Wright Patman's Weekly Letter

First Congressional Dist. of Texas "Heart of the Gulf Southwest"

INTEREST RATES AND THE FARMER. Farm debts reached an all-time high of $45.8 billion last January 1. In fact farm debts are rising at a faster rate (10%) than farm assets (.7%). This trend, if continued, could ruin American agriculture as we know it, could drive many more of our people off the farms and into the big cities. This tragic trend will undoubtedly continue if the high interest rates the farmer is forced to pay for agricultural credit are not brought back to reasonable levels. I will fight as hard as I know how to prevent the American farmer from becoming an economic serf.

U. S. CUSTOMS officials point out that many Americans who travel abroad pay needless customs fees due to ignorance of regulations. For instance, you may be charged duty on items you have owned for years—such as foreign made watches, cameras, musical instruments, clothing—if you cannot produce evidence that these articles were owned prior to your departure from the U. S. A bill of sale, insurance policy, a repair or cleaning bill, dated before departure, may be used as reasonable proof. However, to avoid wasting time, if several such articles are in your luggage, a registration certificate is advisable, which can be obtained at any Customs office. International airports also have inspectors who will register a small number of articles before departure.

ANTIQUÉ COLLECTORS will be pleased to know they can import more objects without restriction—furniture, jewelry, paintings and carpets are among the items now eligible to join the "antique class" if 100 years old. Prior to February 1967, no object made after 1830 qualified as an antique.

TRAVEL TO THE HOLY LAND. The Department of State on June 21 lifted the ban on travel to Israel. It is now possible to travel to that country, as well as to Bethlehem and Old Jerusalem, without special passport valuation.

ATTENTION CAMPERS. A directory listing the locations of 571 campgrounds (with a total of 28,115 campsites! in 78 areas of the U. S. National Park System, and the facilities available at each, can be obtained by writing directly to the Public Inquiries Section, National Park Service, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. 29240. There are National Parks as far east as the Virgin Islands (but only 41 campsites), as far west as Hawaii, as far north as Alaska, and to the south our own Padre Island is listed as "primitive camping."

THE NATIONAL FORESTS which are administered by the Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture offer an additional 5,100 developed camp and picnic sites which can handle 285,000 people at one time. An attractive and interesting 66-page booklet entitled "National Forest Vacations" is available to constituents free upon request to my office.

RIISING COSTS IN THE JOURNALISM FIELD have recently caused some world renowned newspapers to merge or close their doors. The First Congressional District is fortunate to have 7 fine daily papers and nearly 50 weeklies which give area residents helpful editorial opinion and great depth of news coverage. Newspapers are vital to our growing communities. Because their existence would otherwise be endangered, I have signed a petition to the Postal Rates Subcommittee of the House to exempt small independently owned newspapers from proposed postal rate increases.

DELTA, RED RIVER, AND MARION COUNTIES will continue to be eligible (statistically qualified) for all types of grant and loan assistance under Economic Development Administration programs, for the fiscal year starting July 1, 1967. Shelby County also continues to be eligible for Title I Public Works and Development Facilities assistance.

FLAG SALES. Service organizations and commercial concerns offering U. S. Flags for sale have noted an increased demand running as high as 30% with indications that sales will continue high even after the "flag season," which normally runs from early March to July 4. In ever greater numbers, by quietly displaying their flag, Americans are

Austin.—Texas Railroad Commission has turned up the oil allowable to a record high 48 per cent of potential—retroactive to July 1—to meet demands created by the Middle East shoot-out. Commission's extraordinary mid-month emergency order was the third of the kind since the Arabian oil cutoff. It boosted the allowable to 3,830,560 barrels a day—higher than during latter part of the 1957 Suez oil crisis and probably the highest since wide-open production days of 1948 when producers were encouraged to build up war-drained crude supplies.

New increase adds 131,000 barrels a day to July allowable, which was raised to 42.9 per cent on the first of the month. Major purchasers told the Commission added production was necessary.

Allowable was 33.8 per cent when the Arab-Israeli shooting started in June. Commission raised it slightly—to 35.9 per cent—in mid-June, retroactive to June 1, and on July 1 announced the 42.9 per cent order.

August allowable is due to be set this week.

Since the percentage factor was first used in 1963, the 37.5 per cent-of-potential production was the highest adjustment used until the present Middle East crisis erupted.

In addition to the major effect on the state's general economy, a steadily climbing allowable appears likely to increase Texas' governmental tax income substantially. It has been estimated that the July 1 order would mean a $53,617 a day increase in state tax income—or a total of $1,600,000 through this month. Obviously, the increase now will be greater.

If the crisis continues for several months, the added income will be a major factor in shaping special session tax needs next year.

Meanwhile, Chairman Jim C. Langdon emphasized that the Commission is determined to avoid repetition of the situation that followed the Suez emergency when oil industry suffered for two and a half years working off surplus stocks which piled up as a result of the big allowable boost a decade ago.

AG OPINIONS—State can pay for telephones and rent electric typewriters for use by legislators in their home district offices, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has ruled.

SINCERE AND HEARTFELT THANKS to all those who expressed sympathy to the Patman family in our recent bereavement. Your thoughtfulness is appreciated more than words can say.

In other opinions, Martin concluded that:

• New law reorganizing Texas National Guard Armory Board and extending terms of members to six years is constitutional.

• Dallas County auditor has authority jointly with the county's hospital administrator to establish and keep accounting procedures for the Dallas hospital district subject to board of managers approval.

• Bee County attorney and 36th district attorney must report to district courts and county clerks all their collections of public funds (or file negative reports if they have received none).

FARM MARKET EXPANSION—Agriculture Commissioner John White announced the initiation of what he called "the most aggressive market expansion campaign in the history of Texas agriculture."

White said the marketing drive will include efforts to present the true quality image of all Texas food and fiber products as well as specific programs to bolster markets for Texas-produced and processed commodities.

HURRICANE "WARNINGS" OUT—The 1967 hurricane season has arrived, and coastal residents had better not forget it, warns Department of Public Safety Director Col. Homer Garrison Jr.

Pamphlets on hurricane precautions are being distributed to local civil defense offices in coastal counties.

Garrison said too many people "develop a false sense of security" after small hurricane experience or having been "on the fringes" of a major storm, and this attitude can be fatal.

Three major hurricanes have hit the Texas coast this century, including Carla in 1961.
