

United Way 'week' nears one-half goal

Some 45 percent of this year's United Way goal was reported reached here Wednesday morning following the first report meeting of the 1983 campaign.

Division chairmen commented that numerous donation packets were as yet uncollected and the indication was that the ultimate campaign amount of $77,300 was "definitely still in sight."

Winding the fund raiser up in a week's time was one of this year's goals. While noting that the majority of the packet distribution process had been completed, Campaign Drive Chairman Roy McQueen commented,

"We've got to keep plugging."

Dollars reported Wednesday totaled some $34,867 — an amount essentially raised during a seven day period.

Commercial and oil and industry division chairmen — who distribute up to 700 packets between the two divisions — indicated approximately one-half of their donation packets were still to come in. These are expected to be finalized through this week.

In addition, the educational division drive effort is planned during the remainder of this month to coincide with pay periods for public school teachers and staffers with Western Texas College.

Meanwhile, the advance division for the campaign was reported at 70 percent complete with some $15,000 raised. Chairmen for the advance effort are Don Newbury and Mickey Nunley, who expect to raise $21,037 before the drive ends.

The following includes the goals for other divisions during the 1983 campaign and the dollar amount reported Wednesday:

—Commercial: a goal of $13,886 with $3,953 reported to date. This equals 28 percent achieved. Chairmen for the division are Roy McQueen and Rex Robinson. See DRIVE, page 12

FIRST REPORT — The first report from United Way campaign workers Wednesday morning indicated approximately 45 percent of this year's goal had been reached after the first week of the drive. Ask Us

Q. — I understand the interest rate paid for U.S. Savings Bonds has gone up. Is this true?

A. — Depending on how the market rises and falls, a higher interest rate than before is likely. Prior to last November, bonds that had matured earned a fixed rate of 9 percent interest. New legislation effective after Nov. 1 now ties this interest to 85 percent of the average market yields on Treasury securities, a move which supporters say will insure bond holdings "keep pace."

In Brief

Shamir is officially called

JERUSALEM (AP) — President Chaim Herzog today asked Foreign Minister Yitzhak Shamir to his official residence to be assigned the task of forming a new government as Prime Minister Menachem Begin's successor.

Herzog's office said Shamir, a close associate of Begin, was to see the president at midday.

Scream thwarts robbery

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A man who snatched a briefcase containing $100,000 in diamonds was arrested after bystanders reacted to the gem dealer's screams, recovered the case and then alerted the police, authorities said.

Diamond importer Donna Lee Spear, 42, was putting the briefcase in the trunk of her car about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday when a man rushed up behind her, pushed her in the trunk and grabbed the gems, detective Larry Rowe said.

"She started screaming and several people from a nearby sports car dealership ran out," Rowe said.

William Bunker, 20, an employee of Alamo Sports Cars, dashed after the man, yanked the briefcase away and then flagged down a patrolman, the detective said.

The contents of the briefcase, which included a four-carat gem valued at $20,000, were intact, police said.

Judge denies man new trial

ODESSA, Texas (AP) — State District Judge R. L. McKim has denied a request for a new trial for a man convicted and sentenced to death in the bomb slaying of a former business associate.

Defense lawyer Jim Vollers requested a new trial for John Clifford Skelton on grounds that he was convicted on circumstantial evidence and alleged there was no real evidence connecting his client to the death of Joe Lee Neal.

Neal died April 24, 1982, when a bomb exploded in his pickup truck. There was testimony that Skelton had threatened Neal and that he purchased a quantity of dynamite not long before the bomb exploded.

Russian moves to Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Maria Chmykhalov became the second member of the "Siberian Seven" to move to Dallas after the Pentacostalists were allowed to leave the Soviet Union.

Mrs. Chmykhalov is joining her son, Timofei, at the Christ For the Nations Institute, a Bible college in south Dallas.

The seven people took refuge in the U.S. Embassy at Moscow and remained there for five years until they were allowed to emigrate three months ago.

Noon Thursday marks fair opening

The 19th Annual Scurry County Fair officially opens to the public at noon Thursday at the Scurry County Coliseum.

Fairgoers may then view the myriad of exhibits and fair competitions until 10 p.m. nightly through Saturday.

Wednesday was scheduled to be a busy fair day also, however, as planning and setups for various fair events are concluded. The coliseum will be open from 8 a.m. until 10 p.m. for these preparations.

Fair exhibit booth construction was to continue during the morning. Beginning at 1 p.m., entries are to be accepted for several fair competitions as well.

From 1 until 6 p.m., entries for container grown plants may be turned in. From 1 until 8 p.m., entries may be brought to the coliseum for the textiles, handicrafts, agricultural products, educational and community exhibits, canned goods, open beef, dairy cattle and breeding sheep divisions.

The special activity planned Thursday night will be a dog show scheduled in the coliseum ag annex beginning at 7 p.m.

The 3rd annual domino tournament will begin Thursday also, plus other traditional features including carnival rides and games adjacent to the coliseum and the popular Kiddie Barnyard in the ag annex.

The fair is organized and carried out each year by the Scurry County Fair Association which is comprised of a 21-member board assisted by 46 fair superintendents and associates.

The following is the fair schedule for Thursday, the first day of the event.

—8-10 a.m.: Entries accepted for flower show.
—9 a.m.: Entries accepted for agriculture, textiles, handicrafts, educational and community exhibits and livestock.

—9 a.m.: Judging of open beef and dairy cattle.
—10 a.m.: Flower show entries deadline.
—9 a.m.-noon: Judging of entries.
—3:30-10 p.m.: Flower show open to the public.
—Noon: Scurry County Fair open to the public.
—1-6 p.m.: Entries accepted for junior lambs and steers.

—6 p.m.: Domino tournament (Room A) —7-8:30 p.m.: Dog show (ag barn).
—8 p.m.: Entertainment (stage area).

They may be announced this week by the White House or by President Reagan when he addresses the U.N. General Assembly next Monday.

On a related front, the administration is preparing to propose to the Soviets that both sides remove two strategic nuclear warheads from their arsenals for each new one deployed.

The move to integrate the so-called "build-down" concept into the U.S. negotiating position at the Geneva arms control talks is certain to improve prospects for congressional approval of the MX missile program.

A number of key senators, including Democrat Sam Nunn of Georgia and Republican William Cohen of Maine, have urged Reagan to adopt the build-down approach. He indicated he might be receptive last spring, while making other changes in the U.S. position in the Strategic Arms Reduction Talks (START).

Since the administration already has proposed a cut of some 2,200 U.S. warheads — the Soviets would have to destroy about 2,900 to reach Reagan's proposed ceiling of 5,000 on each side.

Equal rights has come to the military. Fellows who served in World War II remember regulations, but few of them had anything to do with jewelry.

According to a recent directive from the Pentagon, female soldiers can now wear earrings while in certain uniforms. The army however limits such jewelry to a small pearl, gold or silver round ones that fit snugly against the ear.

The more than 75,000 gals in uniform are prohibited from wearing just one earring nor can they wear them while wearing battle fatigues.

How do they expect them to make a good impression on the enemy?

Autumn must be near. Every year, when the crickets invade Snyder, you can be certain that cooler weather and fall is just around the corner.

The hordes of black chirping insects which have covered streets, sidewalks and sides of buildings for more than a week is ample proof that the change in seasons is at hand.

Entomologists explain that crickets begin their migration from fields to towns when temperatures begin to drop. Well-lighted areas and grassy areas are most likely for invasion. Although a nuisance, they are not a health hazard. They can, however, harm ornamental and garden plants and may occasionally feed on clothing fabrics.

The noise may be another negative feature, but there are some positive aspects. One fellow suggested that John the Baptist survived on a diet of wild honey and locusts, a close cousin of the common cricket.

This indicates some nutritional value. Exotic cooking specialists contend that crickets are quite palatable, if deep fried or coated with chocolate.

We're not fooled though. Shoot, our wife's cooking is almost palatable—if drenched with chocolate syrup.

cafeteria. At that time presentations will be made by Larry Skiles of San Angelo, financial adviser for the school system, and Gary Donaldson of San Angelo, architect for the project.

According to Jay Martin, superintendent of school trustees feel that now is the best time to proceed with the bond election because construction costs and interest rates are down when compared to the past few years.

"The needs of our school have been based on several factors," Martin said, "Among which are increased enrollments, educational mandates from the Texas State Legislature, and deficiencies in our school cafeteria, as indicated by recent State Health Department reports."

He added that at the present time all available classrooms are being utilized, adding there is no extra space to accommodate the larger classes coming into the junior and senior high school.

The last major addition to Ira Schools was completed 32 years ago in 1951, Martin said.

"Over the past years, the students and faculty have made the most of what we provided, but the simple fact is that our school facilities, in particular our homemaking, science and business rooms, are overcrowded and outdated," he said.

"Our resource students are required to leave the main building several times a day to go to their classroom in the old agriculture building," he continued. "This involves young students and poses safety problems for them."

Martin also offered projections concerning what the school renovations would cost Ira school district taxpayers.

Based on 9 1/4 percent interest over 10 years, Ira taxpayers could expect to pay from 5-5 1/2 cents more per $100 valuation, he said.

A six year payout at nine percent interest would mean eight cents more per $100 valuation.

Eight years at nine percent interest would mean 6-6 1/2 cents more per $100 valuation.

Each additional year on the payout plan means about $10,000 more in interest charges.

testing the 18-year-rule of Ferdinand E. Marcos poured into the center of Manila today calling for his resignation, but the embattled president said on national television he was more saddened than angered by the protests. Demonstrators, blaming Marcos for the assassination of opposition leader Benigno Aquino, brought the flag to half-staff in front of Manila's main Post Office and sent up hundreds of yellow balloons. Shouts of "Ninoy, Ninoy," Aquino's nickname, filled the plaza where Aquino's widow Corazon, clad in black, moved through the crowd. Many of the protesters dressed in yellow or wore yellow ribbons to symbolize a homecoming.

Aquino family members had joined with other prominent opposition leaders to declare today a "national day of sorrow." The day of mourning comes one month after Aquino was murdered at the Manila airport upon arriving from three years of self-imposed exile in the United States.

Today also marks the 11th anniversary of Marcos' declaration of martial law, which lasted eight years. Marcos promised "maximum tolerance" by security officials monitoring the demonstrations, and reportedly ordered police assigned to crowd control not to carry firearms.

"Blessed are the peacemakers."

We have no option but to keep trying for it.

But if we're not realistic about the prospects for success we could bankrupt ourselves trying for it.

Our Marines in Lebanon are called "a peacekeeping force." I can remember no time when there was peace in Lebanon.

Lebanese Moslems and Lebanese Christians have been fussing and fighting for 140 years.

Similarly in Latin America we must be idealistic about the objective of peace but realistic about what we can afford to bet on it.

Our Defense Secretary Weinberger was a whirlwind three days in three Latin American nations — enough to satisfy him that they need more of your money — $84 million more just for El Salvador.

Guatemala's new dictator wants some of your money.

Who doesn't? But how are you going to jump-start a country that keeps blowing its head off?

Let me take you for a moment to the southernmost tip of South America, to Chile.

Ten years ago Chile was in trouble. Marxism had resulted in food shortages, runaway inflation despite price controls, hundred percent tariff barriers, exports down, unemployment up.

So Chileans threw out one dictator in favor of another, threw out Allende in favor of Pinochet.

Shortly things began looking up.

The nation adopted supply-side economics.

Price controls came off, inflation fever subsided from 500 percent to 9.5 percent.

Tariffs came down to 10 percent, markets expanded, employment improved. By 1976, its economy growing seven percent per year, Chile was a hemispheric showcase for the good life.

It was a nation flooded with new cars, television antennas sprouted everywhere.

Chile, even under a military dictator, was a model for all so-called "developing countries."

Two years ago the cream began to sour.

Bankruptcies on an unprecedented scale. Unemployment more than 30 percent. Foreign debt accumulated to a burdensome $17 billion worsened by a continuing deficit.

Until finally, last year, the peso was devalued.

So this summer the rioting resumed.

And it is escalating. I expect President Pinochet's tenth year will be his last.

What went wrong? We must acknowledge the significance of soft copper prices because copper has been Chile's major export.

But the more significant consideration is that Chileans could not take prosperity. When they got fat they got lazy. Goods and services produced within Chile were down 14.3 percent last year.

They, perhaps like others you know, could not compete with imported prices.

So here is a neighbor in which "our way of life" was, in fact, imported. Economist Milton Friedman was down there during his early reform.

But even "our" does not necessitate itself.

Self-government without self-discipline is its own undoing.

Oilers trade Manning, Casper

HOUSTON (AP) - Quarterback Archie Manning and tight end Dave Casper said they were surprised but happy about a whirlwind trade that sent both of them from the Houston Oilers to the Minnesota Vikings.

"I'm shocked," Manning told the Houston Chronicle Tuesday night after both teams announced the deal. "I never expected something like this. I've been very dedicated to this job."

"I've busted my butt to help the team get out of this slump, but I'm looking forward to going to Minnesota because they're a winning team."

The Chronicle quoted a source close to the Vikings as saying Houston will receive choices in the second and fourth rounds of the 1984 draft. Oilers Coach Ed Biles refused to confirm that report.

Biles said the deal came about in a single day.

"They contacted us today," he said. General Manager Ladd Herzog negotiated with the Vikings "throughout the day, talking back and forth with them and keeping me informed of what was going on. It was finally finalized this evening."

Herzog said the Oilers would pay a substantial portion of both players' salaries through 1985.

The Vikings' starting quarterback, Tommy Kramer, is expected to miss the rest of the season because of a knee injury he suffered Sunday against Tampa Bay.

Casper, a native of Bemidji, Minn., said he is delighted with the change.

"I've always wanted to play for the Vikings," he told the Chronicle. "I told Ed Biles that this would be my last year with the Oilers. I guess that had something to do with the trade."

He did not criticize the Oilers, who have lost all three of their games this year and have dropped 10 games in a row.

"I think this is a good deal for both teams," Casper said. "The Oilers have improved as an organization. They're growing."

Biles said the loss of Manning, 34, and Casper, 31, would not hurt the team this year.

"The young tight ends, Chris Dressel and Mike McCloskey, are doing a fine job for us," he said. "We want to give them more playing time."

As for the quarterback job, Biles said, "We thought there was very little to choose from from day one between Archie and Gifford (Nielsen). Giff's playing time - when he's played, he's done well for us."

Manning started at quarterback in all three of the Oilers' games this year, completing 44 of 88 passes for 755 yards with two touchdowns and eight interceptions.

He is coming off his worst performance of the season. Manning threw four interceptions and lost a fumble against the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday.

Casper has been hampered by a lower back injury. He was the Oilers' leading receiver last season with 36 receptions for 573 yards and six touchdowns. Casper has caught seven passes for 79 yards this year.

Manning joins the Vikings as the No. 2 quarterback - behind Steve Dils, who has replaced Kramer.

Go 4-0 in district...

Girls outlast Maidens

By BILL MCCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

Snyder's girls took a refresher course here Tuesday, repeating some lessons they had already learned, but apparently wanted to go over again.

They were basic lessons. Like don't let the opponent back into a match when you've put her out of it. And how to regain the momentum once you've lost it.

That final lesson proved to be the most important, because Snyder did have Lake View whipped, did let the Maidens back into the match, and finally, did regain momentum and come away with the victory.

Snyder mauled the Maidens 15-1 in the first game, lost the second 14-16 and won the final 15-7 to wrap up their fourth straight District 2-4A victory. The loss sent Lake View spiraling down to 1-3.

Snyder's quest was in stopping Maiden standout Lori Hoelscher. At 6-1, Hoelscher is capable of dominating the net. She did just that at times Tuesday. Aided by the all-around abilities of Cynthia Hall and Patty Campos, Lake View is no pushover when its girls gain a little momentum.

"We knew that what we needed to do was come out strong against Hoelscher and that's exactly what we did," said Coach Leslie O'Pry. "That slowed her down a lot. Then we got to thinking Lake View was easy and all of a sudden they came back strong."

Snyder controlled Hoelscher in the first game. Perhaps intimidated by Snyder's winning reputation, Lake View opened meekly and was kept that way by the polished teamwork of the Tigers. Good backline defense and stronger front line play kept the visitors from gaining even a foothold of momentum - something that is of paramount importance in this sport.

But Hoelscher opened the second game with a thundering spike. That, and several Snyder mistakes, helped the Maidens come back. Lake View rolled off six unanswered points before Snyder was able to retaliate.

"She's tough to block because she has that roundhouse hit," said O'Pry of Hoelscher. "You can block her but you have to use a delay block."

The Tigers finally got into the game, and with Tricia Gregory serving, tied the visitors at 9-9. The serve changed sides but Snyder got it back and Sabrina Sullivan came in to serve up five more points, 14-9.

Tiger news good; team working to correct mistakes

Coach George Byerly and his Tigers received some good news this week in the form of an injury report.

Junior end Kyle Freeman, who had suffered a knee injury and was thought to be out for the season, may be back in several weeks. Doctors discovered Freeman had no ligament damage and were able to do orthoscopic surgery.

No one knows how long his rehabilitation will take, but the process usually takes from 2-1/2 to 5 weeks, meaning Freeman could possibly back back for the final three to five ballgames.

In another injury report, quarterback Jimmy Cain is being held out of workouts this week after aggravating a thigh injury. Cain, a starter in all of Snyder's games, has been troubled with leg problems before during the season.

Coaches brought sophomore Jimmy Hunter (5-10, 170) up off the junior varsity this week to bolster the linebacking and running back corps. They also moved Ronnie Landis from center to tight end to provide for stronger blocking in that position.

Byerly said the team would concentrate on Sweetwater later this week, but was working on other things now.

"We're working on Sweetwater a little, but we haven't even passed out scouting reports yet. We will work on them a little later in the week (presumably on Thursday and Friday). That will give us a couple of days longer to concentrate on them," he said, referring to next week too, since the Tigers are idle this Friday night.

"Right now we're concentrating on other things that are hurting us. One, we've got to be more physical, and (two) we've got to eliminate mistakes at crucial times. Those are the things we're concentrating on right now."

Landry high on Bates

DALLAS (AP) - Dallas Coach Tom Landry seldom goes overboard about any rookie, but free agent Billy Bates of Tennessee has proved the exception.

Bates has been a wild man on special teams and his role as a defensive back-linebacker in Dallas' pass prevent defense has been an eye opener.

"Bates is super, he's everywhere," Landry said.

Bates has been particularly adept at blitzing the quarterback and registered a resounding sack of Scott Brunner in Dallas' 28-13 victory Sunday over the New York Giants.

"Bates likes to play and has done a great job," Landry said. "We knew his (lack of) speed might be a limitation. He moves fast enough for us. You like to see a guy like him on the field. He's what defense is all about."

The Cowboys were rated eight-point favorites over the Saints and over 3,000 tickets remained on sale for the noon kickoff.

Crawls out of ravine...

Man survives 3 day wreck ordeal

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP) — Fighting broken bones, ant bites and thirst for three days, a 21-year-old man managed to hoist himself from his crushed pickup truck, climb a 50-foot ravine and lie down in the road pretending "I was real sick" to attract rescuers.

Sam Lee suffered two broken collarbones, a compound fracture of the left arm, two broken ribs, a broken leg and a compression fracture of the spine when his truck careened off a New Mexico highway Thursday and fell down a deep gully.

"All these cars were going by and they weren't going to stop and I figured I had to get my butt up there or nobody's going to find me," Lee said Tuesday from his bed at San Juan Regional Medical Center. He was in fair condition.

Clad only in a T-shirt, jeans and tennis shoes and carrying no food or water, Lee said he fell asleep at the wheel of his truck and woke up at the bottom of a ravine about 13 miles south of Cuba, in a mountainous region of north-central New Mexico.

"I left Thursday night and I only remember wrecking," Lee said. "The truck turned upside down. My legs were pinned in the cab and my upper body was on the outside of the cab."

As temperatures dipped into the 30s overnight and soared into the 80s by day, Lee said he tried climbing out of the ravine Friday, Saturday and Sunday, but spent most of his time sleeping or passed out.

Lee said he managed to crawl on his hands and knees about 20 feet to a concrete culvert at the bottom of the ravine that contained a bit of water, which he drank. He said he was not too hungry.

"I was feeling just mostly thirsty. If I moved my arm, it hurt real bad. My back, my knees really hurt," Lee said.

The bank of the gully was "rocky and sandy and real slick and bumpy," said Lee, adding that he was bitten on the chest and armpits by ants. "At one part I had to go up with the weeds. I crawled on my hands and knees."

On Monday, Lee began his final ascent around 6 a.m. or 7 a.m.

"I got myself up and started climbing up the hill. I went about 10 feet up the hill, but I was real weak and passed out. I would go five or six more feet and pass out, five or six more feet, and pass out."

Around 3 p.m., he said he made it to the top and, exhausted, waited for someone to pick him up on the shoulder of New Mexico 44.

"A lot of cars and trucks came by and nobody came to stop," Lee said. "I finally laid down and pretended I was real sick and about four or five cars stopped. That did the trick right there."

During the ordeal, his mother, Jane Lee, said she retraced the route he had taken from his home in Farmington to Deming, in the southern part of the state about 30 miles from the Mexican border. She said she found no trace of her son until he was found Monday.

"Looking at that truck, I don't see how he survived that, let alone the climb up the hill. I was told that was the fifth wreck in that arroyo and he was the only one who survived," she said.

Alibi fails to convince jury

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas (AP) — A state district court jury rejected the testimony of six alibi witnesses and convicted Calvin Loyd Padgett of capital murder in the robbery-slayings of three employees killed at a Pizza Hut in this Northeast Texas town.

State District Judge William R. Porter ordered the panel to return today to decide whether Padgett should be sentenced to die or face a life prison sentence for the slaying of Howard Leroy McClafflin, 25.

After the jury returned its verdict Tuesday, about an hour of testimony was heard in the punishment phase before the hearing was recessed for the day.

Six people had testified that Padgett was working on May 10, 1982, at Healdton, Okla., 220 miles away from where the three victims were killed that night.

But prosecutors countered the alibi with the testimony of the bookkeeper at J.D. Bray's Paint Co. in Healdton, who said there were no records that Padgett, 28, worked on the day of the murder. Payroll records showed he was paid for 10½ hours fewer than usual that week, the bookkeeper said.

Padgett, 28, also is charged with capital murder in the deaths of George Dwain Landrum, 42, and Shirley O'Bier Thompson, 24.

The bodies were found in or near a walk-in cooler at the rear of the restaurant. All had been shot, and Landrum had also been hit in the head with a hammer, authorities said.

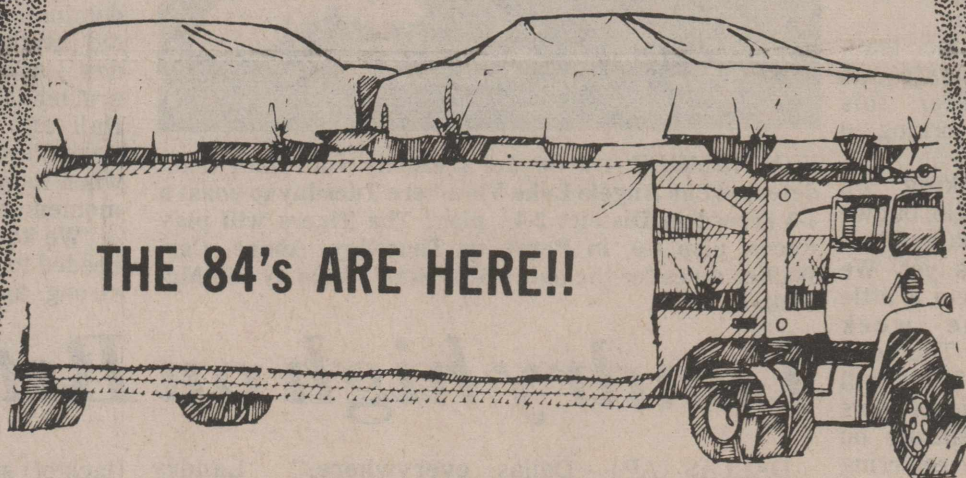

Michael Earl Davis, a former patrolman for the Mount Pleasant police called as a defense witness, testified that he concluded from his investigation that one person could not have committed the murders.

Officers arrested Padgett late last year with his girlfriend and 15-year-old brother in Oklahoma, where he was charged with the November robbery of a service station-restaurant. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life in prison.

Italians in the city of Venice are credited with inventing eyeglasses in the late 1200s. But it took another 500 years before someone figured out a way to keep glasses secure and comfortable on the nose, when in the 1720s a London optician made the first eyeglass frames that rested on both the nose and the ears.

THIS COUPON WORTH
$3.00 OFF
3-PIECE MIXING / SERVING BOWL
in • Blue Garland or • Harvest Blossom Pattern
Good September 21 through September 27, 1983.

Now you can add a bright, cheerful note to your kitchen with Crowning Touch...the decorator cookware that looks as great as it cooks.

Crowning Touch's striking porcelain finish, pattern designs and unique bell shape make it a beautiful alternative to the drab aluminum and stainless cookware used in many kitchens today. And, because of its core of carbon steel and many cooking features it will enable you to cook your every meal to sheer perfection.

Now for a limited time only, you can acquire a full set of this beautiful cookware at savings of over 40% on our convenient stamp layaway plan.

With each $3.00 purchase, you are entitled to buy one cookware stamp for 99¢. When you have filled your Saver Brochure with 38 stamps, you will be presented with an attractively gift boxed 8 piece cookware set.

Additional items to expand your basic set will be featured each week at special coupon savings. Every item in the Crowning Touch line is carried in open stock, so you can replace or add pieces to your set long after the promotion has ended.
