Former Archer City Peace Officer Is Indicted In Killing of Sheriff Ikard

Second Man Must Face Trial for Killing Of Officer

ARCHER CITY, Nov. 13. A second man must face trial for the shooting Sept. 22 of Sheriff Harrison Ikard of Archer county, it was learned Friday when the grand jury of the 30th district court here returned two indictments against Bob Barnett, former peace officer of Archer City and Megargel. One indictment alleges murder, while the second charges theft and receiving and concealing stolen property.

Red Furl, one of three alleged thieves and gunmen who were in a pasture near Megargel late on the night of the shooting, is already under indictment. Incidentally, an indictment was returned against him Friday charging theft and receiving and concealing stolen property. Furl's two companions were killed in the exchange of shots between the three and Sheriff Ikard and Deputy Munford. Furl and Munford were not scratched but the sheriff and two of the opposing party went to instant death.

Indictments a Surprise.

Barnett's indictment for murder came as something of a surprise here but District Attorney Ben Allred said after adjournment of the grand jury that he had evidence tending to prove Barnett was the head of a theft gang that has been operating in this section for some time. The district attorney charged that Barnett had furnished Furl and his two ill-fated companions with the guns they used in the shooting; and that he had engineered the big tobacco theft from the Radford Grocery company warehouse in Graham, Sept. 20. Over $1,500 worth of cigaretts were stolen at that time and were taken to the pasture near Megargel where they cached them.

It was while Furl and his two companions were at the cache and seeking to remove some of the stolen loot they were surprised by Ikard and Munford. The fatal gun battle then followed.

Arrested in Megargel.

Although he was not at the scene of the killing on the night of the tragedy, Barnett was arrested the day afterward in Megargel. He was held for a short time and then released, but subsequent investigations by peace officers resulted in the matter being laid before the grand jury which returned the indictment. Barnett was immediately re-arrested and was in the Archer county jail here tonight. No attempt has been made to secure bond for him.

Barnett was a deputy sheriff under Sheriff Ed Goodwin some two years ago and later was constable at Megargel.

41,000 JOIN W. C. T. U.

S'WEST TURNS TO AGGIE-RICE ANNUAL SCRAP

Texas Favored to Wallop Arizona in Sectional Strife

BULLDOG BEATS TIGER

Dartmouth Rated Margin In Tiff at Chicago With Maroon

All Southwestern conference teams were arraying their forces last night for gridiron combat this afternoon in four Texas cities. Conference interest, however, is divided between three games with the Rice-Texas Aggie embroglio at Houston drawing the greatest attention. T. C. U. clashes with Arkansas at Fort Worth. Baylor hooks up with S. M. U. at Dallas. The remaining conference eleven, the Texas Longhorns, defend the Memorial stadium against the assault of Arizona university's Wildcats in intersectional strife. The Orange and White is expected to win in a walk.

With Dusty Berry handicapped by a bad ankle, Joel Hunt, regular halfback, likely will play quarterback for the Texas Aggies against the Rice Owls. McGuire will be at one half, Captain "Mule" Wilson at fullback, and either Kishi, Woodman or Colgin at the other half. Colgin showed to advantage against T. C. U. Horned Frogs.

Spurred on by knowledge they must win over or tie the Owls to keep in the running for southwest conference title, the Aggies will make a supreme effort to defeat Coach Heisman's proteges. The Owls, however, have always been hard for the Farmers to beat and the determination of the Aggies to win may not avail.

The defeat ulastered on the Farmers Saturday by the T. C. U. eleven rankles in the hearts of the Bible men and may prove the incentive needed to make the Aggies show their best form against the Owls.

Rice is handicapped by the absence of George Murray, fullback, who will

Wife in Politics Broke Up His Home, Banker Testifies

RENO, Nev., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Too much politics broke up the home of Edward F. Feickert, president of the State Trust company of Plainfield, N. J., the banker testified in district court here today in divorce action against his wife, Lillian E. Feickert, Republican state chairman of New Jersey, and president of the New Jersey Woman's Republican club. The suit was filed on Sept. 30 and went to trial today by default, Mrs. Feickert having failed to make an appearance.

2 Murder Cases Set For Archer Court

ARCHER CITY, Nov. 13.—Two murder cases have been set for trial here during the week of Nov. 23, it was announced Friday by Judge H. R. Wilson of the thirtieth district court after a conference with District Attorney Ben Allred. The Lige Griffith case will be called Monday, the 23rd, while that of Red Furl will be called later in the week.

Griffith is charged with the murder of Herbert Griffin, wealthy Archer county ranchman, who was shot at Dundee, Oct. 20. Furl is held in connection with the shooting of Sheriff Harrison Ikard of Archer county who was shot Sept. 22.

TEXAS PASTOR COMING

Dr. T. L. Holcomb of Sherman To Hold Revival for Baptists.

Dr. T. L. Holcomb of Sherman will arrive here Monday to begin a series of revival services att he First Baptist church, assisting Dr. O. L. Powers, the pastor, for two weeks in evangelistic services.

Dr. Holcomb is said to be one of the smallest Baptist ministers in the state in stature, but as to power and expression is a giant. He is a native of Mississippi and is the son of a Baptist minster. Reports heralding his coming say that he is among the most outstanding pastor-evangelists of Texas and a great orator.

An equally large number are expected to take advantage of the last opportunity today.

300 See Rectory Of New Catholic Church

Three hundred members and friends of Sacred Heart church gathered last night at the new rectory, 1505 Ninth street, the home of Father Lawrence Hoyt, rector, celebrating the opening of the new building which is just completed.

The guests were greeted by Father Lawrence and Father John Untereiner, and Mesdames S. E. Riley, Frank Keim, R. H. Delaney, Kelleher, W. E. Millican, E. F. Easton, N. W. Lewis, and M. Oeschner.

Those who served as guides to the visitors and showed them through the rooms in the rectory were Mesdames L. J. Bullitt, J. L. Duffy, James Dudkin, M. M. Bates, J. Green Moulder, and Miss Mamie Sullivan.

The Altar society of the church furnished the dining room; the Knights of Columbus provided the furnishings of the den; and the Catholic Daughters furnished the bishop's room.

Refreshments were served to those who called during the evening by Mesdames H. G. Helgerson, Henry Hand, F. G. Wass, W. A. Maloney, M. K. Emmert.

What Other Cities Doing for "Chests"

DALLAS, Nov. 13.—The quota for the Dallas community chest campaign for 1925 has been plated at $506,576.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 13.—(AP)—A quota of $80,000 was set as the goal in the Beaumont community chest drive.

HOUSTON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Houston's community chest campaign for 1925 will open Sunday. Chest authorities are asking for $450,000 this year, to be expended among 25 agencies.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 13.—The community chest campaign, now under way, asks to raise $290,000.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13.—San Antonio's community chest campaign is for $428,000, of which $11,000 is set aside for direction and advertising the campaign.

Wichita Falls' goal is $55,000.

Best People on Earth to Entertain

"The production is ready to go over with a bang," declared Dan Folan last night, director of the annual Elks "Revue," which will be given in its first performance Saturday evening at the Majestic theatre, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

The Elks revue is modeled after the follies and is said to be surprisingly good in its three acts of fifteen episodes. Among the best local entertainers including singers, readers and dancers are featured in the production. The scenic and electrical effects have been especially designed by Director Folan.

The play is given by the Elks in ald of the Optimist club's home for boys.

Ticket sales have been brisk and it is expected that the entertainment will be quite successful in its undertaking. Among the box holders for Monday night's performance are Grand Exalted George Atwell of Dallas; P. P. Langford of this city; John Henry Kirby of Houston, and the Optimist club which has reserved a place for the boys now in the home.

In the picture, top to bottom are: Virginia Hotchkiss in the Victor Herbert episode; Josephine Fisk, leading the Tilly number; Bernice Jordan in an old fashioned bouquet, and Louise Lauderdale as plain Little anet.

100 Prisoners Will Be Let Out By the Governor As a "Pardon for Thanksgiving"

Boston Not to See "Desire Under Elms"

BOSTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Boston will not see "Desire Under the Elms", Eugene O'Neall's play that has been running in New York for many months, because Mayor Curley has insisted on such a complete revision of its text. Rather than comply with the censorship requirements the producers have decided to cancel the Boston engagement, it was announced at the city hall today. The play was to have opened here Monday.

They Are Already Lined Up On Her Desk on Paper Ready for Freedom

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson will grant 100 pardons on Thanksgiving day, it has been unofficially learned. It was the desire of the governor to not make public the announcement until Thanksgiving day, although it has been known for some time that the clemency proclamations were being prepared and marked in red ink "Thanksgiving."

The applications for the pardons have been noticed lying in the governor's business office and at the board of pardons office.

As the total clemency proclamation by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson is 1,014, the 100 on Thanksgiving day will establish a record, sending the total to more than 1,100.

The governor has granted since she has been in office 159 full pardons, 412 conditional pardons, 196 furloughs, 64 paroles, and 115 restorations of citizenship. She has revoked clemency to 19.

Two full pardons, two conditional pardons, and five furloughs were granted today by the governor. The full pardons granted are:

Willie Lare, Nueces county, criminal assault, 15 years; served 2 1-2 years, clear record, recommended by trial judge, prosecuting attorney, and 10 jurors; large number of citizens of Hidalgo county, aged parents dependent on him.

W. E. Barnes, Mitchell, transporting liquor, 2 years, served year and 10 months; recommended by board of pardons, prison physician; unfortunate, friendless, penniless.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 13—(AP)—The board dof temperance and social service of the Texas conference, Methodist Episcopal church, south, passed a esolution, enorunc-ing Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's administration by name here today. The administration is charged with injuring law enforcement by its general policies of pardons and liquor enforcement.

The resolution will come before the conference tomorrow for vote, and a warm discussion is promised by delegates who believe the name of Mrs. Ferguson should not be mentioned in the resolution.

CUT INHERITANCE TAX

Modified Rate is Included In Measure Drawn in Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Modified inheritance tax rates to be incorporated in the new revenue bill were drafted today by a subcommittee of the house ways and means committee.

The present exemption of the first $50,000 of an estate and the one and two per cent rates on the first two taxable brackets of $50,000 each were retained, while in accordance with committe instructions the maximum of 40 per cent on amounts in excess of $10,000,000 was cut to 20 per cent.

EX-KLAN HEAD TO KNOW FATE ON SATURDAY

Oratory at its Best Seeks To Keep Stephenson From Chair

TO CLOSE AT NOON

Arguments in Oberhaltzer Case Will be Completed Today

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Pleading with all the mastery and eloquence of his two score years before the bar of Indiana, Eph Inman, veteran criminal attorney, begged a jury today to spare from the electric chair and prison cell, D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana ku klux klan, and two body guards on trial with him for murder.

It was the last word in defense of the three men whose case will rest soon after noon tomorrow with the jury.

The years rested lightly on the veteran Inman as he called his principal client the victim of enmities engendered in political warfare and besought the talesmen to find the trio not guilty of the alleged ebduction and assault on Madge Oberholtzer of Indianapolis last March 15. The state charges Stephenson, Earl Gentry and Earl Klenck with responsibility for her death, which occurred at their Indianapolis home April 14, after she had swallowed poison in a hotel at Hammond, Ind., March 16.

"Miss Oberholtzer committed suicide as a free agent," the chief counsel for the defendants asserted in closing his argument. The state has held the men's acts influenced her to take her life by heaping indignities and abuse upon her, and asks their execution for first degree murder."

Charles E. Cox of the prosecution and Floyd Christian of the defense preceded Inman. Cox urged that the death penalty be inflicted. Christian propounded the suicide theory.

The veteran Cox upbraided the defendants, calling Klenck a gorilla and Stephenson a moral pervert.

1 Term Affirmed, Archer Man Now Faces New Charge

ARCHER CITY, Nov. 13.—Less than three days after the court of criminal appeals had affirmed one conviction on a similar charge, Nick Martini was convicted here yesterday on a charge of possession of whiskey and given a one-year sentence in the penitentiary. He was sentenced to two years on the former conviction which was returned about 18 months ago.

When Martini was arrested by officers last summer he was found at work around a big liquor still. He admitted this on the stand but said that he had just found it and was running off some liquor for his own use.

Testimony showed that when arrested his six-year-old son was with him and was firing the boiler under the coils.

WISH COMES TRUE.

Handsomely Bound Bible Is Presented Junior High School.

Fulfillment of a wish made by the Junior high school some time ago was made yesterday morning at the assembly period when a big Bible, beautifully bound, was presented to the school by Rev. S. A. Barnes, representing the Floral Heights Methodist church, which purchased the Bible.

On display at the school was a table of 120 new books which have just arrived for the library of the school.

A play, "The Magic Box," was given in observance of National Children's Book Week by the children of Austin school under the direction of Miss Kathleen Tobin.

Used Car for Sale.

It stands within a vacant lot
And looks with sad, accusing eyes
On all mankind—and who would not?
"Used Car for Sale" we advertise,
Daub a humiliating sign
Upon a car of old design
That served us willingly and well—
A friend that we decide to sell.

The old car simply will not do:
It's badly bent, it's turning gray.
The folks insist on something new;
We'll almost give the car away.
Its fenders all are battered now.
It's marred—and I remember how:
It bears the honorable scars
That always come to all old cars.

It bore us over many a road,
Through mud and saud, and snow and rain;
It carried many an extra load,
And very seldom would complain.
Where'er the family would roam,
It took us there, and brought us home;
But now it's time the car was sold,
Because, you see, it's getting old.

My, how the children danced with glee
When Father brought it home one night,
Its nickel shone so splendidly,
Its varnish was so smooth and bright.
But now the fenders all are bent,
The body even has a dent;
We've driven it—well, quite a bit,
Until we're all ashamed of it.

The summer picnics that we had!
The winter storms it took us through!
No wonder that it looks so bad—
The old car simply will not do.
And so a stranger has the thing;
We'll take whatever it will bring;
We've driven it through sun and gale
Three seasons now. Used Car for Sale.

Bowie Woman Loses Club Presidency

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Mrs. J. U. Fields of Haskell, Texas, today was elected president of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs by a vote of 183 over Mrs. W. R. Potter of Bowie, who received 124 votes.

Mrs. J. C. Nagle of Dallas was elected first vice president; Mrs. H. H. Hagerman of Ranger, second vice president; Mrs. M. C. Cook of Austin, recording secretary, and Mrs. R. Q. Lee of Cisco, treasurer. The latter officers were elected unanimously.

Mrs. Henry Redmond of Corpus Christi, retiring president and presiding officer, rebuked Mrs. Fields for the intensive campaign she has waged. A feeling of partisanship and even bitterness was evident as spporters of the rivals strove mightily for every advantage.

LANDRETH CO. GETS ENTIRE OIL FIELD BY BIG PURCHASE

Deals Yesterday For $1,500,000 Round Out Transaction

HAS 2,513 ACRES

Program Characterized As Most "Ambitions" In North Texas

Additional purchases of southern Wilbarger acreage aggregating in value approximately $1,500,000, have added better than 900 acres to the holdings of the Landreth Production corporation in southern Wilbarger county and brought the investment figures of that concern in the so-called general Noble area to better than $5,000,000. The purchases, as announced yesterday include dthe so-called "Noble" discovery tract, the holdings of the Upham interests of Mineral Wells, and various tracts of the Waggoner estate needed to round a block which now includes approximately 2,513 acres.

Buy Noble Well.

The tracts included in Landreth's last batch of purchases include 227 acres in the center of section 42, block 4, including two producing wells making together about 100 barrels, one the Noble discovery, from the 2,300 foot pay, and the other, a south offset, from the 2,400-foot pay. This tract was obtained from the Electra Texas Oil company, now operated by Sloan and Browning of Denver. Consideration was not made known, but it is possible that it involves about $400,000.

From Upham interests of Mineral Wells (promoters of a natural gas line enterprise from the Panhandle to North Texas) Landreth obtained seven "forties." These include several tracts between the Landreth M-1, I

Vernon Oil Field Workers Injured

VERNON, Nov. 13.—Ave Dilberry and J. C. Berry, young men in the employ of Prince and Prince, contractors, were seriously injured about 10 o'clock Friday morning when they fell about 30 feet from a derrick on the Stephens lease, and Lewis Sisemore was slightly injured, both Berry and Dilberry received several broken bones. The men fell when a crew plank on which they were standing broke, allowing them to drop about 30 feet to the floor of the derrick when rotary tools were scattered about.

HE GOT REAL SERVICE.

Drunk Man Calls Policeman; Asks Ride and Bed; Gets Them.

He wanted service and he got it: wanted a car to ride in and he got it; wanted a bed to sleep in and he got it; and when it was all over he had no regrets nor no complaint.

Late Thursday night Officer Ordonez of the city police department was cruising around in the residential districts in the west end. Going down a street lined with fashionable residences the lights of his car revealed a figure swaying unsteadily on the curb, and as he approached the figure hailed him in thick tounged accents:

"Hay, fyer a (hic) servus car sir you?"

"Sure," Ordonez told him, "what do you want?"

"I wanna (hic) ride!"

"All right, climb in."

The passenger mounted into the rear seat with difficulty.

"Now'en, wanna go to a (hic) hotel? Fin' me a godsun'n put me (hic) to bed."

Friday morning the judge fined him $5 for being drunk.

"Well, it's all right," he said, "I asked him to bring me to town and he did and I asked him to put me to bed—and he did."

We Have Our Obligations To Meet Says Jurist, In Endorsing Chest Plan

The judiciary joined hands Friday with other branches of the city's business and professional life and lent its endorsement to the fifth annual community chest drive which will be launched here Nov. 23, 24 and 25.

Judge P. A. Martin of the 89th judicial district, voiced hearty approval of the community chest idea. "There is no question but that it has saved Wichita Falls a world of worry and bother," he said, "while at the same time it has been the means of accomplishing a vast amount of good. Instead of eight or nine different campaigns for this welfare work and that welfare work, we have one and thus get it over with.

"It seems to me to be the best thing possible for the taking care of our welfare obligations—and we have obligations of that kind that must be met. I am glad to give it my hearty approval."

Starting a week from Monday the city will be asked to give $55,000 as this year's welfare budget. This sum will be apportioned out among the nine participating organizations in order that the welfare work may go on uninterruptedly for another year.

EVOLUTION IS UNDER ATTACK IN N.W. TEXAS

Methodist Conference Refuses Aid to Modernist Schools

CANYON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Northwest Texas conference of the Methodist church, south, in session here today, took a decided stand against the teaching evolution in schools an dcolleges. The resolution, which was adopted unanimously, was introduced by Rev. L. N. Stackey of Abilene.

The resolution contained a clause demanding that no appropriation be made by the Methodist church to any school until every member of its faculty had signed a written declaration affirming his belief in the virgin birth of Christ and the devine inspiration of the Scriptures.

Alleged Killer Of Wife Is Discharged

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 13.—Charges of murder preferred against Herbert E. Richardson when his wife was found dead in their apartment here on September 21, were dismissed yesterday in police court.

Richardson, whose first wife, Mrs. Thelma Ham Richardson formerly of Atlanta, was killed in a scuffle over a pistol with Thomas Pollard, local realtor, told the authorities when held for his second wife's death, that he came home unexpectedly and found another man with her. A fight followed, he declared, during which he pushed his wife and she fell.

After walking the streets for 24 hours, he tried to end his own life and was taken to the hospital with a self-inflicted bullet wound. He then asked officers to investigate the condition of Mrs. Richardson and she was found dead in bed. A coroner's jury held she probably had died from natural causes.

MRS. VALENTINO ASKS DIVORCE IN PARIS COURT

Mrs. Richard Hudnut Confirms Report of Daughter's Action

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Winifred Hudnut Valentino, through her mother, Mrs. Richard Hudnut, today confirmed reports that she has instituted suit for divorce in Paris from Rodolph Valentino, the film shiek. The action is based on charges that the motion picture actor refuses to live with her.

Only yesterday Valentino said that reports of the divorce were "ridiculous". Mrs. Valentino recently returned from a trip to Europe, declaring that her differences with her husband arose because he was opposed to her desire for a screen career of her own.

MISSION TOTAL BIG

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(AP).—Receipts of the world service commission of the Methodist Episcopal church for the 12 months ending October 31—the fiscal year for the board's foreign and home missions and church extension—totaled $7,630,595, compared with $8,701,027 for the preceding fiscal year, Treasurer O. W. Auman reported today.

THERE NEVER WAS ONE WHO "NEVER HAD A CHANCE."

The popular notion of a learned man is a bald, gray-bearded fellow who spends his days in close confines, pouring over musty books, and emerging to speak in a deep, hollow voice in words of four and five syllables.

This is only a pedant.

So-called "practical men" usually are impatient with, or condescending to, speculative men, as if, because they speculate or see, they could do nothing.

But the truly learned man is a man of action, drinking deep of the experiences of life.

"Action is with the scholar subordinate, but it is essential," Emerson observed.

"Without it, he is not yet a man.

"Without it, thought can never ripen into truth

* * *

"Only so much do I know, as I have lived.

"Instantly we know whose words are loaded with life, and whose not."

The attractions of the world are the keys which unlock your thoughts and make you acquainted with yourself.

You never know your mind until you have to use it.

So much only of life as you know by experience, so much of wilderness have you vanquished or planted, then so far have you extended your being, your dominion.

Drudgery, calamity, exasperation, want, are instructors in wisdom.

Experience is the raw material out of which the intellect moulds its products.

A strange process it is, by which experience is converted into thought, as a mulberry leaf is converted into thought, as a mulberry leaf is converted into silk. The manufacture goes on at all hours.

Life is our dictionary.

No man can rightfully complain that he never had the chance to educate himself.

THE GREATEST BOOK IN THE WORLD.

No one disputes the great value of Mr. Carnegie's gift to the masses, but we may as well keep in mind that the highest and best sources of truth, light, and elevation of mind are not libraries, but our inward and outward experience

Human life, with its joys and sorrows,
Its burdens and alleviations,
Its crimes and virtues,
Its deep wants,
Its solemn changes,
And its retributions, always pressing upon us; what a library is this!

And who may not study it?

Every human being is a volume worthy to be studied.

The books which endure the longest are those which give us the most truthful pictures of human life.

But much more improving is the original, when we know how to read it.

We always have this page open before us; and, still more, we are always writing a volume more full of instruction than all human productions—our own lives.

William Ellery Channing observed that, "No work of the most exalted genius can teach us so much as the revelation of human nature in the secrets of our own souls,

"In the workings of our own passions,
"In the operations of our own intelligence,
"In the retributions which follow our own good and evil deeds,
"In the dissatisfaction with the present, which for mpart of every man's biography."
"In the spontaneous thoughts and aspirations
The study of our own childhood,
Of all the stages of our development,
Of good and bad influences which have beset us,
Of our mutations of feeling and purpose,
And of the great current which is setting us toward future happiness or woe,—this is a study to make us truly wise.

All of us have access to this fountain of truth.

ANOTHER STANDARD OIL MERGER.

And now the Magnolia Oil company of Texas is to be taken over by the Standard Oil company of New York. In the long ago when a supreme court decision desolved the Standard Oil company, political reformers rejoiced. They declared it was the end of a monopoly. Now there are 13 or 14 Standard Oil companies, and the weakest of the number is more powerful in its ramifications and its dividend creating ability than the original mother of all the cubs.

Within a year the Standard Oil company of Indiana has taken over the Dobeney interest in Mexico. Since 1923, the Sinclair company has been made a friendly ally of the huge corporation which was founded by John D. Rockefeller. In Texas, the Standard controls the Humble Oil company, and other subsidiaries. No it is going to swallow the Magnolia company. Consolidation is the order of the day.

There is one vast corporation which has not been taken over by the Standard or its cubs. It is owned by the Mellons of Pittsburg and their associates. There are men who say that the Gulf is a million dollar corporation, that it is not for sale, that it is not an envious rival of the Standard, but that it is covering the seven seas with its tankers, and doing business on every world bargain counter. As for Texas, it is one of the gigantic petroleum ventures of the age, and its flag floats everywhere. Is it a standard concern? Its directors say that it is not. There are independent oil operators who say that it is a Standard connection, but that it flies its own flag and does business along independent lines. Petroleum is one of the greatest games of the hour. Petroleum hunting is one of the greatest games. There are two or three foreign companies backed by foreign governments and their billions.

American companies are not backed by the federal government or the billions of national wealth. It must be true that in the years to come, the nation that controls the oil fields of the world will control to a great extent, the commerce of the world. If this is to be a battle between the Standard and the foreign companies, for control of the oil supply of the world, then there is no reason why the American public and the American press should not give friendly aid and encouragement to their own powerful gain in the petroleum fields.

Uncommon Sense

LIST YOUR ASSETS

"What has he got?" is the question the audience asks about the fighter they have never seen before.

They soon find out.

If the gentleman in the ring has what is called a "wallop" he proceeds to try to land it at the earliest opportunity.

If he has craft and endurance, he employs them in the effort to wear the other man down, and thus make him beat himself.

If he has endurance and the ability to take punishment, he keeps on fighting till the other man is tired, when perhaps a very ordinary punch will settle the matter.

The ring fighter, to be even ordinarily successful must know exactly "what he has got" and use it to the very best advantage.

He may have several of the requisites of the champion, but he must know what they all are in the order of their importance, or he will never attain the fame and the money that he covets.

Prize-fighting is a vulgar and useless business, and the world would be better off without it.

But we can learn something from everybody, and as long as there are prizefighters, and probably will be for many years, it will do no harm to study their methods, and to profit by anything they may have to teach us.

And they can teach us the importance of knowing our strong points, and using them to the best advantage.

They can teach us to hold in reserve our greatest powers till the moment comes when they are most needed, and then to employ them for all they are worth.

They can teach us to be patient, and to wait our opportunities, but to be on the alert for them always and never allow them to pass by unnoticed.

A slightly built man, with no very great strength can whip a great hulking powerful dock walloper or lumber jack—if he knows how to box and the other fellows do not.

And a man with fewer natural advantages than the men he is competing with can win over them if he has learned to use everything that has been given him, and the other fellows have never troubled to do th same thing.

It is important for everyone to know what he can do well. It may require years of experimenting to find out, but those years will be rewarded.

Let him thoroughly understand his good points and his weak points—improve the good points and get rid of the weak ones as rapidly as possible, and he will be ready for this chance when it comes, as it always must.

A bank that did not know what its assets were would be in a poor position to make loans or to receive deposits for which it was responsible.

But it would be in a better position than is the man who does not know what he can do and what he cannot do, but goes into everything that comes along slap dash, until sudden failure brings him up with a round turn, usually too late.

It is a difficult, almost an impossible thing to know yourself, but it is wise to make the acquaintance as intimate as you can.

TEXAS LEADS IN ROAD BUILDING.

Texas has established a new record. Texas builds more federal aid roads mileage than any state in the union. This is, official. It comes from the lips of Chief Engineer A. R. Losh, of the United States bureau of public roads. His statement shows the number of miles completed since the last of June was 229, and there are now 1,354 miles of federal aid roads under construction in the state.

One department of the federal bureau's work in which it has climbed from the bottom to the top, during the last year, in materials tested in the laboratory before being used on the various jobs. At present, Engineer Losh says, 96 per cent of all road building materials throughout the district which is comprised of Texas and Oklahoma and Arkansas and Louisiana, is tested by experts. Texas has a percentage of ninety-two.

Another high record made by the district, according to this federal engineer, is that all highways is a hundred per cent inspected. Of the 271 federal aid jobs in the district, only three per cent of the work was found unsatisfactory by government engineers. In Texas there are now 103 federal aid jobs, which are now 58 per cent complete. In October there were 116 such projects in Texas, 13 having been completed during the last 30 days.

His statement shows that road projects completed up to September 30, have required an outlay of money totaling $58,000,000.00, which is larger than amounts spent for such work in any other state of the union. Of this sum, $22,965,000.00 was furnished by the federal government through the bureau of public roads.

Total Texas federal mileage completed to date is 4,136 miles. The next state in this respect is Minnesota, with 2,897 miles of federal air road. Many of which are of dirt. In money spent for road building Pennsylvania is next to Texas, with the sum of $4,888,000.00 of which the government furnished $16,745,000.00. Illinois comes third with a total expenditure of $40,698,000.00, of which $18,980.00 was furnished by the federal government.

Road building is no longer an experiment. Federal aid is no longer an experiment. Texas leads in federal aid mileage and all the tax payers of Texas are vastly interested in the doings of their state highway commissioners and all who are concerned in the activities of the highway commission.

It goes without saying, that the motor vehicle ushered in the road building age. It goes without saying that Texas which has more than 800,000 motor vehicles, is vitally interested in the road building industry, the way the millions taken from the tax payers are expended, and the most of maintenance for public highways after they have been constructed.

There is an enormous road fund collected every year from the gasoline tax, and for every state dollar, there is a federal dollar to match it. Expenditure of this money is a topic uppermost in every Texas household, and it is certain to be a burning issue in all the political campaigns of future years. Some day in the not distant future, the state will collect three cents a gallon on gasoline sold for consumption in Texas, and every dollar collected from the owners of motor vehicles and tractors, should be credited to the road building and maintenance fund.

Those who use the highway should be willing to pay for their upkeep without a growl.

WHAT TODAY MEANS TO YOU

BY MARY BLAKE.

Scorpio.

Today's planetary aspects are adverse, and remain so during the whole day, although there will be glimpses—but glimpses only—of more satisfactory conditions during the early morning, and again in the late afternoon. These rays of sunshine will, however, be of so brief duration as not to warrant any effort that is not compatible with circumspection and care. There will be sensed, during the day, a desire to "go off the handle," and an impulsive wish to act only in accordance with your own inclinations, regardless of others' comfort and convenience. Such an attitude often lends, especially in the home circle, to disagreements and squabbles, and, for this reason, you must endeavor to control your speech and action.

A child born today will, according to the signs, be subject to the "ups and downs" of infancy, but, with proper alimentation and watchful care, will emerge from this stage, endowed with a good constitution and normal physical health. In character, it will in its early days, be rather peevish and fretful. After, however, free and uncensored association with others of a similar age, this condition will disappear, and it will become companionable, considerate of others, and easily amenable to good influence. It will always have high ideals, and its conduct will be regulated by the voice of conscience. Its temper will be hasty, but, with increasing years, this tendency will be less in evidence.

If today is your birthday your disposition and character is a pleasure to diagnose, as you possess so many traits that charm and attract. You are trustworthy, kind, loving and true. The only "fly in the ointment" is your domineering proclivity, and this is all the more remarkable, inasmuch as you possess so many of the gentler attributes.

You are, in no sense of the word, dependent. You are not communicative, and firmly adhere to the principel that "the least said is soonest mended." You have a great deal of confidence in your own ability—and justly so; you rarely fail in accomplishing that which you set out to do, and your gentleness of character does not affect your strong, resolute disposition.

You are a strong lover, and need love and devotion in return.

HOW IT STARTED

"Epidemic."

"There seems to be an epidemic of red hair" someone says jocularly, and we assume the word "epidemic" to have been misused, for we have come to accept it as regarding exclusively an affliction or disease that comes at once upon a whole community or large numbers of people. The fact is, however, that in accordance with its origin the jocular use of the term was quite correct. An epidemic may be anything that is true of or common to people in general, and it is our reservation of the term for affliction or disease that is in fact the corruption.

For in the original Greek form which we have the word "epidemei" has the form of "in" plus "people," meaning among or upon the people. And there might no less correctly be an epidemic of fear or an epidemic of piousness among a people than an epidemic of sore throat!

Incidentally, the study of this word brings to light a common error of referring to disease which strikes at once a large number of cattle or other animals as "epidemic." The term with regard to animals is "epizootic." In "epidemic" we have the root "demos," meaning "man," and under any circumstances be applied to animals!

SUNSHINE PELLETS

FAITH.

Better trust all and be deceived,
And weep that trust and that deceiving,
Than doubt one heart that if believed
Had blessed one's life with true believing.

Oh in this mocking world too fast
The doubting fiend o'ertakes our youth;
Better be cheated to the last
Than lose the blessed hope of truth.

SUB ROSA BY MIMI

When He's Away.

Florence has an interesting story to tell: "I'd been engaged for two years and was madly in love with my fiance. We were planning to be married in another year and everything was rosy.

"Then suddenly Harold was called to the coast, and when he left me, he told me very frankly that it might be some time before 'd see him again.

"He advised me to accept any invitations I might receive, saying that he wanted me to enjoy myself while he was away. So the next time my girl chum called up and asked I consented. Well, Mimi that party was a riot as far as I was concerned. I made a hit with everyone there because I was so peppy and full of high spirits. I hadn't felt so gay and carefree in years. What could it mean? When Harold came back I loved him as dearly as ever, but I can't get over the feeling that I shouldn't have had such a darn good time when he was away."

And why shouldn't you have a good time, when the fiance of two years standing goes off for a few months?

You'd been going with Harold so long that you'd both stopped being hilarious and rapturous about it.

He may have got out of the habit of taking you on gay parties—of admiring your wit and humor and new clothes and general effect.

In spite of this you loved him but when you found yourself in a party of gay young people—none of them engaged or used to each other—and you noticed that they laughed at your jokes and thought you a big number, you were conscious of a glow of happiness.

There's no girl in the world—however faithful to the one man she may be—who isn't tickled to death to have some outsider tell her just how attractive she is.

You'd had your first taste of popularity for two years, and it went to your head—you almost forgot the good old husband-to-be in the background and romped about like any heart-whole and fancy-free young flapper.

Not until it was all over did you come to the conclusion that you'd behaved very badly—that you couldn't really love Harold if you behaved that way.

As a matter of fact you'd acted like any normal girl in the same circumstances.

And you would have found if you'd continued to form a fourth to such parties that they soon palled—that they didn't half make up for Harold's absence.

But just that one taste of old-time gayety and popularity didn't do you any harm at all.

These little vacations from one another often do the greatest good in the world to engage people—if only both parties to the contract are broadminded enough to consent to such arrangements.

If you found a continuous performance of parties with Harold absent more delightful than those with him, then you'd have cause to fret.

But don't worry if you find a brief holiday without your sweetheart just a bit enjoyable.

(Mimi will be glad to answer any inquiries directed to this paper provided a stamped, addressed envelope is enclosed. Also she will be glad to send food for conversation and how to overcome self-consciousness.

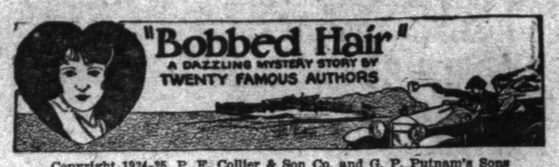

'LUCKY HOUSE' HEALTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Now convalescent in his "lucky house" to which he was rushed when taken ill two weeks ago at Ann Arbor, Mich., Chauncey Olcott, actor, is attributing his recovery to the prayers of his friends.

He also ascribes a part in his recoverey to healing qualities in the hands of his wife, a seventh daughter. She has just presented him a marbel reproduction of her hands done by a sculptor who felt inspired by St. Therese, the pollus' "little flower of Jesus."

SYNOPSIS

Connemara Moore, instead of announcing her engagement tonight, as she was expected to do, stole away from Aunt Celimena's, being assisted in her escape by young David Lacy, whom she had never seen before. There followed hours of wild adventure, in the company of strangers who talked much of rum-running. Now Lacy, aboard a motor boat, believes he has refound Connie—who was lost—but the woman he is addressing keeps her face averted.

CHAPTER XII—Continued

"I'm beginning to think I'm in earnest. I'm wishing we were both out of this. I'm wishing we were out somewhere on the plains of Kansas where there's a train once a day and the biggest excitement of the year is a church supper followed by stereopticon slides of the Holy Land."

"Don't be silly," said Aunt Celimena, who was really having a better time than she had had for years.

"I'm silly because I'm scared," said David Lacy. "Don't you know that's the way frightened people always act in fiction? Think of the noble heroes of the war jesting under shell fire. The more certain the death, the higher the grade of humor."

Aunt Celimena cleared her throat again. "How much more dangerous do you think our situation will have to become before the quality of a certain gentleman's levity becomes—shall we say, heightened?"

"Unkind," said Lacy, "but I laid myself open to it. It's difficult not to swat the easy balls hard, even though you put them out." He stopped. "I feel I shall be of service to you yet, though, before this little joy ride is over."

"There's ways of thinning a passenger list."

"I feel you have been already," said Aunt Celimena. Then she turned her face full upon him and by the palish light of an intermittent moon she studied his features with what might be considered ill-bred intenseness.

"My God!" said Lacy.

"Yes," she said, "I thought so. It was Auteuil. Your face comes back to me now, slowly, and completely lacking in pleasurable associations."

Lacy stared. "Your face doesn't come back to me at all, but I must say that the present sight is shorn of glamour."

"Naturally you don't remember me," snapped Aunt Celimena. "You were not looking at me but at someone else."

"I always said I had a record for taste and discrimination," murmured Mr. Lacy.

"And now," said Aunt Celimena, "where is my niece?"

"Niece?"

"Connemara."

"Well, considerably safer than we are," said Lacy.

"What do you mean?"

"Why, since you're not she, she escaped with McTish."

"Who's McTish?"

"Oh, a man of parts," said Lacy noncommittally. "I think you'd like him, and with any luck we'll meet up with him again some time this night."

"Young man," said Aunt Celimena, "was it my niece's plan to be abducted by you this evening, or your own?"

"Or possibly a collaboration?" suggested Mr. Lacy.

"It will make considerable difference to me in the altering of a certain document." Her face was grim. "My lawyer, Mr. Brewster, is on board too."

"How prepared you are," murmured Mr. Lacy. "Do you always travel with one? Now if one gets a cinder in one's eye how convenient to have one's solicitor there to sue the railroad without interfering in any way with the journey."

"You're an absurd and irrelevant young man," said Aunt Celimena.

"I'm only a scared young man," said Mr. Lacy. "That's really true. I happen to know who these gentlemen are who are acting as crew on this purloined vessel and I happen to have a hunch about their desination. There is not perfect amity in their midst, which is our only hope of salvation. But in any event, this is destined to be a spirited journey."

"What, if I may ask, is our destination?" said Aunt Celimena.

"A ship at sea. A curious ship that has been a long way. It has come from the land of slow moving rivers, junks, and yellow-skinned sailors. Forests of exquisite beauty crowd down to the edge of the black rippled waters. Poisonous lilies grow upon its surface, flamingoes and mocking birds flash back and forth above their brief reflections. Black fishes with silver fins leap up like shadows on a wall and——"

"Beautiful," said Aunt Celimena, "but unimportant."

"You're right," said Lacy. "Well, that's where the boat started from. It's shy a lot of papers, decorated with official stamps, that other boats carry. It took it a long time to get here. No short cuts through the Panama, owing to the inquisitive nature of certain officials regarding the cargo."

Aunt Celimena's eyes opened wide. "How do you know?"

He shrugged his shoulders. "I'm just guessing."

"Listen," commanded Aunt Celimena. Two figures had come closer in the dimness.

Pooch and Swede were discoursing. "I tell you again you're a fool to run for it," said Pooch, "with all this party on board. The thing to do is to land somewheres and beat it."

"Beat it," retorted Swede sharply. "Don't you know we're as sunk now as we would be if we went through? Might as well die for a sheep's a lamb, I always say."

"Look here, I won't stand for no rough play," said Pooch uneasily.

"Then look the other way if you're so sensitive. I mean to bring back what we started for. If it seems we got too many extraneous souls on board, why, there's ways of thinnin' out a passenger list." Swede paused and looked at his companion with opprobrium. "Don't be so durn delicate."

"It's sense I'm talking. I tell you it's dangerous." Pooch strained his eyes out to sea. "You know what I'm afraid of."

"Just the ghost of a Scotchman."

"If it was only a ghost," said Pooch, "I wouldn't be so particular. But I tell you there's no ghost about him. None whatever. I'm expecting to see his red head bob up on every wave. I tell you I know that pelican now. He's an old bird in the business. If I'd ever guessed he was going to be mixed up in the deal, I wouldn't have touched it, npt for five times fifty thousand. An' that's flat. Say," he added thoughtfully, "you got any notion how he happened along so pat tonight? You an' Doc figgered you'd covered up your tracks pretty good, but this here don't look like blind luck, to me. Looks more like there's been a leak somewheres."

The Swede swore with heartiness and some inventiveness, yet Pooch, whose ears were keen in the face of danger, was sure he caught a note of apprehension in the other's tones. He whistled between his teeth shrilly.

"So-o—" he exclaimed. "There was a leak!"

"Leak," Swede said furiously, and spat. "Hell! He was the leak himself, the red-headed blankety-blank—" He improvised freely for half a minute, and then continued more quietly. "What'd you say to his holdin' down a job for more than six months with the Shanghai Line—in the old man's private office too. He only blew tonight. I got a message tippin' me off, from the Big Noise himself. It's the whole damn show busted wide open; that's how good a leak it is."

Mr. Pooch drew a long and painful breath, and swallowed hard, twice.

Landreth Production Co. Obtains Cream of Wilbarger Acreage

BEST OF NOBLE AREA INCLUDED IN BIG BLOCK

Company Spends $5,000,000 For 2500 Acres There

section 47, block 2, and the Prairie A-1 to the east.

From Waggoner estate two pieces were secured offsetting the Milham Corporation's well in section 48, block 4, to the south and west, and a number of other tracts needed by Landreth to round out its block and clean up all of the acreage inside their holdings.

Considerations in the individual deals were not made known but the whole is known to approximate $1,000,000.

Buys Whole Field.

What Landreth Production corporation has done, briefly, has been to purchase an entire oil field. Only minor tracts in the "Noble" area are now held by other operators. It is possibly the most ambitious purchase that has ever been transacted in north Texas.

In the parlance of the geologist there are two known major folds running a bit southeast of east and west across central Wilbarger. On the north one of these, apparently takes in South Vernon, the Gulf pool, and other minor production uncovered on a line with those two areas. On the south the fold, as hypothecated, reaches fro mthe old Pyramid group, through the Sigler pool, as far east as the east end of the Noble area. To all appearances the acreage lying between the old Beatty well in section 47, block 2 and the east Noble area, is a single structure, possibly some five miles long, probably the largest on the so-called south fold, and possibly one of the largest ever uncovered in North Texas, with the possible exception of the old Northwest field at Burkburnett.

Three Horizons.

To date three producing horizons on this area have been uncovered, one known as the Dyson at about 1,850 feet; another known as the Noble, which is expected to prove the most prolific of all, at about 2,300 feet, and another known as the Milham, at about 2,400 feet. Numerous wildcat wells on the area which Landreth seems to be playing as a portion of ist big structure have all been successful. There seems to be a uniformity in the sand and lime-pay bodies from the old Beatty well in the northwest of the southwest of section 47, block 2, to the two Milham wells on a line just east of the Noble producer. In that interim, a matter of some five miles an intensive drilling campaign has failed to uncover a single "dry" hole which might indicate a syncline cutting the big structure in one or more parts. There have been some seven or eight wildcat discoveries in the area. Three of these Landrth itself has accounted for; another was the Noble well, two others were by Milham and another by Dyson, and another by Prairie Oil and Gas company. As it stands so well are the producers lined up that almost the whole of the 2,513 acres held by Landreth may be regarded as "proven" for one or more of the three known horizons.

Landreth Owns It All.

As it stands now Landreth Production corporation owns the whole of the one big structure, if "one big structure" it develops, with a few small exceptions. Roxana has one or two tracts inside their block. Humble has a small amount of stuff fnorth and east of it in the Dyson area. Prairie and Dyson both abutt it with two tracts. Milham has two adioining Beatty has a small piece on its West end but what is left is the property of Landreth Production company. On these boldings the company has developed a production of 1,734 barrels a day from so me13 wells. (This figure includes the production from the old Pyramid group, a small amount.) And on this property there are some other 17 wells drilling under Landreth's name, of which two are on the sand and drilling in.

And from this property the company must develop production to return some $5,000,000 to its coffers, this figure representing its investment there.

Landreth Production corporation is a Breckenridge concern, headed by E. A. Landreth of that city. H. N. Pardee of Breckenridge is its general manager, although Harry Powell of the National Supply company at Fort Worth is coming with the company on Nov. 16, as field superintendent to be in charge of Vernon operations. S. H. Casteel of this city is in charge of the geological work for the company.

News of the Fields

Greene, Wilburn

W. J. Greene et al No. 1, Wilburn, i nthe northwest corner of TE&LCO survey, block 1597, south of the Harmel pool, had sand yesterday at a depth of 1,340 feet, which although rather low, was reported showing very well. Casing was being set to test yesterday it was understood.

Wichtex-Dixie Area

Gulf Production company was down 1,368 feet yesterday in its No. 1, Annie P. Jackson, located in the southeast corner of block 130, W. B. Aidridge survey, abstract 2, north of the Wichtex-Dixie dry hole of a day or so ago and southwest of the sole producer in the field.

W. J. Grisham had spudded and was drilling yesterday on his No. 1, Annie P. Jackson, in the northwest corner of the east half of lot 65, southeast of the producer and due east of the dry hole some distance.

East Wichita County

Two derircks are up for tests on the eastern edge of Wichita county west of the D'Yarmett and Knox Friley production in western Clay county. One is of Long et al. and is in southeast corner of the J. B. Hansford farm, in the G. Wheelright survey, abstract 230. The other is of D'Yarmett et al. and is approximately in the center of the J. E. Holder farm of the same survey, southwest of the Long location.

Flossie Middleton's favorite saying was that every girl in Wichita Falls is in love with the man for whom she works—either that, or he is in love with her. A broad statement, but see how it works out in "LOVE BOUND," to start soon in Record News.

Malhstedt-Mook, Lauster

Mahlstedt and Mook No. 1, Lauster, in the southeast corner of the west half of section 3, B. B. & C. R. R. Co. survey, abstract 51, northeast of the Gambrell pool, Young-Archer county line, was pulling the casing to reseat yesterday in an attempt to shut off some water from above. The well does not look better than 50 barrels. Sand is at 1,180-83 feet.

Trio, Brom

Trio Oil company No. 5, Brom, a location north that compan's big well in block 1582, and the second location south of the Muse et al dry hole on the Branzina has topped the sand apparently at the same depth as its southern brother and is setting casing to test at 1,384 feet.

Trio's No. 6, to the southwest, is down about 1,000 feet.

Upton County

Republic's No. 1, Baker, in Upton county, is shut in reports from there said yesterday. Timber is being rushed to the ground to re-erect a derrick and rig. The well made one flow at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, the oil and gas catching fire and burning the rig. It was immediately shut in, and it is not known whether the well will be a big producer or a small one pending completion of a new rig, which will not be for some five or six days.

Sand is reported as about 2,215 feet.

West Texas

Howard County.

Choate and Henshaw No. 1, O'Daniel, in Howard county, showed three barrels of oil in 12 hours test in pay at 2,888 feet.

Sterling County.

White Eagle Oil and Refining company No. 1, Mills, Sterling county, was down 2,150 feet and drilling at last reports.

Garza County.

Choate and Henshaw No. 1, Connell, in Garza county, is fishing at a depth of 2,150 feet.

Glasscock County.

Choate and Henshaw No. 1, Neal, in Glasscock county, is last reported drilling at 565 feet.

Crockett County.

Republic Production company's No. 1, Todd, in Crockett county, is 500 feet deep and drilling.

Mitchell County.

Republic No. 1, Scott, in Mitchell county, is drilling past a last reported depth of 2,200 feet.

South Megargel

Simms Oil company has a small well at a depth of 1,758-59 feet in its No. 1, Richardson, located in the northeast corner of the north portion to its lease in block 2425, south of the Sun company's lease, south of Megargle, southwest Archer county. As it stood early yesterday but a foot of sand had been taken. More was to be drilled and it is possible that the well would show much better when drilled in further. Estimates on it as it stood then were about 50 barrels.

A Deeper Lense.

The well is taken as a splendid illustration of the "lensed" condition of the sand bodies in Archer county. The so-called sands are more properly labeled "sand zones" where any number of small sand lenses are found structurally high. These lenses overlap each other. As proven in this instance at least, the small bodies have no connection with each other. It is pointed out that the Sun company is getting some water in all of its wells to the north of the Simms, with the bottom of the holes considerably higher than the top of the sand in the Simms well. Simms had salt water in an upper sand at about 1,420 feet, was dry in sand at 1,451 feet and has an oil well of some sort in sand at 1,458-59.

On the north edge of the pool, Simms-Pandem have seemingly touched the highest of the known lenses and are setting and cementing casing at a depth of 1,406 feet. This sand has in other wells tested salt water.

West Edge.

Sun Oil company, No. 4, west of the discovery well 300 feet has been set and cemented casing at 1,432 feet. No. 5, between Nos. 2 and 3, was down about 800 feet yesterday.

Litchfield et al No. 1, Young, a north offset to Sun company No. 4, was down 1,275 feet yesterday and drilling.

In the southeast corner of the lease adjoining this to the east, Pandem Oil corporation had set and cemented casing yesterday at a depth of 1,438 feet on sand in its No. 2, Young.

Trinity a Derrick.

North of the Pandem-Simms lease in 2433, Cockrell land, the Trinity Oil company (railroad interests) have a derrick up and are rigging up for a test in the southwest corner of their acreage.

Gulf is starting two new tests, one south of its well and another offsetting the Simms-Richardson to the east. Gulf has another well drilling east of its single producer. Pandem-Simms also have a well drilling offsetting the Gulf's drilling well to the north.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL
Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.
Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.
Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

GYPSY'S NO. 2 DOES 55 BBLS. AN HR. FRIDAY

Agitation Prior to Shot Starts Well Off Anew

Reports from south Jefferson county last night were the Gypsy Oil company's No. 2, Seay, 510 feet west of the No. 1, discovery well in the 1,450-foot pay, was flowing 55 barrels an hour from sand at 1,500 feet. The well was given up as lost Thursday buf started off Friday at 55 barrels an hour after a shot had been lowered in the hole but before it could be discharged.

Hambro's south offset to the Gypsy No. 2, a deepening job, has picked up the sand ten feet higher still than in the No. 1 and was setting casing to test.

Clark and Cowden are repoted to have spudded in Friday a quarter of a mile southwest of the original Spring well in 26-6-6.

Monster Combine In Movies Is Planned

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Times quotes Douglas Fairbanks as saying an amalgamation of the releasing systems of United Artists and Metro-Goldwyn and Mayer probably will be agreed on here," within a few days and that a conference of interested parties has been called for Sunday.

The proposed merger would involve millions in motion picture capital and would bring an unprecedented number of stars under the banner of a single organization. It would unite under one control the pictures of Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Norma and Constance Talmadge, Buster Keaton, Rudolph Valentino, Charlie Chaplin, Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan, Ronald Coleman, Vilma Banky, John Gilbert, Norma Shearer, Lew Cody and a score of other well known players.

TEXAS JEWELER DEAD.

HOUSTON, Nov. 13.—J. J. Sweeney, 75, president and founder of the Sweeney Jewelry company, died at his home here early today.

News Of The Fields

South Wilbarger

Pratt, Waggoner

Pratt et al No. 1, Waggoner, in the northeast of the northwest forty of the northeast quarter of section 46, block 2, H&TCRRCO survey, averaged 73 barrels of oil in six days pumping from sandy lime at 2,335-57 feet but was reported to be making about 135 barrels after deepening to 2,348 feet. The lime was topped at 3,322 feet. The well is located southeast of Landreth's M-1.

Landreth, Waggoner

Landreth Production corporation's No. M-1, Waggoner, located in the northeast corner of the northeast forty acres of the southwest quarter of section 47, block 2, nearly a half mile east of the old Beatty well, is making between 90 and 100 barrels a day from sandy lime at 2,360-73 feet. M-2 or other offsets have not been started yet. Offsets to the Pratt well on the south of leases held in this section will be started in the near future.

Landreth's G-1, an offset to A-1, a Landreth discovery, on the east, located in the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 46, was expected on the sand at about 1,830 feet yesterday.

Landreth's No. D-6, the third location west of the northeast corner of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 43, block 4, east of the A-1 well was setting and cementing casing yesterday at a depth of 1,888 feet.

Atlantic, Sigler

Atlantic Oil Producing company's No. 2, Sigler-Waggoner, in the center of the northwest quarter of section 51, block 2, northwest of the Sigler pool, was moving the boilers back yesterday and preparing to drill into sandy lime at 2,453 feet.

City Refuses Aid In Chest Campaign

DALLAS, Nov. 13. (AP)—A delegation of leading business men of Dallas who called upon Mayor Louis Blaylock with request for a contribution from the city of Dallas to the community chest campaign were told by the mayor that he felt it was an "unsafe precedent" for the city government to make such a contribution.

Vernon Farmer Is Found Attacked

VERNON, Nov. 13.—Charles S. Brown, farmer, living near here, was found in an alley here late Thursday night unconscious with a fractured skull and broken nose, evidently caused by a blow over the head. It is thought that he was struck over the head with a brick by a hijacker.

CONSIDERS GAS RATE

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Texas railroad commission today considered and took under advisement petitions for mixing or blending in transit privilege of naphtha or natural gas. Is developed in the hearing that certain refineries are opposed to granting the petition.

Oil Gossip

A bit of humor is seen in Marland Oil company's drilling reports of yesterday morning. Marland carries a fourth interest in the Republic wildcat well in Upton county and the well is listed on their daily report which is as of 6 a. m. every morning. The item concerning the well yesterday said:

"Well flowed once. Derrick is now burning down."

The North Texas Geological society will hold its second meeting of this year at the Wichita club at 7 o'clock this evening. Dinner will be served and there will be several discussions of matters pertaining to the profession.

Prairie Pipeline company has acquired by purchase a half interet in the Pure Pipeline company of Texas from the Pure Oil company, Associated Press dispatches yesterday said.

The transaction produces a situation by which the Prairie Pipe Line company obtains an outlet to the gulf and the Pure Oil interests, a connection with its system which extends pipe line into north Texas and Oklahoma and a greater part of the Mid-Continent field. To have accomplished this otherwise would have involved the building of a line on the part of Prairie from Mexia to the gulf and it would have required at least 200 miles for the Pure Oil Pipeline company to extend its lines to the Mid-Continent field.

The Pure Oil Pipeline company of Texas probably will materially increase the capacity of the line. Pure Oil company has refineries at Smith's Bluff, near Beaumont, Texas, and Marcus Hook near Philadelphia. The Marcus Hook refinery now is being enlargd and improved.

The alliance makes the Mid-Continent field accessible to both these refinries. Arrangements are understood to have been made by which the Pure Oil company has been granted a supply of oil by Prairie Oil and Gas company should their requirements for refining purposes be in excess of production from Pure Oil company's owned wells.

Earnings of Simmons Petroleum for the first nine month of 1925 were substantially larger than the same period of 1924, net income of $2,307,760 comparing with $1,808,714 equal to $3.38 a share against $2.71 a share a year ago. The regular semi-annual dividend of 50 cents was declared.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The cotton while fairly active today was at times nervous and erratic. After steady opening and an early decline of nine to 13 points on better weather inthe belt the market rallied 25 to 30 points on the active months in expectation of bullish week-end statistics and the buying of near months by spot interests owing to the growing scarcity of desirable grades in the offerings. Prices eased off almost to the lows when Secretary Hester's mill takings for the week, 477,000 bales, proved smaller than expected, although considerable large rthan last year. The market soon rallied again, but made new lows in the afternoon, 32 to 37 points down from the highs on the report that British spinners had voted for short time. Most of the loss was recovered at the end on shorts covering and the close showed net gains of 1 to 13 points on all active months, but May which was six points net lower.

Following the steady opening December dropped to 19.50, January to 19.40 and March to 19.18 or nine to 13 points below yesterday's close on good weather. Prices soon rallied on the strength of the spot situation and the good demand for December, that month advancing to 19.80, January to 19.70 and March to 19.43 or 25 to 30 points up from the early lows. These prices remained the highs of the day. The market weakened on Hester's mill takings, but rallied again and made new lows in the late afternoon at 19.45 for December, 19.33 for January and 19.11 for March, 32 to 37 points below the highs. Most of the loss was regained right at the end.

The censue bureau's report on October consumption will be issued at the opening tomorrow. A private estimate issued today made the total 515,000 bales. Exports for the day totaled 29,924 bales, for the week 205,229 bales.

NEW YORK FUTURES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Cotton futures closed very steady at net six points up to three down.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The cotton market was less active today with price movements irregular. After selling off early to 19.62, January rallied to 19.90, broke to 19.53 and closed at 19.74, compared with 19.76 at the close of the previous day. The general market closed very steady, net six points higher to three points lower.

Reactionary elements were in evidence during the day and appeared to be encouraged by prospects for clearing weather in the south, together with reports that spinners of American cotton in Lancashire had agreed to an increase of 4½ hours in the weekly curtailment of operations until the end of January. Notwithstanding the reports of increased short time in the British textile mills, Liverpool made a relatively steady showing and the declines in the local market seemed to attract considerable buying, particularly in late trading.

The opening was four to nine points lower and active months soon showed net losses of about nine to 15 points. Midday rallies developed on renewed covering and Wall Street buying promoted by expectations of bullish week-end figures, and a private report estimating domestic mill consumption for October at 517,000 bales against 483,000 bales for September and 534,000 in October last year.

December sold up to 20.48 and March to 20.06, about 10 to 18 points net higher, but at this level there was a renewal of realizing and there also seemed to be a little more southern selling. Prices broke to 20.15 for December and 19.70 for March, netdeclines of 15 to 23 points, but trade buying caused at the decline and last prices showed rallies of 18 or 20 points from the lowest. Much of the day's trading was attributed to evening up of accounts for over the week-end or in preparation for the private official crop figures expected next week.

Exports for the day 35,759 bales, making 2,880,538 so far this season. Port receipts 54,898. U. S. port stocks 1,400,279 bales.

Nitrogen Discovery Hits Muscle Shoals Project

Entire aspect of problem of disposing of government's many-million dollar project at Muscle Shoals, Ala., is changed by discovery of government chemists of a new way of producing nitrogen cheaply. The du Pont interests are preparing to utilize the discovery in manufacture of fertilizer on a huge scale in a half dozen plants, with the largest at Charleston, W. Va. This makes the Shoals project primarily useful as a source of power. At upper right is Prof. Harry A. Curtis, member of president's Shoals commission, now busy finding a use for it; sketched is Prof. F. G. Cottrell, director of the laboratory in which the nitrogen discovery was made.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 13.—Friday's cattle trade was generally steady, deviations from this aspect droppingr out in legal weight heifers and in the calf trade at the close. Hogs were steady and sheep unchanged.

Cattle receipts were posted to reach 3,200 grown and 1,000 calves. These figures are well in line with those of last week and a year ago, not more than 200 difference appearing i nthe cattle schedule and around 100 difference showing in the calf supply.

Beef cattle were around in less numbers than on Thursday and found a more sympathetic market, good grass steers selling early at $6.20, steady with the small decline of the week.

All classes of she stock appeared to be going at steady figures, early sales of butcher cows at $3.75 to $4.00 indicating this. The cow movement was not overly brisk, about a third of the day's supply being late in arriving.

Early proffers in the heifer trade made it apparent that buyers wanted these light weights at lower prices. Ruling prices were $3.50 to $5.00, carloads of strong weights moving at $8.25@8.75.

Shippers were active at the start in the calf trade and the early movement showed a steady trend. Later, packers took less desirable calves at a shading of a quarter, heavy calves selling around $5.

A load and a piece of a load, supplemented by 550 directs embraced the 700 hog supply. Market unchanged with the load selling at $12 and the "piece" at $11.50. Pigs and packing sows unchanged and scarce.

Six decks of the expected sheep supply estimated at 800 were late. Wethers steady at $8 on the early rounds.

Cattle 4,200 including 1,000 calves; market steady; beeves $5.25@7.50; stockers $4.25@6.50; fat cows $3.00@5.00; heifers $4.00@7.25; yearlings $5.00@8.00; canners $2.00@2.35; cutters $2.40@3.75; bulls $3.00@4.50; calves $3.50@7.00.

Hogs, 700; market steady; best medium weight $11.00@12.00; good mixed $11.50@11.90; good light $11.75@11.80; fair mixed $11.40@11.50; fair light $11.00@11.25; common $9.00@10.00; packing sows $11.00@11.25; pigs $9.00@11.50.

Sheep receipts 800; market steady; lambs $12.00@13.50; feeder lambs $10.00@12.00; wethers $8.00@8.25; yearlings $11.00@11.75; ewes $6.00@7.25; culls $3.00@5.00; stockers $6.00@7.50; goats $1.50@3.00.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—Cattle 2,500, calves 500; steady; top heavy steers $9.75; bulk $8.00@8.50; grass fat cows and heifers $4.00@7.00; canners and cutters $3.25@3.75; veal top $10.50.

Hogs, 5,000; active; bulk of sales $11.25@11.55; packing sows $10.25@10.60; stock pigs $11.50@12.00.

Sheep 4,000; steady; lambs $15.10@15.35.

Market Gossip

R. E. lowerres and Co., brokers, Staley Bldg., today received the following market comment from Fenner and Beane of New York, New Orleans and Chicago:

COTTON.

The cotton market was a two-sided affair today with the nears decloping considerable strength and closing 15 points net higher while the distant positions are about unchanged.

There was good buying at the start on strong spot news and expectation of bullish spinners taking. Spot houses were credited with being free buyers of the near positions. Prices advanced 15 to 20 points on December and January during the buying. The buying movement was checked somewhat by cables indicating British spinners might reduce working time 4½ hours a week for a couple of months. Spinners takings failed to come up to expectations, though large and forecasts of consumption were no encouraging. Added to this was a forecast of fair weather from western sections.

Prices dipped 30 to 35 points around the middle of the session, but came back in the last half hour and closed strong. Attempts of early sellers to cover was apparently the cause of the late rally.

Trading sentiment is more or less reactionary at the moment, but the spot situation is encouraging buying on the dips and is likely to prove uplifting in the long run.

GRAINS.

Wheat: Important development in the wheat market and the situation is changing attitude of the foreign buyer. The Liverpool tells of a brosded demand from millers, also buying by importers, and our own seaboard says that all wheat offered aboard last night was accepted, the day's export business being estimated at upwards of three million bushels.

Cables from Russia less optimistic. In as much as importers have confined their purchases to immediate requirements, it is not unreasonable to expect that change in attitude may become a prominent factor in the situation. Price advanced so steadily during the week that a reaction is natural, but we cannot see wherein the reasons underlying the advance have been changed, except to be increased by the revival of foreign interest. It seems improper to expect lower prices.

Coarse Grains: The small stocks of corn in Chicago elevators, the indifferent selling of either old or new crop by the country and the strong premiums for current arrivals have forced the sellers of the corn futures, particularly December, to recognize the incorrectness of their theories of a heavy movement and a weak cash situation. This market has no strongly exciting motive, and therefore may ruie slow, but we think each and every reason heretofore advanced for lower prices has been over-exploited.

STOCKS.

Stocks were very active today, and for the most part higher. Failure of the New York Federal Reserve bank to raise the rediscount rate, gave the market a good start at the opening, and it continued strong most of the session.

Pittsburgh, no arrivals, steady. Lug boxes wrapped turnings $2.25 to $2.50.

TEXAS PRODUCE.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13.—At North Texas markets poultry and eggs were mostly steady this morning. San Antonio however, reported a further easing in the demand for hens, but a decided firmness in turkeys and eggs, the latter of which were at the highest price of the season.

San Antonio: Hens 12@15c; fryers 25@27c; roosters 10@12c pound liveweight; eggs per 30 dozen cases $11@11.50 for fresh gathered firsts; turkeys, No. 1's 26@27c; old toms 22@24c; No. 2's, 13c pound liveweight.

Fort Worth: Hens, large 12@14c; small 10@12c; springs, large 22@24c; small 18@20c; old roosters 8c pound liveweight; geese 75c@$1 each; ducks 50@75c each; guineas 30@35c each. Turkeys, No. 1's, 25@27c; No. 2's, mostly 15@17c; old toms 22@24c.

Eggs, fresh gathered firsts $12 to producers. Storage No. 1, candled $10.50 to $11.50 to retailers.

Butter, packing stock country 28@30c; creamery A 50c; B 48c pound.

CHICAGO PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Butter higher; receipts 7,338 tubs; creamery extras 49½c; standards 45c; extra firsts 46@48c; firsts 43½@44½c; seconds 41@42½c.

Eggs, unchanged; receipts 1,997 cases.

Poultry alive, steady; receipts 11 cars, fowls 15@22c; springs 22c; turkeys 32c; roosters 15c; ducks 20@23c; geese 19c.

TEXAS VEGETABLES.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13.—Although moved in small quantities a wide variety of commodities were listed as rolling from Texas points yesterday. The shipments included four Texas of a total of 63 cars grapefruit, one freight and four express of a total of 13 cars of string beans, one of 56 cars white potatoes, one of 14 cars tomatoes, four of 51 cars sweet potatoes and four of 51 mixed vegetables. Besides these movements for there was listed as previously unreported for Wednesday four Texas of a total of 30 cars mixed vegetables, and two Texas of a total of three cars string beans. Total shipments of commodities in which Texas did not participate follow: Apples 723 cars, lettuce 39, lemons seven, celery 83, cauliflower nine, cucumbers two, eggplant one, grapes 76, cabbage171, spinach 13, peppers 11, pears 12, oranges 131, incomplete, onions 154.

There was an unsettled undertone to the cabbage trade at Rochester yesterday where usual terms cars of Danish brought mostly $20@22 ton against $28@30 at Wisconsin points. Too few sales of potatoes at Idaho Falls were reported to establish a market, haulings were very light on account of the snow. Apples on a usual terms basis were quoted at $2 for boxed extra fancy Jonathans at $1.85 to $2.00 f. o. b. usual terms.

TEXAS TURKEYS.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 13.—The Texas turkey market is unsettled but with a decidedly firm undertone. There is more inquiry from eastern markets for supplies and notwithstanding the fact that today is the last freighting day for South Texas and tomorrow for North Texas, there is no rolling date specified in some of the inquiries for No. 1, dressed around 40 to 41 cents Texas track. Meanwhile some of the largest houses are dickering among themselves for 38 to 39 and 40 cents track with considerable more offers than takers, two factors causing much hesitancy first the quality of the early stock which is seldom very high and second, the fact that open weather throughout the middle west will have a tendency to push more farm dressed, cheaply freighted stuff from Kansas and Missouri points into the heavy consuming markets.

Despite the uncertainty of these factors, optimism prevails in many circles and the undertone of the market is not weak. Upward of 27 cents live weight straight run basis was paid farmers today, some dealers even running trucks and paying that price to the farms. At San Antonio with reasonable care in purchasing this basis many lots were grinding out as high as 25 per cent No. 2's, but the demands of the local market for immediate consumption were taking care of the second quality nicely and only the very best stock was going to the coolers for carlot concentration. North Texas points reported receipts more liberal although the immaturity of the birds at Weatherford was making deliveries to dressing plants there light. Occasionally as much as 28 cents was paid growers where a car needed to be finished out.

SHARP EARTHQUAKE

MANILA, Nov. 13.—(AP)—A strong earthquake occurred at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The tremors continued for a half hour. The weather bureau estimated the center of the disturbance to be three hundred miles from Manila.

IRRIGATION

Effect of Root Rot on Seed Germination.

When root rot attacks the roots of a cotton stalk the death of the plant is very sudden. In fact the plant acts much the same as though it had been cut off at the ground with a knife.

Unripened bolls have only the sap remaining in the plant above the root line to develop them. As we have seen the lint of unripened bolls is seriously affected in this way and the same thing applies to the seed.

Seeds from bolls that were practically mature at the time of the death of the plant germinate quite as well as seed from mature bolls of plants not affected.

On the other hand seed from unripened bolls is found by tests which have been made to have a very low percentage of germination.

The disease itself does not affect the seed. Seeds cannot carry the disease. Only live roots can do this. The fungus which causes the death of cotton and other plants does not live above ground.

The only thing the farmer needs to fear in getting seed from fields which are badly affected with root rot is that a large percentage of them will not sprout. They will not carry the disease from an infected field to a clean one in this way.

There may be of course a somewhat greater susceptibility to the disease in plants grown from infected fields, but even this remains to be proven.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Chief speculative interest shifted from the motors to the rails on the resumption of the broad upward movement in today's stock market. Trading was again on an enormous scale, total sales of 2,984,300 being exceeded this year only by Tuesday's record breaking session of 3,940,600 shares.

Speculators for the advance had plenty of ammunition in their campaign for higher prices. Of paramount importance was the retention of the 3½ per cent rediscount rate by the New York Federal Reserve bank. The weekly mercantile reviews continued optimistic in tone. Dun's stated "no perceptible lessening of business confidence resulted from the collapse of stock prices early this week." Bradstreet's reported that "trade and industrial reports are more uniformly favorable than at any preceding period this year, a distinct increase in good trade reports being noted this week and business is still heavily ahead of what it was one and two years ago at this date."

General Motors encountered the traditional "selling on the good news" following the announcement of the $3 extra cash dividend, the stock closing over two points lower at 137⅝. Hudson also fell back over two points to 116¼ and Pierce Arrow, Packard, White and Studebaker yielded fractionally. Mack Trucks showed independent strength by climbing to 227⅝, closing just below the top.

Rails were under heavy accumulation throughout the session. Pittsburgh and West Virginia advanced 12½ points to a new record high at 107 and Atlantic Coast Line recorded a similar gain at 233¼, also a new top. New York Central moved up three points to the highest price since 1909 and Baltimore and Ohio climber over three points to 92½, the highest level since 1910. Other new highes for a year or longer in that group were attained by Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Norfolk and Western and Lehigh Valley, the gains running from fractions to nearly six points.

Heavy buying of the oils was based on reports of improved trade conditions and rumors of an early increase in Pennsylvania crude prices. Marland Mid-Continent Petroleum, Kelly and Sun broke through to new high levels while the Pan-American issues, Pure Oil, Standard Oils of California and New Jersey, Independent Oil and Gas and Houston all recorded new gains of one to 2½ points.

Buoyancy also developed in a number of high priced industrial specialties in which favorable developments are believed to be pending. Foundation company, which recently announced the signing of several important foreign contracts, jumped nine points to a record high for all time at 175. American Can, American Safety Razor, Crucible Steel, Ingersoll Band (new stock), Ludlum Steel, National Lead, Pathe Exchange, Pittsburgh Terminal Coal, Remington Typewriter, Standard Milling, United Drug and Woolworth were among the many issues to show net gains of 3 to 6½ points. U. S. Steel took on a new lease of life by climbing 4¾ points to 137½.

Radio corporation and Union Bag and Paper were in supply most of the day, showing net losses of 3⅛ and 2¼ points, respectively.

Call money held steady all day at 4¼ per cent. Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged.

Trading in the foreign exchange quieted down with the principal rates holding firm. Demand sterling ruled around $4.84⅞ and French francs and Italian lire were quoted just above 4.04 cents.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

A broader, stronger market has ruled in wool during the past week. The tendency of values is upward in this market and the foreign markets generally have been active and strong. Australia has been against the buyer. Bradford is reported rather quiet but firm. Competition in the foreign primary markets is more general than at any time previously this season.

Scattered buying is reported in the west at about eastern market parity. The Texas fall season is scheduled to commence in San Angelo Tuesday with a sealed bid sale.

Mohair is rather quiet but very firm. Quotations, scoured basis:

Texas fine 12 months (selected) $1.30@1.35; fine 8 months $1.20.

Mohair, best combing 75@80c; best carding 65@70c.

lot or parcel of property and the owner thereof, are on file in the office of the City Clerk and are open to inspection.

The estimated cost of said improvement is $631.55.

The estimated amount to be assessed against the property owner is $574.14.

The estimated amount to be assessed for curb is $0.35 per lineal foot of curb; and

The estimated amount of the assessment against said property owner and said property for pavement and excavation is $6.60938 per front foot.

All persons, firms, corporations or estates, their agents or attorneys, desiring to be heard in any matter or thing in any wise connected with said improvements, the assessment therefor, the benefits thereof, the damages resulting therefrom, or the proceedings connected therewith, shall be and appear before said board at said time and place.

Done in accordance with resolution of the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wichita Falls, Texas, on the 9th day of November, 1925.

Mustangs Discover Punch.

"Smear the Bears," is the slogan Coach Ray Morrison's Mustangs envisage all over the campus, and at their training field in preparation for the contest today with the Bruin aggregation. Although neither team has scored a victory in Southwestern conference games this season, they retain their fighting spirit and a hotly contested game is looked for.

Bill Vaughan, stalwart line player on the Mustang squad, has returned to his old position at tackle. He is one of the most versatile men on the team. Howard Wade, powerful defensive fullback, will also be in the starting lineup against Baylor. He has been out with an injured hand.

The amazing kicking of Ned Kimbrough during the week's strenuous practice has startled "rah birds." This player, who has been used as a substitute heretofore, will probably be in the starting line-up. It is believed by local critics that S. M. U has finally developed the "extra punch" that has been lacking in their work in previous games this season. The Mustangs have lost only one Southwestern conference game in three years. That defeat came at the hands of Texas Aggies this year.

Bridges Optimistic.

Coach Frank Bridges and two bus loads of Baylor Bears left Waco Friday afternoon for Dallas primed to stop Ray Morrison's S. M. U. Mustangs, and save an already blemished season from complete disaster.

With the exception of Sam Coates, who is suffering with injuries to both of his legs, the Baylor team is in top condition. Coates will start the game at end.

On leaving Waco, Bridges was optimistic over the chances of the Bears winning. He said" You can tell them that we will be battling the Ponies for every foot, and if we can get a break or two, we might win." The morale of the team continued high.

Members of the Baylor team are determined to break the "Dallas Jinx" which has been draped around the football aspirations of Waco elevens for three years.

The probable line-up:

Hundreds of Baylor students and Waco fans left for Dallas to attend the game.

Frogs Fear Hog Line.

Arkansas and T. C. U. will face each other with almost full power. The Horned Frogs will have only Bernard Williams and Ray Wolfe out of the line-up while the Porkers are to have Sam Rosson absent.

Williams is fullback and one of the best in the conference. Hiss loss would be irreparable were it not for Don Frazee, who fortunately was able to play against A. and M. last week after having been out with a sprained ankle since before the first game. As it is, the Frogs will be well protected at full. Wolfe will be replaced at guard by Jew Levy, who will play his first game for several weeks.

Rosson is a substitute end for the Razorbacks.

The Horned Toads have prepared for an open attack against the Razorbacks. The Porkers have a powerful line from tackle to tackle and almost every thrust on the offense will be in some place other than that line.

Head Coach McKale sent his 22 Arizona Wildcat gridsters through a brisk workout Friday on the Memorial stadium gridiron. Spectators were impressed with the snappy fashioned way in which the Wildcats went through their paces. The Longhorns, attired in track suits, took a workout early in the afternoon to accommodate the visitors.

Gillilan Arizona's Ace.

Indications were the teams will have an ideal day for football. The gridiron will be in excellent condition, barring heavy rains this morning.

Line-up of the Wildcats will be about as follows: Ends, Flickenger and Brook shir; tackles, Smith and Divelbess; guards, Clark and Austin; center, Gentry or Shiflett; quarterback, Salmon; halfbacks, Captain Gilliland and Drachman; fullback, Crouch.

Captain Gilliland is the offensive ace of the visitors, being a hard line plunger and a brilliant performer in the open field.

Coach Stewart has announced he intends to start his first string eleven, contradicting persistent rumors he would start a second string combination. Probable Longhorn line-up follows: Ends, Newell and Olle; tackles, Higgins and "Swampy" Thompson; guards, Moore and Homan; center, Pfannkuche; quarterback, Captain Wright; halfbacks, Stallter and Saxon; fullback, Rufus King.

Interest will be added to the contest by attendance of several hundred parents of Texas university students. Today is Dad and Mother's Day at the Longhorn institution.

Dartmouth and Yale Favored.

The east's football forces are arrayed Friday night in readiness for another series of contests destined to determine several championships.

GAS STATION NO PARK SIGNS UNDER ATTACK

Mayor Says They are Unauthorized by The Council

A south central divisional meeting of the United States chamber of commerce; civic nuisances in the business district; community growth and the first ripple that will swell into the annual membership meeting in January combined Friday to make a busy session of the business council of the chamber of commerce.

Protests were voiced against curb gasoline filling stations and "reserved for trade, no parking" signs in the business district and after Mayor R. E. Shepherd told the council the city did not authorize the signs and looked with disfavor on the pumps, a committee composed of J. D. Bright, Ira S. Cain and J. W. Pond was appointed to investigate the matter.

Acting on a plea from Frank Kell that the local chamber take an active interest in the regional meeting in Oklahoma City, December 1 and 2, Jack Barnard, chairman of the council, named J. S. Bridwell, J. P. Waggoner and W. B. Hamilton as a committee to work out and submit recommendations. It is hoped that a large number of Wichitans will be able to attend at least one day of the Oklahoma City meeting.

Dr. T. U. Taylor, dean of the school of engineering of the University of Texas, who is in the city on business, spoke briefly on the remarkable growth of Wichita Falls in the past 20 years. He predicted that the end was not yet in sight.

January 15 was set as a tentative date for the annual chamber of commerce banquet and J. T. Harrell, president of the chamber, named the following committee to plan the event: Frank Timberlake, George Gutzman, R. Vaughn Ray, Dr. L. Mackechney, Mrs. J. T Harrell, Mrs. W. P. Killingsworth, Mrs. P. A. Welty and Dr. J. W. Cantwell.

Re-Location of Texas System Urged at Woman's Club Meet.

AUSTIN, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Re-location of the Texas prison system, and the state's acceptance and maintenance of the chain of "state parks," tendered during the Pat Neff administration were among the objectives for which the Texas Federation of Women's clubs pledged itself to work late today shortly before adjournment.

Where does the pretty girl get the things she can't afford in Wichita Falls? How does she pay for these gifts?

ALLEGED DRUG DEALER SHOT BY U. S. AGENT

George Mitchell Injured As He Makes "Hip Packet" Move

George Mitchell, said by police to have had a long prison recod, as a result of trafficking in narcotics, was in the general hospital Friday with ar bullet wound in his right arm as a result of being shot by W. G. Nance, federal narcotic agent of Fort Worth who accosted him in front of the union station. Nance shot, he said, when Mitchell ignored an order to hold up his hands and made a move that the officer construed as reaching for a gun.

One shot entered the right forearm and plowed its way down to a point just below the wrist where it emerged. Mitchell was taken to the city hall and then removed to the hospital.

Nance and Motorcycle Officer J. Perskey had gone to the station about 10 o'clock Friday morning in response to word that Mitchell and a companion were there. The officers found the pair and Nance ordered them to stand and submit to a search. Mitchell, Nance asserted, made a "hip pocket" motion that brought on the shooting. Mitchell's companion broke and ran but was captured by Perskey. He is in jail.

Dean Taylor is a well known speaker in Texas, and particularly is he known among students of the university as the students' friend.

Harold Lloyd's College Film, "The Freshman," Starts At Olympic Today

For the first time in his ten years of cutting comic capers on the screen, Harold Lloyd plays the role of a college boy. He has played many parts, but "The Freshman" is the first time he's donned a turtle-neck sweater and a pill cap and done the rah, rah stuff! Now that it's finished and all that remains is to hang around theaters and listen to the ha, ha stuff that sifts through the ventilators, Harold thinks that being a college kid is about the most strenuous role he's played.

Today sees the first showing of "The Freshman" at the Olympic Theater. It shows the efforts of a freshman named Lamb to become popular and succeeding in being only the goat! The action covers his arrival and reception at Tate college; his love for pretty Peggy, the only one in town who isn't laughing up their sleeves at the little Lamb! his predicament at a ball at which he wears a basted dress suit; his efforts to make the football team, and the big game in which the school's reputation hangs perilously in the balance.

Here's Instant Relief from Bunions and Soft Corns

Actually Reduces the Swelling—Soft Corns Dry Right Up and Can be Picked Off

All Druggists Say Emerald Oil Must Give Complete Satisfaction or Money Cheerfully Refunded

Get a two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) today. Every well stocked drug store has this, with the distinct understanding that your money will be cheerfully returned if it does not reduce the inflammation, soreness, and pain much quicker than any remedy you ever used.

Your bunions may be so swollen and inflammed that you think you can't go another step. Your shoes ma yfeel as if they are cutting right into the flesh. You feel sick all over with the pain and torture and pray for quick relief. What's to be done?

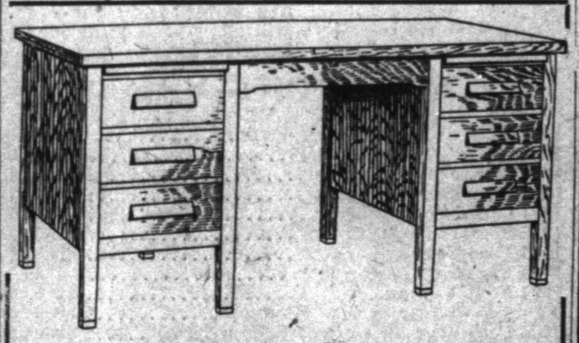

Two or three applications of Moones' Emerald Oil and in fifteen minutes all the pain and soreness disappears. A few more applications at regular intervals and the swelling reduces.

And as for Soft Corns a few applications each night at bed time and they just seem to shrivel right up and scale off.

No matter how discouraged you have been with pads, shields, or other applications, if you have not tried Emerald Oil then you have something to learn. Something that will end your foot troubles for ever.

It's a wonderful formula—this combination of essential oils with camphor and other antiseptics so marvelous that thousands of bottles are sold annually for reducing varicose or swollen veins.

All Druggists and every good druggist guarantees Moore's Emerald Oil to end your foot troubles or money back.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE LAST STRAW

Grand Opera is soon to be given in rag time.
We misunderstood Mr. Wagner,
For most of the years of our life
We thought that his stuff was discordant and rough—
A hideous musical strife.
In fact all the great compositions
Of masters both living and dead
In the days of our youth—if we must tell the truth—
Were utterly over our head.

We were strong for the barber shop ballads,
And the tunes that our grandfathers knew,
And the popular songs that recited the wrongs
Of maidens whose hearts were too true.
We were fond of the saccharine waltzes
Turned out by the late Mr. Strauss,
And the lilts that Blanche Ring used to step out and sing
In a fashion that brought down the house.

But we have our pet hatreds in music,
As probably every one has;
And when all through the land every kind of a band
Began to play nothing but jazz,
We turned to the opera for refuge—
And, to our amazement we found
That we speedily fell for its magical spell,
And thought it the last word in sound.

And now, if they jazz Mr. Wagner
And render Puccini in rag,
If the classical tunes are squeaked out on bassoons
That sound like a sheep with a jag,
We must wander about the great city
Distrait and bemused and demented,
And cursing the day while pursuing our way
That music was ever invented!

TOP O' MORN STUFF
By Blondy Cross.

Well, well, well!

Now there's little breaking in a baseball way while the gridiron giant holds sway, the hot stovers have got to do something or other to keep fuel burning in the winter league file.

* * *

Extra! Extra!

New Spudder baseball team organized!

She may not back the original Spudder aggregation off the map, but there's one class of the ball fraternity which had better look to its laurels.

* * *

ON YOUR TOES, GENTS.

Challenges are hereby, formally and otherwise issued to the world of baseball magnates at large by the Spudder board of directors. Yessir, any board of directors from the major league to the Pacific coast and back to the class double A and single A sectors of the middlewest, south and southwest are dared to place a club composed of themselves on the diamond for combat with this new Spudder nine of old heads.

* * *

DON'T YOU DARE.

Brother, we have a sure enough galaxy of veteran ball chunkers right behind these Spudders this year. There are nine members of the Spud directors' board, and they all used to wear the diamond spangles in seasons gone by. Any bunch of old heads who would like to try their hand against this aggregation should get in touch with J. William Gray, who we ourselves and none other have appointed team manager and all-around utility man, by long distance telephone or wire. Don't write in shorthand or with chalk.

* * *

FREDDY PITCHES.

Look 'em over, Charley, no reference to Charley McNutt, the automobile gentleman. We have none other than young Freddy Weeks, former Yale pitcher and owner of the famous Irish Lads of Wichita Falls and the greatest semi-pro club ever banded together in Texas, to take care of the chunking chores.

* * *

For hindketch, we'll use that youthful but brilliant performer, Mister E. G. Hill, whose only drawback is his lack of avoirdupois and slenderness of form. E. G. was a flash in the old days behind the bat while playing at Moody, whereever that is, and as a Texas semi-pro.

* * *

At first base, one couldn't afford to use any other but Bill Huff, the former Baylor star, and one of the few living humans who was born and reared in the speedily growing city of Wichita Falls.

* * *

SHIFT J. A. AROUND.

Now for second base, we would consider President Gardner, who can play 'most anywhere but would prefer working behind the plate. Gardner, you remember, at one time was one of Texas' leading semi-pro athletes. Incidently, he managed the Gulf team at the time it won the Wichita Falls championship. J. A. played at Beaumont, and turned down Texas league offers because he could make more money where he was.

* * *

Doc Bass is the natural selection for shortstop no matter what position he held down when with the Longview Cannibals. Yeah, Doc's a classy ball player as well as being a dyed-in-the-wool fan and a director of the Spuds.

* * *

SHINO AT THIRD.

We'll put another youngster at third base. The Spudders got by fairly well last season with a kid at the hot corner, meaning Freddy Dorman, so it's reasonable to believe Shino Cullum, former Texas university athlete and Dallas city leaguer, can hold down the job.

* * *

Now in left field because we want an exceptionally speedy ball hawk, one who can range over across the boundary and catch fouls, and then romp back toward centerfield to snag any humpbacked liners opponents may garner off Weeks' delivery, let us put C. E. McCutchen, the banker and slugger extraordinary who formerly pastimed with the Munday team.

* * *

Lloyd Weaver used to alternate between left and right field at Cordell Academy, but we're going to give him a shot in the center garden, putting R. O. Harvey in right. Harvey hits from all sides of the plate including before and behind, and can throw with either hand.

* * *

MASTER MIND STUFF.

This club intends to spring a new one on base runners. Because of Weaver's uncanny speed afoot, he will be expected to cover most of right field, too. Harvey will play close to the foul line, wait until runners on first take a big lead, and then sneak up to first and catch 'em off. The plan should work immensely after the fifth or sixth attempt, for First Baseman Huff will play over toward second causing the runner to think he is safe in grabbing too long a lead for him to get back to the bag when R. O. slips in and takes the throw from Weeks. Should the runner head for the keystone, Harvey will secret the ball in his hip pocket, and Gardner will tag the runner with another horsehide hidden for this specific purpose.

* * *

And if the umpires come back and start to search R. O., J. Will Gray in the mean time will start a fight with the bat boy, thereby distracting attention long enough for Harvey to throw the pellet over the fence to Officer Ping Bodie who will be on the outside watching for lost balls.

* * *

Now let's see any baseball board of directors team anywhere in the universe with the unmitigated gall to say nothing of unbounded egotism to even insinuate they would stand a chance of copping the grapes on the field of battle against this aggregation of ball warhorses. Biff!

INDIANS MAY BE HAMPERED BY STIFFNESS

Invaders, Led by McDaniel, On Hand—Game Starts At 3 o'Clock

Mosley's Junior College Indians, in great condition although having engaged in two hard road contests during the past seven days, clash with Weatherford college this afternoon on the Spudder park gridiron at 3 o'clock. Fred Datson, midget halfback, is the only member of the Tribe squad not in shape for the game. He is handicapped with a severely wrenched knee.

Stephenson, clever backfielder who was out of the past two games because of an injury and lowness in his studies, will be ready to step into Datson's shoes.

The game today may have an important bearing on the conference title race for both clubs are contenders although John Tarleton, victorious over the Indians last Saturday, has not been defeated as yet.

The Wichita Falls team may perform a bit slowly at the start of this afternoon's encounter due to stiffness caused from the game with Tarleton and the tilt with McMurray Wednesday, but once the players are limbered up the going is expected to prove exceedingly rough for the visiting eleven.

The Line-up.

Mosley probably will start the following line-up:

Clary at center, Karns and Hirschi at guards, Weeth and Burks at tackles, Harris and Crites at wing positions, Deems at quarter, Stephenson and West at halfback and Beaty at fullback.

If Stephenson shows up anything like he has done at packing the oval in the last several games he played, this lad will be a sharp thorn in the side of the Weatherford machine. If he can perform up to his usual style he should prove the backbone of the Tribe offense abetted of course by the plunging of Beaty and West, the open running game led by Deems and a fairly clever forward passing attack developed of late with both Harris and Crites taking a stellar role on the receiving end.

Line Must Hold.

Wichita Falls is expected to show a well balanced forward wall, the outcome now of weeks and weeks of hard drill by Mosley. The Tribe will need its best today in that line, for Mosley is short of backfield material and should one or more of the after defense lads be forced from the melee the bulk of the backfield work will fall on the shoulders of just one or two individuals.

Weatherford Arrives.

Coach McDaniel and his Weatherford college club arrived in Wichita Falls yesterday afternoon. The Weatherford mentor is well known in this part of the country, having coached the Burkburnett high school last year.

The warriors from Weatherford went through a short practice at Spudder park. McDaniel announced his line-up for the afternoon's game as Farquhar, left end; Fain, left tackle; King, left guard; Barker, center; Davenport, right guard; Ray, right tackle; Barbee, right end; Griffin quarterback; Jennings, left half; Carrow, right half; Hearne, fullback.

The biggest feather in this team's cap is the holding of John Tarleton to a 27 to 0 score.

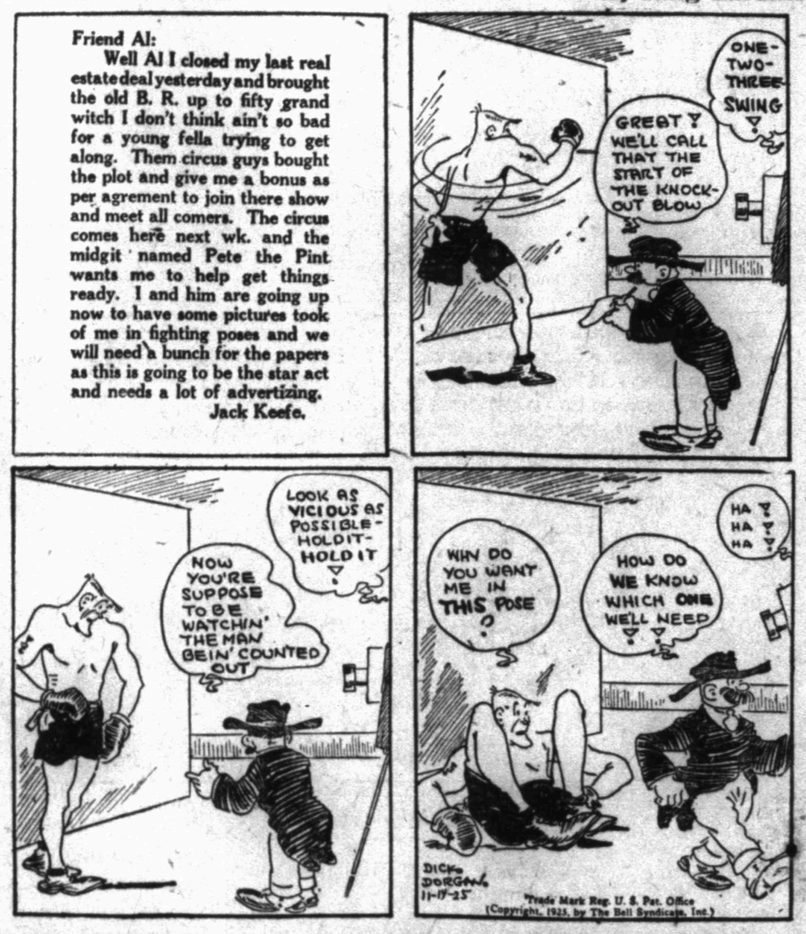

Cadets Storm Houston Today

HOUSTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—Two thousand khaki-clad, leather-lunged, football-crazed A. and M. college cadets, will invade Houston tomorrow with the intention of capturing the Rice Owl and bringing him back to Aggieland. Infantry, cavalry, signal corps, field artilery and air service will participate. After their experience with T. C. U. last Saturday the Farmers are in a war-like mood and the campaign tomorrow against Rice Institute will very likely be hard fought.

The cadet corps, accompanied by President T. O. Walton, Lieutenant Colonel F. H. Turner, commandant of the college and many members of the faculty will leave College Station on four special trains. At Houston to the stirring martial music of the 100-piece Aggie band the cadet corps, armed with rifles, will sweep in platoon front down Main street in parade.

LIONS WORK ON DEFENSE FOR COYOTES

Vernon to Launch Varied Attack— Many Rooters Coming

VERNON, Nov. 13.—Coach Baggett is drilling the Vernon Lions in defense formations against the offensive plays used by the Wichita Falls Coyotes in preparation for the game in the Coyotes' stronghold Monday. The Lion mentor has added a few new formations to his team's threat this week.

However, the Lions mentor saw little in the Electra-Wichita Falls clash Armistice Day that will aid him in preparing his defense in spite of the fact that he and all of his squad were there. The Coyotes used very little other than straight football.

According to plays used in practice sessions, the Vernon club will launch one of the most versatile attacks Monday that has been used against an opposing team this year. Ryan has returned to the Lion squad, and his addition strengthens several phases of the club's offensive.

School officials of Vernon are making preparations to have a large number attend the game Monday, and school will be held in the Vernon city schools Saturday in order that the students may attend the Wichita Falls contest. Arrangements are being made with the chamber of commerce to transport as many rooters to the game as wish to go.

COYOTE PUPS STEP ON BURK SECOND STRING

Brackett and Farris Lead Juniors to 20 to 0 Victory

The Coyote Pups displayed a great brand of football and an undying fighting spirit that enabled them to win their first game of the season as well as score their first points of the year, over the Burkburnett second stringers Friday afternoon at Spudder park. The score was 20 to 0.

Long runs by Roy Brackett and Hunky Farris were the features of play. On the second play of the second quarter Roy Brackett, scrappy halfback, broke through the Burkburnett right tackle and sprinted up the field for a 60-yard run, only to be pulled down on the 10-yard line by Hogue and Hood.

Farris started from his own 40-yard line, and broke loose around left end for 40 yards. The whole line and backfield were digging low and coming in hard. Several times the Burg plays were smeared before they were started.

Hood Covers Ground.

Hogue, Johnson, Hunt and York were the most effective linesmen in the Burkburnett line, and were playing a great game. The Burk club occasionally displayed a pretty overhead attack.

Pat Hood was the most consistant ground gainer for Burkburnett, but lacked the aid of his mates to pierce the hardened wall of the Pups' forward defense.

Brackett, Carter, Fly and Farris tore through the Burk line almost at will in the opening half. Powell, Giles, Nichols and Bains proved the bulwark of the Pups line defense, while Carter did some great work in stopping those who managed to break through the line.

Farris Gets Away.

The Pups' first score came on a steady march down the field after Pete Powell, nervy little guard, had covered a Burkburnett fumble on the 45-yard line. Straight plunges by Carter, Farris and Brackett shoved the ball down the field, and Carter carried it over fromthe three-yard line.

In the third quarter, Anderson covered a fumble on Wichita Falls' 33-yard line. Fly later rounded the Burkburnett right end for 15 yards. They lost five yards. The quarter ended with the ball on the Wichita Falls' 33-yard line. Farris made three yards at left tackle then came through the same spot for his 60-yard run. Three bucks sent Farris over the goal line.

Late in the final period the Pups started from the 35-yard line and bucked to the 14-yard line when a juggle pass was scooped by Goff, who crossed the line for the final score.

The lineups:

Wichita Falls	Pos.	Burkburnett
Anderson	LE.	Hogue
Bains	LT.	York
Davenport	LG.	Vance
Nichols	C.	Clure
Powell	RG.	Hunt
Berry	RT.	Petty
Giles	RE.	Johnson
Fly	QB.	Barron
Brackett	LH.	Mood
Carter	RH.	Hurd
Farris	FB.	Griffin

Score by quarters:

Wichita Falls	7	7	0	6	—20

Touchdowns: Carter, Farris, Goff. Points after touchdown: Nichols 2. (Both from placement.)

Substitutions: Wichita Falls: Saye for Berry, Goff for Giles, F. Herndon for Anderson, Tandy for Davenport, Hodgekiss for Carter, Dulaney for Brackett, L. Herndon for F. Herndon, F. Herndon for Nichols.

Burkburnett: Trask for Hurd, Tiffen for Vance, Bates for Tiffen, Hurd for Johnson.

Moore Biggest Ground Gainer In Tiger Game

A complete summing up of the Wichita Falls-Electra ground gainers Wednesday gave Dempsey Moore, of the Coyotes the largest territory. The adding up of the gains and the substraction of their losses were summed up, and still left Moore the big leader. Bob More, of Electra, ran second. The figures also leave out the return of punts and only gives the distance made through the line of scrimmage.

Moore, plunging fullback, ripped off no less than 82 yards in gains, but lost an even 20 yards. The total figures of the other backs with any amount of ground gaining are:

	TG.	L.	YH.
Dempsey Moore	82	20	62
Bob More	42	1	41
Ed Powell	46	6	40
Vincent Tramell	40	0	40
Coyal Francis	25	0	25
Buck Steed	30	8	22

The "TG" means the total gainage. L means the loss of ground, and YH means the yardage held and is found after the loss is substracted from the total gainage.

Indians One of Best Teams In The Southwest! Sure! Just Take Look Over Comparative Scores!

Some of the Junior college lads sat themselves down the other day and doped out on a comparative score basis just how the Indians stock up in the gridiron world. Of course, comparison of scores mean nothing, but merely for the sport of the thing they got their pencils out and "proved" the club is one of the greatest in the southwest. It's based on that 13-13 tie game registered with McMurray Wednesday.

McMurray tried Texas Tech, making this pair and the Indians even betting. Texas beat A. C. C. 10 to 7, making the Tribe three points better than A. C. C. T. C. U. beat A. C. C. 21 to 9, making T. C. U. nine points the better over the Junior college. A. & M. held T. C. U. to a 3 to 0 score, and are accordingly six points better than the Junior college. Simmons beat T. C. U. 28 to 19, making the club even with Simmons. Simmons beat Trinity 9 to 7, making the Junior college two points better than Trinity. Trinity beat Baylor 10 to 3, A. & M. beat Baylor 13 to 0, and Texas beat Baylor 13 to 3, all making the Indians 19 points better than Baylor. Baylor beat Howard Payne 20 to 4, making the Redskins 35 points better than Howard Payne. Texas beat Baylor only 13 to 3, making the Junior college 9 points better than Texas. Texas and S. M. U. played a 0 to 0 tie, making the college also nine points better than Rice. Rice beat Arkansas 13 to 9, making Junior college 34 points better than Arkansas. Louisiana State university beat Rice 6 to 0, which makes the Junior college 25 points better than Louisiana State. Rice beat Southwestern 19 to 0, making the Junior college 49 points better than Southwestern. Howard Payne beat Austin college 19 to 0, making the college 54 points better than Austin college. Southwestern beat St. Edwards 12 to 6, making the Indians 55 points better than St. Edwards.

Now if that doesn't prove they have a real football team just go out to Spudder park this afternoon and watch them play Weatherford college in their big conference game and watch the team that by comparative scores should be the runner-up in the Southwestern conference.

Ku Klux Causing Trouble in Canada

VICTORIA. B. C., Nov. 13.—(AP)—British Columbia is powerless to cope with the activities of Canadian members of the ku klux klan. This has been learned by members of the legislature who have been urged in a formal notice to prevent the klan from organizing in the province. Officials of the attorney general's department announced that only the federal government can prevent the klan from going ahead with its plans.

It is now considered likely that the resolution at present before the house asking the provincial government to outlaw the organization will be altered and that a petition will be sent to the federal authorities at Ottawa requesting them to take action.

CLOSING DATE

The Great Elephant Puzzle Contest Will Close At Nine P. M. Saturday, November 14, 1925.

The earlier you send in your solution the longer time you will have to go over your figures, AND SEND IN ANOTHER SOLUTION, if you find you can do better. Additional charts may be secured at any time by calling at the address below or sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope for mailing them. No SOLUTION CAN BE CHANGED AFTER IT HAS BEEN ONCE REGISTERED.

Important Facts to Remember

While the amount you pay with a solution of the puzzle does not have any effect on your winning a prize, it does affect the amount you will receive, should you win one of the first nine prizes, as the value of these prizes is determined by what the winners pay. The time a solution is received has no bearing upon its winning a prize. Accuracy is what counts.

Not more than one prize will be awarded to any one person.

ADDRESS SOLUTIONS, INQUIRIES, ETC., TO CONTEST MANAGER, THE RECORD NEWS

General Rules of the Contest

This competition is open to all residents of the state of Texas and Oklahoma, except employes of The Record News and members of their families.

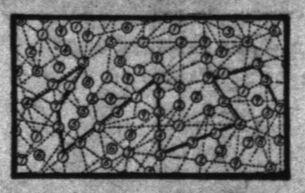

Contestants may submit as many different solutions as they desire provided a payment of one of the amounts designated in the prize list shall accompany each solution. NO SOLUTION UNACCOMPANIED BY A SUBSCRIPTION PAYMENT WILL BE REGISTERED.

The Record News offers these prizes for individual effort. While it is proper for members of one household to work together or several friends, it is not permissible for more than one of those working in unison to send a solution of the puzzle. When in the judgment of the contest manager more than one member of the same family, or more than one of any number of persons he believes have worked together send in a solution of the puzzle, he reserves the right to refund subscriptions and return the solutions he believes have been submitted contrary to the foregoing rule. The Record News reserves the right to reject any solutions it believes have not been submitted under proper conditions. The Record News also reserves the right to finally decide any other questions or points which may arise and those entering the contest agree to abide by such decisions.

In the event of ties on this puzzle, as many prizes will be reserved as there are contestants tied, before any prizes are awarded for a less correct solution. For instance, if five people were tied on the best solution, the first five prizes will be reserved for them and they would be awarded the prizes in accordance with the standing of their solutions of the second puzzle. That is, the one submitting the best solution of the second puzzle would receive the first prize; the one submitting the next best, the second, and so on.

Subscriptions may be NEW or RENEWALS. Both count the same.

DECIDING TIES

In case of ties those tied for any prize will be presented with a second puzzle, which will consist of drawing a line across the face of the chart of figures, like the accompanying chart, only larger, so that the figures thus connected when added together will total the greatest sum. If necessary this chart will be used four times, after which should any ties remain, each contestant will receive full value of a prize tied for.

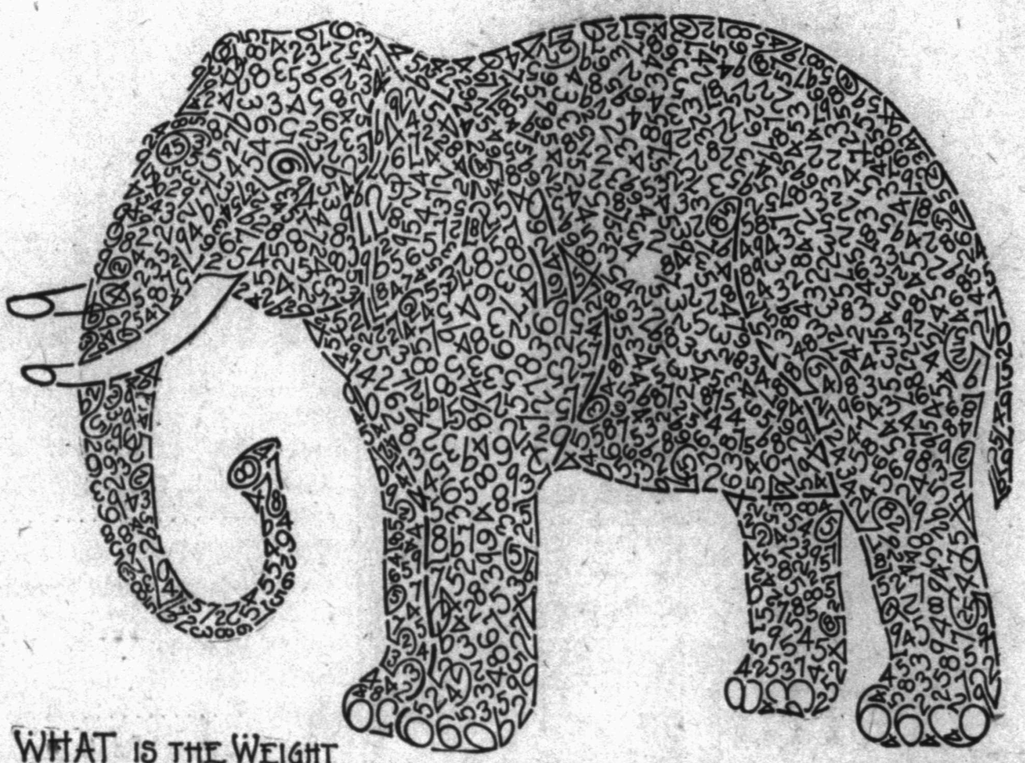

In case there are no ties on counting the Elephant no other puzzle of course, will be presented.
