Third Frost In Row Hits Area Today

The Snyder area had its third frost in a row this morning, and forecasts called for continued cold weather through Friday.

Ther mercury dipped to 31 degrees in Snyder, following low readings of 32 degrees and 33 degrees on the two preceding days.

Sunshine continued over the area this morning, but skies were expected to be partly cloudy most of the day. However, no rainfall was in the forecast, although some snow was reported in the Panhandle.

By The Associated Press

Light snow drifted into the Texas Panhandle and rain dotted South Texas and the coast Thursday.

Snow flurries fell at Amarillo and Dalhart as a cool front pushed across the state, plunging the temperature at Dalhart at daybreak to 25 degrees, overnight low for the state.

A weak low pressure system triggered showers around Galveston, San Antonio, Lufkin, Austin, Houston, Brownsville and Del Rio.

Rain measurement was small, the heaviest being .33 of an inch at Kenedy. Northerly winds up to 26 miles an hour accompanied the shower. Lufkin had .28 of an inch, Del Rio .03 and Houston .01.

Brownsville recorded the state's high overnight minimum of 71 degrees. Other overnight lows included Corpus Christi 68, Houston 60, San Antonio 54, Lufkin 52, Dallas and Texarkana 39, El Paso 35, Wichita Falls 34, Childress 32, Amarillo 31 and Lubbock 30.

Keep Calm, Burleson Urges

"We are an impatient people — and sometimes in our impatience and impetuousness we don't always use the best judgment," Omar Burleson, U. S. representative for the Seventeenth Congressional District, told members of the Snyder High School student body during a talk this morning.

Burleson, who will also speak tonight here to the provisional League of Women Voters, is congressman for the district to which Scurry County is being assigned. Scurry is now a part of the Nineteenth District, for which George Mahón is representative.

The congressman stressed the need for calmness on the part of American people in its race with Russia. Many leaders in the country are still amazed, he said, that the U. S. didn't launch a space satellite before Russia did.

Americans are a prideful people, he said, always having been so self-sufficient, and they easily forget that others around the world are just as smart.

Americans do, however, have the drive and energy needed to advance, and they are not as handicapped as are people in most other countries. Americans are a driving people by nature, wanting to solve their problems right now.

"While we have all these disturbances around us, it is important that we remain calm," Burleson said.

The congressman said the believed there will be trips to the moon within a few years, "But we may not be the first," he added

He stressed that high school students today have much to work for in the coming years. "Somebody worked for the opportunities you now have, and there is a lot of work and responsibility ahead of you."

Satellite Data Stolen By Rosenberg, Spy Says

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Robert Morris, counsel for a Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said today convicted atomic spy David Greenglass told him that Julius Rosenberg carried earth satellite information to the Russians in the late 1940s.

Greenglass, imprisoned in the federal penitentiary here, was a brother-in-law of Rosenberg, executed in 1953 as an atomic spy.

"Greenglass told us that Roseenberg was stealing secrets about space platforms and atomic-powered airplanes," Morris said.

Morris interviewed Greenglass and Harry Gold, also a convicted atomic spy, in the penitentiary prior to a public hearing planned later at Philadelphia.

The 1½-hour interview with Greenglass and Gold, Morris said, also brought out that a Soviet agent had provided anti-missile secrets to the Russians.

Morris declined to identify the agent but said he would do so during the hearing when it can be made part of an official record.

Morris placed particular emphasis on what he said was a Russian demand on Gold that Gold's espionage efforts go into actual processes rather than theories.

"Gold told us that the Soviet kept hammering at him to get scientific secrets from us," the Senate subcommittee counsel said.

He said Gold quoted his Soviet bosses as saying ":We (Russia) can do it ourselves but we haven't the time. You, by obtaining this information, save us time."

Morris said both Greenglass and Gold cited specific instances in which information on U.S. projects were turned over to the Russians.

"The Russians did not want anything theoretical. They wanted processes in actual operation and making money."

Asked for an example of such a project, Morris replied the convicted spy told him he obtained from another Soviet agent at the Holston Ordnance Works in Kingsport, Tenn., two samples of a high explosive known as RDX.

Gold told him, the counsel said, that he was able to obtain two pounds of the high explosive—it has twice the power of TNT — and turned it over to the Russians in the fall of 1943.

Morris also said Greenglass repeated previous testimony that Rosenberg was able to obtain a complete proximity fuse and turned it over to the Russians. This device explodes a shell within a pre-set distance of a taret.

Filibuster In Senate Looms

AUSTIN (AP)— The Senate today began debate on a measure linked with Gov. Price Daniel's school-closing legislation and there was talk that it might drag on into a filibuster.

Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio took the floor at 10:34 a.m. to oppose details of a bill to transfer $50,000 from the governor's fund to the attorney general to help him fight federal lawsuits on integration.

Gonzalez led Senate filibuster forces during the regular session of the Legislature to delay action on anti-integration bills.

Trailing the fund transfer measure on the Senate calendar is the bill that would permit boards to close public schools under threat of troop occupation brought on by violence.

The House quickly adopted a resolution proposed by Gov. Daniel asking President Eisenhower to insist that the Department of Justice halt boundary litigation involving the Texas tidelands. The resolution was offered by Rep. Jo Ed Winfree of Houston. It must be approved also by the Senate before it can be sent to President Eisenhower.

Senate debate on the fund transfer bill and the school closing bill was delayed yesterday on technicalities as prospects for an end to the second special session this week disappeared.

Sen. Wardlow Lane is author of the bill to aid the attorney general in lawsuits involving integration.

Lane wanted action on the attorney general bill (SB2) before the school closing measure is argued.

Sen. Jep Fuller of Port Arthur raised the point of order that Lane's bill was not germane to the governor's call of the special session. This was overruled by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey.

Gonzalez then sent up an amendment to the Lane bill, striking out the fund transfer feature, but allowing the attorney general to represent school boards in federal litigation. Lane had said the bill's objective was to authorize the attorney general to represent local boards in suits where the constitutionality of state laws is challenged by the federal government.

Asian Flu Siege May Be Declining

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Public Health Service said today there are indications the Asian influenza epidemic probably has reached its peak in some parts of the nation.

The report indicated this may include all sections except the Pacific states.

The number of deaths from influenza and pneumonia in 108 cities dropped during the week ended Nov. 16 to 782. This was 13 per cent below the number in the preceding week.

Also, the number of deaths in 114 cities from all causes last week was down three per cent from the preceding week, to a total of 12,222.

The decreases in deaths occurred in all geographic divisions of the nation except the Pacific states.

The weekly summary noted that a number of states reported that fewer cases were occurring.

"School or industrial absenteeism is reported to have decreased to normal expected levels in some states," the report said. "Others report no new community outbreaks."

The summary said there were 780,000 new cases reported or estimated by 36 states for the week ended Nov. 16, compared with 1,100,000 by 38 states in the week ended Nov. 9. This pushed to at least 9,130,000 the estimated total of Asian flu cases since early June, based on incomplete reports.

Another report on the number of new cases of acute respiratory diseases in the week ended Oct. 26 indicated a peak might have been reached about Oct. 19 but the PHS cautioned this was not necessarily true.

The report showed a drop of 18 per cent in the number of new cases of respiratory diseases involving at least one day in bed. There were 10,048,000 estimated in the week ended Oct. 26, compared with 12,238,000 in the preceding week.

Strange Derangement Said To Motivate Gein's Crimes

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune said today it had learned the previously undisclosed story told by Edward Gein, admitted slayer of two women, in which he disclosed the "strange sex complex that motivated his sadistic rampage and divulged new and more horrifying details of his ghoulish activities."

In a dispatch from Madison, Wis., the Tribune said it learned that Gein, "a shy, sly, mild-mannered bachelor, had wanted to be a woman and that he said this compulsion prompted him to kill women and steal other bodies from graves to get parts to wear upon his own body."

The story said "this most appalling denouement of the entire case" came after Charles Wilson, head of the state crime laboratory, reported that Gein had admitted the killing of Mrs. Mary Hogan, 54, at his farm near Plainfield, in central Wisconsin. Mrs. Hogan, a tavern operator at Bancroft, Wis., had been missing since Dec. 8, 1954. Earlier Gein had admitted killing and butchering Mrs. Bernice Worden, 58-year-old hardware store owner of Plainfield last Saturday.

Gein was returned to the Waushara County jail at Wautoma yesterday from Madison to await arraignment on a charge of first-degree murder.

Gein was at the laboratory for a total of 10½ hours but underwent only short periods of lie detector tests. The rest of the time was spent in interviews and interrogations.

As he left the laboratory, clean shaven and smiling, funeral services were held at Plainfield for Mrs. Worden.

Her mutilated body was discovered on Gein's farm near Plainfield Saturday night. Authorities searching the littered farmhouse found a collection of human skulls which are being scrutinized by the laboratory. Gein declared he obtained the skulls in a series of grave robberies from 1944 to 1952.

Portage County Sheriff Herbert Wanserski has expressed doubt that Gein, who weighs about 140 pounds, was physically able to commit grave robberies.

William Belter, attorney for the 51-year-old bachelor farmer, told reporters after talking to Gein that "although there is the possibility of another charge against him in addition to the slaying of Mrs. Worden, he will plead innocent by reason of insanity."

"I don't think he has a full appreciation of what he has done," Belter said. "Although he has improved his recollection, there are things that are still hazy to him."

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The six-state Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America today signed a 15-month contract that includes weekly pay increases of from $2 to $5 for about 50,000 employes.

A company spokesman said the increases were roughly in line with those agreed to by other telephone companies in the country this year.

Stevenson Is On Federal Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department belatedly disclosed today that Adlai Stevenson was sworn in yesterday morning as a foreign policy consultant and that he is on the payroll.

The rate is about $50 a day on days the Democratic leader works for the Republican administration.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the action was not announced at the time apparently because of some kind of mixup over how it should be announced. Normally swearings-in are balleyhooed in advance to get maximum attention.

When Stevenson arrived here to begin talks with Secretary of State Dulles on U.S. planning for next month's Nato summit meeting he was described by State Department officials as being non-titled and non-paid.

In a speech in Chicago last night, however, Dulles said Stevenson would be on the government payroll for a long, long time and went on to explain that a top level consultant—such as Dulles himself was under the Democratic Truman administration—draws about $50 a day.

It was this remark by Dulles which triggered the State Department disclosure that Stevenson actually had taken the oath yesterday as a consultant to President Eisenhower although he is technically on the payroll of the State Department.

Firemen Set For Banquet

The annual Thanksgiving banquet of the Snyder fire department will be held tonight.

D. A. Porter, fire chief, said the banquet will be at the Central Elementary School at 7:30 o'clock.

Special awards will be made to some firemen for their diligence to duties, Porter said. The awards are being sponsored by the fire department, the Kiwanis Club and radio station KSNY.

In addition to the awards, the annual report of the fire chief will be given.

Special guests of the department at the banquet are to be city, county, school officials and some members of fire departments in neighboring towns.

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, rails and nonferrous metals paced the stock market to a vigorous rise early today.

Key stocks advanced from fractions to 2 or more points.

The ticker tape fell behind transactions for seven minutes in the first buying rush, caught abreast, then was late for 4 minutes again in another wave of buying. There was some backing-away after the first enthusiasm.

The market was continuing the upsurge of late yesterday when Wall Street was buoyed by strong rumors that the Federal Reserve Board would take further credit easing steps today. At the same time, the short interest figures were reported after yesterday's close as the highest since 1932—actually a bullish sign because it provides a big cushion of potential buyers into the market.

Allied Chemical, up around 2, Chrysler, ahead more than a point, and Westinghouse Electric, up about a point, were in active demand.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

VERY PROBABLY LAST WEEK was the first time in collegiate football history that the nation's Nos. 1 and 2 teams were beaten on the same Saturday.

Texas A&M, the number one ranked team, lost to Rice, 7-6 and Oklahoma, the No. 2 team, bowed to Notre Dame, 7-0. Another oddity about this is that the nation's top two teams managed only one touchdown between them in last Saturday's play.

Both were shockers, to say the least, but southwest football fans are accustomed for such things happening in the Southwest Conference. Rarely a week goes by that an upset doesn't occur in the SWC after conference play gets underway.

Rice's win over A&M last Saturday was an upset, to be sure, but it was only a "mild" one compared to some that have happened in the past.

Owls 'Under-Rated'

Rice, perhaps, is the most under-rated team in the country. What is keeping the Owls down is their three defeats but two of the Owl losses could just have easily been victories.

The Owls lost 7-6 to Duke and should have beaten the Blue Devils. Rice drove to the Duke one-yard line late in the game but fumbled into the end zone and Duke recovered for an automatic touchback. This play saved the day for Duke.

Then Rice dropped a 19-14 squeaker to University of Texas in a game that was decided by a kick-off return for a touchdown.

The Owls should proceed now to win the Cotton Bowl berth by beating TCU Saturday and Baylor next week but then we are reminded that this is the Southwest Conference where anything can happen and it usually does.

Tigers To See TCU-Rice Game

Speaking of the Rice-TCU game, a number of Snyder fans are due to be in attendance at the game in Fort Worth Saturday including the entire Tiger football squad.

Snyder High School is honoring the Tiger football squad with a trip to Saturday's Rice-TCU game for a job well done this season.

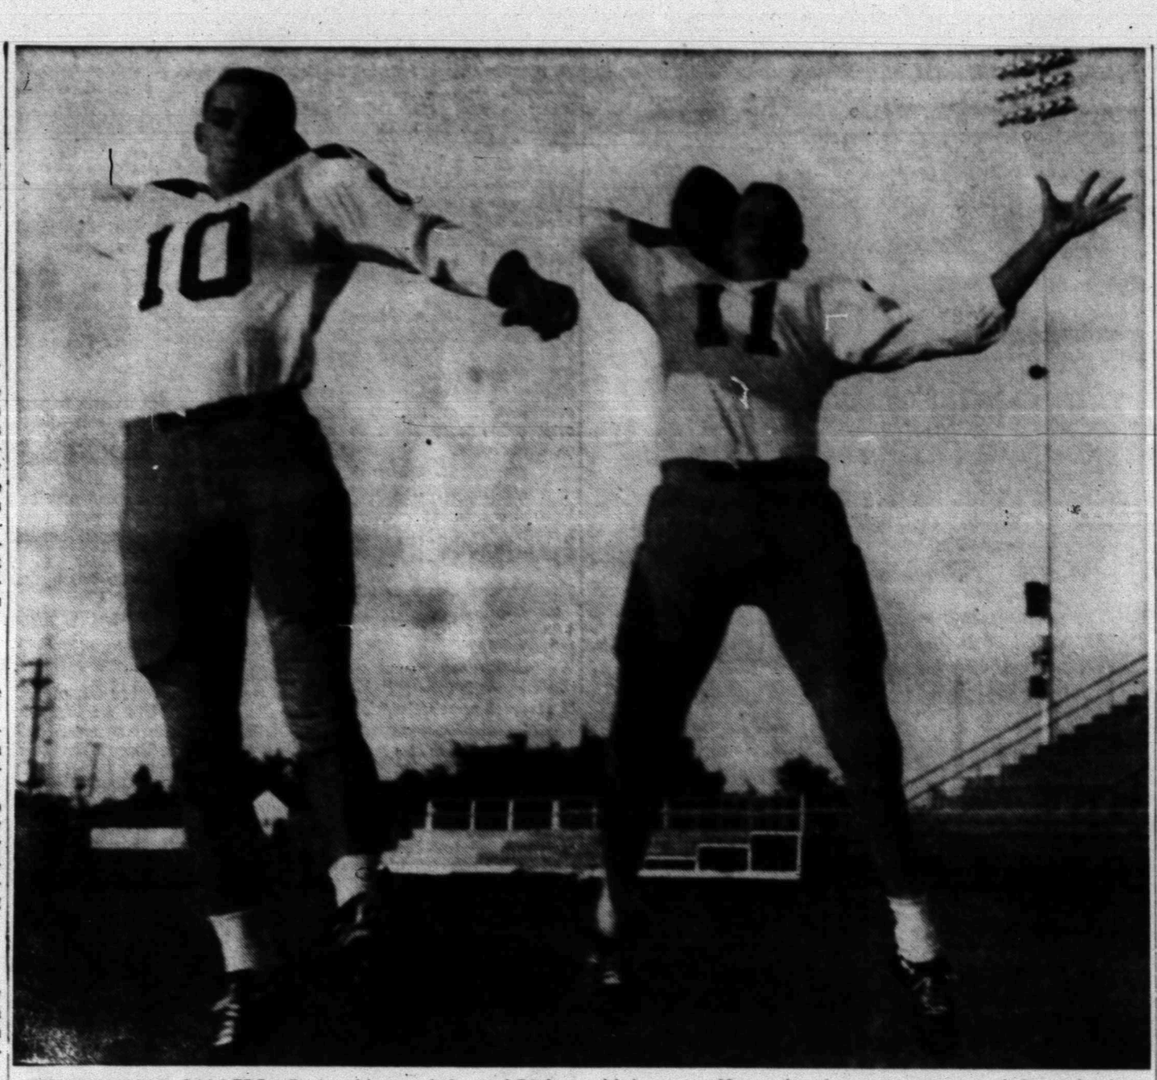
Needless to say the Tigers will be keeping a close eye on ex-Tiger Jack Spikes who is a member of the TCU squad.

Six-Man football is a wide-open game to begin with but tomorrow night's bi-district game between Gail and Sterling City at Forsan may set all sorts of scoring records.

Both teams have played nine games and Gail has averaged 51.2 points per game to 43.2 for Sterling City. These scoring figures, even in Six-Man ball, are pretty healthy marks.

Gail's top individual game in scoring is 82 points while Sterling City's is 68.

Coaches of the two teams, incidentally, were classmates at Sul Ross a few years back, Eddie James of Gail and Biddie Young of Sterling City.



TIGER SIGNAL CALLERS—Dickie Martin, left, and Richard Mahan have turned in yeoman performances for the Tigers in the quarterback role this season. Mahan, who has started most of the Tigers games thus far, leads the Bengals in total offense with 490 yards (186 passing and 304 rushing). Martin, in addition to understuding Mahan on offense, has been a starter on defense (at linebacker) and currently leads the Tigers in number of tackles made with 63. Both Mahan and Martin threw touchdown passes against Colorado City last week. (Lee Watson Photograph).

Gail Coyotes Rule Slight Favorites

FORSAN, Nov. 21 — The Gail Coyotes will rule a slight favorite in their bi-district six-man game with the Sterling City Eagles here Friday night.

The Coyotes and Eagles have met three common foes with the Coyotes holding an edge in the comparison of each.

However, in one game there is only a one-point difference. Gail defeated Garden City by 26 points (34-8) while Sterling City won over the same club by 25 points (59-34.)

The other two common foes of the two teams are Knott and Ackerly. Gail downed Knott by 33 points to a 20-point decision by Sterling City over the same club. Against Ackerly, Gail won by a 34-point margin, Sterling City by 13.

Gail will carry a 9-0 record in to the bi-district game to 8-1 for Sterling City. The only loss suffered by Sterling City was a non-district contest to St. Joseph of Abilene.

Sterling City is the defending regional champion. The Eagles have won the region title twice in the last three seasons. Gail will be bidding for her first region crown.

The fact that Gail has two starters ailing may equalize the two teams in Friday's contest. End Larry Doyle is nursing an ankle Vaughn has been down with the flu. Both are expected to play Friday but neither will be in top shape.

Following are the probably starting lineups for the two teams for tomorrow's bi-district contest:

GAIL

Ends — Lloyd Ramsey and Larry Doyle.
Center — Norman Ledbetter.
Quarterback — Jerry Staggs.
Halfbacks — Ruben Vaughn and James Massingill.

STERLING CITY

Ends — Jim Davis and Wayne Drennan.
Center — Wayland Drennan.
Quarterback — Wilbur Stone.
Halfbacks — Melvin Foster and Nathan Morris or Robert Quintana.

McGrew, Hayes Pass 400 Mark In Tiger Rushing

Junior fullback Mickey McGrew and sophomore halfback Dick Hayes soared past the 400-yard mark in yards gained rushing in last week's game with Colorado City, accoriding to the Daily News statistical figures.

McGrew took over the team leadership in rushing with 73 yards against Colorado City that upped his season total to 452 yards. Hayes, last week's leader, carried only four times against C-City and netted 12 yards but nevertheless passed the 400 mark at 406.

McGrew has averaged 5.7 per carry this season on 79 carries. Hayes has toted the mail 43 times for a 9.4 average.

Nearing the 400-mark is halfback Bud Morgan who gained 105 yards in the Colorado City game to boost his season total to 384 yards. Morgan returned to the Tiger lineup last week after missing the Lake View game with an injury the week before.

Quarterback Richard Mahan is the Tiger total offense leader. Mahan has gained 304 net yards on the ground and 186 in the air for a 490 total. Hayes is second in total offense with 406 rushing and 57 passing for 463.

Mahan's 186 yards passing is tops in the Tiger ranks. He also leads the Bengals in kickoff returns with 196 yards on nine attempts for a 22-yard average.

Morgan is the top Tiger pass receiver with five receptions for 83 yards.

Hayes leads the Tigers in punting with an average of 35.3 on seven boots.

Halfback James Vincent leads in punt returns with 192 yards on 10 attempts for a 19.2 average and he shares the scoring lead with McGrew, each with 42 points.

Guards Tony Anger, Larry Page and Gene Williamson share the lead in recovering opponent fumbles with two each.

Linebacker Dickie Martin continued to lead the Tigers in the tackle department with 63 unassisted tackles. Tackle Bill Phillips is close behind with 55.

Houston May Build Major League Park

HOUSTON (AP)—A legal opinion on whether oil royalties from city-owned property can be used to finance revenue bonds to build a major league baseball stadium was asked by the City Council yesterday.

Oil was discovered last weekend on the 331-acre city prison farm. It was found last year on the city-owned garbage dump, where 11 wells now are producing. The city received more than $190,000 in royalties from the dump lease in 16 months.

Other areas are under consideration for oil exploration.

Early last week a special session of the Legislature passed a bill authorizing the county and other Texas areas to call elections on proposals that major league baseball stadiums be built with revenue bonds.

TCU Frogs Rank High In Defense

By The Associated Press

TCU is the only Southwest Conference football team to hold up the league's honor in the major college defense statistics.

The Horned Frogs are fourth in the nation in total defense and eighth in forward pass defense. TCU, the lone Southwest Conference team to show up in the top 10 in total defense, rushing defense or pass defense, defended against 454 plays, giving up 1,562 yards for an average of 195.3 yards per game.

In forward passing, the Froggies have had 83 passes thrown against them and 31 completed for a .373 percentage, 440 yards and an average of 55.0 yards per game.

Tiger 'B' In Season Finale At C-City

The Tiger B team was to have closed out its season today at Colorado City where they met the Colorado City B team.

Coach Jim Stehley's B teamers, after a slow start, has come along fast. The locals have won three out of their last five games including a 40-7 romp over Big Spring B last Saturday.

Snyder B had previously lost to Big Spring B by 19-0. The Cubs were bidding for their fourth win today.

With one or two exceptions, the Tiger B team is made up entirely of sophomores.

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas News said today it has learned unofficial feelers from the Gator and Sugar Bowls have been extended to the University of Texas.

IN UPPER DIVISION

Defending Champs In Playoff Field

By The Associated Press

Fourteen district champions will be determined this week to round out the playoff brackets in Classes AAAA and AAA in schoolboy football.

Abilene and Garland, the defending state champions of the two divisions, already have qualified but have cleanup district games. Abilene's will be against San Angelo at San Angelo Friday and the Eagles can roll up their 47th straight victory if they come through.

Garland closes the district race with Diamond Hill at Garland Thursday.

El Paso Austin, Abilene, Amarillo, Fort Worth Paschal, Dallas Highland Park, Texarkana, Houston Bellaire, Galena Park, Austin and San Antonio Jefferson are already in the state playoff in Class AAAA.

Sweetwater, Breckenridge, Garland, Killeen, Brenham, Nederland, Cureo and San Benito have made it from Class AAA.

Expected to win the other six places in Class AAAA are Dallas Crozier Tech, which goes after it Thursday in a game with North Dallas; Wichita Falls, which hosts Grand Prairie Friday; Houston Sam Houston, which plays Houston Milby Thursday; Port Arthur, which needs to beat Beaumont South Park Friday; Corpus Christi Ray, which must defeat Corpus Christi Miller Friday, and San Antonio Burbank, which clashes with Laredo, with the title on the line, at Laredo Friday.

In Class AAA, with all the games Friday, these will decide district championships:

Levelland at Littlefield, Brownfield at Kermit, McKinney at Gainesville, Kilgore at Gladewater, Ennis at Cleburne, Bay City at El Campo, San Antonio Edison at Kerrville and Uvalde at Del Rio.

While the upper divisions are rounding out their playoff brackets, Classes AA and A will be entering the first round in the fight for state championships.

There are no defending champions in these divisions and the race appears wide open with Terrell probably mentioned most in Class AA and White Oak and Bishop considered the most likely in Class A.

Rice Quarterback, Hill, Breaks Nose

By The Associated Press

A broken nose loomed Thursday as another obstacle, along with TCU and Baylor, between Rice and the Cotton Bowl.

The broken proboscis belongs to Rice's sterling quarterback, King Hill, who damaged it in practice Wednesday. Hill, who engineered Rice's upset of Texas A&M last week, tackled Billy Bucek. He came out of the pileup with his nose bleeding. He was taken to a doctor's office where it was set and he was hospitalized.

Coach Jess Neely said, however, the 205-pound Hill would play against TCU Saturday. Larry Dueitt, a quarterback converted to halfback, was moved back to the man-under slot. Frank Ryan, regular alternate quarterback, has an injured knee but is expected to see action Saturday at Fort Worth.

If Rice can beat TCU and Baylor it will get the Cotton Bowl bid New Year's Day. Texas A&M, by beating Texas Thanksgiving Day, will tie Rice for the Southwest Conference championship, but since Rice beat the Aggies, the Owls will get the bowl spot.

Coach Abe Martin of TCU ran the Horned Frogs through a vigorous workout in an attempt to polish the offense for the homecoming tilt.

Martin said he was disappointed with the passing attack. Center Jim Ozee and end Paul Peebles are on the injury list.

Charlie Arnold and Ken Lowe, quarterbacks, returned to the SMU lineup and appeared ready for Baylor. Guard Tom Koenig also showed improvement of an ankle injury.

Baylor spent most of its day working on a pass defense against the SMU air attack. SMU quarterback Don Meredith, operating from a spread, led the Mustangs to victory over Arkansas with a terrific passing game.

A&M got in almost two hours of contact work and Coach Paul Bryant was pleased. "There were some licks passed out there," he said, "and I particularly noticed (John) Crow and (Charley) Krueger."

The Aggies don't play until Thanksgiving.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal, aiming for the Aggies, stressed conditioning and tactical drilling. The Longhorns were free of injuries.

Arkansas had another heavy contact session in preparation for Texas Tech. Mitchell worked the Razorbacks Wednesday on defense and planned kicking work Thursday. Fullback Gerald Nesbitt was on the hurt list with an ankle injury.

The Chicago Arena, formerly the scene of many great sporting events, now is a Cloumbia Broadcasting System television and radio studio.

Forerunner of the Cotton Bowl was the Fair Park Bowl, a wooden stadium built in 1921 to hold 15,000 fans.

Fish Theme Variations Give New Ideas For Menus In Fall

No matter what their price may be, foods from both salt and fresh-water sources contribute generously to nutritional needs; but now, in the fall, is an especially good time to feature fish on your menus.

After the big summer catches, fish is plentiful and prices low.

Fortunately, fish can be prepared so many interesting ways that there is no danger of "sameness" creeping into your meals.

While the flavor, texture, appearance and size may vary according to the species, the fundamental rules for cooking most fish are few and easy to follow:

Avoid over-cooking. There is no such thing as tough fish, requiring long, slow cooking to tenderize. Fish is cooked when it flakes easily when tested with a fork. Beyond this point, cooking causes the fish flesh to become increasingly dry and chewy.

Keep in mind the variation in fat content. Both fat and lean fish can be cooked by any of the basic methods, but lean fish require more added fat during cooking to keep them moist and flavorful.

Handle fish as little as possible during and after cooking. Fish flesh is tender and delicate. Turning many times during frying or broiling and transferring the cooked fish several times before serving tend to harm the appearance of the final product.

COCKTAIL ONIONS, TUNA COMPRISE SALAD

2 7-ounce cans solid pack tuna
1 tablespoon flour
1 3½-ounce jar cocktail onions
¼ cup vinegar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon sugar

Drain tuna; reserve ¼ cup oil. Combine tuna oil and flour; blend. Drain onions; reserve liquid. Add onion liquid, vinegar, mustard, sugar, salt and paprika to flour mixture. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Chill. Break tuna into pieces. Arrange tuna and onions on lettuce in salad bowls. Serve dressing with salads.

Junior Editors Quiz on LEGENDS

QUESTION: Was there a real Johnny Appleseed?

• • •

ANSWER: Behind many a legend there is a bit of truth. But behind the story of Johnny Appleseed, which sounds almost like a legend, there was a very real man. Johnny, whose last name actually was Chatham, was born on a farm in Massachusetts during apple blossom time just before the Revolutionary war. Loving the woods and fields, he started to wander about the country when about 20 years old. While visiting an uncle at Olean, N.Y., he decided to become an "apple missionary." Gathering apple seeds at a cider mill, he carried them with him and planted them by the roadside wherever he thought they would thrive. Later he would return and tend his orchards. Unarmed and barefooted, accepting old clothes but little or no money for himself, he was a friend of the Indians, yet served the government as an Indian scout. He died in Indiana when 75 years old.

FOR YOU TO DO: You can color this picture of Johnny planting an apple tree, but better still, plan to plant an apple tree of your own next spring if possible. It's better to plant a rooted tree from a nursery, however, than to depend on a seed.

Once again it is time to give thanks for the bountiful goodness that is our material harvest. The contrast between the first Thanksgiving and this one is so vast that it's difficult to comprehend. There is, however, a sameness. The Supreme Being that gave the Pilgrims their good harvest gives us ours. For this, let's all give thanks.

Former Congressman Lanham Continues Busy In Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 41 years ago Fritz G. Lanham, on his 67th birthday, voluntarily retired from Congress. He had represented the 12th Texas Congressional District, which included Fort Worth, from April 19, 1919, to Jan. 3, 1947.

"World War II was over," he recalls. "I thought it was a good time to retire and let a new man tackle the postwar problems."

But Lanham has not retired from the congressional scene. He may be seen nearly every day in Capitol corridors. On his rounds, carrying himself with a quiet dignity, well dressed and invariably wearing a hat, he usually makes a daily trip through the House press gallery.

He stops to exchange greetings if he sees a familiar face. But, usually he goes directly to the shelf which contains the daily press releases, glances over them to see what is of interest to his clients, then silently walks out the door at the opposite end of the gallery.

Lanham is registered under the Lobbyists' Registration Act as Washington representative for three different groups—the National Patent Council, the American Fair Trade Council and the Trinity Improvement Assn. of Texas.

Little changed in appearance or manner from the days when he served in Congress, except that he now wears a hearing aid, the soft-spoken but eloquent Texan appears before the Senate and House committees each year supporting flood control and water conservation projects up and down the Trinity.

Still a legal resident of Fort Worth, Lanham probably knows the part of Texas he represented in Congress for 28 years as well as anyone.

His father represented what then was known as the "Jumbo District" of Texas from 1882 to 1892—all of the state west of Tarrant County—and a realigned smaller district from 1896 to 1903, when he left the House to become governor of Texas. He served as Texas governor from 1903 to 1907 and died in 1908.

Fritz Lanham got early training in responsibilities of a congressman. He worked as secretary to his father in 1902.

"That was back when a congressman's salary was $5,000 yearly (it is now $22,500) and there were no House office buildings as we have today," Lanham recalled.

"The correspondence, drafting of legislation and the like was done by the congressman at home."

In those days, Lanham continued, a congressman only received about a dozen letters daily. Some correspondents would express views on various subjects, others would write to ask for such things as the free seeds which were furnished through congressmen in that period.

New York Troopers Involved In Probe

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — New York state police who broke up and investigated a "gangland conference" a week ago were under investigation themselves today.

Gov. Averell Harriman disclosed last night that he had ordered a number of inquiries by state agencies into the mobster meeting. One of them directs the state police superintendent to submit "a complete report on the conduct of the raid."

A spokesman said the governor wanted the report since criticism had been raised about the police action.

Troopers flushed out 60 men last Thursday from Joseph Barbara's remote country mansion in the hamlet of Apalachin in south-central New York. Many underworld luminaries were netted.

The troopers made no arrests. They said there was no charge on which to hold any of the guests. The visitors insisted they were visiting a sick friend—Barbara.

Although no arrests were made, it was the first time any police had interfered with and broken up a meeting of such magnitude.

There has been criticism of the state police in some quarters over the prompt release of the participants in the meeting. There also have been reports that top state police officials were angry over the fact that they were not consulted during the roundup and questioning.

The state police superintendent, Francis S. McGarvey, endorsed the manner in which his subordinates had acted. They did "the best they could under the circumstances," he said.

The governor's spokesman was asked whether Harriman's call for a full report meant he had overruled McGarvey. The spokesman said Harriman simply wanted the report because of the criticis raised.

The participants, however, will feel the full weight of the flood of investigations that the Apalachin meeting has sparked.

The governor ordered the state investigations commissioner, Arthur Reuter, to "look into the activities and associations of those attending the meeting."

The State Parole Board and the State Tax Department will also make their own inquiries, it was learned. State police have launched their own broad probe.

Anti-Missile Plan Argued

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said today the Air Force has placed a policy paper before the Joint Chiefs of Staff "taking exception to Army proposals for a major program to develop anti-missile missiles."

A Washington dispatch to the newspaper added that "the Air Force disputes the arguments for a contramissile advanced by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff."

The story also said in part:

Studies on this weapon have figured in service budget presentations this week before the Joint Chiefs.

The Air Force presentation — made at the same time as the Army's—disputes the Army plan on strategic grounds. It also questions whether Army development of a weapon to destroy long-range enemy ballistic missiles is advanced far enough to warrant huge expenditures.

One Army estimate was that it would cost about six billion dollars to develop a ballistic missile "Killer" by 1961. The Army's advocacy of this program was prompted by reported Soviet advances in ballistic missiles.

Cattle Feeding Prospects Bright

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today chances are good farmers will make at least average profits from feeding of slaughter cattle next year.

In fact, the agency said there is a possibility profits may exceed expectations.

Officials explained that a new cattle "boom" is in the making. By this, they mean that the demand for beef is strong enough to encourage farmers to produce more beef.

As a consequence, many producers are holding back for breeding cattle which otherwise would go to market.

Interference Called Top School Threat

DALLAS (AP)—School Supt. W. T. White says the biggest threat to public school education is interference by the federal government.

Dallas schools are under court order to integrate after midterm.

White said those who ask the federal government for aid "are handing over to outside power the rights and responsibilities that ought to be handled on a local level.

"I had rather have less money, not as good equipment, school houses less well built . . . as long as we keep it at the local level," he said.

Thirteen of the 39 players on the 1957 freshman football team at the University of North Dakota were among the top 10 graduates in their respective high schools.

Until recently Texas made no provision for taking care of needy physically disabled persons, other than the needy blind. But now, under a bill passed by the Regular Session of the Fifty-fifth Legislature (H. B. 78) other disabled persons may obtain public welfare assistance.

To become eligible for assistance, the needy person must first establish by competent and qualified medical examination that he meets certain standards of disability. Generally speaking, he must be disabled through some physical or mental impairment, disease or loss, or a combination of both physical and mental impairment.

His condition must be not likely to change, or be progressive and not responsive to treatment, or require treatment that is continuous, extremely hazardous or of questionable benefit. The condition must make him an invalid or necessitate considerable help from others in getting about.

Persons who meet the above requirements are considered to be permanently and totally disabled. The same holds true if a person's physical and mental impairment is such that he requires close and constant supervision or personal care by others, or if he is not a likely subject for vocational rehabilitation.

Needy persons who can thus prove themselves permanently and totally disabled are eligible to receive Public Welfare assistance under the following circumstances:

1. If 18 year of age or older but less than 65 years of age.
2. If a citizen of the United States with residence in Texas for five (5) years or more within the last nine (9) years preceding the date of his application for assistance, and has resided in the State of Texas continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding the application.
3. If such applicant is not at the time of receiving assitance an inmate in a public institution (except as a patient in a medical institution) or is not a patient in an institution for tuberculosis or mental disease, or has not been diagnosed as having tuberculosis and is a patient in a medical institution as a result thereof.
4. If he is not receiving Old Age assistance, Aid to the Blind, or Aid to Dependent Children.
5. If he has not disposed of property, either personal or real, for the purpose of qualifying or increasing need for assistance.

The State Department of Public Welfare determines whether or not a person is in need by the application of reasonable rules and regulations. The purpose of the act is to provide reasonable financial aid compatible with health and decency to those without resources of their own for such purpose. The amount so determined cannot exceed the amount of Federal aid for that purpose.

Wolf Whistles Can Devaluate Property

SHEFFIELD, England (AP) — A tax valuation court has granted shapely, 31-year-old Mrs. Mildred Barker a cut of 2 pounds ($5.60) a year in her real estate tax because of wolves.

Mrs. Barker said the wolves were the male employes of an engineering works a few yards from her home. She testified she drew wolf whistles "when I hang out the laundry, when I wash the steps and when I sunbathe in summer."

She argued, and the tax court agreed yesterday, that this lessened the value of the house.

FARM BUREAU SEEKS

More Acres, Less Support

DALLAS (AP) — Delegates to the Texas Farm Bureau voted yesterday for a gradual elimination of government regulations and the right to seek lower price supports in return for an increase in cotton allotments.

The delegates rejected a resolution calling for high price supports on cotton grown for the domestic market and compensation payments for cotton shipped abroad.

The adopted policy asks the Department of Agriculture to give farmers the opportunity to vote in a referendum giving three choices: current price supports with current acreage restrictions; a flexible price support that could go as low as 75 per cent of parity with a 20 per cent increase in acreage, or no price supports and no acreage restrictions.

J. H. West of Bishop, Nueces County farmer and businessman, was elected president of the Texas Farm Bureau, succeeding Walter Hammond of Tye. The election was made at a meeting of the organization's 13 directors, following its 24th annual convention.

Hammond, 69, had been president of the federation 18 years. Hammond resigned as a member of the board of directors and B. J. Gist of Abilene was named in his place. C. H. Devaney of Coahoma was elected vice president and Edwin Sanderson of Paris secretary-treasurer.

West is a cotton and grain farmer and has been a director of the Texas Farm Bureau since 1937.

Delegates also suggested the present soil bank act should be allowed to expire with the end of the present contracts.

Wheat growers pushed through a resolution asking that grazing be allowed on wheat before the Jan. 1 end of the soil-bank year, in order to save crops that would be harvested the following year, when the soil bank contract had expired. Some cattlemen objected, claiming this would put wheat farmers in the cattle business.

The delegates backed up the rights of farmers to use the water which falls on their land in a resolution stating that they support "the theory that diffused water belongs to the land on which it falls. Water stored behind retention dams located outside of stream beds should be available to the land owner for any beneficial use."

In other action the delegates voted:

That the Farm Bureau continue efforts to reduce state cotton allotments reserve to 2 per cent.

Dulles Says NATO Nations Would Retaliate If Attacked

CHICAGO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles says that forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would "almost certainly fight back" without waiting for a declaration of war if attacked in the field.

Dulles told newsmen last night such a decision would be made on the spot by field commanders.

He said the attack "almost certainly would involve American troops because the NATO forces are so intermingled."

Fire certainly would be returned, he added, "if it were something comparable to Pearl Harbor, say."

The remarks arose from a question about the "time for decision" in the event of a possible atomic attack on NATO forces.

Adlai Stevenson, the two-time Democratic presidential candidate who has become a consultant to the Eisenhower administration on Atlantic Alliance problems, came to Chicago with Dulles. He told reporters he will do all he can to help in his post as consultant to the Republican administration.

However, Stevenson added that he was "certainly not" a member of President Eisenhower's team. He said he has not been asked to attend next month's big NATO meeting in Paris with Eisenhower and Dulles. "There won't be a decision on that until later," he said.

Stevenson says that he will review and discuss U. S. plans to be placed before the NATO conferees.

Dulles said Stevenson "will be on the federal payroll a long, long time." If the former Illinois governor approves of this country's NATO proposals, Dulles said, he has expressed a willingness to work for their adoption abroad and in this country.

Dulles, in an extemporaneous speech before members of the Council on Foreign Relations last night, said the launching of Russian earth satellites would be a very good thing indeed if they lead us to realize the magnitude of our peril.

The only possible means of meeting this threat, he said, was in cooperation with other free nations—a policy which he said has been successful since 1950. There has been virtually no extension of Soviet domain since then, he said.

The Russians, he said, are trying to make a deal with the United States under which the United States would drop all bans on the sale to them of strategic goods, acquiesce in the Soviet control over Eastern Europe and either demote or drop our Western allies.

This is too heavy a price to pay, he said, because no country which ever made a deal with the Russians ever got what they promised.

The secretary said he didn't think the present tensions and the cold war will go on forever, but he said he didn't know how long they would last.

Among other points Dulles made in answer to questions by newsmen were:

American atomic weapons now being stockpiled in Europe will remain under American control; prospects "are not rosy" for an arms limitation agreement wtih Russia; he has reached an agreement with French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau about American arms to Tunisia; and the United States always has maintained the initiative over Russia and will continue to do so.

Discrimination Is Reported On Way Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — Job discrimination against Negroes by government contractors is greater in white-collar areas than in production tasks and skilled trades, a presidential committee says.

In its fourth annual report to President Eisenhower, the committee on government contracts yesterday said such "discriminatory situations" may be on the way out.

The committee, headed by Vice President Nixon, seeks to eliminate job discrimination because of color, race, religion or national origin in work done under government contract.

The committee said a survey of 508 plants doing government work showed that Negroes held nearly nine per cent of the jobs in plants surveyed in detail, but their representation in the white-collar work was strikingly lower.

It said Negroes had the best representation in white-collar work in Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia and the New York City-northern New Jersey area.

Nixon said he believed the committee has developed "new and effective tools for identifying and correcting discriminatory situations where work is being performed under government contract."

He said the committee is making annual examinations of employment practices of principal government contractors, and has asked government contracting agencies to consider these practices before awarding contracts.

Family Wins Own Island

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—What would you do if you suddenly won a South Pacific island complete with furnished hut, outrigger canoe and a native man Friday?

Well, the Kent Shelbys, who won an island in a national limerick contest sponsored by a movie studio and travel agency, have this to say:

"We intend to bask in the sun and just fish and swim and read and let the rest of the world go by."

Shelby, 23, an aircraft worker, said yesterday that he, his wife and 15-month-old daughter plan to fly to the 4½-acre island in the Fiji group about the first of the year.

"If it's as good as it sounds we may never come back," Shelby said.

Until 1738, New Jersey had a separate assembly, but its chief executive was the governor of New York.

Lawyer Gets Passport To Red China

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Los Angeles attorney says he is the first American to have a passport validated for travel to Communist China and North Korea.

A. L. Wirin's passport was signed yesterday by W. G. Nerren, acting director of the U. S. Passport Office in Los Angeles, after a federal judge in San Francisco ruled that Wirin had a right to gather evidence and interview witnesses behind the Bamboo Curtain.

The State Department at first had refused to permit Wirin to visit Red China and North Korea. But Judge Louis E. Goodman of San Francisco ruled last Oct. 30 that unless Wirin was allowed to go he would dismiss sedition charges against Wirin's clients, John and Sylvia Powell.

The Powells are charged with printing seditious articles in an English language newspaper they published in Shanghai. The articles accused the United States of stalling in the Korean peace negotiations, of conducting bacteriological warfare and of committing aggressive acts against Red China and North Korea.

Denying Wirin a passport, Judge Goodman held, would be violating the constitutional rights of the Powells to produce evidence and witnesses.

Children on Chinese junks have gourds tied about them to act as life preservers if they fall overboard.

Evidence Disappears In Narcotics Trial

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police today were investigating the disappearance of five pounds of opium from the court of Superior Judge Walter Carpeneti where it was to be evidence for a trial.

The opium—worth $5,000 on the illegal market and contained in two paper bags—vanished yesterday.

It had been placed under the counsel table for safekeeping.
