Oil Allowable Drops Again

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission dropped the statewide oil allowable today for the third straight month, setting the August production factor at 33.0 per cent of potential.

The August percentage figure will permit maximum oil production of 3,138,611 barrels daily, compared to the current allowable of 3,118,042 barrels under a 33.3 per cent factor.

The August 1965 production factor was 28 per cent of potential, permitting a maximum of 2,905,312 barrels a day.

The U.S. Bureau of Mines forecast of August demand for Texas crude was 2,885,000 barrels daily, the same as July. Nominations from major oil purchasers totaled 2,660,559 barrels a day, a drop of 6,272 barrels from July.

Purchasers' nominations, in percentage and barrels per day, at today's statewide commission hearing:

34—Sun, 120,248.

33.3—Sinclair, 105,100.

33—Standard of Texas, 41,600; Shell, 178,000.

32.5—Gulf, 216,400; Cities Service, 72,000.

32—Atlantic—79,000.

31—Mobil, 248,350; Phillips, 119,734; Continental, 30,000.

Three companies made no percentage nominations.

A representative of Pan American said his company was asking for 293,945 barrels per day, an increase of 5,945 over his company's July nomination.

Humble said its August needs are 394,200 barrels daily, down 10,000 from July.

Texaco listed its August requirements as 155,000 barrels, the same as July.

Council Has Work Session On Budget

The Snyder City Council held an informal work session last night on the city budget for the fiscal year beginning next Oct. 1.

Members of the council assembled at the Snyder Country Club where they had their evening meal and then continued the work session until around 10:30 p.m.

Only two items not related to the budget were discussed. Mayor M. L. Broman announced that he had appointed Councilmen Rayburn Burgess and Marshall Erwin, along with City Manager George Patterson, to serve on a committee with members of the Scurry County Commissioners Court to explore the possibilities for ambulance service here after September. Local funeral homes have advised city and county officials that they will halt ambulance service here on Oct. 1.

Mayor Broman also reported that he and Patterson attended a meeting in Abilene yesterday where initial steps were taken to establish a regional "Council of Governments." Some 30 counties are involved in the proposal which has been initiated to coordinate planning and serve as a sort of clearing house for application and evaluation of Federal programs. Another session is scheduled Aug. 9.

Remainder of the session was devoted to a study of budget proposals. The city manager is scheduled to present a rough draft of the proposed budget to the council later this month.

Seeks Way To Make Sun Shine At Night

SEATTLE (AP)—The Boeing Co. has received a government contract to look into ways of making the sun shine at night.

The $125,000 award is for a study of the feasibility of orbiting a huge satellize to reflect light from the sun on to the dark side of the earth.

The award was made Tuesday by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which made a similar award to the Westinghouse Corp.

Depression Flares Up

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A tropical depression off the Florida coast flared today into the season's third tropical storm named Hurricane Celia.

The storm, which began to reform Tuesday after once being written off by the Weather Bureau, wound up suddenly today to 80-mile-an-hour fury.

Highest winds were located by hurricane hunter aircraft in squalls mainly on the east side of the hurricane.

The hurricane was centered near latitude 32.6 north, longitude 69.0 west, or 240 miles west of Bermuda.

Forecasters said the storm would brush Bermuda late today with light to moderate squalls but is not expected to affect the mainland of the United States.

"It could possibly affect eastern Newfoundlandland before it gets through," said chief forecaster Gordon Dunn.

The storm was moving northeastward at a speed of 20 knots.

MARINE HELICOPTER CRASHES—Dust, debris and smoke fill the air after a U.S. Marine helicopter crashed while landing in the Song Ngan valley a short distance south of the demilitarized zone that lies between North and South Viet Nam. The rear section of the chopper broke off, foreground, and the whirling rotor blades slashed into marines already on ground. In the immediate foreground is a marine felled by the blades. Above is another helicopter trying to get into the landing zone. The Marines spearheaded a multi- battalion assault near where a North Vietnamese division was believed located. Gemini Gets Go Ahead

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The Gemini 10 pilots today triggered jets on their scooter in the skies—a locked-on Agena space engine to set up an afternoon rendezvous with a second target satellite and an hour-long jet-gun space stroll by astronaut Michael Collins.

Command pilot John W. Young, short of fuel on Gemini 10, borrowed power from the Agena by firing rockets on the space engine, kicking the orbital path of the spacemen to the north. That was the first move in a day-long chase of the Agena left over from last March's Gemini 8 mission.

Their eyes no longer smarting from a pungent gas that cut short a space stand Tuesday, Young and Collins were flashed an all clear for Collins to stroll into space on a 50-foot lifeline about 6 p.m. (EST) to work with the Gemini 8 Agena.

The crew awoke about 8 a.m. after nine hours of sleep.

Young, a Navy commander, and Collins, an Air Force major, were told to use a secondary propulsion system in their Agena to change their orbital plane and adjust their height so they could jockey into a position to rendezvous with the old satellite.

Flight officials on the ground continued studying the problems of low fuel and smarting eyes as the astronauts spun 240 miles above the earth.

William C. Schneider, Gemini mission director, said: "We feel we have a reasonable chance of completing the double rendezvous even though we don't have as much fuel pad as we'd like. If the environmental control system problem straightens out, we also feel we can make the space walk."

At an after-midnight news conference, National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials gave the venture outside priority over rendezvous if a choice has to be made.

The eyes of both astronauts watered and became irritated Tuesday while Collins conducted experiments with the hatch open, the upper half of his body thrust into space.

Neither could see, and Collins was forced to end the exercise after 45 minutes, about 25 minutes early.

Lithium hydroxide, a chemical used to remove carbon dioxide from the cabin environmental control system, may have been responsible.

US Air Raids Stir Heavy Missile Fire

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — North Viet Nam fired off a record 29 Soviet-made missiles Tuesday during heavy American air attacks near Hanoi and one of the rockets found its mark, the U.S. command reported.

One U.S. jet was lost to a surface-to-air missile and another was shot down by a Communist MIG17 in a dogfight 20 miles north of Hanoi, a spokesman said. American pilots claimed damage to three MIGs but saw none go down.

On the "peace" front, the South Vietnamese government with apparent U.S. blessing offered to end the war, including the air strikes against the Communist North, and begin talks toward reunification of North and South Viet Nam if the Viet Cong disband and Hanoi withdraws its troops from the South.

Except for the mention of reunification, the proclamation represented little new and reflected the new confidence in Saigon over the allied military position. Since the proposal demanded their capitulation, the Communists were certain to reject it.

In the ground war, U.S. jets and artillery pounded Communist positions in the jungles of the Song Ngan Valley just below the 17th Parallel frontier as 7,000 American Marines and South Vietnamese troops carried Operation Hastings into the sixth day. The main target of the aerial barrage was Hill 208, site of numerous bunkers and foxholes. A spokesman said 11 bunkers had been destroyed or damaged.

Ground fighting appeared to have tapered off against units of the North Vietnamese division which intelligence says recently infiltrated across the six-mile-wide demilitarized buffer zone separating North and South Viet Nam.

The Marines reported 332 Communists killed and the probable deaths of 549 more. A Leatherneck battalion that had borne the brunt of the fighting left the field.

In the only heavy engagement Tuesday reported by the U.S. military command, a company of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division killed 51 Viet Cong in the Ho Bo Woods 21 miles northwest of Saigon. The U.S. command said the American company suffered heavy casualties.

The enemy force, in an unusual appearance in camouflaged uniforms and steel helmets, advanced within 15 yards of the U.S. infantrymen before being repulsed, a U.S. spokesman said.

During the five-hour battle the Viet Cong shot down a U.S. Army Gunship helicopter.

Fears for the fate of American fliers captured in North Viet Nam increased with reports from Peking and Prague that the North Vietnamese ambassadors there had said the airmen would be tried as war criminals.

While U.S. officials and members of Congress warned in Washington of tough American response to mistreatment of the airmen, the North Vietnamese news agency published a letter by President Ho Chi Minh to American Socialist leader Norman Thomas promising humane treatment of the captives.

SLEEPING PANHANDLE STARTLED BY TREMOR

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — An apparent earth tremor, sharp enough to wake many sleeping people, shook parts of the Texas Panhandle about 3 a.m. today.

There were no reports of damage.

A seismograph at Texas Tech College in Lubbock recorded a tremor at 5½ minutes after 3 a.m. today. Deskin Henry Shurbet, a professor at the college, said the seismograph reading indicated the earthquake was of small magnitude and appeared to be centered about 130 miles north-northwest of Lubbock.

Telephone callers told police in Borger, 50 miles northeast of here, they heard a loud rumbling noise and windows shook for three or four seconds.

Jack Allen, a former California resident whose ranch home is 15 miles east of Borger, said it definitely was a mild earthquake.

"I've been through many of them and that's what it was," he said.

Attendants said patients were roused from slumber at the Amarillo Air Force Base Hospital.

"Some of the prisoners in the eighth floor jail at the county courthouse here got a little upset," a state police dispatcher in Amarillo reported. "It felt like a strong sonic boom—but it probably covered too wide an area to be that."

Personnel in the control tower at the Amarillo airport felt their chairs move and one descended to see whether a truck might have hit the structure.

H. M. Rowland at the Amarillo Weather Bureau estimated its barograph jumped about one-eighth inch as the tremor was felt at 3:06 a.m.

Inquiries about the quiver came from over an area embracing Dumas, 46 miles north of Amarillo, to Dimmitt, nearly 60 miles southwest of here, and extending halfway across New Mexico to Albuquerque on the west.

More Deaths In Cleveland Race Riots

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — National Guardsmen armed with machine guns today patroled the battered and smouldering Hough section under a state of emergency order after two Negroes died in riots.

One Negro man was shot to death Tuesday night amid wild disorders.

Widespread shooting, looting, and firebombing by Negroes raged for four hours in the slums where a woman was killed by gunfire Monday night. Violence eased about midnight.

The 107th Armored Cavalry regiment in Cleveland said there would be about 1,500 guardsmen in the city by late today. In addition to 1,320 armored cavalrymen already here, 250 infantrymen from Wooster, Ohio, arrived in the afternoon and 250 more were en route. The additional forces, members of the 37th Infantry Division, were ordered Tuesday night by Gov. James A. Rhodes.

Rhodes called up the troops and said that "a state of tumult, riot and other emergency" prevailed in Cleveland.

Only a few hundred soldiers had reached the area by midnight. They patroled in jeeps carrying machine guns.

In a proclamation signed in Columbus, Rhodes commanded lawless elements to halt the rioting. He said more guardsmen would be sent in if needed — on request of authorities here.

The grim tally after the second night of wanton destruction:

Two killed by gunfire.

At least 24 injured, including 12 policemen, a firemen and five persons with gunshot wounds.

Uncounted property damage from burning and looting.

More than 100 arrests.

Ruined, blackened hulks of buildings, smashed store windows, heaps of tangled rubble—these were the ugly remains.

Harried firemen, often the target of rocks, got 52 calls. City Safety Director John N. McCormick said there were 37 or 38 fires Tuesday night.

Mrs. Denson was a member of the Methodist Church.

Funeral arrangements were pending this morning at Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

Britain Freezes Wages, Prices

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson today froze all wages and prices in Britain for six months and imposed a flat 10 per cent surtax on all existing taxes in his campaign to support the British pound.

He also announced drastic new taxes and sweeping measures to cut spending at home and abroad.

The radical tax on taxes is designed to last 12 months.

Wilson ordered all national and local government spending cut by 55 million pounds ($154 million) in the 1967 - 68 fiscal year.

He also ordered a postponement of public investment programs that will effectively take 150 million pounds ($420 million) out of circulation.

Wilson outlined to a packed House of Commons his Labor government's drive to put the nation's economy on a sound footing.

The purpose of the program is to increase productivity in export industries by diverting labor to those industries, trim inflationary spending which has boosted imports for the domestic market, and reduce the perennial drain on Britain's foreign exchange holdings.

Broman had named City Councilmen Marshall Erwin and Rayburn Burgess last night to join with the county representatives. The mayor also instructed the city manager to assist the committee in its studies.

The two government agencies hope to determine some method whereby ambulance service will be available here after Oct. 1. Funeral home operators have advised that they will quit their ambulance service on that date.

Annual Scurry County Rodeo Opens Tonight

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a very hot temper. He tried to call home for two hours yesterday and the line was busy because our teen-age daughter was talking. Well, Angelo left work, stormed into the house and tore our telephone out by the roots! (I was ashamed to tell the telephone repairman how it happened, so I said the dog did it.)

If one of the children leaves his bicycle or a toy in the driveway, Angelo deliberately drives over it. A friend of mine who has studied a lot of psychology told me that this is 'healthy" for Angelo because it gets the anger out of his system, which if he kept bottled up inside might give him ulcers. But, what is the rest of the family supposed to do while Angelo protects himself against ulcers?

ANGELO'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: They protect themselves against Angelo.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Somebody must have been pulling your leg. A man who signed himself 'CRITICIZED" wrote to say that his wife's cousin was being buried on the same Saturday morning that his brother's son was becoming Bar Mitzvah. Abby, this is not possible. Jewish people are NEVER—but NEVER buried on a Saturday.

A RABBI

DEAR RABBI: I know they aren't. But the wife's cousin wasn't Jewish.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem which I am sure must bother other newlyweds. Why does a young wife feel that if she doesn't see or call her mother every single day, the world will come to an end? My wife seems to have this idea. She says she's afraid her mother might get 'upset" if she isn't in touch with her daily.

Her mother is in good health and has a husband to look after her. Why don't mothers let their married daughters grow up and be independent? Or am I wrong to take this attitude?

A HUSBAND

DEAR HUSBAND: You are assuming a great deal when you assume that it's the mother who "refuses to let her married daughter grow up and be independent." Perhaps the daughter is hanging on to her mother.

I see nothing wrong with a daughter (married or single) keeping in touch with her mother daily. And if you do, perhaps you should ask yourself why.

• • •

CONFIDENTIAL TO PHYL: Don't marry a drinking man. A man who won't stay sober for his sweetheart would never stay sober for his wife.

Panel To Study Dodd's Finances

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee indicated today its next round of hearings on misconduct charges against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd will deal with the Connecticut Democrat's financial affairs.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., told a reporter he will announce the subject and the date for the hearings just as soon as he can. But he said he had no definite information at this time.

The bipartisan committee's first round of hearings, to explore Dodd's dealings with Julius Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm and a registered agent for West German business interests, ended late Tuesday.

Klein spent the day in the witness chair. On a key issue, he insisted he hadn't pressured Dodd in going to West Germany in 1964 to help Klein retain his clients there.

"I don't know a single United States senator who can be pressured," said Klein, who testified all his letters, memos and telephone calls to Dodd were just the exercise of his "God-given right" of petition.

Klein, a Republican, said he also had asked Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and other senators to speak to German government and industrial leaders in his behalf. Javits later told a reporter he had mentioned Klein in talks with former Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and former Foreign Minister Heinrich Von Brentano.

Javits said in both cases his discussions dealt with Klein's views on German reparations to Jewish victims of Nazi prosecution. "I thought Klein's position reflected credit on him," Javits said.

Dodd, who stayed away from Tuesday's hearing, previously had sworn the purpose of his six-day trip to Germany was to investigate the Soviet terror apparatus.

Klein said that when he learned Dodd was going, he encouraged him to make the trip and to counter "distortions" in the German press about a 1963 Senate Foreign Relations Committee probe of foreign agents.

However, he testified that not a single one of his West German clients who had canceled their contracts after the 1963 investigation had been "salvaged" as a result of Dodd's trip.

"Would you say that Senator Dodd's trip was personally helpful to you?" asked the Ethics Committee's counsel, Benjamin R. Fern.

"I'd rather put it the other way," Klein replied. "It surely didn't do me any harm."

Irish Priest Chooses Jail

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Protestant extremist leader the Rev. Ian Paisley today chose three months in jail rather than pay a 30 - pound ($84) fine and promise to keep the peace for two years.

He stood singing a hymn before more than 1,000 of his supporters in Belfast's Ulster Hall and invited the police to step forward and arrest him. None did.

Paisley, with two other clergyman from his own Free Presbyterian Church and two lay supporters, were found guilty by Belfast magistrates Tuesday of unlawful assembly last month. That was when Paisley led a Protestant procession through the heart of one of the city's Roman Catholic districts, touching off a bloody riot.

Paisley, 40, and the others were offered the choice of paying up or going to jail. They had until noon today to make up their minds.

The three lay supporters paid their fines.

Court officials said the next step would be to issue arrest warrants for the three ministers, which would be served on them at their homes. This process might take several days.

New Landslides Threaten In Sicili

AGRIGENTO, Sicili (AP) — With 5,000 persons already homeless, a new landslide scare sent 10,000 more residents fleeing in panic today from Agrigento.

So far, the city's chief tourist attraction, one of the world's best preserved Greek temples, did not appear threatened.

A slow earthslide continued after partly wrecking the southwest third of the city, which is on a hill three miles inland from Sicili's south coast.

Ten buildings, some of them new apartment houses eight to ten stories tall, have collapsed since the gradual earthslip began Tuesday morning.

Visiting Servicemen Get Cut Rates

HONOLULU (AP) — American servicemen arriving in Hawaii for rest and relaxation leave will be issued a wallet-sized card which will get them entertainment, meals and drinks free or at cut rate, beginning next month.

Joseph Kennedy Is Reported Recovering

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy is reported recovering from a mild heart attack suffered Sunday at his Hyannis Port home.

Plan Opposed By Katzenbach

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach spoke out today against legislation designed to curb the terrorist activities of the Ku Klux Klan.

The attorney general, testifying before the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said there are "constitutional difficulties and problems with some aspects of the committee's bill."

He contended that a provision of the proposed 1966 Civil Rights Act, now before Congress, "possibly represents the wiser response to this problem" than a bill proposed by the committee and its chairman, Rep. Edwin Willis, D-La.

The committee bill, Katzenbach said in his prepared testimony, "might unnecessarily complicate prosecution of the perpetrators of such violence" because of 'the organizational and conspiracy concepts upon which the bill is based."

Katzenbach doubtless had in mind the complete lack of success that has greeted Justice Department efforts to enforce laws to curb the activities of the U.S. Communist party and require Communists to register with the U.S. government.

His prepared testimony for the House committee was unusually brief. Of its 15 paragraphs, the first 12 were devoted to praising the work of Willis' panel in its investigation of the Klan.

Willis has predicted quick House approval of the legislation after his committee allows two days for hearings.

Spacemen Awakened

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Like an earthbound man roused by a shivering wife to go turn down the air - conditioner, the Gemini 10 astronauts were awakened early today to jiggle the controls.

Midway of their 19th revolution, some 240 miles above the Indian Ocean, mission control detected undesirable pressure readings in the system that controls space vehicle temperatures.

Flight Director Glynn Lunney sent word to wake the spacemen up, half an hour after they had turned in for the night, to make the adjustments.

"Sorry about that," said the communicator on the tracking ship Rosemont. "Go back to sleep."

Versatile Tile

Ceramic tile is as much a part of today's modern kitchen as are wall ovens, kitchen range hoods and indirect lighting. Tile not only brightens splashbacks and counterfop work surfaces, it also provides walls and floors with a stainproof, fireproof, scuffproof surfacing that is remarkably easy to clean. Soap and water does the trick very efficiently and tile never needs waxing.

Rainbow Girls Hold Slumber Party At Dunn

The Snyder Assembly of Rainbow for Girls held a slumber party recently at the Dunn community center to celebrate the birthday of their founder William Mark Sexton. All girls present were in peace and harmony.

The record player played the most popular records all night.

A beauty contest was held by the girls, with Vicky Boyd, winning after much deliberation of the judges.

Many games were played with candy bars as prizes for the winner of each game.

Each girl brought her own sack lunch. The members of the Board furnished the drinks of punch and Cokes.

At 5:30 a.m. the girls visited a small stream in Dunn in search of mussels. A few of the girls brought their mussels home with them.

Members attending were Judy Tate, Gloria Bigham, Becky Davidson, Vicky Jones, Gena Bell, Treasa Young, Vicky and Reatha Boyd, and Elaine McAuthor. Guests for the evening were Pat Miller, Billie Williams, Marcella Bigham, Vicky Jones, Dee Earr, Twylia Wall, Karen Jones, and Tammy Brunes. Hostesses were Mrs. Sharon Brunes, Mother advisor and Mrs. Pauline Landrum W. M. Order of the Eastern Star.

The girls left Snyder at 7:30 p.m. and returned to Snyder before 8 a.m. Some of the girls had a short nap coming home, the only time they were still enough to shut an eye.

Real Way To End A Vacation

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Our jails are full of people who feel unwanted by society.

So are most business offices this time of year. They are thronged with bitter employes who have returned from vacations only to find nobody missed them while they were away. They have the "postvacation blues."

The average worker, rested by his annual hiatus at seashore or mountain resort, comes back raring to do a good job. He may be the lowliest cog in the office, but he is comfortably sure the place has gone to rack and ruin in his absence.

To his consternation, he is met with utter indifference, or such quips as:

"Where you been hiding, Joe? Long time no see."

"You say you've been on a vacation? From what?"

Few bother to ask the returning pilgrim where he has been, what vacation wonders and horrors he enjoyed or survived. If he tries to tell them, they yawn in his face or make up excuses to break away.

Nobody wants to listen at all to the big new ideas he has to improve the firm — ideas he thought up on his own time.

Joe's joy evaporates.

His vacation has hurt rather than helped Joe's morale. How could it have been more effective? Well, if the personnel department had been really on its toes, the scene might be something like this:

Joe Biffle tries to sneak in, worried because he is 29 seconds late to work after his two weeks off.

"Joe's back!" someone shouts. The staff breaks into cheers and starts throwing papers wildly in the air. Several put Joe on their shoulders and parade him around the desks and water cooler.

"For he's a jolly good fellow!" they sing.

The boss comes out, pounds Joe on the back and says, "Welcome back, son. Boy, was it dull here without you! Everybody take the morning off."

He sends out for coffee and free pastry for all. Joe stands up on a desk and everybody listens entranced while he describes the fish he caught, the bears and Indians he saw, and passes out color photographs he took.

At noon, the boss says, "No, that's all for now. I want to take Joe to lunch at my club. You boys are wearing him out."

The rest of the day Joe spouts off to the board. "Not too fast, Joe," pleads the chairman, taking down notes himself with a gold pencil.

Perhaps the board may not accept all his recommendations, but his vacation has done him a world of good.

He feels wanted. He feels important.

And isn't that the goal of every business office? It just takes a little human forethought by management.

Experience Gives Aussies Own Ideas About Viet War

By HORST FAAS

PHUOC TUY PROVINCE, South Viet Nam (AP) — In a rubber plantation southeast of Saigon—the exact spot still is secret—a 3,000-man Australian task force has set up camp.

The Australians have their own ideas how to fight the Viet Cong and they have the whole province of Phuoc Tuy to try them out.

Many of these men have fought and won a similar guerrilla war in the jungles and plantations of Malaya. About one-third are draftees, new to war like most of the Americans in Viet Nam.

Their mission—as described by their commander, Brig. Oliver David Jackson—is to break up, scatter and destroy the hardcore Viet Cong units in Phuoc Tuy Province; destroy the Viet Cong political apparatus; and then hunt down every Communist terrorist one by one.

Once an area has been freed of Communist domination, the Australians will help the Vietnamese protect it and resettle refugees into it.

It will be a big job.

"In the Malaya war we didn't worry about time," says Lt. Col. John Arnold Warr. "This same attitude will be necessary in Viet Nam.

"We have to realize that it will take years to complete our mission and simply accept the fact and stay until it is done."

In making this comparison, Warr also recognizes differences in the Malaya and Vietnamese wars.

"The Chinese Communists in Malaya were much less active than the Viet Cong," he said. "The Viet Cong is better armed, has greater dddication and discipline, and is operating in much larger units.

"Only after we have broken up the enemy regiments and battalions can we fight a Malayan-type campaign."

Other advantages mentioned by Warr were better information about the enemy in Malaya and better links between the local government—then British—and the fighting units.

But Viet Nam has some advantages, too. All the Australian company commanders and most of the noncommissioned officers in Viet Nam took part in the Malayan campaign.

Many of these men say the weather and terrain in Phuoc Tuy Province are easier to cope with. It is not so hot and the jungle is not so thick.

Phuoc Tuy is a coastal province, a rougn rectangle about 30 by 40 miles. It stretches from the South China Sea northeast of the Saigon River delta up to D Zone. Hundreds of trails wind through the province, offering routes for the Viet Cong from the ocean up to D Zone and Cambodia.

It is believed that two hardcore Viet Cong regiments—about 4,000 men—are based in the province in addition to hundreds of local guerrillas. The majority of the 105,000 inhabitants have lived for years under Communist domination.

The province was the scene of one of the Viet Cong's most spectacular victories 18 months ago. Two government battalions were knocked out of action near the village of Binh Gia.

Since then Viet Cong forces have eluded both Vietnamese and American attempts to run them down. Large areas of the province became a free bombing zone. Planes and artillery were allowed to blast at will.

The cycle of Viet Cong takeovers and government counteractions, of troop assaults and bombardments was too much for the farm people. They abandoned their farms, orchards and plantations. Thousands of refugees now crowd the provincial capital, Baria.

This is the situation confronting the Australians.

Junior Editors Quiz on CRAYONS

QUESTION: What are crayons made of?

• • •

ANSWER: The word "crayon" is often used to mean any drawing stick, which might be made of a waxy or chalky substance, or even of charcoal. Artists often use a kind of stick called "pastel" containing chalk and pigmented colors, which give light and airy effects (A). School crayons, such as in (B), are more easily handled, have brighter and shinier colors and don't rub off. These are made from mixtures of soap, wax, resin, as well as lampblack or pigments of the various colors. It is possible to make many beautiful pictures with school-type crayons. These will be more interesting if one color is put over another, rather than just laying on single colors. If you wanted the effect of sunlight on grass, for example, you might begin by laying on a light yellow to give the sunniness, and then lightly stroking green over this for the grass. The result may surprise you. The colors will seem to vibrate and become more lifelike and beautiful.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Try "crayon resist" as shown in the picture. The waxy crayon resists the watery poster paint, producing strange and beautiful effects. 7-20

Lucas Leaves Fortune On The Table

'Apparently he decided to quit professional football," a club official said after being notified the 300-pound-olus defensive tackle from Michigan State had left.

Cardinal President Charles (Stormy) Bidwill said Lucas had been under orders to trim down to a playing weight of 280 pounds by Thursday.

The burly lineman left camp after breakfast, but Bidwill did not learn he had lost his high-pcied player until Norman McIntyre, Lucas' attorney, phoned later from Cleveland.

Bidwill said Lucas' reported $300,000 salary-plus-bonus, no-cut contract had been voided.

Bidwill said the massive tackle had been paid very little money, at Lucas' request, for tax reasons. 'Now the contract is void."

"We feel that he has quit and if he is claimed by another club, he will go for the $100 waiver price," Bidwill said.

LONDON (AP) — Lester Piggott, Britain's champion jockey, rode five winners at the Leicester race track Tuesday night.

Don Robbins Joins Staff Of College

EL PASO — Don Robbins, athletic director and head football coach for the past four years at Big Spring High School, has accepted a position on the staff of Coach Bobby Dobbs at Texas Western College.

He will work with the defense for the Miners.

A former line coach of the Snyder High School football team, Robbins went to Big Spring as an assistant to Emmett McKenzie in 1961. He was named head coach at Big Spring a year later.

His won-lost record at Big Spring during four years as head coach is 26-13-1 and he was named coach of the year in District 2-AAAA in 1963 when his Steers finished second to surprise the entire league.

At Texas Western, Robbins succeeds Y. C. McNeese who resigned recently to join the coaching staff at Michigan University.

Snyder Sweeps C-City For Series Victory

The Snyder Pony League All-Stars swept the playoff series in two straight games by defeating the Colorado City All-Stars 6-2 last night in a display of power not much different than that seen on July 4.

The Snyder stars now move to the area playoffs which will probably be an Abilene team at a later date.

Unlike the first game of the series, the Snyder All-Stars unleashed a hitting barrage early, and easily took the victory. Winning pitcher, Wesley Bishop, allowed only single runs in the sixth and seventh innings, but that was a little late for the Colorado City Stars. Bishop shutout the opponents for five innings without ever being in serious trouble. He struck out eight.

The Snyder team got rolling in the second inning when Jim Patrick, winning pitcher of the first game, doubled. David McGinnis struckout for the first out, and the fire works began. Brad Morgan singled in Patrick from second, Merce Hernandez tripled bringing in Morgan and Hernandez scored on a ground ball by Randy Levens.

Snyder did not stop in that inning because in the third frame they put together three extra base hits including a lead off inside the park home run by Ronnie Lewis to put the game on ice. Following the homer, Bishop doubled and then scored on a double by McGinnis.

McGinnis ended the Snyder scoring in the sixth inning when he reached base on an error and managed to score without the aid of a base hit.

Colorado City scored both of their runs after lead off singles in the sixth and seventh innings. They took advantage of two Snyder miscues, one in each frame, for their scores.

Gentile Sold To Indians

HOUSTON (AP) — Seasoned first baseman Jim Gentile, sent to the minors after a temper display as a Houston Astro, made it back to the majors Tuesday.

The National League Astros announced they had sold Gentile to the Cleveland Indians for an undisclosed amount of cash and 28-year-old outfielder Tony Curry.

Gentile, 32, started the season with the Astros but was put on Houston's Oklahoma City farm club roster after the other big league clubs had waived on him.

Condemns Proposed Viet Trials

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) The United States must be sure North Viet Nam does not misunderstand our determination to protect American prisoners, commander of the Texas Department of the American Legion said Tuesday.

Mann, of Wichita Falls, said Tuesday he will ask members of the organization to support "all-out devastation of North Viet Nam" if the prisoners are executed.

In Corpus Christi to complete arrangements for the 48th state convention which starts Friday, Mann said the American Legion's support of the war effort "is a matter of record."

"I am going to call on the delegates to review carefully the recent threats of the North Viet Nam government to try American prisoners as 'War criminals' and eventual execution," he said.

He said he would ask the convention to go on record as condemning the proposed trials and that if the threat is carried out with resulting execution of American prisoners of war, that the U. S. government "retaliate swiftly and surely with all-out devastation of North Viet Nam by use of all military power at our disposal."

In a prepared statement, Mann said he will also ask the convention to adopt a policy of "win in Viet Nam."

Books Show No Slowing Economy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—If the economy slowed down in the second quarter of 1966, it forgot to tell the bookkeepers of many of the nation's top corporations. Day after day, they are reporting that their companies made more money than last year, and in many cases netted larger profits than for any other three months in their history.

Corporate earnings statements for the first six months and for the April-June quarter are flooding in now. To the delight of most shareholders the profit harvest is bountiful—and for many so is the outpouring of dividends.

But all is not quite that serene up in the corporate executive suites. The record profits which U.S. industry apparently racked up in the second quarter—based on early returns—doubtless are being watched closely by an administration bent on discouraging price increases it deems unjustified.

Record profits also may serve as an inspiration for union officials seeking to get a bigger share of corporate revenues for workers in the form of higher wage scales.

But the profits themselves spell out a story of prosperity—and a business boom which has yet really to level off, and one that certainly still seems far from turning down.

The list of companies reporting that second quarter profits were the highest for any three months is a sizable one. Some of the companies are: Du Pont, IBM, General Foods, Reynolds Metals.

Record profits for any second quarter also are reported by: Xerox, Polaroid, U.S. Rubber, Westinghouse Electric, Allis Chalmers, Kaiser Aluminum, RCA, Continental Can, Georgia-Pacific, Mead Corp.

And then there's American Telephone & Telegraph. It's one of three companies that made more than a billion dollars in all of 1965. AT&T seems well on the way to setting a profits record this year. For the three months ending May 31 it reports profits of $495,233,000, up from $435,732,000 in the like period last year.

The other two companies making more than a billion last year are General Motors and Jersey Standard Oil. Both are expected to report on this year's results by the end of this month.

Indian Commissioner To Be Honored

Bennett, a member of the Oneida Tribe of Wisconsin, is the first Indian to head the bureau in 97 years.

Water Board Hears Compliments, Critics

WACO, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Water Development Board received cautious compliments and cushioned brickbats today for its $3.7 billion preliminary plan for development of the water resources of Texas to meet projected water needs in the Brazos River Basin and other areas by the year 2020.

The compliments came from varied sources, but most were tempered with calls for additional studies to perfect the plan to cure water quality and quantity problems within the 44,000 square miles of the Brazos watershed.

Major criticism of the master plan came from the Brazos River Authority, the agency charged with conserving, controlling and putting to beneficial use the Brazos waters.

Col. Walter J. Wells, the authority's general manager, entered a 12-page brief outlining the authority's objections, suggestions for revisions and proposed additional studies.

Col. Wells made a detailed study of that part pertaining to the Brazos basin, and authority directors meeting here Tuesday afternoon armed with their general manager's comments.

Representatives of Killeen specifically objected to the growth estimates projected for their area (49,700 by the year 2020) and said the area already has more than 35,000 inhabitants, which is about the same population predicted by the plan for 1990.

The Killeen representatives said their area, because of military installations and a growing industrial complex, will far exceed the figures projected in the plan and thus their water needs will be much greater.

Here are details of portions of Col. Wells' statement on major items in the plan :

—State project—a 980-mile canal to transfer water from Northeast Texas to the Rio Grande Valley.

1. Use of the Brazos River as a major portion (of the canal) appears logical provided that adequate provision is made to fully protect water rights, contractual commitments for water supplies and to assure that there is sufficient channel capacity to accommodate both the transferred water and in-basin supplies needed to meet downstream requirements.

2. Provisions must be made for accurately controlling and accounting for the water transfers.

3. Water quality in the Brazos must be protected. Measures must be taken to assure that effluent from the Fort Worth-Dallas area, which would come into the Brazos with transferred water from the Trinity River, would not pollute Brazos River water.

4. The proposal for transferring water out of the Brazos basin before water from the northeast can be transferred in makes no mention of where this surplus water will be obtained, who will pay for it, does not indicate the period of time these surplus transfers will be made and does not allow for meeting water needs within the basin first before the surplus water is transferred.

Grieving Skelton-Classic Buffoon

By BOB THOMAS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — His rubbery face masking his grief, Red Skelton clowned before a delighted audience Tuesday night as his wife lay seriously wounded in a Las Vegas hospital from an apparently accidental gunshot.

Georgia Skelton, 44, was declared in satisfactory condition at Sunrise Hospital following treatment for a chest wound which was inflicted with a pistol early Tuesday morning.

The accident took place in the Skeltons' suite in the Sands Hotel as he was performing in the supper club below.

The shot was heard by the Skelton's daughter Valentina, 19, and a college student friend, Art Coleman, 19, who were in another part of the suite. Coleman entered the bedroom to find Mrs. Skelton stretched on the bed, bleeding at the chest.

"What happened? What did I do?" she was reported to have said.

Mrs. Skelton was rushed to the hospital where doctors determined the shot had penetrated no vital organs. After his performance, Skelton was told the news and he rushed tearfully to the hospital.

Skelton remained with his wife, whom he married in 1945, and later attended the wedding of Frank Sinatra and Mia Farrow at the Sands Hotel. He insisted on performing his usual show Tuesday night.

The comedian, 52, was in top form. He romped through his usual procession of gags, some old, some new, and performed his near-classic pantomimes — the old veteran at the parade, the child refusing to take castor oil, etc.

Only at the conclusion did Skelton reveal a trace of emotion. In his curtain speech, he made his traditional comments about not wishing to offend anyone and hoping that his buffoonery had helped his audience forget their troubles.

He hurried through the speech and dashed offstage in tears.

In an exclusive interview backstage, Skelton reported that his wife was in good spirits, but apparently had suffered a broken rib from the gunshot.

The Skeltons normally keep guns at their residences in case of burglary. The comedian explained: "Georgia and I had taken all our guns from the Palm Springs house to the Bel Air House, but she brought one little pistol here.

"The pistol had no ammunition and she wanted to get some. She said she felt much safer to have the gun loaded. So just last Saturday we went to a store and bought some bullets for it."

The gun was a 38-calibre pistol which Skelton said was on the bedside table. He theorized that his wife may have brushed against the gun while reaching for a dressing robe.

Skelton's engagement ends next Tuesday and he said he would fly his wife back to Los Angeles in a private jet.

Marchers Start Early

RACHAL, Tex. (AP)—Hiking Mexican-American farm workers were up before dawn today to resume their 400-mile protest march on the state capital, march leaders said.

The Marchers—20 strong—were to travel 13 miles today in temperatures ranging up to 100 degrees. The hike was resumed at 5:30 a. m. just south of this tiny South Texas town.

March leaders said they moved up the daily starting time to beat part of the afternoon heat.

The marchers are members of National Farm Workers Association Local No. 2, which launched a strike for a $1.25 an hour minimum wage in Southernmost Texas on June 1.

They hope the march—to end Labor Day at a rally at the state Capitol in Austin, Tex.—will dramatize their pleas for a minimum wage and union recognition. The march began July 11 at San Juan, Tex.

The NFWA struck farms in Starr County, but a court injunction obtained by growers prohibited picketing. Growers claim the strike is illegal.

A representative of the conservative John Birch Society, Rex Westerfield of Dallas, Tex., said in a news release Tuesday that the United States Communist Party has endorsed the Texas movement and raised $400 for the NFWA at its recent convention.

Miss Texas Competition To Begin

FORT WORTH (AP)—Competition gets underway tonight to select the new Miss Texas, but many of the 61 contestants are already old hands at the rigors of a beauty contest.

In addition to the local events which won them the right to come to Fort Worth to try for the state title, many have won other contests.

For example Cookie Cage, Mesquite, is also the owner of such titles as Miss Texas Service Station, Miss Texas Cosmotology and Miss Armed Forces Day.

And the representative of Abilene, Dinah Gray, was selected by a national magazine last year as one of the 17 most photogenic and most talented girls in the country.

But this will still be the big contest for the girls, who have their eyes set on the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

Judging in swimsuits and talent will be conducted nightly and the results announced. There will also be nightly evening gown competition, but these results will be kept secret as usual.

A successor will be crowned Saturday night to Mary Lou Butler of Irving, the current Miss Texas.

Serving as mistress of ceremonies will be Marie Beale Fletcher, Miss America of 1962. She will also perform her speciality song and dance numbers each night.

The new Miss Texas will receive a $1,100 scholarship here and a $400 scholarship at Atlantic City.

The first runner-up gets $500, the second $450, third $400 and fourth $350. Miss Congeniality, who is chosen by the contestants, wins a $200 prize.

The tallest of the 61 girls is Vicki Lynn Hale, Miss Possum Kingdom, who measures five feet, 10 inches. The shortest, at five feet, two inches, are Dianne Ruth Boyd, Miss Winnsboro, and Janice Gaye Baldwin, Miss Vernon.

Chief Is Nickel Model

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Chief John Big Tree gives you the impression, somehow, that you've seen him before.

The old Iroquois chief, who has outlived his likeness, is one of three Indians who posed in 1913 for the composite head on the other side of the Buffalo nickel, minted from 1913 to 1938.

"It's me from here to here," he said, measuring off the length of his good-sized nose with leathery, brown hands.

Chief Big Tree, who says he has the birth certificate to prove he is 104 years old, flew to Nashville to help promote a bank.

The chief, who lives with his wife in Syracuse, N.Y., said he began his new career, making personal appearances, after his 100th birthday.

Star's Yacht Is Casualty Of Coast

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — Jerry Lewis' new $350,000 yacht is a casualty of the rocky Pacific Coast of California's Monterey County.

Lewis, 40, and four companions escaped injury Tuesday, when a leak sent sea water pouring into the 65-foot yacht "Pussycat," en route from San Francisco at San Diego.

Seeks Solution In Interest War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Banking Committee, in face of another heavy drop in deposits at savings and loan associations, will try next week to draft a cease-fire in the hot interest rate war for savings.

Facing the committee will be figures expected to show a drop in savings at the associations unparalleled in the current tight money market of high interest rates and scarcity of loan money, especially for home mortgages.

Net withdrawals from associations are expected to total about $1 billion during July, it was learned today. This is based on an estimated net withdrawal of $1.2 billion between June 27 and July 11, the end of the last dividend period, and a net inflow of $200 million for the rest of the month.

The largest previous net drop during the rate war was $770 million in April.

Requests for committee action have come within the past week from the Johnson administration, the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board which regulates the savings and loan industry.

Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., the committee chairman, has expressed hope that a bill will be approved by the committee on Monday to halt the competition for savings. He prefers a temporary 4.5 per cent ceiling on interest rates.

The next move was left up to Congress after the Federal Reserve and the Home Loan Bank boards approved two major revisions in their regulations designed to ease some of the pressure on the savings and loan industry.

The war formally began last December when the Federal Reserve Board raised from 4.5 to 5.5 per cent the interest rate banks may pay on time deposits — money left at the bank for a specified period of time.

This gave rise to wide use of the major weapon in the war—the certificate of deposit which is nothing more than a receipt for savings left on deposit for a definite period, six months or a year, for example.

Savings and loan associations have similar instruments.

Some associations contended higher interest rates were needed simply to retain deposits they already had, rather than to attract new money.

USDA Reports Meat Imports Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department reported today that U.S. imports of live cattle —mostly beef— are running about 72 per cent larger this year than last.

Imports during the first four months of this year totaled 388,000 animals, compared with 228,000 in the like period last year.

Beef and veal imports during the same period totaled 237,000 pounds, compared with 181,000 pounds a year earlier.

The department said the big increase in cattle imports reflects the favorable prices in this country.

Foreign Students Returning Home

By JEAN HELLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two out-of-date Ohio license plates, a broken ski, a flour sifter, a couple of old copies of Playboy magazine, and about 15 tons of excess fat.

That may not sound like a list of tourist souvenirs of a trip to the United States, but for 3,086 youngsters, it was.

There was, of course, a smattering of models of the Statue of Liberty, picture post cards of the White House at night and a few Indian blankets.

But after living in this country for nearly a year under 'typical American home" conditions, 3,086 teen-agers from 59 foreign countries were far more interested in returning home with, as one put it, "the idiotic little things we can't get or can't afford in our own countries."

The teen-agers arrived late last summer to live and study in the United States under the auspices of the American Field Service. They stayed with American families and many, who were high school seniors when they arrived, were returning home with diplomas from American schools.

As they gathered here during their last week in this country, they had curious souvenir lists and some frank comments about the American way of life.

Most startling for many of the students were Americans' strange drinking habits. Some sample comments:

Stella de la Garma, 18, of Mar Del Plata, Argentina: "We have no drinking age (limit) in Argentina. Anybody can drink any time, so nobody ever gets drunk. But here, kids get drunk just because it's a gainst the law."

Hans Joerg Niebergall, 18, of Bremen, Germany: "American beer tastes like soapy water. And Americans pour beer down the side of glasses to keep foam down. That's just making bad beer worse."

Jose Filomino, 19, of Sao Paulo, Brazil: "In my country, if you can reach the bar, you can order a beer."

But, apparently in Brazil, he can't get old Confederate flags because they number among Jose's souvenirs, as does a set of Ohio license plates.

"There's no particular reason for them," he said. "I just like them."

One rather universal souvenir among the students was excess personal poundage.

Nearly all of them gained weight, they said, in amounts varying from 6 to 35 pounds. If conservatively averaged at 10 pounds per student, this totals more than 15 tons.

"It's not surprising," said Annie Ringot, 19, of Paris. "Americans take cars everywhere they go. When I went to the mailbox, I took a car."

Milk Prices Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's consumers are paying an average of half a cent per quart more for milk this month than in June and 1.7 cents more than a year ago.

The largest increases were reported in New England.

These increases, reported by the Agriculture Department today, reflect advances in prices paid dairymen under government programs designed to boost producer incomes and reverse a long decline in milk production.

The department said prices of the most common grade of whole milk delivered to homes in 25 representative cities averaged 29.7 cents a quart early this month. This compared with 29.2 cents. In June and 28 cents in July last year.

A few weeks ago the department increased its support price for milk used for manufacturing products from $3.50 to $4 per 100 pounds. It also raised minimum producer prices for milk used for bottle distribution purposes an average of about 20 cents per 100 pounds, beginning July 1.

Bra Manufacturers Report The Buxom Belle Is Back

By SALLY RYAN

NEW YORK (AP) — The buxom-bosomed belle is back. Some say it may be because of the birth-control pill.

"We put two and two together," said Dan Garson, president of Lovable Brassiere Co. "We've been watching sizes go up the last two years."

Garson said size 34B always has been the biggest brassiere seller, but sizes 36B and 34C are catching up.

C cup sales are up about 20 per cent and for the first time are larger than A cup sales, reported Charles R. Carruth, Jantzen, Inc., vice president.

"And the D cup — that used to be only for older women," Carruth said. "A lot of younger women require them now."

Maidenform, Inc., also reported a swing to larger sizes — but only in the United States.

"It used to be 34B was the classic average size," a spokesman said. "About last year, we noticed it had gone up to 36B, and that we were selling more Cs and Ds.

"But abroad, it's been pretty static — 32A still is the best seller in Hong Kong and 38C and D in Africa."

The Food and Drug Administration says that birth-control pills may cause a swelling of the breasts similar to that of early pregnancy, but that it lasts only about three months.

A representative of a major pill manufacturer said his firm had no statistical information to support a link between the pill and bigger busts.

There have been, however, reports of tenderness and swelling which usually disappear, he said.

"I don't think you can single out birth-control pills as the one cause," said Carruth, general manger of Jantzen's Foundations Division. "Maybe it's the vitamins. It's a general upgrading of health.

"Younger people are larger and healthier. Women are taller, too. Maybe the pills add to it.

"But women have much bigger feet than they used to, too," Carruth said.

Empty Safe Is Finally Opened

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — After two days' efforts, police succeeded recently in opening a safe that had sat on a street corner for six weeks before police hauled it in.

The safe was empty.

Craft Transferred To Viet Navy

The craft will be recommissioned in the South Vietnamese navy as the VNS Ngoc Hoi, the Navy said.
