Holiday Traffic May Claim 87

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of The Texas Department of Public Safety, warned today that traffic crashes in Texas over the Christmas and New Year holiday periods may claim as many as 87 lives.

He said 52 deaths are expected in the 78 hours of Christmas from 6 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 24 to midnight Sunday, Dec. 27. He also estimated 35 traffic deaths during the New Year holiday from 6 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 31 to midnight Sunday, Jan. 3.

Speir said the Department of Public Safety will place all available patrolmen on the highways during both holiday periods to enforce the law and aid motorists. He added that many local law enforcement agencies will be joining in this all-out effort to reduce the number of holiday accidents.

The DPS director said a special "Operation Motorcade" would be in effect over both holiday periods, during which periodic tabulations of traffic fatalities will be made and given the widest possible dissemination in order to focus public attention on the added dangers involved in holiday travel.

"We urge each individual driver to join in these efforts and help us prove the estimate of 87 fatalities too high. Many holiday accidents can and will be prevented if Texans will adopt 'Drive Friendly' as their personal slogan while behind the wheel," Speir added.

12 Accidents Investigated During Previous Month

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 12 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of November, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in four persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $7,750.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eleven months of 1970 shows a total of 104 accidents resulting in four persons killed, 48 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $95,278.00. Traffic wise, the month of December has proven to be the most destructive month to the life of mankind -- Death by a Motor Vehicle. In order to help reduce the traffic accidents and make this a happy holiday season, the patrol supervisor lists some safe holiday driving rules:

1. Check your car; be sure it is in safe driving condition.
2. Use seat belts to safeguard your family and yourself.
3. Be alert to road, weather and traffic hazards.
4. Do not overdrive for the existing conditions.
5. Allow plenty of time for your travel.
6. Make courtesy your code for the road; it pays.

Mrs. Beulah Shattuck Dies, Services Held In Lubbock

Services were held at 10 a. m. Tuesday in Pioneer Memorial United Methodist Church for Mrs. Beulah Shattuck, 79, of Lubbock and former resident of Olton.

Officiating were Rev. R. H. Campbell and Rev. Fred Brown of Lubbock. Interment was in Olton Cemetery under the direction of Franklin-Bartley Funeral Home.

Born June 10, 1891, Mrs. Shattuck died early Sunday in a Lubbock convalescent home. The former Beulah Womack, she came with her husband, the late I. A. Shattuck to Olton in 1925 from Bula. They farmed southwest of Olton until about 1950 when Shattuck retired and they moved to Plainview. Shattuck died in the early 1950's. Mrs. Shattuck was also preceded in death by an infant son and another son, Earl, who lost his life in an automobile accident in 1952.

Mrs. Shattuck moved to Lubbock seven years ago. She was a longtime member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Clarence Loving, Mrs. Marvin Fisher and Mrs. K. E. Campbell, all of Lubbock; two brothers, Morris Womack of Lubbock and Horace Womack of Tulsa, Okla.; 16 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Supt. Joe Turner Gets New Contract

Supt. Joe Turner was given a new three-year contract when the board met Monday night for a regular meeting.

A relatively brief business session greeted the board of trustees which was a welcome gift during the holiday season. Items on the agenda included approval of minutes, and approval of accounts payable, the appointing of a textbook committee, review of teacher growth policy, discussion of driver training program, reports on lunchroom and attendance and the review of the superintendent's contract.

Recommended for the textbook committee were Supt. Turner, Mrs. Laura Bryan, Miss Ida May Powers, Mrs. Lucy Bley, Mrs. Gayle Alcorn, Mrs. Essie Lee Wozencraft, Mrs. Margetta Baumgardner, Mrs. Eva Walden, Mrs. Katherine Phillips, James Latimer, John Paul Jones, John Galaviz, Elmer Moore, Alvis Fuquay, Carl McClure and Fred Gordon. The board gave its approval.

After a lengthy discussion on the meaning of the present professional growth policy that was approved by the board Nov. 11, 1969, it was suggested that Supt. Turner amend the policy to clear the meaning, giving new teachers two years in which to meet the requirements adopted in 1969.

The professional growth requirement policy stated that teachers who have a bachelor's degree must obtain six semester hours or the equivalent thereof within a four year period, beginning Sept. 1, 1967 and ending Sept. 1, 1971.

This policy dealt with members of the faculty at the time it was adopted and left no limit as to the number of years new teachers would have to qualify in coming into the system after this policy was adopted.

The amended policy will give incoming teachers a period of two years from time of employment to meet requirements, providing they have not been to school in the last few years.

Discussing the driver training program, Supt. Turner asked for the board's approval to offer the course in the summer only.

"Because of the possibility of losing average daily attendance," Turner said, "we stand a chance to lose a couple of teachers. By offering driver training in the summer, this would release the driver training instructor to teach in regular school term."

Board approved. Reports from the lunchroom showed a deficit and attendance was down again. Last year at this time, 1070 were enrolled while only 1032 are enrolled now.

In final business, the board agreed unanimously to extend the present three-year contract of the superintendent, Turner, who was given a three year contract when he was hired in June, was given the same benefits as were in his original contract.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Christmas comes but once a year - and that's a month before I'm ready.

Each year it's the same old story - I see visions of NEXT Christmas - shopping all done and gifts all prettily wrapped by the first of December - beautiful tree decorated and lots of other "pretties" all about the house, ready by the first week - cards all addressed and mailed by the 10th.

Ah! NEXT year will be great - but when is it ever going to get here?

This year?
Why, here it is, 10 days before Christmas and I've finally got started.

Saturday we bought THE tree. Now ya know what trees look like by now! Rather, er, ah, picked over?

Well, we found this tree. You might say it was something that only a mama pine could love. Its shape wasn't so bad but it didn't have a top! At least it didn't have an upmost spire awaiting a tree top angel.

A pretty hopeless looking tree! And yet, for some reason, it looked like OUR tree. Besides, making something of that top was challenging!

If you've never had a Christmas tree with little red clad elves perched on three spraddling top branches - well, you've missed something.

Of course, there's one little sittin' elf that sure has his troubles. We perch him on his branch and there he sits, looking for all the world like he was made just for that spot. Next thing I know, he's hanging by his toes, looking at what's going on below! He'd make a fine trapeze artist.

The icicles are being added on the installment plan - one or two every time I happen by. If I can just happen by often enough, they may all get put on in time to be taken off again.

I'm doing our cards on the same plan - I feel pretty sure I should have them ready to mail by Christmas Day.

Sunday afternoon - when I could have been addressing cards - I came up with a real gem of an idea! Candle-making!

I had the same idea five or six years ago and bought this great big chunk of candle wax.

Artistic, talented candlemaker mel just one more thing I wasn't called for!

My "work of art" was this large monstrosity I fashioned in a half-gallon ice cream carton. I didn't even color the masterpiece.

Well that fat, white glob was just too pretty to light so it sat, all these many years, on a closet shelf till Sunday. A few times it nearly met with a trash can fate but then I'd get that eternal thought - someday I might want to light it. Or someday I might want that wax.

Comes Christmas 1970! I vision exquisite candles that can be made from that mammoth chunk of white wax. This time, tho, I'd design my candles in splendid colors.

First step - shave slabs of that wax off so it could melt before New Year's. Did you ever try cutting up a half-gallon chunk of wax? It's about like Carlsbad Caverns building a stalagmite!

What color to make? Blue? Green? No - a blend of both. Some smart aleck in a crafts magazine explained 'twas simple to make colored candles by using dye for the coloring substance. Okay, blue-green I decided must be "peacock blue".

Let me tell you, I came up with two of the Copenhagenist peacock blue - er, candles ya ever saw! Those juice can candles are about as shapely as my Christmas tree and as smooth as a warty squash.

Artistic - I'm not!
That reminds me of artistic people who assure "Oh, anyone can paint". They haven't faced a challenge like mel I can just hear Rembrandt sighing with relief that I wasn't around in his day!

The visions of sugar plums dance through our heads as the Christmas holidays near. The excitement of the visit of Santa Claus is really causing some stir around OHS. The halls have been decorated with bright colored balls and silver tinsel to help put everybody in the "holiday spirit". Have you ever noticed that everything seems to be a little "better"? Never is the music as pretty as it is in the Christmas season! Everybody you see is singing or whistling a carol. The church choir sing out in melodic harmony.

Never are the decorations more "eye catching" than they are now, being so bright and colorful.

Never is the food so plentiful!!!! (And we say, "Thank heaven, for that!!")

Never are friends more like friends and families more like families should be.

Never is the temperature more enjoyable. Just keep the faith, Marsha. We might have a White Christmas after all!!!

Now is the time to hint to your father, mother, boyfriend or best friends what you would like for Christmas!! Really, this is the time of the year when we should devote our thinking to "giving". But most of the OHS students think more in the line of "wanting". Start dropping hints now about that favorite car of yours or that new form!! Too bad we can't say "You get me this, and I'll get you that!!"

BULLETIN: Wanted - One alive Student Body that will support the basketball teams!

A very intelligent and influential Congressman was arrested out of his district for speeding. Unfortunately for him, he was brought before a judge just as pompous and not without some influence himself.

Strutting before the bench, the politician spoke in his best Shakespearean manner. "I'll admit I may have been speeding a little, your honor, but you see, I'm a Congressman and..."

"Ignorance is no excuse," interrupted the judge.

Coach Miller: "My wife has but one extravagance -- her charge account."

If you want your girl friend to pay attention to what you say, address your remarks to another girl.

Overheard in the OHS patio: "I'm not sure yet what I'm going to take next semester; the principals office or the library."

Mrs. Galaviz to husband as she arrives in his new Mustang with a smashed front: "And the policeman was so nice about it. He asked if I'd like for the city to remove all the telephone poles."

D'Lyle went to Lubbock last week to try to find her some new skis for her trip over the holidays. As she was looking, she happened to trip over a pair, but was caught by the very handsome clerk. To avoid any other embarrassment, she told the clerk that she wanted those. At the check-out counter, the clerk said: "This little pamphlet goes with them--It tells how to convert them into a pair of splints!"

Gary Gregory -- It must have been a special occasion. Kathy M. -- That wasn't our bell, you ding-a-ling. Johnny J. -- We aren't sure about you.

Kath'Leen-- You could've let your mother know where you were.

Cynthia E. -- Only four more days.

Ronnie S. -- That's what friends are for.

Monte C. -- She tried, but she couldn't do it.

Paula S. -- Why so elated? Debbie M. -- When the time comes....

Mike P. -- Why do you wiggle so much?

Marsha A. -- You would make him do that.

Choir kids--Did you think we had forgotten about you? Miss Powers--Those curbs just jumped right out in front of you, didn't they?

Sign in an army recruiting station: "We honor all draft cards."

The easiest way for a woman to park a car is with her husband at the wheel.

One of the new miracle drugs is inexpensive--that's the miracle.

acle. Intuition: The strange instinct that tells a woman she is right, whether she is or not.

Throw rug: A small rug that usually throws anyone who steps on it.

Etiquette: Learning to yawn with your mouth closed.

Television: Radio with eye-strain.

LIFE IN OHS....

Annette: When is your birthday?? Last Wednesday or Thursday???

Mickey: Does it really hurt? Kath'Leen: Twinkle Toes!!! Hey, people, go out and do something mean so we can put it in the paper, ok??

Did you know it is only 40 hours of school left til Christmas but by the time you read this column it will be less than that? How about 2400 minutes, or 144,000 seconds!!!!

Jena and Kathy

DID YOU HEAR ABOUT??? The little four-year-old singing, "Hark! The hairy angels sing."

The husband who sang, "On the twelfth day of Christmas my wife gave to me, All the Bells!!!"

The businessman who sang, "Dashing through the snow", "The course for Expectant Fathers: Dada Processing!!!"

The Mistle toe? It is used to help a man help himself!! America?? We have two major parties here, New Year's Eve and Christmas Eve!!!

Every one be sure and attend the Band Concert Thursday night and the Choir Concert Saturday night!! You will miss something great if you don't.

Did you see the sign at a Olton Department Store: "Make this a Christmas he won't forget, charge everything!!!"

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!! Platonic Friendship: The interval between the introduction and the first kiss.

Conscience: The still small voice that makes you feel still smaller.

Minor operation: One performed on somebody else.

A good storyteller: A person who has a good memory and hopes other people haven't.

One circus elephant to another: I'm getting sick and tired of working for peanuts.

Bear, standing at the door of his cave, reminds a bird: "Remember now--call us about half past April."

Mother rabbit to her small child: "A magician pulled you out of a hat-- now stop asking questions!"

An elderly woman strolled calmly out into the street after a cop had flagged her to stay on the sidewalk. "Lady", he reared, "Don't you know what it means when I hold up my hand?"

"I ought to," she snapped. "For the last 25 years I've been a school teacher."

Don't forget that next Monday and Tuesday will be Semester test days. Looks like a few of us will be studying over the weekend. They would have to ruin a whole weekend for us.

The choir attended the All-Region Concert in Lubbock last Saturday night, and performed two numbers. We had two students that took a part with the Regional Choir itself. These two were Rita Graham and Luis Rey. They worked hard and did a very fine job.

Well, that's all for this week. Have a happy time buying gifts for your loved ones. Study hard this next week.
