Gene Merrifield, the Chamber of Commerce Manager, is back on his feet after a bout with "that complaint that's going around," usually called a virus in modern language.

Merrifield has been laid up most of the time since the Chamber of Commerce Banquet on the night of Jan. 26. So, it was only this week that I was able to get the chamber manager's comments on the first banquet ever held in the Scurry County Coliseum.

"It was a great experience and overall it apparently was highly successful," Merrifield said. "That is because so many people put in so much time in planning the banquet and carrying out the program. Of course, some things could have gone off better, but it was a good starter and I'm sure everyone learned plenty with this first banquet in the coliseum. We should be able to do a better job next time."

Merrifield had high praise for people who worked actively on the banquet, which attracted nearly 600 persons to the coliseum. Some of these included Bill Seale, the banquet chairman; Keith Pitner, in charge of arrangements; Ernest Sears, head of ticket sales; Birdie Barron, in charge of decorations and coordination; and the coliseum staff itself, including Manager Doug McGlaun, his assistant, Glen Barron, and Dafe Johnston.

A lot of others, including members of the Producers, also put in a lot of banquet time, and Monty Montgomery's Snyder High Stage Band was a headliner.

And then, of course, there are C. T. McLaughlin and Roger Mize, who had many personal guests here from out of town. Moreover, McLaughlin arranged for the speaker.

Still on the subject of the Chamber of Commerce, Merrifield advises that "White Buffalo" mail is increasing steadily at the Chamber office.

"People are writing in for information about it. The buffalo has been widely publicized and now the Texas Almanac has asked for a picture of the buffalo to put in its files for consideration of possible publication in future almanacs," Merrifield said.

In 1885, the American writer, Sinclair Lewis, was born in Sauk Center, Minn.

In 1904, a fire virtually wiped out downtown Baltimore.

In 1941, British forces captured the port of Bengasi, Libya during World War II.

In 1943, during World War II, rationing of shoes was announced in the United States.

Ten years ago — A new U.S. space agency, the Advance Research Projects Agency, was established by the Defense Department.

Five years ago — President John F. Kennedy expressed regret that Britain had been denied membership in the European Common Market.

One year ago — Cities in the U. S. Northeast were crippled by a blinding blizzard.

North Viets Attack With Russian Tanks

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The North Vietnamese sent their Russian tanks into the Vietnam war today, apparently for the first time, against South Vietnamese irregulars and their American Green Beret advisers fighting furiously to hold onto a Special Forces camp in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

Reports from Da Nang said a Special Forces sergeant had radioed that only five of the 25 Americans in the Lang Vei camp were still alive—he and four others in the headquarters bunker. He reported a knocked-out tank was on top of the bunker.

The U.S. Command said Lang Vei's defenders destroyed five of the nine Russian T34 tanks sent against them.

The massive assault on Lang Vei, four miles west of Khe Sanh, could be the kickoff of the long anticipated offensive along the northern frontier, which Gen. William C. Westmoreland has predicted will be the biggest enemy push of the war, exceeding the furious assaults on South Vietnamese cities and towns last week.

The campaign against the cities, the largest enemy offensive so far, has died down at most points after eight days, but Viet Cong forces still fought stubbornly in Saigon and Hue.

The U.S. Command said the enemy death toll in the past eight days reached 22,748 by midnight Tuesday. It said 1,768 allied troops have been killed, including 614 Americans and 1,130 South Vietnamese.

Military spokesmen said the North Vietnamese began pounding the Lang Vei camp with artillery at dusk Tuesday, then launched the ground attack about two hours later. The nine Russian tanks rumbled east along Highway Nine, leading the infantrymen through the camp's minefields and three lines of barbed wire.

The camp's garrison—300-400 South Vietnamese and Montagnard irregulars and their American advisers—took cover in their bunkers, and North Vietnamese sprayed the bunkers with flamethrowers to drive the defenders back from rifle and machine-gun ports.

U.S. headquarters said radio contact was lost with the Americans in the camp at 3:10 a.m. but was re-established at 4:20.

U.S. Marine artillery at Khe Sanh fired tons of shells almost on top of the camp after the Green Berets called for close in support. Air Force and Marine fighter-bombers raked the area with bombs, cannon and machineguns.

A U.S. spokesman said heavy contact continued through the night and diminished about 11 a.m., but some fighting continued. U.S. headquarters said radio contact was being maintained throughout the day.

Grand Jury Returns 24 Indictments

A Scurry County grand jury today returned 24 indictments against 20 persons, including two counts of murder with a motor vehicle against Eddie Don Moorhead of Fort Worth.

Moorhead was involved in a motor vehicle collision here Nov. 7 in which two girls — Kay Simmons and Alpha Cross — were killed.

Burglary indictments were brought against Richard Villanueva, John Becerra, Henry Borrego, Isidro Rodriquez, Erineo Botello and Chris Mungia, Jr. They allegedly stole farm equipment near Hermleigh Oct. 29, 1967.

A burglary indictment also was returned against Roy Cannon Burditt, who allegedly stole a saddle Jan. 19. Pete Hoyle was "no billed" on a similar charge.

Forgery indictments were brought against Billie Ruth Carr (two counts), Gordon Proctor, Warren Reed, Jr. and George Wallace (four counts), and Willis Dean Sanders was indicted for injuring the property of another.

Indictments for driving while intoxicated, second offense, were returned against Marion Dan Cruse of Abilene, Harold Ross Joplin of Roby and Erskine Clayton Bourn of Snyder.

Other indictments returned: Theft — Gerald Whitaker of Lamesa and A. H. Edwards of Muleshoe; and Conversion by bailee — Larry Dodson of Snyder.

Also "no billed" were Lawrence Culberson (theft), Charles Lee Hopkins (rape), Ronnie Earl Ryan (forgery) and Vera Cargile (hit and run).

Return of the indictments concluded two days of study by the grand jury.

US, Korea Hold 4th Secret Meet

By K. C. HWANG
Associated Press Writer

SEOUL (AP) — The United States and North Korea held their fourth secret meeting at Panmunjom today on the seizure of the Pueblo, South Korean sources reported. U.S. troops halted 400 South Korean students trying to march on Panmunjom to protest the negotiations.

The South Korean sources said the secret meeting preceded an open session and asserted the United States handed over an apology to the Communists. A U.S. military spokesman denied this. But he did not deny a secret meeting was held.

About five miles south of Panmunjom, U.S. Army troops clashed with demonstrating South Korean college students who tried to march across Freedom Bridge.

South Korean policce said the soldiers fired 20 warning shots, then used rifle butts to halt the students in a two-hour melee. They reported at least 24 students were injured, nine seriously. A statement from the 2nd U.S. Infantry Division, whose unit was involved, said no one was injured.

Most of the students were rounded up by South Korean national police, a 2nd Division spokesman said.

A few students actually crossed the well-guarded bridge but were headed off by U.S. troops and South Korean police.

Even had all the students crossed the bridge, they would have been unable to reach Panmunjom. The way is barred by a fence 10 feet high and gates to the meeting site are heavily guarded.

LBJ Asks New Drugs Bureau

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, calling federal enforcement of narcotic laws "fragmented," asked Congress today to create "a new and powerful Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs."

He also called for an antiriot law that would make it a felony to cross state lines to incite or take part in riots.

In a message to Congress, Johnson said hallucinogenic drugs such as marijuana and LSD present "an insidious and growing threat to our nation's health, particularly the health of young people."

He called for transferring the Treasury Department's Bureau of Narcotics and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's drug abuse control powers to the Justice Department to create the new bureau to clamp down on drugs.

Johnson also called for:

—Top priority to battle organized crime through the Justice Department's series of strike forces "in cities beset by racketeering."

—New laws to make it a federal crime to engage in gambling "as a substantial business affecting interstate commerce." Also, he asked for a measure to preserve the governmentt's taxing authority over gamblers in such a way that it will agree with the Constitution.

Destroyer Breaking Up Off Rhodes

RHODES, Greece (AP) — The U.S. destroyer Bache stuck fast on the rocks off Rhodes today, and the U.S. Navy said she was badly holed and apparently "split from stem to stern."

The 2,500-ton 6th Fleet warship dragged anchor and went aground Tuesday, driven by hurricane force winds and high seas. The weather subsided today, and a flotilla assembled to help the Bache.

Rear Adm. V. G. Lambert arrived from Crete with an 11-man investigating team. A helicopter took them to the ship stranded just outside Rhodes harbor.

The aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt and two more American destroyers also arrived. They and the Bache are ships of the U.S. 6th Fleet, which patrols the Mediterranean. Three tugs were on the way from Piraeus, 300 miles away, and another was coming from a nearby island.

TO DOUBLE MISSILE RANGE

Soviets Refitting Submarines

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviets are reportedly refitting some of their submarines with nuclear missiles capable of achieving twice the range of present weapons from submerged firing positions.

The program to permit the Soviet G Class subs to fire their missiles from below the ocean's surface indicates the USSR has mastered technology pioneered with U.S. Polaris missile-firing submarines, Pentagon sources said.

These sources said the new missiles will have a range of about 800 miles.

U.S. intelligence closely watches Soviet gains in the nuclear weapons field, but sources would not say how this country learned of the G Class refit.

The Soviet navy has some 30 subs in this diesel-powered class. The G Class subs make up most of Soviet submarines capable of launching ballistic missiles. It is not known how many of the G Class boats are getting the new weapons, but presumably all eventually will.

The other Soviet ballistic missile firing submarines are nuclear-propelled, in what is called the H Class.

Over-all, the Soviet Union has some 350 submarines, largest sub force in the world. But most are attack submarines designed to sink shipping or enemy subs rather than to bombard hostile countries with missiles.

U.S. strategists believe the missiles aboard the G Class subs are targeted primarily against strategic objectives in the Eurasian land mass, rather than the United States.

However, the missiles in the H Class submarines, with a range reportedly up to 3,000 miles, are believed targeted against the United States.

The G Class ballistic-missile submarines went into construction 10 years ago and were designed for surface launching of missiles. Submerged launching enables submarines to elude detection much more easily. The G Class submarines mount three missiles in a large conning tower from which they are vert netty. 5 , 5 H Cs subs a ning tower from which they are launched.

Soviets See Syrian Attack On Israel

By ERIC GOTTGETREU
Associated Press Writer

JERUSALEM (AP) — With Soviet officials expressing worry that the Syrians may attack Israel, Defense Minister Moshe Dayan declared Tuesday night that the Arabs are too weak to start another war without help from a big foreign power.

Dayan expressed the hope and belief that the Soviet Union would not encourage the Arabs to large-scale warfare, but he said Israel must reckon with all eventualities and keep its economy on a war footing.

He told a meeting sponsored by the Jerusalem Students Association, however, that despite Soviet replenishment of Arab arsenals and reorganization of the Arab armies, they have no chance now to defeat Israel on the battlefield.

In Moscow high-ranking Soviet sources said Tuesday that the Syrians might be preparing a desperate attack on Israel in April and that the Soviet government wants to stop them. But although the Syrians get their arms from the Soviets, they have repeatedly refused to hew to the Soviet line that political—not military—means should be used to regain Arab land lost to Israel in the six-day June war.

"When it comes to Israel, they don't listen to us," said one Soviet source.

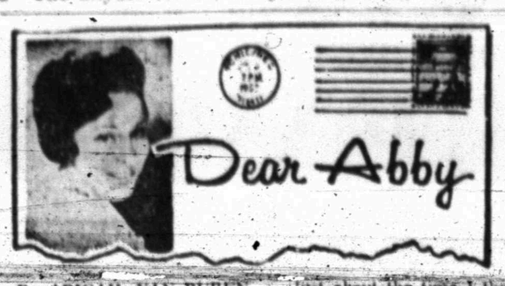

Soviet officials said the Syrian hatred for Israel is so unreasoning that it could explode into suicidal attacks. They added that the Syrian leaders also loathe Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser so much that they might count another military failure a success if it led to Nasser's ouster.

Soviet leaders plan to continue spreading Russian influence in the Arab world by supplying weapons and strong political support. But if another war broke out, the Soviet sources said, Moscow would again stand aside to avoid risking a nuclear confrontation with the United States.

Syria has been fully resupplied by Moscow since the Arab defeat in June. Informants say Syria has received modern T55 Stalin tanks to replace its vintage armor and large numbers of MIG21 fighters and TU16 strike bombers. A Soviet submarine base has been built at Latakia, Syria's northern port, and Soviet ships have steamed into Latakia to unload missiles, tanks, artillery and warplanes for Syrian use.

On Jan. 19, Dayan said he believed Soviet troops had penetrated down to the operative level in the Syrian and Egyptian armies and were even manning artillery and antiaircraft guns.

"I surmise they are in there at the planning stage," the defense minister said, "and if war comes, it will be their decision."

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am dating a man who is very generous. He likes to do, but he has a thing about money. He's not really cheap or anything like that, but he always makes sure I know how much he spends on me.

For instance, he gave me a nice Christmas present, but afterwards he said, "You know, your gift cost me $75?" And if he takes me to dinner and a movie, he later says, "Would you believe that evening set me back $30?"

I enjoy this man's company, Abby, but his always bringing up money makes me feel uncomfortable. My father says he will make a good husband. My mother says he won't. What do you say?

DIANE

DEAR DIANE: I say that a man who makes you feel "uncomfortable" about money when he's courting, you will make you feel miserable about money if you marry him. He may be long on dollars, but he sounds short on sense.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I used to think that only unhappily married women became attracted to other men.

I love my husband very much and have a near-perfect marriage, but for a year now I have been fighting a terrible attraction for another man.

When I first realized how I felt about him I was so upset with myself I couldn't sleep. I became extremely irritable and disgusted with myself. Then I told myself that it was only natural to find this man attractive, that he was just a friend and that is all I'd ever want him to be. So I avoided him as much as possible, but still tried to be friendly so no one would notice.

Just about the time I thought I had my thinking straightened out, my emotions flared up, and I was back where I started from. I don't understand myself. I have no desire to ruin my marriage, but this is driving me crazy and I don't know what to do.

I need some suggestions as this battle with myself has been going on too long.

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: Keep talking to yourself, Sister. And tell youself that this is the stuff of which broken marriages (and broken hearts) are made. Believe me, it is.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: My husband is in business in another town, which is about a two-hour drive from here, so he comes home only on week-ends.

Everything was working out fine until about six months ago when he started bringing me "presents." You see, during the week my husband stays at a trailer court, which is located near the city dump, so every time he comes home he has the trunk of his car filled with junk he's picked up from the dump.

Last week he brought home some moldy shower curtains, hard paint brushes, some rusty nails, and old rags. And Abby, he puts all this stuff in our basement!

If I try to throw anything out there's a big fight. We live in a new home, and I want it to look nice. I never had a moth before, but now I am seeing spiders in my basement and even silver fish!

I am so disgusted, I am ready to give him the whole house for his junk and move out. We own four other houses and have no money worries, but I can't take this. What should I do?

FED UP

DEAR FED UP: Madame, do you need me to tell you that your husband is not behaving in a normal manner? The man could be mentally disturbed. Trick him, trap him, or tranquilize him into seeing his physician. And fast!

Recalcitrant Prisoners Subdued!

Police Patrol Sergeant Jim McKenzie and Patrolman Jim Eggleston received minor injuries during an altercation with two prisoners early this morning at the City police station.

McKenzie sustained cuts on the right hand, and Eggleston had minor injuries to a neck.

Chief of Police Stephen Clark said the incident occurred while the officers were escorting the prisoners to a cell. The suspects — one 26 and the other 16 — resisted arrest and assaulted the officers, according to Clark.

He said the two were subdued with "mace" — a special chemical spray which causes nausea and clouds the eyes. After the altercation, they were placed in jail.

Officers checked to see if the prisoners were injured, but they did not require treatment at a hospital.

The older suspect was charged with aggravated assault on a police officer, possession of a prohibited weapon, drunkenness in a public place, using abusive language and consumption of alcoholic beverages after hours. He pleaded guilty in Corporation Court this morning to the latter charge and innocent to the others. He paid a $25 fine on the charge to which he pled guilty and trial was set on the others Friday morning.

The youth was turned over to Juvenile Authorities.

Both were arrested about 1:45 a.m. today in the 1600 block of Twenty - fifth Street in connection with a liquor law violation.

Mopac Trains Fail To Move Today

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most trains of the Missouri Pacific and the Texas & Pacific Railroads failed to move in Texas again today because of a strike by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The tieup throughout both systems began Monday night because of a dispute over the size of crews operating trains both on the road and in the yards.

Also in dispute was whether the work stoppage would interfere with shipments of military supplies to Vietnam, as a Missouri Pacific spokesman said it would.

A member of the MoPac public relations staff in St. Louis, Harry Hammer, said 23 cars of ammunition at Defense, Tex., near Texarkana, awaited movement to the West Coast and there were carloads of defense material elsewhere.

R. D. Jones, a BRT vice president, declared at Houston that the strike would not affect movement of military goods.

"The brakemen and yardmen are ready and willing to handle any cars concerning the Vietnam War effort," Jones said.

Altogether the Missouri Pacific and its subsidiary the Texas & Pacific operate over nearly 4,800 miles of track in Texas.

MoPac trains run from Texarkana southward to San Antonio, Laredo and Brownsville, up and down the coast, and across much of East and Central Texas. The T&P main line links El Paso and Texarkana via such points as Dallas, Fort Worth Abilene, Midland and Odessa.

About a dozen freight trains a day stopped moving through Dallas alone. Union officials estimated 500 BRT members were idle, plus 700 workers in other unions respecting their picket lines.

The Texas Eagle, scheduled from St. Louis to Dallas, was stopped at Little Rock, Ark. Passenger trains No. 2, 3 and 4 halted at Texarkana.

Supervisory personnel moved freight traffic through such points as Palestine and Big Spring.

Two passenger trains and 108 freight cars were stranded at Taylor. All work was stopped at Marshall and pickets kept shop personnel idle also at Palestine.

Knicks Stop St. Louis

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Knicks, who waited almost half a season before righting themselves with Red Holzman, waited another three quarters Tuesday night before finally overturning the St. Louis Hawks.

A 10-point splurge at the start of the fourth quarter did the trick, turning a precarious six-point lead into a 16-point bulge and the Knicks pounded the Hawks 121-100 for their first victory over St. Louis this season in four games.

The game was the second half of a National Basketball Association doubleheader at Madison Square Garden, following Detroit's 120-93 rout over San Diego.

In other games, touring San Francisco slipped by Chicago 126-124 in overtime and Los Angeles bombarded Cincinnati 146-102 on the West Coast.

FILIBUSTER SHAPING UP

Delay Seen For Rights Bill

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — A filibuster against the administration's civil rights bill is taking shape following defeat of a substitute measure backed by Deep South senators and introduction of an open housing proposal.

After three weeks of desultory debate, developments Tuesday on the bill aimed at protecting Negroes and civil rights workers against racial violence:

—The Senate voted 54 to 29 to table and thus kill a substitute offered by Sen. Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, who had been seeking to work out a compromise, said the vote all but ended hopes for achieving such an agreement.

—Sens. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., offered an amendment that would ban discrimination in the sale or rental of all housing except owner-occupied dwellings containing up to four units.

The two actions generated talk of a filibuster.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., said he favors "extending debate on the civil rights bill as long as is necessary to defeat it."

Mansfield said his intention is "to allow the debate to go on for a reasonable time and then to file a cloture petition and see what results."

To crush a filibuster by putting the Senate's debate-limiting cloture rule into effect takes a two-thirds majority of senators voting.

Dirksen said he didn't think cloture would be voted. He said he would not help a cloture attempt.

Mansfield had said earlier that if cloture could not be obtained the administration bill would have to be shunted aside.

"I am not going to spend the whole session debating this legislation," he said.

Although defeat of Ervin's substitute represented an initial victory for the bill's backers, Mansfield and Dirksen said it also marked the end, at least for the time being, of the efforts they and others have been making to work out a compromise.

"What disturbs me is that we may wind up with nothing," Mansfield said in an interview.

Dirksen said the legislation may be turned into "a Christmas tree bill" with a lot of amendment or there may be "no bill at all."

The administration bill would make it a federal crime to interfere by force or threats with the exercise of specifically enumerated rights because of a person's race, color, religion or national origin.

Ervin's substitute would have provided like protection for all citizens, not just members of minority groups. It also would have included state activities among protected rights.

The open housing amendment offered by Mondale and Brooke adheres to one by President Johnson except for the exemption of owner-occupied dwellings with up to four units. Otherwise, over a three-year period, the ban on discrimination would apply to all housing.

Road Mishap Cost Set At $11 Million

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic accidents killed 53,000 persons last year, matching the 1966 toll, but an increase in travel resulted in a lower death rate for distance covered.

In announcing this today, Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said, "these 1967 traffic statistics support our conviction that the traffic loss of lives and dollars on the highways is an unnecessary expense that the nation can control."

The cost of the 1967 accidents was estimated at $11 billion.

Deaths in December totaled 5,210, up 3 per cent from the 5,040 killed in December 1966.

The 1967 rate was 5.5 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles, a 4 per cent decrease from the 1966 rate of 5.7 deaths. The record low of 5.2 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles was set in 1961. In 1957 the rate was 6.

Mileage traveled in 1967 rose to 970 billion from 930.5 billion in 1966, an increase of 4 per cent.

The council estimated that traffic accidents caused 1.9 million disabling injuries last year in addition to the deaths.

Of the $11 billion economic loss, 3.5 billion came from damaged and destroyed property and the remainder from wage losses, medical expenses and overhead cost of insurance.

There were 103 million registered drivers at the end of 1967 and 100 million registered vehicles.

Unemployment Hits Fifteen-Year Low

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate dropped to 3.5 per cent last month, the lowest level in almost 15 years, the Labor Department reported today.

Total employment at 73.3 million was at an all-time high for January and up 1.1 million from a year earlier, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

The drop in the jobless rate from 3.7 per cent of the civilian labor force in December was due largely to a greater than usual decline in the number of women seeking works, Commissioner Arthur M. Ross reported.

Craft Warnings Up

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Weather Bureau ordered small craft warnings at 4 a.m. today from Port Arthur, Tex., to Pensacola, Fla. It forecast north winds increasing to 15 to 30 knots.

Would Legalize Slot Machines

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — State Rep. Fred Foster has introduced a bill in the New Mexico House that would make slot machine gambling legal in New Mexico. Slot machine gambling would be done on machines leased from a state gambling commission.

Offshore Lands Open To Drilling

By RALPH DIGHTON

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The headlines said simply: "Oil firms offer U.S. record $603 million for offshore drilling sites."

But behind the headlines lay a double-barreled story— of a sorely disappointing finale to a city's years-long struggle to save some of the scenic beauty that made it a haven for millionaires, and of the start of a rich boom in deepwater science and technology.

There's a sidebar to the story too: About an Alabama miner's $9,000 gamble that could pay off in millions.

The headlines came Tuesday with the opening of bids by major oil firms on half a million acres of submerged land off the Southern California Coast.

The companies already have spent $100 million exploring for oil in this major new field, and the $603 million represented bonuses they are willing to pay the federal government for the right to drill there—in addition to $3 an acre annual rent plus one-sixth of the oil and gas the wells produce.

Industry sources have estimated as much as 1.5 billion barrels of oil lies in a vast pool between the California coast and the channel islands, which stretch from Santa Barbara south past Long Beach.

The United States gained title to most of this land when the Supreme Court ruled in 1965, after 20 years of litigation, that California can claim only a three-mile belt along its coast and a three-mile rim around each of the islands.

Late last year the federa government, always looking for new sources of revenue, advised oil firms it could accept bids for oil and gas leases in the channel.

This came as a blow to the wealthy residents of Santa Barbara, 90 miles northwest of Los Angeles. They have opposed oil drilling off their shore on the ground that it would damage both the scenic beauty and marine life.

Although drilling platforms have risen in state-controlled waters on either side of Santa Barbara, establishment of a so-called oil sanctuary buffer zone has kept drillers out of the area immediately off the resort's shores.

Mrs. Gray Shares Tour With Altrurian Club

"Community Affairs" were of first consideration in a recent meeting of the Altrurian Club. The president, Mrs. Ross Blanchard, organized the club's participation in the tasks of Heart Month, and the contribution to the foreign student exchange program was allowed. Attention was called to the spring Art Exhibit to be held in the coliseum.

The program of the day was presented by Mrs. R. L. Gray. The saying that a picture is worth a thousand words was put to a test in Mrs. Gray's presentation of her recent trip to 11 European countries. Her descriptions of the cities, art treasures, country sides and modes of transportation seen through the eyes of a twentieth-century American were as graphic as any picture could be.

Mrs. Gray spoke first of the stay in London. The guide, a person who had spent his life there, reminded the group that Westminister Abbey had been the scene of the coronation of all the monarchs of Great Britain except Edward V and Edward VIII. That 13 kings are buried there, as are Chancer Robert Browning, Tennyson, Handel, and Dickens and that Longfellow is commemorated there.

Windsor Castle with its famous paintings, St. Pauls Cathedral which escaped destruction through the two world wars, The tower of London on the Thames River, built in the eleventh century by William the Conqueror, all were made very real through Mrs. Gray's descriptions.

Equally interesting was the story of her beautiful Sunday drive through the country side to Stratford-on-the-Avon, which is the Shakespeare country.

The crossing to Holland by boat was the next part of the tour, and a nice experience for a West Texan. A new luxury bus was used for much of the travel on the continent. All the Netherlands was a story book scene. The windmills (subsidized by the government) are used to drain the water into the canals, where it is used for irrigation when needed. The friendliness of the people was shown in this guide's remark that the United States got the Netherlands on their feet by the Marshall Plan.

Mrs. Gray's impressions of the cities of Italy and France, the beauty of The Black Forest, of the castles on the Rhine, of the Austrian Alps and the Swiss mountains and lakes with beautiful colored slides, made for an unforgetable hour.

Old Barns, Like Homes, Are Boarded By Memories

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the nostalgic sights you see, as you drive across our tremendous America, is a parade of abandoned farm households.

The purpose of the fields has not been left. The seed is planted, the land yields.

But the presence of a people is no longer there. The weathered boards of home look out with eyeless glaze, because when a house loses its windows it is like a human being that lacks a view. The emptiness of purpose makes you feel uncomfortable.

The barns are sometimes more fully employed. They may be stuffed with the current crop as a kind of warehouse, or have silage sticking out of their lonesomeness, but the barns have an emptiness too.

Homes are built to shelter people in them, and barns are built to shelter animals.

When you see a farm home, old-fashioned though it be, that has no human life within it, and a barn behind it that has no animal life within it to feed, you see in essence the American pathway of peril from simplicity to complexity.

Barns have many functions. In the days of an earlier America they were a sanctuary, a duty, a danger and a comfort.

Oh, the barn. . .it had so many things to do. The warm shelter of the animals, smelling of sweat after their work in the fields. . . the warm human companionship of taking care of them, giving them hay or grain, slapping their leathern sides, holding a hand to a muzzle, scratching behind an ear, feeling by palm the marvelous response of flexibility of skin and muscle, a shuddering that flicks a fly off but doesn't tell you to take your hand away.

All together, the feeling of mutuality, for the crop. . . and against the wind.

And if he were weary of the arguments within the house, or the reading of many books and mail order catalogs, a person could cure his loneliness by going out to the barn and listen to the soft restlessness and reasurances of the animals there, their chomping, their shuffle of stompings, their putting up with time.

Barns, like people, have their own character. Although, as a child in Kansas City, I used to go out in summer and play in country barns, the barn that has haunted my life is one that the city itself had surrounded.

It had been, I suppose, as much of a carriage house as a barn. It still held the hover of smell left by long ago horses. It stood behind a great brick house where old people lived but did not come out anymore, and the unplucked grapes were eaten by birds in a sagging arbor.

Although our parents warned us away from the old barn, we children crept into it secretly and made it our favorite playhouse. Upstairs we found it was a citadel of yesterday, a museum of the Confederacy and that family's service to it—a museum hung with souvenirs of a banished glory.

To us it was as if the Civil War were there, not for us to read about, but to play with.

We put our short legs into the long gray pants, hitched them up with one hand, waved the swords that were there. We put our fingers into reluctant, time-stiffened gloves that had held previous fingers in ordeal. We wore indoors in that dusty barn a military hat that had sheltered another head from rainfall in the century before us—or so I think now, being older and more respectful.

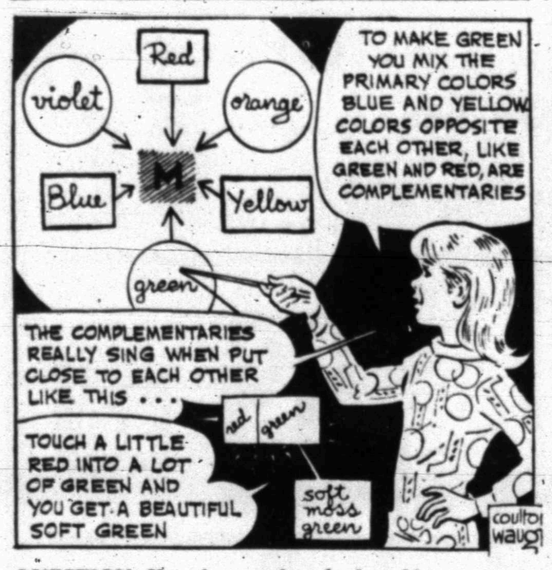

We didn't think about who had worn these clothings before us or why they had been kept. They were only there, intruders as we were, to enjoy by play. It is only when you are older that you conjecture about such things as fatefall, cherish and perish.

At the time we played with them, these remants of before, they were something found by chance. And in the glory of our discovery and the joy of our wearing we did not pause to think of those who had worn these uniforms before.

They were only there, something to play with, and whoever owned the barn had kept them there, and we were only children who had snuck our way into the barn and made games with what we found.

It is very nice to have a barn in your life. It keeps a pleasant musty smell of now and then and always.

Junior Editors Quiz on COLOR WHEEL

QUESTION: How does a color wheel work?

* * * *

ANSWER: Primary pigment colors, or red, blue and yellow, are the ones which can't be made from other colors — but from which the other colors may be made. Harriet shows us a color wheel. She has put a square around the primaries and a circle around the mixtures, or secondaries. She tells us that colors opposite each other on the wheel are complementaries. Wonderful things happen when one puts complementaries close together. We suggest you get some water color or tempera paints and experiment. Put a bit of the most brilliant scarlet red you can mix next to a touch of brilliant grass green. See how these touches dance and sparkle together, each bringing out the most color in the other one. Try this with the other complementaries. Then touch a little clear red into a larger amount of clear green; the mixture will be a beautiful mossy green. Try such mixtures with other pairs. What does M in the center stand for? Mud — an ugly thing you produce when you mix the complementaries in equal amounts. Stay away from it!

(Vernon Scheetz of Coatesville, Pa. wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash and a World Yearbook if your question, mailed to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

Consumer Plan Has Good Chance

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, bidding to put the 90th Congress into the Record Book as the "Consumers' Congress," has outlined a new eight-point program for this year.

The proposals, most of which [illegible] today's special presidential message, include improved fish and poultry inspection, safeguards against home improvement and other sales frauds, a study of auto insurance and boating safety standard.

Some proposals, such as radiation standards for color television and other electronic products, already have won strong support at congressional hearings.

Others, such as the Senate-passed gas pipeline safety bill and the measure to protect against electric power blackouts, have drawn strong industry opposition but appear to have a good chance of enactment—if they can get out of committee.

Despite frequently difficult fights in committee where closed sessions conceal many votes, only a handful of members have cast negative votes in public against the growing list of consumer-oriented bills.

The record of major consumer bills before Congress shows:

1. Interest disclosure, passed 382 to 4 last week by the House after a weaker bill had been approved 92 to 0 by the Senate in July.

2. Meat inspection, passed last fall 403 to 1 by the House, strengthened 89 to 2 by the Senate with a bill close to the stronger version finally repassing the House 336 to 28.

3. Air pollution, passed 88 to 0 last year by the Senate and 362 to 0 by the House.

4. Flammable fabrics, passed last year by a voice vote in the Senate and by 325 to 0 in the House.

5. Auto safety and highway safety, passed unanimously by the Senate in 1966 and with just three dissenting votes—on the highway safety measure—in the House.

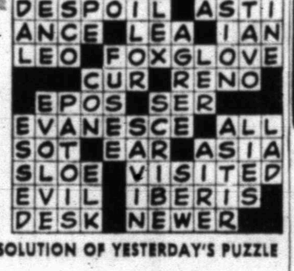

6. Fair packaging, passed 71 to 9 in the Senate in 1966 and 300 to 8 in the House after a committee had watered it down.

In none of these cases do the final votes indicate the strength of industry opposition and the difficult fight which faced proponents in pushing the measures through.

The interest disclosure bill, described by some supporters as the strongest consumer bill ever to pass the House, is a good example of the way members reacted in committee and on the floor.

In the House Banking Committee, Democrats failed by a handful of votes to require that interest be expressed in annual percentages for revolving charge accounts and to include credit charges of under $10.

Loraine's Tim Hamilton won scoring honors, however, putting in 33 points.

Jane Wall, Sherry Adams and Susan Peterson rang the hoops for 25, 21 and 13 points respectively as Hermleigh's girls grabbed a commanding lead early and increased it in each succeeding quarter.

Matson In Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH (AP)—Randy Matson and two other world record holders will headline the eighth Will Rogers Indoor Games here Friday night.

Matson, the Texas strongman who holds the shot put record, will be joined by long jumper Bob Beamon from the University of Texas-El Paso and long jump king Ralph Boston.

Beamon has been spectacular indoors—unbeaten and under 26 feet just once and with a world record leap of 27 feet 1 inch in the NAIA meet at Kansas City.

Boston, progressing slowly, reached 25 feet 1½ inch last week. He'll also run the high high hurdles, an event in which he twice has been runner-up here.

Matson brought the coliseum roof down a year ago when he exploded with a heave of 69 feet 2 inches. The feat was submitted as a world record.

His coach, Charlie Thomas of Texas A&M, predicted Tuesday Randy will hit 68 feet or better here. "I definitely think so," Thomas said.

"I think Randy will throw better in Fort Worth than the next day in Los Angeles," he said. "Why? He likes the Texas crowd. They help him.

"The tension is there. The crowd gets quiet. The spotlight is put on him. All this fires up Randy."

Matson won last week at San Diego with a toss of 67-¾, evening the score with former Southern Illinois shot putter George Woods. Woods beat him at an earlier meet in which Matson failed to qualify.

"People around here could hardly believe that Randy could get beat . . . not even qualify," Thomas said. "It hurt Randy that some would think he wasn't human. . . that he couldn't have an off night and lose."

Volleyball Girls Win

Snyder's girls volleyball teams made a successful debut here Tuesday with two smashing verdicts over Colorado City.

The varsity girls thrashed the Wolves 15-9 and 15-10. Gracie Hill and RoAnn Cobb shared high point honors with eight points apiece.

The "B" team girls pounded Colorado City 15-11 and 15-4 with Terry Smithee pacing the attack. She scored 10 points.

"Our girls did a fine job," declared Snyder Coach Kay Echols. The Tigers host Abilene Cooper here Thursday. The "B" team game will begin at 6:30 p.m. followed by the varsity tussle.

Nones Cops First Medal

AUTRANS, France (AP) — Italy's Franco Nones outraced favored Scandinavian skiers in the men's 30-kilometer cross-country test today and captured the first gold medal in the 1968 Winter Olympic Games.

Nones, leading from start to finish, sped through the demanding, 18.6 mile overland course in one hour, 35 minutes, 38.2 seconds to beat Norwegian ace Odd Martinsen and defending champion Eero Maentyranta of Finland. Martinsen was second in 1:36.28.9, Maentyranta third in 1:36.55.3.

A four-man American contingent, led by Mike Gallagher of Killington, Vt., was far back in the pack.

Gallagher, a 26-year-old insurance man, finished in 27th position with a 1:41:58.2 clocking. Mike Elliott of Durango, Colo., was 29th in 1:42:22.6; Charles Kellogg of Boston 51st in 1:50:03.7, and Jon Lufkin of Rumford, Maine, 55th in 1:51:21.2.

The U.S. skiers did not figure to place high in the Nordic event, long dominated by skiers from Scandinavia and Russia.

Westbrook Turns Back Ira Twice

WESTBROOK — Ira came out on the short end of two basketball tilts with powerful Westbrook here Tuesday night.

The Westbrook girls employed stalling tactics to take a 23-17 decision, and their boys won by a 62-49 tally. Both tilts were close until the final quarter.

Ira's girls led by two points after one period, trailed by three at halftime, then pulled within one point at 17-18 in the third quarter. Westbrook managed to score late in the game to take the decision. They were paced by Christine Reed and Sue Bell, each of whom posted 10 points. High point girl for Ira was Pam Sallee with seven points.

Ira's boys fell behind by three after one period, but closed the game to 26-27 before intermission. Westbrook began to find the range in the third stanza and boosted the count to 34-39, and the margin carried over into the last quarter.

Don Jarratt, Robert Chambers and Bo Jackson all had good nights on the firing line for Westbrook, scoring 20, 18 and 12 points respectively. Johnny Ezell and Ricky Hester shared scoring honors for Ira with 13 points each.

Bengals Subdue Cubs In 'Survival' Tilt

BROWNFIELD — The Snyder Tigers had to work hard to seize the lead in the second quarter and then tightened their grip in the second half to subdue the stubborn Brownfield Cubs here Tuesday night, 91-74.

The Cubs sifted through the Tigers' pressing defense several times in the first period and at one time led the Bengals by three points. The score was knotted at 19-19 at the end of the first quarter.

The Tigers edged out to a 46-38 lead by half-time, largely on the prolific point production of Mitch Rambin, who collected 12 of his 19 points during the second period.

The Tigers hiked their lead to as much as 23 points once in the fourth period and the score was 73-54 going into the last round of action.

Tommy Bullard sacked six field goals and 12 free shots to pace Snyder's scoring with 24 points, while Mickey Almond matched Rambin's 19 and Frankie Grimmett also was in double figures with 13.

The Bengal controlled the boards most of the evening, pulling down 47 rebounds compared to 26 for Brownfield. Drake Snyder led in that department with 13, while Grimmett got 10 rebounds and Bullard and Rambin 7 each.

Gary Baccus roped 29 points for Brownfield, while Scott Doss had 20.

Snyder won the junior varsity game, 63-54, in another tough battle. The Snyder JV overcame an early Brownfield lead to take an 18-17 advantage at the end of first period. The lead increased to 35-30 at the half and then each team scored only 10 points in the third period. Snyder B had three men scoring in double figures with Lee McNair getting 26 points and Wesley Bishop and Bill Hood 13 each.

Snyder B led in rebounds, 36-25, with Randy Rushing getting 12, Dennis Carlton 9 and McNair 7.

Tuesday night's activity kept the Tigers in the thick of the District 3-AAA pennant race and moved the Bengals a notch closer to some crucial games on the Scurry County Coliseum boards.

In other district action Tuesday night, Lubbock Dunbar, the second round district leader, walloped Sweetwater, 106-75; Lamesa, the first round winner, whacked Littlefield, 71-53, and Levelland bounced Lake View, 97-29.

The Tigers will host the Sweetwater Mustangs in the coliseum Friday night, and then Dunbar and Lamesa come to town next week to wind up the season.

Baylor Thrashes Texas 74 To 58

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Baylor's tight-fisted Bears weren't about to be headed in their drive toward the Southwest Conference basketball championship Tuesday night as they whipped Texas 74-58 and rolled on, leading by a full game.

Texas dropped to a tie for third place with Texas Christian while upstart Arkansas, another surprise of the hectic race, moved into second. The Razorbacks lashed Texas Tech 61-56 and just about removed any hopes the latter might have of figuring in the championship. Tech has lost five.

Southern Methodist's floundering Mustangs took another drubbing, this time from TCU. The Frogs walloped SMU 91-64 and the Ponies also could be figured out of contention. It was the 1957 champions' sixth defeat.

Texas A&M doused Rice 75-66 to hang lightly in the race.

Texas led Baylor 35-32 in the first half but the Bears went to work after intermission and it wasn't much of a contest as Baylor outscored Texas by 19 points.

Bob Porter did such a good guarding job on Billy Arnold, Texas' conference scoring leader, that he managed only eight points. Russ Kibbe was the big difference as he flipped in 24 points for Baylor.

Arkansas led virtually all the way in downing Texas Tech. The Raiders led only once, early in the game, and managed a tie with 18:31 left. Arkansas had a margin of only one point at the half but outscored Tech 34-30 in the second half.

Mickey McCarty looped in 23 points and James Cash 21 as Texas Christian strapped downtrodde Southern Methodist. The Frogs led 43-32 at the half, and early in the second period stru together 11 straight points to make the margin so great there was never any more doubt about who would win.

The Aggie-Rice game was close until the final minutes. When the Aggies pushed their lead to 70-62 as the result of a personal and technical foul on Tommy Molina, the Rice students started throwing things onto the floor.

Coach Don Knodel of Rice pleaded with the angry students to quit. When order was restored, the Aggies pushed their lead to 74-62 and that was about it.

Peggy Eyes Gold Medal

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Peggy Fleming, the lithe U.S. figure skating queen from Colorado Springs, Colo., opened her bid for an Olympic gold medal at the 1968 Winter Games today in championship form, taking command after the first of five compulsory figures.

Miss Fleming, the 19-year-old world champion, took a 12-point lead over East Germany's Gabrielle Seyfert with a score of 166.4 in the first of two school figures to be skated today. The remaining three compulsory figures are scheduled for Thursday, with the free skating final on Saturday.

Beatrix Schuba of Austria was third with 153.2 points, followed by Hana Maskova of Czechoslovakia, the European champion, with 148.4, and 19-year-old Albertina Noyes of Arlington, Mass., with 146.0.

Miss Fleming began her drive for the vacant Olympic title with a double stroke of luck. She drew a favorable starting number, No. 18, in the 32-girl field from 15 nations. And the five figures drawn for the competition were exactly the same as those with which she won the 1968 U.S. women's title.

Peggy's main rivals, Miss Hanskova and East Germany's Gabriele Seyfert, drew the 31st and 16th starting positions, respectively.

Coach Ends Career

WAXAHACHIE (AP) — J. W. Williams, one of the most successful basketball coaches in Texas, will wind up his career with the current season.

He will become assistant principal and his assistant, Rick Blythe, will move up to head coach.

In the 16 years Williams has been coaching Waxahachie, he won 14 district championships, took the state Class AAA title in 1958 and twice finished as state runnerup.

What kind of a nut buys air conditioning in the winter?

He's not a nut, he's a money-saver

Contradictions In Economics Irritate Many Americans

NEW YORK (AP)—An uneasy feeling that the world of business, finance and economics is filled not only with complications but with contradictions too, is one of the factors irritating and confusing Americans today.

Just this week another example was provided, when citizens were told of a government tax plan that would try to discourage foreign travel for the good of the nation, specifically to reduce the balance of payments deficit.

This proposal follows many weeks, months and years of efforts by airlines to induce Americans to cast their worries behind them and fly forward to adventure in London, Paris and Rome.

Since to do so in the future will mean to be taxed, if the Johnson administration has its way, the result will be frustration. And, of course, confusion too.

In fact, many people cannot understand why such stringent measures are needed if the dollar is as sound as the Treasury says it is and the nation powerful as almost all the world believes it to be.

Other examples are all about us.

More and more often Americans are being reminded that they have more of the material goods than others, and much of this reminding has come from the federal government, especially in recent presidential messages.

Nevertheless, more and more often Americans are being reminded, and by the government, that many of their fellow men are poor and discontent and feel they are being denied their share in the wealth of the nation.

The unemployment statistics provide an example. Contrast the low jobless figure of 3.9 per cent of the labor force with the reality of so many unskilled looking for and not finding jobs.

Perhaps as a result of these disturbing reminders, consumers are themselves contributing a contrast of sorts. Instead of translating their savings into the things that money buys, they are leaving it in the bank.

But, as if to deny the high rate of savings — it is still about 7 per cent of take home pay — people are also gambling in the stock market and even redeeming their U.S. savings bonds at a faster rate than they are buying them. It appears that people may be saving on the one hand, gambling on the other.

One of the most obvious contradictions — or seemingly so — regards free trade. After months of haggling, agreements are reached in the Kennedy Round to lower tariffs. Weeks later, attempts are made to impose other restrictions.

Closer to the pocketbook, consumers find everyone disclaiming about the horrors of inflation, but he finds action against inflation stalled for months while the Capitol and the White House fire missiles along the mall.

City Plans Own Renewal

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP) — The city of Freeport has decided it will provide urban renewal without federal help after the government said the city proposal does not qualify under present laws.

However, the project will be carried out on 220 acres instead of the 522 acres originally planned under federal urban renewal.

The land long has been undeveloped. It is in the northern part of the former town of Velasco which was consolicated with Freeport in 1957. Lots are only 25 feet wide, laid out in 1890. Because of the small size and number of owners it has been difficult to get title to groups of lots.

The land is to be bought or condemned by the city, redivided and sold to developers.

A&M Grad Center Is Taking Shape

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The first part of a $3.25 million Graduate Center for Materials and Structural Mechanics is taking shape on the Texas A&M University Campus. After completion, engineers will launch further inestigation into materials and configurations which range from roads to rocket cases.

The intent is to provide researchers, whose specialties may range from road building to aerodynamics, topnotch laboratories in which they can investigate a variety of materials and structures.

Former Missionary Teaching At Baylor

WACO, Tex. (AP) — John W. Shepherd, with 17 years of service in Japan as a missionary, is teaching two courses in religion at Baylor.

The Rev. Dr. Shepherd is professor of history at Seinan Gakuin, a Southern Baptist college in Fukuoka, Japan. He is teaching during his year of furlough.

CAREER CORNER

By F. J. LAIN

Q — "When I was in a big budget administration and visiting the hospital to see a friend, I noticed raising, supervising maintenance of physical plant and equipment, overseeing educational programs for in-service personnel training.

PERSONAL: Executive ability, talent for organization, responsibility and a genuine interest in community health are vital. Further, administrators must be able to handle crisis when disaster strikes—such as floods or disease epidemics These executives must have the judgment and courage to make hard decisions such as wether to allocate $100,000 for radioactive isotopes or a new research laboratory. Diplomacy is required to handle some 16 different professional groups, each having its own motivations and problems plus the personality factor.

WOMEN: Encouraging. Estimates of women employed range from one-third to one-fifth of about 13,000 administrators and assistants.

EDUCATION: It's no longer necessary to be a doctor or nurse; the trend is toward a master's degree in hospital administration.

ADVANCEMENT AND EARNINGS: Becoming administrator of a large hospital is usually a career goal. There are also some firms specializing in hospital development and management. Beginners usually start at about $7,500 as administrative assistants. Promotion is often to assistnat administrator which may pay as much as $15,000. Many administrators earn between $15,000 and $25,000, and even more.

OUTLOOK: Good but limited in number. Openings are expected to increase as hospital facilities expand.

HEADSTART: Do volunteer work in a hospital.

A — The hospital adminstrator runs the hospital. He (or she) is the boss with over-all responsibility, reporting directly to the hospital's governing board. Of course, professional medical decisions are left to the physician staff members.

Times have changed since the srart of the century when administrators were nurses responsible for supplies, feeding and housekeeping.

Today, all top executive skills are necessary to direct the modern hospital. Job demands are becoming more sophisticated almost daily as enormous medical and scientific advances continue to improve our health.

More big changes will be introduced as automation is increasingly used to take over certain areas of patient care. For example, diagnostic procedures and some parts of the physical examination may be performed automatically and interpreted by computer system. Or electoronic devices, now used to watch astronauts, may monitor patients and sound an alarm if any vital functions are not right. To move ahead and make these changes in the hospital is the administrator's job. It's a tall order.

SCOPE OF JOB: Coordinating the teamwork of doctors, nurses, dietitians, technicians, engineers, physical therapists

Four More Texans Killed In Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department listed Tuesday four Texas servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war.

They were Army Sgt. Jimmie Patten, husband of Mrs. Hannelore M. Patten, 705 N. Saint Vrain St., Apt. 2, El Paso; Army Sgt. Robert B. Stafford, husband of Mrs. Laine E. Stafford, 2121 Circle Drive, Coppera Cove; Army Pfc. Ivan D. Homsley, husband of Mrs. Patsy J. Homsley, 920 E. 3rd St., Apt. 40, Irving; and Marine Corps Pfc. Carl W. Dorries, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. W. Dorries, 1308 Spring Lake Drive, Dallas.

Squabbles With IRS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Oswald Jacoby of Dallas and the Internal Revenue Service are in a squabble over how much the widely known bridge authority owes in income taxes.

The government says that Jacoby owes $100,949.24 in back income taxes and penalties for the years 1960 through 1963 for which the IRS says he made gambling and didn't report on his income tax form.

The IRS also says that part of the underpayments in taxes it is claiming are "due to fraud with intent to evade tax."

The government lists nearly $60,000 in bank deposits which it says were the proceeds of gambling.

In his petition, Jacoby says he "engaged in games of chance which resulted in some winnings" but added "these winnings were more than offset by losses from games of chance."

The government has refused to give him credit for his losses.

Jacoby and his wife, Mary, filed three separate cases in the tax court denying the government allegations. Mrs. Jacoby is involved because the couple filed joint income tax returns.

Feels Funds Fall Short

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said Tuesday that President Johnson's goals in education for young people were supported by a disappointing small budget request.

In a Senate speech, Yarborough said that the Bilingual Education Act which he introduced was authorized by Congress to be financed with up to $30 million for the 1969 fiscal year but that President Johnson asked for only $5 million.

"This sort of tokenism will not do for the nearly two million Mexican-Americans of our nation who are cut off from full participation in the educational process by a barrier of languages," the Texas senator said.

Yarborough also said that Congress last year authorized spending $395 million to build undergraduate college buildings under the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963, yet the budget asked only $67 million.

He said that under the same act, Congress authorized $120 million for new graduate school facilities, but the budget cut this back to $8 million.

Inspection Required

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A new state law requires random inspection of Ohio's five million motor vehicles. The inspections will be made by the State Highway Patrol.

Feud Ends In Death For Abilene Man

ABILENE (AP) — A flurry of gunfire killed Airman William R. Cryer, 21, outside his Abilene apartment Tuesday night.

Police said the slaying apparently was the outgrowth of a feud between Cryer and a man they arrested several hours later. He was held without immediate charge.

Cryer died before reaching the hospital at Dyess Air Force Base, where he was stationed. A cousin, Charles Cryer, 17, told police Sgt. Dwaine Pyburn he heard about 12 shots after the airman seized a rifle and left the apartment where they lived. Also present were William's wife Carolyn and their year-old son.

Charles Cyer, talking to officers and newsmen, said another youth, also 17, "came over here about 8:30 p.m. and said his old man was going to kill all four of us.

"A little later one of them called and threatened us some more, and then a car pulled into the alley behind the house and parked there about 15 minutes."

At this point, the slain man's cousin said, occupants of the car started punching the tires on Cryer's automobile and release the air in them.

"William grabbed his rifle," Charles Cryer related, "and went out the back door. Then he came back in staggering and bleeding and dropped the rifle on the floor and fell on the couch."

Millionaire's Mansion May Become Research Center

By LAWRENCE LEE

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP) — The Space Agency, the National Academy of Sciences and Rice University are planning to turn a millionaire oilman's mansion near the Manned Spacecraft Center into a home base for the world's top moon researchers.

To be known as the Institute of Lunar Sciences, the facility would offer work and meeting space, a library and a staff to the scientists already enlisted to study the material American astronauts bring home from the moon.

The handsome stone mansion, now shuttered and surrounded by weeds, was the Clear Lake retreat of Millionaire oilman James Marion (Silver Dollar Jim) West, who died 20 years ago.

The mansion went to Rice in 1957 when West's widow died, and was to be used for research in marine sciences. It would be offered for the proposed institute through the school and its strong astronomy department, which has grown up since her death.

Last week, Rice President Kenneth Pitzer toured the mansion with his colleagues on a committee which coordinates relations between NASA, the agency and the nation's universities.

The proposal for the institute now lies in the hands of NASA and the academy, and the decision to go ahead must come from those agencies.

NASA Administrator James Webb referred to the idea in general terms in October in a speech at the University of Illinois. He proposed a laboratory home away from home where lunar scientists can go to a building, not on a government installation, and have their own library, meeting rooms and controlled activities, but be across the street and be able to talk with the men who picked up the samples."

These samples will get an early study and will be packaged in the space center's lunar receiving laboratory which is just now reaching completion. The West mansion is only a few blocks from that lab, and overlooks Clear Lake.

Some 120 scientists from the United States and other countries have been designated "principal investigators" of returned moon matter.

A NASA spokesman said Tuesday, "The national academy of sciences is interested in the possibility. Rice is [illegible] and NASA is certainly interested."

Texas Senators On Opposite Sides

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two Texas senators were on opposite sides when the Senate by a vote of 54-29 killed the substitute of Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N. C., for the administration's civil rights protection bill.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, a Democrat, voted with the majority to table Ervin's measure. Sen. John Tower, a Republican, voted against tabling it.

SALUTING THE BOY SCOUTS of AMERICA

ON THEIR 58th ANNIVERSARY

"I suppose every boy wants to help his country in some way or other. There is a way by which he can do so easily, and that is by becoming a Boy Scout."

Baden-Powell

Scouting has become increasingly more important to the future of our country. This is one reason why the Scout movement aims for a high standard of citizenship, character and physical fitness. In the program there is a strong emphasis on training for citizenship. Every boy must learn respect for the flag, loyalty to country, and an appreciation of our American heritage. We salute the Scouts and the great work they are doing in making better citizens.
