Lions Club Wool & Mohair Show June 22-23

Develop New Meat Producing Area in South

Tests over a three year period at the University of Tennessee back up other station and individual farm flock tests in the lamb producing areas of the South East, which is rapidly taking its place in the nation's market places as a meat producer. Lambs sired by Hampshire rams averaged $1.13 more to the producer by selling at a higher, earlier market at a greater weight.

The experiment included feed efficiency, and gaining of pure bred rams, and capacity to transmit fast gaining characteristics to the offspring. Hampshire rams, mated with native, Northwestern and California ewes produced lambs averaging 78.6 pounds at 135 days. This was five pounds more than another breed. Tests indicated that the high gaining rams in individual performance also sired the fast gaining lambs in progeny tests.

The eighteenth annual Sonora Lions Club Wool and Mohair Show, the largest of its type in the country, will be held June 22-23, according to Fred T. Earwood, chairman of the show committee. Other members of the committee are Edwin Sawyer, Bryan Hunt and Joe M. Vander Stucken.

The show, the most popular with 4-H and FFA members, is expected to attract its usual large number of competitors.

Purposes of the show are to encourage profitable production and preparation of wool and mohair, to encourage production of profitable livestock, to sponsor a type of club work applicable to the ranching area and to promote a thorough knowledge of range vegetation.

Registration will be held Tuesday, June 21, with the show ending Thursday, June 23 at noon. Awards will be presented at the Lions Club luncheon Thursday at noon.

Prizes and trophies are being donated by The First National Bank, Sonora Wool and Mohair Company, Greenhill's Service Station, Gulf Service Station, Stockmen's Feed Company, Wm. Cameron Company, and the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District.

We take it all back about our ball club, the Sonora Mules. They now have batting practice twice a week and showed what they could do Sunday, when they beat the Magnolia Flying Red Horses, one of the top teams in the league, 3-1. Bats they used like rifles, bases they ran as though the paths were covered with red ants, and Red Thompson was as hot on the mound as the original Sauk Center Siege Gun (legendary pitcher whose catcher used a rivet bucket for his fast one.)

All we ask of Manger Pat Lyles is please don't let the ball payers read this.

And we heard over the radio the other day that Auther Simmons won a matched roping over Si Loeffler and Dick Morrison last Saturday. Probably the boys were just horsing around, though.

Don't forget the grand opening of the Corral Trading Post tomorrow. If you make the closest guess as to how much an elk (whose head is hanging on the wall) weighed when it was shot, you'll win a prize. Numerous other items will be given away as attendance prizes.

One of the most original bits of verse we've come across in a long time is the parody on "The Night Before Christmas," written by Mrs. Lyle Young in her column in the Menard News:

The Night Of The Dust Storm

"Twas the last week in April, and all thru the house, every creature was sneezing, including the mouse.

The blankets were hung by the windows with care, to keep out the dust that was drifting in there.

And Pa with his kerchoos and Ma with her hacks, were shaking the sheets to keep sand off their backs.

The children were doing their homework in soot, and floors bore the imprint of each little foot.

The old folks were tuned in to Henery Hower, who forecast for somebody somewhere a shower.

When what to their watering eyes did appear, but another black skyful of dust coming near.

As they dug their way out they were heard to attest, these Texas sandstorms are the best in the west."

Mules Take 3-1 Victory Over Magnolia Sunday

J. L. Thompson, Sonora's redhead righthander, limited the Magnolia Flying Red Horses to two hits here Sunday to take a 3-1 win in Concho League play. Thompson, who was backed up by tight fielding and vastly improved hitting, worked a careful game, allowing only a two-bagger by Summers and a singles by Miranda.

Sonora got to work early with Thompson getting two singles and Byron Stuart, the catcher knocking out a double.

The win, Sonora's second in three starts leaves the locals in third place in the Concho League, behind Robert Lee with a 2-0 record and Jax, undefeated in three games.

Crockett Boy Wins Bi-County Judging Contest

Carl Conklin of Ozona made the highest overall score in the bi-county 4-H judging contest held in Ozona last Saturday. Conklin scored 867 points in the grass, wool and mohair contests.

Conklin was also high in wool and mohair with 645 points. Second was Turney Friess with 626. George Hill had 591 and Reed Jennings had 573.

In the grass contest Roy Mann of Ozona won with 240 points. Carlos Loeffler was second with 230; Joe Thomas Friess third with 226; Turney Friess fourth with 224 anl Tommy Love fifth with 223.

Turney friess was second in the overall scoring with 850, Reed Jennings third with 782; George Hill fourth with 781 and Joe Thomas Friess fifth with 770.

Stavley of Sanderson and Judge Bryan Montague of Del Rio.

The celebration was sponsored by the Juno Homecoming Association, of which Mrs. Bill Greenwood is president.

Attending from Sonora were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Nance, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Turney, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nance.

Ram Progeny Test Results, Auction At Experiment Station Saturday

Dr. Clair D. Perrill of the U.S. Sheep Experiment Station, Boise, Idaho, will be the guest speaker at the field day at the Sonora Experiment Station Saturday. Dr. Perrill, who will speak at 1 o'clock, will discuss "Improvements of Sheep Through Selection."

The field day is conducted in connection with the ram performance and progeny test which has been underway the past several months.

Forty-five of the better rams will be offered at an auction sale following Dr. Perrill's address. Lem Jones of Junction will be the auctioneer.

Fort Worth—The cow country of the United States usually exports large numbers of tourists, a few registered cattle and an occasional lady bull fighter to Mexico, but by and large, what cattle trade we have with Old Mexico is buying cattle from there.

We learned from the Foreign Agricultural Service, USDA, this week that at their mid-March meeting the Sonoran Cattle Raisers Association proposed to import at least 100,000 heifers and cows from the United States.

These cattle would replace the estimated 300,000 herd lost in Sonora due to the drouth in recent years.

Early summer movement of cattle and calves was again evident at Fort Worth Monday. Some 3,000 more were offered than a year ago the same day. Trade developed slowly as packers endeavored to lower costs. Fed cattle were steady to 25 cents higher, cows weak to 50 cents lower. Bulls sold steady.

Stockers and feeders with quality moved readily at fully steady prices, as did choice fat calves. However, grassy calves and yearlings of both slaughter and stocker kinds of medium and lower grades eased lower by around 50 cents or more per hundred. Plain stockers sell at about their slaughter values. The spread between heifer calves and yearlings of the stocker kinds is the widest in months, mostly $3 to $4, for stocker heifers under similar steers unless fleshy enough to sell for slaughter.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings $19 to $22.75, the latter figure for load of steers fed by J. W. Miller, Swisher County, that averaged about 1,150 lbs. These were mates to cattle at $22.50 a week earlier. Plain and medium yearlings and heifers $12 to $18. Fat cows $10.50 to $13.50; canners and cutters $7 to $11. Bulls $10 to $14.25. Fat calves $14 to $21.50; stocker calves $23 down, stocker steer yearlings $22 down, stocker steers $21.50 down.

Both livestock salesmen and buyers at Fort Worth this week agreed that it would stabilize prices if more sheep and cattle were markets on Wednesday and Thursday, and the big runs of Monday and Tuesday were held down in the months ahead.

It was pointed out that in recent months Wednesday and Thursday prices have usually been as good as Monday or Tuesday, and in some cases even higher. Last week shorn lambs topped at $17 Monday and Tuesday, and on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday sessions topped at $17.50 for example.

Packers say they are at a disadvantage if they have to buy huge numbers on Monday and Tuesday and carry them to the end of the week to get them killed. Spreading this summer's runs more evenly through the week will serve to level out price trends, and avoid bad price breaks all agree.

Soil Conservation District News

Prepared by Local SCS Personnel
News of Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District

Nineteen Boy Scouts did their "Conservation Good Turn" last week by planting grass seed on the Edwards Plateau SCD trial area. Scoutmaster Earl Smith and the Scouts broadcasted seed on approximately 30 acres of valley land.

Lining up 10 feet apart, armed with sacks of seed, the Scouts planted 170 foot strips of land as they marchesd. Two Scouts set paper markers on the outside of each seeded strip to guide the Troop and prevent double-seeding or skipping.

A mixture of sideoats and blue grama, KR bluestem, buffeolgrass and blue panic was planted. Part of the area seeded was pitted, where mesquite brush was open enough to permit operation of the tractor and plow.

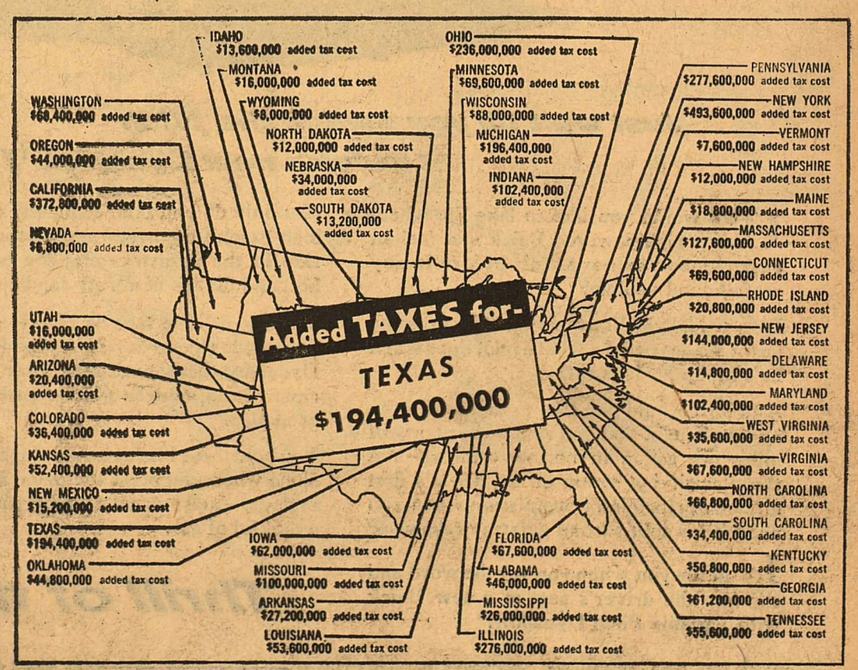

The Scouts also paid particular attention to the wildlife on the area. At least one dove nest was discovered, and numerous horned toads, lizards and jack rabbits were observed.

"The boys were willing workers and did a fine job in planting the seed," said E. B. Keng, SCS technician who helped with the seeding. The District Supervisors appreciate the assistance of Earl Smith and his Scouts in helping to get this job done.

Some 150 acres of rangeland and 17 acres of cropland have now been planted to grass. Approximately 200 acreas of rangeland will be allowed to recover without any treatment except rest. The various combinations of conservation treatment should give ranchmen some valuable information on getting range recovery following the current drought.

Misguided Missiles by Chon Day

THE TAX MAP above shows how much the Upper Colorado River Basin Project bills, now before Congress, would cost the taxpayers of each state in the nation. These bills call for a number of large dams on the upper reaches of the Colorado River and numerous irrigation projects in the states of Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming. National tax authorities say that hidden subsidies in these so-called "reclamation" project bills would cost the people of the United States more than $4 billion in added taxes. The total cost to taxpayers is based on repayment schedules presented to Senate and House Interior Committees by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation. The cost to each state is based on computations by The Tax Foundation, New York City and Washington, D.C.

You'll feel like a pilot without leaving the ground

Just wait till you switch the pitch of Buick's new Dynaflow*!

It's The Hardtop with Four Doors!
Here's the new hit in hardtops that's taking the country by storm – Buick's pioneering and pace-setting 4-Door Riviera. The "convertible" look, with no center posts in the side-window areas – but with separate doors for rear-seat passengers. Shown here in the low-price SPECIAL model – also available in the high-powered CENTURY Series. Both now in volume production to insure prompt deliveries.

How would you like to take the wheel of a high-powered Buick and feel an experience you never felt before in any earth-bound vehicle?

How would you like to do – just by pressing down the gas pedal – what a pilot does when he's ready for take-off?

And how would you like to drive with the happy thought that you're getting plenty of miles per gallon in normal cruising – and the electrifying action of the world's first airplane-principled transmission when you need it for split-second getaway response?

It's all for you when you say the word and slip into the driver's seat of a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Not only do you take command of record-high Buick V8 power – and the most envied ride in the industry – and the brawn and heft and luxury of a truly solid automobile.

You also call the turn on twenty propeller-like blades deep inside a wondrous new Dynaflow that's patterned after the principle of the modern plane's variable pitch propeller.

You hold these blades in their high-economy angle when you press the pedal in the normal way – and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

You switch the pitch of these blades to take-off position when you press the pedal way down – and you get spectacular action instantly.

Don't take our word alone that this is thrilling beyond all previous experience.

Talk to anyone who's tried it. Or, better yet, come try it yourself. That way you can learn firsthand why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs. Drop in this week, won't you?

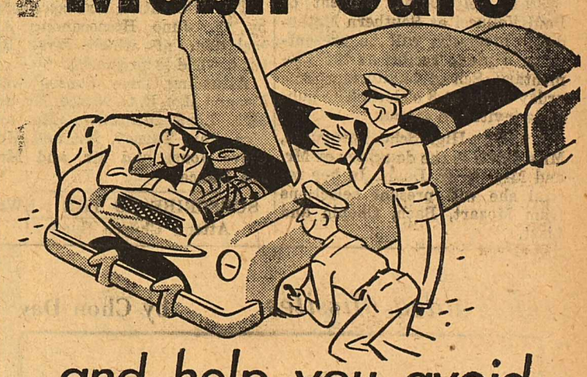

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FROM VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

Q - - Would it be possible for a veteran to receive Public Law 16 training if he has a service-connected disability not severe enough to warrant any payment of compensation?

A - - No. One of the legal requirements for Public Law 16 is a compensable service-connected disability. Another requirement is a need for training to overcome the handicap of the disability.

Q - - Is there a "ceiling" on combined wages and GI allowance for veterans taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill?

A - - Yes; the "ceiling" applies only to on-the-job trainees under the Korean GI Bill. It does not apply to veterans in other types of training. The "ceiling" is $310 a month. When training wages and GI allowance together exceed that amount, the GI allowance will be cut to bring the total within the $310 maximum.

Q - - A friend of mine, a Korea veteran, waited four months before applying for Korean GI term insurance, and he was told that he was too late, and had missed the deadline. What is the deadline for getting this insurance?

A - - The deadline is 120 days from date of discharge. This deadline usually is a day or so short of four months.

QUOTES
By W. H. Marshall

Most people do what they are requested to do; successful people do a little more.

They say this
And they say that;
They make me wonder
Where I am at.
Identify those
Who're known as THEY
And I'll have more respect
For what they say!

Whenever you are angry, be assured that it is not only a present evil, but that you have increased a habit.

Do someone's remarks
Make your blood pressure soar?
Forget it, forget it,
It happened before.
When hot words are flying
Do you fly back with stronger?
If you just would't bother
You'd live a lot longer.

Friendship cannot exist except among good men.

A retentive memory may be a good thing, but the ability to forget is the true token of greatness.

If you hear something on the other fellow that is bad, find out if it is true before you repeat it.

A gossiper is without character.

Good men are never afraid to face what is said about them.

What ever your job is, there is always some one who will take time out from his job, to do his best to keep you from being a success.

You need not be afraid of others as long as you are not afraid of yourself.

A good case of religion will keep you busy keeping after your own faults and sins, so much so, that you won't have time to look after the faults and sins of the other fellow.

A perfectionist is some one who needs to tighten a bolt every one and awhile.

Most of all the other beautiful things in life come by two and threes, by dozens and hundreds. Plenty of roses, stars, rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, but only one mother in the whole world.

CONTRACTS WITH MINORS RISKY

Your son or daughter is considered a minor in the law of contracts until he or she becomes 21 years old. A parent frequently asks, "Am I responsible for the contracts entered into by my minor child?" A parent further wonders what rights his child may have once he enters into a contract.

All adults, particularly businessmen, contract with minors at their peril. What are their rights?

As a parent you are not responsible for the contracts of your minor child unless you, yourself, enter into the contract or unless you guarantee the child's performance of the terms of the contract.

What rights does your minor child have? The law of contracts protects those who are not yet twenty-one years of age. Contracts of minors are "voidable." This means that those contracts are perfectly valid ones and adult parties are bound by them but the minor party has a right to refuse to perform his part of the contract and the law will not require him to do so.

Most contracts may be rejected by the minor either before he is 21 years old or shortly afterwards.

If a minor rejects a contract, he "disaffirms" it. He may notify the other party and the contract becomes null and void. This right applies to many types of contracts, such as deeds, mortgages, promissory notes, contracts of employment, street improvement contracts and contracts for the purchase of automobiles.

The law requires a minor who desires to reject his contract to do so within a resasonable time after he reaches 21 years of age. If he fails to disaffirm within a reasonable time, he is regarded as having accepted the contract and is bound by it.

What constitutes a "reasonable time" depends upon the facts of each individual case. The fact that the parents approves the contract does not prevent a minor, at any time, from rejecting it.

An adult who contracts with a minor, as has been seen, is at a serious disadvantage. The law requires him to perform his part of the bargain, but the minor may elect to disaffirm the contract.

The duty is upon those who contract with minors to ascertain their ages; otherwise, such persons may someday be defeated by the shield with which the law protects the minor.

If a minor purchases an automobile, or some other article of value, and he wishes to revoke the purchase contract, he may recover from the seller the money that he has paid. But he must restore, or offer to restore, the automobile or article to the seller if he still has it.

After a child reaches the age of 21, he is no longer a minor and he may ratify any contracts that he made during his minority; and they are then valid and binding. He may ratify by expressly stating that he will perform the obligations of the contract. If he uses the purchased property beyond a reasonable time after becoming of age, the law may hold that this amounts to a ratification and require him to perform his obligations under the contract.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform-not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moss, Lu Nance and Bobby of McCamey were weekend guests of Mrs. Moss' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Nance.

Your Health

Flowers and leaves are not the only things that pop out when the weather warms up. Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, says you can expect flies, mosquitoes, chiggers, ants and spiders; if not at home certainly the first time you go on a picnic.

The mosquito is a famous carrier of malaria. It's eradication, both because of the discomfort of bites and because the bites spread disease, is advisable. Mosquito bites itch intensely, and the more you scratch them the more they itch. The itching can be lessened if you wash the spots with soap and water or alcohol, and then apply a soothing lotion.

Around the yard and on the farm mosquitoes breed in puddles of water by the roadside, in water that accumulates in furrows, in gardens, in streets gutters and sagging house gutters. And they'll make their home in an old can, flower pot, bottle, or any other place where water is standing. After a rain a good time to look around the yard and empty water out of any containers you find.

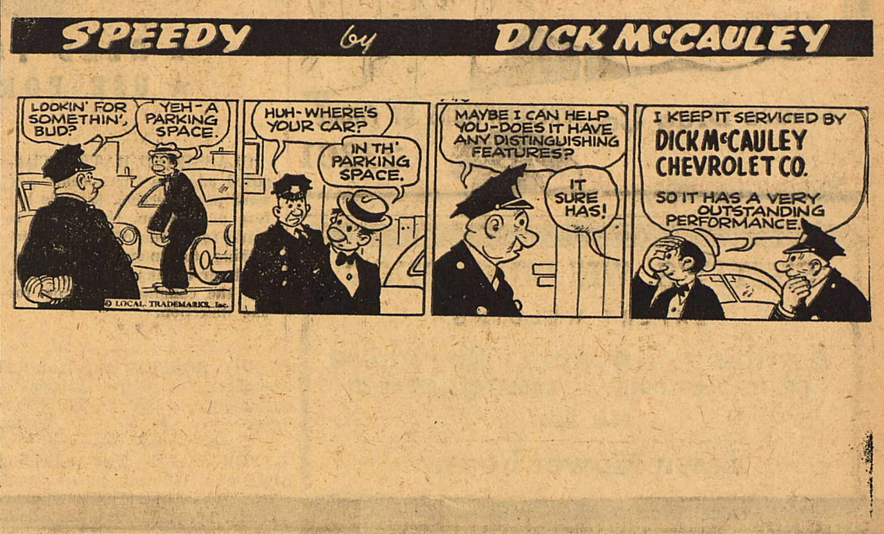

Such diseases as typhoid fever, tuberculosis and dysentery are known to have been spread by flies. It is important to protect the whole community from flies and for everyone to take measures to get rid of the them.

At home, put garbage in a metal, leak-proof can with a tight-fitting lid. Flies breed in filth and the food they find in and around garbage cans. If they get into the house, they will carry germs to your food, and even to nursing bottles and the moths of babies. God window screens and doors will keep flies outside if you teach your children to close the doors quickly when they come in or go out. The yard, chilcken houses, stables, and other likely breeding places should always be kept clean so that flies cannot find food and want to stay around. Clean, sanitary homes, alleys, and places of business do not attract flies.

Chigger bites are more troblesome then mosquito bites. If you take a bath after you have been exposed to them, you will wash off most of the larvae before they burrow into the skin. Sulphur dusted on the legs and ankles will prevent many bites.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Nance and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nance were in San Antonio several days last week, attending the butane school.

Pat Jungk of Abilene, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Zola Bode.

WILLMAN'S STATION

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

There's only one way you'll really discover the hottest power story of the year. Get aboard a new Chevrolet that packs a bundle of velvety TNT under the hood—the new "Turbo-Fire V8"!

For this is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stop-watches wherever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR* stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" has the shortest piston stroke in the industry (that means less piston travel . . . longer engine life)! And it delivers the highest power per pound of any V8 in the low-priced field. It's so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five . . . needs less radiator coolant, too. It's the most modern V8 under anybody's hood!

But the thing you'll like most is the way it puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower with the new "Turbo-Fire V8" and if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your toe.

'55 PACEMAKER CHEVROLET

Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!

No other low-priced car has any—no high-priced car has all—of these great Chevrolet features!

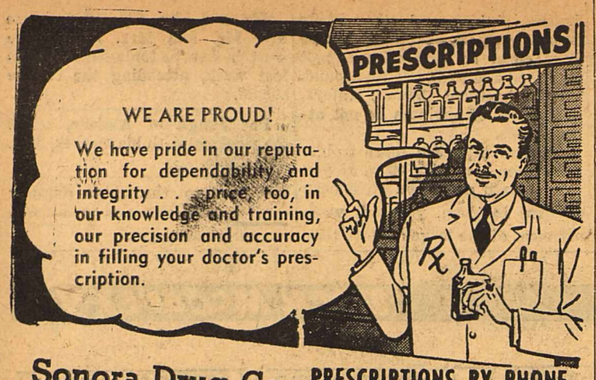

Body by Fisher—You see it on some of the highest-priced cars. Nine engine-drive choices in any model—The greatest choice going. 12-volt electrical system—Twice the voltage of other low-priced cars. Anti-Dive braking—A Chevrolet exclusive for heads-up stops. Outrigger rear springs—Wide-spaced for steady cornering. Ball-Race steering—Turns on ball bearings. High-Level ventilation—Cleaner, fresher air. Double-Arch cowl construction—Extra strength and safety.

*National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing

Combine your new Chevrolet purchase with your vacation plans!

Order a new Chevrolet through us, then pick it up at the plant in Flint, Michigan, see Chevrolets built, if you like, and drive yours home. Chances are, you'll save a substantial share of your vacation travel costs!

5 BASIC REASONS FOR PONTIAC'S RECORD-BREAKING SALES

1. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS 200 HORSEPOWER

If you delight in flashing performance, here's all the reason you need to join the record-breaking thousands who are swinging to Pontiac. The 200 horsepower delivered by the economical Strato-Streak V-8 with the four-barrel carburetor, optional at extra cost, is the highest power ever delivered by a car at Pontiac's price—higher than that of cars costing considerably more. For thrift and thrills it's Pontiac all the way!

2. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS LONG WHEELBASE

Model for model, Pontiac has a longer wheelbase than any car at its price, or any car delivering 200 horsepower . . . 122" or 124", depending on the Pontiac you select. That's size where it really counts—and it's important because a long wheelbase is the reason for Pontiac's smooth, road-leveling ride and the roomy comfort of Pontiac's large, luxurious Body by Fisher—advantages that put Pontiac on a level with far costlier cars for sheer riding pleasure.

3. PONTIAC COSTS LESS THAN ANY CAR EQUALLING ITS LUXURY-CAR STABILITY

The big, husky Pontiac with rugged X-member frame gives you the safe, solid feel at cruising speeds that motorists have formerly paid high prices to enjoy. And it links this road-holding comfort with ease of control like that of costly sports cars. You travel in superlative comfort in a Pontiac for the lowest price ever placed on such big-car stability.

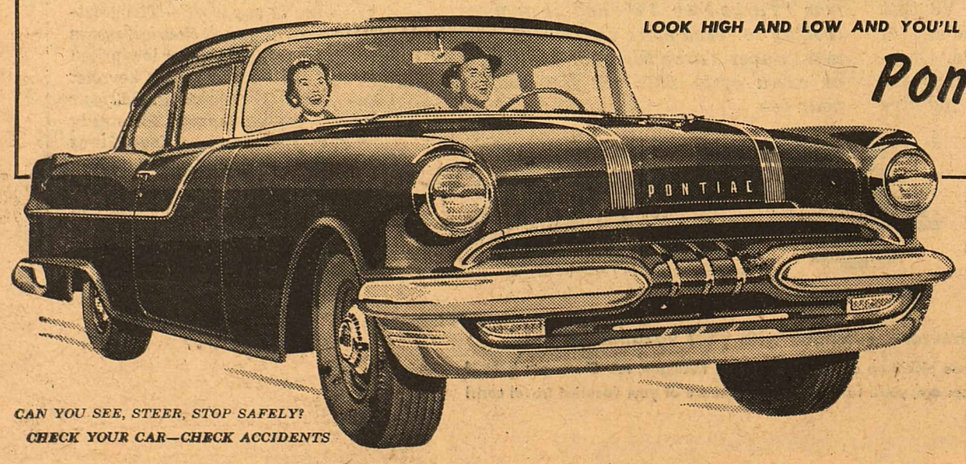

4. PONTIAC'S DISTINCTIVE BEAUTY IS UNMATCHED AT ANY PRICE

Pontiac's style and beauty are a perfect match for its colorful performance. Future-fashioned lines, Vogue Two-Toning and Twin-Streaked hood provide dash and glamour unsurpassed by any other car at any price.

5. You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of higher-priced makes

Come in and let us fill you in on all the facts and figures. We know you'll be pleased to see how little it costs to enjoy the pride and pleasure of fine-car ownership!
