Roger Pinkerton Receives National 4-H Scholarship

A 19-year-old Texas youth who experimented with herbicides in growing 4-H cotton has been named one of six national winners in the 4-H field crops science program and awarded a $700 scholarship.

Roger Pinkerton, of the Halfway Community, received his scholarship during the 50th National 4-H Congress in Chicago Nov. 28-Dec. 2. He also received an expense-paid trip to Congress as state award winner in the program.

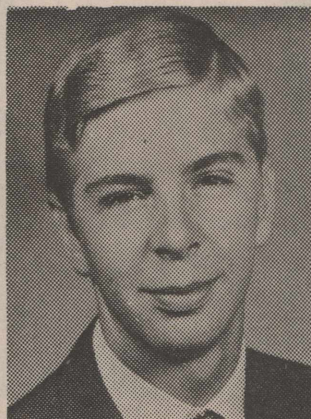

Both his scholarship and his trip were donated by Amchem Products, Inc., sponsor of the field crops science program. Winners were selected by the Cooperative Extension Service. Pinkerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O. Pinkerton, is a freshman at Texas Tech and plans a career in agronomy. His oldest brother, John, presently an Army helicopter pilot, is a soil scientist graduate of Texas Tech.

The winner conducted his herbicide experiments in a green house that he built on the family farm. He found the experiments fascinating and educational.

The youth grew a five-acre plot of cotton in each of his eight years in the field crops science program. He also grew three five-acre plots of soybeans and small plots of wheat, soybeans and maize.

In 1969, the youth became a member of the Hale County soil evaluation team. "The knowledge which I acquired has helped me to distinguish between different types of soil. This enables me to choose the best fields for the crops which I raise," he said.

Pinkerton won first place in junior field crops competition back in 1964 and has been winning honors ever since. He was alternate state winner in field crops science in 1968, when he also earned the Texas Cotton Ginners Award. And the youth won the coveted Gold Star award at the 1969 Hale County Achievement Day.

A 10-year 4-H'er, his other projects have included entomology, tractor, electric, garden and soil evaluation.

In high school, he served on the Student Council and helped draft a new school constitution. He was president of the National Honor Society and ranked second academically in a class of 419 students. He also played football three years and was on the track team four years.

The outstanding 4-H'er also participated in the summer baseball program here, as a Little Leaguer and in the Babe Ruth division.

4 Mustangs Chosen To All-District Team

Four Mustang footballers were named to the coveted All District 3-AA football team. Selected to the dream team were Steve Stockdale, Marlos May and Luis Jimenez to the offensive team and Robert Ahrens to the defense team.

Honorable mention on the offense team were Collin Johnson, Kenny Spain, Kurt Gregory and Keith Workman. Defense honorable mention went to Gregory, Favian Minjarez, Stockdale and Jimenez.

Workman is the only junior selected to the honor list, the other eight are seniors.

Selected by coaches in the district, the All-District offense team was composed of Stockdale and Tony Ford of Lockney in a tie for the quarter-back spot; running backs, Ralph Funk of Littlefield, Pat Bennett of Lockney and a four way tie with May, Charlie Mathis of Lockney and Jim Kunkle and Walter Harris of Floydada, ends, Kent Snodgrass of Abernathy and Bill Hill of Lockney.

Interior linemen were Kevin Wiseman of Friona and Chuck Blevins of Littlefield; guards, Kim Rose of Floydada and a tie between David Lovelace of Abernathy, Scott McNeese of Littlefield and Jimenez. Mike Vinson of Floydada was center.

Members of the All District Defense Team were linemen Terry Bunch of Floydada, Danny Estrada of Littlefield, Pat Bennett of Lockney and Ruwayne Struve of Abernathy; linebackers, Kim Rose of Floydada, Matt Giles of Littlefield and Bill Bailey of Friona; cornerbacks, Robert Ahrens and J. E. Johnson of Littlefield and safeties, Dennis Hartley of Littlefield, Keith Embry of Morton and Langston Williams of Floydada.

Miss Christmas & Little Miss Entries Sought

Calling all little misses and all high school age misses! Deadline for the Miss Christmas and the "Little Miss Christmas" contest is nearly here and only one entry thus far!

All little girls from age one to pre-schoolers are eligible to enter the "Little Miss Christmas" contest. There is no entry fee. All you have to do is come by the Enterprise office and leave a picture along with some information and you're in the contest! Be sure and enter before the deadline which is Dec. 8.

Girls of high school age are encouraged to come by the Enterprise and leave their pictures also. We'd like to have more contestants than ever before. Prizes will be given to both "Miss Christmas" and "Little Miss Christmas". So hurry girls!

Area Artists Set Exhibits

Area artists will exhibit their wares and demonstrate art techniques in an Art Show to be hung this month in the school cafeteria.

A Sidewalk Show, weather permitting, will be one phase of the show to be sponsored by Olton Art Guild and Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

Headquarters for the Show will be the cafeteria, where the rest of the exhibit will be hung Dec. 11 and displayed until school closes for Christmas holidays.

The show will not be judged. Members of the Guild will exhibit and offer for sale a variety of paintings and art objects.

Members interested in exhibiting works may contact Mrs. W. G. Green, exhibit chairman, who says that all paintings must be "ready to hang" and delivered to the Art Building, next door to Consumers, by Dec. 10.

Bookmobile Stops Listed

The High Plains Bookmobile will be making area stops Friday and Saturday, Dec. 10-11.

The library will stop in Hart Camp and Fieldton Friday from 1:45 to 2:30 and 2:45 to 3:30, respectively. The Bookmobile will be in Olton Saturday from 9:15 to 11:45 a. m.

Dog Ordinance Effective Dec. 9

Citizens are reminded that the ordinances pertaining to dogs "on the loose" becomes effective Dec. 9.

All dogs which are not on a leash or penned up will be picked up by city officials in accordance with the ordinances adopted by the city council Nov. 9.

Another ordinance becomes effective Jan. 1, 1972. Trash will be picked up only if it is placed in a 32 gallon container or less. Barrels may still be used for burning, but they will not be emptied. Trash containers must be placed in a stand to keep from toppling over and must have lids.

For Medical Foundation

Board Makes Decision

A group of interested citizens met Tuesday night in the school cafeteria to hear the Olton Medical Foundation board's decision as to the next steps that need to be taken in the effort to acquire a hospital for Olton.

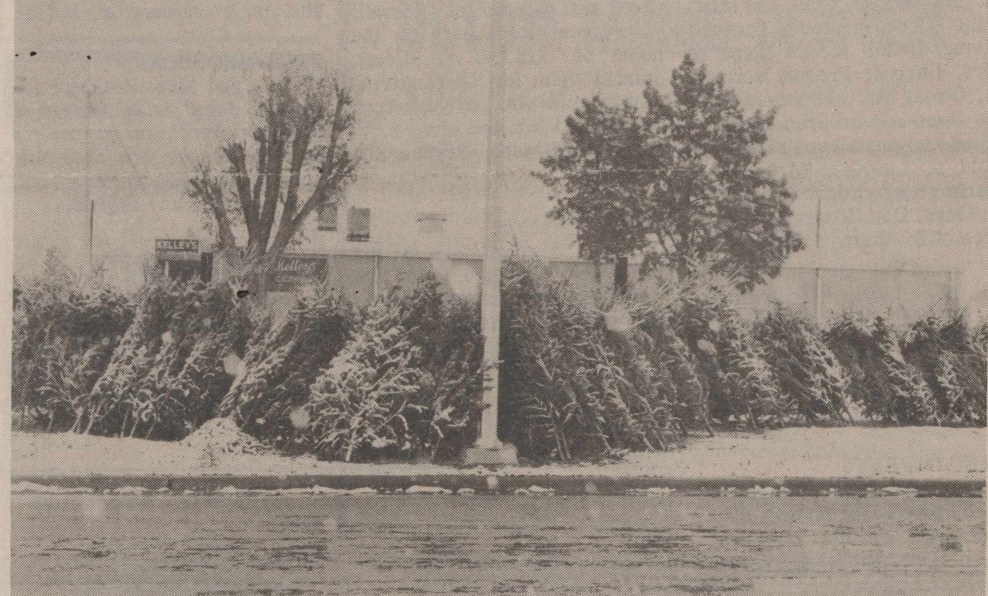

Board president Fred Thompson told the citizens that the board met Saturday, Nov. 6, and voted unanimously to return all cash pledges which had been given to the foundation.

This decision was reached after they were told that in the event that the hospital was not built, the money could not be refunded to the donor as was promised, according to Internal Revenue Service. IRS told board members that if the hospital was not built, all moneys would have to go to another charitable, tax exempt organization.

Due to those circumstances, the board felt that it would be wise to return all cash pledges and are asking only that the person or persons sign a new pledge that becomes payable at such time as the pledges total $150,000. They may still be paid monthly, annually, semi-annually or quarterly until the entire amount pledged is paid.

CHRISTMAS TREE, OH, CHRISTMAS TREE Olton Boy Scouts and Webelos are in the Christmas tree business this year. Located on the square, the trees are for sale every afternoon after school and all day Saturday. Those who have paid down on a tree are asked to come and pick up their tree as soon as possible.

Red Cross Board Meets

Lamb County Chapter of American Red Cross will hold their regular monthly business meeting Friday, Dec. 3 at 4 p.m. in the Red Cross office in Littlefield.

All board members are urged to attend.

Dale Riggs Lucky Guesses Way To The Cotton Bowl

COTTON (BOWL) PICKING GUESSER -- Dale Riggs of Earth, a faithful contestant the past few years in the Enterprise football contest made pretty good guesses last week and came out on top when the last ballots were in. Riggs finished the season four points out front to claim the top prize, two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and $40 cash. Jerry Mathis of Farwell was runner-up and received two tickets to the Sun Bowl and $20.

With games in the final contest that were "toss-ups" as to which way they would go, many contestants chose the wrong team.

But Dale Riggs of Earth was lucky with his picks and missed only five games to jump ahead in the season's standings and win the two tickets to the Cotton Bowl game plus $40 expense money.

Jerry Mathis, who had held the lead for the past several weeks, was not so lucky with his guesses this week and missed 10 to fall back into second place for the season. However, he will receive two tickets to the Sun Bowl game and $20 cash.

Winning this week's contest -- the final one -- was Riggs, with five misses. He was four points off on the tie-breaker. He will receive a check for $5.

Second place went to P. A. Nafzger, who also missed five games, but was off 17 points on the tie-breaker. He will receive a check for $3.

Eldon Franks picked up third place money of $2 with six misses.

So another Enterprise Grid Guessing Game comes to a close. Be sure and tell the sponsors that you have enjoyed it... they made it possible.

Tulia's Elm Tree Inn Is A Visit To Yesteryears

Quaint in its beauty, Elm Tree Inn of Tulia has stood in lofty dignity for 65 years. First opened in 1906 as "Tulia Hotel" it towered over the treeless plain, a meeting place for cattle buyers, cowboys and weary travelers of the dusty road. Years have come and gone and area residents have come to accept The Inn for the historical landmark that she has become.

Completely refurbished, some ten years ago, by the Butlers of Tulia The Inn reflects all the glory that was hers at the turn of the century.

Redecorated and completely restored in gradeur, it has been furnished throughout with valuable antiques. Today's guest steps into the past as he enters The Inn, resplendent with red carpet and crystal chandeliers.

From the registration desk, once an old saloon bar, a tour of the building reveals Tiffany lamps, flocked floral wall paper, brass spittoons, water closets, brass beds and antique velvet chairs, and much more. Meals are served at The Inn daily except Wednesday, from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. The cuisine is excellent. Char-broiled steaks are a specialty.

Accommodations are available for 40 guests. Reservations may be had on daily, weekly or monthly basis. Prices range from $6 to $14 per day.

The genial hosts and friendly atmosphere of Elm Tree Inn invite todays harried guests to test the unusual charm of the yesteryears.

Time Saver:

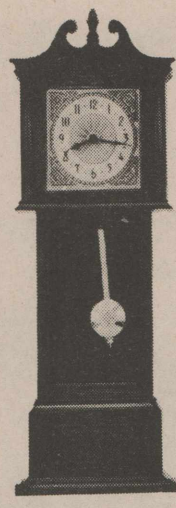

Fall fertilizer application is a sure thing. There's little question about weather. You have more time in the fall, too, and much less work to get done.

Take our suggestion: Save time by letting us apply Ammo-Phos or Olin Nitrogen Fertilizers this fall after harvest. Get it over with.

The time you save by fertilizing this fall could mean several more bushels. And you'll be able to plant faster because the fertilizer you plow under this fall speeds crop residue decomposition, reducing trash problems.

Try our time saver: Ammo-Phos or Olin Nitrogen Fertilizers.

Time Keeper:

If you place your order right away for Ammo-Phos or Olin Nitrogen Fertilizers, we'll give you a certificate that enables you to receive one of these attractive electric clocks. Call us today.

MRS. LEON NOACK

Cook Of The Week

The old adage, "Never a dull moment", applies very aptly to the household of our Cook of the Week, Mrs. Leon Noack. Being the mother of four young sons also insures that she has few idle moments.

Three of the little Noacks are pre-schoolers, Kyle is five, Karry, three and Kory, two. Kevin, the eldest, is nine.

Junette and Leon have lived in Olton since January, 1966 when they purchased Leon's Grocery.

Growing up at Holiday near Wichita Falls, Junette and Leon met each other at a Wichita Falls grocery store where both worked. After their marriage, they lived for a time in Wichita Falls and moved to Friona before coming here.

Members of the First United Methodist Church, Junette and Leon are also members of the Seekers Class Bible study group. Junette is church secretary, a part time job which includes printing the weekly newsletter to members and the Sunday bulletins.

When she can find time, Junette likes to sew. She also enjoys decoupage and refinishing. At present, she is refinishing a dining table.

A Cub Scout den mother last year, she is also "on call" for help with Scouting and, the past summer, was "head concessionaire" for the Little League and Pee Wee League baseball concession stand.

'At Wit's End' Reviewed By Mrs. Jewel Holt

"Books are lighthouses erected in the great sea of time" was the theme used to introduce a book review to Olton Study Club and guests Monday night in the home of Mrs. Barton Prestridge.

As reviewer Mrs. I. B. Holt gave a first person interpretation of "At Wit's End" by Erma Bombeck. The book, a humorous treatise on the monotony of homemaking, featured the mother of growing children laughing at herself and her circumstances. Mrs. Holt invited listeners to reach back into memory for parallel episodes.

In a short business session directed by Mrs. Prestridge Mrs. Bailey Hair, Mrs. Jim Fuller and Mrs. Paul Burrus were named to the nominating committee. Names were drawn for Christmas gift exchange at the Christmas Party to be held Dec. 13, in the home of Mrs. Jack Straw.

Special guests for the review included Mrs. D. M. Holt and Mrs. Glen Singleterry. Mrs. Bob Daugherty was welcomed as a returning active member.

Members present were Mmes. Royce Aikman, J. C. Brown, H. B. Carson, J. L. Carson Jr., Frank Cornelius, C. S. Silcott, Ray Slatten, Straw, Burrus, Fuller, Hair and the hostess.

MRS. RONNIE LEE TRAVIS

Travis-Settle Vows Pledged In Double Ring Ceremony

Wedding vows were solemnized Friday evening in Shady Oaks Baptist Church in Hurst for Miss Sharon Kay Settle and Ronnie Lee Travis.

The Rev. John Bobo, pastor, directed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with candles, greenery and kneeling bench with satin pillow. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee Settle of Hurst and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Travis of Wills Point, Stan Martin of Lubbock, accompanied by Mrs. Jan Martin, violinist, sang "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Chantilly lace with satin trim. Fashioned with a fitted bodice, it featured a Sabrina neckline and long fitted sleeves. Her ruffled, bouffant skirt formed a chapel length train. Her ballerina length veil was held by a lace petal headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

For the traditional "something old", she carried a silk handkerchief which had belonged to her late great-grandmother Buckner. She "borrowed" a heart shaped gold necklace from Darla Lacy of Plainview and wore the traditional blue garter. Her bridal ensemble was "new".

The bride carried two long stemmed red roses and as she approached the altar, presented a rose and a kiss to her mother. She presented the second rose and a kiss to the bridegroom's mother during the recessional.

The couple lit an anniversary candle, placed before an opened Bible on the communion table, signifying the oneness of marriage. Bonnie Goree of Hurst was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Deanie Armstrong, Debbie Roden and Dian Hall, all of Hurst.

Candles were lighted by Teresa Settle, sister of the bride, and Jeanette Hackler, cousin of the bride. Flower girls were Lori Travis of Fruitvale, niece of the bridegroom, and Reanee Barrow, of Smithfield. Micky Broach of Snyder was ring bearer.

Dale Travis of Amarillo, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Mike Koen and Larry Clark, both of Lubbock and Larry Settle of Canyon, brother of the bride. Guests were seated by Lynn Travis of Wills Point, brother of the groom, and Danny Buckner of Plainview, cousin of the bride.

Feminine attendants wore Empire styled gowns of royal blue velvet with matching velvet ribbon headpieces. They carried single long stemmed white roses with satin streamers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white cloth overlaid with a bouffant white lace cloth extending to the floor. Centering the table was an arrangement of white and blue carnations in a crystal vase. Bows of royal blue velvet were placed at the center and corners of the table. The four tiered cake was frosted in white with tiny blue bow accents.

The groom's table was laid with a white linen cloth and a floral arrangement of white and blue. The groom's cake was chocolate with fudge frosting, decorated with white roses and two gold wedding bands.

An aunt of the bride, Mrs. Viola Rogers of Abilene, made the bride's and groom's cakes. Presiding at the houseparty were Misses Patricia Hackler, cousin of the bride, and Susan Sloan, Gayle Shiffer, Vicki Harris and Leah Weddle, all of Hurst.

Mrs. F.E. Graham Feted, 86th Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. F. E. Graham, 86, was honored with a surprise birthday dinner Saturday in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Graham.

Mrs. Graham was born Nora Gehres, Nov. 27, 1885 near Delhi, Ind. She moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gehres, to a farm two miles north of Earth many years ago.

In 1921 she and F. E. Graham were married at Plainview. They moved to Grasslands where he had organized a Church of The Nazarene.

She was ordained a minister in the fall of 1921. The ordination was in the court house at Abilene as there was no church of that denomination in that city.

Rev. and Mrs. Graham were pastors of churches at Lamesa, Wellington, twice at Olton and other points in Texas. They served also in towns in California and Arizona.

Attending the birthday dinner Saturday were the honoree, members of her Sunday School class and the host family.

Among those present were Mrs. L. D. Winders of Earth, Mrs. Orteg of Sudan, Mr. Loren Trout of Springlake, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duke of Sunny-side, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Rawlings, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Cart, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Harrod, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blackwell and Carroll, the honoree, and her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Graham, Rita, Debra, Jimmie, Diane and Steve.

The white birthday cake had a small layer with green lettering "Grandmother Graham". The larger layer was decorated with the words "Happy 86th birthday". Two shades of pink roses, green leaves and tiny rosebuds added to the decor of the cake.

Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Colledge of 13601 SW 79th Court, Miami, Fla. announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Cynthia Jane to Larry Bruce Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hines.

Valley View Congregations Observe 50th Anniversary

A time of rejoicing and thanksgiving was entered into Wednesday evening by members, ex-members and friends of the Valley View Churches commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Valley View Methodist and Baptist churches.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Wayne Gray, a former Baptist pastor, preceding a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner. Following the meal the group entered the sanctuary for singing and reminiscing. With Mrs. Clyde Witten as pianist, songs were led by Messrs. W. H. Hall, Basil Sherman, Owen Jones, Dwight Lewis and Emil Sorley and Mrs. Owen Jones. Special music was rendered by a quartet, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Sherman, and a duet, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hall. The people of Valley View have always enjoyed good singing.

Mrs. V. F. Lemons, widow of a former Baptist pastor, spoke of their work with this church and recited "Others". Eldon Franks told of coming to the Valley View Community and of first seeing "the cutest little girl while going to the windmill for a drink of water between Sunday School and Church and this girl later became his wonderful wife."

Hall recalled the day the world went dark during a meeting at the church. The congregation sang "Rock of Ages" in the darkness. Other memorable times were recalled. The Valley View Baptist Church was organized Nov. 6, 1921 and the Valley View Methodist Church soon thereafter. Charter members present Wednesday evening were Baptist: Mrs. John Meekma of Plainview and Mrs. F. M. Holland and Mrs. Eldon Franks of Olton; and Methodist: Carroll Jones, who still attends the Valley View Church regularly.

The churches met for services in the Valley View school house for sometime. E. D. Smith gave some property near the school to the Methodist and Baptist churches, on which they planned to build. The two churches were to use the same building and have for these fifty years.

In 1924 Ellis Jones, a Methodist steward and John Meekma, a Baptist, led in the moving of a frame building which had been purchased from the Assembly of God Church in Plainview and located on the property given by Mr. Smith. Eldon Franks helped in moving this building.

D. C. Lindley was the first pastor of the Baptist Church. The first revival was held in December, 1921 with Virgil F. Lemon preaching. There were sixteen conversions. The following summer the first baptismal service was held in the Norfleet Draw.

Present pastors of the churches are the Rev. Willard Pannabecker, Methodist, and the Rev. Herman Krauel, Baptist.

Traditions in the Valley View churches are the birthday offering each Sunday; Sunday School offering one Sunday each month always goes to the support of the Children's Homes; the annual cooperative revival, both churches working together; the church family Thanksgiving dinner and singing; and the annual Christmas program, with the huge Christmas tree.

Former members and friends attending the fiftieth anniversary services were Mrs. F. M. Holland, Don Franks and Tim, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Franks, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sorley, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Sherman, Mrs. Lee Sherman, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Witten, Melanie and Rex, all of Olton; Mrs. John Meekma, the Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Gray, Wayne, and Mrs. Tom Witten and Mr. and Mrs. Price Holland and Gayle, all of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Landon Smith, Rodney, Kelli and Lodi of Hale Center; Mrs. Jackie Burkhalter of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. Newlon Rowland, Rhonda, Ricky, Suzann and Cristi of Hart.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Have a good Thanksgiving dinner? I did, even tho I had to top it off by eating my words! Yea, I heard, Texas beat the Aggies!

Despite getting beat, it was still quite a holiday we had down at Aggieland. You're forewarned, this little spiel is about Texas' finest school of higher education and the fellas who're the brunt of so many jokes.

Thanksgiving triffic almost gave us ulcers thinking it would surely keep us from arriving in College Station in time for the annual bon fire. Sure enough, the match was struck just as we were some half dozen blocks away but we need not have worried.

That little ole bon fire - it really was "little" compared to some years past - was just 85 feet tall. Wasn't difficult to see it at all.

After watching the bon fire for a little while - fully long enough to get ashes in our hair and on our shoulders, looking very much like jumbo gray flecks of dandruff! - we took off for the Town Hall presentation by "The Associations".

Enthusiastically accepted by a coliseum filled with Aggies and their girls, the "now" group was merely endured by yours truly and the better half. (Talk about misfits!)

(Ah, for the days of pop tunes such as "Mairzie Doats" and

Being an admitted glutton, I'll confess most of my thoughts were on my empty tummy. For once, tho, I had no fear of anyone overhearing the growling of my hollow middle!

Did you ever wait 30 minutes to get a table, 30 more to get a menu, 30 more to get your supper and then sit back, comfortably sustained at 2 o'clock in the morn? We have.

Thanksgiving Day at Aggieland is just something else. The traditions are really something - dating back some 70 plus years. (I think that's what I was told).

At any rate, one old ex was there attending his 53rd consecutive Thanksgiving Aggie-Texas football game. Another was there for his 50th consecutive year. How's that for loyalty? (And the Southwest Conference powers that be are saying that after '73, the Aggies and the Longhorns - er, Armadillos - won't be playing on Thanksgiving Day any more. That's almost sacrilegious!)

Half-time activities almost made up for the fact that TU was winning. You should have seen the orange armadillos!

And the Aggie Band - there's just none to compare! Everyone - Aggie fan and foe, alike - should see that fabulous group perform. (And to think, two of them are Oltonites!)

Somebody has to lose - and there's always "next year" - so altogether, it was a wonderful Thanksgiving observance. Even for two old squares and a double helping of 2 a. m. bedtimes.

Odds Are Your '72 Harvest Won't Be As Good As This Year's

But you can cut those odds.

By taking some of the gamble out of next spring's planting and plowing down with Oxy's high-phosphate Zipp fertilizer. It cuts the odds by plenty.

Spring planting is no time to run out of time.

Or equipment or labor or dealer service. Or fertilizer. A few days at planting can make a lot of difference. One sure way to buy a few extra days next spring is plowing down this fall.

Fall plowdown's like insurance at no extra cost.

It gets your fertilizer down when the weather is right. When the soil is firm. And fertilizer is available on a no-wait basis.

Suppose next spring is not as dry as this one was. Wet, sloppy conditions could put a two or three week damper on your planting schedule. Fall plowdown won't improve next spring's weather delays. But it will insure that a good and proper fertilizer bed will be ready and waiting when you do start up.

Oxy can help.

See your Oxy dealer now about your fall fertilizer - high-phosphate Zipp. And get the jump on spring.

Hope everyone enjoyed the Thanksgiving holidays. This week has been a long week for all of us at O.H.S., trying to get back into the hang of things. Try not to get involved again, only two and a half weeks till Christmas holidays! But then don't forget what takes place the two days before we get out -- on second thought everyone had better start digging into their books.

Tuesday night before the Thanksgiving holidays the Varsity - boys and girls played Kress. Both games ended as our victories. The girls won 58 to 17 and high point scorer was Rebecca Hodges with 26 points. The boys won 65 to 52 with Steve Stockdale bringing in the most points - 13. Yea Mustangs and Fillies! Keep it up! Last Tuesday night the Varsity girls and boys along with the B-team girls met Hale Center here. Beginning today the varsity teams begin in a tournament at Kress and will be playing all weekend. Let's back these teams up in the tournament.

Congratulations go to Steve Stockdale, Marlos May, Luis Jimenez and Robert Ahrens. These boys were named all-district football players. Steve, quarterback; Marlos, running back and Luis, offensive rear. These guys were named off-sive district players. Robert Ahrens, cornerback, was named defensive player.
