Gerald Sciterns Express Sincere Appreciation

A simple "Thank You" seems so inadequate after all that you wonderful people have done for us.

We greatly appreciate all those who worked so hard to get my benefit supper organized, those who brought food, worked and those who entertained. I also greatly appreciate those who came and for all the money that was donated.

I also want to thank you for your prayers, phone calls, cards, encouraging words, and love offerings.

It really makes everything easier just knowing that we have all you wonderful people behind us.

Thank you again and may God bless each one of you.

Gerald and Ina Scitern and family

Letter To The Editor

I just watched "Hiroshima: Out of the Ashes" last evening on TV. I felt sorry for the people but they were warned to get out of the city. It seems that all the sorrow, guilt, remorse and any other feelings that I may have had seem to stop just about where my wounds from Okinawa started. The most of my right leg is still in Okinawa.

I was upset when the United States did not try Hirohito for war crimes and even more upset when the United States attended his funeral.

I sometimes wonder what the outcome would have been if the United States would have let General Patton take Berlin. The U. S. would have tried Hirohito for war crimes. I wonder if there would have been a Korea of a Vietnam?

I also wonder what would have happened if the Japs had gotten the atomic bomb before the U. S. did. I think that D. C. and New York would look a lot different - wonder what kind of life we would have had the last 45 years?

Same Song - Second Verse

We, the U.S.A. are faced with even a bigger situation at this very minute. Iraq's Saddam Hussein is more dangerous than Hitler, has more power, money and troups and if we do not stop this mad man, we will place ourselves and our children in the worst possible situation this world has ever known. For the sake of God and country, please don't let us stumble and fall!

Earl E. McGill, De Leon

They are making hay while the sun shines. Rolls and bales of hay are really showing up in the fields now. Not much was made earlier.

The world news sounds terrible. I sure hope we do not get into another "Conflict". I know we need to protect what is ours and try to do what is right.

John Michael McDaniel, son of Duane and Nelda McDaniel, has joined the U. S. Air Force. He reported to Lackland AFB in San Antonio Wednesday for training. John Michael was one of the spring graduates of Carbon High School this year. We wish the best for him and his family.

Eastland County asked to repair road

By MAYBELLE TROUT
Correspondent

EASTLAND — A petition signed by 36 people asking the county to repair six miles of dirt road was presented to Eastland County Commissioner L.T. Owen Monday.

The stretch of road is two miles southwest of Gorman off Farm-to-Market Road 8 and leads to the homes of the petition signers.

According to the petition, the road has potholes, washes, deep ditches and is too narrow for two cars to pass.

Monday's conversation between Rick Hanifan, who presented the petition, and Owen was more cordial than at the last county commissioners' meeting when the two exchanged heated words.

Also Monday, commissioners passed a resolution abolishing a road and bridge tax set about 11 years ago to pay for a new county jail.

County Judge Scott Bailey told commissioners, "A lot of confusion has resulted from the road and bridge tax. Since the jail debt is paid off, we won't need the separate tax."

Road and bridge maintenance will now come out of the general fund, commissioners said.

"Tax calculation will be far less complicated," Bailey said.

In other business, commissioners:

■ Cut the number of veterans service officers in the county from four to one effective Jan. 1. The one officer must be certified. His salary and expenses cannot exceed the amount now budgeted for the position.

■ Voted to seek bids for group health insurance coverage for county employees. Bids will be opened Sept. 24.

■ Approved a line item adjustment from miscellaneous road and bridge funds to allow money for partial payment for mapping and road sign work now under way county-wide.

■ Agreed to pay a $200 repair bill on the air conditioner in the office of Ranger Justice of the Peace Alford Bush.

■ Reworded expenditures for ambulance services to read expenditures for emergency services. This will allow commissioner Owen to appropriate funds for fire departments in his precinct while other precincts are subsidizing ambulance services.

TU ELECTRIC RAISES RATES BY 10.2 PERCENT

TU Electric announced today (13th August) that it is implementing an average annual 10.2 percent increase in rates under bond in accordance with state law.

The increase will mean an additional $7 to $8 per month on the average residential bill. The first bills to reflect a portion of the increase are expected to reach customers on about August 16.

This is TU Electric's first general rate increase in more than six years. By taking advantage of declining fuel costs, the company has been able to lower its rates twice since 1984. The increase announced today will bring rates back to about their 1984 level.

TU Electric's present rates are sixth lowest among the nation's 25 largest cities and are second lowest among the investor-owned electric utilities in Texas.

"The new rates are necessary at this time to prevent further deterioration of the company's financial integrity," said Erle Nye, Chairman and chief executive of TU Electric. "The increase we requested and are placing into effect is the minimum necessary to allow us to continue providing reliable and competitively priced electric service."

TU Electric filed a request on January 16 with local regulators and the Public Utilitu Commission of Texas for an annual revenue increase of 10.2 percent, which would raise the company's annual revenues by $442 million. Hearings on the request began before the PUC on April 26 and are continuing.

The Public Utility Regulatory Act authorizes a utility to place its proposed rates into effect under bond if the PUC fails to make a final decision in the case within 185 days of the filing. TU Electric was authorized to implement new rates under bond in this case on or after July 21. The PUC approves an July 21. The bond assures a refund, with interest, to customers if the PUC approves an amount lower than the company requested after hearings are concluded.

TU Electric offers a number of programs to make bill paying easier, including average billing and special services for senior citizens, and sponsors the energy aid program which is administered by local social service organizations.

1990 DUSTER EXES SCHOOL REUNION HELD AUGUST 11

The third Duster School reunion was held this past Saturday, August 11 on the last day of the De leon Peach and Melon Festival. Site of the reunion was at the Reunion Center, adjacent to the fair grounds in De leon.

Ehen the reunion idea came to a head under the leadership of S. W. Walker, Dean Pounds and Bernice Farley it was a plus to set it up in conjunction with the P&M Festival. Visitors from out of state could enjoy a double treat as well as sharing and visiting kith and kin.

Highlight of this year's reunion was the Class of 1940 observing their 50th graduation anniversary. Of course, there was picture taking. Bernice Skaggs Farley was the photographer. There were three in the class: Bayna Carleton Dawkins, Bobby McPhail Speer and Nora Agnes Joine Baker. Bayna and Bobby were at the reunion, but Nora Agnes didn't make it.

Early bird at this year's reunion was Denman Dukes of Perryton. He showed me the door key and said he was the first to arrive and was official greeter - and why not - he arrived at noon!

After showing up on Main Street in time for the seed spitting contest, and having a front row on the sidewalk at the watermelon slicing I was not early enough at the Duster Reunion to park on the front.

A gracious couple pointed the way for Duster Exes and I parked between two pick-up trucks in back of the center.

At the regostration desk were the Skaggs sisters, Elsie and Bernice with a goodly supply of name tags, plus the registration book. Nearby was a kitty for contributions to allay expenses of postage, building fee and refreshments. It was a mite short last year, but this year's contributions more than made up for previous year's donations.

Those cameras! Does anyone ever have a reunion picture where no one is talking? You could blow a police whistle and no one would hear it. And those memory books and picture albums get a working over, too.

Johnnie Wilson Seckinger came in late and said she had been to the swimming pool with the grandchildren. I recall when the Wilsons and Dukes met across the fields on their way to school. Joining us at the head of the lane would be the Hattox, Hodges and Sanders offsprings. The Fraziers and Rhodes were a bit to the left, across another sandy field.

The school bell rang and we lined up in a row to march in. No whispering! Lunch pails were stashed on shelves at the end of the hall.

Recess gave time for games of hop-scotch and jacks for the girls and if we were tough enough - wolf over the river, with the boys. Baseball and basketball - with the ball doing a thud instead of a bounce on that unpaved, sandy school ground.

Noon gave time to trot down to Duster Stores for another pencil or tablet, teachers' permission granted.

Those spelling bees on Fridays - and you know who the winner would be - in my grade it was always the late Dale Heathinghton or her cousin, Billye Elliott.

The boys would team up and play baseball at noon. My brother, Denman, played in the outfield. He would hold up a hand and wave for attention. When asked what his problem was he would shout, "water!" So his buddies gave him the nickname "Water".

When Rock Bluffconsolidated with Duster and those Model T school buses gave a lift across the miles it was the latest thing. We used coal to heat rooms in the winter and those old steel-jacketed stoves thawed us out after play time.

Teachers? I recall Professor Haney and our salute to the flag each morning. There were Duster School teachers at this year's reunion, too! Wayne Chambers, Fay Hattox, Hope Dukes Joiner, Dora Faye McPhail Brewer and Billye Elliott, that I recall.

Officers elected to serve in 1991 - Bernice Skaggs Farley, president; Mary Jo Pounds Boswell, secretary-treasurer. A special thanks to Dean 'pounds and Bernice for their "beyond the call of duty" services to make the past reunion a success.

Anyone knowing the address of a Duster Exe that has not heard of the annual reunion - give them the information: 1991 reunion at 6 p. m. on Saturday evening, last day of the P&M Festival - same place - the Reunion Center, adjacent to the fair grounds.

Congressman Stenholm To Be Given Bronze Bust Saturday

Everyone in Eastland County is invited to attend a rare, patriotic and most unusual event Saturday morning.

It will be the official unveiling and presentation of the bronze bust to Congressman Charles Stenholm.

The public event will be a brief and informal ceremony beginning at 10 a. m. at the Majestic Theatre in Eastland.

Cong. Stenholm and his staff will be present for this unusual tribute, commissioned by Eastland County Co-Ordinators and Friends, and done by Cisco Sculptor Dale Stewart, who will assist in the presentation.

The unusual token of appreciation is believed to be one of the few such presentations ever made for a still-active official. Locals felt it is better to show appreciation while the person is still alive and serving.

The life-size bust will be unveiled and presented to Cong. Stenholm on the stage of the Majestic. There will be no formal program but the Congressman will be given an opportunity to respond.

Co-Ordinators and donors were given an advance preview of the beautiful bust last Saturday at a Co-Ordinator's Breakfast held at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall in Eastland. Sculptor Dale Stewart surprised the group by showing the bust which was cast ahead of schedule at the Dublin foundry which does many famous works.

The bust bears the artist's copyright on the back and this brief inscription: "From grateful Eastland County friends." All who viewed the work agreed that Stewart had captured the true likeness and bearing of Cong. Stenholm. The Congressman sat in two sessions for the artist to create the work.

The bust, done by the lost-wax process, is mounted on a hand-made walnut base, which will eventually also carry a permanent placque listing all the donors to the Eastland County Project.

"In this unusually tense time," one local Co-Ordinator said, "It is especially fitting that we take the time to show our sincere appreciation to our truly conservative and nationally-respected Congressman."

"It is flag-waving time in America and it could very well start in Eastland County, Texas," he added.

Expected to add color and excitement to the event, is a display of antique and classic automobiles by members of the County Car Club, and hopefully appearances by the various Chamber of Commerce Red Coats Committees.

HIGHTOWER ANNOUNCES PEANUT GROWERS CAN USE PESTICIDES ON PEANUTS

Austin — Texas peanut producers can use the pesticide Botran to help avoid an estimated $9.5 million in losses from a peanut blight, Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower said today.

Hightower announced that the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency has granted an emergency reqiest from the Texas Department of Agriculture and Texas peanut growers to allow the unregistered pesticide to be used on the state's peanut crop.

"The disease pressures are strong this year," said Mary Webb, executive director of the Texas Peanut Producers Board. "It's the most severe it's been in at least several years. We're grateful for the help from TDA and the Texas A&M Extension Service to get this exemption."

Wet, cool weather has led to an outbreak of Sclerotinia blight. The disease, first observed in Texas in 1981, can drastically reduce or even wipe out yields from affected fields of peanuts.

Hightower said the exemption will allow peanut farmers in most areas of the state to use the pesticide until October 21, 1990. However, producers on Bexar, Comanche, Erath, San Saba and Somervell counties cannot use the pesticide until September 1, because of potential harm to the black-capped vireo, an endangered species of bird.

(Editor's Note: The clearance has since been approved for all of Comanche County, except the northwestern corner.)

Without the request from TDA and the EPA action, use of the pesticide would be illegal on peanuts in Texas. Federal law allows state departments of agriculture to request such exemptions under unusual circumstances such as the wet, cool weather in Texas peanut areas.

Producers with questions may call the Extension Service, the Peanut Producers Board or the TDA Pesticide Registration Program at 512/463-7549.
