

One of the most gratifying results of the 50th year celebration was the fact that Artesia maintained the city's record as one of the safest anywhere. Despite the influx of visitors' cars, there was not a single traffic mishap.

Indians Storm Gallup for Start of Ceremonials

GALLUP (AP)—Tribesmen from the nation stormed Gallup yesterday, rolling their 34th annual ceremonial into action.

Representing tribes from the basins of the Pacific Northwest to the Seminoles of Florida, they set their camps through all available sites in the town and over-land to the surrounding hills.

With them came a parallel invasion of onlookers, and officials of hotels, motels and private homes were packed to the rafters.

Mr. Merry, secretary manager of the annual Indian event, said the event is buttoned right up to the top.

Among the watchers was Indian Commissioner Glen Emmons, a Gallup banker. He was among the 100 who paid to sit in a grandstand at the ceremonial grounds to watch the tribesmen pace through their ancient dances.

Merry said the association was (Continued on Page Four)

Adlai Gets First Nomination Bid

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York apparently have reached an informal working agreement aimed at bringing one of them the 1956 Democratic presidential nomination.

Associates confirmed that the former Illinois governor, who was named by President Eisenhower in 1954, has come to an understanding with Harriman under which Stevenson will get first crack.

here, and was announced by Airman 2/C S. J. Park, of the El Paso filter center, who had come to Artesia to aid in getting plans under way for a plane observer post here.

All observers will be volunteers, Sperry explained, and at first will operate on a daylight-hours schedule. He said:

Seek Volunteers
"Present plans are to appeal to civic and service clubs for aid in obtaining volunteers. It will be early September before a site for the post can be selected and the volunteer observer system set up."

Need for the post was pointed out by Sperry, who said that the radar listening post of the Strategic Air Command at Roswell can spot the presence of planes in the skies of this area but has no way of identifying them as to whether they are friendly or enemy planes.

Lots of Planes
"There are lots of planes in the air," Sperry said, "especially with so much crop dusting in the Pecos Valley. It costs a large sum for a jet to take the air from Walker Air Force Base at Roswell and fly to identify a radar-spotted plane. Our observer post can do the identifying and thus save the Air Force time and money."

Airman Park said a network of such observer posts is being set up throughout the nation, to co-operate with the network of radar stations. Watchers will be instructed in the identification of planes and some system of rapid communication with the radar station will be developed.

Only casualty of the Golden Jubilee was an unidentified mule that got lost.

Chief of Police Frank Powell today expressed the appreciation of the entire police department for the care and good sense exercised by motorists during the Jubilee. Despite the fact Main st. was roped off and heavy traffic was detoured to narrower streets, there was not a single traffic mishap in the city during the two-day celebration.

Local Polio Chapter Asked To Turn In All Surplus Funds To National Group

Officials of the Artesia chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today received a call from the National Foundation headquarters in New York to "turn in all surplus funds so that the nation's polio program may survive."

A similar call went to all 3,100 of the Foundation's local chapters, made necessary by the fact that the $2½ million dollars contributed in the 1955 March of Dimes falls short by 12 millions of meeting the need.

A. J. Losee, Artesia attorney and chairman of the local chapter, said:

"A conference of the board of directors of the chapter will be held and the situation studied. Until the matter can be talked over with the directors—Mrs. Charles E. Currier and George Ferriman—no decision can be reached, naturally."

The last March of Dimes here was the most successful in Artesia's history, with approximately $10,600 raised. How much of that amount will remain after the local polio requirements are met has not been announced.

The national foundation appeal was made by its president, Basil O'Connor.

"With all the sincerity of purpose at my command," O'Connor said in his appeal to chapter chairmen, "I call upon our chapters with surplus funds to respond willingly and immediately to our desperate need."

A large part of the shortage faced by the Foundation remains, O'Connor said, even in face of a $3,000,000 reduction in the cost of the Salk vaccine following Dr. Jonas Salk's recommendation that first and second grade school children be given two shots now instead of three.

O'Connor said the National Foundation was asking chapters for 50 per cent of their surpluses now, with the rest to be turned in later should circumstances warrant it.

U.S. Ambassador, Son Are Killed In Asiatic Crash

BANGKOK, Thailand, (AP)—American Ambassador John E. Peurifoy and his 9-year-old son, Daniel, were killed instantly today when the ambassador's Ford Thunderbird collided head-on with a truck on a narrow bridge 125 miles south of Bangkok.

Peurifoy's elder son Clinton, 14, was critically injured.

The accident occurred near the beach resort of Hau Hin, on the Gulf of Siam.

The tall, handsome ambassador, who celebrated his 48th birthday Tuesday, came to Thailand last November after brilliant service in Greece and Guatemala. A career diplomat, he began his government service in 1935 as a $90-a-month elevator operator in the Senate office building in Washington.

He had arrived in the resort yesterday with his wife, Betty Jane and their two sons for a 10-day holiday.

Socorro Flooded As Dikes Crumble

Says Solons Sold Out to Utility Firms

By The Associated Press

Gangling Ingram Pickett, flailing away on all fronts against proposed constitutional amendment No. 6, has requested clarification on the issue and challenged Gov. John Simms to debate it with him.

Pickett, in a Carlsbad debate last night with State Sen. Gene Lusk who sponsored the measure, declared amendment No. 6 "stinks as bad as the Dixon-Yates bill." He asserted the last two state Legislatures have been "owned body and soul by the public utilities."

Combine Agencies

The amendment, which would combine the Public Service and Corporation Commissions, would also require that any member would have to resign to run for political office. Pickett, a member of the Corporation Commission, reportedly has aspirations to the governor's chair.

Pickett asked Legislative Council Director Jack Holmes to clarify three questions Pickett says have been raised concerning the pro-

Cut in Industry Tax Aids Lauded By O'Mahoney

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) said today the Eisenhower administration "should be congratulated" for moving to curtail tax benefits which have helped industry expand in the past five years.

Director Arthur S. Fleming of the Office of Defense Mobilization announced late yesterday new orders which may lead to a sharp tapering off in the kind of tax incentives which have been granted for some 30½ billion dollars worth of plant and equipment expansion held to be essential to national security.

The action came after a series of other orders aimed at tightening up the supply of credit.

14,000 Forced From Homes By Wild Storm

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hurricane Connie, losing some of its punch but still a menace, raked northward along the North Carolina coast today with 75-mile winds and destructive, pounding high tides.

The Weather Bureau here said the whirling tropical storm, on an erratic course, bore inland at 9 a.m. near the resort and fishing town of Morehead City, N. C. Two hours later it was 90 miles west of Cape Hatteras, N. C., lashing small fishing villages along the Carolina Capes and the mainland along Pamlico Sound.

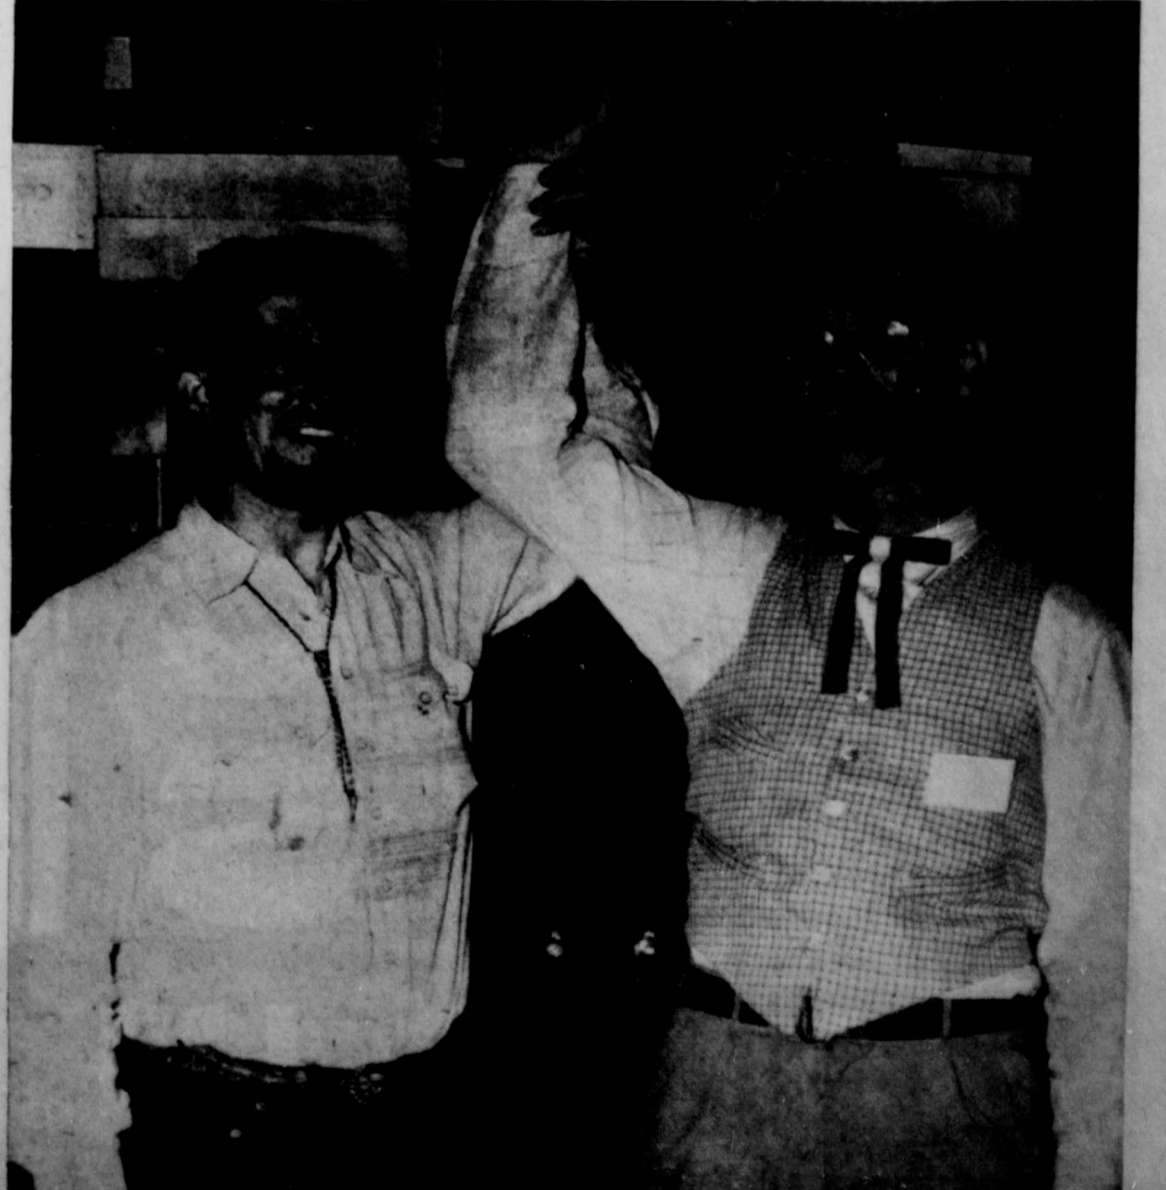

Cherry Point, N. C., just north of Morehead City and the site of a giant Marine base, reported top wind gusts of 75 miles an hour, reduced from the 100-mile wallop packed around the hurricane center as it approached the shore.

An 11 a.m. advisory said hurricane force winds extended outward only 50 miles east of the center and a shorter distance in other directions. Gales swirled out 250 miles to the northeast and 150

Candlelight Rites Join Sally Sears, Harold R. Seeber

The Episcopal marriage ceremony was read at 7:30 last night by the Rev. Milton Rohane for the candlelight wedding of Miss Elizabeth Ann (Sally) Sears and Harold Richard Seeber in the First Presbyterian Church here.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sears of Artesia and the groom is the son of S. H. Seeber of Moline, Ill. Rehearsal dinner was given to the bridal party Wednesday night by Mrs. Marion Welch and Mrs. T. E. Vandiver, matron of honor and sister of the bride, at the home of Mrs. Welch.

The church was decorated with branch candlelamps lighted with crystal lights in the sanctuary, with banks of white mums and accent of shell pink pom mums and palms at the altar. The altar was centered with white prie-dieu and white satin cushions. The bridal aisle was packed with palm leaves, nosegays of white mums and foliage.

Mrs. T. E. Vandiver, of Artesia, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Evans, Troup, Tex., Miss Celeste Bradshaw, Artesia and Mrs. Travers Waltrip, Las Cruces. Flower girls were nieces of the bride, Susan and Karen Vandiver.

William Seeber, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's attendants were identically attired in gowns. This was fashioned with a wide oval decollete neckline and was banded with a flat bertha effect of imported chantilly lace, veiling the bodice, re-embroidered with tiny seed pearls and sequins. The long fitted sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands. The moulded bodice buttoned down the back with self covered buttons into the deep V waistline, marked by a narrow hand-rolled cord. The extremely bouffant gathered skirt swept to a wide fan shape train.

Her veil of imported white french silk linteau extended in misty tiers to fingertip length from a pointed lace calot re-embroidered with sequins and tiny seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of modern colonial design of white roses and stephanotis with accent of pale pink demur roses and white tulle. Her Episcopalian prayer book was attached to the bouquet.

The bride's attendants were identically attired in gowns of camellia pink taffeta fashioned with a wide oval neckline, and brief shirred sleeves. The moulded empire bodice was accented by the very full gathered waltz length skirts. They wore matching shoes.

They carried identical bouquets in modern colonial design of pink perfection carnations with accents of ruby-colored sweetheart roses.

The flower girls wore white taffeta, with pale pink velvet sashes and pink rosebud bandos on their heads. In their hands the little girls carried basket-filled flowers.

The mother of the bride wore an ivory lace dress and matching hat and shoes. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of rubrum lillies.

At a reception in the Sears home following the wedding the bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake and the table was trimmed with white tulle and rosebuds, simalax and candlesticks. Candies in the shape of ladies slippers added to the dainty touch of the pink and white decor.

Punch was served to about 200 guests in the patio. For her honeymoon the bride wore a brown costume with black accessories. The couple left last night for their home in Detroit, Ill.

They will be entertained at a reception in the home of the groom's father, Harold Seeber, in Moline, Ill., on Sunday, August 21.

International Baptist Missions Team Will Be At First Baptist Church This Coming Sunday

The Wayland College World Missions team from Plainview, Texas, will be at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, Aug. 14, at the morning worship service, 10:50 a. m. and will present a missions program in testimony and song.

Members of the team are from four different mission areas, Norman Blake, team leader, lives in Colorado Spring, Colo., in the Western missions territory. The other three are Hiroko Maeda, Honolulu, Hawaii; Maida Esmerian, Corinth, Greece and Samuel Hernandez, Monterrey, Mexico.

Each has a thrilling Christian experience to tell of Southern Baptist mission work in his or her homeland and of coming to Wayland college to study.

Blake is a ministerial student and a mission volunteer. He will serve in 1955-56 as president of the Wayland college Baptist student union. His special interest the past two years has been centered in the Volunteer Mission Band which gives weekly programs in a 200-mile radius of the campus. He is also a member of the Senate of the Student Government association and works in the Wayland college print shop.

Miss Maeda is a senior at Wayland, where she has been a soloist with the colorful International A Cappella choir for the past four years. She was born in Hawaii of Japanese parents who were Buddhists and was converted to Christianity when she was nine through attendance at vacation Bible school. She plans to return to Hawaii as a teacher of music and choir director of a Baptist church.

She has been a member of State Baptist Student Union and as a member of a travel unit of the Wayland choir went to Brazil on a 45-day missionary journey in the summer of 1953. The group was featured at the Baptist World Youth conference in Rio de Janeiro. Last summer she was fortunate enough to give the trip back to Hawaii work in camps and her church.

Miss Esmerian's testimony one long to be remembered. Christianity has been lived in circumstances from which she protected. When only 14 years and without the knowledge of parents, Maida began espousing for her country and its allies, six months preceding the arm of the American forces in Greece and Great Britain for extraordinary service and has commendation from the United States military. Miss Esmerian learned of Wayland college through serving as an interpreter and guide for a group of tourists, one of whom is a brother of Wayland and who helped possible a scholarship for her. She, too, is a soloist with the Wayland International A Cappella choir.

He is the son of the pastor of the First Baptist church of Monterrey, Mexico and was studying music at the University of Guadalajara under the director of Wayland college. He has also been featured at Gloria Baptist assembly and various camps and assemblies throughout the Southern states.

Personal Mention

Relatives here to attend funeral services of George A. Parham were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson and son Pat and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Pitcock all of Aspermont, Texas. Mrs. Anderson is the daughter of Parham and Mrs. Pitcock a granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Boggs spent several days at Truth or Consequences and then went to Hobbs to visit their son, M. and Mrs. James Boggs and family, also visited relatives in Texas.

Mrs. Nora Clayton Here 55 Years

One of the more interesting stories of pioneer days is that of Mrs. Nora B. Clayton who has lived in the Pecos Valley for 55 years.

She came with her father, brother and three sisters from Cherokee, Llano County, Texas in the spring of 1800. The motherless family made the long trip by hack and in a wagon. Her father was M. M. Cavness, and the family settled in Roswell.

Nora Cavness became the bride of Joe A. Clayton on Jan. 1, 1902. The ceremony was held in the Methodist Church in Roswell. The bridegroom was the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clayton. The father was a farmer then but he was to play a big part in Artesia history.

Nora's brother married in Artesia. The three sisters then went to their father who had gone to make a home for his family in Arizona.

The 1954 Texas wool clip is estimated at 44,220,000 pounds worth 26 million dollars.

Beef, Frying Chickens Best Weekend Values of Shoppers

By The Associated Press

Beef and frying chickens will offer good value for shoppers in the nation's food stores this weekend.

Once again, chuck roast will be prominently featured. It's a cut that most meat specialists consider particularly attractive for housewives with an eye on economy.

Prime ribs will be another popular special for Sunday dinner. And here and there, stores will offer lower prices on round roast, crossrib roast and ground beef.

Frying chickens, not widely featured in recent weeks will be back in the spotlight again. Quite a few markets will have turkeys at reasonable prices, too.

Lamb Is Good

Leg of lamb, lamb shoulder, roast and pork loins are among other meats mentioned as specials by a number of markets. By and large prices are around week-ago levels.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture takes an optimistic view

Potatoes Up

Potatoes went up a bit this week but still rate among the outstanding buys, along with onions, nearly by tomatoes, eggplant and bunched and topped beets. The list of good vegetable buys includes cabbage, peppers, beans, Western and nearby celery, cauliflower, cucumbers, iceberg lettuce and bunched and topped carrots.

Corn prices are irregular, a reflection of the wide range in quality. Spinach, squash and sweet potatoes were moderately priced.

The price of peaches is somewhat lower and fruit specialists think it should come down further. Canteloupes and honeydew melons are attractively priced.

There were ample supplies of watermelons and fruit men recommended buying them. Limes, oranges and grapefruit are reasonable.

Mexers Wait For 11th Inning To Trounce Midland 5-3

Three Bagger Starts Final 2-Run Rally

MIDLAND, Aug. 11. — The Artesia Mexers scored two runs in the top of the 11th inning here last night on a walk, triple and long hit to center field to take the first two-game series from the Midland Indians, 5-3.

Catcher Bob Boyd opened the night with a walk and scored on Dan Locke's triple to center field. Locke came home on Dan Boyd's fly-out to center field.

Starting hurlers, Glenn Seibo and Harry Young both went the distance. Young notched his 17th win against 8 losses, and Seibo suffered his second defeat against the Indians.

The tribe took the lead in the top of the 11th on a pair of singles by Dan Burns. Once on, Diaz stole home and raced home on Burns' single to left.

Seibo opened the second with a walk, moved to second on Williams' sacrifice, and scored on Huijiga's single to left.

The last Indian tally came in the third on three walks and a hit by Burns. Burns and Briner drew the walk, and Young hit Jimmie to lead the bases. Young then hit Burns as he issued a walk to Seibo.

Artesia broke the ice in the top of the 11th on a two-run rally over the left field fence. Burns scored ahead of him after Seibo's first on an error.

World's Fastest Milers to Race For New Record

LONDON (AP)—Four of the world's fastest milers clash tonight in a race that could produce a new record or perhaps be just another mile.

The occasion is the Hungary-Britain track and field meet.

Here are the four starters in the mile:

Chris Chataway of Britain, world three-mile record breaker and a 3:59.8 miler.

Ken Wood of Britain, a 4:01.6 miler who broke the world two-mile mark by six seconds here May 30 but finished second to Hungary's Sandor Iharos, holder of international standards for two miles, 3,000 meters and 5,000 meters.

Laszlo Tabori of Hungary, who was clocked in 3:59 in a recent ace in London in which the first three runners beat four minutes. Chataway was second and Brian Hewson of Britain third, both in 3:59.8 miler.

College Team Is Dark Horse For All Star

By JAMES DAILEY

CHICAGO (AP)—Tonight's the night a bunch of college boys try to beat the football pros at their own game.

The College All-Stars, made up of 49 of the top players of the 1954 college season, tackle the Cleveland Browns in the Chicago Tribune Charities' 22nd annual All-Star game.

The contest starting at 8:30 p. m. EST at Soldier Field will be televised over the ABC network and broadcast over the Mutual radio hookup.

The game will be played under the professional rules allowing free substitutions. Last year the All-Stars were defeated by the Detroit Lions, 31-6, playing under their own limited substitution rules.

But the main difference from previous All-Star contests is that the current All-Stars have been coached in the wide-open, passing, pro style of play by four experts in the field. In other years this chore was performed by a staff of college coaches.

The current staff is led by Curly Lambeau of Green Bay Packer fame, assisted by Hank Anderson, Steve Owen and Hamp Pool, all veterans of the pro football wars.

They have hand-picked their own squad, and the word is out that they have whipped it into a formidable aggregation for the tight against the National Football League champions.

The college squad is shot through with talent—quarterbacks Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame, Paul Larson of California, George Shaw of Oregon and Dave Leggett of Ohio State; ball-carriers Alan Ameche of Wisconsin, Bobby Watkins of Ohio State and Dick Bickel of Maryland; and linemen Max Boydston of Oklahoma, Dick Szymanski of Notre Dame and Bud Brooks of Arkansas.

Cleveland, however, remains a two-touchdown favorite, despite the loss of their great quarterback, Otto Graham, who retired at the end of last season.

North's Coaches Try to Bolster Team's Offense

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Continued efforts to bolster the North's offense featured last-minute drills today as teams prepared for the North-South All-Star football game at Zimmerman Field tomorrow night.

North Coach Chalmer Woody Woodard of SMU pins his hopes for an upset victory on the passing of Lionel Romero and the running of Highland's touchdown twins, Dewey Bohling and Anthony Gray.

Woodard decided to start Bohling at right half a big chance for the Hornet speedster who played at fullback during his high school career.

Pros Bunched in Struggle For Tam O'Shanter Riches

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—The rush to stake out claims on Tam O'Shanter's golf gold had reached Yukon proportions today as 27 pros, separated by only four strokes, tried to keep to the front in the "World" money stampede.

Three comparative youngsters defied the "shakes" to roll into the first-round lead yesterday in an opening bombardment of par 72.

Bob Rosburg, 28, who grips a club like a baseball bat and swings for home runs; Mike Krak, 27, Czechoslovakian-born novice on the PGA tourney circuit, and Gene Littler, 25, fourth-leading money winner, each ripped a 66 from Tam's lush 6,900-yard course to share the first-round lead.

But there were others still strongly on the scent of a treasure that goes to the 72-hole winner—$50,000 in cash, $55,000 for 55 exhibitions, $1,000 in caddy fees, and an option on 50 more exhibitions at $1,000 each.

One stroke away at 67, were two seasoned cash seekers, Fred Hawkins and Bob Winingler.

At 68 were Antonio Cerda, the gay gaucho from Buenos Aires; Henry Ransom, and longshot Jay Hebert.

Crammed in at 69 were Paul O'Leary, U. S. Open champion Jack Fleck, Gardner Dickinson, Wally Ulrich, British Open champion Peter Thomson, Ernie Ball, Shelley Mayfield and Walker Inman.

The group of 11 at 70 included such veterans as Dutch Harrison, Jackie Burke, Jim Ferrier, Julius Borkis, and Frank Stranahan.

Par Takes Beating
In all, 41 in a field of 105 matched or shattered par in the first round to give the Tam O'Shanter acreage one of its worst beatings.

As the treasure hunt entered the second round, probably most attention was centered on the pudgy, bespectacled Rosburg, whose home-made swing has carved $15,000 from the tourney trail this year—more than enough to feed his wife and three kids.

Bob once played second base on the Stanford nine. He holds a golf club the same way he gripped it when his father put one in his hands at the age of two. At seven he scored a hole-in-one and at 17 he won the Northern California Junior crown.

Right At Home
"I felt I was too slow to be real good in baseball, although several scouts had their eyes on me," he says. "As for golf, I feel right at home with a club in my hands, no matter how I hold it or how I swing it. The real artistry of golf is in those short chip shots and putts."

Other divisional leaders in the "World" tourney were: Women pros $12,000 in prize money—Patty Berg and Fay Crocker, each with 5-under-par 71s. Women Amateurs—Gloria Fucht, Inglewood, Calif., 76, and Ruth Jensen, Seattle, 77.

Men Amateurs—Doug Sanders, Cedartown, Ga., 67.

Now Is Right Time to Prepare For Rugged Country Elk Hunts

Elk hunts in rugged country at high altitudes require preparation and now is the time to get ready. You will want proper shelter and bedding equipment; comfortable boots and extra socks; warm trousers, shirt and jacket; and plenty of substantial food.

Your equipment, in addition to a good rifle and ammunition, will include a small first-aid kit, flash light, candle, compass, and a chart of the area in which you plan to hunt. For use after you have your game meat is on the top or on the trunk of your car, so that it can get proper ventilation for further cooling. Take it immediately to your butcher or locker plant for processing, and put it in a freezer storage box immediately thereafter.

Every good sportsman is also a good conservationist. He "harvests the crop" for use as well as for recreation. He, therefore, takes every precaution against spoilage of meat. He is interested in the conservation of his own strength and in keeping fit for the job he has undertaken. Lastly and most important, he is constantly aware that a movement in the brush may be caused by another hunter. Better never to take one's game than to endanger the life of a human being.

Be sure it's legal game before you shoot!

STATE TOURNEYS SET
ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—The second annual New Mexico Amateur Golf Assn. Pro-Am and Open Tournaments will be held in Albuquerque, Sept. 25-26. J. Delamater, association president, said the pro-am tourney will be the first day and the open on both days.

About 15,000 American tourists visited Berlin last year.

Ted Williams Gets 2,000th Hit in Majors

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—"Wow, what a smash that was. The cheapest hit I've made all year!"

That was Ted Williams' reaction to his 2,000th major league hit yesterday when he realized the first of his three remaining goals before he lays his bat away for good.

As can be surmised, the Boston Red Sox slugger wasn't overly proud of the safety that placed him in the exclusive 2,000-hit club. There are 96 other members of club, tree of them active.

The hit, a first-inning single off Bob Turley of the New York Yankees, was a high fly that fell un-touched in short left center. Shortstop Phil Rizzuto, left fielder Elston Howard and center fielder Mickey Mantle all converged on it but failed to reach it.

Williams got his 2,001st hit in the fifth inning. He undoubtedly would like to exchange it for the first-inning "bleeder." This one was a ground-rule double into the right field stands.

Despite Williams' two hits, the Yankees overcame the Red Sox 5-3 to capture the rubber of the three game set and send the visitors back to Boston in fourth place.

There are two more things Ted now wants more than anything else. He wants to play in another World Series, preferably this October, and he wants to join the 400-homer group. With 385 in the bag, he still needs 15 to join Babe Ruth, Jimmy Foxx, Mel Ott and Lou Gehrig, only players to hit 400 or more home runs.

Top Three Again Scrapping For American League Lead

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

The American League race had its old look today, with Cleveland, Chicago and New York scrapping for the pennant while Boston and Detroit, who gave it a nice try, slipped into the background.

And if Al Lopez and Casey Stengel finally have things going for them again, as it appears, Chicago may not be long for this world either.

The Indians held their two-point spread by whipping Detroit, 3-2, yesterday while second place Chicago pounded Kansas City, 14-1, and third place New York, another three points behind, disposed of Boston, 5-3.

Tumbled Behind
By dropping the three-game set at Yankee Stadium, 2-1, the Red Sox tumbled three games behind. The Tigers, shut out in three at Cleveland, skidded eight games back.

It was the method of operation that held the secret for the Tribe and the Yankees.

Manager Lopez, who got a pinch-hitter from Hoot Evers when he replaced the injured Larry Doby Wednesday night, started him against the Tigers yesterday and he ex-Detroit hopy smacked a three-run homer off Billy Hoelt in the sixth. That made it the second straight come-from-behind morale booster for Lopez' Injuns.

Touched for Singles
Early Wynn won his 14th of the season, though touched for three straight singles by Harvey Kuenn, Bill Tuttle and Al Kaline that meant a run in the third. It was the 35-year-old righthander's 198th major league success. Only Bob Feller, with 265, has more among the active hurlers.

Stengel had himself his first series victory since July 1-3. Of Case juggled the batting order, one of his better accomplishments, and came up with a bunch who swatted on cue and rapped three extra base blows—two of them triples. It was all over in two frames as the Yanks went off to a 4-0 lead against rookie Frank Baumann, a gambling starting choice by Bosox boss Pinky Higgins.

Bob Turley won his 13th, but not without trouble. He left in the ninth when Billy Klaus opened with a double and Stengel pulled his ace in the hole.

Surprise Stopper
Southpaw Tommy Byrne, Casey's surprise stopper this season but "overlooked" as a starter in the series, ambled out for what was only his third relief bit. First, he knocked off Ted Williams who earlier finally got his 2,000th hit on a ground ball. Next, he got Jackie Jensen on a sacrifice fly that scored Klaus.

And then he sent a called third strike past Norm Zaechin. The White Sox won without much shenanigans. They broke out for

SKUNK KILLS FISH
SANTA FE (AP)—A nosy skunk was responsible for the loss of a number of fledgling fish at Red River fish hatchery. The skunk crawled into one of the upright, 24-inch pipes placed over inflow valves to the fish ponds. It got stuck and in its struggles turned the valve wheel enough to shut off water, killing the fish. Hatchery attendants captured the intruder.

RAMS SIGN KICKER
REDLANDS, Calif. (AP)—Ted Weed, former Ohio State University place kicking specialist, has been signed by the Los Angeles Rams and will report Saturday.

SCOTT FROST WINS
DETROIT (AP)—Hambletonian winner Scott Frost won the $10,000 Victory Song Harness Stake at Colmar Raceway last night in 2:03.3-5.

It Should Show Increase

THROUGH the years as the State of New Mexico grows and expands with new industries and business; new citizens; and new military installations we should be increasing the amount of taxes, which we are paying into the state.

Either our taxes increase or the job of collecting them is not being done just as long as we continue to grow.

That has been true now for a good many years. One Democratic administration has been able to collect more taxes than the Democratic administration before it. Likewise the Republican administration was able to collect more taxes because there were more taxes to be paid.

Now the present Democratic administration is showing an increase in the amount of taxes that are being collected.

That is only as it should be. We know there have been instances where an administration has clamped down a little harder on certain individuals than another has.

We know of one particular instance where the Republican administration collected a large sum in sales tax from a firm operating in the state because that firm had not paid in its sales taxes for four or five years. The former administration should have done this job but it was not done for political reasons.

There were probably others over the state who also had gotten by without paying their sales taxes. There are doubtless those who have not paid their taxes.

Taxpayers over the state are more interested in the taxes being collected and more interested in the proper spending of this money than they are in the political party doing the job.

They naturally are interested if they are paying in their taxes in knowing others are doing exactly the same thing. They have a right to expect others to pay their taxes and if they don't for the state to collect these taxes.

But as far as the increase in collections is concerned, taxpayers expect as long as the state is growing; as long as retail sales are increasing; as long as there are more automobiles visiting or crossing our state and as long as our population is increasing to enjoy increases in tax collections.

They expect this to occur whether the Democrats or the Republicans are in charge of the collections.

Soldiers Probe For Bodies of Air Victims

GROEMBACH, Germany (AP) — American soldiers worked by flashlight through the night collecting scattered, smoldering wreckage from two U. S. transport planes in which 66 servicemen perished yesterday.

The two C-119 Flying Boxcars transports collided during an air transport exercise and plunged flaming to earth near this village 20 miles west of Stuttgart.

No Survivors
There were no survivors of the 11 U. S. airmen of the 10th Troop Carrier Squadron and 55 soldiers of the 499th Engineer Battalion who went down in the two planes.

Early today eight charred corpses had been recovered. There appeared little hope any more recognizable remains would be salvaged.

The planes, in a flight of nine, had taken off from the U. S. airfield at Echterdingen and were only 4,000 feet up when they brushed and hurtled earthward. None of the men had a chance to use their parachutes. They carried full equipment for the flight, which was part of a training program in air movement under simulated combat conditions.

Clipped Trail
Witnesses said one craft had engine trouble and wavered in the formation. It apparently clipped off the tail plane of its neighbor before diving into the tall pines of the Black Forest below.

The second plane held course for a minute, then also spun out of control and plunged into a corn field.

The commanding officer of the engineer battalion, Lt. Col. Frank Little, Central City, Neb., died in the crash.

Names of the other victims were withheld.

One of the first American officers to reach the lonely crash site said: "There wasn't time for them to know what was happening. They must have died instantly."

An investigation was begun.

supplying four tons of barbecued meal each day to the visiting Indians. They get, free, hay for their horses, wood for their campfires, one big meal a day and the right to set up camp in any available space and sell their tribal wares.

The association official said exhibits in the big hall set aside for tribal crafts "are more profuse than in any former years." In addition, he said, a room has been set aside in the hall this year as a museum so the Indians can safely display treasured jewelry and other handiwork kept in their families for generations.

The advisory said continued northward movement is expected at about 12 miles per hour, and the storm can be expected to weaken gradually after another six hours.

Red and Black hurricane warning flags flapped along hundreds of miles of coastline from Myrtle Beach, S. C., to the Delaware Breakwater and northeast storm warnings extended to Provincetown, Mass.

Connie's little sister, Diane, reached full hurricane force with 80 to 90-mile winds about 1,150 miles due east of Miami. She was moving northwest or north-northwest at about 11 miles per hour.

Threat Wanes
In Miami, Chief Forecaster Gordon Dunn said any threat to the mainland southeast coast from Diane appeared to have ended. But he said it remained to be seen whether this fourth tropical storm of the year would pose a threat to the northeast.

Already, Connie was leaving a path of destruction in its wake. Almost the entire Middle Atlantic and Northeast Coast was on the alert.

The Weather Bureau said continued northward movement for the next 12 hours would place the hurricane in southeastern Virginia about midnight.

Red Cross headquarters here said more than 14,000 persons were forced from their homes or vacation resorts last night by Connie's dangerous winds and pounding tides. They took refuge in 79 emergency shelters along the Carolina coast — converted schools, churches and other safe inland buildings.

Piers Smashed
Along the southern North Carolina coast, first to feel the fury of the tempest, towering waves smashed fishing piers, waterfront cottages, boardwalks, amusement centers, and washed out roads and bridges.

But the damage so far appeared less than the devastation left by Hurricane Hazel last October. Many of the destroyed or damaged structures had only recently been rebuilt. Wrightsville, Carolina and Kure beaches near Wilmington, N. C., were the first to be hard hit.

Further northeast, in New Bern, N. C., it was a common sight to see parents standing in shoulder deep water, handing children over their heads to National Guard rescue forces. More than 2,000 persons were evacuated from waterfront homes. Thousands of residents fled toward Kinston on the only highway left open.

Radio Links Set
National Civil Air Patrol headquarters here said 50 mobile radio cars had been moved into Wilmington and New Bern, teaming up with amateur radio operators to provide contact between the storm battered cities and the outside world.

BAPTISTS MEET
GLORIETA, N. M., (AP) — More than 750 persons have registered for a one-week home mission conference of the Southern Baptist's Home Mission Board. The conference opened last night. The girls received blue ribbons in the board supervises work of a thousand missionaries in 38 states, Alaska, Cuba and the Panama Canal Zone.

FORCED OFF ROAD
Jimmy Admire, of Lake Arthur, notified police today that a reckless speeder forced Admire's car off the road north of Lake Arthur early yesterday. The speeder side-swiped his auto and scraped paint off the fender and door, the report said.

Holmes recently wrote a round-up for the Associated Press explaining six amendments to be voted on by New Mexico residents Sept. 20. Pickett asked Holmes:

"Will you quote to me in Senate Bills 253 and 254 where any suspension authority is provided for in the suspension of new rates when rate revisions are requested by utilities?"

Not Needed
Holmes answered that it is not necessary for the two bills to make a specific reference to suspension of rates since neither statute repeals or amends the section conferring the power to suspend rates which he quoted in his article.

"The power to suspend rates," Holmes said, "along with other powers of the Public Service Commission, is transferred to the new Corporation Commission established if the voters approve it by amending Article 6."

Holmes answered Pickett's question about how many states use the word "selected" in state constitutions in designating the method of choosing public utility commissioners this way:

"Constitutional provisions of eight states require the public election of some form of public utility..." He said the majority of states have constitutions which either are silent or provide that the Legislature provide for utility regulation. In 28 states, he said, legislatures have created regulatory bodies and provided government.

Pickett also asked for the states in which legislative power is delegated over utility commissioners by statute rather than by a constitution, and Holmes answered:

Mobile power generators were moved into the area to replace conventional power facilities knocked out by the storm. Two such units provided the only power for two hospitals in Washington, N. C.

As the hurricane bore down on beaches, small towns and resorts along capes and sounds on the upper North Carolina coast, the Weather Bureau warned of severe high tides around Norfolk, Va., next large city in the storm's path.

At least five deaths were attributed to the storm in the New York area.

The Carolina coast was pounded steadily from late yesterday afternoon and all through the night, with tides surging eight feet above normal at some points. The Weather Bureau said similar dangerous tides could be expected north of the storm as it plows relentlessly on.

No casualties were reported in northern South Carolina and southern North Carolina and the threat to those areas diminished.

HILL FUNDS BARRED

SANTA FE, (AP)—An attorney general's opinion has held that Los Alamos, while enjoying some municipal privileges, cannot participate in distribution of motor vehicle fees. It is the opinion of this office that only incorporated municipalities can share in the 10 per cent fund," the opinion said.

"Since Los Alamos is a county, it should not share in the funds."

was no mass reunion here with their families. The men said they preferred it that way.

Dr. Robert D. Arnold, Sunnyvale, Calif., was the only relative on hand. He was here to meet his brother, Col. John Knox Arnold.

Col. Arnold's sister-in-law, her face streaked with tears of joy, covered Arnold's gaunt face with lipstick.

Center of attention by the crowd was Airman Daniel Schmidt of Portland, Ore., whose wife remarried while he was gone because she said, she believed Schmidt was dead.

Schmidt spoke freely to the newsmen but whenever he was asked about his tangled marital affairs he replied firmly, "I won't discuss that now."

Maj. Williams McGinty of Air Force headquarters in Washington, D. C., traveled home with Schmidt. He said, "Schmidt handled himself beautifully all the way. He is being wonderful about this. He is terrible glad to be home and all the way over he didn't once discuss his family life with any of the other men."

Pros Sharpen College Men For All Star

By JAMES DAILEY
CHICAGO. —The Cleveland Browns are two touch-down favorites to take the College All-Stars in their big battle at Soldier Field tomorrow night, but it may not be that easy.

After four years of famine—the last collegiate victory was the 17-7 defeat of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1950—promoters of the game, Chicago Tribune Charities, have introduced a streamlined all-star organization in an effort to turn the tide.

The new policy, announced last year after the all-stars' 31-6 defeat by Detroit, finds a hard-bitten crew of old pros led by Curly Lambeau of Green Bay Packer fame calling the shots instead of college coaches, as in former years.

Sanders Favored For Wingback on South Grid Team

ALBUQUERQUE. —The Rebels once again emerging as the favorites for the annual high school North-South football game, are beginning to shape up what may be their starting lineup for the Saturday classic.

After yesterday's highly successful scrimmage, the first of the one week practice session for the crew, Coach Phil Dickens has just about decided on the starters for the game.

He showed heavy preference to the backfield combination of Dave Sherer of Carlsbad at blocking back, Mill Barron of Clovis at fullback, Fred Sanders of Artesia at wingback and either John Riddle of Artesia or Sherman Pruitt of Roswell at tailback.

New Army Rifle System Under Test Has Long Line of Fighting Ancestors

WASHINGTON.—Testing of a new lightweight rifle system designed to replace the Army's four present shoulder-fired weapons is underway at 14 different Army installations.

The new system consists of one rifle made in two variants. One is a light barrel rifle as a replacement for the M-1 carbine and sub-machine gun. The other is the same rifle with a heavier barrel to replace the Browning Automatic Rifle (BAR).

The system under test, one of several developed by the Army since World War II, is another step in the improvement of the shoulder flintlock musket gradually became the weapon of common usage for warfare and hunting.

About mid-way in the 18th century, frontiersmen began doing some shooting regarded as remarkable with their "Kentucky" rifles. For the first time in the history of firearms, a weapon deadlier than the bow and arrow was available, a weapon which could hit a turkey or a man at 200-300 yards with reasonable accuracy.

The wife was responsible in part for shortening the Revolutionary War.

Shortly after 1800, the United States manufactured its first rifle at the Harper's Ferry Amory in Virginia (now W. Virginia). Such rifles as could be obtained before this came from small, local gun-makers who all had one thing in common—extremely limited capacity to produce the hand-made weapons.

Manufacture of the old-style muzzle-loading, smooth-bore muskets continued at both the Harper's Ferry Amory and the Springfield Amory in Massachusetts until the Civil War. The Harper's Ferry Amory was taken over in April, 1861, by the Confederates, who removed all machinery and equipment, two months later.

The end of the Civil War was also the end of the smoothbore muzzleloader as far as the U. S. Army was concerned. From 1865 single-shot breech-loading rifles—many converted from smooth-bore by insertion of a rifled sleeve or a new rifled barrel—were furnished.

Then in 1892, the revolutionary Krag-Jorgensen rifle, the first small caliber magazine rifle, was adopted as an official Army weapon. It fired a high-powered .30 caliber shell using smokeless powder in contrast to the .45 caliber black-powder cartridges formerly used.

More than 10 years later, a rifle which was to serve the Army well until the early days of World War II was adopted as standard for the infantry soldier. This was the famous United States magazine rifle, model 1903, better known as the "Springfield," for the armory which developed it. Refinements of this weapon were standard equipment until the adoption of the Springfield Amory in Massachusetts until the Civil War. The Harper's Ferry Amory was taken over in April, 1861, by the Confederates, who removed all mach-its value during the fighting in both European and Pacific theaters during the war years.

The 7900-acre Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio, has more than 1000 buildings.

OUR DAILY BREAD

Bread is for the body—but there is also bread for the mind and the soul. How wise are families who make their breakfast a spiritual meal as well as material. The old custom of devotion at the breakfast table is returning. Surely, we shall be a better people for it. Tempers will be better disciplined, delinquency not so universally rampant, and we shall get on together better when we begin the day as God's children. This lost art of Bible reading at breakfast must be found again. What better use of a few minutes in the morning than to spend them listening to the words of prophets and sages and apostles? Why not choose a good meal for the soul even as we prepare food for the body? Keep your spiritual health. Attend church. Be strong in the Lord. "Man does not live by bread alone." Then start your day with Bible reading at breakfast.
