Permian Basin OIL & GAS LOG

James C. Watson, Oil Editor

Clear Fork Pay In Sterling Indicated

Plymouth Oil Company No. 1 TXL, Central-West Sterling County wildcat, is showing for a discovery from the Clear Fork lime of the Permian.

This prospector topped the Clear Fork at 2,425 feet, on an elevation of 2,589 feet. It is now bottomed at 2,435 feet and is bailing to test.

The project was making two barrels of oil per hour naturally, bailing. It was not showing any water.

It is possible that operator will decide to acidize the pay section in an effort to increase the oil yield.

Location is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 1, block 31, T&P survey, T-5-S. That makes it 15 miles west of Sterling City.

It logged some slight shows of oil in the top of the San Andres. That formation was entered at 1,734 feet. There was water below the thin San Andres section which carried the show of oil.

SE Lynn Wildcat Preparing To DST

Houston Oil Company of Texas and Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware No. 1 H. B. Howell, wildcat in Southeast Lynn County, was last reported preparing to take a drillstem test over a cored section at 9,340-60 feet. The 20-foot core yielded some porosity, with an oil stain.

On a previous test at 9,312-40 feet, this project recovered 720 feet of free oil, and no water. The test was in the Pennsylvanian lime zone, possibly Strawn.

The No. 1 Howell is 467 feet from north and east lines of section 451, block 1, EL&RR survey, and seven and one-half miles southeast of Tahoka.

Edge Site Staked To W-C Kent Pool

General Crude Oil Company has staked location for a Canyon reef lime exploration on the north side of the Salt Creek field in West-Central Kent County, 10 miles northwest of Clairemont.

The new project will be General Crude No. 1-194 Coleman. It is located 660 feet from south and west lines of the east half of section 194, block G, W&NW survey.

That makes it one-quarter of a mile due east of Superior Oil Company No. 8-194 Wood, "mystery" well which is now reported by unofficial sources to be swabbing in the Canyon reef.

No other information on that prospector is available.

The fact that a swab unit is working on the Superior project indicates that it has not been able to flow regularly—if it has flowed at all.

Total depth and other pertinent information on it is still being withheld.

General Crude No. 1-194 Coleman is slated to start operations in the near future.

Cores Show More Pay In Terry Test

Two more cores on the Union Oil Company of California No. 1 Laura Cotten strongly indicate approximately 50 more feet of pay for this Central Terry County discovery.

On the first core at 10,062-093 feet, operator recovered the full 31 feet, which showed porous lime with oil stains throughout.

Coring deeper from 10,093 to 10,122 feet, recovery was 23 1/2 feet of saturated lime and six feet of dense lime.

Operator was last reported preparing to take a drillstem test over both cored sections.

The No. 1 Cotten already has flowed oil on four drillstem tests from this Pennsylvanian reef, topped at 9,902 feet, on an elevation of 3,262 feet.

Location is 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 91, block T, D&W survey, and

Midland-Odessa Highway Widening Contract Awarded

The Texas Highway Commission Monday afternoon in Austin awarded a contract for the widening of the Midland-Odessa highway (U. S. 80) in Midland and Ector Counties to the Collins Construction Company of Texas, Austin.

Work on the project of converting the important and much traveled road into a four-lane, divided highway is expected to be started promptly, with completion scheduled within 300 working days, State Highway Department officials said.

The Collins Construction Company last week had submitted the low bid of $938,855 on the project, 15.3 miles, grading, structures, flexible base, asphalt concrete surface and roadside park, from 0.2 miles west of Midland to 15.47 miles west of Midland. This includes paving of the road from Midland's west city limit to Odessa's east city limit. A total of seven bids was submitted.

Right-of-way for the super highway has been obtained by Midland and Ector Counties. A 220-foot right-of-way was required.

The project to widen the congested highway between the important Permian Basin Empire cities of Midland and Odessa was launched by the Midland Chamber of Commerce and other organizations and individuals in 1948. The proposal became a major project of the C. of C. later that year during the administration of Tom Sealy. The project was sponsored by the Chamber's Highway Committee, of which the late E. H. Barron was chairman.

The Midland County Commissioners Court on Feb. 14, 1949, called a special $150,000 road bond election to finance the purchase of additional right-of-way for the Midland-Odessa highway and for other road improvements in the county, after petitions requesting the election be held had been presented.

The election, held March 26, 1949, carried by a 451 to 25 vote. The Chamber of Commerce led the fight for approval of the bond issue. Bonds totaling $64,500 were earmarked for the Midland-Odessa job.

School Registration Continues In City

Registration at Midland High School for the 1950-51 school term was underway Tuesday, as sophomores registered for classes which will begin September 5.

Juniors in high school registered Monday, and sophomores will complete registration Wednesday noon. Following the sophomores, freshmen will begin registering Wednesday afternoon, and will continue Thursday.

On Wednesday, all junior high and elementary students who are new to the Midland school system are to register at their respective schools. Students who have attended Midland schools previously are not required to register, school authorities said.

One exception to this ruling is applied to students who have moved within the city, and will be attending a different school this year. It does not apply to students progressing from elementary school to junior high.

David Crockett Elementary School students who are to register will do so at North Elementary School, authorities said. Crockett school still is under construction, and is expected to be ready for half-day use by September 5. The classrooms will be completed within three weeks after school opens, according to Frank Monroe, superintendent of schools.

First grade students—children who will have reached their sixth birthday on or before September 1—will register Thursday at their respective schools. Again, Crockett students will register at North Elementary.

Absentee Votes At 124; Deadline Near

Absentee ballots cast for the second Democratic Primary totaled 124 shortly before noon Tuesday with the deadline for balloting set at 5 p.m.

County Clerk Lucille Johnson said balloting has been slower for the second primary than it was for the first. A total of 286 votes was cast absentee for the first primary.

Rains Again Flood North Texas City

By The Associated Press

Muddy flood waters swirled into Wichita Falls Tuesday as heavy rains and crop-punishing hail hammered North Texas.

It was the second flood, and the third flood threat, for the sodden North Texas city this Summer.

Hail destroyed cotton and feed crops in parts of Hardeman County west of Wichita Falls. Hail also fell in Wichita County but damage there was less.

At mid-morning, Red Cross Disaster Chairman Jack Austin estimated 45 families had been evacuated in Wichita Falls.

Higher Water Expected

Even higher water was expected. Rains ranging up to four inches were reported to have fallen in the upper reaches of Holliday Creek.

The creek meanders through Wichita Falls, entering at the southwest edge. The terrain along the creek bed is rolling, so some homes are flooded and others remain dry.

Three weeks ago the same creek, swollen by heavy rains, forced evacuation of 500 families. Earlier in the Summer the creek left its banks but no evacuation was necessary.

Spectacular lightning and crashing thunder accompanied heavy rains which fell throughout North Texas.

Lightning struck a corner of the Wichita Falls City Auditorium, causing about $500 damage, principally to the slate roof. Large chunks of pavement, loosened by a Summer of unseasonal rains, were torn loose from roadbeds. Unpaved roads were difficult to negotiate.

The rain let up at Wichita Falls by mid-morning and the sun was breaking through. But more rain was predicted.

Senate Votes Home Front Mobilization

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Overwhelming Senate approval of a home front mobilization bill virtually assured President Truman Tuesday the power to invoke wage-price-rationing controls and otherwise gear the nation to a wartime footing.

The Senate passed the emergency measure Monday night by a whopping 85 to 3 vote.

The Senate bill and an economic controls measure which the House approved on August 10 are vastly different in some essential details, but both authorize Truman to impose wage-price curbs and other inflation controls.

So the bill which finally goes to the White House—after a Senate-House Conference Committee irons out differences between the two versions — certainly will carry wage-price-rationing authority.

Rooms Sought For School Teachers

With the influx of teachers for Midland public schools expected during the next week, Frank Monroe, superintendent of schools, Tuesday asked Midlanders to list available rooms or apartments with his office.

The teachers, some returning from last year and others new to the system, will be directed to rooms and apartments as they arrive.

Monroe asked that persons with rooms or apartments for rent, call number 287 or number 3519 to list the rooms.

C. Of C. Directors Weigh Future Of Midland's Fair

Directors of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, meeting Monday night in Hotel Scharbauer, heard various committee reports, endorsed several proposals and mapped plans for conducting special activities. President Robert L. Wood presided at the session.

The question of whether to continue the annual Midland County Fair was discussed at length after Herb Schauer, chairman of the County Fair Committee, reported an apparent lack of interest in the staging of the annual event. Schauer said his committee had mailed questionnaires concerning the fair to more than 600 firms and individuals and that only 26 of the completed forms were returned. Twelve favored continuing the fair, 12 indicated it should be discontinued and two were indifferent, Schauer stated.

It was suggested that a Rural Appreciation Day or some other event honoring rural residents be staged since adequate facilities for the staging of a fair are not available here. Tom Sealy suggested that greater emphasis be placed on improving and enlarging the annual Midland Livestock Show. R. L. Miller, general chairman of the Chamber's Livestock-Agriculture Committee, said something should be arranged and staged to further cement

Airliner Lands With Seven Injured, One Dead After Accident

DENVER—(AP)—The cabin of an American Airlines plane was ripped open when an engine broke away high over the Colorado Rockies early Tuesday, and the big ship landed here with one dead and seven injured.

The four-engine DC-6 was bound from Los Angeles to Chicago, carrying 52 passengers and a crew of five at 21,000 feet near Eagle, Colo., when the right inboard engine suddenly broke from its wing moorings.

Part of the propeller or a piece of the shattered engine slashed through the top of the passenger compartment, tearing a hole about four by eight feet over the forward three rows of seats and releasing the air from the pressurized cabin.

Pilot R. K. Baker reported the mishap to the Denver CAA office, obtained clearance for an emergency landing and brought the ship about 100 miles into the Denver Airport in 19 minutes, landing without further trouble.

Here it was found one passenger was dead and seven others injured. All of the injured were treated at Denver General Hospital and released.

Oklahoma Oil Man Ill After Surgery

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—Frank Phillips, 76-year-old retired president of a $350,000,000 oil empire, was reported "slightly improved" Tuesday at the Atlantic City Hospital.

A company spokesman said he was operated on Monday night for an abdominal condition and a heart weakness had caused complications.

Defense Build-Up Outlined

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The impact of the Korean war and the rearmament program will give the nation 17 Army divisions, a fleet which will include 23 carriers of various types in operation and an Air Force of 69 groups.

That outline of the augmented force emerged Tuesday in the release of testimony by defense officials on President Truman's request for a $10,500,000,000 supplemental appropriation, to be added to the regular funds for the current year.

The Army will get this: Another combat division, to bring the number of such units to 11; two additional replacement training divisions to be added to four now in operation.

Navy officials said the expansion program for the fleet and its aviation was like this: Combatant ships will be increased from 243 under the present budget to 282; amphibious-type and auxiliary craft will be increased from 386 to 629, bringing the total number of operating ships to 911.

In the air, there will be three more attack carrier groups, three anti-submarine carrier groups, seven more patrol squadrons. The new total of planes operated by the Navy and Marines will rise from 6,233 to 7,335.

More Rail Workers Leave Jobs Despite White House Plea

WASHINGTON —(AP)— More railway workers struck Tuesday, ignoring a White House plea to stay on the job.

The new strikes are in Pittsburgh and Chicago.

Like those called Monday in Louisville, Cleveland and Minneapolis-St. Paul, these are five-day token strikes. The idea is to call attention to a wage-hour dispute that has dragged on for 17 months.

All the strikes are comparatively small, but they are in such key spots union leaders have estimated they will put 50,000 men out of work.

An attempt to settle the dispute Monday night dragged on until after midnight—but got nowhere.

Nevertheless, President Truman's top labor negotiator, John R. Steelman, said he would call the unions and railroads together again Tuesday for further talks.

There still was no indication Truman planned to seize the roads.

Tuesday's strikes went off like clockwork against U. S. Steel Corporation's railroad, the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern at Chicago, and the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, Pittsburgh.

C. Of C. Offers Life Membership Awards

Life memberships in the Midland Chamber of Commerce will be awarded those Midlanders who bring 100 new members into the organization, it was voted by C. of C. directors at their Monday night meeting.

It was pointed out that at least one Midland man—C. E. (Bud) Bissell—already is eligible to receive the award. He has obtained more than 250 new memberships within the last three years.

The field is wide open to all contestants.

UN Soldiers Hold Or Gain At All Points

TOKYO—(AP)—American troops and tanks wiped out a threatening Red Korean roadblock 10 miles north of Taegu Tuesday. Their mates took three commanding hills to block the coastal gateways to Pusan port in the South.

The Reds' behind-the-lines roadblock near Taegu had choked off all Allied supplies from Taegu for two hours and threatened to trap troops of the U. S. 27th "Wolfhound" Infantry Regiment.

General MacArthur's headquarters announced its midnight communique would be omitted as there was no change in the situation.

All along the 120-[illegible] perimeter of the Allied beachhead United Nations troops held firm or advanced.

South Korean Marines, in their third landing within a week deep behind enemy lines, moved into Ejak Island, off Inchon, the west coast port of Seoul. No additional details were given.

Other South Korean Marines, aided by Allied planes, were mopping up enemy forces attempting to land on Koje Island, south of Chinhae, 21 miles northeast of Pusan.

Tuesday's air action was topped by a fleet of 70 B-29's bombing Chongjin with 700 tons of explosives. Chongjin is not far from the Soviet Siberian border.

Three Attacks Repulsed

The Reds had shoved 90,000 men—nine divisions — against the Allied defense line.

For the third straight night the North Koreans tried to push elements of three divisions down the same road to Taegu.

Tanks and men stopped them 12 miles north of the city.

The fighting on the south coastal approaches to Pusan, No. 1 Allied seaport on the southeast tip of the peninsula, roared for the third successive day.

Three times the men of the U. S. 25th Infantry Division beat back the attacking Reds on the blood-stained road.

First, the U. S. 35th Regiment drove a numerically superior North Korean force off a key ridge near Chungam, 35 miles west of Pusan.

Then negro troops of the 24th Regiment recaptured nearby "Battle Mountain" for the fifth time in four days. And the 5th Regimental Combat Team from Hawaii fought its way back to commanding heights of the Sobuk Hills near Tundok, just south of Chungam.

Regain Lost Ground

AP Correspondent Stan Swinton reported from the southern front that the 25th Division regained all the ground lost previously to attacking troops of the Red Korean Sixth Division.

Two Swimmers Set New Time Marks In Mass Channel Race

DOVER, ENGLAND —(AP)— Two Egyptian Army officers and a French swimming champion swam the English Channel Tuesday, two of them in record time.

Plowing through rain and choppy seas in a mass race sponsored by a London newspaper, Hassan Abd-El Rehim, 41, of Egypt, and Roger Le Morvan, 26, of France, broke the 24-year-old record [illegible] 11 hours and five minutes set by another Frenchman, Georges Michel.

Rehim's official time was 10 hours and 53 minutes. Morvan was 10 minutes behind Rehim, finishing the 19-mile course in 11 hours and three minutes. Rehim won 1,000 pounds ($2,800) from the London Daily Mail.

Third to finish was Mareeh Hassan Hamad, 33, also of Egypt. His time was 12 hours and 16 minutes.

Rehim led the field almost from the moment they jumped in at Cap Gris Nez in the darkness. Twelve of the starters dropped out from cold and exhaustion before they reached the half-way mark—among them the only American competitor, David Frank, a 27-year-old New York clothing designer.

The Daily Mail offered 1,000 pounds ($2,800) each to the first man and first woman reaching England's white chalk cliffs. Each other finisher will get 250 pounds.

The Borden Company Monday announced a one-cent-a-quart increase in the price of milk. The firm also will advance payments to producers by 30 cents a hundred pounds.

Identification Expert Employed By Midland Police

The appointment of R. J. Branson, formerly of Grand Prairie, as identification officer for Midland's Department of Public Safety, has been announced by Milan N. Plavsic, safety director.

Branson, a veteran of 20 years' experience in identification work, assumed his duties here Tuesday. He will hold the rank of lieutenant with the department here.

H. W. Runyan, also of Grand Prairie, also has been added to the Midland department. He will be a motorcycle patrolman. He has had wide experience as a police officer.

From Grand Prairie

Branson has been associated with the Grand Prairie Police Department for the last two and one-half years. He is considered an expert in the field of photography and finger printing. A small laboratory will be set up by the department under his direction.

He is a member of the International Identification Association and receives a newsletter from the association monthly.

Police Chief Jack Ellington said the city hopes to set up a complete identification department, with Branson as the head. Identification departments previously have been found only in the larger cities, but the increased transition of underworld personnel from the large cities to smaller ones makes the operation of an identification department necessary.

Vacation Spots Are Suggested For Ragweed Hay Fever Victim

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Some people who suffer from ragweed hay fever plan their vacations during late August and early September with the idea of getting away from the source of their trouble.

Several places on the North American continent have no ragweed or so little that the trouble is lessened greatly. There is practically no ragweed in the Pacific northwest and Northern California, and very little in Southern California, Arizona, and New Mexico. The Rocky Mountains themselves have little ragweed, though ragweed grows well in the plains just east of the mountains. There is practically no ragweed in Southern and Eastern Florida and there is a strip of territory in Western and Northern Maine away from the seacoast which is claimed to have very little ragweed.

Northern Minnesota and upper Michigan have less ragweed than farther south. Many victims of hay fever get a great deal of relief in these areas, though when a strong wind is blowing from the south they often have trouble.

With the exception of the areas which are known to be free of ragweed pollen or have very small amounts in the air, the amount of relief which hay fever sufferers get from resorts is variable. Some people are better off than at home but not completely relieved, and others seem to have just about as much trouble, probably because they are sensitive to very small quantities of pollen.

Many Are Helped

According to pollen studies cities with no ragweed in the air or very small amounts include Sacramento, Miami, Reno, Portland (Oregon), Seattle, Spokane, Prince Albert (Saskatchewan), and Mexico City.

Favorable claims are also made for such places as Mackinac Island, Marquette and Charlevoix in Michigan; Bethlehem, Bretton Woods and Dixville Notch in New Hampshire; Campobello Island in New Brunswick, Canada, Minaki Lodge, Port Arthur, and Haliburton County, Ontario, and Murray Bay, Quebec.

Most of these places have their enthusiasts but others who have tried them have not always found relief. It is safe to say, however, that hundreds of thousands of hay fever victims are helped each year by getting out of the worst ragweed belts.

THE RETREAT AWAY FROM PEOPLE

The Kingdom of God is among you! We saw that there were five ways in which men try to get along with others. We have considered the first—the method of trying to dominate others. That breaks down the relationships. The second: Some try to live aloof from others. This is the opposite swing of the pendulum—if we cannot dominate others, then we will live aloof from others.

What happens to one who tries this attitude? Can he cut human relationships, retreat into his own shell, without affecting his own being? Not at all. Such a person deteriorates. If he cannot have a world of real human relationships he builds up a world of false relationships—he fills his mind with phantasies and day-dreaming of superior personal grandeur; he is a superior type, hence remains aloof from the common herd. Or he looks on himself as inferior and justifies his retreat, on the grounds that he is not worthy to get into relationships with others. In either case the recessive individual hurts his own mental and moral nature. Man is made inherently for relationships with others, and any attempt to live apart brings inherent penalties.

You break the law of love just as much by receding from people as you do by trying to dominate them. You can no more cut yourself off from people and live fully than a brain can cut off relationships with the heart and live. All life is bound up in a bundle of life, and one person cannot be separate without disruption. That is why a lonely recluse is queer, off balance. He is trying to live against the Kingdom of God, which is a Kingdom of loving relationships.

To try to recede from people in order to protect oneself morally and spiritually from temptation is also false strategy. I find more temptations when I am alone than when I am with people. People can help us to be at our best by their expectancy.

If receding from people will not work, neither will the third attitude of being indifferent to them produce any other result. These methods end in self-frustration and a breakdown of relationships.

Gracious Father, Thou has set us within Thy family, and we would not run away from others. Teach us to enter into loving relationships with one another and to help and be helped in the interplay of life on life. For Thou dost meet us in others. Help us to see Thee in them. Amen.

Korean Reds Will Pose Problem

We still are struggling to hold a sizeable beachhead in Korea. Though our military leaders are confident we can stay on the peninsula, there's admittedly a serious risk to our positions.

Yet even if we should be thrown into the sea, we would come back to smash the Soviet-directed aggression of the North Koreans. So it's fair to ask at this critical period: How far should the aggressors be pushed back?

All our original plans called for driving them only to the 38th parallel, the artificial boundary established in Korea by U. S. and Russian occupying forces at the end of World War II.

Since then high officials both in the U. S. and the United Nations have been wondering whether that will be enough. No decision whether to go farther has been reached and probably none will be until the necessity for it is greater.

• • •

Suppose we decide in the end it is still wisest to halt at the 38th parallel. This will leave the North Koreans with a staging base from which to mount a new attack southward when their Russian masters again should consider the moment suitable.

To be sure, if we give the northerners a thorough pummeling in pushing them that far, their strength will certainly be badly depleted for a long time. We already are pounding their industry and transportation heavily.

But the enemy might succeed in saving fair amounts of material and pulling back substantial remnants of his forces—all this to serve as the nucleus for a new invading army at a later time.

One way to meet that prospect, of course, would be to occupy South Korea for an indefinite period. But this obviously could be no more than a tentative solution of the Korean problem.

Korea should be unified. The United Nations tried to achieve unity and failed because Russia would not allow it. There is no reason to believe she ever will so long as she controls the northern area. Except, of course, on her own terms.

The UN now recognizes the South Korean government as the legal government of all Korea. That being so, the legal foundation exists for crushing the puppet North Koreans completely and occupying the whole peninsula with American and UN military forces.

If peace and unity ever are to be brought to that country, it can only be through the permanent wiping out of the invasion threat from North Korea. Anything less than that means an armed truce between South and North which could be broken at the will of the proved aggressors.

Should the U. S. and UN decision be to continue fighting north of the 38th parallel, the move must have full UN sanction. It can't be an American effort, but must be a world attempt to restore lasting quiet to a trouble spot.

One might argue that a drive over the 38th parallel involves risk of general war. The answer to that is: no more than does the present action. If Russia wants war, we shall have it. If she does not, plunging into North Korea will not produce it.

In Less Than A Century

A short time ago a dramatic new exhibit was opened to the public in the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago. It shows, with a skillful blending of science and artistry, the story of petroleum. The formation of oil, the geological structure of an oil field, methods of drilling, and current progress in refining and transporting methods are explained by working models, animated dioramas, symbolic displays and sweeping murals.

The raw material which makes the oil industry possible was created millions of years ago by Nature. But the industry itself is only 91 years old. When the famous Drake well was drilled in Pennsylvania—in the face of the scoffing of skeptics—a great and beneficial revolution was born. The progress that has been made in so short a time is next to unbelievable. In Drake's time, a rig could drill one foot a day and the maximum depth reached was 69 feet. Now a modern rig can drill a thousand feet a day, and some deep wells exceed 14,000 feet. In the beginning the oil industry produced a handful of products. Now it produces thousands, some of which the consumer never associates with petroleum at all.

No one can begin to measure the contribution which oil has made to the public welfare, to our living standards, to the growth of our economy, and to the security of the nation. And it all was done in less than a century.

Too many couples share their joys and sorrows by him taking the joys and her the sorrows.

"We almost made that hand, partner," said Hard Luck Joe.

"You almost played it right," North replied.

"Curiously enough, I'd have made the hand if I had been a little more unlucky!" continued Joe, ignoring his partner's interruption. "If all the trumps had been in one hand, I'd have been able to continue the cross-ruff."

Joe was right, but so was his partner. Joe would have made his contract if he had played it correctly.

West opened the king of hearts, and dummy ruffed. Joe immediately embarked on a cross-ruff after cashing dummy's ace of clubs. He ruffed a low club with the seven of spades and ruffed another heart with dummy's three of spades. He then ruffed another club with the eight of spades, and ruffed his last heart with dummy's five of spades.

At this point it was clearly evident to Joe that the cross-ruff could not be continued forever. In order to set the stage for another ruff in dummy, Joe led a diamond from the dummy and finessed the jack from his own hand.

West won with the king of diamonds and returned his singleton trump. If West had not held a trump to return, Joe would have been able to ruff another diamond in dummy and therefore would have made his contract. This is what Joe meant when he said that he was not unlucky enough.

When West returned his singleton trump, dummy played the queen, East covered with the king, and South won with the ace. By this time, South had already taken eight tricks but he could win only one more.

When he hopefully laid down the ace and a low diamond, East took the queen of diamonds, cashed the jack of spades, and returned his low heart. Joe could make only his last trump.

Joe should have realized from the very start that he would have to tackle the diamonds eventually and that the opponents would probably lead trumps immediately. That being the case, it was essential to try for two diamond tricks in high cards.

The correct play was to lead a diamond from the dummy at the second trick. South finesses the jack, and West wins with the king. When West returns a trump, South wins in his own hand, ruffs a heart in dummy and then finesses the ten of diamonds. When this finesse succeeds, South can cash the ace of diamonds and continue the cross-ruff.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1950, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Tom McNamara and Fred Blumenthal say: Panama Canal defenses dangerously weak; Government Printing Office eavesdrops on phone calls; Truman plans no supercontrol agency.

(Ed. Note—While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, his column will be written by members of his staff.)

WASHINGTON — Though mysterious subs have been reported in Panamanian waters since the Korean fighting, our vital Panama Canal defenses have been dangerously neglected.

It is no secret in Panama, for example, that we don't have a single fighter plane in the area. When an unidentified sub was reported lurking off the Canal Zone recently, the Navy was caught without even a scout plane and had to appeal to the Air Force for help. All the Air Force could get into the air was one lone SB-17, which scouted the waters but found nothing.

Our military bases in Panama also are supposed to be on wartime alert. Yet, one month after the Korean invasion, a private plane drifted in for an emergency landing at Howard Field, a key base now run by the Army. The pilot, Enrique Kochman of Panama City, tinkered around with his instrument panel, then took off again without anyone so much as noticing him. This happened on a Sunday, a favorite day for surprise attacks.

Though Kochman reported what he had done, another private pilot, Lawrence Breece, pulled virtually the same stunt the following Sunday. He was forced down on Howard Field, also without attracting any attention. In fact, he had to spend 15 minutes hunting a sentry to report his trouble. Fortunately for Howard Field, these were peaceful private planes and not enemy bombers.

Note — A Pentagon spokesman explained that the Panama Canal has had low priority, because the needs have been more urgent elsewhere. The Joint Chiefs of Staff believe the greatest danger in Panama is sabotage, therefore, a large, well-trained ground force is guarding the canal. Meanwhile, planes and equipment are being readied for Panama as fast as they can be spared.

GPO Eavesdrops

Just down the street from the Senate hearing on wire-tapping, the Government Printing Office for years has been eavesdropping on the telephone conversations of businessmen.

GPO telephone operators have been ordered to plug into a central dictaphone machine out out of every three long-distance calls. At first, this was done without the knowledge of either party on the line. However, a new recording system with "bleep signals" now has been installed. By listening for the bleep tones, the contractors can tell whether their conversations are being recorded.

The original purpose of this telephone eavesdropping was to keep government employes on their toes, since they never knew when their calls were being recorded. However, the telephone transcripts sometimes were used to check up on the contractors.

At one time, the chief GPO telephone operator was so disturbed about the secret recordings that she called the Federal Communications Commission about it. She was advised to discontinue listening in on calls. However, the addition of the "bleep" signals now has legalized the eavesdropping.

No "Super Agency"

President Truman does not plan to create a "super agency" to administer wartime controls and allocations. He made this clear last week at a secret meeting with government agency chiefs.

"I have no intention of superimposing an emergency board on you," Truman assured Federal Communications Chairman Wayne Coy, General Services Boss Jess Larson and other top agency heads. "A super agency, set up to run the whole show, would have a demoralizing effect and do more harm than good.

"Also, it would be a waste of time and money, in my opinion," the President added. "I'm looking forward to each of you to deliver the goods in your own field. If everyone does his part, we'll get along all right."

Note — The meeting was part of a presidential plan to build what top advisers call a "war team" of agency heads, as well as Cabinet members and the President's own staff—all pulling together.

No. 1 Authority

Secretary of Defense Johnson is supposed to be the nation's No. 1 authority on military preparedness. However, his own statements are the best proof that he isn't. Here are some notable examples:

Last April, Johnson stated: "We in the Defense Department know—and I say we know—that Russia does not plan to conquer the United States by force or war." He foresaw no danger of war for at least 10 years, Johnson said.

On June 29, 1949, the Defense chief predicted: "Within a few short years, we may witness the end of this era of atomic secrecy . . . signaled by the explosion of some other nation's bombs." Russia exploded her first atomic bomb not a few short years but a few short weeks later—in August, 1949.

Again, on Feb. 2, 1950, Johnson boasted: "If the Soviet Union starts something at 4 a.m., the fighting power of the United States will be on the job at 5 a.m." Ironically, the Korean invasion began precisely at "four o'clock in the morning, Korean time," as President Truman himself announced to Congress.

Even the Korean war didn't seem to sharpen Johnson's military foresight. On June 28, he announced: "It is not contemplated to call the reserve components to active duty in the foreseeable future." Nine days later, President Truman not only called the reserve, but also invoked the draft.

Note — In contrast to Johnson's shortsightedness, GOP Congressman Dewey Short of Missouri declared after a tour of the Far East four years ago: "Korea is a danger spot. The minute we move out we know the Russians will take over. They have the same program in Korea as in the rest of the world."

Washington Pipeline

Pet diversion of the President's is poking fun at the eloquent neckties of his secretary, Matt Connelly . . . Contrary to rumors, presidential assistant John R. Steelman and Stu Symington, boss of the National Security Resources Board, are close friends on and off the job . . . In the last two months the cost of living has increased more than it did during the last two years of World War II . . . The Council of Economic Advisers, charged with keeping the entire U. S. economy on its feet, employs only 36 people and operates on a budget under $300,000 . . . The Bureau of Standards' latest automatic computer can make 16,000 additions and 2,500 multiplications per second, without an error.

PETER EDSON'S Washington News Notebook

Paying For Defense By Taxation Urged As Smaller Inflation Threat

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Tax expert Roy Blough, newest member of President Truman's Council of Economic Advisers, says that a war economy stabilized by taxation presents a smaller threat to inflation than a war economy stabilized by direct controls. Speaking before an Indiana University group, Blough thus may have revealed the thinking behind President Truman's new lack of enthusiasm for stand-by controls over rationing, prices and wages.

"Paying (for defense) through taxation may seem to increase the burden, but it does not," says Blough. On the other side of the argument he says, "Direct controls are difficult to impose fairly. They are likely to lead to evasion. They do not get to the heart of the trouble and may merely postpone inflation. . . . They are likely to hamper economic growth. . . . Taxation and other fiscal means should therefore be used first, with various kinds of direct controls being employed only as they are required."

Oh, Pshaw!

W. Averell Harriman, President Truman's new special assistant on foreign relations, is sometimes kidded about having been named by movie star Madeline Carroll as one of the world's 10 handsomest men. Ambassador Harriman just laughs it off. One of the other men on the list was George Bernard Shaw.

State Jumps On Defense

Department of State and Department of Defense are now at loggerheads over release of information on Russian participation in the Korean war. When an Army briefing officer recently gave out an intelligence report that there were two or three Russian officers operating right down to battalion headquarters in every Korean division, a State Department official complained bitterly. What State apparently wants to do is release all such information through Ambassador Warren Austin, at United Nations Security Council. In that way, this intelligence has maximum propaganda effect on the Russians.

UMT With No KP

New Universal Military Training bill just introduced in Congress represents a compromise proposal on schedule for trainees. American Legion, which has been most active in pushing UMT, originally wanted three periods of four months each for the year's training. First four months would be for selection, induction, transportation of boys to camp, issuance of equipment, physical training and getting the trainees housebroken to Army life. Second four months would be basic military training up to platoon or company maneuvers. Third four months or its equivalent would be spent in reserves, National Guard or extended training.

Department of Defense has held out for two six-months' periods, and bill sent to Congress provides for this schedule. First six months would be divided into three months for transportation and induction of trainees, then three months of basic training. Second period would be six months or equivalent in reserves.

Legion claims its original plan would be more economical as the 800,000 young men trained each year would be divided into three groups and require fewer instructors and service troops.

Trainees won't be required to do kitchen police or menial Army tasks under either plan. They'd be treated more like students in school, so as to give maximum time to military instruction.

Small Division

Korean communiques and mobilization orders have focused attention on what the Army calls a "regimental combat team." The regular infantry division is built on three regiments of 3,000 men each, plus special weapons and service troops. The regimental combat team is a small division or task force, more or less complete in itself. There is no standard organization, but a regimental combat team may have as many as 5,000 men. In addition to the 3,000 regular infantry troops, there may be assigned to it companies or battalions of engineers, anti-aircraft or heavy artillery, tanks, flame throwers or whatever else may be considered necessary for its special mission.

Just A Suggestion

Washington landlords report that the local police are conducting a quiet campaign to squeeze sex deviates out of the city by making it difficult to get apartments and rooms. The police approach an apartment house manager and show him a list of the known deviates living in his building. There's no order or advice to get them out, but the implied pressure is there.

Before The Ink's Dry

Ben Stong of National Farmers' Union tells the story of a farmer, driving briskly along a country road. He stopped to pick up a government worker, and gave him a lift into town. Pretty soon they came on a turtle, wadding laboriously across the road. The farmer chuckled. "Reminds me of a government worker," he said, "loafing on the job." Then a rabbit jumped ou of the bushes and dashed across the road. This time the government worker chuckled. "That rabbit reminds me," he said, "of a farmer driving to town to cash his government price support check."

Unreliable Source

United States now is practically independent of Russian supplies of manganese ores for making high-grade steel. In 1948, more than 34 per cent of U. S. supplies came from Russia. Last year only five per cent of U. S. supplies came from Russia, though total U. S. imports were 250,000 tons greater. Increased supplies came from new mines in the Gold Coast and Union of South Africa.

Farm Prices Supports

Congress already has held extensive hearings on price support program, and at the end of June, Commodity Credit Corporation lending authority was increased by $2,000,000,000, to a total of $6,750,000,000. This additional appropriation was considered necessary to keep farm prices from falling too low. But now the farm price support program is more or less academic. All farm prices are expected to stay well above support levels, and little of the $2,000,000,000 may be needed.

We had gone about half a mile when two tires were flat. This is 96 words. the other 404 are what Pa said when he was fixing the tires."

COPR. 1950 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: "Doc" Fortson, village pharmacist, might be called busy, but it's because he likes people. He especially likes Betsy Sharpe, his cashier, but Betsy is deeply in love with Roger Blessen, the postman. Roger became a postman only recently and Doc has just observed, during an incident at his drug store, that Roger is afraid of dogs.

• • •

II

NOBODY likes to be bitten by a dog, but Roger Blessen's actions were far more disturbing than the bite called for.

My cashier Betsy Sharpe looked at me with eyes full of tears. She and Roger were engaged. Roger once had been a math teacher at the high school, but after he received a crack on his head in a car wreck he became a mail carrier. It wasn't the change of jobs a person would expect, but I always suspected that Roger wasn't fond of teaching.

I finally elbowed out of the uproar at the cash register to ask Tom Carson what I could do for him. With Greta, his seeing-eye dog, he followed me back to the dog remedies counter with another of Doc Doan's pink slips. He stood there rubbing his chin kind of thoughtful while I weighed out calcium phosphate for his Greta. Doc Doan likes to give it to nervous dogs.

I admired the beautiful big shepherd as she stood at Tom's knees.

"Greta certainly touched off a riot, didn't she?" Tom looked down at her as if he could really see her. "Funny thing. Why didn't Ching bite Myra Sharpe instead of Roger? She was making all the fuss."

That reminded me of the book Mrs. Muchmore had me take my nose out of. I told Tom about it. The psychologists say fear has a unique smell and otherwise peaceful animals will attack without cause a person who gives off the scent of fear.

Tom nodded when I had finished like he'd heard all this before. "How did Roger look when he left the store?" he asked. "Make with the four eyes, Doc."

Everybody in town calls me Doc Four Eyes. Most druggists get the Doc part hung on them and the rest of it was on account of my glasses. Or maybe because I'm snoopy. Anyway, with four eyes I don't miss much. I described Roger. "Stiff back," I said, "hands balled into fists . . . a kind of stumbling trot. . . . Yeah, he kept looking back over his shoulder, too."

"A perfect picture of fear," Tom said thoughtfully. "But what is he afraid of? I wonder if that head injury—"

• • •

ON her way to wash off the signs of her tears, Betsy heard this remark. She came back of the screen furiously.

"You can just quit wondering about it! Roger is going to be all right! The doctors said so. Just because Aunt Myra thinks they should have kept him longer at the hospital—"

She stopped and glared at Tom. "Roger's going to be all right," she said, her voice daring us to think anything different.

Tom's eyebrows went up. "Your Aunt Myra thinks Roger isn't quite . . ."

Betsy nodded miserably, forgetting that Tom couldn't see her. It was hard to remember that Tom Carson was blind—hard for everybody in town. Tom had been halfway through medical school when he lost his sight and came home. But he didn't ask for any sympathy about it. With Greta to help him get around, he was establishing an insurance business.

Tom asked another question then. "Did the doctors at the hospital suggest outdoor work for Roger? Is that why he took this postoffice job?"

Betsy's blue eyes grew rounder. "How did you guess? It took me days to get that out of Roger. He won't talk about his injury at all."

Tom smiled a little. "It seems fairly obvious that handling high school kids as active as a popper full of corn would hardly be the job for Roger for a while at least."

"Roger thinks he never will be able to teach again," Betsy said despairingly. "And he won't even talk about when we can get married. I tell him I can keep my job here if he feels like a mailman's salary won't be enough, but he won't make any plans. And dogs! Tom, he's simply going to pieces over dogs!"

• • •

"I NEVER noticed about the dogs before Roger was hurt," Betsy said. "I remember that he didn't much like Prince, Grandfather's old retriever, but neither did I nor Aunt Myra. Prince was so old and cross with everybody except Grandfather it was hard to like him. And then Roger just isn't the kind of person who goes around chucking dogs under the chin. There are plenty of people like that," Betsy wound up defensively. "Normal people, too!"

"Sure," Tom agreed. "Liking dogs has nothing to do with being normal. And the fact that dogs don't like you doesn't make you a villain either. I knew a regular old saint of a minister that any dog handy would take a bite out of. But dogs can certainly make things lively for a postman that doesn't like them. Tempest in a teapot stuff, maybe—no, more like a maelstrom in a mailbag, I guess."

"It is not like a tempest in a teapot," Betsy snapped at him. "And it isn't funny either!" Then the anger died out of her voice. "I suppose it does look funny. Dogs yapping and tearing Roger's pants and chasing him over fences and up trees. He's been bitten three times already. And he's simply going to pieces. You saw how he acted this morning. He's nervous and irritable and he dreads any noise or confusion—"

"Ataxaphobia," Tom diagnosed. I knew that $5 word. It means fear of noise and uproar. I'd seen it in that rental book.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And The Dream Drop

Uncle Bunkum had come for a visit with Daddy Ringtail at the monkey house. Oh, but Uncle Bunkum was excited about a lion he had seen on the way. Uncle Bunkum was afraid of lions.

"Now, now, now," Daddy Ringtail said with a laugh. "That lion was a friendly fellow, I am sure. Sit down here in the chair, because Mugwump has some candy cough drops for us to eat, and one of the drops is a dream drop, we think."

And so Uncle Bunkum sat down in a chair beside Daddy Ringtail and Mugwump. He ate one of the candy cough drops, hoping that he would get the one that was really a dream drop too. But there Daddy Ringtail was fast asleep already, and so was Mugwump. "Hih!" said Uncle Bunkum like a short little laugh. "Hih! You fellows are asleep already, and I guess that I am too."

A slow, heavy knock came a-knocking on the door outside. "It must be a knock I am hearing in my dream," Uncle Bunkum thought. He got up from his chair and opened the door, all in his dream, he was sure. Yessir, he must be one who had eaten a dream drop, for there in the door he saw a big yellow lion who was holding a flower in his hand.

"Hah!" said Uncle Bunkum. "This is a dream, I'm sure, but you're not going to fool me! You—you—you lion! I don't care if you do have a flower in your hand. You are a dangerous fellow."

And with that, Uncle Bunkum grabbed hold of the lion he thought was a dream. He began to flounce and trounce the lion a-plenty. A chair was turned over. A window was broken. And the lion was flounced and trounced some more. At last, right at the end of the flouncing and trouncing, Uncle Bunkum ran his hand down the mouth of the lion. He caught hold of the lion's tail inside, and gave a jerk. There! That lion was wrong-side out like a sock. Oh, it's hard to believe, I know, but that's the way the story goes, and I only tell it like maybe it happened.

Well, Uncle Bunkum was mighty proud of what he had done to the lion he thought was a dream, except the lion wasn't really a dream at all. Oh no! Wait till I tell you about it tomorrow. Happy waiting, happy day!

Hospital Unveils Plaque In Memory Of Kathy Fiscus

The parents of the girl who fell to her death in a San Marino well were spectators Monday as her sister, Barbara, 10, unveiled a bronze marker reading:

"Kathy Fiscus, Aug. 21, 1945-April 3, 1949, in whose memory eternal vigilance in the field of child safety is hereby dedicated."

Contributions from 20,000 persons were received by the parents and turned over to the hospital, which has $3,732 left after plaque expenses.

Few Folks Here Longer Than Steve Perez; Found A Home In 1900 And Still Remains

Steve has rounded out 50 years of residence here. He reached the 50 mark, August 17, having come here in 1900.

The long-time Midlander was born in Puerta Rica and lived there as a lad. But times were hard and war conditions made it necessary for a large number of inhabitants to leave.

The United States offered passage of people to the Hawaiian Islands, so Steve joined a group.

He did not like the Hawaiian Islands and soon caught a boat to the "promised land". He reached the California coast. He stayed in California only a short time and then drifted east until he reached Midland.

Here he found work with the Texas & Pacific Railroad as a section hand. He says: "Me worka on railroad for 10 cents hour . . . hard work, too."

Midland was then just a village. He marvels at its growth and expansion just as everyone else does.

He knows all the old-timers and has done their yard work at one time or another. He takes great pride in his work and says he is teaching his boys to do the same high-class yard work he always did.

Steve says America means a lot to him. He has known hunger and want in earlier days before he found a home in America, where he could work, eat and be happy.

Primaries In Three States To Nominate 53 House Candidates

By The Associated Press

Primary elections in New York, Wyoming and Mississippi Tuesday pick candidates to square off in the November elections for 53 House seats.

Delaware Democrats gathered in convention to name an opponent for Rep. J. Caleb Bogga, Republican aspirant for reelection.

Of the 54 House of Representatives seats for which a wide field of hopefuls is fighting, 45 are in New York.

Party conventions September 6 and 7 will name New York's candidates for governor and U. S. senator.

Only five New York members of Congress faced opposition for renomination in Tuesday's balloting. They are W. Sterling Cole, Edwin A. Hall, and Clarence E. Kilburn, Republicans, and Joseph L. Pfeifer and Louis B. Heller, Democrats.

Rep. Vito Marcantonio, the only American Laborite in Congress, has no opposition for renomination. But the Democrats, Republicans and Liberty Party are backing former Democratic State Senator James G. Donovan as a coalition candidate to unseat him in the November election.

Hot Races In Wyoming

Wyoming's primary is spiced by hot races for the Republican and Democratic gubernatorial nominations. Rep. Frank A. Barrett, Republican, who is the state's only member of the House, sought the GOP nomination for governor over three challengers. They are State Senator Leeland U. Grieve, Cheyenne grocer Samuel L. Asher and C. D. Williamson, chairman of the Wyoming Commerce and Industry Commission.

Seeking the Democratic nomination for governor are former Rep. John J. McIntyre, State Senator Rudolph Anselmi and Cheyenne accountant Carl Johnson.

Three Republicans and three Democrats seek the nomination for Barrett's House seat.

Reps. Arthur Winstead and John Bell Williams face opposition for renomination to the House in Mississipp's Democratic primary. Democratic nomination is equivalent to election in that state.

Security Council Meets Again With Stalemate Certain

LAKE SUCCESS —(AP)— The Security Council met again Tuesday afternoon for what appeared certain to be its ninth no-progress session of Russian Jakob A. Malik's tenure as president.

Despite his own failure earlier in the month to oust the Chinese Nationalists and seat Communist China Malik was expected to present a similar demand made this week by Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai. Chou, like Russia, also seeks participation of North Korean representatives in the council debate on the Korean war.

Other council members were certain to greet Chou's demand as coldly as they earlier rejected Malik's

Nor was there any progress in the procedural deadlock which has stalled decisive council action.

The council met informally in closed session Monday. Malik, whose one-month tenure as the group's president expires August 31, proposed again that the North Koreans be invited to the public meetings. Other council members—who want only South Korea represented—refused again. The meeting broke up without agreement.

"It was the same old stuff on the same old question," one delegate said.

Don't give up hope without at least giving HADACOL a chance. You owe it to yourself. You owe it to your loved ones. Get that wonderful, wonderful HADACOL feeling!

THE MAN WHO GAVE THE WORLD THE GREAT NEW HADACOL

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc

Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc —great statesman, and humanitarian — has always been a firm believer in helping his fellow men. He was the first candidate for Governor in Louisiana to advocate a specific Old Age Pension. As State Senator he introduced the law that pays a $50.00 monthly Old Age Pension in Louisiana. Senator LeBlanc has been a champion for the cause of the underprivileged. He has been in public life and has served his people faithfully since 1924.

For a long time Senator LeBlanc had been aware that a number of men, women and children (even from the wealthiest families) were suffering untold ailments and sickness because they had deficiencies of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin. And Senator LeBlanc after years of research created HADACOL—the product everyone is talking about — the product that is accomplishing such remarkable results for thousands upon thousands of men, women and kiddies who have such deficiencies.

Just a Few of Thousands of Folks With Such Deficiencies Who Have Been Helped

Mrs. John Geary, 840 Uruline St., New Orleans, La.: "I been sick quite some time with a nervous stomach. I was unable to eat regularly and lots of times I was unable to hold the food on my stomach. Then I heard about HADACOL. After the first few bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now my stomach doesn't trouble me at all."

Mr. John Cox, 1324 Gander St., Springfield, Ohio, a retired gentleman says: "I had nervous indigestion and stomach bloat and gas. After taking HADACOL, I have no more stomach distress and sleep well."

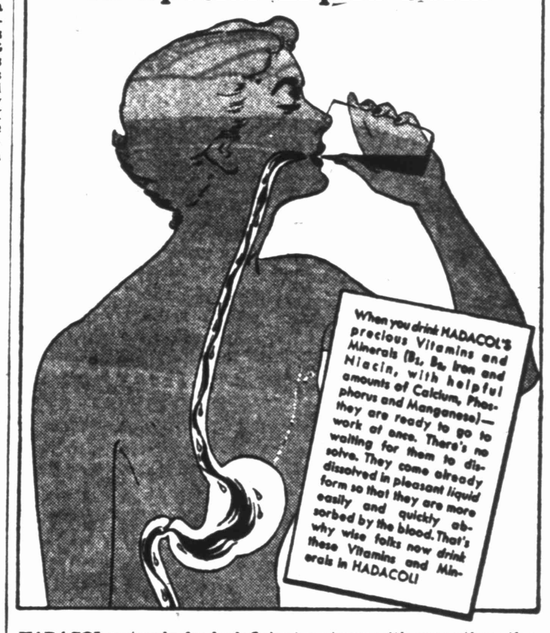

Mrs. Hilton Shaff, Rt. 1, Box 42, Ville Platte, La.: "My son Mark Wendell has been sick from stomach trouble for some time. He could hardly hold anything on his stomach. Then I started giving him HADACOL. He started improving in a short time, and gained weight."

Mr. Link Robinson, steel worker, 519 Lindsey, Newport, Kentucky: "When your stomach is in bad shape as mine was, couldn't eat, gas pains, stomach bloating and nervousness then your body doesn't get the proper food it needs. My boss told me about HADACOL, and I started taking it. After the second bottle I could tell a definite improvement. Now I eat anything."

Why HADACOL Comes In Special Liquid Form

HADACOL not only feeds deficient systems with more than the daily needs of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Iron and Niacin but also precious Calcium, Phosphorus and Manganese — elements so vital to maintain good health.

Vitamins and Minerals to be readily absorbed must be in soluble or emulsion form. That's why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. The fact that HADACOL comes in liquid form makes it easier to digest, makes the Vitamins and Minerals more available, more quickly absorbed and assimilated than when the same essentials are offered in many types of pills or tablets. And the scientific blending of HADACOL's Vitamins and Minerals intensifies HADACOL's effectiveness.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES. THERE IS ONLY ONE TRUE AND GENUINE HADACOL. Trial-size bottle, $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50.

Offset In Crockett Tops Ellenburger

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 2 Clayton Ranch, Southeast Crockett County exploratoin, 4,000 feet northeast of the same concern's No. 1 Clayton, gas and distillate discovery from the Ellenburger, had reached 8,872 feet in the Ellenburger and was to drill to 8,885 feet and run a drillstem test.

This venture entered the Ellenburger at 8,835 feet, which is on a datum of minus 6,347 feet. That made the project 345 feet low on the top of the Ellenburger to the Magnolia No. 1 Clayton.

Interested observers figure that the No. 2 Clayton has 185 feet of Ellenburger section above the water—if the water comes in at the same sub-sea level in this venture as it did in the nearby discovery.

Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 12, block GH, GC&SF survey. It is 10 miles east of Ozona.

Irion Prospect To DST In Ellenburger

Wilshire Oil Company and Balboa Oil Company No. 1-A Brooks, wildcat in Central-East Irion County, was last reported bottomed at 7,330 feet in Ellenburger dolomite, preparing to take a drillstem test.

The proposed test will be at 7,300-30 feet. The section between 7,314 and 7,320 feet was soft, and samples yielded shows of porosity, with oil and gas shows.

No Shows

On a previous drillstem test at 7,259-305 feet, recovery after 30 minutes was 190 feet of drilling mud, with no shows. Shutin bottom hole pressure after 50 minutes was 800 pounds.

This venture is reportedly high on top of the Ellenburger to other ventures drilled in that area.

Skelly Schedules Outpost In Ector

Skelly Oil Company is to start drilling immediately at its No. 1 Katherine Sands, which is to be a Clear Fork exploration in Central Ector County, three-quarters of a mile northwest of the nearest completed Clear Fork producer on the north side of the Lawson-Simpson field.

The Skelly prospector is to be at the center of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 32, block 44, T&P survey, T-1-S. It is to dig to around 5,800 feet.

The nearest producer to the southeast is The Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-O TXL.

Tulsa Concern Stakes Second Test In Lamb

National Associated Petroleum Company of Tulsa has staked another wildcat location in North-Central Lamb County, approximately five miles northwest of its recently proposed site.

The new project will be the No. 1 Ewing Halsell, located 4,166 feet from north and 2,777 feet from west lines of league 237, Dallam County School Land survey. Drillsite is two and one-half miles southwest of Earth.

Slated depth, to test through the Pennsylvanian, is 8,500 feet. Operations are to begin immediately.

National Associated previously was reported to be planning its No. 2 Halsell, located 1,300 feet from north and 755 feet from east lines of labor 2, league 239, Cottle County School Land survey, and three miles southeast of Earth.

Both locations have been filed with the Railroad Commission of Texas office in Midland.

National Associated has a block of 8,023 acres surrounding the two drillsites.

Pennsylvanian Well Completed In Peck

Trebol Oil Company and Rodman and others No. 1-P Peck has been completed for a flowing potential of 840.13 barrels of 43-gravity oil plus 15 per cent water per day through a one-quarter inch choke.

This new producer is two locations west and slightly south of the discovery well of the Sweetie Peck field in Southwest Midland County.

Production was through perforations at 10,408 to 10,414 feet after hole had been plugged back from 13,347 feet to 10,426 feet and treated with 2,000 gallons of acid.

Production is from the Pennsylvanian.

Casing pressure on the test was 150 pounds. Tubing pressure was 425 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 1,475-1. Top of pay is at 10,426 feet.

Exact location of the new well is 660 feet from the north and east lines of the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 20, block 41, T-4-S, T&P survey.

4,000-Foot Wildcat Slated For Runnels

E. S. Price Oils of Ballinger will drill a 4,000-foot rotary wildcat in West-Central Runnels County, seven miles northeast of the town of Ballinger.

It will be his No. 1 R. L. Huddleston, located 780 feet from the north and 1,863 feet from the west lines of section 145, ETRR survey, on a 228.56-acre lease. Elevation is 1,779 feet.

It is southeast of the Kirkham development in the east portion of the Florence pool southeast of the Beddo field.

Southern Minerals of Corpus Christi No. 2 G. F. Allen, dry hole located four and one-half miles west of Ballinger, has been plugged and abandoned at 4,189 feet in lime and shale.

It is an outpost to the West Ballinger pool, where Cities Service No. 1 Allen became a producing north offset to the Kingwood Oil Company discovery.

Ellenburger Wildcat Staked In C-E Coke

Humble Oil & Refining Company has scheduled its No. 1 Noah L. Pruitt as an Ellenburger wildcat, one and one-half miles northeast of Bronte in Central-East Coke County.

Drillsite will be 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 427, block 1-A, H&TC survey.

Operator will begin operations within the next four days.

Seaboard Completes Vealmoor Edge Well

Seaboard Oil Company of Delaware and others have completed the No. 1 E. W. Love, on the southeast edge of the Vealmoor-Canyon field.

The pool addition, immediately south of the Borden-Howard County line, was completed for 452.64 barrels of 46.5-gravity oil and no water daily. Production flowed through a one-fourth inch choke.

Pay was topped at 7,865 feet, and total depth is 7,893 feet. Five and one-half inch casing is set at 7,870 feet.

Casing pressure was 1,025 pounds, and tubing pressure was 1,000 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 960-1.

The No. 1 Love is 560 feet from north and west lines of southwest quarter of section 34, block 32, T-3-N, T&P survey, and three and one-half miles southeast of Vealmoor.

Postmasters Are Permanent Workers CSC Chief Says

WASHINGTON—Harry B. Mitchell, chairman of the United States Civil Service Commission, has called upon the American public to recognize that postmasters are permanent officers under the Civil Service System, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of the law.

Chairman Mitchell's statement was issued as a part of a nationwide campaign launched by the National Association of Postmasters to educate the public as to the true status of postmasters in the Civil Service System. Too many people, the association announced, believe postmasters are temporary political appointees and it is resulting in an incorrect attitude toward the postal service.

In a public statement, Mitchell said: "Every postmaster not only has to qualify for appointment through an examination given by the Civil Service Commission, but he must be among the three top eligibles. Like other federal workers, the postmaster serves without limitation on his term, subject only to the same competent handling of his office as required of all personnel."

Walkout Paralyzes Canadian Railroads

MONTREAL—(AP)—Railway workers in Newfoundland walked off their jobs at 6 a.m. Tuesday, leading the way in a Canada-wide railway strike.

As last-minute negotiations continued throughout the night, a union heard early Tuesday said no settlement had been reached on the demands of 124,000 workers for a 40-hour week and pay increases.

Throughout the nation mail, freight and telegraph services were coming to a standstill.

Truck transport was mobilized for 24-hour-a-day service. Industries prepared for layoffs.

Farming communities and large cities expected no immediate food shortages. But many remote sections faced real hardship.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent's cabinet held an emergency four-hour meeting Monday night and planned another meeting Tuesday. Earlier the government had decided not to intervene unless new developments made it necessary.

The strike was called for 6 a.m., local Standard Time, throughout the country. The Newfoundland workers, striking at 6 a.m. Daylight time, jumped the gun by an hour.

Embargoes on express, freight shipments and all mail but first class and air mail already were in effect. With commercial telegraphers joining the strike, telegrams and cables were not accepted and those on hand at the strike deadline were to be forwarded by special delivery mail.

MAJOR LEAGUES—

Tigers, Yanks Square Off In Crucial Series

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Detroit's pennant-hungry Tigers and New York's defending champions faced one of the big moments of the season Tuesday as they clashed in the opener of an all-important three-game series at Yankee Stadium.

With the pennant possibly riding on each pitch, both managers—Red Rolfe of the Tigers and Casey Stengel of the Yankees—were shooting with the best available.

Stengel nominated Allie Reynolds (10-11), his clutch pitcher, in an effort to get off in front. Rolfe countered with Hal White (4-4), who shut out the Bombers the last time he faced them.

Vic Raschi and Tommy Byrne will follow Reynolds on the hill in subsequent games. If any help is needed, Tom Ferrick and Joe Page will be in the bullpen, well rested and ready for the call.

Rolfe intends to use Art Houtteman, his ace, in the second game. Houtteman already has beaten the Yankees four times. The red-thatched pilot was undecided on his third pitcher, but it is expected he will give Fred Hutchinson the call. Marlin Stuart and Hank Borowy will be available in the fireman's role. Virgil Trucks and Ted Gray are sidelined by arm injuries.

Bengals Gain Notch

The two rivals met two weeks ago in Detroit in a virtual first-place tie. The Tigers proceeded to whip the Yankees three straight and have been enjoying a lead ranging from two-and-a-half to four-and-a-half games ever since. They own a 9-7 season's edge over the champions.

Detroit picked up a half-game on the rest of the field Monday when the Tigers slugged the St. Louis Browns 7-1 in the only activity in the junior circuit. Dizzy Trout, the "comeback kid," posted his seventh straight triumph with a four-hitter. Al Widmar was the loser.

Vic Wertz and Hoot Evers provided more than enough for Trout to rack up his eleventh victory against two defeats. Each slammed a three-run homer. They were No. 25 for Wertz and No. 19 for Evers.

Furious Phils Hold On

Philadelphia's furious Phillies protected their five-and-a-half game lead in the National League, vanquishing the New York Giants 4-0. Curt Simmons, brilliant 21-year-old lefthander, pitched the shut-out. He allowed only four singles, none solid. Three were hit to the outfield. The other was an infield "bleeder."

Larry Jansen was the loser. He permitted 10 hits, including home runs by Willie (25) Jones and Andy (17) Seminick. The other two runs were unearned.

Don Newcombe's slick hurling and a perfectly executed double steal gave the Dodgers a 3-2 victory over the Pirates in Pittsburgh.

Deadlocked at 2-2, the Brooks pulled the winning play in the fifth with runners on first and third, two out and Jackie Robinson at bat. Willie Werle was on the mound when Duke Snider broke for second. Catcher Clyde McCullough whipped to second baseman Danny Murtaugh. Jim Russell broke from third and slid in under Murtaugh's return throw.

The St. Louis Cardinals wrested third place from Boston, defeating the Braves 9-2 in a night game. Tommy Glaviano hit two homers to lead the Cards' attack on three pitchers. Harry Brecheen went the route to register his seventh success against nine losses. Johnny Sain, who failed to get past the fifth inning, was charged with his tenth defeat.

Cincinnati and the Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

Texas League—

Obliging Missions Lose Again To Keep Eagles In Top Four

By The Associated Press

No club ever ran into such a scarcity of base hits as has Dallas in its fight for a spot in the Texas League playoffs. If the Eagles got six solid blows in one game they'd think they were mixed in a slugfest.

In the last five games Dallas has amassed a grand total of 13 hits. They won only one game—that was the night they pounded four safe ones.

The only thing that's keeping the Eagles in fourth place in the league standings is the fact that San Antonio obligingly loses each time Dallas does.

Monday night the Eagles took a 2-0 trimming from Tulsa and managed for only three hits off the slants of Jim Avrea.

San Antonio was losing to Houston 12-5, so the Missions stayed a game and a half back of Dallas.

Quadruple Wedding

Any night now Shreveport can be expected to fall into the league cellar. The hapless Sports are only a half-game out of the dank depths occupied all season by Houston.

Fort Worth won its fifth straight game with 9,817 in the stands. A quadruple wedding contributed materially to the crowd. Don Hoak, Russ Rose, Joe Torpey and John Rutherford of the Cats all were married in pre-game ceremonies. Torpey delighted the missus by getting two hits and batting in a run.

Harry Donabedian drove in both runs in Tulsa's triumph over Dallas.

Charlie Kress slugged two homers and two singles and drove in three runs in pacing the Houston 15-hit attack.

Art Delduca gave Shreveport only three hits in elbowing Beaumont to its victory. The Roughnecks got nine hits and put on athree-run splurge in the third.

Three Clubs Scrap For Second Place

By The Associated Press

There's a whale of a battle going on for second place in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Just a game and a half separates three clubs.

Monday night Pampa beat Lamesa 7-2 while Lubbock was pushing within a game of Lamesa by trouncing Abilene 5-2.

Albuquerque won its ninth game in the last 11 by crushing Amarillo 12-3. It kept the Dukes just a half-game back of Lubbock.

Bob Clodfelter fanned 11 while winning his nineteenth game of the campaign in Lubbock's triumph over Abilene.

Indians Lose 4-2 In Series Opener

The Midland Indians and San Angelo Colts close out their two-game series in San Angelo Tuesday night.
The Indians will return to Midland with the Colts Wednesday for the first of a three-game set at Indian Park.

* * *

SAN ANGELO—Indio Beltran, working himself out of several tight spots, pitched the San Angelo Colts to a 4-2 win over the Midland Indians here Monday night, keeping alive the slim playoff hopes of the Colts.

The defeat further implanted the Indians in sixth place in Longhorn League standings, 13 games away from the first division.

Glenn Patton, who pitched the distance for the Indians, limited the Colts to five hits, but his wildness paid off in runs for the home club.

Beltran yielded seven safeties to the Indians, but he was stingy with his walks and his teammates came through with errorless play in the field.

The Colts cashed in on Patton's wildness in the first stanza when the Indian hurler walked leadoff man Tony Guerrero and gave up a single to Arthur Caballero, moving Guerrero on to third. Ken Kowalik grounded out and Patton gave up successive walks to Bob Crues and Jack Smith, forcing in Guerrero with the game's first run. Patton then struck out Steve Follett, but passed the next batter to score Caballero.

The Indians counted a tally in the fifth on a walk to Kenny Jones and singles by Bob Phillion and Quinton Basco and an outfield fly by Patton. Midland tied the game up in the sixth when Jim Prince doubled home Lou Dawson.

The Colts bounced back in their half of the sixth on two singles and a stolen base, and padded their lead with another run in the eighth.

Traveler's Rutledge Hurls Win

The Traveler's Rusty Rutledge had too much stuff for the Bluejays Monday as he hurled a two-hit, 11-1 victory in the opener of a two-out-of three games playoff series in the Shorthorn Baseball League.

Bluejay leadoff man Gwyn Grisham homered in the bottom of the first inning to prevent a shutout. The only other hit off Rutledge was Bobby Cast's triple in the fourth.

Showing great form, the young hurler struck out 16 of the 19 batters he faced. The only Traveler fielding play of the tilt was on Cast's tingle. He was picked off third base. One Jay walked, but also was retired on the bases.

The brilliant mound victory was aided no little by two home runs from the bat of Wayne Parmley.

The two clubs continue their feud Wednesday.

The fourth-place Bronchos tangle with the league-leading Roughneck nine at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday at Borden Field in the second game of their series. The Bronchos copped the first one, 4-0.

Texas Nine Battles For Sixth Regional Junior Legion Crown

BATON ROUGE, LA. — (AP) — Waxahachie, Texas, and Shreveport battle it out here Tuesday night for the championship of the Sixth Region American Legion junior baseball championship.

Waxahachie won its way into the finals Monday night by defeating Little Rock 18-3.

Shreveport, with no losses, needs but one win to cop the title in the double elimination tourney. Waxahachie, which lost to Little Rock 5-3 Saturday, needs two wins. If two games are needed to decide the title, both will be played Tuesday night.

Subbing For Shorty Shelburne

Bill Little and Larry Buckingham, two former Bulldogs who played freshman football at Wyoming University last year, are through with the Skyline Six School.

Little will report September 1 to Kilgore Junior College. He and Buckingham obtained scholarships at the Kilgore school but Little will have to go by himself. Buckingham has joined the armed services. Both of them are backs.

Two former Class A All-Staters from Monahans also will change schools this Fall. David Pitzer, 1948 all-state tackle, will move from TCU, where he played freshman ball last year, to Texas Western in El Paso. Waldo Young, an All-state halfback on the 1948 Monahans championship team, will report to Tyler Junior College. He was at Texas Tech last year.

—SS—

Class A football teams have swung into Fall training programs and the season openers are only about three weeks off. Shorty Shelburne, Reporter-Telegram sports editor, currently is touring the Permian Basin, visiting the practice fields of eight teams in District 5-A. Shelburne left Monday and was to return late Tuesday. He was to make stops at Kermit, Andrews, Wink, Monahans, Pecos, Fort Stockton, Crane and McCamey.

—SS—

The double-A clubs will begin their Fall workouts September 1. Head Coach Tugboat Jones of the Midland Bulldogs will start laying the groundwork Wednesday.

Believing coaches should be able to "practice what they preach," Tugboat will assemble all his coaching lieutenants Wednesday and begin training sessions for the mentors. Getting rid of excess poundage and a general toughening-up on the part of the coaches should sound a warning to the football-playing youngsters that plenty of the same will be in store for them beginning September 1.

—SS—

The Fort Worth Cats, who for more than half the 1950 season have shown the other seven clubs in the Texas League nothing but their claw prints, currently are having to go all out to retain their first-place spot in the league standings. Rogers Hornsby's Beaumont Roughnecks have been breathing down the neck of the Cats for the last several days and came within half a game of taking over the top spot last week.

And all the talk about Beaumont surrendering its franchise for lack of attendance may be subsiding also. The Roughnecks and Houston, the latter one of the best baseball cities in the South, are the only two Texas League clubs to record an increase in attendance over 1949. At that, Beaumont's attendance figures are nothing to brag about for an AA league. But the fact remains that when most clubs are recording huge attendance drops, the Roughnecks are gaining.

Shreveport registered the biggest decline in attendance this year, falling more than 76,000 short at the three - quarter mark. Dallas, Fort Worth, Tulsa, San Antonio and Oklahoma City all are experiencing smaller crowds. Dallas is off the 1949 pace by more than 60,000, and the figures this year include the 50,000-plus opening night game, played in the Cotton Bowl.

—SS—

We can't conceive the idea of Doak Walker, SMU's All-American back, and Notre Dame's great end, Leon Hart, another All-American, getting "balled up" in a football game. But the word from the Detroit Lion — Pittsburgh Steeler exhibition game, played last Saturday night, says the two actually were befuddled.

The Steelers won the game, 17-14. The "baffled" Doaker kicked two extra points for the losers.

Rotary Wins 14-6; ST Tips Rendezvous

By DAVID DICKINSON

Base hits came cheap Monday night at Wadley Park as the Rotary Engineers whipped Shell 14-6 and Standard of Texas edged out the Rendezvous 13-12 in the JayCee-sponsored City Major League.

Forty-five bingles were sprayed over the dusty diamond, 11 going for extra bases.

Shell opened strong against Rotary, racking up a 3-0 lead, while the eventual winners gave themselves a collective pat on the back for nabbing last week's Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce Softball Tournament title.

Tom Flournoy plated Bob Moser with a line single in the fourth inning to get the Engineers started. Going into the top of the sixth, Rotary had managed to take a narrow 5-4 lead, then the parade was on.

The first two batters were retired without trouble, but Relief Hurler Barney Hightower beat out a bunt and was doubled to third by Jesse Barber. Dwight (Wild Man) Fleming singled both home and took second on the throw in. Fleming raced to score on Bob Moser's single.

With three runs across, a man on first and two away, Shell starter Will Salmon went to the showers. Successor Burt David's first pitch was rocketed out over the left fielder for an easy two-run homer for Lefty Martin. From then on the game was strictly no contest, although Bill's Joe Chappell smashed his eighth round-tripper.

Sherrod Cleans Sacks

Standard jumped on Don Bizzell for six runs in the first inning. Bob Evans and Benny Stanley drew walks to open the tilt and Harold Sherrod cleaned the bags with a homer down the left field line. Art Dimney then flew out, but Milt (Daddy) Montgomery singled. He was chased home by Herschel Carver's circuit master. John Cooper later scored on an error.

Rendezvous rallied to the cause in the last of the third, counting nine runs on four hits, three errors, two walks and a hit batsman. Big blow of the surge was Art Grove's two-run single.

Outfielder Cooper and Montgomery homered and Standard carried a 13-10 margin into the bottom of the seventh frame.

With Montgomery on the mound, Rendezvous' first two batters were retired. Johnny McDonald singled and took second on an outfield error. A wild pitch put him on third and Grove walked and took second without a play. Both scored on an error on Odell Cook's hard grounder. Pitcher Sammy Horn came to bat with the tying run on second, but he went down on three swinging strikes.

It's Time for Brooks
BECAUSE

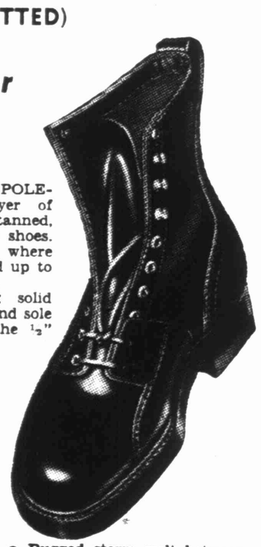

Something must be done now about the runaway cost of our State Government—a cost which had increased more than 500 percent in the period between 1935 and 1950. Aside from the cost of World War II, the cost of the Federal government did not increase that much during the same period.

With the State plunging wildly towards a financial crisis, the Lt. Governorship is a business rather than a political office. It needs a business man with a business viewpoint.

C. Of C. To Assist Bulldog Boosters In Season Ticket Sale

Chamber of Commerce support of a plan to sell every available season ticket to home football games here this Fall before the opening game next month was approved by directors of the organization at their Monday night meeting in Hotel Scharbauer.

J. M. Cox, chairman of the Chamber's Sports and Recreation Committee, outlined the ticket sale program, which was mapped at a meeting of his committee Monday afternoon. He said his group will work with the Bulldog Booster Club in sponsoring and promoting the movement, which is designed to fill Midland Memorial Stadium for each home game of the Midland High School Bulldogs.

Public Sale

Cox said the season tickets (five games) are priced at $6 each. A public sale will be conducted September 1 and 2, after which teams of volunteer workers will contact oil companies and business firms in an effort to dispose of the remaining dueats. Business concerns will be asked for the first time to purchase tickets for distribution to customers, employes or as they see fit.

Robert L. Wood, C. of C. president, urged full support of the program. He said the team needs citizen support and the best way to support the vastly improved Bulldog team of 1950 is to fill the stadium for all games.

The directors also endorsed the cooperative football broadcast program being sponsored by the chamber's Retailers Committee.

The sandstorm halted Roswell's game with Sweetwater in the first inning with Sweetwater leading 2-0.

Meanwhile, Odessa, the front-running club, widened its lead to six games over Roswell by downing Vernon 9-4. The Oilers got eight runs in the seventh inning on four hits and four walks. Les Palmer hit a homer with the bases full.

San Angelo beat Midland 4-2 with Wayne Wallace singling in the winning tally in the sixth. It was the first time in five games San Angelo didn't have to go extra innings.

Yankee Davis Cup Stock Dips After Anzacs Win Doubles

BROOKLINE, MASS. —(AP)—Students of tennis agreed Tuesday the U. S. Davis Cup team's grip on that international trophy was dangerously loose after analyzing the National Doubles final match.

The concensus was that Jack Bromwich and Frank Sedgman, the backbone of Australia's challenging forces, had a comparatively easy time defeating Gardnar Mulloy and Bill Talbert 7-5, 8-6, 3-6, 6-1 Monday at Longwood.

At 36 and 32 respectively, Mulloy and Talbert, virtually certain to play Davis Cup doubles at Forest Hills, N. Y., late this week, have won the national doubles four times since 1942.

But it was obvious they have slowed down considerably during the past year or so. Conversely, Bromwich, who shared the national team titles with Australian teammates Billy Sidwell and Adrian Quist last year and in 1939, seldom appeared in better form.

Young Sedgman, holder of his nation's singles championship, is verging on world-wide stardom and is expected to be outstanding in Davis Cup singles competition.

The Australian victors displayed almost every department of their games equally well while humbling Mulloy and Talbert. The former succeeded in dominating the play in all but one of the four sets and their attacking tactics were exceptionally sound.

The American veterans reached their peak during the third set, when they succeeded in gaining command at the net. But then they wilted without warning and were blasted off the court.

Cowboys Win Again In Semi-Pro Tourney

WICHITA, KAN. —(AP)— The National Baseball Congress steps up its semi-pro tournament to five games Tuesday with two more teams scheduled for elimination.

Two of the stronger contenders for the title here and a trip to Japan and the Tokyo series next month, Barksdale, La., Air Force Base and the Quantico, Va., Marines, will meet in the feature game at 10 p.m.

Woodstock, the Vermont champion, was eliminated by El Dorado, Ark., 3 to 2 Monday night. El Dorado lost its first game opening night 1-0 to the Quantico Marines.

In other games Monday night, the Alpine, Texas Cowboys defeated the Hartford, Conn., Standards 10-2, and the Elk City, Okla., Elks advanced to the third round unbeaten 5-4 over South Amboy, N. J.

The Hattiesburg, Miss., Comets meet Alpine at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

National Amateur Enters Round Two

MINNEAPOLIS —(AP)— Several favorites already were sidelined and more were expected to follow Tuesday as the National Amateur Golf Tournament wheeled through its second round, to leave 64 survivors by nightfall. Tuesday's dawn-to-dusk activity presents 64 matches, topped by an exceptionally attractive one—Frank Stranahan vs. Jim McHale.

Stranahan, of Toledo, never has exchanged shots with McHale.

McHale, Walker Cup player from Philadelphia, never has won the National. It is the fifth crack for Stranahan, who, too, has been unlucky.

Defendin,, Champion Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City was impressive in his 5 and 4 victory over Tom Jamison, Jr., of Greensburg, Pa.

Officer Uses Plane To Spot Horse Thief

FORT STOCKTON —(AP)— A man is being held here on a charge of theft—more or less as a result of progress.

A young fellow stole a horse and saddle last week and headed west. Deputy Sheriff Casey Farrington of Balmorhea, 57 miles west of here in the Davis Mountains, was notified. He hitched a ride on a private airplane and spotted the thief four and a half miles west of Balmorhea.

Farrington returned to the Balmorhea airport, transferred to an automobile and overtook the man and horse to make the arrest.

relations between residents of rural and urban areas.

Roy Parks said a fair is not practical here since this is not a highly productive farm area. Other suggestions were offered before it was decided to ask the County Fair Committee to study the matter further and to take such steps as it deems necessary concerning the annual Fall celebration.

City and county bond issue proposals for municipal improvements were discussed, and directors favored an all-out effort by the Chamber of Commerce to assure a large and representative vote at the elections to be held September 9. The directors previously had endorsed the proposed issues.

Dick Hinkle told of attending a recent meeting of the U. S. Highway 80 Association in El Paso, when it was determined to institute a nation-wide program to advertise and promote travel on the year-round, all-weather, coast-to-coast highway. He termed the work of the association vital to all residents of Midland and other cities located on U. S. 80, and recommended support of the program. Manager Delbert Downing also attended the El Paso convention.

Directors authorized the Chamber's Tourist Committee to sponsor a U. S. 80 Association membership drive here. Memberships are $10 a year.

Stanley M. Erskine, chairman of the Aeronautics Committee, reported on the Civil Aeronautics Board hearing which he and Downing attended in Washington, D. C., recently.

Airline Services

Following a discussion of airline service here, Erskine's committee was asked to study recommendations concerning the proposed expanding of airline services to and from Midland.

Plans were completed for the staging of the annual C. of C.-sponsored barbecue honoring public school teachers and their families at Cole Park, September 1. All Chamber of Commerce members are urged to attend the event, which will be a special feature of "Get Acquainted Week" here. The Chamber's Education Committee is in charge of arrangements.

The directors endorsed a proposal of the Education Committee that the Chamber work with other groups in providing the school system with a audometer which would be used to check the hearing of public school students.

J. M. Cox and B. G. Grafa were announced as winners of the recent guessing contest among directors.

Urgent Need Recognized

Officials of the Odessa Chamber of Commerce and of Ector County sponsored the highway widening program in Ector County.

The proposed program was submitted to the Texas Highway Commission in 1948, with money for the project being earmarked by the commission later that year. The commission members recognized quickly the urgent need for widening the 20-mile stretch, which had developed into one of the most difficult and dangerous bottlenecks in the Texas highway system. Full cooperation was given and traffic counts, studies and construction planning were started early in 1949. Plans and specifications were completed months ago. Bids were invited early this Summer.

Chamber of Commerce officials, elated over the news that the highway construction job is to be started promptly, expressed appreciation to the highway commission and to others who have cooperated in the successful program to obtain adequate highway facilities between Midland and Odessa.

Midland Shriners Attend Meeting

Six Midland Shriners attended a business meeting of Suez Temple Monday night in San Angelo. They were J. M. McDonald, H. N. Phillips, Lester Short, C. T. Allen, A. L. Barr and B. W. Stevens.

The six represented the 140 Midland Shriners at the business meeting of the temple, which was presided over by Potentate Raymond Thomason of Abilene.

Representatives from all Central West Texas cities were present, McDonald said. Shriners from as far east as Brownwood, Fort Stockton on the west, El Dorado on the south and Big Spring and Midland attended.

Midland has the largest membership of any city in the area except San Angelo, the home of the temple, McDonald said. The Suez Temple, recently formed, was the eleventh temple in Texas, and the first to be created in 30 years, he said.
