campaign but the other three went out to the tune of much rejoicing, whether loud or subdued, among Republicans. Work was the victim of his own ineptitude? Huston the victim of his private activities as disclosed by the Senate lobby committee and Fess merely a victim of Fessism.

Mr. Sanders may vet fool everybody by blossoming out as an able effective manager, but most of the comment on him to date has been confined to speculation as to how he came to be considered for the job, let alone appointed. He may be considered as a more or less typical Republican campaign manager however, and one is reminded that his home state of Indiana has bred plenty of good politicians, even though Mr. Sanders does seem to be a rather colorless, unimaginative person.

Benjamin and Brown

A couple of gents in the background, holding no official campaign position, are expected to do most of the fast, more important thinking.

First, there is Hoover's close friend Ray Benjamin, who is credited with a keen mind and great political sense and then there's Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, one of the few administration politicians on whom no flies have been observed at one time or another.

Robert H. Lucas, who has been executive director of the national campaign and really ran things during the Fess tenure is now a mere assistant to the chairman at Chicago national headquarters and seems to have been relegated to the comparatively obscure position for which he has been headed ever since he tried to trick Senator George Norris out of nomination and election in Nebraska. One hears that they wouldn't even let Lucas call himself assistant chairman.

Farley's Outlook

It must be admitted that Jim Farley, the Roosevelt manager, is widely respected and liked. Farley was guilty of the two-thirds rule fiasco and other fumbles at Chicago, but he came through on top. Of course if his man loses the election no one is likely to hear of Mr. Farley again and there are plenty of pitfalls ahead of him prior to November.

Most of those who know him wish him better political luck than fell on Clem Shaver, the fine old West Virginian who went into oblivion after John W. Davis was licked in 1924, or John Raskob, who after losing with Al Smith built up a fighting party machine, spent a lot of money and after the convention nominated his enemy Roosevelt found himself with naught but notes for $400,000.

Forming a guiding triumvirate at New York headquarters with Farley are Louis Howe, Roosevelt's secretary and for years his confidential man, and Robert Jackson of New Hampshire, secretary of the national committee. Howe is credited with brains but appears to be markedly unpopular in spots. Jackson has a reputation as a mediator.

The Democratic managers haven't been on the scene long enough to indicate whether they will outshine the Republican managers. They are introducing some innovations in campaign management and it remains to be seen how the schemes work.

ROTARY CLUBS MEET HERE

NEARLY 200 MEMBERS OF SOUTH PLAINS HONOR ANDERSON

Nearly 200 South Plains Rotarians attended an inter-city meeting here Wednesday to honor H. C. (Andy) Anderson, district governor of the 41st district of Rotary International, of Ranger, on his first official visit to Lubbock and this section.

Delegations from Rotary clubs at Amarillo, Plainview, Ralls, Littlefield, Slaton, Stamford, Brownfield, Levelland and Post attended the gathering which consisted of a chicken barbecue served by the local club and an interesting program in which Mr. Anderson, Dr. Bradford Knapp, new president of Texas Tech, and Bernard Bryant, past district governor, made talks. Music was furnished by Ross Edwards and his orchestra and the "Imperial Polecat band" from Ralls. A three-round boxing exhibition between two Tech students, Demp and Kemp Cannon, preceded the talks.

Mr. Anderson praised Lubbock and South Plains hospitality and declared clubs in this section seemed to be showing more enthusiasm than in other sections. He paid a tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Paul W. Horn, declaring that his influence probably had been felt more in Rotary than any other man in the state.

Citing the international program Mr. Anderson declared the advancement of understanding and good will as the most important work of Rotary at the present time.

"We have a challenge before us," he said, "at this time, more than any other in the world's history."

Need To Know Duty

"The world has spent a good many years in the fight for individual liberty." Dr. Knapp said in opening his remarks. "But sometimes it seems like we overdo the job. The dawn of Rotary is likely tied up with this new thing the world must do, the task of learning how to adjust ourselves in order to live with our neighbors and other nations.

"We've come to the time in America when a large part of the people need to know their duty. Three things stand out in this nation: democracy, education and christianity. Individualists of America ought to be the greatest people of the world. The question is how are we to have a better nation. How are you going to have a better nation, a better state, a better Lubbock unless you have a larger number of better individuals? That's where we educators come in. No dictator can wave his wand and have a better people. A nation must grow in the knowledge of the individual and in the intellect of the individual. To me the acquisition of knowledge is the greatest thing in the world."

Thank You Again

It is impossible to express in words my heartfelt thanks to the voters of Lubbock, and adjoining counties, for the large vote given me for State Senator last Saturday. The splendid work of many loyal friends made the victory possible. I am very grateful. Through unselfish service to the State and District I shall endeavor to really show my appreciation.

AWYER NAMED AS RECEIVER

BBOCK MAN CHOSEN N HARVEST QUEEN MILL LITIGATION

AINVIEW, Sept. 1—(Special)—W. Sawyer, of Lubbock has been ed as receiver for the Harvest en Mill and Elevator company lainview in a court order signed Judge Charles Clements of the judicial district in vacation. He ves Wiley Blair and Carl J. Mil- and has assumed his duties, hav- made bond for $10,000 through National Surety company of York. H. B. Robertson & com- of Amarillo have been named audit the accounts of the firm o the time that the new receiver take charge.

he court was presented with a tion, signed by seventy-two of creditors" of the mills, asking Albert G. Hinn be named as re- er for the mills, due to his experience in the milling and ator business. On the court's motion, T. W. Sawyer was ap- ted.

r. Sawyer formerly lived in nview and for a long time was employe of the Harvest Queen and Elevator company.

eceivers for the mill were first ointed by Judge Clements on ember 4, 1931, when he named l Miller and O. M. Unger as ivers upon the application of Chase Bag company. Mr. Un- did not qualify and act. Fol- ng application of the Empire e Bag company, et al., for a ral receivership, Wiley Blair named as co-receiver by the rict court here. A jury in fed- court at Lubbock, passing on application of the Empire com- y for a federal receivership, de- ed the Harvest Queen Mill was bankrupt, returning this ver- last May 31, and the receiv- ip appointed by district court has been in control of the perties and assets of the com- .

e unofficial returns, Mrs. Mir- A. Ferguson led in the race for gubernatorial nomination by less n 2,500 votes in one of the close- races in Texas history. Governor rling said he was confident he ived a substantial majority of the votes lawfully cast.

The prohibition resolution was in- duced by Representative Jack ler of Dallas, P. L. Anderson of n Antonio, and Julian Harrison l Paso.

The resolution stated that Presi- t Hoover had broken his long nce on the question by saying thought some change ought to made and that it had always n the principle of democracy t the sovereign power should be ed in and retained by the ple.

Long Session Seen

There were prospects that the slature would remain in session constitutional limit of 30 days if vernor Sterling accedes to the uest of the senate that he sub- reduction of salaries and revis- of appropriations and if the se proceeds with a proposed in- tigation of the state highway de- tment.

The senate adopted, 18 to 10, a olution by Senators Tom De- y of Bogata and W. R. Poage of eo asking submission of reduc- n of salaries and revision of ap- priations. Many believed the se would concur.

investigation of the highway de- tment was proposed in a resolu- n drafted by Representative I. J. ns of Brady. It was referred to committee on highways and hor traffic.

Governor Sterling stated during recent gubernatorial campaign would leave salary reductions to regular session convening next nuary. Numerous charges invol- g the highway department were de by the governor's opponents the two primaries.

Opponents of submission of sal- reductions and appropriations d the subject should be left alone the legislature could pass other lef laws and adjourn.

Sponsors of the resolution argued st reduction in appropriations, number of employes and sal- es constituted real tax relief.

FARM STRIKE

rs and truck drivers occurred last ht. At Omaha, Sheriff C. B. Mc- nald and forty deputies escorted eral trucks through the block- west of the city under diffi- ties. Pickets sought to halt their gress by throwing tree trunks in road and hurling sticks, stones, planks at the drivers. At South ux City, Neb., a crowd of pick- s estimated at 400 turned back livestock trucks after a brief gh in which a number of men re injured slightly.

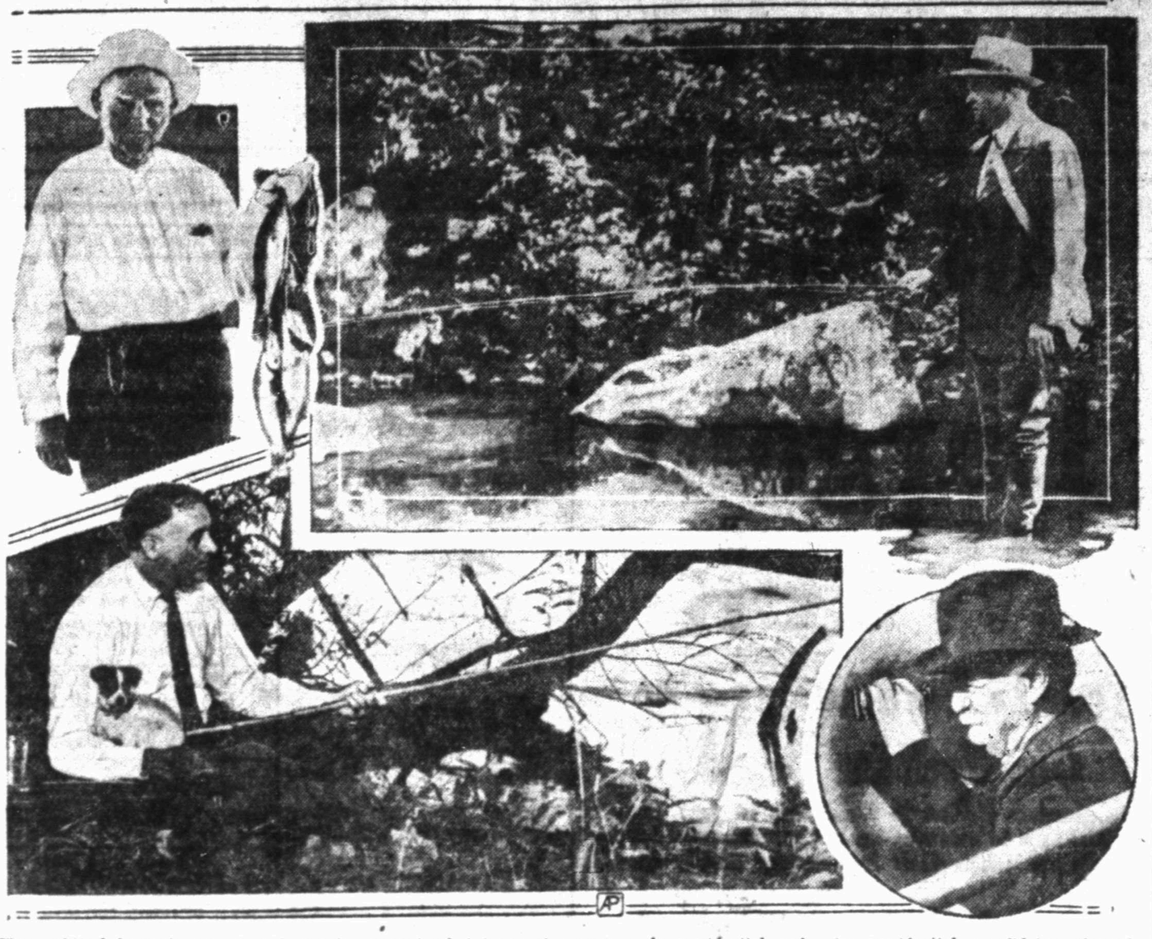
Candidates All—And Izaak Waltons Under The Skin



When political demands are put aside for the moment, what forms of recreation do presidential and vice presidential candidates choose? Speaker John N. Garner (upper left) took time out from his vice presidential campaigning on the Democratic side to bring in a nice catch. President Hoover (upper right), at his Rapidan camp, found Izaak Walton's favorite sport to his liking, while his Democratic opponent, Franklin D. Roosevelt (lower left) also has found fishing a pleasant way to pass the time. Vice President Charles Curtis appears the exception to the prevailing fondness for angling. He is shown with his glasses taking in one of the many horse races that make his vacation days pleasant.

setups changed abruptly to sun- set conditions.

Then, for the minute and a half while the sun was com- pletely darkened the test radio waves behaved almost precisely as if it were night. Their action showed that in the darkened sky the waves were ascending much higher before being re- flected back to earth. It was an- nounced that showed the in- visible layer had abruptly re- treated much higher under cov- er of darkness.

When the sun reappeared, the radio reception changed back to daytime conditions as it does at sunrise. The layer apparently had been forced down closer to earth.

The "miracle" of all observa- tions was reported by Prof. S. L. Boothroyd, director of the Cornell university expedition, stationed at Newport, Vt. In the midst of hopelessly thick clouds, a small hole appeared, for two minutes. And in that hole was the total eclipse.

Two eminent astronomers charged that the "celestial ex- press," the moon's shadow, was late. Two or three seconds be- hind schedule said Dr. Frederick Slocum of Wesleyan university, observing at Center Conway, N. H. Ten seconds late, said Dr. Philip Fox, director of the Ad- ler planetarium, Chicago, who observed at Island Pond, Vt.

Something must be done about this tardiness in the opinion of astronomers, for extremely re- fined accuracy about the moon's motion is the basis of practical calculations used by man, and particularly of the tide charts used by sailors.

Fort Worth Man Is Being Sought Here

Lubbock police have been request- ed to aid in location of J. A. Mc- Nutt, 44, of Fort Worth, who is be- lieved to be in West Texas buying gold and selling insurance. McNutt, wanted at Fort Worth because of the grave illness of his wife, is five feet seven inches tall and weighs 125 pounds.

Persons with information as to McNutt's location are requested to write Mrs. Henry Mills, 2905 Che- nault street, Fort Worth.

Fighting Resumed In Ecuador Today

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 1 (AP) — Fighting was resumed in the vici- nity of Quito today as loyalist forces began a concerted attack on the city to drive out backers of Neptali Bonifaz, contender for the presi- dency.

Loyalist infantry advanced slow- ly under cover of artillery fire. Airplanes flew above the rebel po- sitions.

Four Navy Fliers Killed In Crash

COLON, Canal Zone, Sept. 1 (AP) —Four United States navy fliers were killed today when their plane crashed from 400 feet near the fleet air base.

The dead: J. H. Schnitzlein, 35, Brooklyn, N. Y.; W. F. Manthorn, chief radio operator, 32, Brockton, Mass.; D. R. Glaze, aviation ord- nance man, Hopkins county, Texas; C. Bugonian, 22, Binghampton, N. Y.

COMMISSIONER MARRIES

MORTON, (Special)—John Ty- son, commissioner-elect from pre- cinct 4 and Miss Virgie Johnson were married August 20 at Por- tales, N. M. Mr. Tyson is a well known farmer in the northwest part of the county.

WILSON PAIR MARRIED

WILSON, (Special)—Miss Lee Corley and Mr. James Dulin motored to Lovington, N. M., re- cently and were married. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Corley and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Dulin. Both are well known in northeast Lynn county.

Rewards Him

Regarded as a reward for his suc- cessful prosecution of Al Capone, a district judgship has been conferred upon George E. Q. Johnson, above U. S. attorney at Chicago, by Presi- dent Hoover. Johnson, whose relent- less drive against the nation's pre- mier gangster resulted in Capone's long prison term, was named judge for the northern district of Illinois. His appointment is subject to con- formation by the next senate.

FERGUSON

had no big six-shooter rangers to go out and intimidate, unlawfully arrest unoffending voters simply because they might want to vote for Ferguson. In short, the Ferguson campaign was one of law and or- der. The Sterling campaign was the blackest spot in the history of all Texas. I warn the people of this state now of the intention of this Sterling, Tom Love, Moody combi- nation to further debauch the elec- tions in Texas and call to arms the people everywhere to stand firm in their resentment and resistance of another attempt to deprive them of a victory gloriously won. It is in- deed an insult for Sterling to talk about the 'orderly processes' of the election laws of Texas. He knows not as much about the 'orderly processes' of the law as a pig knows about perjury and he is now, as in the past, the ignorant tool of a vic- ious faction who seeks to hold con- trol of the government for special privilege and official corruption.

Still A "Horatius"

"I want the people to know that I shall not fail them in this contest and in appreciation for the patrio- tic support my good wife and I still stand at the bridge like Horatius of old to see that their enemies shall not pass.

"We want our friends to attend the meetings next Saturday of the county executive committee and re- quest and demand if necessary the privilege to check the tally sheets containing the voters' names and see that the totals are correct.

"Let our friends who have been elected delegates to the state con- vention at Lubbock which meets on September 13, make every effort to attend and if they can't attend, then give somebody your proxy who will attend.

"Sterling's statement puts every- body on notice that he and his crowd intend to now thwart the will of the people expressed at the polls, and our friends must not fail us, and help us carry the flag to vic- tory."

Ferguson said the Texas Election Bureau "is owned by the Dallas News." He said that Sterling claim- ed nomination, "notwithstanding that all his partisan newspapers like the Fort Worth Star Telegram, the Houston Post, the Houston Chronicle, as well as the Dallas News and the Texas Election Bu- reau, declare that my wife led him by at least 2,400 majority."

Warns Sterling

Ferguson said Sterling "had bet- ter be a little careful about opening up the ballot boxes or he will prove things that he is ashamed of."

"In addition to the political hy- pocricy of Sterling about honesty in office, he now proposes to add insult to injury by talking about honesty in elections."

OLD ORDER CHANGETH

CAIRO.—The Emperor of Abyssinia has advanced a proposal to do away with a custom that has stood for centuries. Although a Christian country, all that was necessary to wed in the past was to approach a girl and recite "In the name of Men- elik, I claim thee as my wife." There was no limit to the number of wives to be had under the old rule. The proposal of the emperor, however, to limit a man to one wife, is meeting with disapproval.

BUILDING TO BE RAZED IN 10 DAYS

The building formerly occupied by the Minter-Gamel company at 1107-09 Broadway will be razed within the next ten days to make room for construction of a new structure for the S. H. Kress and company store, J. B. Maxey, local contractor, said today.

Mr. Maxey got the contract to raze the old structure from C. S. Lambie, Amarillo contractor, who is to erect the new building. Mr. Maxey also purchased material in the struc- ture.

Between 25 and 30 men will be used in the work, Mr. Maxey said. Work was scheduled to begin this afternoon.

The ground must be cleared of all material by September 12 under Mr. Maxey's contract.

Suspect Arrested For Counterfeiting

BORGER, Sept. 1 (AP)—A sus- pected counterfeiter was arrested to- day at Wheeler in connection with the passing of bogus currency here. The man was taken to Amarillo, where charges will be filed.

Local officers were aided by a secret service agent in apprehending the man. A printing press and a number of spurious $1, $5 and $10 bills were seized at Fritch, where it was believed the counterfeit money was manufactured.

Machine Gun Used In Looting Of Bank

FLANDREAU, S. D., Sept. 1 (AP)— Machine gun bandits raided the First National bank of Flandreau early today, kidnaped a girl clerk, slugged a customer and fled with about $2,000.

The girl, Alma Weide, was car- ried about a mile out of town before the bandits stopped their car and released her unharmed.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 1 (AP)—Scattered buying gave grains a fairly steady tone at the start today, despite heavy deliveries on September con- tracts and easiness of stocks and cotton. Trade was small with buy- ers waiting for the private crop estimates before committing them- selves. Wheat opened steady to 3-8 cent lower and held within narrow limits. Corn started steady to 1-4 down and later advanced.

POLE TO RESIGN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1 (AP)— John W. Pole, comptroller of the currency, today announced he would soon submit his formal resignation to President Hoover.

At the table of the Roman Em- peror Heliogalalus, combs of cocks were considered a great del- icacy.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 8 to 12 points higher on steadier Liver- pool cables and less favorable weather.

There was trade buying as well as covering promoted by nervous- ness over the gulf storm which was reported central between Mobile and Meridian, Miss., this morning. The demand was supplied by fur- ther realizing or liquidation, how- ever, and after the first wave of buying had been supplied, prices broke sharply.

December contracts which had advanced to 8.63 sold off to 8.40 with the general list showing net losses of about 7 to 10 points at the end of the first half hour. Some of the early buyers seemed to be reselling on the setback. Trad- ing was fairly active but the volume of business was smaller than recently. A private crop re- port was published placing the con- dition of the crop at 54.2 and the indicated yield at 11,373,000 bales.

Liverpool cable reported liquida- tion and hedging in that market and said the uncertainty of deliver- ies was restricting business in cot- ton cloths.

The decline from the opening advance extended to 8.37 for De- cember, making net losses of about 10 to 13 points. Offerings were ab- sorbed by covering or trade buy- ing around these figures and prices steadied later when there appear- ed to be some buying for a rally following the decline of about 129 points from the high levels of last Monday. At midday, the market was steady with the more active months about 3 to 7 points net higher. According to reports reach- ing the trade here, the gulf dis- turbance which moved inland last nigt showed diminishing intensity, but another disturbance was re- ported, central about 180 miles northwest of Puerto Rico and mov- ing west-northwest.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1 (AP)—The cotton market had a steadier open- ing today although Liverpool came in lower than due. First trades show- ed gains of 4 to 10 points and the market continued to improve af- ter the start on the theory that the tropical disturbance would bring heavy rains to the eastern belt. Oc- tober traded up to 8.44 and Decem- ber to 8.63 or 12 to 14 points above yesterday's close.

This rally, however, started con- siderable fresh liquidation and be- fore the end of the first hour, Oc- tober had dropped to 8.32 and De- cember to 8.48, or 12 to 15 points down from the opening highs.

The market appeared to be still under the influence of profit-taking and long liquidation.

Secretary Hester said the total exports for August were 480,814 bales against 191,091 bales in Au- gust last year.

The market continued to ease off during the first part of the second hour on liquidation by longs and hedge selling, October dropping to 8.22 and December to 8.38 or 22 to 25 points down from the early highs and 11 to 12 points below yester- day's close. The low point of 8.22 for October represented a decline of 126 points from the highest of the season reached last Saturday. Later the market rallied on a sharp upturn in stocks and on prospects of too much rain in the cotton belt. October advanced to 8.37 and De- cember to 8.59, a recovery of 15 to 21 points from the previous close at mid-session the market was quieter but steady.

A private authority estimated the crop at 11,373,000 bales.

NEW ORLEANS SPOT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1 (AP)— Spot cotton closed, steady 5 cents down. Sales 2,458; low middling 7.70; middling 8.15; good middling 8.50; receipts 1,028; stock 887,810.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP)—The stock market simmered down to a quiet professional trading affair today, with bulls easily dominating the situation.

Selling quickly dried up after the first hour and a number of shares rallied to show net advances of 1 to 4 points. What looked like pro- fessional bullish activity was in progress in a number of minor is- sues but the market obviously was restricted by the approach of the holiday week-end.

The improvement in cotton and tobacco prices made for a friend- lier feeling toward some southern issues. Gulf States Steel, Louisville and Nashville and Atlantic Coast Line rose about 2 to 4 points to new highs for 1931. Rails generally were higher, with Union Pacific, Santa Fe and Pennsylvania up about 2. Westinghouse rose more than 2 points to a new 1932 high and issues up 2 to 3 included Colo- rado Fuel and Iron, Allied Chemi- cal, Case, Liggett & Myers "B", Gotham Silk Hosiery, and others.

DIES OF INJURIES

KILGORE, Sept. 1 (AP)—Jim Studdard, 24, died here Wednesday as a result of injuries received Monday when he was knocked down by a broken cable on an oil well.

TWO MEN FREED OF THEFT COUNT

After deliberating about five min- utes, a jury in corporation court this morning acquitted J. R. Mor- ris and Horace Patterson of theft of three hammers.

A negro arrested today with four cartons of cigarets was released af- ter investigation, police being un- able to determine whether the ciga- rets were stolen. The negro, how- ever, left the jail without the ciga- rets. He gave them to a lawyer who represented him.

Lee Brown, charged with fighting in a complaint filed in justice court, was fined $14.75. Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell said B. L. Stew- art, charged with swindling by worthless check, was at liberty in bail of $100. Another Lubbock man, not arrested late today, was charged with swindling by check.

A vigil by county officers at an Avenue R residence, where ten one- half gallons of liquor were confis- cated last night, was unproductive the sheriff's department said today. The owner of the liquor still is be- ing sought.

Four youths living in the County Line community were fined $1 and costs Wednesday afternoon for theft of oil and gasoline from R. B. Winn. Justice Connell said the youths had made deferred judgment bonds.

STERLING

the first primary in July, in which Mrs. Ferguson led Sterling by more than 100,000, that many illegal votes had been cast, alleging the votes counted in 132 of the 254 coun- ties were in excess of the poll tax receipts issued in each.

It was charged that in the East Texas oil field especially were many unlawful votes counted.

MRS. FERGUSON HAS 2,400 VOTE LEAD

DALLAS, Sept. 1 (AP)—Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson held a lead of about 2,400 votes over Gov. R. S. Sterling today in their contest for the Democratic gubernatorial nom- ination of Texas, but the end of the battle of ballots was far from sight.

Coincident with an announce- ment by the Texas Election bureau that it would tabulate no more re- turns until Saturday, Gov. Sterling, in a formal statement, declared he had obtained a majority of "all the votes lawfully cast" in the run-off primary last Saturday and was con- fident he would be declared the nominee.

The final unofficial tabulation by the bureau gave Mrs. Ferguson 476,- 750 votes and Gov. Sterling 474,382.

To Canvass Returns

Saturday the bureau will gather reports from counties on official re- turns. The county party officials will make formal reports to the Texas state Democratic executive com- mittee, which meets in Lubbock September 12, prior to the state Democratic convention there the next day. The committee will can- vass the official returns and the con- vention will declare the party nomi- nee.

Rudolph Eklund Is Reported Improved

Odds were in favor of Rudolph Ek- lund's recovery, it was said this morn- ing at Lubbock sanitarium. Eklund, wire chief for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, rested well last night and a marked improvement was noted today in his condition.

Eklund entered the sanitarium August 2 for an emergency append- icitis operation. Hiccoughs, perito- nitis, and pneumonia complications followed. It was said today that Ek- lund was recovering from the pneu- monia attack.

What Do You Know About the Care of Your Child's Feet?

You watch his diet, his exer- cise, his sleep—but do you give his feet the proper care and attention?

Before the day of hard-surfaced walks, streets and playgrounds, the child's feet were subjected only to the normal resiliency of Mother Earth—and no special pro- tection or footwear was needed.

Today, however, these little feet pound themselves against cement walks, asphalt streets, brick playgrounds and hard-wood floors—and they must be protected.

PROPR-BILT SHOES not only protect these little feet, but hold them in the correct growing position. Incorrect footwear now, means deformed feet in later years.

Do your part. Ask for our FREE exhibit- ograph booklet on the care of your child's feet, and investigate is being cured as thousands can testify after using

Pyorrhea

Pi-Ro-Dram

Gentlemen:

Your Pyorrhea Remedy has done wonders for me. My teeth and gums have been so sore and painful on account of this distressing disease that I could not enjoy my meals or take any comfort at any time. But after useing two bottles of your remedy my gums are entirely healed and grown back around my teeth, which were starting to get loose in the gums. My teeth seem perfectly tight in the gums.

In fact, my mouth is all clear of Pyorrhea and my general condition is very much improved. Which I believe is due to the curing of the trouble in my mouth, and I shall always be thankful that I bought your treatment.

Yours With Thanks,

FINANCIER TO START ANEW

ROGERS CALDWELL TO RENEW CAREER AT NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 1 (AP)—Rogers Caldwell, who once controlled properties valued at $600,000,000 and had a personal fortune estimated at $7,000,000, prepared today to start anew his career as a financier with a capital of $1,000.

He announced the new firm of Rogers Caldwell and company, investment banking and security concern, will start business tomorrow.

It has offices in the same building that housed the investment banking firm of Caldwell and company which was turned over to receivers Nov. 13, 1930, after the failure of its subsidiary, the Bank of Tennessee.

"I have always hoped," Caldwell said, "since my own difficulties began, to re-enter the banking business. I feel that conditions are ripe now. Three of my old associates and I are starting with a capital of $1,000."

Caldwell and company had branches in 15 cities and held a dominant position in the southern financial field for years. After its collapse, Caldwell was indicted in state and federal courts in Tennessee and Kentucky on various charges. He lost control of insurance companies and newspapers.

Caldwell, in his early forties, blamed failure of his company on the "world-wide depression."

He was convicted in Nashville last year of fraudulent breach of trust but the state supreme court reversed the judgment.

FARMERS HEAR R. J. MURRAY

PRE-DELIVERY CO-OP MEETING IS HELD AT LEVELLAND

LEVELLAND, Sept. 1.—(Special)—Hockley county farmers Wednesday afternoon gathered in the district courtroom here to listen to R. J. "Bob" Murray, general manager of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, discuss the T. C. C. A. pool plans for members. It was the fifth pre-delivery membership meeting for the Lubbock district.

W. T. Magee, county agent, presided. Other speakers included: Earl Davis, Acuff, district director; N. H. Payne, Lubbock, district manager; George W. Loveless, branch office manager and H. L. Gantz, Lubbock organization director for the district.

Defends Operation

In his talk Mr. Murray defended the operation of the farm board in the handling of cooperative marketing work for farmers. He pointed out the accomplishments of the cooperative groups handling cotton in the securing of a grade and basis for the sale of cotton instead of the former hog-around buying.

Pools this year include: 1—Seasonal pool with three divisions, opening of season to September 15; September 15 to November 15; November 15 to close of season.

2—Call pool, an optional pool with basis fixed on date of delivery.

3—Optional pool, with farmer instructing when to sell.

4—Valuation or seasonal pool.

5—Immediate fixation pool, with payment on delivery.

MEET AT LITTLEFIELD

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 1.—(Special)—Lamb county farmers are expected here this afternoon in large numbers to attend the pre-delivery meeting of the Littlefield branch of the T. C. C. A. It will be in the Palace Theater here starting at 2:30 o'clock.

A. B. Cole, local branch office manager, expects a large crowd. Farmers from Sudan, Earth, Olton, Fieldton, Spade, Amherst, Bainer and other points, are expected.

CLIMATIC CONTROL*

The Newest Scientific Achievement in Gasoline - - - - Now in the Southwest at over 12,000 Magnolia Stations and Dealers

YOU may have noticed how your car seems to run differently in the rain than it does on a hot summer day. You have noticed how one gasoline gives you a quick start on a cold morning while another rasps your temper. On long, fast drives in hot weather you may have noticed your car sputtering and missing. The reason for this variation in performance is that gasoline is extremely sensitive to changes in "engine heat".

At last something has been done about it. Mobilgas has CLIMATIC CONTROL! By this scientific achievement Mobilgas is preadjusted to every variation in temperature or altitude before it is placed on sale in your locality. Hot—cold—rain—shine—from sea level to mountain peaks, it's all the same to Mobilgas.

The outstanding advantages of Climatic Control are yours in Mobilgas without extra cost . . . plus the fact that Mobilgas gives you the highest ANTI-KNOCK performance of any regular priced gasoline. Fill your tank today . . . you'll notice a great improvement!

Mobilgas

Stay with

MAGNOLIA

and You Stay ahead

CLIMATIC CONTROL . . .

. . . is the preadjustment of the specifications of Mobilgas, before it is placed on sale in your locality. It automatically adapts itself to the variations in "engine heat", caused by changes in temperature, altitude, humidity and road "pull". In the Mobilgas Research Laboratories all these changing climatic conditions have been "manufactured" in hot and cold testing-chambers. The road performance of Mobilgas is thus scientifically verified at different "engine heats".

To Stay Put

NEW YORK—Where do suppose Harry Rosenthal, sophisticated orchestra leader, and Marjorie Le Voe, Ziegfeld beauty, are going to spend their honeymoon? Where but at Niagara Falls? "This is an old fashioned wedding that is going to stay put," he said after the ceremony yesterday, "and Niagara Falls is as good a place as I know for an old-fashioned honeymoon."

Find Biblical Spot

VATICAN CITY — Church archaeologists believe the scene of the miracle of the loaves and fishes has been found. Tradition says a church was built on the spot where Jesus fed a multitude with five barley loaves and two fishes. The Rev. Evarist Andrea Mader has uncovered the ruins of a church containing a stone supposed to mark the spot.

Bonus Days Back

CHICAGO—Bonus days are here again for the employes of Ettinger & Brand, brokers. The firm announced the help has had to work so hard taking care of increased business that they will find ten per cent extra in their pay envelopes for August.
