MEMPHIS BUMPED OFF SUNDAY 21-6

LOCAL GOLFERS TAKE LEAGUE LEAD WITH CRUSHING DEFEAT TO INVADERS

Clarendon may not have the best golfers in the world, but there isn't another club in the Panhandle that has near the number of average golfers that the local club boasts. This fact was demonstrated forceably to the discomforture of the Memphis Country Club Golfers Sunday afternoon on the local course when the three Clarendon aces took the count from the clubbing of the invaders, but the middle shooters came through with an almost unanimous protest to such actions to the local favorites and walloped the Memphis team from the pinnacle of the Cap Rock League standing under a landslide of 21 matches won to 6 lost. It was the first match registered in the lost column by the Memphis club this season and kept the record for the Hillcrofters spotless and lifted them into first place with a good margin after having trailed the Memphis players from the start of the season.

Frank Foxhall, possibly the best golfer in the Panhandle, gave a demonstration on how the game should be played with a fine 35 for the first nine and 37 for the last to turn in a perfect score for the day. This was too good for Al Cooke, local wronghander, and the first match went to Memphis. Raines West literally "ironed" Merchant out to win the second match for the day, with spectacular work with his iron clubs. In the third match Dude Gentry tried hard but too much luck and good golf carried the Memphis colors through in the third match as Reginal Greenhaw holed out his approach on the nineteenth hole for a birdie to win.

Other matches and their results are:

Dick Cooke beat Carl Harrison

No Jail Inmates At Present Time

For the first time in a number of years the county bastile is without a guest. All the inmates of the jail were transferred to the state prison resort at Huntsville the latter part of last week and an "unoccupied" sign now hangs from the second story of the little stucco building on the northwest corner of the Courthouse block.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION DOES NOT INSTRUCT

The Republican County Convention met Tuesday at the call of the county chairman, Chas. Bugbee, and elected delegates to the state convention. Those elected were H. J. Edington, C. H. Bugbee. C. R. Skinner and John Hunt. They were uninstructed and will cast their support to who ever they see fit.

FISH YARNS ARE TOLD BY LIONS

LIONS BURTON, BOYKIN AND CHASE TELL WILDEST WALTON STORIES

Tuesday luncheon was open season on fish yarns at the Lions Club and the further the thing went the larger the fish and wierder the tale. It happened like this. The program committee had overlooked the trival detail of working out an entertainment for the day so Boss Lion with a suggestion of the more rabid followers of the Issac Walton league had each member relate his favorite fist story. Things started off in a small modest way, but soon the followers of the hook-line-and-sinker club began to feel the urge and the big fish began to make their appearance. Things rocked along with fish, snakes, turtles and alligators getting larger and larger until the Boss Lion called for a halt to save several of the member's character and integrity.

The minutes were read and the visitors for the day introduced as U. F. Gorrisson of Dallas, Lion H. B. Hill of Shamrock and Rev. W. E. Ferrell.

The question of the Lions Ladies Night was brought up for discussion and plans were announced as nearly completed with a splendid program in store for the Lions and their ladies on next Tuesday evening.

Team captains were selected to choose sides to conduct a membership drive to secure new members for the club in the immediate future. Elaborate plans have been made and it is fairly certain that a number of new faces will be noticed in the luncheons of the Lions club in the none too distant future.

LOCAL DEMOS IN HARMONIOUS MEET

PRECINCT AND COUNTY MEETS. TO SUPPORT GARNER THEN ROOSEVELT

"Close harmony" was the theme of the Democratic precinct and County Conventions held last Saturday and Tuesday respectively and very little time was lost in lengthy debate and argument which formerly characterized such meetings. The delegates elected to the county convention from the precincts were A. L. Chase, H. C. Brumley, J. C. Estlack, Pink Rodgers, W. T. Link, G. R. Grant, J. P. Pool, Earl Reeves, Orville Doherty, C. O. Thaxton, C. J. Talley, D. W. Turner and Marvin Hall. W. T. Link was elected secretary for the convention.

The convention instructed the delegates to support John Garner of Texas for first choice for President of the United States until he was beaten then to support Franklin D. Roosevelt until he was out of the running and then to use their own judgement.

Delegates to the State Democratic convention are H. C. Brumley, A. T. Cole, W. P. Cagle, W. T. Link, Pink Rogers. Alternates are G. R. Grant, A. L. Chase, Earl Reeves, J. C. Estlack and J. P. Pool.

Word from Pinkey Kerbow, J. P. Rhode, Jim Cornelius, and Raymond Davis indicates they are having the time of their lives and are in Estes Park, arriving there last Sunday with only two slight delays due to car trouble.

LOCAL H. D. AGENT TO ATTEND CANYON COURSE

Miss Martha Buttrill will attend the Canyon Short Course tomorrow at Canyon and there will also be seven representatives of other clubs in the county present. The program will begin at 9:00 o'clock and will continue throughout the entire day. All the agents are asked to take the chairman of the county council to this meeting for the purpose of introducing each group. Misses Minnie Mae Grubbs and Myrtle Murray will represent the state division at the meeting.

CLEAN-UP WEEK IS GIVEN MORE TIME

MAYOR CAGLE ANXIOUS TO RID CITY OF DISEASE CARRYING MOSQUITOES

Clarendon's campaign against unsightly premises and breeding places of disease will be carried through next week according to Mayor Cagle in a statement to The News Wednesday afternoon. The Mayor is well pleased with the results of the movement thus far and states that a greater improvement would have been noticed had the weather been a bit more settled than it has. A number of calls have been made for the city garbage wagons and they have been in almost constant use the past week.

Mayor Cagle is especially anxious that every citizen take it upon himself to rid his property of empty cans, bottles and other containers where water will become stagnant and provide ideal breeding places for mosquitoes and other insects harmful to the health of the people of Clarendon and surrounding community.

ENTIRE FACUTLY IS RE-ELECTED

NEXT YEAR'S FACULTY WILL HAVE TWO LESS TEACHERS ON PAYROLL

The Board of Trustees of the Clarendon Independent School District concluded their series of sessions last week end when the entire faculty was re-elected for the 1932-33 school term. One resignation was accepted and possibly another will be received by the board a little later. These will not be filled by other teachers, but the additional work will be distributed throughout the present faculty.

Dean W. A. Clark, Jr., will continue to head the local Junior College with the other faculty members retaining their same positions.

The athletic department will again be headed by Frank A. Stocking and John G. Hutton.

NO DECISION ON HIGHWAY MATTER

COURT RECESSES UNTIL MONDAY, MAY 22ND WITHOUT ACTION ON PROPOSAL

Whether or not Donley County will accept the offer of the State highway department to construct and drain Highway 5 through the county without cost to the citizenship other than gasoline tax and license already levied, was not decided by the Commissioners Court in session here Monday.

The matter was brought up for discussion and the court heard County Attorney King in regard to some of the legal aspects of such action. Several citizens from Lelia Lake and Clarendon urged action by the court, and Commissioner Roy Beverly sought to get a motion before the court to proceed with the acceptance of the offer, but it failed for want of a second.

When the court convenes here Monday, May 22nd, the thirty days time asked by the State Engineer Gilchrest will have elapsed, but it is thought that the state will not refuse an acceptance on that date and will still be ready to leave the routing as in the present offer.

Since the matter is of great importance to the highway department in closing the gaps in paving on No. 5, the court will be urged to take definite action on the date of its next convening and a "yes" or "no" conclusion will be pressed.

JENKINS SPEAKS BEFORE ROTARY

CLUB WELCOMES W. E. FERRELL BACK INTO LOCAL ORGANIZATION

With only one member absent the Clarendon Rotary Club warmly welcomed their former fellow member, Rev. W. E. Ferrell, back into the organization, after an absence of some months. It is quite an asset to the club to again have Rotarian Ferrell in the group and he expressed his extreme pleasure in being back at his old post once more.

Rotarian B. L. Jenkins, chairman of the committee in charge of the day's program offered an interesting and educational address on the position held by the physician down through the years. A striking comparison was drawn by the local doctor on the place held by the old time doctor and the present day medico.

With no further business to come before the club the meeting adjourned until this Friday at which time officers will be elected, nominations having been made some weeks ago.

T. D. Nored and Sam M. Braswell left this afternoon for Sweetwater to attend the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. They will proceed to Lubbock Saturday where they will be joined by Mesdames Nored and Braswell for a trip to Roswell, N. M., where they will be guests of the New Mexico Lions Clubs in their State Convention. A trip will be made to Carlsbad Sunday in a motorcade where a visit to the famous Caverns will also be made.

Country Club Lake Gets New Fish Stock

Through the courtesy of Polly O'Neal, game warden for this section of the state, the Clarendon Country Club lake has been stocked by 2,500 fine game fish. A party of members went to Childress Tuesday morning and secured the fish from Warden O'Neal of Lake Childress, from which they had been seined. Placing them in cream cans they were brought to Clarendon and placed in the club lake that evening.

MR. AND MRS. C. R. SKINNER TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Skinner will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next Tuesday with an open house to their many friends from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7 to 8 o'clock in the evening. It is their wish that as many of their friends and acquaintences as possible drop in on them sometime during the day and add their bit to the happy celebration of this unusual occasion.

COWBOY PREACHER MAKING BIG HIT

HUGE CROWDS ARE ATTENDING BAPTIST REVIVAL IN TENT TABERNACLE HERE

Rev. B. B. Crimm, self-styled cowboy evangelist, who is conducting a revival series for the Baptist Church in the big tent tabernacle is proving to be one of the most powerful and entertaining preachers ever to fill a Clarendon pulpit. Huge crowds are coming out each evening to hear the firy and energetic evangelist who takes the role of a cowboy and speaks the language of the range when speaking to his audience.

Rev. Crimm is a plain spoken man with the power to speak the truth about the city and individuals and to hold the good will and freiendship of those spoken about. His messages are original and are packed with interesting stories and manuvers known so well to this section of the country.

The revival is also featuring Rev. H. M. Powell who handles the young peonles end of the work and is also in charge of the music for the campaign. Mr. Powell is meeting with the enthusiastic response of the city and is a vital factor to the success of the series of services. Alexander Bain is the revival pianist and is second to none in his performance at the keys.

Services begin each evening at 8 o'clock at the giant taberrnacle on the lot just south of the old Grammar School building, and every one is cordially invited and urged to attend and participate in the services.

SCHOOL THANKS CITIZENS FOR USE OF FLOWERS SUN.

The faculty of the Clarendon public schools wish to take this means of expressing their sincere appreciation to the following persons for the use of their flowers for decoration purposes during the commencement period: Mrs. Frank Bourland, Mrs. H. T. Burton, Mrs. A. L. Chase, Mrs. O. L. Fink, Mrs. B. L. Jenkins, Mrs. Oscar Jenkins, Mrs. David Johnson, Mrs. Cal Merchant, Mrs. J. T. Patman, Mrs. L. A. Reavis, Mrs. B. G. Smith, Mrs. D. O. Stallings, Mrs. W. W. Taylor and the Antro Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. McHenry Lane motored to Hopkins on Friday afternoon where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Everette Clark. They returned on Sunday together with Mr. and Mrs. Clark to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lane.

CONGRESS TOYS WITH SOUTH'S PROSPERITY

One of the modern day tragedies, is the seeming total lack of understanding evidenced by the congress of the United States, of the direct relationship between the prosperity of the South and the easing of the European war debt situation.

Hon. Peter Molyneaux and his "Texas Weekly" is the leading champion of the cause of the South and is doing his utmost to awaken the Texas members of congress to the immediate importance of a movement looking to the rehabilitation of the credit structures of European nations, so that they may again become customers of Texas and her neighboring states of the South for cotton. Texas congressmen want to represent Texas and her interests, but they will not do so in this instance until they are conscious of a changed attitude on the part of Texas voters. This, of course, can only be accomplished by a general awakening of the people as to the true status of cotton, and the impossibility of improvement in present low prices without our usual customers in Europe become again able to buy.

This is not a wholly selfish attitude on the part of the South, for if cotton can command a fair price, though improved demand, then prosperity in the South will effect the whole commercial structure of the nation.

Texas should demand of her congressmen and senators that they begin an immediate and intensive campaign in congress to ease the payments of interest and principal of war loans to our former customers in Europe.

It means the prosperity of Texas and the South.

INTEMPERANCE

By Frank J Hanley
Former Governor of Indiana

I bear no malice toward those engaged in the liquor business, but I hate the traffic.

I hate its very phase.

I hate it for its intolerance.

I hate it for its arrogance.

I hate it for its hypocrisy, for its cant and craft and false pretense.

I hate it for its commercialism; for its greed and avarice; for its sordid love of gain at any price.

I hate it for its domination in politics; for its corrupting influence in civic affairs; for its incessant efforts to debauch the suffrage of the country; for the cowards it makes of public men.

I hate it for the load it straps to labor's back; for the palsied hands it gives to toil; for its wounds to genius; for the tragedies of its might-have-beens.

I hate it for the human wrecks it has caused.

I hate it for the alms houses it peoples; for the prisons it fills; for the insanity it begets; for its countless graves in potters' fields.

I hate it for the mental ruin it imposes upon its victims; for its spiritual blight; for its moral degradation.

I hate it for the crimes it commits; for the homes it destroys; for the hearts it breaks.

CLARENDON'S OPEN CHALLENGE

In a quiet, refined residental city like Clarendon, we are wont to become smugly satisfied with ourselves and our moral standards—and we have much to pride ourselves on in this respect.

But it is said that even in Clarendon a bootlegger boldly walks the streets day by day, with very little interference or resentment shown, thusfar.

The officers are not primarily to blame for this situation if it is true. But the citizenship is to blame, and when they decide they have had enough of it and it must stop, the officers can put a stop to it and with dispatch.

No bootlegger ought to ply his trade in Clarendon with impunity. He ought to quit his damnable business, and stay quit. If he doesn't he ought to be sent where he can't do damage to the citizenship and reputation of a town as fine and clean as Clarendon.

—oOo—

TEXAS CAN MAKE OR BREAK GARNER'S CHANCES

If the state Democratic convention wants to list John Garner as a weak "favorite son" just let it name Roosevelt or anybody else, as a second choice.

If Texas Democrats desire to make Garner a bold, virile contender for the nomination at Chicago, let them instruct for "Garner, first, last, and all the time."

There are no half-way measures in the inexorable machinery of national politics, and it is up to Texas Democrats to decide what kind of role they want to play.

A Southerner—a Texan—can be nominated for the presidency. He can even be elected—if Texas Democrats map a strong, inflexible course and hold to it.

ARE WE GUILTY?

The State is now forcing all children to attend school, hauling them around in busses, fixing extravagant playgrounds, giving them the idea that the state has a duty to look after them. When they get out of school the crime wave will indicate that they have developed a belief that society owes them a living and they go about getting it in illegal ways, if they are unable to get it in some other easy way.—B. G. McKie, Waco, in Dallas News.

H. B. HILL TO RUN FOR LEGISLATURE

SHAMROCK LAWYER FORMER LEGISLATOR, ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY HERE TODAY

H. B. Hill, Shamrock attorney and a former member of the state legislature, has asked The Clarendon News to formally announce his candidacy for the office of state representative of the 122nd legislative district subject to the action of the democratic primary.

The candidate was a member of the lower house from 1919 to 1923 and was mentioned for speaker of the house. He feels that his experience is necessary to represent this district.

Mr. Hill was raised on the farm and has been a farmer land owner since attaining his majority. He has a deep understanding and sympathy for the problems of the farmer, and when a member of the legislature was always counted as a friend of agriculture. It was Mr. Hill who sponsored the law that provided for two-thirds reimbursement to the farmer for the value of any tubercular infected cattle, which had to be killed, and he was one member of the legislature known for his championship of the interests of the farmers and stockmen of this section.

The Shamrock attorney believes it is time to put the state on a more business-like basis. A reduction in taxes is in order, he thinks. He believes too many departments and bureaus are being created, it having been his experience that even though they are formed at small cost in the beginning the bureaus continue to grow with added tax burden on property owners until they are from five to ten times their original size within a few years.

"The main thing to be done at this time is to see that the affairs of the state government are administered at the lowest possible cost," said Hill. "With this in view, if elected, I shall see to it as far as my ability permits, that no new department or boards are created and that expenses are cut materially in all branches of the state government, to the end that taxes shall be lowered. Every individual has been compelled to take this attitude in his personal affairs and it is only right that the state government should do the same thing."

Mr. Hill was a member of the economy bloc while in the legislature. He was instrumental in passing several economy measures.

"The state", said Mr. Hill, "is spending money at the rate of $112,000,000.00 annually, while in 1920 the total expense of state government was $30,000,000.00 a year. This enormous and fast increasing expense can and must be stopped. In no other way can the tax payers get relief."

Mrs. Olin Castleberry Dies Suddenly Here

The communities of Clarendon and Alanreed were shocked and grieved Sunday afternoon when it was learned Mrs. Olin Castleberry had passed away suddenly at her home here. Mrs. Castleberry was one of the city's most popular young matrons and her passing has caused much grievance among her friends here and at Alanreed, the old family homestead.

She was born Jennie Sherrod, February 9, 1899, at Norman, Oklahoma. She remained there until 1911 when she moved with her parents to Alanreed where the family home was situated. It was at this place she met Olin Castleberry and a romance was started which finally united the two young people in marriage on May 24, 1931.

Mr. and Mrs. Castleberry began their life together in Clarendon and have made their home here since that time. Mr. Castleberry being connected with his brother in one of the city's leading meat markets.

Mrs. Castleberry became a Christian and united with the Baptist Church in 1915. Since that time she has been faithful and active in the work of the church and the Sunday School.

A special memorial service was held at the family home Monday morning by the members of her Sunday School Class with the Rev. B. N. Shepherd conducting. Following this the body was taken to Alanreed for the funeral and interment. A large group of local people attended the body to its final resting place and joined with those of her home city in final tribute to the noble wife and mother. Services were held at the First Baptist Church with Rev. King in charge and Rev. Shepherd assisting.

Friends from over the entire Panhandle were present and the esteem with which Mrs. Castleberry was held was evidenced by the beautiful florial offerings which banked the front of the church. Interment was made in the Alanreed Cemetery beside her father and a baby brother who preceeded her in death.

Pallbearers were Walter Clifford, Will Ray, Oscar Castleberry, Loyd Moreland, Jasper Elms and Ben Buck.

Besides her husband, the deceased leaves to mourn her passing the following: an infant daughter, her mother Mrs. J. W. Sherrod, five sisters, Mrs. J. A. Roselius, Norman, Oklahoma; Mrs. J. C. Todd, Norman, Oklahoma; Mrs. Laland Wilkins, Amarillo; Mrs. Carl Greenwood, Wichita Falls; and Mrs. J. H. Steger, Amarillo; and three brothers, Wilmouth Sherrod, Altus, Oklahoma; Roy Sherrod, Alanreed; and Pearson Sherrod, Plainview.

Claude J. Davis Is Buried at Claude

One of the most tragic accidents in the history of local mishaps was the highway crash on the outskirts of Panhandle last Sunday afternoon which took the life of Claude J. (Bill) Davis and injured his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis, the latter seriously.

The mishap occured at the intersection of highway 33 and 117 just south of Panhandle when the sedan in which the Davis family were returning to Clarendon, after having visited with relatives in that city, collided with a light oil field truck driven by a Potter County citizen the local car overturned and righted itself before coming to a stop. Young Davis was thrown from the car and death was instaneous. Mrs. Davis receiver a broken arm and internal injuries, which first were thought to be almost fatal, but she has rallied unitl at the present time it is believed she will recover. Mr. Davis is suffering from painful cuts and bruises.

The victims were rushed to Panhandle where they received first aid attention and then placed in the sanitarium until Monday when Mr. and Mrs. Davis were brought to Clarendon.

The driver of the truck rendered assistance to the injured persons and rushed them into Panhandle. He was released upon investigation after finding the accident unavoidable.

Claude Davis was born Nov. 23, 1906 at Claude, Texas, where he lived until September, 1916, when the family was moved to Clarendon. Since then he has lived with his parents in this place, receiving his education in the local schools and at the time of his death was in business for himself.

Funeral services were held at Claude Monday afternoon with the Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the local Methodist Church conducting the last rites at the First Methodist Church. A large group of friends and acquaintences were present from both Clarendon and Claude to pay their comrade final tribute before he was laid to rest in the Claude cemetery.

Pallberers were Clarence Whitlock, M. V. Lynn, Frank Robinson, Johnny Tucker, Richard Tucker and Billy Joe Terrell.

Besides his mother and father, the deceased leaves five sisters to mourn his passing. They are: Mrs. Lee Curry, Summerfield, Texas; Mrs. John Black, Clarendon; Mrs. C. E. Prachar, Walsh, Colorado; Mrs. D. L. O'Conner, Colorado; and Mrs. R. A. Baker, Claude.

Mrs. Adams was also in the aotomobile at the time of the accident but escaped with minor bruises.

MUSIC WEEK—

of in last week's issue of The News.

Last Thursday evening the program was sponsored by the Clarendon Band as instrumental night and was received by a large audience which comfortably filled the College auditorium. Quartette and stringed music offered the diversity in the program while the main feature of the evening was special trumpet solos rendered by Robert A. Sandusky, guest soloist from Shamrock. Mr. Sandusky's work was nothing short of marvelous and his offerings were high lights of the entire Music Week presentation.

The last in the series of programs was given Friday evening at the College Auditorium by the juniors. There is possibly more young talent in the community than in any other city of like size in the entire section of West Texas and a great program was presented by the youngsters under the direction of the Parent Teachers Association.

During this last Music Week offering Superintendent H. T. Burton was presented with a handsome medallion by W. H. Patrick from The Clarendon News as a token of his selection by the citizens of the city as Clarendon's Mose Useful Citizen during 1931. Mr. Patrick made a sparkling presentation speech and Supt. Burton received enthusiastic applause from the large crowd.

The young bride and groom elect and the parents of Miss Cline motored to Clovis and the wedding took place at 6 o'clock. Mothers Self Culture Club Closes Year with Luncheon

The annual luncheon of the Mothers Self Culture Club was a brilliant affair Friday, and the Ladies club room presented a gay scene with a large number of members and guests present to celebrate this happy occasion of the close of a successful year's work.

When the guests arrived at 11:00 o'clock they were greeted by a wreath of spring flowers in all their gay tones, vases bowls and baskets were filled to overflowing. The tables were pictures of artistry with their baskets of dainty yellow daises, green menu cards and green and yellow miniature flower baskets which served as place cards.

Mrs. John M. Bass gracefully presided as toastmistress and the affair though quite informal was featured with a miscelaneous program as follows:

Palo Duro Literary Society Feted

An unusual entertainment was afforded members of the Palo Duro Literary Society on Friday of last week when Clyde Slaven invited the group together with other guests from Clarendon, Jericho and McLean to the McMurtry Ranch for a barn dance. Seventy-five being present to participate in this affair.

The upper part of the barn had been cleared for the dancers and a four piece orchestra secured to provide the music. Dancing began at 9:00 o'clock and continued until the wee small hours of morning.

A bountiful supper was served during the course of the evening which added much to the comfort of the guests and made this the outstanding social function of the year's social calendar for this group of young people.

Sims P. T. A. Close Year of Successful Work

Tuesday afternoon marked the close of another successful year of work for the Sims Parent-Teachers Association. Words are inadequate to express appreciation of Mrs. Boston and her untiring work during the past two years as president of the association. She is responsible for the present standard of excellency reached during that time. Mrs. Boston is grateful to her executive board and members of all standing committees who have worked so faithfully with her for the good of the association during these past two years.

Rev. McKee gave a splendid talk on "Co-operation of Parents and Teachers" for the benefit of those present and the only lamentable fact about this talk was that it was given at the close and not at the beginning of the year.

During the business session chairmen of all standing committees gave their yearly reports then election of officers was held with the following result: Mrs. J. R. Bain, president; Mrs. R. Wilkerson, 1st Vice-President; Mrs. J. L. McMurtry 2nd Vice-President; Mrs. U. J. Boston, 3rd Vice-President; Mrs. McHenry Lane, Secretary; Mrs. Ben Hill, treasurer.

All elected officers are enthusiastic about the Parent-Teachers work and already have begun to make plans for next year.

The little illustration in this column is dedicated to the best fish yarn spinner in the Panhandle, H. T. Burton. Here you see Mr. Burton with his mamoth catch. (Note the minnow on the hook has been enlarged several times for effect).

Folks, I wish you could have heard the fish stories told at the Lions Club the other day. The whole place was fishey—even the stories. A number protested that it wouldn't be fair for Coach Burton to tell one because he was a professional fish yarn speeler, and did that man uphold his record—Jonah's narrative wasn't even interesting. It's too good to keep so here's where I kill a little space with a few select yarns by Isaac Walton's pedagogue.

While casting for trout in a central Texas stream from the bank of the river the big fish and hook man caved through into a beaver nest just as he made the cast. As he fell he naturally threw his arms up throwing his fly upon the bank. After scrambling back upon mother terra firma he tugged his line but it was hung fast. Thinking it was caught in a bush he investigated and found a beautiful large trout adorning his line.

Now Mr. Rathjen apparently thought even less of that story for hero's his yarn—

Upon crossing the ocean he noticed a school of sharks following just outside the swirl of water from the screws feeding upon refuse thrown from the ship. Mentioning it to a sailor he was informed that these were not caught but were delt with another way. The sailor went to the steward and secured a large piece of meat, placed something inside and tied a wire to it. Throwing it overboard the shoeman awaited developments. It was only a short time until the largest of the sharks inhaled the entire offering and an instant later was blown to bits by dynamite concealed inside the meat.

The advantage went to Mr. Rathjen—but only for the time being—for the idea of "blowing up" evidently furnished a great idea to Battling Burton who counter attacked with the yarn that floored everybody.

Time: a kid. Place: West fork of the Trinity River. Truth: ???. On with the story.

The old allegators were especially fond of watermelons and ruined several acres for the farmers. Noting this the youngsters also learned that one big fellow did several times as much damage as the others of the group. Well sir, here's the plot—the Burton youngster and his playmates picked a large melon and slit one side of it then built a fire and heated some bricks to a high temperature. Placing them inside the melon they started the object rolling down the bank into the group of alligators. As they suspected the big fellow opened wide his mouth and gulped the delicious melon. He had hardly stretched himself to sun before a burning sensation in his mid section made him a bit uncomfortable and soon he was off to the water with his mouth wide open. He was a smart rascal for the bricks did cool, but that wasn't all. Steam was produced in the salamander and Mr. Alligator experienced the inconsistency of a melon diet by blowing up. However the big thrill came from the announcement that enough fish were secured following the explosion to last the family a month.

And that's that—

Who can tell a better or more original fish story that the above? Let's have it.

Goldston's crack baseball team would be more popular with the baseball fans of the county if a member or two of the club would take defeat gracefully without so much umpire "riding". Better put the soft pedal on it Goldston—it'll ruin the team.

Lelia Lake's new baseball club is soon going to be one of the best in the county. By beating the Goldston champions last Tuesday they stamped themselves strong contenders for the mythical county championship. They are tall, rangy fellows but can hit that old horsehide to the far away regions.

Another team which bids fair to become one of the stronger contenders in the county is Johnny Beard's newly organized Chamberlain team. They tangle with the Goldston team Sunday afternoon on a diamond near the Chamberlain school house. Everyone is invited to come out and see a real game. New uniforms have been ordered and the Chamberlain club will be one of the best dressed outfits in this section.

The Boy's Club baseball league received a slight set-back Tuesday when only two of the four games were played due to a mix-up on the diamonds. This calls for double headers on the next meeting of the Bulldogs vs Bronchos and the Cyclones vs Wildcats. So far no one has been able to stop the Panthers in their rampage for the title. It is thought that perhaps in the next week they will be knocked from their apparently secure place atop the standings.

And did the Clarendon golfers have fun Sunday? We'll say they did and at the expense of their ancient rivals, the Memphis players. To make the victory doubly sweet the Hillcrofters bumped the Hall county Cap Rock League contenders out of first place and very neatly took over the job of staying on top of the heap. Notwithstanding the fact that the local aces lost their matches it was one of the worst defeats ever administered the Memphis clubbers. The Memphis players are laying for the locals when they invade the bandbox course down there in June—and they are plenty tough down there too folks. All aboard for Wellington Sunday, folks. A handsome win over the Skyrocket players would help no little in making the locals lead secure from the onslaughts of the other teams.

The golfers were enthused over the large turn-out of spectators to see the match Sunday. All are anxious for more of the local folks to witness the matches. A large crowd of Memphis folks accompanied their team here Sunday. Every one is invited to see the matches when the team is playing at home through the summer.

Received an invitation from the Wellington Tennis Club a day or two ago asking for matches with the local tennis players. With the long delay in getting the courts into shape it is impossible for the locals to play matches immediately, but it is the hope of those interested to complete the courts without further delay and inter-city matches will be held thereafter. A little more time please, Wellington, and we'll try to give you some tough competition. Thanks for the invitation though.

JUDGE A. B. MARTIN

Civil Appeals at Amarillo, today announced as candidate to succeed himself in the office, subject to the Democratic primary in July.

Judge Martin, a veteran jurist of West Texas and a former member of the Criminal Appeals Commission in Austin issued the following statement on his candidacy:

"I am a candidate at the forthcoming Democratic primary to succeed myself to the position of associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District, to which I was recently appointed.

"I feel that my first duty is to do the work of this court, for which the state is paying me, and I shall have to depend largely upon my friends. I have lived in the West all my life, with the exception of about three and one-half years which I spent at Austin as one of the judges of the Commission of Criminal Appeals. I have practiced law on the South Plains, with the exception of the above period, for about 26 years and I refer the voters to any trial or appellate judge in Texas before whom I have practiced during this time.

"I am deeply grateful for the expressions of confidence and offers of support that have come to me from over the entire district. I shall greatly appreciate your support and influence at the forthcoming Democratic primary."

PERHAPS HISTORY WILL REPEAT ITSELF SOON

A few days ago The News received an interesting clipping from the Federal Reserve Bank at Weshington. The writer just noticed the similarity of its contents with the condition of the country at the present time. Perhaps history will repeat itself —let's hope so at any rate. Here's the clipping:

Memphis, Egypt,
3068 B. C.

A papyrus handbill, dated Memphis, Egypt, 3068 B. C., has recently been discovered and a free translation is as follows:

"A few lawless men are depriving the land of sovereignty. The laws are defied and men tread them under feet. The lawbreaker is the posessor of wealth, while the rich man has lost everything.

"There is a scarcity of gold. The skilled craftsman is without work. The man who reaps the harvest gets nothing for it and he who did the plowing does not secure the profit. The land is depleted. There are more rulers than ever. I show you a land turned upside dows".

But shortly thereafter Egypt entered upon a period of unprecedented prosperity.

DRUNKEN SCENES RAPPED BY JUDGE

DALLAS, May 2.—Moving pictures and theatres using devices which endeavor to show drunkenness as an attractive state were criticized here today by Federal Judge William Atwell.

"God knows there is nothing attractive about a drunken ass," the judge declared in charging jurors at a special session of court.

He stressed the fact that laws are enacted not to make men good, but to regulate their conduct in a civilization where men must co-operate and each must regard the rights of others, in order to make that civilization endure.

"Laws have no religious purpose," he asserted. "They are not to make men good, but to punish those who break them.

"We are told that if man did not write any criminal statutes in his books there would be no acts which would, in truth, amount to such crimes.

"We know such sayings to be pure bunk. We know the correct way to be good citizens is to make the same effort to harmonize ourselves with the essentials of good government that the members of a good orchestra make to get their instruments to a common key."

More Ways Than One To Make The Farm Pay

The farmer of a few years ago had just one idea—to plant a crop and get his profit on the harvest from that one crop.
Modern methods have shown that there are more ways than one to make a farm profitable. Diversified farming has come to stay. Cows and chickens add their share to the farmer's income.

R. H. Templeton Enters Race For Judge of 100th Judicial District

Having been solicited generously both from my home county and other counties of the district to become a candidate for the office of Distsict Judge of the 100th Judicial District of Texas, I have decided to become a candidate for the nomination of this office, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held in July.

In announcing as a candioate for this important office, I am not unmindful that in order to discharge the duties of this important office acceptable to the people and according to the law, its occupant must possess many qualifications. Among these, he must be learned in the law, experienced in its practice both civil and criminal, have poise and judgement, patience and consideration in dealing with men, and, above all, a disposition and desire to render service commensurate with the high duties of this important office. The people of this District will be the sole judge of the qualifications of the candidates offering for this office, and, as many do not know me or my qualifications, it will be in order to submit such qualifications as I may possess in order that they may determine whether or not my qualifications measure up to the above requirements.

First: I am now in the prime of life, in good health, at an age with experience when my services should be at their best, and, it is at such a time when I can render the best service that I offer my services to the people of this district.

Next: In addition to my literary training and degree, I hold the LL. B. degree from the University of Tennessee and LL. B. degree from the University of Texas. I have licenses to practice law in the states of Tennessee, Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico. I have this much to submit as to whether I am learned in the law.

After graduating from the University of Texas, I located at Wellington where I have been engaged in the practice for the past twenty-five years. From here I have established a practice that has carried me into nearly every county in this part of the Panhandle. There is not a county in this district and but few counties in the surrounding territory that I have not tried both a major, civil and criminal case in. This practice has carried me into all the courts of this state, and, today, I have cases pending in all the courts from the Justice to the Supreme Court. I have this much to submit as to being experienced in the practice of the law, and believe it sufficiently broad to qualify me for the discharge of the duties of this office.

In addition to the practice of the law in other courts, I have served as County Judge of Collingsworth County for enght year, and four years as County Attorney. Also served as Mayor of Wellington. During my eight years as County Judge I was not reversed in a single case. As to my disposition to render faithful and efficient service while in office, I am willing to refer to any responsible citizen of Collingsworth County where I have served as an officer.

The office of District Judge is the biggest business office in the district because it must dispose of the big buiness, both Civil and Criminal, in the District. Ths office spends much of the people's money and consumes much of their valuable time. In addition to the above qualifications, the District Judge should have a broad practicable successful experience in business affairs and know how to dispatch business, to the tnd that strict economy should be practiced in this office both as to spending the people's money and consuming their time. Besides my own business which has been considerable, I have had the experience in helping manage the affairs of Collingsworth County for eight years, and believe that I know how to conduct this office economically both as to time and expenditure of the public money.

It is contrary to the sirt and genius of the law that the Trial Judge should become a partisan and take sides in any controversy before him, but it is his bounden duty to be fair and impartial to all litigants and their attorneys in all cases that comes before him and to follow the law as it is writtten regardless of whom or for whom it may be. I have no pets and will be under no obligations to any one except the people who elect me, and I promise to be fair and impartial as a judge should be to all litigants and their attorneys in all cases that come before me and not to take sides directly or indirectly and to follow the law and all the law as it is now written upon our Statutes Books and do my utmost to enforce the same, both Civil and Criminal. I think that I am conservant with the lieve that I can render a service conditions in this district and be in law enforcement that wll be appreciated by the people of this district, and I promise to do so, if elected.

I am very desirous to be the next District Judge of this District, and I promise the people that if I am honored with this office that I will give them the best efforts of my life to make them the kind of District Judge that they are entitled to, and will do my utmost to conduct this office economically both as to the time consumed and the money expended in running this office. And on the basis of qualification and fitness for this office, I respectfully solicit the support of the people of the 100th Judicial District.

Respectfully Submitted,
R. H. TEMPLETON.

GUTHRIE, Okla.—A city where the merchants use plenty of newspaper advertising is a city that keeps step with progress.

All eyes were strained to see signs of better times. Unfortunately, the end of the world slump has been heralded more than once, only to prove later that such optimism was premature. The result of this has been that the public has adopted a very conservative, not to say incredulous, frame of mind in such matters.

To a great extent, cities are judged by their appearance.

Have you ever noticed that utilities owned by cities are usually run by men chosen for political, instead of for business reasons, while those privately owned are managed by men picked for their business ability?

By the way, ice cream makes an universal appeal. Everybody likes it and nearly everybody buys it. More would buy in larger quantities if the makers of ice cream would tell the people what a healthful, palatable, wholesome, nutritious and inexpensive food it is by using more newspaper advertising.

It seems that the fighting power of the Army and Navy has been reduced very largely to the question of dollars and cents.

A lot of old cities with new ideas are moving ahead.

No greater accomplishment in life was ever achieved by a pessimist. It has always been the optimist who has done great things.

In some cities, every time they have an election the people line up into factions and proceed to tear down all the community spirit and good-fellowship that it took years to build.

Experience teaches a lot of people things they should know.

People look to the newspapers not only for news, but to the advertisements for bargains and opportunities to save money.

That to get direct information where to buy what you want, READ THE ADS!

The stores that advertise are price makers. They stand between you and dishonest goods.

You don't pay more when you buy ADVERTISED GOODS.

When you buy ADVERTISED GOODS you buy insurance with them, for they must be as represented. The store that advertises them stands behind them.

No people are so blind as those who will not see. Don't be blind. READ THE ADS

In the advertising columns you will find goods advertised that are of the highest quality and most reasonably priced.

ADVERTISED GOODS ARE QUALITY GOODS.

J. CECIL NUCKOLS, Advertising Manager of the Louisville (Ky) Herald-Post, says:

That newspaper advertising today offers the quickest and most direct method of getting one's story over to the retail buyer.

One of the things that especially affects the department stores today is that their profit line is going downward and their "cost of selling" line is going up. For this reason it behooves the advertising manager of any line of retail business to carefully budget his advertising expenditures and concentrate as much as possible in newspapers because of the low costs of reaching the masses.

While every form of advertising has its place in the general order of things, the fact still remains that newspaper advertising is the quickest medium of telling one's story, getting it read, and getting results from that reading.

Feels Stronger Than Ever

Just to prove to any doubtful man or woman that Kruschen Salts is the SAFE way to reduce—let us take the letter of Mr. F. J. Fritz of Cincinatti, Ohio, recently received.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting up exercises with very little results—but the results from Kruschen are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100 per cent better."

Bear in mind, you fat man that there is danger in too much fat—try the safe way to reduce—one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats and sweets—one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—get it at any drug-store in the world.

Brice to Bring Play to Goldston

On Friday night, May 13th, Brice will present a three act play at Goldston. The name "The Gate Happiness," suggests the plot of the play. It is a ten character comedy-drama of the rural type. The cast includes high school pupils and teachers. The admission is only five and ten cents. So come and enjoy a good play. Miss Mary Sue Waters of Clarendon is directing the play.

Besides the play there will be music furnished by the Todd brothers. That alone will be worth anyone's dime. Everyone is invited and we are hoping for a splendid attendance.

Proceeds go to the Goldston Baseball Club.

Two new shows will be featured at the 1932 State Fair of Texas the Southwest Aviation Exhibit and a huge oil show. Plans are being made to make these two shows permanent features of the State Fair of Texas, it has been announced by Roy Rupard, secretary of the exposition.

LEGION—

tion at Portland, Ore., and Dr. R. A. Webb of Pampa alternate.

Amarillo won the Whiteaker attendance cup held in 1930 by Plainview and last year by Pampa. The next meeting will be held in Plainview.

One of the most unusual happenings was experienced with the meeting of two veterans, Ed Francis and G. Ward Moody. At their first meeting on Saturday they exchanged greetings in the usual manner by asking which outfit each was with and passed on notwithstanding the fact that something seemed familiar about the pair. Late Sunday afternoon just before leaving for home the two met again in a cafe and Legionnaire Moody stopped to question the local man. He asked if by any chance he was the soldier assisted into his dugout after suffering from a severe gas attack while in the front line in France. A few more details were supplied by Legionnaire Francis and the entire story was unraveled with each supplying more of the connecting facts.

This meeting perhaps wouldn't mean so much to many of the veterans, but to Legionnaire Francis it means the establishing proof that he was incapacitated in action and is elegible for government compensation. This proof has been lacking up to the present time and it is almost certain that District chairman Monday will be able to help the claim of the local veteran.

"MISS CLARENDON" LOSES IN PAMPA BEAUTY CONTEST

Miss Jo Veta Wilson, recently crowned "Miss Clarendon," entered the "Miss North Plains" beauty contest at Pampa last Friday and lost the decision to a Pampa entry. Miss Jo Veta vied with fifteen young ladies from various cities in the Panhandle and six Pampa entries. The Pampa girls stole the show by drawing the first four places in the judging with Miss Clarendon drawing the choice for the out of city contestants. There was some dissatisfaction over the fact of so many Pampa entries in the contest of this kind it was reported here.

Every body who is normal is interested keenly in the lives of people who have succeeded. We would know all that we may about them, about their beginnings, their struggles, their habits and their view points of life. The Apostle Paul was and is the greatest single credential that Christ's gospel has ever produced. The secret of his marvelous life will be revealed in our morning message, "Paul's I Am's."

"Divine Justice" will be our evening subject. In this message we will try to show that God is not willing that any one should perish, and that He will mete out justice to the righteous and unrighteous, on "that day" when all people shall meet Him face to face.

Rev. W. E. Ferrell of the First Christian Church, believes these sermons will be of interest to every one, and invites you to be present.
