

HINT FROM MANTON

4644 Nine Gored Walking Skirt with Panel Effect, 22 to 30 waist.

NINE GORED WALKING SKIRT WITH PANEL EFFECT 4644.

Many gored, much flared walking skirts are greatly in vogue and mean grace and simplicity that is always desirable. This one is entirely novel and is adapted to all the season's suitings but is shown in the new mercerized linen stitched and held by pearl buttons. The gores are shaped to be narrow over the hips and to widen below the knees and those of the front, sides and back are lapped over onto the intervening ones and stitched to give the panel effect. On the panels are applied the trimming straps. The skirt is cut in nine gores and the fullness at the back is laid in inverted plaits that meet at the center and can either be stitched or pressed flat as preferred. The upper edge can be finished with a belt or cut on dip outline and under-faced or bound as preferred.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 7 yards 27 inches wide, 4 yards 44 inches wide, or 3-4 yards 52 inches wide.

The pattern 4644 is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inch waist measure.

Thousands of Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

To Prove What SWAMP-ROOT, the Great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Telegram May Have a Sample Bottle Sent FREE by Mail.

DIDN'T KNOW I HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE

I had tried so many remedies without their having benefited me that I was about discouraged, but in a few days after taking your wonderful
 Swamp-Root I began to feel better.
 I was out of health and run down

MRS. A. L. WALKER

generally, had no appetite, was dizzy and suffered with headache most of the time. I did not know that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, but somehow felt they might be, and I began taking Swamp-Root, as above stated. There is such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root, and it goes right to the spot and drives disease out of the system. It has cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers.

Gratefully yours,
 Mrs. A. L. Walker,

To Prove What SWAMP-ROOT, the Great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, Will Do for YOU, Every Reader of The Telegram May Have a Sample Bottle Sent FREE by Mail.

EDITORIAL NOTICE—No matter how many doctors you have tried—no matter how much money you may have spent on other medicines, you really owe it to yourself, and to your family, to at least give Swamp-Root a trial. Its strongest friends today are those who had almost given up hope of ever becoming well again. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery, Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root, and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women who owe their good health, in fact, their very lives, to its wonderful curative properties. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The Telegram. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere.

The cold wave probably with some snow will advance into Texas by morning.

WOMEN suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles. Perhaps you suffer almost continually with pain in the back, bearing down feelings, headache and utter exhaustion.

Your poor health makes you nervous, irritable, and at times despondent; but thousands of just such suffering or broken-down women are being restored to health and strength every day by the use of that wonderful discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

Not only does Swamp-Root bring new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of the trouble, but by treating the kidneys it acts as a general tonic and food for the entire constitution.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince any one—and you may have a sample bottle sent free by mail.

In taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that has ever been discovered. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

on his scalded body, has been paid $15,000 by the railroad company as compensation for his injuries.

Frederick Jones attended the attention of physicians all over the country. During the time he was in the hospital 4,500 pieces of skin were grafted on his body. They were taken from the arms of volunteers, who were fellow sufferers. They came from all over New Jersey. Several times his condition became such that it was thought he would die. He has now left the hospital, and is expected to be able to walk within a few days.

Frederick was an employee of the United States Express company, and was riding on a pass which stipulated that the railroad was to be exempt from damages in case of accident. It was contended that this stipulation would not hold in court, however, and the company settled rather than have the case come to trial. His compensation amounts to $10 for each piece of skin grafted on him.

RETAIL CLERKS HAVE A MEETING

Many New Members Admitted.
 Work of Unionizing Grocery Stores

Local 218, Retail Clerks' association, met Monday evening with a good attendance, there being a large number of lady members present. The following applicants were elected to membership: Messrs. I. P. Carr, J. L. Grist, W. C. Sykes, C. H. Moore, Mrs. Rosa Tucker.

The following were initiated: J. C. Murray, J. W. Wells, I. P. Carr, Misses Bertha Walker, Marie Shookmaker, Gertrude Fowler, Bertha Cannon, Mrs. Rosa Tucker.

An invitation from Rev. J. S. Meyers of the Third Christian tabernacle to the retail clerks of Fort Worth to attend a conference to the clerks Sunday evening, Feb. 14, was accepted.

Henry Walker, an old member and president of Local 218, but now national organizer of the American Federation of Labor, was present and made a very enjoyable talk strongly urging that all union people and those not members of unions patronize union stores and thereby help better the conditions of the large number of young men and women now engaged as salesmen in Fort Worth.

The local is making marked progress. Its membership now numbers 250.

The work of unionizing the grocery houses is still being pushed very strongly, and it is expected that before many days all young men now working fifteen or sixteen hours daily will have a twelve-hour day with rest on Sunday.

After you see the Majestic range at Nash Hardware Co's, you will wonder how you managed to get along without one. Don't get left.

CAPTAIN FLYNN IS ILL

Resident of this City Reported in a Serious Condition

A dispatch received in this city early this morning from El Paso conveyed the sad intelligence of the serious condition of Lucien Flynn, captain in the United States navy, who is now in that city for the benefit of his health, which is reported to be very bad. Captain Flynn is said to be at Philadelphia. The family residence is located at 905 East Bluff street.

Captain Flynn has several sisters living in Texas, two, Mary and Ida, reside in this city. The former is now with her sick brother in El Paso. Another sister, Mrs. O. H. H. Garrett, lives at Paris, and Mrs. Smith, also a sister, lives at Corsicana.

Telegrams advising them of the brother's serious illness have been sent from El Paso.

He is a single man, and well known in Fort Worth where he spent the greater part of his boyhood life.

IN THE COURTS

In the matter of Kid Kinney, application for habeas corpus release, motion to withdraw appeal and discharge application Judge Mike Smith in the Seventeenth district court this morning entered a record that the judgment heretofore rendered is herewith set aside and application dismissed. The question raised having been settled by the criminal court of appeals.

This action taken today by Judge Smith is because of the fact that the district court has no jurisdiction in the case.

The attorneys representing the defendant will now make application to the

AN OLD CHECKER GAME

Begun 500 Years Ago in China Was Finished in Cleveland, Ohio

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 9.—A series of games of Chinese checkers, begun in China 500 years ago was completed in Cleveland. Ong Lee, clerk in a Chinese grocery in Buffalo, and Hop Ying, an artist in Chicago, were the last players. The games were played in the local Chinese colony.

Ancestors of Ong Lee and Hop Ying were enthusiastic students of the game of checkers. A contest between them was interrupted by the death of one. The other wrote down the status of the uncompleted games and the manuscript was preserved. Recently the descendants found each other in this country and finished the game.

CZAR'S PROCLAMATION
 Declaring a State of War to Exist is Expected Tomorrow

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 9.—The news that Japan has duplicated her tactics at the opening of the China-Japanese war by a torpedo attack on the Russian ships off Port Arthur created intense excitement when the first announcement came from Viceroy Alexieff this morning. Details are anxiously awaited. Extra editions of morning papers, printed early in the forenoon after the appearance of the official message conveyed the intelligence to the population of the capital and dispelled any lingering hopes that war could be averted. The czar and his ministers who had been informed immediately of the receipt of Viceroy Alexieff's telegram, accordingly the czar and his ministers were ready to face the reality of war. The czar's manifesto declaring a state of war to exist is expected to be issued tomorrow at the latest.

Fervent activity reigned at all ministries and war preparations were pushed in all directions. The Russian Red Cross society also has sent 2000 nurses to the far east and the sisters of mercy are leaving.

Market Quotations

NORTH FORT WORTH, Feb. 9.—Out of the fifty cars of cattle yarded today, buyers found an assortment of all grades, and quotations offered, a liberal portion of the receipts being fair to well. Cattle while the bulk of the supply consisted of cows, all classes being represented. While the general market was quoted about steady there was an erratic movement to the scales, the unevenness generally falling on steers and the ordinary cow stuff.

Best steers weighing 1050 to 1150 pounds, of which there were several loads sold at $3.50 with the medium fed kinds weighing 875 to 950 pounds selling at $2.85@3.00, and a few small bunches of light common stuff at $2.15@2.50.

Best cows, in small numbers, averaging 825 pounds, sold at $2.65 with the bulk of sales on best quality at $2.10@2.50, medium butchers at $2.00@2.20, and the usual supply of light thin stuff and canners at $1.50@1.75. Calves sold a little slow though generally at steady prices with Monday's market. Bull market unchanged. Receipts normal.

ADD MARKETS

The liberal hog movement took a sudden jolt this morning and with all traders in and no late reports the day's run fell short of the 200 mark. Trading opened early on a good strong active market, as compared with yesterday's best time and the yards were soon cleared. Choice heavy hogs averaging 250 pounds sold at $5.10, with the bulk of good medium weight packer hogs changing hands at $4.90@5.00, and a few small bunches of light hogs at $3.50@4.25.

The movement of light immature stuff continues in excess to the receipts of heavy desirable hogs, and until this heavy marketward movement to all markets is checked there is little hope for any improvement in current values.

Choice sorted hogs are quoted today at $5.00@5.10, packer hogs ranging in weight between 150 and 250 pounds, at $4.90@5.00, fair quality medium weight hogs weighing 150 to 180 at $4.75@4.90, and pigs and lights at $4.00@4.50.

During the year 1902 the American farmers produced 3,523,612 bushels of corn, 87,842,712 bushels of wheat and 670,062,000 bushels of rye; also 821,233,963 pounds of tobacco, valued at $57,563,510. In 1903 they raised 10,738,226 bales of cotton and marketed 2,525,000 hogs, says the Chicago Live Stock World. The annual aggregate value of the product of dairy cows in this country now exceeds $60,000,000.

It is clear that the American tiller of the soil is not so much of a failure as a "farmer" after all.

Dr. Webber, who is director of the laboratory of plant breeding in the department of agriculture at Washington, recently declared in an address before the faculty of science of the University of Chicago that Americans are "miserable farmers," and that as a result of their ignorance they will have to "hustle in order that the United States may keep its place among the nations."

If Dr. Webber had said that most Americans are not scientific agriculturists few would dissent from his opinion. But when we come to farmers—men who cultivate the soil as a business to make the most money out of it—it will have to be conceded that American farmers are the greatest in the world.

Dr. Webber was merely talking through his hat.

S. P. Skidmore, who was formerly employed by the Haddaway-Cameron Drug Company, has moved to Marine to fill the vacancy in the Haddaway drug store caused by the resignation of W. H. Kendrick. Mr. Kendrick is a graduate of the state university and has been in business a number of places in the United States and Mexico.

Representative Martin, of South Dakota, wants an investigation of the discrepancy between the low price of cattle and the high price of beef to the consumer. He has introduced the following resolution in the house:

That the secretary of commerce and labor be requested to investigate the causes of the low prices of beef cattle in the United States since July 1, 1903, and the unusually large margins between the prices of beef cattle and the selling price of fresh beef, and whether the said conditions have resulted in whole or in part from any contract, combination in the form of trust, or otherwise, or conspiracy in restraint of commerce among the several states and territories or with foreign countries; also whether the said prices have been controlled in whole or in part by any corporation, joint stock company, or corporate combination engaged in commerce among the several states or with foreign countries; and, if so, to investigate the organization, capitalization, profits, conduct and management of the business of such corporations, companies, and corporate combinations, and to furnish to this house at his earliest convenience, the results of the investigation herein requested.

General Livestock Agent Grant Davis of the Rock Island with headquarters at Oklahoma City, was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Davis during the afternoon was the guest of General Livestock Agent T. F. Short of the same road who escorted him through the packing plants and around the yards.

CHAS. F. DODGE IS RE-ARRESTED

Cases Threaten to Be Worst Legal Tangle in History of the State

HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Charles F. Dodge was released on giving $10,000 bail in the federal court, and was immediately re-arrested on complaint made in the justice court charging him with being a fugitive from justice. Counsel for Dodge at once sued out a writ of habeas corpus and Judge Kittrell of the Sixty-first district court made it returnable instantly. The case constitutes the worst legal tangle Texas ever saw.

After the action in the local courts here Governor Lanham granted a requisition for Dodge's return to New York to answer a charge of perjury. Counsel got a writ of habeas corpus in the federal court, the court remanded the relator and admitted him to bail pending an appeal to the circuit court. Bail was furnished and the prisoner immediately was re-arrested, ostensibly to go through the same process again, thus the action of the governor and the federal judge is to be reviewed by a justice of the peace.

WHEN THE LAMBS COME

Whether we should or shouldn't have had our lambs come earlier or later, matters little now, they are coming just when we planned to have them, and our business now is to make the very most of their coming. Possibly we see now that our feed is not going to hold out as we thought it would when we "turned in" for March or April lambs. It is possible, too, that as the lambs have grown, and the wool has lengthened, we have discovered that our shed or barn room is more crowded than we thought it was going to be, but room or no room, feed or no feed, if we bred for early lambs early lambs we shall have, and as many as possible we must make live and have them strong and thriving when the pastures say they are ready for them.

One thing is certain, the stronger the ewe the stronger the lamb will be; the less trouble there will be at its birth, and the more apt its mother will be to own it. If the feed must be a little off, and we do hope it will not be, the closer every other detail is looked after the better, and the less will the feed be missed; ample exercise, absolute freedom from worry or disturbance, plenty of pure water, salt, and all the variety possible. One can frequently make better use of the feed they have by alternating either every other day or once or twice a week. No animal responds to change of feed or pasture more readily than sheep do. Corn must be fed sparingly just before and about lambing time. Oats would have to be pretty high when it would not pay to have a few, even a month or so before the March or April lambs put in an appearance. Only a handful each will make all the difference in the world with the early lamb and with its mother's power to grow it. Oats in the bundle are of course a little better than oats in the rough for sheep, but better threshed than not at all. A flat-bottomed trough is much preferable to a V-shaped one, as hoghish sheep can not choke themselves and rob less greedy ones this feed

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Fort Worth Telegram will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given at the office, 1010 and 1012 Houston street, Fort Worth.

THE STATE CONVENTION
The Telegram wants to emphasize the fact that Fort Worth people must make some effort if they want to secure one of the democratic conventions to be held in this state this year.

The Board of Trade is organized for the purpose of benefiting Fort Worth and it is incumbent upon that organization to take up the work at once. Without organization for the contest and a strong committee to urge this city, Fort Worth cannot make a landing, with Houston, San Antonio, Dallas and other towns trying for the big gatherings. The executive committee will be called to meet within a short time. At the meeting the decision where the convention will be held will be made. Unless Fort Worth goes fortified, nothing can be gained by an attempt to get the meeting here. It is a matter which is more particularly of interest to the hotel men, the restaurant men, the saloon men and those conducting lodging houses. It is to those people that the direct returns will go, but at the same time the merchants of the city will benefit by the gathering and all should get ready at once to endeavor to secure the prize. Procrastination will not get it, and the longer you delay the less time you have in which to make the effort.

THE BALTIMORE FIRE
Maryland, my Maryland, the entire country will extend sympathy to you in the destruction which has been visited upon your chief city—Baltimore. The conflagration came upon the metropolis just as the church bells were sounding for the weekly worship, and those who bent the humble knee in prayer were called from their devotions to watch the destructive work of the fire fiend. Baltimore has suffered a loss from which it is hard to recover. It matters not that the city is a wealthy one. It has lost its most valuable business district, it has lost its most valuable buildings, and the structural ornaments which covered broad acres and were devoted to the commercial supremacy which the city maintained in the east. Were soon obliterated from their various sites.

Other cities have had their conflagrations, Chicago being a sufferer in 1871, London in 1866, San Francisco in 1851, Boston in 1872, and Galveston in 1885, but none of these equal in loss the great fire in Baltimore. All of those cities recovered from the conflagrations. But Baltimore meets her loss in modern times when more money has been expended on buildings, when greater improvements had been accomplished, and when forty solid squares of business buildings mean much more than forty solid squares meant years ago. Baltimore will recover from this conflagration, but it will require time. While she is recovering, if it is decided by the people of Baltimore that there are those in the city who are in distress, who are destitute and who need help, they have but to send the appeal broadcast throughout this country and there will be a generous response.

AN ELECTIVE JUDICIARY

Representative Gordon Russell, the successor in congress of the Hon. R. C. De Graffenreid of the Third Texas district, has introduced a joint resolution in the house providing for an amendment to the constitution under which all United States district court judges and district attorneys shall be elected by the voters of the districts in which they are to serve, under laws enacted by the state legislatures. It is also provided that supreme court justices shall hold office for terms of twelve years, circuit court judges for eight years, and district court judges for six years.

Just at the present time, the republican party is maintaining a stronghold on those appointive offices which are to be made elective under the plan proposed by Mr. Russell, and possibly because the spoils have gone to that political organization, the gentleman from Tyler is seeking to change it, but there is very little chance for him to be successful. The Telegram believes in all officers being chosen by the people, but with politics in the present condition of manipulation, it is hardly probable the people would care to see the federal judiciary dragged in the mire as is often those judgeships which are made elective in the states. We see in this state the district judge carrying on a campaign from the bench. He excuses farmers from jury service because it is campaign year; he does numerous things and the office is dragged out for a scrap

THERE IS NO LINE OF BUSINESS

That cannot be profitably advertised.

The grocery business,
The dry goods business,
The hardware business,
The banking business,
The jewelry business,
The drug store,
The laundry business.

It would be next to impossible to name a line of business that could not be benefited by judicious use of printers' ink. Many interesting points that would attract the public's eye and patronage can be told about every line of business. People are hungry for store news of every description. Why not take space in The Telegram for a few weeks and see what advertising will do for you?

Philosophy at 105

Away up in the backwoods town of Harrington, Me., is a woman who has just celebrated her 105th birthday anniversary.

Incidentally she is an inveterate smoker, having formed the habit when a child from lighting her mother's pipe—the pipe of our grandmothers. She smokes practically sixteen hours out of the twenty-four and sleeps heartily the other eight without troubled dreams.

But let us not fall into the error of supposing that this old woman ascribes her longevity to smoking. So many of those who hover about the century mark are inveterate smokers that we are apt to accept the apparent connection for more than it is worth.

This Mrs. Cox thinks she has lived long because she always worked hard enough to get up an appetite and has eaten what she wanted. She confesses that she never bothered herself much about the reason, but has contentedly gone on living.

"It's 'eat this and don't eat that,' and be careful not to do so and so," that kills people," she says. "My way is to live human—eat what you want to eat, and plenty of it. Don't be too fussy about yourself and don't fret yourself about things you can't help. Most of the men and about all of the women nowadays just worry themselves off'n the face of the earth."

This old woman has garnered some rich wisdom. She has lived in the backwoods, but human life in its essential fundamentals is not different in the backwoods from that in the most resplendent social circles of the cities.

We are all alike in having stomachs and worries. We may master them or let them master us in the one kind of life as well as in the other.

There is no doubt that worries do kill people. They do shorten life. The man or woman who can reduce the sum total of his or her worrying not only lives longer but lives better. It is not infrequent for these good old people in backwoods towns to rise up and convict the rest of the world of folly by pointing to their longevity as proof of the correctness of their theory of right living.

In the remote corners of a county, just as a lot of cross roads fellows would fight for the constable's job. The election by the people principle is a good one; but the entire country would be better off if the judiciary was all appointive, and was thus taken out of ward politics. Speaking on the subject, the New York Sun says:

The experience of the nation with judicial officers appointed to serve during good behavior has been thoroughly satisfactory so far. The supreme court, offering no pecuniary inducements to a successful lawyer, has attracted the highest talent in the land in honorable competition for preferment to it, and the subordinate courts have been manned generally by men of the highest standing in their profession. The states having elective judiciaries have not obtained the services of better men for judges than those in which the appointive system prevails, nor is the independence of the bench increased by limiting the term of office. Why should the United States be asked to abandon a judicial system that has given splendid results?

It is said the candidates for office in Hill county have formed a combine and will not patronize the newspapers. It is about time there was a stop put to this howl about the newspapers robbing the candidates. The Telegram desires to say that no candidate in Texas could pay the commercial rates of a newspaper for the matter he gets in the course of a campaign. It has been the custom of the papers to charge a specified sum for an "announcement" of each candidate. If this "announcement" was figured at the regular commercial rates, the candidates would hold up their hands in horror. They do not know what advertising rates are really worth. What they get is worth far more than they pay, and this thing of "cussing" the newspaper every campaign is becoming tiresome.

Hereafter, when a man asks for a state office, let him enumerate the members of his family who are running with him on the ticket. Then we can know whether we are voting for just one or a half dozen.

If some of these people who practice nepotism would announce the names of those members of the family whom they expected to favor with appointments, probably they would stand less chance of getting the jobs from the people.

A stranger in the city looks at the city hall and asks why the clock faces are boarded up in the tower. That tower would look better if the dials were there.

The rumors that war is in progress in the far East have been in circulation for three days and President Roosevelt has not yet "batted in" on the fighting. What is the matter?

ST. VALENTINE.

Valentine, St. Valentine,
Best of saints and quite benign,
When it is your special day
Postmen loaded like a dray
In expectant boxes shove
Tender little notes of love,
Mingled with the story old
"Comics" awful to behold!

Then it is the bashful swain
Sends a note to Mary Jane,
Hoping that the girl will guess
Who it was wrote the address
With the tender note inside
In a sweet blue ribbon tied,
And his heart a short rib knocks
As he drops it in the box.

But the letter man is sore;
To his mind it is a bore,
He cannot see any sense
Going to a big expense
Just to send a loving line
Or a silly valentine
As he trudges down the road
Underneath the mushy load.

"Tis by you, St. Valentine,
Is inspired the loving line,
But the "Comics," rude and quaint
They are by some other saint,
Full of mischief and of gail,
Sent that pride may have a fall.
Valentine, St. Valentine,
Best of saints and quite benign!

Felt the Limitations.
"With all of his wealth old Bullion does not appear to be happy."
"No; he is kicking because he was not born on Jupiter. It would be so much larger to own."

Stuck on Himself.

"He is too much of an egotist."

"Did he marry her for her money?"
"Well, I like to be charitable, and still I would hate to think that the young man was not bright."

The Important Thing.
"How do you like your new girl?"
"Oh, that is immaterial. I wish you would pump her and see how she likes me."

Keeps Us Out of Mischief.
Perhaps to waste our time is wrong,
But also this is true:
If we were busy right along
What mischief we might do!

Still in the Dark.
"What would you say if I were to ask you to marry me?"
"You might ask me and find out."

Victories of Peace.
Peace hath its victories no less than war!
If you have never thought of this before,
And should the statement to your mind seem raw,
You'll own it when you get a mother-in-law.

An Insinuation.
"Truth is stranger than fiction."
"That may be, but how do you know?"

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR COLD

"First I took a little cold"—so begins the story of many a helpless invalid whose "little cold," by neglect or careless doctoring, has developed into a serious if not fatal malady. No cold will bear trifling with, especially where any of the organs are already weakened or the system run down. La grippe, bronchitis, catarrh and consumption are not the only results to be dreaded; other diseases may follow a cold and quickly become too deep-seated to be overcome by medical skill.

To be on the safe side, break up your cold in the beginning with a big dose of

DR. THACHER'S LIVER AND BLOOD SYRUP

"The Road to Good Health"

Continue its use until your system is relaxed and the congestion removed. It will soon build up the liver, kidneys, stomach and bowels and enable them to resist disease. Female disorders are often due to catarrhal conditions of the pelvic organs, and when such is the case, Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup combined with Stella Vitae will relieve the pain and congestion and quickly effect a cure.

MRS. EULA BURNS, Landerneau, La., says in a recent letter: "Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is a splendid tonic for weak, worn-out people. I was sick with a cold and fever for several weeks, but by taking your medicine (dry form) I managed to stay up and attend to my household duties. It has built me up wonderfully."

At all Druggists. Dry form 25 cents. Liquid form 50 cents and $1.00. Stella Vitae $1.00. Send us two-cent stamp for sample bottle of Liver and Blood Syrup and write our Consultation Department, explaining symptoms, for free, confidential advice.

SULLY RUNNING BOARDING HOUSE

Cotton King Will Serve Meals to His Clerks Till the Rush Is Over

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—(Special).—In addition to conducting the bull campaign that has run cotton up from 9 to 16 cents a pound, Daniel J. Sully has been running a boarding house. Unlike the boarding house keeper who flourishes in the side streets, Mr. Sully has not been in the business for profit. His venture has been a dead loss to him in money, but it has amounted to a whole lot in the work of his office.

On the twenty-third floor of the building at No. 43 Exchange place Mr. Sully has converted some of his offices into sleeping rooms, a dining room and a kitchen for his clerks. A Japanese chef acts also as waiter, dish washer, purchasing agent and valet for the men who eat and sleep in the airy Hotel de Sully.

WORK DAY AND NIGHT
The operations of Mr. Sully have been so tremendous that it takes his clerks all night to begin to catch up on the work of the day. Often they are several days behind in detail work. To work the men in regular shifts is impracticable and to hire more clerks would mean complications.

The Sully staff, paid extra for extra work and fed free of expense, has no objection to offer to the plan of housing

Bedridden 10 Months with Kidney Disease.

Mr. C. B. Richter, of Wilmington, Del., 70 Years of Age, Given Up to Die of Kidney Trouble, Says He Was Completely Cured by

WARNER'S SAFE CURE

"I am now 70 years old and in perfect physical condition, all of which I owe to your grand medicine, and I want to tell you about my case."

"I was taken ill in March, 1894, and the doctor told me I had a serious case of kidney disease. He treated me seven months but I kept getting worse until I took to my bed. I was bedridden for about ten months, and was reduced to a mere skeleton. I was advised to prepare for death at any minute."

"Friends told me Safe Cure had cured them and urged me to try it, so I stopped the doctor's medicines and took nothing but Safe Cure. I began to improve within a few days, and nine bottles restored me to perfect health and strength, and I have not had a touch of kidney trouble since." CHAS. B. RICHTER.

We have thousands of just such letters from men and women who have been cured of kidney disease by Safe Cure.

Thousands of leading doctors and hospitals have been using Safe Cure for years as the only positive cure for all diseases of kidneys, bladder, liver and blood—the one remedy that cures and leaves no bad after effects.

Sold by druggists, or direct, 50 cents and $1 a bottle. Be sure you get WARNER'S SAFE CURE—there are dangerous imitations. Medical booklet with testimonials and doctors' advice free for writing. Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y.

them in the big office building. Some of them have not been home since on short visits for two months. Whenever they can spare a little time they walk around Battery park and along the water front for exercise. Sunday is like every other day to them.

The meals are prepared of the best materials to be purchased in the market, and they are cooked to perfection. The service could not be improved upon. At times Mr. Sully takes luncheon or dinner in his office, and his friends say that the viands and drinkables are every bit as good as those served in Delmonico's down town place, a few doors away from the office.

BEAUTIFUL WORKROOMS
The ventilation and view are unsurpassed. From the windows of their bedrooms and work rooms the Sully clerks can see for miles out over the bay and New Jersey and Long Island. As they are unable to get outside to spend anything their salaries are "all velvet," as the street expression has it. They avoid the troublesome rides on the "L" and surface cars up and down town and are always within call.

The Japanese chef is a busy man. He has to keep meals prepared at all hours and snatches sleep whenever he can. Fulton and Washington markets are so close to the Sully offices that the little Jap wastes no time in his marketing.

Until the strain is over the Sully hierarchy will continue in full swing. When normal conditions prevail again the married clerks will be given vacations, so that they may become acquainted with their families, and the unmarried clerks will be allowed to see how things look uptown. Some of the young men have not been about Wall street in weeks.

the president of the republic.

The Rock Island and other territorial railroads have given a cheap round trip to the Oklahoma City cattle convention which will be the means of making the show a great success.

Speaking about the prospects of pasturage in the territory the coming summer, Mr. Davis said that the prices to be charged would be from 40 to 50 cents per head per month. These figures, however, are considered by Texas cattlemen entirely too high. The prospects now are that stockmen in this state who have always pastured in the territory, will experience much trouble in making contracts for pasturage.

The prices for pasturage in Kansas is to be still higher. The charges, it is said, will be $3 to $3.50 per head for the season, which usually begins about the 1st of April and ends in October.

Ben Davis, general live stock agent of the Choctaw route, headquarters at Oklahoma City, was in the city last night with the Frisco immigration party, but returned home on a late train.

Mr. Davis is one of the enterprising Oklahoma City men, and just now is interesting himself in bringing a great crowd of cowmen to the annual convention of the Oklahoma Live Stock Association which meets in that city on February 23, 24 and 25, and from the advance information Mr. Davis says it can be safely estimated that there will be fully 10,000 people in attendance on this cattle show.

A feature which has the drawing of blooded cattle. The promise has been given by many northern breeders of high grade stuff that an exhibit will be made at the Oklahoma City cattle convention. Good prizes are to be awarded.

There is to be a society event in the shape of a polo game by players from Kansas City and in addition to this some of the expert ropers of the south are to be present.

HOME BY CYNTHIA GREY

HINDOO MOTHERS-IN-LAW

Nowhere is the question of amicable relations between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law given more attention than in India. It is customary for the mother to live with her married son when she becomes a widow and she frequently avails herself of the privilege before custom makes it necessary. It has become a common practice for the mother-in-law to attend to all out-of-doors domestic affairs, leaving the household duties proper entirely in the hands of the wife. Americans who claim that they know, say that there are reasons for this distribution of duties.

TOO GOOD

There is such a thing as being too good and there comes a time in the lives of some women when mottoes urging them to greater self-sacrifice and to more strenuous efforts of helpfulness are better in the waste-basket than upon their walls. This is said with all regard for the spiritual benefit which men and women gain from reading the restful, beautiful and helpful gems of literature which are just now so popular and which, framed, adorn the walls. But the fact remains that they are too good for some people.

Such mottoes as these fairly lined the walls of the room of a fragile, delicate, unselfish little creature, whose first duty should have been to herself: "To think seldom of yourself and often of your friends." "Any good that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now." "I will try this day to practice economy."

FOR LITTLE FOLKS

The baby's suit, including muff and bonnet, is in white peau de sole. The little girl's coat is of fawn-colored zibeline with black braid and black buttons.

cheerfulness and helpfulness." These mottoes, copied with pen, were everywhere. The girl was ill, too ill to be out of bed, but she was dressed and propped up with pillows—in the very presence of her task masters, with never a thought that the lash had been applied too vigorously. Poor woman! No comfort to herself, a source of suffering to her friends and family, because she had given and given beyond her strength until nature interfered and laid her low. Stricken as she was, in her fingers she held a needle, for each moment must be improved.

She was one of the many victims of a too generous impulse. Sickness, pain, a helpful beyond one's strength. This absolute and harmful forgetting of self is in truth the highest form of selfishness, since it brings pain to those who must tend and watch the sufferer. No gift cries with it peace when it is stained with blood.

Is your room lined with mottoes which drive you beyond your strength? If so, tear them down, burn them, forget them.

What is to become of the families of these women who spend their strength upon the hundred and one calls and ills about them? First get health; then give all you will of the interest, but guard the principal with a jealous eye.

There are women who would do well to read those mottoes, to learn them and be made to practice them. Probably they have never taken the trouble to run them through.

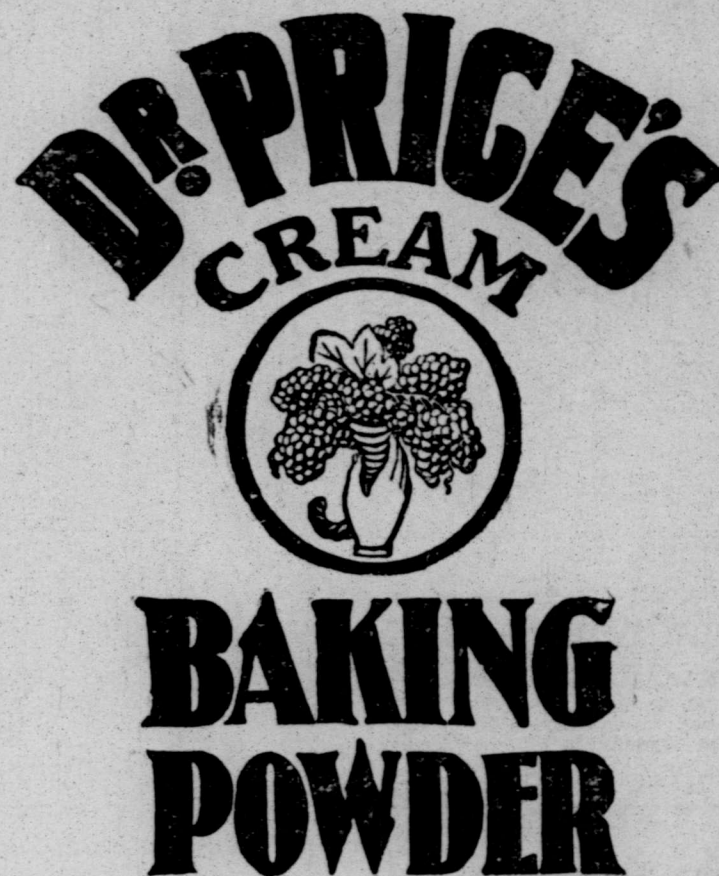

Members of parliament sit with their hats on. The right of the members to remain covered in the royal presence dates back to the time of King John, who agreed to settle by single combat a dispute with the king of France about the duchy of Normandy. The French king was driven from the field by John, earl of Ulster. King John asked the English champion what he would accept as a reward. The earl answered: "I beg the boon for myself and successors to remain covered in the presence of your majesty and all other sovereigns of this realm." The request was granted and has never been revoked.

The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.:
Gentlemen:—For ten years I have had a constant cough, so bad that my friends and customers could tell that I was around by my cough, with-out having seen me. I tried every cough remedy that I ever heard of. In addition to this, my family physician gave me medicine for a number of times, but nothing I could take seemed to do me any good. Mrs. Chas. H. B. advised me to get a box of Milk's Emulsion. I followed her advice and can truthfully say the first box cured me completely. This was at least six months ago, and I have not had a return of my cough since. When using Milk's Emulsion for my cough, I found that I was no longer troubled with constipation or stomach trouble; therefore it is a pleasure to recommend this great remedy to people afflicted with any of the above complaints. Yours truly,
Geo. W. Zinn, Contractor,

Brownsville and Mexico states that headquarters for the road are to be located at Kingsville, where work has already commenced on a twelve-stall round house and other buildings. A bridge across the river is to be erected immediately at Kingsville, in addition to this building, one is to be erected for shop purposes. Brick deposits are to be built at once along the line. The first equipment for the road will arrive April 1.

CLARK CONTROLS IT
It is now stated that E. H. Harriman of the Southern Pacific does not control the Salt Lake railroad, despite the statement that Senator Clark has lost the property. The report from Los Angeles is to the effect that Senator Clark will complete the line and will remain in charge of it. It matters not what the minority stockholders may do. Their action, it is claimed, will have no effect on the control of the system.

It is not improbable that a convention has been signed between Senator Clark and Mr. Harriman regarding traffic matters, in order to obviate a disastrous conflict of interests. But of this there is no confirmation.

Sheridan's Rivals was presented last night, and Sir Anthony was the star part of the play. The two Jeffersons, Joseph Jr., and William W., were billed heavily in the piece, William as Bob Acres and Joseph as Sir Lucius O'Trigger, but they failed to come up to expectations in those two delightful characters, and the audience lost interest in them. The attempt of Joseph Jr. to master a brogue was painful, and so careless was he at times that he forgot the peculiarity of speech he was trying to assume. He is an awkward fellow at best. His scene with Lucy on the North parade was a drag. The scene between Bob Acres and Sir Lucius on the field of honor, lost much of its humor, as the two young men of Jefferson were not equal to the requirements in any manner. William Jefferson is the better actor of the two, but at best he falls far short of the mark. His best work is in the second act when he meets his friend "Jack" in town and he puts poor Faulkland on the rack in telling how his sweetheart has been enjoying life while he was absent. Except for this one scene William makes a very poor showing.

The enjoyment of the play was provided by the four characters, John Jack as Sir Anthony, Guy Coombs as Capt. Absolute, Miss Felliott Page as Mrs. Malaprop, and Miss Blanche Bender as Lydia. Mr. Jack is a clever actor. He presents the peevish, determined old man in fine form, and his dress and looks are magnificent and his method of being stern, is truly natural to a degree. Mr. Coombs is a handsome, dashing fellow; just the man to win the heart of a Lydia, and to hold it through all complications. He speaks his lines well, he carries himself well, and he laughs heartily when he laughs, and when he assumes the air of obedience, he does it with that manner which could not fail to convince the doting old father of his sincerity.

Miss Bender is a very pretty girl, and is a charming Lydia. Her moments of joy and pleasure are shown in the countenance and the action, and when she is led, the unwilling one to that matrimonial sacrifice which is prepared for her, she gives evidence of her displeasure in a facial expression which is delightful to look upon.

The Rivals, as presented by the four characters, is entertaining, but the parts played by the Jeffersons are failures throughout.

LEWIS MORRISON WILL POSITIVELY APPEAR AS MEPHISTO IN "FAUST"

The elaborate scenery and gorgeous dresses added to a newly invented system of electrical effects novel and startling in their operation, would make Lewis Morrison's "Faust" remarkable anywhere. This season, however, all former productions have been surpassed in point of scenery, costumes, electrical, mechanical and vocal effects, and the strength of the company, Lewis Morrison himself will positively appear as Mephisto, for the last time in this city, in the most costly and elaborate production of "Faust" ever staged at Greenwall's opera house Wednesday matinee and night, February 10.

"ALPHONSE AND GASTON"
"Alphonse and Gaston," the latest and most up-to-date musical farce comedy, is the title of the coming attraction at Greenwall's opera house Thursday night, February 11. Founded on the cartoon picturing the volatile and ultra-polite Frenchmen, the comedy has been entirely reconstructed and rewritten for this season's production. The former version was found to be lacking in comedy interest, but the present book is admittedly one of the funniest and fastest musical comedies on or off Broadway.

ROSE COGHAN
Few women upon the American stage today dress as elaborately as Rose Cogan. In "The Greatest Thing in the World" she will appear at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, February 12, attired in four gowns designed by leading New York modistes, intended for ball room, for tea, for driving and for morning wear.

ED ANDREWS COMING
Ed Andrews, the well known comedian, who has broken away from the time worn operatic field, has scored the hit of his career this season in his new musical comedy, "Birds of a Feather."

Mr. Andrews is supported by an unusual company of artists, including Florence Clayton, Nellie Andrews, Catherine Lee, Arline Bontelle, Ralph Riggs and J. C. Taylor, while the brilliant musical features are under the personal direction of Charles Hazarding.

This splendid organization which will appear here at Greenwall's opera house Monday night, February 15, should, and no doubt will, attract a large audience.

The souvenir program given by the St. Cecilia Choral Society Tuesday evening at the Christian Tabernacle is the best creation of the printer's art. Tickets 50 cents.

Lease
Of Life Renewed After Terrible

Suffering From Heart Disease.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Gave Me Health.

"Some years ago I suffered greatly with heart disease. I tried the best doctors in our country and got no relief until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I used three bottles and have not had occasion to call a doctor since. It restored my heart to healthy activity and has given me a new lease of life. Prior to taking the remedy I was very restless and got but a few hours sleep during the night, felt tired out, had no ambition, was completely discouraged and had given up all hope of getting better. I had taken so much medicine without relief that I had little faith when I began taking the Heart Cure, but after taking one bottle I could rest well. My stomach did not trouble me and in three months my health was completely restored. It is nearly six years since I stopped taking the Heart Cure and have had no return of the old symptoms and I know my cure is permanent."—LEWIS LAWRENCE, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure pleases every one who tries it. Taken primarily to strengthen the heart, the patient is pleasantly surprised to find that after a short time, his stomach is in better condition, his nerves are steadier, his color better, his strength greater, his appetite is improved and that he rests better at night. The reason is plain. It cures the symptoms by removing the cause. Stop doctoring your symptoms. Remove the cause with Heart Cure, the great heart and blood tonic.

SPEAKER CHAS. J. NOYES

Massachusetts' Great Statesman Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura.

He Says: "Nothing else could have so invigorated and recreated my over-taxed nerves and debilitated vitality as Dr. Greene's Nervura."

HON. EX-SPEAKER CHARLES J. NOYES.

Hon. Ex-Speaker Charles J. Noyes, one of Massachusetts' greatest and foremost statesmen, a born leader of men, Senator, Representative, Judge, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives for five years, and candidate for Lieutenant-Governor of the State, gives a glowing attribute and testimonial to Dr. Greene's Nervura for the wonderful cure it effected in his case and recommends it cordially to the people as the surest remedy to cure and the best medicine in the world.

Hon. Ex-Speaker Noyes tells you what this wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, has done for him, and advises you to take it, and get well if you are sick, weak, nervous, sleepless, debilitated, or run down in health. He assures you that it cured him and he is positive that it will cure you.

Here is what the great statesman, who has been nine times elected to the Legislature, says: "Nothing could have contributed so much to invigorate and recreate my severely taxed nerves and debilitated vitality as did this excellent medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. To all needing an invigorating and permanent restorative to nerve and body, this is the very best medicine within my knowledge or observation."

If there is anything about your case you do not understand, write to Dr. Greene, 101 Fifth Avenue, New York City. His advice is free.

HON. JOHN SHENICK.
Hon. John Shenick, a Chicago Alderman residing at 220 So. Peoria St., owes his election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We will let him tell it: "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overworked, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I think this medicine that I won my seat in the Council, for had I not been able to continue my meetings, I would no doubt have been unable to secure sufficient votes. Since that time I have praised this medicine to dozens of my friends. My wife has also used it and we find it a valuable household remedy."

GENERAL KOUROPATKIN COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE RUSSIAN LAND TROOPS IN THE FAR EAST

FOR A MONTH'S TOUR OF MEXICO

Rock Island Plans the Greatest Southwestern Excursion Yet Attempted

The system of touring the different parts of the country, particularly in the southwest, inaugurated by the Rock Island, Missouri, Kansas and Texas, Santa Fe and the Frisco have each taken employees of different departments over their respective lines, but it remains for the Rock Island to make the greatest trip. Arrangements are now under way for a month's tour of the Republic of Mexico. There will be five Pullman sleepers and the train is now scheduled to leave Des Moines, Iowa, February 15, and at Kansas City the party will be completed. From Kansas City the party will come direct to Fort Worth, with no stops between Kansas City and this city. From here the party goes to San Antonio and thence direct to Monterey, Mex. From Monterey they will pass down through the Llanos valley to the port city of Tampico and thence over the Reason mountains to San Luis Potosi. The party will remain in the City of Mexico one week.

PUSHING VERA CRUZ RAILROAD
It is reported here that work on the Vera Cruz and Pacific road is being pushed with great vigor in order to get the line in operation before the rainy season in that country sets in. Fifteen hundred men are now at work on the roadbed and bridges, there being seventy-five of the latter in course of construction. This company has recently been granted a concession for the building of four kilometers of road which will run from Los Coccos, the terminus in Vera Cruz, to the wharf. All material has been ordered for the building of this additional road.

CENTRAL'S NEW LOCOMOTIVES
What is said to be the finest motive power that has ever been taken into the Republic of Mexico is now arriving in the City of Mexico from the Mexican Central. Twenty locomotives of an order of ninety have already crossed the border and will soon be put into commission. The engines were made by the American Locomotive Works.

These engines are of a special design, fashioned after the ideas of Benjamin Johnson, superintendent of machinery of the Central and his assistant, George W. Jennings. The new locomotives are of the mogul type, and have a larger fire box than the other engines of the company. The tanks carry 6,000 gallons of water and the tender twelve tons of coal. They also have the piston valve attachment which is a new feature of the latest modeled locomotives. They carry 200 pounds of steam and are equipped with the very latest automatic air appliances.

Of the twenty engines that have arrived, eight are for passenger service, eight for freight and four will be used for switch engines at Jimulco and Aguascalientes.

BIG COLONIZATION SCHEME
The Santa Fe is promoting one of the biggest colonization schemes ever launched in Texas, by means of which that company expects, if possible, to locate at least 20,000 farmers in this state. The railroad company is not interested financially in the undertaking, but will lend every assistance possible to carry out the plans of the promoters. The parties behind the movement live in Chicago, and C. L. Tallmadge is at the head of it. These parties have already scoured more than a million acres of land in Northwest Texas, and already agents of the railroad company throughout the United States are working on the scheme. The Santa Fe will handle this immigration on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

when low excursion or home-seekers' rates will be given. Agents of the syndicate are now on the land looking over the situation. The Southern Pacific has launched a similar enterprise in South Texas.

GOULD OUTLET TO CALIFORNIA
It is said on good authority that George Gould controls the Western Pacific road, which has filed a $50,000,000 mortgage to secure bonds preliminary to the beginning of actual work on the Salt Lake City end of the road.

On the California end the Western Pacific has already acquired the Alameda and San Quentin railroad, the San Francisco terminal railway and ferry, the Stockton and Beekwith Pass railway and the Oakland railway.

At Salt Lake City the line will connect with Gould's Rio Grande system. The latter road has already applied for additional terminal facilities and franchises in Salt Lake City. It is practically decided that the road will enter Salt Lake City via the southern end of the lake over a grade that will be built through the shallow waters. The route westward runs through Skull valley and the Cedar mountains to the Great American desert, thence to Ruby Lake and Austin, crossing the Eureka and Palisade road at Narrow Gap pass, across Reese river, the Shoshone range at New Pass, into the Humboldt valley, crossing the Southern Pacific near Wadsworth. From there the grade rises to Beckwith pass and thence follows the Feather river in California. The total length of the road will be about 800 miles. Very few engineering difficulties will be encountered and the grades will be comparatively light.

HEADQUARTERS OF NEW ROAD
President Uriah Lott of the St. Louis,

Miss Agnes Miller, of Chicago, speaks to young women about dangers of the Menstrual Period.

"TO YOUNG WOMEN:—I suffered for six years with dysmenorrhea (painful periods), so much so that I dreaded every month, as I knew it meant three or four days of intense pain. The doctor said this was due to an inflamed condition of the uterine appendages caused by repeated and neglected colds. "If young girls only realized how dangerous it is to take cold at this critical time, much suffering would be spared them. Thank God for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which helped me any. Within three weeks after I started to take it, I noticed a marked improvement in my general health, and at the time of my next monthly period the pain had diminished considerably. I kept up the treatment, and was cured a month later. I am like another person since. I am in perfect health, my eyes are brighter, I have added 12 pounds to my weight, my color is good, and I feel light and happy."—MISS AGNES MILLER, 25 Potomac Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The monthly sickness reflects the condition of a woman's health. Anything unusual at that time should have prompt and proper attention.

FRISCO AGENTS LIKE THE TOWN

Visitors Express Themselves as Greatly Pleased With Fort Worth

The Frisco immigration agents, to the number of 250, in addition to some forty or fifty newspaper men, reached the city on a special train of seven Pullman sleepers half an hour ahead of schedule time last evening. The local committee of Board of Trade members and citizens failed to meet the party at the Texas and Pacific passenger station. However, the visitors were received at the Worth hotel and taken charge of by Secretary B. B. Paddock and other citizens and local officials of the Frisco system.

Headed by the famous Frisco cowboy band of Oklahoma City, the entire party, by twos, marched up Main street from the depot to the Worth hotel, at which point the ranks were broken and a tour of the city was made.

The party was escorted to the packing house district and after piloting the visitors through the plants of Swift and Armour, they were banqueted at the Stock Exchange cafe. During the progress of the banquet several impromptu speeches were made.

The party, with a few exceptions, expressed themselves as delighted with the reception and treatment at the hands of the Fort Worth people. A few protests were heard because of the failure of the local committee in meeting the party at the station, but this was no fault of any one connected with the reception committee, as a time had been specified in which the agents would arrive in Fort Worth. Because the Frisco party failed to reach Fort Worth at the hour designated by wire, was no fault of the Fort Worth people.

The officers of the Frisco Immigration Association are: S. A. Hughes, president; R. S. Lemon, secretary-treasurer; Bryan Snyder, S. A. Hughes, R. S. Lemon, R. B. Hart and S. P. Brundage, members of the executive committee. Mr. Snyder is chairman of the executive committee. Frank Anderson, general industrial agent of the Frisco, is with the party. He is an enthusiast on the question of immigration, and ventures the assertion through Texas there will be located in this state fully 10,000 homeseekers in Frisco territory during the present year. Last season, through the energies of the immigration department of the Frisco, there were about 2,500 to 3,000 people from the north and east induced to buy homes in Texas and the territory along the Frisco lines, and with the renewed efforts of the immigration association of the Frisco he anticipates greater results during the year 1904. He says there is a greater desire among homeseekers in the north to come south than ever before, and with these favorable conditions the immigration agents of the Frisco intend to work zealously to bring this class of people south in search of homes.

Mr. Anderson says that once interested in this matter, these newcomers, who shown the country in Texas, are certain to make a choice and locate.

In the party are Frisco immigration agents from eighteen different states. They come from as far east as New Jersey and Maine.

There are representatives of the press from some fifteen states. Among the more prominent members of the press are C. S. Yost, associate editor of the Globe-Democrat; J. T. Harden of the Beatrice, Neb.; Daily Express; G. P. Marvin of the Beatrice, Neb.; Daily Sun; H. Winn of the Paris, Ill.; Daily Gazette; Clinton F. Rose of the Evansville, Ind.; Daily Courier; S. Schwitzer of the Chicago Homeseeker and Investor; Walter V. Miller of the Quincy, Ill.; Daily Whig; and Charles F. Houston of the Vandalia, Ill.; Daily Leader.

The party remained in the city until 11:30 last night, when it left over the Frisco for Greenwood, Brady and San Angelo.

Today will be spent at the two former points and at 7:40 tonight the party leaves over the Santa Fe for San Angelo.

Thursday will be spent at Houston and Galveston. Sunday the return trip will begin, arriving at St. Louis next Monday, at 7:30 in the morning.

The members of the party are: Lance M. Coon, Muncie, Ind. C. Burrus, St. Elmo, Ill. A. T. Nelson, Lebanon, Mo. J. N. Morris, Charleston, Ill. W. M. Ludwig, St. Louis. L. W. Reilly, Wapello, Ia. H. E. A STARVING MAN MAY STEAL BREAD

Cleveland Judge Decides to Gratify Hunger Is Not a Crime

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 9.—"It is no crime for a starving man to steal bread," said Judge Fiedler Monday. A scriptural passage was quoted from the bench as the law on which this decision was based.

Willis Brown, homeless, aged 39, had been arrested as a suspicious person. As he faced the judge he drew a trembling hand across his forehead to wipe away the sweat of fever. His face was pale and his eyes had the luster of sickness.

"I am guilty of nothing," said Brown. "Of what is he suspected?" said the judge.

"He has not been working for several months. He once stole bread," said the police officer.

"Is this true?" asked the court.

"It is," said Brown. "I have searched everywhere for work. I am broken down and no one wants me. I was sick and nearly starved. I stole. It was the only time in my life. But that was long ago. Since then I have never touched anything, though I have been without food for days. I have been sleeping in cold sheds so long I have contracted a fever."

"Judge," and the prisoner turned pleadingly toward the court. "Judge, it would do me no good to send me to jail. I've only a few days to live. Let me die a free man, not a convict."

"I would find no man guilty of stealing bread when starving," said the court. "The disciples plucked grain from the roadside to sustain life, and Christ reproved the multitude who chided them. The offense was condoned by the greatest of judges, which decision I purpose to follow."

Judge Fiedler then ordered the charge nolle and sent the man to the city hospital.

OPERATION A FAD

Public Gradually Awakens to the Fact. The latest fad in operations has been the appendicitis fad; before that the fad for rectal operations (piles, etc.) held sway. Hundreds of patients were frightened and hurried into hospitals, operated upon and robbed of their last dollar, when the trouble was a simple case of hemorrhoids or piles only, easily cured at home with a simple remedy costing but fifty cents a box.

"I procured one fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure of my druggist, with the intention of buying a larger box later, but was happily surprised when I found that I was cured, and still have six 'pyramids' left out of the first and only box. I have not had the least sign of piles since I used this one box, which has been about a month; previous to using Pyramid Pile Cure I had the worst kind of bleeding and protruding piles for over thirty years and no one knew, except those who have had the piles, the pain and misery I suffered."

"I am a poor man, but have often said I would give a fortune, if I had it, to be cured of the piles, and now I have been cured for fifty cents. I should be very grateful if I did not thank you and give you every privilege to use my name and this letter, when I know there are so many who suffer as I did." J. A. Weisner, 1106 Blackstone Road, Washington, D. C.

The Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., publish a little book on the causes and cure of piles, which they will be glad to mail free to any applicant, and we advise all who suffer from this painful disease to write to them for it.

LEGALITY OF AN ELECTION IN HARRISON

Questions of Payment of Poll Tax by Other Than Voter and Exhibiting of Receipts, Settled by Supreme Court

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 9.—The supreme court yesterday answered certified questions from the court of civil appeals in the case of J. R. Stinson et al vs. John M. Gardner, county attorney, on appeal from Harrison county, involving the legality of the local option election in that county. The questions were:

"First—Did the court err in overruling contestant's special exception to the first paragraph or count in contestant's petition; in other words, did the payment of the poll tax by some person or persons other than the person against whom the poll tax was assessed, for the purpose of qualifying such persons to vote against prohibition and as an inducement to them to vote against prohibition at the election held on the 10th day of July, 1903, in said Harrison county, said money having been paid without any authority from the persons whose tax was paid and never repaid nor promised to be repaid by them to the person who paid said taxes, and never ratified by them, except so far as to vote by reason of the authority thereby given, render illegal their votes so cast in said election?"

"Second—Did the failure of the voters complained of to exhibit, to the managers of the election, their poll tax receipts, showing that they had paid their poll tax in Harrison county for the year 1902, before the first day of February, or to file with the judge of said election an affidavit that such a receipt was lost and the receipting of the vote of such person by the election managers without requiring the exhibition of such poll tax receipt or filing of such affidavit render illegal such persons vote, and authorize the exclusion of same in the count on a contest?"

The court replies to the first question, stating that the trial court erred in not sustaining the contestant's special exception to the first paragraph or count in contestant's petition. "The petition in the case," says the opinion, "stated broadly that the election had been illegally conducted and that such irregularity existed as rendered the true results of the same impossible to be arrived at, or very doubtful of ascertaining. It was not sufficient to allege the grounds in the language of the statute, but facts should have been averred which would show that the election was illegal, or that the result was impossible to be arrived at, or that it was very doubtful of ascertaining. The facts set out did not show the existence of either ground."

Continuing the court says: "The payment of W. R. Hodge of the poll tax for five hundred voters of Harrison county without their consent, with the evil purpose of having them vote against prohibition did not constitute illegality in the conduct of the election, for the reference to the manner of holding the election which might include receiving illegal votes."

The second question is answered, in part as follows: "The failure of voters to exhibit their poll tax receipts at the time of voting did not render the election illegal or authorize the exclusion of their votes from the count. Section 2, article 5, of the constitution of this state, as amended in 1901, expresses the requirement to pay the poll tax in this language: 'And provided further that any voter who is subject to pay the poll tax under the laws of the state of Texas shall have paid the said tax before he offers to vote at any election in this state and hold a receipt showing his poll tax paid before the first of February next preceding the election. Or if said voter shall have lost or mislaid said tax receipt he shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths that such tax receipt had been lost. Such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election, and this provision of the constitution shall be self-enacting without the necessity of further legislation.' "It might be inferred from the latter part of the quotation that it was intended the voter should have his poll tax receipt at the place where he voted, but there is no provision in the constitution which requires that the receipt shall be exhibited at the time of voting; it only requires the voter shall hold his receipt; that is, he shall have procured and have possession of the receipt and if it has been lost, then, in order to vote, he must make the affidavit which the law requires."

CAPT. J. M. HILL IS ILL

Survivor of San Jacinto is in a Critical Condition

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Captain James M. Hill, a Texas pioneer and one of the first survivors of the memorable battle of San Jacinto, is lying critically ill at his home in this city, No. 708 West Nineteenth street. Captain Hill is now 86 years old and when he took part in the battle that resulted in the release of Texas from Mexican thralldom was a lad of only 18.

Captain Hill is also a veteran of the war with Mexico of 1846, and was for four years in the Confederate army in the war between the states.

FLOWERS ARE STOLEN

Night Raiders Visit Many Yards on South Side Residents on the south side complain that flowers which are being set out to beautify the yards are being stolen.

Some one has been making a round of various homes on the south side, at night, and have been taking up plants, which have been set out, and appropriating them. It is believed it is being done in order to sell these plants, and The Telegram is asked to request residents of the city to notify the police headquarters if any one appears at any home offering plants for sale. If the proper explanation cannot be made arrests will follow.

The Southsiders are going to a great deal of trouble to beautify their homes and they do not care to be interfered with by persons who steal from them at night.

FRATERNAL MYSTIC CIRCLE

Members of Fort Worth Ruling No. 349, Fraternal Mystic Circle, are specially urged to attend the meeting Monday night at Odd Fellows' hall at 7:30 o'clock. Installation of officers for the ensuing term. Our supreme vice ruler, Brother H. W. Johnson of Ottawa, Ill., will meet with us and it is desired that all members be present. J. E. WAGNER, Worthy Ruler. H. L. CALHOUN, Recorder.

FORM A SECOND ROOSEVELT CLUB

Republicans Meet in City Hall Last Night to Complete a County Organization

A handful of men, admirers of President Roosevelt, gathered in the city court room at the city hall last evening and organized the "First Roosevelt Club" of Tarrant county. Andrew McCampbell was selected as president and William Jenkins (colored) secretary.

The meeting was called to order by Thomas Bush, who presided temporarily. Quite a few negroes were present who participated in the proceedings. The question of permitting the negroes to belong to the club was discussed. It was finally decided that both races were eligible to membership in this club. About twenty members were present.

A letter from E. H. R. Green, president of the state organization of Roosevelt clubs, was read by Andrew McCampbell authorizing him as a member of the state organization to form clubs in this the Thirtieth senatorial district. With the formation of this club, two are now in existence in Fort Worth. The other club's organization was participated in by Lon Barkley, W. C. Forbes, George Barnhart, F. B. Stansy, Postmaster George W. Burroughs, T. N. Edgell, H. W. Nye, M. B. Morgan and George E. Bennett. W. C. Forbes has been chosen president and the club will be known as the Central Roosevelt club.

THE SOCIALISTS

The executive committee of the Socialist party met last evening at the home of Mrs. Lane, 107 Belknap street and adopted the following from the national platform for the municipal campaign:

"The public municipal ownership of all public utilities. "The abolition of the contract system for public works. "An eight-hour day for labor. "The election of all city officers by a direct vote of the people."

These additions to the platform will be recommended to the organization at its meeting next Sunday afternoon.

NEIGHBORS WAR OVER A PILE OF TRASH ON LOT

D. O. Briggs Makes Complaint Against Robert Brown
Because of Employee's Work

BABE IN ARMS SAVES ITS MOTHER A FINE

Boy of Nine Charged With Being Drunk on Street
With a Girl

In the corporation court is a case in which Robert Brown is charged with violating the health ordinance.

The case went to trial on complaint of D. O. Briggs, who claims Brown employed a man to deposit trash, cans, etc., on his premises. It seems that Briggs and Brown occupy adjoining premises, back to back. Brown has built a planing mill, and he wanted to put up a fence to separate the two lots. The man who was to build the fence used a spade in clearing off the ground, and the soil and trash which was lifted in the spade was thrown over on the Briggs lot. Mr. Briggs made a strenuous protest, and the matter then developed into a neighborhood row. Brown standing firm in his rights and Briggs invoking the aid of the city health ordinance. City Prosecutor Roy did not really think the evidence would develop strength enough to convict and he called the attention of Attorney J. P. McLean, who represented Brown, to the fact that the complaint had been hurriedly written, and a copy of the ordinance not being at hand, it might not be just exactly correct according to form. Mr. McLean waived the point and the case went to trial. The evidence showed that the spading was done, that the man using the spade had thrown the earth on the premises of Briggs instead of the premises of Brown, and Judge Prewett imposed a fine of $1.

Then came the complaint which has suspended the case in midair. Attorney McLean gave notice of appeal. Mr. Roy did not want an appeal to go to the county court with a defective complaint, and he called Mr. McLean's attention to the agreement to try on the complaint as written.

"I'm not attacking the complaint," said Mr. McLean, "but I want to take this thing to the county court. There is no law against a man clearing off land to build a fence, and I can get before a jury and beat this thing."

Mr. Roy—Well, I'll agree to let you have a new trial so we can amend the complaint and get a clear record.

Mr. McLean—I don't want a new trial here. It will come out just the same, I'll appeal it.

Mr. Roy—I want to get this complaint in shape.

Mr. McLean—I move the court set aside the verdict and give me a verdict of not guilty.

This was nerve which shocked the court, and he looked in astonishment at the attorney for the defense.

Mr. McLean—This man is a property owner and a taxpayer, your honor. He spaded off some ground there to build a fence about his planing mill, and I don't think he ought to be fined for making improvement on his property. This trash he is accused of putting on Briggs' place came originally from that side of the lot and has been there for years.

Mr. Roy—I'll move for a new trial for the defendant.

Mr. McLean—But the city can't do that, don't you know. We don't want a new trial.

Judge Prewett—Well, the court will set aside the judgment of his own motion because of the defective complaint.

Mr. Roy can get his complaint in shape and we will set the case for tomorrow morning.

This being done, the case is hanging fire, with a defective complaint pending and the city prosecutor preparing to make one which "will stick" if he can back it up with evidence.

HER BABE SAVES HER A FINE

A negro woman charged with fighting was brought into court this morning and pleaded guilty when her name was called.

The court fined her $5. She had large bundle of moving humanity in her arms, and when she took her place in the dock, Assistant Chief Allen called the court's attention to the baby.

"I don't know what to do with her," said the assistant chief.

The woman said she had no money to pay her fine. The babe, she said, was three months old and she had another at home eighteen months old. City Prosecutor Roy thought she had borrowed the child for the purpose, but she protested that it was her own, and called the name of several persons who could testify to it.

Hearing the pitiful pleading of the mother, the court set aside the verdict of guilty and let her go her way on a pledge of good behavior.

GOT A GIRL DRUNK

A young man aged about 19 years was called up on a charge of intoxication.

The evidence of Police Officers Dodd and Walker was that the boy was drunk and had a girl aged about 15 years with him on Main street. She was also intoxicated. The boy had attempted to take her in a saloon on Main street yesterday afternoon and quite a crowd gathered.

The officers arrested the two, took the girl to a hotel and notified her friends in Wise county to come after her, and the boy was held. Judge Prewett fined him $1. He said the girl was his cousin. She came here to visit her sister, who works in town, and the boy, who also lives in Wise county, found her and they started out together. The boy did not appear to remember much of the circumstances, but admitted that he was drunk.

Western Publisher: The Fort Worth (Tex.) Telegram has an office full of hustlers that get there. The Telegram handled the Chicago theater fire with great dexterity and handled it well. The fire flash of the news reached The Telegram at 5:25 o'clock. To gather a separating force of employees, to get further details of the accident, to set the machinery in motion and to issue an extra edition, occupied just sixty minutes of time. And in one hour 1,500 papers had been sold on the streets of this city for sale to the news stands. The Telegram's first extra paper was on the street at 5:25 o'clock, a long time in advance of a rival paper.

MAY DIE HIMSELF YET

Strange Chain of Circumstances Pursues a Japanese

ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 7.—Fate has been playing grim pranks with Y. Mybears, a Japanese merchant here. He was summoned to Japan, where his father lay dying, and arrived there a few days after his parent expired. Mr. Mybears then started home, but was stopped en route and reached his home to find his mother dead. Another bereavement will be added to the list when he reaches Atlantic City next week. It is expected, for his wife died yesterday after a brief illness.
