Many a chip off the old block sticks around instead of flying off to find a useful place in the world.

Note to Amalgamated Order of City Dirt Farmers: United we stand; divided we may not get our wheat checks for sitting around all winter and telling the town folk how to run their businesses.

It's a revelation to watch New York's expert moving men on the job, writes our Gotham correspondent. Or, for that matter, to see one of the Big Town slickers dining the natives in a mid-western village.

Talk of a home-coming for Pampa high exes is logical and we are for it. It would be interesting to see dignified business men parading along with banners and giving the high school yell.

Gentlemen: We are printing weekly menus of food for thought. The public library has many books for the thoughtful. Don't let the ladies make dumb-bells out of you by comparison.

Soccer for the civic clubs has our approval. There are quite a few clubmen who have personal matters that could be settled in the heat of a good soccer game—all in the name of blocking.

Modern communications make all the nations of the world next-door neighbors. Pampa, through the Associated Press leased wire to The NEWS, is as close to Germany from a news standpoint as is Chicago, San Francisco, Constantinople, or Buenos Aires. It is unfortunate that dissemination of true facts about Germany and many other nations is so difficult. The biggest editorial scissors wielded in world news are not in press association offices but are manned by government censors of other nations. While Americans have a president who talks to them warmly and almost confidentially about his most perplexing problems, we have the greatest difficulty knowing even fundamental facts about many other countries.

The Big Shears.

All news from Germany, save that which is smuggled out by correspondents working clandestinely, is censored. Foreign correspondents who do not bow the knee to Hitler, favoring his propaganda, are in personal danger and in a number of instances have been obliged to leave the country. Russian news is controlled at the source. The Russian government operates the newspapers in most instances. Advertising is almost unknown. In Italy, the Mussolini censors use sly and secret means for watching every movement of foreign newspaper men. Letters and telegrams are carefully read. Changes are suggested in copy. Messages which displease the censor are conveniently "lost." The chief censor is the husband of Mussolini's daughter, Edda. Protests get correspondents exactly nothing.

Japan is Watchful. There is no correspondent in Japan who isn't keeping one eye on the alert Army and Navy authorities who dominate that country. The official government is unable to make its orders stand up, hence every reporter must keep in mind half a dozen generals, admirals, and officials who might be offended, withdraw every courtesy and privilege. Even weak and struggling old China tries to provide censorship in order to impress the world favorably. South American warring republics periodically impose censorship. Occasionally, Mexico does so. France has even gone so far as to set up a well subsidized press bureau in this country, to work for debt cancellation and good will. The NEWS daily receives a French newspaper printed in New York—at no cost and without asking for it.

CONGRESSMAN TO HELP LAY CORNERSTONE

JONES PLEADED DAILY AT CAPITAL FOR BUILDING

LAYING of the cornerstone of the new Pampa postoffice building at 2 p. m. tomorrow will in many respects be an occasion honoring Congressman Marvin Jones, who will be the principal speaker.

The congressman, on petition of the chamber of commerce and interested citizens, several years ago began the campaign in Washington to have Pampa listed for a postoffice building. That was before the depression. Pampa was listed in the census records as a town of less than 1,000 inhabitants.

The postoffice building program of the government included a system of listing favored cities several years before appropriations were made. From three to five years after listing, appropriations were considered. Finally, The NEWS was able to announce that Pampa had been placed on the list several years ahead of ordinary routine. Mr. Jones was given credit for that. It developed that on his way to work each morning he would stop to renew his plea for the Pampa building.

The original appropriation, which, too, was hastened, was only $80,000. Mr. Jones protested that this was not enough. The reply of postal authorities was that Pampa was "an oil town" and would recede in population. Mr. Jones mustered proof that this assumption was wrong. The appropriation was raised to $180,000. Then the depression came along. All similar appropriations and his one were reduced 15 per cent. Months went by before the site could be bought and plans approved. The public building program had been increased until the federal engineers were swamped with business.

Now the steel forms an outline of the size of the new structure and the contractor is laying the stone on parts of the building. The cornerstone will be placed at the northeast corner.

Those who will lay the stone are Congressman Jones, Postmaster D. E. Cecil, and Mayor W. A. Bratton. The high school band will play and students of the high school will be released from their 2 o'clock classes so they may attend the ceremony. Boy Scouts will aid in roping off Ballard street and handling the crowd.

The ceremony and program will be completed within an hour.

Boys From Gray County Off To Forest Camps

The second contingent of Gray county youths for reforestation camps left for Amarillo this morning to undergo medical examinations. Eighteen boys from Gray county will be accepted. Only the required number were in the contingent and if any of them fails to pass the examination, others will be sent.

Mrs. W. H. Davis, administrator of the Gray county board of relief and employment, will accept registration of a few more boys in case some of the original 18 sent to Amarillo are rejected. No other names are on file now, and any youth between 18 and 25 years desiring to go to camp should register immediately.

The boys who left this morning were from many parts of the county.

FATHER GIVEN NEW TRIAL IN GIRL'S DEATH

Charged With Throwing A Bucket of Gasoline On His Adopted Daughter.

AUSTIN, Oct. 18 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the conviction of C. B. Yarbrough of Bell county, on a charge of murder in the death of his adopted daughter, Doris. Yarbrough was tried in Travis county on a charge of venue and sentenced to 25 years. He was charged with having set fire to his adopted daughter's clothing. Reversal was granted because of failure of the trial court to embrace the exculpatory declarations of Yarbrough in its charge and also for failure to charge on the law of circumstantial evidence. Yarbrough asserted the girl's clothing accidentally caught fire and that by mistake he threw a bucket filled with gasoline on her to drown the flames. "My God, I have thrown the wrong bucket," Yarbrough exclaimed as soon as he threw the bucket filled with gasoline, testimony showed.

The appeals court held that the exculpatory declaration, having been introduced by the state, was to be regarded by the jury as true unless disproved.

'BEAT CISCO' WILL BE CRY AT GIANT PEP RALLY AND WIENER ROAST NEAR CITY FRIDAY EVE

Parents, Students To Ride Buses To Pasture Britain Backing Up John Simon

A GIANT pep rally and wiener roast for high school students and their parents will be held Friday evening at Green's pasture, it was announced this morning. Sponsoring the event is a recreation committee of citizens headed by Mrs. C. A. Clark. Mrs. Clark has appointed Mr. and Mrs. Joe Meyer to manage the rally, which will be one of a series of similar events.

All students and parents will be taken to the site on buses and it is desired that no cars be used. The rally will leave the high school campus at 5:30 Friday and 15 minutes later the Gorillas will play the Amarillo Yennigans.

Dr. H. H. Hicks will be in charge of the rally. The high school band will play and the pep squad will direct the yell. Asked if they would like to have such an event, the students were virtually unanimous on the subject. The group will be fed wiener, buns, and pickles. No charge will be made to those attending.

A similar event, to be held in the gymnasium, is being planned for November 11 night after the Pampa-Amarillo football game.

plane having been scheduled to land here simultaneously with one bringing the vice president from his home. They are expected shortly before dedicatory services were to start incident to formally opening a new American Airways building at the municipal airport at 5 p. m. Garner will welcome the cabinet member to Texas and then the two will participate in the program incident to dedication of the air building.

From then on, through Saturday, it will be a continuous round of visiting for Garner and Farley and their companions. They will attend the opening of Arlington Downs, big racing plant half way between Fort Worth and Dallas, on tomorrow. From the races they will go to Dallas for a big democratic love feast banquet and visit the state fair. On Friday they will fly to San Antonio for a reception and a visit to the army posts, and thence to the Texas-Mexican border, where a special rodeo has been arranged for the guests. The last call will be made on Houston, on Saturday, and the party will disperse there.

FORD IN NEW TANGLE WITH LABOR BOARD

MESSAGES FROM FORD COMPANY ARE PUBLISHED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—Resistance from the automobile industry was encountered today by the national labor board, conciliation branch of the NRA, as it attempted to extend its arbitration work to disputes in Ford plants and tool making shops in Detroit and Flint, Michigan.

Spokesmen for the national automobile chamber of commerce and General Motors declined to attend a hearing which began on the tool and die workers' strike. A hearing on the Edgewater, New Jersey, Ford assembly plant strike, arranged by the board at Newark, came to a standstill when officials of the plant expressed doubt of their authority to confer with employees and sought word from Ford headquarters in Dearborn. Meantime, NRA met further delay in disposal of the retail code price control issue, when President Roosevelt announced that the situation called for further study and that conferences on the question would be continued by him. Decision on that one point alone stood in the way of promulgation of codes covering all but food retailers and Hugh S. Johnson, the administrator, had said action was imperative.

The Ford impasse brought from Wagner publication of telegrams between the company and the board, which revealed that the Ford company had asserted its willingness to furnish information but considered itself under no obligation to be represented at hearings; had offered to make its own investigation of charges of discrimination against union men if specifications were submitted by the board; and asserted it had not refused to meet any authorized representatives of its employees.

Wagner had seized upon the latter expression to arrange today's meeting at the Newark NRA headquarters, and following the state-made there said the board "has reason to expect results from the conference today."

Banker Tells of Need for Economy To Avoid Debt

"All debts must be paid ultimately; if not by the persons contracting them then by someone else," said W. H. Patrick, president of the First National bank of Cleveland, in a talk before the Rotary club today. He urged a careful study of budgets of municipalities and other governing organizations by taxpayers, not in a criticizing, quarreling way, but with the idea of assisting in economies.

"The perpetuation of a nation is based on the intelligence and education of its people," he said in emphasizing the necessity for proper interest in governmental affairs.

where taxation is concerned. Mrs. Carson Loftis gave a reading as a preliminary of the program which was arranged by DeLea Vicars. Visitors today were Clyde Fatheree, B. E. Pinley, T. D. Hobart and O. B. Grant.

Box Supper Nets $62 For School

Pampans who attended a box supper at the Webb schoolhouse last night reported a pleasant occasion. About 18 made the trip. A program was furnished by a quartet from McLean and Prof. A. A. Tamm's farm boy orchestra. Judge W. R. Ewing and John B. Hessey auctioned the boxes.

The event netted the school group $62 to be applied on purchase of playground equipment. The local trippers went under the auspices of the intercommunity relations committees of the chambers of commerce.

OIL ALLOWABLE FOR PANHANDLE IS NOW 44,500

Order To Be Issued When Report Is Confirmed

THE Panhandle oil allowable, set by the Texas Railroad commission yesterday, is 44,500 barrels, it was learned unofficially this morning. The local office of the commission immediately made plans to issue a new order on those figures. However, no action will be taken until word is received from Austin.

The new figure was set to meet the state allotment through federal control. All fields in the state will be given a new allowable to bring production down to 865,000 barrels, the amount set for Texas by Secretary of the Interior Ickes. Texas has been producing thousands of barrels of oil above the figures set last month by the federal code, and a last warning was issued from Washington this week. The allocation for the various fields followed two statewide hearings in which nominations of all fields far exceeded the amount allowed under the code. The commission had to cut and slash nearly every field to bring production within the allotment figures.

Last week the Panhandle produced 47,396 barrels. The Panhandle nomination figures were for 60,000 barrels.

'Gold in Hills' To Be Presented On Two Nights

Because Pampans have shown unusual interest in "Gold in the Hills, or The Dead Sister's Secret," Little Theater play, the board of directors Monday night decided to present the 1890 melodrama on two nights, next Monday and Tuesday. The play will be staged in the city auditorium, beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

Five children from each school in the city who submit the best posters in a contest announced today, will receive free tickets to one of the two performances. The posters must advertise the play and many feature drawings of the old-time villain, or any pictorial illustration, either original or clipped, of life in the "Gay Nineties." The posters will be collected Friday night and the awards made Saturday.

There is one play in the play who never fails to delight the cast and he is young Richard Neaves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neaves, who will be little Tommy, son of the villain, Richard Murgatroyd (Dick Hughes). Richard Neaves will be the first child-actor to appear in a Little Theater production. He knew all of his lines the third night he attended rehearsal. He appears in the second and third acts.

FEDERAL FUND WILL BE ONLY THREE MILLION

HOWEVER STATE WILL GET $1,500,000 IMMEDIATELY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, said today Texas soon would be given a supplemental allocation of $1,500,000. Lawrence Westbrook, Texas director, had requested that amount yesterday, estimating that it would last until Nov. 15.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—The government's recently announced $8,900,000 emergency road program for Texas appeared to have been whittled sharply downward today. Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, said the announcement of the public works administration would provide $6,230,000 for the program was erroneous and estimated the total cost at not more than $3,000,000.

A public works administration spokesman, asked about the situation, replied that the agency made the announcement on the basis of "representations" made to it and added:

"But, of course, if relief agencies are unable to supply the $8,900,000 odd in question, this administration's allotment of $2,670,000 will not stand but will be reduced to 30 per cent of whatever the total cost of the program is. "We made an allotment of more than $2,000,000 on money might be odd in question, this administration's allotment of $2,670,000 odd would be supplied and contingent on such a sum being provided. He added that the entire 70 per cent of the cost of the program need not necessarily be borne by federal relief administration, saying that part of the money might be furnished by state relief agencies. In that connection, however, it was recalled that Lawrence Westbrook, Texas relief director, told Hopkins only yesterday that the state organization was "broke" and must have $1,500,000 quickly to meet ordinary expenses until Nov. 15. Hopkins said he could not say just how much money the relief administration could provide but made it clear that he expected to furnish only 70 per cent of the total of around $3,000,000. He said he had never agreed to provide $6,230,000 mentioned in the FWA announcement.

Girl Testifies In Murder Trial

LUBBOCK, Oct. 18 (AP)—A 3-months-old son asleep in her arms, Grace Readhimer, 21, testified this morning in the trial of her 21-year-old brother, Vert A. Readhimer, charged with murdering Stokes Campbell, 19-year-old Floydada high school senior, whom she identified as father of the chubby babe. Awakening, the infant became fretful and was taken from the court room.

Miss Readhimer testified as to her relations with Campbell, whom she said was the first and only man to have her. She loved Campbell, she said. The child was born July 2.

A FORGOTTEN HERO OF 'THE LOST CAUSE'

In a field flanking the Emmitsburg road, on the battlefield of Gettysburg, a Conservation Corps worker the other day saw a bone protruding from the soil. He notified the authorities and the ground was dug up. There, just beneath the surface, lay the skeleton of a man. With it were buckles, buttons and insignia of the Confederate army—and a lot of bullets. The field in which the discovery was made is part of a farm. It has been plowed almost every year since the battle took place. And all of that time this forgotten Confederate soldier lay there where his mates had buried him, sleeping in peace in a few inches beneath the white frosts of winter and the rippling of yellow wheat of summer.

There is a natural poetry in the working of chance, sometimes, and it would be hard to find a better example of it than this.

There is something so peculiarly fitting, so especially right, about this soldier's resting place. To pass from the unendurable turmoil and torture of battle to the infinite peace of a sun-swept wheat field, with the rustle of growing things and the ripple of wind to replace the crash of guns and the yells of desperate men—is not that a fate any soldier might envy?

And in this transmutation there is a summing-up of the outcome of all wars in all times and places. The armies come, they trample and stain the soil and fill the world's cup of misery to overflowing; and then, at last, the tide ebbs again, and the wide earth goes back to its business of growing things, and the bodies of the forgotten dead are reclaimed by the living soil.

Most of their graves are laid out formally in rows, with headstones and crosses to mark their place; but a few, on every battlefield, are quietly hidden away, to drowse out their peaceful eternity in close union with the plants which re-enact, each spring, the miracle of resurrection.

So it was with this lad—a youngster from Alabama, perhaps, or from Texas or Louisiana or Virginia—whose fate it was to enrich a Pennsylvania wheat field for all time with a handful of southern dust.

And of all the thousands of young men to whom Gettysburg was the end of the road, it is not hard to feel that this one was the most to be envied. He got the ideal resting place. He gave Pennsylvania, forever, a hallowed bit of Dixie.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (AP)—Stocks, confused by conflicting market influences, slipped into lower territory today. They tried to follow another late rally in wheat, but failed to get very far in the face of a slump in European gold exchanges. The close was heavy, with losses of 1 to 4 or more points predominating. Trading was dull throughout, transfers approximately only 1,700,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Oct. 18 (AP)—Despite New York stock market setbacks and notwithstanding unsettledness of foreign exchange rates wheat prices advanced late today, with commission houses active buyers on dips. Further purchasing of wheat for United States government account was reported in leading markets today, and the cash basis for hard winter grades here substantially advanced as compared with December contracts. Then for the first time this season, immediate delivery wheat brought a better figure than December 1/2 cent premium in contrast with 1 1/2 cents discount 24 hours previous.
Wheat closed strong 2 1/2 cents above yesterday's finish, corn 1-1 1/2 advanced, oats 1-1 1/2 up, and provisions varying from 12 cents decline to 5 cents gain.

Colorado Rancher Slain, House Fired

DELTA, Colo., Oct. 18 (AP)—Robert Browning, 45-year-old bachelor, was left dying by his hog pen after his skull had been crushed and his house fired. His hands and feet were bound with barbed wire. Officers believe his assailants planned to toss him to the hungry hogs. He died en route to a hospital.
Neighbors, seeing his house burning yesterday, rushed to aid. They found the rancher 200 yards from his burning dwelling. County officers were notified.
Sheriff Ray Lockhart expressed the belief robbery was the motive and that the house was burned to destroy evidence, but believed an inquiry might provide some information leading to apprehension of the assailants.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Embarrassing Glare.

Weak governments fear the glare of truthful publicity. Weak personalities usually are violent toward the press even if they qualify to other agencies. Fear begets many excesses. Where revolutions break out, Associated Press reporters and cameramen rush to learn the truth. Some of them, as in Havana lately, suffer bullet wounds and other personal injuries. An American diplomat, consular official sent abroad can, through cautious means, let our government know what is going on. Can people need also to know, for our government is shaped by our votes. But for diplomatic reasons our government cannot reveal what it learns. The press then, has a grave responsibility and one which, we believe, it is performing admirably well considering the huge difficulties involved. We cite these facts so that our readers may appreciate the A. P. service.

We Know Most.

Bad as the censorship conditions for our correspondents abroad, the local press in the various countries is much worse. Close to America, we have seen how newspapers in Havana were suppressed, the publishers and editors imprisoned, the plants wrecked. Similar things have happened in Italy, Germany, Russia, China, Japan, Spain, and elsewhere. In many instances, Americans know facts about other governments before the peoples in the affected countries know them. Indeed, dispatches to American newspapers are often reversed and dispatched back to the country from which they are sent. And if you want to know what is going on in Austria (and you are in Vienna), you must buy a newspaper from some neighboring country to which news is smuggled, printed, and sent into Austria. Great game, this newspaper business!

Lamesa Cowboys In Polo Semi-Finals

FORT WORTH, Oct. 18 (AP)—El Ranchito Reds played brilliant polo yesterday on the Grand Prairie field to defeat the Dallas Whites, 13 to 5, in the semi-final for the consolation trophy, and earned the right to meet Ernest Fain's Wichita Falls quartet Saturday in the consolation final. The game will be played on the same field.
Thursday Sheriff Gus White will lead his Lamesa Cowboys against the Dallas Blues in the semi-final for the Hoot Gibson challenge trophy, and the winner of this tilt will meet El Ranchito's Blues for the championship and trophy Sunday on El Ranchito's turf field.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—The federal trade commission today announced it has started its investigation of the size of the salaries of America's business leaders.
Carrying out a senate resolution it addressed questionnaires to some 2,000 corporations listed on the New York stock and curb exchanges, asking for returns by October 25.
The commission expects to have its report ready for the next senate session.

Unwritten Law Is An Issue In Floydada Trial

LUBBOCK, Oct. 18 (AP)—V. A. Readhimer, 27, Floyd county farmer, was ready to testify today in his trial on murder charges for the shooting of Stokes Campbell, 19, Floydada high school student, allegedly in defense of his sister's honor.
Defense witnesses yesterday related that Campbell had been "going with" Readhimer's sister, Grace, several years and last April 5 told members of the family of "her condition," naming Campbell as the father of her unborn child.

State witnesses had described how J. R. Readhimer, the father, shot Campbell in the back while his son held the youth on a street in Floydada, then fired two more shots into the youth's head after he had fallen to the ground. The father also is under murder charges and will be tried after the present case is concluded.
Both young Readhimer and his sister, who was present at the trial yesterday with her three-month-old baby, were ready to testify today.

Coleman, Casey Await Transfer To Leavenworth

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 18. (P)—Two farmers, Cass Coleman and Will Casey, among the last defendants convicted in the government's swift web of evidence involving persons connected with the kidnapping and $200,000 ransom of Charles F. Urschel, wealthy Oklahoman, today awaited transfer to Leavenworth penitentiary.

They were sentenced late yesterday by Federal Judge William H. Atwell for harboring "Machine Gun" George Kelly and his wife, Kathryn, both now serving life sentences for their part in the Urschel kidnapping, while the Kellys were still fugitives.

Casey, who had pleaded not guilty and claimed he did not know the man who rented a small house on his farm was Kelly, must serve a two-year sentence. Coleman, 60 father of ten children, pleaded guilty and was given a sentence of a year and a day. It was on his farm that federal agents recently dug up $73,250 of the Urschel ransom money. Coleman claimed he helped Kelly bury it because he feared for his life.

Ed R. Goss, deputy United States marshal, said the two prisoners would be transferred to Leavenworth prison tomorrow. Kelly, Harvey Bailey and Albert Bates, all are now serving life sentences in the same prison for the Urschel kidnapping.

"I have learned a lesson," was Casey's cryptic statement when he received sentence. Coleman expressed concern for his wife and children. He is an uncle of Kathryn Kelly.

SOBERING INFLUENCE
PHILADELPHIA (P)—By this time next year, William Hoover should be an authority on "sobriety."

He pleaded guilty to carrying a pistol and Judge Raymond MacNeille said:

"Since liquor got you into trouble, I think the proper punishment is for you to write the word 'sobriety' 1,000 times a day for the next year."

Mrs. J. O. Kiser entered Pampa hospital yesterday evening for a minor operation.

Mrs. Ruth Meek was admitted to Pampa hospital this morning for a tonsillectomy.

SIMON CALLS NEURATH TALK A FALSEHOOD

REMARKABLE PERSONAL CLASH WATCHED BY WORLD

LONDON, Oct. 18. (P)—What many considered one of the most remarkable personal clashes between statesmen of two great powers in many years was brought into the glare of world-wide publicity today as a result of the counter-attack of Sir John Simon or Baron Konstantin von Neurath.

Sir John headed Great Britain's delegation at the world disarmament conference which recessed until October 26 after Germany's withdrawal. Herr von Neurath is Germany's foreign minister.

Today's effect the controversy—in which each challenges the word of the other—has been on the political careers of the two men in their respective countries and also on future Anglo-German relations, was awaited with widespread interest.

In a speech last night in which he charged the Germany "jeopardizing, if not wrecking," the cause of disarmament, Sir John repeatedly referred to what he termed von Neurath's statement that he (Simon) was "spreading untruthful statements" about the German foreign minister and "false views" of Germany's armament demands.

At one point in his address, Sir John said he was ready to "publish records and documents" to show that he was right.

He even called upon Norman H. Davis, head of the American delegation at Geneva as a witness that he was telling the truth and that von Neurath was accusing him unjustly.

The speech was given great prominence in morning newspapers, but there was a tendency to comment less on the personal clash and the veracity of the statements, which one paper called "their affair"—than on the British peace advocate's statement that "recent events in Europe unquestionably have increased the feeling of nervousness and positive alarm which is the real reason why heavily-armed states hesitated to weaken their forces."

Harry Newman And Friedman In Pass Duel

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (P)—A couple of quarterbacks who were ill-American selections in their college days in 39 attempts for a gain of 53 yards while Herbert, Green Bar star, has completed 27 in 51 for 371 yards. Friedman, now with the Brooklyn Dodgers, has a higher average than either of his rivals, completing nine out of 11 for a gain of 165 yards but has played in only two games.

Paul Moss, former Purdue end now with Pittsburgh, and Luke Johnson of the Chicago Bears, set the pace as pass receivers. Each has caught nine. Johnson for a gain of 133 yards and Moss for 143.

Cliff Battles, former West Virginia Westsaver flash and Jim Musick, of Southern California, furnish two big reasons why the Boston Redskins have outgained all rivals. Battles has gained 47 yards while Musick with 273 is his closest rival. Joe Lillard of the Chicago Cardinals and Ace Givens of Portsmouth, are next with 238 yards.

A half-billion dollar corn-hog program today was added to the government's manifold efforts to boost farm prices.

Secretary Wallace announced the two-year plan for balancing supply and demand through $350,000,000 in benefit payments to farmers in return for slashing corn and hog production.

While Governor William Langer of North Dakota, pressed upon other states his plan for a wheat shipment embargo, the federal government contracted for a million bushels for relief distribution. There were indications this figure might be swollen to 40,000,000 bushels and eggs added to the relief commodities.

Organization of the Commodity Credit corporation advanced to the stage where it will be ready to make loans to cotton growers by this week-end. The producers may borrow eight to ten cents a pound on the unsold portion of this year's crop if they agree to join the 1934 acreage control program.

Langer's embargo plan seemed headed for a court test of his authority to block wheat movements across North Dakota's lines. Secretary Wallace declined to discuss it, but commented it "should call attention to the problem of the wheat farmer."

Since The Good Old Days Seem To Be Coming Back

Outrageous Fortune

—By PATRICIA WENTWORTH

SYNOPSIS: By sheer accident, Caroline had found her cousin, Jim Randall, whom she had thought drowned. But his memory of past events is confused; he has been told by Neta Riddell that he is her husband, and worse, that he has stolen the Van Berg emeralds (and shot her own).

And his memory shows him flashes of himself drinking with Van Berg, and of the emeralds in Van Berg's hands! Jim cannot disprove Neta, since he cannot remember his immediate past. So Caroline starts to London to check up on Neta's marriage, and on the train hears that glasses are being tested for fingerprints by the police. She is frightened.

Chapter 25

SUDDEN DECISION

Mrs. Rodgers sunk her voice to a sepulchral whisper.

"There was a tray with whisky and soda and two glasses in Mr. Van Berg's study, and the police took 'em for fingerprints. And Mrs. Henry says to me, 'That wasn't no plan straightforward burglar,' she says. 'If a burglar comes in on a gentleman in the middle of the night, they don't sit down and have drinks together—not much they don't,' she says."

"Were the glasses full or empty?" said the shy young man.

"Empty down to the last drop," said Mrs. Rodgers. "And what's more—but there, praps I didn't ought to repeat that."

"I'm sure none of us will let it go any further," said the elder Miss Boring.

"Well, I don't know as I'd better, seeing as Mrs. Henry wouldn't ha' told me if it hadn't been for me overhearing what passed between her and Mrs. Van Berg's maid."

Caroline's heart began to beat hard and fast. What was she going to hear? She felt as if at any moment this fat good-natured woman might say something that couldn't ever be unsaid again—something dangerous, something that might hurt Jim.

Everyone was begging Mrs. Rodgers to go on.

"Well, I don't know as I ought. That's the worst of talking—you run on, and then you can't take it back again. Lord bless me if we haven't got to Meade already!"

And perhaps just as well, or I might have said more than I ought. Now, I wonder if anyone'd be good enough to hand my basket out after me. It's a deal easier to get out backwards when you come to my size."

The train jerked and clanked to a standstill. The shy young man opened the door. Mrs. Rodgers backed out, took her basket, and bade the carriage at large an affable farewell.

Without having thought of it beforehand, Caroline found herself saying, "Please may I pass?" She had to say that because the school-boy was standing right in the doorway. He moved as the guard came along to shut the door.

Caroline said in a soft breathless voice, "I'm getting out," and jumped down on to the platform just as the train began to move. She didn't wait for the guard to scold her.

Mrs. Rodgers was already giving up her ticket. Caroline ran after her and caught her up just outside the station where Meade Hill runs steeply up between hedges full of bramble and elder.

Mrs. Rodgers stared at her in astonishment, and Caroline realized that she had no idea what she was going to say. It must have come over her suddenly that she simply couldn't let Mrs. Rodgers go, and now that she had caught her up she said the first thing that came into her head.

"Can I help you with your basket?"

Mrs. Rodgers looked her up and down.

"What's a young lady like you want to carry my basket for?"

"I'm going your way."

"And how do you know what way I'm going, miss?"

Caroline looked rather as if she had been caught stealing jam. Her lips trembled into a smile.

"I ran after you," she said.

Mrs. Rodgers set down her basket in the road and nodded.

"Honestly the best policy. What brought you after me? For by the look of you you hadn't any thoughts of getting out here."

"No," said Caroline. "I should truly like to carry your basket."

She picked it up, and they began to mount the hill.

"And that's what you came after me for, I'll be bound!"

"No—I came after you because I wanted to talk to you."

"That's straight, anyway. And what have you got to say?"

"I didn't want to say anything. I wanted you to tell me what Mrs. Henry told you."

Mrs. Rodgers swung her ample black skirts in silence. They just cleared the dust of the road. Her color deepened as she climbed.

"Mrs. Rodgers—"

Mrs. Rodgers turned a streaming crimson face upon her.

"Talk on this 'ill, I can't," she panted, and Caroline had to get what comfort she could from that.

At the top of the hill there was a stile, and on the step of the stile Mrs. Rodgers seated herself and proceeded to get her breath. Caroline stood before her with the basket and felt her courage slip and slip away.

"Well," said Mrs. Rodgers at last. Caroline looked at her imploringly.

"Well, since we're 'ere, w'd best have it out."

Caroline spoke before all her courage left her.

"Will you please tell me what Mrs. Henry said?"

"And why?"

"I thought I'd like to know," said Caroline rather faintly.

"And why?" said Mrs. Rodgers in an even slower and more portentous manner.

Caroline began to speak quickly.

"You were telling us as the train stopped, and I—I wanted to know. You were telling everyone in the carriage."

Mrs. Rodgers nodded.

"What's taken light can be told light. Wasn't nothing to them, no more than it wasn't to me. Stands to reason everybody'll talk about a murder—and this is as good as one by all accounts."

"Then won't you tell me?"

"I dunno," said Mrs. Rodgers. She pursed her lips together and cast an odd look at Caroline. "Do you know where I'm going?" she said with apparent irrelevance. "No, I don't suppose you do. Well, I'm walking across the fields by this here footpath to Stowbury to spend the day with my sister, Harriet Brown, that used to be Harriet Welsh."

Caroline's color changed sharply. She had the horrible sensation of having walked into a trap. (Copyright, 1933, J. P. Lippincott Co.) Mrs. Rodgers gives Caroline some terrifying information tomorrow.

Following the cattle sale the Northeast Panhandle Herford Breeders Association auctioned off 15 bulls. Col. Fred Reppert of Decatur, Ind., conducted the sale.

Where are the Geese

Where have the wild geese gone? That's what Canadian hunters wanted to know and Game Warden Buck Hestris answered their question.

In recent years the flights of geese have been fewer and farther between. The cause: geese shot at on their roosting places, on the lakes or river will not return to them but will stop at some other place when migrating. If that kind of hunting is kept up, in a very few years the geese will avoid all such places. Mr. Harris urged establishment of a game refuge.

Attempt Made To Assassinate Baptist Pastor

JONESBORO, Ark., Oct. 18. (P)—An attempt to assassinate the Rev. Dale Crowley, imprisoned pastor of the strife-torn Baptist tabernacle here was halted, temporarily at least, peace negotiations between warring factions of the church.

The attempt was made on the pastor last night as he lay asleep in jail where he is held without bond on a charge of killing the church janitor, W. J. MacMurdo, last week. A burst of pistol fire was directed at his cell but none of the slugs struck the minister.

Two men were reported to have left hurriedly after the bullets were fired from an area way behind the jail into the barred window of Crowley's cell.

Beu're the Cough or Cold-That Hangs On

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (Adv. 7H)

Ford Company Denies 'Bending Knee' to NRA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (P)—Henry Ford today apparently was in a new stage of differences with the NRA.

Chairman Wagner of the National Labor board announced receipt of an "assurance by telegram" that the Ford Motor company was "prepared to meet authorized representatives of their employees."

Promptly, a Detroit spokesman of Ford—non-signer of NRA's automobile code—said a telegram that went from the company's Dearborn offices several days ago was of "quite a different tenor" from the one described by Senator Wagner.

This Ford representative added that Wagner had "withheld" the communication from the Ford Motor company, and that if he would give it out "there will be no doubt about what the facts are."

Chapel Program at Sam Houston Entertains Pupils

Music and readings made up a varied program at Sam Houston chapel this morning. The Rev. James Todd Jr. was the speaker for the opening devotional. His subject was "Brotherly Love," and the story of Joseph was used as its base.

Mrs. Carson Loftus read two selections, I Got to Go to School, and It Was Me. A violin solo, Humoresque, was played by George Saunders.

Ewert Duncan gave a reading, "Reginald," Marjorie McColm played a piano solo, Golden Days.

Stop The Radio For Home Study

BY MARY G. MCCORMICK, Supervisor of Health Teaching, New York State Department of Health.

Of particular importance is the psychological atmosphere of the room during the study period. If the teacher insists on home work, parents should respect the study needs of children and not make unnecessary noises or permit other children to make them during the study hour.

Shut off the radio, even if it is not in the same room where studying is going on, for slight sounds of music readily distract the mind. If the child does not have a room of his own in which to study, parents and other children should read or study with him, so there will be no distracting conversation or other excitement to take his mind off his work.

The room itself should be well ventilated and cool. Very open study is difficult in the home because of a tendency, particularly in the winter time, to keep the air too warm, which produces drowsiness and leads to ineffective work.

Under no circumstances must the home study period be prolonged. If the teacher insists upon sending home more work than the child can accomplish within an hour or so, the parent is within his rights to protest. The home hours are better spent in outdoor exercise or rest than in doing work that should have been done at school or not at all.

CISCO LOBOES WILL ATTEMPT TO RIDDLE HARVESTERS' LINE ON SATURDAY

TEAM IS ONE OF STRONGEST IN OIL BELT

FORMER STEER GRID STAR, SHELLEY, IS COACH

Cisco's Big Dam Lobos will invade Pampa Saturday for a feature game with the Harvesters at Harvesters park with the starting time set for 3 o'clock and admission 50 cents, with reserve seats 25 cents extra to those who do not have season reserve seat tickets.

Dexter Shelley, former Texas university backfield star, is coach of the Lobo team. He has produced many winners with Cisco eleven and the one that will come to Pampa will be by no means the weakest that has represented Cisco. Like all other Lobo teams, this year's eleven got off to a slow start, but has been gathering momentum every game until it is reported to be near mid-season form.

Cisco was out of its conference last year but not out of football. Last year's team went places in non-conference games and also strengthened for this year. Little is known here of the Cisco type of play but it will probably be the well known Texas university style of hit that line and keep going.

Harvester coaches are spending the week polishing up weak points. First the line leaked and then the offense was weak. Later plating troubles developed and blocking and tackling were badly in need of going over. However, things have not been so bad that disaster stared the green and gold in the face, and the boys should be just about primed in every department Saturday.

The size of the Cisco football team is unknown here. No information has been received from Cisco but W. O. Workman, business manager of the Harvesters, was telephoned the Lobo line this afternoon for the necessary information for programs and a brief history of the team.

However, from press reports of games played, Cisco has a big, well balanced team that will outwell the Harvesters in many departments.

Mother 'Moves In' On City Family

A woman and two children, a girl 9 and a boy 12, are being detained here by city officers while Welfare Board officials investigate the story. The three were taken to the police station last night about 9 o'clock after they had been found making themselves "at home" in a local residence.

The woman told three different stories, but finally admitted that she was a resident of Tulsa. Mrs. W. H. Davis is checking the story and, if it is true, the three will probably be returned to Tulsa. The woman said she had seen the lady, in whose home the three were found, in Hemphill county and decided to visit her.

Equipose May Race Winoka On November 7

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (P)—It appears now that the match race between C. V. Whitney's Equipose and the Australian sprinter, Winoka, may be held after all.

Barely 24 hours after it was revealed that Whitney and Rufe Naylor, manager of Winoka's tour, could not agree on the distance, there were indications today that Naylor was ready to send the Australian champion over the mile route demanded by Equipose's owner. Naylor, it was reported, already has re-opened negotiations.

The race, if agreement is reached both as to distance and weights, will be held at Belmont park Nov. 7.

Bowling League To Begin Play Tuesday Night

The Pampa Class A bowling league will get under way Tuesday night with four teams represented. At a meeting last night in the Schneider hotel all officers were re-elected for another year.

Alex Schneider is president and J. M. Powell, vice president. Gordon Moore will act as secretary and F. A. Peek, treasurer. Because the league race is late in getting started, only 60 games will be rolled this year instead of the usual 81 games. Teams entered and their captains are: Thirty Footers, last year's league champions, J. M. Powell, captain; Schneider hotel, Gordon Moore, captain; Kiwanis club, Earl Roff, captain; Country club, Art Swanson, captain.

The schedule has not been completed but officials of the league will have it ready for release soon. Each team will have six players and the sixth man will be allowed to roll a required number of games. He will get his games by one of the regulars dropping out every so many games.

A Class B league will be organized next week.

Actress Charges Read With Theft

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18. (P)—Claire Windsor, blond actress came to the city prosecutor's office with her lawyer today and signed a request for a petty theft complaint against Alfred C. Read Jr., whose divorced wife recently obtained a $75,000 judgment in a suit charging the actress with stealing Read's love.

Miss Windsor and Wilson said they had two police officers stationed outside the house and that when Read left after discussing the evidence, the officers halted him and he turned over to them two $5 bills and a $1 bill. The actress and Wilson said this money had been in a purse on a chair in the house.

HERE'S A NEW ONE

JINX FAVORS CARNEGIE TO WALLOP IRISH

PRINCETON CALIBER TO BE SEEN SATURDAY WITH COLUMBIA

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (P)—If you play hunches, put your money on Carnegie Tech to whip Notre Dame at Pittsburgh this week.

The Ramblers couldn't beat Howard Harpster when he was playing a great quarterback for the Tartan in the days of 1926-28 and the superstitious might risk a gamble that the jinx will hold good now that Harpster is head coach at his alma mater.

Notre Dame played Carnegie Tech twice in the three years Harpster was varsity quarterback and took two sound beatings. Howard booted the field goals from the 31 and 40-yard lines in 1926 when Carnegie won, 19-0, and scored a touchdown and kicked three extra points when the Tartans crushed the Ramblers, 27-7 in 1928. His excellent field generalship likewise was credited with playing a large part in both victories.

Of course it will take more than a hunch to beat Notre Dame Saturday even though the Ramblers have been disappointing in their first two starts against Kansas and Indiana. But Harpster, in his first year as head coach at Carnegie, has built a sturdy line and developed a sensational passing attack that has not long ago routed Pop Warner's Temple Owls, 25-0.

Fritz Crisler has done a remarkable job in restoring Princeton football to the point where the Tigers once more are genuinely feared. In little more than a year, Crisler has developed a team that some critics think is destined to ride rough-shod over all opposition. The material is there, without doubt, but it remains to be seen what Crisler's sophomore backfield flashes will do when the going gets tougher.

On the basis of what they accomplished in Princeton's opening runs of Amherst and Williams, Garret Levan, Paul Pauk, Homer Spofford, Pepper Constable, and Sumner Rulon-Miller, all members of the great freshman outfit of 1932, look like football players any coach would be glad to have on his varsity.

Their first test comes Saturday when the Tigers run up against a veteran Columbia team led by the triple-threat quarterback, Capt. Cliff Montgomery.

For the first time this season the South fails to lead in the number of teams it contributes to inter-sectional warfare. Virginia, already trounced by Ohio and beaten, after a great fight, by Columbia, tackles Navy and Auburn's Plainsmen face George Washington university, in the only important inter-sectional game in which southern teams figure.

On the other hand the east and the mid-west will be rivals in four major tussles—Carnegie Tech-Notre Dame, Pitt-Minnesota, Army-Illinois, and Duquesne-Detroit.

Nazis Announce Conquest Aims In New Attack

GENEVA, Oct. 18. (P)—An anonymous pamphlet, which defended the principles of Chancellor Adolf Hitler and outlined a foreign policy for the new Germany aroused comment in international circles were today. Titled "Germany's national awakening," the booklet is printed in English.

Even Napoleon, said one of the passages of the pamphlet, did not hit upon the corridor idea when setting up an independent Polish state.

Then the chapter on foreign policy set forth that one of the paramount aims of the new Germany is to attain "by way of treaty revision a more logical and less exasperating demarcation of Germany's eastern frontier."

Continuing, the pamphlet declared Germany "was robbed of its overseas possessions from which it obtained raw materials badly needed in German industry."

"German public opinion regards the return of the colonies as an act of justice as well as a vital necessity," the pamphlet added, concluding that fusion of the "small German state of Austria with Germany is inevitable."

WITH THE— HARVESTERS

By HARRY E. HOARE

It takes 11 men to make a football team, but there are always a few outstanding players on a team and the other members do not mind losing much of the credit. Football players are broadminded. The Harvesters of 1933 are about the best balanced aggregation that has represented Pampa high school in several years. Every boy is a star in his line even though he doesn't shine exceptionally.

However, the work of Lloyd Hamilton, quarterback, cannot be overlooked and must be given special mention. Although weighing only 145 pounds, Lloyd can hit the line like a "ton of bricks" and he is getting faster every day. When everything else failed in Shawnee the other night, Lloyd started hitting the line himself and got results. Another member of the team who has come to the front and who should continue to shine is big Miles Marbaugh. Miles has developed hard driving power that has looked good in the last couple of games. Jess Patton looked better in the Shawnee game than he had previously this season. J. R. Green also appeared to have come out of a slump that had affected his play.

Buck Mundy is a real corner, so the Hopkins pair, Pinnell and Mackie, are also a couple of real finders.

Those Kelley Gorillas are the surprise package of the year. When Coach Harry Kelley took them over a month ago they were the worst looking bunch of prospects that could be imagined. But every one of those youngsters was football minded and determined to be a future Harvester. As a result, the Gorillas look very good. In fact, some of those youngsters could give a few Harvesters lessons in blocking and tackling.

The Cisco Lobo pack will come to Pampa Saturday as the fifth strong team the Harvesters have met this season. The Pampa team has been up against stiff competition from the start and it has been good for them. They have learned lessons in every game and by the time the conference season gets under way—well, I see the Harvesters ready.

The Oklahoma City Goldbugs and the Wichita, Kan., teams have broken friendly relations. The Bugs claim Wichita plays too hard a brand of football. John Pafford and Dillard Buckingham are attending Wichita university this year and playing football.

Little Joe Kahl got a tough break Friday when he ran 22 yards for a touchdown on the first play only to have the play called back because of offside. Joe played a great game as also did big Troy Stalls.

KILLED IN TORNADO
Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Yandell, 806 S. Reed returned Tuesday from Sayre, Oklahoma, where they attended the funeral of their grand-children, and a 9 year old cousin, who were killed in the Sayre tornado Saturday night.

In the building in which the aged couple and young boy were killed, a girl 5 years of age was only slightly injured.

OFFICIAL RULES ON STRANGE PLAY IN VALLEY GRID GAME

Edinburg Full Intercepts Pass And Crosses Own Goal Line for Safety.

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer

E. C. "Doc" Osborn, sports editor of the Harlingen Valley Morning Star, had to rule on a strange play last week while refereeing a football game between McAllen and Edinburg high school teams.

Carl Skinner, McAllen fullback, intercepted a pass tossed by an Edinburg player and raced 40 yards to cross Edinburg's goal line, scoring a safety, which incidentally was the margin by which his team lost. "Doc" admitted that for a few seconds he could not realize what had happened because of the play coming on an interception. "Doc" is now trying to find if there has ever been a similar play on an intercepted pass.

All-Americans
There isn't any doubt that Billy Stamps and J. C. Wetzel are the two best guards of recent years at Southern Methodist. They play the hardest kind of football against stiff competition but last week they were inclined to let down against the Texas School of Mines.

Through failure of this pair to play their hardest, the miners scored a touchdown. Russell McIntosh, Southern Methodist line coach, was so displeased he sent in substitutes for Stamps and Wetzel. As they trotted off the field, McIntosh stopped them and said:

"I regret it was necessary for me to remove you two All-Americans from the lineup, but I just couldn't bear to see those big miners take away your sticks of candy."

After leaving Stamps and Wetzel out of the game for two periods, he called them to his chair on the sideline and said:

"Now if you two All-Americans think you can keep from getting getting your little toes stepped on, you both can go back and finish the game."

Stamps and Wetzel rattled the miners front wall the last half to aid Robert Wilson in making runs of 46 and 41-yards for touchdowns that gave the Mustangs a 27 to 6 victory. Out at the S. M. U. campus, Stamps and Wetzel claim they have learned their lesson and that even set-up teams are going to get plenty of hard football from them in future combats.

Claim Soldiers Refuse To Guard Cuban Prisoners

HAVANA, Oct. 18. (P)—Recurrent reports of trouble in the Isle of Pines prisons, where most of the officers captured in the national hotel battle are imprisoned, categorically were denied by the government today.

Major Raimundo Ferrer, military aide to President Ramon Grau San Martin, declared "everything is going fine at the Isle of Pines and contrary reports are just plain rumors."

The most persistent rumor was that some of the soldiers guarding the imprisoned officers had refused to obey orders of the newly appointed leaders, declaring the imprisoned men were their rightful commanders.

Meanwhile, authorities continued their search for those guilty in a bomb explosion which shattered the window in an American owned tenement store during a strike of store employees.

PAID CIRCULATION—PLUS INFLUENCE—EQUALS RESULTS

DECISION ON PRICE-CONTROL IS EXPECTED

ROOSEVELT EXPECTED TO TAKE ACTION TODAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18 (AP)—A presidential decision which may influence prices in a million and a half retail stores was expected today from the White House.

Mr. Roosevelt's task was to define the government's policy toward price regulation in a retail distribution code. Before him were arguments for and against minimum price mark-ups over invoice costs.

Hugh S. Johnson, recovery chief, said 99 per cent of the country's retailers wanted this form of price stabilization. Secretary Wallace was vigorously opposed. He said, however, an agreement submitted to the president would prohibit sales below invoice costs in order to ban the "loss leader" practice.

While President Roosevelt studied the retail issue the labor department announced an upward trend in wholesale prices began in March had "continued unbroken" through September with a two per cent advance in the weighted index of 784 commodities.

Based on 1926 average prices as 100, the department said the index went from 99.5 in August to 70.8 in September, averaging "above 70 for the first time since November, 1931," and representing an 18 per cent increase over last February's low.

"Between August and September," it said, "increases were reported in 194 instances, decreases in 152 other instances, while in 338 instances no change in price was shown."

At NRA offices plans were advanced for enforcing President's order providing a $500 fine and six months imprisonment for violators of blue eagle regulations. These regulations, issued by the president last night and supplemented by Johnson, forbid the display of the blue eagle by persons not complying with its provisions and require its removal on Johnson's order.

Victim Out-Talks Kidnapers

William Walton Hall, young Chicago law student, heir to $200,000 was reunited with his young son, Billy, shown in the picture, and his wife, yesterday while his story of having been kidnaped by three men was investigated. His release, he said, was effected when he spent 11 day Sunday impressing upon the lone jailer left to guard him, the seriousness of the crime of kidnaping.

Floyd Presents Surrender Terms Governor States

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18 (AP)—"Pretty Boy" Floyd, a name temporarily crowded out of Oklahoma's crime news by the "Machine Gun" Kellys and Harvey Bailey, was back today, linked with a story of wounds and a spurned offer to surrender.

Gov. William H. Murray said the desperado, wanted for murder and bank robberies of not-so-recent date, had offered to "give himself up" through an emissary after a state operative had wounded him in a gunfight near Coalgate, Okla., several weeks ago. But the surrender offer, said Murray, was on the condition the state would not seek the death penalty.

"I couldn't make a deal like that," he governor added. "We'll get him though."

Murray, who disclosed neither the name of the Floyd intermediary nor the identity of the officer who, he said, yesterday wounded "Pretty Boy" in the leg and shoulder, declared the outlaw was hiding in the southeastern Oklahoma hills.

Although he was blamed for the murder of Ely Kelly, former Muskogee county sheriff, and a wave of bank hold-ups in 1931 and 1932, little has been heard from Floyd since George Birdwell, his chief lieutenant, was shot to death in a bank raid in the all-negro community of Boley a year ago.

A NATION-WIDE NAZI ARMY IN AUSTRIA FOUND

STORM TROOPS DRILL REGULARLY IN FORESTS

VIENNA, Oct. 18 (AP)—A nationwide Nazi military organization has been developed in Austria, it was disclosed today, despite the handicap of the party's dissolution in this country.

The widespread movement came to light as government investigations continued into alleged Nazi plots at the Linz garrison and elsewhere to seize arms for use in "further action."

Outstanding in the disclosures is the fact that Nazi storm troops no longer are being organized by civilians, but are in the hands of Austria army officers—either active or recently retired.

Higher officers, it appeared, either are not involved or as a matter of policy are being shielded from compromising themselves. Lieutenants and captains make up the active membership.

A second fact is that these Nazi storm troops are officered by army men and drill regularly.

Kuernberger forest, near Linz, for example, has been the scene of such Nazi maneuvers.

A curious detail of these drills, investigators say, is the use of "Fascist Heimwehr" sentries surrounding the drill ground in the middle of the forest to keep away casual hikers. These sentries of course are all Nazis disguised in the paraphernalia of Prince Von Star Hemberg's unoutlawed home guards.

They customarily assemble at daybreak, arriving inconspicuously in small groups and departing similarly.

The third fact uncovered in the investigations, it was said, is that the under cover military organization—enlisting civilians but organized from within the army and allegedly preserving contact with Germany—is divided into brigades.

(Lieutenant Franz Fritsch of Alpine regiment seven, arrested in connection with the Linz garrison plot, was acting commander of the upper Austrian brigade of Nazis.)

Norman to Play At Pla-Mor For Dance Tonight

Joe Norman's orchestra will furnish the music for a dance at the Pla-Mor auditorium tonight, starting at 9 o'clock. There will be no admission to the hall and dance tickets will be only five cents each.

The popular orchestra, non-recording, has made a big hit in Pampa and is much in demand. The Pla-Mor floor is in excellent condition.

'Ladies Must Love' At LaNora Today

Goddigger Musical, Rumored to be the Novelty Expose of the Season Starts Today.

What are the details of the private lives of New York's gold-digging damsels? What goes on in "Ladies Must Love"? What are the secrets of Broadway's professional purveyors of pulchritude?

The answers of these interesting questions are provided in "Ladies Must Love," Universal's gay musical picture which runs today and Thursday at the La Nora theatre with June Knight, Neil Hamilton, Dorothy Burgess, Mary Carlisle and Sally O'Neil in featured roles.

In the story the three latter girls are seen as out-and-out gold-diggers, loving 'em and leaving 'em when they run out of money, but the more charitable Miss Knight, who shares their luxurious Park Avenue penthouse, exhibits traces of a conscience, and refuses to accept the lavish gifts of the wealthy Neil Hamilton. It is when this situation strikes rough water and June loses her man through a misunderstanding, that the other three girls, each blaming the other for the loss of a promising meal ticket, stage a knock-down and drag-out fight that entirely wrecks their apartment.

With Miss Knight as the principal soloist, "Ladies Must Love" abounds with tuneful songs, which have already become popular over the country. These include "To-night May Never Come Again," "I've Got Personality," "I'd Worship Him Just the Same" and "Three Little Maids"—the latter sung by the other girls in a riotously active beer garden, scenes of their first real work in a long time.

"Ladies Must Love" is said to be the ultimate in gay, wise-cracking, intensely modern screen entertainment.
