FOURTH WEEK

Junction 'Dark Horse' Tonight

Best to get a couple of things straightened out first, we suppose. It only costs $6 for the lights for one football game instead of $30 as was reported last week. Probably what Mr. Brodhead meant was it costs $30 for lights for all home games this season. Anyhow, we're 100% for football and think the schools are handling it just right. 2. The card tables, borrowed, we like to think, from the Woman's Club, are still missing. If you ladies think the tables have been toted across a state line, you can call in the FBI, but if they don't show up pretty soon we'd call in Jack Mackey or Hillman Brown.

General admission tickets to the Junction-Sonora game tonight will be on sale at the Sonora and Corner Drug Stores until 4 o'clock this afternoon. You'll save some cash by getting a tab before 4 P. M. Movies will be made of the game.

We may be glad to see them and we may be trying to sell them to Junction; time will tell. Anyhow, cost of the film was $42 and Bud Smith raised the amount $2 at a time in less than two hours Tuesday after Lions Club.

We don't wear a hat, but if we did we would doff it to Miss Jewel Pye and the members of her Girls' Athletic Association, who have taken the responsibility of paying for the $1,250 electric scoreboard for the football field. Very commendable, ladies, and might we add that if your business acumen is in proportion to your civic spirit the scoreboard will be paid for in no time at all.

Which brings us down to money. The girls have two ways to raise money and only two—they sell football programs and they run the cakewalk at the annual Halloween Carnival. They are not allowed to solicit additional funds, according to the Student Council, but may accept such funds if they are offered. The girls have $190 in the bank now, and generally make about $500 a year. Bryan Hunt has agreed to accept any voluntary donations.

We know there's a drought and we know business is slow, so we're only suggesting you float in a couple of bucks if you can spare it.

Sonora's lost its only centenarian Friday night when Mrs. Aurora Sanchez died. According to the certificate of death filed with the county clerk Mrs. Sanchez was born July 4, 1830, in Monclova, Coahuila, Mexico, the daughter of Savino De La Cruz and Juanita Espinosa. She and her parents moved to Bracketville when she was two, and she was married there. She and her husband moved to Sonora in 1922 and her husband, Andres Sanchez, died in 1928. She became paralyzed in 1940, but continued to sew until two years ago.

Funeral services were held from St. Ann's Catholic Church Sunday afternoon. She is survived by two daughters, 36 grandchildren, 72 great-grandchildren and 15 great-great-grandchildren.

TAYLOR IN KANSAS

P. J. Taylor is in the Santa Fe General Hospital in Topeka, Kansas for medical treatment. Mrs. Taylor, who accompanied him to Topeka, returned home this week.

Personal Notes

Dr. Charles F. Browne flew to Clayton, New Mexico Tuesday to attend the funeral of M. R. McFadden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eaton and son, Dan, spent last weekend in Fort Worth, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Groom. They also attended the State Fair.

Mrs. Louie Trainer and daughter, Theresa, left Tuesday for Arlington, California, where she plans to spend the next two weeks as guests of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moore attended the races in Del Rio Sunday.

Miss Nettie Word spent the week in Del Rio as the guest of her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Caldwell and daughter, Ann, of San Angelo spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Robert Rees.

Pat Stephenson, Minister of the Church of Christ, and wife are spending this week in Canyon as guests of her mother, Mrs. M. R. Cox.

Attend SOME Church Sunday.

The heavyweight Junction Eagles, last year's district champions and this year's "dark horses" in district play, come to Sonora tonight to give the Broncos their second district test.

Junction, with a weight advantage of about 11 pounds per man, has easily won five straight games this season. Their last victim was Peacock Military Academy of San Antonio, which lost 40-0 last Friday.

Junction features a heavy line and two good backs, Wilson, who has done most of the scoring this season, and Britz, a 134-pound speed merchant. Junction and Sonora have not played a common opponent this year.

The Eagles coach Bob Short is giving this one all he has. He personally scouted the Sonora-Menard game, while his charges defeated Fredericksburg 13-0. Short had two scouts at the Lakeview game last week.

Joe Turner has the Broncos ready for tonight's game although two boys were ill earlier in the week. Football oracles are about divided as to who will emerge winner.

MUSIC CLUB TO PRESENT 'FUN WITH MUSIC'

"Fun With Music", a program with a completely new and fresh approach to music which appeals to children and adults, will be presented Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Elementary auditorium by the Sonora Music Club. Miss Dorothy White, originator of the program, will conduct it here.

"Fun With Music" is a participation program which fully meets the demand for entertainment, while remaining in every respect musically authentic.

Texaco To Drill On McIntosh

The Texas Co. has filed application to drill a 6,900-foot rotary wildcat, its 1-A-P-K, McIntosh, in northern Sutton County, 20 miles northeast of Sonora.

Operations on the test will begin at once.

Location, on an 800-acre tract, is 1,980 feet from the north and east lines of 80-K-GH&SA.

The prospector is 1 3/4 miles south and slightly east of Fullerton Oil Co. 1-P, McIntosh, Schleicher County Strawn gas discovery finalized March 16, 1952, for a daily potential of 13,000,000 cubic feet of gas, spraying distillate at the rate of one barrel hourly. Production was from between 5,730-56 feet in the Strawn, topped at 5,647 feet on elevation of 2,371 feet.

It is also 3 1/4 miles southeast of Ohio 1 McIntosh, Schleicher County wildcat failure, plugged and abandoned March 5, 1951, at 6,930 feet. The Strawn was topped at 6,310 feet and the Ellenburger at 6,600 feet on an elevation of 2,394 feet.

Humble Oil & Refining Co. 1 North Branch Gas Unit, one location south and slightly east of set to the W. M. Lyle 1 G. C. Allison, Sutton County gas-distillate discovery, located 16 miles east-northeast of Sonora, flowed gas on a drill-stem test in the Strawn. On the one-hour test between 5,026-52 feet, using 1 by 1-inch chokes, gas surfaced in three minutes and flowed at the daily rate of 1,173,000 cubic feet. Recovery was 65 feet of gas-cut mud. Tubing pressure was 70 pounds.

Operator cored between 5,052-5,077 feet for a recovery of 25 feet of fractured lime with gas odor.

Operator was preparing to drill-stem test to 5,077 feet.

COLTS DEFEAT EAGLES 21-12 THURSDAY NIGHT

The Sonora Colts, held scoreless by Junction in a 0-0 tie last week, found the range last Thursday night to beat the Eldorado Eagles 21-12. Sonora made 8 first downs to 6 for the visitors.

Standouts for the Colts were Eddie Pearl and Vivian Vasquez, fleet backs, and Kenneth Fuqua and Jim Ray Baker in the line.

Mrs. Lorene Cranfill and Aline Schwiening, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curt Schwiening, underwent emergency appendectomies this week at Hudspeth Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Luckie met their son, R. C. Luckie and family of Eunice, New Mexico, in San Angelo Sunday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stuart and Mrs. J. T. Sellman were in San Angelo Monday on business.

Girls Athletic Association Buys $1,250 Electric Football Scoreboard

The high school Girls' Athletic Association has ordered an electric football scoreboard and expects to have it installed in time for the Mason game here October 30. Miss Jewel Pye, sponsor of the group, said the board was ordered from the American Sporting Goods Company in San Antonio and was being shipped by truck from the factory in Wisconsin.

The association, Miss Pye said, raises funds through sale of football programs and sponsoring the cakewalk at the annual Halloween Carnival formerly sponsored the football banquet each year. When the banquet was changed to a father and son affair, the association needed a new project and decided to take on purchase of a scoreboard. The schools will underwrite the cost and the association will repay the schools.

Officers of the association are

Betsy Ross, president, Lou Ann Adkins, vice-president, June Henderson, secretary-treasurer.

Members are Delores White, Barbara Schwiening, Martha Moore, Rose Alice Turney, Laverne Fields, Priscilla Pfister, Marla Schwiening, Ruth Drennan, Vicki Savell, Elsie Street, Martha Valliant, Cynthia Hall, Neva West, Francisca Mata, Oralia Flores, Estella Guajardo.

Soil Conservation District News

Prepared by Local SCS Personnel
News of Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District

Soil moisture checks, following rainfall varying from two to four inches, were made this week by the Soil Conservation Service. These checks point up the value of grass in getting moisture into the soil.

Deep soils on both the valley and divide country varied considerably depending on the amount of vegetative cover. All bare soils checked revealed a maximum penetration of six inches. Soils with a fair cover of vegetation had moisture penetrations from twenty-four to thirty inches.

Surface crusting of the bare soils prevented moisture from penetrating beyond six inches. These soils present revegetation problem in the district. In order to overcome crusting, cooperators have been pitting these bare soils, breaking open the crust and holding the water until it soaks into the soil. Penetration checks in pitted areas on the Edwin Mayer ranch showed moisture to a depth of thirty-two inches compared to five inches on adjacent bare areas.

Cultivated land planted to oats had penetrations up to thirty inches. Oats were revived and insured continued growth; however more rainfall will be needed this fall if oats are expected to furnish much grazing.

Grass seed harvest has been under way the past two weeks in the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District. Cooperators are making preparations to replace grass lost during the drought.

Highway right-of-way have proved to be the biggest source of grass seed available for harvest. J. C. Luttrell of the State Highway Department has cooperated with ranchmen by not mowing the right-of-way until cooperators have had ample opportunity to harvest seed.

Tom Davis has probably harvested more seed than any other cooperator. Davis made use of a peepard grass seed stripper loaned to the local District by the Soil Conservation Service in harvesting 200 pounds of green sprangle top and silver bluestem seed.

Santon Bundy purchased two hand seed strippers from the District to harvest Tucson sideoats seed planted in abandoned field on the Bundy ranch. Bundy reports that the Tucson strain of sideoats has done better than the native sideoats for the third dry year. Bundy's planting was made in 1950 from seed he obtained from the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District.

How To Reduce The Cost Of Accidents

Ever stop to realize that the accident you were not involved in, costs you money just the same?

You were mightily lucky, at that. Lucky not to have been maimed or killed. But you don't get off scot-free. Every accident costs you money in the form of increased insurance costs.

Automobile insurance rates are determined each year on the basis of the accident experience of the preceding three years. In areas where residents have had accident records, insurance rates are higher.

Strict enforcement of traffic regulations will reduce speeding and reckless driving... primary causes of accidents. But you, yourself have the big responsibility. Drive with care. Remember that traffic regulations are, in fact, safety regulations... obey them. And just as important, keep your car in safe-driving condition—Take it regularly to the dealers who know your make of car best, for a safe-driving check. There's only one way to reduce the cost of accidents... reduce the number of accidents!

LAY LEADER TO SPEAK AT BANQUET MONDAY

Howard Espy this week delivered 945 lambs to Charles Schreiner of Kerrville. The lambs averaged 79 pounds and brought 16 cents per pound.

Bronco Line Play Humbles Chiefs 49-13 Friday

Springing a wide open game packed with reverses, shovel passes, and long forwards, the Sonora Broncos came from behind twice to walk off and leave the hapless Lakeview Chiefs 49-13 Friday night.

The Sonora line and some fancy pass snagging by a "money-player" end named Jim Skinner made a big difference. Ted Bailey Joy, Sonora tackle who received a severe bite on the arm during one pileup, early in the game evidently didn't like the idea and piled up play after play over his position.

The Chiefs started out like they meant business when Eddie Bowser, Lakeview back, broke out for 22 yards and a score early in the game. Sonora came right back and George Wright passed to Jack Johnson, who ran 52 yards to get Sonora back in the game. Wright plunged for the point.

Lakeview put on one more drive, on the next kickoff, and it led to a score with Brooks going over from the 4. The point was good and the Chiefs led 13-7. The big Bronco line evened matters the next time Sonora had the ball by cutting Jody Minnick loose on a 47-yard jaunt through a jeep-sized hole. Minnick went over untouched.

Wright again plunged for the point to make sure, then kicked the next five points after touchdown without a miss. Sonora made its next score later in the second quarter when Wright flipped to the sure-fingered Skinner, who made 26 yards to the one-foot line. On the next play Wright passed to Skinner for the score.

The remainder of the scoring was done by Wright, who pounded through the Chiefs' secondary for 12 yards, Crites, who scooted 25 yards, and Skinner who caught two more scoring passes, the last a tremendous 50 yard heave by Wright, which Skinner took near midfield and outran the Lakeview safety man.

The big change in the Broncos playing noticed by most observers was the even mixture of rock-'em, sock-'em and razzle-dazzle football engineered by Wright and put into action by a line that could move in a hurry and get things done.

Blocking was improved and tackling was as hard as ever.

Sonora	Lakeview

Sonora had the ball 53 plays, Lakeview 64 plays. Sonora did not punt. Lakeview punted twice for 43 yards. Sonora used 23 players.

"Clean Building Seldom Burns," Good Motto For Fire Prevention

Firemen have a saying that "a clean building seldom burns." This means that the majority of fires start in trashpiles, rubbish or stored odds and ends accumulated around the house. Closets, attics and cellars are the main source of home fires and ordinary good housekeeping is the first line of defense against such fires.

Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10, is a good time to check your closet, attic and basement for cast-off articles that would burn easily. They could be curtains, draperies, tablecloths, bedclothes, lamp shades, coats, suits, dresses, wicker and wooden furniture, rags and linoleum.

Although the specialist recommends daily housecleaning to a certain extent, the fall season with emphasis on fire prevention should encourage every family to take special safety precautions. Clean out storage places. You may be surprised how many burnable objects you will be able to remove that are useless to you. If local welfare agencies can't use the garments and objects, get rid of them some other safe means.

Check your wiring system. Many electrically-caused fires happen in homes every day, most of them simply because of carelessness.

Frequently, families will overload circuits by plugging in too many appliances to a single outlet. Worn out cords, wires strung all over the house, under rugs or staples to baseboards and door frames, are all fire hazards. Take a look at your electrical system. Buy new plugs and cords if yours are worn. It is wise to get advice from an electrician if your fuses blow frequently. His advice may prevent a bad fire if the system is dangerously overloaded.

Look over your heating system. Every winter costly fires are started by faulty stoves, furnaces, and other heating devices. Some result from too much soot in chimneys. Others are caused by rusted or cracked pipes and fittings. If your chimney needs it, clean it out. If the pipes and connections are cracked and rusted, replace them.

Train your family not to put magazines, papers, or clothing on radiators or near open fire places or stoves. Keep paper shades away from contact with light bulbs. Remember, such things don't have to touch flame to burn—they will catch fire simply because they are too close to the heat for too long.

Learn about methods of making materials fire resistant. You can't make materials completely fireproof, but you can make many of them fire-resistant by treating or coating with certain chemicals. Some fabrics like drapery and furniture covering are treated at the factory.

One fire resistant solution you can use for rayons and cotton is cheap and easy to use. Just dissolve 9 ounces of borax and 4 ounces of boric acid in a gallon of water. Dip your curtains, draperies and slipcovers in the solution each time the fabrics are washed. Remember, the chemicals just make it a little harder for the fabrics to burn.

Even so called fire proof buildings aren't really fireproof. Some are fire-resistant—which means that the structures themselves will resist fire. But their contents will burn. If the rugs, furniture and draperies in your home or place of business go up in flames, the building will be weakened no matter how strongly it is built.

One last reminder from the specialist. Never use gasoline, benzene, naphtha and similar fluids indoors. When mixed with air, their vapors can be ignited by the spark of a light switch or an electric fan, or the tiny flame of a pilot light. Keep such fluids in tightly closed metal containers outside your home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Still were in Juno, Comstock, Del Rio and Junction over the weekend.

Sherrod and Bates occupied the Cope Opera House this week with the Happy Hour Electric moving picture show. They presented a good line of picture each night and are pleasant gentlemen. They go from Sonora to Rocksprings.

Dr. W. T. Chapman of San Antonio, a dentist formerly of Alabama, is in Sonora. Dr. Chapman is greatly pleased with the mountain air and more and more especially with the people he has met.

A large number of Sonora country people attended the San Angelo Fair. They enjoyed the Fair but were disappointed in not seeing the usual side shows and street carnival. It is probable that a larger crowd will go up to see the circus. Sonora people are not hard to entertain but they want to see something to amuse them.

W. A. Glasscock returned from a business trip to the Pecos country and returning Thursday reported that two heavy rains had fallen in the Big Lake and Granda country on the Orient and that several miles of the Orient road-bed had been washed away. Big Lake now is the terminus of the road and the people in that country are all smiles.

Mrs. L. L. Craddock is attending the State Fair and visiting friends in Dallas. The Dr. told Mrs. Craddock to stay as long as she wished.

Will Nogues of Eldorado was in Sonora visiting his brother Dewitt. Will has sold out in Eldorado and will try his fortunes in Sierra Blanca.

Mrs. Parker and son who are looking after the Ed Fowler lower ranch were trading in Sonora this week.

Modern Art Takes a Licking!

Did you know we had a real artist in town? Yes sir! Handy Jackson was a contributor to the Sculpture Exhibition at the Centerville Fair last week.

His work was streaky pink and curved all around—sort of streamlined. Caused quite a stir. Nobody was sure what it was supposed to represent, but some liked it and thought it was good art. Handy gave me the lowdown: "Why, it was nothing but a piece of cattle salt our cows have been lickin' at for months. I just had it mounted. Fooled a lot of folks—one fellow even wanted to buy it!"

From where I sit, Handy's "modern art" just shows how some people can be led astray. Some even get to be "experts"—especially about the other fellow's business. Whether it's art or music, or a simple thing like choosing, say, beer or milk with a snack, we should live and let live. There's no call for either of us to set ourselves up as a "model" for the other!

Three Factors Will Determine Recovery Time Of Ranges

Three factors of prime importance determine how long overgrazed south and west Texas ranges will take to recover from the drought.

According to A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, research conducted by Leo B. Merrill at the Sonora Experiment Station shows it depends upon the drain of past grazing, the kinds of grasses on the pastures and grazing management after rains. These factors were recently concluded following grass survival tests to determine the effect of three years' severe drought on native grass cover.

After the application of 4 1/2 inches of moisture to designated test plots, grass plants which did not green up after three weeks were considered dead. A check of the plots showed bunch grasses withstood drought conditions much better than other grass types. Side-oats grama suffered only 3 per cent loss while silver bluestem and wright threacorn showed a loss of 15 and 55 per cent, respectively. No loss of little bluestem was observed. Curly mesquite in pure stands suffered 88 per cent loss for all stocking rates.

These tests emphasize that light grazing and deferment must be followed several years if ranges are to recover their former grazing capacity, Walker says. Ranchmen should let the plants make some top growth and increase crown size before they are heavily grazed. This will also deepen the root system, the specialist says.

The goal helping grasslands recuperate should be to have a good cover of the best kind of grass, Walker added.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—Some sort of price support program appears certain for livestock. About the only thing that could prevent this would be a turnabout that resulted in a sharp rise in cattle and other species of meat animals.

Latest straw-in-the-wind: The House Agriculture Committee late last week called on Agricultural Secretary Benson to extend price supports to cattle immediately to prevent "economic disaster" to producers.

Pressure for price supports has been building up steadily despite strong opposition. Recent indications of this trend were a meeting of several hundred at Matador, Texas, where a group was organized and resolutions were passed favoring supports on livestock if they are maintained on other agricultural products.

Latest newspaper poll conducted by the Amarillo Daily News netted a majority of voters in favor of supports.

The proposal outlined by the House Committee was for support at a certain level for "choice" grade cattle. While there are relatively few "choice" grading cattle produced in the Southwest, the reflected strength that would result from encouraging Corn Belt feeders would help prices here.

Secretary Benson has shown no inclination toward support prices for livestock, and in general is dedicated to self-help attitude toward the farm problem. Self-help is increasingly difficult for stockmen.

Most observers feel that when the chips are down the present administration will come with a program of supports, etc., not too much at variance with programs already established. Right now a lot of fat is being trimmed off Department of Agriculture programs.

Along with this fat there are many diehard New Deal and Fair Deal political appointees being forced to resign or be fired.

No doubt about it, the farm program is shaping up as the No. 1 issue in political circles and the next congressional and presidential elections are sure to be decided on that issue.

At Fort Worth Monday the trade on cattle and calves was slow due to the big run. Probably 50% or more of the grown cattle were cows. Prices were weaker, most cows and bulls 50 cent off, and some bidders trying for bigger reductions. Top fat calves were steady, but stocker trade was very narrow again. Good and choice grain fed steers and yearlings were very scarce, selling from $17 to $24, and common and medium grassers drew $9 to $15. Cull yearlings sold down to $17.

Fat cows drew $8.50 to $11, and canners and cutters drew $5 to $8.50, some shells below $5. Bulls

Texas Poultry Business Has Grown To Multimillion Dollar Industry

Recently released figures reveal the economic importance of the poultry industry to Texas. According to John G. McHaney, assistant economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, it takes a lot of eggs to satisfy Texans' appetite for "hen fruit." In fact, he adds, the supply from Texas sources lacks almost three dozen eggs per capita of meeting the demand.

In 1951, 29,210,000 eggs were produced in Texas. The per capita consumption was 397 eggs. Therefore, says McHaney, 259,000,000 eggs had to come from other states to make up the difference. The existing favorable egg-fed price ration, the rapidly increasing population within the state and generally favorable economic conditions over the country as a whole, leads McHaney to believe that egg producers in the state would be justified in further increasing the size of their laying flocks.

Final figures for 1952, he says, show that 21,474,000 hens were on the farms of the state. Figures released on July 1 indicate some reduction in this number while the hen numbers for the nation remained about the same as for a year ago. Gross sales in Texas from eggs in 1951, he says, amounted to $96,871,000.

The Texas broiler industry has grown by leaps and bounds during the past few years and in 1951 grossed $42,343,000 for the state's producers.

Turkey producers in 1951 had gross sales of $18,124,000. Final figures for 1951 show that eggs represented 61.2 per cent of the total gross poultry income for the state; broilers 27.3 per cent and turkeys 11.5 per cent.

It adds up, says McHaney, to a whopping total of $157,338,000. A sizable figure for even the state of Texas.

draw $7 to $11, a few above and below that range.

Good and choice fat calves drew $12.50 to $16, a few heavies to $16.50. Common and medium kinds drew $9 to $12, with culls from $7 to $9. Stocker steer calves drew $10 to $16, one top load $17. Heifer calves drew $14 down. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings sold from $9 to $14.50. A few stocker cows drew $7 to $10.50.

Hog prices tumbled to the lowest point since last Spring (April) and top hogs drew $21.25 to $21.50. Sows held steady at $18 to $29.50. Underweights drew $19 to $21.

The meeting, to be held in the auditorium of the State Department of Health, will open at 10 A. M. on Monday, October 19 and last through the following day.

State Health Officer George W. Cox, long-time champion of Texas' oldsters, promised that operators who attend will hear an outstanding panel of speakers cover the various problems associated with running a nursing home.

Specifically urged to attend are home operators who have been granted a temporary license under terms of the nursing home licensing law passed by the last legislature.

Subjects to be discussed during the 2-day meeting include an interpretation of the licensing law; medical and nursing services in nursing homes; sanitation and building standards; the problems of nutrition among the aged; and general standards, rules and regulations of acceptable operation.

Dr. Cox calls the problem of handling aged citizens "one of the most pressing facing our leaders today."

"These people belong to a generation which time is shoving harshly aside," the health official said. "They deserve something better than to be forgotten."

The State Legislature apparently agrees with that sentiment. During its last session, a mandatory licensing law was enacted for all nursing and convalescent homes.

Designed to raise the standard of care given home residents, the law gives the State Department of Health authority to inspect all homes for health, safety and humane treatment of all residents.

Failure to comply means loss of license, without which the home must close its doors.

Attendance at the October 19 meeting will acquaint home operators with what it expected of them, said Dr. Cox.

SUTTON OFFSET RECOVERS GAS IN STRAWN TEST

Humble Oil & Refining Company 1 North Branch Gas Unit, one-location south and slightly east of offset to W. M. Kyle 1 G. C. Allison, Sutton County Strawn gas-distillate discovery, located 16 miles, eastnortheast of Sonora, flowed gas on a drillstem test in the Strawn.

On the 68-minute drillstem test between 4,943-75 feet, using 1 by 4-8-inch choke, gas surfaced in two minutes and flowed at the rate of 940,000 cubic feet daily. Recovery was 105 feet of drilling mud, cut with gas and distillate. There was a strong blow of air. Flowing pressure was 625-1,075 pounds; 20-minute shut-in pressure, 1,900 pounds.

The Strawn was topped at 4,940 feet, which is 73 feet high to the discovery well. Derrick floor elevation is 2,315 feet.

Operator cored between 4,975-87 feet for recovery of 12 feet of lime with a trace of porosity. The project was coring below 4,996 feet in lime.

Seems You Ought to Know Him!

You see a man in a beautiful new Cadillac—and, almost instinctively, you take a second look.

Your judgment tells you that those who drive Cadillacs are likely to be people of importance—and are very probably in the public eye.

It is small wonder that you feel this way about people who own and drive these distinguished cars.

For more than half a century, Cadillac has been a favorite car of the leading people in every community across the land. For Cadillac is the only car in America whose name has consistently been reserved for the finest cars it is practical to produce.

People who want the finest have learned to come Cadillac—as the tide goes with the moon!

So, you don't have to be a prominent person to find a reason for moving up to Cadillac.

There is every practical reason for owning a Cadillac—as well as every personal one.

Under normal driving conditions, the Cadillac car will run a full day on a single tankful of gasoline.

The lowest priced Cadillac costs less than twenty-two models of other makes of American-built cars.

And a Cadillac, according to an authoritative study of national used car prices, will return a greater share of its owner's investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land.

So whether you are prominent, or whether you are practical—Cadillac is your perfect choice!

Better come in and see us. Cadillac was never so fine and beautiful as it is today—and it was never more practical to own and enjoy.

We're at your service—any time you wish to call!

T-3 U. S. WEATHER STATION, GREENLAND—This cozy nook in the polar region is a balloon shelter on T-3, the U. S. weather station on a floating ice cap. A balloon is being prepared for flight to gather weather information. T-3 is within 240 miles of the North Pole. It is part of the eyes and ears of America's North-East defense along the polar route. The nearest permanent base is Thule, which is about 500 miles south of this floating weather station. This is among the first photos made at T-3.

LAWS ON CHANGE OF NAME EXPLAINED

Tired of your name? Perhaps you can change it. To most of us our name is too much an integral part of our everyday life to want to change it. There are occasions, however, when a legal change of name is desired, and Texas laws contain provisions for changing the names of individuals, business firms and corporations.

Being tired of a name is not sufficient in itself to warrant a legal change. There are occasions, however, when a change of name may be of sufficient benefit to a person to justify a change under the statutes. For example, a name may be so long and cumbersome or so difficult to pronounce as to become a business or social handicap.

A legal change of an individual's name in this state involves a procedure in District Court. The person desiring a change must file an application in proper form in the District Court of the county of his residence, setting forth the reasons for his desire for a new name. If the Judge is convinced that it is for the interest or benefit of the applicant to change his name, he may decree that the adopted name of the person shall be substituted for his original name.

In addition to the provisions for change of name in ordinary cases, our laws permit the court in entering a divorce decree to include an order changing the name of either party especially petitioning for such a change in proper manner during the proceeding.

Provisions for changing the name of a minor are the same as for an adult, except that the application for change must be filed by his guardian or "next friend". By this latter term is meant a parent or some other person who is looking after the interests of the minor.

A change of name will not be allowed to injure third persons

MAKE THE MOST OF IT By W. H. Marshall

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? And why art thou disquieted with in me? Hope in God. (Psalms 43:5).

The actress Margaret Hamilton has played "battle-ax" roles in seventy-five movies because she is so homely. She says, "I'm homely. My face has given me lots of work. I remember 'The Wizard of Oz' set. They put a sign on my chair: 'Mag the Hag.' My, I just loved it. I'm not sensitive about my looks. I've got what God gave me, and I make the most of it. Happiness has nothing to do with what you look like. Accept what you have and enjoy it. It's what's on the inside of you that counts."

What a pity that some people don't know that! Most people do not happen to have looks that set them apart in the minds of others, but many with far less cause fall into the habit of self-pity. They persist in making themselves miserable.

Disappointment and frustrations are common to most men. The test is how you meet them. When you fall into self-pity, all of your interests and energies turn inward and poison your heart. It is better to say: "Yes, I'm homely, I've had misfortune, I've been hurt by a friend. But I'll rise above it. I'll turn it into something good with which to make others happy." Remember: "It's what's on the inside of you that counts."

DAUGHERTY-CHICK RITES PERFORMED HERE FRIDAY

Miss Jerry Chick became the bride of Guy Douglas Daugherty at six o'clock Friday evening at the home of Pat Stephenson, Minister of the Church of Christ, in a double ring ceremony. Mr. Stephenson officiated.

The bride wore a street length dress suit of white faille, with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

The only attendants were the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Chick of Sonora.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Elva Stovall of Abilene and Claude Daugherty of Marble Falls.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in San Angelo where Daugherty is employed with Lone Star Gas Co.

DUGGAN-WOOD WEDDING READ IN RISING STAR

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Wood announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Louise Wood to Donald Duggain. The couple were married at Rising Star October 3.

The Duggains will make their home in Ozona where he is employed with an oil company.

under our laws. The change does not operate to release the applicant from any responsibility which he may have incurred under his original name. Nor will it defeat or destroy any rights or property or causes of action which the person may have had or held in his original name.

Any person transacting business in Texas under any name other than his real name is required to file in the County Clerk's Office in each county in which he conducts his business an "assumed name certificate", giving the name of the business and the true full name and post office address of each person carrying on the business. Whenever there is a change in ownership or in the name of the business, a new certificate is required to be filed setting out the facts.

Whenever the name of a corporation is changed, Texas laws require that its corporate charter must be amended and the amendment filed with the Secretary of State.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform-not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

"WHY MUST I HAVE A PRESCRIPTION?"

That slip of paper in a message from your physician to your pharmacist. When you bring it here, it passes on to us the responsibility for preparing the medicine especially for you. Your physician has determined your needs, and we welcome the responsibility of interpreting and fulfilling them.

We maintain an extensive stock of hundreds of products to fill any prescription you may bring us. Combined with this extensive stock is an up-to-date scientific knowledge of all kinds of drugs and pharmaceuticals. We are trained to know how much of each type medicine should be given to people of different ages . . . which substances are harmful or ineffective when mixed with others . . . which products may not be sold legally without a prescription to protect you.

We relieve your physician of these tasks and allow him more time for personal attention to you-time he would not have if he had to prepare your medicine whenever you went see him.

Will your child have a college education?

It's yours to give him . . . if you start planning today!

Of course you want your child to have a good education. But can you be sure that, when the time comes, you'll be financially able to give it to him? You can, if you start saving for it now—through the Payroll Savings Plan.

It's simple! Tell your company's pay office how much you want to save—from a couple of dollars to $375 a month. Every payday this sum is invested in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds which are turned over to you, and earn good interest for you.

It's systematic! Just think—if you sign up to save $3.75 a week in 5 years you'll have $1,025.95—in 9 years 8 months, $2,137.30—and in 19 years 8 months you'll have $5,153.72.

It's sure! Once you join, your saving is automatically done for you before you draw your pay. And your child's education will be provided for by money you don't even miss now.

Eight million working people are now on the Plan—saving for those things made possible only through systematic saving. So join the Payroll Savings Plan right now. Do it today!

How you can reach your savings goal on the systematic Payroll Savings Plan

	$1,000	$5,000	$10,000	$25,000
Each week for 5 years, save	$3.75	$18.75	$37.50	$93.75
Each week for 9 years and 8 months, save	$1.85	$8.80	$18.75	$45.00
Each week for 19 years and 8 months, save	$0.75	$3.75	$7.50	$18.75

This chart shows only a few typical examples of savings goals and how to reach them through Payroll Savings. Remember, you can save any sum you wish, from a couple of dollars a payday to $375 a month. The important thing is, start your Plan today!

Your baby's future starts today—
