Alexander Campbell Parker, well known in oil circles, is registered at the Kemp hotel. Mr. Parker was an eloquent preacher and revivalist before he became an oil prospector and in his youth he conducted a weekly newspaper at Midland and revivals all at the same time. He made the discovery, however, that to be a success a man should give all his time to the main issue so he deserted newspaperdom for the vineyard of the Lord and success came to him as a saver of the souls of men. H. N. F. chanced to meet him at the main entrance to the Kemp. He had a package wrapped in a newspaper under his right arm. "These were the high boots I wore in my first jump into the petroleum field," he said. "They made me money and now I am going to put them on and see if financial success continues to follow wearing them." Mr. and Mrs. Parker donated $80,000 to the Texas Christian University when the campaign was on less than eighteen months ago and there is no sturdier champion of Christian education for the youth of this commonwealth than Alexander Campbell Parker. He is the close personal friend of Dr. Edwin McShain Waits, president of Texas Christian University, who is one of the ablest educators and most thorough going Christian gentlemen under the Lone Star skies of Texas. Under his guidance Texas Christian University has made gigantic strides in recent years regardless of the upheaval caused by the world war or the world wide business depression which followed in its wake.

A. L. Elliott of the Elliott Audit Company of Breckenridge was a visitor to the city that faith built Wednesday and returned to the Stephens County capital last night. He said to H. N. F., "Come to Breckenridge with the excursionists. There are lots of old acquaintances there. Former Justice of the Supreme Court W. E. Hawkins, now candidate for the United States senate, has decided to make Breckenridge his home. He has purchased a residence and moved his family there from Austin. Business in all branches is brisk in Breckenridge and the future looks good to me."

Colonel Henry Watterson was for fifty years, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, prince of the old guard of Democrats and the dean of American newspaperdom. Colonel Watterson's fame was and is international. He is the last of the great editors of America of the old school, the brainiest and the bravest of the Democratic journalist who fought for principles of Jefferson in the dark days which came with the surrender of Lee at Appamattox Court House as well as the wisest and wittiest of all the free lances of America. Colonel Watterson passed the winter months at the Hotel Galvez down on the Galveston beach. In his boyhood he knew Sam Houston as well as all the other Titans who figured in the national councils of the Democratic party. Colonel Harvey Watterson, his father, was the editor of the leading Democratic newspaper printed at the national capital from the days of Andrew Jackson to the passing of James Buchanan. Colonel Watterson has never deserted "the old landmarks." He has never bowed to nationwide prohibition or nationwide suffrage. Interviewed by the correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, Marse Henry had his say. He came forward in his eighty-second year to reclassify the two major American political parties, and, in passing, to make characteristic comment upon the march of events in the light of more than half a century of intimate contact with the world. From the serenity of his retirement Colonel Watterson watches, with a sort of half interest the cross currents of political and economic life hurrying about him; but they are not strong enough to pull him back into anything approaching an active part in the turmoil they constantly are churning, a turmoil which once was the breath of his life. He says he has earned his rest and intends to collect. "Marse Henry's" eye still is bright; his hair, which always looks a bit truculent, is aggressively erect, and energy radiates from him as vibrantly as when his editorial pen commanded the attention of the country. According to "Marse Henry," on a dusty shelf of the American political pantry, now almost as destitute as was the Hubbard cupboard, there are two empty bottles. One is labeled "Democratic" and the other "Republican." There no longer is anything for them to do but to wear their labels, and even these are a bit dusty. Occasionally an election takes place, and the perennially optimistic American voters go into the pantry and take down the bottles, hoping that some thing of some kind, in some way, somehow, may have been put into the bottles, but they never find anything more than the dust of long dead issues. There are not any big, distinctive party issues left, and there aren't any major party principles any more, says the Colonel. They either have been murdered or have died of extreme age and malnutrition. A few have survived to be converted in their advanced age into political sandbags, with which office seekers may flay one another into political insensibility, but they no longer are recognizable to those who knew them in the full vigor of their prime. "You can't name a distinctive issue between the Democratic and the Republican parties which is alive today," said the Colonel, dryly. "The tariff is just a political sandbag which one party uses one time and the other the next as a means of

NINETY-ONE CLAIMED BY TAYLOR FLOODS; RELIEF CALL ISSUED

By The Associated Press.

TAYLOR, Texas, Sept. 14.—With the list of dead standing at 85, six more lives were added to the toll of the San Gabriel river and Brushy Creek floods in Williamson and Milam counties when a report was brought in late today that five negroes and one Mexican living on the farm of Alex Kennedy, 7 miles south had drowned in the Brush Creek rampage.

The report was brought in by Ed Lawhon of Taylor. He said that these deaths had not been reported. This swells the list to 91.

A call for relief was received today from Jonah, a settlement nine miles north on the San Gabriel. The call came by phone to the local Red Cross headquarters. A man who said he swam the river to get to a phone asked that clothes be sent to Jonah as nearly every person in the village had lost all except the clothes they wore at the time of the flood. The local Red Cross dispatched a truck load of clothes to the settlement.

Trucks loaded with supplies were started for the devastated district of Youngstown, nine miles northeast today. At a late hour they had not returned.

With the establishing of the local Red Cross headquarters today and subsequent work it is thought that definite lists of the dead and missing will soon be available. Representatives of the Red Cross started visiting the settlements on the streams today. It is intended to ascertain what the inhabitants need and they will be supplied by the local Red Cross. Is is expected to ascertain if possible the exact number of dead and missing in each settlement and village.

Personal Contact Great Thing for Business Promotion, C. W. Reid Says

"Personal contact is the greatest thing in the world for improving business," declares C. W. Reid, active vice president of the City National Bank of Commerce, commenting on the trade extension program which the merchants and business men of Wichita Falls are following and intend to stress during the coming season.

"Where the customer and the seller get together on a common ground of friendship, and when I mean friendship I mean the kind where one calls the other by his first name, they feel that they can have confidence in each other," Mr. Reid says.

"This common ground of mutual friendship is provided through the agency of the county fair, bargain days, trade trips, bargecues and other ways. In this way each finds out something of the other, finds how the merchant can help him by saving him money and the merchant finds that the buyer is a desirable customer.

"Wichita Falls possesses business and professional men of the highest type. This fact is being widely spread throughout this trade territory and potential customers are being converted into real supporters of the future of this city and this section. Every day merchants here receive communications from clients in this trade territory telling how well they are pleased with the advantages of this city as a market and how they appreciate the courteous treatment while in this city. This shows that we are building for the future as well as the present.

"The campaign to let the people of this section for a radius of 60 miles know that they can have their wants supplied here is a worthy one. There is no reason why we should not secure a good part of the business of all of the towns within that radius, meaning of course what they cannot secure in their own town.

"Added hospital facilities and excellent medical services are winning this city no little renown in this section. People who formerly patronized specialists in other cities a hundred miles from here now know that they can save money and time by consulting local physicians and specialists and in cases where hospitalization is necessary the local facilities are ample.

"Methods of boosting trade and increasing the scope of the local markets are many. In my residence in Muskogee several years ago the merchants put on a campaign somewhat similar to this one here, one inducement they offered the buyers in the small towns and rural communities was to refund their railroad fares, if they bought above a minimum amount. This proved very successful there and I do not doubt but that it would work here.

"Live, wide awake business men, when they put study into this matter will unearth many ways of broadening the trade territory and every good citizen and business men will support all worthy measures in this connection.

"The style show which will be given Thursday and Friday night will be attended by perhaps 1,000 people of this section, besides those who live here. This should prove a very valuable means of putting Wichita Falls stores and new goods before the buying public."

FOREIGN TRADE GROWS BETTER, HARVEY AVERS

Declares Cotton Movement to European Countries Is Improving With Larger Orders Each Day.

Rising Market, He Asserts, Will Give Season Price of 20 to 25 Cents; Demand Steady.

"Foreign trade, especially in cotton is better than general opinion among bankers and business men and large orders are being filled in increasing numbers every day," says R. O. Harvey, local cotton man, who is in touch with market conditions both in this county and abroad.

General conditions look brighter at the present time than for several months, he says, and give promise of improving toward normal trends.

Mr. Harvey is very optimistic concerning the trend of the cotton market. He places a conservative estimate of $300,000,000 on the new money coming to Texas on the basis of 2,000,000 bales carried over from last year and 1,000,000 bales of this years crop. Not all of the cotton grown this year will be sold, he says, as enough of the farmers will hold their cotton to prevent any possible oversupply.

A price of from 20 to 25 cents a pound is expected by Mr. Harvey to prevail for cotton this season, who makes this prediction on the rising market and the predictions by foreign trade experts of steady demand from European markets.

TEST RIGHT OF CITY TO SUE PAPER

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Whether a city or municipal corporation may sue a newspaper for libel, seeking damages approximating the value of the entire establishment of the latter and, through a possible verdict for the full sum, virtually put the newspaper out of business, will be one of the chief issues in the case of the city of Chicago against the Chicago Tribune, which is to be called for hearing September 22.

The suit filed folloiwng the bitter Illinois Republican primary campaign of last year asks damages of $10,000,000 alleging that published charges against the financial part of Mayor William Hale Thompson's administration had impaired the city credit and hampered the conduct of municipal business. A similar suit has been filed against the Chicago Daily News. In each instance the city sued in its corporate capacity.

Thirty-six news items or editorials, published by the Tribune between June 15, and September 15, 1920, are cited by the city's attorney as the basis for the suit. Many of them declared flatly that the city was "broke." Others referred to the use of script for paying city employes. In several instances it was stated that the city treasury faced a huge deficit and one item quoted Lieutenant Governor Oglesby, a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, as fixing this figure at $16,000,000.

None of these publications, the city's declaration charged was published with good motives, but to promote the political and financial interests of the newspaper, "and certain other persons and corporations, especially certain public utilities corporations, associated with the defendant and acting in co-operation with it."

It was charged that the publications were designed to give the impression that the city was unworthy of credit and that it would be dangerous to invest in its bonds or to enter into contracts with it for the sale of materials, labor, or supplies.

HOLD ARBUCKLE RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF ACTRESS

Miss Virginia Rappe.

Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—The coroner's jury returned a verdict today holding that Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress came to her death through peritonitis caused by the rupture of an internal organ, Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle was held responsible by the jury for Miss Rappe's injury and the district attorney was directed to conduct a full investigation of the case. The verdict charges Arbuckle with manslaughter and that all official sources concerned conduct a full and exhaustive investigation.

The jury held that Miss Rappe came to her death through the application of force, "which is believed from the evidence, was applied by Roscoe Arbuckle, and we hereby charge him with manslaughter.

"We recommend that the district attorney, chief of police, grand jury and prohibition enforcement officers take steps to prevent a further occurence of such events so that San Francisco will not be made the rendezvous of the debauchee and the gangster."

Miss Virginia Rappe was regarded to be one of the best dressed women in motion pictures and was said to have won prizes frequently for her dancing at a Santa Monica resort frequented by motion picture stars.

She was 25 years old, was born in Chicago, and first came into prominence in that city in 1913, when Miss Rappe was earning $4,000 a year as a traveling art model.

She appeared in the news early in 1914, when she returned from Paris with another Chicago girl, Helen Patterson. They had made a sensation on the liner Baltic during the trip to this country by their dancing attire.

Both arrived in Chicago wearing pink pantalettes or bloomers that showed below their skirts. They also were wearing fruit bouquets and fur anklets.

Passengers on the Baltic said Miss Rappe and her companion had enlivened the trip by a "nightie tango," a dance that was given with a nightrobe worn over an evening dress.

In 1915 she was reported to be engaged to Alberto M. d'Alkaine, a young member of Argentina's commission to the Panama-Pacific exposition conducted in San Francisco that year.

From San Francisco Miss Rappe went to Los Angeles, where she made her home in the film colony.

Fatty Born in Kansas.

Arbuckle was born in Kansas 34 years ago. When 8 years old he appeared as a "pickaninny" in a stock company at Santa Ana, Cal.

Ten years later he sang popular songs in a San Jose (Cal.) vaudeville house, and later he sang in a Portland (Ore) burlesque theater, and danced in Oakland, Cal.

Arbuckle's first motion picture work was as "extra man" for companies producing "slapstick" comedies.

Since then he has produced many film plays as head of his own company.

In an humble dwelling, isolated on the outskirts of Santa Clara, where she lives with her two blind daughters, Mrs. Mollie Arbuckle, stepmother of Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, bespoke her pity for her stepson's misfortune.

Too much money is said by Mrs. Arbuckle to be responsible for the predicament of the film star.

The stepmother of the accused comedian is not in good health and she is advanced in years, yet she takes in washing, "from the best families in Santa Clara," in order to provide for her two blind daughters and herself.

Mrs. Arbuckle says Roscoe's wealth is written in seven figures.

Mina Durfey, actress, known in private life as Mrs. Roscoe Arbuckle, will go to the defense of her husband.

A telegram received at Arbuckle's home, West Adams street, Los Angeles, stated that she was prepared to rush from New York to offer to "Fatty" all the help that she could give. She expressed belief in his innocence, and added that anyone who knew her husband "knows he is innocent."

Roscoe Arbuckle in 1908 was a barker at a local theater on the

FIFTY SIGN FOR TRIP TO COUNTY FAIR

Half Hundred Automobiles Loaded With Wichita Falls Folk Will Make Trip to Seymour.

Retail Merchants' Association Behind Move to Have Large Representation Attend.

Approximately half of the 100 cars which it is the expectation of local organizations to enlist in the trip to Seymour for the Baylor county fair Friday have already been "signed up," according to John W. Thomas, secretary of the Retail Merchants association, which organization is sponsoring this trip as the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the trip to Breckenridge.

Other automobilists who expect to make the trip are constantly notifying Mr. Thomas' office of their expectation of making the trip.

In this connection Mr. Thomas reports that the automotive dealers are the first and so far the only business classification here to "line up" 100 per cent—this report being made by Lloyd Weaver who is one of the committee representing this division. Mr. Thomas expressed himself as thinking this record to be the more remarkable as the automobile men have an entertainment and another out-of-town drive to make on the day following the Seymour trip.

Ticket sales for the trip to Breckenridge by train on next Tuesday also opened auspiciously at the Chamber of Commerce business council luncheon at the Kemp hotel at which time both trips were discussed.

Start Early Friday.

The start for the Seymour trip will be made at 8:00 o'clock tomorrow morning the Chamber of Commerce quarters on Scott being the gathering point. The cars will all be marked with banners, and the trippers will be furnished hat bands to identify them at Seymour. A band will head the local delegation. One of the representatives of the Automotive Dealers association will be placed in charge of the "train," with such assistants as he shall select.

In this connection Mr. Thomas says that there will be extra seats in some of the cars for any local people who wish to make the trip and have not made arrangements for transportation.

Ticket sales for the Breckenridge trip, started at the Wednesday luncheon, are now in progress at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, and lead those working on the details of the trip to expect as good a representation as was in evidence on the occasion of the trip to Graham.

Discuss Trip at Luncheon.

Plans for the trip and the importance of the entire city being represented were discussed by W. W. Anderson and Mayor Walter Cline, the latter the official representative of the city on both occasions.

The meeting was not altogether a joy feast as several somewhat acrimonious references to the failure of local business interests to become acquainted with their territory, especially the new territory, were made by those in attendance, including a jobber or two who spoke.

DEATH CELL OCCUPIED BY TOUSSAINT

Henry J. Toussaint, condemned to die for the murder of his father, has been removed to the death cell at the county jail, according to information that became known Wednesday. Toussaint was recently removed to the juvenile jail at the courthouse building after several escapades in his cell shared with other prisoners.

Toussaint is the first white man and the third prisoner under death sentence to occupy the death cell. Floyd Ray, a negro, sentenced to die, occupied the cell for a time previous to the act of Governor Neff in commuting the death sentence to life imprisonment. A negro whose sentence was afterward commuted was there five years ago.

Just outside the death cell is the gallows from which Toussaint will hang, provided his case is not remanded by the criminal court of appeals or his sentence commuted by the action of the governor.

amusement pike at Long Beach. He graduated into a performer, singing illustrated songs, doing breakneck falls and comedy stunts and was aided by a pony chorus. The manager, noticing a romance growing between Minta Durfee, a chorus girl, and Arbuckle, arranged for a stage wedding, August 5, 1908.

The theater changed hands later and Arbuckle and his wife went to Los Angeles seeking employment, which they found in a comedy motion picture studio there. One of the studio scandals of the day was the wasteful hurling of pies and eggs in comedy plays, in which the pay of many participants was meager.

Charged Four Times.

This was the fourth time within a week that Arbuckle has been formally held originally responsible for the death of Miss Rappe. The coroner's inquest verdict read:

"We the coroner's jury find that the said Virginia Rappe, aged 25, single, residence Los Angeles, came to her death on September 9 at the Wakefield sanitarium from a ruptured bladder, contributing cause, peritonitis.

"And we further find that said Virginia Rappe came to her death from peritonitis caused by the application of some force, which, from the evidence submitted, was applied by one Roscoe Arbuckle.

"We, the undersigned jurors, therefore, charge the said Arbuckle with the crime of manslaughter.

"We, the undersigned jurors recommend that the district attorney, chief of police, grand jury and prohibition officers take steps to prevent a further occurrence of affairs such as the one which caused this young woman's death, so that San Francisco will not be made the rendezvous of the debauchee and gangster."

One Juror Dissents.

Ben Boos, one of the nine jurors, returned a minority verdict in which he said that Miss Rappe's fatal injuries were caused by the application of some force, "but am unable to say who applied it."

Two charges of murder, one preferred by the police and the other by Mrs. Bamina Maud Delmont, friend of Miss Rappe, and two charges of manslaughter, one returned by the grand jury and the other by the coroner's jury rest against Arbuckle. The coroner's jury was out more than three hours after an examination of witnesses which started last Monday. Arbuckle, although apparently deeply moved, accepted the verdict with an attempt at composure.

Other developments of the Arbuckle case today were:

The starting of an investigation by R. McCormack, assistant United States attorney general, into charges that liquor was served at the Labor Day party in Arbuckle's rooms in the St. Francis Hotel, where Miss Rappe was alleged to have suffered the attack which ended in her death.

The finding of Betty Campbell, show girl and one of those attending the party, after she was reported to have dropped from sight, and her interrogation by the district attorney.

Witness Offered Bribe.

The statement of Captain of Detectives Matheson that one of the girl witnesses who had attended the party had been asked to accept a bribe to withhold her testimony.

District Attorney Matthew A. Brady received a telegraphic appeal from Henry Lehrmann of New York, a friend of Miss Rappe, asking Brady to be sure that justice was done and Arbuckle punished.

REDUCE RATES ON SHIPMENTS OF OIL NORTH

Reduction of the freight rates on crude oil and its products from Wichita Falls to northern and eastern points from the almost prohibitive rate of 32 1-2 cents to 20 cents is being urged by C. L. Fontaine, traffic manager of the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad at a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission at St. Louis today and Friday. Before leaving for St. Louis Mr. Fontaine stated that he was hopeful of securing some reduction if not as much as he is asking for.

If a reduction as from the present rate to 24 or 25 cents is secured, local railroad men and oil men declare, the increase in business will be considerable and that local refineries will be able to, in a measure compete with those who can take advantage of the low traffic in effect in the South Texas and Gulf ports on water shipments. At the present time the rate is so high as to work a disadvantage on inland refineries, who cannot ship by water.

An example of the effect of lower tariff on oil is seen, officials of the Southern say, in the increase in business since the rate on oil from South Bend to Wichita Falls has been reduced to 10 cents a hundred.

TAX CHANGE PROPOSALS MODIFIED

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Many house proposals for tax changes were rejected or sharply modified today by the senate finance committee. Probably the most far-reaching decision of the committee was that to restore all transportation taxes, but with those on freight, passenger and Pullman accommodations in force only for 1922 and at half the present rates. The house bill provided for repeal of all of the levies on next January 1. While agreeing to the house plan to repeal stamp taxes on perfumes, cosmetics, toilet preparations and proprietary medicines, the committee voted to impose a manufacturers' tax of four per cent on toilet articles and two per cent on proprietary medicines, and to restore the three per cent tax on toilet soaps and powders which the house bill proposed to repeal.

The section of the house bill reducing tax and candy from five per cent to three per cent was amended to provide that candy sold at wholesale for more than 40 cents a pound should bear a tax of ten per cent.

Under a new section added to the house bill the committee proposed that the tax on chewing gum be reduced from three per cent to two per cent.

The house provision repealing all of the so-called luxury taxes was accepted but the committee deferred action on the proposal to impose a manufacturer tax on a number of the articles on which a retail tax is now imposed.

CHAMBER TO MARK FIELD FOR LANDING

Assurance that a suitable landing place for airplanes will be provided here should plans now being considered for the formation of an aerial transportaion system covering five states was given Wednesday by directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Concrete markers, to make the field noticeable to flyers, would be practically the new equipment needed to put Call Field in shape for a suitable landing place, according to E. H. Neale of the Call Field Aerial Transportation company, who appeared before the directors.

Must Make Friends.

Although it is not known if the War Department is interested in the project, communications relative to the proposition are said to have been received from army officers.

RIVER WHICH "RAN WILD"

The San Antonio River at Houston Street, San Antonio, Texas.

When this river overflowed its banks last week scores of persons in San Antonio lost their lives and millions of dollars worth of property was destroyed. The river winds its way through the heart of San Antonio. In many places its banks even in normal time rise only a few inches above the water, as the photo shows. The picture, taken in the business district, shows some of the buildings that were badly damaged by the flood. The river is now reported normal again.

FITTS DEFERS ENFORCEMENT OF NEW LAWS

Rigid enforcement of the recently enacted laws, which is scheduled to include prosecution for every apprehended violation, will not be commenced until October 1, in order that people may have an opportunity to become accustomed to them, it was announced Wednesday by Police Commissioner Fitts.

Dimmers on street car and automobile lights, ranking on the principal down town streets, the prohibition of turning automobiles around on streets at points other than street intersections and driving of automobiles past street cars while passengers are being loaded and unloaded are the principal features announced to which citizens should direct their attention.

The provision for ranking cars parallel to the sidewalks, already in effect on Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets was extended by this ordinance to include Lamar street. The new ordinance also provides that no motorist shall stop their automobiles within less than two blocks of a fire, while the blaze is in progress. Motorcycle officers have been instructed to respond to all fire alarms and to arrest any who violate this ruling. Numerous complaints have been made that idle and curious persons have hampered the work of firemen by clogging the streets enroute to the fire and by stopping their cars in crowds within a few yards of the blaze.

Commenting on the new ordinance Mr. Fitts asserted that he felt that strict enforcement of the law would inconvenience no one, but did not wish to begin instituting prosecutions for violations until convinced that every one had had ample opportunity to become informed as to what the new regulations are.

sentative to Eliasville, opened this feature of the discussion, giving instances of how local institutions, better located and in position to give better, quicker and cheaper service than competing points in north Texas had failed to make business acquaintances in this territory, and acquaint prospective customers of what they were in a position to do for them.

Must Make Friends.

Mr. Johnson declared that without the acquaintance, friendship and good will of the surrounding territory that the people of Wichita Falls would fail to take advantage of their opportunity through their location, and would not succeed in their desire to build a bigger city, for the business which would be turned this way to mutual advantage of the territory would go to Fort Worth, Dallas and other points.

R. F. Penick, though mentioning the activity of his own firm in the new territory, concurred in part with Mr. Johnson's findings, as did Bert Bean, who on his own account had been a pioneer in the new territory. Sales of tickets for the Breckenridge trip was opened at the meeting at the suggestion of J. C. Mytinger, chairman of the council, who presided.

START WORK ON COUNTY TAX ROLLS

Work was started Wednesday on the making up of the tax rolls at the office of County Tax Assessor Denton for the current year. The work has been delayed for several weeks due to the failure of the state to announce its rate for the coming year. Announcement of the rate of 62 cents was received here Saturday and since that time the tax assessor's office has been busy making preparations to complete the rolls.

Due to the delay extra help has been employed at the assessor's office. The work will not be completed on October 1st, the date on which the completed rolls are generally turned over to the tax collector's office.

PLEDGE SELVES TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER OF DELINQUENT TENANTS.

Delinquent tenants of rent houses in Wichita Falls will have trouble beating more than one landlord out of rent, when the agreement made by representative real estate men of this city Wednesday afternoon goes into effect, members of the fraternity declare.

Under the agreement each real estate man is expected to notify every other real estate man of the failure of tennants to pay up their rent promptly so as to prevent such tennants from moving from one location to another.

"Don't pay rent. Move," which it is said some people have been following as a policy is apt to become a lost art, they say.

OIL MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN DUNCAN, OKLA.

Special to the Record News

DUNCAN, Okla., Sept. 14.—Struck in the face and body by a charge of shot from a double barreled twelve guage shotgun, J. C. Huff, local oil lease broker, formerly of Dallas and well known in Wichita Falls and Fort Worth, was instantly killed today. E. H. Shackelford, until recently in partnership with Huff in the oil business, surrendered to officers shortly after the shooting.

The shooting occurred on South Eighth street in front of the Shackelford home. Huff was seated in a large automobile and the charge of shot passed through the windshield, causing fragments of glass to be lodged in the deceased's face and body.

There were no eye witnesses to the tragedy and Shackelford refused to make any statements save the assertion that Huff had threatened his life. Two shotguns and a .45-calibre pistol were reported to have been found in the automobile in which Huff was sitting.

The two men had been business partners for approximately a year and until recently were said to have been the best of friends. The deceased for some time lived in the same house with Shackelford, who is married and has one child. At the time of his death Huff was living in a garage in the rear of the Shackelford home. Shackelford formerly lived in Dallas and later moved to Wichita Falls during the oil boom there. He had been here about one year.

Friends of the two men assert that differences arose between the two men recently over a business deal in which both were interested.

AERIAL PASSENGER SERVICE TO DALLAS MAY BE LAUNCHED

Regular air transportation, by a 12-passenger bombing plain, between Wichita Falls and Dallas every day, may be started in the near future, according to H. K. Neal of the Aerial Transportation company, with headquarters at Call Field here. Such a machine can be secured if such service is desired, in the judgment of Mr. Neal after he investigates the matter, he says.

The company at Call Field has been engaged in commercial air transportation both for business and pleasure for a good many months and the possibility of additional service to Dallas is not thought to be remote.

WAS WAR EXPERIENCE RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIME LAID AT YOUTH'S DOOR

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Could a sane man have committed the crime with which Harvey W. Church, held here for the murder of B. J. Daugherty and Carl Ausmus, Packard automobile salesman, is charged? Church has confessed to the double murder, according to the police. But even had he not done so the evidence against him, all of it circumstantial, has been forged, link by link, into such a chain that conviction for the crime would be certain.

Church's confession reveals that the murders were committed in order that he might gain possession of a $5,000 automobile. "After I had them both killed," the confession reads, "I drove around in the car. It certainly was a beautiful car, and I guess I should have gone back and cleaned up the basement instead of riding around. It didn't seem so terrible to me. I wanted the car."

Could a sane man, even one cold-blooded in the extreme, have killed two men just to gain possession of a car, when automobile theft is easy of accomplishment without detection?

Church's confession states that after taking one of the victims down into the basement of his home at the point of a gun and beating him to death, he went upstairs, calmly waited for the other victim to enter the house, and then murdered him in the same manner.

Psychologists point to a score of details which they say savor of a mania motive.

"Insanity," one said. "Certainly insanity. It would have taken a butcher without a heart to have done those things. There are so many things that point to a murderous mania."

So the investigators ask, is Church insane? And, if he did the killing, how does it come that now he laughs and talks in a manner perfectly natural? Did his experience as a soldier in the World war numb his senses to the point that he is calloused to human suffering, to the sense of repulsion felt by every normal man regarding a murder in cold blood?

Church is twenty years old.

BRADSTREET'S BUSINESS REVIEW.

This is the foreword: "Further slight expansion in jobbing trade; West and South leading. Higher cotton and rice and better lumber exports aids South. Firmer prices and active demand for grain help West." This is the comment on the demand for the fleecy staple: "Higher cotton prices have almost totally changed the southern trade atmosphere, certainly helping buying somewhat and brightening up collections slightly. While there is a disposition to hold cotton noted in some sections the general report that the staple is being marketed as freely as it is ginned and ginning to September is ahead of the past two seasons. Two other southern productions, rice and lumber, have also sold better. Rice is in good domestic and export demand and supposed to be unwieldy old crop supplies have moved well, while prospects for the new and smaller crop are better than a while ago."

Reports to Bradstreet's from 145 cities of the United States show a total value of building permitted for in August of $145,850,330, a gain of 37.4 per cent. over August a year ago, and comparing with a total expenditure at 163 cities for July of $140,456,170. These returns point to a larger percentage of gain than has been shown in any previous month this year, or, indeed, since April, 1920, a total of 145 cities little below that at all cities in July, the largest aggregate recorded since April a year ago, and the probability that August this year will furnish the fifth largest monthly total there is record of. Interesting features of the detailed showing by groups of cities is that the northwest, southwest, far west and south showed gains over July, and that these groups with the addition of the middle group gained over a year ago.

GASOLINE PRODUCTION INCREASES.

Bradstreet's of the date of September 10, says an analysis of the statistics issued by the United States Bureau of Mines shows that the production of gasoline for the first half of the current year was 2,573,543,547 gallons, or 18 per cent. larger than the production in the same period of 1920. The imports of gasoline virtually all from Mexico, for the six months were 14,835,056 gallons, or 32 per cent. less than those for the first six months of last year. Exports amounted to 286,564,512 gallons, which were substantially less than the shipments in the corresponding period of the previous twelve months, while shipments to our insular possessions increased 45 per cent. Total stocks of gasoline in storage on June 30, 1921, amounted to 750,644,450 gallons, or 40 per cent. larger than on June 30, 1920, and 62 per cent. larger than on January 1, 1921.

MELLON AND HIS RECOMMENDATIONS.

Reduction in surtaxes is to be made by the congressional law makers; repeal of the excess profits tax is to be made effective January 1, 1822; maximum surtax rate will be kept at 32 per cent and the bill will be whipped into shape without delay. Secretary Mellon asked that a reduction of the maximum surtax rate to 25 per cent be made and Senator Penrose has favored repeal of the excess profits tax of January 1, 1921. Is it possible that the senate finance committee is going to ignore recommendations made by the secretary of the treasury and Boss Penrose? When the tax bill is out of the way, the finance committee will again turn its attention to the tariff. The senatorial solons are in no hurry. When it comes to a tariff bill or its making, they are up in the political treetops.

Roscoe Oleaginous Arbuckle was born in a sod house in Kansas, thirty-seven years ago. He finished in a house of iron and mortar in the city of San Francisco. He is accused of a foul crime. He asked suspension of judgment on the part of the public until a jury of his peers has returned a verdict. An accusation is not a verdict of guilt. A person accused of crime is presumably innocent until a jury has passed on the evidence and returned its finding. The Record News awaits the verdict of the jury. It never returns a verdict of guilty until all the evidence is in and twelve men have pronounced the verdict.

Congressman J. J. Mansfield of the Ninth Texas District is lying at the point of death at the Walter Reed Reconstruction Hospital in the city of Washington. Congressman Mansfield has been in ill health for more than a year and his physicians say that there is no hope for him. He has been a valuable member of congress and loyal to the best interests of the people of Texas.

URGES FOREST CROPS TO FURNISH PULP.

Need of eliminating waste in the printing business, as shown in the report just issued by the Committee on Elimination of Waste in Industry of the American Engineering Council, is one of the most powerful arguments ever put forth for a national forest, says a statement from the American Forestry Association, which has called on the World Press Congress, which meets in Honolulu in October, to take some action on the forestry question.

Upon what does the newspaper depend for existence, says the statement. It depends upon paper made from wood pulp. There are about 2,500 daily newspapers in the country. Our annual consumption of 2,000,000 tons of newsprint a year means a strip of paper as wide as the regulation daily paper and about 40,000,000 miles long. Just as a measure of distance, remember that the sun is 92,000,000 miles away. It would also make a two-foot-wide ribbon of newspaper around the world 1,000 times.

The time is coming when the economic law of necessity will bring our own publications to some sort of retrenchment. The editors of the United States and of the world must take up this question. Already more than one-third of our pulpwood comes from across the Canadian border, and Canada, profiting by our mistakes, is now taking steps to forbid the cutting of timber at a rate more than its growth. That means primarily that our annual importation of Canadian pulpwood has practically reached the maximum, and for the other two-thirds at least we will have to look after ourselves.

If we once squarely face the facts, the solution of the problem will not be difficult. It is estimated that about 3,000,000 cords of wood per year are manufactured into paper for magazines and newspapers. At ten cords per acre this would mean 300,000 acres. Supposing that it takes about forty to fifty years to grow good pulpwood spruce, and allowing for possible loss by fire, wind, blight or failure of seeding, a tract of 30,000 square miles, planted with forty successive crops of timber, each crop coming to maturity at one year intervals, would under proper care and management, furnish a perpetual supply of pulpwood for newsprint. This means an area a little smaller than the State of Ohio, but represents less than one-tenth of the area of our cut-over lands, most of which are now almost entirely unproductive.

There is no question but that a perpetual supply of pulpwood for all needs is a possible and practical scheme. It will not, however, come merely for the asking. There must be, first, a proper national forestry law with adequate provisions for fire protection and government of reforestation on a scale large enough to demonstrate the economic soundness of the idea; second, every state must adopt thorough-going forestry principles with provisions to protect growing timber from exorbitant taxation; and, finally, with these laws as a basis, the pulp and paper industry, together with all other wood-using industries, must be made to see that in practical reforestation and conservation lies their only salvation. To accomplish these three things will require the united efforts of every man and woman. We should not leave to any group of foresters and legislators the sole initiative in solving such an important economic problem; but, by the continued expression of our thought and conviction, we can urge those groups to supply our imminent need.

Here is waste that staggers the imagination. Forest fires annually destroy 2,000,000 feet of timber, or material enough to build a five-room frame house every 100 feet on both sides of a road extending from New York to Chicago. With four people to a house, these 100,000 or more buildings would provide a home for nearly one-fourth of our yearly increase in population—a number sufficient to populate a new city each year the size of Cincinnati, New Orleans, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Mo., and Seattle.

More than 160,000 forest fires have occurred in the United States during the last five years, 80 per cent. of which were due to human agencies and therefore preventable. These conflagrations burned over 56,488,000 acres—an area greater than that included within the States of Ohio, and Pennsylvania—and destroyed $85,700,000 worth of timber and property. If this needless waste were stopped and the material thus saved put into houses, the various business interests concerned in building construction, such as lumber dealers, carpenters, masons and supply houses, would, it is estimated, benefit to the extent of more than $400,000,000 annually. Bankers and real estate dealers would also profit through the sale of lands and by loans on homes to the extent of an additional $300,000,000.

There are 81,000,000 acres of idle land in this country that should be put to work growing trees at once, the association's statement ends. "This is a proposition directly tied up with national prosperity now and in the future. All the money in the world will not buy food if there is no food. All the money in the world will not produce trees to order. We must begin right now to protect what forests we have and to have forest crops every year just as we have corn and wheat crops. The committee on the Elimination of Waste in Industry has performed a valuable service, but the great waste is idle land, and a great part of it is in the East and Middle West close to the great newspapers, the greatest consumers, who are now paying thousands of dollars on freight rates, to say nothing of a high market price.

Millions of dollars can be saved annually by the use of a device similar to a cream separator in recovering petroleum that has become mixed with water in the wells, Dr. Sidney Borne, of Muskogee, Oklahoma today told delegates to the petroleum section of the American Chemical Society's convention in the city of New York. Dr. Borne, said the machine, which is being used with success, which is being used with success in oil fields of the Middle West, revolves at a speed of 17,000 revolutions a minute, breaking up the emulsions into clear oil and salt water, which are then drained off through spouts.

Manitoba must be a paradise for working men. Richard Spillane, the noted writer on economics, is touring the province of Canada. He says there is no unemployment in Winnipeg. There are more jobs than men. This is the verdict of Spillane: "There is nothing particularly the matter with Winnipeg or Manitoba." There is nothing particularly the matter with any section of the United States or Canada where men had rather work than growl and the doers of things insist that the savers of things shall step aside and let the business procession move on.

A LOST CHORD.

Seated one day at the organ,
I was weary and ill at ease,
And my fingers wandered idly
Over the noisy keys.

I do not know what I was playing,
Or what I was dreaming then;
But I struck one chord of music,
Like the sound of the great amen.

It flooded the crimson twilight,
Like the close of an angel's psalm,
And it lay on my fevered spirit
With a touch of infinite calm.

It quieted pain and sorrow,
Like love overcoming strife;
It seemed the harmonious echo
From our discordant life.

It linked all perplexed meanings
Into one perfect peace,
And trembled away into silence
As if it were both to cease.

I have sought, but I seek it vainly,
That one lost chord divine,
Which came from the soul of the organ,
And entered into mine.

It may be that Death's bright angel
Will speak in that chord again—
It may be that only in heaven
I shall hear that grand amen.

Rippling Rhymes

OLD AS YOU FEEL.

I know a lot of sprightly men whose toll of years is weighty, for all have passed three score and ten, and some are nearly eighty. They pass my cottage every day, on divers errands spinning, and some are bald and all are gray—old gents who've had their inning. They've settled down beside the sea, where life is calm and easy, and here they'll dwell until they flee this vale so vain and cheesey. But they don't sit upon the sands and shrink and sigh and shiver, and wait, and wait, with folded hands, the call to cross the river. They're up and coming all the time to give Old Age a trimming, and up the mountainsides they climb, and in the sea go swimming. In olden times the patriarchs sat waiting dissolution, and they were prone to grim remarks concerning retribution. When they'd achieved three score and nine, they felt their graft was ended, and each one then took in his sign, and to the shadows wended. But now the old boy won't say die, or grant that he's a fogy; he'll ride an airplane to the sky, and fool with Colonel Bogie; he'll send his motor up the pike until the speed cops nail him; this young old man I greatly like, and with much ardor hail him.—Copyright by George Matthew Adams.

DOGS, CATS AND JAZZ

Down in Washington
They have a new angle
On the apartment problem.
Leases being made now
Provide that jazz music
Shall be barred, as it is
A menace to the peace
And happiness of neighbors.
This sort of music
Is classed with dogs,
Cats and parrots.
Probably, also, tenants
Are forbidden to park Fords
In their apartments.
It seems the landlords
Are very particular.
But why knock the cats
By placing them in the Same category with jazz?
A good, respectable cat fight
Is pure harmony when Compared with some of the
Screech-owl jazz we have
In our neighborhood.
Also it is a knock on
The parrots which must
Offend them tremendously.
Any parrot that could
Drown out a jazz band
Would be welcome in Any apartment house.

climbing into office. "When the country needed $250,000,000 and the tariff could obtain it, then the tariff loomed too large. Now that the country's needs range into the thousands of millions the tariff is just about big enough to make one plank of a political platform—a plank to be abandoned agilely when it begins to tip. The country is staggering under a burden of debt. What would $250,000,000 mean?" "The income tax law!" continued Colonel Watterson. "It would take a highly successful firm of Philadelphia attorneys seven years of intensive application to figure out what the thing is driving at. It is a shocking piece of complexity, utterly beyond the reach of any man of average intelligence. No one can understand such a weird law. It has more vagaries than a Kentucky mule, whom only his maker understandeth." Asked what he thought of prohibition, "Marse Henry" said: "Prohibition is scoundrelism. Any legislation dealing with the personal habits of our people is at war with the purpose and spirit of our constitution. I do not hesitate to say that there is less personal liberty in the United States today than there ever has been in Russia at any time. Prohibitionists properly may be divided into three classes: The honest prohibitionist; the self-seeking prohibitionist, and the prohibitionist who does not give a damn. The honest prohibitionist is a fool; the self-seeking prohibitionist is a rascally politician, and the remainder are riffraff whose opinions are not worth having on anything. It is impossible, even were it desirable, to put 100,000,000 people upon the water wagon. The result of prohibition is likely to be a multiplication of lawbreakers and hypocrites. It places a premium upon corruption in office. If it were possible to exterminate whisky, brandy, gin, rum and distilled alcoholic beverages and put the people on a diet of light wines and beer, as has ruled in Europe for centuries without visible drunkenness, that would be a good thing. But the crazy extremists and the cowardly politicians will not permit even this. Ultimately the law will fall into innocuous dusuetude, as did the fifteenth amendment in the Southern States." Who was it said "that the sunset of life gives mystical lore and coming events cast their shadows before?" Of course there are millions of his countrymen who will not agree with the verdict of Colonel Watterson but his viewpoint is interesting and his reflections make fascinating reading. Long life to the Sage of the Southland the uncrowned king of the free lances of the American Press. An old world is dying: an old civilization is dying. Colonel Watterson belongs to the past.

FROM AROUND THE STATE

COLLEGEPORT.

COLLEGEPORT, Sept. 14.—H. A. Clapp of Collegeport, who has charge of the calf clubs being organized in co-operation with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the Extension Department of the A. & M. College, states that the present plan is that when as many as ten, for registered calf clubs, or twenty for a grade club has signed applications, ten registered heifers in one case or twenty in the other are supplied. In addition a registered bull is supplied for each club, and the bull will become the property of the club. This stock will be delivered free of transportation charges to the railway station of each club member. The calves will be bought at wholesale and sold at cost to club members. Clubs are now being rapidly organized both in Central West Texas and the lower Plains Country.

GOREE.

GOREE, Texas, Sept. 14.—W. O. Wright exhibited a sample of some very fine snowflake cotton grown on his farm east of town. This cotton will compare favorably with that grown in Red river county and thus another use has been found for good Archer county soil.

E. W. Tripp has returned from Winters. He reports conditions generally good and that Winters has received about 2,000 bales of cotton.

More than 300 bales has been received at the Megargle cotton yard and the price paid is around 18 1-2 cents.

Megargle high school began today. All pupils were in their places, were properly classified and received their books.

Mrs. L. L. Logan gave a going away party in honor of Mrs. Creekmore which was a very interesting affair. Twenty-six ladies were present.

Dr. R. L. McCoy, assistant county health officer, says the general health of the community was never better.

Will J. Haden, editor and publisher of the Megargle Post, says one of the most interesting events of the near future is the Tri-State Fair which is ot take place at Amarillo, Oct. 10-15th. The exhibition will consist of exhibits from Western Texas, Western Oklahoma and Eastern New Mexico. The climate and agricultural development of this great region is practically the same in each of its divisions. It should be a fair of great practical results for those who participate in it.

CLARENDON.

CLARENDON, Texas, Sept. 14.—Clarendon College opened this morning. President G. S. Slover presiding. Dean C. H. Condron outlined the work for the year. The sermon was by Evangelist Albert C. Fisher, and several solos by Mrs. Fisher and Mr. Cheek, all of Fort Worth. About the same enrollment as last year is expected.

STAMFORD.

STAMFORD, Texas, Sept. 14.—Word was received today by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from T. O. Walton, director, Co-operative Extension Work, A. & M. College of Texas, that T. J. Conway, professor of Poultry Husbandry, A. & M. College, will accompany C. C. French of the Fort Worth Stockyards Co., and J. W. Ridgeway of the Nissley Creamery Co., in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Poultry-Dairy Campaign.

The first meeting of this campaign will open at Decatur on the 15th instant. The campaign has for its purpose the marketing of West Texas' great grain-sorghum crop on foot in the shape of dairy products, porkers, beef cattle and poultry. This crop has been estimated by the Texas Grain Dealers Association to be the largest grain crop ever raised in West Texas.

Breakfast Stories

The yellow man has invaded Paris as well as London, owing to the absence of domestic help. A newspaper depicts such a servant arriving at a French home, where the lady of the house exclaims in consternation, "But he doe— know a word of French! What shall we do?"

The popularity of motion pictures has sustained another body blow and is now groggy from the jolts it has received from sensational escapades of its stars.

The recent arrest of Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle on a charge of murder in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, movie actress, following a party in Arbuckle's rooms, is the latest blow referred to.

Until this sensation broke Arbuckle was thought of by millions of movie fans only as a great big, jovial, big hearted, smiling chap. They got a laugh out of his every appearance. And all the fun he put in his movies was the wholesome kind. When the above picture of Arbuckle and Lila Lee was taken just recently—before the murder story broke—the public still had their good idea of Arbuckle. He and Miss Lee were waiting their turns to work before the camera and, just to keep the photographer busy, posed for him.

Miss Lee had no idea, of course, that Arbuckle would soon be before the public in a new light—a bad one.

IS NOT A CITY FELLER

Julien Josephson, author of "The City Feller," is not a city feller. Although his name is known to fans all over the world (at least to those fans who bother to read the author's name), for he wrote all those early successes for Charles Ray, Mr. Josephson has never seen any large cities except San Francisco and Los Angeles. He has never ridden on a subway nor an elevated. The poor author doesn't have the chance to see the world that the stars have!

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

MISS LUTIE LEAVES

"My, but you young people look jolly here," she began, smiling her queer, twisted smile, which was anything but indicative of joy. Miss Lutie could smile at you any time, even when she was mentally planning a disastrous attack on your character. Hence the distrust on the part of every member of the club.

"Come in and warm yourself, Miss Lutie, do," urged Beth, hospitably. Beth was invariably kind to everybody, gossips included. So at her invitation the grim intruder minced forward to a large armchair and proceeded to make herself comfortable.

Cherry caught wild glances going the rounds near her and was quick to know that they meant "Do not mention any heart problems or refer to the disgruntled wives' club until she leaves." It would be a sweet bit of gossip for such a lady to spread, as soon as she retired, and the whole of Wellsburg would be agag for days after it. Cautiously the wives sat about and chatted amicably about the weather, the harvest and the next dance to be given by the "Cunning Canners' Club," a new circle just formed in town, to which most of the younger matrons belonged.

It was an autumn club, formed really for the purpose of arousing the gayer set to the proper point of activity necessary for canning and preserving the fruits and vegetables in the community that fairly ached to be canned. Crops were more than abundant this year, and the rules of the Cunning Canners' club exacted so many jars and cans of well preserved dainties from each of its members.

Miss Lutie as an older member of society of course did not belong to this rather exclusive set, but she was always eager to hear what they were up to. Her curiosity increased with her years.

The girls fidgetted about wishing their guest would depart, so that they might go on with their evening's work, but Miss Lutie sat tight. In fact it looked as if she had come to spend a long time in their midst.

The telephone rang shortly afterward and Beth skipped to answer it, mentally devising a plan to get rid of Miss Lutie, as she took up the receiver.

"Yes, this is Mrs. Wilders. Good evening, Mrs. Vane. Yes, thank you, everyone is well over here. Mrs. King's front parlor is full of men? Well, I just wonder now. Miss Laura's too old for them to be the courting kind, but maybe we'll find out all about it tomorrow. You can only see the legs of the crowd. Too bad she didn't think to leave the shades all the way up, Mrs. Vane," laughed Beth, as she hung up. She had deliberately raised her voice while speaking so that it would be carried into the living room and her little ruse worked, for when she returned Miss Lutie was already getting into her lavender muffler and explaining that she really must go. It was getting cold nights now and besides she had something to purchase at the store.

As the door closed upon her spare form, Beth went into gales of laughter. "You girls can thank me for getting rid of the old gossip. She's on her way now to try to catch Miss Laura at something, mark my word! And Mrs. Vane only said that 'the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker' were ringing Miss Laura's doorbell and were coming to collect the money for Fair day!"

The Song of the Flat

Our little flat, it is so small
It hampers every movement;
There seems almost no room at all,
Excepting for improvement.

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR STILL HALE AND HEARTY

GEORGE D. SHAW, Springfield, Mass.

"To say that I feel 25 years younger, 25 years healthier and 25 years stronger expresses what Tanlac has done for me better than any other way I can put it," said George D. Shaw, veteran of the Civil War, who now lives at 321 Walnut street, Springfield, Mass.

"I am now 78 years old and I don't hesitate to say I have never known a medicine to equal Tanlac. For 15 years I was subject to attacks of indigestion that were so bad at times I would have to lay up for a week or two. For a long time I lived on crackers and milk alone as nothing else agreed with me.

"When I started on Tanlac I weighed only 117 pounds and my days were thought to be numbered. I've been so wonderfully built up, I now weigh 143 pounds and my stomach is as sound as a dollar. In fact, I believe I could eat the old army rations again without it hurting me in the least.

"I never miss a chance of saying a good word for Tanlac and I would like to urge the boys of the 'Sixties' who are not feeling right to give it a trial, for I am sure it would put them in line again just as it has me. For a man of my age to have no physical ailment, to be well and strong and enjoy life as he did 25 years ago, is certainly something to be thankful for and there is nothing too good I can say for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store; in Electra by Tariton Drug Store; in Burkburnett by West End Drug Co., and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

MUSIC TEACHER AT C. I. A. GIVEN YEAR'S LEAVE

DENTON, Texas, Sept. 14.—Miss Katherine McKee Bailey of the Department of Music of the College of Industrial Arts, has been granted a year's leave of absence, and Miss Margaret Slater of Scotland has been chosen to succeed Miss Bailey. Miss Slater studied and taught with Leschestizky in Vienna for twelve years; and has been in the United States for only about one year, spending her time in New York and Pennsylvania where her playing has attracted wide and favorable comment. It will be recalled that Leschestizky was regarded by many as the greatest pianist in the world. Miss Slater's pupils have given successful recitals in London and the other centers of Europe, and she is, therefore, one of the most distinguished pianists of this country, and will be a valuable addition to the able faculty in the department of music at the College of Industrial Arts.

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after it had been decided an operation was necessary:

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep house and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. H. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman dreads more than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful.

It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

SPUDDERS COME TO LIFE, PLAY NIFTY BALL BEHIND RAMSEY'S GOOD HURLING AND LICK CATS

By C. F. CARTER

Playing real baseball again, on their toes every minute of the fray and grabbing every opportunity in sight, the Spudders came sharply to life yesterday afternoon and turned the Panthers upside down by a count of 8 to 4. "Jumbo" Ramsey twirled for the Spuds, and put up a fine exhibition. Although inclined to be a trifle wild in spots, Jumbo was airtight in the pinches and repeatedly turned the Cats back when they threatened to make serious trouble.

Behind Ramsey the boys all played fine baseball. Two errors were chalked up against the club, but they were merely the kind of errors that any player is liable to make in the heat of a hard game. The entire infield played pretty ball, while Josefson, Griggs and Bischoff in the outer yards nailed everything possible to reach.

Only a small crowd of fans were on deck to witness the game, and the majority of these had turned out to get a line on Jumbo Ramsey. The fans spent a happy afternoon, applauding every good play made by either team and "riding" Umpire Paul Sentell rather roughly, although merrily. The gang got on Paul early, and "hoorawed" him with great enthusiasm throughout the battle—but no casualties resulted, and Sentell has been an arbiter long enough to realize that every man who handles an indicator must expect to be an idol one minute and a man without a friend the next.

The Spudders hit Joe Pate hard and often. The big Fort Worth southpaw was not burlesquing his hurling either—but his best looked easy to the locals who soaked him heartily throughout the contest.

A two-bagger by Cecil Coombs, the only Panther who enjoyed a gala day with the bludgeon, and a wild heave by Danny Gross gave the Cats one run in the opening frame—but in their half the Spudders got it back with one more for interest. Josefson walked, and went to second on Buddy Tanner's single to right. Bischoff was safe and the bases were filled when Hoffman dropped Pate's peg to first. Danny Clark worked Pate for a pass on balls, forcing Jo in with a tally. Hoffman threw out Griggs, Tanner scoring. Joe Pate put on a little extra steam, and fanned Gross and Works.

Coombs Hits 'Em

After two men were out, Coombs again doubled in the second inning. Sears walked and Cecil came home with the tieing run on Stellbauer's single to left. Sears was thrown out trying to reach third on the play.

The score remained tied only a short time, as the Spudders ran amuck in the third, thusly:

Bischoff led off with a hot single to left, and advanced a base when Clark walked. Griggs singled to center, scoring George and putting Danny on third. Gross flied to short center. Haley threw out Caddy Works, Clark scoring. Frank Kitchens brought Cecil Griggs home with a hefty two-bagger to left. Haley threw out Ramsey.

In the sixth the Spuds captured another marker when Kitchens drove the apple out of the orchard via the left field fence route—and in the seventh they poured it on Joe Pate for two more runs on three hits and an error by Dutch Hoffman.

Meantime Jumbo Ramsey was attending strictly to his knitting, and the Cats were helpless against the big righthander until the ninth inning, when Coombs and Kraft each connected for the circuit. Each wallop was over the left field fence, and traveling strong at last report. The stands gave Kraft a generous hand on his circuit smash, and the Big Boy doffed his lid and smiled happily. Doubtless he was both surprised and pleased that the local baseball nuts had decided he isn't such a bad egg after all. It was good sportsmanship on the part of the fans, and personally we're glad Kraft busted the old pill the way he did.

A Good Game

It was a good, clean, fast game all the way through, and we enjoyed watching it. Under the circumstances we fell like giving three loud cheers, and again urging the fans to turn out this afternoon for the last Texas league baseball game of 1921 in Wichita Falls.

ALL DOWN BUT NINE; SET 'EM UP ON OTHER ALLEY!

TOLEDO, Sept. 14.—The first perfect bowling score of the season here was recorded last night when "Bud" Gardner, bowling in the all-star league under American Bowling Congress sanction, struck all the way. The score was made on new alleys opened only a week ago. The team of which Gardner is a member scored 3,123 for three games.

With the Pugs

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Midget Smith New York bantamweight, and Pal Moore of Chicago, today began training here for their fight to be staged at Aurora, Ill., on Sept. 23. Mike Dundee of Rock Island, Ill., will meet Frankie Shaefer in the semi-wind-up.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—A proposal to hold a six-round, no-decision bout here October 12, between Jack Dempsey and Jack Johnson was announced today by George H. Highan, state adjutant of the disabled American veterans of the world war. Johnson, he said, had agreed, and it was believed Dempsey would do so. Highan said he was drawing up a formal application to the state boxing commission. The proceeds would be used for the relief of disabled service men.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 14.—That the greatest flock of fight fans that ever visited this city will be here Saturday for the twelve-round decision bout between Johnny Kilbane, world's featherweight champion, and Danny Frush of Baltimore, is indicated by the large number of out-of-town seat reservations.

FINALS IN TENNIS TOURNEY WILL BE PLAYED THIS WEEK

The finals in the city tennis championship oturnament will be played the last of the week. The tournament has brought out some unusual play but no big surprises that were looked for. In singles the four men going into the semi-finals are the same four who played in that round in the June tournament. They are matched as follows: J. W. Akin, Jr., vs. H. D. Lewis and C. O. Gallenkamp vs. Wm. Powers. The Gallenkomp-Powers match will be played this afternoon at the courts at 1609 Thirteenth street at 4 o'clock and the public is invited. Several singles consolation matches are also scheduled for this afternoon.

Frank Collier sas donated a Spalding racket for the winner of the singles consolation and quite a little interest is being taken in this event. So far only one match has been completed, Joe Hill defeated Wm. Evans 6-2, 6-1.

WILLIE M'BRIDE SHOOTS EIGHTEEN HOLES IN 62.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14.—Willie McBride, professional at the Schenley Park golf links, tied the record of the course yesterday by playing the 18 holes in 62, a record established in 1907 by Jack Hutchinson, British open golf champion, according to the Pittsburgh Gazette Times.

MAN O' WAR KIN CALLED "CRIBBER" IN $100,000 SUIT

"Playfellow"

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The horse-swapping in David-Harum is brought to mind by a suit instituted here by Harry A. Sinclair, the well-known oil man and owner of thoroughbred horses. Sinclair has sued James F. Johnson, Brooklyn turfman, for $100,000 which he says he paid Johnson for Playfellow, a full brother of the wonder-runner, Man o' War, last spring. Playfellow had won ten races under the Johnson colors. He was the talk of the racing world. Greater deeds were expected of him as he developed. Under Sinclair's handling, Playfellow failed to win—finished second in the two races in which he was entered.

Now Sinclair alleges that the racer is a cribber—a windsucker. A cribber is a horse which knaws wood and inhales the slivers and dust. Sinclair says the horse is not sound, as Johnson represented the sted to be at the time of the sale.

Many horsemen claim that windsucking is a habit and does not legally constitute unsoundness. Johnson's friends point out that a veterinary passed Playfellow as sound when examining him for a $112,000 insurance policy just before the sale.

BESCHER GETS DAVE'S SILVER BAT TODAY

Dave Paul, local jeweler, is going to give his widely advertised silver baseball bat and silver baseball to Bob Bescher this afternoon at Athletic park—so Dave stated last night. For several weeks Dave has been running a voting contest open to all the fans to determine what Spudder player, in the minds of those voting, has been of most value to the team this season.

Bob Bescher gained a gigantic lead early in the contest and has held on to first place ever since, although every Spudder has come in for a generous share of votes. After Bescher was so injured as to be unable to play longer with the Spuds, the tide of balloting became more even and the fans began to vote daily for men who socked the apple hardest—or so it seemed.

The contest was an interesting one, although in justice to some of the players it should be stated that it hardly represented a fair test of the value of the players always. Buddy Tanner, for example, is worth far more to the Spudders, and always has been, than his 291 votes would indicate. There is not a harder working, more loyal ball player in the Texas league than buddy. He never loafs, never quits playing the game with every ounce of energy he possesses and never complains. And there are other players on the club who also have been of mighty value because of this same spirit of hard work and loyalty.

But it was a good contest, and aroused a lot of interest. Bob Bescher, good-natured, brainy ball player, hard hitter, and the most dangerous man on the paths in the league, gets the silver bat and silver ball. They will be presented before the game this afternoon by Representative B. Frank Johnson.

The final standing in the contest, as reported last night by Dave Paul, was as follows:

Bescher	1324
McDonald	885
Salm	607
Kitchens	580
Miller	504
Clark	419
Works	393

YANKS PUSH ON IN RACE FOR PENNANT

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The New York Americans retained their lead today as the result of a late inning rally defeating Chicago in the last game of the season between the two clubs 11 to 8. The Yankees were aided by the wildness of Chicago pitchers. Strunk was knocked unconscious in the fifth when he was hit on the head by one of W. Collins' pitches. He retired from the game but his condition is not serious.

PRAIRIE COMPANY TANKS ARE BURNED

WELLSVILLE, Mo., Sept. 14.—More than 30,000 gallons of crude oil is burning as a result of lightning here today. The oil is the property of the Prairie Pipe Line Company. The loss is estimated at more than $100,000. More than six inches of rain fell in less than two hours.

BILL TILDEN ELIMINATES CALIFORNIAN

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—For the second time in two years Wm. T. Tilden, II, of Philadelphia, destroyed all chance of William M. Johnston of San Francisco, obtaining permanent possession of the championship tennis singles cup by defeating him here today, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3, in the fourth round of the annual titular tournament. Johnston, winner of the championship in 1915 and 1919, staged a spectacular comeback but as was the case at Forest Hills, last September, it was Tilden who defeated his plan, to win a third and final leg upon the historic trophy. A year ago Tilden won from Johnston in the final round by scores of 6-1, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3. Today on the courts of the Germantown cricket club the local player erased the little Californian in a 4 set match and apparently cleared the way for a retention of the championship which he won for the first time in 1920.

Johnston was not the only former title holder to be eliminated, however, for R. Norris Williams II, of Boston, champion of 1914 and 1916, also went down to defeat before J. O. Anderson, the Australian Davis cup player, in a hard five set match 6-3, 6-3, 2-6, 4-6, 6-4. Other survivors of the fourth round included Wallace F. Johnson, of Philadelphia, Francis T. Hunter of New York, F. Gordon Lowe of England, Willis E. Davis, and Robert G. Kinsey of San Francisco.

PETER MANNING EQUALS WORLD TROTTING RECORD.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Manning driven by Tommy Murphy equalled the world's trotting record for all horses regardless of age by covering a mile in 1:58 at the state fair track here late today. Peter Manning was started to beat 2:00, world's record for five-year-old geldings. Arion Guy, owned by Mrs. Harry K. Devereaux and driven by Murhpy set a new world's record for four year olds by trotting a mile in 2:01. The former record, 2:02 has been held by Peter Volo since 1915.

MOLINE WINS THREE-I LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP.

MOLINE, Ill., Sept. 14.—The Moline team of the Three-I League today claimed the league pennant as a result of yesterday's defeat of Terre Haute by a score of 6 to 3.

WISDOM and WORSE

By C. F. C.

That was more line it.

The boys hustled all the time, and hustled hard. Too bad the actions of some of the players on both teams Tuesday kept so many fans from the park yesterday.

Might as well turn out strong today, fellers, and give the gang the farewell mitt. It's the last game of the year in Wichita Falls. Dave Paul will give away his bat and ball, Frank Johnson will make a speech—and the Texas league season will end, insofar as the home fans are concerned. The Spudders will play three more games in Fort Worth to wind up the schedule, and will then scatter to the four winds.

Don't know what they'll all do. Danny Clark, as we stated yesterday, will go into the tailoring business here with Roy Rhodes; Caddy Works will study law this winter in California; Rube Marshall says he doesn't intend to do anything if he can avoid it; Frank Kitchens may return to his former pursuit of selling automobiles—and we just don't know where all the rest of the boys will be located.

But there's one good way to keep in touch with the season just closing—buy one of our books of baseball verse! Hot dawg! Should have urged that stronger and earlier. That vacation looks rather dim, we've been so busy we don't know how many books have been sold—but perhaps they've been going like hot cakes. Dunno, and can't be annoyed; never made any profit out of anything in all our life, so if this goes over big we'll be dumfounded.

Noticed John Gould's fine Italian hand in a little story in the Times last evening, headed, "Sport Editor Busts Into Verse, Volume Offered For Sale." Tells all about our little book, and states that it is "penned in the author's customary brilliant and pleasing style." Now ain't that nice? And then John, who always gets sorter crabby and sarcastic when he breaks into alleged humor, adds: "Sales of the little volume were draggy at first but picked up considerably when it became known that the purpose of the publication was to raise enough money to get the author out of town. The admitted worthiness of this cause greatly stimulated the demand."

Don't worry, John. We had your job once, and we don't care for it again. It's safe as far as we're concerned. And once, sweetheart, the Times seemed really glad to get "the author" IN town and to do its best to keep him here.

H. L. Lane, of Fort Worth, has written us a "real nawsty" letter stating that the Spudders have won the "Beefing Championship" and waxing downright mean throughout his epistle. But as Brother Lane never publicly defended or stood up for his beloved Cats when they were losing, we take it he's just another fair weather sport who plays safe and does his heavy fighting after his opponent has slipped and is down. It isn't the letter of a good, square sportsman—perhaps we're foolish even to mention its receipt.

Bill Ruggles believes the spitball is coming back; believes there was really no need for its abolition. But you can't convince the batters of that. As he points out, there may not have been any fatalities resulting from its use—but there certainly have been plenty of injuries to batters, not to mention the split fingers of many a catcher who has tried to nab the elusive saliva-coated sphere when it slid swiftly off a swinging bat. The trouble with the spitter is usually with the pitcher who uses it—control difficulty. Most spitball pitchers have rather a vague idea where in tarnation the darned old apple is going to break—and the result is most "aggranoying" to the batter and the backstop; and occasionally the umpire also gets one in the mush that staggers him.

On Saturday the qualifying rounds of the national open golf championship will be played in St. Louis. Scores of golfers from every section of the country are already in St. Louis warming up, and among them is Tommy Cochran, Wichita Falls' only entrant. Tommy may not drag down the biggest honor in American golf, but we expect him to make a good showing even against the best in the United States, while the experience he will gather will stand him in good stead in later tournaments.

KICKS FILED ON BOUNDARY FOR SCHOOLS

After hearing numerous complaints from parents concerning the new district lines laid out for ward schools, made before the school board session Tuesday afternoon at the Wichita State Bank, the board passed a resolution to the effect that because of the crowded conditions of some schools it will be impossible to make any changes in assignments, other than one suggested by Superintendent Lee Clark for the purpose of relieving the Austin school.

This change will turn a number of pupils, formerly assigned to the Austin school to the Alamo school. The new district line for the Alamo school, according to the announcement will be run from Avenue G to Marshall streets and from the Wichita Valley tracks down Brook street to Eleventh rather than Twelfth street, on Eleventh to Graves and thence back to the railway tracks.

The school board set aside $250 to be used in the interest of school athletic activities and approved of the Wichita State Bank as a depository for the school funds.

Superintendent Clark announced that the total enrollment, including the negro students at the Washington school, was 4,600, a figure slightly under the estimates of teachers following the opening day. The attendance at different buildings as announced, was: Travis school, 293; Sam Houston, 379; San Jacinto, 630; Austin 904; Alamo, 726; Barwise, 230; Junior High, 390; Senior High, 600; Fannin, 149; Bowie, 68; Washington (negro), 240.

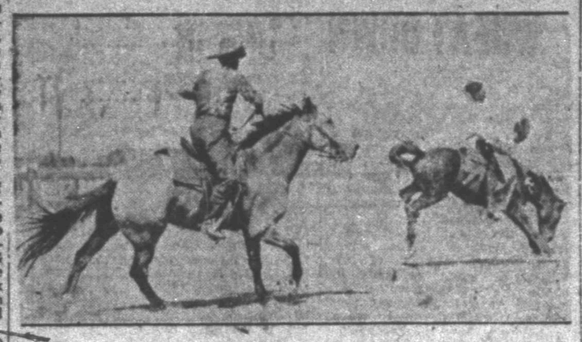

W. W. Brown, business manager of schools, announced that the cast parts of desks, ordered some time ago had not arrived Tuesday but are expected to arrive and be installed by the end of this week.

SEYMOUR READY FOR BAYLOR COUNTY FAIR OPENING ON THURSDAY

Frank Rhoades of Throckmorton county is king of rodeo riders. He has many fine horses, carefully trained and he is known from the Canadian border line to the Rio Grande river wherever cowmen or cowboys ride the ranges today or in the yesteryear. Frank Rhoades and John Davis entertained the Baylor county boosters on their recent trip and Rhoades will direct the rodeo show at Seymour Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

SEYMOUR, Sept. 14.—With innumerable exhibits, showing the fertility and productiveness of Baylor county soil and the versatility of Baylor county's women folk in place, Seymour is in readiness tonight for what is expected to be the greatest and most successful of all her county fairs. Numerous parties have already made their appearance, ready to spend the three days here during the entertainment and indications point to the arrival of large delegations from surrounding towns on Wednesday night and Thursday inbound trains.

One of the big features of the fair, which is expected to prove of great attraction to visitors is the rodeo, under the management of Jack Rhoades of Throckmorton county. Mr. Rhoades is one of the kings of rodeo riders. He has many fine horses, carefully trained, and is known from the Canadian border line to the Rio Grande river, wherever cowmen or cowboys ride the ranges today or in the yesteryear. Frank Rhoades and John Davis entertained the Baylor county boosters on their recent trip and will be in active charge of the rodeo during Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The agricultural exhibits are under the direction of Captain M. C. McGown, Baylor county agricultural agent and the poultry and textile and displays are under the management of Miss Hulsey, home economics demonstrator.

The livestock industry is well represented among the exhibits and includes any number of pure bred cattle, horses, sheep, hogs, jacks and jennets.

President Fisher of the Fair Association announced today that a wire has been received from the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce advising that a large delegation will arrive on a special train from that city on Friday. They are to be accompanied by Mayor Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls, who will be one of the principal speakers at the fair grounds on that day.

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is through the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "below par," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—pimples, blackheads, and boils.

If the waste products are not gotten out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself. It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

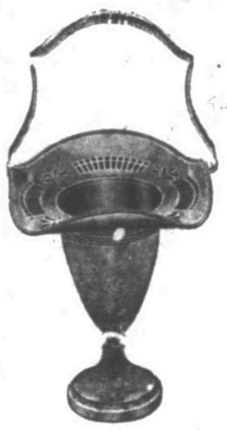

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles — skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

COTTON MART NERVOUS AND FLUCTUATING

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today. The intense excitement and activity was reported subsided somewhat but there was further violent fluctuation and a large volume of business. December contracts sold up to 20.49 late in the morning, broke to 19.87 following the publication of a bullish but discounted weekly weather report, then rallied to 20.35 and closed at 20.10 compared with 20.02 at the close yesterday. The general market closed easy, net 8 points lower to 20 points higher with spring months relatively firm.

The opening was irregular at an advance of 8 points to a decline of 32 points but August was the only month which showed the maximum decline and the market almost immediately turned firmer on relative steady Liverpool cables and bullish weekly report from the weather bureal at midday. The advance was stimulated by the census figures indicating domestic consumption of 467,120 durnig July and reports that a prominent New Orleans man estimated that the carry over of cotton in the country would be less than 600,000 bales by the end of this season outside of mill stocks. October sold up to 20.25. There was increased realizing at these figures, which became more active when the weekly report of the weather bureau failed to stimulate fresh buying with the market breaking to 19.70 for October and January during the early afternoon or 15 to 28 points net lower. The decline on later months was checked at last night's closing figures, however, and there were rallies later although a very reactionary sentiment was reported in professional trading circles here at the close. The weekly report of the weather bureau was generally bullish but stated that top crop prospects had been revived in some Texas stations yb the rains.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14—While the cotton market made fairly wide gains at times today there was much realizing from the long side and some little short selling on the belief that this realizing might eventually bring about a prolonged reaction. Heaviest selling was felt around midday when trading months were 11 to 18 points under the close of yesterday with October at 1940. Another period of selling came toward the close after the market had come back rather strongly on reports of a better spot demand especially in the interior so that last prices were at net advances of but 4 to 12 points on more active months, October closing at 19.62.

Around opening the trend was higher and the advance was widened by the census bureau report on American cotton mills for August, the active months finally standing 46 to 53 points higher than the final prices of yesterday. Here October stood at 20.08 cents a pound. Interest in the census bureau figures was centered mainly in consumption which was counted at 467,103 bales against 410,120 during July, a considerably larger gain than generally expected.

Following the weekly crop reports the market went to its lowest on the claim that the returns were less favorable than expected especially on Texas. For a while this opinion dominated the trading but a little later the market began to firm up again on bullish spot accounts.

By Associated Press.

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 14.—Hog prices at the stockyards here were lower today than they have been in more than five years. The best hogs sold at $7.75@$7.90 hundred pounds and some common heavy heags were as low as $5.75.

WOULD PROHIBIT COTTON PLANTING TO KILL WEEVILS

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—Complete abolition of cotton planting for the year was declared the only sure means of ridding the south of the boll weevil by Paul M. Potts, a planter of Nacogdoches, in an address here today before the Louisiana and Mississippi divisions of the American cotton association.

"I have tred every method suggested to get rid of the ravages of the weevil,' said Mr. Potts, 'but they have failed. There is only one sure method. That is for the cotton belt, through legislation, to prevent the planting of any cotton for one year.

FIVE ESCAPE UTAH PRISON

By Associated Press.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 14.—Five prisoners at the Utah state prison escaped early today after overpowering two guards and shooting at a third.

The prisoners are stanley Shadlow, convicted of burglary; Frank Smith and Jimmy Miller, who robbed the Springville, Utah, bank; Edward Harris, who robbed the bank of St. George, Utah,; and Oscar Blaney, convicted of robberies which ended in a duel with the Salt Lake police when a companion of his and Detective George Hamby were shot dead.

ARGENTINE RAINS SEND WHEAT DOWN

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Rains in Argentina with depression in foreign exchange today led to setbacks in the price of wheat. Closing quotations were heavy, ⅜ to 1½ net lower with December 1.30¼ to 1.31 and May 1.35½ to 1.35¾. Corn finished a shade off to ⅛ up, oats down ⅛ to ⅜, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 25@27c.

At first the wheat market had a pronounced upward slant owing chiefly to liberal buying of the United States wheat yesterday by foreigners. Crop development in Argentina and Australia, however, were being closely watched, and when, shortly before midday the news came that drought in Argentina was broken the market soon weakened. Meanwhile bearish sentiment was reinforced by signs that the foreign exchange situation was interfering with export business. Under such circumstances, word of big sales of flour at Minneapolis and Kansas City failed to induce any important rally.

Corn and oats were governed mainly by the action of wheat. Wet weather though, tended somewhat to sustain corn. Besides, gossip was current that the yield of corn would prove disappointing. Provisions averaged lower with hogs.

STOCKS MAKE NOTEWORTHY SALES GAINS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—One the most extensive operations of any session in recent months, the stock market today made some noteworthy accessions to its recent recovery. Sales totalled 875,000 shares.

Trading was very confusing, however, early strength giving way to irregularity at midday. Another vigorous rebound later was impaired by heavy profittaking, this in some instances canceling gains at the close.

Commission houses with western and other interior connections were prominent on the buying side. Their participation tended to confirm the impression that public interest in the securities market is showing definite signs of revival.

On the exchange call money opened at 5 per cent with abundant offerings at 4 1-2 outside. Time loans were made at 5 1-2 per cent, even for the longer periods and a slight concession was noted in the rate for commercial paper.

Of all the usual leaders oils were relatively backward, most of the foreign and high grade domestic issues denoting pressure. Steels and equipments dominated the list, especially Baldwin and railway steel spring.

Shippings and motors also the motor accessories, made substantial contributions to the advance. Dealings in rails were limited mainly to secondary issues and coppers reacted on trade conditions.

Further heavy buying of dollar exchange in London for British and other interests precipitated sharp reversals in the local foreign exchange market, virtually all European remittances weakening, especially Francs and marks.

The bond market, including liberties, was mostly higher on enlarged dealings. Total sales, par value, were $14,850,000.

COTTON GOODS

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Advances were made in a moderate degree today on cotton goods and yarns at first hand. Further advances will be made to bring the parity of cloth values up to raw cotton. Staple hosiery and some lines of underwear advanced. Burlaps were firm; worsted yarns were quiet and steady. Garment sales quickened.

To Our Customers

—In order to make you better prices, and meet out-of-town competition, we have consolidated our printing plant and stationery store, now having all in one, right in the heart of the city, thereby curtailing our expenses, besides we have made reductions in various other ways, which will enable us to make prices on printing that will meet your approval.

—In future it will not be our policy to bother you with salesmen, excepting an occasional visit on the part of our superintendent. We do not mean by this that we have plenty and do not need your work; we need it the worse kind, and want to figure on all your printing but we are satisfied you had rather we give you the benefit of this expense in price, however we shall be glad to call should it not be convenient for you to come to our store.

—We are in Wichita Falls, interested in the welfare of Wichita Falls and whenever possible we will meet or better, legitimate competition.

—Let's keep this money at home.

THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF WICHITA COUNTY, GREETING:
You are hereby commanded to summon Fay Petroleum Company by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the Eighty-ninth District Court of Wichita County, to be holden at the court house thereof in Wichita Falls on the first Monday in October, A. D., 1921, the same being the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 9th day of August, A. D., 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 11331-C wherein, W. H. Worthington is plaintiff and Fay Petroleum Company is defendant and said petition alleging: That on July 20, 1921, the defendant was the owner or reputed owner of a certain oil and gas lease and an oil well located thereon, to-wit:
20 acres oil and gas lease in the Texroma field in Wichita County, Texas, known as the Tandy lease, being located about 11 miles north of Wichita Falls, Texas, and west of the railroad track, also one derrick, one 500 barrel wooden tank, two strings of casing, one string being 6 -8-inch and the other 5 3-8-inch. That by virtue of a verbal contract entered into by plaintiff and defendant, said defendant agreed to pay this plaintiff the sum of $3.50 per day from the 1st day of April, 1921. That plaintiff is still working for defendant and that defendant is now indebted to plaintiff in the principal sum of $455.00 and though often requested have failed and refused to pay plaintiff to his damage $500.00. That on July 20, 1921, plaintiff made and filed his laborer's lien in County Clerk's office in Wichita County, Texas, as required by law against the above described property to secure the payment of his debt. That said property is of the value of $1000.00.
Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendant be cited by publication to appear at the next regular term of this court and answer herein for judgment against defendant for his debt in the sum of $500.00, for foreclosure of his lien, cost of suit, etc.
Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 22nd day of August, A. D., 1921.
A. F. KERR, Clerk.
District Court, Wichita County, Texas.
By EUNICE JACKSON, Deputy.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION.
STATE OF TEXAS.
TO THE SHERIFF OR ANY CONSTABLE OF WICHITA COUNTY, GREETING:
You are hereby commanded to summon John Paul Hogan and E. H. Smith by making publication of this citation once each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the Eighty-ninth District Court of Wichita County, to be holden at the court house thereof in Wichita Falls on the first Monday in October, A. D., 1921, the same being the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 23rd day of August, A. D., 1921 in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 11438-C wherein, Cordelia Gertrude Dutton Campbell is plaintiff and John Paul Hogan, John T. Overby and E. H. Smith are defendants and said petition alleging, that about June 23, 1919, defendant John Paul Hogan, made, executed and delivered to plaintiff his four promissory notes, each in the principal sum of $2650.00 due one, two, three and four years after date respectively, each bearing interest from date until paid at the rate of 6 per cent per annum payable annually, in Wichita Falls, and providing the usual 10 per cent attorney fee if sued upon. That said notes were given as a part of the purchase price of 260 acres of land out of the Harvey Cox 960-acre survey known as Abstract No. 67, Certificate No. 318, Patent No. 118, Volume No. 115, which said property was by plaintiff's deed in writing conveyed to defendant John Paul Hogan, June 23, 1919, recorded in Vol. 68, page 74, Deed Records Archer County, Texas. That note No. 1 of said series of notes due on June 23, 1920, has been paid and discharged, but Note No. 2 of said series of notes due June 23, 1921, is past due and unpaid and that the interest on note, 2, 3 and 4, due June 23, 1920, is past due and unpaid, and interest on note due June 23, 1921, is past due and unpaid that plaintiff has exercised her option to declare all of said notes due payable and mature. That though often requested to pay same defendants have failed and refused to pay same to plaintiff's damage $10,000.00. That because of these facts plaintiff has been compelled to place said note in the hands of attorneys for collection, etc.
That John T. Overby and E. H. Smith and each of them, claim some right title and interest in and to said property, but whatever interest is owned by said defendants is inferior to the claim and lien of plaintiff and is subject to said vendor's lien owned by plaintiff.
Wherefore plaintiff sues, prays that defendants John Paul Hogan and E. H. Smith be cited by publication herein, as the law directs, for judgment against the defendant, John Paul Hogan for her debt, principal, interest and attorneys fees with foreclosure of her vendor's lien as against all defendants; for cost of suit and general and special relief.
Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 26th day of August, A. D., 1921.
A. F. KERR, Clerk.
District Court, Wichita County, Texas.

D., 1921, the same being the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 16th day of August, A. D., 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 11391-C wherein M. D. Walker is plaintiff and J. S. Gault, H. H. Haggard, James A. Smith and J. E. Culver, are defendants and said petition alleging that on or about May 28th, 1919, for a valuable consideration, the defendant, J. S. Gault, made, executed and delivered to plaintiff two certain promissory, vendor's lien notes described as follows: Each dated May 28, 1919. Note No. 2 being in the amount of $600 due on or before 15 months after date, bearing interest from date at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, payable semi annually, and providing for attorney's fees; Note No. 3, being in the amount of $1000.00 due on or before 24 months after date, bearing interest from date at the rate of 8 per cent and providing for attorney's fees. That said notes contain a provision that if same are placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, an additional 10 per cent on the principal and interest then due, shall be added as attorney's fees. That said notes were given as part of the purchase price for the following described real property, situated in Wichita County, Texas, to-wit: Lot No. 12 in Block No. 31 of the Floral Heights Addition to the city of Wichita Falls, Texas. Plaintiff alleges that the defendant, J. S. Gault has failed and refused to record the conveyance from M. D. Walker to J. S. Gault and the defendant, J. S. Gault is hereby giver notice to produce said original deed from M. D. Walker to J. S. Gault upon the trial of this case or secondary evidence will be introduced to prove its contents. That the defendants, H. H. Haggard, James A. Smith, J. E. Culver are claiming some kind or character of interest in said property, the extent of which is unknown to plaintiff, and plaintiff further shows to the court that any kind or character of interest which the said Haggard, Smith and Culver may have or claim in and to said property, is subject to and inferior to the vendor's lien retained by plaintiff in said property. That the plaintiff is the present legal holder and owner of said notes and that said notes are past due and unpaid and that Gault is legally liable to plaintiff for the amount of said note with interest and attorney's fees: that the defendant Gault although often requested has hitherto failed and refused and still refuses to pay the same or any part thereof, to plaintiff's damages in the sum of $2400.
Wherefore plaintiff sues, prays for service upon each of the defendants, for judgment against the defendant, J. S. Gault for his debt, interest and attorney's fees, for all costs of suit, and for judgment of this court disposing of any interest or claim that the defendants, Haggard, Smith and Culver may have in said property above described, for foreclosure of his vendor's lien upon the above described land and that same be ordered sold according to law, etc.
Herein fail not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.
Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 30th day of August, A. D., 1921.

INTEREST IN AUTO CONTEST IS GROWING

Carried on the wing of the public approval, The Record News' Great Automobile and Prize Campaign is being hailed with enthusiasm in Wichita Falls and for many miles in every direction. Intense interest is being shown in the gigantic opportunity wherein this great newspaper is offering to young women, fourteen magnificent prizes, including five latest model, spick and span automobiles. The entire list totals more than $10,000 in value.

Busy hours were spent at the campaign office on the second floor of the Record News building yesterday, where the rush of young women to enter the great race continued unabated. Uncle Sam's mail man continued to deliver great stacks of mail. Scores of young women from the outlying districts, and in smaller towns out in the State, realizing that under the arrangement of distribution of the prizes they will have an equal opportunity, are entering into the race fired with enthusiasm to win. Already it is indicated that the coming grand dash for the big automobiles will be watched with close interest by many thousands of people in every section. The greatness of the campaign, and its far reaching influence, will make it certain that the entire district of which Wichita Falls, is the hub, will be interested in its progress.

Everybody Getting In.

And the candidates— from every corner they are coming! Wives of prominent business men, young women in the commercial world—all are represented.

Five of them will be skimming around in their own fine cars before long. They will be riding about in rich looking cars—machines that radiate elegance and fashion from every line. Every one of the big cars is a beauty, from the $1,985.00 Haynes Six, right on down the line to the $520.13 Ford. Ownership of any of them would bring a feeling of pride. Never before has such a splendid array of prizes been presented for so little in return.

Chances for All.

Probably one feature of the great campaign which has made such a tremendous appeal to people residing in this section is the unique plan of distribution of prizes, which makes it certain the young women from every part of the great territory in which The Record News circulates will share in the presentation. Under the plan, part of the cars will be awarded to contestants living in the city of Wichita Falls and part to those living outside. Every young woman, no matter where her place of residence, has an equal opportunity. Probably it is this feature that is accountable for huge stacks of mail which is arriving at the campaign headquarters every morning.

The inducement of extra votes, which is now in effect, and which will continue until October 1st, is being hailed as a wonderful opportunity by those who recognize the value of an early start. By taking advantage of it, any young woman, can in a short time, pile up a good standing of votes, and assure herself of a good position in the voting column when the first list of contestants is published a few days hence.

"It was that inducement that made me decide to start," said one young woman Thursday. "I'm almost sure I can get enough subscriptions to total $15.00 worth before the period expires."

Briefly, the inducement is this: For every $15.00 worth of subscriptions turned in before Saturday, October 1, a special voting ballot good for 50,000 extra votes, over and above all regular votes each subscription is worth, will be issued. There is no limit to the amount which may be turned in—every $15.00 worth will count 50,000 extra votes. The inducement is a splendid opportunity to get in and get started with a rush.

Not Limited to Districts.

Contestants must remember that they are not limited to the district in which they live to get subscriptions and votes. Any contestant may go ANYWHERE. Also, contestants in taking subscriptions to THE RECORD NEWS need not fear that they are interfering with carrier boy's commissions in so doing. Carriers will be paid as usual by THE RECORD NEWS, the only difference being that the contestant makes the collection instead of the carrier.

Votes will be issued on every subscription, new or renewal, which is turned in to the campaign department, providing, of course, it is for six months or longer. Votes will not be issued on subscriptions of less than six months' duration.

Subscription books and all material necessary to start in the race, are now available, and may be obtained at the campaign office, second floor Record News building. A post card or letter will, bring full materials and details of the great distribution.

Every Assistance Given.

Young women desiring to share in the wonderful presentation are invited to call at the campaign office and have a talk with the campaign manager. Every point not fully understood will be explained. Letters with be promptly answered and the campaign department will use every means within its power to co-operate with contestants.

The best time to start is right now —the race is just beginning. Pick out the car you like best and then go after the votes that will make it yours. BUT DON'T DELAY.

FUR DISPLAY DRAWS SHARE OF INTEREST

STYLE SHOW VISITORS ATTRACTED TO STORE OF MRS. GROSS.

Style Show visitors, both the Wichita Falls women, and those from out of town, have been much interested in the millinery and fur display of Mrs. Mary Gross, and particularly in the fur work as it is unusual to find fur remodeling experts except in the very large cities. Mrs. Gross, whose shop is on the mezzanine floor of Kimberlins, Tenth and Indiana, in addition to her complete and very beautiful line of millinery, specializes in fur repair work, handling anything from small neck pieces to coats.

Mrs. Gross' millinery will be shown in tonight's style show on models from Kimberlin and J. C. Penny's ready-to-wear departments.
