TWO CONVICTS MAKE ESCAPE FROM PEN

LONG-TERMERS BREAK PRISON; WELL-LAID PLAN EXECUTED

(By The Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 26.—Two long-term convicts of the Missouri state penitentiary were sought here today after apparently well-laid plans for their escape had brought them to Kansas City in a prison motor car.

The two, Dr. George Koverta, former Kansas City physician who had turned counterfeiter and bank robber, and Alvin Hetzer, serving a 20-year sentence for highway robbery, deserted the car here early yesterday after a circuitous drive from Jefferson City where the prison is located. Before abandoning the machine they had released Homer Yancey, a guard, and Joe Sgwabo, a trusty chauffeur, whom they had kidnaped.

Guards Bound

Dr. Koverta, who was assigned to the prison medical staff, and Hetzer, his assistant, entered the machine at the prison Saturday. Taking Yancey and Sgwabo they had been called to the intermediate reformatory at Algoa, eight miles away. Shortly after leaving the prison the convicts took command of the motor car, and at the point of surgeons scalpels forced Yancey and Sgwabo into the rear seat, where they were bound.

Before starting from the reformatory Sgwabo had checked the car. later officials announced the car had been faked, apparently by a confederate.

Yancey and Sgwabo said the two apparently were well supplied with [illegible]

Continue Amarillo Theater Bomb Case

Carl C. Solen, May business agent for a theater projection machine operators' union at Amarillo charged with transportation and possession of stench and tear gas bombs and with hiring another man to discharge the bombs, was continued Saturday in Potter county court to October 3 on motion of defense counsel, T. D. Whitehorn. Lubbock police detective reported Whitehorn intended to return to Amarillo late today to take up another case in connection with theater troubles at Amarillo. He said he hoped to complete allied cases in two or more counties in the next two weeks.

When committed, the acts attributed to May were misdemeanors. The legislature in the last session made them felonies. Whitehorn said. The police detective has been the principal investigator of the Memorial day bombings of two Lubbock screen-houses.

Panhandle-Plains Fair Is Opened

EXHIBITS ARE BEING PUT IN PLACE

ALTERNATE MIST AND SUNSHINE DASH AND RAISE HOPES

Exhibits rapidly were being placed at the fairgrounds this morning as the gates of the 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair swung open and turnstiles began clicking slowly.

A muddy mid-way was improved with rock and clay trucked from a downtown building project, and straw was scattered about outdoor concessions.

Carnival Delayed

Delayed both in leaving the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo and in unloading here, Wortham show equipment was being hauled to the grounds behind a county catepillar tractor.

Alternate mist and sunshine dashed and raised the hopes of showmen, fair officials and exhibitors. At noon favorable winds had shoved away threatening clouds enough to permit occasional sunshine.

Beginning with Lubbock Day Tuesday, special days are scheduled for the remainder of the exposition. Wednesday is School Day; Thursday, Amarillo Day; Friday, Levelland Day, and Saturday, Littlefield Day.

The carnival thrill and atmosphere probably will envelope the exposition grounds from gates to livestock barns and from implement shed to woman's exhibit building by night. Trucks and automobiles wheeled [illegible] this morning.

[illegible] rangoits, the best of the South Plains agricultural products both in individual and community and county booths, the latest industrial offerings, perhaps the finest collection of scoutcraft ever gathered in this section, and the choicest exhibits of culinary, sewing, flower, and art displays.

MINERS KILL POLICEMAN

GIRL OR FEUD BLAMED FOR SHOOTINGS

REVIVAL MEETING AT CHURCH TURNS TO KILLING ORGY

(By The Associated Press)

LEESVILLE, La., Sept. 26.—Authorities said today they believed a girl or a feud led to the wholesale shooting at Whiskachita church Saturday night that broke up a revival meeting in pandemonium and blood.

Lee Johnson, 20, and Jesse Perkins, 22, were killed in the fight which started at the church door and ended at the pulpit. An eight-year-old boy was wounded in the head as he slept in a rear pew.

Claims Self Defense

[illegible] Wisby, 25, surrendered and said he shot Johnson and Perkins in self defense. He said he was outside the church when the pair approached him "in a hostile manner" and that he opened fire when he noticed they were armed "and evidently prepared to attack me."

Sheriff Turner of Vernon parish said Wisby and Johnson were at outs over attention to the same girl.

He also said relatives of both had been arrested in recent years in connections with at least four previous slayings in both families.

Stampede Started

The battle started while the Rev. Mason Starks was preaching. The first shots started a stampede in the little church and the minister stood by his pulpit and shouted to his congregation to pray. A few joined him but other dashed toward the door. Several were bruised in the flight.

Perkins was felled at the door. Johnson, wounded in the chest ran down the center aisle and collapsed near the pulpit. The shooting continued until many of the oil lamps were shot out.

MAHATMA BREAKS HIS SIX-DAY "DEATH FAST" AFTER BRITISH GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS MOST OF COMPROMISE PLAN FOR UNTOUCHABLES

(By The Associated Press)

POONA, India, Sept. 26.—Mahatma Gandhi, inspired by news that the British government at London had approved most of the compromise plan on the privileges of Indian untouchables in legislative elections, broke his "death fast" of protest this afternoon.

Gandhi broke his fast at 5 p. m., India time (5:30 a. m., C. S. T.). He had abstained from food six days and five hours.

Gandhi began his self-imposed ordeal at noon Tuesday, as a protest against that part of the recent British communal award which proposed special constituencies for the depressed classes.

Days of negotiations followed between leaders of the depressed classes and the caste hindus. These finally ended in a compromise plan to which the Mahatma agreed.

The British government this morning announced the acceptance of the compromise plan, with certain reservations, and Gandhi decided to take food again.

In the meantime, his physical strength had been ebbing away and early today his physicians stated his condition was becoming serious.

Gandhi had a bad night. He slept

Speaker Garner Goes To New York To Form Plans

WILL ROOT FOR BALL TEAM WHICH HAS THE MOST DEMOCRATS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—Speaker John N. Garner, Democratic vice-presidential candidate, arrived from Washington today for a conference with Democratic campaign leaders and while here hopes to see at least one world series baseball game.

The speaker was accompanied by William Bray, his personal aide, and Charles S. Hand, in charge of his campaign. His train, the Washington express, arrived at the Pennsylvania station at 5:50 a. m. and the speaker, who had left a call for 6:40 o'clock, was sleeping soundly when the porter awakened him.

Always Sleeps Well

Garner said he retired immediately after getting on the train in Washington last night and had a good night's rest, adding that he always sleeps well on a train. He was dressed before the other two members of his party had arisen. He went from the station directly to the Hotel Biltmore, in which Democratic national headquarters is located.

As he was being driven to his hotel he remarked on the absence of persons on the street at that hour of the morning.

"Down in Texas," he said, "everybody is up long before this and out."

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate said he came to New York to confer with the Democratic national committee on his speaking itinerary. While here, he said, he will meet Robert Jackson, chairman of the speakers' bureau; Louis Howe, Governor Roosevelt's political secretary; Senator Claude Swanson of Virginia and Congressman Sam Rayburn of Texas.

DOGS WILLED TO HUBBY; MONEY GOES TO OTHERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (AP)—Mrs. Florence Hunter died leaving $50,000 and eight dogs. Her husband got the dogs. Now he wants a husband's share of the estate. Besides, four of the dogs were dead when he got them.

In filing notice today that he would contest the will, Louis R. Hunter called attention to the fact the will left his wife's estate to blood relatives, servants, the Christian Missionary alliance, the Red Cross animal relief and the American Humane association and made no provision for him except for the dogs.

He found four of the dogs dead in the cellar, he said, and had them buried in an animal cemetery where other dogs Mrs. Hunter had owned had been buried.

There is a law in New York which makes it impossible for a husband or wife to disinherit the other. Mrs. Hunter, however, signed her will one day before the law went into effect.

TWO MEN HURT SERIOUSLY IN STREET RIOT

SCORES INJURED WHEN OPPOSING FACTIONS MEET IN BATTLE

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 26.—A sanguinary street riot in which a police officer was killed and a score or more of other persons injured, two critically, has brought the smouldering Illinois mine war ot a new phase of hostilities.

The clash was the first in which the opposing factions of miners have done physical battle with each other; heretofore outbreaks have been confined, except in isolated incidents, to melees in which peace officers and miners have been antagonists.

Rival Groups Meet

Yesterday, as a group of about 50 miners belonging to the United Mine Workers of America marched from a meeting to their hotel headquarters, they were met by a group of picketeers belonging to the Progressive Miners of America. Officials estimated the number of pickets at approximately 800.

Surrounded by jeering picketeers, who opposed their intention to return to work at a reduced wage scale, the United Mine Workers, many times outnumbered, made their way toward their hotel.

As they neared the hotel, the United Miners were cut from the entrance by a flanking movement. A shot was fired, alleged from the ranks of the United Mine Workers. The insurgent group closed in. Heads were cracked as clubs were brought down. Fists flew back and forth, knives flashed and more shots were fired.

Detective Slain

A Springfield detective, Sergeant Porter Williams, among the number seeking to restore order, fell fatally wounded.

On the ground, bleeding from three stab wounds, was Garnet Smith, who later was charged with shooting Williams. Smith was a member of the United Mine Workers.

The fight, at times, was carried into the hotel lobby, then back onto the streets. Sheriff's deputies and members of the Illinois highway police were rushed to aid city police and used tear gas bombs to restore order ultimately.

When the melee was over, police

TWENTY-YEAR TERM AGREED ON BY DEFENSE ATTORNEYS AND STATE; JURY NOT BOUND

THIRD SUSPECT IN SLAYING OF 'LEATHER HAT' BROWN THROWS HIMSELF ON MERCY OF JURY; CONTINUANCE GRANTED IN WALKER TRIAL

Throwing himself upon the mercy of a jury in 99th district court, B. L. "Barber John" Richardson, one of the three men charged with murder in the slaying of F. V. "Leather Hat" Brown, entered a plea of guilty when arrainged before Judge Clark M. Mullican this morning.

Richardson's attorneys previously had entered into an agreement with District Attorney Durwood Bradley and Special Prosecutor J. E. Vickers for a twenty-year term. The jury, although not bound by the agreement, was expected to set Richardson's sentence at the amount agreed upon.

Richardson's trial had been called after a two days' continuance had been granted Hugh Walker whose hearing had been set for today. Walker's continuance was granted due to illness of an attorney, Dewitt Bomer of Temple. The case was set for Wednesday.

Courtroom Crowded

As during the trial of Jess Covington, third man charged in the pioneer county stockman's death at Woodrow on May 30, the courtroom was crowded this morning when Walker's case was called.

Covington received a sentence of eight years in his trial which ended Saturday.

A jury composed of B. A. Hanna and D. S. Rucker, of Slaton, H. M. Sage of Idalou, B. B. Gillean, W. A. Hicks, J. B. Franklin, F. D. Blake, D. F. Owens, W. C. Foutz, Ollie Waynick, Sam C. Arnett and G. R. Bufe, of Lubbock was selected to hear short testimony in the case this afternoon.

TECH CLASSES ARE BEGUN

BISHOP SEAMAN FROM AMARILLO PREACHES ANNUAL SERMON

First classes of the fall term convened at 8 o'clock this morning at Texas Technological college. Enrollment of stragglers, and other students whose registration had been delayed or left incomplete, was continued.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. E. Cecil Seaman, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal missionary district of North Texas, of Amarillo addressed members of the Technological college class of 1936 last night in the Lubbock High school auditorium.

Dr. James M. Gordon, liberal arts dean, said 1,712 students had passed through the registrar's office to late Saturday.

"Beginnings" are the important times to "take God into your life," Bishop Seaman said.

"College life is a part of the whole life," the bishop said. "God stands at the beginning of every day and asks to be let in at the beginning of every project so that he may be inside at the end.

"The college can't put forth any course on the interpretation of religion as it can of history, cannot set forth a philosophy of religion that will reveal to men the processes of the spiritual life as it can in courses of our human relations. Route Chosen For Swisher Highway

The route considered for state Highway No. 9 through Tulia, in Swisher county, has been selected, and a survey preliminary to letting of a hard-surfacing contract has been begun, Guy Johnston, resident engineer for the state highway department here, said today. He said the contract possibly would be let in December.

CROPS FEARED DAMAGED BY RAINFALL

MANY HIGHWAYS MADE IMPASSABLE BY FIVE DAYS OF RAIN

Although fair weather prevailed here at noon today, it had arrived only an hour or two earlier, and that was not enough to scatter fears of a continuation of a five-day stretch of precipitation that had harmed crops, made roads virtually impassable, and knifed deeply into prospects of attendance at the 19th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair.

Precipitation here the last 24 hours, to noon, totaled .16 of an inch, the Santa Fe railroad reported. It increase rainfall here since Wednesday to more than 1.32 inches. Guy Johnston, resident engineer of the state highway department here, said 50 to 60 trucks, with some tractors, were being used to help motorists travel roads in this vicinity. Conditions of the roads seemed about the same as Sunday, he said.

Rainfall Continues

Although no rain had been reported in the hour just before noon, the Santa Fe railway here had reports of rainfall from a fraction of an inch to 2.5 inches on its lines in this territory. Precipitation had continued generally at South Plains points on the Santa Fe route.

No improvement in road conditions was reported at the union bus terminal here at noon. Buses from Amarillo and Brownfield, the only ones running Saturday and Sunday, this morning still had that distinction, although behind schedule.

The Santa Fe reports for the 24 hours ending at noon were: Canyon .75 of an inch, Happy .5, Tulia .1, Plainview .1, Hale Center .25, Abernathy .75, Lubbock .16, Texaco .5, Muleshoe .5, Sudan 1 inch, Amherst 1.25 inches, Littlefield 1-6 o fan inch, Shallowater 1-8, Anton .25, [illegible], Levelland .5, Bledsoe .25, Lehman .5.

Seagraves 2.5 inches, Brownfield 1 inch, Meadow .5 of an inch, Ropesville 2 inches.

Idalou .25 of an inch, Ralls 1.5 inches, Crosbyton, .5 of an inch, Lorenzo 1 inch.

Quality Of Entries In Women's Division Lauded By Judges

Hooked Rugs, Quilts, Canned Products And Flowers Said To Be Good Quality

While cut flowers, cakes and breads continued to come into the women's building at the Panhandle-South Plains fair this morning, most of the exhibits were arranged for display.

Judging in the department continued through the week-end and many articles bear blue, red and white badges today. The quality of entries in every department is better this year than in past seasons, according to the judges.

Among the beautiful flowers that were coming in this morning were several bouquets of dahlias entered by Mrs. C. L. Tanner of Slaton. She had some gorgeous decorative dahlias in the display.

Cut flowers are more beautiful this fall than in any other year, the superintendent, Mrs. W. O. Stevens, believes. This may be due to the rainy weather recently that has kept kinds from blighting the blossoms, she said.

Has Assistants

Mrs. Stevens was being assisted in receiving entries by Mesdames J. H. Hankins, D. Burns, R. A. Mills and Jerome Smith. Judging was to take place at 1 o'clock this afternoon. J. C. Davis and O. W. Ribble are judges in this division.

Judges in the women's division complimented directors and superintendents on having a better system of receiving and arranging displays this fall and stated that the quality of exhibits is the best that it has ever been. Several judges in this division have judged in a number of previous fairs here.

Although the display of quilts last year was beautiful there is a better one this fall. These articles are displayed to better advantage this season. Two quilts in a sunburst pattern, similar designs, are among the most attractive. Some tulip design quilts and several others in favorite patterns are particularly pleasing. Among the silk quilts is one in a padded pattern, made of odd scraps but following a design, that is drawing considerable attention.

In the rug display are two hooked rugs made of wool yarns that drew praise from the judges. One is in dark blues and reds and is in an oriental design. The other is in shades of lavendar and is a floral design. The decision of judges between the two was made on color principles involved—an art principle having been violated in the background of the floral rug.

Canning Interest Seen

The interest in canning this year is reflected in the rows of canned fruits and vegetables, both in the general culinary department and in the women's and girls' clubs section.

In this latter section, a pantry demonstration, now at Lubbock National bank, is to be shown. A canned meal table and a gift table are to be erected, according to the superintendent, Miss Isla Mae Chitwood.

The quality of art work shown was praised by Mrs. H. G. Hendricks of Amarillo, an out-of-town judge in this division. Mrs. Hendricks is president of the Amarillo Art Association.

As judging is completed in the women's department, books of the superintendents will be closed and the name's of winers will be published.

Judges in the textile, culinary and women's club divisions were Miss Mildred Horton, state home demonstration agent, and Miss Myrtle Murray, district home demonstration agent. Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. J. H. Goodman and Miss Rozelle Jones judged the art. Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Murray Jones and Mrs. D. Burns judged antiques curios and relics.

For The Co-Ed

WIDE, comfortable pajamas and a flannel robe make the finest possible costume for study in a girls' room at college.

Sally Eilers is shown wearing a pair of white flannel trousers, the top being a white knit wool sweater. The robe is in red, white and blue.

Three Jap Fliers Are Thought Lost

TOKYO, Sept. 26 (AP)—Fear that the three Japanese fliers who set out Saturday on a good will flight to the United States, had been lost in a week-end storm over the north Pacific grew today as no word was received from the plane's radio and the time limit of its gasoline supply was long overrun.

The plane left Samushiro Saturday morning at 5:35 o'clock and was last heard from at 10:10 the same day when it reported it was 750 miles northeast of Tokyo.

LUMBER BUSINESS IS "LOOKING UP"

SEATTLE, Sept. 26 (AP)—The lumber business in the Pacific northwest is "looking up."

Col. W. B. Greeley, secretary-manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, today said factors contributing to the improvement of the last six weeks were depletions of stock in lumber yards, a tariff of $4 a thousand feet on imported timber and anticipation on the part of dealers for an increased demand for small home building purposes.

Fears Price Drop

However, Greeley fears a better lumber market will call back scores of idle mills into operation with a consequent drop in lumber prices and a return to the "buyers market" which has temporarily given way to a "sellers' market."

The Western Pine association with headquarters in Portland, Ore., also has reported an increase in business during the week of Aug. 6 in the Western Pine territory. The usual trend at this season is downward but orders were 95 per cent of the same week a year ago.

"Average prices have increased from $1.50 to $2 per thousand feet during the past 60 days," The West Coast Lumberman's association said. "The major increases have occurred in the Atlantic coast and California water markets and in some items in the rail trade."

A series of experiments has been started in Switzerland that will last 250 years. The experiments will determine movement of glaciers.

DIXIE CHAMPIONSHIP AT CHATTANOOGA'S FINGERTIPS TODAY

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

First opportunity of the season to see the Lubbock High Westerners in public demonstration is granted this afternoon. Coach Chapman will pit his "Regulars" ag inst Coach Burl Huffman's Reserves, or the first team vursus the second team.

The game starts at 4 o'clock and will be played at the Fair Park gridiron. If you have purchased a season ticket to the South Plains fair or if you buy a ticket into the fairgrounds, the game will cost you nothing. In fact, that is the only way you can see it. The contest itself is free.

There will be a game each afternoon during the fair. Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock you may see the Amherst and Seagraves High school teams battle in a regular game. These schools have forfeited their standing in the Texas Interscholastic league in order to play the game tomorrow. Unhampered by league eligibility rules, the contest ought to be well worth seeing.

If the rain scared you away from the Tech-A. & M. game at Amarillo Saturday, or if you didn't go for some other reason, you missed a great exhibition. Those who went will tell you that. Matador rooters have no call to be disappointed with the performance of their favorites. The world at large should recognize Texas Tech's gridiron ability as a result of that tilt.

This department missed its guess concerning the final outcome, but so did a lot of other guessers. We were halfway right at that. A. & M. did score its seven points. The hitch came when the Matadors failed to score their 13 points. The guess was made before any rain fell, and if it had been possible we'd have changed it to a scoreless tie. That's the way the ball game should have turned out anyway.

Given a dry field, we still believe the Matadors could lick the Aggies. Coach Cawthon and Coach Smith lean to that idea, too, but they can't afford to broadcast it. There are no alibis, then, and we're all agreed that it was a good game, airtight after the first quarter, with the Matadors outfighting, perhaps outplaying the Aggies all the way.

There are those fans—you find them in every situation—who are prone to criticize Coach Cawthon for starting his second string Saturday, contending that if the first team had started, the Aggies never would have scored. After brooding over the matter, this department is still satisfied to let Coach Cawthon do the coaching and the lining up. That's what he gets paid for. If there was a better man than Cawthon to coach the Matadors, he probably would have been on the bench Saturday, and all the time.

If we were in the fault-finding business, we'd probably raise a little rukus about the touchdown that the Aggies scored. You will hear your neighbor who saw the game contend that the ball never went over the goal line or if it did, that it went out of bounds about 2 yards before going into the checkered territory. But Referee Barry Holton got paid for calling the scores and no amount of protest could make him change his decision. The pleasing side of it is the memory that the Matadors call on second downers if you wish, twice the Aggies for three downs within the five-yard line and the Aggies were trying desperately to put over a counter. The Matadors were fighting every inch.

The Aggies knew they were up against a fighting, scrapping, ambitious team. There was no doubt of that. They took advantage of every penalty and every break, because they needed them. The Matadors don't give anybody anything. Who takes anything from Cawthon's bunch earns it, one way or another. Captain Jimmy Aston and Frenchy Domingue, two of the classiest backs it has been our privilege to see, learned the cost of taking things when they crashed into a couple of Matador backs. They took both Aggies off the field. The Matadors don't play easy with anybody. Football wasn't invented as an easy game. That's no crack at the Aggies, because they play rough and tough also.

It's S. M. U. next. They'll appear Saturday night at Matador Field, and you'd better buy your ticket early. They're on sale today at the Hilton and Lubbock hotel drug stores.

The North Texas Teachers, who held the T. C. U. Frogs to a 14-2 victory last Saturday week, held the Mustangs to a scoreless tie day before yesterday. Which means that the Ponies are weaker than usual, or that they were having an off day, or that they are not to be trusted or that Coach Jack Sisco has something over at Denton this fall. The latter may be the best guess. Sisco has been building up a team for three years, and it's time he was coming through. Holding T. C. U. to two touchdowns on one Saturday and S. M. U. to none on the following Saturday means something.

FOOTBALL SLATED ON FAIR PROGRAM

LOOKOUTS WIN THREE GAMES IN A ROW

BEAUMONT MUST TAKE NEXT THREE TILTS TO WIN SERIES

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 26 (AP)—The Chattanooga Lookouts have the south's baseball championship at their fingertips and intend to get their fists on it today in the fifth game of the Dixie series with Beaumont of the Texas league.

The Southern association pennant winners defeated the Exporters, 6 to 4, yesterday. It was their third consecutive win in four starts. The series is decided on four out of seven games.

The fifth game will be played here today and the sixth and seventh also will be played here, if at all.

In Hitting Humor

The Lookouts were in a hitting humor yesterday and pounded out 14 hits off four Beaumont pitchers. They piled up an early lead and Hulvey was working easily until the ninth. Hank Greenberg greeted him with a homerun and before the inning ended the Exporters had scored three runs and had the tying run on base.

Bert Neihoff, Lookouts manager, hurried two pitchers into the fight and McColl finally saved it.

Greenberg also hit a double yesterday but his bat was the only potent one in the Beaumont camp. Cliff Bolton got a double and two singles out of four times up for the Lookouts.

Approximately 11,000 fans braved a cold wind and colder rain to watch the game.

NEXT OPPONENTS OF TEXAS TECH MATADORS

Here are Coach Ray Morrison, his assistant, "Dutch" McIntosh and a few of the Southern Methodist University gridsters who come to Lubbock next Saturday and appear Saturday night against the Texas Tech Matadors.

Champions of the Southwest conference, one of the most colorful teams of the entire nation, the Mustangs, who have played some of the national football champions, will count it a big feather in the Pony headdress if they defeat Tech Saturday. The game will be played at Matador Field, opening the night football season and the big time schedule on the local gridiron.

SIX CONTESTS TO BE SEEN THIS WEEK

WESTERNERS TO MEET RESERVES TODAY IN FIRST APPEARANCE

Coach Weldon Chapman will send his Lubbock High school Westerners against the Westerner reserves this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the Fair Park gridiron.

The game, a regular, four-quarter, officiated contest, will feature the entertainment card on opening day of the Panhandle-South Plains fair.

First Appearance

Prohibited by Texas Interscholastic league rules from playing a matched game with any other school before Sept. 30, the Westerners will be making their first public appearance of the season this afternoon.

A game is scheduled for each day during the fair. Tomorrow afternoon finds the Amherst and Seagraves High school teams battling each other. Both schools have withdrawn from the Interscholastic league in order to play the game at the fair. Unhampered by league eligibility rules, the teams should put up a fair scrap.

Hale Center and Muleshoe appear on Wednesday's gridiron card at the fair.

Tech Frosh To Play

A headliner is slated for Thursday afternoon when the Texas Tech Matador reserves meet the Texas Tech freshmen in a regularly planned game. It will mark the first appearance of the freshman club this season. Coach Del Morgan has warned the charges of Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith not to think lightly of the ball game.

Friday's game will be between Levelland and Ralls, and will be played under Texas Interscholastic league rules.

Littlefield and Brownfield renew a long time rivalry when their football teams clash Saturday in the final game for visitors to the fair.

Major League Leaders

(By The Associated Press)

Jimmie Foxx's 58 home runs, Paul Waner's 63 doubles and a remarkably close batting race involving Foxx, Dale Alexander of the Boston Red Sox, and Frank O'Doul of Brooklyn furnished the three high spots of major league stickwork for the 1932 season.

Unofficial figures credit Alexander with the major league hitting championship for the year which closed yesterday with O'Doul taking the National league honors with an average of only one point lower. But until the final official checkup is made the outcome will remain in doubt. Alexander's final unofficial mark was .367, O'Doul's .366 and Foxx, who led through most of the season, finished with .364.

The records of the leaders in each league:

RECORDS SHOW CONTRASTS

YANKEES WON EASILY WHILE CUBS FOUGHT TERRIFIC BATTLE

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.,
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The records of the New York Yankees and the Chicago Cubs for the 1932 season furnish a study in marked contrasts as the teams await the world's series Wednesday.

The Yankees ran away with the American league flag, finishing with the second highest percentage ever recorded by a pennant winner in the junior circuit, .692. The Cubs won only after a terrific battle and then were only one game ahead of the lowest mark that ever won a National league flag. The Yanks won 107 games and lost 47 and might have done better if they had been pressed late in the race. The Cubs recorded 90 victories and 64 defeats for .485 average.

Never Shut Out

The Yankees likewise knocked the daylights out of the major league record for consecutive games without being shut out by scoring in every one of 156 games. This came on top of 55 games at the end of 1931 and gave them a total of 211 in a row and eclipsed the mark of 132 established by the Boston and Philadelphia Nationals in 1894.

One point of similarity cropped up yesterday when each team lost its final game of the season to a last place club, the Yanks succumbing to Boston, 8-3 and the Cubs going down before Cincinnati, 5-3.

Two places in the final standing were not decided until the final day. Philadelphia took fourth by winning the second game of a doubleheader from New York, 6-3 after losing the first 5-3. The single victory kept Boston out of a tie even though the Braves trounced Brooklyn 13 to 7. New York and St. Louis tied for sixth as each split a twin bill. The Cardinals lost the first to Pittsburgh 7 to 1 and won the second, 7 to 4.

Foxx Falls Short

Foxx fell a little short of equaling Ruth's major league home run record of 60 but his 58th circuit wallop furnished one of the high spots of the closing day. It came in the ninth inning as the Athletics lost a 2-1 decision to Washington. In other American league games yesterday, Detroit took a 5-4 decision from St. Louis and Cleveland and Chicago played a 5-5 tie in the second game of a doubleheader after the Indians had won the first 6-4. Darkness stopped the game after the fifth inning.

ELLSWORTH VINES AGAIN IS BEATEN

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 26 (AP)—Like the prophet Ellsworth Vines, Jr., world's singles tennis champion today was without honor in his own country.

He came back to southern California after a great European invasion and successful defense of his national singles championship, but the net stars of the world who trailed the 20-year-old Pasadena youth here put an abrupt end to his reign as Pacific southwest champion.

Vines lost control of the last two of his three titles yesterday by being eliminated in the semi-finals of the mixed doubles after he and Keith Gledhill, the national doubles championship team, had bowed in defeat in the men's doubles finals. Previously, Vines had been beaten in the men's singles quarter-finals by Jiro Satoh, Japan.

Wilmer Allison, Austin, Tex., and John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, from whom Vines and Gledhill had won the national title a few weeks ago, turned the southern Californians back in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Frederick Perry of Great Britain won the men's singles title Saturday.

TEAMS WILL SEEK TO REGAIN PRESTIGE LOST SATURDAY

BY BILL PARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

To regrow stunted prestige and heal bruised pride that resulted Saturday from three non-conference ties, Southwest conference football players today echoed a warning of bigger and harder battles against seven non-conference foes next Saturday.

Gloom stalked the campuses of Southern Methodist and the University of Arkansas today because those teams were held to scoreless ties Saturday by the North Texas Teachers of Denton and Hendrix college, respectively. It was a bitter prestige drop for the Mustangs who won the Southwest conference championship last year.

T. C. U. Ties L. S. U.

Texas Christian was held to a 3-all tie by Louisiana State, but the Tigers of the Southern conference boast a team that can match ability with any in the Southwest.

Featuring Saturday's program will be Texas A. and M. against Tulane at New Orleans. Last year, the Aggies made a gallant fight against the Green Wave but lost, 7 to 0. Saturday at Amarillo, A. and M. blasted Texas Tech, 7 to 0.

Second interest will be the battle at Houston between Rice and Louisiana State, which held Texas Christian to a 3-all tie. Rice displayed power Saturday in beating Texas A. and I., 20 to 0. The third big game Saturday will be at Austin between Centenary college and the University of Texas. In their scrimmage last year, Texas won, 6 to 0. Texas beat Daniel Baker Saturday, 26 to 0.

Texas Christian's next move will be against Daniel Baker at Fort Worth.

S. M. U. Faces Tech

Dazed by not being able to score on the North Texas Teachers, a club Texas Christian recently beat, 14 to 2, the Southern Methodist mustangs invade Lubbock Saturday to battle Texas Tech.

The University of Arkansas sophomores battle the Missouri School of Mines Saturday at Fayetteville.

Coach Morley Jennings and his Baylor university Bears make their initial bow Saturday at Waco with St. Edwards as an opponent.

BASEBALL STARS OF YESTERDAY

(By The Associated Press)

Randy Moore, Braves—Hit home run, two doubles and single against Brooklyn.

Alvin Crowder, Senators—Held Athletics to six hits to win 26th game of season and 15th straight.

Gus Dugas, Pirates—Made five hits in seven times up in doubleheader against Cardinals.

Flint Rhehm, Phillies—Pitched Phillies into fourth place by holding Giants to five hits.

Frank Doljack and Gerald Walker, Tigers—Their home runs in eighth inning beat St. Louis.

TO GET BETTER SERVICE

LORENZO, Sept. 26.—(Special)—Rural route patrons of the Lorenzo postoffice will be given better mail delivery, Mrs. Hoople, postmistress, says.

Hereafter rural carriers will not leave at 8 o'clock and 10 o'clock as they have been doing, but will await the arrival of the morning Santa Fe train from Lubbock. Mail thus received will be delivered the same day it reaches Lorenzo.

The Westex bus from Lubbock generally arrives before the train.

HOTEL IS OPERATED

LORENZO, Sept. 26.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McLaury have moved into the Lorenzo Hotel, which has not been in operation for some time. Mrs. McLaury announces she is operating the hotel this winter. The place has been renovated and refinished.

Matadors To Clash With SMU Mustangs

The Texas Tech Matadors started to school this morning, carrying the battle for honors into algebra and chemistry class rooms from the football field.

Daily recitations, however, will continue on Matador Field. The gridiron wars have just started. They will continue with only mild interruptions each week until Thanksgiving.

Coach Ray Morrison and Captain Howard Sprague lead their Southern Methodist University Mustangs, terrors of the Southwest conference, to Lubbock Saturday. They will meet Pete Cawthon's Matadors Saturday night in the opening big game of the home schedule.

A special train, bringing the Mustangs, a couple of hundred Dallas and S. M. U. rooters and the famous Mustang band, the Peruna music makers, will arrive in Lubbock Saturday morning.

Given a big mouthful of Southwest conference football last Saturday at Amarillo where they held the powerful Texas Aggies to a 7 to 0 victory, the Matadors know what they're up against for the balance of the season. Their baptism of fire at Amarillo Saturday, even on a heavy field, left a lasting impression.

Held to a scoreless tie Saturday by the North Texas Teachers, the Ponies, champions of the Southwest conference, will be priming for a comeback this week. The Matadors, on the other hand, will be inspired to do what they were barely unable to accomplish last week—beat a Southwest conference team.

Practice this week will hinge about pass defensive work in a campaign to halt the famous aerial circus boasted at S. M. U.

Tickets for the game are on sale today and all this week at the Hotel Hilton and Hotel Lubbock drug stores.

SCHMELING IS GIVEN ODDS

GERMAN IS THREE TO ONE FAVORITE IN WALKER BATTLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—To the betting fraternity, Max Schmeling is a 3 to 1 shot to whip little Mickey Walker in their 15-round heavyweight match in Madison Square Garden bowl tonight but Mr. John H. Fan seems to have another idea.

Otherwise, there's no explaining the heavy advance sale reported by the Garden nor the apparently reliable predictions of a "gate" of around $200,000 and a crowd of 60,000 or more.

Gained a Draw

Perhaps the large percentage of prospective customers recalls the July night last year when Mickey stepped into the ring to face Sharkey, now the heavyweight champion. The Rumson, N. J., gamester conceded Sharkey 30 pounds in weight and every other physical advantage that night yet gained a draw in 15 rounds and, in the opinion of some critics, was clearly entitled to the decision.

The fight tonight, originally scheduled for last Monday, twice was postponed when Walker developed a case of boils and the delay has done nothing to hurt the receipts.

Just as in the Sharkey bout, Walker will have to concede all the physical advantages to Schmeling. The Teuton is five years younger, nearly 20 pounds heavier, and will have corresponding advantages in height and reach. But Walker, provided he decides to fight a cagey battle, is conceded some chance of outsmarting the German if he can keep away from Schmeling's lethal right.

Thought For Today

Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest.—Ecclesiastes, 9:9.

Wedlock joins nothing if it joins not hearts.—Sheridan Knowles.

Missing Persons

When newspapers recently announced the mysterious disappearance of Colonel Raymond Robins, they touched once more on the fringes of one of the strangest, most eerie phonomena of human life—the way in which people now and then vanish, almost literally, from human sight, leaving no clew and never making a reappearance.

Such things happen, cause a brief sensation, and then are forgotten. But a sensitive reader gets a shudder or two out of thinking about them. They are sometimes so utterly inexplicable, so profoundly weird, that one almost can believe in those hiebie-jeebie stories of the old days about maleficent spirits and trapdoors in the earth's atmosphere.

What, for example, became of Dorothy Arnold, the New York society girl who strolled along Fifth avenue in broad daylight 22 years ago, on her way to have luncheon at a mid-town hotel with her mother, and who has never since been seen?

Where is Judge Crater of New York's supreme court, who got into a taxicab in front of a restaurant one evening in August, 1930, waved goodby to some acquaintances, and went off into an obsecurity so profound that although $200,000 has been spent on a hunt for him no one has been able even to discover a reason for his disappearance?

Where are the scores of other lesser known folk, who vanished just as mysteriously but who didn't get such big headlines in the newspapers? Were they victims of that odd, little-understood malady called amnesia? Did sudden illness of some other nature strike them down? Did kidnapers, footpads, white slavers or what-not make away with them? Did they yield to an unexpected and inexplicable impulse simply to run away, discarding the old life and trying to create a new one in different surroundings?

Asking these questions is easy. Answering them, usually, is impossible. We only know that someone who seemed contented and busy has disappeared; and the mystery has an eerie, shivery tinge to it that makes us, in spite of ourselves, remember the old wives' tales that used to frighten our credulous ancestors.

Scientists say the oyster works 20 hours a day. He must write wisecracks for the newspapers.

Many a fellow can let his mind wander at will and still not have it wander very far.

PERHAPS you do not think you're personally interested in such things, but if you care at all about the economic improvement of the South Plains you will be interested in wide-spread livestock feeding projects, which this fall and winter will be carried on in every part of this territory.

Yesterday's Avalanche - Journal had an ambitious report, covering the whole area and telling of feeding plans under way at the present time. It is worth the time of anyone to scan this report carefully and thoughtfully, to fully note the increased scope of this maiden industry.

Cattle and sheep feeding on the South Plains has passed the experimental stage.

H. W. Stanton, Fred Snyder, Len McClellan and other Lubbock cowmen will tell you that feeding projects, if correctly carried out, can be profitable to the feeder, and in addition, will use right on the home ground a great deal of the territory's feed crop.

The days are gone when West Texas livestock must be shipped to Kansas, Iowa or Nebraska, to be finished for market and the fact cannot help but add to the buying power of this section.

WHEN sheep come back, the South Plains will become the feeding ground for the vast herds from the San Angelo country, where there is not enough feed raised to care for the animals.

For the past several years, flocks of sheep have been sent from the Devil's river and Concho area right up here for feeding.

This practice will increase when there is more money in sheep.

The practice of feeding will do more toward diversified farming on the South Plains than all the government and A. and M. bulletins put together.

Show the farmer that he can make a fair return out of his feed crop and he won't give so much acreage, time and effort to cotton.

And the chances are, he'll feed a few head of his own on the side.

"I'd like to, Henry," was the reply, "but I promised to meet mine at seven o'clock, sharp!"

IT has remained for Louis Jefferson Brann, Democratic governor-elect of rock-bound Maine, to sum up, in best style, the reasons for the GOP defeat in the New England state.

"The campaign," he declares, "was fought out on economic lines and the ineptitude of the Hoover administration. They were the controlling factors. The people voted their protest against existing conditions."

If Democrat Brann is as correct as most of us down here think he is, there is plenty of reason for the Republican stampede that followed the Maine upset.

Millions of Americans residing in here-to-fore Republican strongholds are just as sick and disgusted with GOP bungling as were the people of Maine. And they're going to be heard from on November 8.

THE Republican prosperity bubble has been burst on every front; the old hoodoo of the Coolidge administration era has been relegated to the political scrapheap.

Intelligent Americans, recalling the Hoover promises of 1928 and measuring them with the Hoover debacle of 1930, 1931 and 1932 cannot be further flimflammed by beautiful phrases and platitudes.

All they need to do is to consult their bank accounts, go over their files and check up on how much red ink they've purchased during the administration of the superman.

Then the protest will be forthcoming, fast and furiously.

Weekly confidential reports to The Journal from correspondents in New York and Washington are to the effect that Eastern Republicans will move heaven and earth to push commodity prices on upward between now and election day.

They will also try to manipulate stocks, giving the country a false sense of security and in an effort to convince us all that everything's on the way back.

After November 8, they'll let things slip back again in another era of 'dog eat dog and the devil take the hindmost'.

THE Plainsman, for one, refuses to get excited over Republican market manipulations, no matter if stocks are sent skyward.

The action will have some effect, of course, upon people who play the markets, but to the old boy like you and The Plainsman, who doesn't know Animated Can from Consolidated Applesauce, it won't mean a thing.

We'll just dig down into our pockets and if we haven't a few nickles to rub against each other it won't make any difference to us what the rails and oils are doing.

Many Of Good Old Political Maxims Blown Sky High In 1932 Campaign; Others Expected To Perish In Election

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26—Some of the good old political maxims have been blown sky high this year and others are likely to perish on election day.

The same thing goes for some of the fetishes which have been adopted and cherished at one time or another by most of our more highly respected political writers, who usually manage to think in the same inflexible, obdurate channels despite years of recurrent disillusionment.

Dutcher

One of the theories battered down was the superstition that a candidate for presidential nomination who got "too far out in front" was automatically doomed to defeat. Hoover and Smith had made that theory absurd in 1928 but Roosevelt had to do it all over again this year before the wise guys of politics would stop reiterating it.

Another thing they harped on right up to convention time was that Roosevelt couldn't possibly be nominated without the acquiescence of Al Smith. The most famous political commentators were so insistent on that point, week in and week out, that it should have surprised hardly anyone when Roosevelt walked right into the nomination at Chicago over Al's prostrate form.

The Walker case in New York was another fertile source of dictums. There was hardly anyone who pretended to be versed in politics who wouldn't tell you that if Roosevelt kicked the mayor out he wouldn't alienate Tammany and

THE PLAINSMAN GETS SOME MAIL

* * * * * * * * * * *

READER SAYS LUBBOCK IS NOT HOSPITABLE

Dear Plainsman: Where, oh, where is that much-vaunted and highly advertised Western hospitality? Surely not in Lubbock.

My family and I moved to Lubbock several months ago on account of the schools and the glowing tales we had heard of that remarkable western hospitality, but although we have always been on friendly terms with the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker, have always attended church regularly, in fact, have always been considered good citizens wherever we've lived, have we been extended the "glad hand" since coming to Lubbock? We most emphatically have not.

Our minister has called upon us one time (which I'm told is a record-breaker at that). We have never met his wife (whether she is physically, mentally or spiritually unfit I know not), although we have been regular attendants at church. Our children are really very nice, and likeable, dress as well as the average school children, attend Senior High school and have been spoken to by the teachers only.

What is the matter with Lubbock, Texas, "The Hub of the Plains"? Is she unduly puffed up and trying to assume city airs or is she just plain ignorant of the common amenities of life that she will not be courteous to the stranger within her gates?

A Disappointed Citizen.

(Dear Citizen: I am sorry you are disappointed in Lubbock's well-earned usually praised reputation for western hospitality but I'd be willing to bet that as soon as you begin to get acquainted you'll change your ideas altogether. Might I suggest to you that this is a growing community, up until a couple of years ago it was a very rapidly growing community. Having lived in oil boom towns all my life before coming here, I know that rapidly-growing towns are hard to get acquainted in because there are more new comers than old timers. You say you have been here only several months. Why not give your newly made acquaintances a chance? Thanks for your letter. Write again in a few months and tell me how you're getting along by then. The Plainsman.)

hundreds of thousands of Jimmy's friends and so lose New York.

Roosevelt may yet lose New York. But not unsofar as anyone is now able to discern, because he forced Walker out, causing the mayor to resign in order to beat Roosevelt to the act of firing him.

Hardly a peep has been heard about that. The new acting mayor, McKee, has acted so swiftly to give New York a better government that Walker and his ambition to run again for "vindication" have been made to look ridiculous.

Walker's former strongest ally, William Randolph Hearst, repudiated him after his attack on Roosevelt. Tammany Hall has hastened to endorse the Roosevelt candidacy in strong terms and its leaders have been urging Jimmy to forget about any further political ambitions. The country, meanwhile, gives Roosevelt credit for putting Jimmy on the skids.

And there was certainly no time when the political experts were more unanimously agreed than when they all wired home from the Republican convention that Charles Curtis was sunk and couldn't possibly be renominated for vice president.

Just now no traditional political slogan is having a harder time than the famous old wheeze: "As Maine goes, so goes the nation." That's always been a Republican maxim and Democrats have always poohpoohed it. It never did amount to much, granting the fact that Maine always went Republican and the country nearly always did.

Now the Republicans for the first time hope it isn't true and the Democrats for the first time hope it is. What probably will happen is that Maine, gone Democratic in the gubernatorial and congressional election, will now go Republican in the presidential election.

Other commonly accepted theories which are still up for a test include the beliefs that a candidate can't win the country without capturing the electoral vote of New York; that no incumbent president can be re-elected after such a depression as we have been having and that a minority party which carries the House in an off year is sure to elect the next president.

The Democrats challenge the first contention and the Republicans the other two. Anyway, their validity or fallaciousness may soon be proved.

GOES TO ODESSA

TAHOKA, Sept. 26.—Ray Shaver, former county agent of Lynn county, has moved to Odessa and will manage the Imperial White Leghorn Chicken ranch near there.

The ranch equipment includes 6,000 White Leghorn hens. There are four incubators of 16,000 egg capacity each. Mr. Shaver operated a filling station here after the office of county agent was discontinued by the commissioner's court.

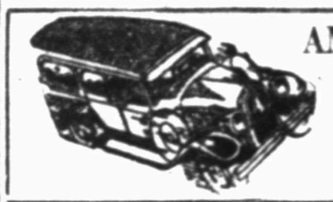

Even a lot of burglars are unemployed these days. No incentive.

'Miracle Girl'

Lura Johnson, 17, above, of Water Valley, Miss., has created widespread interest in her state as the result of a story, supported by family and friends, that she arose from her coffin while being mourned as dead. The girl declared she had "seen heaven" and had been "sent back to do good on earth." She had been ill a year.

Oh Boy! What Joy
LIFT CORNS RIGHT OUT

The English Way

Right from England comes the new, better, joyful way to take out corns—root and all.

Callouses go also and you can rub off that hard skin on heels and toes with your hand—the magic treatment.

Ask Mark Halsey Drug or any leading druggist for a package of Radox—45c and 85c—put a tablespoonful in a gallon of hot water—do this for 3 or 4 nights in succession—then lift out the corns.

This joyful exhilarating foot bath is simply great—you'll enjoy every minute of it and your burning, sore, tired, aching feet will feel better than they have for years—ask for Radox and foot comfort will be yours. Adv.

DO NOT TREAT YOURSELF WITH "HEARSAY"

Neighbors and friends are priceless possessions, and should be so regarded—but when it comes to treating yourself in case of illness, the advice of a neighbor or friend is not the safest plan. They mean well, of course, and simple little ailments and accidents about the house can often be treated casually with home remedies from the medicine chest.

Better to be Safe Than Sorry

However, when there is anything the matter with you, to experiment with yourself or treat your case with "hearsay," may be very expensive and dangerous.

There are many underlying causes for outward symptoms, discernible only to a Physician, after careful examination and analysis. Disease detected and treated in its first stages is so much easier to cure, and is less expensive to you physically and financially. Don't experiment on yourself!

THE DOCTOR SPENT YEARS TO LEARN HOW.

FAIR OPENS

breeder, brought 17 show cattle and two nurse cows here for his first fair on the fall trail of expositions.

The cattle tramped in straw knee-deep; some Jerseys were blanketed. Beef cattle were curried and their hair curled. Last minute show coats were being trimmed with clippers on some of the dairy cows.

County and community booths were being arranged. Representatives of Posey, Canyon, Union, Grovesville, Liberty, Shallowater, and Acuff were engaged in placing their products on display at 10 o'clock. The Hardy sign had been placed over a booth, and it was understood that the exhibits would be arranged soon. P. E. McMeans was arranging the Roberts county booth, products for which were brought here from the Amarillo exposition.

New Mexico Represented

Decorations of sunflower blossoms were being tacked in easy curves on the backboard of the Roosevelt, N. M., county stall. Bailey county's products were being moved in as were those of Terry county. Other counties had signs in place, but it was not determined this morning whether their displays would be here.

A mass of freshly gathered fruits, vegetables, feeds, and cotton filled the exhibit section at the back of the agriculture building—peanuts, cucumbers, squash, sunflowers, tomatoes, maize, beans, peppers, melons, broom corn, okra, onions, radishes, pumpkins, plums, strawberries, grapes, turnips, canteloupes, potatoes, corn, egg plant, hays, and cotton.

Chickens Exhibited

More different breeds of chickens already were caged in the poultry building than were shown last year, said J. I. Sieber, superintendent. The offerings included White and Brown Leghorns, Anconas, Buff Orpingtons, Rhode Island Reds and Barred Rocks. A shortage of cages was facing the rabbit division, said A. S. Eads, superintendent. About 40 red and white New Zealands, Chinchillas, Silver Martins, white Flemish giants, and silver Foxes were on display.

Varieties of farm equipment were displayed beneath the implement shed.

In booths with attractive backgrounds and decorations, Lubbock and South Plains firms showed their merchandise in the industrial building. More than 30 stalls were filled, some merchants using double spaces.

Almost indescribable because of its variety and number of displays, the Boy Scout show is located in a tent immediately east of the Woman's building. Exhibitors are: Troops 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, all of Lubbock and Nos. 22 and 23 of Lamesa, and Tom Erwin's metal class. No. 29 of Idalou had its exhibits here, but this morning they had not been arranged. Included in No. 7's display were seven rattlesnakes caught by W. G. McMillan, the fair's president.

Women were checking in exhibits in the woman's building, and this morning dozens of articles had been placed. The divisions included culinary, sewing, art, antiques and flowers.

ernor Roosevelt returns here Oct. 3.

Asked if he had any other plans during his stay in New York, Garner replied:

"One think I am going to try to do and that is attend one of the games of the world series. All my life I have been an enthusiast'c baseball fan, and when I have the opportunity to attend games down in Washington I do so."

Asked what team he was going to root for, Garner countered with:

"Well, which team has the greatest number of Democrats? When you tell me that I'll give you my answer. I suppose baseball players are like nearly every other person I have met recently, they are nearly all Democrats. But I guess the best team will win."

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26. (AP)—Cotton had a strong opening today notwithstanding the fact the first October notices issued this morning called for 33,000 bales here. Liverpool cables also were much better than due owing to active buying there on the final settlement of the mill strike.

First trades here showed gains of 7 to 10 points. The market continued to advance after the start on the map showing too much rain in the belt and on the official forecast for continued unsettled weather. October advanced to 7.50, December to 7.62 and January to 7.67, or 1 to 20 points above Saturday's close. Near the end of the first hour the market continued quite firm and at the highs.

The market continued to improve in the early part of the second hour owing to the detailed report of rains all over the belt except in the Carolinas.

December advanced to 7.63 and January to 7.68, or 18 to 21 points above Saturday's close. Later in the morning the market eased off on profit-taking coupled with hedge selling, the decline being helped by somewhat easier stocks. December finally finally traded down to 6.47 and January 6.54, or 13 to 16 points down from the early highs, but still 4 to 5 points above Saturday's close.

Near noon the market showed a disposition to rally, and recovered 3 points from the low. The October notices issued here early this morning are being promptly stopped. Tomorrow will be first notice day in New York.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 10-15 higher on general rains in the cotton belt and higher Liverpool cables.

The advance extended to 7.65 for December and 7.79 for March during the early trading or about 18 to 24 points net higher on trade buying and covering, while there also was considerable buying here through houses with Liverpool connections.

Some southern selling was reported but it was in comparatively small volume and offerings were absorbed on slight setbacks during the first half hour. Liverpool cables reported speculative buying and covering in that market on reports of rains in the south and the settlement of the labor difficulties in Lancashire.

British home trade in cotton goods was said to be improving with a fair business pending at Manchester.

Demand tapered off after the close of Liverpool and prices eased under further southern selling and realizing or scattered local selling promoted by reactions in the stock market. December dipped to 7.48 and March to 7.62 or about 15 to 17 points from the best, but there was no aggressive pressure and the market at midday was holding fairly steady at rallies of 3 to 4 points from the lowest.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—An early bulge in stocks today failed to attract new buying orders and the market dropped rather sharply, although trading remained sluggish.

Bull forces, which had hoped for a further advance in response to favorable incidents in the railroad field late last week, were plainly disappointed when gains of 1 to nearly 2 points in the carrier shares failed to hold. Considerable profit-taking appeared. Losses of two points were recorded by Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Northern Pacific, New York Central, Chespeake & Ohio and Pennsylvania while Union Pacific dipped more than 4 and Lackawanna sagged nearly as much. Later, however, about half of these declines were made up.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 (AP)—Grain prices averaged higher early today, influenced by upturns in securities. Reports of unfavorable prospects for the new domestic winter wheat crop also were a bullish factor.

Opening 1-4 to 5-8 higher, wheat afterward reacted. Corn started 1-8 to 3-8 up and subsequently tended to sag.

the best interests of all parties concerned," District Attorney Bradley said as he began questioning of veniremen, "or else I would not have made it as your representative. I hope that you will respect it."

Of the 50 or more veniremen, four were excused because they could neither read nor write.

A mere nod of his head was the defendant's only answer to the courts question of whether he was guilty or not guilty of the offense charged.

Court Accepts Plea

"The court accepts the plea of the defendant," Judge Mullican said, "only when guilt is admitted and when defendant is in a sane mind, and of course, I have only your word on that. Defendant also must not make the plea with the view of getting a pardon in mind."

After calling jurors to the box and holding a short consultation with attorneys, court recessed until 1:30 when testimony was to be taken.

The trail was expected to be completed this afternoon.

Defendant Identified

Richardson had been identified in testimony in Covington's trial as the man who carried a pistol in the attempted hi-jacking and that he was the first man to fire at Brown.

Court attaches were of the opinion this morning that defense attorneys had acted wisely in making the plea of guilty and agreeing on the twenty-year sentence. Richardson might have received a heavier sentence after a trial, they intimated.

Richardson's chief attorney is W. J. Oxford, of Stephenville, district judge for sixteen years. Ben Kucera and R. J. Allen, local attorneys appointed by the court, also are representing him.

Youth Killed When Wagon, Car Collide

FARMERSVILLE, Sept. 26 (AP)—Collision of a team of runaway horses hitched to a wagon and an automobile moving in the opposite direction caused the death last night of Darrell Smart, 20. The wagon tongue rammed through the side of the car and penetrated his chest.

The accident occurred while Smart was driving from Blueridge to his home in Barnett community. As he approached the hurtling wagon, the team swerved sharply, crashing against the car. In the car with Smart was Paul Riley, but he escaped injury.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 26 (AP)—The "Jolly Roger," 22-foot speedboat, which left sea breeze on Lake Ontario yesterday afternoon, was found beached today seven miles north of here but there was no trace of its four occupants.

The four men were identified as St. Clair Rogers, 29, Charles White, 27, James Currier and George De May, 16, all of Rochester.

"KEEP SMILING AND MOVING" SLOGAN FOLLOWED BY SHOW TROUPE MEMBERS

The most popular of the John T. Wortham show wagons was the first hauled to the Panhandle-Plains fair grounds this morning—the commissary wagon.

Working only harder because of rain-caused delays at Amarillo and here, the entire show staff from Mr. Wortham to stake driver was on duty either at the fair park or at the train in the Santa Fe yards.

"It's tough," said J. J. Ries, treasurer, "but we can't control the weather and we're not worrying about it at all. The only thing to do is keep smiling, and moving."

It's Ries' opinion that the show world is not getting any new members "any more for it's a tough life.

"Most people think it's a nice, easy work, traveling all the time. Main street is about all we see, working day and night. We don't know what the eight-hour law is.

"If I had a son and he said he wanted to get in the show business, I'd do something to him."

Busier than the one-armed paperhanger, Roy E. Ludington, general manager, worked all over the carnival grounds this morning. That the show was rained out temporarily he took for granted, but "by night we'll have the tops a-flying and the flags fluttering." He anticipated opening of minor attractions this afternoon."

The show had 52 wagons, weighing from six to ten tons each, to move to the grounds. Twenty shows and 12 riding devices will be offered, he said.

Engineer Sees 25 Years Of Development In Area From Cab Of An Engine

JOE H. SMITH PULLED THROTTLE ON FIRST TRAIN TO LUBBOCK

BY GORDON WEBB
Journal Staff Writer

Joe H. Smith, 705 Avenue M, has seen the Panhandle-South Plains' development of the past quarter-century from the cab of a Santa Fe engine.

The veteran trainman pulled the throttle of the first commercial train into Lubbock Oct. 25, 1909. At 53—Saturday was his birthday—he still is observing this section's growth from a railroad right-of-way. He celebrated his birthday by running a mixed train to Seagraves and back.

"Better Every Day"

"I've seen every section of the Panhandle-Plains, and have watched every part of it grow," Smith said yesterday. "And it looks better to me every day.

"In fact, you ought to hear me boost the Plains when I get away."

A railroader since 1899, the Lubbock man has worked his way up from a "wiper" at Pueblo, Colo. to an engineer with 25 years seniority with the Santa Fe. He has been in two head-on collisions—nearly lost his life in one—and three engines have overturned with him.

Mr. Smith is a medium sized man, with brown eyes, is partially bald, and wears silver-rimmed glasses. When interviewed he was wearing a blue and white polkadot tie, and a blue suit, white shirt, and black oxfords. He was smoking a cigar.

Recalls Early Days

He remembers vividly the time nearly 23 years ago when he operated the first train into Lubbock, over the Pecos & North Texas line at that time.

"Everybody in Lubbock, I guess, went to the depot; they came on bicycles, horseback, in buggies, and on foot," he said. "Most of the people here who didn't meet the train already had gone to Plainview to ride back on the first trip. The train arrived at about 11 a. m.

"The train was loaded with passengers, and we carried a lot of freight—mostly construction materials for the road south of Lubbock."

As Mr. Smith recalls that first commercial train the mixed train consisted of a baggage car, a passenger coach and several freight cars. The fare for passengers—the engineer was not positive about that for "it is out of my line"—was $1.41 for that first trip from Plainview to Lubbock. He based his estimate on a three-cent-a-mile rate for 47 miles.

In Train Tragedy

After serving as a wiper for two years, Mr. Smith became a fireman in 1901 and fired four years. Those were the days of coal burning engines when being a fireman really called for work. He was given his first engine in 1905 on the Denver & Rio Grande. A year later he was in one of the worst railroad tragedies of Colorado when two passenger trains collided in a blinding snow storm on the D. & R. G. about four miles from Florence. The train caught on fire, and about 100 lives were lost in the holocaust.

"We were going uphill about 30 miles an hour around a curve," Smith said. "I saw the headlights of the other engine in time to jump. I was firing the engine then because work was slacked up. The snow on the ground saved me. My engineer was mashed all to pieces and killed instantly, and both the fireman and engineer on the other train were burned beyond recognition."

What caused the tragedy?"

"An operator, a 16-year-old boy, went to sleep," Smith said. "He got out of the jam without any criminal charges, but he was on the black list of every railroad in the nation."

In Another Wreck

A second head-on collision, at Pyron near Sweetwater, cost Smith a year of work. He suffered a crushed chest, a broken arm, and a shoulder dislocation. The Smiths then moved to Sweetwater.

Capable Mrs. Smith, who said she "never borrows trouble," had a badly injured husband on her hands. She opened a sanitarium in Sweetwater and operated it two years. A registered nurse, Mrs. Smith has been health supervisor in the Lubbock school system and a former Amarillo teacher.

As a result of the Pyron collision, members of the freight train crew figuring in the crash were dismissed. They had forgotten about the passenger train Smith's engine was pulling, and instead of having their train on a siding south of Pyron it was on the main line.

Nerves "Shot"

For ten years, prior to the accident, Mr. Smith had been on the through passenger train from Amarillo. His nerves were so "shot" as a result of the accident that he has not been able to stand fast passenger service since. He and Mrs. Smith returned to Lubbock Feb. 1, 1929, and he took the Seagraves branch run.

Three engines have overturned with Mr. Smith, one at Kress, one at Pueblo, and one at Abernathy. The engineer believes that the accident at Abernathy, in 1918, was caused by a German sympathizer who had tampered with a cock switch.

"The section foreman was fired, but I think he was innocent," Mr. Smith said.

Hit Three Autos

Engines he was operating have knocked three automobiles off the track, but only one man has been injured.

"That man, hurt at Ropesville last year, told me after he left the hospital that the accident was his fault," Mr. Smith said.

How many miles has Mr. Smith driven an engine?

"I don't have any idea," he said. "I reckoned about 65,000 miles a year while on the passenger service out of Amarillo, but I don't know how many miles I've operated a freight engine.

The Smiths first moved to Lubbock in Dec., 1909, and two years later they went to Slaton. Their next move was to Amarillo in 1918, and it was not until 1929 that they returned here to live. They have two daughters, Mrs. R. A. Neff of Breckenridge and Mrs. Marvin Wilson, who also lives at 705 Avenue M.

NO TRACE FOUND OF TWO MISSING GIRLS OF TULIA

Fourteen-year-old Doris Shearer of Tulia, who left there late Thursday morning, and Jessie Dalton, 19, her companion, had not been found at noon today, so far as police here had learned. The two were believed to have changed to masculine attire. Two girls who had left home here were found Saturday in Tulia.

Lubbock police were asked late Saturday to watch for Nina Lee Sansing, 15, of 1917 Main street, who had left home but was believed still to be in this vicinity. She has light red hair and blue eyes, weighs 138 pounds, and her slippers were of brown satin.

It's Folly To Sell Stock Now

Here's the Feeding Plan Cattle Men Have Dreamed Of

Don't accept present ruinous prices for your grass fat and feeder cattle without investigating the new Bowles Plan of Contract Share-Feeding. Prices at 25% to 100% higher for corn fed stock are almost a certainty for 1933. See how easy it is to hold your stock for this rise and see how soundly Bowles National Supervisions assures you of getting the maximum profit.

Never before has there been an organization like Bowles National. We have obtained as our exclusive Supervisors most of the nationally known feeders in the entire Corn Belt, such men as: JOHN HUBLY, ED HALL, ENE TOLAN, BILL FRAZIER, WAYLAND HOPLEY, and HENRY HORTENSTINE—all famous International and Royal Live Stock Exposition show feeders.

Other Bowles National Supervisors include the largest and most successful feeders in the Corn Belt states, such men as: O. M. (Bean) Lyons, McKenna Brothers, Ralph McElrath, Leslie Lemon, Julius Peterson, Stanley R. Pierce and many others.

In the Bowles Plan there is only one charge—half of which is deferred until the stock is sold—40c per cwt. for cattle. The Bowles Plan with the most expert feeding supervision in the world actually costs less than many other plans offered you, and "the BEST is the CHEAPEST in the end." The entire freight bill also may be deferred.

Get the full details. See why banks are willing to co-operate with stock men under this amazing plan. Write or wire today.

Bowles National Supervising Service,
212 Exchange Bldg.,
Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

Without any obligation, please send me complete information about the Bowles Plan of Contract Share-Feeding, and the cattle contract to be used.

GANDHI EATS

little and physicians who examined him this morning said he was sinking and his vitality was lower than at any time since he began his fast.

Today was his day of silence and he did no spinning. Yesterday he spun, as usual, but he was so weak the threads kept breaking continually and those who attended beside the bed in the prison yard had to assist him.

Although physicians told Gandhi yesterday he would be unable to recover unless he took food soon, he solemnly declared he would suspend his death fast only if the compromise plan were approved by Prime Minister MacDonald at London. His voice then was barely audible.

It was about 4:15 o'clock when they brought him news that the government in London had accepted the compromise agreement.

The little man was so weak that his wife had to lift him up on his cot and prop his back while he read the official document very carefully. When he had finished he lifted his head, smiled and murmured to the doctor: "This will be acceptable."

There was a brief discussion among his friends assembled at the bedside. Then, satisfied that the conditions for ending his fast had been fulfilled, the Mahatma sank back with a low moan.

A cup of musambi, a sweet lime juice concoction, had been prepared. Mrs. Gandhi held the cup to his mouth.

The Mahatma sipped a few drops slowly, then sank back exhausted on a pillow.

BETTER TIMES ARE AHEAD

LITTLEFIELD BUSINESS CONDITIONS BETTER; CROP IS MOVING

(By Staff Correspondent)

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 26—Conditions in general in and around Littlefield have improved the past 30 days, with cotton coming in and more money in circulation.

Appearance of the down town streets is taking on the Saturday air, as scores of new people are coming in for work and farmers coming in fro work and farmers pick the cotton. The down town area is crowded with cars during the daylight hours and it is hard to secure a parking space on the main streets.

Cotton Buyers Coming In

Cotton buyers are coming in. There are four or five regular firms here, besides the gins, who buy. These include: Carl Arnold and S. Etter, of the firm of Arnold and J. Etter, of the firm of Arnold and and his son Will. This year J. T. Street, who formerly bought cotton until he went into the insurance business with his son Will Street, is back in the game.

There are six gins here and all buy cotton. A new gin has started here. The compress has undergone extensive repairs and improvements and is in operation, handling cotton left on its docks from last year.

There are only three vacant business buildings down town. In the residential sections, according to City Secretary W. G. Street, not a desirable residence is to be had.

The town has been well filled the past two years, except for a little time in the summer when school is out. The number of city water meters, as well as gas and electric meters has remained near the peak of the business.

MINE RIOT

had 24 members of the United Mine Workers under arrest and charged with inciting a riot.

Both miners factions sought to hold the other responsible for the conflict.

TWO MEN KILLED IN MINE UPRISING

ATHENS, O., Sept. 26 (AP)—Two men were shot and killed in the Hocking valley mine field late last night and early today. One was believed to have been an innocent victim of the mine warfare, while the other was killed as the outgrowth of a strike argument.

The dead are:

Clarmont Banfield, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Banfield, of Hunterton.

Boyd Vincent, 45, of Luhrig, an active strike agitator.

County officials, headed by Sheriff Wayne Wingett, rushed to the scenes of the shootings from this city.

WATSON APPEALS

AUSTIN, Sept. 26 (AP)—Appeal from the 15 year sentence assessed J. R. Watson on conviction of a murder charge in the death of Rutherford H. Gayle in Jefferson county was filed today in the court of criminal appeals.

State officers and employes of Iowa have been reduced from seven to five cents a mile allowances for use of their own automobiles.

GOP CAMPAIGN IS PLANNED

REPUBLICANS ARE TO CONCENTRATE NEXT MONTH IN EAST

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Trained organizers will be sent through the eastern states next month to spread a Republican message that there are "unmistakable signs of business recovery," it was announced at the party's eastern headquarters.

The plan was made after U. S. Rep. John Q. Tilson, chairman of the eastern speakers' bureau, had held a three-day conference with state chairmen.

Tilson said:

" change in administration, policies and measures will certainly delay and postpone the return to their jobs of many millions now out of employment.

"The Democratic platform and the Democratic candidates stand for lowered tariff duties. Our factory workers who are now out of work or on part time know that such a program will make conditions worse than they are, instead of better."

Speaking schedules for this week were announced to include:

Monday—Vice President Curtis Parkersburg, W. Va.

Tuesday—Vice President Curtis Charleston, W. Va.

Wednesday—U. S. Senator Warren R. Austin, Newark, N. J.

Thursday — Secretary of the Treasury Mill., Detroit, Mich.

Friday—Vice President Curtis, Enid, Okla.

Seagraves Suspect Returned To Jail

SEAGRAVES, Sept. 26, (Special)—Edmond Meredith, one of the quartet of men charged in connection with the holdup of the First State bank here May 27, was returned to the county jail at Seminole when W. W. Arledge, one of the local men on his bond, withdrew.

Meredith had been free on $10,000 bond. An attempt was made to get a new bond for him.

AMHERST GROWING

AMHERST, Sept. 26—There has been a slight increase in the number of water meters, M. L. Payne, city secretary, reports.

Mr. Payne, who also collects for the Texas Utilities company and the West Texas Gas company, states that there is also an increase in the number of customers for these concerns.

Within a little over a month the utility company installed or connected up 20 meters, it was reported.

Reopening of gold mines worked in the middle ages in the Tauern mountains of Austria is being planned.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By The Associated Press)

Slain By Dog

MESA, Ariz.—Shot by a dog, Zedo Ishikawa is dead. The youthful Japanese saw two dogs fighting. To part them he pushed the butt of a rifle between them. One dog clawed the trigger, sending a bullet into Ishikawa's chest. Among the mourners are many football fans, for the lad was a high school halfback.

Police Impatient

NEW YORK—The police got impatient with Mrs. Doris Carlton. Not that it was so bad, they say, to knock down a light pole, drive away furiously when a cop asked her to get out of her car and ask two other cops the way to Brooklyn bridge while driving the wrong way on a one-way street. But, they tut-tutted, she really shouldn't have battled five husky policemen almost to a standstill when she finally was caught up with. She will have her court innings later.

Serious Subject

VICTORIA, B. C.—The size of suds is a serious subject up this way. Worried by a dollar a barrel increase in the wholesale price, Upisland beer parlor operators diminished the size of a ten-cent glass of beer. They got still more worried when customers, in a huff, diminished their purchases. There's going to be a conference about it.

No Puny Peaks

TRENTO, Italy—None of your puny peaks for King Albert of the Belgians. When he picks a mountain to climb, it's usually the highest in sight. He spent 10 hours working up to the top of precipitous Mount Crozzon, winning the admiration of guides.

Fish Barks

CURBRIDGE, Eng.—Amazement struck this Hampshire village when a big fish in the shallows of the local stream began to bark like a dog. Ten men pulled it out with a loop of wire and three shots killed it. They think it was some straggler from the ocean deeps.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS ARE RAPIDLY GETTING OUT OF DEBT AS FUNDS GROW

BY FRANK H. McCONNELL
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Member banks of the federal reserve system are rapidly getting out of debt. Not only that, but they are building up a vast supply of reserve funds, which, sooner or later, can be used to finance the expanding requirements of business.

The member banks are now borrowing less money from the federal reserve than at any previous time this year. Their present record is the best since England went off the gold standard last September.

Credit Loosened

In order to speed the process of getting the banks out of debt and to build up their excess reserves, the federal reserve system last spring embarked on an unprecedented large program of buying government securities. For many weeks they purchased these obligations at the rate of $100,000,000 a week. In doing so, they took bonds from the member banks, paying cash in return, and in this way, loosened credit.

The following items stand out in the latest federal reserve statement of Sept. 21:

Member borrowings from the reserve banks totaled $359,000,000. This compared with $835,000,000 on Feb. 24, a reduction in 7 months of $476,000,000.

Member bank reserve balances Sept. 21 stood at $2,211,000,000 against $1,878,000,000 Feb. 24, an increase of $333,000,000.

In the same seven-month period, the federal reserve banks increased their holdings of government securities from $740,000,000 to $1,852,000,000.

Officials of the reserve bank institutions point to the pronounced easing of credit, as shown in recent bank statements, as an indication that the vast $100,000,000-a-week bond buying program has proven successful. Lately, the reserve banks have not been obliged to buy many government bonds to keep the credit machinery lubricated.

PLENTY OF FEED

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 26 (AP)—Lamb county will have enough feed for its own needs and "some to spare," Arthur P. Duggan, state senator-elect, states here.

Mr. Duggan said he had made trips out over the county and that farmers told him they were harvesting a good crop with a surplus over their needs.

Many farmers have headed their maize either by hand or with a combine. Cotton picking is in full swing now.
