UVALDE (AP) — Country singer Johnny Rodriguez led life in the fast lane in the 1970s, with Top 10 hits, television show appearances and friendships with big names in music.

Today, his fate is in the hands of a South Texas jury.

"I'm tired, but other than that I'm just glad that we're close to making a decision here," Rodriguez said outside the courtroom Tuesday as testimony in his murder trial came to an end.

Closing arguments and jury deliberations get under way this morning.

Defense lawyers rested their case without calling Rodriguez to the witness stand to explain why he shot and killed Israel "Bosco" Borrego in his family's home in Sabinal on Aug. 29, 1998.

His attorneys said there was no need to call Rodriguez because others sufficiently told his story — that he shot Borrego in darkness in the early morning hours because he thought he was a burglar.

One of those testifying on Rodriguez's behalf was his older sister Antonia Contreras, a longtime school teacher in Sabinal who helped care for the family home where Rodriguez was staying the day of the shooting.

Ms. Contreras testified family members talked about Borrego as a suspect in an earlier burglary at their home, but that the break-in was not reported to police. She said she warned Rodriguez not to hang around with Borrego because of his criminal past.

Commission gives parking plan first nod

By KATE B. DICKSON
Associate Publisher

Parking regulations, which will keep tractor-trailers, boats, recreational vehicles, trailers and such off the city's residential streets appear headed for law now that city commissioners have voted unanimously on first reading for the proposal.

Also approved unanimously on first reading Tuesday was an ordinance that restricts truck/tractors and other two-ton or higher rated vehicles from idling in neighborhoods for more than 15 minutes at a time.

In order for the proposals to become law, commissioners must vote again in what's known as the second and final reading. If final approval is given, the parking ordinance will go into effect six months after the legal notice of passage is published and the idling law will go into effect when the legal notice is run.

The Commission's vote came after an official public hearing in which about 25 people showed up — a smaller number than has attended two commission meetings where the parking ordinance was on the agenda. At both of those meetings the city officials heard from citizens who spoke both for and against the plan.

Yesterday's meeting had been moved from City Hall to the M.K. (See PARKING, Page 2)

Seventeen proposed amendments will appear on the ballot.

Early voting will be in the Gray County Courtroom, second floor of the courthouse, through Oct. 29. Hours are 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

Applications for early voting ballots by mail will be accepted through Oct. 26. Call the Clerk's office at 669-8004 to apply by mail. Sample ballots are available at the county clerk's office.

State lawyers pondering river ruling appeal chance

By NANCY YOUNG
Managing Editor

Whether or not a decades old controversy regarding the Canadian River land dispute has been settled will be known next week. The latest court action in the battle was in favor of landowners along the river.

The Texas Supreme Court ruled Oct. 5 for landowners in the Texas Panhandle who sued to establish boundaries between their land and the state's ownership of the Canadian River bed.

The land in question is a 37-mile stretch of the Canadian River which winds through Hutchinson and Roberts counties and has been at the center of the controversy since the Sanford Dam was built in 1965 forming Lake Meredith in Hutchinson County. Because of the dam, the downstream riverbed was narrowed.

Land grants in the 1800s gave owners rights to the land bordered by the river.

The ruling cut the state's ownership of surrounding lands in the river area from 14,000-plus acres to 138 acres.

Area sportsmen have watched the case closely. As state-owned property, the river bed was a popular hunting and recreation area for area residents.

The ruling cut the state's ownership of surrounding lands in the river area from 14,000-plus acres to 138 acres.

Mary Jane Wardlow of the General Land Office told The Pampa News yesterday state attorneys are still poring over the decision to determine if the case will go on to the United States Supreme Court.

Country Fair coming!

Red Cross CPR, other classes on tap Flu shots available Friday

The Gray County Chapter of the Red Cross is offering several events during the remainder of the month to guard health and teach safety.

The flu shot is $10; free with a Medicare card.

This Friday, Oct. 15, flu shots will be provided by VIP Home Care along with the usual free blood sugar and blood pressure checks they provide at the Red Cross every Friday from 10 a.m. until noon. The cost of the flu shot will be only $10 but will be given free to anyone who provides a Medicare Card.

Lifesaving classes are also on the Red Cross October agenda with an Adult CPR class from 6-10 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 18. The cost of the class is $20 and that includes the training book and certificate of completion.

They will also give a Community First Aid Safety class which includes adult, infant and child CPR as well as first aid. It will be Friday, Oct. 22 from 6-10 p.m. and then continue the next day Saturday, Oct. 23 from 8 a.m. until noon. The cost is $40 including the cost of the book and certificate. Payment in advance is needed.

All three events will be at the Pampa office at 108 N. Russell. The phone number is 669-7121.

Firefighters attend school

The Hoover Volunteer Fire Department has sharpened their fire-fighting edge.

Nine firefighters attended the 26th annual Canyon Area Fire Control School in September. The school is certified by Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service's Fire Protection Training Division.

John Chesner, Neal Gardner, Shane Story, Danny Holtman, Joe Millican, Deal Linder, Kelly Randall, Paul Budd and Jeremy Winkler attended the two day firefighting school.

In addition to classroom sessions, the group fought fires under controlled conditions. They also trained in hazard material operations, self-contained breathing apparatus use, school bus and auto extractions, certification updates and house fire training.

New satellite pictures provide detailed images for viewers in Washington, D.C.

THORNTON, Colo. (AP) — An image taken by a new commercial satellite allows viewers to easily count the number of cars in a parking lot at the Washington Monument in Washington, D.C.

The image, taken Sept. 30 from the Ikonos satellite owned by Space Imaging of Thornton, shows an unprecedented level of accuracy and detail in photography once limited to spy satellites.

The satellite was launched Sept. 24 on a Lockheed Martin Athena II rocket. It can detect objects on the Earth's surface as small as a card table, or 39 inches square.

Such detail would include individual trees, boats, ships and roads — but not individual people, the company has said. John Coppel, the company's chief executive officer, released the monument image Tuesday.

The images produced are expected to be useful in urban planning, environmental monitoring, mapping, assessing the scope of natural disasters, oil and gas exploration, and for planning communication networks.

The images are expected to be available to commercial customers this year, officials said. Company spokesman Mark Brender told The New York Times that prices will range from $30 to $600 per square mile. A minimum order of $1,000 is required.

The satellite orbits about 400 miles above the Earth at a speed of about 4 1/2 miles per second and circles the globe 14 times a day. Data is stored in a satellite archive and can be made available to customers in as little as a few hours.

Parking

Brown Auditorium in order to accommodate the anticipated crowd.

"I had several people who are for these ordinances call me and say that after the last meetings they were afraid to come to this one," said Commissioner Jeff Andrews. "It's a sad thing to say that people can't control themselves enough that they keep other people from coming."

Andrews was making reference primarily to a confrontation that erupted after one meeting in City Hall when several people with opposite views got into an argument. Police questioned the parties in that incident and no charges were filed.

In his service on the commission, Andrews said the most frequent calls he has received are about trucks.

"Some people are afraid to call the truckers (to complain) and they call me instead," he said.

Andrews related one story in which he said a trucker received a complaint from a neighbor about his tractor idling in the neighborhood. As a result, the commissioner said the trucker ran his truck for seven days. He said the trucker gunned the motor and the tractor was positioned so the fumes from its stacks were drawn into the neighbor's house vents.

"There's something wrong there," Andrews said. "The man only left for 20 minutes during that time, presumably to get fuel."

Andrews said, however, it is a "minority" among truckers in Pampa who show "no respect" for their neighbors.

For that reason, he said that's why the commission has "worked around" the original proposal which was more restrictive than what passed Tuesday.

Originally, the plan called for no parking of boats, RVs, trailers, truck tractors, etc., on private property as well as streets. The commission struck the private property prohibition from the ordinance.

Also, the commission included a section to allow truck tractors to be brought into the neighborhood and parked on private property.

Additionally, a 96-hour provision has been made which will allow RV street parking for guests visiting in such vehicles and for the loading and unloading of the vehicles.

Commissioner Faustina Curry, who made the motion to approve both ordinances, said the group's support for the proposal comes out of calls from citizens.

"I don't know if this solves the problem or not but this is an issue we got so many calls about" in support of restrictions, she said.

Several citizens spoke at the meeting including Frank Whitney, 421 N. Wynn, who said he was there to speak for the truckers.

"I know that none of you people would like to admit it but Pampa is going down the tubes," he said. "You have the PEDC bringing in some cows (dairy farms) ... the trucks are businesses. They are as important as a welding shop or anything else in this town. If we are going to cut anybody some slack it should be the truckers or they are going to leave."

Trucker Lane Conner, 1101 E. Foster, said he has lived in Pampa for 15 years and never has had a complaint about his truck's noise. He says he now parks his trailer outside the city.

"A lot of the noise is not coming from the truckers, it's reefers," he said, referring to the refrigerated units on the front of some truck trailers.

Boat owner Tim Wilson, 812 N. Gray, asked the commission if any of them have a financial interest in mini-storage facilities.

While commissioners started answering, City Attorney Don Lane broke in and told Wilson the question was out of order because it impugned the integrity of the commission.

No commissioner said he or she had ownership in public storage units but several said they rented such units themselves for storage needs.

Speaking before the vote, Mayor Bob Neslage said, "I am for both ordinances. It is a safety issue. There is too much congestion on the streets. I feel very strongly in my heart the majority of citizens are for these ordinances."

Neslage also made reference to "20 or 30" who are against the proposal and that drew the ire of at least one of those attending the meeting.

After adjournment, Alecia Cleveland, who is against the proposals, questioned Neslage's comment due to the number of signatures that were gathered on a petition against the restrictions.

"We had over 1,600 names on a petition from people who don't want the restrictions, not 20 or 30," she said. "We could have had even more but we did the petition in a very short time."

Fugitive nabbed in old murder

ROSWELL, N.M. (AP) — A man wanted in a Houston slaying that has gone unsolved for a quarter century has been arrested after state police got a tip that he might be living in Roswell.

The tip came 25 years to the day after Texas authorities issued a warrant for Manuel Rodriguez for first-degree murder and failure to appear in court.

He was arrested five days later.

State police were told on Oct. 7 that Rodriguez was believed to be living in the Roswell area, said state police Lt. Richard Newman of Santa Fe. Officers investigated and came up with an address.

"They conducted surveillance on the house until he arrived home, and arrested him" without incident on Tuesday, Newman said.

Rodriguez had lived off and on in the Roswell area since fleeing Texas, and had lived continuously in the community for the last six years, state police said.

He was being held without bond in the Chaves County Detention Center pending extradition to Texas.

Rodriguez was accused of shooting and killing Alie Nunez, 23, on June 1, 1974.

Name: Wayne Stribling.

Place, date of birth: March 15, 1950, Pampa.

Schools: Mobeetie High School, Clarendon College, West Texas State University.

Occupation: Retail western wear.

Married: Carol Whitson, Dec. 26, 1971.

Children: Scotty Wayne, 23, Seth Aaron, 20.

How long have you been a resident of Pampa? 20 years.

Hobbies: Horseback riding, fishing, hunting, skiing, gardening.

Organizations: Top 'O Texas Rodeo Association, United Way, Chamber of Commerce, Top 'O Texas Junior Livestock Show.

Church: Central Baptist Church, deacon, sixth grade Sunday school teacher.

What is your outlook for Pampa in the new millennium? I think Pampa has a bright future because of the people we have here. We have a lot of things that we take for granted everyday — available land, water, great climate, clean air, hard-working people with good work ethics. We hear strangers coming into Wayne's Western Wear say that people are so friendly here. We have many positive things to be proud of.

Counseling center helps those in need

This article is one in a series of profiles on the agencies and organizations supported by Pampa United Way. This information is being provided by Pampa United Way as part of its 1999 "Caring Hearts Build Hope" fund-raising campaign.

Frequently, people need help in dealing with depression, grief, anxiety, adjustment to life changes and any number of emotional difficulties. Couples and families may be experiencing major stress in their lives together or feel that something is lacking in their relationships. The Samaritan Pastoral Counseling Center was founded in 1985 to provide psychological and counseling services in an interdisciplinary context that is respectful and supportive of religious faith.

The Samaritan Pastoral Counseling Center recently moved its office to Mary Ellen and Harvester Church of Christ. Tom Johnson, Ph.D., clinical psychologist, and John Southern, licensed counselor, see clients in Pampa on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Plans are underway for the Depression Screening to be held in conjunction with National Depression Day Screening. This screening will be in Fellowship Hall of the church from 2-7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 7.

A new program, which began Sept. 14, is "Children in the Middle." This is a four-hour workshop for parents to help their children adjust to divorce. The workshop will be held in Pampa the second Tuesday of each month from 6-10 p.m. Cost of the workshop is $30 if pre-registered and $35 at the door. Registration is non-refundable.

Childcare is not provided.

For appointments or for more information, call 1-800-318-1725 or (806) 353-1668.

Three law officers slain, two injured, sniper kills himself

PLEASANTON, Texas (AP) — Three lawmen were killed and two wounded when a man with a high-powered rifle lured them to his mobile home with a bogus 911 call and picked them off from nearby underbrush.

The gunman, Jeremiah Engleton, died after shooting himself but also was hit by police gunfire in the incident late Tuesday, Department of Public Safety spokesman Mike Cox said today.

Cox said Engleton, of Pleasanton, had been jailed earlier Tuesday on a domestic violence charge, but no further details were available.

The dead officers were Atascosa County sheriff's deputies Mark Stephenson and Thomas Monse, along with 37-year-old DPS trooper Terry Miller, Cox said. Their ages were not available.

Officials said it was the worst tragedy involving lawmen since the 1993 Branch Davidian assault near Waco that left four federal agents dead and 28 injured. Six Davidians also were killed in the assault that led to a 51-day siege.

"I don't remember anything like this since Waco," Cox said. "Except that there's really been nothing where there's been so many officers killed in Texas in my memory."

Cox said the ambush began with a 911 call from Engleton's mobile home in Pleasanton, about 30 miles south of San Antonio.

Stephenson and Monse approached the home and were immediately met with shots from nearby underbrush, Cox said.

Engleton then apparently grabbed a pistol from one of the fallen officers and returned to the brush.

Miller arrived at the scene and called for backup after spotting the slain deputies. Before he could remove his seat belt, however, he was shot to death through a driver's side window, Cox said.

"I don't think there's any doubt but that he set it up that way," said Atascosa County Sheriff Tommy Williams. "The DPS officer was still in his car, my officers were still in their car. They were all killed in the car. I think he ambushed them as soon as they drove up to the house. I think he killed both of my officers right then."

Officers used searchlights and a police helicopter with infrared sensors to ferret out the gunman, who continued to snipe from his hideout. Engleton turned the gun on himself just before police shot him.

Authorities found him with an additional shotgun and a sack of ammunition.

A Pleasanton police officer and another man also were wounded in the shootout. The two were in good condition today at University Hospital in San Antonio.

The injured were identified as Carl Fisher, 60, and Luis Tudyk, 30. Tudyk worked for the police department. Cox said Fisher had a law-enforcement affiliation but had no other specifics.

Cox said Miller, the slain DPS trooper, was married with two daughters, ages 13 and 22 months. He was the 74th DPS officer killed in the line of duty and the first since 1994.

JonBenet grand jury continues its meeting

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — A grand jury investigating the JonBenet Ramsey slaying returned to work for a second consecutive day today, one week before its term is to expire.

The eight women and four men began arriving at the courthouse at 8 a.m. as about 50 photographers and reporters watched from the parking lot.

Jurors met for nearly seven hours Tuesday, after which they were escorted to their cars by armed sheriff's deputies as part of an increased effort to keep the media at a distance.

This morning, district court officers initially barred reporters from the Boulder County Justice Center, but relented an hour later.

Boulder County spokeswoman Margaret McKinney refused to say who gave the order to ban journalists, but said, "There were a lot of complaints from the public, a lot of frazzled citizens."

The grand jury, which was convened in September 1998, faces an Oct. 20 deadline to decide whether to issue an indictment or a report, or simply disband without comment.

The jurors took the summer off,

Dale Evans put in hospital

VICTORVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Dale Evans, the western movie star and widow of Roy Rogers, was doing well today after she was hospitalized with heart problems and respiratory difficulties.

Evans, 86, was in good condition at Loma Linda University Medical Center.

Tests show she may have suffered a mild heart attack, said her grandson, Dustin Rogers.

Hoover Volunteer Fire Department

Missing boy found in attic

HOUSTON (AP) — A 14-year-old mentally disabled boy turned up in his neighbor's attic this week after spending some three months hiding from authorities and family.

Jose Gamez disappeared in July from his house.

The boy apparently lived ever since in the attic just a few doors from his home, authorities said. Aside from weight loss, Gamez looked healthy, authorities said.

The hideaway was discovered when the home's owner returned after an extended trip elsewhere. He found the inside of his house severely damaged, and called the police.

The owner had no idea his attic was hosting a runaway child, authorities said. It was not clear how long the owner had been away.

then returned to work last month.

District Attorney Alex Hunter has said he could continue the investigation without the grand jury's help. Under state law, a prosecutor can file charges directly if he believes there is enough evidence.

The body of JonBenet, who had been beaten and strangled, was found in the basement of her family's home Dec. 26, 1996. Police have said her parents, John and Patsy Ramsey, remain under an "umbrella of suspicion." The Ramseys have steadfastly maintained their innocence.

Friends Barge in on Couple's Plan for a Vacation Cruise

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I made a serious mistake. We told some friends that we were planning a vacation cruise and when we were going. We always travel alone because who can take another couple 24 hours a day for 12 days? We like to do our own thing our own way.

Well, one couple — good friends of ours — casually mentioned they might be joining us and we are horrified at the thought. Where do people get the idea that they can invite themselves on someone else's vacation? We don't want to insult them or cause hurt feelings. How do we tell them that we prefer to travel alone without hurting their feelings?

HORRIFIED IN FLORIDA

DEAR HORRIFIED: Some people assume they are closer friends than they actually are, and others do not understand boundaries. Waste no time in telling these "good friends" that you use these vacations to privately renew the romance in your marriage — and that as much as you like them, having them along on your vacation would destroy the intimacy. Then cross your fingers.

DEAR ABBY: Several years ago you printed a letter from a woman named Elizabeth, concerning your pecan (or walnut) pie recipe. You printed the recipe along with the letter.

Abigail Van Buren

I tried out both the pecan and walnut variations on my family. They liked both, but preferred the walnut.

In August, I entered a walnut pie (using your recipe) in the San Mateo County Fair. Abby, it not only took first place, but also won the Judge's Choice Award. (The Judge's Choice Award is first place among the first place winners!) Needless to say, I was thrilled.

Since you did say, "Please let me know how yours came out," I just thought you'd like to know. Thank you, Abby.

CAROL TULLOH, SAN FRANCISCO

DEAR CAROL: My congratulations! I'm delighted that the pecan/walnut pie recipe served you so well. Your letter made my day! The recipe was included in my booklet "Dear Abby's Favorite Recipes" (my first of two cookbooks). But for those who may not have time to order it before the holidays, here's the recipe:

ABBY'S FAMOUS PECAN PIE
9-inch unbaked pie crust
1 cup light corn syrup
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1/3 cup butter, melted
1/3 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 heaping cup pecan (or walnut) halves
Heat oven to 350 degrees.

Prepare pie crust. In large bowl, combine corn syrup, sugar, eggs, butter, salt and vanilla; mix well. Pour filling into prepared pie crust; sprinkle with pecan (or walnut) halves.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes or until center is set. (Toothpick inserted will come out clean when pie is "done.") Cool. If crust or pie appears to be getting too brown, cover with foil for remaining baking time.

You can top it with a bit of whipped cream or ice cream, but even plain — nothing tops this! (Serves 8 to 10.)

TIP: The original recipe stated that the pie should be baked 45 to 50 minutes in a preheated 350-degree GAS oven. If an electric oven is used, it may be necessary to add 15 to 20 minutes to the baking time. (Begin testing the pie with a toothpick after 45 minutes.)

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

★ ★ ★ The unexpected opens up a maze of communication. You'll often wonder what is really being said. Ask others for feedback; detach and listen more carefully. You can clear up problems quickly. Excitement surrounds your desires and goals. Friends are unpredictable. Tonight: Make some calls.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

★ ★ ★ Allow others to let off steam; you have little control over their actions, anyway. It takes work and an extra helping of detachment to understand exactly where others are coming from. Confusion marks work relationships and money ventures. Tonight: All's well that ends well!

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

★ ★ ★ You are clearly out of sorts today. Unexpected news could have you regrouping and thinking through a decision. Listen carefully to others. Be open-minded. Allow your ingenuity to mend fences and help you understand. Your personality draws others to you. Tonight: Kicking up your heels.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

★ ★ ★ Demands could be overwhelming; you feel as if calls, messages and errands are coming in from every direction. Screen calls and focus on work. Don't allow others to distract you. Opt to take some work home if you can. You'll accomplish more in a comfortable setting. Tonight: Relax at home and do what you love.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

★ ★ ★ Another clearly doesn't get your message. Try as you might to clear out a problem, communication could complicate the situation. Distance yourself and give a loved one some space. Carefully approach another in the later day, when you are on the same vibe. Wonderful! Tonight: Let the good times happen.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

★ ★ ★ Difficulties surrounding work demand your attention. Your frustration comes out, as you feel like you are playing a game of "Who's On First?" Proceed cautiously with a family member. Build new bridges slowly and carefully. Tonight: Order in.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

★ ★ ★ Unexpected developments in your finances throw you into a veritable tizzy. You pull the wild card. Remember to do some testing or anchoring before you act on any money decision. When you reach out for another, you get a positive response. Tonight: Make time for a visit.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

★ ★ ★ A family member could jolt you. Consider a change carefully. Stay in control. Your vision of what is going on could be distorted. If events aren't occurring as you think they should, stop and pull back. Take some time for you. Tonight: Talk to your best friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

★ ★ ★ Negative thinking could cause a problem. You might misunderstand what another is saying. Stay optimistic and positive. You find that events fall into place. You call the shots; now you can determine what you think of a situation. Tonight: Do your thing.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

★ ★ ★ Unexpected developments occur as you pull the financial wild card. Don't spend money before you get it! A little conservatism goes a long way. You are in the limelight. Follow through on your intuition, while your instincts are right on. Tonight: Listen to someone you put on a pedestal.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

★ ★ ★ You hear news that surprises you, even blows you out of the water. Regroup. Focus on your career. Read between the lines. Assess what is going on at work. Stay clear of office gossip. Remain in sync with your energy. Take the high road, knowing what you want. Tonight: Schedule an important meeting.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

★ ★ ★ Confirm plans; don't play into what you hear around the office water cooler. You know what you need and what your priorities are. Another might not intend to upset you. Listen to feedback; review what is happening. A partner helps you regain control. You impress the boss. Tonight: A must appearance.

LAKE FOREST, ILL. (AP) — Badly in need of a new place-kicker, the Chicago Bears on Tuesday came to terms with Chris Boniol.

The team said it planned to sign Boniol on Wednesday.

Jeff Jaeger, the Bears' all-time leader in field goal percentage at .759, will be placed on injured reserve or accept an injury settlement, the team said in a news release.

Braves' Maddux shuts down Mets in NL opener

ATLANTA (AP) — After all the sniping between the Atlanta Braves and New York Mets, Greg Maddux gave both teams something to agree on — that pitching wins in the postseason.

Maddux put an end to the offensive madness that ruled recent playoff games, and the Braves kept on beating New York with a 4-2 victory Tuesday night in the opener of the NL Championship Series.

"What happened last year, the last 10 years, who cares?" Maddux said. "What matters is now."

Of course, pitching has always been the ticket in October. And after Boston and Cleveland combined for 50 runs in two AL playoff games this week, Maddux restored order from the mound.

"We need three more games. We're on the right track so far," Maddux said.

Maddux worked seven innings, allowing only one run against a Mets lineup that once again had Mike Piazza. A day earlier, Maddux admitted he did not know what was being said in the clubs' trash talking — he said he was too busy watching "Franklin," a cartoon show about a turtle, with his kids.

"He's Greg Maddux. He doesn't have all those trophies because he's lucky," Mets manager Bobby Valentine said. "He did a great job."

Maddux, Mike Remlinger and John Rocker combined on a six-hitter as the Braves beat New York for the 10th time in 13 meetings this year. Atlanta, which sent the Mets into a late tailspin that almost cost them the wild-card spot, has defeated them in 14 of the last 15 matchups at Turner Field.

"Better pitching," Mets third baseman Robin Ventura, explaining the disparity.

Piazza came back after missing the final two games of the first-round win over Arizona because of a swollen left thumb. He drove in the Mets' only run against Maddux with a groundout, and finished 0-for-4.

Piazza did not hit the ball out of the infield. The Braves also stole three bases against the All-Star catcher — he made a poor throw on one attempt and didn't even make a throw on another.

"It doesn't get any easier for us," Piazza said. "They know it's not going to be an easy series."

A crowd of 44,172 — 6,000 short of capacity, perhaps held down by an all-day rain that caused a four-minute delay at the start — saw Atlanta win the opening game of the NLCS at home. The previous two years, the Braves lost Game 1 at home and eventually lost the series.

Every year since 1991, the team that won Game 1 went on to win the NLCS. Atlanta has been in every one of those best-of-7 series.

"It's better to win the first game," Braves manager Bobby Cox said. "You like to win the first one."

Game 2 was to be this afternoon, with Kevin Millwood, who pitched a one-hitter against Houston in the opening round, starting for the Braves against Kenny Rogers.

Maddux, a four-time Cy Young winner and a nine-time Gold Glove, gave an all-around performance in improving to 10-9 lifetime in the postseason. He beat the team that got eight straight hits off him Sept. 29 at Shea Stadium, put down a perfect sacrifice bunt and made several nice fielding plays.

Walt Weiss, making his first start since the last day of the regular season, had three hits and stole a base for the Braves.

Weiss doubled and scored on Gerald Williams' single for a 2-1 lead in the fifth off losing pitcher Masato Yoshii. Eddie Perez homered in the sixth and Weiss hit an RBI single in the eighth.

Cox had been playing Jose Hernandez at shortstop ever since the Braves got him in a late-season deal with the Chicago Cubs. Hernandez was 5-for-7 lifetime against Yoshii, but Cox decided to start Weiss.

"That's not the No. 1 thing we look at all the time," Cox said. "Walt is really a slick-fielding shortstop. Maddux tends to get a lot of ground balls."

Rocker got four outs for a save. As is his custom, he ran in to relieve and, with a runner on second, threw fastballs of 97 mph, 94 and 97 to strike out John Olerud.

Canadian shuts out Sunray

CANADIAN — The District 5-2A football opener couldn't have gone any better for the Canadian Wildcats.

Canadian jumped out to a 21-0 first quarter lead over Sunray enroute to a 49-0 win last weekend. The Wildcats held a 42-0 lead by halftime.

Quarterback Derek Maupin passed for three touchdowns, including two to Nathan Reyes. Capp Culver had the other TD reception. Maupin completed 6 of 6 pass attempts for 135 yards.

George Peyton rushed for two touchdowns and kicked 7 extra points. Peyton scored on runs of 9 and 17 yards.

He led all rushers with 87 yards. Coleman Bartlett also added a touchdown.

The Wildcat defense also got on the scoreboard when Clay Evans had a fumble recovery for a score.

Canadian had 405 yards of total offense. The Wildcat defense limited Sunray to only 73 yards.

Canadian had 17 first downs, Sunray 6.

Canadian is 5-1 for the year while Sunray drops to 3-3. The Wildcats visit West Texas High on Friday night. WT High defeated Stratford 21-13 last weekend.

Wilt dead at 63

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain's extraordinary basketball talent put him in the elite company of athletes like Babe Ruth, Jim Thorpe and Michael Jordan, whose fame transcended sport.

"Obviously, he was both literally and figuratively a larger-than-life sports figure of the 20th century," Atlanta Hawks president Stan Kasten said after Chamberlain, the mighty 7-foot-1 "Wilt the Stilt" who once scored 100 points in a game and prompted the NBA to change its rules, died Tuesday at 63.

President Clinton, speaking at a White House event, also called Chamberlain one of the century's greatest and said, "I hope you will have him and his family in your thoughts and prayers."

Chamberlain was found dead in his bed at his Bel-Air home at about 12:30 p.m. PDT, police said.

Pampa gymnasts earn ribbons at district

SAN ANGELO — Gymnastics of Pampa Level 4 team members recently competed in a District One meet in San Angelo.

The team was led by Danielle Brown, who scored a 33.25 in the All Around for a blue ribbon. Brown also received blue ribbons for her solid performances on beam 9.1, floor exercise 8.85, and uneven bars 8.0. She picked up a red ribbon for her vault 7.3.

Lacie Thompson also won blue ribbons in several events and the All Around where she scored a 32.2. Her blue ribbon events were floor exercise 8.5, uneven bars 8.25 and balance beam 8.0. She had a 7.45 on vault for a red ribbon.

Also earning blue ribbons for Team Pampa was Kelby Doughty. Kelby received a blue ribbon for her beam routine 8.6, and improved her bar score 8.35 and floor score 8.2, to earn two more blue ribbons. She received a white ribbon for vault 6.8. In the All Around, Kelby scored a 31.95 for a red ribbon.

Brittany Klein improved several of her scores to earn blue ribbons on bars 8.15, and floor 8.2. She scored a 7.7 for a red on beam and a 7.0 for a red on vault. Brittany improved her All Around score to a 31.05 to receive a red ribbon.

Competing for the first time, Brandi Holden had outstanding performances for Team Pampa. She earned blue ribbons on floor exercise 8.55, and bars 8.1. Brandi received red ribbons on beam 7.8 and All Around 31.25, and received a white ribbon on vault 6.8.

Keisha Crowell also had standout performances on all four events to improve her All Around score by nearly two points. Crowell received red ribbons on all four events and in the All Around. Her scores were beam 7.85, floor 7.6, bars 7.4, vault 7.3 and All Around 30.15.

All six of the Team Pampa Level gymnasts are in their first year of competition.

Broncos can't weather Storm in Tiger League

Games Saturday at high school

PAMPA — The Pampa Storm played the Pampa Broncos in a Tiger League football game last weekend at the middle school field.

The Storm won the game 20-8. The teams were made up of third and fourth graders.

Nick Burklow started the Broncos on a 10-yard run. However, he fumbled and Taylor Smith made the recovery.

On the ensuing play, Ryne Malone went 25 yards on a run.

Shavious Kelly carried the ball across for the score. The PAT failed.

On the first play after the kickoff, Madison Wilson carried the ball for a 20-yard run. Taylor Aderholt then tackled Lowry Baggett for no gain. Casey Trimble carried the ball across, but fumbled. The fumble was recovered by Corey Stone for a touchdown. The PAT was made by Nick Burklow, making the score at the first quarter 8-6.

Taylor Busse received the kickoff and made a nice return.

J'Mico Mitchell carried the ball 10 yards for a first down.

Dakota Gilleland made a 30-yard run for a first down. Taylor Busse carried the ball in for a touchdown. The extra point was good, making the score 14-8.

The kickoff was received by Taylor Morris. On the first play, Lowry Baggett was sacked by Chris Smith. The third-quarter kickoff was received by Jeremy Busse and returned for short yardage. The game see-sawed back and forth during the third quarter.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Shavious Kelly recovered a fumble behind outstanding blocking by Derek Cantu, Josh Pryor, Nicholas Riley, Josh Mooney and Mitch Bromlow. Ryan Malone went 27 yards for a touchdown.

Cameron Klein was stopped by John Luke Covalt and Kevin Kirkham on the conversion attempt. The Broncos came out passing. Haden Skinner caught a pass for a 10-yard gain.

Heath Skinner ran for a first down, then J'Mico intercepted and the Storm ran out the clock.

All Pampa third and fourth grade teams will play Dumas on Saturday, starting at 12 noon at the high school field.

Miami defeats Fort Elliott in district opener

MIAMI — Miami will try and go 2-0 in District 1-A Six-Man play Friday night when the Warriors journey to Lefors to take on the Pirates.

Miami opened the district season last weekend with a 48-25 win over Fort Elliott.

Trey Rogers led the Miami offense by rushing for three touchdowns. He also added a 26-yard field goal.

Ryan McLoey scored twice for the Warriors, once on a 40-yard run and the other on a 65-yard kickoff return. Nathan Hefley caught two touchdown passes from Curt Smith and rushed for another score for Fort Elliott.

The Warriors held a 30-18 lead at halftime.

Miami is 4-1 for the season and 1-0 in district. Fort Elliott is 4-2 and 0-1.

Yankees worried about high-scoring Red Sox

NEW YORK (AP) — While Red Sox fans look at history and get scared, the New York Yankees look at this Boston team and worry.

They worry about all those runs the Red Sox scored against Cleveland.

They worry about facing Pedro Martinez.

They worry their traditional rival might finally trip them up.

"They ought to be playing the Jets or somebody, the way they're scoring," said Paul O'Neill, who plans to play tonight, fractured rib and all.

The AL Championship Series begins at Yankee Stadium with Orlando "El Duque" Hernandez pitching for the World Series champions against Kent Mercker.

Yes, Kent Mercker. "I guess I was getting to start by default," said Mercker, chased by Cleveland after 1 2-3 innings in Game 4 Sunday night.

Red Sox fans assume the worst, especially against the Yankees. They remember how Thurman Munson and Reggie Jackson kept Carlton Fisk and the great Boston teams of the late 1970s out of the playoffs.

"In the '70s, there was some hatred among the players: Munson didn't like Fisk, Fisk didn't like Munson, the Yankees didn't like Bill Lee," said Yankees coach Don Zimmer, who managed those Boston teams.

"That's not there anymore," Zimmer said Tuesday. "I hate to use the word, but there is some hatred between the two clubs. The way I'm reading the papers now, there may be some between the Mets and Atlanta."

Many New York players didn't think Boston would make the playoffs, and few thought the Red Sox would overcome Cleveland, especially after losing the first two games.

"They take advantage of whatever weakness they may happen to spy on any particular day," New York manager Joe Torre said. "I was one of them that thought Toronto was going to pass them."

Boston was 8-4 against New York this year, one of only three teams to win the season series.

"They have a good lineup," New York shortstop Derek Jeter said. "They have a team that scraps for runs."

Despite the Yankees' compliments, Boston said New York is a clear favorite to go win its third AL pennant in four seasons.

"It is a source of motivation to try to prove everybody wrong. It is obvious we are an underdog," Mercker said. "We were an underdog against Cleveland, but as long as 25 guys and five coaches in that clubhouse don't believe that, there is no situation — you are down five runs early, everyone thinks we are supposed to be down five runs, so what do we go to lose?"

As is usual, the Yankees seemed more concerned about themselves than their opponent, convinced that if they play to their potential, they can't be beat. After all, they've won 10 straight postseason games.

While the Yankees swept Texas in the first round, holding the Rangers to a grand total of one run for the second straight year, the Red Sox lost the first two games against Cleveland, then won three straight, 9-3, 23-7 and 12-8.

Boston outscored Cleveland 47-32. But here's the bad news for the Red Sox: Excluding the 10 shutout innings by Pedro Martinez, Boston had a 7.83 team ERA.
