The ASCS county committee met Friday, Aug. 5 and submitted a recommendation to the State Disaster Committee asking for a two months extension on emergency grazing on soil bank and diverted acres.

The program as it now stands runs to the end of this month.

Acceptance or refusal of the recommendation will not be known until the latter part of August.

FIRST '66 GRAIN SORGHUM
Robert Barjenbruch, left, delivered Wellington's first load of 1966 grain sorghum, cut from an experimental field on which he is seeking to grow two crops this year. At right is Velman Warrick of Warrick Feed Store, where the load was brought.

Barjenbruch Delivers First '66 Grain Sorghum

The 1966 grain sorghum harvest opened Friday, Aug. 5 when Robert Barjenbruch delivered the first load from his farm on the county line south of Wellington.

The load was delivered to Warrick Feed Store and was cut from a 20-acre irrigated field which yielded approximately 3,000 pounds per acre.

This is a month before the grain harvest will get into swing, Velman Warrick said.

The grain has not been sold and Warrick said it was too early to establish a market price here.

There was more to it than the fact that Barjenbruch opened the 1966 market. This was the first load cut from an experimental field in which a study will be made to determine if two crops of grain sorghum a season can be feasibly grown in Collingsworth County.

Immediately after the field was harvested, Barjenbruch shredded the stalks and started his irrigation and fertilizing schedule all over again to let the grain sorghum grow from the old stalk. If it works as planned, the second crop should be cut the last of October or first of November.

This is an experimental variety, developed in the Panhandle for two-crops-per-season growth. Seed has been available for three or four years in limited quantity, but this is the first year, as far as Barjenbruch and Warrick know, that it has been planted in Collingsworth County and this is the only field they know of.

Grain Sorghum Tour Slated for August 19

A special grain sorghum tour will be conducted Friday, Aug. 19 when two farms in the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program will be visited. The tour will begin at 9 a.m.

These will be the John Brim farm six miles south of Wellington and the Earl Lynn Bartlett farm north of Salt Fork.

Dwane Scott, research demonstration assistant for the program, and County Agent Sam Helmers are in charge of the tour.

They explained that this is set ahead of the regular research demonstration test plot tour, as the grain sorghum is ready now and will be harvested before the regular tour later this fall.

The two plots to be visited represent a radical departure from the traditional method of raising grain sorghum, even under irrigation. Three points to be discussed will be:

1. Grain sorghum production by narrow-row plantings under irrigation.

2. The use of chemical herbicides for weed control in grain sorghum.

3. Varieties adapted for irrigation in Collingsworth County.

"The plots that will be visited on the tour should yield over 6,000 pounds per acre," Helmers said. "They are planted in 10-inch rows on the bed with chemical herbicides applied for weed control."

The tour will start from the east side of the square at 9 a.m.

Anyone wishing further information prior to the tour should contact Helmers or Scott at the county agent's office in the courthouse.

A youth rodeo will be one of the top entertainment features of this year's Collingsworth County Free Fair, with an added division for "Old Timers." The dates are Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 10 and 11 at the VFW Rodeo Arena.

More Floats Sought For '66 Fair Parade

The largest number of floats ever entered in a Collingsworth County Fair parade is the aim of this year's parade promotion committee, Mrs. Earl Hunter, chairman, announced.

"There is no parade theme, and floats may carry out any theme or idea they wish," she explained.

"This year we especially want representation from the outlying areas, Dodson, Samnorwood, Dozier, Quail and the smaller communities," she continued.

In naming those eligible to enter, Mrs. Hunter said that this includes any community organization or club, churches, schools, business houses, or even individuals. Both adult and youth organizations are included.

Mrs. Hunter stressed that should she fail to see the heads of any of these organizations, they should consider that they, too, are invited to enter a float.

This year's parade will be slowed down as it passes around the square and in front of the spectators, Mrs. Hunter said. This is to give viewers and judges an opportunity to see the entries better.

Organizations planning to have entries are asked to contact Mrs. Hunter or other members of the committee, Mrs. Ernest Harwell or Mrs. Jimmie Kelso, or leave word at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Nurse Training Act Aids Area Student Nurses

Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing, Amarillo, was one of the first nursing schools to receive funds to cover the cost of a nursing education program under the Federal Nurse Training Act of 1964. Since 1964, when the school received full approval, 39 students have received partial or full funds to cover the cost of their education.

Provisions of the loan cover the two semesters of college and five semesters of Nursing. The maximum that a student may receive in any academic year is $1,000. Loan fund money may be used for college or nursing tuition, living expense, child care and personal expense while pursuing a full-time course of study.

Loans are repayable in equal or graduated periodic installments, with the right of the borrower to accelerate payment over a 10-year period beginning one year after the student has completed her full-time course of study. Both the unpaid balance of the loan and its accrued interest are cancelled in the event of death or permanent disability of the borrower.

Borrowers may cancel up to 50 percent of their loan for full-time employment as a Registered Professional Nurse in any public or non-private institution or agency. For each complete year of service, the rate of cancellation shall be 10 percent of the loan.

The Federal Nurse Training Act was enacted by Congress to help alleviate the critical shortage of nurses in the U.S.

Students may enroll for the college and nursing courses during the fall or spring semester. For additional information on enrollment contact the Director, School of Nursing, Northwest Texas oHspital, P.O. Box 1110, Amarillo, Texas 79105.

AUSTIN.—Approval of $271,494 in matching Federal funds for the development of outdoor recreation facilities at Palo Duro Canyon State Park has been received from the Denver Regional office of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission Chairman Will Odom announced.

The total cost of the project including the state's share, will be $542,988.

Two new concession facilities will be built at the vast 15,103-acre Panhandle park.

One will be a 2500 square foot concession building to be located in the floor of the canyon and will serve the entire park. This facility will offer the visitor grocery items, prepared foods, souvenirs, ice, oil, gasoline, sundry drugs, notions and camping supplies.

The other concession area was included in the addition to the 1,300 seating capacity amphitheatre. This addition also includes a prop storage room, a ticket booth and dressing rooms.

Upon completion of the project, Palo Duro Canyon State Park will provide 26 trailer camp sites, 45 tent camp sites, and 75 picnic sites. Other facilities include rest rooms and showers, an interpretive building, and a park headquarters building. Miscellaneous items include the electrical system, roads, boundary fencing, and park signs.

A complete new water system will be built to support both the existing facilities and those included in the project, as well as those planned for future development.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park is the largest of Texas state parks, and is located southeast of Amarillo in Randall and Armstrong counties. Visitation to the park was 256,439 in 1964. The additional facilities will be completed by 1968, at which time visitation is expected to reach 432,000.

Chairman Odom, state liaison officer for the administration of the Fund in Texas, says this project has been approved by the Denver Regional BOR office and now awaits final approval in Washington. The Federal matching funds are made available under the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965.

Bonds or notes so issued shall mature serially or otherwise not more than thirty (30) years from their respective dates.

"The Texas A & M University System and all of the institutions constituting such System as hereinabove enumerated, and The University of Texas System, and all of the institutions constituting such System as hereinabove enumerated, shall not receive any General Revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of General Revenue funds.

"Said Boards are severally authorized to pledge the whole or any part of the respective interests of Texas A & M University and of The University of Texas in the income from the Permanent University Fund, as such interests are now apportioned by Chapter 42 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas, for the purpose of securing the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. The Permanent University Fund may be invested in such bonds or notes.

"All bonds or notes issued pursuant hereto shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and when so approved shall be incontestable. This Amendment shall be self-enacting provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing any obligation heretofore created by the issuance of any outstanding notes or bonds under this Section by the respective Boards prior to the adoption of this Amendment but any such outstanding notes or bonds shall be paid in full, both principal and interest, in accordance with the terms of such contracts."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed on them the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment withdrawing Arlington State College from participation in the Permanent University Fund."

NUMBER TWELVE ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 48 proposing an Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts created under Article IX of the Constitution.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 9, Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 9. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of hospital districts composed of one or more counties or all or any part of one or more counties with power to issue bonds for the purchase, construction, acquisition, repair or renovation of buildings and improvements and equipping same, for hospital purposes; providing for the transfer to the hospital district of the title to any land, buildings, improvements and equipment located wholly within the district which may be jointly or separately owned by any city, town or county, providing that any district so created shall assume full responsibility for providing medical and hospital care for its needy inhabitants and assume the outstanding indebtedness incurred by cities, towns and counties for hospital purposes prior to the creation of the district, if same are located wholly within its boundaries, and a pro rata portion of such indebtedness based upon the then last approved tax assessment rolls of the included cities, towns and counties if less than all the territory thereof is included within the district boundaries; providing that after its creation no other municipality or political subdivision shall have the power to levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations for hospital purposes or for providing medical care within the boundaries of the district; providing for the levy of annual taxes at a rate not to exceed seventy-five cents (75c) on the One Hundred Dollar valuation of all taxable property within such district for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the district's bonds, the indebtedness assumed by it and its maintenance and operating expenses, providing that such district shall not be created or such tax authorized unless approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors thereof voting at an election called for the purpose; and providing further that the support and maintenance of the district's hospital system shall never become a charge against or obligation of the State of Texas nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of such district.

Provided, however, that no district shall be created except by act of the Legislature and then only after thirty (30) days' public notice to the district affected, and in no event may the Legislature provide for a district to be created without the affirmative vote of a majority of the taxpaying voters in the district concerned.

The Legislature may also provide for the dissolution of hospital districts provided that a process is afforded by statute for:

(1) determining the desire of a majority of the qualified voters within the district to dissolve it;

(2) disposing of or transferring the assets, if any, of the district; and

(3) satisfying the debts and bond obligations, if any, of the district, in such manner as to protect the interest of the citizens within the district, including their collective property rights in the assets and property of the district, provided, however, that any grant from federal funds, however dispensed, shall be considered an obligation to be repaid in satisfaction and provided that no election to dissolve shall be held more often than once each year. In such connection, the statute shall provide against disposal or transfer of the assets of the district except for due compensation unless such assets are transferred to another governmental agency, such as a county, embracing such district and using such transferred assets in such a way as to benefit citizens formerly within the district.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts.

"AGAINST the constitutional amendment providing the method and manner for dissolution of hospital districts."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Larger Crowds Attend 1966 Wellington High Homecoming

Three hundred forty-nine former students of Wellington high school and their guests registered for the annual Ex-Students reunion Saturday, Aug. 6.

Not only was this the largest number to attend in several years, more active interest was noted by many of those present.

Dora Fern Durfey Warrick, a 1932 graduate, was crowned Homecoming Queen at the afternoon session. The first runner-up was Mary Ruth Stall of Pampa and tying for second runner-up were Patsy Harper Mitchell of Wellington and Beth Bowen White of Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. Donald Curry crowned the winner, Mrs. Warrick, and presented her a bouquet of roses. The runners-up received white carnation corsages. Mrs. Curry acted in the absence of her husband, the president of the Ex-Students Association.

Mrs. Bob McAlister was mistress of ceremonies.

This year's recipient of the Ex-Student Scholarship, Kathy Davis, was introduced. She had received the scholarship at the commencement exercise.

More than 200 were present for the barbecue Saturday evening at Ellison Park.

Classes with the largest representation were those with individual class reunions, 1928-29; 1946, 1951 and 1955.

The homecoming dance ended the reunion.

Those who registered during the reunion were:

Dr. Holman Joins Staff of San Diego College

Dr. Dorothy Jane Holman

Dr. Dorothy Jane Holman has been appointed as an Assistant Professor of Education and Political Science at San Diego State College, San Diego, Calif., for the coming academic year 1966-67. She will teach two courses in Political Science, a Social Studies Methods Course, and supervise secondary school student teachers in the public schools in San Diego.

Having graduated from the University of Kansas in the June commencement exercises with her doctorate degree, Mrs. Holman has just completed her dissertation study entitled "A Study and Analysis of the Case Method Approach of Teaching Government in High School." Her research traced some case methodology from its introduction in the Harvard Law School to its wide adaptation today in many subject areas.

During her four years at the University of Kansas, Dr. Holman has participated in two major areas of research outside of her academic studies and teaching. She was a contributor to the special project of National Education Association on the teaching of Communism in the public schools, which was a part of "Project on Instruction" publications.

During the 1965-66 year, she was the pilot project coordinator for an experimental project in Lawrence High School in World History, which was entitled "Teaching the Concept of Mankind in World History." This project was sponsored by the Council of Mankind, Santa Monica, Calif.

In 1963, "The Texas Outlook" the official magazine of Texas State Teachers' Association, published an article of hers on how "Case Studies Revive Student Interest." Her B.S. and M.S. were granted from North Texas State University in Denton.

Dr. Holman and her daughters will be visiting in Wellington during August before moving to San Diego. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riggs.

Pre-Registering Set at CJC

The registrar's office of Clarendon College has announced that pre-registration of freshmen students only will be held during the period of Aug. 22 to 31. Office hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 12 on Saturday.

The purpose of pre-registration is to allow students to complete their class schedules prior to the time of regular registration. Such an arrangement is an advantageous one, particularly for the student who often feels dewildered and frustrated with his first experience of enrolling in college. It allows him ample time for consultation and insures his admittance to classes which might otherwise already be filled and consequently closed.

Mrs. Jean Moore, registrar, advises all freshmen students to take advantage of this convenience offered by Clarendon College and complete their pre-registration before the Aug. 31 deadline.

OM Reunion Set August 20

The OM Old Settlers reunion will be held at Lake Hall Saturday, Aug. 20, according to Mrs. J. B. Caveness of Hollis, secretary of the reunion.

The noon meal will be catered by a catering service.

All old-timers of the OM community are urged to attend.

Black Plastic Raises Yields of Cantaloupes

HEMPSTEAD — Drive by Roland Dreahn's farm on U.S. highway 290 near here and you'll see two strips of shiny black plastic along the ground. Cantaloupes are growing up through the plastic.

Looks kind of odd at first. If you stop and talk to Dreahn, he'll tell you that so far this year he's harvested 1,490 pounds of cantaloupes from those two rows. Two identical rows — except for the plastic — have yielded a measly 60 pounds to date.

In this light, it doesn't look so odd, it seems almost fantastic instead.

Dreahn is using the plastic in a demonstration for the Waller County Agricultural Agent, Burl Richardson. Richardson is out to show the truck garden farmers in Waller County the benefits of using the black plastic mulch. Dreahn's demonstration is a good talking point.

"Actually," says County Agent Richardson, "the rows without the plastic will yield more than 60 pounds. But it will come later — and the early-season price is nearly always better." He figures the rows without plastic may yield 500 pounds at the most. All the rows are 410 feet long.

Richardson says benefits of the plastic are getting early yield (and the higher price) and a higher yield. Reason for the higher, early yield is the plastic conserves moisture and absorbs sunlight — allowing earlier planting and faster germination.

Also, there is less cultivation labor since weeds won't grow up through the plastic. Nutgrass is the exception. Don't use plastic on ground where there is nutgrass, says Richardson, unless the soil is sterilized first.

The plastic comes in rolls 3 to 4 feet wide. It is rolled down the row before planting, and each edge covered slightly with dirt to hold it down. Then, holes are punched and the seeds planted.

Dreahn says the plastic keeps his cantaloupes from rotting since they rest on the plastic instead of the ground. The plastic can also be used on watermelons, tomatoes, and most other vegetables, he says.

A Reunion Sunday Honors the Pioneers of Two Communities

Among the reunions that are so much a part of the summer season, special note should be taken of the one coming up Sunday, August 14. This is of the old settlers of the Arlie and Loco communities and their descendants.

The people who settled there were among the first in this area to farm. A surprising number of landowners in those two communities are the children or grandchildren of those who put that very land under plow.

As the tide of pioneers moved westerward, these men and women stopped, for they saw in this fertile, level country the home they sought. Their imprint on the Greenbelt country remains.

Those who are planning this reunion and those who will carry it out are to be commended as they pay tribute each year on a hot August Sunday to those who came here first.

Woodrow W. Givens, chosen Driver of the Year by the American Trucking Associations, has driven more than 2.3 million miles without an accident. Figuring an average of 10,000 miles a year, the average private motorist would take 230 years to equal that record.

"All Weather" Cattle Need Little Care

HUNTSVILLE. — There's a herd of what could be called "all weather" cattle on a small ranch near here.

They are heat tolerant in the summer, winter hardy during the cold months, relatively disease resistant and the mother cows raise healthy calves.

The cattle are an unusual cross — ordinary range cows crossed with a Scotch Highland bull. Raymond Blalock, a Huntsville eye surgeon, is the owner of the cattle. They're the only Scotch Highland cattle in Texas, he says.

He crossed the Scotch bull with Brahman, Hereford and Jersey type mothers. "The Brahman type mothers and the Scotch bull gave the best calves," he said. Blalock says the cattle are extremely thrifty. They will eat almost anything that grows — including rosebushes, bark and weeds. This means little or no supplemental feeding is necessary, even during drouth or winter.

Walker County Agricultural Agent Wesley Sherrill says the cattle are getting the heat tolerance and disease resistance from the Brahman blood and the cold hardiness from the Scotch Highland blood.

Sherrill says the Scotch cattle are naturally slow growing —they grow up for nine years. But when they are crossed with a Brahman, the result is a rapid growing calf.

Blalock said his calves weigh about 500 pounds without creep feed at weaning time last year. When asked if the cows had a high percentage calf crop, he answered "One year my cattle had a 104% calf crop—every cow had a calf and one had twins." He said the calf crop is consistently over 90%.

The Scotch Highland cattle originated in Scotland, where the winters are severe. Even here, they grow long coats of hair in winter, but shed it in the summer. They are a British breed, although they don't resemble the Herefords, Shorthorns or Angus.

Blalock said he experimented with Hereford and dairy type mothers crossed with the Scotch Highland bull. But he is satisfied that the Brahman makes the best mother. Next year, he will breed the purebred Scotch bull to purebred Brahman mothers.

Meanwhile the "all weather" cattle are eating and growing —and turning a nice profit.

Ti-i-ca Holds Formal Presentation in Garden Party Setting Sat. Evening

In a setting of nature's own color scheme—the colors of the rainbow — Ti-ica staged its presentation ball on August 2 in the garden of one of its sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hurst.

The covered patio area was outlined in high banks of greenery, adorned with gigantic butterflies which glowed in the dark. A huge bumble bee was motivated and made his flight near greenery and a white, stately column.

Sharon Daves, new Ti-ica president, welcomed the guests to "A Summer's Dream."

Ti-i-ca's Beaux were then presented as six usherettes sang a parody routine about the beaux. With special lighting effects the girls' garden costumes glowed as Mark Owens and John R Henard III were presented. Usherettes were Becky Burba, Barbara Skidmore, Kathy Scott, Shirlene Bohannon, Lora Martin and Glenda Chandler.

The beaux served as masters of ceremonies.

Guests were invited to "Dream," by a saxophone solo by Nancy Thomas and a vocal trio by Linda Winton, Cherry Lewis and Regina Ferguson.

Strolling into the "Summer's Dream" were the members of the 1966 pledge chapter: Dee Chappell, escorted by Gary Mike Gulley; Lillian McKinney, escorted by Mike Peters; Mary Tingle, escorted by Nat Holton; and Melinda Williams, escorted by George Kopp.

Each of the honorees carried a white illusion parasol, accented with flowers matching her evening gown. All the flowers glowed as did the parasols when whirled.

This 1966 pledge chapter sang "A Summer Place" with organ and saxophone accompaniment.

Active senior members carried lacy white fans with flowers to match their evening gowns; these flowers also glowed in the dark. Presented were Linda Winton, escorted by Danny Martin; Mitzie Hartman, escorted by Robert Blevins; Regina Ferguson and Sharon Daves, escorted by the Ti-i-ca Beaux to an area where gifts were presented to the beaux and the Ti-i-ca sponsors —Mrs. Calvin Hurst, Mrs. Heber Brantley and Mrs. B. M. Sims.

Punch was served under a tree from a round table, spiraled with jade leaves. The exquisite punch bowl was a huge sculpted watermelon, crested with glazed white grape clusters.

Approximately 150 guests of all ages attended Ti-i-ca's "Summer's Dream."

With no seats available it has been necessary to turn away several hundred at the park entrance the past week.

The show will continue until Sept. 5.

'66 Campers Snub Cabins

CADDO.—It's the camping trade—oh joy—that's changing things around Possum Kingdom State Park near here.

That would be the back-to-nature trade passing up modern, air-conditioned, completely furnished, all-the-comforts-of-home cabins to knuckle down with the rugged outdoors.

And this would be the visitors who formerly had to wait weeks before they could reserve one of the six cabins on the lake shore.

Now, some of the cabins are going begging, while the campers have overflowed into the picnic grounds into an area providing the most primitive facilities.

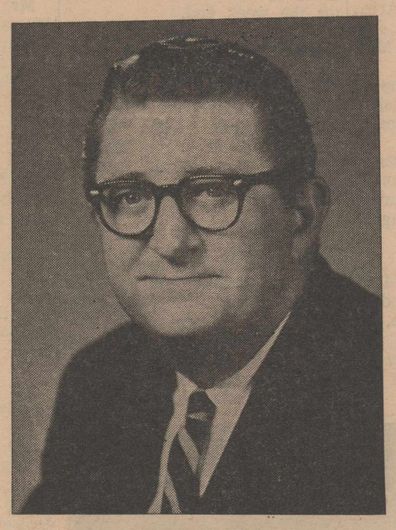

"It's just something that has developed," said Supt. B. C. Rogers, a park veteran who has operated the Possum Kingdom facility for 12 years. "These campers are practically sleeping in the trees."

Trio Studies Art at Hollis

Three Wellington students studied art under a former Hollywood cartoonist this summer.

Judy Jones, Ann Smith and Joey Manuel enrolled in the beginners art class with Bruce McIntyre in late June. They made so much progress that he recommended them for the advanced class in July. These three students attended the advanced class and drew detailed facial expressions, concentrating on eyes, ears, nose and lips.

Mr. McIntyre is head of the Carlsbad Audio Visual Department of the public schools in California. He was a former Walt Disney cartoonist. After completitng military service he wanted to be on his own and teach the basics of art so many people have missed.

He teaches in the California public schools during the fall terms. For six years he worked through the University of Oklahoma. He has taught summer sessions of art in Ardmore, Muskogee, Altus, Moore, Hollis and several other towns in Oklahoma.

This was his seventh year to be in Hollis. Some students had studied beginning and intermediate art under him in Hollis for all seven years. This was the first year he had enough students ready for an advanced class.

After his sessions here he conducted classes in Tulia, and McPherson, Kansas.

Set Experimental Hunt Deadline

AUSTIN.—The wheels are beginning to move toward the concluding decisions on the 1966 waterfowl season, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

This was reported as final word was given sportsmen that Aug. 8 was the deadline for the second experiment for blue wing, green wing and cinnamon teal, Sept. 10-18.

The date is expected momentarily for the annual meeting of the Central Flyaway Council to receive fall flight forecasts and to consider recommendations for the 1966-67 waterfowl season.

The Director of the Sports Fisheries and Wildlife Bureau of the United States Interior Department will convene his water advisory committee in Washington Aug. 9 and shape the framework for possible harvest dates, after considering the various flyway councils recommendation.

The framework of open season length, shooting hours and bag limits should be presented to the various states by mid-August.

The actual decisions will be announced in late August after the Bureau has relayed the state's preference to the Secrtary of the Interior.

SALT FORK SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

RANGE ROTATIONS INCREASE GRAZING
By Stephen Qualls

Rotation of livestock on range land has increased the amount of grazing available up to 30% on several Collingsworth County ranches. Range rotation can be defined as grazing under a system where one or more pastures are rested at planned intervals throughout the grazing season.

To understand why this practice will increase grass production, one must understand the basic methods by which a plant produces forage. Simple sugar, or plant food, is produced in the leaves of the plant. This plant food is used first to produce an abundant root system. An abundant root system is a must for abundant forage production. The deeper the plant roots, the more soil area from which water and nutrients can be extracted.

Continued overuse of the plant reduces the root system, therefore, the ability of the plant to obtain water and nutrients from the soil is decreased.

Range deferment gives the plant time to establish an adequate root system, therefore, more forage production results.

There are several systems which can be employed. This will depend upon the size of the operating unit and the amount of resources available. The most popular system used today is the four-pasture system. It involves a systematic rotation - rest cycle in which one pasture is rested and the remaining three are grazed for a set length of time.

Systematic rotations can be set up on a three pasture system, or a two pasture system.

These rotations are usually employed by larger ranches. The most popular rotation system on smaller units involves rotations between native rangeland and supplemental pastures such as Johnson-grass. The best results from this type of rotation are obtained where all summer grazing is provided by supplemental pastures. This provides a growing season deferment for the native pastures, therefore, excellent winter pastures are available.

Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service will assist in the planning of the system best suited for your particular case. Rotation systems can be worked into a long time range improvement plan.

USE OF IRRIGATION WATER
By Billy J. Gunter, SCS

Recently a chart was published to help farmers determine when to irrigate. Some wells in the Salt Fork District are weak. Some of the stronger ones are used to irrigate large areas. Therefore, water management is important.

Irrigation water should be applied in accordance with the needs of the crop and characteristics of the soil and topography.

Some of the purposes of striving for better management of irrigation water are:

1. More efficient use of available water.
2. More uniform stand of crop.
3. More uniform growth of crop.
4. Optimum growth under existing conditions.

The above adds up to the greatest return for each dollar spent on irrigation and at the same time conserve soil and water.

For further information or technical assistance, contact your local Soil Conservation Service office.

Tree Damage Tax Deductible

The value of shade or ornamental trees damaged by high winds, tornadoes or other acts of nature is deductible from income taxes. This, according to Bill Smith, Texas A&M University Extension forester.

The value, Smith says, can be determined by the increase in assessed value of the real estate or by a formula based on tree size. The formula applies to many trees grown in Texas. The list includes redbud, black walnut, American and Chinese elm, cottonwood, red and white oaks, maples, and others.

"A $5 per square inch of trunk at breast height has been the value determined by the National Shade Tree Conference Committee on shade tree evaluation. Based on diameter at breast height or measurement at 4½ feet above the ground, the basic value of a 4-inch diameter tree would be about $62. A 20-inch diameter tree at breast height is valued at over $1500," Smith says.

Small trees, under 4 inches in diameter, are valued at replacement cost, plus expense of planting with the same size tree, the A&M forester says.

He goes on to say property owners should measure the trunk of damaged trees before removal and keep this measurement for tax records.

Football Heat Deaths Preventable, Says AMA

CHICAGO—Heat deaths among high school and college football players could be a thing of the past if coaches and players follow recommendations made at a meeting here recently.

When football practice opens in a few weeks, the first hot days could be dangerous for players unless precautions to avoid heat illness are taken now, a panel of medical and sports authorities agreed.

Heat illness last year caused the deaths of one college football player and four, possibly five, high school players. It contributed to "close calls" and injuries of many more.

The five-man panel, appearing at a meeting sponsored by the American Medical Association's Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports, agreed that:

1. Prospective football players should get out of air-conditioned surroundings now and start getting accustomed to vigorous exercise in hot weather.

2. Coaches should abandon the old practice of withholding water from athletes during practice. Failure to replenish water and salt lost through perspiration increases the chances for heat exhaustion or heat stroke.

3. Athletes should be acclimated to hot weather by carefully graduated practice schedules. At least the first five days of practice should be devoted to non-contact workouts.

4. Both coaches and players should be alert for signs of heat illness, such as lethargy, stupor, awkwardness, or unusual fatigue.

University of Kentucky football coach Charles Bradshaw said his squad's practice sessions were improved by regular breaks for water and rest. Overworking players in hot weather only decreases their efficiency, he said.

Said Purdue University's team physician, L. W. Combs, M.D.: "Coaches used to think that if a player lost a lot of weight on the first day or so of practice, it was a good workout. Actually, all the player lost was body liquid—which is dangerous."

Allan J. Ryan, M.D., team physician at the University of Wisconsin, agreed with Dr. Combs. "Any player who loses more than three per cent of his body weight in a practice session is not getting enough salt and water," he said.

Excessive salt and water loss can result in heat stroke, an extremely dangerous condition, Dr. Ryan pointed out. Anyone can suffer heat stroke if he is active in hot weather and neglects to replace salt and water lost by perspiration. The result is a breakdown in the sweating mechanism and collapse.

If prompt measures aren't taken to get the heat stroke victim cooled immediately, the result can be death —sometimes within 15 minutes.

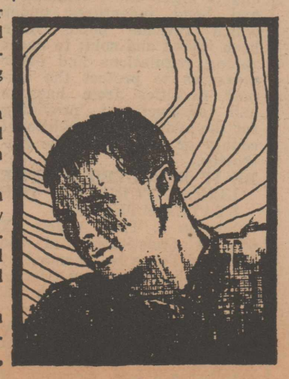

Approximately 850,000 boys in 14,500 U.S. high schools now play football, said Clifford B. Fagan, executive secretary of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

"The few deaths that occur in football can probably never be completely eliminated," Fagan said, "but we can eliminate deaths due to heat illness—they are preventable."

Coaches can avoid trouble by keeping a close watch on their players for the first signs of heat illness, said William E. Newell, athletic trainer at Purdue University and executive secretary of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

Parents can help protect their athlete-sons by watching for signs of fatigue and emotional strain, such as loss of appetite and poor sleep habits, Newell said.

Fred Hein, Ph.D., director of the AMA Department of Health Education and secretary of the AMA's Committee on the Medical Aspects of Sports, was panel moderator. Dr. Ryan is a member of the AMA Committee on Exercise and Physical Fitness, and is a past president of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Crop Insurance Expanded

COLLEGE STATION — The addition of Federal Crop Insurance investment protection for the 1967 crop year on cotton in Pecos, Reeves and Ward Counties has been announced by U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Also that grain sorghum coverage has been extended to farmers in Carson, Dallam, Hansford, Moore and Sherman Counties and that irrigated wheat crops in Deaf Smith, Parmer, Randall and Swisher Counties in 1967 will be eligible for coverage.

Ben Jordan, Texas Crop Insurance Director, said the additions raise to 64 the number of Texas counties where Federal Crop Insurance is available to farmers. He also announced a major change in the wheat insurance program now effective in 18 counties. He said the entire program has been reworked on the basis of a new 10-year production history for each county. It reflects the increase in average wheat yields for each county and also the increase in production costs. Congressional legislation limits the amount of insurance offered to the investment costs each farmer has in his wheat crop, Jordan explained.

The state director described the all-risk crop insurance as an important management tool for farmers. It is a practical and economical method farmers can use to protect crop investments and their income.

Last year, 1965, he said some $24 million in Texas crop production expenses on nearly 405,000 acres was protected by Federal Crop Insurance. He added that more than 1,200 Texas farmers also received payments for crop losses.

When crop losses from weather, insects, disease or other causes hit a rural area, it hurts everyone for miles around, Jordan said. Should such widespread losses occur in an eligible county where crop coverage under the Federal Crop Insurance is extensive, payments to individual farmers bolster the economy of the area, Jordan explained.

He said information on the program is available from his office at College Station or from the district offices at Lubbock, McKinney, Waco, Taylor, Wharton and Corpus Christi.

The Monroe Doctrine was published in 1823.

Open Letter From Chicago

By PAUL HARVEY

Dear Dixie:

Can you possibly find it in your heart to accept our sincere apology? When there was race rioting in Little Rock, Arkansas, we were convinced that the cause was callousness. Our public officials and our press in Chicago insisted that the only two reasons for Negro restiveness were your segregated schools and your stubborn governor. We in Chicago, with integrated schools and a very liberal governor are now writhing in the agony of race rioting. And as we seek to set our house in order, we hope your headlines will be kinder to us than ours were to you.

And when a Mississippi Negro boy was found drowned, we in Chicago called this the "inevitable result of a white-supremacy tradition." Now a Negro girl, 14 and pregnant, has been shot to death on the front porch of her home in Chicago — and we are confused and ashamed — and frightened.

What are we doing wrong that has made eight square miles of our city a battleground: Help us, if you can find it in your hurt heart to help.

And Alabama, when your state police were photographed subduing rioters with night sticks, Chicago's bold face front pages condemned you for "indefensible brutality." Now Illinois State Police have resorted to armored cars and cracking skulls and shooting to kill . . .

Your governor has alleged that "Communists are fomenting this strife." We scoffed.

Now 13 Negroes on Chicago's West Side have been charged with "plotting treason." We are sweeping admittedly Communist literature from our littered streets.

Forgive us for not knowing what we were talking about.

Georgia: When you were photographed in the act of turning back crowds of marching children — we could not control ourselves. "The very idea," the Chicago press editorialized, "that youngsters should be considered a menace sufficient to justify the use of tear gas!"

Now, in our own asphalt jungle, we have seen Negro youngsters of 9, 10, 11 — advance on police with drawn guns or broken bottles — screaming, "Kill Whitey!"

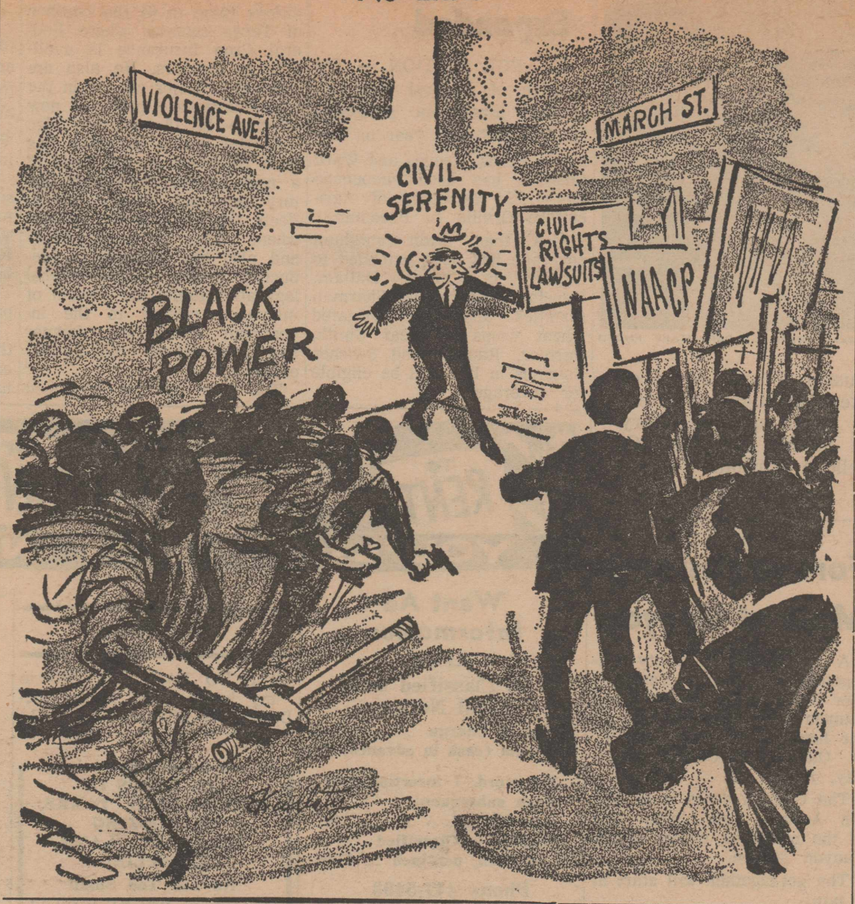

And we used gas and clubs and dogs and guns and God forgive us, what else could we do! Can you, Georgia, forgive us, too?

we did. We tried so desperately that seven policemen were shot the other night, two of them through the back. So, in the end, we resorted to methods more brutal than yours. But, don't you see, we had to!

And our mayor listened to the Negroes' leaders, as he so often admonished you to do. He had listened, he had made compromises and concessions and he had offered sacrificial police officials and school officials —but they kept coming from so many directions with so many demands — and then — demanding to keep the fire hydrants gushing for their playing children during the city's most critical drought —

Dear Dixie, perhaps we have not yet learned fully to appreciate what you have been trying to do to effect evolution without revolution — but for whatever belated comfort it may be, from our glass house we will not be throwing any more stones at you . . . for a while.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW:

PROSPERITY IN THE SMALL TOWNS

By Roger W. Babson

Since World War II the whole face of America has changed. There have been more numerous and more far-reaching advances in technology, industry, and transportation than in any comparable period in our history. These have been accompanied by a 38% increase in population and by a mighty cross-migration from farms to urban areas and from the large core cities to the outer suburbs. In the process, many of the nation's smaller towns have grown and prospered. But nearly as many towns just haven't kept pace.

Growth Factors

Small-town growth has not been confined to any one section of the nation, but it has been most vigorous in the South and in the Far West reflecting the heavy movement of industry and people into those areas. Perhaps the biggest growth factor is need. Towns grow and expand to meet needs. If the needs don't materialize, there is no cause for growth. And if the needs are there, but not fully perceived or exploited, the opportunity is lost.

Towns which are bound to grow are county seats, sites of colleges, or headquarters of government agencies or of sizeable service businesses or industries.

Growth begets growth. Many of the small county seats and college towns of yesteryear are today thriving cities, some of them fairly large ones. They have expanded primarily because their development of retail and other services, and of cultural opportunities, has attracted new economic activity.

Location Is Important

Geographic location also plays an important part in the economic growth potential. If a region has abundant natural resources and is marching forward by making maximum use of its advantages, such get-up-and-go will almost automatically bring growth to many of its small towns too. Of course, small towns within 20 to 30 miles of larger cities usually have better prospects for growth than do places more off the beaten track. This is true largely because even small industries need to locate where they will be assured of the required labor, good transportation, and nearness to suppliers of raw materials and other necessary equipment.

But the more isolated towns need not always be so isolated. New high-speed highways continue to open up vast tracts of land far out in the country for development. Some of the most prosperous towns of the 1970s will be entirely new communities built on sites that today are still completely rural, and in some cases actually wilderness.

Fiscal Limitations

As our smaller towns grow larger, they suffer all kinds of growing pains. Chief among these are the need all at once for enlargement of educational and recreational facilities, expansion of fire and police departments, procurement of ample water supplies, and provision of adequate plant and equipment to assure prompt and effective disposal of waste.

All these services and improvements cost money. And the cost is rising year by year. Hence it behooves those towns which must meet new demands for capital improvements to step warily. The temptation to go full steam ahead is great as needs mushroom. But, for towns as well as for people, the foundation for lasting prosperity is fiscal sanity. Do not allow debt to become unmanageable.

Town Mergers

More and more we hear proposals that smaller towns merge with their neighbors in order to modernize their governmental structure and cut the overhead cost of essential services. The consolidation approach to these problems has recently been the subject of a national policy report prepared by the Committee for Economic Development. This idea is not without merit, but outright mergers certainly ought not to be hastily effected.

Nowhere is the small town so much a symbol of freedom and of self-government as it is in the U.S. Loss of that identity and image — synonymous with the initiative and self-reliance that has helped make our nation great — would be irreparable. It would often be far better for towns to team up to operate certain services jointly than to merge outright.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where the Food and Drug Administration overpeople are running down vitamin pills, which they say don't do any good, even if some takers of same think they do.

My pill-prone neighbor reckons he wouldn't be helped by supplementary vitamins, either, if he was an FDA man with a lucrative government connection to fortify his tired blood.

But he expects the real reason Washington is trying to discredit vitamins is to keep the citizens weak, so they won't have the energy to fight their way out from under bureaucratic thumbs.

I see where former President Eisenhower wants to put some new life into Republicanism by labeling it the Common Sense Party.

But my country-cured neighbor says it's a way-out idea to identify a political party with common sense, which is in short supply and shorter demand.

Says it could even be dangerous to infiltrate politics with an off-beat ingredient like common sense. An unfamiliar mixture like that in the hands of politicians might cause more personality peculiarities than LSD.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER ELEVEN ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 19 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-d, Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, declaring state policy regarding optimum development of water reservoirs; providing for the use of the Texas Water Development Fund under such conditions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law in the acquisition and development of storage facilities and any system of works properly appurtenant thereto; providing for the sale, lease or transfer of such facilities under General Laws; providing for long-term contracts for water storage facilities; authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds by the Texas Water Development Board upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each house; providing that anticipatory legislation shall not be invalid because of its anticipatory character; providing for the necessary election, form of ballot; and proclamation and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-d of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 49-d. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the State of Texas to encourage the optimum development of the limited number of feasible sites available for the construction or enlargement of dams and reservoirs for conservation of the public waters of the state, which waters are held in trust for the use and benefit of the public. The proceeds from the sale of the additional bonds authorized hereunder deposited in the Texas Water Development Fund and the proceeds of bonds previously authorized by Article III, Section 49-c of this Constitution, may be used by the Texas Water Development Board, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, including the requirement of a permit for storage or beneficial use, for the additional purposes of acquiring and developing storage facilities, and any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and transportation of water from storage to points of treatment, filtration and/or distribution, including facilities for transporting water therefrom to wholesale purchasers, or for any one or more of such purposes or methods; provided, however, the Texas Water Development Fund or any other state fund provided for water development, transmission, transfer or filtration shall not be used to finance any project which contemplates or results in the removal from the basin of origin of any surface water necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable future water requirements for the next ensuing fifty-year period within the river basin of origin, except on a temporary, interim basis.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law the Texas Water Development Fund may be used for the conservation and development of water for useful purposes by construction or reconstruction or enlargement of reservoirs constructed or to be constructed or enlarged within the State of Texas or on any stream constituting a boundary of the State of Texas, together with any system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment and/or transportation of water, by any one or more of the following governmental agencies: by the United States of America or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by the State of Texas or any agency, department or instrumentality thereof; by political subdivisions or bodies politic and corporate of the state; by interstate compact commissions to which the State of Texas is a party; and by municipal corporations. The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions under which the Texas Water Development Board may sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any reservoir and associated system or works which the Texas Water Development Board has financed in whole or in part.

"Under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by General Law, the Texas Water Development Board may also execute long-term contracts with the United States or any of its agencies for the acquisition and development of storage facilities in reservoirs constructed or to be constructed by the Federal Government. Such contracts when executed shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas in the same manner and with the same effect as state bonds issued under the authority of the preceding Section 49-c of this Constitution, and the provisions in said Section 49-c with respect to payment of principal and interest on state bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to payment of principal and interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the state's investment.

"The aggregate of the bonds authorized hereunder shall not exceed $200,000,000 and shall be in addition to the aggregate of the bonds previously authorized by said Section 49-c of Article III of this Constitution. The Legislature upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the elected members of each House, may authorize the Board to issue all or any portion of such $200,000,000 in additional bonds herein authorized.

"The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities together with any associated system or works necessary for the filtration, treatment or transportation of water at a price not less than the direct cost of the Board in acquiring same; and the Legislature may provide terms and conditions for the Board to sell any unappropriated public waters of the state that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage or water, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Texas Water Commission or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities or associated system or works shall be used to pay principal and interest on state bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are sufficient to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities or associated system or works may be used for the acquisition of additional storage facilities or associated system or works or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49-c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby service, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred.

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the issuance of an additional $200,000,000 in Texas Water Development Bonds and providing for further investment of the Texas Water Development Fund in reservoirs and associated facilities."

Sec. 3. The Governor of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election and this Amendment shall be published in the manner and for the length of time as required by the Constitution and laws of this state.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 12, reading as follows:

"Section 12. The Legislature may by law provide for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of Airport Authorities composed of one or more counties, with power to issue general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, either or both of them, for the purchase, acquisition by the exercise of the power of eminent domain or otherwise, construction, reconstruction, repair or renovation of any airport or airports, landing fields and runways, airport buildings, hangars, facilities, equipment, fixtures, and any and all property, real or personal, necessary to operate, equip and maintain an airport; shall provide for the option by the governing body of the city or cities whose airport facilities are served by certificated airlines and whose facility or some interest therein, is proposed to be or has been acquired by the Authority, to either appoint or elect a Board of Directors of said Authority; if the Directors are appointed such appointment shall be made by the County Commissioners Court after consultation with and consent of the governing body or bodies of such city or cities, and if the Board of Directors is elected they shall be elected by the qualified taxpaying voters of the county which chooses to elect the Directors to represent that county, such Directors shall serve without compensation for a term fixed by the Legislature not to exceed six (6) years, and shall be selected on the basis of the proportionate population of each county based upon the last preceding Federal Census, and shall be a resident or residents of such county; provide that no county shall have less than one (1) member on the Board of Directors; provide for the holding of an election in each county proposing the creation of an Authority to be called by the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts, as the case may be, upon petition of five per cent (5%) of the qualified taxpaying voters within the county or counties, said elections to be held on the same day if more than one county is included, provided that no more than one (1) such election may be called in a county until after the expiration of one (1) year; in the event such an election has failed, and thereafter only upon a petition of ten per cent (10%) of the qualified taxpaying voters being presented to the Commissioners Court or Commissioners Courts of the county or counties in which such an election has failed, and in the event that two or more counties vote on the proposition of the creation of an Authority therein, the proposition shall not be deemed to carry unless the majority of the qualified taxpaying voters in each county voting thereon vote in favor thereof; provided, however, that an Airport Authority may be created and be composed of the county or counties that vote in favor of its creation if separate propositions are submitted to the voters of each county so that they may vote for a two or more county Authority or a single county Authority; provide for the appointment by the Board of Directors of an Assessor and Collector of Taxes in the Authority, whether constituted of one or more counties, whose duty it shall be to assess all taxable property, both real and personal, and collect the taxes thereon, based upon the tax rolls approved by the Board of Directors, the tax to be levied not to exceed Seventy-Five Cents (75c) per One Hundred Dollars ($100) assessed valuation of the property, provided, however, that the property of state regulated common carriers required by law to pay a tax upon intangible assets shall not be subject to taxation by the Authority, said taxable property shall be assessed on a valuation not to exceed the market value and shall be equal and uniform throughout the Authority as is otherwise provided by the Constitution; the Legislature shall authorize the purchase or acquisition by the Authority of any existing airport facility publicly owned and financed and served by certificated airlines, in fee or of any interest therein, or to enter into any lease agreement therefor, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreeable to the Authority and the owner of such facilities, or authorize the acquisition of same through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, and in the event of such acquisition, if there are any general obligation bonds that the owner of the publicly owned airport facility has outstanding, the same shall be fully assumed by the Authority and sufficient taxes levied by the Authority to discharge said outstanding indebtedness; and likewise any city or owner that has outstanding revenue bonds where the revenues of the airport have been pledged or said bonds constitute a lien against the airport facilities, the Authority shall assume and discharge all the obligations of the city under the ordinances and bond indentures under which said revenue bonds have been issued and sold. Any city which owns airport facilities not serving certificated airlines which are not purchased or acquired or taken over as herein provided by such Authority, shall have the power to operate the same under the existing laws or as the same may hereafter be amended. Any such Authority when created may be granted the power and authority to promulgate, adopt and enforce appropriate zoning regulations to protect the airport from hazards and obstructions which would interfere with the use of the airport and its facilities for landing and takeoff; an additional county or counties may be added to an existing Authority if a petition of five per cent (5%) of the qualified taxpaying voters is filed with and an election is called by the Commissioners Court of the county or counties seeking admission to an Authority and the vote is favorable, then admission may be granted to such county or counties by the Board of Directors of the then existing Authority upon such terms and conditions as they may agree upon and evidenced by a resolution approved by two-thirds (2/3rds) of the then existing Board of Directors, provided, however, the county or counties that may be so added to the then existing Authority shall be given representation on the Board of Directors by adding additional directors in proportion to their population according to the last preceding Federal Census."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1966, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the addition of Section 12 of Article IX of the Constitution, authorizing the Legislature to provide by law for the creation, establishment, maintenance and operation of Airport Authorities composed of one or more counties, and authorizing the levy of a tax not to exceed Seventy-Five Cents (75c) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation of all taxable property within such Airport Authority except the property of state regulated common carriers required by law to pay a tax upon intangible assets, after approval of its voters."

McKnight "Talks"

21 of 1955 Class Here Saturday for Reunion

By Don Raburn

Former Wellington coach and principal, Maxey McKnight, was the principal speaker at the class of 1955 homecoming luncheon held Saturday, August 6 at the Cherokee Inn.

He is now superintendent of schools at Kress.

McKnight began by explaining that he was not a speaker but a "talker" and that he felt honored and delighted to be invited to meet with the class of '55 and attend the Wellington high school homecoming and festivities.

The popular former coach reviewed the list of class officers from the eighth grade through graduation. He commented that 92 boys and girls were in the class in the eighth grade and that 42 had graduated in '55.

McKnight expressed his shock and sorrow at the passing of one of the most popular class members, Jimmy Wilson.

"Jimmy will always be remembered by this class because he was a close friend of so many of you," McKnight said.

He outlined the highlights of his relationship with the class throughout their high school years. He recalled the many disappointments and victories of his football teams and discussed in detail the senior class trip to Bandera on which he was sponsor. McKnight emphasized his love for Wellington and the many life-long friends he made in this area.

McKnight stated that he thought this homecoming and the gathering of the members of the class was a terrific idea and emphasized that it would be more difficult to have the group together again.

This homecoming talk brought back many memories and kept the audience in laughter throughout the luncheon.

Other highlights of the luncheon included the presentation of a roadrunner award to John Brock of Phoenix, Ariz., for traveling the greatest distance to the homecoming activities.

Each member of the class introduced himself and guest. Gay Reeves McAlister opened the meeting with a roll call. Frank Jones was master of ceremonies and John Thomas gave the secretary-treasurer's report.

The class decided to make a major effort for homecoming in 1970 and Billy Ray Branch of Amarillo will be in charge of the promotion and plans.

Facilities chairman, Eddie Slay, reported 21 classmates attended the luncheon and the total including guests was 35.

Class members present were Walter Spear of Amarillo, Mary Ann Hunter Cunningham of Stamford, LaJuan Wilson Boyer of Odessa, Billy Ray Branch of Amarillo, Mary Ruth Stall of Pampa, Larry Jesse of Amarillo, John Gordon Thomas and Janice Davis Thomas of College Station, Don R. Rummel of Lubbock, Johnny C. Brock of Phoenix, Ariz., Eddie Slay, Selma Lee McAlister, Don R. Raburn of Austin, Frank Jones of Amarillo, Lavena Murdock Pritchard of Alamagordo, N.M., Boone Martin of Amarillo, Barbara Lowry Uselton of Ponder, John Cartwright of Amarillo, Wayne Ketchum of Wichita Falls and Renee Thomason Duncan of Canyon.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. McKnight of Kress, Gaye Reeves McAlister, C. A. Crawford, Mrs. Boone Martin of Amarillo, Charley Uselton of Ponder, Sandra Smith Ketchum of Wichita Falls, Carroll Duncan of Canyon, Jack Boyer of Odessa, Mrs. Billy Ray Branch of Amarillo, Ada Carol Thomas Rummel of Lubbock, Charlotte Crain Slay, Wayne Pritchard of Alamagordo, N. M., Joyce Scarborough of Austin, Mrs. Johnny Brock of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Frank Jones of Amarillo.

Teen-age Groom Has Problems

COLLEGE STATION — Although volumes have been written about the teen-age marriage and the teen-age bride, little attention is given to the teen-age groom.

"It takes two to make a marriage, and many young couples discover that there is more to marriage than they had realized," says Mrs. Patsy Yates, Texas A&M University Extension specialist in family life education.

She points out that a West Coast counselor, Professor Ben Ard who teaches at San Francisco State College, advises the teen-age groom: "Now that you have married the girl, try to make friends with her."

Due to the youth of the couple and the speed of courtship, it isn't surprising that many young couples discover shortly after marriage that they love each other but they really don't like each other, Mrs. Yates says.

Friendships don't just happen. They are built over a period of time. Dr. Erich Fromm insists that mature love is built on respect, understanding, knowledge and caring for the other person.

"Knowledge and understanding, even of one's self, is difficult. The teen-age groom will do well to begin making friends with his wife by seeking knowledge and understanding of her as a person," Mrs. Yates says.

Hunt, Fish Licenses Go to Texas Dealers

AUSTIN.— New hunting and fishing licences will be mailed to licensed dealers in all 254 counties of Texas at a new record early date, it was announced by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The licenses are not good until Sept. 1, beginning of the new fiscal year, according to a Department spokesman.

Also, the old licenses will be necessary for sportsmen to have on their persons through Aug. 31.

The licenses will be distributed through approximately 2,500 dealers, mostly stores featuring hunting and fishing equipment, as well as many bait stores.

The Department said the "sportsmen's credentials" will be in the hands of the agents well in advance of the new fiscal year to preclude any necessity for hunters and fishermen having to line up.

Individual fishing licenses cost $2.15 for both residents and non-residents. Resident hunting licenses cost $3.15.

Non-resident hunting licenses cost $25. A special $5 five-day non-resident license entitles the holder to hunt migratory birds for five successive days, mainly waterfowl and doves.

This license is popular, the Department says, with visitors patronizing the Rio Grande Valley white-winged dove harvest in early September and with duck and goose hunters who come from distant midwest areas in late November and December.

There are many resident and fishing exemptions as described in the Department's official hunting and fishing guide but basically persons 17 years of age and under 65 must have the regular state licenses.

NROTC Training Urged by Navy

High school boys entering their senior year are urged by the United States Navy to investigate its college training officer candidate program, the Regular Naval Reserve Training Corps (NROTC) when making college plans.

The program, which trains officers for both the Navy and the Marines, includes payment by the Navy of tuition, educational fees, textbooks, uniforms, and provides a $50 per month subsistence allowance for its members for four years.

Selected candidates are enlisted in the U.S. Naval Reserve and are appointed Midshipmen upon enrollment in college. The college majors are many and only a few non-technical professional majors are prohibited.

During the summers, Midshipmen participate in cruises which provide practical experience in naval operations, and upon graduation the young men may be commissioned as Ensigns in the U.S. Navy or as Second Lieutenants in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Young men interested may contact their Navy Recruiting Station or the Chief of Naval Personnel (Pers-B6261), Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C. 20370.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 79 proposing an amendment to Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding Section 1-d to provide that all land owned by natural persons designated for agricultural use shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding Section 1-d to read as follows:

"Section 1-d. (a) All land owned by natural persons which is designated for agricultural use in accordance with the provisions of this Section shall be assessed for all tax purposes on the consideration of only those factors relative to such agricultural use. 'Agricultural use' means the raising of livestock or growing of crops, fruit, flowers, and other products of the soil under natural conditions as a business venture for profit, which business is the primary occupation and source of income of the owner.

"(b) For each assessment year the owner wishes to qualify his land under provisions of this Section as designated for agricultural use he shall file with the local tax assessor a sworn statement in writing describing the use to which the land is devoted.

"(c) Upon receipt of the sworn statement in writing the local tax assessor shall determine whether or not such land qualifies for the designation as to agricultural use as defined herein and in the event it so qualifies he shall designate such land as being for agricultural use and assess the land accordingly.

"(d) Such local tax assessor may inspect the land and require such evidence of use and source of income as may be necessary or useful in determining whether or not the agricultural use provision of this article applies.

"(e) No land may qualify for the designation provided for in this Act unless for at least three (3) successive years immediately preceding the assessment date the land has been devoted exclusively for agricultural use, or unless the land has been continuously developed for agriculture during such time.

"(f) Each year during which the land is designated for agricultural use, the local tax assessor shall note on his records the valuation which would have been made had the land not qualified for such designation under this Section. If designated land is subsequently diverted to a purpose other than that of agricultural use, or is sold, the land shall be subject to an additional tax. The additional tax shall equal the difference between taxes paid or payable, hereunder, and the amount of tax payable for the preceding three years had the land been otherwise assessed. Until paid, there shall be a lien for additional taxes and interest on land assessed under the provisions of this Section.

"(g) The valuation and assessment of any minerals or subsurface rights to minerals shall not come within the provisions of this Section."

"(b) State agencies charged with the responsibility of providing services to those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped may accept money from private or federal sources, designated by the private or federal source as money to be used in and establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

The reunion of the ex-students of Wellington High School turned out to be an enjoyable affair sparked as it was by the class reunions of 1928-29, 1946, 1951 and 1955. It is these class reunions that makes the homecoming of the former students a success. The major interest is in people who attended school while you were in high school; but they did need to be a freshman while you were a senior or vice versa.

I went by the Greenbelt building to have coffee with the class of 1946 and was quite impressed for I was about the only man present in a crowd of beautiful young women, at least they were young by my standards and certainly they were lovely. I had just come from the main meeting of all ex-students in the community building where I heard one young man regaling his classmates with an account of seeing his former sweetheart by saying "she looked like she was forty." His classmate looked him over and asked: "Well who in the hell do you know that ain't forty today?"

I see no need of calling a special meeting of the class of 1919 for Luther Sullivan and I can have a cup of coffee any morning we feel like it and even a wee drop and drollie for Auld Lang Sygne when Candler Hawkins gets to town. Unfortunately some of the girls of our class are dead and the others seldom get back to Wellington and we never see Keener Hudson.

As usual all of the arrangements did not get off as smoothly as they might have. Cal Hurst was chairman of the committee appointed to prepare the barbecue Saturday evening and none of his committee showed up and he cooked the barbecue by himself and he and his wife and a few of her women friends served it. As a result, a normally blond headed gentleman is as red headed as a turkey gobbler in the mating season except for a different reason. He is burned up; but the chicken was not. It was cooked perfectly and the sauce was exactly right.

Several of the former students commented on the excellence of the brochure that was recently published by the Collingsworth County Chamber of Commerce. There were copies at the registration desk for free distribution. It is the best piece of promotion that has been put out by the chamber of commerce up to date.

In other years there has been a bombastic note in the conversation of some of the graduates who returned to their old stomping grounds below the caprock from their high level irrigated prosperity on the staked plains. This year I detected a serious note of concern among the agriculturists over the everlowering water table and those in other lines of work were concerned about the future of their cities. I t is much harder to sell land out there than it is here where we think the prices are tremendously high.

I am of the opinion that ten or twenty years from now that land can be bought cheaper on the irrigated plains than it can be purchased here on the rolling plains.

I suppose you noticed that they are going to have an investigation about the cost of bread in relation to the price of wheat and its bearing on inflation. The farmer gets 3¢ out of the wheat that goes into making a 30¢ loaf of bread.

This year we will be in a new football district with some of the towns such as Olney, Iowa Park and Seymour being a considerable distance away. Electra is the only distant competitor to which the Rockets will have to travel in 1966. All the rest of the distant towns will play in Wellington this year.

The American Medical Association says that coaches should abandon the old practice of withholding water from athletes during practice. Failure to replenish water and salt lost through perspiration increases the chances for heat exhaustion or heat stroke which can prove fatal.

"We've been wondering if the irrigation farmer can come up with a double crop," Barjenbruch remarked. "We've got to come up with something besides cotton."

Barjenbruch planted the field on May 2 in standard 40-inch rows. He had given it four inches of water on April 20, and he watered again May 15, June 10 and June 25, putting down four inches each time.

The crop was grown without rain, only a few light showers.

He fertilized with 70 pounds of anhydrous ammonia per acre the last of May.

Barjenbruch believes he could have planted the crop a month earlier, but he was irrigating wheat at the time.

For the second crop, he has put down eight inches of water and will irrigate two more times if there is no rain. He will use 100 pounds of fertilizer per acre.

"The nights are cooler, the days are shorter, and there is less evaporation and I think 3 waterings will be enough," the young farmer remarked.

"Under any irrigation, timing is of the utmost importance. It's better to be three or four days early than three or four days late," he pointed out.

Barjenbruch believes if he had had the water available, he could have put down two more waterings and had an increase in yield that would have been anywhere from 1,000 to 2,000 pounds per acre.

"I think double crop grain sorghum has a potential for this part of the country, especially for the irrigation farmer," Barjenbruch says.

Mitchell Heads Hall of Fame Drive

Monty Mitchell of Route 1, Quail, has been named county chairman in the Texas campaign to build a Texas Pavilion at the Agricultural Hall of Fame at Bonner Springs, Kan.

The county campaign is one of more than 200 such campaigns planned throughout Texas this summer.

State co-chairmen are Harold H. Hogue, prominent wheat rancher from Dalhart, and Charles G. Scruggs, editor of The rogressive Farmer, Dallas.

Mr. Scruggs said "The Agricultural Hall of Fame and National Center is the only institution in the country which is devoted to memorializing the greatness of American agriculture since pioneer days." He explained the National Center is administered by a board of volunteer agricultural and business leaders drawn from every state in the Union and the center is a private, non-profit, tax-exempt corporation having no government support.

Comprising 275 acres of rolling farm land at one of the highest points in Eastern Kansas, the Agricultural Hall of Fame today has assets of more than $700,000.

Rural Electric People Take Pride In Efficiency

Efficiency is a lot more than just a word to rural electric people. It is a key to the survival of their electric systems.

It means working with the rest of the community to improve the total quality of rural living. It involves a kind of "social efficiency" which goes far beyond dollars and cents.

Social efficiency means that rural electric people test every activity by asking: "Is it good for our membership and our community?" If the answer is yes, it's a good bet rural electrics are doing it.

With the continuing help of Rural Electrification Administration loans, we are working to assure that our efficiency benefits this community and the entire nation.
