Going beyond the statutory purposes for which it was called, however, yesterday's wet convention by resolution made Chairman McDonald, the 31 wet delegates and 31 wet alternates a committee to carry on the battle.

McDonald was authorized to select an inner committee of not less than five.

Joe Ferguson Case Ends In Mistrial

A mistrial was the result of the case of the State of Texas vs. Joe Ferguson, which was called for trial in the 91st district court Monday morning. Ferguson was charged by indictment with having broken into the shop operated by Z. T. Short about May 15 and taking therefrom some threading dies and an electric drill, which he attempted to convert to his own use.

Most of the time Monday was consumed in selecting a jury and in taking evidence, the case being submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Judge Davenport dismissed the jury at 4 o'clock Tuesday when it reported that it stood 11 to 1 and had no hope of ever reaching a verdict.

Two More States Join Wet Parade

Sixteen states of the 26 necessary have approved repeal of the 18th amendment.

California and West Virginia added their voices yesterday.

The California vote gave the wets a majority expected to exceed 3 to 1. Traditionally dry Los Angeles gave wets a 100,000 lead. San Francisco was wet 16 to 1.

In West Virginia, considered a doubtful state until the polls opened, the wet majority was expected to approximate 2 to 1.

MEXICO CITY, June 28.—An oil camp water carrier was under arrest at Matatlan today, after confessing that the falsely reported seeing the bodies of Capt. Mariano Berberan and Lt. Joaquin Collar beside their wrecked trans-Atlantic airplane on an island in a coastal lake.

AUSTRALIA IS READY TO JOIN WHEAT CUTTING

LONDON, June 28.—Australia was believed ready to join in international wheat acreage restriction, under certain conditions today after receipt of fresh instructions.

The rapid shifting of the controversy over wheat—involving chiefly the United States, Australia, Canada and Argentina, had appeared doomed early today, but later messages from the Australian government appeared to alleviate the crisis.

Stanley Bruce, representing Australia, immediately asked the four powers to attend an urgent meeting this afternoon. However, the Argentine delegate was not available and the meeting was postponed until tomorrow. It was understood Bruce would announce new restrictions under which Australia would enter the agreement.

Investigation followed the shooting despite Wynne's dying statement it was accidental. Disappearance of the trio of companions aroused suspicion. Officers said their story differed from Wynne's.

Health Education Gets Expert's O. K.

TORONTO, Ont.—Emphasizing the importance of general health education if mankind is to continue his progress in combating disease, Dr. Kendall Emerson, managing director of the National Tuberculosis association, pointed out at the 29th annual meeting of the organization that "such success as has been achieved depends more upon keeping epidemics away from man than on teaching man to keep away from epidemics."

Leaders in tuberculosis work of the United States, Canada and Great Britain are gathered here for conferences, which will continue for five days.

"The future doubtless will show," said Dr. Emerson, "still further triumphs in preventive medicine, but sooner or later the influence of forces applied from without is going to reach a limit, and from then on progress will depend on man's acceptance of his individual responsibility for his own and the community's health. This will depend on a health education system of vastly greater efficiency than the measures already devised."

"Despite the attempt to legislate him healthy, despite the police power of health departments to force health upon him, wayward man in the mass travels the old pathways of superstition and blindness which guided his ancestors through the centuries."

Dr. Emerson predicted that the results of cutting health budgets would be especially damaging where communities have curtailed public health nursing.

Mr. Emerson indicated the importance of medical and social research in the field of tuberculosis. He urged that in the absence of a specific cure, efforts should not be relaxed to find early cases and place them under treatment in such environment that they cannot possibly be a focus for further spread of the disease.

Gold Standard Abandonment In Europe Foreseen

LONDON, June 28.—An appeal to Secretary of State Cordell Hull for aid in currency stabilization having failed, the gold standard countries of Europe met privately today and tried to organize a gold standard defense league.

While representatives of the Central Bank of the Continental gold countries met in a committee room of the conference Montagu Norman, governor with the Bank of England, conferred with representatives of the Bank of France.

Texas Game Fish Valued at Millions

AUSTIN, June 28.—Scouring through the underbrush and hiding in streams of Texas are game fish estimated to have an annual value of $23,510,860, according to the U. S. biological survey.

This vast wealth contends the Texas game fish and oyster commission, is without adequate protection. Its conservation program has been crippled by lack of funds.

To fill the gap, Texas sportsmen have been asked to volunteer in the task of conserving the state's wild life.

Texas leads the nation in the estimated value of its game. Annual meat and fur values of game in Minnesota, second state in the list, total only $7,244,876. The geological survey also estimates the combined annual positive value of all wild life in Texas are $94,350,394, nearly three times as great as the next ranking state.

MADE $960,000 AS CUSTOMERS LOST MILLIONS

Kuhn, Loeb Partner Says Coolidge Administration Department Vouches For Bonds.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and their associates were shown today to have taken $925,000 profit in underwriting a defaulted $20,000,000 Chile mortgage bank bond issue which they contend the Coolidge administration commerce department vouches for before distribution to American investors.

The $20,000,000 issue was the first of an aggregate of $90,000,000 sold to American investors at a current loss to the purchaser of $74,000,000.

The senate investigation revealed that the Coolidge administration commerce department in 1925 described as "safe and successful" the operation of the Chilean Mortgage bank, which since that time has defaulted the securities.

Benjamin Buttenwieser, partner in Kuhn, Loeb & Co., revealed the commerce department report prepared by a special agent of the department bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

The witness indicated that the report was a factor in his company's decision to underwrite the issue.

A moratorium proclaimed by a revolutionary Chilean government in July, 1931, led to default of the loan two months later at a cost of American investors of $74,000,000 in shrinkage of the capital value of the securities which are now quoted at $13 to $14 per $100 of par value.

It was for assistance in negotiating this loan that Norman H. Davis, President Roosevelt's European ambassador at large, was paid a $35,000 commission.

Legion Posts Get Communication On Presumptive Cases

The American Legion posts of this section of the country have received communications from Wynn Goode, department service officer of the department of Texas, to the effect that the special presidential boards which will be appointed to review the folders of World war veterans whose disabilities have been connected with the service by presumption, will very probably be required to base their decisions and findings upon the evidence as shown in the veterans' folders.

It is, therefore, of the greatest importance, the letters say, that the veterans immediately obtain any lay or medical evidence available which would indicate that their disabilities resulted from the military or naval service, especially in those cases which were presumptively connected on first showing of disability more than one or two years after discharge.

Rifle Range To Be Discussed at Meeting In Ranger Tonight

A meeting of the members of the rifle clubs of Eastland, Breckenridge and Ranger has been called for tonight at 7:30 at the office of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of discussing plans for a rifle range for the three clubs.

Tentative plans call for the building of a range at Morton Valley to be used by the rifle enthusiasts of each of the three cities, with shoots to be held every Sunday afternoon throughout the shooting season.

Joseph Weldon Bailey has been outspoken for repeal. He deserves credit for being honest in his convictions... whether in right or wrong. He has the things of being a valuable pub-servant. We cannot demand that a person agree with us on every subject, and that portion of contact certainly entitles him the respect of both sides of the question. Party loyalty does not compel digressions to brand it as just. Actions and honest opinions spoken in terms of firmness are for honesty and loyalty.

As your conscience dictates that the privilege of every franchise that has a ballot franchise, one thing above all others, we should spread in some instances it is treason for our United States senators to oppose the issue repeal will not make any impression upon the people to the extent of causing them to believe in a rot.

Texas can well feel proud of its Connally and Morris Shepard regardless of their personal opinions concerning the liquor issue. Therefore it behooves every citizen to weigh all the facts in his mind involving the issue, and remember that these outstanding United States senators are merely following the dictates of their own heart and would be criminal almost to the prohibition issue create a respect for them or hamper their chances to serve the people in this most important office. To this most important office, to the fact that their political future stake because of their following the dictates of principle would only the result of a fanatical and for selfishness and would not answer the question of real service. Texas could have no better representatives for good government.

and now for the little matter of bank for Eastland that hasn't been settled yet. It has been said "it can't be done." What an advance of defeat for a bunch of business men that really think nothing of their community. If stigma of nonchalance and indifference could ever be impressed upon the forehead of a community, this would certainly be the way to start.

We say it can be done. We say that any business man that will attempt to let Eastland go out as a town that doesn't give a hinker's whether they have a bank or not deserves to suffer the result of folly and negligence. Think of the moment about Strawn, a town of around 1450 population with two National banks that are rated as two of the strongest banks in the state. And then there is Gorman, a city of 1154 with a strong financial base—a good one. And there are other cities in Texas with populations less than 2000 that have one and two banks that have weathered every handicap and are out with glowing colors. And here is Eastland, a thriving city of 5,000 people that can't have a bank. They say, "It can't be done." What an admittance of defeat.

What heaven's will say. But by the heavens any business institution or any individual business man that will get out on the platform and make that statement and himself as a failure to do with. There is no such thing as "can't" unless somebody is holding the idea of a bank. Now we have time to step out in the open and declare yourself. What are you going to do. Are we going to

TOM CONNALLY PLANS A BUSY SUMMER

Sen. Tom Connally of Texas is a member of a very important committee has a busy summer ahead. Mark you, he is chairman of the senate campaign funds investigating committee. Following adjournment he called the committee to meet to discuss plans to resume an investigation into the 1932 Louisiana democratic senatorial primary.

Really, it is to be one of the top-notch series of political news items of the summer months. General Stephen Ansell handled the first investigation as a lawyer of the committee. Well, the Kingfish attempted to run the whole show. Now there is to be a second investigation.

Colliers' Weekly sent Walter Davenport to Louisiana to cover "political conditions in the Pelican State." His first blast, in a news sense, was a very remarkable story. His second contribution to the political literature of the summer months will be given space in the weekly in the near future. All of which is a reminder that Col. William Randolph Hearst has broken with the democratic administration and that Kingfish Long promises to organize a bloc of his own in December—this is in advance of the congress convening in regular session. Connally has backbone. He has a level head. He believes in a fair deal as well as a "New Deal" and should a showdown come the Kingfish of the hill country of Louisiana will not be permitted to browbeat or intimidate members of the committee or the witnesses called before the committee.

Justice should be done. If the Kingfish is able to show a clean bill of health, speaking of the Overton charges, then he should be given a snow white certificate of vindication and the right of Overton to a seat in the senate should not be questioned. Fair play is the play of real sportsmen and a real sportsman never strikes a blow below the belt.

GERMANY SEEKS COLONY UNDER SKIES OF AFRICA

Germany has a delegation of very influential and far seeing men at London. Germany asks the world and the world economic conference for an African colonial empire. As for the memorandum submitted, this was the foreword: "We Germans are poor devils and we have nothing to lose . . . Germany is at the head of the battle against the complete destruction of the Occident and if Germany perishes, all other peoples will perish with them." Great Britain has vast colonial empires in Asia and Africa and North America. France has colonial empires under all the suns of the world with the sole exception of North and South America. Belgium has colonial empires. Italy has colonial empires. Holland has vast possessions. Japan is creating Japanese empires in the heart of Asia.

Why not Germany in Africa?

It is impossible to keep in bondage a great people, regardless of nationality or creed or color. Soviet Russia is an outlaw nation. Soviet Russia has been blacklisted by the great powers of the Caucasian world. Blacklisted and why? Well, the Romanoffs (before their passing) borrowed billions of dollars from the subjects of Great Britain and France and lesser sums from other nations or peoples.

A new nation was born in the Slav world.

Red leaders (so-called) repudiated the borrowing of the Romanoffs and financial kings of the Caucasian world placed the boycott on the Slav Soviet not because of the communistic gospel but for the reason that the Soviet dictators had repudiated "sacred financial obligations." Well, in very recent time powerful European nations have repudiated "sacred financial obligations." So why worry about the five year plan or the 10 year plan or the successes or failures of the Stalin policies of government?

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

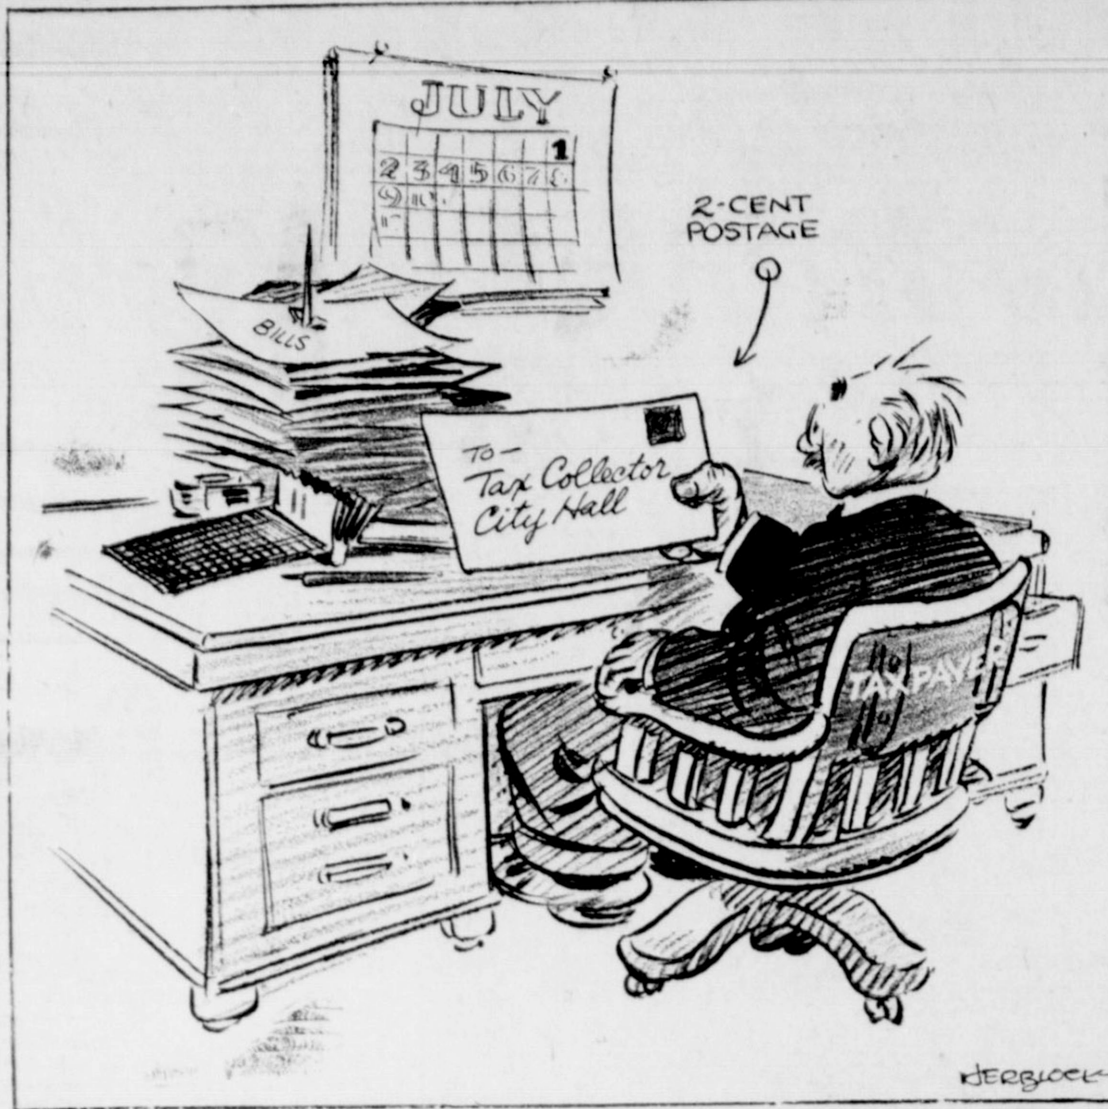

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

It has often been said that one language common to all people would do more than anything else to abolish aggressive nationalism and prevent future wars.

If all spoke the same language, it would be a difficult matter for politicians to juggle words so easily and to send out their own translations of speeches of foreign politicians when it is desired to arouse a people to wrath in the interests of themselves or the big business behind them.

No intelligent observer can review the events of the reign of Mussolini, and now Hitler, or any of the other dictators whose voice is powerful in Europe, and fail to note the fact that they each and every one talk a different language, or to note the fact that the days of dictators are spent in the organization of those to whom they dictate in preparation for war.

SCHOOLBOY track stars like little Jesse Owens are as hard to find as a rooster with a toothache. The Cleveland Negro brought the customers to their hind legs yipping incoherently when his flying spikes ripped off 100 yards in 9.4 seconds in the recent National Intercollegiate meet at Chicago and today track experts are wondering if Ralph Metcalfe, Marquette's brilliant Negro speedster, will be able to catch him. They collide in the 100-meter dash in the National A. A. U. meet at Chicago in July.

Cronin's Comeback

IN the early days of the current American League campaign Joe Cronin, Washington's boy pilot, found balls tossed by opposing pitchers about as easy to hit as the winning number in the Irish sweepstakes. His batting average was in the .100s and stayed there several weeks.

Now young Mr. Cronin appears to be in stride. His average has swelled to a round and healthy figure. Recently a home run, 10 total bases, exploded from his bat in a single game. Those hits drove in five runs.

Today baseball's crepe hangers are singing young Mr. Cronin's praises, where only a short while ago they were whispering that managerial duties had washed up a brilliant young ball player.

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Stewed apricots, cooked cereal, cream, white toast, coffee, milk. LUNCHEON: Vegetable salad, cream cheese sandwiches, orange Bavarian pudding, tea, milk. DINNER: Baked pork chops stuffed with bread dressing, fresh string beans, lettuce salad with French dressing, corn muffins, fresh fruit, coffee, milk.

Mixed Vegetable Salad

A mixed vegetable salad is a deviation from the traditional potato salad always found at picnics. Here's the way to make it: To one cup each of cooked green peas, carrots and string beans, add three tablespoonsful each of chopped onions, radishes, celery, green pepper, cucumber and tomato. Mix them lightly with mayonnaise to which has been added a dash of fresh lemon juice. Arrange the salad on a bed of hearts of lettuce in a deep bowl, cover the top with oiled paper, tie it on securely and pack in the basket. Sandwiches for picnics should be of the variety which are not juicy. In the first place, too moist fillings will soak into the bread and, secondly, they'll drip and ruin the clothes of the picnickers.

Outlaw Left Large Ranches to Son

DALLAS.—A strange story of large ranches left in Texas by a notorious outlaw a quarter of a century ago has come to W. R. Bumpass, deputy clerk in probate court here, and he is searching county records for substantiating evidence.

The story was pieced from letters received from Kansas. The author of the correspondence with Bumpass told of being sent north into Iowa in search for George Thomas' son a short while before the outlaw was slain in Kansas in 1907, of finally finding the youth more than 20 years later, and now of his desire to help the young man get the fortune in land left by Thomas.

Possible verification of the anonymous writer's story may be obtained in a reference found by Bumpass while searching through musty files. In records of a suit by a railroad company against the estate of Horace H. Thomas there is mention of two heirs, George A. Thomas and George H. Thomas. The estate includes large ranches scattered over Texas.

Enthusiasm of farmers for pneumatic tired tractors is making tractor manufacturers seek higher speeds to make the tractor more valuable for hauling or travel, and for use as an all-purpose farm machine. The most interesting speed performance is the recent official American Automobile Association AAA record of 35.4 m.p.h. for five miles made by a tractor at the Wisconsin State Fair Grounds AAA race.

Thousands of people watched Albert Schroeder, a prominent Waukesha county, Wisconsin farmer, using a new Allis-Chalmers standard farm tractor equipped with the new Firestone
Low Pressure Tractor Tire, plow several rows of the hard uneven ground inside the race track oval.
Mr. Schroeder then unhitched the plow and turned the tractor over to Frank Brisko, famous race driver who was one of the two leaders in the first 100 miles of the Indianapolis Race this year.
The crowds were amazed to see the tractor streak down the straight stretches—at times traveling 40 miles an hour.

A new four-speed transmission development combined with the pneumatic low pressure tire development made possible this unheard of speed.
At the end of the run, Frank Brisko, asked how he liked the ride, said "It was just like driving a passenger automobile."
The new highway speed and comfort now available in farm tractors show how completely the tractor, with these big tires, serves as an all purpose machine.
Demonstrations in all parts of the country have proved to farmers that tractors using these tires give greater fuel economy in farm operations, greater traction, do not pack seed beds, make the farmer's work easier, and save time as well as money.

Farm Tractor With Air Balloons Makes New Record

Frank Brisko, noted racing driver at wheel of tractor with which he set an official world speed record of 35.4 m.p.h. for five miles. The other helmeted racing driver is Chet Gardner, and beside the big tire are Bill Cummings, left and Shorty Cantlon, right—all famous race drivers. Behind the driver is Al Schroeeder, farmer who gave a plowing demonstration with this Firestone air tired Allis-Chalmers tractor. At the left is the $30,000 F.W.D. racing car Brisko drove after the tractor run.

Engineer Foresees Mining Comeback

By United Press
SAN FRANCISCO—John Hays Hammond, the first mining engineer in the world to draw a $500,000 a year salary, is enthusiastic over prospects for a huge "comeback" in mining in the western states.

Born in San Francisco in 1855, Hammond has for weeks been busily engaged in several Nevada and California mining developments. Ripening old age fails to prevent him from taking a personal part in the actual development of the several projects in which he is interested.

Eleanor Ruth Ferguson has been a popular member of the younger set and her friends are loath to have her go.

Burglars Steal a Sound Machine

By United Press
SEATTLE, Wash.—"Scientific" burglars raided the Portola theatre here, taking only motion picture sound machine equipment.

"These articles will be used in beneficial research work," said a note left by the burglars. It was signed "The Scientists." Police said they believed the prowlers to be skilled technicians, needing the equipment for home laboratory experiments. They showed familiarity in dismantling the machines.

We always knew those cosmic ray scientists would finally get around to something practical. A Franklin Institute professor announces the invention of an "atom weighing machine, which is just the very thing for weighing our bankroll.

That Reminds Me

have a bank or not? Condemn the Eastland Telegram and all its personnel if you want to, but we had rather go down in defeat for the cause of the best interests of Eastland than anything we know of. But when will we see that Eastland has a bank. Lets drop every thing until we get one. Don't let any body kid you that we can't have one. You men with financial resources, come on. No body wants you to put your money into something for charity, and nobody expects more of you than they do of the towns, in general. But there is no reason on earth why anybody should stamp Eastland as a failure, nor be responsible for it. It is just as important to call the citizens of this city to the cause of a good financial institution as it is to follow the propaganda following the president's agenda for a new deal.

People are crying "Vote for repeal because the president and the Democratic platform calls for it." "Raise salaries because the new deal calls for it. Put people to work because the new deal calls for it. Plow up the cotton because the new deal calls for it."

All right, every community in the shuffle must take care of itself in order to meet the needs of the new deal. Eastland people are responsible either for the success or failure of the community. Which shall it be? We say that a bank is the most important item before the people of Eastland today, and by all that's Holy, the man that says that we can get along without it simply doesn't give a whoop for himself or Eastland either.

The financial disasters of the past are being wiped out—a new era is in the making. Things are being worked out for the future, and the idea of finding it necessary to run to Cisco or Ranger to get "change for a quarter" is getting on everybody's nerves. Now, what are we going to do about it?

Eastland trade trippers paid Staff a visit Tuesday night with the usual program. Thursday night they go to Rising Star. Large crowds have been in the trek and large crowds have enthusiastically greeted them. Nothing like getting together folks, and it is only hoped that the trips can continue for many months to come.

After all, Eastland is one of the best towns in this entire section. No wonder most of us are sold on it. It has wonderful possibilities, and it has the people to make those possibilities a reality.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

WITH RODNEY DUTCHER

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON — "Whoa!"

That's the expression unanimously used by the people charged with rescuing us from the depression when anyone becomes exuberant on the theory that permanent recovery already has begun.

It's one of the most remarkable phenomena of the "New Deal" administration Roosevelt at his press conferences cautiously admits a little encouragement, but expresses himself in "hopes."

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins announces a relatively large jump in employment and pay rolls, but warns it isn't enough to keep production increasing.

Industrial Recovery Administrator Hugh Johnson privately warns that there may be a serious crash unless a more solid foundation is built for prosperity. Other officials privately or publicly echo the thought.

THE big sections of the recovery program are still spoken of as "experimental." Nobody professes to assume that they're sure to succeed. Everyone deprecates the importance of the recent rise in industrial production, commodity and securities prices, insisting that there's no evidence for any solid base for such improvement beyond the general belief that a great attempt is to be made to build that base.

The attitude is directly opposite that of the previous administration—that confidence could be restored by ballyhoo.

Of course, Roosevelt and his people have profited by and are anxious not to make the same mistake.

They fear that recent improvements, which may be largely the result of inflation fear, will dim the country's realization of emergency and they won't be gloeful even among themselves until they know that there has been a large increase in purchasing power.

It's a good thing to know that the general business index is up four per cent above this time last year, that freight car loadings are 14 per cent higher, that electric power production is 5 1/2 per cent up, that farm prices have risen along with automobile and steel ingot production.

But members of the "Whoa!" school of thought hasten to point out that department store sales rose only one point in May and that if you count in the fact that there was one more business day in the 1933 May those sales are still six per cent off from May, 1932.

Those department store figures are considered disappointing. (Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)
