Farm Special Coming April Fifth

The Santa Fe Farm and Home Special, operated by the Santa Fe Railroad in cooperation with A. and M. College, will visit Lamesa Tuesday morning, April 5 at 9 o'clock A. M.

The special will be under the direction of J. D. Tinsley, General Agricultural Agent for the Santa Fe. The train will carry numerous specially prepared exhibits expected to attract much interest at each of the 147 stops to be made on a 45 day tour beginning on February 15, at Navasota and ending at Snyder April 6.

Exhibits of the nine car train will include the famous 4-H pantry and its relation to the importance of living at home, a contrast between good and poor turkey production, how to produce healthy baby chicks, hooked rugs and how they are made, the many uses of cotton in clothing, simple ways of beautifying the farm yard, gift packages farm women are making at home for sale, modern methods of killing, curing and canning pork at home, exhibits stressing important points in growing cotton, grain sorghums and pastures and in the production of dairy products, sheep and goats.

WORSE THAN PINK BOLL WORM FOR DAWSON COUNTY

On Saturday afternoon at three P. M. all cotton farmers in Dawson county are invited to hear Judge J. E. Garland and others speak from the Band Stand (if bad weather in District Court Room) of his proposed cotton acreage reduction plan which has attracted National attention the past few weeks.

Judge Garland is requesting that any who have hard questions to ask concerning this plan to do so at this meeting. He states he has been able to answer all objections offered so far.

The plan he will discuss has in the past week attracted the attention of the Federal Farm Board, Judge Garland says, "all it needs now is the folks to know about it and demand its initiation."

"If this were a pink boll worm meeting every farmer in the county would be at the meeting. But this matter is far more serious than any pink boll worm matter" so stated Judge Garland Tuesday in discussing the plans for the meeting Saturday at three o'clock.

1931-32 Interscholastic League Dates

Interesting debates were held in District and County Court Rooms Wednesday evening, February 17th. The large attendance in both court rooms evidenced the interest in debate in this county. Several interesting references were made by the debaters to instances of Dawson County lobbying pro and con.

The debates in the future will be held on the evenings of February 22, 26 and March 2, 7, 11, 16, 18 and 23rd. They are open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Teams number 4 and 2 of the girls have withdrawn but there are seven boys and seven girls' teams still in the field.

Percentages of these teams will be given in the next current issue of this paper.

COMMITTEE TO HANDLE GOVERNMENT LOANS HERE RECEIVES RECOGNITION

The local Chamber of Commerce has received the information to the effect that the names of the committee which handled Federal Feed and Seed Loans last year, namely: W. K. Crawley, T. D. Randle, and W. P. Avriett, has been recognized by the Cooperative Extension Department of A. & M. College and passed on to the Dallas office with the recommendation of this department that this committee be approved for handling Government loans in 1932.

The local organization also has a copy of the letter of recognition received authorizing loans on crops produced during 1932 and will be glad for the farmers who desire to do so come in the Chamber of Commerce office and make inquiries concerning this matter. There is only one copy of this letter and this will be kept in the office for those who desire to read

COTTON PLAN RECEIVES NATION WIDE RECOGNITION

Judge J. E. Garland's Cotton Acreage Reduction Plan has attracted National attention and particularly has it been received by the Federal Farm Board which has made a study of it. The objections raised by it have been answered by Judge Garland. Judge Garland has persistently and untiringly worked on this matter in the hopes of getting it before the thinking class of people that some plan may be realized. He points out that unless cotton acreage is reduced that cotton producers in 1932 are facing chaos.

He holds that the plan will get the job done and advance the price of cotton.

The local Chamber of Commerce is cooperating with Judge Garland in seeing to it that his plan gets publicity and before the proper sources and authorities. Garland states that all that is in the way now, for indeed he has had no serious objections, is the initiation of the plan. Farmers everywhere will readily take a hold of the plan.

Briefly the plan is: Retire seven million bales surplus cotton by contracting it to the cotton producers upon the assurance that land for each bale of cotton purchased and plant nothing thereon they will cultivate three acres of in 1932.

Judge Garland challenges anyone to advance or find any serious objection to the plan, and states that he will answer any argument against it. The plan is practical, sound, and is the only plan he knows where by the cotton grower of the south may get relief.

Another entered is over 105 years old and is made of 2,000 small diamonds. It was made by Mrs. Katherine Edwards and has never been used.

Some of the quilts are of the most unique patterns and Mother Flanien entered a very appropriate quilt for the occasion; a red white, and blue one made in her 86th year.

H. L. HOHN OUT FOR RE-ELECTION FOR COMMISSIONER FROM PRECINCT 2

I am taking this method in announcing my candidacy for the office of Commissioner from Precinct 2, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in July.

I have been a resident of West Texas since 1905 and of Dawson county for sixteen years and am submitting my candidacy for reelection to the voters, solely on my past record as Commissioner. I believe that I am familiar with the needs of the people and pledge the greatest economy in the handling of county funds.

I have had lots of experience with road work and I believe that I understand this kind of work thoroughly. If the voters of Dawson county see fit to support me I believe with my past experience that I can make a better Commissioner than ever.

Thanking you in advance for your support and influence I am, Respectfully yours, H. L. HOHN, Candidate for Commissioner Precinct 2, Dawson County, Texas.

Seek Your Fortune Here

By Wm. A. Wilson

Americans are flocking to the cities. It is an unprofitable move. Cities are burdened with crowds that increase municipal expenses. Thousands of home towns are losing their brightest men who could render such great service building better, more livable towns.

Since the days of the Prodigal Son—and long before—it has been inherent in men to seek "a far country" where fame and fortune awaits them. Those that win are remembered. The far greater number who become atoms in a great sea of humanity, are forgotten.

A half dozen families in the desert of Sarah, with the American "pep and push" and enterprise, with a community spirit working together, could make that spot on which they have settled a little brighter, more beautiful, more comfortable.

The enterprise, faith and far-sightedness of a half dozen families, that settled where Chicago now is, make that the center around which was built the second city of the United States. At the time these few families settled at the sight of Chicago, it appeared that the great center would be located elsewhere. It was their work in the early days that turned the tide and placed Chicago near the top of the list of cities.

Today's competition is between communities. It is a struggle between communities and towns to win industries and trade.

Farms and factories create business; but business travels to the town it likes best. When people like your town they may learn to like your store; but a good

Big Spring Male Chorus Rendered Enjoyable Program

The Big Spring Male Chorus rendered a very enjoyable program at the Methodist Church Thursday evening. The Chorus was handicapped to a great extent due to some of the party not arriving in Lamesa until ten o'clock on account of the bad roads between here and Big Spring. The crowd was small but appreciated the persistence of the members in coming despite the weather conditions and enjoyed the splendid program to the fullest extent.

Dr. Roy Loveless, chairman of the Library Association, made it possible that this program be sponsored by seven organizations in the county and have for its purpose the securing of more Library books. Each person was admitted for the price of one book or a set of books. About 200 books were added to the already well started library.

The organizations sponsoring this program were: The Lamesa Luncheon Club, Delphian Club, Study Club, Boy Scouts, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Co Home Demonstration Council.

H. J. PRICE ENTERS RACE FOR CITY COMMISSIONER

In offering for one of the places on the City Commission Mr. H. J. Price wants the voters to know that he would like to make a personal campaign and meet every voter, but owing to the fact that he is personally operating his business, and that times are too hard to employ extra help, that he perhaps won't have the pleasure of discussing the affairs of the City Government with each voter, but desires to see as many as he can, with the time available, but to any that he is deprived of seeing personally he wants them to understand that they are not forgotten and their support will be highly appreciated. His statement follows:

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF THE CITY OF LAMESA:

For some weeks I have been solicited to offer as a candidate for one of the places of City Commissioners at the coming election. After giving the matter the best thought that I am capable of I have decided to submit my name as such candidate. My long residence and business activities here for the last twenty years have given me an acquaintance with nearly all our citizens and it is likely unnecessary for me to make any statement, but when one seeks public office I feel that those whom he offers to serve should be informed as to what to expect of him, and with that purpose I will say a few words with reference to my past services and

E. C. Nix sr. is ill in a local hospital this week.

A formal tree planting program was rendered on the court house lawn Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. H. H. Barron called the crowd to attention and Judge Phillip Yonge read the program, as follows:

Band Music—By Conway King and his Municipal Band. America—Group, lead by V. Z. Rogers.

Address—In Memory of George Washington—Carl Rountree.

Mr. Rountree pointed out that this was the first Nation-Wide tribute paid to George Washington for so long a period of time. $2,000,000 have been set aside for his bicentennial tree planting campaign which is to last from February 22 to November 24 of this year.

Honoring George Washington is nothing new, for he was held in high esteem in his home town, Alexandria, Va. prior to his death. Mr. Rountree asked the question why? And then pointed out that George Washington was the first progressive and successful farmer in our country. He also pointed out that he was a great financier. Fifteen years of Washington's life was devoted to service of his country without receiving any pay for it, yet he died a rich man.

The fact was stressed that Washington was a great military leader being physically strong; six feet three inches tall and weighed over two hundred pounds. Naturally he was foremost in the minds of the people as a military leader.

As a revolutionary leader he underwent many trials and tribulations and later retired to his estate. Then came the organization of the United States and Washington was again turned to as no other man was capable of filling the position, he was made the first President of the Country.

It was Washington who settled the differences between Hamilton and Jefferson. After his first term as President he again planned on retiring but the necessity of serving his country caused him to serve another term as President. Washington was also a great statesman and his farewell address is as valuable from a literary standpoint today as it was 150 years ago.

"The greatest fault with our government today", Judge Rountree stated, "is that we do not follow the plan set out for us by his great character. Washington is held up before the youths and old of our country today that some benefit may be derived from his wonderful example. We need another George Washington today more than anything else in the advancement of our cities, states and nation."

Judge Rountree further stated that we could not all be George Washingtons but that we could absorb some of his patriotic principles. Washington loved his estate and this can be noted by the trees and shrubs surrounding the mansion.

After Judge Rountrees address the tree was planted, each one present taking part in the shoveling of the dirt. This tree has been named Mary Washington in honor of George Washington's mother, whom he attributed all of his success to. J. D. Dyer is in charge of the planting of this tree

A TWO HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY

By Pearl Gibson
This year we celebrate the bi-centennial of a national leader's birthday. Our celebration is not taking the form of the usual few minutes of silent tribute accorded to the great. We are turning aside to show appreciation in an active way for the man whose memory we honor.

In examining the list of our past Presidents, and noting their occupations, one's attention is called to the fact that Washington, with his vast ability and varied pursuits, is listed as a planter. Is not that one of the greatest examples that well rounded life holds for us today—can we honor a more effective way than in turning back the soil he loved? Is it not fitting that his birthday should come at a time when spring is offering renewed soil and seed?

Winter sponges from the slats last year's crop failures as well as the successes, it rests the soil and kills plant disease and insects. The lesson we learn in the past year is going to make things easier for us in the future, we have turned from regret to endeavor. We learn quickly.

Few will be satisfied merely to do as well as they did in the past year, but only by intelligent planning will be able to make conditions better. There are many of the foods we are able to raise that are better dried than canned, and drying the food is a cheaper process.

The United States Department of Agriculture offers many bulletins which give helpful information upon almost any line of agriculture and food preservation. Bulletin No. 984 gives specific information on home drying of fruits and vegetables, not only as to methods, but the equipment and how to make it. A method of drying sweet corn is given in which it is stated that the dried variety is equal if not superior to the canned. Combinations for vegetable soups, combining vegetables requiring the same cooking time are also given.

The winter to which many looked forward with so much dread a short while back, is passing. We have been humbled by the facts of our existence, but we are eager children watching the panorama of opportunity, ready to grasp and hold the first that comes our way, and while we watch we will be preparing.

WHO IS AT FAULT, THE CAR DRIVER OR OWNER

According to a booklet issued by the Travelers Insurance Company, automobile accidents are worse than war. During 18 months of the World War 50,510 American Soldiers were killed in action or died of wounds, and 182,674 were wounded, not mortally.

In the months ending December 31, 1931, 53,650 were killed in Automobile accidents, and 1,576,840 were injured.

Drastic steps must be taken, if we are to lower the horrible and steadily increasing toll of traffic deaths and injuries.

County Agent Work

The County Agent's office obtained loans for 348 farmers in Dawson county last year. Many have asked regarding loans this year. The Commissioner's Court has not made appropriation for this work. I am leaving to be County Agent in Hale County.

The first obligation in obtaining loans is to cooperate with the Department in organized program of work in the county. No one has been appointed by the Department to succeed me. It likely will not be done unless the local money is available to carry on the work.

I appreciate the cooperation given me by the farmers in this Co. and trust that you will see that this service is carried on.

The Fifty Million Dollar appropriation made for farmers provides for cooperation in county agent work as organized by the Department.

Yours truly,

W. W. EVANS, County Agent.

MAKERS OF "BAD GIRL" REPEAT

Four of the five persons credited with the success of "Bad Girl" were reunited in making "Dance Team," the feature attraction coming to the Palace Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

James Dunn and Sally Eilers, the two youngsters who scored such a hit in the leading roles of that production, Minna Gombell, who played the chief supporting role, and Edwin Burke, who wrote the screen play and dialog from Vina Delmar's book, all performed similar parts in the new offering. Burke made the film version of Sarah Addington's novel, Dunn and Miss Eilers enact the title roles of the penniless but ambitious duo that seeks to scale the heights of Broadway fame, and Miss Gombell again heads the supporting cast.

Edward Crandall, Nora Lane, Ralph Morgan, Claire Maynard, Harry Beresford and Charles Williams are also in the cast of the picture, which Sidney Lanfield directed.

C. T. Watson a much appreciated former Agricultural agent of Dawson county accompanied the Big Spring Glee Club to Lamesa Thursday night and conducted the program for them.

Sim O'Neal also a former resident of Lamesa was welcomed by old friends.

TO THE READERS OF THE DAWSON COUNTY COURIER:

A close study of the situation leads one to conclude that Public Service Corporations and Public Officers are unaware of the fact that hard times are here. Corporations have no souls and there is therefore some extenuation for their insensibility to the stressful times that prevail in this country of ours, but Public Officers are accredited with a sense of fair play and shooting square and ought to have a heart.

It is interesting to analyze the view point of the average municipality in its concept of Revenue Raising. One gets the idea that the average city regards the resident portion as a sort of Municipal Milk Cow, and this poor cow has been milked until she has truly gone "dry," and sorely neglected in way of feed, she makes a feeble effort to kick and the City authorities proceed to tie both of her feet and milk her some more. Would it not be fair to

PATRICIA NEWS
By Vernon Adeock

It rained all day Sunday and there was no Sunday services here. On account of the conditions of this community we have played no basketball with other teams before last Thursday afternoon when we loaded on a four wheel trailer drawn by a plow team and crept over to Pleasant Valley and enjoyed our first game for this season. The Junior boys lost 5-0 while the girls won 48-6. This is the first time I remember going to a basketball game on such conveyance, but we made five miles per hour and had more time to enjoy the ride.

We entered the Junior boys and the girls in the County Tournament last week end and the boys lost their first game to Lou who won second place. Our girls won County Championship and this was a surprise to us since they had played but one game before entering the tournament.

The School Board met for their regular business meeting Monday and we are glad that tax collections for this district were good this year and we shall have full term of school.

SOME FACTS ABOUT FARM MACHINERY

Excerpts from a Talk Given by Finley P. Mount before Implement Dealers' Associations. Complete Copies will be Supplied on Request.

Plain and pertinent facts about farm implement prices have been presented during the past few weeks by Finley P. Mount, veteran president of Advance-Rumely Corporation and principal speaker at the implement dealers' conventions this winter. On each occasion Mr. Mount appeared as the spokesman of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

Dealer Distribution

Mr. Mount told about the essential services rendered to agriculture by the established implement dealers and asserted that a full investigation would easily prove that dealer distribution is the most economical way for the farmer to be served. "A farm machinery business," he earnestly declared, "cannot be carried on like a mail order business. Credit must be provided and service guaranteed. The service rendered by the dealer after the sale and delivery of the machine is an indispensable one. The machine must be delivered, set up, and serviced, and an adequate stock of repairs kept ready for quick replacements, for speed is essential in farming. If the system of dealer distribution should be abandoned, none would more seriously object and none would more seriously suffer than the farmer himself."

Profit and Loss

"Present farm machine prices," the speaker said, "would not give any one in the industry more than a living profit if the production and sale were anywhere near normal; and, based on the present small demand, farm equipment prices are entirely too low for any profit to the industry."

The fact that there is no profiteering in the farm implement industry, Mr. Mount declared, was conclusively proved by the balance sheets and profit and loss accounts of the various manufacturing companies. "If you will go over the manufacturers' earnings for the last thirty years," he continued, "you will find that the average earnings on capital invested have been less than reasonable bank interest."

He pointed out that in 1930 the average earnings on the actual amount of money invested in the business of the seven largest implement companies was 5.8 per cent, and these earnings included sales all over the world, as well as a large volume of business done by some of the seven companies in motor trucks, industrial tractors, and road equipment not sold to farmers. He declared that the 1931 business of the farm implement manufacturers would probably result in a loss, or at best in a very small profit.

Price Trends in the Automotive Industry

The speaker presented facts and figures showing that the farm equipment industry has kept pace with the automobile industry in improving the quality and lowering the price of its product. For example, a standard 10-20 tractor which sold in 1913 for $1420 now sells for $810—a reduction of $610 or 43 per cent, and a far better tractor at that. A 15-30 tractor, which sold for $1850 in 1916, has been vastly improved in design, power, and efficiency, yet it sells now for $1190.

Mr. Mount cited figures released by the United States Department of Labor in November, 1931, showing that since 1926 farm implement prices had declined more than automobile prices.

It was pointed out by the speaker that the only farm implements that have increased in price since the prewar period were the old types of horse-drawn machines which, he said, were rapidly disappearing from the picture of American agriculture. He gave as an example the horse-drawn grain binder on which the sales in the United States in 1931 were only about 10 per cent of the volume in 1902. In 1914 the total grain binder production was 215,386, while in 1930 it was only 46,166. Mr. Mount estimated that the total binder production of 1931 was only about 17,000 machines, including tractor binders.

3 1/2 Cents Spent for Farm Machinery

Attacking the popular misconception about the farmer's expense for farm implements to till, plant, harvest, and process the crops, the speaker declared that in 1930 this item represented only about 3 1/2 cents out of every dollar of agriculture's gross cash income, and he contrasted this figure with 20 cents for wages to hired labor, 10 cents for taxes, and nearly 10 cents for interest. The total value of farm implements and machinery on our farms is only about 3 1/2 per cent of the total value of all farm property.

Another contrast offered by the speaker was between the price per pound of eleven basic farm machines and of numerous other articles used on the farms. Though the farm machines are by far the most complex in the list they are cheaper by the pound than any of the others. A 15-30 tractor sells at 16 cents a pound and a 10-foot combine-harvester at 19 cents a pound, as against 22 cents a pound for a pair of shoes, at 21 cents a pound for a pair of trousers, and 10 cents a pound for a pair of socks.

Incidently, once more, American farmers are cheaper States. The farm machinery industry has made his machinery abroad at a price, with ever, on the may be a cultural U. S. Department Mount also gressional telling about in by Congressman ject, which also allegation is unfou Then there is t farm machinery tariff. (Copies of sections of the Congressional Record, tariff regulations, and the Yearbook of Agriculture covering these points will be supplied on request.)

LOOKING AT THE WORLD

By Ben Koney
 Time drags slowly onward and I am one of its passengers going. I don't know where. The Japs and Chinese still fight, and the rest of the world seems to be itching to join in the strife. Many individuals are reading up on hind legs because Uncle Sam does not tear loose and enter the fray. But our Uncle is a wise old guy and takes his time patiently and takes nobodys advise. When he sees fit to join in he usually lets the world know where he is by making a "good hand in the job." I am not smart enough to know who is to blame for the conflict between the yellow cats but my sympathy goes to China, but I can't say why. The Japs are a smart set, too smart some say, but we must hand them considerable honor for coming to the front as they have in such a short time, as they have as a nation and world power. It was about 1850 I believe that Perry induced her to open her doors to the outside world. Progress began to start at once as the Japs proved to be apt scholars and learned fast. She quickly advanced to the front and took her stand near the head of her class among the nations. She may be to ambitious and aggressive, it does seem so, which causes many of us to want to throw our support to China, that great, but weak nation which can't unite even in war. No doubt a good licking will do her good.

And a spanking would certainly do the Japs an immense lot of good by taking the conceit out of her system. The clash may be a necessity for the future welfare of both countries.

So let 'em fight it out among themselves. Have you ever wondered as I do sometimes, what civilized Russia, China and India could do to the rest of the world? 'Tis folly to try to figure out how powerful they would be if properly developed and civilized. A free and civilized India could alone tick a great part of the rest of the world. Is their day dawning or has their sun set? The next few years will tell "Every dog has his day sooner or later."

JESUS RAISES LAZARUS FROM THE DEAD

LESSON TEXT—John 11:1-57.
GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Makes a Dead Man Live Again.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Gives Life to His Friend.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus the Giver of Life.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Christian Assurance of Immortality.

I. Lazarus Sick (vv. 1, 2).
 Even those who are in close fellowship with the Lord are not immune from sickness.

II. Martha and Mary Send for Jesus (v. 3).
 Because they had come to know Jesus as more than a mere man, they instinctively turned to him when the shadow of death fell across their home. Those who receive Jesus into their home when all are well and happy can be sure of his love and sympathy when sickness and death overtake them.

III. Jesus' Strange Delay (vv. 4-6).
 Martha and Mary sent for Jesus because he loved Lazarus. They said, "He whom thou lovest is sick." Observe that when Jesus heard that Lazarus was sick he "abode in the same place" because he loved Lazarus and his sisters (v. 5). This mystery is to be explained by the fact that Jesus was divine and knew all things.

IV. Jesus Goes to the Bethany Home (vv. 7-17).
 Jesus knew, and apparently the disciples knew, that going into Judea at that time meant his own death. He told his disciples that his purpose in going was to awaken Lazarus out of his sleep to the intent that they might believe (vv. 11-15). Jesus fearlessly discharged his duty even though his life had been threatened.

V. Jesus Teaching Martha (vv. 18-27).
 As he was nearing the village, Martha met him with a complaint because of his delay. He ignored her complaint and taught her concerning the resurrection and life.

1. "Thy brother shall rise again" (v. 23). Most blessed words are those to fall upon the ears of a sister sorrowing for a dead brother.
2. "I am the resurrection and the life" (vv. 25, 26). He is the source of life and all who are joined to him by a living faith experience such a vital fellowship as to be unaffected by any bodily change, death being but an incident in the course of an endless life.

VI. Jesus Weeping With Mary (vv. 28-35).
 Mary fell at Jesus' feet uttering the same words used by Martha but so doubt with a different tone of voice and attitude. She had been sitting at his feet in the days of sunshine, therefore, she knew where to go in time of sorrow. Being a real man, he suffered with these bereaved sisters, and though he knew the joy that was so soon to come in the restoration of life to Lazarus, he wept.

VII. Jesus Raising Lazarus (vv. 36-44).
 In this stupendous miracle we see an illustration of the quickening into life of those dead in trespasses and sins. Observe:

1. Lazarus was dead (v. 39). This is a type of the sinner dead in trespasses and sins, even morally corrupt (Eph. 2:1).
2. The stone must be rolled away (v. 39). As Christian workers we should remove every obstacle from between a dead sinner and a life-giving Saviour.

3. Martha's protest of unbelief (v. 39). She insisted that Lazarus had already undergone putrefaction. Christ is able to save the sinner regardless of the degree of his sins.

4. Christ's intimacy and fellowship with the father (v. 42). In his prayer he declared that it was not for his sake that he prayed but for those who stood by.

5. Christ's manner of dealing with Lazarus (v. 43). It was by a call. He is calling men and women today by his Spirit, Word, and providence.

6. The response of Lazarus (v. 44). This shows that the call of Jesus is with authority and power.

7. The command to the people (v. 44). They were to remove the grave clothes and set him free. They could not make Lazarus live, but they could remove the grave clothes which bound the man whom Christ made alive.

VIII. The Effect of This Miracle (vv. 45-57).
1. Some believed (v. 45).
2. His enemies sought to put him to death (vv. 46-53).
3. His withdrawal (v. 54).

SOME GLEANINGS

CHARLES HATCHETT MARRIES IN LUBBOCK

Miss Margie Taylor and Charles Hatchett were married Saturday evening at eight o'clock in a simple service read at the home of Mrs. J. F. Gregory in Lubbock, with Jack M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Only close friends were present.

The vows were read as the couple stood in front of an improvised altar entwined with ivy and fern and lighted by candles.

Mrs. Hatchett has been City Camp Fire Executive in Lubbock for the past year and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor of Sherman.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hatchette of this city. Charles is well known here, having spent practically all his life here. He is now a senior student in the Electrical Engineering Department at Tech.

The couple will make their home at 2108 Broadway, Lubbock.

INCREASE IN PRODUCTION SHOWN BY MILK PLANT

According to the officials of the West Texas Dairy Products Co. the powdered milk factory located here is daily increasing in its milk receipts. During the past three months, the production has jumped from 11,000 to 17,000 lbs. daily. This is attributed to the fact that the plant is able to hold up the local market, and small grain pastures have furnished cows opportunity for grazing.

The plant buys from producers on nine milk routes, from more than 275 farmers, and purchases whole milk, sour, and sweet cream. The price at the plant for whole milk is 20 cents, for sweet cream 16 cents and sour cream, 14 cents per butter fat pound.

HUGH (DAD) McQUINE PASSES TO HIS REWARD

Hugh (Dad) McQuine was born October 26, 1854 and died February 22, 1932. He was married to Miss Martha Lukenhill on July 11th, 1880. To this union was born thirteen children, five of which preceded Dad to the other land. Dad had many friends in Lamesa and a large number of them were present at the quiet funeral services conducted at the home. All the children living were present except two, one son, W. K. and one daughter, Mrs. M. B. Garner, who live at Kilgore, Texas. The love that Dad's friends had for him was evidenced by their presence and the beautiful floral offering.

At about the age of thirty Dad obeyed the gospel and became a child of God which is possibly the greatest thing he ever did in his life. He was a good husband, father and grandfather.

Rev. H. P. Cooper, Minister of the Church of Christ conducted the funeral service.

HENRY J. PRICE

make a few statements as to what may be expected of me if elected. I have served several terms as county commissioner and it has always been my policy to hold expenses down as much as can be reasonably done, thereby relieving the people from being overburdened with taxation, but I believe in reasonable progress, consistent with the financial ability of the people. I believe in civic development and have for years, I voluntarily gave up the County Commissioners office in order that I might take charge of the Court House Grounds for the purpose of making them a beauty spot and it has given me great pleasure to see my wishes entirely fulfilled.

In the main my platform is diligent and faithful service, honesty to the penny in handling public funds and lowering taxes just as much as the reasonable requirements for absolutely necessary expenses will stand. We cannot operate tax free, but my labor will be to the end that not one dollar more taxes will be levied than is necessary under honest handling to meet the necessary operating expenses of the city. If my policy meets your approval and you consider me otherwise worthy I shall
