JAPAN WARNS LEAGUE AND RUSSIA

NOT PERFECT—BUT JUST ABOUT

There is no such thing as a perfect woman, according to Professor Lora Maxwell, physical educational department, Arizona State Teachers' College, Flagstaff, Ariz. But Sima Siniaho, 18-year-old sophomore shown below, comes nearest to physical perfection in the school, Professor Maxwell says. Sina's measurements are: height, 63 inches; weight, 123 pounds; bust, 36 inches; chest expansion, 4 inches; calf, 13 inches; ankle, 8 inches; hips, 35 inches. She is a blue-eyed blond, wears a 16 dress, a size 5 shoe and is an all-round athlete.

Hope Revived In Kidnaping Probe

Student Riot Is Brought To Halt

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 22. (AP)—A riot of Harvard undergraduates, characterized by police as one of the worst of recent years, was brought to a halt early today after eight students and four Cambridge residents had been arrested and two police officers injured.

Scores of students invaded Radcliffe college, a women's institution; an automobile was overturned, the Brattle square station of the Cambridge police department was stormed as hundreds of undergraduates attempted to rescue comrades who had been taken into custody. Bonfires were built in Harvard square.

The disorder started in the yard when a group of freshmen, in search of the bell clapper stolen from Memorial hall several days ago, shouted the Harvard war cry "Reinhart."

ROLPH DENIES MOONEY PLEA

CONVICTED DYNAMITER TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

(By The Associated Press)

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 22.—As supporters of Tom Mooney gave notice his account with justice was not yet closed, filing clerks here shut the covers on another chapter of the convicted dynamiter's struggle for freedom—the refusal of Governor James Rolph, Jr., to grant a pardon.

The governor of California declared in a 700-word decision announced at the state capitol yesterday he was convinced Mooney and Warren K. Billings, convicted accomplice, were guilty.

Varied comment greeted the decision but Mooney and his supporters were confident in their predictions the fight would go on.

Mooney, in a statement released by the Moulders Defense committee over his name, declared the struggle had gained added significance, with the assertion:

"This makes me the outstanding figure in the world's labor movement and a symbol of the struggle of labor for its rights."

Another declaration in the statement was: "The decision of Governor Rolph is a class decision with a class motive and along these lines it shall be fought out in the future."

The governor's decision was based on a report given him by legal advisors appointed last December after consideration of the case had been urged by a group of attorneys led by Mayor James J. Walker of New York.

LINDY IS BACK FROM MYSTERY TRIP IN HUNT FOR CHILD

(By The Associated Press)

HOPEWELL, N. J., April 22.—Back from a mysterious trip, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh conferred early today with persons helping him in his attempts to get his kidnaped son back.

The flying colonel, absent two days during which he apparently tried to establish contact with the kidnapers, drove into his Sourland hill home about midnight.

Activity Apparent

Immediately lights shone from many windows in the house and activity was apparent. An automobile owned by Edmund Bruce of Elmira, friend of John H. Curtis of Norfolk, drove into the estate. Witnesses said the driver resembled Bruce. Two men sat on the rear seat.

Mr. Curtis, one of three Norfolk intermediaries assisting Lindbergh, has conferred frequently with the flier. A man traveling under the name "H. Pearson" but believed to be Dean H. Dobson-Peacock, colleague of Curtis, arrived last night at Newark airport by plane from Washington.

He departed from the airport with the announced intention of "losing" himself in New York so he could carry on his work of strengthening his contact with the kidnapers. He has said he believes he, Curtis and Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage of Norfolk are in touch with the kidnapers.

Woman Visits Home

There was no announcement as to the purpose or destination of the trip Col. Lindbergh made. Shortly before he got back a car identified as that of Mrs. Dwight Morrow, his mother-in-law, discharged a woman passenger at his home.

Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr., was born 22 months ago today. He was kidnaped March 1, and so far as the world knows, his whereabouts are as deep a mystery now as they were then.

Twenty Reported As Dead In Uprisings

NOGALES, Ariz., April 22. (AP)—Reports reaching this border city told of an uprising in Vera Cruz where insurgents were reported to have killed approximately 20 persons, burned three school houses and looted mercantile establishments.

The dead, according to the reports, are principally farmers against whom the rebels directed their activities.

SHALLOWATER BOY HURT

Six-year-old Billy Gene Bourlan of Shallowater was treated last night at West Texas hospital for a fracture of the right foreleg. The child, son of C. A. Bourlan, had been hit by a truck, behind which he was said to have been playing when the truck was backed against him.

Early Paving Of Highway 24 Seen

COURT RULING COVERS OLD ROAD FUSS

EAST BROADWAY ROUTE FAVORED IN SUPREME COURT DECISION

Prospects for early paving of Highway 24 from Lubbock, through Idalou and leaving this city via East Broadway, were bright today as the result of a decision of the Supreme court covering a seven-year controversy over the routing of the road.

Through the decision reported Thursday afternoon, Mrs. W. G. Nairn and other property owners in Lubbock county lost their suit to prevent the state highway department from changing the location of the highway.

Favors Broadway Route

The new designation approved by the court's decision calls for the highway to enter Lubbock east of the city by way of Broadway while the route now in use entering via Avenue H on which the suit was based, loses its designation as a state road.

The Supreme court concurred in the action of the lower court in sustaining a general demurrer of the highway commission to the suit. One of the grounds of the general demurrer allowed by Judge Clark M. Mullican of the 99th district court, was that the state of Texas was the main party at interest, and that the highway commission was the agent for the state and had full control over the state highway system and the location of highways.

J. E. Vickers of Vickers & Campbell, attorneys for the plaintiffs, said this morning a motion for rehearing would be filed within the next ten days.

The highway, formerly known as No. 83, had no state designation until 1925 when M. G. Abernathy and others secured the routing out Ave-

SUSPECTS ARE FREED HERE

TWO MEN AND WOMAN HELD IN GUN FIGHT RELEASED TODAY

Two men and a woman arrested Monday afternoon at Littlefield as suspects in a gunfight earlier that afternoon at Hobbs, N. M., were released from Lubbock county jail this morning. Sheriff Wade Hardy said Abilene authorities, who first had reported they wanted the trio, later notified him the men and woman were not wanted there.

Hobbs officers also had asked that the trio be held. Subsequent reports were confused, and Sheriff Hardy indicated investigators here had retained belief that the three were not members of a band which used a machine-gun at Hobbs, where two suspects and an officer were wounded.

Men Not Identified

Attempts to identify the men here as participants in robbery of a bank at O'Donnell failed Tuesday. Although Abilene investigators Wednesday reported a captured suspect, John Kerns, had implicated one man and the woman, his wife, held here in the Hobbs clash, Sheriff Hardy indicated he had no confirmation of it from New Mexico.

The search for two escaped members of the gang in the Hobbs shooting appeared to be at a standstill there last night, the Associated Press reported. Officers conferred as to what should be done with Kerns and J. . Baker, both wounded. Kerns and Baker are at Hobbs.

SLASHES WIFE'S THROAT

PARTIES FACE TWO SERIOUS QUESTIONS

HOOVER PROHIBITION STAND, ROOSEVELT PANACEA PLAN UP

BY BYRON PRICE

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—A lull in the spring drive of delegate-choosing has given the two major parties an opportunity this week for serious self-questioning on two paramount questions: What does President Hoover intend to do about prohibition and how does Governor Roosevelt propose to restore prosperity?

On neither of these topics have inquiring party minds been able to achieve satisfaction. Mr. Hoover either has not made up his mind on the wet and dry question or he prefers momentarily to keep the decision to himself. Mr. Roosevelt either has thought out no complete plan for economic recovery or he believes the time is not ripe to announce it.

No outward omen indicates this hesitation is handicapping either in his bid for the nomination. If things go on as they have been going, the Republicans will name Hoover and the Democrats Roosevelt on faith, and leave the country to wait for the post-convention campaign to learn what is what.

The pressure on the president to say something on prohibition has become terrific. He has received representations amounting almost to demands from both sides.

Very business-like indeed appear preparations of the organized drys. In New York state they have made tentative plans to run an independent set of presidential electors. Everywhere they are talking purposefully of a third party—a threat which of course falls most heavily on the Republicans, since even the dry organization leaders now foresee that either the Democratic platform or the Democratic candidate, or both, are likely to be unacceptable.

Bonus At Present Value Is Proposed

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—Legislation to allow veterans to cash bonus certificates at their present value was urged before the house ways and means committee today by Representative Lea (D., Calif.).

The average bonus certificate would reach its full face value of $1,000 in 1945. The present value of such a certificate is $542. It is this sum Lea would permit veterans to obtain if they wished to do so.

DEBUT IS MADE BY STRAW HATS

Straw hats made their official 1932 debut here today. Felt hats were to be discarded by those who take their fashions seriously.

Lubbock stores had new stocks of straws in a variety of styles, shapes, and colors.

IF DAUGHTER DROPS PLATTER BECAUSE IT IS HOT, DO NOT SCOLD AS NERVE REFLEXES OUTRUN PAIN TO THE BRAIN

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22. (AP)—If daughter drops the platter of breakfast bacon and eggs because it is hot, don't scold.

Her fingers may have loosened without her knowledge, opened by a fast-acting youthful nerve reflex before she felt the burn.

Pictures of nerves in action explaining this and other failings sometimes charged against "personality" were shown before famous scientists attending the meetings here of the American Philosophical society.

The start of a new line of investigating the cause of old age was reported from the Carnegie institute of Washington.

Dr. George W. Crile of Cleveland offered preliminary proof that the body contains an explosive, a chemical, resembling nitro-glycerine. Its fast detonations, occurring in every cell, he said may account for much in emotion and high-speed mentality.

The hot plate was explained by Professor Alexander Forbes of Harvard medical school. By the measurements with fast electrical instruments he found that a cat stepping on a thorn with its hind foot would jerk that paw away three or four thousands of a second before the nerves carried the sensation of pain to the brain.

"That everyone does not drop a hot frying pan before his will can keep him holding fast," he said, "is possibly explained by the likelihood that the heating of the nerve endings takes longer than the time needed to notify the brain. I think that certainly the ulnar nerve (the "crazy bone") responds before a person knows that the nerve has been hit."

BOY FREED BY DESPERADOES

FLOYD AND BIRDWELL HUNTED AS ROBBERS OF SOONER BANK

COLGATE, Okla., April 22.—Releasing Estel Henson, 18-year-old Ada boy, in the wooded country south of Atwood, two bank robbers believed to be Charles (Pretty Boy) Floyd, Oklahoma desperado, and his pal, George Birdwell, fled today before officers in airplanes and motor cars.

The youth, unharmed, reached Ada early today.

Wiley Post, the round-the-world flyer, zoomed his airplane towards Atwood from a pasture near Ada at 6 a. m. with Lieutenant Robert Houston of the Oklahoma City police department as observer.

Hunt Concentrated

The news of Henson's release was relayed by the Oklahoma City police radio to scout cars engaged in the hunt and a concentration began in the area south of Atwood where the youth was freed.

Henson, who expressed belief the men were Floyd and Irdwell, said they covered their motor car with brush and hid in a thicket not far from where he was released until after midnight. The two men, who took about $600 from the First State bank of Stonewall in a daring robbery yesterday noon, joked and did not abuse him, he declared.

They kidnaped him, he asserted, when he rode his motorcycle up to their parked car seven miles south of Ada yesterday afternoon.

Inquiry Conducted Into Lubbock Fire

A secret court of inquiry was conducted here Thursday by Lee D. Olive and James Byrne, deputy state fire marshals, in connection with a recent residential blaze here. They said this morning additional developments were not unexpected.

Olive said Byrne had been assigned to West Texas, to aid local authorities in investigating fires. The state department is trying particularly to lessen losses by stopping fires of incendiary origin, the deputy fire marshals said. J. A. Pressley, former city fire marshal here, was assigned to work with the state agents in investigating here the last several days.

McCoy Is Added As Police Patrolman

P. C. McCoy, who has been a special officer at the fair and in other capacities here the last seven years, has been a night patrolman assigned to the Lubbock police department's scout car since Sunday, it was learned this morning.

The police department, with the addition of McCoy, is composed of a chief and 10 men, as outlined tentatively by Police Chief Wiley L. Metcalfe, who succeeded John Lemond last week.

ALIENISTS TO COMBAT PLEA

PROSECUTOR PLANS TO IMPORT TWO MEN IN MASSIE'S TRIAL

(By The Associated Press)

HONOLULU, April 22.—Seeking evidence to combat the insanity defense of Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, the prosecution dug deeper into the field of medicine today while the accused navy officer and three others charged with lynching Joseph Kahahawai rested from the ordeal of their trial.

With court adjourned until tomorrow at the request of Prosecutor John C. Kelley, two alienists imported by him from California made observations on which to base their testimony.

They are Jr. Joseph Catton of San Francisco, whose testimony recently helped to convict Winnie Ruth Judd of the murder of two women in Phoenix, and Dr. Paul Bowers of Los Angeles.

Memories of the dramatic appearance on the witness stand of Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of the accused officer and victim of a criminal attack to which Kahahawai allegedly confessed just before he was fatally shot with a pistol in the hands of Massie, were commented on by Clarence Darrow, aged chief of defense counsel.

"I never saw anything like it," Darrow said. "I've been in some pretty good court scenes, but nothing like that one. I was pretty limp when it was all over. I couldn't sleep when I went to bed that night."

WACOAN TRIES TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

MAN IS BEATEN AWAY FROM SPOUSE BY HIS STEP-SON

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, April 22.—Roy Oswalt, ex-soldier, slashed his wife's throat with a pocket knife and then tried to take his own life in the same manner today.

Buddy Swaner, 14, son of the woman by a former marriage, beat his step-father away from Mrs. Oswalt with a brookstick. Physicians said Oswalt and his wife probably would recover from their wounds.

Mrs. Oswalt said her husband attacked her with the knife in a quarrel which resulted from her refusal to get out of bed this morning. She said she told him she was tired. He demanded that she rise.

"You never want to get up," she quoted him saying.

Woman Flier Faces More Questioning

MIAMI, Fla., April 22 (AP)—Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Miller, woman flier, faced further questioning today in the fatal shooting of her fiance, Haden Clarke.

Both Mrs. Keith-Miller and her flying partner, Captain W. N. Lancaster, were kept in custody last night. State Attorney N. Vernon Hawthorne said he was convinced the woman was in no way connected with the shooting but he planned to question her and Lancaster further to try to determine if Clarke committed suicide or was slain.

JOBS CAMPAIGN TO BE ORGANIZED

Members of Lubbock civic clubs next week will be asked to join the American Business club in conducting a Man-A-Block employment campaign here during the summer months, it was decided at the A. B. C. luncheon in the Hilton today noon. R. J. Keller, president-elect of the club, and W. M. Peticolas, jr., were named to solicit the support of other clubs during the coming week.

Besides club singing and discussion of the campaign, violin duet selections were given by Miss Sarah Lou Stevens and Woodrow Montgomery. They were accompanied by Miss Beulah Dunn.

SINGLETARY SAYS CAVERNS NOT THE ONLY DRAWING CARD ON HIGHWAY 62

BY C. W. RATLIFF
Journal Staff Writer

Carlsbad Caverns isn't the only drawing card for U. S. Highway 62; take it from R. E. Singletary, manager of the good roads division of the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce and recently elected president of the Highway 62 association east of Oklahoma City, who was in Lubbock today for a brief visit.

"Why those easterners who come out this route to see the Carlsbad Caverns think the Plains of Texas one of the greatest sights they ever saw. They're always talking about the big farms, the herds of cattle and such things they see along the route to the caverns," Mr. Singletary, one of the founders of the Carlsbad route, declared. ROYAL RUSSIAN CHORUS TO PRESENT CONCERT HERE TODAY AND TONIGHT

On its second American tour, the Royal Russian chorus will be presented in a matinee concert at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Lubbock High school auditorium. A night concert will begin there at 8:15 o'clock.

Tickets are on sale at the high school and at Bowen's Drug store. The management of the Texas Technological college artists course booked the Russians in an effort to remove a deficit of the past season, and promised special prices for both performances.

Princess Agreneva Slaviansky, whose father founded the chorus of singers and dancers in Russia in 1845, is the conductor. The chorus had given more than 300 concerts in America.

One of the most interesting members is Ivan Butenoff, basso, who has sung with the choir for more than 30 years. His melodious basso-profundo voice, blending with and forming a foundation for the other voices of the choir, has been received with particular favor.

Gypsy and Spanish dances, with piano, vocal and orchestral accompaniments, the latter played by six of the group on their delightful balalaika instruments, also are included.

Soloists add to the vocal program, in which many combinations of singers are used, including duets, trios, quartets, male chorus, and full ensemble, and characteristic Russian dances, by agile Russian men and girls, create a spectacular side.

SOVIETS MASS FORCES NEAR MANCHURIA

RUSSIA, LEAGUE TOLD TO KEEP HANDS OFF OF NEW REGIME

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, April 22. — A blunt warning to the League of Nations and Soviet Russia to keep hands off Manchuria was laid down today by General Sadao Araki, Japanese minister of war.

The warning, issued in a speech at Osaka before the Kokuhonsha Patriotic society, nucleus of the Japanese nationalist movement, was later informally endorsed in foreign office and in other government quarters.

Not To Deviate

Japan's mission, he said, was to make Manchuria a "paradise on earth, safe for everybody", and nothing the league or anybody else did could make her deviate from that course.

After declaring Japan would resist resolutely any attempt by the league to apply the nine-power treaty, he turned to Soviet Russia and called attention to what he said was a threatening situation in north Manchuria due to Russia's massing troops on the frontier and strengthening her air force in the far east.

"We are unable to understand what these war-like preparations mean," he said. "The situation is becoming serious. Russia is concentrating four divisions in Siberia on the Manchurian border. We can only wait and see whether the storm breaks."

"It is time the Japanese made up their minds to cooperate wholeheartedly with the new regime in Manchuria for the establishment of a great civilization in the far east," he continued. "The League of Nations or Soviet Russia may attempt to frustrate our efforts, since both object to our activities in that region, but they won't be permitted to turn us from our course. It is unnecessary for us to heed what they may say about us."

SOVIET UNIONISTS PLEDGE DEFENSE

MOSCOW, April 22 (AP)—The 17,000,000 members of the Soviet trades unions stood pledged today to defend their country, if need be, as news dispatches from the far east told of new charges that Russian "white guards" were active against the Soviets.

The ninth all-union congress of the trades unions made the pledge for its members last night and, sending greetings to the red army and to Klementi E. Voroshiloff, war and navy commissar, called for increased watchfulness, especially in the far east, against the menace of a bourgeois invasion.

Extend Preparedness

It also obligated itself to extend military preparedness to the proletariat and the peasants, with a view to greatly enlarging the already comprehensive "patronage" of the red army.

A dispatch to the Tass news agency from Peiping said reports were received there from Harbin, Manchuria, that the police uncovered a store of arms, bombs, and ammunition in a Chinese restaurant frequented by Russian "white guards."

DRY AGENTS SEEK TO ARRANGE BOND

SAN ANGELO, April 22 (AP)—Friends of L. C. Smith and N. D. Heaton of Dallas, suspended federal prohibition agents and alleged murderers, sought today to arrange bonds of $17,500 for each.

Federal Judge William H. Atwell, holding court here, decided after a hearing yesterday to grant them bond over the vigorous objection of William McGraw, Dallas county district attorney.

The agents were indicted by a Dallas county grand jury for murder in the killing of F. M. McClothlin, country storekeeper of near Irving, and assault to murder in the wounding of McClothlin's wife. The agents were trying to trap a bootlegger who had entered the McClothlin store at night.

Six Youths Jailed After Kidnapings

McKINNEY, April 22. (AP)—Six young men were in jail here today for questioning in connection with a series of robberies and kidnapings at Celina early yesterday. Four of them gave their homes as Denton and the other two Sherman. No charges had been filed.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . .

a little at a time

. . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting — the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . "a little at a time."

Imagine roasting several hundred pounds of coffee at a time, and roasting every berry alike. And imagine attempting to duplicate the roast in each batch. It can't be done! Each batch varies—and so does the flavor.

Years ago, Hills Bros. replaced that ordinary method with their own invention and patent — Controlled Roasting. Hills Bros. Coffee flows through the roasters evenly, continuously . . . a little at a time.

Variation is unheard of! Each berry is done to a perfect degree. Every time you make Hills Bros. Coffee, you know what flavor to expect . . . the smoothest, richest flavor of the rare coffees!

Hills Bros. Coffee can't go stale. The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness — the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

Try Hills Bros. Coffee. Its pleasant appetizing aroma is truly irresistible. You lift your cup and drink—to enjoy coffee as you never enjoyed it before! Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

TALLOW for candles perhaps but not for soaps

MOST SOAPS are compounded with a tallow base.

White King Granulated Soap is not.

Tallow clings to any texture with which it comes in contact. Being a fat that requires a fairly high degree of heat to melt it, it will cling to anything washed in water under the boiling point. Soaps of a tallow base must be used in boiling water in order to start to clean at all. Used in warm or cold water, these soaps do not clean effectively, they even cling to the fabrics, leaving them still unwashed at the finish.

White King Granulated Soap is made of pure, sweet, fresh vegetable and nut oils. These bland smooth oils do not cling to the fabrics. They allow the soap to penetrate and dissolve out the dirt without rubbing. Because of the low melting point of these oils, White King Granulated performs a better job in luke-warm and even cold water than most soaps do in boiling.

White King Granulated rinses freely, leaving no soapy smell, no grey or yellow look. Clothes iron easier since there is no soapy residue to turn yellow and sticky under the heat.

White King Granulated is all soap—it contains no water—no tallow base, no silicate of soda,* no free alkali.

For immaculate cleanliness, for sweet smelling washings—for easier work, for banishment of boiling and rubbing—use White King Granulated—perfected for every household use.

*Silicate of soda cannot exist in a weight ratio to soap—it has no cleaning value.

Light a tallow candle. Drip its melted wax on a handkerchief. Note how the tallow congeals and sticks to the fabric and comes off only with scraping. Then experiment with tallow in a soapy cleanser and cleaning in cold or warm water. It needs boiling water to melt and remove it.

White King Granulated Soap contains no tallow base—no vegetable and nut oils clings without boiling. It cleans clothes.

NEW SHREDDED BISCUITS OFFER MANY ADVANTAGES

Local Grocers Say Customers Delighted with Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit

Grocers are now featuring a new shredded biscuit which offers many new features. Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are "pressure-cooked" by a special process that retains the complete food value of the whole wheat. At the same time, delightful flavor is baked in.

These new biscuits have been analyzed by the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia and found to be so rich in food value that every package is certified. Any mother can now be certain her family is getting a well-balanced and tempting dish whenever she serves these new Kellogg biscuits with either hot or cold milk or cream.

Other improvements are a biscuit of more convenient, economical size. Two of these new biscuits just fit the cereal bowl. You also get 15 to the package instead of the usual dozen. And every biscuit is toasted a rich golden brown on both top and bottom — not just one side. This makes them exceptionally crisp and appetizing.

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are tasty for breakfast, lunch, children's suppers. Extra good with fruits or sweetened with honey.

You can identify these new biscuits by the name, Kellogg's, and the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 4 to 7 points on trade and commission house buying. July sold at 6.33.

Houses with Liverpool connections were among the buyers here at the start while there also was some buying believed to be for the far east, but the demand was supplied by southern and local selling and offerings increased slightly right after the call on the lower opening of the stock market. Active months reacted within a point or two of yesterday's closing quotations but offerings were well enough taken on the setback to give the market a steady undertone at the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables reported local and continental buying in that market on the easier sterling and said there was an improved demand for cotton cloths from India but that many offers were unworkable.

Trading was comparatively quiet later in the morning but prices worked gradually lower under small offerings which appeared to be influenced by the action of the stock market. By midday July was selling around 6.25, and October 6.50 with the general list ruling about 1 to 3 points net lower. May liquidation continued with considerable switching from that month to later deliveries. Next Tuesday will be the first May notice day in the local market.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady. May 6.13; July 6.32; Oct. 6.56; Dec. 6.73; Jan. 6.82; March 6.97.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 22 (AP)—The cotton market today had a steady opening. Liverpool cables were much better than due but sterling was easier. First trades here showed gains of 2 to 3 points with July at 6.33. The market soon turned easier on some liquidation due to an easier opening in stocks and prospects for more rain in the western belt. May dropped to 6.12, July to 6.30 and October to 6.52, or 3 points down from the opening highs and unchanged to one point down compared with yesterday's close. Toward the end of the first hour the market was somewhat steadier and showed a tendency to rally slightly.

The market was weak all morning with fair trading. Weakness in stocks and wheat and liquidation by longs coupled with some hedge selling were the main causes of the decline. May dropped to 6.03, July to 6.20 and October to 6.43 down 12 to 13 points from the early highs and 9 to 10 points under yesterdays's close. Near noon the market was a shade steadier, but the undertone continued easy.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, April 22 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady. May 6.15; July 6.32; Oct. 6.55; Dec. 6.72 offered; Jan. 6.80; March 6.95-B.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—A fresh relapse in the stock market virtually cancelled the recovery of the previous session during the earlier trading today, but the list steadied after midday.

Selling was in meagre volume in the early trading but the list dropped abruptly. With professionals apparently cowed by the Washington investigation and the public almost completely on the sidelines, the market was a thin affair.

Declines of 2 to 3 points carried such issues as U. S. Steel, American Can, Standard of N. J., Air Reduction and Case to new lows for the bear market. American Telephone, Union Pacific and Norfolk and Western lost about 4 points and issued off 2 to 3 at the lowest included Public Service of N. J., Consolidated Gas, Eastman, Allied Chemical, Coca Cola, American Tobacco "B", Liggett and Myers "B" and others. By early afternoon recoveries of from fractions to a point were numerous.

MADISON, Wis.—University of Wisconsin scientists are studying the cause of stuttering, and George A Kopp, research associate, is basing his work on the assumption that stuttering is caused by certain inorganic deficiencies in the blood. SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

It is so unusual for this department to pull a boner (chorus of "Oh, yeah?) that it is good news when a mistake is corrected. We hope this will be good news to both parties. We have falsely accused one man of a deed which has reduced him to a mere shadow of his former self, and at the same time we failed to give another his just dues. It all came about because of a mixup of monikers.

To Marvin McLarty, Sudan groceryman, we extend apologies profound for accusing him of playing golf at the Lubbock Country club. To Henry McLarty, of the West Texas hospital staff, we extend sympathies and regrets for failure to give his proper name in listing the ladder tournament boys at said Country club. Henry stands in No. 9 position and is eligible for the team, provided he is not beaten before Sunday. Marvin is a most genial customer from Sudan whose name in a list of golfers has threatened his business, social standing and many friendships. He came in to tell us as much, but when the error was seen we had a good laugh about it. We've been expecting the other McLarty almost any minute since then, but modesty may forbid his coming around. Marvin once played golf, too, "but I've learned better."

Henry McLarty, who rose from eighth position to seventh by beating Lawrence Bacon last Sunday, is due to take his place in the lineup with Jo Dick Slaughter, John Edmisson, Ross McWhorter, E. T. Daniels, V. O. Jennings, J. O. Smith and Bacon next Sunday when the Country club team meets the Post lineup in the first South Plains league match here. Bacon and Ted Tipps were to have a challenge match this week to determine the eighth man position, but the results have not been turned in. Ted must have lost, otherwise we'd have heard of it.

Meadowbrook golfers will play the Tahoka team here Sunday, according to the schedule drawn up last week by a committee headed by John Edmisson, secretary of the league. Littlefield's golfers will play at Slaton. Meadowbrook members are asked to qualify today or tomorrow by playing 18 holes of medal golf, the low eight to compose the team against Tahoka.

Nice little ball game yesterday, that scrimmage between teams of the Westerner squad. The squad had been divided as equally as the coaches knew how to divide it and they flipped a coin to see who should coach which team. They at least did a nice job of dividing the squad. The result of the 48-minute skirmish was a scoreless tie. Chapman's bunch had Bill Davidson, Lewis Spear and Dalton Blagg, regulars of last year's championship team, and Joe Nelson and Howard Bain of the second team. Harold Gaines, 220-pound tackle, and "Sunkie" Stovall, fullback, and Chester McCarty of last year's second team were in Huffman's lineup. Truman Hutson, Rufus Ryan, Tol Terrell and Rayburn Hale were in the backfield.

Among the youngsters who will be bidding for the many vacancies in this fall's Westerner lineup who played yesterday are Robert Hale and Hugh Newton, guards; Robert Stone and Wayman Newton, ends; George Janes, a big tackle; Richard Godecke, fullback; Rufus Ryan, quarterback, and Hutson and Terrell, halfbacks. They're all fairly small boys, with the exception of Janes, Hutson and Terrell, but Hugh Newton is going to make somebody scrap for a guard position; Godecke is a smart line backer; Stone is a promising end and Hale looks like a guard candidate. He was one of Swede McMurry's best men in the Cowhand team last year.

Rufus Ryan, a transfer from Amarillo who dodges the one-year residence rule because he did not represent Amarillo High in athletics, needs a lot of seasoning but he may be a quarterback some day. Truman Hutson, Tol Terrell, the latter a transplanted lineman, and Joe Nelson should relieve a lot of backfield. Hutson, if he trained and practiced and worked consistently, should take care of a halfback position without much trouble. He has a gob of ability but not much ambition. Bill Davidson, already a well known figure, will be back to defend his backfield position and it looks like a cinch if he keeps applying himself. Dalton Blagg should play as well next fall as he did last year, which is good enough to assure him a job. Chester McCarty gave Bob Crawford plenty of trouble in squad scrimmages last year and looks like a sure thing at center unless he is transplanted to the backfield, possibly at quarterback. Lewis Spear was as good a tackle in West Texas last fall and should be better this year. That leaves only the places of Will Ed Watson, end; Rosser Abbott, tackle; Cotton Welch and Melvin Griggs, guards, and O. B. Britton, quarterback, Mack Scoggin and Doc Merrell, halfbacks and Gene Barnett, fullback, to be filled.

BOSTON OUT IN FRONT TODAY IN LEAGUE

BILL TERRY GETS HIS FIFTH HOME RUN IN THREE DAYS

BY GAYLE TALBOT,
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Braves apparently have found a much-needed punch in their two prize young infielders, Art Shires and Bill Urbanski.

The great Shires is proving he is a first baseman and Urbanski looks like a real star at short.

With the veteran Rabbit Maranville to balance things at second base, they have made a smart combination and have had much to do with planting the Braves out in front of the National league race at this stage. Both Shires and Urbanski were hitting at a .370 clip through yesterday and have been getting them where they count.

Win Over Brooklyn

Between them, Shires and Urbanski accounted for four runs to help beat Brooklyn, 6 to 3, yesterday. Urbanski drove in a pair, while Shires knocked a run across and scored another.

The day's best individual feat was witnessed at Philadelphia, where Bill Terry of the Giants slapped his fifth homerun in three days to tie the major league record and provide a 5 to 4 victory over the Phillies.

The Chicago Cubs collected only four blows off Si Johnson, but two walks, a sacrifice, an error two Bill Herman's single scored two runs in the eighth and gave them a 3 to 2 win over Cincinnati. The last place St. Louis Cardinals took it on the chin again at Pittsburgh, 7 to 6 in 10 innings.

Mickey Cochrane's ninth inning homerun with the bases loaded was the blow that sank the Yankees, 8 to 6, in the American league's main attraction.

Detroit's surprising Tigers took over first place all by themselves by defeating Cleveland, 5 to 3, while the Washington Senators were dropping a tight one to Boston, 1 to 0.

Oliver's double and McManus' single after two were out in the seventh provided the Red Sox with the run that beat the Senators. It was a tough loss for Alvin Crowder, who allowed only four hits.

The White Sox were rained out at St. Louis.

HOUSTON, FORT WORTH ARE IN A DEADLOCK FOR FIRST PLACE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Perhaps as important as anything else that occurred in the Texas league yesterday was the fact Wichita Falls Spudders broke its losing streak. Manager Hank Severeid was becoming alarmed for his Spudders had lost four consecutive games, three to Fort Worth and one to Dallas.

Something had to be done to the Spudders relieved Severeid's worries by beating Dallas, 6 to 1. The defeat hurt the Steers. It pulled them down to a tie for third place with San Antonio. Manager Morse tried to save the day by sending George Murray, ace of the staff to the mound but Murray was outpitched by Tom Conlan, a fine looking young rookie right hander. Conlan let the Steers down with five hits. He was never in trouble.

San Antonio's winning streak reached four straight yesterday when the Indians beat Galverton, 4 to 0. Cy Smith limited Galveston to three singles. He faced only one extra man and allowed only one clean hit and a doubtful bingle until the ninth when Flaskamper miscued on Ballew's grounder.

After giving Shreveport a 4 to 1 lead at the end of the third inning, Fort Worth peppered the Sport pitchers with enough hits and runs to win, 8 to 5. Ulmont Baker, former Shreveport player and current third sacker for the Cats, stole the show. His labor consisted of three singles, a double and the scoring of four runs.

Beaumont beat Houston in a night game at Houston, 9 to 5. Had the Exporters lost, Houston would have retained an undisputed lead. But Collier pitched steady ball after a bad start, and Tom Holley hit a home run for Beaumont with the bases loaded.

Yesterday's games left a flock of ties in the league standing. Houston and Fort Worth are tied for the lead. Dallas and San Antonio are tied for the next position. Wichita Falls and Beaumont are tied for the next position. Wichita Falls and Beaumont are tied for the next position, and the two cellar teams, Galveston and Shreveport are tied.

SAYS A'S WILL WIN BECAUSE OF THE DEPRESSION

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—Depression all along the business fronts may have the nation worried but to Jimmy Dykes it provides one big reason why the Athletics will triumph again in the American league and set a new record with four straight pennants.

"It goes like this," reasons the peppery third baseman of Connie Mack's team, "times are so hard the boys can't afford to fail. It isn't any longer a question of temperament, over-confidence, it's a matter of getting in there and playing your head off, for that important world series money."

Jimmy was very serious as he laid down his argument. He is certain Philadelphia will float another pennant from the flag pole in Shibe park, but the way, he admits, will be long and hard.

"Those Yanks—boy are they tough. The Babe hits and Lou Gehrig hits and bam goes your ball game. If they ever get some more pitching to go with that Lefty Gomez, Ruffing, Pennock and Pipgras——

"Somehow I can't figure Washington quite so dangerous. Maybe their pitching will hold up and fool us, but toward the end of the season they always seem to fold up."

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Lloyd Waner, Pirates—His tenth inning double drove in winning run against Cardinals.

Fred Fitzsimmons, Giants—Stopped Phillies with six hits and won own game with double in eighth.

Bill Herman, Cubs—Drove in winning runs against Reds with single in eighth.

Jack Russell, Redsox—His great pitching in pinches beat Senators, 1-0.

Mickey Cochrane, Athletics—Clouted homer with bases filled in ninth to beat Yankees.

CHAPMAN'S "JELLIES" AND HUFFMAN'S "TOUGHIES" FIGHT TO SCORELESS TIE

Coach Weldon Chapman's "Jellies" and Coach Burl Huffman's "Toughies" battled to a scoreless tie yesterday afternoon in the first spring game between the Lubbock High school Westerner squad.

While the "Jellies" appeared to have the offensive advantage and probably registered more first downs and further yardage than the "Toughs," the game was close enough to provide considerable thrills all the way. With Bill Davidson and Joe Nelson doing the ball toting for the "Jellies" behind a line which included Dalton Blagg, regular end, Lewis Spear, regular tackle, and Howard Bain, alternate guard, of last year's championship team, the Jellies threatened three times, but were repulsed by a steady forward wall which included Chester McCarty, second center last fall, and a group of up and coming youngsters who will be battling for positions on the 1932 lineup.

Coach Huffman's backfield of Tol Terrell, "Sunkie" Stovall, Truman Hutson, Rufus Ryan and Rayburn Hale could do but little to Chapman's line, but they backed up their own wall with ability. Ryan, a transfer from Amarillo, looked fair to middling as a quarterback. Richard Godecke, fullback for the "Jellies," showed promise. The line work of Harold Gaines, Robert Hale and Robert Stone was good.

The game came as a climax to ten weeks of spring training which has been under the direction of Huffman for most of the season. Another game probably will be played next week.

MOTORCYCLE STAR WILL CRASH WALL AT A HIGH SPEED

"Daisy May" will crash a wall while traveling at the rate of approximately 80 miles per hour on his motorbike and the Lubbock Motorcycle club team will meet the Big Spring team in a motorcycle polo game here Sunday afternoon, according to announcement by Wade Anthony, president of the club.

The game will be the second between the teams. They met at Big Spring on Easter Sunday and fought to a 4-all deadlock. The wall-crashing act features the side attractions at the game and at the site of the Ben Branson airport on the Plainview highway.

Tommy Hendricks of Lamesa is the "Daisy May" in the wall crashing feature. He is advertised as running his cycle through a board wall which stands perpendicular to the ground and is heavily reinforced with big timbers.

"HIGHEST TEST"
at the price of ordinary gasoline

You get more for your money—more power, pep, and snap—more miles per gallon—more pleasure out of driving, when you use Phillips 66 . . . the greater gasoline.

The great Phillips organization would not make claims as broad as these, if its gasoline did not deliver 100% on them. And we could not make these claims if Phillips 66 were not higher test than other motor fuels. How much "higher test" it is, you can see from the definite gravity figures above.

That is why every mile you drive is a gratifying demonstration of the premium performance which you get without paying a penny premium in price—because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high gravity gasoline. Phill-up with Phillips, tomorrow, at the Orange and Black 66 shield.

PLAN SURVEYS ON HIGHWAYS

STATE ENGINEER HERE TO TALK LOCATION OF TWO ROUTES

Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, of Austin, and Guy R. Johnston, resident engineer, of Lubbock conferred late Thursday and location surveys of the Lubbock-Lamesa and Lubbock-Brownfield highways were announced.

A five-man surveying party probably will start work on the Lubbock-Lamesa route next week; and 35 or 40 days later, when the first survey is completed, running of the other route will begin.

Continues Inspection

Gilchrist, who was in Amarillo Thursday morning, came to Lubbock via Donley, Swisher and Briscoe counties and Plainview. He left last night, continuing his regular inspection trip.

J. H. Caldwell, division engineer, also attended the conference last night.

"We want the highway department to have this information so that when local groups begin planning hard-surfacing of these routes they may know the accepted designation," Gilchrist explained. "We also want to see these roads built, if possible."

While the highway engineers were consulting a map in the office of Mr. Johnston, the Austin engineer commented:

Hub Of Highways

"Lubbock is a hub of highways."

"Yes, and the distributing center of this country," Johnston added.

"Wonderful progress has been made in this division in the last 18 months," Gilchrist said: "There is more construction under way in the Panhandle and the South Plains than in any other section of the state—and we're building roads more cheaply now than ever before."

Highway No. 9, from Lubbock to Lamesa, is paved to the Lubbock county line; and contract on No. 137, from Lubbock to the county line, will be let Saturday. Remainder of these two routes to be surveyed is unimproved.

Wants To Know If Laws Are The Same

Released to his father at police headquarters late Thursday morning after being in city jail about an hour, a young man appeared at the courthouse Thursday afternoon to inquire if "the laws of Texas are like they used to be." He also wanted to know, he said, why he couldn't open his Bible and settle an argument.

Police escorted the young man to the police station from near Broadway and Avenue H after they had received complaints that sidewalk traffic was being blocked there.

A cafe employe faces a disturbing the peace charge for exploding a firecracker in the midst of a crowd at that intersection. Shop and cafe keepers had complained the assemblies, engaged in extemporaneous arguments, made it difficult for would-be customers to enter doors of the business places. Williams H. Evans, assistant county attorney, said.

The TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN PICTURES by JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

AS Scouty disappeared from sight, wee Windy said, "I'm filled with fright. We never should have let him go into that house alone.

"If anything should happen now, we'd have to rescue him somehow. Hey, listen very closely. I just thought I heard a groan."

"Ha, ha!" laughed Coppy. "You're all wrong. You see, the wind is getting strong and what you heard was just a squeak that came from yonder trees.

"Two great big branches rub, up there, and send a strange noise through the air. Just keep your nerve and don't get so excited, if you please."

INSIDE the house brave Scouty dropped down to the floor and then he stopped and shouted, "Hi, there, Duncy! If you're here, lad, answer me."

And then, the next thing that he knew, a voice replied, "Hurray for you!" And Duncy ran into the room, as happy as could be.

"I knew you'd find me. This is great! And, listen, I can hardly wait to tell you of some skinny men who brought me to this place.

"They caught me and I made no fuss. The truth is, I was curious to find out what they wanted. Gee, I'm glad you lads gave chase."

"I GUESS those men were scared of you and thought the best thing they could do was lock you in this crazy house," said Scouty, with a smile.

"Let's go outside. Friend Windy's there, with Coppy, in the open air. No doubt they're getting anxious. They've been waiting quite a while."

It wasn't long 'till everyone decided they would have some fun. Said Scouty, "All those skinny men are near at hand, I know.

"Wait here and I will bring one back." They shortly heard his lasso crack. And then they saw brave Scouty, with a skinny man in tow.

(The skinnies furnish some fun in the next story.)

REAGAN NAMED BANK LEADER

LAMESA IS AWARDED MEETING OF SOUTH PLAINS GROUP

B. Reagan, who sod goods to Lubbock ranchers when this town was little more than a trading post and who now is affiliated with the West Texas National bank at Big Spring, Thursday afternoon was elected president in his own right of the South Plains Bankers association. Hed been acting president since the death of Morgan L. Copeland, Brownfield banker.

John H. Doyle of Levelland was elected vice president and Paul Hardwick of Lubbock was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Officers were chosen at the closing session of the association's fifth annual meeting here.

Lamesa Gets Meeting

Lamesa, birth place of the bankers association, will be host to it April 21, 1933, it was decided. J. E. Barron extended Lamesa's invitation.

President Reagan presided over a portion of the round table and O. P. Thrane, Snyder, the remainder. John H. Doyle raised a number of questions relating to handling of different types of accounts.

McLaughlin Leads Singing

John E. Owen of Dallas, in talking to bankers after the meeting, said he had never attended a meeting of this kind that had a more practical discussion than the round table here.

Following the serving of the meal, J. Edd McLaughlin of Ralls was pressed into service as song leader.

Senator O. L. Jones, Clovis, N. M., banker, said he was a member of the state finance committee to supervise issuance of bonds by public institutions. He urged bankers and others to carefully go over all bond issues by municipalities and state governors to see that there was back of the issue something to meet the bonds when due.

Speakers Listed

Among the speakers were: J. E. Owen; O. B. Norman, Lamesa; H. H. Mann, Levelland; Ira Lee Duckworth, Post; John Mitchell, Lubbock; J. E. Barron, Lamesa; O. L. Slaton, Lubbock; R. M. Kendrick, Brownfield; A. C. Alexander, Snyder R. H. Hester, Lubbock; W. R. McDuffie, Brownfield; J. L. Shoemaker, jr., O'Donnell; W. B. Slaton, Tahoka; W. S. Posey, Lubbock and T. S. Currie, Big Spring.

A resolution thanking Lubbock bankers for their hospitality was passed by a rising vote.

The matter of a uniform service charge for banks was among the subjects discussed and the bankers expresed favor of the plan. The problem of handling types of accounts such as school district, utility and cotton accounts came in for considerable talk. Lubbock bankers were asked to explain operation of the Lubbock Clearing House association.

Following the meeting a large number of bankers and women remained for an old time dance in the ball room. A number of Lubbock people came to the dance. Visiting women with badges were entertained at local theaters through an arrangement by the entertainment committee.

Mark Twain was born in Missouri and his earliest ambition was to be a steamboat man.

The members of the women's committee were to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the chamber of commerce offices to assign districts for the campaign.

Report blanks, on which details of individual clean-up work can be listed, were to be distributed to all school students this morning, it was said at the chamber of commerce.

The scout nail pick-up campaign will be started Saturday morning after mobilization at Central ward school at 8:30 o'clock.

DISCUSS SESSION OF FARM BUREAU

Chairman of the arrangements committees assembled at chamber of commerce offices here Thursday afternoon and discussed plans for a district No. 18 convention of the Texas Farm Bureau federation here May 5 and 6. Douglas Pounds, general chairman, of Acuff presided.

Others attending were Mrs. M. S. Hudson of Hale Center, program chairman; D. F. Eaton, R. N. McClain, N. H. Payne, M. S. Hudson, Neil H. Wright and H. J. Bower.

You'll treasure this recipe, once you've tried it. But this is important—follow each step exactly—and use Calumet Baking Powder. For it's Calumet's Double-Action that makes these shortcakes so gloriously perfect!

Calumet, you see, acts twice instead of once. That works a magic transformation. In the mixing bowl, Calumet's first action begins. It gets the leavening started right. Then, in the oven, the second action starts. It carries on the leavening. Up! . . . up! . . . it keeps raising the dough—holding each biscuit high and light, till it's beautifully browned—baked to perfection! And that's what happens to every cake or quick bread when you use Calumet. Two actions get on the job and carry your baking right through to a super-delicate, delicious finish!

Extra thrifty, too!—The simple tested recipe given here is a Calumet recipe—specially designed for the Calumet proportion—only one level teaspoon to a cup of sifted flour. A splendid economy for you—thanks to the perfect efficiency of Calumet's Double-Action.

Be bargain-wise—try Calumet! Remember, Calumet brings to your baking superlative success—complete satisfaction—every time. It prevents costly failures. Added to that, Calumet is reasonably priced. That's why, from every angle, Calumet is a real baking powder bargain. Calumet is a product of General Foods Corporation.

INDIVIDUAL STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKES

3 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
3 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or other shortening
¾ cup milk (about)
2 quarts strawberries, washed and hulled

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Add milk gradually until soft dough is formed. Roll ¼ inch thick on slightly floured board. Cut with 3-inch floured biscuit cutter. Place half of circles on baking sheet; brush with melted butter. Place remaining circles on top and butter tops well. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Crush strawberries and sweeten slightly. Reserve 8 whole berries for garnish. Separate halves of hot biscuits, spread bottom half with soft butter and sweetened strawberries. Place other half on top, crust-side down. Spread with butter and remaining berries. Garnish with whipped cream and whole berries. Serves 8. (All measurements are level.)

Death robs the rich and relieves the poor.—J. L. Basford.

Sea Romance

It is hard to understand why simple gallantry has such an appeal. It is only a veneer, or a gesture; but when time and distance have gathered around a gallant act there is something about it that draws our attention and makes us read about it and dream over it.

The other day there died in Spain Admiral Antonio Eulate; and his death brought back to mind a half-forgotten story of Spanish-American War days. His daughter, Senorita Carmela Eulate, wrote to the American State Department asking that Taylor Evans of New York be notified of her father's death.

Taylor Evans is the son of the late Admiral Robley Evans of the U. S. Navy—the "Fighting Bob" of navy legends. And Admiral Eulate was commander of the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya on that summer day in 1898 when the Spanish fleet made its desperate, hopeless sortie out of Santiago harbor and was pounded to pieces by the guns of the American fleet.

Fighting Bob was a captain then, and he commanded the battleship Iowa. When the Spanish ships tried to slip away along the Cuban coast toward the west, he fastened himself on the Vizcaya's quarter and drove ashore a flaming wreck filled with dead and wounded men and made more horrible by the incessant bursting of shells from its own magazines.

At great risk to their own lives, sailors from the Iowa brought the surviving Spaniards from the riddled Vizcaya. Eulate, badly wounded, came to the Iowa's quarter deck, and, in accordance with ancient naval usage, handed his sword to Captain Evans. And Evans, taking his opponent by the hand, gave his sword back to him and told him to keep it, as befitted a brave man.

Now it is a little hard to see just what there is about that anecdote that makes it memorable a generation later. But it sticks in the mind somehow, with a bright, melancholy appeal; and it was strong enough to make the daughter of the dead admiral write to America to tell the son of Fighting Bob that her father was dead.

It is a picture out of naval romance—two officers facing one another across an extended sword on a bright quarter deck, with the smoke from a burning ship in the background; gallant, a little theatrical, and absurdly attractive.

The Children

ONE of the findings of the recent White House Conference on Child Health and Protection that deserves more publicity than it has received is the revelation that there are in the United States no fewer than 5,630,000 school children who are physically or mentally retarded enough to need special attention and education.

Fully 3,000,000 children with impaired hearing were found. A million more had defective speech and another million had weak hearts. About 300,000 were crippled, and 14,000 were blind.

The conference report points out that giving these children proper care, so that they can be educated according to their needs, is far less expensive than neglecting them and letting them become public charges later on. It is a matter that needs the nation's earnest attention, and it represents one field of activity where the current demand for economy should not be heard.

The man who said a profit was without honor should have lived in 1932.

Syd Franklin, rooklyn's famous bull fighter, had to go to Mexico to put on a demonstration. He was outclassed in New York.

A bunch of Los Angeles doctors think "No" is the most important word in the English language. They must have forgotten the thousands who hold their jobs simply by saying "Yes" at the right time and place.

That Girl on Broadway says old men act so young now-days that they seem to die before their time.

"Seek 'Dummies' In Stock Deal"—headline in Denison Herald. That ought to be easy; find the saps who bought the stock at 96 1-2 and still hold it at 3 1-4.

* * *

JUST the other day, while killing time, The Plainsman sat in a group of men and of course the talk drifted around to conditions. One idea brought on another and finally one gentleman spoke at length and sonorously on that now time-honored subject of "Everything and Everybody Is All Wrong". He pounded local government; he assaulted state government; he wound up by giving the national government Hail Columbia! The speech, which everyone has heard from many people, was a lulu.

One fellow who hadn't said much, however, was eminently unimpressed.

"All right, Joe", he remarked. "Just for sake of conversation let's imagine that you're dictator. You can do anything you want to do. You're the whole boss. Now what are you going to do to make things better?"

Joe looked like any of us would have looked. He looked like he'd been slapped in the face with a dead rabbit.

His oratory of a few minutes before had fled—he was red and tongue-tied. The best he could do was say "Well, the first thing I'd do would be to kick the 18th amendment out in the street, cut off the fortune thrown away trying to enforce prohibition and turn the revenue to the government!"

THE point to all this, of course, is to bring out the vastness of the economic problem which encompasses public and private business.

It's so far-reaching that even the smartest of men are dumbfounded in their efforts to find a cure.

It is an easy matter to criticize—an easy matter to sound off on theories. But when a fellow puts himself in the place where he must suggest an improvement or a cure he doesn't know which way to turn.

Personally The Plainsman has never fretted a great deal about the depression.

Naturally, he's not cheering it because like everybody else, his earning power has been cut down and he hasn't seen any kind of a dividend check in so long that he wouldn't know it if he did.

But he feels like it's a trick of nature—like earthquakes, fires, tornadoes and floods. To quote Senor Hamlet, it's just another on of those "ills that human flesh is heir to".

He feels that it will all come out in the wash and that the cure will come from natural, rather than artificial causes.

SPEAKING of cures, this department is assured by a gentleman who is very closely in touch with the financial world, that when times do come back we'll have some exciting times in these parts.

Our informant reports that foreclosures have been so heavy in Oklahoma, Kansas, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri that farmers up there are just waiting for the opportunity to get their paws on a few shekels and troop down here to take up our cheap land.

Used to paying all the way from $60 to $400 per acre, they're faunching to get a-hold of a block of the South Plains' famous catclaw loam.

This information, which might be called authoritative if there were any more authoritative information in the world, fits in pretty well with The Plainsman's own ideas.

On November 15 of last year, this column opined:

"Whenever things do open up you're going to see a hustle and a bustle around these diggings. The growth that Lubbock and the South Plains will experience then will make the happy years of 1923-30 look like a Sunday school picture. New customers will flock into this country like flies around a molasses barrel".

OF course, The Plainsman and his financial wizard could both be wrong. Both have been known to make at least a mistake apiece in the past.

But just for the fun of the thing, clip this prognostication out and paste it in your hat for future reference.

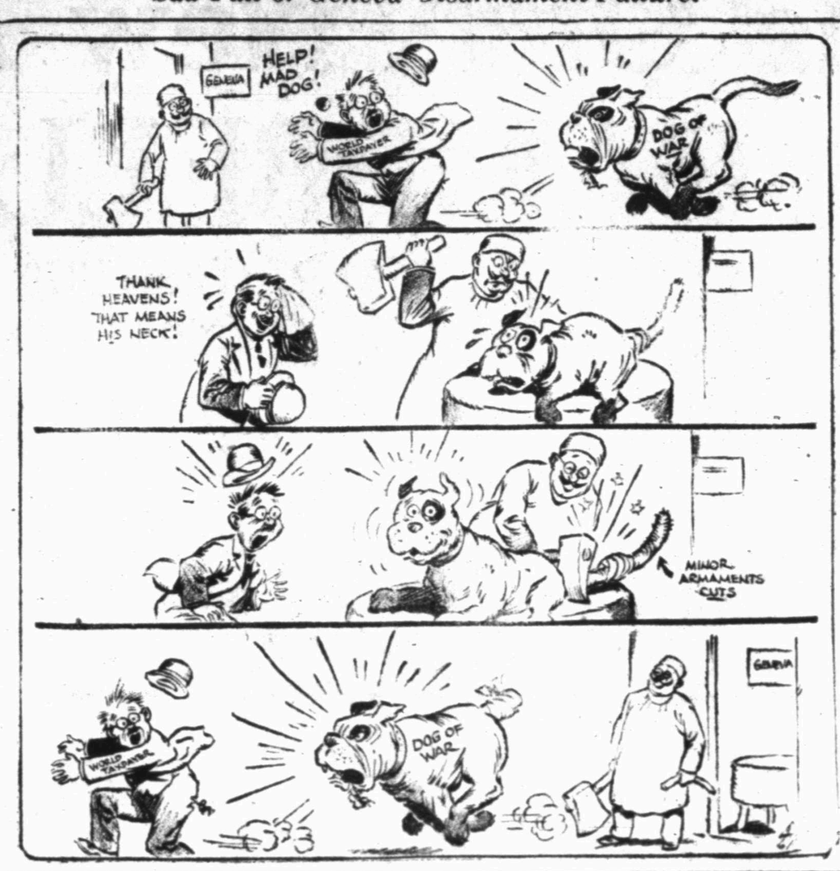

You won't likely have another hat until times get better and you'll be sure to have this guess before you.

SURELY SOMEBODY'S GOT A PUP FOR JOHN

Surely somebody has a puppy for John Gamble, who'll be four years old on next September 3. John's the little fellow who came in to see The Plainsman the other day and asked for a dog "just any kinda dog if he'll be a big dog some time". Thus far, no one has proffered the pet.

If you've got a pup to spare, please call The Plainsman or Miss Atcheson at 13 or 14. It'll make John mighty happy.

Anybody Can Make Pot Likker, Which Senator Huey Long Of Louisiana Says Must Be On Senate Restaurant Menu

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, April 22—Anybody can make pot likker which Senator Huey Long of Louisiana insists must be on the Senate Restaurant menu. Throw a lot of turnip greens, a hunk of salt pork, a few turnips into a pot, season with salt and pepper, cover with water and boil for about an hour. That's Huey's recipe.

Dutcher

You may then eat the greens and turnips, but that's not compulsory. The point is to drink the likker, dunking your corn bread in it. Huey says the stuff is good for every human ailment; that the Confederate army lived on it four years.

Long and Joe Robinson renewed the old controversy as to whether the corn bread should be "dunked" or broken into the likker recently. The result, as usual, was a tie. Long, of course, championed the "dunkers."

That's a Lot of Money

Unconfirmed reports here says Alice Longworth has turned down an offer of $250,000 for writing the story of her life. Sounds high, for these times.

Economy is not exactly a new thing here. Take, for instance, that automobile which the Department of Justice uses here for shadow work, confidential inquiries and official business of the Bureau of Investigation.

It was bought in 1927 and has gone 80,000 miles. Bureau Chief J. Edgar Hoover told a congressional committee about it. He wants a new car.

Reports that William M. Butler of Massachusetts, Cal Coolidge's old friend, may be drafted to serve again as chairman of the Republican national committee are faintly credible because:

1. Parties are having a miserable time raising funds.

2. Whatever funds they get must be spent more prudently than ever before.

He Fills the Bill

Butler is wealthy, has many

at the right time.

That Man on Avenue Q says the more helpful a man is around the house, the more he's imposed on.

* * *

There'll be no "pointing-with-pride" at the coming GOP convention. Mr. Fess is expected to announce in advance that it's impolite to point.

There's even a shortage of hot air. Jim Ferguson has announced that he'll limit his campaign speeches to three a week.

* * *

MR. R. T. Daniels, of Lynn county, came in a day or two ago, shook hands with The Plainsman and, in later conversation, remarked:

"I just wanted to see what you look like. I've been reading after you now for about three years and I have a lot of fun out of getting mad at the things you say!"

Our retort to other folks who enjoy getting mad is this:

If you want to get real mad—hopping mad—sore as a boil, just start reading Jinx Tucker and Blondie Cross in the Waco News-Tribune and San Angelo Standard-Times, respectively.

The Plainsman is a rank amateur compared with those boys.

They'll give you indigestion!

Diet and Health

The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining," "Feminine Hygiene" "Normal Diet," "List of Books," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding" and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are: "Normal Indigestion and Constipatis for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

BROWN OR WHITE BREAD?

THE CONTROVERSY as to the merits of white bread or whole wheat bread is getting warmer than ever. Ten years ago the whole-wheaters had the floor; they proclaimed that white bread was positively harmful and whole wheat the only healthful form of bread.

Dr. Clendening

Today the white-breaders have begun to fight back; they say that whole wheat and bran are harmful and cause indigestion and colitis and white bread is the only sensible way to eat bread.

The whole wheat and bran advocates now actually are on the defensive.

The idea of this series on bread began when a reader asked me which side of the controversy I am on. I am not on either side. Whole wheat bread is just what some people need. It is irritating and indigestible to others. White bread is highly nutritious for most people; for some it does not contain enough fibre, and for some it causes indigestion by stimulating too much acid in the stomach.

Too many questions, especially dietetic questions, are settled by partisans in that dogmatic, one-track way. How can one article of diet be exactly right for 120,000,000 people, all with different kind of digestive systems and nutritional engines?

The worst example I have had of this attitude was in a letter from the superintendent of schools of a city of medium size. She accused me of being in the pay of the bakers.

So far as the bakers are concerned they have no interest whatever in the controversy. They make both kinds of bread, equally well. But they have found that most people cannot eat whole wheat comfortably and when the whole wheat argument is reinforced by saying that white bread is harmful, people are frightened off and as a consequence eat no bread at all.

The wheat grain has a central kernel called the "endosperm". It is highly nutritious, designed for the use of the developing seed, and makes up about 85 per cent of the grain. This is the part that remains when wheat is refined and made into white flour.

Surrounding this endosperm is an outer envelope of cellulose, or bran, which is left in with the flour to make whole wheat.

The bran contains vitamin B and when it is removed from the flour that takes away the only vitamin bread has. The whole wheat advocates make much of this, but they fail to explain that there is a great deal of vitamin B in other parts of any meal.

The bran also provides roughage, which stimulates the movements of the intestinal tract. Unfortunately, it does so very efficiently in some people and stomach and intestinal specialists see many patients who are sick just because they have been eating too much bran. Perhaps they have over-emphasized this lately.

Claims that white bread is harmful and causes such diseases as cancer are utterly without foundation. If true, it applies to whole wheat also, because whole wheat contains white flour as well as the other parts of the wheat grain.

wealthy, conservative contacts and, as chairman in 1924, had the reputation of a hard-boiled tightwad among politicians who came seeking money for their state activities. . . . And the Democrats can't afford anyone credulous enough to sink loads of money in such states as Pennsylvania as Chairman Raskob did in 1928 after failing for the assurance that Smith could carry it.

Mills Even Sasses Reporters

Secretary of the Treasury Ogden Mills, loaded with great and heavy responsibilities, often gets pretty fervent these days. He doesn't mind sassing senators or even newspapermen.

After his appearance before the Senate Finance Committee, under the admiring eyes of his wife and Congressman Ruth Pratt of New York, he was being interviewed and a correspondent asked a question which betrayed skepticism. "I don't have to stand here and argue with you!" Mills barked heatedly.

And a moment later, with the questioner gone, he demanded: "Who is that fellow, anyway?"

The Rev. James Shera Montgomery, House chaplain, apparently aims his prayers at current developments. The day after an oil tariff had been voted into the tax bill he spoke of "anointing with oil," and the day the tax bill was voted on he asked the Almighty to "bring every member of this Congress into an experience of that knowledge, understanding and judgment hitherto unknown."

Why She's for Alfalfa Bill

One girl here says she doesn't know why she should have to work so hard when there are so many unemployed and that she hopes Alfalfa Bill Murray will be elected so we will have three crops a year.

Some federal employes work very hard: others are able to loaf. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation was overtiming girl clerks into nervous collapses until newspaper publicity discouraged the practice.

But theres an old story about the tourist who was gazing admiringly at a big tall bureau building and asked an old man about to pass in: "How many people work in that building?" The old man grunted: "About half of 'em!"

Closed for Good?

That speakeasy in a block adjacent to the White House reopened recently under new management, but not for long. The cops came and threatened to shoot tear gas in at the staff and customers if not allowed entry.

So the management regretfully "dumped," let the cops in and promised to move after emphatic assurance that it could no longer operate. . . Sol Bloom, the Washington Bicentennial director, asked to support the drive of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for 50,000,000 votes next November as a "tribute" to George, said the idea didn't possess "one-millionth" of the importance of his own educational campaign and might "embarrass" it.

Mowery Named As Head Of A&M Group

The South Plains A. & M. club at its annual San Jacinto day dinner last night at the Hilton hotel elected R. C. Mowery of Texas Technological college as president to succeed W. G. McMillan. The dinner was at 7:30 o'clock.

Marlin R. Smith was named vice-president, and R. H. Waters, secretary-treasurer. Sixteen persons attended and each took part in the informal program of recalling college days, renewing of acquaintances and meeting of new members. Plans were made for a round-up of former Aggies, probably in Amarillo, on the day of the A. and M.-Tech football game next fall.

Dr. Dean B. McLaughlin, of the University of Michigan, advances the theory that the absorption of light from a star by the atmosphere surrounding it causes it to explode.

VITAMIN B IN BRAN. RESEARCH REVEALS

Also Has "Bulk" to Further Assist Elimination, and Iron for Blood

One of the functions of Vitamin B is to help tone the intestinal tract, and promote elimination. Now, laboratory experiments show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN contains this valuable vitamin.

In addition, ALL-BRAN brings a plentiful supply of "bulk" — which provides the "ballast" needed to exercise the intestines.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Inside the body, it is different from the way you see it in the package. It absorbs moisture, and forms a soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, milder, more palatable.

Another healthful element brought by ALL-BRAN is iron. Tests show this cereal has twice as much usable iron as the same weight of beef liver.

Check common constipation — with its frequent headaches, loss of appetite and energy — by eating this delicious cereal. How much pleasanter than taking pills and drugs — so often habit-forming.

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily — sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

MAN SOUGHT FOR WORTHLESS CHECK

A suave man who obtained $47.50 in cash and $21.75 in merchandise here Saturday by giving worthless checks worked the same game in Amarillo before coming here, a comparison of descriptions indicated, Chief of Police Wiley Metcalfe said this morning. The merchandise the check artist procured here was apparel for a woman-companion.

Two furniture stores and a woman's apparel shop were victims. Lubbock Furniture company reported the man bought a day bed and floor lamp and offered a $45 check in payment. He was given $22.50 in change, and the furniture was ordered to be sent to 1905 Ninth street Monday. The check was turned down by Citizens National bank here, and the address was found to be fictitious.

It was reported Plains Furniture company sold the man $20 in furniture and cashed another $45 check, but C. Fred Litton, manager, declined to discuss the matter last night.

The man, tall, thin and with black hair, and the woman, who was dressed in brown, shopped leisurely at Jackman's at about 8:30 Saturday night. They bought two purses, woman's underwear and hose, giving a check on the Citizen's National bank for $21.75.

SINGLETARY

of them too stop in my office on their way back and rave over what wonderful country this was out here."

Mr. Singletary is on his way to Lovington, N. M., to confer with Luke Roberts, president of the Carlsbad Caverns Highway, the portion of the federal route west of Oklahoma City to El Paso, on plans for coordination of the work of the two associations and their ultimate consolidation.

The Oklahoma Cityan was pleased to learn of the settlement of the controversy over the routing of the highway from Lubbock to Idalou and declared that after this strip and the stretch from Lubbock to the Terry county line was paved, Terry county would be the only place in Texas where the highway isn't paved or hardsurfaced.

"This is not just another highway to me," Mr. Singletary said. "There are more points of interest on it than any other highway in the entire United States. It crosses every transcontinental federal route in the country with the exception of three north and south routes. All the east and west highways cross it diagonally and serve as feeders to it. It connects Fort Sill, the largest artillery post in the nation, with Fort Bliss, the nation's largest cavalry post. It has a drink at both ends and some of the prettiest scenery along the route that can be found on any similar distance in the world."

Mr. Singletary lives highways. He talks highways and he rides over highways, his car having travelled 66,000 miles during the past two years in the interest of highways. He and his wife have been over the entire U. S. 62 route from El Paso to Niagara Falls twice and he has traversed the route from Oklahoma City to the Caverns too many times to mention.

"The highway already has assumed international importance now that designation from Juarez to Chihuhua City, Mexico was made and we are expecting Canada to act soon on its designation to Quebec," he continued. "Then you will have a paved route from Lubbock to Quebec. I recently conversed with the minister of roads in Canada and they are contemplating the changing of the number of Canada No. 2 to 62, thereby giving the highway the same number in both the U. S. and the dominion."

Total distance of the highway is 2,354 miles and it passes through 88 counties in nine states, touching territory having a total population of 48,730,000 people.

"Most of the travel on the highway is to come from the east due to the fact that more than two-thirds of the population on the route live in that section. All these millions of people in the east we want to draw to this section as tourists," he said.

"And believe me," he continued, "we're not going to miss mentioning the great South Plains in our publicity of the highway which will be sent back east. It is appealing and impressive to the easterner who has never seen much of the country except that in the New England states."

Mr. Singletary is to continue on to El Paso after conferring with President Roberts in Lovington and from there he will go to Phoenix, Arizona, for a highway meeting before returning to Oklahoma City.

PARENTS IGNORE ATTENDANCE LAW

VINELAND, N. J., April 22. (AP)—The state of New Jersey is going to court in an effort to compel four flaxen-haired children to attend public school.

Under penalty of fine or imprisonment, it will ask their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Smart, to prove to a Cumberland county judge their contention that they can educate the children better than public school teachers.

When the Smarts refused to send their children to school, the state board of education arranged for the Landis township board to give them an oral examination of their ability as teachers, and indicated that if they could pass the examination the compulsory education law would not be invoked against them.

The first patent ever granted to an American woman was for a device to clean and cure corn.

HIGHWAY 24

nue H to a point one mile northeast and then down the Santa Fe tracks to Idalou. The route had previously been out Broadway to the state experiment station, north a mile, then to the Canyon community and from there to Idalou.

Trouble Started

Designation out Avenue H immediately started trouble and mass meetings were held by interested citizens of both sides seeking action on the two routes. Change of the designation to go out Broadway was officially obtained in 1926 from a new state highway commission and filing of the suit by Mrs. Nairn and others followed.

The suit was filed against Robert Bean, then county judge, after the commission announced intention of changing the route. Mrs. Nairn and others complaining it was in violation of a former agreement to locate the road. The plaintiffs stated they had gone to considerable expense in removing fences and making other improvements after the comgission had designated the original route and that these investments would be lost if the route was changed.

Certified questions regarding the suit were submitted directly from the court of civil appeals at Amarillo to the state supreme court, the appellate court at Amarillo last June granting the county's motion to advance the case to the higher court.

Hearing On Dec. 18

The case was submitted and a hearing held at Austin Friday, December 18, with Vaughn E. Wilson, county attorney, representing Lubbock county. Other members of the county's legal staff were Tom Garrard and T. S. Christopher, Lamesa, assistant attorney general.

After the route of the highway, formerly No. 53, had been fixed by the state highway department between the two originals, from which the tangle had emerged, county commissioners court began to obtain right-of-way on the third route. Easements were obtained from all except about half a dozen property owners.

The court of civil appeals at Amarillo granted an injunction restraining commissioners court from condemning land for right-of-way.

Plaintiffs in the case besides Mrs. Nairn include J. M. Hettler and his sister, F. A. McGee, P. F. Brown, Mrs. Mollie Abernathy and J. F. Hufstedler.

Guy R. Johnston, state highway resident engineer, said Thursday all plans necessary for the submission of the paving project at the next letting of the state highway commission would be prepared soon. He said the bids would be called for as soon as the county secures necessary right-of-way on the route. The county commissioners' court will discuss the project at a meeting Monday, Judge E. L. Pitts said.

Approved plans for the changed designation to Idalou are: From the county courthouse east on Broadway through the underpass and to a point about two and one-half miles east of the city near the state experiment station. From there, the route will angle northeast to near the point where the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains and Santa Fe railroads cross. Here the present highway will be used on into Idalou.

CLEARS NAME OF ROBBERY CHARGE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 22. (AP)—Herbert C. Scales, 37, of Dallas, Thursday cleared his name of a bank robbery charge with an alibi so perfect that the state withdrew its case against him.

On the recommendation of William Gerber, assistant attorney general, Judge Pail Wallace directed a verdict of acquittal for Scales and Ralph Arnold, bootlegger-filling station operator.

Mrs. Margaret Scales of Houston, mother of the clubman, athlete and university man, added the last touch to the perfect alibi when she said she had seen and talked with Scales at Dallas on May 4, 1931, the day he and Arnold were accused of participating in a $29,000 main street bank holdup here.

So convincing was the testimony of Mrs. Scales that Gerber, in recommending the verdict of acquittal, was forced to comment:

"I am frank to say to your honor, I was especially impressed with the testimony of Scales' mother and I am satisfied she is trying to tell the truth about this proposition."

A robbery charge is pending against Scales in Texas which his attorney, Maury Hughes, said he has been trying to get to trial for some time. He said there was "a political conspiracy."

MAN ARRESTED IN ALLEGED SWINDLE

EL PASO, April 22 (AP)—A 60-year old man, said to be from New York and Nogales, Ariz., was in jail here today in connection with the alleged swindle of $5,300 several months ago.

El Paso police were investigating a report that he is the brains of a confidence ring operating in the southwest.

The man was arrested after a chase through the downtown district of El Paso. He was accosted in a park by Lewis T. Joswik, of Wheeling, W. Va., who charged he and his wife were swindled out of the money. Joswik said he accused the elderly man who fled the scene. An El Paso policeman gave pursuit and caught him. Joswik said an acquaintance he met at Carlsbad cavern introduced him and his wife to the alleged swindler.

He said they were induced to invest their money with the man held here. They accompanied him to Nogales and were to meet him in Los Angeles to receive their profits. No formal charge had been filed.

Solons Pledged To Ferret Out "Bears"

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—The senate's banking committee opened up today on the score of brokers summoned in the stock exchange investigation, determined that the real traders back of the dummy names on the roll of short sales shall stand revealed.

Resolution that nothing should halt them was formed by the senators when they dismissed from the witness stand Richard Whitney, president of the New York stock exchange with a warning that he would be called back after more facts had been established.

"We haven't had frank answers from you, Mr. Whitney," Chairman Norbeck, (R., S. D.) told him when the unsatisfactory examination ended.

Slayer Of Officer Will Be Sentenced

HUGO, Okla., April 22. (AP)—After he was spirited to Hugo from state's prison, where he had been held for safe keeping, Nathan Rightsell, slayer of J. V. Buchanon, special Frisco officer, pleaded guilty in district court late yesterday.

He was returned to McAlester after Judge George T. Arneth of Isabel had set next Tuesday as the date of sentence.

RADICALS RAPPED AT D. A. R. CONFAB

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—John B. Chapple, managing editor of the Ashland, Wisconsin, Daily Press today termed his state the "front line trenches" in the fight against radicalism in an address before the D. A. R. continental congress.

Chapple said Governor Philip LaFollette and the president of the Wisconsin state university, Glenn Frank, were members of an organization "closely affiliated with the communist movement."

He also chronicled for the daughters, who have passed numerous resolutions urging the checking of communism, a list of persons and societies which, he said, had been referred to as "insidious forces of destruction" in a speech by President Hoover.

Two Brothers Still Held For Robbery

DALLAS, April 22 (AP)—Buddy and Charley Jenkins, brothers under investigation in connection with a $38,000 bank messenger robbery, remanded to the county jail in default of $10,000 bond each after a habeas corpus hearing today.

Prosecutor Nash Adams told Judge Charles A. Pippen that officers had not completed their investigation of the street holdup a week ago in which the money was taken from John McCommas, messenger for the Mercantile Bank and Trust company.

Oswald Jacoby To Wed Dallas Woman

DALLAS, April 22 (AP)—The engagement of Miss Mary Zita McHale of Dallas and Oswald Jacoby, nationally known bridge expert of New York was announced here today, by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. McHale. The engagement followed a five day romance that began on a local tennis court. The wedding has been announced for Monday, April 25.

Sanity Hearing For Harris Is Ordered

TEXARKANA, April 22 (AP)—At request of attorneys for John G. Harris, 27, authorities ordered a sanity hearing today for him. The young man's murder trial was postponed indefinitely. He was accused of killing Ed Royal, elderly traveler, on a highway west of Texarkana.

Harris recently was transferred to a hospital after he was found in his cell suffering from head injuries. Officers said he butted his head against the wall. Officers chained him to his bed when he attempted to leap from the third story window of his hospital room.

REVIEW OF TRIAL ASKED BY CAPONE

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—Al Capone to-day filed in the supreme court a petition asking a review of the action of the seventh circuit court of appeals affirming his conviction and penitentiary sentence on the charge of evading federal taxes.

In his petition Capone asserted he had not been informed by the indictment filed against him of the nature and cause of certain accusations because the indictment had been drawn in general terms which he said was contrary to a rule of the supreme court.

WE

Are firmly convinced that the people of Lubbock and the South Plains WANT QUALITY WORK—and we know that, although they are interested in buying only as cheaply as possible that they will prefer to pay a little more, to pay but a little more, and get QUALITY WORK.

Bray's are cleaning and pressing clothes at an alarmingly low price, but they have not cut their QUALITY, and they will quit, before they SACRIFICE QUALITY for PRICE. With the large volume of business that we are doing, we are giving the same HIGH QUALITY as always.

CAMPBELL WILL OPEN NEW STORE

W. R. Campbell, a veteran groceryman, will open doors of a new store Saturday morning. He announced his merchandising policy would not be changed.

Mr. Campbell sold his grocery business several weeks ago but has decided to return to the field and his new establishment will be a modern foods store, he said. The store is located at 2239 19th street "where there is plenty of parking space," he declared.

Follows "Golden Rule"

"I am re-entering business on the solicitation of many of my former customers," Mr. Campbell said yesterday. "I do not intend to interfere with the business of others and I will run my own business on the principle of the Golden Rule, for I will not sell any article which I do not believe in myself."

In marking his opening, Mr. Campbell is offering various prizes and souvenirs for patrons and children. Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, grapejuice, ices and fruits will be served throughout the day. The public is invited to inspect the store whether making purchases or not.

SHIELDS FACES ALLISON TODAY

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., April 22 (AP)—More than the right to enter the finals of the annual Mason and Dixon tennis singles championship may hinge today on the outcome of a semi-final round match between Frank Shields of New York and Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas.

They may be fighting, as well, for the No. 2 singles berth on the American Davis cup team which faces Canada at Washington next week.

When the team of four—Allison, Shields, Ellsworth Vines and John Van Ryn—originally was named, it was planned to play Shields and Vines in singles and Van Ryn and Allison in doubles.

But Allison's sensational play in southern tournaments this spring may well have made Davis cup officials ponder the advisability of playing the blonde Texan in singles as well as doubles.

Consolidation Of Two Suits Ordered

Judge Clark M. Mullican of 99th district court Thursday ordered consolidation of two suits filed by the Slaton independent school district for funds allegedly tied up in the closing of the First State bank at Slaton. Judge Mullican reset the case for June 13. New pleadings are to be filed.

The first suit, filed March 3, named as defendants the Slaton bank, James Shaw, banking commissioner, and the Amarillo First National bank. A total of $6,130.80 is asked. In the second suit, the Amarillo bank is not named a defendant and instead the Lubbock First National is one of the defendants.

Motorboat Pilots Freed Of Charges

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Nine American motorboat pilots stood doubly acquitted today of charges they had used unfair tactics to bring about the defeat of Charles H. Harrison, British driver, in the final heat of the Col. Green trophy race for outboard boats at Miami beach March 20.

They were cleared yesterday by the American Power Boat association which had reviewed evidence given by the drivers at a hearing conducted by the Florida Outboard association at Sanford, Fla., several weeks ago when the first verdict of acquittal was reached.

They had been charged with a conspiracy to draw Harrison across the starting line ahead of the gun and thus disqualify him so one of their number could win.

Santa Fe Is Ready For Grain Movement

SLATON, April 22.—(Special)—Assembly of boxcars to handle the wheat crop already is under way, and the Santa Fe railroad is making other preparations for the 1932 grain crop movement, J. S. Gillies, division superintendent, here, said.

Grain cars are being worked over and repaired, before being stored at sidings in this area, ready for quick moving to shipping points. This is an annual practice and the company is expecting to be able to move the crop this year easier than last, when an extra heavy demand for cars followed the huge crop.

For the movement of the 1931 crop nearly 9,000 cars were needed for wheat handling. Grain sorghum movement did not require as many cars.

Urging harmony among Lubbock county Democrats, J. K. Wester, chairman of the Lubbock county Democratic executive committee, Thursday night said he had not decided whether he would call a meeting of the committee, before a scheduled session April 30, to take action on the party pledge.

At the last meeting of the committee action on the pledge was deferred until the courts had decided on a suit brought by Tom Love,
