"I enjoy working for Colorado City and want to continue to help make our community a better place to live," he said of his reason for seeking the office. "My experience in presiding at meetings, working on committees, enlisting the cooperation of others and my previous council experience qualify me to be Mayor," he continued.

In conclusion, Dockrey stated, "I have the time, enthusiasm for the job and qualifications. If elected, I will do my best to be a mayor the people can be proud of."

Schools' open house a success

Colorado Independent School District Superintendent Charlie Uselton said that a total of 764 parents and other visitors took advantage of the Open House at all Colorado City Schools Thursday night to get acquainted with teachers and see the schools. In addition to those 764 parents, there were many more that visited earlier and ate lunch with the students, he said.

Uselton said that the Open House, staged as a part of Public School Week, was a great success this year and many of the people who visited did not even have children in school. He added that he wanted to thank all parents who helped make the event the success it was.

According to Uselton, the school hoped to have two open house nights next year to make it easier for parents with children in two different schools to visit both.

Retired policeman recalls how it was

Truman Henderson went to work as a Colorado City policeman on December 3, 1950 and still remembers the day that Chief of Police Hiram S. (Dick) Hickman was fired in January of 1951.

Henderson recalls, "He (Mr. Talent, the city manager) told Dick Hickman, 'I know you've got a gun on, but you'd better get started on using it.' I thought, 'Lord, I'm working in the wrong place!'"

According to Henderson, Talent "walked up to Dick and threw his coat open, looked right straight at him and he said, 'As of now, you don't work for the City of Colorado City.'"

But apparently everything worked out, because Truman stayed with the police department for more than 20 years, serving under chiefs Sam Hulme, Leon Yeager and Jesse Brown.

He remembers Yeager as his favorite—a good man and a good policeman.

One year there was a rash of robberies in Colorado City: "I'm telling you they like to have eat us up in about 1969. They robbed us out of our shoes. I was assistant chief then and I was trying to help the chief figure out a way (to catch the thieves), but he did it himself."

Henderson said the Yeager decided to place a stake-out on East Hill where most of the robberies had taken place, telling Henderson, "In the dark you have just as good a break as they have."

On the second night of the stake-out, "I parked the car and walked back to the back of the stores. I looked in the window and all that was between me and those boys was that glass," he laughs. "We were nose to nose."

The two boys started to run and one of them made it out the door before Henderson could get to them. "I hollered at him to stop and called him by name. He didn't stop, though. The other one, I put that gun to his belly and he backed up about six foot," he remembers.

The episode wasn't quite over, though; while he was handcuffing the boy he had caught, the other one came back to the car and turned himself in.

Helping Hand clothing drive cancelled

According to Helping Hand Director Virginia Jones, volunteers have recently gone through the clothes at the Center to pack the winter ones and place the summer articles on the shelves and racks.

"In doing so," she said, "we discovered that there are some items that we do not need now. Therefore, we will not be having the clothing drive."

Mrs. Jones continued,

"We apologize if this has inconvenienced anyone. We will accept good, clean: coats and jeans of all sizes, children's clothes and baby clothes."

"Please call 728-5423, 728-5366 or 728-5170 if you have these items to donate."

She added, "Thank you, residents of Mitchell County, for your wonderful support to The Helping Hand."

Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Glenda Monroe, Vernie Adkins, Ms. Etta Williams, Mary Smith, Rosetta Smith and Leola Haden. Two guests were present, Mrs. Bernice Williams and Miss Jackie Smith.

The group's next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Etta Williams.

rests, the robbery spree was ended.

Actually, some of Henderson's more vivid memories are of the women who gave him a hard time.

One was a woman named Smith who no longer lives here. Henderson said that Mr. and Mrs. Smith were "pretty rough characters. We were always getting calls up there."

Once, he was passing by and "heard a racket out back and I got out of the car right quick and started back there. I met this fella Smith and she was after him with an ax. I got a good grab at the ax and she said, 'I'm going to kill the son of a — if I catch him.' I said, 'No, you're not. Let me have that ax.'"

"Well, I got the ax away from her and she told me, 'If you hadn't been so nice to me through the years, I'd have killed you.'"

He chuckled and shook his head. "I said, 'Well, I'm sure glad I was nice.'"

One time he was called to a local cafe because of an intoxicated woman causing trouble. When Henderson tried to make her leave, she kicked him high on the inside of his thigh. "The first day, it was kind of red-looking. The next day, it was plumb yellow. I thought I was going to lose that leg for a while."

He never hit a woman during his law enforcement career. "Yeager really got mad at me. I said, 'Chief, I just can't hit 'em' and he said, 'Boy, you're going to get killed.'"

Nevertheless, Henderson lived to continue as policeman until the last two years before he retired at age 65. Those last two years were spent as a lake patrolman.

He recalls the way the job at the lake was offered to him: "Junior Sadler (the city manager at that time) called me up to his office one day and said, 'How would you like to go to work on the lake?' That fellow Browning (chief of police) was trying to get rid of me. I said, 'I don't know, Junior. I never do anything unless I have a conference with my wife.'"

"So I went to the house and told my wife. She said, 'My gosh, you're not going to work as a lake patrolman are you?' I said I was thinking on it."

"She said, 'Well, I guess it's alright, 'cause if you were off from work you'd be out there fishing anyway.'"

"She was really a swell person," Henderson said of his late wife, Mary. "She took it all; she never asked questions."

To young men thinking of a career in law enforcement, Henderson gives some advice: "You have to get along with the public. That's the first thing you've got to do. Then, you can't be afraid. If you get afraid, you can get in a heck of a mess."

By July 4th You May Have Less Independence!

It seems ironical that over 200 years ago our forefathers fought for independence primarily on the declaration that excessive taxation would no longer be tolerated. Yet on July 1, 1983 our Federal Government will enact a law which unfairly withholds 10% of your total interest and dividend income as prepayment on anticipated earnings.

By law, we will be forced to send 10% of your savings interest dollars to the IRS on a periodic basis. You will automatically see the deduction. And, that means your total interest earnings will be reduced even more because you will get less income from reinvestment and compounding.

Join us in our strong opposition to this new law. We know our Texas representatives in Washington will listen and repeal this unnecessary legislation if enough of the people who put them into office raise their voices. Sign your protest to the accompanying letter and send it to your U.S. Senators and Congressman... because now taxation with representation is an American right and privilege.

Make A Declaration

The Honorable
U.S. Congress
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear

I wish to join other Texans in requesting your work to repeal the 10% withholding tax on savings interest and dividends legislation which will be enacted on July 1, 1983.

I have worked hard to build my savings. Now our Government wants to withdraw a percentage of my earnings prior to the time I have faithfully paid my taxes each year. I respectfully protest.

I should not be penalized for saving money. Yet this new law will keep me from access to my entire savings over the year and give me fewer dollars to compound or reinvest. I ask that you become my voice in Congress and work towards the elimination of excessive and unfair taxation. I'm counting on you.

Sincerely,

Colorado High School girls track coaches Linda Mathis and George Martin have high expectations for their troops this season blending veterans and youth to round out a well balanced track team.

Martin has returning letterwomen Tomika Randle in the relays and sprints, Stacy Hamrick in the shot put and discus, Hollie Taplin in the relays and sprints, Loretta Morris in the 100 meter hurdles and Robyn Turner in the triple jump and relays.

Mathis has a talented group of freshmen who have won district titles the last two years. The group is headed by Sandra Williams in the sprints and relays and Michelle Garcia in the distance events, and 400 meter runner Sherry Fite.

According to Martin, the varsity and freshmen will combine forces after the freshmen have three track meets.

The Pack's lone returning Regional qualifier is Staci Free in the 200 meters. Last year she then speedy freshmen won district and clocked a 27.6. Martin says she is well capable of dipping down in the 26's this season.

Last year the 400 meter relay team of Taplin, Turner, Randle and Free ran a 51.3 while placing third in district. The same team with the exception of Morris clocked a 1:53.6 800 meter relay time, while placing third in district.

Weightperson Stacy Hamrick also barely missed a trip to Regionals with a third place in the discus. Her best throw was 98-0 last year. This year the senior has improved steadily in her early workouts. She has already thrown 111-0 this season.

The third time may be the charm for senior hurdler Loretta Morris. For two consecutive seasons, Morris has finished third in the 100 meter hurdles at the district meet. Her best time last year was a 16.1.

Randle and Taplin will be counted on to give the Pack valuable points in the sprints. Randle's experience in the "big meets" will give the Wolves a boost. She is the sole remaining trackster who ran on a 400 meter relay that went to state three years ago. Randle has been timed in a 12.9, and Taplin a 13.2 in the 100 meters.

But the person who could bolster the team's sprint field is freshmen Sandra Williams. Her times last year in the 100 and 200 meters were comparable to the varsity's best times. Her best times are 12.8 in the 100 meters and 27.2 in the 200 meters. She will also be counted on to score points in the broad jump (16-5) and triple jump (32-6).

The freshmen also have Garcia who ran a 2:42 800 meters, and Fite has run a 66.0 400 meters. Fite, Garcia and Angelina Selvera return from a 1600 meter relay team that posted a 4:57 last year. That would have gotten them third place on the varsity level at district. Two other top freshmen are 3200 meter people Shana Biggs (15:35) and Dianne Gregory (16:26).

Martin feels that the district will be highly competitive. "It will be just like the other sports in the district, in fact it might be more competitive than the district we were in last year," said Martin.

Martin says his team strength lies in the sprints and distance events. "With the freshmen we have more overall depth, and more talent. Our relays will be the question mark. If we workout hard, we will be strong, if not, we will be average. This could be the beginning of a dominating track program at Colorado High School."

Loraine tracksters looking forward to better season

The Loraine Bulldog boys and girls track teams will be looking for bigger and better things this track season.

Loraine girls coach Jimmy Fine lost only one participant from a track team that finished second in the district track meet last year behind frontrunner Roscoe.

The Bulldogs sent their 400 meter relay team, Leslie Rose in the shot put, and Hortencia (Tency) DeLoera in the 3200 meters to the Regional Track Meet last season.

Fine has two people back from that relay team which posted a 53.4 for second in district. The two returnees are DeLoera and Kathy Wright. They will team up with Margie Oliver and Shelia Darnell to comprise the relay team this year. Fine feels the girls are capable of running in the low 53's this season.

DeLoera took second in district with a 3200 meter time of 13:30. Rose is coming off of a banner year in the shot. She took second in district, second in regional and third at the State Track Meet in Austin. The talented junior had a best throw of 37-10, and has a good chance of becoming a state champion in the event this year.

"Leslie has been putting the shot consistently 36-37 feet in work out. I think it will take about a 41 or 42 feet throw to win state," Fine concluded.

Rose and Stephanie

McAdams will put up strong challenges in the discus also. Last year Rose finished third in the district. She had a best of 97-0, and has already been throwing that far this year. McAdams has thrown the discus 90 feet and the shot 33 feet.

Fine also feels that the 800 meter relay team of Wright, Darnell, DeLoera and Oliver is capable of running a 1:55, as compared to a 1:57 last year.

"Once we start working as a team, we will be faster than last year," explained Fine.

Other Bulldog hopefuls include Tina Vallejo in the 3200 meters, Darnell and Pat Alvarez in the 100, Mary and Judy Madrid in the 1600 and McAdams, Oliver, Vallejo and Kristi Moreno in the 1600 relay.

McAdams, Oliver and Tonya Troutt will compete in the long jump and triple jump. Fine says Oliver will be a factor in the triple jump. She is jumping about 30 feet now. "She is a hard worker, and she can do it," said Fine of Oliver.

Boys coach Ronald James will have his hands full with a roster of underclassmen. Jerry Darnell, Margarito Rodriguez and Adam Merket are the only seniors on the squad.

Darnell will be a good bet to do big things in the 400. Last year the swift senior posted a 52.0, and James feels that he is capable of going below that mark before the season ends.

The 400 relay team of Darnell, Aundra Rose, Ruben Garza and Martin Leija are capable of running a 46.0 in the 400 meters. According to James, Rose will run the 200 and could get in the 24's.

Other members of the Bulldog team are Gene White and Joe Esponiza in the 3200, Shane Vallery and Dwayne Linam in the 110 hurdles, Donny Vasquez in the 800, Linam and Garza in the 100, and Vallery in the 300 hurdles.

The 1600 relay will be made up of Merket, Garza, Rose and Darnell. John Wells, John McAdams and Rodriguez will be the weight people.

Tennis team downs Forsan

The Wolves tennis team had a tournament last Monday versus Forsan at the high school tennis courts, and the Pack came out ahead winning 14 of 25 matches.

TOPS meetings offer ladies encouragement during diet

Each meeting of TOPS starts off with the pledge: I am an intelligent person. I will control my emotions, not let my emotions control me. Every time I am tempted to use food to satisfy my frustrated desires, build up my injured ego or dull my senses I will remember, even though I overeat in private—My excess poundage is there for all the world to see. WHAT A FOOL I'VE BEEN.

Leader for the Colorado City chapter, Lillian Vest, says, "When we've gained weight, we feel guilty when we say, 'I am an intelligent person,' because it is not intelligent to overeat."

"The program has only one purpose," Mrs. Vest said, "and that's weight loss."

The name of the club—TOPS—is an acronym for Take Off Pounds Sensibly and one of the requirements for joining is a statement from your doctor noting your ideal weight for your height and frame and this becomes your personal target.

Your actual weight is never revealed though, Mrs. Vest said; only the weight recorder and her assistant know this information.

The bylaws of this international organization, which has been in existence since 1946, do on when and how to take a diet plan, leaving that up to the member and her doctor. However, there are rules stating anyone who takes diet pills is not allowed to compete for any of the prizes given for weight loss or maintenance.

Pregnant women can also be members of TOPS and the gaining of weight for them is not penalized unless they pass the mark set by their doctor as the maximum amount they should gain.

The major part of the program is for the members to encourage one another to stick to their diet and to share tips for eating less. Some encouragement is offered through prizes, such as a door prize given after a drawing of the names of those who have not gained weight between the weekly meetings.

Another encouragement is the possibility of being named Queen for the week. A member can become a Queen by showing a weight loss and keeping it off until the next meeting.

The member who is selected Queen wears a crown during the meeting and a crown pin during the week and also gets the "Queen money" for the week. The "Queen money" is a dime from each member.

Mrs. Vest said that the club used to have a "pink pig" and the member who gained the most weight has to take it home and put it in her front yard, but that practice is no longer followed because some of the members resented it and the purpose of the club is definitely not to embarrass anyone.

Membership in the club is $12 to join plus 50 cents per week for dues. Added to that is the 10 cents for "Queen money" and 10 cents per pound if you gain.

The reason for this, Mrs. Vest explained, is because "In a club that doesn't cost you anything at all, you will not lose."

Co-Leader Juanita Schaefer, a charter member of TOPS, said of the club, "It's done a lot for me. I haven't lost as much weight as I should have. I never have been down to my goal yet because I'd get discouraged and miss awhile and think, 'I'd better get back in there. And I enjoy the fellowship of it so much.'"

The fellowship of women who are "in the same boat" is important to most of the members, according to Mrs. Vest. She said a verbal poll was taken during the last meeting and that was the response of 99 percent of the group.

TOPS meets every Monday afternoon at 5 p.m. in the Housing Authority building and anyone interested in joining the club is invited to attend one of the meetings or contact either the Leader or Co-Leader for more information.

Methodist women meet

The United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church met at 4 p.m. Sunday, March 6 in the chapel of the church for the annual joint meeting of the Agape and Rose Circles, observing "The Call to Prayer and Self Denial."

The yearly event was initiated by the Women's Division of the Global Ministries of the United Methodist Churches.

Leslie Perkins, local unit coordinator of Christian Personhood led the planning of the program, "Shalom."

Prayer voices were heard from the members, led by Mac Perkin. Rochelle Smith read scriptures from Isaiah, Ezekiel and John and special music was presented by the Rainbow Choir consisting of Julie Hamby, Sherry Albin, Mitzie Wood, Melanie Aston and Becky Albin. Mimi Johnson, director of music, and Kathy Bassham, organist, accompanied them.

Mrs. Perkins announced that the 1983 offering would be divided equally between the national programs and the international programs. During the time for moments of reflection and alter call, special music was given by the Rainbow Choir.

Roy N. Byrd, Pastor First Presbyterian Church A Lenten Consideration

Time was when men worshipped graven images. But that practice has, for the most of mankind, passed. Nevertheless, man may still be idolatrous.

Consider devotion-devotion to race, to ideology, to beauty. Consider devotion to power, to success, to creeds, to science and technology, and the like. Devotion to any of these can become an obsession.

When our hearts are so obsessed that devotion to God is displaced, have we not in a sense become idolatrous?

In this season of Lent, let us examine ourselves to see if there be anything idolatrous in our hearts. Let us renew our devotion to God that anything idolatrous may be displaced. Let us, as the Psalmist wrote, "Give to God the glory due His name alone."

Pet owners watch out for disease

Dr. Nancy Bozeman of the Colorado Veterinary Hospital has announced that pet owners need to be alert to the occurrence of Canine Ehrlichiosis, a disease that is carried and transmitted by the Brown dog tick which is prevalent in the Mitchell County area.

She reported that the Veterinary Hospital confirmed several cases of Canine Ehrlichiosis in dogs last year and expects increasing problems this year due to last year's heavy tick populations.

According to Dr. Bozeman, after the bite of an infected tick, there is an incubation period of one to three weeks before signs of the disease begin to appear.

Those signs are: fever, nasal and eye discharges, loss of appetite, weight loss, depression and anemia (noted by paleness of gums).

Signs may be mild and transitory or recur with severity, she said. More severe signs are emaciation, erosions of mouth, swelling of the abdomen, gastroenteritis and death. Death may occur within a few hours to several days after severe anemia leads to hemorrhaging episodes.

Golden Agers meet

When 54 members of the Westbrook Golden Age Club convened for their monthly meeting, Ann Gregory talked to them about the cheese and butter program.

The club members decided to vote on the matter and then report to her.

After the business meeting, the String Band entertained while others played dominoes.

Refreshments were served by those with March birthdays with Cody Hays as chairman.

Those attending the meeting were A. G. and Minnie Anderson, Bessie Shaw, Rachel Ruffin, Theresa Jackson, Lizzie Lewis, Irene Jackson, Viola Ellett, Nella Adams, Elmo and Ada Daniel, Edgar and Bertha Andrews and Wayne Newton.

Others present were Herman Minor, Frances Proctor, Mr. Hays, Della Self, Julia Warren, Velma Davis, Doc Alvis, Oren and Louise Moore, N. W. Stokes, Gussie and Harry Harris, Ethel Clawson, Inez and Sophia Oliver, Gip and Neva Harmon and Marie Bassham.

Also attending were Fannie Morris, Tim Mize, Ozella Brookshire, Wanda Sikes, A. G. and Dru Board, Muriel Thurman, Lester and Jewel Horn, Willie Brooks, Marvin and Ruby Claxton, Maggie Hamrick, Jack Kitchens, Alvin and Lela Byrd, Hoyt Roberts, Lucile Stone, Dutch Doss and two visitors, Eddie and Ann Gregory.

Available treatment includes using high levels of antibiotics with supportive measures and is effective if begun early in the course of the disease, Dr. Bozeman said.

She stated that effective tick control is imperative, adding that control includes spraying the yard, dipping and pets and use of tick and flea collars.

Local teachers may receive raise

Annual salaries for Mitchell County teachers could increase by $1,600 to $8,350 if either of two bills recently introduced in the Texas Legislature becomes law.

The Texas State Teachers Association reports that teachers in the Colorado Independent School District are currently paid $11,100 to $21,100 annually from state funds. Local contributions bring the starting annual salary for teachers with bachelor's degrees to $12,110. The maximum annual salary for a local teacher with a masters degree is $22,100.

Senate Bill 760, introduced by Sens. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin, and Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, and Rep. Matt Garcia, D-San Antonio, would replace the present salary schedule. The bill would raise teachers' starting salaries and increase rewards for career teachers.

"We can't have a Cadillac (education) system on a Model-T budget," Parker explained as he said the TSTA-endorsed bill might entail a tax increase. His bill would increase CISD annual teacher salaries to $17,000 to $30,450 in the 1983-84 school year.

Another bill, introduced last month by Sen. Grant Jones, D-Abilene, and Rep. Bill Haley, D-Center, would raise teacher salaries by a more modest amount. Jones' bill would raise salaries to $15,190 to $23,800.

"Public school finance has many problems to it other than teachers' salaries, such as maintenance, operation and transportation," Jones said. Jones feels funding only teachers' salaries while ignoring the rest would do a great injustice to Texas' students.

In 1981, the 91 teachers who teach 1,324 students in the CISD earned an average 0 percent more than other Texas teachers, according to Texas Education Agency figures. Across Mitchell County, 125 teachers averaged 1 percent less in salary than other teachers in the state. A total of 1,744 students attended the three Mitchell County school districts in 1981.

Environmental seminar to be held

An Environmental Conservation Seminar will be held at Abilene Christian University starting May 30 and ending June 30, according to D. M. Smith vice-chairman of the Mitchell Soil and Water Conservation District board of directors.

Smith stated that the Mitchell SWCD will offer three $150.00 scholarships to teachers or administrators who are interested in taking the course. This is a graduate level course with three hours credit in education, biology or agriculture.

Topics will include soils, air, forests, solar energy, wildlife, watersheds, solid wastes, grassland, fossil fuels and energy conservation in relation to our environment. Teachers will compile information for teaching units on topics of their choice.

There will be field trips and demonstrations in addition to classroom activities. Speakers will be experts in their fields and are from various parts of the state.

Teachers or administrators interested in receiving a scholarship to the seminar can pick up an application blank at the district office in the G-Kell Building or write to the Mitchell SWCD at P.O. Box 910 in Colorado City and an application blank will be mailed to them.

Typing class offered

An eight week beginning and intermediate typing class will begin as soon as 10 persons enroll at the Wallace Center in Colorado City.

Classes will meet on Tuesdays from 6:30-9:30 p.m. with Margaret Trulock as the instructor. The fee is $15 per person plus a $5 book deposit. Students are to register at the Wallace Center office.

The course will cover multiple letter styles, carbon, corrections, use of stencils and tables, with emphasis on "on-the-job-technique."

Myers speaks to Garden Club

Moon sign gardening was the subject of the talk Frances Myers presented to the Colorado City Garden Club during the meeting on Wednesday, March 9.

She explained that planting by the signs of the moon and stars was not an absolute science or else "the commercial growers would have been out of business long ago."

However, she told the group some of the signs for planting, such as: never plant on the day of the full moon or the day of the change from one quarter to another; vegetation producing yield above the ground should be seeded during the first and second quarter of the moon when the climate is right; transplanting should be done in the second quarter of the moon; vegetation producing yield underground, such as onions, carrots, potatoes, radishes and peanuts, should be planted during the third and fourth quarters, when the moon is in the fruitful signs.

During the business session, the maintenance of the club's traffic circles was discussed and a work day was set for April.

TEHA Club meets March 9

Billie Martin was the guest speaker for the Looney TEHA Club when they met at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 9 in the Lone Wolf Medallion Room.

Mrs. Martin presented a program on Citizenship, defining a good citizen as "One who devotes his life to striving to help others."

During the business session, plans were finalized for members to work in the food booth at the Farm Auction on Saturday, March 12.

It was also announced that 10 members plan to attend the TEHA District Meeting in Sweetwater on March 31.

Hostess Etta Lee Gibson served refreshments of cookies, cheese bits, popcorn, punch and coffee to Lennie Williams, Alamrene Claxton, Dolly Jarman, Madge Sheppard, Catherine Shurtleff, Eddie Barclay, Bea McGuire, Iva Prescott, Angie Harris and guests Mrs. Martin and Lena Bulard.

McAdams runner-up

Stephanie McAdams, an 18-year-old senior from Loraine High School was named first runner-up at the Sweetwater Rattlesnake Queen Pageant Thursday night in Sweetwater.

Miss McAdams is the daughter of Marsha and Roland Rickard of Loraine. Her honors at Loraine High School include class president, basketball captain and football sweetheart. This year she was chosen to the All-Mitchell County basketball squad, and is also a letter-woman in track.

Nancy Ficken of Sweetwater was named

Miss Snake Charmer after defeating 16 other contestants to win a $1,000 scholarship. The pageant is held annually in conjunction with the Sweetwater Rattlesnake Round-up, which is celebrating its 25th anniversary.

Pageant contests are nothing new to Miss McAdams. Last year in April at the Miss Teenage Texas Pageant in Clarendon the Loraine native placed in the top five. This year in April she will compete for Miss Teenage Texas Pageant honors in Fort Worth.

Fallout exercise to be held in county

Mitchell County will be among 96 counties participating in a radiological fallout exercise to be conducted March 15 in all Disaster Districts in Regions 4 and 6.

Gaylord Price, foreman of the County Maintenance Department of the Texas Highway Department, said that the general public would not even be aware of exercise, which is conducted on a yearly basis.

The main purpose of the exercise, he explained, is to find out how long it takes to relay information to a specified point and to give dispatchers an opportunity to become familiar with the terminology used in this type of situation.

Working together with local emergency management coordinators will be the Governor's Division of Emergency Management, the Texas Department of Health, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, the Texas Department of Public Safety, and Region 6 of the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

The exercise allows local emergency management coordinators the opportunity to test their equipment and capabilities for reporting fallout problems and solutions to district, state and federal operating centers.

Similar exercises have been held throughout the state with a great deal of success, Robert Lansford, State Coordinator for the Division of Emergency Management, said. "Each time an exercise is conducted everyone learns more and procedures are improved," he said.

The Health Department's Bureau of Radiological Control has placed radiological monitoring equipment in localities statewide, and volunteers have been trained to advise citizens on when and how to take shelter.

In the exercise participants are warned of a possible nuclear attack, and later a nuclear detonation is simulated. Emergency Operating Centers in the districts are then activated, and emergency personnel plot and predict fallout based on wind speed and direction. Radiological defense plans for each area's population are also reviewed.

The Highway Department and DPS communications systems will be used as the network for reporting. Coordination for the exercise will be provided by the Texas Emergency Management Council from the underground Emergency Operating Center at the Texas Department of Public Safety in Austin, and DPS headquarters in Region 4 (Midland) and Region 6 (Waco).

Cook's Corner

Works cooking into a busy life

Sandra Biggs

Although Sandra Biggs spends a lot of time in the kitchen, she says she only cooks one meal a day, but she really enjoys cooking. Her family's lifestyle keeps her pretty busy—her husband, Dan coaches an Opti-Ms. basketball team when he's not working and their two daughters, Shana, 14, and Sunnye, 11, have a lot of activities.

Mrs. Biggs learned how to cook at an early age. She explains, "My grandmother would let me do anything I wanted to and I spent a lot of time with her in the summer, so I started when I was 10 or 11 or so."

She carried new cooking skills home with her after the summer was over. "My mother worked so I usually cooked dinner for my mother and dad and brother," she noted.

Her favorite kind of cooking is "different dishes. I love to try new recipes," Mrs. Biggs said.

Three of her family's favorites are listed below.

DILL CASSEROLE BREAD
2½-3 c. flour
2 T. sugar
1 T. instant minced onion
2 t. dill seed
1¼ t. salt
½ t. soda
1 pkg. active dry yeast
1 c. creamed cottage cheese
¼ c. water
1 T. butter
1 egg
In a large mixer bowl, combine 1 c. flour, sugar, onion, dill seed, salt, soda and dry yeast. In saucepan, heat cottage cheese, water and butter until mixture is warm. Add egg and warm liquid to flour mixture, blend at lowest speed until moistened; beat 3 minutes at medium speed.
By hand, stir in remaining flour to form a stiff dough. Cover and let rise in warm place until light and double in size.

Stir down batter. Turn into well greased 8 inch round casserole. Cover and let rise in warm place until light.

Bake in round loaf pan at 350 degrees 35 to 40 minutes. Brush with butter.

MISSISSIPPI MUD CAKE

One-third c. cocoa
2 sticks margarine
1 small can coconut
1½ c. chopped pecans
4 eggs
2 c. sugar
1 t. vanilla
1½ c. flour
1 jar marshmallow cream

ICING

½ c. margarine
One-third c. cocoa
½ c. Pet milk
1 box powdered sugar
2 t. vanilla
Cake: Mix oleo, add sugar and cocoa; cream well; add eggs, one at a time, beating after each egg; add flour, mix well; add pecans, coconut and vanilla; pour into 13 X 9 X 2½ greased and floured pan; bake at 350 degrees; remove from oven and while hot add 1 jar of marshmallow cream over cake; over that pour the icing.

Icing: melt margarine, add cocoa, milk, powdered sugar; beat until smooth and add vanilla.

CHICKEN TETRAZZINI

¾ c. butter
¾ c. flour
½ t. salt
¾ t. pepper
1 c. chicken broth
1 c. whipping cream
2 T. sherry
1 pkg. (7 oz.) spaghetti, cooked and drained
2 cups cubed chicken
1 can sliced mushrooms
1 small can sliced ripe olives
½ c. grated Parmesan cheese
Melt butter in large saucepan over low heat. Blend in flour and seasonings. Cook over low heat, stirring until mixture is smooth and bubbly. Remove from heat. Stir in broth and cream.
