Goose Island State Park Attracted 370,000 Visitors

Goose Island State Park had a record attendance of 370,000, of whom 70,000 stayed overnight, during the last fiscal year, according to Stormy Reeves, superintendent of the park, who spoke at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club Oct. 15 at Sandollar Restaurant.

Reeves stressed the importance of the tourist business to the economy of Texas, reporting that tourists spent four billion, eight hundred thousand dollars in the state last year. Of this, out-of-state visitors accounted for two billion, six hundred thousand dollars. Texas residents on vacation and on sightseeing trips accounted for the remainder of the travelers, according to Reeves.

Illustrating the importance of the tourist business, Reeves said nation-wide total tourist business in 1970 accounted for more dollars than was spent on national defense. Further, it is estimated tourism has more than tripled since 1970.

In addition to tourists, Goose Island State Park attracts many local residents for family picnics, Reeves said. The park has 100 camp sites and facilities for launching motor boats. As many as 50 to 75 boats are launched on a typical weekend, he added.

The local state park has eight full-time employees and sometimes as many as 10 part-time people during the busy season. Reeves reported that state park admission fees are used to pay off bonds issued to finance new parks. However, visitors over 65 are charges no admission fees at any state drive-in park, and it is planned to remove all fees for senior citizens as soon as necessary legislation can be passed, Reeves said.

Constitutional Amendment Election Nov. 4

Pursuant to the Election Proclamation issued by the Governor of the State of Texas, a Special Constitutional Amendment Election will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 4 between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. in all Election Precincts in the County of Aransas for the purpose of adopting or rejecting eight Constitutional Amendments to the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Proposition No. 1 is the amendment revising "Article II, Separation of Powers"; "Article III, The Legislature"; and "Article IV, The Executive"; all of which will pass or fail together.

Article II restates the Separation of Powers among the three branches of government: Legislative, Executive and Judicial. No change.

Article III, The Legislature. While the structure of the Legislature remains the same, new provisions established in this article include:

Single-member senatorial, representative and congressional districts - This approach has been established by recent redistricting legislation, and therefore, this provision endorses what is already fact.

Annual "general" sessions of the Legislature - Voters have turned down this proposal several times in the past two decades.

The proposals in both the Legislative [Article III] and Executive Article [Article IV] include several innovations: a regular review of existing state agencies by requiring the extension of their authority every ten years; the requirement that the Legislature consider governmental reorganization bills; authorization for the Legislature to delegate some budget-execution authority to the Governor; a provision for appropriating pre-inaugural funds to aid a new governor coming into office; setting the time of expiration of the terms of all appointees made by the Governor to state agencies to occur during the spring in odd-numbered years; permitting the Governor to designate chairmen of state agencies; granting the Governor some limited removal authority of appointees; and limiting the Governor to two consecutive four-year terms.

United Fund Collections Are Running Ahead of Last Year

With the last of the letters soliciting contributions to the 1975-76 Aransas County Bicentennial United Fund scheduled to be mailed this week, gifts and pledges received so far total $4,039 compared to a total of $2,842 last year at the same stage of the campaign.

Although expressing satisfaction with progress to date, Rev. Tom McClung, campaign chairman, warned against complacency. "We still have a long way to go to reach our goal of $12,595 and every possbile contribution, regardless of size, is needed,' he declared.

Most of the gifts and pledges so far have been from individuals and business firms on a so-called gifts list - those that have made substantial contributions in the past. However, some of the early gifts have resulted from the first general mailing of 500 letters of solicitation.

As has been the practice in the past, local Girl Scouts are stuffing letters and assisted in the mailing at the Chamber of Commerce building under supervision of Loyce Landrum, director and secretary of the United Fund. The final mailing of approximately 1,000 letters also was being handled with the assistance of the Girl Scouts. Cards with names of employees also are going to firms that solicit their own people.

Twelve charitable, welfare and character building agencies are participating in the annual fund campaign from which they derive a part of their operating costs.

Included are Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Family Counseling Service, Aransas County Emergency Corps, Coastal Bend Association for Mental Health, Salvation Army, Texas Rehabilitation Hospital, United Services Organization, Aransas County Council on Aging and Aransas County Child Abuse program. The last two listed were added to the United Fund this year.

Rev. McClung pointed out that a giver could contribute to the fund as a whole or designate his gift to go to one or more of the participating agencies.

Amendments—

new Article V, The Judiciary, which governs the powers and organization of the state court system.

It proposes to establish a "unified" judicial system. This means that all appellate courts would have both criminal and civil jurisdiction; and that both criminal and civil cases would proceed on appeals from the trial courts of appropriate jurisdiction, and that both criminal and civil cases would proceed on appeals from the trial courts of appropriate jurisdiction to a Court of Appeals and then to the Supreme Court.

It provides for the merger of the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Supreme Court. Those judges now serving on the Supreme Court would continue to serve until such time as the attrition by resignation, death or retirement reduces the number of the court to nine justices. Judges of the various courts would still be elected by the people for the same terms they now hold.

Proposition No. 3 creates a new Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections. It provides that a person who is at least 18 years of age, is not a convicted felon in prison, on parole or probation, or is not mentally incompetent, would be qualified to vote under laws enacted by the Legislature.

Proposition No. 4 provides for a new Article VII, Education, which governs public education.

The amendment calls for an equitable system of free public schools below the college level. The system must provide each individual an equal educational opportunity but may provide local enrichment of educational programs.

Propostion No. 5 creates a new Article VIII, Finance, which governs the financial management of the state.

In this amendment the requirement that all new taxes be equal and uniform would be limited only to the levy of property taxes. It would require the establishment and enforcement of uniform standards and procedures for the appraisal of property, the only exceptions being special formulas designed to promote the preservation of open space land for farm and ranch purposes and the preservation of forest lands devoted to timber production.

Propostion No. 6 provides a new Article IX, Local Government, which authorizes the powers of local government. Under this amendment local government would remain basically the same with the exception that County Commissioners' Courts would be granted ordinance-making powers.

Proposition No. 7 provides a new Article X, General Provisions, which is basically a housekeeping article. It includes: the homestead provisions; separate or community property; protection of personal property from forced sale; protection of wages from garnishment; limitations upon banking corporations; provisions for the regulation of alcoholic beverages; and provisions for the regulation of medical practitioners.

It prohibits lotteries and gift enterprises; regulates interest and lending; provides for the various retirement systems of public employees, and protecting the environment, conserving natural resources and public property as well as wildlife resources.

Proposition No. 8 provides a new Article XI, Method of Amending the Constitution of the State. It maintains the same basis for submission of amendments as was utilized in submitting these eight amendments; that is, submission by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the membership of both houses of the Legislature and adoption by a simple majority of the people voting in an election called for that purpose.

It does add a provision that a question of a constitutional convention be submitted by the Legislature at least once each thirty years.

Freshmen are Undefeated

Rockport-Fulton's Freshmen team scored two times in the first quarter and then held on to win the battle of the unbeatens at Bishop last week.

On the Pirates' second possession tailback Algie Simmons broke on a run of 76 yards to paydirt and then added the 2 extra points on a run to put the Pirates out front 8-0.

On the very next possession of the Pirates they took over at midfield, and just three plays later fullback Joe Brooks meandered his way for a 30-yard TD run. The extra points attempt failed, so the Pirates led 14-0, and that score held up the rest of the game despite the fact that Bishop had the ball inside the Pirate 30-yard line six times during the game.

Brooks, from his linebacking position, was far and away the leading tackler for the Pirates with 17 tackles. Steve Naler, Raymond Bauer and Dewayne Harrison followed in tackles with 8 or more.

Simmons gained 140 yards for the day and Brooks added 83 yard to the total offense. Quarterback Lawrence Miculka had his best afternoon to date throwing the ball with 3 completions out of 4 attempts with no interceptions. Jimmy Cruser caught two passes for 37 yards and Jim Swank snared one pass for 14 yards.

This week the Pirates will get a tough test from the strong squad from Calallen on the Pirates' home field.

GOLFER GETS HOLE-IN-ONE

Henry Hopkins of Key Allegro achieved the dream of every golfer on October 14 when he got a hole-in-one on the par three eighth hole at Live Oak Country Club.

He often uses a long iron for his tee shot on this hole but on this occasion he was hitting into the wind so he decided to use his driver and smooth-stroke the shot.

He and his playing partner, his wife, Gladys, watched the ball head straight for the pin, but from the tee they thought he had hit it a little too hard and that the ball had gone over the green.

When they got to the green they first looked just past the green and, of course, saw no ball.

"Do you think it possibly could have rolled into the cup for a hole-in-one?" Gladys asked excitedly.

"Let's look," said Henry, trying to remain calm.

And there it was. To say that Henry was excited is putting it mildly. He probably will buy 50 copies of this issue of the Pilot and mail it to friends and relatives.

The Pilot editor would if he ever got a hole-in-one.

Bishop Tops Pirates 27-7

Rockport-Fulton scored first to take a seven point lead last Friday night against Bishop, but from that point on the Badgers took command to score four times and win 27-7.

The Pirates stopped Bishop's first drive on the Pirate four-yard line where Ronnie Ormand recovered a fumble to give the Pirates possession.

The Pirates moved the ball for a score in 8 plays, with tailback Jeff Dietz moving in for the final 53 yards for the TD. Dickie Ballou added the point after to put the Pirates out front 7-0. That was the final scoring effort for the Pirates.

Bishop scored with 37 seconds remaining on the first half's clock to knot the score at halftime. Bishop went on the scoreboard three additonal times to push their total to 27 points.

The Pirates moved the ball well until they reached the Badger 40-yard line, and suddenly they went flat with drive after drive stalling out. The Pirates did have two backs with over 100 yards. Bobby Lewis collected 130 yards in 18 attempts and Dietz added 103 yards to the total.

Johnny Washburn, returning to the Pirate defense after being out for many weeks with an injury, led the tacklers on defense; following Washburn were Jerry Hutson, John Picton, Steve Radke, Ronnie Ormand and Albert Mendiola all with ten or more tackles.

Statistics: 1st downs: RFHS 15, Bishop 19; rush. yds.: RFHS 285, Bishop 282; Pass. yds.: RFHS, 0, Bishop 14; Total rush.: RFHS 285, Bishop 296; Pass. Attempts: RFHS 8/0/2, Bishop 5/1/0; Fumbles lost: RFHS 1, Bishop 1; Punting: RFHS 2-37.5, Bishop 1-43.

On Friday night the Pirates travel to Calallen for a District 15-3A contest. The powerful Wildcats are 3-1-1 in the district race. They have tied G.P. 0-0 and lost to Tuloso-Midway 9-7. Game time: 8 p.m. in Wildcat stadium.

Photography Club Report

The 25 members of the R.F.H.S. Photography Club continue to show increasing interest in developing the basic skills of black and white photography.

At present the club meets. 6 members at a time, on Monday afternoons and evenings of each week in the darkroom of the Art Handicraft classroom at the high school to practice developing film and picture prints, and discuss improvement of their picture taking and processing techniques.

Many of the members have very impressive camera equipment and are beginning to demonstrate their skills in using it.

As the members become more adept in their skill through experience several activities have been planned to put their skills to practical use. A photograph contest and work with the annual staff and school newspaper are two activities planned for the near future.

The Photography Club would greatly appreciate photographic equipment of any type which may be donated to it. It is presently seeking a small second-hand refrigerator which will be used to hold photographic chemicals and materials.

Any persons wishing to donate to the club may call 729-5473 at the high school and leave a message for Mr. Hamilton, who acts as club sponsor. The club will gladly pick up any donated items.

Bishop Stops JV 16-8

Rockport-Fulton's Junior Varsity struck like lightning on the opening play of the game with Charlie Edler returning the kickoff 94 yards for a score, but the Pirates could never get their offense on track, and Bishop took advantage of Pirate errors to hand the Pirates a 16-8 loss in Bishop.

Edler's opening run electrified the crowd as he dipped to the middle and then went outside and turned on the afterburner to go the distance for the score. Fullback Ricky Garcia blasted over for the two-point conversion to give the Pirates the lead 8-0.

Bishop took the ensuing kickoff and marched the ball 75 yards for the tie-making score. The Badgers drew a penalty on the extra point try, but they still managed to put the ball into the end zone for the 2 points, knotting the score.

Although the two teams moved the ball, it was a Pirate mistake which blew the game open. On a fourth down defenders stormed through to block a punt, something which has plagued all Pirate teams this year, and a Bishop man picked up the football and roared into the end zone. Bishop again added the two points to make the score 16-8.

Bishop controlled the ball most of the game, but the Pirate defense stood up to the test and kept the Badgers from scoring again. Linebacker Bill Adams did yeoman's work as he blasted Badger runners a total of 23 times, and added a fumble recovery as well. Many other Pirates were over ten total tackles: Bob Smith, Edler, Gary Heasley, Dolph Hiller, Roland Flores, and Benno Wilke. Claudio Lara also added a fumble recovery to the defensive statistics.

This week the Pirates play at home against Calallen.

You Can Make Tax Savings Today
As You Build Retirement Security for Tomorrow

With a First National Bank Individual Retirement Account

Any wage earner not now participating in a retirement plan can save thousands of income tax dollars by setting up an Individual Retirement Account as approved by Congress.

Companies and corporations have long been able to set aside tax-sheltered dollars to provide retirement for their employees. Since 1962 professional people and other self-employed persons also have been able to save in tax-sheltered pension plans.

Now Congress has provided for similar retirement plan tax benefits for individuals not covered by other plans. Under this program you can save tax-free dollars. No federal income tax is paid on either the dollars you save or the interest your money earns until after retirement when most individuals will be in a lower tax bracket, with perhaps more exemptions available.

Come in and learn more about this attractive Individual Retirement Account Program from one of our officers. It can provide a substantial tax break for you and help insure your retirement security.

Regional G.I. Forum Session

The Rockport Chapter of the American G.I. Forum was host for the Regional American G.I. Forum meeting on October 4 at the Rockport G.I. Forum Hall.

The mayor of Rockport, Walter S. Falk, Jr., greeted the officers and delegates and welcomed them to Rockport, as did the mayor pro-tem, Joe "Pepe" Zambrano.

Gene A. Garcia, attorney for the Rockport chapter, and Mr. Davilla, regional attorney, discussed projects to be extended to universities and to the Armed Forces, which are now being implemented by the Texas American G.I. Forum. These programs originated in the office of Garcia, the founder of the G.I. Forum.

After the business meeting, the high point of the evening was the dinner and dance celebration, attended by approximately two hundred people, in honor of State Rep. Joe Wyatt, Jr. Representative Wyatt sponsored the bill granting the G.I. Forum exempt status on property.

The Rockport Chapter is the only chapter in the state owning property and buildings. The revenues saved by this exemption will be distributed in the areas of scholarships and emergency programs.

One of the hardest jobs to give up is doing nothing.

LOS ANGELES -- Veterans Day will be observed on Nov. 11 again starting in 1978. A new law restoring the holiday to Nov. 11, the traditional day of observance for many years, was signed by President Ford.

Not all hunters are out for game.

Doesn't it make sense to put your money in a place that is hard to find?

Get the feeling we're trying to get something across to you? What we're trying to get across is not that your money will be physically safer with us. The point is that your money is more than just dollars and cents . . . it's your financial future.

We think we realize this better than our competition.

And, obviously, you do too. Because everyday we see more and more new faces, opening accounts, taking out loans, asking our advice.

By finding us, these people have found their financial future.

You can do the same.

The Kinsey Report

How about this weather? Perfect, don't you agree?

Beautiful sunshiny days, moderate temperature, low humidity, virtually no wind. Cool nights, ideal for sleeping with the windows open. You couldn't find better weather anywhere.

Makes a person feel good physically and mentally. No reason to be gloomy. Just walk outside and "drink in" some of this super weather and you'll feel that all is well.

Take a walk, listen to the birds, look at nature's beauties. Relax. Enjoy the good life. Go fishing or play golf or tennis, or have a picnic at the bayfront.

That's "Dr." Kinsey's message for the week.

D.A.V. DRAWING WINNERS NAMED

The D.A.V. had its drawing Oct. 14 for a 20 ga. shotgun and $50.00 for gas.

The winner of the gun was Donald Milks, general manager of Sea Gun Resort Hotel.

Mrs. Pat Sanders, teacher at Rockport Elementary School, won the gas.

James Metzger, in behalf of the D.A.V., would like to extend thanks to the many that bought tickets for this event and W.B. Allen who sold the most tickets for the D.A.V.

Bishop Beats 8th Graders

Rockport-Fulton's 8th Grade football Bucs dropped a close game to the Bishop Badgers by a score of 8-16. Despite losing 5 of their 6 fumbles the Bucs were never out of the contest. With two minutes left in the game, Bill Schendel blocked a Bishop punt. On the final play of the game, a pass from James Stevens to Mark Setterbo in the end zone fell short, giving the Badgers their 5th straight win.

The Buc offense, slowed in the first half by fumbles, used the running of Esequiel Hernandez and the passing of James Stevens and Hernandez to move the football. Stevens completed 2 of 6 passes for 40 yards and added 40 yards rushing. Hernandez completed 2 passes for 23 yards and rushed for another 40 yards. The lone Buc score came on an 8-yard bootleg run by quarterback Stevens. The final two points for the Bucs came on a pass from Stevens to Hernandez. Gasper Pena and Mark Setterbo led the Buc receivers with two catches each. Miguel Contreras, starting his first game at fullback, did a fine job of blocking on the pass and the run.

The Buc defense was led by Bill Schendel who was in on 14 tackles and blocked a punt. Miguel Contreras intercepted a Badger pass and returned it for 60 yards to set up the Bucs' only score. Other players doing a fine job on defense were Tommy Tumilson, Esequiel Hernandez, Hectro Saucedo, Bruce Bardwell and Mike Harrison.

The next home game for the Bucs will be against Flour Bluff on Oct. 30. The Bucs travel to Calallen this Thursday to play the Wildkittens.

Story About A Smart Crab

No one can say that Century 21 Itschner isn't on the move! Itschner had a crab entered in the SeaFair Crab Race last Saturday. The crab-Century 21 Itschner lost the race, but the Guilletts, the crab's managers, couldn't bear to eat him so they turned him loose in their canal at 15 Curlew, wondering if he would turn up somewhere.

The crab was decorated with a Century 21 decal, hand-painted by Vicki Guillett. The decal was not taken off the crab's back.

Monday, the Robins, who live at 5 Luau, lifted their crab trap out of the canal and there was that darn crab, right in the middle of that trap, the decal still on him, bright as ever!

The crab had traveled three canals over to end up in that trap!

The Guilletts are going to turn the crab loose again in their canal, so watch out for Century 21-Itschner Real Estate Company!

NURSING HOME NEWS OCT. 13-19

Activities at Aransas Pass Nursing and Convalescent Center:

Gee! I seem to begin our news article every week the same way. Well -- that's just the way it goes out our way.

Monday morning we began our week by having our exercise class. Immediately following exercises the activities director went to Corpus Christi for ther directors meeting.

Tuesday afternoon "The Do Gooders" were out for their game day which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Tuesday evening was movie night with Susan McVey from the San Patricio County Library out of Sinton showing the films.

Wednesday morning Bonnie Fletcher was out for her paint class that some enjoy so much.

Thursday morning the Pentecostal group had to cancel but will be back this week.

Friday evening "The Bible on Film" was shown by Wayne Jones.

Thursday afternoon we had our stereo hour again. Everyone seems to like the change of pace of just coming to the dining area and visiting and having coffee, tea, hot chocolate or a cold soda.

Saturday morning Father James Hamilton came out to administer Holy Communion to our Catholic residents.

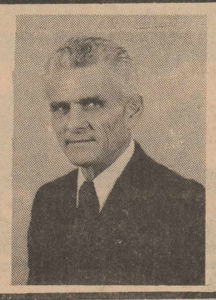

Our home was buzzing all week getting ready for the big Halloween dance which we had Saturday night. This dance was given by the Nursing Center and staff for our residents. Our cook, Barbara Moses, outdid herself on our cake and cupcakes. The diabetic cupcakes were delicious, also. Thanks to Zeke, Gilbert, Belinda and Charlene for decorating the place so well.

Thanks to all of the staff that helped me serve: Ruby Strowbein, Vikki Blackburn, Sandra Tagnacci, Charlene, Elsie, Charlene's sister, and her mother, Mrs. Moses. We had a full house. There was standing room only and not much of that. Last but far from least were our wonderful music makers.

Mrs. Mary Frances Fahrenthold, Phillip Chadwick, Dale Chadwick, Xandra Mathis, Linda Lanfair, and Rita, who read a Halloween poem. Our guests we were very proud to have with us. Thanks to all who make these special events such a great success.

OUTDOORS 'n things

by L. D. NUCKLES

The right of Americans to own and use firearms is a basic part of our heritage and, according to many great Americans, is one of the main reasons why we have remained a free people. In many parts of the world it's a rare privilege to possess firearms, even to protect one's home and family.

Many Americans, some of them important and influential people, are hard at work to get laws enacted that would abridge or do away entirely with the right to possess firearms. Most of these people grew up in cities and know little or nothing about sporting firearms or the sport of hunting or competition target shooting. They do not understand that hunting and shooting for recreation has no connection with the misuse of guns by criminals.

Of course there are hunters who violate the law, just as there are elected officials who drive their cars while under the influence of alcohol. This tends to give all hunters a bad name and makes people look askance at any elected official who drinks anything containing alcohol.

The true sportsman accepts the responsibility that goes with owning and using a gun. He recognizes his duty to handle firearms properly and gladly teaches the younger generation to walk with pride in the path of those who created our great outdoor heritage.

He treats his gun with respect and is always careful where he points the muzzle. He keeps the safety on until he is positive about his target and what is behind his target.

He loads his gun only when in the field or ready on the range. He never climbs or jumps over an obstacle with a loaded gun.

He unloads his gun when not in use and leaves the action open. He would never place a loaded gun into an automobile, and he stores guns and ammunition separately in such a way that it is extremely difficult for criminals to steal the guns.

He recognizes the fact that his gun manners reflect on all gun owners and he respects the right of others to enjoy the outdoors in their own way.

These are the ways of a true sportsman.

The "slob" hunter, on the other hand, violates the game laws, is careless with his firearms, scatters litter about, trespasses on private property, shoots at signs and mail boxes and generally makes a nuisance of himself. This is the type of person that anti-hunters hold up to represent all hunters and is one of the main reasons it is so easy to recruit others to their cause.

How many of your friends are true sportsmen?

COMING UP FOR A.A.R.P.

The next dance will be on November 13 at the airport starting at 7 p.m. Note this is a Thursday instead of a Wednesday so mark your calendars accordingly.

There will be a defensive driving course given on Wed. & Thurs., November 12 & 13 at the airport. Those taking this will get a reduction in their automobile insurance.

This weekend, call any other state* and talk five minutes for 86¢ or less... usually less!
*Except Alaska and Hawaii

Emmett Kelly Jr. for Southwestern Bell

Our weekend One-Plus rates are so low that you can talk awhile and still spend less than a dollar. For instance, a five-minute coast-to-coast Long Distance call dialed direct all Saturday and Sunday until 5 p.m. is only 86¢. An out-of-state call spanning fewer miles costs even less. If you can't wait till the weekend these same low rates are in effect every night from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m.

Where One-Plus dialing isn't available, One-Plus rates apply on station calls. If you dial direct and reach a wrong number, call the operator. You won't be charged.

Travel by Long Distance... and stay awhile.

FOOD ADS BENEFIT WISE SHOPPERS

College Station -- "Competing for the family food dollar" is one reason grocery stores spend so much money on advertising, and shoppers can capitalize on this, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist, says.

"Food ads give consumers a chance to compare cost and quality among stores, making wise shopping easier," she explained.

Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Other benefits of advertising are introducing new products which increase the variety of foods in the daily diet and enabling cusumers to repeat satisfactory purchases by brand indentification."

"What caused the explosion at your house last night?"

"Powder on my sleeve."

BOTTLE GARDENING FOR BUSYBODIES

College Station -- If you don't have the time to take care of an indoor garden, why not try bottle gardening, suggests a landscape horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"All you need to turn a dull dark corner of your home into a bright colorful spot is a waterproof container, tap water and cuttings of some favorite plants," says Everett Janne.

Beverage bottles, vases, canning jars, fish bowls and aquariums make good containers.

Use cuttings from any plant with a thick stem, such as a myrtle, geranium, oleander, wax begonia, coleus or hibiscus.

"First, clean out the bottle with hot water and detergent. Then add tap water. Make a clean cut on the branch or stem you want to use and remove the lower leaves so that none will be below the waterline. Put the cuttings in the water and arrange them any way you like," says the horticulturist with the Texas A&M University System.

Change the water about once a month and wash the container with hot water and detergent to kill any algae or bacteria. Also, scrub the plant stems and make a fresh cut on the stem to improve water uptake. Turn the container about once a week to make sure all angles of the plants get sunlight.

"When stems start deteriorating, replace them with fresh ones," says Janne. "Also, any of the cuttings that develop roots can be planted in pots or in flower beds."

Plants in bottle gardens add interest and color to the interior of the home and also clean up the air we breathe, adds the horticulturist.

B.J. Crowley's HOROSCOPE

CANCER Answer line

American Cancer Society

Question: "Is X-ray treatment effective for all kinds of cancer and is it safe?"
ANSWERline: X-ray or radiation treatment is only one of several ways to control cancer. Other methods include surgery, treatment with drugs and hormones. Indeed, radiation is often combined with these other methods for best results. Radiation is used or not used, depending on the type and location of a cancerous growth. When it is administered by a specially-trained physician (called a radiologist), it is safe and valuable.

A reader asks: "Is it true that the Russian author Boris Pasternak died of lung cancer? I thought that was our problem!"
ANSWERline: Yes, it's true. But it is not true that lung cancer is strictly an American problem. It is worldwide, including Russia. The British Isles, the Netherlands, Finland and Japan have higher lung cancer death rates than we do.
Recently the American Cancer Society hosted a World Conference on Smoking and Health in New York with delegates from 53 countries because this is truly a global problem.

A senior citizen asks: "Does a sudden unexplained pain mean cancer -- is it like a heart attack?"
ANSWERline: Pain is usually a late sign of cancer. Cancer is not a sudden disease, it takes time to develop. That's why regular checkups are a wise idea. Naturally, when you feel recurring pain, you should consult a physician.

A businessman notes: "I have heard that there is a kind of do-it-yourself test for bowel cancer. Is that correct and is it enough?"
ANSWERline: There is a test for hidden blood in the stool. If the test is positive, further investigation is necessary because it could mean early cancer or other gastro-intestional conditions. The test involves taking samples at home on special paper for three days. This is a useful diagnostic tool for your physician, but it is not the only one. Of great importance is a test nicknamed, "procto", which enables the physician to visually examine the insides of the bowel by means of a lighted tubular instrument. If you are over 40, it is recommended that you have a "procto" on an annual basis or as your physician suggests.

A young mother asks: "How do you explain the name of the Pap test. I had one after the birth of my baby and would like to know. Also, should I have more Pap tests or is one enough?"
ANSWERline: The name of the test honors Dr. George N. Papanicolaou, the Greek-American physician who discovered this test for cancer of the uterine cervix. The American Cancer Society which helped support Dr. Papanicolaou's research is now working to have all women at risk of uterine cancer have a Pap test. The American Cancer Society urges you to have a Pap test on a regular basis. One test is not enough. Your local American Cancer Society office has special free leaflets to explain everything you need to know about the test. Please ask for them.

Question: "In a state the size of Texas, how many people will get cancer?"
ANSWERline: According to the American Cancer Society, some 32,000 Texans will get cancer this year. The size of the state doesn't matter, the size of the population does. For example, there will be just 300 cases in all of Alaska.

Fix-It Tip

Even if you are not planning a recreation room or some formal living area in your basement you can still make it a useful and good looking place for both work and play.
Chances are you have storm windows throughout your house but not in your basement. Inexpensive combination storm and screen windows are available at most hardware and department stores. They are generally aluminum and can be fastened with sheet metal screws or a special adhesive right to the metal frames of the basement windows.
These will not only keep your basement warmer in the winter but help to keep the entire house warmer. If you have a warm air furnace you can cut into the duct work at one or two points and install small registers.

GI BILL BENEFITS

A record 2,691,566 persons trained under the GI Bill during fiscal year 1975 and projections indicate the number will exceed three million persons in this fiscal year, A.A. Hunter, Veterans Administration Regional Director, reported today. The FY 1975 figures represented a 14 per cent increease over FY 1974.

The current GI Bill entered its 10th year June 1. Participation rates have exceeded those under either of its two predecessors. Some 4.5 million of the 7.6 million eligible Vietnam-era veterans have used GI Bill benefits, about 60 per cent.

The participation rate was 43.4 per cent under 13 years of the Korean Conflict bill and 50.5 per ccent under 12 years of the original World War II bill.

The FY 1975 total included 266,890 men and women still on acctive military duty. Of the remaining 2.4 million veterans almost two million saw service during the Vietnam era. Two out of the three persons trained in FY 1975 were at the college level.

Preliminary reports received by VA of fall enrollment across the nation indicate the FY 1975 record will be short-lived. "Our best forecast at this time is for 3,077,000 trainees in fiscal year 1976," Hunter said.

The FY 1975 figures include 890,000 persons entering training for the first time. This is almost 100,000 more than entered training in FY 1974. Of the new trainees, 67 per cent entered at college level, exclusive of correspondence courses.

VA officials attribute the current surge in participation to increased educational assistance allowances enacted under the Vietnam Era Readjustment Act of 1974.

Single veterans attending school full time receive $270 monthly. A veteran with one dependent draws $321 monthly, $366 with two dependents and an additional $22 monthly for each dependent over two.

A special outreach effort has been started by the VA to urge 94,000 eligible women veterans who have not used their GI Bill benefits. Deadline for completion of training is May 31, 1976, or 10 years from the veteran's date of discharge, whichever is later. Only 46 per cent of the 174,000 eligible women veterans have trained under the current GI Bill.

Among those 80,000 women who have used the current bill, some may be eligible for a special retroactive payment. Women veterans who were married and who attended school under the GI Bill between June 1, 1966, and Oct. 24, 1972, may be eligible for about $30 for each month they were in training while married.

The special payment equalizes benefits with those received married male veterans who trained under the GI Bill during this period. Women veterans may file claims for money at any VA regional office before July 1, 1976.

The fellow who drinks any given amount seldom buys.

PUBLIC NOTICES
"BECAUSE THE PEOPLE MUST KNOW"

(Editor's Note: Public Notice advertising plays a unique role both in American history and in the process by which this country's democracy is preserved. Its one premise is that people must be informed if they are to govern themselves competently. Public Notice advertising first came into being with the Congress of 1792. That body, recognizing its responsibility to the people, required the Postmaster General to advertise for bids for the construction of new post offices. From that inauspicious beginning to the complex publication requirements in federal, state and local laws today, government officials have come more and more to understand their obligations to inform the public through Public Notice advertising. Newspapers over the years have been the vehicle by which these obligations have been fulfilled. They will continue to be as long as the public demands that it be informed frequently and by the best means possible.)

D.A.V. News

The Disabled American Veterans Post #210 of Rockport held their monthly meeting Oct. 14 at the V.F.W. Hall. Commander Bill Gray presided with 15 members present and 3 guests. It was voted to name the post, The American Veterans Memorial Post #210 of Rockport, Texas.

Commander Charles A. Irwin, Jr., of Region V of Texas, of Portland, presented the Post with their charter. There are 18 charter members.

The post invites any man or woman who was wounded, gassed, injured or disabled in line of duty during time of war, while in service of either the military or name forces of the United States of America and who has not been dishonorably discharged or separated from such service, or who may still be in active service in the Armed Forces of the Unted States of America is eligible for membership in the Disabled American Veterans.

Others who were disabled while serving with any of the armed forces of any nation associated with the United States of America or allies during any of its war periods, who are American citizens and who are honorably discharged, are also eligible.

All persons who are receiving or once did receive compensation from Veterans Administration for disability incurred or aggravated during any defined periods are eligible, as are all persons awarded vocational training because of injury or disability.

Library News

Kaylynn Robbins of the Texas State Library staff conducted a workshop in Corpus Christi October 17. Mrs. A.C. Hamon, librarian, attended the meeting. The Interlibrary Loan Network has been restructured and revised to make it more cost effective and more available to all public libraries.

Interlibrary loan is becoming more and more important as increasing numbers of Texas citizens are turning to their public libraries for their information needs. Each library has the responsibility to select the materials most likely to meet its patrons' needs.

However, there are always information requests that cannot be answered at the local level. Through Interlibrary Loan books, information from periodicals, U.N. documents, U.S. documents, Texas documents and answers to reference questions can be obtained. There is no charge for this service.

Among the orders of birds in North America, the order of loons is most like its remote ancestors. Their bones and other characteristics are most nearly like those of ancient fossil birds of any on this continent.

FEW DIE FROM SNAKEBITES

Snakebites very seldom kill.

Some 45,000 persons are bitten by snakes each year in the United States, says the Texas Medical Association.

Of the 45,000 bites, some 8,000 are by venomous snakes. Despite these many bites by poisonous snakes, deaths from snake venom poisoning have not exceeded 12 per year in the past five years.

In some 20 per cent of the bites of poisonous snakes, no venom is actually injected.

While there are more than 3,000 species of snakes, only 300 or so are sufficiently poisonous to be of danger to man. In the United States, there are some 120 species of snakes, about 20 of which are venomous. These latter include rattlesnakes, cottonmouth water moccasins, copperheads and coral snakes.

Injection of antivenin as soon as possible after the bite is highly important in treatment.

Incisions over the fang marks and suction from the cuts are helpful only within the first 30 minutes after the bite. A tourniquet above the bite may help. The patient should be kept warm, not allowed to walk or be given alcohol, and should be given constant reassurance.

The most important act following snakebite is to get the victim to a hospital or doctor as quickly as possible. New studies have shown that the antivenin is most effective when given within four hours of a bite, the earlier the better. It is of less value if delayed for eight hours, and of questionable value after 24 hours.

Four Wildlife Areas Open To Archery Hunts This Fall

Austin -- Four of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's wildlife management areas will be open to archers for deer hunting in October. Two of the areas -- the Kerr in Kerr County and the Engeling in Anderson County -- require permits and deadline for permit applications to the P&WD is September 22.

A public drawing will be held September 25 at 10 a.m. in the department's Austin headquarters in the John H. Reagan Building to draw 300 permits to hunt the Kerr Area and 400 for the Engeling Area.

Both archery deer hunts are scheduled for October 18-26.

Those selected to hunt the Kerr or Engeling Areas will be charged a $20 fee to help offset the costs of conducting the hunts. Permits will be assigned for two days of hunting with a one-deer-of-either-sex limit.

Department officials remind those interested that an applicant must be at least 12 years of age or older to participate and those under 17 years of age must be sponsored on the hunt by either their parents or a person 21 years old who is responsible for the minor. An adult may sponsor only one hunter who is under the age of 17.

The P&WD's Pat Mayse Area in Lamar County and the Dam "B'Unit of the Angelina Area in Jasper County are open for deer hunting by bow and arrow at no charge and no permit is required.

An October 1-15 season is set for the Mayse Area and an October 1-31 season for the Dam "B'Unit.

This is the first year a $3.25-archery stamp is required in addition to a valid hunting license for all archers who use bow and arrow to hunt deer, turkey, bear and javelina during an open season.

WASHINGTON, D. C. -- Jack Nicklaus, in winning the P.G.A. title recently, seems to have established command again on the pro golf circuit.

At the beginning of the season Johnny Miller was a serious challenger to the Golden Bear--especially when he won several western tournaments with record scores.

He was saying then he was ready to challenge Nicklaus; but Jack beat him at Augusta and has now added the P.G.A. title.

Council On Aging Aid Sr. Citizens

"The Council on Aging," reported Administrator Neil Gage to the Rockport Lions on October 16 at their regular meeting at Sandollar Restaurant, "discovered in its first year of operation that there is extensive and varied need among the senior citizens of the county."

He said that needs are not necessarily monetary and that the Council serves well as an information-referral service to help through a listing of all available services in the Corpus Christi area.

Operating out of the Concerned Center office, the council's work in one year included 1768 calls received, resulting in help to 415 people. 19 transportation volunteers working with the Council on Aging made 292 service calls, mostly to Corpus Christi.

"We helped save the life of one man not yet old enough for Social Security by bringing him to the office of a local doctor who immediately referred him to the Sealy Hospital in Galveston where his gangrenous leg was amputated below the knee.

"We are now looking for the $500/$600 it will cost to fit him with an artificial limb," commented Mr. Gage in pointing out what some service calls have entailed. "I have gone to many homes and we have helped people who were reluctant to ask for help by arranging for much needed home care assistance."

At the request for a member of the Rockport Lions Club to serve on the 15-member Advisory Committee of the Council, Gene Garcia was named by Rockport Lions President Bill Ratliff.

The speaker had been introduced by John Leslie, president -nominee of AARP, the local organization of persons over 55 years of age that grew into an effective group of almost 400 people in one year.

The president of the club named a special committee of Lions James Dupnik, James Little, Jimmy Anders, and Ray Longino to plan repairing and expanding of the barbecue facilities at Rockport Harbor.

"Halloween Night should be a joyous experience for children of the area Friday of next week, October 31. With games under the supervision of various clubs and organizations; with 2,000 sacks of candy; with a Teen-Dance planned, all at Aransas County Airport it should be a great night," promises Chairman Don Stone of the Fulton Lions Club, sponsor of this third annual affair.

"We appreciate favorable comment by Sheriff Bob Hewes and by other citizens, and we will appreciate any financial help for buying candy. We will have to spend at least $1,000. Any help can be sent to Fulton Lions Club, Cass Hamon, treasurer, P.O. Box 1093, Rockport," concluded Lion Stone.

7th Grade Loses 12 - 6

The 7th grade football traveled to Aransas Pass and played against their 8th grade B team. The Bucs, improving every game, played their best game of the season before losing 12-6.

The Bucs scored first on a reverse with Johnny Little running 80 yards for the touchdown. Aransas Pass scored in the 2nd and 3rd quarters.

The Bucs offense was led by Kroy DeForest at fullback who did an excellent job of blocking, Kyle Dietz handling the ball very smoothly at quarterback.

The offensive line was paced by Bubba Scott, Shane Harper, George Solis, James Winters, Felipe Ayala, and Daniel Vasquez.

Once again defense was paced by ends Brad Reininger and Bryan Evans.

Other defensive linemen who played a good game were led by Roy Riojas, Robert Stevens, Alvino Valenzuel, and linebackers Alvin Miller, and Coy Boone.

Secondary prevented long runs paced by David Williams, PeeWee Solis, John McKibban and Jim Eaton.

More Redfish In Salt Water

Palacios -- Redfish transplanting got its start in Texas back in the 1950s. And for the past 20 to 25 years the biggest obstacle in the way of a successful program has been the lack of sufficient quantities of small redfish for laboratory work and stocking experiments.

No more.

Federal and state biologists at the National Marine Fisheries Service Port Aransas lab have obtained more than 70 million redfish eggs from six adult fish in some 37 spawns since mid-August.

The production from the few adults has taken everyone by surprise and the Parks and Wildlife Department -- major recipient of most of the offspring -- has been jumping to stay ahead of production at Port Aransas and rearing at the P&WD Palacios Marine Fisheries Station.

Some 101,000 1¼-inch fingerling redfish -- the latest production from the Palacios rearing ponds -- were stocked in three major saltwater sites on the upper and middle Texas coast October 2.

This is the second time reds produced from the captive broodstock have been stocked in salt water. The first, on Aug. 24, was of some 7½ million tiny 1/8-inch fry released near Harbor Island in the Port Aransas area.

On October 2, P&WD coastal fisheries officials stocked 55,000 fingerlings at four points in Matagorda Bay, 6,000 near Portland, 15,000 near Rockport and 25,000 in a spoil lagoon off Sabine Lake.

The 101,000 fingerlings had been reared for 33 days at the Palacios Station.

The Sabine Lake spoil area promises to be an excellent test site.

There are two such spoil areas of comparable size. The "south" area was stocked with 25,000 redfish with the "north" area left unstocked as a control.

Both have an abundance of natural food and cover with small openings to Sabine Lake. The two areas have some naturally occurring redfish at present. Plans are to monitor progress of the stocked reds in the south and compare them against reds in the unstocked north area.

Earlier in September, 25,000 fingerlings went into two inland lakes: Long Lake near Austin and Tradinghouse Creek Reservoir near Waco.

BAYTOWN ANTIQUE SHOW OCT. 23, 24, 25

The Baytown Antique Dealers Association Show and Sale will be held October 23, 24 and 25 at the Baytown Civic Center, 2407 Market Street, Baytown, Texas.

This will be the first show sponsored by the newly organized club and plans are now being made to make this an annual event. Also, another project of the club will be to give programs to local clubs and organizations on collecting antiques, collectibles, repair and refinishing furniture.

There will be all types of antiques and collectors items for sale. Glassware, pottery, bottles, furniture, clocks, primitives and jewelery and much more memorabelia from the past. Something will be available for all collectors, in all price ranges, starting $1.00 and up.

There will be 20 to 25 dealers participating in the show and sale.

Also a $25.00 gift certificate drawing will be held each day.. This entitles the winner to spend $25.00 on any item of their choice in the Baytown shops.$

Admission is $1 and ticckets may be purchased at the doors.

The show and sale opens Thursday, October 23, 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Friday, October 24, 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, October 25, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

GUESTS AT PLANTATION

St. Francisville, La.--Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Lawler, Rockport, Texas, were recent guests at Rosedown Plantation and Gardens in St. Francisville, La. Rosedown is a restored plantation empire in the Felicianas, the region made famous by the Artist-Naturalist John James Audubon, who painted more than thirty of his famous bird-life studies more than a century ago.

Their visit coincided with the peak bloom of ancient crape myrtle, thousands of old and modern roses.
