Investigators Dispatched To Tennessee

Evidence Points Sharply To Contest There, Committee Announces; Send 6 Men

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 28—The senate campaign expenditures committee dispatched investigators to the nation's political hotbeds today after condemning tactics in Tennessee's Democratic senatorial race.

Evidence in the five-man Tennessee campaign, the committee announced, "points sharply toward an

APPOINTMENT SOUGHT?

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 28. (AP)—The Declaration that Postmaster General Farley personally attempted to place U. S. Senator Logan on a federal bench and thus leave the way open for Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler to run for Logan's seat without major opposition was thrown into Kentucky's red hot senatorial campaign by State Finance Commissioner Dan Talbott today.

Chandler in a recent campaign speech declared Logan had "begged" for an appointment to the federal bench last spring and Logan, campaigning for renomination of U. S. Senator Alben W. Barkley, favored by President Roosevelt, promptly told an audience Chandler's statement was a "damned lie." ## Tennessee Governor May Send Troops To Memphis For Vote

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 28.—Unexplained orders postponing departure of National guard units for out-of-state maneuvers gave rise today to reports Gov. Gordon Browning might send the troops to Memphis, bailiwick of his arch political enemy, for next week's Democratic primary.

A train carrying units of the 117th infantry was scheduled to leave Jackson next Sunday night for maneuvers in Mississippi, but Col. R. H. Bond said at Jackson he had received word from railroad officials the movement had been postponed.

Browning recently set up a special "state police" in Memphis, and some of his advisers have insisted that he augment these with guardsmen for the August 4 primary.

Battle Between 'The Boss' And Governor Sharp Overshadows Race For Senate In Missouri

(By The Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, July 28. — A battle between "the boss," T. J. Pendergast of Kansas City, and lean, firm-jawed Gov. Lloyd C. Stark has overshadowed United States Senator Bennett Champ Clark's campaign for Democratic renomination in Missouri's primary next Tuesday.

The prize in the Pendergast-Stark fight—a Democratic intra-party struggle with no quarter asked or given—is a supreme court judgeship, but the office is just a convenient bone of bitter contention. The issues are far greater than the job:

Who Is Most Potent?

Who will be the most potent force in Missouri's Democratic politics — Stark or Pendergast? Can Pendergast punish the governor, whom he helped elect to a 4-year term in 1936, or can Stark break Pendergast's political dominance?

The governor, stumping the state for Supreme Court Judge James M. Douglas, has demanded the party "purge itself of bossism."

In a bristling statement, before he announced he would support Circuit Judge James V. Billings of Kennett for the supreme court, Pendergast accused Stark of political ingratitude in the matter of appointments.

Conscience Is Clear

"If his conscience is clear, so is mine," Pendergast declared. "Let the river take its course."

Since then, Missouri's Democrats have been clinging to the boat in a wild ride on a flood of oratory. There have been as many as 100 campaign speeches a week.

Meanwhile, Senator Clark, leader of the fight against the president's court plan and the government reorganization bill, has waged a vigorous drive for renomination against three candidates, two of them avowed "100 per cent New Dealers."

Extension Of City Limits To Be Asked

Petition asking that an election be called on a proposed extension of the southwest city limits to include a 40-acre tract was scheduled for submission to the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission at the city hall this afternoon, according to information given at City hall.

Approval of the proposal would add to the city an area comprising approximately four square blocks bounded on the east by Van Buren avenue, which is part of the present city limits, by Nineteenth street on the north, Tyler avenue on the west and the prolongation of the present city limits on the south.

In Process Of Development

The area now is in process of development as residential property and inclusion is sought so that city utilities will become available there. The property affected, if added to the city, would automatically be placed on the city tax rolls, officials said.

Before limits can be extended, however, a majority vote both of the residents of the area and of the city as a whole will be necessary.

Two Soldiers Still On Canyon Ledge

MARFA, July 28 (AP)—Two marooned soldiers, survivors of an ill-fated inner tube journey through flooded Santa Helena canyon, remained today on a rock ledge just above the roaring Rio Grande.

It was the fifth day on the ledge for Sergeant Clyde Ryberg and Private Clarence Hansen, who, with Private Harry Buckmah, attempted the dangerous nine-mile trip with the aid of automobile innter tubes Saturday.

Supplies were being lowered to the stranded soldiers by ropes as rescuers awaited a drop in the river before attempting to remove them by boat.

Meanwhile, plans were made to use army planes from San Antonio to search for the body of Private Buckman, who lost his life in the raging stream.

Col. R. H. Lewis, commander of Fort D. A. Russell, from which the men were on leave of absence, went to Lajitas today to take charge of the rescue.

Plans included lowering of a boat by cable to the stranded men so they might continue on through the canyon after the Rio Grande recedes.

If, however, the flood stage is prolonged an attempt will be made to lift the men from the ledge by ropes. This would necessitate a 500-foot climb.

Juneau, Alaska, Is Awaiting Arrival Of Hepburn's Party

JUNEAU, Alaska, July 28 (AP) — Juneau awaited anxiously today the overdue arrival of Premier Mitchell Hepburn of Ontario and his aerial touring party, unreported since they hopped off yesterday from Whitehorse, Y. T., on a 200 mile flight to Juneau.

Because there was a low ceiling last night belief was expressed here the party of four might have landed at Skagway. Communications with Skagway close from 5 p. m. to 8 a. m., Pacific standard time.

Bacon Funeral Is At 3 Today

Funeral rites at 3 o'clock this afternoon were read for W. A. Bacon, 66, whose death early Wednesday afternoon by heart attack removed one of the last old-timers whose business rise went hand-in-hand with development of this section.

Bacon's story was that of a man who began life humbly. He was a sheep herder who surmounted that prosaic beginning and, with his brother, John, now dead, became one of the greatest sheep ranch operators in this section of the state.

Became Important Business Man

Upon making his first success he broadened his business and the last 25 years had been known as one of the section's most important men.

His friends, said George R. Bean, Lubbock attorney for numerous years, knew him as a quiet, unassuming man who was generous and businesslike and whose feeling of obligation to progress was often expressed in his activities.

Bacon was born Feb. 17, 1871, in Ohio, moved five years later to Missouri, moved to Lubbock county in 1893 and settled near Idalou, married in 1900, and in the first decade of this century moved to near Lubbock, where he built one of the section's finest homes on the Tahoka road, near where Thirty-fourth street now is.

Later he erected another big residence, on Sixteenth street, still later

New Moves Are Made To Rush Arming

Anniversary Of World War Is Occasion For Speeding Of Nation's Program

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, July 28 — Great Britain announced two new moves today to hasten military preparedness on the 24th anniversary of Austro - Hungary's fateful declaration of war against Serbia.

The anniversary of the event which plunged the world into conflict virtually was forgotten here in the rush to make Britain's armaments so formidable that no country would dare provoke her to a new war.

Today's moves were:

Leslie Hore-Belisha, bustling war secretary, carried his revolutionary changes in the army a step further in promising faster promotions and other features designed to attract men into the service. He disclosed that wealth or social position no longer would be necessary for admission into Sandhurst — Britain's West Point.

Sir Samuel Hoare, home secretary, at the same time promised speedy action on plans for evacuating the civilian population of London and other densely-settled places in event of war.

Chamberlain Delays Trip

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain delayed leaving for his annual fishing trip in Scotland today so he could meet Chancellor Adolf Hitler's adjutant to try to hasten the Anglo-German "understanding" Cham-

Club Rally To Be On Friday

Preliminary figures indicate an attendance of at least 200 4-H club boys and as many girls at the annual county rally to be held Friday at Mackenzie state park, said John W. Palmore, assistant county agent in charge of boy's club work, this morning. It will be a one-day affair, starting at 10 o'clock and lasting until 10 at night.

Several features are planned for this year. A special rate was secured from the municipal swimming pool management for swimming from 5:30 o'clock until 7 and also from the Cactus theatre for the afternoon show from 1 to 3 o'clock, said Palmore.

Parents Are Invited

Parents are being invited to come with the boys and girls and to enjoy the program. A gold star pin, awarded to James Potts, son of C. T. Potts, will be presented.

Boys and girls were asked to bring a picnic lunch for the noon meal. For the evening meal 10 cents will be charged. Lunch will last from 11:50 until 1 o'clock.

Registration starts at 10 o'clock.

Man Charged In "Water Hose" Slaying Is Freed By Jurors

DALLAS, July 28. (AP) — A jury which deliberated less than an hour late yesterday acquitted J. I. Williams, jr., 24-year-old Garland dairyman, on a charge in connection with the alleged "water hose" death of Rex Downey, 21, last Nov. 1.

The defendant insisted he had no intention of killing Downey, his brother-in-law, when he administered a "water hose" treatment in an effort to sober Downey up.

Two Comely Waitresses Await Trial In Insurance Plot Case

WAYCROSS, Ga., July 28. (AP)—Two comely waitresses, accused of drawing matches to determine which would act as executioner of a 12-year-old boy in a plot for $900 in insurance, awaited trial here today under murder indictments returned by the Ware county grand jury.

They are Verna Mae Fowler and Mary Kent, former employes at the roadhouse of Harvey Nelson, illiterate innkeeper who was sentenced to death yesterday for the slaying of his son, J. C. Nelson, May 26.

Four Engineers Are Killed In Drop in 700-Foot Mine Shaft

BOURLAMAQUE, Quebec, July 28. (Canadian Press) — Four engineers were killed instantly and another was injured critically today when a cage dropped 700 feet down a shaft at the Lamaque Mining company's $7,000,000 gold mine.

The men were crushed in the steel car as it crumpled against a mass of masonry about one-third of the way down the 2,000-foot shaft.

The dead: Peter Downey, 24, Gleichen, Alberta, and James J. Crocker, 23, Toronto, both graduates of the University of Toronto; Harry Field, 32, Bourlamaque and Arthur M. Hewat, 32, Halifax.

As Man Takes 17-Story Plunge In New York

"Come in, John, we love you," pleaded Mrs. Katherine Bull to her brother, John Ward as he hugged the building while standing on a ledge 17 stories up on a New York hotel. Mrs. Bull, rope tied around her, heard him say, "Go back or I'll jump." She returned to her room and fainted.

Twenty-Four Years Ago Today, July 28, 1914, Proud Austria Declared War On Little Serbia

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
Associated Press Feature Writer

WASHINGTON, July 28—Twenty-four years ago—on July 28, 1914—proud Austria declared war on doughty little Serbia, touching off the war of wars.

Out of the titanic conflict, which aligned 23 nations against the four Central powers and brought a grand mobilization of 59,000,000 soldiers, there came new and mighty engines of destruction, new tactics and new masters in the art of warfare.

Yet Col. Oliver L. Spaulding, veteran military historian and chief of the historical section of the U. S. Army war college, will tell you that the World war was planned and fought in large measure on the basis of lessons learned from the old military masters, several of whom had gone to the warriors' Valhalla long before the birth of Christ. And if the Germans had only taken Hannibal's lesson to heart, they might have won.

As evidence that the science of war was highly developed by the ancients, Colonel Spaulding points out that—

Hannibal Had A Plan

1. Many military experts today believe Germany might have won the war quickly if the younger Moltke, commanding the first western push, had followed completely the famous Schlieffen plan, based on Hannibal's strategy at the battle of Cannae in 216 B. C.

2. The World war immortalized the Hindenburg line of concrete entrenchments, but Julius Caesar, who, incidentally, fought along the Marne and Aisne rivers, evolved an elaborate system of trenches built on scientific lines long before.

3. The ancient Carthaginians used elephants, posted in front of the infantry as tanks were in the World war, to break through the enemy's front lines.

4. The World war produced a new tactical genius in Germany's Ludendorff, but the ancient Greeks had their Philopoemen, father of the modern applicatory system of tactical instruction.

Remember Alexander?

5. For masterly execution of swift, well-coordinated punches, the World war had France's Marshal Foch. Let 2,200 years before Foch, a Macedonian youth in his twenties, named Alexander, was as brilliant a performer in rolling up the enemy's

Gov. Allred Advises Against Holbrook Resigning His Post

AUSTIN, July 28. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred said today he had advised T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, dean of the Texas senate, against resigning before the expiration of his term next January.

Holbrook, beaten for renomination in Saturday's primary, was considering an immediate resignation.

The governor pointed out that in event Holbrook resigned and a special session was held this fall the Galveston district would have no representation in the senate.

NEWSPAPERMAN DIES

SAN ANTONIO, July 28. (AP)—Clifton H. Tupper, widely known writer and advertising man, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning after an illness of a year and a half.

Tupper was founder of the Waco Morning News and was later an associate publisher at San Angelo.

Farmers Claim Dam Cause Of High Damage

(By The Associated Press)

LAGRANGE, July 28. — Bottomland farmers, their crops ruined by the vast sweep of the flooded Colorado river, planned to get in their licks at Columbus tonight against a Colorado Valley authority which stoutly denied their claim the flood was "man made."

Crux of the matter was the operation of Buchanan dam, a protest wired to President Roosevelt and Texas representatives in the na-

MORE LAND FLOODED

HOUSTON, July 28. (AP)—New acres of farm land were inundated Thursday as the crest of the Colorado flood moved down the river toward Wharton, due to receive the burden of waters late tonight and Friday.

At LaGrange the river was down two feet from a crest of 46 feet reached by the floodwaters. One of the piers was believed to have been undermined by the swirling waters, throwing the span out of line.

The levee went out at Eldridge, 10 miles from Eagle Lake toward Wharton, submerging more than 5,000 acres. The plantation of the Sugarland Industries, totaling 3,000 acres, was under water as the levee let the flood escape. Livestock had been removed from the flooded areas.

tional congress said lake Buchanan was filled to capacity when the rains came and could not be utilized to check the rampant San Saba river, tributary of the Colorado.

Caused Higher Stages

Water released from Buchanan lake caused the flood waters to reach higher stages "and gave us less time to bring cattle and feed crop to safety, the Fayette County Agricultural association's telegram said.

Fritz Engelhard, chairman of the CVA, insisted, however, "the flood was just one of those things."

He said: "When a flood comes

BLACKFOOT, Idaho, July 28. (AP) —If you want to save money, play a slot machine—the way Joe Blemkle does.

When slot machines were barred here, Blenkle obtained one for his home.

Each night he plays it. He spends the coins from the payoff slot but many of the nickles go into the "operator's" inside container.

Blenkle's going to New York on the money he doesn't win.

Nation's Motorists Beginning To Put On Brakes; Save Lives

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 28.—The nation's motorists are beginning to step on the brakes in time to save lives.

The National Safety Council reported today traffic fatalities for the first six months of 1938 were fewer by 22 per cent than during the same period last year.

By heeding the plea to drive more carefully, American motorists saved 3,670 lives during the first half of 1938, the council said.

The steady decline in fatalities was registered despite a two per cent increase in highway traffic during the first five months, the council said.

The decrease for the first six months by states:

Pennsylvania 42 per cent, Delaware 40; Michigan 39; Massachusetts, Wisconsin, and Maryland 35; New Hampshire and Vermont 32; Nebraska 30; Connecticut 29; Illinois 27; New Jersey and Indiana 25; Oklahoma and Wyoming 24; West Virginia and New Mexico 20;

Schools Levy Not Raised By State Board

Pleas For Increase Ignored In Rate-Setting; Per Capita Of $21.40 Is Possible

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, July 28—Continuation for another year of the present state property tax rate of 49 cents on the $100 valuation was voted today by the automatic tax board.

Many persons interested in the public schools had urged that the rate for school purposes be increased substantially from the present 7 cents on $100.

The rates for the general and Confederate pension funds were retained at their constitutional maxima of 35 and 7 cents respectively.

Comptroller George H. Sheppard estimated the 7-cent school levy would be sufficient to support a per capita state aid apportionment of $21.40.

RFC Funds To Be Available For Loans

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 28—A working agreement between RFC and PWA officials opened a path today to vast new public works in the administration's spending-lending program.

The understanding provides that the Reconstruction Finance corporation make its lendable 1,500,000,000 available for loans on projects receiving grants from PWA's $950,000,000.

Can Reserve Funds

Thus, PWA can reserve all its funds for grants instead of dividing allotments between loans and grants, as has been the practice.

The decision, announced last night by Chairman Jesse Jones of the RFC, has the potential effect of more than doubling PWA's dollar-power.

Well Over Half Allotted

Secretary Ickes, as director of PWA, thus far has allotted $562,251,129 in loans and grants, well over half of the money available.

The indicated immediate effect of the two-agency action was to make possible certain large undertakings which PWA has been disinclined to approve for two general reasons: The amount of funds

O'Daniel Is On Fishing Trip

(By The Associated Press)

GALVESTON, July 28. — W. Lee O'Daniel, who more than half a million Texas Democrats voted their nominee for governor, planned to go fishing today — for the first time since he was a boy.

The idea, he explained, here on a vacation with his family, was "to get all the fishing out of my system before I take office. After that, I expect to work."

To Stay About A Week

The Democratic nominee and his family—Mrs. O'Daniel, Molly, Pat and Mike—came to Galveston for a rest after the campaign which ended with his sensational victory in last Saturday's primary. The length of their stay is undetermined but it probably will be about a week, O'Daniel indicated. They are stopping at the summer home of friends on the western end of Galveston island.

"I'm not tired, but Mrs. O'Daniel is pretty well worn out," he said. "She did all the hard work, keeping campaign headquarters at our home in Fort Worth, while the chieldren and I were out having a good time. We

Approval Of Highway Work In Cochran County Received Here

Approval of a grading and drainage road job in Cochran county was received today by district WPA headquarters, said W. E. Burke, district engineer. Start will depend upon how soon the right-of-way is secured.

The project is from Morton north to the Bailey county line, a little over 7 miles. It is on state highway 214.

Federal funds alloted were $12,300 and state highway funds, $14,600.

At the county line the project will meet one in Bailey county from Needmore to the line, recently started. The highway is paved now from Muleshoe south to Needmore. Total distance from Morton to Muleshoe is 38 miles.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else. Adv.

Little Girls Enjoy Birthday Parties

Several Lubbock youngsters have enjoyed birthday parties this week.

Ardath Ann Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Boyd of 2508 Twentieth street, observed her fifth birthday Wednesday. For the occasion a red, white and blue cage, decorated with "animals", candles and a novelty red flag, was served. Guests were her brother, Billy Wade, Nancy Hess, Dickie Bluhm and adult members of the honoree's family.

Is Six Years Old

Elizabeth Ann Bentley was complimented on her sixth birthday when Mesdames Loyd Bentley and Bob Ingram entertained Tuesday afternoon in the Ingram home, 1916 Seventh street.

When the guests had opened her gifts, games were played, then the hostesses served refreshments.

Chicago College Graduate Is Anxious To Work On Ranch

A plea from a 23-year-old college graduate in Chicago who wants work on a West Texas ranch was received by Lubbock Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

The man explained that a physician told him he must work in the open if he was to retain his sight. He was warned not to continue any type of "close" work.

He said his sight might be saved "If I will always do outdoor work in the great wide open spaces, as on a ranch."

"I have never had any experience on a ranch," he wrote, "and I never rode a horse in my life. I am willing to work for nothing to gain experience."

He gave his name and address as Samuel S. Firestone, 4727 North Lawndale Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

The chamber of commerce informed him this area was devoted chiefly to farming, and suggested he communicate with agencies in areas where ranching is the chief industry.

GOES TO CALIFORNIA

Miss Mary Leidigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Leidige of 2101 Seventeenth street, has gone to Los Angeles with a group of instructors from Panhandle A. and M. college at Goodwell, Okla. She will study the second summer term at a university in Los Angeles. Miss Leidigh is head of the home economics department at the college in Goodwell. She had visited her parents in Lubbock before leaving for California. En route there, the group visited Yellowstone National park and other places.

Needle Club Meet Has Social In Hawes Home Wednesday

Mrs. C. M. Hawes, 2318 Nineteenth street, was hostess to the Needle Club Bee Wednesday afternoon. An ice course was served to Mrs. Carl Moore, a visitor, and Mesdames G. H. Hughett, C. C. Chambers, Ira Clemens, Ted Zachary, L. D. Thomas, J. A. Goodwin, G. D. Buell, C. H. Tidsell, M. K. Simpson.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. R. Edler, 1905 Seventeenth street, August 10.

Pythian Sister Temple Is To Observe Second Birthday

Pythian Sister Temple will observe a second anniversary Friday night with a picnic at Twenty-seventh street park at 7:30 o'clock to which Knights of Pythias and families are invited. The latter group will furnish watermelons.

Seventeen members attended a meeting at the K. P. hall Wednesday night when plans were made for the occasion. Tuesday the women attended a quilting at the home of Mrs. J. D. Corcorran. Present were Mesdames G. H. Ater, H. F. Huddleston, Elmo Payne, Estel Hendricks, A. F. Wood, Riley Hute, W. C. Boyd, Tom Cannon and Ina Louise Dresser.

Mr. And Mrs. Bates Thornton Will Visit Relatives Here

Mrs. A. J. Lewis, 1635 Nineteenth street, has received word that her son, Bates Thornton, and Mrs. Thornton are to leave their home in Washington, D. C., August 1 for a vacation spent in Texas. They will visit Mrs. Thornton's parents in Fort Worth and with relatives in Haskell en route to Lubbock.

Mrs. Thornton, the former Flora Laney, is a talented singer, having appeared in musical comedies in New York several seasons. Both she and Mr. Thornton are former students at Texas Technological college.

GUESTS NEED ELBOW ROOM

When entertaining buffet style, the thoughtful hostess will furnish sufficient table space so that guests will not have to balance oddments of plates and cups on their knees. It's a strain on both guest and hostess.

Want to save time and effort on hot summer days? Cook potatoes and vegetables in "double batches." You may then use them in all sorts of creamed, escalloped, or browned combinations, as well as in stews or salads.

Club Picnic Served At Park Wednesday

A picnic at Mackenzie State park Wednesday night took the place of a regular meeting of the Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club. A paper sack supper, tea and iced watermelon were served.

Miss Lennie D. Johnston and Mary Alice Crosson were hostesses.

Games were played later in the evening.

Miss Lavenia Williams, president, presided for a business session. Others attending were Mesdames Mike Barrier, Lottie Hilton, W. O. Harbison, R. E. Wylie, Lucile Smith, H. A. Welmaker, Floe Swenson, G. P. Cunningham, Fred Higbee, Harriet C. Johnston, Ray Jackson, R. B. Cantwell of Houston, James Ater, E. W. Nicodemus of Fort Worth, Misses Marguerite Whipp, Irma Pryor, Carrie Bell Turner, Lois Hale, Mozelle Norris, Gertrude Brent, Ernestine Richmond, Agatha Turner, Josephine Welmaker and Sarah Nicodemus of Fort Worth.

First Presbyterian Officers And Wives To Have Social

Officers of the First Presbyterian church and their wives will have a social meeting on the church lawn at 8 o'clock Friday night.

Put into a beverage shaker 2-3 cup rich milk, 1-3 cup of cold coffee, 2 tablespoons malted cocoa, a few grains of salt and 1-8 teaspoon ground cinnamon. Chill. Shake very thoroughly and serve.

Constipated? You Should Get at the Cause!

Lots of people think they can't be "regular" without frequent trips to the medicine chest. "I just dose up and get it over," they tell you. But doctors know they don't "get it over" at all—until they get at the cause of the trouble!

Chances are it's simple to find the cause if you eat only what most people do—meat, bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If that fits you, your ticket is a crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B1.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Uncle Sam Undertakes To Improve Relations With Latin-America

New Program Is Inaugurated

By ANDRUE BERDING
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, July 28. — Good Neighbor Uncle Sam set out in earnest today to improve his relations with the folks on the south side of the street.

Inaugurating a division of cultural relations, the state department began to execute its many proposals to make firmer friends of the Latin-American republics.

To Increase Cultural Exchange

The new division, headed by Dr. Ben M. Cherrington of the University of Denver, was designed primarily to increase cultural exchanges and improve contacts between the other republics of the western hemisphere and the United States. This in the face of determined efforts by Germany, Italy, and Japan to win sympathy and support — economic and political—in Latin-America.

The administration's program ranges from better shipping lines to South America and trade assistance from the export-import bank to exchanges of students, professors, and books with our friends to the south.

Flight Is Planned

Next month a flight of six army bombers will be made to Bogota, Colombia, to participate in the inaugural ceremonies of the new president. A similar flight to Buenos Aires for the inauguration of President Ortiz recently brought a wave of good-will toward this country.

State department officials regard it as unfortunate but not irremediable that the problem should start at a time when the United States and her nearest Latin-American neighbor, Mexico, are engaged in a squabble over confiscation of American property.

U. S. Mediation Aided

But they consider the moment propitious in that Bolivia and Paraguay have signed a treaty of peace to end their boundary war, partly through the mediation of the United States.

The Mexican incident has demonstrated to officials the need of a comprehensive good relationship with the Latin-American states. They reason that American investments are heavy in most of the republics. The land seizure example of Mexico is naturally tempting to all. Good relationships, officials say, are necessary to prevent it from spreading without justification.

At the same time a determined but straight-forward policy toward Mexico is to be adopted, at least with regard to seized American farm lands, so that other Latin-American nations will not get the idea the good neighbor has become a goody, goody neighbor.

Town Protests NLRB Action

Carrying huge placards that express their estimation of the National Labor Relations Board, citizens of Steubenville, O., are pictured as they protested conduct of an "unfair labor practices" hearing against the Weirton Steel Co. Hung in effigy, upper left, was Edward Smith, examiner for the board. Barring of Clyde A. Armstrong, chief Weirton counsel, from the hearings precipitated the demonstration. Isadore Polier, target of many of the placards, is an NLRB attorney.

Isadore Polier, in rear seat, is shown being escorted from Steubenville, O., in a sheriff's car after 1800 citizens demonstrated against barring of a Weirton Steel Co. attorney from a National Labor Relations Board hearing against the company. Polier, an NLRB attorney, was taken to Pittsburgh, where the 11-month-old hearing was resumed. The demonstrators charged that Polier, son of Rabbi Stephen J. Wise of New York, is a "Communist."

Houston Plans Hughes Event

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, July 28—Houston will make a Roman holiday out of the homecoming Saturday of Howard Hughes and his four globe-circling companions.

When Hughes today accepted the city's invitation to attend the christening of the municipal airport "Howard Hughes" the city planned a gala reception.

The Hughes plane will be met several miles outside the city by an escort of planes. At the airport he will be greeted by 3500 employes of the Hughes Tool company, which he owns, and thousands of Houstonians.

Mayor R. H. Fonville will preside at brief ceremonies for naming the airport. A motorcycle escort will take the party into the city for a parade.

A dinner will climax the reception.

Carrying Capacity Of Land Should Be Factor, Man Says

Farmers should buy or rent range land on the basis of actual carrying capacity rather than by the acres, Ray Watson, associate range examiner for region 6 of the Soil Conservation service told a short course class on soil conservation at Texas Technological college Wednesday afternoon.

Carrying capacity is determined mainly by the amount and density of palatable grasses on soil surface, he said. Watson outlined steps in planning a range program.

Dr. Ralph Caird, assistant range examiner, conducted a class Wednesday morning in technique and value of the range survey.

James C. Wilcox, assistant agricultural engineer in the region, was to instruct the class this afternoon in making of plane table maps for use in construction of engineering structures in the soil conservation program.

Gly-Cas Brought Remarkable Change In Her Condition

Kidneys Regulated; Able To Enjoy Good Night's Sleep Like A Different Person

"Never before have I seen a medicine that could compare with this remarkable Gly-Cas," said Mrs. J. S. Salazas, 1003 North Arno, Albuquerque, New Mexico. "For twenty years my system had been accumulating poisons from improper bowel elimination. My stomach was disordered and regardless of how carefully I planned my diet I was miserable almost continually with awful gas pains and severe bloating. I became weak, tired and nervous from lack of proper nourishment. My kidneys refused to function properly and I endured awful back pains and the discomfort of too frequent action. I was also afflicted with rheumatism and the suffering I endured from this condition cannot be imagined. Living was anything but a pleasure feeling as I did before I began Gly-Cas—it soon changed all this."

"I began to improve, it seemed, almost from the first dose of this most efficient Gly-Cas," continued Mrs. Salazas. "My bowels were soon regulated, stomach began to function normally and I once more could eat the foods which had formerly caused me such distress with gas and bloating. My kidneys are acting properly, no longer suffer from back pains, and the too frequent action has been corrected. That awful rheumatism is ended too. Gly-Cas gave me quick and lasting relief from my years of awful suffering."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns.

Twelve-Year-Old Mother Doesn't See So Much 'News' About Her Being Married

PICKLE STREET, W. Va., July 28 (AP)—Rosy-cheeked Mrs. William Bennington, 12-year-old mother of a five-months-old baby, declared today she didn't see "any news" about her being married, but admitted she had just paid 40 cents to see a vaudeville touring, Tennessee child bride just a year younger.

"I'm an old married woman and proud of it," said Mrs. Bennington nee Clara Parmer. "I don't see any news about getting married. Most everybody does get married."

The girl wife said she was just 10 years old when she left her fourth-grade schoolbooks in this hamlet about 35 miles southwest of Clarksburg, for pots and pans and life as the wife of WPA Worker Bill Bennington. He was 23.

"I married Bill at Weston, September 12, 1936," she explained. "We didn't have any trouble getting married because mom helped us.

"Howard, that's the baby, was born February 11, 1938. He weighed between seven and eight pounds. And he has grown a lot."

Mrs. Bennington does all her own housework and takes care of the baby. She does it so well her father-in-law has moved in to stay with her and his grandson.

About one in seven of the boys and girls of London are still in school at the age of 15.

Children Picket Street Corner Asking For Traffic Light; Six-Year-Old Boy Is Hurt

PHILADELPHIA, July 28 (AP)—A band of children picketed a street intersection with signs proclaiming "Death Rules This Corner" and "We Want A Stop-Light."

Mothers who made the signs said the demonstration was prompted by an accident to a six-year-old boy. He is in a hospital.

Extension Of Time Is Given On Wheat Crop Insurance Deadline

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Extensions of time ranging from one day to two months, in which growers may apply for wheat insurance on their 1939 crop, has been authorized by directors of the Federal Crop Insurance corporation.

Roy M. Green, manager, said today August 31 would be the final date for receiving applications in Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming, Oklahoma, and Texas. The deadline for these states originally was August 30.

The rose is the flower of June and the moonstone is the gem. Both are considered luck-bringers in matters of love.

Funeral Services For Anton Man To Be Conducted Today

ANTON, July 28.—Funeral services for W. A. Harrell, 79, who died early Wednesday night at his home in Anton, will be conducted at 5 o'clock this afternoon at Anton Methodist church.

Harrell had been an Anton resident 12 years, moving there from New Mexico.

Burial will be in Anton cemetery, under direction of Rix Funeral home of Lubbock.

He is survived by his wife; four sons, J. W. Harrell of Anton, John Tarrell of Fort Worth, W. L. Harrell and W. D. Harrell, both of Big Spring; and 20 grandchildren.

Compilation Of Catalogue For South Plains Fair Is Begun

Compilation of the catalogue for the approaching Panhandle-South Plains fair has been started, officials of the fair association announced Wednesday.

The volumes are expected off the press about Aug. 15. The cover this year probably will be silver with blue lettering, in keeping with the silver anniversary theme.

Premium lists are being prepared for publication in the catalogues.

Rapid progress was reported in the construction of the $18,000 merchants' building on the fairgrounds. Contract for construction of the building was awarded W. G. McMillan.

Work preparatory to re-arrangement of the grounds is expected to get under way late this week, probably Saturday.

Nichols Funeral To Be Conducted Today

Funeral services for Austin Nichols, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nichols of 1711 Fifteenth street, were conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Sanders Funeral chapel, with Rev. Jeff D. Welch of the Central Baptist church officiating.

Nichols died in a hospital at Abilene at 7:55 o'clock Tuesday night. Sanders Funeral home will direct burial in Lubbock cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nichols; four brothers, Floyd, G. W. jr., Clifford, and Doy Nichols, all of Lubbock; and two sisters, Lucille and Donna Ruth Nichols, both of Lubbock.

Pallbearers will be Aubrey McCrummen, Wilson Abbott, John L. Landis, Charles Ashby, Pete Todd, and Bill Dumas.

—The News Of The Day Through The Camera's Eye—

REAL (NOT REEL) SHEIK WON THE LADIES' EYE when he boarded Queen Mary for a trip to England. A camera enthusiast, he is Sheik Hafiz Wahba, minister to Great Britain from Saudi Arabia, independent state of which Ibn Saud is king.

FISH STORY in London involves L. Mullet "rescuing" R. T. Pike—their real names—for a life-saving demonstration.

SPEECH WASN'T FREE at Toronto meeting of Canadian Fascists who thus removed one heckler doing what he could vocally to break up the meeting. While this man was getting the bum's rush, protesting crowds were milling outside the hall. The Fascists organized into National Unity Party and named as leader, Adrien Arcand, a Montreal editor.

IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO GO to reach the end of lane after lane of wheat-loaded boxcars which brought more than 5,500,000 bushels to Kansas City yards—setting a new record for day's receipts. Wearily a man plods along, taking samples from any of the more than 3,500 cars. Cars were spotted along various tracks, awaiting disposition at grain elevators.

$48,000 YEARLY is salary of William McChesney Martin, jr., 31, St. Louis native, who followed his election as first paid president of New York stock exchange with pledge that the "interests of the public will be paramount."

Oil Industry Marks Time

(By The Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla., July 28 — While watching the crude oil production curve closely, the petroleum industry marked time hopefully the past week while awaiting state allowable hearings and the coming interstate oil compact meeting.

A note of caution was repeated lest cheering drops in refined inventories and runs to stills prompt a premature upturn in crude production and processing.

Texas Delays Order

Texas, No. 1 oil producing state, yesterday delayed its August allowable order, probably until after the interstate oil compact commission's meeting Friday and Saturday at Colorado Springs.

The commission is to hear a report of proration and its probable effect on crude production and marketing trends in the nation through the fall and winter.

Shutdowns Key Question

Whether Texas will lift its statewide Sunday shutdowns, in force more than six months, remains a key question. A sharp rise in crude output recently appeared attributable largely to the discontinuance of Saturday holidays in Texas.

Observers see also a marked sentiment in new areas for enlarged outlets. Northwest Texas' K. M. A. field and new western Kansas pools are examples.

Meanwhile, pending state hearings, the balance between production and refining appeared steady.

Production Increases

Crude production in the United States for the week ended July 23 averaged 3,349,378 barrels, a week's increase of 22,450 barrels daily, the Oil & Gas Journal reported.

The American Petroleum Institute reported finished and unfinished gasoline inventories in the week ended July 23 dropped 2,355,000 barrels to a total of 76,366,000, only six per cent greater than in the corresponding 1937 week.

Sooner Barber Price-Fixing Law Is Upheld By Tribunal

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 28 (AP) — Oklahoma's supreme court has upheld the state's barber price-fixing statute — a law that sent a Cushing barber to jail because competitors complained he cut rates as well as hair.

But the decision represented a partial victory for the barber, W. L. Tennyson, who was jailed in default of a bond guaranteeing he would no longer charge less than the prices agreed upon by Cushing competitors.

The tribunal held that courts could inquire into the question of whether the state board of barber examiners made unreasonable, extravagant or arbitrary decisions.

The Cushing barber's partial victory came when the court ruled the board of barber examiners does not have arbitrary power to fix prices, a power he had challenged.

All musical instruments are "wind" instruments. They require a vibrating wave of air in order to produce sound.

Natives Could Make Lemonade Right Out Of Creek; Truck Crashes Into Bridge Pillar

DALLAS, July 28 (AP) — If they had a mind to do it natives could have scooped the makings of lemonade right out of Mountain creek today.

It all came about when Pat Mitchell, 23, and Gilbert H. Ramsey, 30, accidentally crashed their lemon truck into a bridge pillar.

The cargo—130,000 lemons—was strewn along the highway and into the stream by the impact.

Mitchell and Ramsey, both from Mercedes, were injured critically, but were reported improved today.

Directors Present Answer To "What's Wrong With Movies!"

HOLLYWOOD, July 28 (AP) — Unionized screen directors today answered the question — "what's wrong with the movies?" in a seven-page statement blaming an "inept army" of minor production executives.

Taking the industry to task for a "complicated and expensive system of supervision," the Screen Directors' Guild, inc., made public a frankly critical analysis.

The guild charged that:

Studio overhead, much of it wasteful, eats up 40 per cent of the cost of Hollywood pictures.

Duplication, uncertainty and waste increase the other 60 per cent actually spent on production.

Nearly twice as many pictures were made ten years ago with one-eighth the number of producers, supervisors and associates now employed.

Millions of dollars have been invested in screen stories that will never be produced, but directors have not been asked to go over this material for salvage and reconstruction.

Government Expert Predicts Soy Beans Due To Be Popular

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP) — W. J. Morse, the government's expert on soy beans, predicted today that they are headed for a prominent place on American dining tables.

Government consultants on home economics, called in to cook and taste, said that 21 of 87 varieties tested were rated good or excellent for table use.

Of course it may take years, Morse admitted, to make people regard soy beans as a delicacy as well as a hay for livestock. But then, the tomato had to break down a lot of prejudice, too.

Usually Congress designates one day during a session to eulogize recently deceased members of Congress.

Folks Beginning To Ask Trader Horn Griffith Why Senators Are Still In First Division

By EDDIE GILMORE
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP) — Folks are beginning to ask Clark Griffith, the Trader Horn of baseball, what his Washington Senators are doing up there in fourth place in the American league.

Here it is past the halfway mark of the season, and the Senators—who are only a little younger than the capital's political senators—are still in the first division.

Picked Sixth Or Seventh

Picked by the experts to finish seventh or maybe sixth, the Griffmen may not look like pennant winners, but they do look as if they will finish among the four money-winners.

Why?

Those who have seen the Senators day-in-and-day-out give one answer—Bucky Harris, the manager.

Strange Group Of Athletes

It's a strange group of athletes that Owner Griffith traded around and turned over to Stanley Raymond Harris, the one-time boy manager of baseball.

Three of his five starting pitchers are at least 30 years old. One relief hurler is 32, another 32. Al Simmons, his frequent clean-up hitter, admits to 35, and Sammy West, the centerfielder, says he's 34.

Bucky has done everything but stand on his head to pull the club along. The line-up is seldom the same from day to day.

Light-Heavy Title Vacant

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 28.—Important steps affecting three of the eight boxing divisions have been taken by the New York State Athletic commission.

1. The light-heavyweight title held by John Henry Lewis, was declared vacant in this state.

2. The commission declined to accept Al Hostak, Tuesday night's conqueror of Freddie Steele, as the new middleweight champion of the world.

Opening Step Suggested

3. A 15-round elimination bout between Small Montana of San Francisco and the Japanese-born Katsuma Morioka of Canada was suggested as the opening step in a campaign to produce an undisputed flyweight champion.

Lewis was "set down" because of his consistent refusal to accept a challenge for a title bout filed February 10 by "Tiger Jack" Fox of Spokane.

Fight Never Comes Off

At the same time the Fox challenge was filed Lewis sent word to the commission he was booked for a defense of his title against Al Gainer, New Haven contender in Pittsburgh. This fight never came off.

Chairman John J. Phelan said that if an elimination tournament is arranged between Fox and Gainer, Melio Bettina of Beacon, N. Y., and Gus Lesnevich of Edgewater, N. J., the survivor will be recognized here as champion.

No Reflection On Hostak

Phelan made it plain that the commission's refusal to accept Hostak was no reflection on the Seattle youngster.

"Just say we'll not recognize Hostak 'at present,'" he said. "The reason is that Steele for several months ignored a challenge of Fred Apostoli. We feel Apostoli and Young Corbett of San Francisco should first meet, the winner to fight Hostak for the title."

Benny Lynch's flyweight title was declared vacant some weeks ago when he failed to make weight in a title bout with Jackie Zurich of San Jose, Calif.

Poultry And Egg To Face Postex Mills

BROWNFIELD, July 28 (Special)—Lubbock Poultry and Egg and Postex Mills of Post battle at 9 o'clock tonight in finals of the Lions club softball tournament here.

Each team has lost one game in the tourney. The Post entry sustained its loss last night when the Eggmen pushed over four runs in the final inning to win, 8 to 7.

Earlier in the night, the Eggmen had beaten another Lubbock team, Wilson Cleaners, 16 to 4.

East Texas Teams To Compete In Soft Ball Tourney Aug. 24

NACOGDOCHES, July 28. (AP)—H. E. Rush, of Overton, district commissioner of the American Amateur Soft Ball association, predicted today at least 20 East Texas teams would compete in a district tournament here Aug. 24-28.

The meet is open to both boys and girls. Winners will go to the state tournament at Abilene Sept. 1. Entries will be accepted up until two days before the meet starts.

GLEN GARDEN PLAY ON

FORT WORTH, July 27. (AP) — First qualifiers in the ninth annual Glen Garden invitation golf tournament, teed off in rounds here today. Among visiting stars expected were Jack Munger and Harry Todd of Dallas, Leland Hamman of Paris, and Bill McMahon of Longview.

ADD TO CEMETERY

TAHOKA.—A half block of land north of the Tahoka cemetery has been fenced in to meet demand for more space and for future growth, Dr. J. R. Singleton, secretary, announced. This is the third time additional land has been taken in.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 28.—Bill Terry (with his jints hitting the skids like everything) is feuding with the newspaper guys again . . . The advertising club of Newark has joined the race to raise a national fund to buy a plane for poor Doug Corrigan who had to go out and fly the Atlantic in a crate . . . Ray Fabiani, the fiddling wrestling promoter, has slapped a $25,000 suit on the 20th Century Sporting club because he says Promoter Mike Jacobs wouldn't install a cooling system . . . St. Paul has upped the cut on its golf open from $2,500 to $7,500 and are the pros happy . . . Event starts tomorrow.

Burgess Whitehead has changed his tune and his mind again . . . Interviewed by Mary Hopkins, smart reporter of the Elizabeth City (N. C.) Advance, Burgess now says he'll lay off hard work the rest of the season and make a fresh start next year . . . At that, he's doing a pretty good job with a semi-pro team a couple of times a week and Polo Grounders wish he'd hurry back . . . Don't laugh this off, for Jimmy Braddock may try that long reported comeback . . . Business over at the "store" isn't what it ought to be and besides Mike Jacobs needs heavies like nobody's business. Here's another fight tip: Lou Ambers is looking better than he ever did in his life.

Borger Hubers Are Still In Denver Post Tournament

DENVER, July 28. (AP)—The Borger, Tex., Hubers and Duncan, Okla., Cementers meet tonight in a contest featuring two undefeated teams, while two other games today promised eliminations of the losers in the Denver Post baseball tournament.

Worland, Wyo., and Denver Lakesiders open the day's bill.

At 3 p. m. Denver Door clashes with Ogallala, Neb., Indians in a second contest which will toss the loser from the meet.

Borgers and the Cementers meet under lights at 8:30 p. m. Both have won two games and fans look for a close scrap.

The Dupean Cementers pinned the first defeat on the Ogallala Indians, 8-7, in a game postponed from Tuesday. Denver Coors, highly regarded in the tournament, dropped a 12-10 struggle to the Trinidad, Colo., Century club.

Tremaine Winner Over Jack Hagen

Andy Tremaine copped the first and third falls Wednesday night to beat Jack Hagen in the main event at the Auditorium.

The strong boy from Tuscon walked away with the first fall by applying a neat rocking chair split. This was accomplished in some 20 minutes after Hagen had beat on Andy until he was fatigued.

Hagen took the second stanza with a series of body slams and a finishing headlock.

Fans were reminded of the good old days in the third fall when the grunters put on a fast and furious battle. Hagen was knocked out of the ring once but came back and beat Tremaine to the point that some of the fans left believing Jack had won. Tremaine backed into a corner and when his chance came placed a nice drop kick on Hagen's chin and with a body smother finished him off in sixteen minutes.

In the semi-final bout Gust Johnson mixed it with Don Hill who was substituting for Gorilla Pogi. This evenly matched battle found Johnson the victor when the Hollywood lad was forced to give up.

George Hartay the boy from Austria had trouble in the preliminary match when he met Count Von Bromberg from Germany. The fans got their money's worth in this match but neither of the fighters got the decision.

Former Washington State Star Is To Play With Cleveland

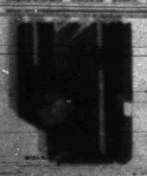

BISBEE, Ariz., July 28 (AP)—Ed Goddard, former Washington State college gridiron star now playing ball with the El Paso team of the Arizona-Texas league, said here today he would leave about September 1 for Cleveland to play professional football with the Rams.

He said he did not intend to quit baseball entirely but had been granted a leave of absence by the New York Yankees, parent club of the El Paso team.

Harry Stuhldreher Is Leading In Poll For All-Stars' Coach

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP) — Harry Stuhldreher of Wisconsin led today in first returns of a national poll to select the coach of an all-star collegiate football team which is scheduled to play the National professional league champion Washington Redskins here August 31.

Stuhldreher had a total of 167,820 points and held a lead of more than 33,000 points over Alvin N. (Bo) McMillin of Indiana who was in second place.

Hubbers To Observe 'Appreciation Night' Tonight

Gramly Is To Be On Mound For Locals

Marvin Gramly will go to the hill for the Hubbers tonight at 8:45 o'clock on the Parris field diamond to face Clovis in the final game of the series as Lubbock fans pay tribute to the local club management.

Bob Tarleton, general manager of the Chicago White Sox farms of which Lubbock is a member, is making his first visit of the regular season here. He was in the stands Wednesday night.

Marshall Does All Right

Ralph Marshall made his first start as a pitcher on the home lot Wednesday night and captivated the fancy of Lubbock fandom with a three-hit performance in which he struck out 22 Clovis batters.

He fanned every member of the Pioneer crew equaling the league record set here by Lefty Jerry Blanchard against Wink two weeks ago. A walk and a double produced the only Clovis run in the sixth.

Moset, Taylor Hit Good

Bob Mosel and Johnny Taylor got three hits apiece to pace the 16-hit Hubber attack. Hack Miller cracked out two doubles.

Wink captured a free-hitting contest from Hobbs on the Spudder field, 12 to 10, last night. Ossie Bates poled a home run for Wink. Frank Grabek, erstwhile Lubbock twirler, went into the breach in the ninth to stop a Booster rally after Lefty Lucas had weakened.

Midland beat Big Spring, 6 to 4, at Midland under the lights in the finale of a series the Barons already had won by virtue of two wins Tuesday.

Marshall's Tigers Increase Leadership In East Texas

(By The Associated Press)

Marshall's Tigers increased their leadership of the East Texas league over Texarkana's Liners to three games last night while their right handed curve ball ace, Jack Van Orsdol tucked his 16th straight victory of the season under his belt by shutting out the Liners 4-0.

Late rallies which netted eight runs brought a 12-9 win for Henderson over Kilgore. Tyler's clash with Longview was a mound duel won by Big Bill Lanning over Harry Boyles as Tyler emerged on top 2-1.

Jacksonville made hits count in the pinches to down Palestine 3-1. All games were series openers.

Snead Appears Man To Beat In St. Paul Open Starting Friday

ST. PAUL, July 28 (AP)—Slammin' Sam Snead, the season's top blue chip golfer, will be out to fatten his bank roll Friday when about 250 of the nation's leading club swingers start after the St. Paul open prize money.

The 72-hole medal event lists $7,500 prizes, with $1,800 for first place.

Snead, defending champion in the tournament and the year's leading money, appeared the man to beat, although no one is overlooking Harry Cooper of Chicago, who has won the meet three of the eight times it has been held, to take a total of $8,347.

Texas Team Named For National Pistol And Rifle Tournament

AUSTIN, July 28. (AP) — A Texas team of 13 men to attend the small arms firing school and national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, Aug. 21 to Sept. 10, was named today by Adjutant General Carl Neghitt and his assistant Maj. Gaston B. Howard.

The team, to be captained by Jack Moore of El Paso, will include William H. Orme-Johnson and Raymond H. Alexander of El Paso, William J. Waterson and Charles W. Gorry, jr., of Ysleta, and Ammon T. Tenny of Pabens.

Schoolboy Rowe Shows Happy Absence Of Ills Which Sent Him Back To Minor Leagues

(By The Associated Press)

Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe and his Beaumont Exporter teammates, as hot as Texas' midsummer weather, slashed their way to further security at the top of the Texas league yesterday with a 5-1 victory over Oklahoma City's Indians in a series opener.

For the Schoolboy the full nine innings during which he kept nine hits well scattered, issued only one pass, and struck out two, shows a happy absence of the ailment which shunted him from his place with Detroit's Tigers to the minors.

Bore Down Mightily

He bore down mightily with men on base and his inspired mates slapped the Indians' ace, Ash Hillin, and Wilcey Moore, who succeeded him, for an even dozen blows, effectively bunched, to take the tenth victory in their last eleven starts.

It was the first game in which Rowe had gone the route since he came to the Texas league.

San Antonio's Missions aided the Exporter cause with a 5-1 decision last night over Tulsa in which the Missions' Bill Trotter won his sixteenth victory of the season at the expense of Max Thomas.

Cooper Blanks Cats

Nor were pitching laurels confined to Rowe and Trotter. Morton Cooper of Houston turned in his third consecutive shut-out as he blanked the Fort Worth Cats 6-0 in a series opener.

Fourteen Cat batters went down swinging as the Buffs' righthander ran his total of strikeouts for the season to 178, well ahead of other league hurlers.

The Shreveprt Sports edged out the Dallas Steers 9-8.

Aid To Be Asked In Improving Island

AUSTIN, July 28 (AP)—The game, fish and oyster commission has instructed its coastal division to ask aid of federal engineers in making a survey which might lead to dredging channels through Padre Island and prevent further mortality of marine life in Laguna Madre.

A Corpus Christi delegation headed by Bruce Collins, told the game officials local sportsmen had been blocked in an attempt to blast a pass through the island near Murdock's landing.

Wants Assurance

They said the land owner wanted assurance from the game department the project was feasible and it would keep the pass cleaned out after it had been opened.

The commission directed W. W. Boyd, director of coastal operations, to seek aid of federal engineers in making the necessary survey and to aid coastal sportsmen in any other enterprise that might result in adequate passes.

Excessive salinity in the upper lagoon recently has killed an estimated 1,000,000 pounds of fish.

Began Efforts Last May

Chairman A. E. Wood said the commission last May began efforts to have a pass cut through Padre Island at Murdock's landing but permission of the war department had never been obtained. He added maintenance of passes would require thousands of dollars annually and Texas sportsmen "contribute relatively little money to game and fish conservation."

He asserted the commission, if it had sufficient funds, would cut a channel through the sand flats dividing the upper and lower Laguna Madre, cut additional passes on both portions of the island and thus "provide Texas with the greatest fishing paradise in the world."

He added another dredge was needed immediately. One, recently purchased, now is cutting a pass at Corpus Christi which, when completed, will partially remedy the situation in the upper lagoon, members said.

The annual rainfall for the greater part of Spain is less than 20 inches.

Mrs. Moody Still Absorbed In Tennis After 18 Years

By BILL BONI
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 28. — After 18 years of competitive tennis, and within a few months of her 33rd birthday, Helen Wills Moody still is completely absorbed by the game that has made her one of the world's outstanding sports figures.

Her enthusiasm and a woman's typical curiosity to see just how well she could play were the chief factors that drove her out of comparative retirement.

Never Lose Interest

"When you really love a game as I do, you don't ever lose interest in it," she admitted today, as she paused briefly in the round of appointments which she calls resting.

"I hadn't really retired in the last few years, even though 1933 was the last time I played at Forest Hills and 1935 was my last trip to Wimbledon. Although I hadn't played singles in a tournament in three years I was in good physical condition, so there seemed no reason why I shouldn't come back.

Setting Herself A Problem

"Actually I was setting myself a problem — just how well could I play?—and it's always interesting to have a problem, even if it's only in a game.

It was a considerable problem. It meant returning after a long absence to a scene she had dominated for years. It meant risking considerable damage to a record and reputation that needed no enhancing.

So far, the risk has been passed without harm, for at Wimbledon Helen won her eighth singles crown. The next danger point will be the nationals at Forest Hills September 8-17, when she will seek to bring her number of U. S. triumphs to the same total.

Sidney Wood Faces Test With Allison

SEA BRIGHT, N. J., July 28 (AP)—Sidney Wood, jr., on the comeback trail after eleven years of big league tennis, faced in Wilmer Allison today, the test that may decide his future in the net sport.

A year ago the experts called Wood through, said his lack of stamina overcame his acknowledged brilliance as a stylist and court tactician. Although he captured the Wimbledon championship at the age of 19 and later was a member of Uncle Sam's Davis cup forces, he found himself tiring badly in long-drawn out tests.

Yesterday he was called on to go three sets before repulsing Robert Kamrath, a husky Texan, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4, in the third round of the 51st annual Sea Bright invitation tournament. At the finish, (Wood admitted he was "pleasantly tired," but showed no signs of exhaustion later when he competed in the doubles.

In Allison, Wood will not only be meeting an old rival, but one capable of testing to the limit Wood's reserve powers. Like Wood, Allison was not seeded in the current competition.

Yesterday, however, the former national titleholder broke up the seedings by putting out Joe Hunt of Los Angeles, No. 4, in the draw, 6-0, 6-4.

Giants Falling Apart; Third Place Is Next

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

They said it can't happen here. They said that no matter how bad those Giants looked with bats in their hands, their defense would always hold up. They said that strictly on pitching and fielding alone, those Giants would always get along.

But, after listening to all that for years, you can take a look at the latest developments in the National league race, and (shades of John McGraw!) there's the very thing they said couldn't happen, happening all over the place.

Look More Like Phillies

The great pitching, except for King Carl Hubbell who's carrying the entire burden again, is about as useful as a hot water bottle at the equator. The air-tight fielding is up around the stratosphere. And the terrible Terry Terriers of '36 and '37 are wallowing around a half game ahead of third place, five games back of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and looking more like the Phillies than the Phillies do themselves.

They've lost five games in a row, the latest a 7-0 four-hit whitewashing applied by long Lon Warneke and the Cardinals yesterday. They've dropped eight of their last ten, and in their last 68 games — since their early season streak of 18 victories and three setbacks, in fact—they've played under .500 ball.

Cubs Let Dodgers Win

They're only holding second place today because the revived Chicago Cubs developed a case of butterfingers last night and let the Dodgers score three times in the ninth inning for a 3-2 Brooklyn win.

Bill Terry is frantically switching his lineup trying to get a winning combination, but nothing seems to be working. The Cards did all their scoring in one inning yesterday because the defense came apart at the seams.

Bees Best Reds

Since Pep Young had himself a big day, driving in four runs to pace the Pirates to a 8-2 win over the Phillies, the Bucs were left five games out in front. Deacon Danny MacFayden and Lou Fette tossed a pair of five-hitters and the Boston Bees belted the Cincinnati Reds twice, 1-0 and 5-1.

Over in the American league, the Yankees held their game-and-a-half edge on the Cleveland Indians, but the spotlight remained focussed on Hankus-Pankus Greenberg, Detroit dynamiter, who belted a pair of homers for the second straight day to deal the Tigers to a 9-4 win over the Senators and boost the Detroits back into fifth place.

Up On Ruth's Record

The two round-trippers were Hank's 32nd and 33rd of the year and put him seven games up, for this date, on Babe Ruth's record 1927 campaign.

Rookied Relief Hurler Steve Sundra pitched 3 2-3 innings of hitless ball, hit a homer and a run-producing single and gave the Yanks a 7-5 decision over the St. Louis Browns. The second game of what was to have been a double bill was rained out. The Indians nipped the Athletics, 12-11, in a fancy slugfest. The Red Sox-White Sox twin bill was washed out.

Trick Golf Shots To Be Shown At Driving Range Tonight

Trick shots from the clubs of Charles Akey, Lubbock Country club professional, and Joe Bihl will be exhibited tonight at Bihl's Tee Box driving range, College avenue and Fourth street.

Each will attempt to match the other in producing trick shots. The exhibition will follow the women's driving contest starting at 9:30 o'clock.

Three Holtons made it a clean sweep for the family in junior contests. Buster Holton won in the 16-year-old division, A. B. was victor in the 11 to 16 year age class, and Kenneth won the 11-year-old class.

Allison And Parker To Play In Canadian Tennis Championship

TORONTO, July 28 (AP)—Frankie Parker, third-ranking United States tennis player, and the veteran Wilmer Allison will play in the Canadian championships starting next week it was announced here today.

Both are former winners of the title, Parker in 1932 as a 16-year-old schoolboy prodigy and Allison, in 1928.

British Wage An Unending 'Secret War' In India; Bombing Active

Fakir Of Ipi Is Trouble-Maker

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Correspondent

LONDON, July 28.—While British statesmen and British newspapers are expressing indignation at the airplane bombing of women and children in Spanish government towns by Franco and at the spectacle of thousands of hapless victims of Japanese bombers in Chinese cities, British bombing planes are active in Waziristan, that troubled region between Afghanistan and the Northwest Frontier province of India.

It's just another of those paradoxes—and the basis of a charge made by the Nazis that the British really blocked disarmament, so far as bombers were concerned. It has often been asserted (also denied) that a former British cabinet minister, when in office, resisted disarmament as to bombers, because they were needed on India's frontiers.

Inhabited By War-Like Tribes

Waziristan, where British bombers are at work on "police duty," is a tract 160 by 60 miles inhabited by the war-like Moslem tribes of the Wazirs and the Hahsuds. Their country is a mass of hills and mountains, cut by deep gullies and ravines and with many long caves which serve as hiding places. As the land is bare and poor, the tribesmen live largely by loot.

England is always having trouble there. In fact, it has been said that there is seldom a time when England has not a small war on its hands around and about the Northwest Frontier province of India.

For the past 13 years Britain's chief enemy and troublemaker in that region has been the Fakir of Ipi. Now 42, with his beard dyed a fiery red, he invariably tries to make his fights have a religious tinge by using the slogan:

"Islam is in danger."

Chase Cost $5,000,000

There are no more fanatical Moslems anywhere than in Waziristan. Either through fear of or through sympathy with him, the Fakir invariably finds shelter when closely pursued. From November, 1936, to 1937, 30,000 regular British and Indian troops, backed up by Royal Air Force bombers, were after Ipi and his men. The chase cost $5,000,000, 224 killed and 601 wounded — but no Ipi.

When the troops found the cavern which had been his hiding place, he had vanished. This led a cynical British poet to pen this verse:

"The Fakir of Ipi
"Is certainly dipi—
"When we drop him a bomb
"He's never at homb."

The government of India does not take so humorous a view of the Fakir's doings. In the last three months of 1937 the Air Force bombers carried out 3250 hours of flying, representing flights totalling 350,000 miles. It is pointed out that the bombers were not always bombing. They carried troops and supplies to the front and took back casualties.

The Fakir resumed his activities this year. His wild followers have killed troops, poisoned wells, cut telegraph and telephone wires and left bombs on the roads. The Fakir has also been busy issuing anti-government propaganda among people up to now friendly to the government. Since May, bombers have been trying to blast him from his hiding place, but without success. Three thousand troops are also seeking him. So far he has been like a Wazir flea—never where they look for him.

Stoic natives (at right) impassively look on as batter.es of the Royal Horse Artillery cross a stream, on India's northwest frontier, in the course of their grim, $5,000,000 game of hide-and-seek with the trouble-making Fakir of Ipi.

A rare photo of the Fakir of Ipi, the "Mad Mullah" who has eluded Britain's mechanized army.

Nation's Hens Making Mark At The Nest; More Chicks

CHICAGO, July 28 (AP) — The nation's hens, it appeared from egg market vital statistics today, are turning in an all-time high batting average at the nest this season.

These statistics also showed birth control is "out the chicken house window" this year. The young chick population on July 1 was 13 per cent greater than a year ago.

A little boost in egg prices has stirred the average hen's egg output to record proportions, and has put more feed in biddy's trough.

Mercantile exchange statsticians estimated average egg production in the United States runs about 60,000 eggs a minute—day and night.

The poultry business simply has a lot of good, cheap feed and hens are so fat and happy, the experts say, they have been showing appreciation in their daily turn at the nest. Weather has been favorable, too.

Flier Is Heard In Interview

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 28 — Douglas Corrigan has informed his American "discoverer," William K. Lawton, Associated Press correspondent at Roosevelt field here, he'd like "anything they give me" in the way of a welcome when he comes back home.

Corrigan, in a trans-Atlantic interview with Lawton over National Broadcasting company facilities, stuck to his story that flying to Ireland was all a surprise to him.

Lawton, speaking from New York, asked:

Was A Surprise

"Doug, why is it that in the whole week I saw you in New York at Roosevelt field and we pallied around together a little you didn't mention a thing about going to Ireland?"

"No," said Corrigan in reply from London, "it was a surprise to me, too, you know."

Then Lawton went on to say that Mayor LaGuardia had "asked us to find out what kind of a welcome home party you'd like."

"Well," said Corrigan, "I'll like anything they give me."

May Tour Country

Lawton asked the flier about reports that he might tour the country in his plane in behalf of the San Francisco exposition and Corrigan replied:

"I haven't heard anything definite on that, although I see that Mayor Rossi sent me an invitation to the celebration, and I hope to accept it if I ever get out that far."

Lawton was the first to interview Corrigan on his nonstop flight from California, days before the "wrong distance" flier took off for Ireland.

Corrigan Is To Pay Visit To Birthplace, Galveston

GALVESTON, July 28 (AP)—Douglas Corrigan, native of Galveston, who startled the world when he landed his California-bound air crate in Eire instead of California, has cabled local officials he intends to visit his home town.

Corrigan, who made headlines in Galveston at the age of a year by winning a prize in a baby contest, cabled Gus Amundsen, jr., manager of the convention bureau of the Galveston Chamber of Commerce, in response to an invitation extended to him:

"Thanks. I intend to visit Galveston as soon as possible."

Man, Missing For Two Years, Returns To Claim Legacy

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—Missing two years, 30-year-old Donald Chase returned to Little Falls Wednesday to claim a $100,000 legacy. Chase was found in Los Angeles recently by relatives after a world-wide search.

He shares in the $1,000,000 estate of his uncle, the late L. O. Bucklin, Little Falls banker.

One-eleventh of the total area of the state of Maine is made up lakes and ponds.

SNAKE GETS BITE IN

TROUP, July 28—Thirteen-year-old Voyt Hagerty today saw a brown snake and chopped its head off with an axe so it would not bite anyone. The head stuck to the blade. The youth sought to brush it off with his hand. It snapped and Voyt was treated for a copperhead bite.

NOT so long ago, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. "Bud" Aderton, of 2219 9th street, went up to Alton, Illinois, to visit Mr. Aderton's people. And while they were there Alton was hit by a sandstorm that make the average blow out here look like a small imitation of the real thing.

Mrs. Aderton, who has been in West Texas almost all her life, said with the exception of the two "black blizzards" we've had, she's never seen a West Texas sandstorm that could compare with Alton's.

Alton is a town of around 30,000, just across the river from St. Louis.

It says:

"If we really had long vision, we'd see that the United States is merely suffering from growing pains. Our country is a giant, that's what it is. We need to be reminded now and then that the United States operates 60 per cent of the world's telephone and telegraph facilities, owns 80 per cent of the motor cars in use, and operates 33 per cent of the railroads. Now, just for good measure, we'll add to that that our country produces 70 per cent of the oil, 60 per cent of the wheat and cotton, 50 per cent of copper and pig iron, and 40 per cent of the lead and coal output of the globe. It doesn't seem possible, but it's true that the purchasing power of our population is greater than that of the 500 million people in Europe, and is even larger than that of more than a billion Asiatics. Now think for a moment about the undeveloped possibilities of such a country!"

PRESIDENT Roosevelt, vacationing, has given no indication concerning the men he is considering for the Supreme court vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Justice Cardozo. But as always the case, speculators have been active in "guessing" who will be elevated to the high bench.

Names suggested include one of our neighbors, former U. S. Senator Sam Bratton, of Clovis, now a federal district judge. Others talked about are Felix Frankfurter, of Boston; Ferdinand Pecora, of New York; Judge Florence Allen, of Ohio, and others too numerous to mention.

In New York and Washington recently, however, a boom has been begun for a man before untalked of for the post. He is U. S. Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach, of the state of Washington.

In spite of the fact that the New Deal needs Schwellenbach in the senate, a lot of men close to high places believe he'll get the nod when the right time comes.

At any rate, put Schwellenbach's name on your list for future reference.

Douglas "Non-Stop" Corrigan will become a traveling salesman for the San Francisco World's fair.

As soon as he gets home he'll take his famous crate, labeled "Treasure Island" out on a barnstorming trip, and will visit 56 cities boosting the fair and American airplanes. The tour will end when he sets his plane down on the fair site and there it will remain, for all to see, until December 2, 1939, the closing date of the exposition.

AMUSING to The Plainsman are formal announcements from the State Democratic Executive committee, and from the treasurer of the National Democratic Executive committee, that both those organizations "will give complete support and co-operation to W. Lee O'Daniel."

That's mighty fine and thoughtful of the boys, except they're a little late.

Without support of either, Wilbert Lee managed to do all right by himself last Saturday.

He's got all the co-operation and support he needs—and then some!

SENATOR G. H. Nelson, of Lubbock, ran third in the six-man race for lieutenant-governor but he is not down-hearted, even though his campaign for the office was probably the most strenuous in Texas history.

Pointing out that he got around 200,000 votes and a tremendous support out here in his own district, Senator Nelson is mad at nobody. He's going back to the senate, he says, ready and willing to co-operate with whoever becomes lieutenant-governor.

A member of the senate less than a full term, Senator Nelson ran a good race.

When one takes into consideration the fact that he was a newcomer to state politics and lives where votes are fewer than in the older sections of the state, it is apparent that Hobart did very well by himself.

The senator believes the race, although unsuccessful as far as he is concerned, will be a good thing for the district. The contest publicized Nelson, the South Plains and Tech college and he believes was thoroughly worthwhile.

THE Plainsman doubts that Harley Sadler has ever considered entering the field of politics, but the record made by the popular showman in his espousal of his cousin's campaign for the railroad commission indicates that Harley, himself, might run far and wide if he cared to make the plunge.

Jerry Sadler, who is running the race off with the veteran C. V. Terrell, of Decatur, did very little campaigning in West Texas.

As a matter of fact, he made but one swing through this country and 99 per cent of the people had never heard of him before he announced for the office.

Yet this country went strong for him—and it can be traced to one thing and one thing alone. That's Harley's personal popularity out here.

Friends down state tell The Plainsman that Harley was a big factor in the race in other parts of Texas, too.

The veteran player of red-headed "Toby" roles, they say, is as popular in other parts of the state as he is around here and that his role in his cousin's campaign was of great importance everywhere.

It is extremely doubtful if Jerry Sadler would have run anywhere as strong as he did without Harley's aid and Harley certainly deserves a lot of credit.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

TRAN DEARBORN — heroine, student nurse. She ran into love and trouble when she met

DR. BOB BENCHLEY — hero, handsome young interne. He had trouble, too, keeping up with brilliant

DR. STEPHEN SARGENT—head surgeon. Dr. Sargent's problem was something else again.

Yesterday, Dr. Benchley is insistent that Tran marry him but she has her eye on another goal.

CHAPTER IX

Several evenings before, Tran had spent hours writing up a nursing care report. . . . "The Nursing Care Report," her student text said, was significant "as showing the nurse's ability to recognize and to analyze intelligently and sympathetically the many nursing problems, psychological as well as physical, that are presented by any one patient."

Miss Armstrong had charge of this work. But to give added zest to it, the students' papers were occasionally read and commented upon by some of the members of the medical staff.

This was a particularly ticklish assignment because, this time, the commentator was to be the terrible Dr. Stephen Sargent. The thought of those eyes of his — at once icy and angry — passing judgment upon her work, made Tran's hands turn cold as she wrote. The anticipation of his caustic comments chilled her blood — especially as the case of which she wrote was one of his own, to which she had been assigned to help Miss Miller.

Miss Miller had been unusually helpful. Indeed, Tran had lately been surprised to find that Miss Miller, once she was convinced that you were in earnest, could be amazingly human and kind. There were times when Tran wondered, with understanding beyond her years, if the whole trouble about Miss Miller could not be that all her life she had had to fight a devastating shyness.

When Tran had finished, she was tired. So tired that she felt she was entitled to a little innocent relaxation.

A delightful idea was beginning to take shape in her too fertile brain. She tapped her nose with her pen, giggled, drew paper towards her, and began to write feverishly:

Patient: X.

Doctor: . . . She considered for a moment; then wrote with a flourish: Benchley.

Head nurse: Tranquility Dearborn.

Diagnosis: None.

Note: Although my patient was admitted to this hospital 10 years ago and has been constantly under observation, no comprehensive diagnosis to cover all his amazing symptoms has yet been arrived at.

However, as Dr. Osler has said, "It is sometimes more important to know what sort of patient has the disease than what sort of disease the patient has."

Color: White.

Sex: Male.

Age: Just right to be interesting.

Family: If married, he makes no boast of it.

Religion: From certain fervent expressions I have heard the patient use in moments of excitement, the most charitable conclusion is that he is deeply religious. . . . It is important that a nurse should state exactly what she observes — neither more nor less. (Nursing Text, p. 120).

Profession: Surgeon.

Income: As to his income, I can only report that, in delirium, I have heard him refer to his income tax as "highway robbery." . . . A good nurse does not inject personal interpretations into a bedside record. (N. T., p. 125).

Intelligence: His intelligence and professional skill are reported to be of high order. His operating technique is said to be so exacting that young nurses have been known to faint when informed that they were to assist him, and to run temperatures after helping at one of his operations.

Emotional Reactions: His emotional reactions are so varied and unusual as to afford an instructive study. . . . Our text asserts that a patient should be an interesting study to an alert nurse. The nurse who failed to find X interesting would be phlegmatic, indeed.

Personal Description: X is a tall, spare, blond man of the sanguine type which always looks as if it had just scrubbed its face, neck, and ears with a brush and green soap, and rinsed with ice water. His eyebrows are arrogant; his nose is one of the lofty kind which seem especially designed for snorting. His eyes, which are very blue, habitually wear what can only be described as a "be-damned-to-you" expression.

Manifestation of Symptoms: X is obviously a man who is accustomed to having his own way. An illustration of this observation follows:

Since our text instructs us that charts and reports bearing upon the patient's condition should be kept from his eyes, the nurse observed the usual procedure, when X's temperature was taken, of retiring to a distant light to read the thermometer. Each time this happened, however, the patient fell into so dangerously excited a state because he was not permitted to read the thermometer himself that eventually it seemed wisest to allow him to do so. One must never unduly alarm a patient by seeming to hide the truth from him. (N.T., p. 137).

When X discovered that the thermometer read at exactly normal, he seemed violently chagrined, and insisted that it must have been tampered with — that in his condition it should read at least four degrees higher.

Another of his eccentricities is that, in spite of tactful efforts to dissuade him, he persists in taking his own pulse at frequent intervals.

On one occasion he even demanded a sphygmomanometer for the purpose of taking his own blood pressure; but that time, his attention was successfully distracted by the appearance of his lunch tray, to which he at once gave his undivided attention, falling asleep immediately thereafter. . . . (Contents of tray: thick soup, large steak, mushrooms, mashed potatoes, peas, tomato salad, mince pie, cheese, and pot of coffee).

Unfortunately the meal must have failed properly to digest, for very soon the patient was in the throes of what appeared to be a bad dream. He seemed to fancy himself to be in the operating room, for he cried out angrily, "Don't you know, you (expletive deleted) that dropping an instrument might be equivalent to murder? It's feather-brains like you — dancing all night and then coming into the operating room with the jitters — that makes surgeons wish they were taxi drivers."

Treatment: . . . The nurse owes the patient not only professional skill, but all the personal qualities that go with gracious womanhood. (N.T., p. 198). Think of the patient as of your brother, or any one dear to you and suffering. (p. 200).

With the above dicta in mind, I have repeatedly tried to soothe the patient with little thoughtful attentions — such as reading aloud to him a beautiful and uplifting

WELL, AT LEAST HE'S NOT ALL BAD!

A week or two ago we found reason forthrightly to criticize Gov. George Earle of Pennsylvania because of his attempts to hamper, rather than help, an investigation into charges of extreme mishandling of federal relief funds in his state. We said then, and still are of the opinion, that the Earle brand of politics lacks the fragrance of roses.

Despite that opinion, however, one is forced to admire the spirit with which he accepted the penalty dealt him recently by federal aviation officials. The governor, who is taking "flying lessons," disobeyed his instructor. His flying privileges have been temporarily suspended as the result.

As governor of a great state and as a close friend of the administration, Earle undoubtedly could have pulled some very powerful wires to have escaped the penalty and attendant publicity. But he didn't. He confessed frankly he had learned a valuable lesson "just like any schoolboy." And like a schoolboy, he seems to have accepted the punishment with good grace.

Which goes a long way toward explaining why he was honored by the people of his state with the highest office within their gift.

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, July 28. — The silly season is upon the movie colony again. Ribbers are ribbing like mad, and practical jokers are laboring for the discomfiture of their victims, and everybody's playing games on the sets.

Carole Lombard confesses she's wracking her brains for a party idea to top the riot when she rented the Fun House at Venice.

A pretty girl with a large red rooster on a leash has appeared on Hollywood boulevard; also a lady midget being led by a Great Dane.

A 20th-Fox publicist, Ray Dannenbaum, attends a class in equitation each afternoon attired in a different costume borrowed from the studio wardrobe department. He's a yachtsman one day, a colonial dandy the next, a deep-sea diver, a maharajah, and so on.

The Warner publicity department sends out preview invitations in the form of squawkers, horse-capsules, redwood shingles, legal summonses and cuties-in-cellophane.

Joan Crawford appears on the lot in the shortest of all shorts, and does a burlesque of a burlesque strip-tease in the studio cafe. Harpo Marx chases all lady visitors on the set of "Room Service," and the Brothers Ritz occasionally direct traffic in Beverly Hills.

These things are all portents of confidence and general good feeling—about jobs, the production boom, and the state of the industry. Gloom and optimism are almost as contagious in Hollywood as in Wall Street, and right now it's a rainbow, in technicolor.

Get To Work, You!

Everything on the Metro lot seemed to go crazy the other day. Orders came to tear down sets that hadn't been used, to build sets that hadn't been heard of, to hire 10,000 extras for a Pete Smith short, and to begin construction of suits of armor for everybody in the cast of "The Great Waltz."

It turned out that Charles MacArthur, former writing teammate of Ben Hecht, had been sneaking into the office of Bernard Hyman, production executive, and barking orders into his dictation machine.

Phantom Stalks Again

Still-photographers at Warners have been having trouble with their films for weeks. Many of these, after developing, have been found to contain mysterious double-exposures—chorus cuties on the same negatives with Priest Pat O'Brien, the faces of visitors all mixed up with production stills, ghostly figures clustered around pictures of stars.

That mischief was cleared up when one of the Dead End boys was found snapping pictures with a photographer's equipment. The other lads had been doing the same thing, then putting the film holders back in the cases as though they never had been used.

Oh, Well, Accents Will Happen

There has been a search for a new game that might be as popular as the handies and knock knocks of previous silly seasons. None has been found, though, except the one invented by Owen Davis, Jr., Eleanor Whitney, and some other youngsters while they were rehearsing some lines.

Impressed with the importance of properly accenting words for clarity, they began experimenting with accents in the wrong places, to change the meanings. Only rule is that the words have to be spoken in proper sequence, thus: "What are we going to have for dinner—mother?"

Most of them seem to be unprintable. People sit around on the sets and say terribly insulting things to each other, and then laugh. It's all a matter of accent or inflection.

Gosh, Nobody Ever Works There

Still popular, too, for large groups, is the rhythmic pastime of reciting names of movie players, cities-and-states, or associated words. Looks silly, and is; but it's difficult, especially with fast tempo.

Players sit in a ring, clap their hands, knees and hands in waltz or four-four time. On one downbeat, a player says "Clark." Next person, on the next down-beat, says "Gable." The third says "Charlie" and the fourth may say "McCarthy," "Farrell," "Chaplin" or "Ruggles." Anybody who hesitates and breaks the tempo is out, and may have to contribute a dime toward a pot for the last person in the game.

The contest gets hilarious when short phrases are used, such as "double—feature," "marry—in haste," "sailor—beware," "son—of a gun."

Farley's Jaunt To Alaska In Midst Of Many Elections Gives Rise To Rumors Of "Break"

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 28. — National Chairman-Postmaster General James A. Farley's trip to Alaska during the primary season in which President Roosevelt promised to participate hasn't failed to attract comment.

Dutcher

Rumors have been revived that Farley and Roosevelt are at odds over New Deal campaign tactics and more personal matters up to the point where an open break impends.

The truth is that Farley feels this way and that way. His deep loyalty to the President is tempered by dissatisfaction because Harry Hopkins, Harold Ickes, Tom Corcoran, and others are more definitely within the White House inner councils than he. Farley has been alternately in and out of the effort to make the Democratic party safe for the New Deal.

No Real Break—Yet

Farley's recent appeal for election of "a Roosevelt Congress which will support Roosevelt policies and Roosevelt principles," his encouragement of young William E. Dodd, Jr., in the Virginia primaries against a conservative Democratic congressman, and his part in early stages of the Iowa primary contest, indicate no real break with the man he piloted to the presidency.

Recently Farley appeared to be working hand in glove with Roosevelt toward unsnarling the gubernatorial-senatorial nomination in New York, although that doesn't seem to have lasted.

On the other hand, Farley has been less than lukewarm toward mixing into certain state contests where F. D. R. wanted him to work behind the scenes. Old personal loyalties, a cautious unwillingness to stir up intra-party strife, and his annoyance at entry of simon-pure New Dealers into the political field with Roosevelt's approval have thus far caused him to take an almost negative part in the Roosevelt effort to reform the party.

But he may swing farther in either direction after his return late in August. Roosevelt has pleased Farley's critics by publicly announcing his intention to take part in certain primaries, and then he has pleased Farley by taking his go-slow counsel against that of New Dealers who wanted to make a fight on all primary fronts regardless of the chances for success.

Promotion With Salary Cut

New York Industrial Commissioner Elmer F. Andrews, appointed to the government's "toughest job"—that of wage-hour administrator—will draw $10,000 a year, just $2000 less than his New York state salary.

But the five members of the new Civil Aeronautics authority will each receive $12,000 a year—plus the aid of a $12,000 administrator. Congress fixed the salaries in all cases.

Besides Chairman Edward J. Noble, a millionaire New Dealer appointed as a Republican member, the authority includes: the other so-called Republican member, General Counsel Oswald Ryan of the Federal Power commission, of Indiana, promoted from assistant general counsel under the New Deal; Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Harllee Branch, a Democrat with experience in airmail administration; Grant Mason of Pan-American Airways, close friend of Jimmy Roosevelt and husband of the girl—Jane Kendall—whom Calvin Coolidge once said was the prettiest in Washington; and Robert Hinckley, western WPA regional administrator, former air line operator, liberal Democrat and close friend of New Deal Senator Elbert D. Thomas of Utah, who is up for renomination and re-election.

The $12,000 administrator is Assistant General Counsel Clinton M. Hester of the Treasury, a career man who wrote the final draft of the defeated Roosevelt reorganization bill and much of the new aeronautics act.

romance from the latest "Ladies Home Review." His reaction was disappointing, not to say alarming. After the first few sentences X struggled to an upright position, his face livid and congested, and cried out in a strangled voice, "If you must read that slop, for God's sake (Refer to remarks about religion) go and do it where I can't hear you!"

There was a good deal more. When it was finished, Tran tucked it under her arm with the class report, intending to read it to Beula Tagg that night. Beula, however, was sleepy and indisposed to listen. Tran dropped it upon her desk, and for the time completely forgot about it.

Top Sarge entered the classroom on the appointed day with the glint of battle in his blue eyes. He plunged at once into a discussion of the pile of student reports before him — reading bits aloud and commenting in his curt, clipped accents. Of some he was graciously pleased to approve. Others he dealt with in phrases so corrosive that Beula Tagg, one of the victims, said afterwards that she felt as if she had been bathed in acid.

As the hour drew to a close, Tran sat shivering between relief and disappointment that her own report had not been one of those chosen. It was then that, with a glance at the clock, he took up a final paper.

"Now here," he said, "is an unusual document."

Tran gripped the seat of her chair. Was there something distinctly familiar looking about that paper?

"The case," Dr. Sargent was going on, "is not one that has come under my care."

Then it couldn't be her report. She had written about one of his own cases. . . . And yet—a hideous conviction turned everything black before Tran's eyes as he began to read.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

In the District Court of the United States for the northern district of Texas. In the matter of George Monroe Mason bankrupt. No. 488 in bankruptcy. Office of Referee, Lubbock, Texas, July 26, 1938.

Notice is hereby given that George Monroe Mason of the County of Dawson, and district aforesaid, did, on the 11th day of July 1938 file in the Clerk's office of said Court, at Lubbock, a petition setting up that he has been heretofore duly adjudged a bankrupt under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1898; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy, and praying for a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate in bankruptcy, save such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

On considering the above mentioned petition, it is ordered that any creditor who has proved his claim, and other parties in interest, if they desire to oppose the discharge prayed for in said petition, shall, on or before the 26th day of August 1938, file with the Clerk of U. S. Court for the Lubbock Division of said district, a notice in writing of their opposition to a discharge in the above entitled cause.

You Need Printing!
OF COURSE; . . . NEARLY EVERYONE DOES, But what kind of printing do you need? That's the question.
You can't simply say that printing is printing and let it go at that. Think of the DIFFERENCE between the fresh-laid eggs and that of yesteryear!
And there's a whale of a big difference between printing . . . of the sort you love to look at, and the "Run-of-the-mill" variety.
In emphasizing your need for printing, what we mean to coyly suggest is that you really need The Baker Company Printing.

enjoyed the experience thoroughly."

Didn't Vote For Himself

"I heard there were some Galveston people who didn't vote for me, so I came down to see about it," Mr. O'Daniel laughed, and added:

"I can't hold that against them; I didn't vote for myself."

The mountain music which helped him in his campaign came with the O'Daniels to the flatlands of Galveston island. Although he left his hill billy band at home, the younger O'Daniels brought their musical instruments.

O'Daniel answered a question on whether he would recommend that the legislature submit a constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax, by saying he had determined no plan of action but would do his best to have the voting charge removed.

No Plans For Convention

He also said he had made no plans concerning the Democratic state convention in September or the county conventions scheduled throughout the state Saturday. "We have no organization and expect to depend on our friends in the convention as we did in the primary," he said.

O'Daniel was concerned over news of floods on the Colorado and Rio Grande rivers. "Something is going to have to be done about flood control," he said. "There is also a serious problem of water conservation on the Rio Grande which must be approached through a treaty with Mexico."

O'Daniel Cleared $800 On His Campaign For Governor

AUSTIN, July 28 (AP) — W. Lee O'Daniel cleared $800 on his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor, his expense report showed.

His final statement filed with the secretary of state showed total expenditures of $5,789 and contributions of $6,586.

Solicited Donations

No contribution sources were mentioned but the Fort Worth flour merchant solicited donations through large audiences at his appearances.

In his first statement, filed June 28, O'Daniel listed radio expense at $350 but made no mention of the item in the last two, although it might have been included under the classification "publicity." He was "on the air" many times in the last weeks of the campaign.

Law Requires Filing

The law requires the filing of expense reports only by candidates and their campaign managers, friends being permitted to spend any amount. A limit of $8,000 is permitted for a gubernatorial campaign with $2,000 additional in a run-off.

Among unsuccessful candidates for governor, P. D. Renfro of Beaumont showed expenses $2,709 and contributions $1,695; Karl Crowley of Fort Worth, expenditures $7,480 and donations $925; Tom F. Hunter of Wichita Falls, expenses, $6,136 and S. T. Brogdon of Stephenville, expenses $619 and $4 contributed.

Senator Barkley Sees Third Term Possibility For FDR

COVINGTON, Ky., July 28. (AP)—Senator Alben W. Barkley alluded at a political rally here last night to the possibility President Roosevelt might run for a third term.

Speaking in his campaign for renomination, Barkley said:

"I keynoted the president into the White House twice and I might possibly do it again in 1940."

Barkley is campaigning against Gov. A. B. Chandler for the Democratic nomination.

Old fashioned "slide" advertisements still are shown at the movies in Geneva, Switzerland.

berlain has long desired.

He decided to remain at his official country home over the weekend to receive the envoy, Captain Fritz Wiedemann, who was reported to be bringing a new message from the German Fuehrer.

Wiedemann came here July 18 to discuss European political appeasement with Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax, just before the latter went to Paris to review the international situation with French officials.

With parliament out of the way until fall, Chamberlain can talk to Wiedemann knowing he will not have to answer inconvenient questions in commons on anything that either might say.

Any exchanges between them would be merely preliminary and unofficial, although it might lay the foundation for formal conferences of officially-accredited diplomatic representatives.

Dallas Authorities Hold Man Wanted Here For Auto Theft

Charged with theft of an automobile belonging to George M Roach, Lubbock grain man, Jan. 18, Jack Tillery is in custody of Dallas officials, the Lubbock sheriff's department announced.

The complaint, sworn to by Grady Harrist, deputy sheriff, before Victor H. Lindsey, assistant district attorney, was filed with Walter Davies, justice of peace.

Harrist said the man was arrested by Dallas authorities and was being held there in connection with a burglary. Officers said he was found in possession of the car.

It was indicated Tillery would be transferred here as soon as Dallas authorities would release him.

A man who had not been arrested was charged with theft by bailee of a 1931 model truck, Elmo Wall swore to the complaint which was filed with S. E. McMillan, justice of peace.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT
NEW ORLEANS, July 28. (AP)—Cotton futures opened net unchanged to 1 point lower today. The October contract opened at 8.73, Dec. at 8.82, Jan. 8.84, March at 8.89, May 8.93 and July at 8.99 bid.

Active options lost 1 or 2 points during the first half hour of trading.

Active options declined 4 to 8 points in early trading due to hedging and liquidation. The losses were regained as buyers entered the market.

Near mid-session October traded at 8.75, Dec. 8.83, Jan. 8.84, and May at 8.93, one point down to two points up compared with yesterday's close.

The weather map showed mostly dry conditions over the belt with temperatures near normal. The forecast was for continued fair weather.

The turnover yesterday was 48,750 bales and open commitments 387,200 bales, decrease of 950 bales from the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 2 to 3 lower on disappointing Liverpool cables and under moderate foreign selling. Oct. 8.63; Dec. 8.71; Jan. 8.73, March 8.79, May 8.81; July 8.85.

Initial offerings were small, including some from Liverpool and the South, and were absorbed by trade price fixing. When the weather map was posted showing generally clear conditions, local traders sold.

December eased from 8.72 to 8.69 leaving quotations at net losses of 3 to 6 points.

The market continued quiet later in the morning as local and foreign selling supplied a limited demand from the trade and commission houses.

Dec. at midday was selling at 8.68 with the market 6 to 8 points net lower.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—Despite Liverpool quotations much higher than due, the Chicago wheat market averaged a little lower early today.

Opening ¼ cent off to ⅛ up, September 68-68⅛, December 70¼-¼. Chicago wheat futures held near them to these figures. Corn started unchanged to ¼ higher, September 57⅜, December 58⅛-¼.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to ⅛ cent lower compared with yesterday's finish, Sept. 67⅞-68, Dec. 69¾-⅞; corn ⅜ down, Sept. 57-57⅛, Dec. 54⅜-½, and oats ⅛-¼ off.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT
NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Climbing motor shares imparted quiet rallying power to the stock market today and leaders retrieved fractions to more than 2 points of Wednesday's reversal.

It was one of the slowest sessions of the past several weeks, however, with the ticker take barely moving at times. Transfers approximated less than 1,000,000 shares.

The market found buying fuel in the better than anticipated earnings statements of General Motors and Chrysler, released after yesterday's close, in addition to other business indications that generally pointed in the direction of recovery.

along people feel they have to blame somebody."

Englehard said, "It simply was a case of having more water than the dam could take, even if it had been empty. Engineers, experts and all informed people estimate the flood was several times as much as the dam would hold."

County Judge E. Arnim, jr., of La Grange, who estimated the Fayette county crop damage alone was $2,000,000, said county judges and other prominent citizens in counties affected probably would go to Austin to confer with state officials on the Buchanan dam situation.

Senator Connally To Meet With Farmers In Austin

WICHITA FALLS, July 28. (AP) Sen. Tom Connally will attend a conference of farmers and business men from the lower Colorado river area in Austin Saturday morning, he revealed while in Wichita Falls Thursday, having stopped here overnight en route home from a speaking engagement at Memphis.

Connally said the conference was to discuss any possible effects Buchanan and other lower Colorado river dams might have on present flood conditions in South Texas.

a large home at 1802 Broadway, where he lived until found dead in his bed a few minutes before 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral services will be at the residence, read by Liff Sanders, minister of the Church of Christ.

Burial will be at Lubbock cemetery, under direction of Rix Funeral home.

Family members said they had gone to awaken the former bank director and stockman and discovered death had struck, evidently at conclusion of a heart attack. He had been ill several times of such attacks and, six years ago, had retired from business.

He was engaged in the stock business until 1914, then began buying and selling land. He was considered owner of valuable city property at time of his death.

Several years up to 1917 he was a director of Citizens National bank, which he assisted in organizing.

He was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors include the widow; a son, L. C. Bacon; a brother C. C. Bacon of West Palm Beach, Fla., and a sister, Mrs. E. Wilks of Brookfield, Mo.

Bearers at funeral rites were George R. Bean, T. C. Ivey, Sam C. Arnett, W. S. Posey, J. O. Jones, Eastin Wolffarth, J. B. Maxey and W. H. Rodgers.

SEARCH FOR BODY
BROWNWOOD, July 28. (AP)—A search was made today below the spillway at Lake Brownwood for the body of Frank Williams, 32, of Brownwood who drowned last night when he fell into the water while fishing with two companions.

Reply To U. S. Note Planned

(By The Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, July 28—President Lazaro Cardenas said today a reply would be delivered next week to Secretary of State Hull's note proposing arbitration of Mexico's expropriation of American-owned agrarian lands.

He declined to discuss the nature of the reply but it was learned reliably in other quarters that the proposal probably would be rejected.

Would Accept Offer

President Cardenas further said that Mexico would "accept the offer of good offices of any third nation to bring about a resumption of relations with Britain" but reiterated that Mexico would not take the initiative.

Diplomatic relations between the two countries were severed as a result of British protests at expropriation of foreign oil properties.

In quarters where it was learned Mexico's reply to the Hull note probably would be unfavorable it was said Mexico was convinced the weaker nation always is the loser in arbitral proceedings and would rest her refusal on "humanitarian ends of the agrarian expropriations" and Mexican legislation which allows ten years for payment of compensation.

Port Improvement Is Sought Here

In an attempt to get needed improvements there, blue prints of Municipal airport and a description of facilities have been mailed to Maj. E. M. Aight of New Orleans, regional airport supervisor for the bureau of air commerce.

An appeal for improvements first was sent to Fred H. Grieme, acting chief of the airport section of the safety and planning division of the department of commerce in Washington. The appeal was referred to Major Aight by Grieme.

The proposed improvement include those required by federal departments for airmail stops.

As soon as a report is received from Major Aight, a meeting of the airport improvement committee appointed by the chamber of commerce will meet, Dr. Ben Hutchinson is chairman of the committee.

War's Anniversary

flanks and in timing the knock-out punch.

Colonel Spaulding, in his absorbing chapters on ancient combat in the book "Warfare," tells how young Hannibal, blind in one eye, allowed the Romans to press his center almost to the breaking point.

Infantry Closed In

Then his crack infantry, which had maneuvered well back on both sides of the center, closed in upon the flanks of the Roman wedge. The Carthaginian cavalry, hitting the Roman phalanx in the rear, completed the vise. The Roman army was cut to pieces.

Colonel Spaulding says that Count Von Schlieffen, great pre-war chief of the German general staff, worked for more than 20 years evolving a plan to envelop the French armies and crush them with a modern adaptation of the Hannibal pincers.

They Forgot In 1914

The Schlieffen idea was to "draw in" the French army with a weak German left wing facing the frontier of France. When the French pressed the German left back toward the Rhine, a mighty German force circling far to the right through Belgium, would swiftly envelop the French on the flanks and hammer them in the rear.

Schlieffen died before the day came for his long-dreamed of "kidney punch."

His last words were: "Keep the right wind strong." Moltke, who lacked the old master's daring and knowledge of concentration, did not make his right wing powerful enough and failed to put the plan into full execution.

Schlieffen's disciples used the Hannibal strategy against the Russians at the battle of Tannenburg, withdrawing all but a small screen of soldiers from the front and crushing the Russian flanks to achieve a military masterpiece.

At the siege of Alesia, Caesar built entrenchments which had ditches at some points 20 feet in width and depth. Where possible a stream was tuned into them. Some of Caesar's walls were 12 feet high, with parapets and numerous towers.

The Bible Told How

But probably the most striking "reproduction of ancient strategy occurred in Palestine in 1918. A British division fighting the Turks obtained from the Bible and successfully used a battle trick which was employed at the identical place by King Saul and his Israelite warriors.

The objective was the capture of a village called Mickmash, a name that sounded familiar to a British major. Reading the Bible by candlelight, he found the passage describing Saul's victory in Samuel I, Chapters 13 and 14.

He awoke his brigade commander and read to him the story of how Saul's son Jonathan and an armor-bearer went through a narrow pass to gain a commanding position above the Philistines' camp. The Philistines awoke, thought they were surrounded by Saul's army and fled in terror.

A company of British infantry, advancing in the dead of night, overpowered a small Turkish guard in the pass and ascended to the vantage point once held by Saul's son. The Turks, thinking they were surrounded by the army of General Allenby, fled in disorder.

Two Burglaries Reported; $40 Fished Out Through Window; Cafe Reported Entered

This screen-cutting business is making a dark brown taste for Bill Mabray, assistant chief of police and identifications officer.

Two burglaries and theft of money was reported to him this morning.

Roy Stevenson of 2011 Sixteenth street went to bed Wednesday. Sometime in the night someone evidently working with gloves slit a several-inches hole in a screen, fished in through the window and took $40.

Identification Difficult

Several times recently that manner of burglary has been reported to officials here.

"If someone doesn't fill him or them with shot we'll make an arrest sooner or later, I hope," Mabray said. He explained that identification had been made difficult by manner of jobs. No fingerprints have been left, and only an occasional blurred footprint.

Mabray said Ben's cafe, in 900-block Thirteenth street, was entered Wednesday night through a rear window, a glass of which was broken, and approximately $8 taken from a cash register.

Tech's New Catalogs Are Being Mailed

Approximately 2,500 copies of the 13th annual catalogue at Texas Technological college have been mailed and others will be distributed as soon as they are printed.

Three thousand envelopes had been addressed before the first catalogues were ready for distribution Tuesday afternoon.

The catalogues include information about the 1937-38 session and announcements for the 1938-39 session. They are being distributed from the office of Registrar W. P. Clement.

Contents include a list of faculty and others employed by the college, the college calendar, descriptions of courses, information about facilities, register of last session's students, and other information.

The calendar lists earlier than usual dates for faculty meetings. A general faculty meeting will be conducted Sept. 12; faculty meetings by divisions, Sept. 13; staff meetings by departments, Sept. 14. Entrance examinations for students not meeting regular admission requirements will be conducted Sept. 14-16. Dormitories will be open Sept. 17, registration will be conducted Sept. 19-20, and classes will open Sept. 21.

election result is in full swing."

The committee, set up as a guardian over the senate's political morals, also took a hand in the South Dakota senatorial campaign. It asked Postmaster General Farley to investigate use by the Farm Security administration of its free mailing privilege to distribute a "political circular" in that state.

The Tennessee situation aroused so much concern among committeemen that Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex) said he hoped to send at least six investigators there at once.

The candidates for the Democratic nomination in Tennessee are Senator George L. Berry, Tom Stewart, Representative J. Ridley Mitchell, Dr. John R. Neal and C. L. Powell.

The committee said the evidence before it related to assessment of federal employes by one group participating in the primary and assessment of state employes by another group.

Building Permits For July Are At $237,133 This Morning

Building permits for three new residences were included among those issued during the 24 hours up to noon today, according to records at the city building inspector's office. Total estimated cost of the new construction was $10,010.

Permit totals for the year thus far were increased to $1,485,227, within less than $15,000 for the million and one-half dollar mark. Total for the month was boosted to $237,133.

New permits included: B. Fralin, owner, and W. L. Cone, contractor, frame residence at 1408 Twenty-fourth street, $3,200; C. W. Proctor, owner, and M. G. Dysart, contractor, brick veneer residence at $3,160; and J. B. Shannon, jr., owner, and Cone, contractor, frame residence at 1405 Twenty-fourth street, $2,600.

Frenchman Looks Forward To Day Parisians Are Cowboys

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 28. (AP) Paul Coze, the man who brought riding and roping of the west to Paris with a loud yippee, looks forward to the day when Parisians master the technique of western cowboys.

As the young Frenchman sat on a chute in the Frontier Days rodeo arena today, he spoke enthusiastically of the Club du Lasso he founded, devoted to mastery of the lariat and the saddle.

In his early thirties, Coze is studying western life and Indians as a representative of the French museum of Natural History. He also is collecting photographs and will do paintings of frontier days scenes for the Madison Square Garden rodeo of New York.

"We hope some day to approach the American cowboy's proficiency," he said.

SWEETWATER MAN DIES

Aid O'Daniel Plea Sounded

A plea for unanimous cooperation with W. Lee O'Daniel, Texas' new governor, has been made by Sam Richardson, this section's representative on the state Democratic executive committee.

In letters addressed to each Democratic county chairman of the 30th senatorial district, Richardson, of Lamesa, said:

"The people of Texas in the election last Saturday nominated W. Lee O'Daniel of Tarrant county for governor, and by a large majority.

Sees Able Administration

"Since Mr. O'Daniel received the support of so many of the people, it is our duty as good Democrats to go to the county conventions and elect delegates to the state convention that will be in accord with O'Daniel's policies.

"This was a personal victory, unsurpassed in Texas and in the nation. I feel that Mr. O'Daniel will go into the governor's office without being obligated to any politician, set of politicians, clique, clan or special interests. He will use business methods in the affairs of our government.

"Therefore, as Texans and men who represent our party, may I personally ask that you give Mr. O'Daniel your wholehearted support, because I believe he is a good man and will make Texas a good governor."

Club Rally Here

followed by group singing at 10:30.

Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment sub-station, will welcome the boys and girls on behalf of the chamber of commerce. Miss Wilma Stokes, also a gold star pin winner and Potts will report on the recent short course at College Station. Presentation of the pin to Potts will follow, just before lunch.

In the afternoon, following the show, will come short talks to the girls by Miss Margaret Weeks, dean of the division of home economics at Texas Technological college and to the boys by Dean A. M. Leidigh of the division of agriculture.

Recreation will follow at 4:30 with swimming from 5:30 and supper in the park at 7:15.

The night program of games and singing begins at 8 o'clock and will last two hours. Palmore and Miss Elizabeth Brooks, assistant home demonstration agent and leader of the girls, will be in charge. They will be assisted during the day by club sponsors.

Eleven Young Women Added To Parks Program Staff

Eleven young women enrolled in a National Youth administration home-making course here have been added to the part time staff of playgrounds supervisors of the summer parks recreational project sponsored jointly by the city and WPA, according to announcement this morning by John W. Wilson, general supervisor.

They have been assigned temporarily to Pioneer park on Seventh street, he said, but later will be divided among various of the parks.

All are more than 18 years of age, all are high school graduates and some have had college training, Wilson said.

The new supervisors are Marybell Mangrum, Ida Mae Bell, Lillian Morrison, Elsie Hines, Marlee Hodges, Janice Exum, Marcel Pemberton, Lois Thomas, Edna Moore and Ravenell Gregory.

Friday Services Planned For Former Railroad Fireman

SLATON, July 28, (Special) — Funeral services will be read at the Slaton First Methodist church at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon for Joy C. Wolfskill, 38, former Santa Fe railroad fireman who lived at Slaton.

Wolfskill died at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning at his Ada, Okla., residence after a several-weeks illness.

The body will be sent overland. Rev. C. Quattlebaum of Slaton will officiate at rites.

The widow; a daughter Barbara Jean, 9, and a son Tony, 5, survive. A Slaton sister of Mrs. Wolfskill, Mrs. Allan Farrell, and a Lubbock brother of Mrs. Wolfskill went to Ada to accompany the body here.

Measuring Of Land Made

Lubbock county's compliance with the 1938 federal conservation program is being checked by 17 field supervisors, said J. C. Smith, one of the supervisors.

Each supervisor has an assistant. They use a chain, 66 feet long, to measure the land. No measurements are made without the land owner being present. This is done, Smith said to insure land owners that the proper fields are being measured.

The men are averaging from 6 to 10 and 12 farms per day, depending on the farm and the type of farming. Contoured and terraced land takes longer to measure than the straight row type of farming, explained the supervisor.

"There is more contoured and terraced land in the north and northwestern sections than in the south part of the county," he added. "This is due largely, I think, to the CCC camp at Littlefield. So many of the CCC boys worked on contouring and running of lines for terracing, in the territory around Shallowater, that that part has a very large proportion of land terraced."

Workers Are Listed

Supervisors and assistants, and the territory in which they are working include: J. H. Barnett and Eugene Seals, west of Lubbock; Earl Pine and T. A. Johnson, Posey; Walter Lemon and J. L. Thomas, Northeast ward; A. J. Brown and Earl Merrill, north of Shallowater; F. L. Collins and John Allen, Slaton; Sherman Wilson and Melvin Harvey, south of Shallowater; Homer Harrison and C. W. Potts, Roosevelt and Acuff; W. T. Ellis and E. D. Sanders, west of Lorenzo; Pete Robertson and S. S. Alcorn, Monroe; R. D. Harper and Dan Arthur, Woodrow; Leon Lowrey and John Tom Weddle, north of Woodrow; John F. Jordan and Howard E. Whitting, Becton; Grafton Henry and Winston Brummett, south of Lubbock; Ralph M. Weaver and Woodrow DeBusk, Idalou; Ollie F. Liner and Rufus Short, Wolfforth; Aubrey Cummings and Drew Warren, Southeast Ward; W. C. Beaty and R. E. Fielding, Monroe.

PWA Is Aided

required, and the time needed for completion.

Another $250,000,000 Worth Of Construction Possible

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—Secretary Ickes said today that with the help of RFC's millions the Public Works program might be expanded to provide another $250,000,000 worth of construction.

He made the estimate at his press conference in reply to questions about his new working agreement with Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

"Our program will be considerably larger," Ickes said, "particularly to the extent that we will be able to use our money for additional grants if applicants are agreeable to loans from the RFC.

"I would say off-hand that the program may be expanded by as much as $250,000,000," he said.

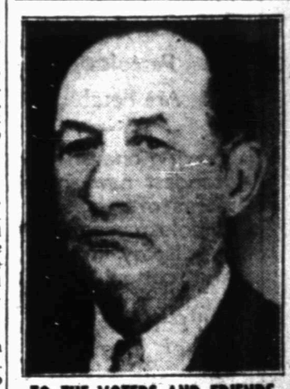

This would increase the total estimated cost of construction for the whole program to $1,897,000,000. The current ceiling on construction resulting from PWA loans and grants alone is $1,917,000,000. PWA projects approved to date call for $950,000,000 of construction.

Resolution Asking For Black Eligibility Probe Refused

CLEVELAND, July 28 (AP)—The American Bar association's resolutions committee refused today to approve a resolution which would have the association ask the U. S. Supreme court for information on "eligibility" of Associate Justice Hugo L. Black.

Also unfavorably reported to the convention's assembly was a proposed resolution sharply attacking Nazi Germany for "discrimination" against "law abiding citizens. . . . solely because of their race, religion or political opinions" which action has "shocked the conscience of mankind."

TO THE VOTERS AND FRIENDS OF PRECINCT NO. 3

I wish to take this means of thanking each and every one who voted for me or helped in any way, enabling me to lead the ticket in the first primary.

To those of you who did not get your choice, I wish to solicit your vote and influence in the second primary on August 27.

I wish to thank each of my opponents for the manner in which they conducted their campaign in the first primary.

Should I be your choice in the second primary I assure you of the service and courtesy which I have always tried to render.

Early Action On Hospital Likely

Early action is likely on locating a new $1,435,000 Veterans General hospital in Texas.

This was the information brought here Wednesday by C. H. Stratton, engineer for the Veterans administration in Washington, D. C., who spent most of the day inspecting sites offered as locations for the new hospital.

Arrives By Plane

Stratton arrived by airplane at Municipal airport from Abilene at 10 a. m., spent the forenoon inspecting Mackenzie park, the state experiment sub-station and Texas Technological college; was guest at a luncheon at Hilton hotel at noon, and in the afternoon visited various of the 15 sites on which options have been submitted. Two of the sites were offered on behalf of Slaton Chamber of Commerce.

The engineer left late Wednesday for Amarillo to spend the night, planned to remain in Wichita Falls tonight and then end his site inspections tour in Fort Worth and Dallas before returning to Washington.

Attitude Is Unknown

Stratton was not asked and did not volunteer what recommendations he may make regarding sites when he returns to Washington. The procedure, he explained, however, usually is to submit recommendations as to the sites he deems most desirable to the board of hospitalization of the Veterans administration. Usually, a committee from that board inspects those sites and chooses one from among them.

Whether the "usual" procedure will be followed in connection with the new hospital Stratton was uncertain. He explained, however, that ordinarily much more time can be devoted to the selection than can be done in this instance.

No Time To Be Lost

In the case of the new hospital, he added, the site must be obtained, bids called, contracts let and work started before next January. All are time-taking procedures which suggest, he intimated, that the location will be chosen without loss of time.

He offered no hint as to what Lubbock's chances may be. The hospital, however, is to be of general nature, Stratton said, and is designed to be centrally and conveniently located in an area now without general veterans hospital facilities.

At the present time, he related, nearest general hospitals to Lubbock are Albuquerque, N. M., northwest; Muskogee, Okla., and Alexandria, La., toward the east; and Kerrville, Texas, toward the south where a tuberculosis hospital is now being converted into one for general purposes.

Important Requirements

Records reported to him but which he has not confirmed, according to Stratton, indicate a point in Jack county south of Wichita Falls to be the population center. The territorial center is considerably west of that point. Of more importance in determining location, however, members of the Lubbock committee were informed, are climate and transportation facilities, and such utilities as water, gas, electricity and sewage.

An absolute essential was explained as being a wholly satisfactory site. Specifications for the site, as prescribed in communications from the Veterans administration, are that it be 150 to 200 acres or more of fertile land capable of being landscaped into a place of beauty.

Participating in the reception here for Stratton was Congressman George Mahon of Colorado City, Joining with him in stressing that the factor to which former service men are giving first consideration is a Veterans hospital somewhere in West Texas were A. C. Jackson, and T. H. St. Clair, commanders respectively of Lubbock posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Ben Kucera, service officer for the Legion, and J. B. Jones, service officer for the VFW, related that West Texas veterans now are so far from a general hospital that it is impossible to reach them for treatment in time of emergency. Both organizations of ex-service men, they explained, have been working for the hospital for several years, the chamber of commerce having taken the lead in the present effort by their specific request.

Miniature Bales Of Cotton To Be In Lubbock VFW's Exhibit

Contribution of Lubbock auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign War post here to a Texas exhibit at the national VFW encampment in Columbus, Ohio, will be a dozen miniature cotton bales.

Each bale was tagged with the inscription: "From Lubbock, Hub of the South Plains. One million bales of cotton ginned in Lubbock's trade area in 1937 with total value of over $50,000,000."

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Argument On Rodeo Started

(By The Associated Press)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 28. — If there is anyone who disputes Cheyenne's claim that its Frontier Days festival is the "daddy" of all western rodeo shows, Secretary R. D. Hanesworth of the Frontier Days committee would like to hear from him.

That's how Hanesworth answered a question asking the historical basis of the claim that frontier days is the west's oldest rodeo.

The first frontier days show was staged in 1897 under the leadership of Col. E. A. Slack, Hanesworth said. On that record, he declared, frontier days was the first organized outdoor rodeo show.

Canadian Man Says Cheyenne Cannot Claim Oldest Rodeo

CANADIAN, July 28 (AP)—Secretary R. D. Hanesworth of the Cheyenne, Wyoming, Frontier Days committee had better brush up on his history, Carl Studer, secretary of the Anvil Park rodeo, held here annually, said today.

"While Anvil Park would like to claim the oldest organized rodeo of the west, we cannot," Mr. Studer, who was reared on a ranch, said. "Prescott, Arizona, has the real authority to claim they are the 'daddy of them all' as far as organized rodeo is concerned. Prescott's rodeo has seen 50 years of consecutive exhibition, they have a silver belt buckle on display which was one of the prizes for the first rodeo held there in 1888.

"Anvil Park rodeo, itself, dates back only 16 years, but the first rodeo held in Texas was a July 4, 1888, celebration held here at Canadian. We are proud that our background includes that show, called a 'cowboy contest'."

Possibly the first exhibition of ranch skill in contest form was made about July 4, 1883, Vestal Lott, editor of the Pecos, Texas, Enterprise, says. This occasion saw the Hash Knife and Bar-S boys in an argument over which group could wrangle cattle best.

A public contest on the "square" in Pecos was held to decide the championship.

So, Mr. Studer, who is known over Texas as an authoritative rodeo secretary and announcer, thinks Mr. Hanesworth should look back of his Cheyenne Frontier Days babyhood in 1897 and see some real western life. He says Mr. Hanesworth should be content with the fact that the colorful Cheyenne Frontier Days is known from coast to coast as one of the premier western entertainments—but not the 'daddy of them all.'

Second Summer Term Has Total Of 976 Students Enrolled

A total of 976 students had enrolled for the second summer term at Texas Technological college, Registrar W. P. Clement said Wednesday afternoon.

The number of students registered who did not attend the first summer term was 255. That number added to first term enrollment totaled 1,835, an increase of 140 individuals over the number registered last summer.

The total for the term is almost complete, the term having opened July 19.

Refinancing Of Firm Is Sought

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 28 — The Lone Star Gas corporation of Wilmington, Del., and subsidiaries have applied to the securities commission for approval of certain steps in a $46,670,955 financing operation.

The commission was notified that the parent corporation intended to issue $20,000,000 15-year 3 1-2 per cent sinking fund debentures, and $11,300,000 of bank notes.

To Issue Demand Notes

Subsidiaries are to issue 4 1-2 per cent income demand notes in the following amounts: Lone Star Gas company, $5,100,000; Texas Cities Gas company, $3,438,380; Council Bluffs Gas company, $1,209,725; Dallas Gas company, $1,942,850; County Gas company, $1,680,000.

The notes of the subsidiaries are payable to the Lone Star Gas corporation.

To Redeem Preferred Stock

Proceeds of the securities, it was announced will enable Lone Star Gas corporation to redeem all preferred stock, having a par value of $7,975,500, and retire bank loans of $8,400,000.

Lone Star Gas company will be able to retire bank loans of $5,100,000; Dallas Gas company to redeem preferred stock and to retire all bonded debt in the hands of the public; Council Bluffs Gas company, County Gas company and Texas Cities Gas company to retire their bonded indebtedness outstanding in the hands of the public.

That part of the proceeds of the proposed financing to be advanced to the subsidiaries by Lone Star Gas corporation, amounting to $13,575,955, plus par value of bonds to be returned to the respective companies by the corporation in the amount of $1,759,000, will be covered by the income demand notes executed in favor of Lone Star Gas corporation by the subsidiaries.

TO DRAFT MODEL LAW

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP) — Secretary Perkins soon will call a conference of state labor executives to draft a model wage-hour law which states may enact to supplement the new federal legislation.

A labor department official said today about a dozen men would be invited to the meeting, probably late in August.

METEOR IS SEEN

NEW YORK, July 28 (AP) — A brilliant meteor, one of the largest ever observed by Hayden planetarium officials, flashed across the sky this week and vanished over the northeast horizon.
