Group To Ft. Worth For Talks

A group representing Colorado Independent School District and Mitchell County were in Fort Worth Tuesday to talk taxes with officials of Texas Electric Service Company.

Joining the group also were representatives of Pritchard & Abbott, Fort Worth based tax evaluation firm.

On the trip for the schools were Business Manager and Tax Collector-Assessor J. S. (Jay) Craddock, school board members Tom Rees and A. K. McCarley Jr.

County Judge Bill F. Carter represented the county in the group accompanied by Don Benson, TESCO manager here.

The Fort Worth meeting was arranged by invitation by TESCO to Rees, president of the Colorado City school board.

It followed appearances here last month by TESCO officials before the school board and Commissioners Court when TESCO asked for a 14 million dollar reduction in assessed school tax valuations, which, at current tax rates, would reduce TESCO's tax payments approximately $132,000 a year.

There were no indications that any decisions were expected in the Fort Worth meeting Wednesday.

Main purpose was for an exchange of ideas and figures concerning Texas Electric's properties at Morgan Creek Power Plant on Lake Colorado City. And a prime purpose was to re-emphasize goodwill communications between the company and the school and county officials.

It also was apparent that Benson, the local manager, was taking a more important role in the tax talks. Here in November TESCO's chief spokesmen were Division Manager Bill Brown of Sweetwater and Dave Kelch, company secretary - treasurer from Fort Worth. And Kelch discussed tax reductions with the county commissioners the day after the request was put to school trustees.

Significant in the Fort Worth meeting Wednesday was the fact that Pritchard & Abbott representatives were included. The evaluation firm last month was criticized strongly by TESCO group who said the company did not want to deal with the firm in the future.

While the trip to Fort Worth was being arranged, TESCO continued its policy of paying its school taxes in the fall.

$50 Winner

Mrs. J. C. Houston, Rt. 2, was the winner of $50 in the weekly drawing held Saturday. The winner of the $25 was Mrs. O.K. Stubbs of 1041 Cedar. The holder of the $100 ticket apparently wasn't aware that he or she was a winner. So, this week, four drawings will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday on the bank parking lot, two drawings for $100 each, one for $50 and one for $25.

Billings Named To Board Post

Chamber of Commerce directors Monday night appointed John Billings, manager of C.R. Anthony's in Colorado City, to fill the unexpired term of J. P. Hendrix.

Hendrix, manager of the Sun Oil Co. district office here, resigned recently due to business reasons.

Billings will complete Hendrix's term which runs for another year and a month.

Five new directors are to be named to the chamber later this week after results of the annual chamber election have been tabulated.

Deadline for submitting ballots is Friday.

Nominees for five three-year terms are R. B. Baker, Dr. Elton Berkman, Dr. Billy B. Bridgford, Murrell Blassingame, Bobby Lemons, Kent Gentry, John Martin, Truman Nix, Eddie Piland and Glen Thomas.

Wolf-Merkel Tilt Opens Tournament Today At 2

The Colorado City Wolves "A" & "B" basketball teams will play host Thursday, Friday and Saturday to 10 other basketball teams for the annual Colorado City Lone Wolf tournament.

Colorado High's varsity squad goes into the tournament undefeated in nine games. The Wolves have never won their own tournament and the team is hoping to score a first this year.

Teams playing in the tournament along with the Colorado High A&B teams will be Seminole, Lake View, Stanton, Pecos, Post, Ballinger, Winters, Merkel, Brownwood, and Slaton.

Action will get underway at 2 p.m. Thursday with the Wolves playing Merkel. Other action Thursday will include a game at 3:30 p.m. between Pecos and Post, the game between Seminole and Lake View at 6:30 and the game between Stanton and Colorado City "B" team is at 8 p.m.

Also Thursday, Ballinger and Winters will play at Winters in one of their regularly scheduled district games. However, both teams wanted in the tournament and were allowed to count the district game as a tournament game.

Brownwood and Slaton will meet at 3:30 p.m. Friday.

The consolation game will start be 6 p.m. Saturday with the game for the championship set for 9 p.m. Saturday.

All teams going into the game are considered strong with Brownwood and Ballinger favored to win their respective districts.

Most of the other teams in their district are expected to finish high in their districts, if they don't win the district crown.

Colorado City is probably the highest rated team in the tournament.

One rating chart, that of the Lubbock Avalanche - Journal, has Colorado City ranked second in AAA in the Lubbock area.

Pecos, also in the tournament, is ranked No. 4 in AAA in the Lubbock area.

The Wolves have thus far played two participants in the tourney, Post and Slaton.

Colorado City defeated Post during the Slaton tournament, which the Wolves won Saturday night, defeating the favored Slaton team by two points.

The Wolves downed the Slaton team on two other occasions, once early last week and again this Tuesday night.

The closest Colorado City has come to winning the Lone Wolf tournament in the more than a decade the tournament has been played was last year when the Wolves were runners-up.

Funeral For Mrs. Plaster Friday

Mrs. George Irvin Plaster died early Wednesday morning in her home south of Colorado City.

Funeral services will be Friday, 10 a.m., in Kiker-Rains-Seale Chapel with Rev. Billy Wilkinson, First Methodist minister, officiating. He will be assisted by Rev. Caddo Matthews, pastor of Plainview Baptist Church.

Burial will be in Colorado City Cemetery

Born here Sept. 6, 1911, Mrs. Plaster married Irvin Plaster in Carlsbad, N.M., Nov. 20, 1932. She was a member of First United Methodist Church.

She is survived by her husband of the home; her mother, Mrs. Lulu B. Cooper of Aberdene, Miss; two daughters, Mrs. Lindy Merket of 1032 East 17th Street and Mrs. Edward Lynch of Hawaii.

Also, two sisters, Mrs. Henry McLenney of Little Rock, Ark., and Mrs. Loye Gullick of Atlanta, Ga., and eight grandchildren.

Slaton Basketball Tournament Winners

The Colorado City Wolves varsity basketball squad laid claims to its first trophy of the year Saturday when their were victorious in the Slaton Tournament. Leading the Wolves were, left to right, Melvin Jackson, David Matthews, Skeet Kimbrell, Coach Dean Ingram, Jerome Hopkins and John Ridge. Ridge, Hopkins, Matthews and Jackson were named all-tournament players in the competition. The Wolves will play host this weekend in the Lone Wolf tournament, which they are hoping to win.

Wolves Win 9 Straight

Team Looking To Win Lone Wolf Tourney

The Colorado City Wolves varsity basketball squad has bounded its way to an undefeated season having won its first nine games of the year.

Four of the victories helped the Wolves claim their first trophy of the year as they won the Slaton tournament last weekend.

The final game of the tournament and the game for the championship was against tourney favorite and the host, Slaton. The Wolves managed to eek out a 76-74 win.

However, it should be noted that the Wolves played most of the game without Jerome Hopkins, all-district and all West-Texas last year and the leading scorer-rebounder for the Wolves this year.

Hopkins has been having problems with his ankle this year and in a game Saturday morning against Roosevelt of Lubbock, he turned his ankle badly. In the game Saturday night, Hopkins was unable to play more than a quarter and a half.

Skeet Kimbrell, who according to Coach Dean Ingram keeps improving with every game, and Melvin Jackson helped take up the slack caused by the absence of Hopkins and the Wolves continued to control the boards.

Hopkins' bad ankle has hampered him in the two games played this week, but despite the pain, he has turned in good performances as the Wolves defeated Post 56-43 Monday night and downed Slaton once again Tuesday night 76-66.

The Wolves will play again at 2 p.m. Thursday (today) against Merkel in a game that will kick off the 1971 Colorado City Lone Wolf tournament.

The Wolves have never won the tournament and the team is hoping to claim their first Lone Wolf tourney crown.

Raids Bring Charges

3 Defendants Named In Cases

Bootlegging charges have been filed here against 3 persons following the largest hauls in months resulting from raids.

Confiscated by officers were 170 cans of beer (12 ounce), 29 quarts of beer, 14 half pints of vodka, 12 half pints of whiskey, 74 fifth of wine and a single gallon of wine.

Charged in County Court are Sylvester Rose and his wife, Opal Rose, both of Loraine, and Fred Sam Snowden of Colorado City.

The 2 men, Rose and Snowden, were charged in complaints filed Wednesday as a result of the raids carried out last week by Sheriff Lewis Claxton's staff, state alcohol officers and city police and Loraine Constable Lawrence Graham.

In the cases filed Wednesday Rose and Snowden are accused of possessing alcoholic beverages for purpose of sale in a dry area.

Earlier the pair were charged with sale of alcoholic beverages. It were these original complaints which prompted the 2 raids--at the Rose residence in Loraine and the Snowden residence here at 742 East 6th.

Two counts filed against Mrs. Rose allege sale of alcoholic beverages.

Sheriff Claxton said an undercover officer hired by his office reported bootleg sales at both places prior to the raids.

Claxton said officers confiscated 57 cans of Coors beer, 14 half pints of Gilbey vodka, 12 half pints of Jim Beam bourbon whiskey, 54 fifths of muscatel wine plus a gallon botton of muscatel at the Showden address.

Taken at the Rose residence were 15 half pints of Bellows whiskey, 29 quarts of Schlitz beer, single fifths of Cold Bear and Cold Hawk wine, a fifth of sauterne wine, a fifth of Boone's Farm apple wine and 113 cans of Busch Bavarian beer.

Bond for the Roses was set at $2,000 each and $1,000 for Snowden.

Rose in October was indicted by Mitchell County grand jury for fraudently receiving stolen tires that were taken from Les Fuller's Truck Town.

Another bootlegging case was filed here Wednesday against Harvey Lee Glass of Sweetwater. He was arrested by police, who reported they confiscated 4 cases of beer.

Welcome For Visitors

Bill Seale, Darrell Rains and Doyle Kiker, left to right, were on hand to welcome visitors Sunday when Kiker-Rains-Seale Funeral Home had a showing of their newly remodeled and redecorated facilities.

Asphyxiation Death Ruled

Justice of Peace Homer Hart of Loraine has returned a verdict of carbon monoxide poisoning in the death of Kenneth Leo Butler, 32, of Pasadena, Calif.

The man was discovered dead in the back seat of his auto when one of 2 other persons in the car became ill between Roscoe and Loraine last Thursday morning.

Butler was asleep in the back seat while Joe D. Melton, 17, of Phoenix, Ariz., was driving. Terry Lynn Burres, also of Phoenix, was in the front with Melton.

When the girl became ill, Melton stopped the car. It was then he discovered something wrong with Butler.

The man was dead when they reached Loraine.

Both Melton and Miss Burres were hitchikers, they told officers, who had been picked up by Butler in Fort Worth.

Peace Justice Hart's verdict was based on results of an autopsy which determined death by carbon monoxide poisoning.

Franklin - Britton Funeral Home of Colorado City was in charge of arrangements here and the body was returned to Pasadena, Calif., for burial.

Butler was survived by his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Bizzell, and a stepfather, James E. Bizzell, both of Pasadena.

Ruth COFFEY'S

CONVERSATION CORNER

SOMEBODY smart needs to think up a better word than "best" for this Colorado City Playhouse fan to use. Have already praised at least two-thirds of Playhouse shows here as "Best production presented to date."

So what then is there to say for "Pecos West", musical in progress at opening week for Playhouse Grand Old Opera House?

Superb, delightful, amusing, colorful, pleasing to eye and ear, great, excellent? Heck. "Pecos West" is simply the best theater staged by this City's Playhouse to date and you can't say it any better than that.

Opening night played to a full house, an enthusiastic and obviously appreciative audience. It was proof, if further proof were needed, of what marvelous things a little town amateur theater can do with talent willing to work.

ANY REAL West Texan, born or adopted, would just naturally love every minute of "Pecos West", with music composed by Macon Sumerlin, lyrics and book by Ernest Sublett, both of Abilene.

Music is different, original, and as appealing as any ever heard on or off Broadway.

Lyrics are unique, funny, and pure undiluted joy to hear. Book is so hilariously true to the old west and so comical you laugh inside from curtain to curtain. You're too busy listening to laugh out loud for long 'cause you might miss some of the fun.

DIRECTOR Betty Tomb who was also rehearsal and orchestra pianist was at her shining best as usual--and there goes that word best again.

Songs by the entire cast in chorus are particularly captivating and rollicking. Solos in the new Playhouse prefect acoustical atmosphere were all well received and long applauded.

Costumes and make-up by Shirley DeLaney with Shana Bassinger assisting in the costume department added much to the production. Lighting was no less than professional.

After all, we've got that genius Porter Richardson, assistant director who also did the stage design and played bass fiddle in the pit orchestra. Bob Reily, Bill Reily, and Dennis Wright operated spots and lighting board.

EVERY SINGLE member of the cast deserves a big bouquet of roses. Every single one deserves to take a bow.

There were stars all over the stage, some of them Playhouse familiar faces like perennial favorites George Womack, Tandy Curlee, Don DeLaney, Sonny Pawkett.

Some of the new-comers in a Playhouse show were standouts whose lines and scenes sometimes stole the show instead of horses. (Stealing horses was a hanging offense in the court of Judge Roy Bean, played by Curlee.)

New actors who did much to keep up the fast pace of the show were Jim Hudson, sheriff for real, Bob Newman, undertaker, R. W. Baker who played one of the Gilded Lily gamblers, got shot, then doubled second act minus mustache as Josiah Crawford. There was Jim Harris as old Sourdough Simpson, Joey Wright as the little Mexican boy, who both won plaudits.

DONNA EVANS made a beautiful blond saloon girl called Lou. Regina Doss, as the little Tex-Mex bar girl, thrilled the audience with her flawless accent and her acting ability.

Susan Jackson delighted everybody present as the forsaken fiancee of the Greenhorn Booger Red, who was really George Womack.

Funniest episode of the evening was the realistic feminine fight between Drusilla, acted by Miss Jackson, and Lou, played by Mrs. Evans.

It all was really the BEST show, the best production, the beat of theater! You've still got Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings to enjoy it. But reservations are wise if opening night is any criterion.

VERY NICE man named G.D. Foster presented a big fat cigar. He is one of the proudest grandfathers who ever walked this earth.

Daughter George Maedell and her husband Dr. James Takemoto, A&M professor, have a little baby girl, born in Bryan, Nov. 23. Named Kathleen Antigone, the baby weighed six pounds, 12 ounces.

G. D. and his wife Montie went down Nov. 24 to admire their beautiful new grandchild. Montie stayed two weeks and then G. D. brought her home Monday.

Mrs. Foster, by the way, is just recently back from Tucson, Ariz., where she visited the three children of her son Don McGinty, PhD professor of animal nutrition, University of Arizona.

Don and his wife spent three weeks in India where Dr. McGinty lectured at and took part in a symposium for scientists.

Grandparents are lucky. And so, by cracky, are grandchildren and parents of children who have 'em! N'est ce pas?

Karen Givens, Larry Holder Exchange Double Ring Vows

Miss Karen Sue Givens of Loraine became the bride of Larry John Holder of Center, Colo., Saturday evening in First United Methodist Church in Loraine.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Givens of Loraine.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. B. W. Tartt of Center, Colo., and W. T. Holder of Long Beach, Cal.

Rev. Ray Copeland read double ring vows in the seven o'clock candlelight ceremony. Miss Anita Ryan of Abilene, accompanied by Mrs. Kirk Taylor of Loraine, sang "Because" and "Lord's Prayer".

An arch, accented on each side by blue bows, centered the church altar. Tall white wicker baskets of blue and white chrysanthemums and seven branch candelabra with frosted votive cups flanked either side of the arch.

At one side of the arch a three-branch candelabrum held a memory candle and two white tapers.

Family pews were marked by blue and white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white organza gown fashioned with a formal A-line skirt and bishop sleeves which gathered onto wide lace cuffs. A panel of lace and seed pearls extended from the neckline to hem. A full train fastened at the back waistline.

Her elbow-length veil was attached to a cap covered in seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of stephanotis and pearls centered with an orchid.

Miss Kay Givens of Abilene was her sister's maid of honor.

She wore a royal blue velvet gown styled with puff sleeves accented by white pearl buttons on cuffs. Her headpiece was a soft blue cap with white trim.

The maid of honor carried a white wicker basket of blue and white chrysanthemums arranged with ming fern and shower streamers tied in love knots.

Garry Holder of Colorado City was his brother's best man.

Ushering guests were Mike Givens, brother of bride, and Tommy Morris of Colorado City.

Bride's parents were hosts for a wedding reception in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Mable Givens.

In the houseparty were Miss Debbie Thompson, Miss Gaye Green, Miss Elaine Boyd and Mrs. Jim Kreier of Big Spring.

Bride's table was laid with a white net cloth over white satin. Front skirt was accented with a center bouquet with blue streamers extending to each side of the table. A four-tiered wedding cake and maid of honor's basket of flowers completed table decor.

For travel the bride changed to a royal blue knit pant suit.

They will be at home in Center, Colo.

The bride is a graduate of Loraine High School and attended McMurry College where she was a member of Delta Beta Epsilon. Her husband was graduated from Colorado High School and attended South Plains College where he was a member of SPC Rodeo Club.

Friday Deadline For Fruit Cake Orders

Friday is deadline for ordering the Texas Manor fruit cakes from Colorado City Band Boosters.

More than 400 fruit cakes have been sold since the sale, a major fund-raising project of the Boosters, began in October.

Christmas orders are being delivered this week by Mrs. Nolen Bird and Mrs. S. R. Wilkinson, co-chairmen of the sale.

"We have a few cakes left from last week's shipment," Mrs. Wilkinson said, "and these will be sold on a first come, first serve basis."

The cakes, which are suggested for Christmas gifts as well as holiday treats, come in attractive re-usuable Texas history containers and can be purchased in two, three and five pound sizes.

Each cake - whether bought or received as a gift is "unconditionally" guaranteed, said Mrs. Wilkinson.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to finance out-of-town trips for bands, purchase film for reproducing performances, buy needed equipment for band departments of all schools and assist in financing annual band banquet.

In the past Band Boosters have helped with expenses for festivals and tours, air-conditioned Colorado High Band Hall, purchased tape recorders for both junior high and high school bands and a repeat recorder for all bands.

Electricity- 24 hours a day!

This reproduction of an advertisement which ran in 1919 (in a city we serve) makes it pretty obvious that you couldn't always take round-the-clock electric service for granted.

You can take it for granted today because Texas Electric has constantly planned and built ahead to provide enough reliable electric power for all of our customers' needs. Needs which continue to grow.

Just 25 years ago the average residential customer served by Texas Electric used 1,000 kilowatt hours of electricity a year. Today, the average is about 8,500 kilowatt hours.

So we have to "run the Electric Light Plant" all the time now, and we have to keep planning and building ahead. Only in this way can we make sure we're always "at your service."

mpany is paying our taxes to Colorado Independent School District this year as we have in the past on the normal date," Benson stated. "We are paying these taxes with full confidence that Colorado Independent School Board will consider carefully our request for a reduced tax bill as outlined in our presentation to them on Nov. 1.

"The board has assured us that full consideration and deliberation will be given our request prior to the 1972 equalization board meeting and any inequities in our tax bill will be corrected to mutual satisfaction of the board and TESCO.

"TESCO has tremendous faith in the board's ability to arrive at a fair decision in reference to our property tax in Colorado Independent School District," Benson concluded.

Plenty of Action

Sports fans need look no farther than Colorado High Gymnasium for a full weekend of attractions. For three days and nights the 1971 edition of Lone Wolf Basketball Tournament will be played.

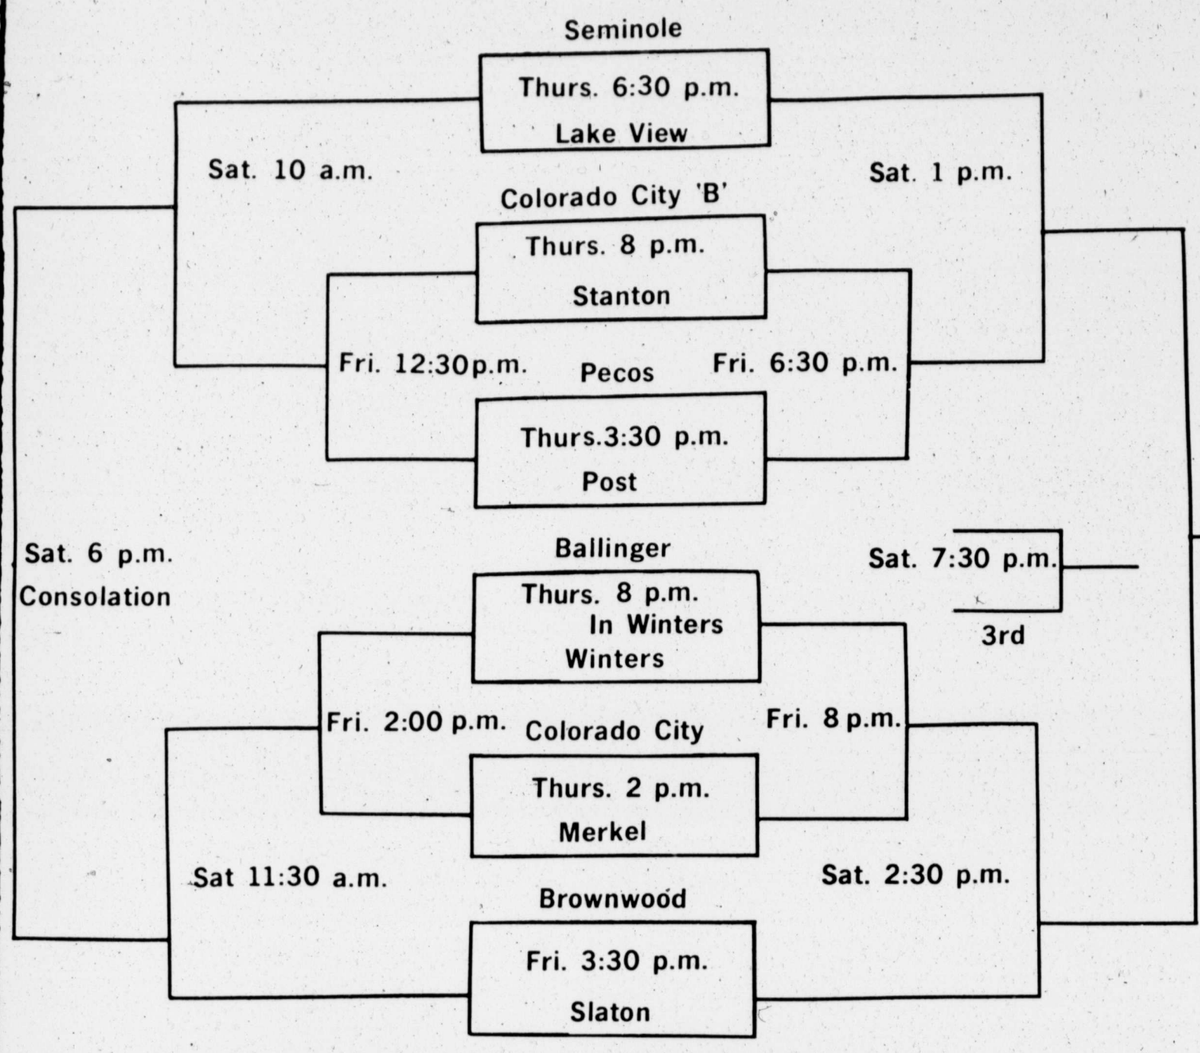

And our Wolves--fresh returned from Slaton with that tournament's championship trophy--will be the host team for the Lone Wolf event.

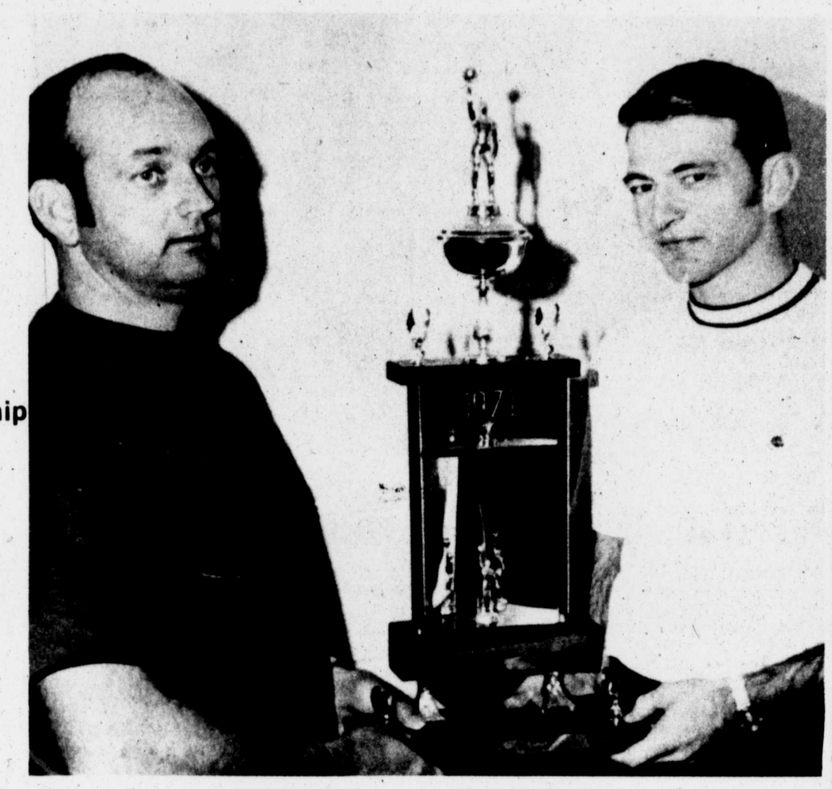

Needless to say, the Wolves will be one of the contenders for the Lone Wolf title. But it will be a tough road for whoever claims the championship because the competing teams include Brownwood, Seminole, Lake View, Post, Pecos, Winters, Ballinger, Merkel and Slaton.

For years the tourney has gained the reputation as one of West Texas' best. So, in addition to cheering the Wolves in their games, spectators will see some of the most exciting action of the season.

CENTER

center--sponsored in recent years by the Ministerial Alliance--is to make certain all needy families receive Christmas baskets without donor individuals and organization overlapping and duplicating their efforts.

Ministerial Alliance made it plain that the downtown coordinating office is for needy persons as well as persons and organizations contributing Christmas baskets.

"Any person who needs a Christmas basket or anyone who knows of a family needing a basket would phone the Christmas basket center or deliver that information to the center or notify Rev. Caddo Matthews, president of the Ministerial Alliance," the ministers explained.

Organizations or persons who desire to give Christmas baskets are urged to contact the basket center so records can be compiled to prevent either missing of families or overlapping of contributions.

Churches of the city will receive canned goods and other foods for the Christmas basket program the next 2 Sundays, Dec. 12 and Dec. 19, the Alliance reported.

Schools, civic organizations and individuals who want to contribute food, fruit, candy and toys are asked to make their contributions during the week of Dec. 13 through Dec. 22.

"These groups and individuals can notify the basket center and their contributions will be picked up during this period from Dec. 13 through Dec. 22," the Alliance announced.

There is a place, also, for individuals who can give of their time for sorting, packing and helping with other volunteer duties at the center. And they can contact Mrs. Timberlake, the receptionist.

"Cooperation of all citizens and groups in the community will assure that every needy person or family is remembered at Christmas time," the Alliance emphasized.

Persons with pickup trucks who can assist in the program will be asked to report to the center Dec. 24 at 10 a.m. to deliver the baskets of cheer to needy families in time for Christmas.
