STORM IS NEARING GULF COAST

Withering Attack Is Launched By Japan

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, Oct. 13.—Japanese land and naval forces launched a withering attack today on Shihchaishan fort, just 60 air miles from Hankow, around which the invaders are slowly closing in while a new Japanese expeditionary force begins attempts to dominate South China.

Most Japanese army and navy officials here believed the new offensive near Canton, 550 miles south of Hankow, was aimed at severing southern railways and capturing the southern metropolis itself, thus facilitating the relentless drive toward Hankow, the provisional capital.

COUNT 123 WARPLANES

CANTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—A total of 123 Japanese warplanes were counted passing over this South China metropolis today en route to bombing forays in all parts of Kwangtung province. They concentrated on railroads. The United States gunboat Mindanao returned to Canton today after a trip to Hongkong for provisions.

The invaders established a spearhead at Sinyang, 100 miles north of Hankow, for two-way campaigns designed to add the Peiping-Hankow railway mileage to their already captured railways.

Japanese war maps show Sinyang to be 187 miles south of Chengchow, Honan province railroad junction, and present the possibility of an offensive toward Chengchow to coincide with a long-delayed drive across the Yellow river southward.

Japs Chart Drive

With fierce fighting continuing near Liuling, the Japanese charted a drive down the Peiping-Hankow railway toward Lichai, six miles to the south.

A Japanese army spokesman said the South China invasion—started yesterday with the landing of an estimated 35,000 or more men at Bias bay, near Hongkong—was designed to shorten the war and hasten the downfall of Hankow. He added the Hankow offensive "now will be increased in intensity."

Heavy Chinese Reinforcements Are Dispatched Into Area

HONGKONG, Oct. 13. (AP)—Heavy Chinese reinforcements were rushed from the East river district to the Bias bay area near here today with indications they might soon come to grips with a large new Japanese expeditionary force.

U. S. Bars Him

Visiting the United States for a nationwide lecture tour, John Strachey, below, noted British author, former member of Parliament and lecturer on communism, has been barred from entry into the United States by immigration officials. Action is said to be based on deportation proceedings against him in 1935 which were dropped when he voluntarily departed upon completion of his scheduled stay.

Farm Products Are Displayed

(Special To The Journal)

LAMESA, Oct. 13.—Farm products from Dawson county farms, handiwork of the women of the entire county and the best livestock were being assembled here today for opening of the second annual Dawson County fair in its own properties on the fair grounds near town.

President Joe Peterson and Secretary A. G. Bearden were enthusiastic over the response to the call for exhibits.

Prize monies will amount to more than $800, directors of the association report. First, second and third places will draw money, those rating below that will be awarded only ribbons.

Crowds Are Expected

Large crowds are expected for the 3-day exposition. First since a reorganization was held last year. The association has two buildings of its own, in which exhibits will be displayed.

Department superintendents are arranging exhibits for judging Friday.

Schools of the county will have a free admission Friday. All rural schools will be closed.

The extension service of the county, headed by Joe Williams, county agent, the Soil Conservation Service camp here, the Farm Security administration and other government agencies are cooperating with fair officials in the exposition.

Water Group To Meet Here

Notification that a district meeting of the recently organized state ground water committee will be held in Lubbock in the near future was received this morning from F. W. Pulliam, of Crystal City, chairman, by City Manager W. H. Rodgers who is a member of the state committee of seven.

Pulliam requested Rodgers to set the date for the meeting. The city manager said the time will be set as soon as he can determine the date which seems most convenient to those likely to attend.

The ground water committee was formed last summer following a state-wide meeting held in Austin at the call of Governor Allred. Its purpose, it was explained, was to take steps to conserve ground water resources, supplies of which have been depleted alarmingly in many portions of the state.

The committee of which Rodgers is a member since has prepared drafts of legislation proposed for

Retirement Board Schedules Meeting

AUSTIN, Oct. 13. (AP)—The teachers retirement board of trustees will meet here Oct. 28 to certify to the state board of control the anticipated revenue for the next biennium.

The purpose of the estimate will be to enable the legislature to know how much matching money it may be called on to provide. The state is supposed to match contributions from teachers but so far has made no appropriation for the purpose although the law has been in effect a little more than a year.

Since September, 1937, the teachers have contributed a total of $2,390,613, of which $655,000 is cash on hand. The remainder has been invested in government bonds.

Members of the teachers retirement board are: Claude D. Teer, chairman of the state board of control; R. L. Daniel, chairman of the state insurance commission; Dr. Chas. N. Shaver of Huntsville, Quata Woods of Dallas, Dan D. Rogers of Dallas and H. L. Mills of Huntsville.

Teer and Daniel are members because of their offices as chairmen of the boards of control and insurance. Teer is chairman of the retirement board.

LESS SEED CRUSHED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The census bureau reported today cottonseed crushed in the two-month period, Aug. 1 to Sept. 30, totaled 799,189 tons, compared with 979,107 tons in the corresponding period a year ago. Cottonseed on hand at mills Sept. 30 totaled 1,068,788 tons, compared with 991,832 a year ago.

Hungary Hands Czechoslovakia Ultimatum

Thousands Of Troops Face Each Other

Total Of 8,000 Square Miles Of Territory Said Demanded By Hungarian Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

Hungary handed Czechoslovakia an ultimatum demanding cession of territory Hungary believes should be hers by 6 p. m. (11 a. m., C.S.T.) and thousands of troops were on each side of the Hungarian-Czechoslovak border awaiting orders.

Concessions thus far offerd by Czechoslovakia were held unacceptable by Hungary, whose claims to Czechoslovak territory have been regarded favorably by Adolf Hitler.

NEGOTIATIONS BROKEN OFF

KOMAROM, Hungary (On the Czechoslovak border), Oct. 13. (AP)—The Hungarian delegation to the Komaron conference declared tonight that negotiations on Hungary's demands for cession of Czechoslovak territory had been broken off.

Koloman von Kanya, Hungary's foreign minister, read a declaration to a final session of the conference stating that the Budapest government would hand over its claims on Czechoslovakia to a four-power conference for decision.

This came about one hour after expiration of a Hungarian ultimatum calling for Czechoslovak acceptance of Hungary's territorial demands—said to cover some 8,000 square miles—by 6 p.m. (11 a.m., e.s.t.).

Both Hungarian and Slovak delegations to the territorial conference attempting to settle the difference departed for conferences with their governments.

Willing To Cede 2,000 Miles

Hungary was said to have demanded 8,000 square miles of Slovakia and Slovaks to have been willing to cede only 2,000 square miles.

Havas (French news agency) reported from Prague that a state of siege, a form of martial law, had been proclaimed in Mukacevo and other areas in Ruthenia, Czechoslovakia's easternmost province as the result of disorders attributed to Hungarian terrorists who had crossed the border.

Both Hungary and Poland have been agitating for the separation of Ruthenia from the dismembered republic.

State Of Siege Declared In Ruthenian District

PARIS, Oct. 13 (AP) — Havas (French news agency) dispatch from Prague today said a state of siege, a form of martial law, had been proclaimed at Lukacevo (Munkacs) and in other districts in Ruthenia following a series of "incidents."

Mukacevo is the principal town of Ruthenia, also known as Subcarpathian Russia, easternmost province of Czechoslovakia.

The Prague government has granted the province autonomy, but both Hungary and Poland have urged that a plebiscite be held there with a view to its possible union with one of the two countries.

Havas quoted Czechoslovak authorities as asserting that on Oct. 9 smugglers brought a group of

"We shall bring to our campus a teacher . . . to give every student a thorough and intelligent conception of true democracy."

Officers On Second Search For Body Of Missing Texas Woman

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 13 (AP) — Deputy Sheriffs John J. Klevenhagen, John J. Gray and Texas Ranger Captain Lee Miller left here last night for Ingleside where this morning they will begin a second search for the body of a former employe of John D. Ball, Elmendorf tavern operator, who shot himself to death recently as he was about to be questioned concerning the disappearance of a woman.

The officers took Clifton Wheeler, negro, who has told officers that he saw Ball shoot the woman to death on the beach near Ingleside about a year and a half ago. Oficers believe the body is that of Minnie Gerhardt of Gotthardt. Wheeler had previously led officers to a grave near Elmendorf where the dismembered body of Hazel Brown, 22, of McDade was found.

Quotas Ballot Set For Next Year's Crop

Referendum Will Be Held Second Time; Results May Affect New Legislation

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 — The nation's 2,225,000 cotton growers will get another chance Dec. 10 to express their opinion of the new crop control program.

They will take part in a referendum on establishing marketing quotas on next year's cotton crop. Last March they voted nine to one to invoke quotas on the 1938 yield.

Election To Be Watched

Coming at a time when the administration's efforts to restore agricultural prosperity are under attack in several quarters, the election will be watched by both supporters and foes of the New Deal.

The results, said officials of the agriculture department, may have an important bearing on congressional efforts to substitute outright price-fixing for the present legislation.

Two-Thirds Must Approve

Two-thirds of the farmers voting must approve quotas in order to make them effective. Their purpose is to restrict production and sale of farm products when excessive supplies exist. Growers who produce more than their quotas are denied government subsidies and are assessed tax penalties if they market in excess of their quotas.

The cotton referendum may be followed by similar elections on tobacco and wheat marketing quotas.

Would Strengthen Administration

Federal officials said a favorable vote on the cotton quotas undoubt-

TO MOVE OVER FLORIDA

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 13. (AP)—The weather bureau reported today a moderate tropical disturbance in the Gulf of Mexico would move over Florida during the next 24 to 36 hours, causing rains and a general squally condition.

The bureau in a 10 a.m. (est) bulletin advised precautions by small craft in the Gulf of Mexico and Florida coastal waters and by persons on exposed islands and beaches.

of the center, was showing a slight movement apparently toward the northeast during the past six hours after moving very little during the previous six hours.

Small craft from the mouth of the Mississippi river to extreme southern Florida should remain in port until further notice, the advisory said.

Storm warnings remained displayed from Carrabelle, Fla., to Morgan City, La., and small craft warnings were displayed east and south of Carrabelle to Miami, Fla.

The weather in New Orleans today was crisp and clear.

The bureau said more rapid movement was indicated "within the next few hours."

Refinery Fire Under Control

(By The Associated Press)

LINDEN, N. J., Oct. 13—A raging fire, which destroyed millions of gallons of oil, kerosene and gasoline and injured a score of men, was smothered under control today, leaving eight acres of a refining company's "tank farm" a field of charred, twisted girders.

Linden Fire Chief Frank T. Miller, who estimated damage at "more than $1,000,000," said the fire had finally been localized to one 1,554,000-gallon tank of fuel oil. Approximately 20 other tanks were destroyed by explosions and flames.

Battle Until Dawn

The weary army of firemen and volunteers battle the vast tongues of flame and clouds of greasy, black smoke until dawn this morning as the fire raged through the heart of one of the world's greatest refinery centers.

Powerful searchlights pointed the way for rivers of water and smothering foam poured by fighters into eight acres of burning tanks and blazing oil during early morning hours in the inferno that was the Cities Service company "tank village" near here.

A crowd of 35,000 had watched in awe for hours as an estimated 000,000 gallons or oil went up in flames, 500 feet high, causing damage unofficially estimated at 000,000.

Two Killed In Texas Dam Cave-In Today

MINERAL WELLS, Oct. 13. (AP)—A cave-in at the Possum Kingdom dam construction site today killed Floyd Weida, 35, an Iowan, and Fred W. Partney, 27, of Olney, Tex.

Two other employes, caught waist-deep in a surge of sand at the coffer dam, escaped without injury.

A crew of workmen was reinforcing the coffer dam with sand bags when the slide started. Workmen toiled for 25 minutes before they reached the bodies.

Weida is survived by his wife and a child. Partney is survived by his wife.

Building Continues Pace Here

Pickers Influx Has Subsided

The word seems to have spread that the South Plains cotton crop this year is not as phenominally bumper as last year.

This was indicated in reports to police and other authorities this morning that the influx of itinerants seeking jobs as pickers has subsided.

Great Last Week

Last week, authorities recalled, the flood of arriving job hunters was so great that some alarm was expresed, particularly in Slaton vicinity, that the supply might exceed the demand by such margin that a charity and crime problem might result.

For some reason, according to reports here, the flood subsided to a dribble almost overnight. Pickers still are arriving, but not in the

Former Convict Charged After Seizure Of Narcotics Cache

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 13 (AP) — A former convict was in the toils of the law again today through the efforts of Captain A. M. Owen of Eastham state prison farm, who seized narcotics worth $1,000 at prison exchange rates.

The prisoner, ex-convict from Burkburnett, was turned over to federal narcotics agents at Houston.

The smuggling plot was thwarted after a convict sent a money order to his brother and received a note which, when heated, revealed secret writing stating the brother woul ddeliver the narcotics at the prison.

The ex-convict was arrested near the farm and led officers to an outhouse near Trinity where the narcotics were found.

Residences And Apartments To House 200 Families Built During August, September

Residence and apartment construction during August and September provided housing for approximately 200 families in Lubbock —a pace somewhat in excess of three per day.

This was disclosed this morning in a report supplied by City Building Inspector Jim Reid at request of the federal department of labor.

Construction Cost $481,052

Construction cost of the new housing, as listed in the permits, totaled $481,052, which does not include approximately $20,000 for repairs and alterations to existing homes.

Report for the two months shows that permits were issued for 14 one-family dwellings, four two-family residences and 17 garage apartments.

Build 82 Each Month

The fact that the building pace has been steady was reflected in the report that during each month permits were obtained for 82 one-family residences and two duplexes. Seven garage apartment permits were issued in August and 10 in September.

Total of all building permits during the two months was $875,841, but of that sum, $359,000 was for a new dormitory under construction at Texas Technological college.

Majority For Housing

Significance of that comparison is that more than 93 per cent of all construction except the dormitory authorized during the two months was for housing.

Meanwhile, construction activities continued at a busy pace for October. Permits for construction to cost $18,246 were issued during the 24 hours to noon today, increasing the total for this month to $120,017 and for the year to $2,566,524.

Included among the new permits were: L. C. Garrett, owner, and C. E. Ashford, contractor, residence at

Crops In State In Good Shape

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 13 — Conditions during September favored maturity and rapid harvesting of some Texas crops but resulted in somewhat smaller production forecasts on October 1 for tame hay, rice, peanuts and sweet potatoes, the U. S. Department of agriculture reported today.

The Oct. 1 forecast for peanuts was 129,000,000 pounds, 10 per cent below the September forecast but 28,000,000 more than last year's production.

Tame Hay Crop Larger

The tame hay crop was estimated at 981,000 tons, compared with 831,000 produced in 1937.

The department said an average sweet potato crop had been harvested with an indicated yield of 4,500,000 bushels, 6 per cent less than indicated Sept. 1.

Rains in early September caused some damage to rice and indicated production on Oct. 1 was 13,000,000 bushels, somewhat less than previous expectations but 750,000 bushels more than last year's production.

Better Fall Business Reflected In Parking Meter Receipts

Better fall business in Lubbock the two past week-ends has been reflected in larger parking meter revenues, according to report at the city hall this morning.

Collections for the past Friday, Saturday and Monday, according to the report, totaled $253.25, an average of approximately $84.40 per day. The previous week-end, which included both Saturday and first Monday, produced $266, a daily average of nearly $89. The week-day average is approximately $75 per day.

Receipts thus far this fall, officials said, have been approximately the same as during the same period last year.

City Tax Rate Up For Action

First discussion of the city tax rate to be set for the current fiscal year which began last April 1 was scheduled at the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission at the city hall this afternoon.

Whether the rate may be set and what it may be, however, were entirely speculative, according to opinion at the city hall. The uncertainty, it was explained, arises from the city budget for the current year which has not yet been completed.

To Discuss Bonds Repayment

Among the matters scheduled to be discussed, however, it was disclosed, will be whether the city should make provision in this year's tax rate for starting the repayment of approximately $750,000 in bonds voted at an election last September.

If that should be done, officials believed, an increase in the present tax of 75 cents on the $100 of as-

Books On Five New Subjects Of Texas Schools Are Approved

AUSTIN, Oct. 13. (AP)—Eighty-five textbooks to be used in the public schools today were on the free textbook list as approved by the state board of education.

The list included books on five new subjects recently adopted by the board for universal use in the schools: public safety, speech arts, economics, practical physics and practical algebra.

Texts chosen for public safety education were "Safely On We Go" by Matthews-Risinger-Wilson and "Drive and Live," Fitzgerald-Hoffman-Bayston.

The approvals concluded the business of the board at its regular monthly meeting.

Marriage Of Miss Cathryn Dykes And Joe Coursey, Jr., Is Told Today

Two Entertain With Coffee

The marriage of Miss Cathryn Dykes and Joe Coursey, jr., which took place Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church in Clovis, N. M., was announced this morning at a coffee given in the F. R. Friend home, 2005 Broadway, with the bride's mother, Mrs. W. A. Dykes of 2120 Broadway, and Mrs. Charles Whitacre of 1905 Twenty-ninth street, as hostesses.

Approximately sixty guests called between 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Whitacre presented callers to a receiving line made up of Mrs. Dykes, the bride; Mrs. Joe Coursey, jr., mother of the bridegroom, and Miss Lola Allen.

In House Party

Mrs. Billy Dykes of Brownfield and Mrs. Henry A. Roberts of Plainview were in the house party.

During the morning Miss Gladys Hall played piano selections.

Guests registered in a bride's book presided over by Miss Betty Sue Crites.

A blue bowl of marigold and snapdragons centered the refreshment table where Mesdames R. C. Harvey and T. E. Crites poured coffee. They were assisted in serving by Misses Marguerite Gibson, Gertrude Claiborne, Nell Boyd and Arnette Halsey.

Plate favors were cards decorated with wedding bells and bearing the announcement, "Cathryn and Joe, October 9."

Sings At Wedding

Miss Hall and Elton Plowman accompanied the couple to Clovis. Mr. Plowman, accompanied by Miss Hall, sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. The bride wore a black suit with corresponding accessories and a corsage of Talisman rosebuds.

Mrs. Coursey is a graduate of Lubbock High school and a former member of the Sub-Deb club. She attended Texas State College for Women last year and this fall enrolled in Texas Technological college where she was to have pledged Sans Souci club.

Mr. Coursey, also a graduate of Lubbock High school, has attended Texas A. and M. college and Tech college.

Parties Honor Bride-Elect

A series of pre-nuptial courtesies is honoring Miss Pauline Phillips who will be married to Bedford Caldwell at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church.

Miss Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Phillips of 1626 Sixteenth street, will be hosts at home at 7 o'clock Saturday night with a buffet supper, followed by a wedding rehearsal. Members of the bridal party will be guests for supper.

The two bridesmaids, Misses Ruby Lee Leary and Allie Hevia entertained with a surprise kitchen and bathroom shower Tuesday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Kuykendall, 2201 Sixteenth street. Mrs. Kuykendall assisted the hostesses.

Games Played

The guests, arriving at 7:30 o'clock, played games in the basement recreation room until Miss Phillips arrived; then, in a bingo game, the honoree was presented with gifts appropriate for the apartment at Tahoka.

Punch was served in the dining room where a table was set with a lace cloth and decorated with a centerpiece of red roses and white candles. Misses Billie Crausbay, Barbara Goodloe, Jeanette Watson and Geraldine Watson assisted the hostess in serving.

During the refreshment hour Miss Doris Kolb played piano selections and Miss Ruth Mildred Rylander sang. The living room was decorated with dahlias and chrysanthemums.

These Attend

Others attending were Mesdames Phillips, Emory Selman, Louie McClelland, Gordon Thompson, Lewis Kerr, John K. Wherry, H. G. Gantz, Winfred Stout, Dale Calvert, B. G. Clinton of Tahoka and W. R. Blake and Misses Elaine Goodwin, Lorena Owens, Marie Shook, Julia Austin, Ruth Abbott, Moselle Norris, Mary and Frances Wilson, Ruth Emmett, Jo Ann Kuykendall, Margaret Hemby, Ferrelline Tucker, Ouida Davis, Dorothy Rylander, Jeanette Kelley and Ruby Jo Popejoy.

Tech Dean Will Address State AAUW Meeting

CORPUS CHRISTI, Oct. 13 (Special)—A speaker at the biennial convention at Texas division of the American Association of University Women at Tyler Oct. 21-22, Mrs. Mary W. Doak of Lubbock, will discuss needs and potentialities of college guidance programs in A. A. U. W. branches. This announcement was made by Mrs. I. M. Alexander of this city, state president of the organization.

Mrs. Doak, dean of women and English professor at Texas Technological college, is at present president of the Lubbock branch of A.A.U.W. She is a graduate of the University of Texas.

Merry Needlers Meeting Is In Peel Residence

Merry Needlers club met with Mrs. J. A. Peel, 2106 Twenty-sixth street, Wednesday afternoon for several hours of needlework. Attending were Mesdames B. A. Brady, J. Scott Hollingsworth, Eugene Hancock, Rufus Bundy, O. W. McGuire, J. D. McPhaul, G. G. McMurry, O. R. Johnson, Troy Womack and Mrs. Stewart.

PLAIDS FOR AUTUMN

There's a certain affinity between a warm bright plaid and nature's own tones in autumn colorings. Early fall fashion showings indicate plaids as important — soft Scotch plaids in both plain and furred topcoats, as well as sports suits. A four-way plaid and velveteen ensemble — two-piece dress of soft plaid wool, short, boxy tuxedo jacket and as suitable for late afternoon slim skirt of velveteen — will be as suitable for late afternoon cocktails as autumn spectator sports. Colors are brown, wine, black or green with harmonizing plaids.

Needle Club Bee Meets With Mrs. W. D. Massey

Needle Club bee met with Mrs. W. D. Massey, 1513 Avenue L, Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. L. Pate, 1308 Avenue Q, Oct. 26 at 3:30 o'clock.

Attending were Mesdames H. M. Hawes, Ira Clements, M. M. Page, A. S. Richardson, J. L. Pate, R. H. Edler, C. H. Tisdell, Ted Zachary, C. C. Chambers and a special guest, Mrs. Clem Boyette.

One Hundred Attend Art Institute Meeting

Approximately 100 persons attended an initial fall meeting of the Tech Art Institute in the engineering building Wednesday night.

F. A. Kleinschmidt announced the proposed program for the remainder of the year.

Mr. J. P. Blitz played piano scores for the showing of three films of early western theme.

A membership drive is to be staged within the next few days.

Reception To Be Given By Band Fraternity

Following band school in the textile engineering building tonight the Kappa Kappa Psi honorary band fraternity will entertain with a reception. At least 200 are expected to attend.

The fraternity had held two banquets since the season opened and last Sunday night members met at Mexican Inn for supper. Thirty-six were present.

To Stop Constipation Get at Its Cause!

If constipation's got you down so you feel heavy, tired and dopey—it's time you did something about it. And something more than taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble.

If you eat only the things most people do, the chances are that a very simple fact causes your constipation—you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean heavy food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, eat crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast every day and drink plenty of water. All-Bran contains both "bulk" and the intestinal tonic, vitamin B. And it's not a drug, not a medicine!

'Widest Possible Application' Favored For New Labor Act

Andrews Gives Out Bulletin

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Elmer F. Andrews, wage-hour administrator, said today congress intended the "widest possible application" of the labor standards act to interstate commerce.

"The administrator in interpreting the statute for the purpose of performing his administrative duties, should properly lean toward a broad interpretation of the key words, 'engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce,'" he said in his first interpretative bulletin on the act which becomes effective Oct. 24.

Exemptions Not Touched

"This bulletin," he added, "does not deal with the variouss important exemptions provided in the statute."

This summary of the bulletin was prepared by the office of his general counsel:

1. The act requires workers engaged in commerce or in production of goods for commerce to be paid a minimum wage of 25 cents an hour beginning Oct. 24. But, it "becomes an individual matter as to the nature of the employment of the particular employe."

2. The first category of workers included in the act applies "typically but not exclusively" to employes in the telephone, telegraph, radio and transportation industries and in warehouses the storage facilities of which are used in interstate distribution of goods.

Explanations Offered

3. The second category applies, for example, to workers in manufacturing, processing or distributing plants a part of whose goods moves out of the state where the plant is located.

"This is not limited merely to employes who are engaged in actual physical work on the product itself because by express definition (in the act) an employe is deemed to have been engaged in the 'production of goods' if such employe was employed in producing, manufacturing, mining, handling, transporting or in any manner working on such goods, or in any process or occupation necessary to the production thereof, in any state."

4. The act says proof that a worker was employed in a place where goods shipped or sold in commerce were produced, within 90 days before removal of such goods, shall be prima facie evidence that that worker was engaged in production of those goods.

5. Employes subject to the act are entitled to its benefits whether they perform their work at home, in the factory, or elsewhere.

6. The act is not limited to employes working on an hourly wage. Workers must be paid at the rate of not less than 25 cents an hour the first year.

POSTOFFICE GAINS

LEVELLAND — September receipts for the Levelland postoffice showed a gain of 22.5 per cent, according to Postmaster Herry Mann. It is the largest month's receipts for that month in the 16 years the office has been open.

European Cannon Fodder?

Youthful soldiers of Europe's armed camps to whom the 1914-1918 "war to end wars" is a blurred childhood memory or a classroom history lesson, are drilled daily in the arts of war as Europe teeters on the brink of another catastrophe. Typical of these lighthearted, youthful recruits are those pictured here. Top, left to right, soldiers of Germany, Czechoslovakia, Russia; lower, France Britain and Italy.

Texas Youths Are Aided

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The president's advisory committee on education reported that the National Youth administration had given financial aid to 9,114 college youths in Texas in the 1936-37 fiscal year.

The students earned on part-time project work arranged to cause no interference with their studies a total of $846,210.

NYA aid also was given to 10,220 of the 22,200 public school pupils who applied for work.

Averaged $5 Per Month

In thousands of instances in the state, the committee commented, the $5 per month average wage paid high school pupils meant the difference between their staying in and remaining out of the classrooms.

As an example of constructive NYA programs, the committee cited in its report the work done by Texas youths in highway and wayside park beautification. At the peak of the program 2,000 were employed at 150 parks along state highways.

Negroes Are Aided

Mention also was made of a project maintained at the Prairie View State normal and industrial college for negroes, in which girls were given a training course in domestic service.

Commenting on aid given negroes, the committee noted that in Texas and other Southern states, financial assistance to public school pupils was in proportion to the difference in population of the two races, but that negroes were underrepresented in the college and graduate aid program.

Florists Of West Texas Are To Meet In Amarillo Next Week

A two-district convention of West Texas florists will be conducted Thursday through Saturday next week in the Amarillo hotel in Amarillo, said Overton W. Ribble, president of the state association of florists.

Both the Panhandle district, of which Arch Keyes of Plainview is district head and the El Paso district, headed by K. T. Hatfield of El Paso, will attend. There are about 150 florists in each group.

In connection with the meeting will be a flower show Friday night at the hotel. It will be the equal of the recent national show at Portland, Ore., Ribble said. Three of the floral authorities who attended the Portland show will be present and will be on the program, he said. Six nationally known me in floral decorations are to show their work.

Chamber's Creek Valley Again To Be Wild Life Sanctuary

ITALY, Oct. 13. (AP)—When the white man first settled among the hills overlooking Chamber's Creek valley almost 100 years ago birds were so numerous an early community was called Eerie, meaning a sanctuary for birds and wild life.

Recently owners of 10,000 acres of land in that locality formed a wild life association and signed a contract with the state game warden by terms of which the land once more became a home for wild birds. With this new reserve Ellis county now has approximately 100,000 of its 600,000 acres of land protected by the state game laws.

The American rubber industry uses approximately 1,250,000,000 pounds of rubber annually; one tire company alone requires the yield of more than 50,000,000 rubber trees.

Year's Activities Planned By Roosevelt FFA Wednesday

Year's activities were planned at the first meeting of the fall of Roosevelt Rural High school chapter of Future Farmers of America with the school's home-making class Wednesday night, according to David Montgomery, chapter reporter.

Among guests were Noel Krueger, superintendent of the school, and other faculty members.

Plans were discussed for the FFA district basketball tournament at Roosevelt Rural High school; a tour to the Yellowhouse National park next summer; and a picnic at the M. V. Hutto ranch Friday afternoon. Men of the Roosevelt faculty will be guests. Barbecued chicken will be served.

Songs and games concluded the session.

COMPLIANCE CHECKS

TAHOKA—Cotton subsidy checks from last year's crop, amounting to between $208,000 and $209,000 have been received so far, V. P. Jones, county agent, reports. Nearly $100,000 more is expected. About 1,890 farmers will participate in the payments.

Lubbock Kiwanians Are Back From Annual Club Session

After attending the annual Texas-Oklahoma district Kiwanis convention, 11 delegates from the Lubbock Kiwanis club returned Wednesday from Ardmore, Okla.

Those who made the trip by special bus were Marion Sanford, Dr. J. W. Rollo, Dr. O. W. English, president, Joe Wilson, W. C. Rylander, secretary, Billy Woods, Jack Carnett, J. C. Sanders, W. G. McMillan, Bob Pace, and Dude Buster.

A highlight of the program was showing of color moving pictures by McMillan. He also lectured. He showed moving pictures taken in Alaska and pictures of wild life in Texas.

Administration May Offer Labor Mediation Soon

FDR May Step In For Peace

BY KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13—It would be no surprise to students of governmental trends if the Roosevelt administration offered soon to mediate the dispute between the CIO and A. F. of L.

There has been no indication such a step is under consideration, but President Roosevelt's peace plea to the American Federation of Labor convention at Houston, caused speculation here as to what he might have had in mind in framing that communication. Nor have the views of those who look for some further white house action been altered by the latest exchange between John L. Lewis and William Green.

Termed "Grandstand Play"

Lewis' suggestion that both he and President Green of the federation resign their leadership of the two factions, thus removing their personal quarrel from the situation, met with its expected rebuff by Green. The A. F. of L. leader interpreted it as a "grandstand play" by his CIO rival.

On the surface, that interchange served to increase A. F. of L.—CIO tension. It does not, however, obscure the fact that from both sides have come hints that a governmental mediation proposal might be welcomed.

Those observers who are inclined to predict that Mr. Roosevelt may make some definite attempt soon to get the warring labor factions again around a conference table base their arguments largely on expediency. It would be timely, they contend, both as a pre-election gesture, and also for the effect it might have in deferring CIO action on forming an organization for a permanent rivalry with the A. F. of L. The CIO has called a constitutional convention for Nov. 14.

In that connection an analogy is seen between the president's intervention tactics in the European war crisis and his peace message bearing on the labor civil war. Mr. Roosevelt's appeals to Chancellor Hitler were backed by a Washington effort to center world attention on the crisis and bring about a supporting flood of peace pleas from other capitals.

Similarly, his message urging the federation convention to keep open the door to labor peace centered public attention anew on the A. F. of L.—CIO clash. It stimulated sharply, too, the peace activities within the ranks of both groups.

Bread Dough Mixed With Juice Of Grapefruit Is Latest Idea

MISSION, Oct. 13. (AP)—The first bread dough ever mixed with grapefruit juice to be offered for public sale was prepared at a bakery here recently with officials of the Rio Grande Valley Citrus Exchange assisting.

C. K. Wildermuth, president of the exchange, was the guest of honor and poured 15 cans of juice into the huge bread mixer.

Roy Moore and City Commissioner Joe Graham of Mission announced they had perfected and patented a formula for making bread from grapefruit juice. They claimed bread so made would last three to four days longer than ordinary bread and would not be fattening. The grapefruit juice bread looks and tastes like other bread, they claimed. They estimated if all valley bakeries used grapefruit juice instead of milk or water the daily consumption in bread-making alone would amount to about 1,000 gallons. No liquid ingredient other than the grapefruit juice is used in this new-type bread.

RECEIPTS SHOW GAIN

MEADOW—Stamp sales for the third quarter of 1938 showed a gain over the same quarter in 1937, A. C. Finley, postmaster, reports. Total was $562.46 compared with $524.36. Money orders sold amounted to $3,959.11, compared with $2,820.45.

ROPESVILLE. — Lloyd Evans has begun moving materials here from Wink where he wrecked two buildings. He plans to build two residences and will stucco them. Both will be for rent.

Charged With Stealing Rare Stamps

Marked money taken from the till of her stamp-dealer employed led to the arrest of Mrs. Anna Krunda Gruelich and her husband, Francis, both shown above in court, and to the discovery of a system of wholesale theft of rare stamps, police say. Employed for thirteen years by Captain G. W. Nowell-Usticke, millionaire New York stamp dealer, Mrs. Gruelich allegedly stole stamps from her employer to give to her husband who operated a number of stamp shops under different names. The coup'e were found in possession of $100,000 worth of stolen stamps.

Experiment Is Planned In Which Sheet Will Be Fed Bitterweed

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 13. (AP)—Contending that bitterweed, a plant believed responsible for the death of many sheep on the West Texas range, is fatal because of a mineral deficiency rather than because it contains a poison, a California laboratory and West Texas ranchmen are planning an experiment in which they will feed sheep bitterweed as their principal food.

Judge J. A. Whitten, of Eldorado, former chairman of the Texas Livestock Sanitary commission, is assisting in the feeding experiment which will start as soon as frost kills grass and weeds on the Ford and Sam Oglesby ranch near Eldorado. Aside from being grazed exclusively on bitterweed, the sheep will be fed a special concentrated mineral food said to supply the deficiency. The laboartory and the government agencies agree that no specific poison has been found in bitterweed.

Little 'Nobody' From Omaha Is Shining As Star On Broadway

By Associated Press Feature Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Dorothy McGuire has lived that glamorous dream of the "Little Miss Nobody" who was boosted to stage fame overnight.

The straw-blond, 20-year-old Omaha girl shown here pounded Broadway's pavements, odd-jobbed in radio and modeled for two years. The stage never had heard of her until she was selected by Jed Harris for the part of Emily in Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer prize play, "Our Town."

She succeeded Martha Scott, whose success as Emily brought offers from Hollywood too good to refuse. Now Miss McGuire's success has attracted the movie-makers, and Harris already is puzzling over who'll be the next Emily.

Presbyterians Are To Return From Colorado Session Today

A Presbyterian meeting in Colorado Tuesday afternoon was attended by a dozen Lubbock Presbyterian men. Several remained there for a semi-annual meeting of El Paso presbytery Wednesday and this morning and were to return this afternoon.

Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the Lubbock church and chairman of the home mission committee of the presbytery, with Rev. R. A. Partlow, superintendent of presbytery's work; Rev. W. K. Johnston and W. L. Hester, elder of the Lubbock church, remained over.

Dean James M. Gordon president of the presbytery's Men-of-the-Church work, presided at an afternoon session. Rev. Mr. Partlow and R. E. McDonald of Lubbock, were speakers. A banquet session was held Tuesday night.

Others in the party included Leonard Earnest, Frazier N. Blackwell, J. A. Pressley, Bruce B. Pullen and Herbert Simmons.

Prof. Albert Einstein's first regular job was as an examiner of patents in Switzerland.

Committee Is Named To Start Preparing For Scout Session

SUDAN, Oct. 13. (Special)—Committee headed by Allen White of Amherst to make preparations for the annual northwest district Boy Scout leaders convention in November was appointed at a meeting in the First Baptist church here Wednesday night. Convention plans are to be completed at another meeting here Oct. 24.

H. B. Teal, district chairman, presided. Plans were discussed for a leadership training course here Oct. 24 to 30.

Earl M. McClure, council executive, and George A. Holland, field executive, met with the group tonight. Twelve men from Muleshoe, Sudan, Littlefield, and Amherst were in attendance.

Total Of 4,181 Die Of Tuberculosis During 1935 Over Texas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—The census bureau reported 4,181 Texans died of tuberculosis in 1935, including 424 persons whose death came while they were out of their home area.

Actually, there were 4,202 deaths from the disease during that year within the state lines, including 445 non-residents there as patients or visiting.

The bureau said 1,671 of the total deaths of tuberculosis occurred in urban areas, including all cities of 10,000 or more population. The remainder, 2,531, died in rural areas.

Data showed the death toll of the disease in the following Texas cities for the year:

Dallas, 133; El Paso, 198; Fort Worth, 108; Houston, 268; San Antonio, 343; Amarillo, 19; Austin, 73; Beaumont, 30; Corpus Christi, 35; Galveston, 49; Laredo, 69; Port Arthur, 8; San Angelo, 60; Waco, 38; Wichita Falls, 19; Abilene, 9; Big Spring, 9; Brownsville, 24; Brownwood, 2; Cleburne, 5; Corsicana, 9; Del Rio, 27; Denison, 12; Greenville, 8; Harlingen, 9; Lubbock, 6; Marshall, 20; Palestine, 5; Pampa, 7; Paris, 14; San Benito, 9; Sherman, 12; Sweetwater, 4; Temple, 11; Texarkana, 15; Tyler, 4.

In most cases the number of non-resident deaths, included in the above figures, were offset by the number of residents of a city dying in some other area. Exceptions were noted in a few towns, especially in West Texas, where climatic conditions attract patients seeking recovery.

Dr. Karl Ashburn To Represent Gov. Allred At Labor Session

Dr. Karl E. Ashburn of Texas Technological college staff will represent Gov. James V. Allred at the state Federation of Labor convention in Beaumont next week.

Dr. Ashburn, professor of economics and business administration, was asked by Gov. Allred to represent him at the meeting and has been requested in a telegram from Harry W. Acreman of Austin, executive secretary of the federation, to speak Tuesday or Wednesday. He will leave Monday afternoon for Beaumont.

He will speak on "Operation of Workmen's Compensation Insurance in Texas."

State Owes On Road Bonds

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 13 — The state owes $163,104,723 on county road bonds which in 1933 it agreed to pay, a report of the board of county and district road indebtedness to Governor James V. Allred showed today.

Acting under a law which authorized assumption by the state of bonds voted by counties to build what later became state highways, the state has paid off approximately $40,000,000 in five years.

Last year it paid $8,696,451 on the principal of the indebtedness and $2,323,528 in interest.

Pay Over 35 Years

Before all the bonds are liquidated a total of $163,104,723 in principal and $85,654,255 will have been paid by the state over a period of about 35 years.

The last of the bonds matures in 1973. Most, however, will have been taken up by 1965, and they will be retired very rapidly beginning about 1950.

Gas Tax Allotted

One cent of the four-cent gasoline tax has been allotted to payment of the bonds. Last year was the first since the assumption that the state paid all of the amount it had undertaken to pay in a year. In 1934 it paid 30 per cent; in 1935, 50 per cent; in 1936, 75 per cent; in 1937, 90 per cent, and in 1938, 100 per cent. It will pay 100 per cent in 1939.

Board officials predict that 100 per cent payments will be the rule hereafter because of increasing yield from the gasoline tax.

Three Tech Extension Classes Are To Hold Meetings Tonight

Meetings of three extension classes will be conducted tonight at Texas Technological college, said J. F. McDonald, director of extension.

A class in history, "Expansion of the United States," meets at 6:30 o'clock in room 214 administration building with Dr. S. S. McKay as the instructor.

A class in education meets at 7:30 o'clock in room 216 administration building. Subject, "Every Teacher's Problems," and Dr. D. D. Jackson is the instructor.

A non-credit class in crafts, including metal work, jewelry, leather, wood working and textile design meets at 7:30 o'clock in room 204 home economics building. Miss Elizabeth Hawley is the instructor.

Ghost Of Law Suit Unearthed In Dispute Over Texas Land Title

AUSTIN, Oct. 13 (AP)—A dispute over lands in another part of the state has conjured the ghost of a law suit between heirs of Stephen F. Austin and Sam Houston.

Seeking to clear title to property at Caldwell, an attorney asked employes of the Travis county district clerk's office to hunt for field notes on the original Austin survey so that boundaries of the land in litigation might be determined.

A deputy, probing into musty files of 1840, found the original suit brought by heirs of Austin against Houston, then president of the Republic of Texas. The transcript of testimony, written in Spencerian hand, brought out certain lands were awarded Austin and a group of colonists by the Mexican government. When produced in court the judge ruled the grant papers established title to the land and he denied Houston's petition to take them over in the name of the republic.

Language of the legal document, still in excellent condition, contained practically the same court language as used today.

Drys Defend Ground In August Elections; Ten Votes Held

AUSTIN, Oct. 13 (AP) — Dry areas successfully defended their status in nine elections in August and gained ground in a tenth, liquor board officials report.

Precinct 3 in Gray county voted to prohibit all alcoholic beverages and in nine other elections efforts to legalize alcoholic beverages in some form were defeated.

Attempts to legalize beer were defeated in Andrews, Hale, Sabine and Terry counties and precinct 7 in Dallas county. Legalization of 14 per cent beverages was defeated in Burnet and Young counties. Legalization of all alcoholic beverages was defeated in Midland county.

Nazis Warn Austrian Catholic Clergy After Innitzer Attack Incident

Statement In Nazi Paper

By MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

VIENNA, Oct. 13. — Nazis have warned "an end must be put to the methods" of Theodore Cardinal Innitzer.

The warning was published in the Nazi organ, Wiener Neueste Nachrichten under the signature of the paper's managing editor, Walter Petwaidie.

"Now at last an end to the Innitzer methods!" said the leading article's headline.

First Editorial Cognizance

It was the first editorial cognizance Nazis have taken of Cardinal Innitzer's sermon last Friday and the subsequent storming of his palace which resulted in broken windows, much interior damage, a wound to the cardinal from a thrown stone, and the injury of one of the canons.

The same newspaper yesterday made the first reference in Vienna newspapers to "the incidents on Saint Stephen's place," in a report of a Nazi party meeting speech by Burgomaster Herman Neubacher. The burgomaster rebuked the cardinal for a remark there still are young people who "are not so easily tempted to listen to deceitful catch-words and hypocritical rhetoric."

"Even Without Consent"

Neueste Nachrichten's attack said, "We are going on our way even without the consent of the last adherent of Austrian clericalism who has not found his way over in these new times.

"We do not intend, however, to permit ourselves to be continuously in a state of anger. An end must be put to the methods of the herr cardinal."

The editorial was not the only evidence of Nazi displeasure.

The last issue of the Kirchliche Wandzeitung, a diocese publication displayed on bulletin boards outside churches, was seized.

No reason was given for the confiscations.

The cardinal's residence and Catholic churches were still under guard by police and storm troopers.

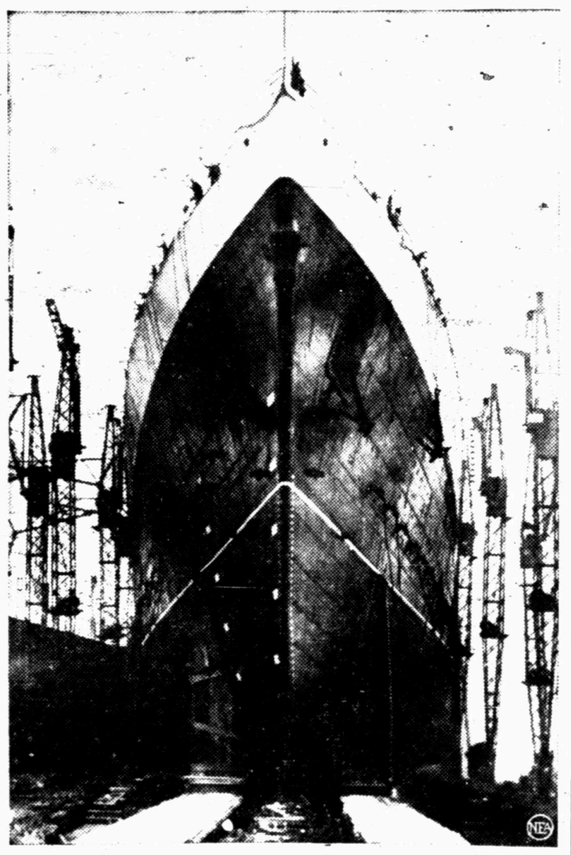

The papal nuncio to Germany, Monsignor Cesare Orsenigo, was reported to have flown here yesterday for a conference with the cardinal on the Nazi mobs violence.

DAY TO VISIT CROSBY

Biggest Boat Built

England's Queen Elizabeth returned to her native Scotland to launch the world's largest ship, the Queen Elizabeth, at the famous John Brown shipyards in Glasgow. The picture above shows the Queen Elizabeth just before she slid into the Clyde river. The new ship, built in the same slips that held the Queen Mary, is 1030 feet long and displaces 85,000 tons.

Half Of Sandhill Cranes Of U. S. Said To Be In 8 Texas Counties

DALHART, Oct. 13 (AP)—Half the sandhill cranes of the U. S. are in eight Texas Panhandle counties, according to the last annual national wildfowl census. This was learned from State Game Warden P. D. Mosely, who has charge of the eight counties. Potter, Randall, Deaf Smith, Oldham, Moore, Hartley, Dallam and Sherman.

Mosely is cheering sportsmen with the announcement that a survey indicates there are 30,000 ducks in the eight counties. If weather does not get too cold and drive ducks south before the season opens Nov. 16, and if water remains plentiful hunters should have a mighty good season, he said.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY

...eser Cites ...isis In Oil

(By The Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 13.—Current developments in the oil industry have combined to produce a "threatening situation of deep concern to every domestic producer, Charles F. Roeser, president of the Independent Petroleum association, said today.

In a formal statement he decried "the prime cuts in many fields, invasion of our own markets, notably in Texas, by cheap foreign oil, much of it from Mexico, the crude storage problem and high gasoline inventories."

He called on oil men to "find a way to meet this situation quickly" and noted the annual meeting of the association next week is timely in that it would "afford an opportunity of getting that immediate action."

Auto Workers Called Back To Work After Sit-Down Strike

DETROIT, Oct. 13 (AP)—Employes of the Motor Products corporation, their one-day sit-down strike ended, awaited a call back to work today.

Settlement of yesterday's strike, which affected 2,200 persons, was reached in the Detroit office of the National Labor Relations board late yesterday and ratified by the strikers last night before they vacated the plant here.

Homer Martin, United Automobile Workers president, said that A. L. Lott, president of the corporation, agreed at the conference to open negotiations with the union on its grievances and to draft a new contract to replace one which expired last summer.

Max Walthall Is President Of Senior High Sophomore Class

Max Walthall and Betty McAfee are the new president and secretary, respectively, of the sophomore class at Senior High school.

The officers were elected in secret balloting Wednesday morning and election results were announced today.

Walthall, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Walthall of 911 Sixteenth street, was opposed in the election by Charles Craig. Miss McAfee is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. McAfee of 2032 Twentieth street. Her opponent was Marion Chandler.

Mary Lou Scoggin was the campaign manager for Walthall; Bernice Cocanougher, for Miss McAfee.

Vice-presidents of the class, elected recently, had served as a committee nominating other officers. They are L. A. Storrs, Howard Alford, Bill Andrews, Bill Kennedy, Mary Lou Scoggin, Ruth Gray, Nita Wheelock, and Mary Lou Johnson.

Mrs. Maxey Is Club Speaker

Continuing an observance of National Business Women's week, the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club attended a dinner meeting at the Hilton hotel Wednesday night with Mrs Ben F. Maxey as chairman.

Miss Irma Pryor led the club collect and Miss Elizabeth Brooks sang, accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Ware.

In keeping with the year's program Mrs. Maxey talked on "How Can My Status and Yours Be Improved." She suggested one should train herself for her profession and find work in which she can be happy. It is necessary that one be healthy, that she have courage and confidence and regard her personal appearance if she hopes to make a success, the speaker said.

For Equal Rights

She also discussed legislation that would provide equal rights for men and women in employment.

Mrs. Lottie Wylie read a message from Miss Earlene White, national president.

Mrs. J. J. Smelser was elected delegate to the district convention to be held in Wichita Falls Oct. 22-23.

The yearbook was dedicated to Miss Elsie V. Link.

Elliott Roosevelt Hopes FDR Won't Run For A Third Term

HOUSTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the president, said here today he hoped President Roosevelt would not seek a third term.

"I wouldn't know, actually," he said, "whether he plans to run again, but personally, I hope he doesn't. Being the son of the president is sometimes a handicap."

Then with a wave of his hand, he contended his views on politics—especially national politics—are of no value.

Historian Sees America Safe From War For At Least Ten Years

Adams Says Order Is Changing; U. S. Protected By Wide Oceans

Nobody doubts that Germany's bloodless victory over Czechoslovakia, smashing one more section of the World war peace treaties, changes the course of European history. But what does it mean for the United States? Where are we heading in foreign affairs? These questions are discussed in the following article by James Truslow Adams, a spectator at the Paris peace conference in 1919 and a distinguished historian.

BY JAMES TRUSLOW ADAMS
Author Of "The Epic Of America," "The March Of Democracy," Etc.
Written For The Associated Press Feature Service

You ask what the present European situation holds for America in the long run.

First, what is that situation?

War has been averted, probably for a number of years unless something unexpected occurs. But there remain sore spots, ambitions, and 1919 boundaries that may yet have to be redrawn. The system of collective security has broken down. Force or the threat of it, regardless of treaties and the Kellogg Pact, has been successfully used.

J. T. ADAMS

The latest case, which brought us to the very edge of a world war, is important from that respect rather than from that of the partial dismemberment of Czechoslovakia, which I thought, when at the Peace Conference, was badly constructed and which is only 19 years old. It was synthetically made and not historically developed. Again, Europe has reverted to a balance of powers, and the democratic and dictator states stand in opposite camps. That all means continued tension if not war.

The United States, without the threat of a major war in Europe, is probably safe from war for 10 years at least. The oceans are now to us what the English Channel used to be to England. We have peaceful Canada to the north and nations which could not attack us to the south. What does all this mean to us?

The Old Order Changeth

Fifty years ago it would probably have meant a great internal exploitation of a half empty land, from immigration, and an increase in our world trade. Today the first will continue negligible in spite of the great numbers who want to come to us, which means that our internal development of resources and business will not have that stimulus. World trade is not likely to expand with rapidity for any nation, and no more for us than others even with uncertainty in Europe and a more or less assured certainty of peace here.

Trade barriers, exchange difficulties, and the fact that former importing nations have tried, in manufacturing and food supplies, to become largely self supporting under the new nationalism tend to preclude in the future any such swift development as placed England in the van in the last century.

What the present situation offers us is perhaps, at a minimum, 10 years in which to set our own house in order without the disturbing factors of war, and to adjust our industry and agriculture to the new world conditions. Doing what we can, for our own sake and that of others, to rebuild international trade, we can concentrate on our serious domestic problems without the economic, social and physical deflections due to war.

A Glorious Opportunity

This is an opportunity which seemed lost only a few days ago. What we make of it, both in our domestic policies and our efforts to restore slowly a larger degree of international trade in whatever ways it can be built up under the new conditions, will depend upon ourselves.

What the European situation and our own geographical position mean to us is just that we may HAVE that opportunity, and not any spectacular change in population, industry trade or lessening of unemployment.

A war will now probably not offer us any chance of selling vast quantities of goods at high prices; and the promised peace will settle no problems but merely give us a breathing space to try to settle them in quiet.

War would probably have destroyed our civilization. Now we have a chance to salvage what we can of the old values which made that civilization cherished by independent democracies, and to readjust the social and economic machinery to permanently altered conditions.

If we can solve our domestic problems, I believe that conditions in Europe mean that the star of destiny will shine above the New and not the Old World in the future, but not that they mean any sudden or immediate shift in our own economic world position.

John Tarleton Librarian Is Exercising Deduction Powers In Supplying Frosh Wants

STEPHENVILLE, Oct. 13 (AP)—Librarian Margaret Bierschwale of John Tarleton college has been exercising her powers of deduction in supplying the wants of her freshmen customers since school started.

A freshmen student recently asked for a book about "cottage cheese."

"Do you want it for a home economics course?" Miss Bierschwale asked.

"No, English," was the reply. She gave him "Scottish Chiefs."

A co-ed who asked for "Away From the City" was given "Far From the Maddening Crowd" while a cadet who wanted "A book written by Mr. Revere" got "Dream Children, A Reverie."

The climax, said Miss Bierschwale, came when she found one of her student assistants looking on the dress making shelf for "Prose Patterns."

"Freshmen certainly are confused," concluded Miss Bierschwale.

Thousands Of Ducks And Geese Expected In Oklahoma Refuge

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Thousands of ducks and geese are expected by the biological survey to seek protection in the salt plains wild life refuge of Oklahoma during the waterfowl hunting season.

Six acres were added to the 19,458 acre refuge by the survey the past year. The preserve is in Alfalfa county.

Ducks, principally red heads and the little fast teal, utilize the refuge.

"Many ducks which escape the hunters' guns use the same refuge more than once," said one official.

The biological survey said its big game area in the Wichita mountains near Chache was "one of the finest in the nation." First a national forest, it was transferred to biological survey in 1936 and recently was made a field research center. Laboratories have been constructed and employes will be moved in early next year.

Range studies will be made, the survey said.

Now on the protected range are buffalo, elk, deer, one of the last existing herds of Texas Longhorn steers, and some ducks and geese.

MULE GIVEN PARTY

QUITMAN, Oct. 13. (AP)—Old "Pet", a 33-year-old mule mare belonging to the A. O. Harper family near Pine Mills, recently was given a birthday party. There was a special dinner of sweet feed and other delicacies.

The animal weighes about 700 pounds, is coal black, has never been sick, never worn shoes and bears no marks of its years of toil. The mule was handed down from brother to brother in the Harper family and has made a crop every year since 1908. The beast can still work when hitched to a wagon, plow, slide or cultivator.

Imitation amber can be made from celluloid and Canadian balsam, but neither of these substances will become electrified by friction, as will amber.

University Of Texas Campus Is No Longer Famed 'Forty Acres'

AUSTIN, Oct. 13. (AP)—The University of Texas' famous "forty acres" is no longer a fact but that name still is applied to the 1,004-acre university in Austin, Galveston and far West Texas.

The original 40 acres was set apart in 1839 by the Republic of Texas. Five additional acres were donated in 1925 and 177 more were purchased later. The school owns 475 acres on the north and south banks of the Colorado river in Austin, a gift of George W. Brackenridge of San Antonio of the medical school, and 400 acres northwest of Fort Davis on which Mt. Locke, site of the school's observatory, is located.

Jerry Nash Out Of Game With Vernon

Class B Tilts Are Scheduled Over Area

Conference games in both divisions headline the Friday schedule of District 5B.

The Ralls Jackrabbits go to Levelland for a northern division conflict, the first for the Hares. The Lobos have one conference victory in the books. The game will be played Friday night.

Beaten in their first start against Post, the revamped Tahoka Bulldogs invade Slaton Friday night. Coach Bob Harlow's team is hungry for a district triumph, but the Tigers humiliated by White Deer last week probably will be on the rebound.

Olton At Post

Olton, another northern team goes to Post to play the rebel Antelopes in a non-conference affair Friday night. Coach John Dibrell's Post entry is much improved over 1938 and is making a bid for district honors.

Littlefield plays an erstwhile member of the Class B ranks at Lamesa Friday night. Coach Fred Rich's Cooper aggregation, a Class C team, is host to Crosbyton. Brownfield rests this week.

They're tabbing Lockney as most probable team to take the championship of District 4, Class B, this year, but Flomot and Floydada want it known they are still in the race.

Friday At Flomot

The Longhorns and Whirlwinds will settle much of argument Friday at Flomot. Coach Odell Winters' charges have copped one district game, a record matched by Flomot. Winner of that game will be favorite to battle the Lockney crew for the title.

In the meantime, Coach Lee Cooper's Steers will be having their hands full, no doubt, with an ambitious Silverton eleven on the Owl grid.

Estelline journeys to Quitaque to play a game that is figured to have little bearing on the conference race. Coach Eugene Saunderson's Cubs have bowed in two titular games by wide margins, while Quitaque has won twice.

Paducah goes to Lefors for a non-conference engagement. Turkey is idle.

Olympic Baseball Is Goal Of Federation; May Be Included

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Under the energetic direction of Secretary-Treasurer Leslie Mann, the International Amateur Baseball federation rapidly is approaching its goal, the inclusion of baseball as a competitive sport on the Olympic games program.

Neither Mann nor his fellow-workers here and abroad expect to reach that goal for the 1940 Olympics. But they plan to hold amateur baseball's international "World series" in England that summer and then submit their application to the International Olympic committee in time to be included in the 1944 program.

Have Passed Milestone

Baseball, like any other sport must show that it has the active support of ten nations banned together in a federation before it can receive IOC approval. Mann and his fellow-workers already have passed that milestone.

The United States and England definitely are committed to compete in the 1938 championship for the John Moores trophy, put up by the founder and president of England's national baseball association. Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Canada and Peru also have agreed to send teams, while Japan, the Philippines, Australia and France are virtually certain to take part in the tournament, to be staged the latter part of August either in New York or in Havana.

England To Defend Trophy

England, surprisingly enough, will defend the Moores trophy next year, for the All-England team beat Mann's All-Americans, four games to one in the first series.

English baseball, in four years, has grown from something started as a means of recreation for the Liverpool unemployed into a national association which has 800 teams, has applications from at least 100 more, and is sub-divided into leagues which hold their own eliminations and send winners on to a national challenge cup competition.

GAME IS CANCELLED

FORT MADISON, Ia., Oct. 13 (AP)—Warden Glenn Haynes announced last night a scheduled football game between the Fort Madison penitentiary team and Burlington junior college had been cancelled.

Warden Haynes said the game had been called off because he declined to let the prison team play outside the walls on the local high school field. The game was to be played Saturday.

"Our football here," Haynes said, "is primarily for the benefit of the inmate population and we can't very handily take them downtown."

BAND TO GIVE CONCERTS

BROWNFIELD—The high school band has arranged a 30-minute concert each week downtown, for the benefit of business men who have supported the work.

Another blow has been struck the hapless Westerners as they prepare to meet the Vernon High school challenge here Friday night.

Coach Weldon Chapman announced this morning that Jerry Nash definitely would be unable to start the game and likely would not be in uniform because of illness. He has been out for practice only one day this week.

The team will take a light exercise this afternoon. They went through a strenuous workout Wednesday afternoon, blocking, tackling and running plays against a sample of Coach Walker Nichols' Cowhands for keeps.

Sewalt Likely Choice

Avon Sewalt, a 230-pounder, probably will pinch-hit for Nash. Sewalt, with his weight, should be one of the best linesmen on the club but has been indifferent to coaching all season. He played most of the Capitol Hill game two weeks ago, and his play in the Vernon game may give him the right incentive to give his all.

At the right halfback post, vacated by Rusty Johnston, Howard Alford likely will get the call. He has been running at that position all week.

Joe Bob Foster and Deal Hill appear to be in line for the end positions. Sewalt will team with Pat Farris at tackle; Joe Pytell and Lloyd Sanders will be the guards, and Wayne "Red" Pipes will handle center assignments.

Wheelhorse To Play

Capt. Jumbo Webster, wheelhorse of the Lubbock attack and probably the best back in District 1, will play fullback, with Leete Jackson pairing with Alford at half. Spunky Little Harold Parsons will chant signals.

The Golden Sandies get their third straight competition from out of state this week when they battle the Norman, Okla., eleven at Amarillo's historic Butler field.

Last week the Sandies had to content themselves with a 0-0 stalemate with the Capitol Hill (Oklahoma City) Redskins, and the week before bowed to Classen High, another Oklahoma City entry.

Lamesa Plays Littlefield

Still boasting the equal interdistrict record with any District 1 team, Lamesa plays host to the Class B Littlefield Wildcats Friday night. The game originally was scheduled for Thanksgiving but has been moved up to provide competition for both teams, open dates coinciding this week.

Pampa's Harvesters take on a big bite in the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets Friday night at Harvester field.

Coach Vernon Hilliard's climbing Plainview Bulldogs face an easy test at Clovis, N. M. Winners of their only conference start against Borger, the Bulldogs appear headed for a much better season record than in other years.

Borger gets a rest this week. The conference race will not get a good start until next week when Coach Catfish Smith brings his Bulldogs here and the Golden Tornadoes visit Amarillo.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 — Lots of news today, boys . . . Billy Herman of the Cubs is reported headed toward St. Louis as manager of the Cards (and don't let them laugh that one off) . . . Wallace Wade of Duke is about to give up the hunt for a big name coach to succeed him when he moves up to athletic director and will hoist Carl Voiles, his first lieutenant, into the head coach's job . . . Voiles, a former U. of Illinois man, is o.k.

Louisiana State wants Fordham so badly they've offered to come up here for nothing if the rams will only visit Baton Rouge . . . Which is fair enough in anybody's league . . . Note to All-America football pickers: be sure to tag Phil Swiadon, New York U. tackle, among your list of eligibles . . . the boy's got it . . .

Good for Leo Durocher . . . he's a hustler himself and can make others do same, which counts . . . We say the Dodgers made a fine choice . . . At least 15 football games on Saturday's schedule go this way or that, so be careful of those pools, boys . . . Ceferino Garcia took his first workout for Henry Armstrong yesterday and looked great . . . Don't know how much truth there is in it, but New York columns have Dick Harlow headed for Penn and point out that two of his chief assistants already have showed up there to install the Harlow system . . . Which we regard as a slam at young George Munger who everyone thinks has done a good job.

You pick this week's Rice-Tulane winner — we'll bite . . . Bronko Brunner of Tulane is our man . . . If Lain or any of these Rice guys can take him to town, our hat is off.

Wake Forest, which is going to be a power in the Southern conference in a year or so, has so many good yearlings they've had to farm some of them out to smaller schools in the neighborhood . . . Also, this year's crop is so good, at least one 1937 letterman was sent home because he wasn't good enough . . .

If Jack Corbett, principal owner of the Syracuse Chiefs, sell his interest to the Cincinnati Reds (which he is about to do) he will retire to his Texas ranch if he doesn't land a major league connection — which he should.

Wichita Falls And Childress Standout Tilt

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff Writer

Wichita Falls' burly coyotes, who confounded the critics by bouncing back with a team of championship potentialities after losing most of the squad that carried them to last year's finals, meet unbeaten Childress as a feature of Texas schoolboy football this week.

It marks the opening of the conference drive for Wichita Falls which faces few soft spots in the district 2 campaign where Vernon and Graham have been picked up scrap the Coyotes down to the wire.

Childress has an impressive record though the opposition played does not appear as strong as that of the Coyotes who are unbeaten but tied. The deadlock, however, was against Masonic Home, the Fort Worth team that ranks with the strongest in the state.

Cisco Plays Brownwood

Cisco's Big Dam Lobos, boasting championship hopes after being doormats of the Oil Belt district for a number of years, will also get a test that will show whether or not they have come back as far as predicted. The Lobos, at full strength again after the district committee reversed a ruling that had thrown out two of their stars, meet Brownwood, an unbeaten though tied eleven, in the district 3 eastern division standout. San Angelo clashes with Sweetwater in the top game of the western division.

The South Texas headliner brings together two undefeated, untied teams with Livingston, a graduate from class B ranks, tangling with Goose Creek. It is not a conference game but is a standout because it is the only battle between teams with perfect records.

Fifty-Seven Games Scheduled

Fifty-seven games are on this week's schedule, 33 of them counting in the championship race. Three will be played tonight, 50 tomorrow and four Saturday. Every district except the Panhandle has one or more conference games.

Longview's state champion Lobos open the drive in district 9 with Athens, a team swamped by Tyler two weeks ago. The Lobos are finding the going tough but still look strong enough to make a real fight of it. They met defeat last week at the hands of Highland Park of Dallas but the Highlanders are rated with the best in the state.

Intersectional Tilts Scheduled

An interdistrict schedule of eleven games features the clash between Vernon and Lubbock, a Panhandle favorite, while three intersectional tilts are carded with Plainview at Clovis, N. M., Norman, Okla., at Amarillo and Jeff Davis (Houston) at Byrd High (Shreveport).

This week's schedule by districts:

District 1—Friday, Port Arthur at Pampa; Vernon at Lubbock; Clovis, N. M. at Plainview; Saturday, Norman, Okla. at Amarillo.

District 2—Friday, Cisco at Wichita Falls (conference); Electra at Graham (conference); Quanah at Childress (conference).

District 3—Friday, San Angelo at Sweetwater (conference); Abilene at Big Spring (conference); Eastland at Breckenridge (conference); Brownwood at Cisco (conference); Stephenville at Mineral Wells (conference); Ranger at Weather-ford.

District 4—Friday, Cathedral (El Paso) vs. Austin, El Paso; Ysleta at Odessa (conference); Fabens at Bowie (El Paso) (conference).

District 5—Friday, Masonic Home (Fort Worth) at Sherman; Paris at Denison (conference); Bonham at Honey Grove.

District 6—Thursday, Commerce at Sulphur Springs; Friday, Denison at Highland Park (Dallas) (conference); Gainesville at McKinney.

District 7—Thursday, Polytech (Fort Worth) vs. Fort Worth Tech (conference); Arlington Heights vs. North Side (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday, Riverside (Fort Worth) vs. Paschal (Fort Worth) (conference).

District 8—Friday, Sunset (Dallas) vs. St. Joseph's (Dallas); Greenville at Dallas Tech; Sulphur Springs at Adamson (Dallas) vs. North Dallas (conference).

District 9—Friday, Athens at Longview (conference); Kilgore at Texarkana (conference); Gladewater at Marshall (conference); Winnsboro at Dallas at Tyler.

District 10—Friday, Nacogdoches at Palestine (conference); Jacksonville at Mexia (conference); Henderson at Lufkin (conference); Goose Creek at Livingston.

District 11—Friday, Brackenridge (San Antonio) at Temple; Red Oak at Waxahachie; Waco at Hillsboro (conference); Bryan at Corsicana (conference).

District 12—Friday, Jefferson (San Antonio) vs. San Antonio Tech (conference); Harlandale (San Antonio) at Georgetown; Saturday, Forest (Dallas) at Austin.

District 13—Thursday, Sam Houston (Houston) vs. Lamar (Houston) (conference); Friday, San Jacinto (Houston) vs. Milby (Houston) (conference); Jeff Davis (Houston) at Byrd (Shreveport); Saturday, Conroe at Reagan (Houston) (conference).

District 14—Friday, Galveston at Orange (conference); St. Anthony's (Beaumont) vs. South Park (Beaumont).

District 15—Thursday, Corpus Christi College Academy at Robstown; Friday, Kerrville at Laredo, Kingsville at Corpus Christi (conference).

District 16—Weslaco at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo (conference); Mission at Mercedes (conference); Raymondville at Donna; San Benito at Brownsville (conference); Austin (Houston) at McAllen.

Stratton Bests Joe Kopecky Last Night

Walter Stratton stepped out and won the main event of the weekly wrestling match at the Auditorium Wednesday night after Joe Kopecky had captured the first fall.

The lank South Texan took the opener by pinning Stratton in 11 minutes, but succumbed to the Bostonian's "thunderbolt" in the second after a dozen minutes.

Few grapplers use that hold, which is reserved for the ring stronies.

Then Stratton came back in the deciding fall to pin Kopecky with a head and leg chancery, while old Panther Joe shrieked with pain, humiliation, and anger. He figured he hadn't been pinned.

Referee Big Train Clements got the worst of the semi-windup, when Jack Hagen and John Nemanic punched him up considerably. Hagen won the match in 27 minutes. He planted a rabbit punch on Nemanic then fell on him for the three-count.

Gus Johnson and Scotty William scrapped to a draw in the opening bout.

GAME IS CANCELLED

EL PASO, Oct. 13 (AP)—Objection by athletic officials of the Texas College of Mines to use of two negro players by Santa Barbara State college had brought cancellation today of the Mines' football game with the California school.

Coach Mack Saxon, of Texas Mines said in a telephone conversation with Don Follet, graduate manager of Santa Barbara, he was told the game, scheduled for Oct. 29, was being cancelled.

'Double Shuffle' Is Worrying Frogs

(By The Associated Press)

The "double shuffle" was causing the Texas Aggies and Texas Christian university Horned Frogs more concern today than the jitterbugs worry about the "big apple."

The way the Cadets execute this football play the opposition thinks it's some kind of dance anyway and Coach Homer Norton hoped the deception would persist when his Aggies battle the Frogs Saturday at College Station in the Southwest conference headliner.

Norton expressed confidence his "double shuffle" would enable the Cadets to give the Frogs trouble.

Over at Fort Worth Coach Dutch Meyer of the Frogs was not exactly happy over the prospect in view of the fact that his regulars found the shuffle, as practiced by the freshmen, to be complicated and the varsity didn't fare so well.

Coach Dana Bible at the University of Texas was cheered with prospects of an improved offense for the game with Arkansas at Little Rock Saturday. The defense continued to give Bible worry.

Coach Fred Tomsen at Arkansas continued to emphasize his ground attack but kept a sharp eye on his aerial offense.

Bears Show Improvement

The Baylor Bears showed improvement offensively and Coach Morley Jennings was pleased with the ground game. Jennings used the freshmen against the varsity to perfect plays for the Centenary game Saturday.

The Rice Owls dug in with a vim for their joust with Tulane at New Orleans Saturday and the Southern Methodist Mustangs polished up their aerial stuff for use against Pittsburgh next week.

New Stars Shining On Nation's Grids In Early Games

BY DREW MIDDLETON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 13—A place kick spinning between the goal posts; a pass tossed through the shadows in the last minute of play; the quick shift, the break and the dash down the sidelines as the stands roar—and a football star is born.

There are new luminaries aplenty on the horizon, some sophomores just tasting glory, others veterans rising to their big year.

Out at Minnesota they are singing the praises of Wilbur Moore, the halfback who has inherited the mantle once worn by Pug Lund and Jules Alphonse.

Bob Saggau, best freshman back last year, is Notre Dame's most notable newcomer. He plays left halfback, the most arduous backfield position in the Irish system.

Resurgent Michigan offers Tom Harmon, an able ball carrier and blocker who has been going well behind a veteran line. Wadde Young, the Oklahoma end who smeared Rice's Ernie Lain and harried Texas' passers, is the man of the hour in the Big Six.

Milner Made Major General

Two outstanding stars on the Coast apparently belong to Oregon's Webfoots. Jimmy Nicholson and Jay Graybeal, two fine halfbacks, have passed and run Oregon to the top of the Coast conference. Cotton Milner, Louisiana State back place-kicked the field goal to beat Rice, was made a major general on Governor Leche's staff and grabbed a sheaf of explosive headlines.

Fine linemen are making their presence felt in the South. Dan Hill, Duke center, has been throwing his weight about. Bernie Smith, Tulane's fine center, is among other brightening stars. Best sophomore back in the South, according to deafening publicity and one or two opponents, is Sweet Lalanne, the quarterback at North Carolina.

How To Protect Calf

If you've ever milked a cow or worked around them, you'll know that the supposedly peaceful beasts have a contrary habit of lashing out with their hind feet to the detriment of the farmer's shins and temper. So some bright inventor devised a sort of leather shinguard, called it an "anti-cowkicker." Above comely Alice Anthony demonstrates the device at the recent National Inventors Show in New York.

Leo Durocher Happy Over His New Job

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP) — One of the most eagerly sought positions in all sport, the managership of one of the 16 big league ball clubs, has been handed to Leo Durocher, 33-year-old shortstopping product of West Springfield, Mass.

Having reached the pinnacle of his profession, Durocher was so happy he barely could talk faster than 200 words a minute when he faced the metropolitan baseball writers yesterday to receive congratulations on his new job with the Brooklyns.

His joy was tempered only by the fact that he had to be back in West Springfield today to attend the funeral of his father, a rabid baseball fan, who died Monday night.

Leo fairly bubbled as he told of his plans for the Dodgers.

A cynic in the back row said in an aside: "You'll notice they're only giving him a one-year contract. Wonder who they'll be appointing this time next year?"

And there you have one of the daffiest things about the national game. Durocher, a fine, fighting shortstop since he broke in with the Yankees eleven years ago, is so happy he could bust at the prospect of managing a seventh-place ball club—for one year.

If he is fortunate and shot with luck, maybe his contract will be renewed for 1940. But Burleigh Grimes, whom Durocher succeeds in the long line of Brooklyn pilots, wouldn't advise you to bet on it.

Cheyenne Gets Glimpse Of Red Raiders

(Special To The Journal)

CHEYENNE, Wyom., Oct. 13.—The rambling Red Raiders of Texas Tech at Lubbock, Tex., fitted well into this cow country scenery as they passed through Cheyenne at 11:20 a. m. (MST) today.

Wearing cowboy boots and occasionally topped with a ten-gallon hat the Raider train stopped only long enough to dispatch passengers, then continued their trek that will end in Missoula, Mont., at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon where Saturday night they engage the University of Montana Grizzlies.

Coaches None Too Jovial

Coaches P. W. Cawthon and R. T. (Dutchy) Smith were none to jovial over prospects of a victory. Cawthon voiced their opinion in his southern drawl, with:

"They haven't got Popovich (Milt Popovich), but they have 23 lettermen back. Chuck Fessenden is cagey."

The traveling squad of the team from the Texas plains includes 31 players. Cawthon said his first string quarterback and captain, Frank Guzick, would be unable to play because of an early season injury.

Didn't Stop In Denver

First plans were for the Texans to stop in Denver early this morning for a short workout, but that was cancelled, Cawthon said. They will drill in Missoula shortly after arriving tomorrow.

The Red Raiders are in quest of revenge for a 13-6 setback Popovich and company applied in Lubbock last year.

A two-year home-and-home agreement recently was signed between Montana officials and the Texas Tech athletic director. The Grizzlies will play at the home of the Raiders in 1939.

Two Women Pros In Golf Battle Today

FORT WORTH, Oct. 13 (AP)—A battle between two professional stars, one a former national champion, headlined the Texas Women's Open Golf tournament today as play moved into the quarter-final round.

Mildred (Babe) Didrikson of Beaumont, famed woman athlete, met Helen Hicks Harb of Little Rock, once the national title-holder.

Defending champion Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth played Mrs. John Parnell of Dallas; Co-Medalist Betty Jameson of San Antonio, the state champion, clashed with Mrs. R. E. Winger of Fort Worth, West Texas champion, and Mrs. E. R. Hury of San Antonio engaged Anna Bland Thompson of Fort Worth.

In yesterday's second round matches Miss Didrikson defeated Mrs. V. Z. Smith of Fort Worth, 6 and 5; Mrs. Harb downed Mrs. B. Grant of Terrell, 5 and 4, Mrs. Hury defeated Nel Moody of Sherman, 4 and 3; Mrs. Goldthwaite won over Mrs. W. H. Ainsworth of Houston, 4 and 3; Miss Thompson defeated Mrs. George Thompson, jr., of Fort Worth, 2 up; Mrs. Parnell downed Mrs. Connally Henson of Little Rock, 7-5; Miss Jameson won over Iva Mae Pilcher of Mexico, Mo., 7-6, and Mrs. Winger defeated Joe Henson of Paris, 2-1.

PLAY CONTINUES TODAY

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 13 (AP) — Emil Mueller of San Antonio, who took out the medalist, Dr. J. N. Arvin of Brownwood, in the opening round of the Texas Senior Golf tournament, met Fred Austin of Houston today.

Other matches in the second round today were:

Guy Keith, Beaumont, vs. R. M. Kleberg, Corpus Christi; George Rotan, Houston, vs. Bart Moore, San Antonio; E. L. Brown, San Antonio, vs. Miers Crump, San Antonio.

Visiting Scouts Saw Red

THAT NEW BOWLING club will be ready for business over on 19th street in about a week. . . . We're told it'll be a huxey doozy when it's completed—one of the most modern kegling stands in this end of the state. . . . They're planning a big opening night, so get your thumbs well oiled and be on hand. . . . And remember you don't have to be a bowler to bowl. . . .

Wayne "Rusty" Johnston, prize wingback on the Westerner team who fumbled his appendix in Oklahoma City, is recovering swiftly from the setback and may play in the Lubbock-Amarillo game, after all. . . . He's back in school, though not in uniform, vowing he feels fine and wanting to go . . . which is great news, from an individual, as well as a team standpoint. . . . Probably the only person not worrying about D. X. Bible and his "situation" at Texas is D. X. Bible. . . . They, meaning the boys who write and talk, aren't pulling their punches when it comes to laying it on Mr. Dana . . . but "I can took it" is, or should be, Mr. Bible's motto. . . . And who couldn't, for fifteen G's per season? . . . And he's two down and eight to go on that contract. . . .

Vernon High school's only victory over Lubbock High was registered in 1927, a 7-0 affair, played at Vernon. . . . The Westerners have defeated the Lions three times. . . . But we're thinking seriously of picking Vernon tomorrow night. . . . Tex Oliver picked a good time to leave Arizona. . . . The Wildcats' defeat by New Mexico State last week wasn't near the upset that folks tried to make of it. . . . If S.M.U. could beat Arizona, who couldn't? . . . Besides, New Mexico State will win the Border conference title this season, now that Texas Tech isn't competing for the flag. . . . The Aggies are that good . . . Arizona will take a bad licking Saturday at Phoenix when the Wildcats meet Santa Clara. . . .

Couple of popular coaching scouts, or vice versa, elbowed the press table at the Texas Tech coop last Saturday night—and just about forgot to make notes. . . . Frank Kimbrough of Hardin-Simmons and Al Baggett of West Texas State Teachers, the guys in question, were here scouting Oklahoma City university. . . . The Bugs are on the Cowboy and Buffalo schedules. . . . But after a while Kimbrough folded his notebook and started gazing at the streaks of red on the field. . . . Regardless of how H-SU and W.T.S.T.C. students, alumni and fans clamour for Tech on their schedules, you won't find the respective coaches moaning. . . . Not after Saturday night's exhibition. . . . They literally mopped their brows in relief. . . .

The TCU-A&M game takes precedence on the Southwest conference card this week . . . and Kyle Field will do big business. . . . That sports scribes figure it'll be the berries is indicated by the number of press reservations . . . One comes from Francis Wallace, of Hollywood, who does football stories for the SatEve Post . . . "to see how four of my all-American potentials look in action" . . . Wallace designated, in a pigskin preview, I. B. Hale and Ki Aldrich of TCU and Dick Todd and Joe Boyd of the Aggies for national recognition. . . . Too bad Mr. Wallace never heard of Elmer Tarbox, Bobby Holmes, Dixie White and A. B. Murphy. . . .

Traveling roster of Texas Tech players on the current trip did not include the name of Thurman Bostick, 200-pound regular right end . . . Thurman isn't on the injured list, but was left home to reflect upon the advisability of napping through a skull practice. . . . Jack Wheelis, E. J. McKnight, a couple of fine sophomore ends, and the dependable eGorge Philbrick, however, should do very well at right end. . . . Glad to see Ralph Balfanz, who stayed to home when the boys went East, traveling this week. . . .

Coach Pete Cawthon looked up from a sideline chat t'other afternoon to see Bobby Holmes skimming around right end behind a couple of speedy interferers, heading for yon goal line, while the defensive team in the scrimmage had been pulled far to the left. . . . As he whizzed by Cawthon, Holmes shouted, "that's our touchdown play, Coach." . . .

The mentor grinned and explained it was the same play pulled against Oklahoma City U. the other night that netted a touchdown. . . . "They made it up themselves," Cawthon said. "I never saw it until they pulled it. Instead of handing the ball to the halfback running to the left on a spinner, they held it and gave it to the back running to the right . . . a sort of double reverse, double spinner play."

Said the Sweet Young Matron, while listening to a World Series broadcast: "Do they penalize baseball players like they do football players?" . . . "No, honey, of course not; now be quiet," explained Hubby. . . . "Well, they're always saying something about Ruffing," she replied sweetly, "and so. . . ."

P. S. She is recovering slowly from injuries sustained by a thrown bridge lamp. . . .

Junior High Cowboys Defeat Post, 26-6

Coach Mule Davis sent substitutes in sparingly Wednesday afternoon as his Junior High Cowboys plastered a 26 to 6 defeat on the Post Junior High eleven.

The complete teams of Cowboys were used during the fray, each gaining consistently against Coach W. C. Love's Addax—in junior high terminology, "Little Antelopes."

The visitors scored their touchdown in the last minute of the game against the Cowboy third string.

Staring lineup: Post — Putman and Smith, ends; Beauchamp and Hodges, tackles; Alford and Julian, guards; Bilberry center; Budge, quarterback; Sweeten and Bowen, halfbacks, and Luttrell, fullback. Substitute, R. Smith.

Play Brownfield Next

Lubbock — Taylor and Frazier, ends; Lawson and Heard, tackles; Yandell and Glaze, guards; Howard, center; Thompson, quarterback; Wallace and Norcross, halfbacks, and Pipes, fullback.

Substitutes: Pharr, Cope, Humphreys and Lea, ends; Wright, Land, Walker and Thrower, tackles; Ellis, Halsey, B. Brock and Casstevens, guards; Coursey and Campbell, centers; Ragland, E. Pollard, B. Pollard and Spence, halfbacks; Allison and Davis, quarterbacks, and P. Brock and Cobb, fullbacks.

Joe Louis May Defend His Title At San Francisco Exposition

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13 (AP)—If directors of the Golden Gate exposition can meet the undisclosed terms of Promoter Mike Jacobs of New York by December 20, Heavyweight Boxing Champion Joe Louis will defend his title in a bout on Treasure island, the exposition site, next April.

Jacobs met with the directors yesterday and said he planned to use Louis against the winner of the Lou Nova-Tommy Farr fight or the most available contender if the plans should go through.

It was hinted that Jacobs had asked a guarantee of $500,000 to put on the fight.

Two guys were pretty mad at each other.

"I'll sue you in the lower courts," roared one.

"I'll meet you there," was the answer.

"I'll take you to the Supreme court, if necessary!"

"I'll be there waiting for you."

"I'll sue you in the very depths of hell," howled the first.

"O. K.," came the answer. "My lawyer will be there!"

ALL of us, every once-in-awhile, fall into the rut of thinking that human nature is pretty sorry.

We get to feeling that mankind is largely made up of selfish gyppers who don't give a hoot for anything or anybody but themselves.

That, however, is not true, as a few seconds spent in retrospect will show.

Stop in a strange city—which you probably already have done—and turn to the first native you see with a plea for information.

He may be the butcher, the baker, the candlestick-maker—or just a hanger-on in front of the pool hall or the drug store.

But the chances are ten to one that he'll go to no little trouble to help you out and to answer your every query.

MORE than once The Plainsman has been given a helping hand in some strange place where he was seeking information about where to go, what to do, or how to find a certain addresss.

And he can't remember a single time when he received a gruff turndown.

All-in-all, most of us are glad to give the other fellow a lift when we are sure he's not laying in wait to work us out of something.

It is natural for a human to be pleasant and helpful—and the great majority of them are.

Nat Campbell in The El Paso Times:

Some months ago, it was, I met
A politician by the way;
He smiled and warmly shook my hand
And had a lot to say.

I listened very patiently
To everything he'd state,
Knowing well that he was just
A stalling candidate.

Today I met this gent again—
He didn't smile or shake;
In fact his actions seemed to say
"Go jump into the lake!"

And so I have concluded that
This fellow's but a grafter.
Otherwise he'd be the same
To me "before and after."

LUBBOCK and South Plains people are getting to be such gadabouts—as are all other Americans—that someone is going somewhere from almost every neighborhood every hour of the day and night.

It used to be that someone's taking a trip to St. Louis or Chicago from around here was an unusual and outstanding event.

Now our friends and neighbors can hie away to New England or Seattle without causing even a ripple of attention!

For the benefit of those readers who might be going off somewhere within the next few days or, at the least, sometime soon, The Plainsman suggests some of the best eating places in our fair land, where the visitor can lap up unusually good grub if he happens to be nearby.

In Texas, the Seibold at Ft. Worth; the Golden Pheasant at Dallas; San Jacinto Inn at the old battlegrounds just outside of Houston; John's seafood restaurant at Galveston; the Lobby No. 2 in Juarez, just across the river from El Paso.

In Chicago, the Bismarck hotel's Dutch Room; the Palmer House Empire Room.

In New York, Jack Dempsey's for atmosphere—but Dooley's Steak and Chop House, on 52nd street, for eating. And don't miss a Bit O' Sweden.

In Philadelphia, Lew Tendler's; the Bellvue-Stratford's Rathskeller for that famous Pennsylvania dish, scrapple.

In San Francisco, for the swellest seafood on the West Coast—Berstein's; and ditto in Los Angeles. Also in Frisco, Sardari's for Italian dishes de luxe.

In New Orleans, Antoine's—for fine food and to say you've been there; but for just as good for less, Arnaud's, Gallitoire's, Broussard's, the Vieux Carre or La Louisianne. And for good German cooking, to the tune of Swiss kodeling, Kalb's.

ALL in all, The Plainsman believes the Seibold at Ft. Worth has the best steaks he's ever run across. Snyder's, at Baltimore, has the best crabcakes; Schneider's in Washington the finest lobster; Lew Tendler's in Philadelphia the best scallops; San Jacinto Inn the best fried chicken and softshell crabs.

If you like ravioli, drop up to Salt Lake City some time and eat at the Rotisserie.

There are many good places to eat in this broad land of ours—and we're not overlooking ham and eggs at home, either!

WE noticed not long ago where "the world's rarest stamp" was to be sold for the sum of $37,500.

Perhaps we are lacking in appreciation of rare things.

Maybe it's because we never had a hobby, that we can't begin to understand such a situation.

But how in the world could a stamp be worth $37,500, when $37,500 will buy so many other, more important and more useful things?

Of course, we understand that the supply of rare stamps compared with the demand by collectors of them is the cause of the high price being paid for this particular specimen. But we still can't figure out who would want an old stamp, anyway, however rare.

If we had $37,500 a stamp would be about the last thing we'd buy—then it would be of the 3-cent variety!

In medieval times all members of the middle and lower classes were divided into guilds, in keeping with the way they earned their livelihood, and the members of each guild wore a certain type of clothing. Tailors "cut out" for each guild the type of garment decreed.

Hence, the term "he is cut out for the job."

The Story So Far: Loving someone else, gently bred Judith Goodloe marries Reuben Oliver—self-made man and outsider—for his money, only to discover that his fortune is lost. With different backgrounds, different codes, a clash is inevitable. Judith refuses to help Reuben make a fresh start with money he gave her family, but she will stick to her marriage. Forced to take a mining job in Nevada, Reuben brings her to dismal Fordney's Gulch.

Chapter 22

Repressed Hatred

Like a flash upon a screen Judith saw her life as she had planned it with Gary—from this distance achingly beautiful! She forgot Gary's waverings, his irresponsibility and remembered only his perfection as one remembers only the good qualities of the dead. She tried to shut him from her vision, but he invaded the little room like an actual physical presence. Somewhere in the world was Gary!

Morning did not brighten the outlook of life in Fordney's Gulch. Not a maid to be hired in town. The women of the place unless bedridden did their own work and were proud of it. There was goodnatured rivalry among them.

Judith saw them on all sides, chattering and happy. Women with vacuum cleaners and mops. Women with stewing pots and dish pans. Women going to market—Judith among them—trying to meet their kindly advances half way. Trying to appear interested in bacon, lard and beans. Winning their ill concealed contempt because she did not know how to bargain for a marrow bone.

"Wasting your man's hard earned money!"

Judith trying to laugh. Trying not to swear. Trying to be a good sport. A good mixer.

She slaved all day and every day in a futile effort to make the little house clean and attractive. Her endeavors to have something fit for Reuben to eat in the evening were pathetic. The house reeked of burnt food, scorched aluminum ware and smoke. Judith always had a cut or burnt finger. When Reuben came home he kissed the injured member, and set about preparing more food.

When the meal was eaten he helped her wash the dishes. Then they set about trying to bring a semblance of beauty and order to the impossible little house.

It was a hopeless task. Cissy's rug covered the floor completely and left a foot to turn under around the sides. Dick Blout's table—it had belonged to an ancestor—patina of polish overlaying the wood like mellow gold, made the wall behind it look more muddy, by contrast. The lamp with the white jade base and green shade made an incongruous blob of color and the Sevres vase stood out like a lily in a field of dandelions, or rather Reuben thought, as Judith herself stood out among the women of the town with their cotton house frocks.

Dreams Of Home

"It's no use," Judith sighed disconsolately. "Our things are all wrong somehow."

Reuben agreed, puzzled because they couldn't make things look right. The neighbors coming to view the effect were frank in their comments.

"Your carpet's too big Mis' Oliver."

"I know it, Mrs. Kraus. I didn't realize it was so mammoth." Not for worlds would she have hinted that the room was small. Casper street bragged about the size of its living rooms as compared to those of Newman street.

"It's old and kinda faded anyhow." Mrs. Kraus scrutinized Cissy's gorgeous gift critically. "Throw it out and get yourself a couple of those Wilton scatters down at the Emporium."

And life went on. An endless procession of dirty dishes. Dirty clothes. Wood. Splinter. Chapped hands. Burnt fingers. Rain. Mud. Loneliness.

Thanksgiving came to Fordney's Gulch. Judith knew it because every woman in the Row spent the greater part of the day cooking a turkey. Judith didn't cook a turkey. Reuben was called to the mine early. "I'll bring our dinner from the restaurant, Judy."

Not having to cook dinner gave her time to manicure her nails, wash her hair—and while it dried, to sit by the front window and look out into the sleety, muddy, mean little street, with its gas station, its third rate moving picture house, its five and ten—

Thanksgiving! Judith had nothing to be thankful for. At home this morning there had been the Hunt Breakfast. A blazing hickory fire in the dining room. Amos and Ben passing coffee, hot rolls, browned pieces of fried chicken.

Afterwards the peace of old St. John's followed by a run across frosty fields—dogs baying — horns calling—

Horrible Interlude

Sudden tears welled to Judith's eyes making the lights of the gas station wink and sputter. If she could only go home—stay there—forget this horrible interlude that was her marriage.

Tea was over at Goodloe's Choice now. And tonight, at the kennels, all the old crowd would dance in pink coats — and festive frocks. It seemed like a dream that she had ever been one of them. Had ever been clean, rested, good tempered, well groomed.

In such moments of introspection, Judith hated Reuben with a bitter, repressed hatred. He was nothing and nobody and all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't make him into somebody. He was a failure as a business man too. He couldn't stay in the place he had made for himself. Couldn't climb any higher at the mine—

If she had given him back his money as he asked her—she wished with all her heart and soul she had—the bargain between them would have ended. Now—because she believed in such things as honor and decency as long as that hedge stood—Life in Fordney's Gulch—Life in hell were synonymous to Judith.

Always after her rage had spent itself she was ashamed. All the generations that had gone into the making of Judith Goodloe arose to mock her. The old habit of gentle courtesy would resume its sway. She would try harder to be patient; entertaining, to see only the best in Reuben; to stop comparing him with Gary. There was the fly in the ointment—Gary.

Reuben came home. Wet. Tired. Silent. He handed her the basket of food. Atop the coarse towel that covered it lay a short-stemmed, scarlet geranium.

"A Dame Durden! How lovely!" She raised the flower in gentle brown fingers. While she had been hating him he had been tramping about the dull, huddled little town hunting a blossom!

"Only this morning I was thinking how a blooming geranium would brighten this room—wanting one"—she lied gallantly.

"And how!" His wife's polite enthusiasm no longer fooled Reuben. He was by turn humbly grateful and sullenly resentful of her unfailing courtesy. Did she think he didn't know she despised him? Did she think he wanted to be tolerated? Did she think he was a complete fool?

Tomorrow: A new interest.

EFFORTS WILL BE APPROVED

Efforts of the state prison board to eliminate possibility of brutal or inhuman punishments from the Texas prison system will, of course, meet with virtually unanimous approval.

While there is no reason to suppose that aggravated conditions exist within the system, investigations perhaps will disclose practices which should not be permitted. Inquiry likewise will tend to put caution in those of the prison personnel who, unless restrained, might be inclined to brutality. Texas certainly does not want any system of punishment which makes monsters of men who become convicts.

But at the same time, the state must guard against any condition which pampers those paying the penalty for violations of law. Prison must continue to be a place where they don't want to go. It still must be a place of punishment to be dreaded. Otherwise there might just as well be no penalty for crime.

'Forgotten Students' Not To Be Omitted From Campus Life

DENTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—"Forgotten students," frequently omitted from college campus social life, are to be remembered this year at the North Texas State Teachers college as a result of a winter recreation program being launched at North Texas, President W. J. McConnell announces.

Its face lifted by repairs and enlargement, the former men's gymnasium at the teachers college has been renamed the recreation building, and will provide a place where all students, especially those not members of campus social clubs, may congregate nightly except Sunday for a widely varied play program.

The college will bear all expenses for weekly Friday night dances. Saturday night is reserved for the clubs wishing to give dances, and these groups will pay the cost of their own "hops."

Play programs including square and folk dances, table games and floor games, are open to all students of the college one hour each night from Monday through Thursday.

The six-night-a-week program of student entertainment at NTSTC is an outgrowth of a demand that the college provide its winter students with recreation offerings similar to its summer play program, considered by specialists in that field as unusual throughout the United States.

Mississippi farmers cured 2,073,929 pounds of pork in 45 cold storage plants during the 1937-38 season.

CIO And AFOL Agreed On One Thing: They Don't Like Houston's Jesse Holman Jones

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. are agreed on one thing anyway.

They don't like Chairman Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Dutcher

A resolution prepared at the A. F. of L. convention in Houston charges that RFC has been lending money to corporations employing non-union labor at low wages. C. I. O. has made similar complaints.

This doesn't do Jesse's presidential aspirations any good, but according to some of the chairman's best friends nothing could. Jones, who is as able as he is business-like, appears to be the only one who takes those aspirations seriously, anymore. Although he is highly regarded by most conservative Democrats who think the Roosevelt administration is spend-thrift, it is generally conceded that the Texas delegation at the 1940 convention will be for Garner.

Not Nice

Friends of Jones say it wasn't nice of the A. F. of L. to talk about him in his own town, especially since he had built so many buildings there and paid out so much money to union labor which worked on them.

C. I. O. has had still another complaint against RFC. When one

ADD DEFINITIONS

Conservative Democrats and Republicans are suggesting as a possible 1940 campaign slogan a remark recently made by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia. "A liberal is one who spends the other fellow's money," said the senator. The great popularity of WPA, PWA and other federal money around the country is likely, however, to discourage wide use of the epigram.

of RFC's debtor corporations failed awhile ago it owed quite a sum in wages to its workers. RFC has first lien on assets in such cases. John L. Lewis protested in effect that human rights should precede property rights and that the workers should be paid first. Jesse said nothing doing and collected.

Homer Has Something

Senator Homer T. Bone of Washington, running in a Democratic primary, received 50,000 more votes than all opposing candidates in both parties. But he reported to the Senate Campaign Expenditures committee:

No contributions. No disbursements. Only one radio speech.

Details are lacking as to how he did it. Many other candidates, winners and losers, would like to know.

WPA Puzzler

The last Congress provided in the work relief appropriations act that no rates lower than the minimum provided in the wage-hour act (25 cents an hour) should be paid WPA workers in "similar occupations."

In Southern states a minimum WPA wage of $26 a month prevails. This means about 18 cents an hour.

Objection has been raised that WPA workers aren't in inter-state commerce and, furthermore, that WPA jobs and work in private industry aren't "similar."

Then why, demands the Workers' Alliance, did Congress put such a provision in the act?

Deputy Administrator Aubrey Williams of WPA is trying to figure it out.

Poletti

Charles Poletti, Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor of New York who is expected to bear most of the burden of the governorship of Gov. Herbert Lehman—who didn't want the job again—if re-elected, is another of the pupils of Harvard's Felix Frankfurter, so common in New Deal ranks.

The Plainsman Gets Some Mail

(Letters from readers are invited and welcomed. They will be published gladly whenever they do not violate the laws of libel, or the rules of decency, and when they do not exceed 500 words in length. Letters criticizing individuals, firms or organizations must be signed by the true name of their writers.

SEE YOUR FRIENDS!

Dear Plainsman: In keeping with your remarks the other evening I am sending you this poem.

You spoke of how we, in the hustle and bustle of this busy world, do not take time frequently enough to think what our friends mean to us until it is too late.

AROUND THE CORNER

Around the corner I have a friend.
In this great city that knows no end;
Yet days go by and weeks rush on.
And before I know it a year is gone.

And never see my old friend's face,
For life is a swift and busy race,
He knows I like him just as well
As in the days when I rang his bell.

And he rang mine. We were younger then
And now we are busy, tired men
Tired with playing a foolish game
Tired with trying to make a name.

Tomorrow I say, "I will call on Jim.
Just to show that I'm thinking of him."
But tomorrow comes and tomorrow goes
And the distance between us grows and grows.

Around the corner yet miles away—
Here's a telegram sir—"Jim died today;"
And that's what we get and deserve in the end
Around the corner, A vanished friend.

MRS. CLYDE GIBSON,
Lubbock.

"IT'S BAD FOR Your Health"

● How often, against the counsel of others and our own sound judgment, we do something to impair a naturally healthy constitution.

Especially are we prone to neglect or thoughtlessly dismiss small ills. These conditions, unattended, sometimes become chronic and lead to serious complications.

Don't neglect your health! It's the greatest asset you have. At the first indication of "something wrong" go to see your Physician. A timely visit now may prevent a long, expensive illness later. And bring his prescription here for prompt, precise compounding.

Livestock

19—Livestock For Sale

THE LUBBOCK LIVESTOCK COMMISSION CO.
At 1510 Ave. B
HORSE AND MULE AUCTION SALE EACH
THURSDAY

Our horse sale was the best we have had and good stock brought a good price. Had 150 head and will need more stock all the time as our market is getting better advertised and we have more buyers.

Cattle sale every Wednesday. Last week we did not have many cattle, but a nice little run for first sale. Everyone was well pleased and we expect to have more cattle from now on, and we are going to quote prices they bring from sale to sale, not what these cattle bring on some other market but our market. So bring in your cattle and help us make Lubbock the biggest market in West Texas.

Jersey stockers from 3.75@4.25, common butcher weight from 500-700 4.00@4.50, Choice butcher cows from 3.50@4.30. No fat cows offered. Bulls from 3.75@4.25.

No heavy bulls offered. Consign your cattle to us each Wed. for better prices. We are bonded for your protection.

Snyder Livestock Market
AUCTION SALE OF CATTLE EVERY THURSDAY, STARTING 10:00 A. M.
AUCTION SALE OF HORSES AND MULES EVERY SATURDAY

We now have a good demand for all kinds of stocker cattle to go to Oklahoma and Kansas wheat fields, especially cows and calves and wet cows. Any of this class of cattle consigned to us will bring a good market price. Butcher cattle sold strong at our sale this week and our demand continues to increase.

Tune in KFYO each Thursday from 2 to 2:15 o'clock, hear the auction sale direct from the sales pavilion. If you have livestock for sale or are in the market to buy don't fail to attend our Thursday auction sale of cattle and Saturday auction sale of horses and mules. Livestock sold at private sale every day. For best results consign your livestock to Snyder Livestock Market. Bonded and insured.

City Tax Rate

sessed valuation will be necessary.

The tentative plan at the time the bond election was called was to begin the retirement of the obligations out of revenues from the 1939 tax rate.

May Remain Unchanged

If no provision is made for starting bond retirements from this year's revenues, the tax rate probably will remain unchanged. Belief was, under such circumstances, that the increase of nearly $700,000 in assessed valuations will supply the additional revenue needed for normal increases in the city's general operating expenses. Last year they totaled $230,079.

Another matter for consideration at the meeting was the acceptance or rejection of the Diesel engine purchased from Nordberg Manufacturing company of Milwaukee for the city power plant more than a year ago. Installation of the engine was completed several weeks ago and it has been under tests since which were described by J. J. Graham, light plant superintendent, as being satisfactory.

Cost of the engine was $133,562, to be paid out of its earnings at 4 per cent interest. Probabilities are, officials said, that the payments will be spread over a two-year period.

Influx Of Pickers

numbers of last week.

Uncertainty was expressed as to what the cause may be. One supposition expressed to police was that the word had traveled by "grapevine" to those elsewhere that the South Plains is not the picker's paradise of last year. Another possibility is that a lull in the flow has occurred and that it is likely to return to full volume at any time.

Meantime, farm authorities stressed that the South Plains cotton crop this year is far from "short." It won't closely approach that of last year but the 1937 yield was phenominal, it was explained. Official reports described prospects for this year as being for a crop perhaps a little above normal.

Numerous tropical plants that grow in the upper branches of trees throw out cable-like roots, which grow to the ground and take hold.

Blames His Ears On Teachers

This young chap, who calls himself Philip Shafer of Roanoke, Va., has big ears. That's the point. Philip showed up in New York the other day, explaining that his ears stand out because his teachers used to pull them. He was going to have 'em remodeled, he said (that's the plastic surgeon's hand pulling the ear), and then campaign everlastingly to make school boards make teachers stop pulling pupil's ears. Maybe it sounds pretty screwy, but Philip himself is very serious about it.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 13. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, net two points lower to two higher here today under liquidation in nearby positions against covering and trade buying of later delivery.

The undertone was supported, however, by a scarcity of contracts and the favorable action of outside markets.

October contracts opened at 8.35 bid, Dec. at 8.40, Jan. at 8.35, March at 8.34, May at 8.24, July at 8.18 and Oct. new at 7.95 bid.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 5 lower for Oct. under liquidation and 1 lower to 1 higher for later months with moderate hedging absorbed by the trade. Oct. 8.21, Dec. 8.28, Jan. 8.21, March 8.20, May 8.11, July 8.07.

Continued absence of hedge pressure from the south and trade and foreign buying straddled the market. Traders were impressed by sudden strength of the near positions in Liverpool.

Dec. advanced from 8.28 to 8.32 and at the end of the first half hour the list ranged 1 to 4 points net higher.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—With buying steam accumulating over the holiday, stocks shot up 1 to around 4 points in today's market. There were a few swings of as much as 10 or so in isolated issues.

Business news, generally brokers said provided the fuel for the forward surge. Minor cloudy spots on the economic horizon were virtually ignored in the rush to get aboard the speeding van.

Transfers for the full session approximated 2,100,000 shares.

Outstanding performers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Westinghouse, General Electric, duPont, National Cash Register, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, Douglas Aircraft, Western Union, Kennecott, American Smelting, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Standard Oil of N. J. and Sperry. Loft was again one of the most active performers, but it didn't get very far ahead.

Americans Have More Invested Abroad Than Foreigners Here

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—The commerce department estimated today that at the beginning of 1938 Americans had $11,795,000,000 invested abroad and foreigners had $7,036,000,000 invested here.

These totals, particularly the value of foreign investments here, probably are higher now because of higher market values for common stocks.

Fighting In China

first objectives of the Japanese contingent, estimated to number more than 35,000 troops, which landed yesterday at Bias bay. It is connected with the South China metropolis of Canton by a good highway.

Pushing Steadily Inland

The Japanese appeared to be pushing steadily inland towards Tamshui, a town ten miles from the coast. From there the invaders would have 25 miles to go across comparatively flat country to reach the vital Kowloon-Canton-Hankow railway, about 30 miles from the Hongkong frontier.

Increasingly bitter fighting was reported in the Pingshan-Nimshan district at the extreme northeast end of Bias bay, where the Japanese apparently were consolidating for an advance up the highway to Waichow.

The defenders were expected to give the Japanese the first real resistance at Tamshui and farther inland beyond the range of Japanese naval guns.

The railroad itself was still operating between Canton and Kowloon, at Hongkong, the British crown colony. Some Chinese experts believed it safe for many weeks yet.

More than 100 Japanese warplanes bombed large areas of Kwangtung province. Waichow suffered heavy raids.

Crop Control Vote

edly would strengthen the administration's hand in the event advocates of price-fixing make headway at the next session of congress. They conceded that rejection of quotas would give those advocates a "powerful weapon."

Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), charging that the administration's farm program is "breaking down completely," advocated today establishment of a dual price system for three or four major crops.

Wheeler Endorses Plan

Wheeler, often an opponent of administration measures, endorsed the plan of Secretary Wallace to purchase crop surpluses for resale to low income classes at a reduced rate.

"There is a great deal of dissatisfaction in the west with the farm program," Wheeler told reporters.

"We've got to come to the two-price system, at least for three or four of the major crops. The farmer should be given the benefit of a high price on the home market and be permitted to dispose of his surplus at the world price level," Wheeler said.

"The need now, however, is for clarification of administration of the present farm act," he added.

Decision on the cotton referendum date was disclosed while agriculture department officials were making supplementary plans to solve the problem of surplus cotton, vegetables, fruits, dairy and livestock products and meat.

Secretary Wallace told reporters yesterday that a gigantic program for disposal of such surpluses to relief and low income families at "cut-rate" prices was being developed.

Allotment About Same

AAA officials said the 1939 cotton allotment would be approximately 27,500,000 acres, or about the same as this year. The allotment will be divided among states and counties and then apportioned among growers under a formula set up in the farm law.

A grower's marketing quota would be the amount of cotton he produced on his allotment. The penalty for selling in excess of one's quota would be three cents a pound. The penalty was two cents this year.

Objective Of Program Cited

The objective of the cotton program is to keep 1939 production below 12,500,000 bales. Officials have estimated the cotton surplus at about 13,500,000 bales, or more than enough to supply a normal year's domestic and export demands for American cotton.

Under the quota system this year, growers planted less than 27,000,000 acres. Their crop has been officially estimated at 12,212,000 bales.

Huge Refinery Fire

at the start by explosions as one after another of nearly all of 22 tanks in the oil field were ignited, could be seen for more than 10 miles.

Fire Under Control

S. P. Keator, superintendent of the Cities Service plant, announced that by 4 a.m. (c.s.t.) the fire was under control and the danger past, although the oil still blazed fiercely.

Virtually helpless in their struggle to extinguish the holocaust, firemen and assistants from many municipalities turned their efforts to confining the conflagration to the single unit of the oil field.

Other Plants Threatened

Threatened continually were the Cities Service's adjacent distillery field of 30 other and larger fuel tanks as well as plants of the Sinclair Oil company and the American Cynanmide company.

A short distance away is located the huge refinery of the Standard Oil company with its 800 tanks.

Two score fire-fighters were injured, none seriously, and company officials said it was a "miracle" that no one was killed with the fire started suddenly with explosion of a 1,680,000 gallon tank yesterday.

The automobile industry is the source of income for about 10,000,000 persons in the United States.

Baruch Says U. S. Is Not Ready For War

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch, who mobilized American industries in the World war, asserted today the United States was "unprepared" even for a defensive war.

He was an overnight guest at the White House. Upon leaving he told reporters:

"We have a good navy as a first line of defense, but while we have an army of 400,000 regulars and national guard we lack sufficient arms and resources to put these men in the field in a first class way."

Baruch, who recently returned from abroad, said the "so called Munich peace was due to one thing and one thing only, and that was the tragic unpreparedness of England and France, not only in the matter of planes, but many other things."

"Germany," he added, "was able to detach Poland from the Allies and the Allies were not in a position to stop Germany from moving. Where Russia was I don't know."

Baruch said "we ought to be ready to defend our homes and not find ourselves in the position of England at Munich. If England had been ready there would have been a different story at Munich."

Railroad Labor Leader Pleads With Lines To Withdraw Cut

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13. (AP)—A railroad labor leader pleaded with management today to withdraw its demand for a 15 per cent wage reduction asd team up with employes and the federal government in a comprehensive rehabilitation program.

George M. Harrison, spokesman for eighteen brotherhoods before the emergency fact-finding board, contended that a wage cut would offer no solution to the industry's problems.

To solve them, he asked railroad officialdom to consider a long range program involving coordination of competing forms of transportation, government loans to railroads who agreed to the program, reorganization of railroad finances, and revision of rate structures.

Bid On REA Extension Checked By Field Engineer In City

Bid of Mattison-Walleck & Co., Oklahoma City, Okla., for construction of proposed extension of present lines of the South Plains Electric Cooperative was opened by A. C. Hagan, Dallas, field engineer of Rural Electrification administration and checked, at a meeting of directors of the cooperative Wednesday night.

Hagan said he would refer the figures to Washington for final approval. When approved a contract will be made with the construction concern, builders of the present line.

W. M. Ross, president of the board, presided at the meeting. The meeting was well attended. Harry N. Roberts, engineer, met with the board.

SUGGESTION TO BE MADE

NEW YORK, Oct. 13. (AP)—The Oct. 15 issue of "Justice," organ of the International Ladies Garment Workers union, will suggest that President Roosevelt "call at once into conference the leadership of both CIO and AFL to explore once more, in a mood of genuine receptivity, the possibilities for reconciliation."

New Use For Radio Found

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 — a new use for radio, to light the sky 50 miles overhead as brightly as the full moon does, is proposed in Nature, British official science journal which arrived here today.

The new light would be an artificial aurora. A single radio station could cover a patch of sky 60 miles in diameter with this light. It could illuminate country roads as well as ordinary lighting systems would and could be used anywhere.

Two radio stations, WLW, of the Crossley Radio corporation at Cincinnati, and RV-1 at Moscow, already have the power to make the preliminary tests, says the author of the proposal, Dr. V. A. Bailey, of the University of Sydney.

Would Light Sky

The two stations, Dr. Bailey explains, would be able to produce small auroras. But, he adds, a million kilowatts, a power not out of reach, would light ten thousand square kilometers of sky equal to the full moon.

This lighting would be directly overhead and to a radius of 30 miles around the station. The principles of the new light are already in operation in laboratories, Dr. Bailey says.

One is the glow discharge lamp. Without wires or current, if placed in an electrical field, it gives a brilliant light from gas in the bulb which becomes "excited" by electricity.

The other principle is that of building up vibration by oscillation, like a child's swing that goes higher with each push.

Given Relief After 20 Years

Had Suffered Terribly With Stomach; Muscular Aches And Pains Almost Crippled Her; Gly-Cas Proves Unfailing

"Gly-Cas has meant the difference between good health and bad for me," said Mrs. Loretta Ramey, 1426 Elm St., Abilene, Texas. "For twenty years I had suffered continually with my stomach regardless of my diet. Bloating and dizziness was sure to follow every meal I ate. I had severe headaches, was nervous and could not get my proper rest or sleep because of the disturbances of night risings. But what caused me the horrible suffering was the dreadful pains which settled over my body. My feet, ankles and knees swelled badly making it difficult to walk or do my housework. I could find nothing to help me and was so discouraged until I began Gly-Cas."

"Gly-Cas brought about a complete change in my health in a short time," continued Mrs. Ramey. "My digestion is good, awful pains have been driven from my system, am free of that awful swelling and get around with ease. I was soon eating and enjoying the foods I had been denied for years—and without the least discomfort afterwards. It is wonderful that sufferers can get a medicine with as much merit as Gly-Cas for it gave me results even after all else I tried had failed to have any effect."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

Hilly-Billy Hi-Jinx In Jersey Campaign

No. Junior, that's not the highspot in a vaudeville act. It's a big moment in the hill-billy political campaign of James J. Farley (not the big mail-bag man, Junior), civil engineer, lawyer and former U. S. Army Major, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Essex County, N. J. Ex-Mayor-Lawyer-Engineer Farley liked the way W. Lee O'Daniel, of Texas, recently crooned himself to the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination so he got up an Essex County version of the O'Daniel hill-billy campaign. Here he is lighting a cigar for clown Tom Matin, a member of his committee.

Invitation To Cooking School Arrives Little Late, Seventeen Years Too Late To Be Exact

TYLER, Oct. 13 (AP) — Mrs. Sam R. Hill, wife of a Tyler lumber company executive, received an invitation to attend a cooking school which was to be held at Dallas June 20 to July 2 inclusive.

Even that would have been a trifle late but the datemark on the outside of the yellowed, brittle envelope was "1921."

C. J. Crampton, acting postmaster, in an accompanying letter explained it:

"This letter was found yesterday by workmen reconstructing the mail chute in the interurban building. It has been between this box and the wall for a long period of time.

"Our records show that this mail box and chute has been in service since the fall of 1920. It seems probable that the letter was placed on top of the box and may have been dislodged in such a manner that it fell back of the box and remained caught between the box and the wall."

EXTENSION CLASS

CROSBYTON — An extension class for Crosby county teachers has been formed here and it meets Monday night. Dr. Lewis B. Cooper of the department of education, Texas Technological college, is the teacher. "Visual Aids" is the subject.

The British seized Gibraltar in 1704 and have never been dislodged.

STORE AT OPDYKE

LEVELLAND — J. A. Merrill, formerly of Frost, has opened a grocery store at Opdyke, six miles east of here on Highway 24, at the W. A. Dyke gin. There are now two stores there. The gin, destroyed last year has been rebuilt and is operating.

Oct. 25 Is Date Set For Sons Of Legion Membership Drive

Oct. 25 was set as date for opening of the annual membership drive of Sons of the American Legion at a meeting in Allen Bros. post hall Wednesday night, according to E. Kelley Nail, chairman of the sponsoring committee.

W. L. Daniel, Chas. Whitacre, and Glen Hess, new members of the sponsoring committee recently appointed by George W. Brewer, commander of the Allen Bros., post of the American legion, were introduced to the sons of the legion. Approximately 45 attended.

Boys were instructed to bring materials for a rummage sale to the legion hall Tuesday night. The rummage sale will be Oct. 22. The sale is sponsored by mothers for benefit of activities of the sons. Activities for which money is needed include drum and bugle corps and next year's baseball tournament.
