NEW ORLEANS, April 30.—Flood waters of the Mississippi River, rushing through the break in the Carnation levee, which was blasted with dynamite, did not materially widen the gap during the night.

At 8:00 o'clock this morning, the principal gap was from 50 to 60 feet wide and the two others showed only small expansion.

The river gauge at New Orleans showed no change.

Preparations are being made to dynamite the levee again in an attempt to open large crevasses before the rise reaches this city, reports stated.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 30.—Flood waters invaded the industrial part of Vicksburg today. Water was flowing through cracks in the river wall whose northern end, opposite the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley passenger station, and slopping over the sand-bag parapet on the north.

The waters covered more than 100 yards of railroad tracks and threatened to inundate the station and railroad shops, scores of mills, warehouses and negro tenements.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 30.—Water pouring from a new break in the Arkansas River levee at South Bend is sweeping into Gould, Dumas, Varner, McGehee, and other towns within a radius of 25 miles, at the rate of six inches rise an hour, Col. Joe Harris, in charge of the levee work of this district, reported today.

Col. Harris was unable to estimate the depth to which the towns will be inundated.

BADLY RUN-DOWN

Kentucky Woman Had "Terrible
Time" Doing Her Home Work.
Strength Returned After
She Took Cardui.

Shelbyville, Ky.—"Several years ago," says Mrs. Alven Jesse, of this place, "my health was very bad. I was very much run-down. I was in such a weak, nervous condition that I was not able to do my housework.

"I struggled to keep up, because I had to, but many a time I spent hours in bed, trying to force enough
strength to go through the daily routine.

"This condition went on for some time, until I heard about Cardui,
which some one told me was good for such ailments. I gave it an immediate trial, and, I am thankful to say, my improvement was rapid. I soon was able to do my housework
with ease and comfort. I felt fine and I looked so much better.

"This spring I was not as well as I had been. I was ill in the winter with colds, which left me weak. So I sent at once to the store for Cardui and began taking it. In just a little while I was feeling much better, my strength returned and I was able to get my work done easier and with less effort."

PRINCE OTTO VON BISMARCK

(By Associated Press)
FRIEDRICHSDORF, Germany,
April 30.—Prince Otto von Bismarck, grandson of the "iron chancellor," on May 1 will resign
his seat as German nationalist member of the Reichstag and enter the diplomatic service.

While Foreign Minister Strese-mann has not yet indicated to what task he will put the 29-year-
old embryonic diplomat, it is generally assumed he will assign him
to the American division.

"I certainly shouldn't mind
later being given a post in the United States," the young prince
said. "I am very fond of America, and my journey across it in 1926 was an unmitigated joy.

"It was always my desire to enter the foreign office service,
but party expediency seemed to demand that I first stand for parliament."

The estate was presented to the peror William I. The grandson usually motors to his estate from

"The Great Gatsby" Comes to
Palace Monday-Tuesday

Warner Baxter, Lois Wilson, Neil Hamilton, Georgia Hale, William Powell, Hale Hamilton, George Nash, Carmelita Geraghty, Eric Blone, "Gunboat" Smith and Claire Whitney are included in the cast of Paramount's production, "The Great Gatsby," to be shown at the Palace Theatre Monday and Tuesday of next week.

"The Great Gatsby," adapted from F. Scott Fitzgerald's famous novel, tells the tale of Jay Gatsby, a mysterious figure of Long Island society. His house is the rendezvous of pleasure and excitement seekers. But it wanders a lonely figure, friendless and "just a good fellow"—the host. He lives but for one thing—the girl he left behind on going to war. Married to another man, Gatsby believes she still loves him.

Warner Baxter makes a real person out of Gatsby. Lois Wilson plays Daisy Buchanan, which should be doubly interesting in view of the fact that she flaunts her new bob for the first time. Herbert Brenon directed.

It has been disclosed, that while the House does, the president sees no way in which the treasury can provide money for relief.

LEGION WILL MEET IN ANGELO

Between 30 and 40 Legionnaires from Ballinger will go to San Angelo on May 29 to attend the 16th district convention of the American Legion to be held in that city Saturday and Sunday, May 28-29. Ballinger is in the 17th district, but on account of close proximity to San Angelo a delegation from this city will go over for the convention.

The 17th district convention will be held in Coleman on June 4th and 5th. Ballinger will have large representation at this convention also.

Col. Alvin Owsley, past national commander of the American Legion, will be the principal speaker at the San Angelo gathering. He will come with Read Johnson, manager of the United States Veterans' Bureau, of Dallas. These two men with State Commander R. C. Winters will be the guests of the 16th district at this convention.

On Saturday night, the opening of the convention, there will be three different forms of entertainment for the visiting delegates. A dance will be held on the St. Angelus Hotel roof garden, a wrestling match will be staged, and there will be any show in the city at the disposal of the Legionnaires.

Starting off Sunday morning, a ride will be given the delegates over the city, at 9:30 o'clock, and at 11:00 o'clock Col. Owsley will deliver his address at a San Angelo church.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, and the final session, the business meeting, will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the Ritz Theatre, San Angelo's newest playhouse.

Registration booths will be established at both the St. Angelus and Naylor hotels for the convenience of the delegates. All delegates and visitors are requested to register upon arrival in San Angelo.

GUBERNATORIAL PORTRAITS

W. J. BULOW

(By Associated Press)

PIERRE, S. D., April 30.—Twere heresy to suggest it when they belong to different parties, but some South Dakotans have found resemblance between Gov. William J. Bulow and President Coolidge.

Anyway the quiet Yankee with twinkling eyes had been in office but a few days when he was dubbed "Silent Bill."

The state's first Democratic governor since pioneer days, Bulow has come in two years from a law office in a country community, where he never sought political preferment, to be the Democratic hope of a rock-ribbed Republican state. He demanded economy. The late legislature passed an appropriation bill he thought too large. He vetoed it in toto. It will meet in special session to draft a new one with the knowledge that when "Silent Bill" says economize he means it.

FIRE INSURANCE—

is something you take for granted—a protection every property owner should have. But don't take too much for granted. Don't think that you can take out fire insurance and forget it except when premiums are due. You must ask yourself every year if your protection is still adequate, if changing property values, improvements and additions in your property, new equipment, ect., have not affected the efficiency of existing policies. We will gladly help you take inventory of your risks.
