Turks To Ask Compromise On Axis Trade

Policy Of Aid To Allies Is Cited

By FRANK O'BRIEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

ANKARA, April 14 —In a press conference whose tenor was taken to indicate that Turkey will seek to compromise with the Allies on the question of Turkish-German trade, Foreign Minister Numan Menemencioglu declared today, "we will, in the general direction of our foreign policy, aid the Allies to the limit of our material possibilities."

He held the conference shortly after receiving the American and British ambassadors, who delivered notes based on U. S. Secretary of State Hull's request that neural countries cease trading with Germany.

Gives General Answer

Menemencioglu told correspondents to ask whatever they liked, and gave his general answer in response to specific questions about his attitude towards secretary Hull's speech of last Sunday.

Asked whether Turkey intended to concert her action with that of other neutrals, he said, "when dealing with the Allies it is not necessary to concert our actions with any other nations.

"You know the sense of our relations with the United Nations. Our policy never has ceased to evolve in the spirit of entente and comprehension with our allies and their allies."

He added that the Allied notes would be answered "very soon."

The foreign minister's declaration appeared to show clearly that the Turks, in detailed negotiations which will follow the exchange of notes, will seek to reach a compromise on their trade with Germany and her satellites which will satisfy the Allies.

Allied officials in Ankara seemed today to be ready to accept a compromise rather than to issist upon complete stoppage of Turkish trade with Germany.

SIX-YEAR-OLD HERO OF ARKANSAS STORM—Eulis Worthington, 6, is shown at Harrison, Ark., holding his baby brother whose life he saved when a tornado struck their home this week, demolishing it and killing their mother, Mrs. Charlie Ward. Eulis, Mrs. Ward's son by a previous marriage, was injured as he apparently shielded the infant with his body, and the baby was not hurt. Eulis has been showered with gifts and money at the hospital.

Barry Glass Located In W. Virginia

First Anti-Toxin Is Administered

(By The Associated Press)

BALTIMORE, April 14.—The first dose of anti-rabies vaccine was administered to 3-year-old Berry Glass tonight after state police located him and his parents in Harrisville, W. Va., ending a 24-hour search.

The child's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glass, were en route from Lubbock, Texas, to Catonsville, a suburb of Baltimore, unaware that the dog which had bitten Berry ten days ago was rabid.

Dr. W. Earle Wingood of Catonsville, Mrs. Glass' father, received a telegram from Texas warning him of the danger to Berry and asked the police for aid in locating the Glass family.

Dr. Wingood reported tonight that Mrs. Glass telephoned from Winchester, Va., to tell him the first dose had been administered. Johns Hopkins hospital has arranged for further treatment of the child, Dr. Wingood said.

FAMILY IS LOCATED AFTER DILIGENT HUNT

Three-year-old Barry Glass was located in Harrisville, W. Va., Friday after a 24-hour unrelenting search seeking to warn his parents that the child must receive an anti-rabies vaccine at the earliest possible moment, the Associated Press reported last night.

The search was instigated by Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, after he had found that the dog which is believed to have bitten Barry 10 days ago was a victim of rabies.

En Route For Visit

Barry, his sister, Barbara Dell, 6 months old, and their parents, who formerly lived at 2812 Twenty-seventh street, were en route from Amarillo to visit Mrs. Glass' parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. Earle

REV. WALTER P. JENNINGS

W. P. Jennings Dies Suddenly

Death Attributed To Heart Attack

Rev. Walter P. Jennings, 73, beloved Lubbock minister, fell dead early Friday night as he inspected his business property at Broadway and Avenue Q.

His death was apparently due to a heart attack. He was discovered about 8 o'clock at the rear of the building housing the Woody Tire Co. He was reported found by Glenn Woody, operator of the establishment. He evidently had been dead only a short time when found.

Former Pastor Here

Rev. Jennings was pastor of First Christian church here from 1924 to '34. He would have been 74 years old April 22.

Rev. Jennings had not been ill. He apparently was feeling well when he left his home last night, telling his wife that he was going to "the corner." He owned property there of approximately 125 feet square in dimension.

Rev. Jennings' reputation as a minister was nationwide. For many years he had been a leader in sectional and national activities of his church. He had served in

Aussies Take Outpost In Drive For Madang

Troops Slash On Northward After Bogadjim Falls

By C. YATES McDANIEL
Associate Press Staff Writer

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, Saturday, April 15—Australian troops captured Bogadjim Thursday and are in contact with enemy patrols on the road to the Japanese supply base at Madang, 18 miles to the north.

The Australians entered Bogadjim without resistance and captured some abandoned equipment, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's communique said.

Advanced units of the American 32nd division, which had come up the New Guinea coast while the Australians advanced from inland, were reported several days ago to have made a junction with the Aussies, but there was no report that the Americans had entered Bogadjim with theor Allies.

Aussies Move Inland

The American division landed at Saidor to the southeast last Jan. 2. Meanwhile the Australians were pushing up the Huon peninsula coast and advancing northward inland in a two-prong movement from Lae, which the Allies captured last mid-September.

Australian coastal units joined with the Americans south of Saidor early last February, ending the Huon peninsula campaign. The inland Aussie force continued its progress up Ramu valley to the junction below Bogadjim with the American units which had come up from Saidor.

Madang was a potent enemy supply and air base during the early stages of the Huon campaign and Bagodjim was its principal southern outpost. Allied bombers and fighters hit both places frequently, and the pilots later reported they believed the Japanese had abandoned Madang, after the enemy's defeat on Huon peninsula.

Madang Is Objective

Bogadjim, a defense outpost for Madang, is at the southern end of the modern highway leading to the base, which has been the objective of the Australian troops and American soldiers operating up the coast from Saidor. The Australians advanced from inland positions.

Allied aircraft which have been hammering other Japanese strongpoints along the New Guinea coast northwest of Madang smashed at Wewak with 250 tons of bombs, destroying 60 buildings and two munition dumps at this supply base.

Solomons based planes again attacked Rabaul, New Britain, hitting 13 gun positions and destroying other installations.

Aerial Lashing Of Kuriles Continues

Islands Near Jap Homeland Pounded Again; Marshalls Also Are Battered

By LEIF ERICKSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, April 14—The spring aerial offensive on the Kurile approaches to Tokyo was carried through its fourth straight day with Thursday strikes at Paramushiro, Shasukotan and Matsuwa, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz reported today in a press release.

There were four attacks, making a total of 14 raids on Kurile objectives in four days. Paramushiro was hit twice and other raids were directed at Shasukotan and Matsuwa, the latter within 450 miles of Japan.

Pre-Dawn Attack

Aleutians-based 11th Army Air force Liberators first went over Paramushiro in a pre-dawn attack, encountering no opposition. Later Navy search planes ran into intense anti-aircraft fire over the same base.

The press release also reported that on Thursday Navy search planes bombed Ulul, northwest of Truk in the Carolines and Pakin, west of Ponape.

In other Central Pacific air operations, Navy Venturas raided Kusaie, also in the Carolines, hitting warehouses, piers and gun positions.

Ponape Battered

Seventh AAF Mitchells escorted by Marine Corsairs, battered Ponape in the 13th daily strike of the month. Fires were started in buildings and an adjacent airfield. One fighter made a forced landing but the pilot was rescued.

Army Mitchells, Marine dive bombers and Marine and Navy fighters collaborated in bombing and strafing four enemy-held bases in the Marshalls where targets hit included storage tanks, barracks, runways and ammunition dumps.

Truk Heavily Hit

Earlier in the day, announcement was made that Seventh Army Air force Liberators gave Truk one of its heaviest raids of the war Wednesday night. They plastered five islands with explosives, encountering no air interception and only meager groundfire in the 20th attack of a softening up campaign.

Three Japanese night fighters watched the show from the sidelines while the big bombers from the Central Pacific struck at the five major islands in the Truk lagoon Wednesday. Truk has been hit an average of almost once a day for three weeks by Liberators from the Marshall Islands or the Solomons in the South Pacific.

Aerial Blows On Nazis Taper Off

Spectacular Raid Lashes Nazi Base

LONDON, April 14 (AP)—RAF Mosquitos bombarded Berlin last night, probably with two-ton blockbusters and American Thunderbolt fighter-bombers made a spectacular attack on a German airfield in northern France today in a crackling climax to an historic week-long, two-way Allied aerial assault on Axis continental targets vital to the defense of the western front.

The Budapest radio reported tonight that Allied planes were over Budapest and Gyor, Hungary, indicating possibility that Mediterranean-based forces were continuing the great air offensive.

Relatively Minor Scale

The Mosquito and Thunderbolt raids from Britain last night and today, while sharp, were on a relatively minor scale, representing a tapering-off of the massive blows begun last Saturday. During the week crippling blows were dealt to at least 13 German aircraft factories, 17 airfields and 14 railroad centers figuring prominently in the Nazis' preparations for resisting the forthcoming Allied invasion from the west.

In the week's greatest offensive, equalled only by the assault on the German aircraft industry from February 19 through 26, more than 15,000 tons of bombs were dropped and the Germans lost more than 700 aircraft destroyed or damaged.

The latest compilation shows that American and British aerial gunners shot at least 591 enemy planes from the sky, an average of almost 100 a day.

Reds Crowd Nazis Into Death Pocket

Boats Jammed With Axis Troops Sunk In Black Sea; Many Germans Surrendering

By TOM YARBROUGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Saturday, April 15—Two Red armies in the Crimea cornered thousands of German and Romanian troops in a death pocket around Sevastopol yesterday, destroying an entire German division of perhaps 15,000 men and running their six-day prisoner string to 31,000, while the re-emerging Soviet Black Sea fleet and its naval air arm sank four boats jammed with Axis infantrymen trying to escape by sea, Moscow announced early today.

Red Armies Join

On land the two armies under Generals Feodor I. Tolbukhin and Andre I. Yeremenko joined forces for a swift annihilation of the trapped Axis troops, capturing Bakhchisarai, only 18 miles northeast of Sevastopol, and 500 other localities as they bore down on the big fortress.

They routed two Romanian divisions and "completely destroyed" another German division, liberating all but one-tenth of the big peninsula. They also cut the Black sea retreat road between Feodosiya and Yalta by capturing Alushta on the southern side of the peninsula, a midnight bulletin said.

The communique said:

"Soviet sailors and airmen are cutting short all enemy efforts to save at least some of his Crimean troops which are condemned to destruction."

Number Unknown

It originally had been estimated that 100,000 Axis troops were based in the Crimea, but whether this number was reduced by the time the Soviet offensive got under way a week ago was not known.

General Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukraine Army, capturing 300 localities, struck 17 miles southwest along the railway from Simferopol to make the seizure of Bakhchisarai, and also cut 25 miles southeast across the coastal mountains and captured Alushta.

Aside from Sevastopol in the southwestern corner, Yalta is the last major enemy position, and on the seventh day of their lightning offensive the Russians had reconquered approximately nine-tenths of the 10,000-square-mile peninsula.

Altogether on Thursday, Tolbukhin's Army captured 6,000 more prisoners for a six-day total

Reds Agree In Principle To Post-War Occupation Plans

Pact Is Believed Near Completion

By WES GALLAGHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 14—Russia has agreed with the United States and Great Britain on the principle of military government, after the war, for Germany and such satellites as choose to fight to the end, it was reported on high authority tonight.

An American-British-Russian plan for the handling of occupied Germany is now nearing completion, providing for an "Allied Military government with teeth in it." It makes Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower the supreme authority in areas occupied by American and British forces, and calls for Russian control over areas occupied by the Red Army.

Other Details of Plan

Other details of the program as described to this correspondent by a highly-placed informant, include:

The Allied Military government organization is to be used nowhere in Europe except in Germany and in the satellite nations loyal to Berlin to the end.

The Russians recently complained that they had not been taken sufficiently into consideration in early Italian affairs and they retaliated by giving the Badoglio government semi-diplomatic recognition without fully advising the Allies.

All three powers have agreed, however, on a mutual settlement of the problem of what to do with the enemy. This has been turned over to the European advisory commission to work out a joint plan.

The United States and Britain agreed to give Gen. Eisenhower authority to deal with all the countries entering his sphere of military command, which includes most of western Europe. The

Amarillo Juvenile Operates On Big Scale With Checks

Juvenile officials who filed a civil petition against a 16-year-old Amarillo boy Friday afternoon admitted that he was "a delinquent among delinquents."

The boy '16' admitted having scattered approximately $700 worth of worthless checks, some of them forged, here in recent weeks—and $300 more in Amarillo over the same period.

Furthermore, he said he had given $500 in worthless checks last August in Amarillo.

Potter County Parolee

He is a parolee from Potter county juvenile court, he said.

He had four checks totaling $145 in his possession when arrested Friday at Hemphill Wells Co., by Sgt. Lewis Kittrell and Ralph Goldwater, both of the police traffic department. At least one of them allegedly had been forged.

His glib explanation:

"I finished the ninth grade at a junior high school in Amarillo and we studied banking and notes and check writing in one part of a business arithmetic course—and I learned how to write checks."

None Under $18

John W. Wilson, city-county juvenile counselor, said the youth told him:

"I never cashed a check for less than $18."

Surprisingly, Wilson said, the youth seldom "bought anything; he just cashed the checks, pocketed the money and walked out.

"He admits having cashed $1,000 in worthless checks in the last month and a half."

Officials were informed by the boy that he recently cashed checks and went to Maryland to see his sailor brother; that his father became suspicious and asked the

This Is Last Day To Make A Guess For Morgenthau!

WASHINGTON, April 14 (U.P.) The Bureau of Internal Revenue today reminded taxpayers that midnight Saturday, April 15, is the deadline for filing 1944 declarations of estimated income tax.

Commissioner Joseph D. Nunan, jr., said that about one out of three taxpayers will have to file the estimates plus at least a quarterly payment of any taxes due.

Generally speaking, he said, estimates must be filed by people who expect to have during 1944:

1. Wages subject to withholding in excess of $2,700 for a single person or $3,500 for a married couple living together; or,

2. More than $100 income from all sources if the total of such income plus wages subject to withholding is $500 or more for a single person or more than $625 for a married person.

Farmers can delay filing until Dec. 15.

Lubbock and South Plains income taxpayers may take their payments and "guesses" to the district office of the Internal Revenue department in the Lubbock National building; may mail them to that office, or, if they choose, may mail them direct to the Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, in Dallas.

Negroes Form Voters League

Encouraged by the recent decision of the United States Supreme court opening Texas Democratic primaries to negro voters, Carver Heights citizens have organized a voters league, it was announced Friday night by T. A. Amos, negro preacher and civic leader of the negro district.

Charles Deo is president of the league, Amos said, with H. G. Benson, vice president; L. T. Jackson, secretary, and Annie Harris, associated secretary.

To Boost Own Race

The preacher said the league would endeavor to organize negro support for certain candidates deemed by the organization as sympathetic to colored people. He added that it would be affiliated with the Texas Colored Voters league, which he stated was sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The league is to meet again April 26, when arrangements are to be made for regular gatherings.

Appointed on the executive committee were Virgil Dinkins, L. T. Jackson, S. W. Hicks, Amos' wife, Wilbur Ross, and John Williams.

Norma Lee Thornton Tech Frosh Queen

Norma Lee Thornton of Hamilton, member of the Ko Shari club, was presented as 1944 freshman queen of Texas Technological college at the annual freshman dance held in the Texas Tech gym last night. Miss Thornton stepped out of a large green paper fish, freshman class insignia.

The dance climaxed "Fish Day" held yesterday on Tech campus. Traditionally, the freshmen raised their flag upon Tech's large flag pole and later, the upper classmen lowered it, with much interference from fish students.

Miss Thornton was elected queen in an election held Thursday and announced last night. Other nominees for queen honor acted as attendants to Miss Thornton. They included Charlene Fisher of Slaton, Panze Butler of Lubbock, Estelle DeBusk of Idalou, and Ruth Anthony of Lubbock.

Lewis Demands Retroactive Pay

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, tonight demanded prompt payment of $16,000,000 in retroactive portal-to-portal pay to the soft coal miners, asserted that a conspiracy to defraud them exists and warned that they are becoming "increasingly angry at the failure of their government to redeem its promise."

Lewis calculated the sum on the basis of $40 per miner, the terms on which he agreed to write off the underground travel time claim for last April, May and June. These terms are part of the UMW contract with 75 per cent of the operators. The contract is now awaiting War Labor board action.

Implies U. S. Obligation

The UMW chief addressed his complaint and demand to Secretary of the Interior Ickes, government custodian of the mines, implying that the government has an obligation to require immediate payment of the money.

Except for his reference to the anger of the miners, Lewis' letter did not hint that strikes or a new crisis are approaching. However, a union press release accompanying the letter said the miners are "growing restive" and that the demand for prompt payment became so pronounced among Alabama miners last month that union officials resorted to circulars urging the men to remain at work.

Brilliant Young Red Leader Dies

LONDON, Saturday, April 15. (AP)—Gen. Nikolai F. (Lightning) Vatutin, brilliant young Russian commander whose armies had a large share in expelling the German invaders from his Ukraine homeland, died last night in Kiev after an operation, the Moscow radio announced early today.

The stocky former commander of the First Ukraine front was relieved early in March due to illness which preceded his death, the exact cause of which was not disclosed.

Three Notable Tasks

Vatutin had done notable work in all three of Russia's big winter counter-strokes, at Vyazma in the repulse of the 1941 German effort to take Moscow, at Stalingrad during the 1942-43 disaster inflicted on the Germans, and in last winter's great westward offensive across the Ukraine. It was Vatutin who led Soviet troops back into Kiev, capital of his Ukraine.

It was announced March 5 that he had retired from his command because of illness and was succeeded by Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov.

Valutin died during last night, said the announcement, which was issued by the Council of People's Commissars for defense of the USSR.

To Erect Monument

A monument will be erected to him in Kiev, the announcement added, praising him as "one of the most talented young Army commanders who had developed during this war."

Vatutin, in his early 40's, was a short, thick-set man, with his broad head set so close to his shoulders that his troops called him "the man without a neck."

His rise was one of the most rapid of all Russian commanders. He first got into the news last year in the campaign on the upper Don and took command of the First Ukrainian Army last September.

Besides his reconquest of Kiev last November, Vatutin was co-captor of Kharkov last Aug. 8. His other victories included Belgorod, Zhitomir and Voroshilovgrad, and his troops were the first to enter Rovno province in pre-war Poland.

Russians honored him most, however, for the liberation of Kiev, which involved building 50 bridges across the Dnepr river under concentrated German fire, then scaling the heights on which the city stands.

Crusading Country Editor Cleared Of Criminal Libel

PRINCESS ANNE, Md., April 14. (AP)—A crusading country editor who successfully attacked State Comptroller J. Millard Tawes' use of rationed gasoline was freed today of a criminal-libel charge, and immediately declared it was a "complete vindication of the right of a free press."

State's Attorney Harry T. Dashiell ordered a nolle prosse of the indictment against Rives Matthews, 37-year-old editor of the weekly Somerset News, saying Tawes, the chief prosecution witness, had told him that "in the public interest the prosecution should end."

Matthews criticized Tawes repeatedly in articles last year for making a 1,600-mile trip to Georgia in a state-owned automobile. The editor's arrest followed on June 6, 1943.

On June 11, Tawes admitted the use of "C" ration gas for the trip from Crisfield, Md., to Ft. Benning, Ga., and the Maryland Office of Price administration revoked both his official and personal rations for a year. However, Tawes was given the right to reapply for an official ration.

In Washington, Elisha Hanson, general counsel for the American Newspaper Publishers' association, said in a statement that Matthews was vindicated, and congratulated him for having "the courage to expose the wholesale misuse of gasoline coupons by the second highest official of the state of Maryland.

Matthews' expose resulted in a complete overhauling of the system by which cars are operated for state use in Maryland and in the savings of thousands of gallons of gasoline for war purposes.

Hawaii Martial Law May Be Compromised

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—A compromise involving limited military control in Hawaii was seen by federal officials today as a possible solution to the controversy over martial law, declared invalid by Federal Judge Delbert E. Metzger.

This might be done by declaring Hawaii a "military area." Such a designation would allow the military to exercise strong police powers, particularly over communications and ingress and egress of persons; while simultaneously eliminating the recurring fight on the issue of continuance of martial law and suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in the territory.

Yanks And British At Anzio Swap Out On Pepper-Uppers

By KENNETH L. DIXON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ANZIO BEACHHEAD, April 6 —(Delayed)—The latest lend-lease development mentioned in the unofficial report from this front concerns the swapping of the beachhead bands.

The lend-lease deal was made all in the name of Allied harmony. It had the British Tommy taking in the Yankee jive and jazz, and the doughboys bending a burning ear to the skirling of the scottish bagpipes.

It was only a few days ago that the Tommies, who lose their British boredom when the boys get on the beam, begged for a yank band to come out to their bivouac and break out a blue note or two.

Now, the Third Division band boasts the hottest bunch of draft boys this side of Broadway, and if you don't believe it just ask any Third Division doughboy what happened when the bandsmen came, layed down their guns, picked up their instruments and trucked over to Tommytown.

There they got in the groove and gave, both gay and mournful.

And when they had the toughest Tommy practically bawling in his beard they shifted to jazz and made music hot enough to melt a Mark Four tank. They had the Tommies singing and shouting and the sounds that trickled out to their spiphorns and rattled off their drumheads made even the steady German shelling play second fiddle for a

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This weekly news letter is written for you to clip and send to someone in the service who does not receive daily copies of the Lubbock papers.)

April 14, 1944

DEAR:—

Parents of small children and owners of dogs have been greatly worried this week after a mad dog went on a rampage and bit several children. It was known that several dogs were bitten eight days ago by a pup that attacked "Butch" Low, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Low. The child was under treatment immediately after Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, was informed by the state laboratory the dog had rabies.

Another child who was bitten by the mad dog was Barry Glass, who with his father, Raymond Glass, is en route to Cantonville, Md., and telegrams, long-distance calls and police shortwave radio were used in trying to contact and inform them.

There has been more than a little confusion this week regarding the draft situation. Tuesday, by way of example, Lubbock county selective service boards were informed that Gen. J. Watt Page, state draft director, had issued instructions that registrants 26 and over were to be deferred, regardless of occupation. In addition, they were told to cancel calls for pre-induction examinations for older men.

Wednesday telegraphic instructions from Austin called for postponement of induction "only on registrants 26 and over who are making a contribution to essential agriculture, war production or war supporting activity."

To say draft eligibles are confused is putting it mildly. Several Lubbock men have sold their homes, disposed of their businesses and are ready to go but naturally they aren't very happy over the situation.

"Why can't they make up their minds?" is the consensus.

Included in the volunteers for the Navy this week was Jack R. Culp of Amarillo, brother of Col. Oveta Culp Hobby, commanding officer of the WAC. By the way, her cousin, Ray Culp, is a former proofreader of the Avalanche-Journal.

Lt. Col. Emmett C. Lee has been transferred from the command of the West Texas Induction and Recruiting station to similar duties in Oklahoma. His successor is Lt. Col. Warner J. Bishop, who has been in command of induction and recruiting duty in New Orleans.

Lt. Col. Joseph R. Peller, former induction chief here and who has held a similar position in Oklahoma for two years, will take Col. Bishop's place in New Orleans.

Guest speaker at the Rotary club luncheon Wednesday was Attorney General Grover Sellers, who has been serving in that office since the resignation of Gerald Mann.

Sellers explained the duties of his office and told of the many opinions handled, including the soldier vote measure which he himself signed. This opinion declared the soldiers have a right to vote but Sellers pointed out that the constitution states every person between the ages of 21 and 60 must have a poll tax in order to vote and the legislature of the state could do nothing about the matter until the next regular session of that body.

Of course you know by now that the federal ballot has been declared legal in Texas. Based on a study of Texas statutes, Sellers and Gov. Coke Stevenson determined that the federal ballot in general elections is authorized. That means that Texans in the armed service may vote for presidential electors and congressional candidates but a poll tax will be required for absentee voting in state and county elections.

Speaking of politics, Judge Alton B. Chapman, presiding magistrate of the 110th judicial district since his appointment in May of 1937 and president of the judiciary of Texas, has formally announced his candidacy for state senator of the 30th senatorial district of Texas.

Jim Thomas, 49-year-old ex-convict, has been indicted by a Lamb county grand jury for the Oct. 26 slaying of Dr. Roy E. Hunt of Littlefield. Thomas, who has been held in Lubbock county jail since a few days after the crimes, was placed under $25,000 bond. Officials of the jail said Thomas was indifferent to news of his indictment. He held the paper up so three or four other fellows in his cell could see what he was reading and "sorta grinned."

Next term of district court is set for August but Thomas can and may be tried before that time.

Junior baseball has been assured the boys of Lubbock with the American Legion as sponsors. Plans are tentative but they call for a baseball school to be staged in Lubbock just before opening league play and instructors are to be professional players, both in Majors and Minors.

Approximately 1,500 citizens of Lynn county gathered in Tahoka Thursday afternoon for dedication services for the county's war honor roll which bears the names of 1,600 Lynn county men and women serving in the uniforms of Uncle Sam. Former State Senator G. H. Nelson made the main address.

Senator Truman's address last Saturday night, which turned out to be a plea to keep the nation's government in the hands of Democrats, was before a disappointingly small audience.

That's all this time.

Dinner Is For Auxiliary Guests

A supper meeting of the American Legion and its auxiliary was held for district, state and national officers in the American Legion auxiliary Thursday night at Legion hall.

Invocation was given by Grady West and welcome by Miss Mae Murfee, unit president. Miss Murfee introduced Mrs. James O. Cade, 19th district president, who served as toastmistress.

A group singing of World War 1 songs was led by Mrs. Mary E. Ware with Miss Caroline Cole at the piano. Dr. C. B. Qualia, head of the department of foreign languages at Texas Technological college, spoke on "Relationship of Pan-American Countries."

"Sin tu Amor," a song in Spanish, was sung by Miss Rosemary Burns with Miss Marion Chandler, accompanist.

Cooperation Of Nations Lauded

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—Secretary of State Hull, naming just principles and smoothly-working machinery at the two main supports of a world peace organization, declared tonight that "the path along which inter-American cooperation has led is the path to human liberty and human welfare.

In a broadcast speech commemorating Pan-American day, Hull praised hemispheric cooperation in the war and said the lessons learned in the Americas point the way towards a stable world.

Common language and common culture are not the basis of inter-American unity, Hull said, and this unity "proves that there are other sources more subtle and even stronger x x x."

"Our unity comes from a passionate devotion to human liberty and national independence which is so strong that it does not stop with the effort of each people to secure liberty for itself but goes on to respect as no less valid the desire of other peoples to achieve the same liberty in accordance with their own traditions and historic institutions."

Praising American mobilization for war, Hull said "successful as our common action has been it has not been complete and it took time which may not always be available."

"Therefore we learned that an international organization, whether in the field of inter-American cooperation or in the broader field of world peace, must have two main supports. It must gather its greates. strength from the rightness and justice of the principles upon which it is founded and the mutual trust of its members.

"It must also have such an essential framework and machinery and such an acceptance of their obligations on the part of its members as will enable it to act promptly and effectively in times of crisis."

Club Flower Exchange Is Declared Success

Juvenile Officer In City Urges Action, Not Word Solutions

Mrs. Nancy Green, city juvenile officer, was guest speaker at the luncheon of the American Business club Friday noon in the Hilton hotel. She said, "The subject of juvenile delinquency has been discussed at length for the past several months, but are we doing anything about it?"

Mrs. Green stated that boys and girls are on the street at all hours of the night and are continually being stopped by authorities to ascertain why they are not at home. The answers these authorities receive are sometimes shocking.

Young Girls Roaming Around

She said that many teen-age girls are roaming around the country following the soldiers. She told of one case where a girl ran away from home in New Orleans and came to Lubbock to be with her boy friend who was stationed at one of the air fields here.

Quoting some figures prepared by the Department of Justice in Washington, she pointed out that sex offenses among juvenile girls had increased 104 per cent in 1943 over 1941.

Broken homes, she said, was possibly the greatest cause of juvenile delinquency. Other causes are early employment, early marriage and delinquent parents.

Bill Foster, program chairman, introduced the speaker, with J. Ray Dickey, president of the club, presiding.

Valuable Minerals Plentiful In Texas

AUSTIN, April 14 (AP)—Every county in Texas has at least one mineral resource that could be developed into a local industry, if not into a large-scale production, a survey by the University of Texas bureau of economic geology shows.

Minerals of widest occurrence are building stone, caliche, clay, cement materials, coal, dolomite, gypsum, gravel, greensand, iron are, lignite, lime materials, limestone, miscellaneous stone, peat, sand, sandstone, and volcanic ash.

Oil and gas resources are listed only in the counties where production is under way.

In addition to oil and gas, 57 different minerals are being produced in the state.

The first American motion picture feature was produced in 1903.

Cross-Section Committee On Reconversion Is Named

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—Chairman Donald M. Nelson of the War Production board today revealed his program for planning post war reconversion "in the gold fish bowl of public opinion," by naming a civilian cross-section committee which will review all industry proposals for returning to consumer goods production.

The committee was launched in dissent, however, for Robert M. Gaylord, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, who was invited to sit as a management representative, declined in a letter asserting that "repeated experience in recent years has shown that committees of this nature are ineffective."

Group Representation

The permanent committee will have representation from labor, management, public opinion, agriculture, consumers, banking and finance, and the distribution trades.

Nelson said representatives of each industry will consult with WPB and prepare recommendations for the resumption of civilian production when it becomes feasible. Representatives of the automobile industry will meet with WPB Monday.

"These reports will be handed to the new committee for its advice, Nelson explained. "I want these things to be done in the goldfish bowl of public opinion. I want them done in a way that will be fair to labor, to the consumer, and to the managements of the companies affected."

Wants Views Of Each

The new group, named the WPB advisory committee on civilian policy, will provide machinery for obtaining the view of each segment of the nation's economy on every major reconversion plan, Nelson told a news conference.

"I disagree with Bob Gaylord," he continued. "I think this committee will be extremely effective. I am sorry he didn't accept because I have confidence in his opinions.

Committee Personnel

Gaylord offered to help WPB at any time by bringing to Washington industry's viewpoint insofar as the NAM represents it."

The announced members of the committee are: Eugene Meyer, editor and publisher of the Washington Post; Gordon Rentschler, board chairman, National City bank, New York; Eric Johnson, president, Chamber of Commerce of the U. S.; Philip Murray, president, CIO; William J. Kelly, president, Kelly O'Leary Steel works, Chicago, and president of the Machinery and Allied Products institute; William Green, president, AFL; Miss Ruth O'Brien, of the bureau of human nutrition and home economics, department of agriculture. Representatives of agriculture and the distribution industries have not yet been named.

of 17,000, while General Yeremenko's independent coastal Army driving in from the Kerch peninsula seized 5,000 the same day to make its total 14,000.

Another Pocket Closed

The capture of Sudak by Yeremenko's troops and the simultaneous seizure of Tolbukhin's men of Alushta, 30 miles to the west, created another pocket for the Axis troops caught between those two points, but the greatest potential bag of the enemy loomed in the investment of Sevastopol.

One captive German, Lt. Wolfgang Rost, was quoted by Izvestia's front correspondent as telling the Russians: "Your tanks have made sheep of us. We are racing to the sea, but even if we get there we have no place to go. Those of us who do not surrender will be killed."

Dnester Estuary Cleared

Across the Black sea to the northwest the Russian Third Ukraine Army under Gen. Rodion Y. Malinovsky finally cleared the entire east bank of the Dnester estuary southwest of Odessa in the Ovidiopol area capturing eight localities, said the broadcast bulletin recorded by the Soviet monitor.

Soviet airmen in that section also were reported raking the west bank of the Dnester in lower Bessarabia where the remnants of Germany's defeated southern Army had fled.

The liberation of his corner of the mainland thus freed the entire Ukraine province of pre-war Russia, with the exception of a few miles on the lower fringes of the Pripyat marshes just below White Russia.

German Claims

The German high command said Axis troops had "gained further ground" northwest of Iasi, Romanian rail city, and German and Hungarian troops also had advanced somewhat in the Delatyn area near the Tatar pass on the Czech border, and had hurled back the Russians on both sides of Brody, 50 miles northeast of the big Polish communications hub of Lwow.

Berlin also said Soviet troops attacking south of Pskov opposite Latvia and Estonia had been repulsed in "break-through attempts with fresh units."

Babies Are Still Ill After Hospital Error

NEW LONDON, Conn., April 14 (AP)—The Lawrence and Memorial associated hospitals, where four babies were disclosed to have died from the effects of boric acid powde erroneously substituted for dextrose, reported today there was "no change" in the condition of 17 others made ill.

Coroner Edward G. McKay, who plans to hold an inquest Wednesday, said no charges had been brought against anyone and would not be unless it developed that someone was "criminally responsible."

Barry Glass Found

Wingood, of Catonsville, Md., a suburb of Baltimore.

Whether the necessary vaccine was available to Mr. and Mrs. Glass could not be learned immediately, the press dispatch stated, but added that Dr. Wingood had been informed that Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore had arranged to administer the necessary treatment as soon as the child arrived in Baltimore last night.

Was Instructor Here

Glass, a graduate in 1940 of Texas Technological college, was a member of the ASTP faculty at the school, as an engineering instructor, until the program was ended several days ago. At the time of his graduation, Glass' father was lister in college records as living at 1320 Fillmore street in Amarillo.

Revised count Friday showed that four Lubbock children were undergoing Pasteur treatment for bites of a mad dog, and that treatment had been advised for still another child who had been attacked by a different dog.

Susan Goulding, 6, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Byron W. Goulding of 2815 Twenty-seventh street, apparently was the only witness to the attack on Barry Glass. The same pup that bit several other persons, including Clark Wood, jr., 4, of 2619 Twenty-second street, it was learned Friday, caught one of Susan's socks, but did not injure her.

No Marks Are Found

Mrs. Goulding, it was learned, informed Mrs. Glass of Susan's account of the attack on Barry, but no marks were found on him, it was understood.

Dr. Rollo said it had been suggested that yet another Lubbock child take treatment. He is a son of T. Earl Hamilton of 2418 Thirtieth street, and was bitten by another dog, about March 29. The dog was described as a brindle bulldog, big, with a long tail and in a habit of prowling along Thirtieth street, from the 2300- to the 2900-block. Officials would like to pick the dog up for observation and would appreciate calls from the dog's owner or anyone who could identfy the owner, it was announced.

Beaumont Bothered By Flower Thieves

BEAUMONT, April 14 (UP)—The Beaumont parks and recreation department let it be known today that flower thieves are discouraging a city-wide program of beautification.

Reese Martin, superintendent of the department, said hundreds of rose, tulip and azalea plants have been stolen from several city parks in recent days.

"While one cannot condone theft, there is at least an understandable motive for stealing the plants from the parks," said Martin. "But there is no way of understanding the vandal who deliberately tears off flowers and throws them in the street."

The thieves apparently go into the parks as early as 4 a. m. and start ripping flower plants out of the ground, Martin said.

TIGERS BUMP ROE

MUNCIE, Ind., April 14. (AP) — Elwin (Preacher) Roe, the Arkansas left-hander tentatively slated to pitch the Pittsburgh Pirates' pennant race opener against St. Louis next Tuesday, was blasted for nine hits today as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Pirates, 7 to 2, in the final exhibition at the Bucs' camp.

Explanation On Embargo Is Given

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 14—An embargo placed by the Association of American Railroads last week on the movement of empty freight cars into Mexico was described today by an association official as a measure designed to speed up the return to this country of some 7,000 American cars already south of the border.

The action will have no effect on the movement of urgent cargoes nor impede the war effort, said H. J. Arnett, asistant to the chairman of the association's car service division. He added that the embargo was flexible and could be lifted without delay if a need was shown for the speedy entry of empty cars into Mexico.

Cars Pile up at Laredo

Meanwhile, 600 loaded American cars destined for points in Mexico have accumulated at Laredo waiting their acceptance by the National Railways of Mexico (government operated), said Arnett. He asserted he did not know the reason for the inability of the Mexican railways to accept the cars, but that presumably it was because of an insufficiency of train crews or facilities.

Arnett cited as an example of the flexibility of the empty car embargo the action taken today in releasing a number of cars from Texas points to Monterrey, Mexico, for consignment to the American Smelter and Refining company and the American Metal company. He said the cars would be dispatched from points to be selected by the Mexican National Railways and connecting American lines.

Want Release of Cars

Observing that 7,000 American-owned cars had accumulated throughout Mexico, Arnett said: "The shutting off delivery of more empty cars into Mexico was done to stimulate interest in more prompt release of cars of American railroads already in Mexico.

"Deliveries of our cars since March 1 have exceeded receipts by about 50 per cent. There has been some improvement since Saturday, when the embargo was placed. They are delivering more cars per day in the last few days than they were a week ago."

He said he was unable to estimate how long the embargo would continue, since it depended on how promptly the cars already south of the border were returned.

spell.

The Britishers tapped their feet, beat time on riflebutts and helmets, cheered the jive and vowed they'd pay the Yankees back. And the other night they did.

A long line of lorries rolled up to the Third Division bivouac and out leaped a lot of kilted Scottish lads, their bagpipes deflatted but ready. They lined up before the dumfounded doughboys; waited for an order in the heavy burring brough of pipe-major MacConnochie, started with a swinging skirl and then really went to town.

Up and down the road the bagpipers marched, their colored kilts swinging and their bagpipes bouncing. They played regimental airs and Scottish tunes and wild highland melodies that left the Yankee eardrums quivering and shivering and wondering what next

But when the strains subsided the doughboys begged for more and the bushy, waxtipped mustaches of the mighty MacConnachie bristled from sheer pride.

Proud, too was the Scots' commanding officer, Captain Hamish Henderson of Sutherlandshire in northern Scotland, who stood around the sidelines and apologized. He explained that the boys had just been organized, that they'd been so busy fighting they'd got but a mite of time for the bagpipes.

"With a wee bit mor-r-r- of pr-r-r-rractice they'd be a bit better-r-r-r," he explained.

"Hot stuff," said the doughboys.

Checks were cashed here by Jake's grocery, J. C. Penney, Kuykendall Chevrolet company, Woody Tire Co., Furr Food market No. 2, Main and G creamery, Walton's, Levine's, Sweetbriar shop and Dunlap's, the youth informed investigators.

He recently cashed 10 checks here, eight at Amarillo—and had four others in his possession at time of arrent, it was announced.

Two Plainview girls, both 15, remained in county jail—one of them a divorced mother—juvenile officials said. Disposition in their cases—they're charged with having given $87.98 in spurious checks—was under advisement of juvenile authorities.

PRICES LARGELY STATIC

NEW YORK, April 14 (AP)—A handful of specialties behaved fairly well in today's stock market but the general run of leaders did little either way.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was unchanged at 51.8. The market lacked breadth, only 794 individual issues registering. Of these, 283 were up, 265 down and 246 with no variation. Transfers of 477,220 shares were the smallest for a full session since Oct. 14 and compared with 650,590 Thursday.

Among better performers was Pennsylvania Coal and Coke which was up a point at 15¼, a 1944 peak.

Holding modest gains were Santa Fe, Owens-Illinois., Cuban-American Sugar Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, American Can, U. S. Rubber and General Electric. On the offside were Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Southern Pacific, Texas Co., Westinghouse, Du Pont, Montgomery Ward and International Harvester.

Bonds were relatively steady with carrier loans attracting bids.

In the curb minor improvement was shown for Pennroad, Aluminum of America, United Gas, American Light and Cuban Atlantic Sugar.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, April 14 (AP)—Light commission house liquidation coupled with southern hedge selling depressed cotton futures today, with closing values off 15 to 40 cents a bale.

Larger sales of spot cotton during the past two days and an easing in basis prices were factors on the decline. Mill price fixing support was limited, and holders of May contracts continued to sell their cotton against purchases of later positions.

Threat To Texarkana Water Service Ended

TEXARKANA, April 14 (AP) — Impairment of water service for Texarkana was averted at least temporarily today when operators of the pumping stations of the Texarkana Water corporation who quit their jobs yesterday afternoon over a wage dispute agreed to return to work pending arbitration by a representative of the conciliation service of the department of labor.

The workers' decision was announced late today by J. G. Wood, manager of the water corporation, after a conference between company officials and Theo Peasner of Dallas, representative of the United Steel Workers of America (CIO).

Although only ten employes apparently were directly involved in a union request for a 15-cents an hour increase in wages, the fact that they constituted the operating crews of the pumping stations made a possible walkout a serious threat to the city's water supply.

Operators quit work yesterday afternoon but returned later pending outcome of today's conference.

Peak Season Expected By Texas State Parks

AUSTIN, April 14 (AP)—State parks expect a record season this year.

Frank O. Quinn, executive secretary of the state parks board, said today inquiries concerning park facilities indicated that last summer's attendance would be exceeded this year in the state's 36 major parks.

For this reason workmen are rushing maintenance projects so that the park areas will be in top shape this month rather than by May 1, the normal opening day.

The program includes painting, repairing and servicing equipment such as swimming pools and boats.

The plan is being worked out by the European Advisory commission and is to be presented to Gen. Eisenhower and Red Army commanders in the form of directives.

Army, Navy Ordered To Take Two Plants

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—President Roosevelt today ordered the Navy and Army to take over and operate two war plants, Jenkins Bros., Inc., of Bridgeport, Conn., and the Ken-Rad Tube & Lamp Corp. of Owensboro, Ky., on the ground that interruption of work at the plants is threatened.

Both plants have refused to pay wage increases ordered by the War Labor board.

The secretary of the Navy was authorized to take over the Bridgeport plant, which manufactures vital war materials. The secretary of war was directed to take over the Kentucky plant.

The Bridgeport concern has declined to pay a wage increase of five cente an hour granted by the WLB on March 1 to 1,750 workers represented by the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers union (CIO).

The Ken-Rad company, which operates two plants in Kentucky, has defied a board order directing a wage increase of three cents an hour to about 4,000 workers, members of the United Automobile Workers (AFL).

Part-Time Liquor Distilling Asked

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—Part-time resumption of liquor distilling was again proposed to the War Production board today by industry representatives who said that unless some production of beverage alcohol is permitted there may be none available next year.

The WPB disclosed that the proposal was made at a closed meeting by a member of the agency's alcohol industry advisory committee. It said this committeeman, whose name was not made known, suggested that a three-day-a-month diversion from production for war needs would provide approximately 50,000,000-proof gallons of alcohol a year and "substantially allevate the present beverage drought."

The WPB's official account of the closed meeting did not state the reaction of government officials. Proposals for partial resumption of whisky production have been rejected at least three times.

WPB announced that industrial alcohol production in March established a new record, with 51,500,000 gallons of 190-proof alcohol produced as compared with 46,700,000 gallons in January the previous high month.

New Tire Order Aids 'B' Drivers

Holders of "B" gasoline ration cards, motorists previously eligible only for used passenger car tires, may be able to buy new "factory seconds" as early as next Monday, it was indicated Friday night by Ely Fonville, district OPA tire and tube rationing official.

Fonville said the order, announced Thursday, would become effective Monday. He stated his office expects to receive official notification regarding the liberalized tire rules, along with detailed administrative plans, this morning.

No Certificates Needed

The OPA also had announced that new passenger tube "factory seconds" are being removed from the rationing list and will be available without a certificate.

Fonville, who remains in close contact with Lubbock tire firms, said, to his knowledge, there have been no stocks of the affected tires and tubes recently in local establishments. However, he pointed out that tire dealers and wholesalers "have been expecting this announcement" and are prepared to obtain stocks quickly.

Those possessing "B" cards are motorists who are classified as doing occupational driving."

Charge Is Filed In Vets Home Death

AUSTIN, April 14 (AP) — A complaint charging negligent homicide in the performance of a lawful duty was filed in county court-at-law here today against Robert G. Euers, 52, an attendant at the Confederate men's home.

Deputy Sheriff J. E. McCoy signed the complaint after Justice of the Peace Mace B. Thurman found in an inquest that D. M. Moffatt, 55, former Austin merchant, suffered scald burns prior to his death in the home hospital yesterday.

Thurman also conducted a court of inquiry in which District Attorney Benton Coopwood and McCoy participated. Statements of home employes were heard at the court of inquiry.

Euers was placed under $750 bond by Thurman after the complaint was filed.

The home which houses only a handful of Confederate veterans has been used in recent years by the state board of control for certain patients from other state eleemosynary hospitals.

Suspect Held Here In Child's Kidnaping

A 45-year-old Stamford man was held Friday night by city police as a suspect in the kidnapping late yesterday of a 4-year-old girl in Crosbyton.

The girl was later released near Crosbyton.

According to information given S. O. Boyd, night chief of police, by the Crosbyton county sheriff's department, the man enticed the child into his car by offering her candy, then drove out of town. Boyd said he was told the child's mother and grandmother obtained an automobile and gave chase. The man let the little girl out of his car several miles northwest of Crosbyton when he saw he was being followed.

The man, former inmate of a federal penitentiary, previously attempted to "pick-up" women in Crosbyton. Police said the suspect was given a federal term in Lubbock several years ago in connection with an embezzlement case at Jayton.

Lubbock Westerners Hosts For Workout

District winners from Seminole and county winners from Idalou worked with the Lubbock Westerners Friday afternoon at Chapman Field as a tuneup for the regional meet in Canyon April 22.

Several of the boys during the workout were looking good Friday with two Idalou boys showing up exceptionally well. This pair were Kelley and Gregory who were making good showings in the low hurdles and high jump, respectively.

Pete Gregory, a tall, rangy lad, was looming a strong threat to the high jump leadership in the meet at Canyon on the basis of his showing in the workout here Friday.

The Westerners were not at full strength Friday with three regulars forced to the sidelines with sore throats, but Coach Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst was confident that they would be in top shape by the date of the meet at Canyon.

Those on the ailing list Friday were A. L. Graham, miler, Roy Grimes, member of the mile relay team, and Bobby Martyn, dash man and member of the 440-yard relay team.

Airmen Open Coyote Drive In Oklahoma

WOODWARD, Okla., April 14. (AP)—The cunning coyote, marauding by night and hiding by day, was flushed from his den today by the mass attack of a thousand hunters directed and aided by flying farmers and members of the Civil Air patrol.

Although a high wind grounded the airplanes shortly after the hunt started, hunters tramped the country and bagged dozens of the animals, now a serious menace to livestock and poultry growers in western Oklahoma.

The hunt will continue four days, extending southward along the Texas border to Frederick where the hunt ends Tuesday.

Farmers and ranchers running thousands of head of livestock and growing great flocks of turkeys have waged a losing, single-handed battle against the coyotes for years. Calves, turkeys and sheep have disappeared in great numbers, ranchers said. Some ranchers reported nearly a total loss of immense turkey flocks.

When this situation was explained by Freddie Deerman, editor of the Farmer and Stockman of Oklahoma City to the chamber of commerce of that city, a committee was formed to initiate a mass hunt. It grew into the affair starting today, drawing pilots from all over the state.

Ranchers of the wide open spaces found airplanes an effective way of combatting the coyote menace and many of them have their own ships in which they conduct two-man hunts. One flies and spots, the other shoots. The animal will run in a nearly straight line. The plane will bank, a clear shot and there's one less coyote to destroy stock.

He was awarded a $100 war bond.

Grimes Homer Brings Yanks Win Over Bums

BROOKLYN, April 14 (AP)— A 410-foot home run by shortstop Oscar Grimes, who batted only .150 for the New York Yankees last season, brought the world champions a 7 to 5 10-inning victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition baseball game today.

Sloan Ready To Take Ott's Job

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 14—Out of the night comes Bruce Sloan of Wichita, Kan., as a possible replacement for Manager Mel Ott in the New York Giants' right field.

Brown - haired, fair - skinned Sloan comes up with a bit of a paunch at the ripe age of 29 as a Major League rookie to replace the great Ott, who came up to the Giants when in his middle teens.

Sloan comes out of the night, because it was the combination of darkness, arc lights and curved balls that stymied his attempted climb toward the Majors a decade ago—back in 1934. He tried professional baseball in 1932, '33 and '34 with Oklahoma City of the Texas League, but his inability to hit curve ball pitching at night sent him back to the semi-pros, where he remained until last season.

Former Cementer

During those long years with the semi-pros—with the Duncan Halliburton Cement Company team of Duncan, Okla., and three other nearby semi-pro outfits — Sloan conquered the night. He learned to hit curve ball pitching under the arcs. He changed his bat, using a lighter one; he changed his stance, so that he crowded the plate; and he learned to hit only with his wrists—like Ken Keltner of the Cleveland Indians—using a short, fast side-sweep.

Last June, Bruce deserted the semi-pros and accepted an outfield berth with Little Rock, Ark., of the Southern Association. He knew there would be plenty of night ball with Little Rock; but he knew also that he was ready. During the first five weeks, he hit .532; and he wound up the season with a batting mark of .365. This attracted Major League scouts.

Sloan, a portly feller who packs 200 pounds on a 5 ft. 10 in. frame, is an agile fly hawk despite his dimunitive paunch. No one ever questioned his fielding ability, and he promises, "I'll knock 'em dead with my daylight batting, and do alright now in the few night games."

First Trip Up

At 29, Sloan is ready to become a regular on his first Major League team if Manager Ott should be taken into service as a 1-A; or if Ott should be forced from right field to the sidelines because of a stomach ailment.

During a chat in the Polo Grounds dugout before yesterday's game with the Yankees, white-uniformed Sloan said, "I felt like quitting baseball after my bad batting season at night with Oklahoma City in '34. But, I just couldn't quit—although I knew I could make more money in other fields. I'm an accountant, you know. So I played along with the semi-pros, meanwhile studying my weakness against curves at night. "Now, though I'm a rookie at 29, I hope I get a chance to prove that I can hit about as good as anybody in the business. I'm a southpaw wrist-hitter now, and I have no fear of anything any pitcher can throw—day or night."

Sloan is a 4-F because of high blood pressure. We hope his arteries do not explode if he is assigned a regular berth in the Giants' outfield.

Dodds To Enter New England Mile Event

ANDOVER, Mass., April 14. (AP)—Galloping Gil Dodds, world indoor mile record holder and 1943 Sullivan Award winner, has accepted an invitation to compete in an exhibition mile at the New England prep school track championships at Andover May 20, it was announced today.

MAY RESUME RACES

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 14. (AP)—George H. Payne, chairman of the California Horse Racing board, announced today he called a meeting of the board at Los Angeles, Friday, April 21, to investigate the possibility of resuming racing in the Southern California area.

The Santa Anita, Hollywood Park and Del Mar tracks in the South were closed to racing after the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941.

BOSOX BEAT BRAVES

BOSTON, April 14. (AP) — Boston's Red Sox came from behind in the ninth inning today to defeat their hometown rivals, the National league Braves, 6 to 5 in the first of a three game city series before 1,000 fans.

Yanks And Cards Picked To Replay World Series Again

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, April 14 (AP)—The golfers say: "Miss 'em quick," so that's the policy we'll follow in trying to figure the Major League pennant races this year, giving us no chance to study the line of the putt too long and change our 4-F mind.

The St. Louis Cardinals to win in the National, and the New York Yankees in the American.

There they are, and we're stuck with them. It's always tough enough to dope out the campaigns, and this year, with a little nest of "ifs" in front of each club, it's next to impossible. Like the other so-called experts, however, we're ready to attempt the impossible.

Lots Of Ifs

If any club hasn't suffered too severe man-power losses; if the players hanging by the thread of 1-A stick around awhile; if replacements aren't too green, and if some of the rookies come through in startling fashion, it has a chance.

Anyway, here's our lineup, as of this minute:

National League—St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chicago, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, New York, Philadelphia and Boston.

American League—New York, Washington, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia.

In looking for a replay of the 1943 World Series, we like the Cardinals because they've suffered only six important player losses, still have a stout mound staff, and their replacements through their farm system figure to be better than those of most clubs.

The Yankee losses have been severe, but they still have Ernie Bonham and Spud Chandler, ace pitchers in a year when pitching looms as money in the bank. We think Bill Dickey's loss will be felt most, but Joe McCarthy on the whole has a good defensive team.

Team Losses

Cincinnati lost pitchers Johnny Vandermeer, Elmer Riddle and Clyde Shoun, as well as second baseman Lonnie Frey, but Bill McKechnie still has a fair mound staff and the tight defensive ball promised this year is right down his alley.

The Cubs on paper look like a strong contender, but they're bound to miss Hi Bithorn and Claude Passeau, two fine pitchers, as well as Stan Hack, classy infield yeteran.

The rest of the National League clubs seem due for a wild scramble for the fourth first-division berth, but we like them in the order named.

Washington still has Stan Spence and George Case as a nucleus, as well as a competent staff of knuckle ballers and a catcher, Rick Ferrell, capable of handling them. The Nats might make things unpleasant for the Yanks.

Chicago is high on its White Sox, who boast some 19 players in the 4-F category. However, many are just youngsters who may or may not cut the cake.

As in the National League, the other American League teams seem due for a scramble for the other positions. But this is the season anything might happen so if the Braves and Phillies picked for last places wind up in the World Series don't be too surprised. The whole picture might change tomorrow. It's a moving picture no less.

Lord Nelson, England's great naval hero, won the battle of Copenhagen while acting against orders to stop fighting.

Young Veteran Will Anchor Cub Infield

CHICAGO, April 14. (AP)—Phil Cavarretta, regarded by his Chicago fans as the most underrated player in baseball, appears headed for his due recognition this season.

Starting his 10th year with the Cubs, the Italian lad is dean of the squad at the age of 26. This old-timer status passed to him when Stan Hack, an 11-year veteran, retired from the game this year.

"It's a cinch that Cavarretta will have his most important season with the Cubs, no matter how he hits," says Manager Jimmy Wilson. "He's our steady man in the infield."

The first baseman finds himself in a rather odd situation.

He is a 10-year big leaguer, yet just a "kid" in the Cubs' war-time flock. He is the only member of the infield expected to open the season with Major league experience. Rookies Tony York at third, Bill Schuster at short and Don Johnson at second—all in their early 30's — are the fellows the seasoned Cavarretta will have to steady.

The nearest approach to a .300 batting mark Cavarretta has had was his .291 last year. But he's always been a fine timely hitter ever since he slugged a home run in his first game with the Cubs to beat Cincinnati 1-0.

"I'm eyeing .300 this year," he declare authoritatively.

Cavarretta was only 16 and just out of Chicago's Lane Tech High school when Charlie Grimm, then Cub manager, signed him up.

Texas Aggies Come From Behind To Win

COLLEGE STATION, April 14 (AP)—Overcoming a six-run lead, the Texas Aggies downed the Rice Institute Owls 13-8 in first of a two-game Southwest Conference series here today.

Rice scored six in the fourth frame. The Aggies had two big innings, scoring five in the fifth and six in the seventh.

Callendar delivered a two bagger with the bases loaded for Rice in the fourth and Galfione did the same for the Aggies in the fifth.

Tomorrow's game will follow a tennis match with Rice and a track meet with Texas.

Widdoes To Take Ohio State Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 14. (AP)—Carroll Widdoes completed today a three-year climb from an assistant high school football coach to mentor of one of the nation's largest colleges—Ohio State university.

Widdoes was named to guide the Bucks while Lieut. (jg) Paul Brown is in the navy.

Brown, who brought Widdoes with him to Ohio State from Massillon (O.) High school, received his Naval commission Wednesday and will leave for Great Lakes Sunday.

The coach is the last of four who came to Ohio State from Massillon in 1941 at a time the Buck gridiron fortunes were at a low ebb and skyrocketed the Ohioans into the nation's top-ranking team in just two seasons. Wartime calls to service, however, wiped out what had been described as the most promising squad in history and last year's team, consisting of 17-year-olds and 4-F's won only three of nine games.

The others who came here from Massillon were Fritz Heisler, now in the navy, Edward Brickle, now dead, and Hugh McGranahan, who since has resigned.

Browns Hit Homers, But Cards Win, 3-2

ST. LOUIS, April 14 (AP)—Despite home runs by George McQuinn and Vernon Stephens, the Cardinals defeated the Browns to day, 3 to 2, in a game called after five innings because of rain.

McQuinn and Stephens hit their homers on successive pitches served up by Mort Cooper in the first inning. Gene Moore then smacked a single off the pitcher's foot and he left the game after completing the inning. Harry Brecheen finished and stopped the Browns with one hit.

Texas Longhorns Go Down Before Fliers

SAN ANTONIO, April 14 (AP)—Brooks Field's powerful soldier nine had little trouble with the University of Texas Longhorns here this afternoon, smashing to a 10-2 triumph.

Texas used three pitchers in an effort to quell Brooks nine.

Brooks collected 10 hits, Texas seven, but six walks issued by Texas' starting hurler, Bobby Layne, helped the soldiers.

Texas moves over to Randolph Field tomorrow for a game.

TWO PHILS CALLED

Ross Discharged By Marine Corps Today

NEW YORK, April 14 (AP)—Sgt. Barney Ross, former lightweight boxing champion, received his honorable medical discharge from the U .S. Marine Corps at the Brooklyn Navy Yards today.

Ross contracted malaria while on Guadalcanal where his feat of killing seven Japanese snipers during an all-night vigil protecting a trio of wounded buddies earned him the Silver Star and a Presidential citation.

Frogs Invade Kansas For Sept. 23 Battle

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 14 (AP)—The University of Kansas football team will meet the Texas Christian Horned Frogs at Ruppert Stadium in Kansas City on the night of Sept. 23, it was announced today by Athletic Director Karl Klooz.

Kansas went to Fort Worth in 1942 to meet TCU and was defeated, 6 to 41.

TO USE MORE PRISONERS

BEAUMONT, April 14 (AP) — Jefferson county rice growers plan to use twice as many prisoners of war in harvest fields this year as in 1943. Joe E. Combs, county agricultural agent, said the rice growers, at a meeting yesterday, made plans for requesting 300 enemy prisoners of war for the harvest, which begins about August 1. Last year, 150 prisoners were employed in the rice harvest.

Something To Be Considered

THE President's frequent illnesses during the past winter are sure to revive interest in the question of whether he is equipped physically to face another four years in his present man-killing job.

As his physician pointed out upon his announced departure the other day for a vacation in the South, Mr. Roosevelt has been confined at various times during the past winter because of influenza, bronchitis, sinus infections and numerous head colds.

Linked with this record is the fact that the President is now past 62 years of age. This certainly does not mean that he can be considered an old man. But there is no escaping the fact that only four men—Jackson, William Henry Harrison, Taylor and Buchanan—have been inaugurated as President at a more advanced age than Mr. Roosevelt is now. Harrison and Taylor each died of natural causes soon after inauguration. Buchanan was a one-term President. Jackson was 61 at his first inauguration, 65 at his second.

And none of those—nor has any President—faced the enormous job that has rested on Mr. Roosevelt's shoulders for almost 12 years. Nor was any President a semi-invalid, physically as result of earlier illness.

This record does not mean, necessarily, that Mr. Roosevelt lacks the physical vigor to continue in office another four years, should such be the joint wish and will of himself and the American people. Certainly the record does not suggest that there is any impairment of the President's mental vigor, even if his physical stamina and resistence have declined.

But neither is his health record one to ignore, nor his age in comparison with his predecessors. The very least that such facts could demand, if Mr. Roosevelt is to be a presidential nominee, is that his running mate must be selected with full consciousness of the possibility that he might have to take up the reins of government. The vice presidential nominee should be chosen because of full presidential qualities.

Our Boys In England

REPORT the other day by Maj. Gen. M. A. Reckord, provost marshal of American forces in Britain, that Americans are "behaving splendidly' in the British Isles doubtless was comforting to many parents, wives and others back home. But few of them were surprised.

On the contrary, the good conduct credited to the overwhelming majority of the Americans stationed in the United Kingdom is exactly what most of the people back home would expect. With inevitable exceptions, Americans are the type who will conduct themselves with a high degree of propriety, regardless of their surroundings.

Unfortunately, some very bad exceptions are sure to occur among any very large group of men. It sometimes happens that these exceptions are sufficiently numerous and are not sufficiently restrained that they reflect upon everyone and everything with which they are associated. Thus, it is conceivable that a few loud-mouthed, intemperate and uncouth men might give the entire American Armed Forces in Britain a black eye. General Reckord's report offers reassurance that such exceptions are being restrained properly.

Perhaps even more reassuring to most parents may have been the general's comment that hasty marriages involving American boys and British girls are being discouraged. This part of the report may tend to ease the minds of many fond fathers and mothers who, understandably, may exaggerate in their own thoughts the possibility that their sons may return from the wars with an alien wife in tow.

Some of them undoubtedly will. But, since hasty marriages of that kind are being discouraged actively, the probabilities are that any unions will have been considered sufficiently well by the contracting parties as to increase the likelihood of their permanence and happiness.

In the other war, mutual esteem between members of the American Expeditionary Force and the military and civilian masses of France suffered a good deal as result of personal contacts. It is not at all unusual for members of that first AEF to express a higher regard for their German contacts than for the French. Regardless what factors led to that condition, General Reckord's report offers encouraging re-assurance that Americans and the British will remember their enforced associations with more pleasure.

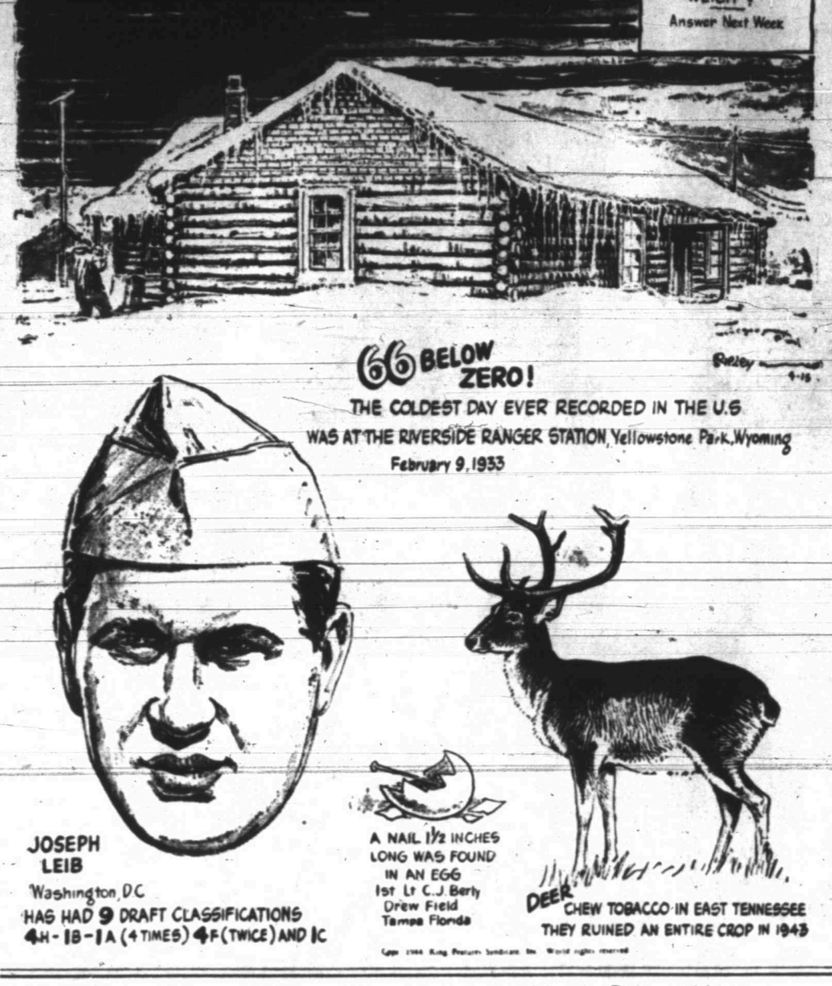

"The chief cause of death among frying-sized chickens is pip," says a poultryman. That may be true generally speaking, but in the Southern states it's Methodist ministers.

A psychologist says there are two distinct Hitlers. We regret to learn this. Already we had almost blown a fuse hating one Hitler.

Believe It Or Not --- By Robert Ripley

British Churchman, Whose Vicarage Joins Yank Camp, Writes:

"Yes! We Like Those American GI's!"

By REV. E. L. McCASSEY
Written For NEA Service

MAPLEDRUHAM, Eng. April 14.—One hundred and fourteen years ago a king of England used to visit this peaceful vicarage, where his son was vicar. I wonder what that king would have thought if you had told him that from the window of the study—a favorite view of his—there would one day be seen a training camp of the United States Army.

Your sons are all around me as I write. They have just had dinner, and it made even my ecclesiastical mouth water.

I want to talk to you about these boys of yours. In the last war, I saw a good deal of your Army in France, and when I was taken to an Anglo-American hospital, one of the first to visit me war your kindly General Bliss. I was young then, and I have never forgotten his goodness to me. That is one reason why I try to be a friend to your son here in England.

These boys of yours are fine chaps, and I know a fine chap when I see one. They have that quick-moving look which stamps our British Army today, and they remind me of my only son who has risen from the ranks to a responsible staff job in the XIVth Army at the age of 22.

Your boys move smartly, and their discipline is first-class. The cold has been bitter, the mud is like glue, yet I have never heard a grumble from that boy of yours. You should see him in the early morning, shaved and spruce, as clean as a new pin, though he knows that inside an hour he will be plastered with good English mud.

• • •

Passion For Cleanliness

THE cleanliness of your soldiers is a constant wonder to me. It's a passion, not a fashion. Their food is marvelously good, better than I had at by English public school, and better cooked.

Are your lads cheery? Well, the other day I heard laughter, interspersed with a tuneful rendering of "Ole Man River." Popping out to see what the fun was, I found a party of your lads making a road for your trucks. Their job was to pile the mud along side Ole Man River Thames, and it was dirty hard work. Yet these lads of yours seemed to think it was the finest fun in the world. Every one of them had a smile when he called out, "Good morning Vicar." It made me feel a better man.

One of the surest tests of a military formation is the relationship which exists between the officers and other ranks. I have observed this with special attention. Your officers are highly competent and efficient, and like our General Montgomery they take a personal interest in their men.

There is a friendly understanding air about your officers, and I think this is one of the reasons for the good discipline which prevails. Officers explain "the reason" when an order is given. There is nothing of the martinet about them.

It would be silly to tell you that all your boys are little angels, with wings complete. What I can, however, tell you is that among the lads camped on my ground I have never seen one the worse for liquor. And I see most things that happen around here.

It is, of course, true that in Britain we do not exchange greetings with women who are unknown to us, but your lads do that over here in a decent friendly fashion. In our railway carriages, we British are silent and austere. Your lads chat away to every-one in turn, and they are introducing a new fashion among our railway passengers. I have seen a dignified old lady sharing a meat pie with one of your boys, who produced it from some secret receptable. The old lady was soon beaming with delight.

• • •

Our Best Ambassadors

THUS it comes that your lads are doing more to bring out two countries together than all the disquisitions and allocutions of our respective philosophers. They are showing us that you are a nation all your own, with your own pride, traditions, aspirations and achievements, but also that you are one with us and our allies in this death-grapple with Nazi and Jap bestiality and brutality.

Your lads are doing a great work for the United States. They are proving to us what a splendid educational system yours must be, otherwise it would never produce the alert, clear-eyed, well-informed men I see around me every day.

Write to your boy as often as you can. You can have no idea how he prizes a letter from home. Send him your newspapers, for "home" to him means just everything. Send him photographs of the family, the old home.

Large numbers of your lads tell me they find the English "dandy," "good guys," "fine and friendly," and so forth. We do all we can for them. Our women folk sew on their buttons and their "stripes," do their laundry for them, and many such acts which would mightily please you American mothers.

Yes, we British like these GI's of yours. We are proud to be their friends, and I want to assure you that they are among friends, who find their greatest happiness in doing for them all that we can possibly do. We know that you have done, and will do, the same for our boys.

Strawberry Prices To Be Same This Year

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—Housewives will pay approximately the same for fresh strawberries this year as they did in 1943.

The Office of Price Administration announced ceiling prices yesterday, a schedule designed to return growers the national average farm price of $6.51 a 24-quart crate.

In zone 1 (including Texas and Oklahoma), maximum prices for fresh use, FOB shipping point, were listed as:

From the beginning of the season to April 15, 23 cents a pint, 44 cents a quart and 29½ a pound; from April 16 to May 1, 19½ cents a pint 37 cents a quart and 24½ cents a pound from May 2 to the end of the season 16½ cents a pint, 32½ cents a quart and 21½ cents a pound.

Ceiling prices for processed strawberries delivered at the processing plant, OPA said.

Looking At Life - - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

WHEN a state trooper marries a policewoman, there's bound to be excitement sooner or later, because where there are guns, there's bound to be shooting.

Well, Trooper Harold Galvin of Hawthorne, N. Y., filed charges of assault against his wife, Policewoman Rae Galvin, who in turn filed counter-charges against him.

She said she tried to get his wallet in the bedroom of their home, and he thought she was reaching for his gun.

A row started, no one was hurt—and when the case came up in court neither of the two wanted to prosecute. They had kissed and made up.

The case was dismissed.

• • •

Every time I read about these mafrimonial rows, I look around me at my own friends and neighbors and sort of take a peep into marriage.

For instance, just this morning I talked to a friend who has been married three times. The first two marriages were complete failures. There was constant fighting and nagging and bickering.

But the third one is a success, I'll tell you why.

He is a very temperamental chap. Flies off the handle at the slightest provocation, rants, raves, shouts.

The first two wives joined in the fight. Pretty soon their fight turned into a brawl.

The inevitable result followed: DIVORCE.

But the third wife just lets him rave.

• • •

"LAST night she certainly made me feel like a darn fool," he said. "I got mad about something concerning her sister.

"She just sat there and looked at me. Never opened her mouth. And there was an amused look in her eyes.

"'For heaven's sakes, why don't you say something'? I finally asked her.

"'Why should I, darling,' she answered in her sweetest leer, 'you are doing all the talking.' So I just shut up and went to bed."

It takes two to fight. Try the silent treatment some time. It works. I guarantee you that.

My wife has tried it on me. And instead of feeling like the great, big master of the house I just felt like a darn fool.

Particularly when Deuce, my Sealyham, came over when I was shouting my loudest, said "woof," hopped on my lap and licked my face.

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

WENDELL WILLKIE'S insistence of forcing his international program to a public test in the Wisconsin primaries may have done a disservice to the cause for which he fought. His rout has chilled his fellow-believers, including administration sympathizers and foreign diplomats, and encouraged senatorial candidates holding contrary views.

The outcome acted as a tonic on many congressmen who have privately opposed the general Roosevelt-Hull foreign policies and effulgent promises of all-out postwar collaboration with other members of the United Nations. Although supporting the military effort with their votes, they still cling to their pre-Pearl Harbor views; they are strongly nationalistic in their thinking.

These men had been in doubt as to the stand they should take in their forthcoming campaigns for re-election. Erstwhile isolationists like Bennett Clark of Missouri, Worth Clark of Idaho and Gerald Nye of North Dakota were worried by the reaction of the voters to their previous attitude. They might have swung clear over to the White House viewpoint. Numerous legislators in both chambers, Republicans as well as Democrats, were in the same dilemma.

Now they are inclined to revive their old "isms" and campaign as champions of a far milder brand of international cooperation. They suspect that their constituents are even more bearish on the Willkie-Roosevelt schemes than were the voters of Wisconsin.

As a result, the next Senate, which may have to ratify peace treaties and collateral agreements, may be less amenable to proposals for unreserved American participation in world reform and reorganization.

• • •

TEMPER: Foreign diplomats in Washington sent more detailed reports about the Wisconsin affair to their respective capitals than they have on any similar event in many years. Some of them cabled that it was "the most sensational political development of the day."

These representatives realize that the fate of their countries may depend on the role which the United States adopts in the postbellum period. Envoys of the smaller nations are fearful that they may be sold down the river by the great powers, and they look to Uncle Sam to protect their interests, as Woodrow Wilson tried to do at Versailles.

British and dominion observers here are deeply concerned for the future of the empire. They are afraid that the same might which saved them from the Axis may operate to their economic disadvantage when peace comes. They recognize the potentialities inherent in this nation's financial, industrial, aerial and shipping superiority. Therefore, the temper of the American people and the identity of the next President are of the utmost importance to them.

• • •

DEWEY: They do not believe that this country will assume the semi-isolationist attitude that it took after the last conflict. What they think they detect, and the Wisconsin result supports their conclusions, is the growth of a spirit of nationalism and a determination to put first the interests of the United States.

With Willkie out of the race, diplomatic researchers have engaged in a study of Gov. Tom Dewey's exposition of his views on foreign questions. They already regard him as the Republican presidential nominee, and they have compiled voluminous dossiers on the man in Albany.

Their preliminary survey convinces them that, while not so emotional in his thinking as the President or Willkie, he will favor a realistic approach to the solution of postwar problems. They suspect, however, that he will subscribe to the doctrine of "new nationalism," and are keeping their fingers crossed until he speaks out more boldly.

• • •

POLITICOS: President Roosevelt and Bob Hannegan are trying to rebuild the national Democratic political machine along the same lines laid down by Jim Farley when he headed the organization in Washington. Their examination of the current scene convinces them that they must rely on a harmonious and active outfit next fall.

FDR has agreed to every proposal submitted by the new national chairman, whose background as a local boss and doorbell-ringer closely resembles that of his more distinguished predecessor.

Mr. Roosevelt has called off all feuds with members of House and Senate, and has ordered his higherups to forget past differences. He has insisted that all except cabinet appointments be cleared through Hannegan. Down to the humbliest precinct leader, the wishes of the politicos must be respected.

• • •

BOSSISM: The highest policies are dictated with one eye on the electorate's reaction. In a close contest, as the 1944 election promises to be, no element can be neglected.

A White House canvass of prospects indicates that the bread-and-butter bosses and their clubhouse crowds will be all-important next November. If Tammany, Hague of New Jersey, Guffey of Pennsylvania, Kelly of Illinois, Crump of Tennessee and a few others do their stuff, it may be difficult to defeat Mr. Roosevelt.

The electoral votes of the states which they control 266. In short, the man who entered politics in 1911 as a foe of bossism depends on its foremost exponents for renomination and re-election.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

IN PREPARING to overwhelm the Reichswehr, General Eisenhower is taking precautions against a Nazi "invasion" of its own to beat us to the punch.

This statement is not derived from fantastic speculation. High staff officers admit that such a drive is a possibility they are considering in their plans. They are confident of blocking every trick the Berlin gambler plays.

The objective of a raid by the enemy would be to break up our concentrations of men, materiel and landing ships on the eve of the great thrust. An amphibious attack is such a delicate, intricately coordinated operation that any snarl could throw out schedules and delay maneuvers.

• • •

PUNISHMENT: Three obstructive methods appear logical from a Berlin standpoint: 1. To increase aerial assaults. 2. To launch "suicide" Commando forays. 3. To drop paratroops on vital centers.

The Anglo-Americans have taken measures to wipe out any chutists who might alight upon the vast water conduits from the great lakes and upon the reservoirs which supply London, factory cities and ports. Other military and industrial nerve centers are safeguarded from paralyzation.

The old "sailing to England" barges are still tied up in the canals of Germany and in the Baltic Sea. A hit-and-run incursion protected by swift E-boats would be a costly venture, but one useful to Hitler if it could separate our convoys. The huge British navy, the USAAF and RAF should frustrate this threat.

The most likely source of trouble is a stepping up of the current blitz on the British Isles. Recent strafing has caused more damage than we in America appreciate, evidenced by a considerable rise in insurance rates just published by English underwriters.

The Luftwaffe has an advantage in attacking American and British installations over our strikes at Berlin. German bases in France, Belgium and Holland are so close to England that our defense has only a brief time for interception. Most of Goering's flyers can be held off by flak and fighter planes but some may slip through. However, the elusive Ju 88s and Do 217s are slower than our pursuits and take heavy punishment coming and going.

Here And There In Texas

Supreme Court Expected To Junk Texas' Jim Crow Law

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press Correspondent

AUSTIN, April 14 (U.P.)—The U. S. Supreme court's decision that negroes are entitled to vote in the state primary elections has prompted speculation at Austin about the outcome of probable cases in the future.

A good number of observers believe that the primary election ruling indicated the same court would invalidate the poll tax being a prerequisite to voting on federal officials, and also would strike down the state's "Jim Crow" law.

Many have speculated that the court will refuse the State Democratic Executive committee's erquest for a rehearing on the case. Others say that even if the court does grant a rehearing it will not change its latest opinion.

They base the statement on the court voting eight to one on the negro voting question.

• • •

Schools Come Next

In the educational field, predictions have been made that the state university and state supported colleges soon will be called upon to admit negro students.

The U. S. Supreme court ruled that negroes may not be discriminated against and that they must be afforded equal facilities as provided white students in the Missouri university case some time ago.

After that decision quite a stir developed in making improvements in physical properties and the curriculum at Prairie View college for negroes.

However, some educational leaders doubt the improvements are sufficient to justify calling them equal under the law to those facilities afforded white students elsewhere.

• • •

ONE state official said he had no fear of the potentialities of the court's ruling. He said the people of Texas and the South will solve the situation, and he recalled a statement of the late Chief Justice C. M. Curenton of the Texas Supreme court.

"If the burden of federal control becomes unbearable and state lines continue to grow dimmer, the boundaries of the ancient Republic of Texas still will be clear and well defined."

One prominent jurist said the appellate courts have been placed in a somewhat "embarrassing position by the U. S. Supreme court's vast number of opinions overrruling the lower courts.

He said appellate judges have found it difficult to base a decision on precedent, and he thought appropriate the remarks of Justice Owen D. Roberts who dissented in the negro voting case.

In substance, Justice Roberts said that the U. S. Supreme court's decisions were similar to a railroad ticket—good for one trip on a certain day on a certain line.

• • •

Party To Be Richer

Financial affairs of the Texas State Democratic party are going to be in better shape after the next Jackson Day dinner, party leaders believe, as a result of an executive committee's action.

The committee voted that in the future 25 per cent of Jackson Day dinner proceeds would be retained by the state committee, while the remainder will be sent to the national party.

The last Jackson Day affair netted about $50,000, National Democratic Committeeman Myron Blalock of Marshall has estimated. On that basis the state Democrats would have $12,500 to get their machinery oiled and operating.

• • •

IN the past all of the Jackson Day money has gone to the national setup after the state group worked and sweated over the dinner and helped raise the funds. Now the time has come for the Texas workers to share in the benefits for state Democratic organization.

All in all it is rather expensive to keep the party intact the year around. There is an office staff to maintain besides the cost of preparation and distribution of necessary election materials.

The custom of the state party has been that all funds left after the election are donated to the executive secretary for his work. Sometimes that amounts to a tidy sum; other times it is negligible.

• • •

New Officials Predicted

Present Executive Secretary Charles E. Simons of the Democratic Executive committee does not have an estimate of the amount of election expenses. However, he added: "By the end of this year, I'll have an accurate idea."

Tenure of the present party officials expires with the September 12 convention, after which their successors take over. Whether those who hold office now will seek to be renamed has not brought much speculation. Some observers point out that the jobs might not be so inviting as the Democrats are in for some hard sledding. But others report: "A Texan never runs away from a fight."

COTTON SEED

D. & P. L. No. 14

TEXAS STATE CERTIFIED

This is the new, early, high yielding strain now grown exclusively by Delta-pine originators of D. and P. L. Made inch-staple and high gin turnouts on the Plains. Kemgas delinted, Ceresaned seed, germination 96% $12 per 100 lbs.

CHAMPION SNAPPER 140

Grown by R. E. Karper from breeding block seed furnished by Chillicothe Experiment Station where the 140 strain originated. This is an early maturing, lightweight bur cotton bred by Texas Experiment Stations for the South Plains where cotton is snapped. Its light burs enable gins to make better grades from snaps and give higher turnouts. Made ⅞ to 31-32 staple. KEMGAS DELINTED, CERESANED SEED, $10.50 per 100 lbs.

OLD TIME HALF & HALF

Grown in Wilbarger county by Arnold Seed Farms. This is the old-time high linting, early, short staple cotton. In Lubbock county in 1943 1500 lbs. of snap made 500-pound bale. Planted in May it made lots of cotton of 13-16 and ⅞ inch staple. Planted the middle of June it was gathered before other cotton planted at same time. We sold several cars on the Plains and have found only satisfied customers. KEMGAS DELINTED, CERESANED SEED, $11 per 100 lbs.

Send your order with deposit of $2 per 100 lbs. and we will hold seed for May delivery. Other varieties of Kemgas delinted, Ceresaned seed can be supplied by Kemgas delinting plants in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. For further information address—

DO YOU HAVE AN IRRIGATION WELL?

And would you invest $114 now for a good chance to realize $471.00 profit off one acre in three months?

Onions grow well in West Texas but seed onions have the multiple hazards of wind damage, freezing, hail, and late maturity, while onions transplanted have only the hail hazard. We have onions out which have 100% survived the conditions of the past three weeks, including the 16 degree freeze. Bermuda onions are all right transplanted up to May 1st, and Spanish Onions to May 15th. The Bermudas mature about July 10th, the Spanish around August 1st.

The country has had an onion famine and it will take hundreds of carloads to give everybody a sample. In May the supply will be more plentiful, but the June prospects in North Texas are estimated at 20% to 25% of normal. That gives the market about 40 days to clean up before the maturity date of Bermudas out here. I have yellow Spanish on hand now, and will have yellow and white Bermudas and White Spanish for sale at the Three Circle Farm, 3 miles west of Shallowater, in a few days.

It takes 18 crates to get an acre in 20 inch rows. Yellow Spanish are $4.50 per crate of 6000, yellow Bermudas $3.00, White Bermudas and Spanish $3.50.

We are getting them set out for an overall cost of 35c per thousand.

The ceiling prices set by the O.P.A. are liberal and already buyers are offering high prices for acreage around Farmersville.

Come out and look the deal over. We are transplanting about 50 acres and should wind up about May 1st. You can't sell onions high next summer unless you take a chance NOW.

Increase Seen In Texas Wheat Crop

AUSTIN, April 14 (AP)—The outlook in Texas is for an eight per cent increase in wheat production this year, the United States department of agriculture said today.

The USDA tempered this optimistic forecast by saying that because of the lateness of much of the high plains crop, prospects on April 1 were more uncertain than usual, and conditions during the remainder of the season will have important bearing on the final out-turn.

The prediction as of April 1 was for 39,338,000 bushels, 40 per cent better than the ten-year (1932-42) average. Wheat stocks on farms were estimated at 2,364,000 bushels, compared with 7,590,000 a year ago and the average of 1,676,-000 bushels.

Further in review of current agriculture, the USDA reported:

Egg production in March hit a new high of 458,000,000; pasture conditions were 82 per cent of normal April 1 compared with 65 per cent last year; condition of peaches was 63 per cent, below average but better than last year.

Corn stocks were 22,298,000 bushels, compared with 18,006,000 a year ago; oat stocks were 4,792,-000 bushles, wel labove last year's estimate of 2,915,000 bushles but 47 per cent below the average of 8,965,000.

3 Keys to HIGH EGG PRODUCTION

1. Buy Good Chicks
2. Practice Good Management
3. Feed Stanton's Manamar Chick Starter

Most poultry authorities agree that profitable poultry raising depends largely on three important factors . . . good chicks, good management and good feed. Our job is to produce good feed that will combine with your good chicks and good management to get your flocks off to a flying start on the road to high production and profit. We have just such a feed in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter. A blend of locally-grown grains, ManAmar and B-G Plus, it is rich in the vitamins, minerals and proteins which promote vigorous growth in baby chicks.

B-G PLUS is a patented vacuum concentrated extract from fish, resulting from ten years of ceaseless research and experiment. It supplies extra trace minerals and vitamins in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter.

MANAMAR in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter supplies the hard-to-get feeding essentials—fish proteins, food minerals and vitamins, including the important Vitamin B "Complex," necessary for fast growth.

ManAmar and B-G Plus have been developed and are produced in the laboratories of Philip R Park, famed live-stock nutrition authority. These laboratories have approved the formula for Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter. Let the records of users tell the rest of the story. Get all the facts today.

Bad Medicine Brewing For Japs In New Guinea Area

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Both extremities of the Japanese Pacific outpost line, New Guinea in the southwest and the Kuriles in the northeast, have come in for intensified air attacks recently to stir expectation that new American or Allied moves are impending.

SIMPSON

Those attacks must also be sharpening Japanese apprehension. Linked with enemy knowledge that planes of super-range and hitting power have long been in production in this country but not yet flown in action so far as known, the attacks in the Kuriles have an ominous significance for the Nipponese home front.

Yet it is southward, on New Guinea, that the greater threat to the whole Japanese conquest design may be developing. With the Bismarck archipelago cleared of the foe, or his remaining garrisons isolated and doomed, General MacArthur is shifting his attention to the south boundary of that area highroad to the southern Philippines. His bombers are pushing the preliminary attack up the New Guinea coast line into the Dutch end of the big Island. And the northwestern tip of New Guinea is only 600 miles from the southeastern tip of Mindanao in the Philippines.

None of the Pacific islands or atolls in the lower Pacific except New Guinea could well be used effectively as a base of major ground troop concentration for a return in force to the Philippines. That huge, half-Australian-half Dutch island may not be the land bridge by which MacArthur expects one day to lead an Army back into the Philippines, but it has possibilities.

The general long ago discarded an island hopping technique. The Bismarck operations, for which Admiral Halsey's fleet and air power were merged under overall command so effectively, employed the bypassing method instead. Unquestionably it cut many months off the time it would otherwise have taken to reach the objectives now secured.

With the Bismarck Sea objectives attained, however, except for such mopping up as is still to be done, and a junction with Admiral Nimitz' fleet and air power in the Central Pacific expected, MacArthur appears to be shifting his direction. His bombers are blazing the way for his ground troops in the next phase of the strategic design credited to him.

Whatever Allied Pacific strategy may prove to be from here on, something is brewing in New Guinea that has definitely ill portents for Japan.

Richard I. Bong Is Most Envied Man In U.S. Army Air Corps

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, April 15 (AP)—Richard I. Bong, America's No. 1 ace, is probably the most envied man in the U. S. Army Air corps today because:

1—On Wednesday, he shot down his 27th enemy plane to become the top-ranking combat fighter pilot in American history.

2—On the same day, the 23-year-old Poplar, Wis., pilot was promoted from captain to major.

3—He qualified for a case of Scotch whisky offered by Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, America's World war I ace, to the first man to exceed his 26-aircraft record.

A special headquarters release today announced Bong's promotion and his qualification for the whisky but did not reveal how he or Rickenbacker would be able to obtain a case of Scotch.

RICKENBACKER PLANS TO FULFIL HIS PART

NEW YORK, April 14 (AP) — Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker said today that during a visit to New Guinea he promised a case of Scotch to the first pilot in the area who broke his World war I record, and that General Douglas MacArthur added a case of champagne.

Maj. Richard I. Bong, credited with 27 enemy planes — Rickenbacker's record was 26—has qualified for the reward, Southwest Pacific dispatches said today.

"Where I will obtain the Scotch or how I can get it to Major Bong is not yet known," Captain Rickenbacker said in a statement issued through his Eastern Airlines offices. "But I will not leave a stone unturned to fulfill my part of the bargain."

MEXICAN NIGHT CLUB OWNER OFFERS RICKENBACKER CASE

NOGALES, Sonora, Mex., April 14 (AP)—To "Senor Rickenbacker" was offered today a case of "real Scotch whisky" for presentation to Maj. Richard I. Bong, America's No. 1 air ace.

Demetrio Kyriakis, operator of an internationally known night club, tendered the bonded liquor in behalf of the people of Nogales when he learned Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, the World war ace, had offered a case of Scotch to the first Southwest Pacific airman to exceed his 26-aircraft record.

Bong, according to a special Southwest Pacific allied headquarters release, qualified for the Scotch among other things when he topped Rickenbacker's record with 27.

Kyriakis told a newsman he was awaiting instructions from Rickenbacker. American border authorities, who frown upon transportation of liquor across the border, may have to relax regulations a little, Kyriakis said.

Students Dramatize Pan-American Day

Members of the Spanish classes of the Hunt school entertained their parents with a Pan-American program Friday in celebration of Pan American day.

Charlotte Branum, as Miss Pan America, and Billy Jim Stephenson, as Mr. Goodwill, acted as hostesses and host for the occasion.

Among entertainment features: The Canadians dramatized "Los Tres Osos," (The Three Bears); The Gauchos sang "Alla en El Rancho Grande," "Home on the Range" and "Mexicali Rose"; The Peruvians danced "Tus Manecitas"; The Colombians dramatized "In a Spanish Classroom"; Uncle Sam's Animals dramatized "The Little Red Hen"; The Troubadours from Mexico danced "Jarave Tapatio," and "Vamos a Santa Fe."

Songs, "America," "God Bless America" and "Children of America," and the pledge to the flag were given as a tribute to the American.

Former Football Star Says They're Making "Too Much Of It"

ATLANTA, Ga., April 14 (U.P.)—Capt. Maurice L. Britt, 24, modest, grinning former football star who killed five Germans, saved eight companions, lost an arm, was shot in the side and received grenade wounds in his chest, hands and fare, said today "they're making too much of it" to give him the Congressional Medal of Honor.

Britt, recovering from his wounds at Lawson General hospital, modestly described as a "miracle" the escape of himself and eight companions from 100 Germans who used them as prisoners of war as a screen for their attack.

The former Arkansas university and Detroit Lions football star told much the same story as the War department released in Washington yesterday when he was awarded the Congressional medal.

The Americans bolted, Britt explained, just as the fireworks began, leaving the Germans wide open and under a continuous barrage from American positions.

"Finally we realized that the tide had turned in our direction and on checking up, discovered that all eight of my men had survived," he said. "It was a miracle."

The action occurred north of Mignano, Italy on Nov. 10, 1943. Britt returned to the United States only seven days ago.

Dysentery, Scarlet Fever And Measles On Rise In Texas

AUSTIN, April 14 (U.P.)—Increases in the prevalence of dysentery, scarlet fever and measles were noted today in the weekly morbidity report of the state health department.

During the week which ended April 8, there were 206 cases of dysentery reported, compared with a seven-year median of 15. There were 2,958 cases of measles, for which the median is 1,150, and 134 scarlet fever patients while the median is 50.

The report noted that one of the post-war aims of the dairy industry might well be the control or eradication of contagious abortion (undulant fever) in dairy cattle. Four cases of undulant fever were reported during the past week.

The rising trend of rheumatic fever also was pointed to by the department. There were three cases of it reported in 1942, seven in 1943, and eight have been reported thus far this year.

Like tuberculosis, rheumatic fever is a chronic disabling disease, the report said, and one attack does not immunize against another.

"Undernourishment, chronic fatigue and exposure to severe colds or other infections of the nose or throat are among the predisposing factors to rheumatic fever in children and young adults," the report said. "Effective treatment includes prolonged rest in bed under a physician's care."

MILD EPIDEMIC IS REPORTED IN GALVESTON

GALVESTON, April 14 (U.P.)—Dr. Walter Kleberg, health officer, today reported a mild epidemic of measles had been noted in Galveston.

He estimated there were 300 to 400 cases and said the outbreak was not considered serious.

The Andes mountain chain is more than 4,000 miles long.

Snyder Captain Is In Temple Hospital

Capt. Homer M. Spence of Snyder, dubbed in a correspondent's story from Italy some months ago "the fightin'est Texan in the 36th," headed the 36th division delegation of wounded men on the train which carried them to McCloskey General hospital in Temple Thursday night, according to the Associated Press.

Spence, a farmer who commanded Company F of the 142nd infantry, is looking forward to a reunion with his wife and three small sons. He was wounded in the left arm and left hip by machinegun fire near San Petro, Italy, Nov. 29.

"We were in a defensive position and I was on an observation post. I was pointing out a machinegun position to my men when a machinegun bullet got me."

In this particular operation, Capt. Spence's raiding party took 23 German prisoners without firing a shot.

"We had poured 250 rounds of mortar fire into the enemy position before we attacked. Then a rifle platoon moved in and took the position and the prisoners without firing a shot."

Lt. Leonard Spence, the captain's brother, also with the 36th, is a prisoner of war in Germany.

Onions On Sale Again After Three Months

Lubbock food stores are now displaying dried onions for the first time in more than three months, thus ending the dried onion famine—temporarily at least.

During that time, the only onions available have been in small green bunches at the usual price of 10 cents per bunch.

The famine came to an end when shipments arrived in Lubbock Wednesday and Thursday. The onions are described as being of "fair to good" quality. Prevailing prices are 10 cents per pound, with some establishments offering three pounds for 28 cents. A limit is placed on quantities available to individual purchasers in some, if not most, stores.

Local merchants estimate that the quantity on hand in Lubbock is not more than sufficient to last through the week-end. It is their belief, however, that additional shipments should enable them to keep onions in stock most of the time henceforce.

House Approves Navy Fund Bill

WASHINGTON, April 14 (AP)—Determined to back the fighting forces with every dollar they seek, the House unanimously passed today a $32,647,134,336 naval appropriation bill and got ready for a $50,000,000,000 supply measure for the Army.

The 257 to 0 roll-call that sent the second-largest appropriation bill in history to the Senate followed a single day of debate highlighted by praise of the Navy and expressions of determination to keep it the world's largest.

While the largest fund ever voted for the Navy—a fund expected to build Uncle San's mighty armada up to 6,623 ships in addition to almost 75,000 supporting and landing craft—the appropriation fell some $27,000,000,000 short of the all-time record of $59,000,000,000 voted last year for the Army.

Total Now 362 Billion

It boosts to approximately $362,000,000,000 the obligations for war financing voted since July 1, 1940, of which the Navy's share is estimated at $116,000,000,000. Should the new Army supply bill come up to expectations, the war outlay since July 1, 1940, will mount close to the half-trillion mark.

The new funds carried in the Navy bill are for use during the twelve months starting next July 1, a period during which, top naval spokesmen told the appropriations committee, the war will be carried with telling effect to the doorsteps of the enemy.

While the Navy's "big part in the war lies ahead," Chairman Sheppard (D-Calif) of the naval appropriations subcommittee told the House the outlook for the future is for "a marked decline" in naval expenditures.
