Allies Advance In Western Korea

Heavy Winds, Rains, Floods Plague Texas

Floodwaters lapped over farmland in the Gainesville area of North Texas Tuesday. During the night, heavy gales whipped through Brownwood, Amarillo and Chillicothe.

Salary Hike To Officials In Prospect

Midland County Commissioners Court cleared the way Tuesday for granting a 25 per cent salary increase to the county's elected officials.

The salaries were increased to the maximum of $5,400 last fall. However, there is a statute providing an additional 25 per cent increase if properly advertised by the county for a period of three weeks.

Employes in the courthouse were granted an increase last January but the commissioners declined to raise the officers' salaries at that time.

Worst Flood Since 1907 Hits Hays, In Northwest Kansas

HAYS, KAN. —(P)—The worst flood since 1907 swept into Hays Tuesday and three persons were known to have drowned. Several others were reported missing.

Drowned were Dr. C. F. West, about 73, retired professor of philosophy at Fort Hays State College; Robert Rippeau, 14, stepson of Dr. L. D. Wooster, president emeritus of the college, and Mrs. June Blasing Herrman, about 20.

Water from a cloudburst between here and nearby Ellis, plus the overflow from Big Creek, poured into the south end of this North-western Kansas city of 8,000 population. The water was 15 to 20 feet deep in the southeast and southwest sections and about 3,000 to 4,000 persons were flooded out of their homes.

Many still were trapped on the roof and second floor of their homes and firemen, the National Guard and Red Cross were battling the water in boats to evacuate the stranded families.

The water still was rising and had moved into the southern part of the business district. Adding to the danger was 7,000 gallons of gasoline floating on top of the water. The gasoline came from a flooded filling station west of town.

The Red Cross had emergency stations set up and evacuees were being taken to churches and schools located on higher ground.

Calls for help were sent to nearby towns. Police Captain Roy Hester and four firemen from Great Bend, Kan., took a boat to the stricken city, and 20 members of the Russell, Kan., Junior Chamber of Commerce rushed to the scene. They had been at Great Bend to assist in fighting a flood threat there, which has passed.

South Midland, North Upton Get More Rain

South Midland and North Upton Counties again Monday night received moisture ranging from heavy showers to downpours. Travelers report rain all the way to Rankin.

A downpour, accompanied by some hail, flooded the ranch country 15 to 20 miles north of Rankin between 6 and 6:30 p.m. Monday. Lakes in the area were filled to overflowing and water was standing on the prairie lands. The same territory late last week received rains ranging from three to six inches.

Rankin reported a hard shower and McCamey reported a trace of moisture.

GO FER YORE GUN, PODNER—It's rodeo time in Midland and the city is getting into the spirit of the times. Like all the rest of the police force, Dispatcher Gene Butler donned her Western duds as the May 30 opening date neared for the World Championship Midland Rodeo.

San Angelo Woman Tells Of Abduction

SAN ANTONIO —(P)—A 25-year-old San Angelo housewife told police Tuesday she was abducted from her home Monday and brought here by a strange man.

The woman, Mrs. Edith Hudson, wife of an oil field worker and mother of one child, said she escaped from her abductor on the outskirts of San Antonio Monday night. She telephoned police from the residence of friends.

Mrs. Hudson said she was washing dishes in her San Angelo home about 6:30 a.m. Monday when she discovered an unknown man standing behind her.

He tore her dress from her, but made no further attempt to attack her after she grabbed a butcher knife and slashed him on the shoulder. She said she retreated to a bedroom. The man followed and slugged her with his fist, knocking her unconscious, she continued.

She said she found herself on the rear seat floor of a pre-war sedan, traveling on a highway, when she regained consciousness.

Mrs. Hudson described her abductor as a blond haired man about 25 and about six feet tall.

She said she felt nothing on the way to San Antonio but he muttered something in an unknown language to her when he first surprised her in the kitchen.

Blood-Splattered Dress

Mrs. Hudson said she seized an opportunity to escape from the car when they reached the edge of San Antonio. She said she fled and made her way to her friend's home.

The woman's husband, J. R. Hudson, was summoned and arrived here Tuesday morning. He brought with him a torn, blood-splattered dress which he said he found on (Continued On Page 11)

Injuries Fatal To Odessa Man

John Dale Chastain, 35, of Indianapolis, Ind., who recently was injured in an oil field accident, died Monday afternoon in a Midland hospital.

He had been brought to Midland from an Odessa hospital.

Top Brass Still Hopes For Peace

WASHINGTON —(P)—Gen. Omar Bradley Tuesday said the U. S. military high command hopes a Korean peace can be negotiated if United Nations troops "bump off" the present Communist offensive.

Testifying at Senate hearings, Bradley said military men had hoped in March that some peace move could be made. He added:

"We still hope that we will be in a position to again propose something through the United Nations which would end up in negotiations and cessation of hostilities."

Bradley said the March truce effort had to be abandoned when Gen. Douglas MacArthur served what Secretary of Defense Marshall described as an "ultimatum" on the Chinese commander in the field.

This was a MacArthur proposal for a cease-fire which carried also an implication the war might be widened if the Chinese commander did not accept it.

Strategy Kept To Hope

President Truman has said "he made up his mind to dismiss MacArthur from the Far Eastern command because of this move."

Bradley made it plain that Korean strategy has been keyed for weeks now to the hope peace negotiations might follow if the Communist's Spring offensive was met and broken.

Bradley told senators that as early as February this possibility (Continued On Page Eight)

House Battle Looms On Tax Compromise

AUSTIN —(P)—Administration forces Tuesday called for House approval of the compromise tax bill to pay the state's expenses. A bitter struggle appeared certain before the vote could be taken.

Rep. Jimmy Adams of Mexico made the motion to join the Senate in accepting the bill designed to raise $65,000,000 in new money.

Adams based his plea on the fact that the conference committee agreed to leave the present rural road building program untouched.

A chorus of "noes" greeted Adams' motion to adopt the revised tax bill. The proposed compromise would almost double the production tax on natural gas. It leaves the rural road building program untouched and knocks out a suggested pipe line tax on natural gas.

The outcome of the approaching vote on the tax compromise was so uncertain neither side predicted victory very strongly.

Midland Rotarians Visit Big Spring With Rodeo Tidings

Four members of the Midland Rotary Club were in Big Spring Tuesday noon to meet with the Big Spring Rotary Club and to publicize the 17th Annual World Championship Rodeo in the Howard County seat city.

The boosters are Bob Payne, Dr. J. O. Shannon, Henry Orson and Delbert Downing.

Lions and Rotary goodwill trippers will be out again Wednesday to boost the Midland show.

Battle Rages To Stem Red Tide In East

TOKYO —(P)—Allied troops advanced in Western Korea Tuesday, probed an ominous Chinese buildup on the east-central front and fought to stem a Red sweep in the east.

Infantry troops waged see-saw battles in the eastern mountains, 25 miles south of Parallel 38. Communist troops were trying to expand a wedge driven in South Korean lines near Sokka.

Reports said South Koreans were forced to adjust their lines for 25 miles eastward to the Sea of Japan.

This fighting was on the eastern flank of the heroic U. S. Second Division, which hacked four Chinese corps to pieces in a Red offensive started last Wednesday.

Second Division patrols probed northward Tuesday into new force of 130,000 Chinese reported massing north of their lines for a new strike.

AP Correspondent William C. Barnard said the new Allied aggressiveness and the enemy buildup indicated a showdown battle.

However, AP Correspondent Tom Bradshaw reported scouts found no sizable Chinese concentrations in front of the Second Division Tuesday. Only small groups were spotted by planes and two tank patrols which reconnoitered more than a mile into no-man's-land.

Planes and artillery hacked at Reds withdrawing on the west-central and western fronts.

Valleys Stacked With Dead

One UN officer said he saw nothing "too significant" in this northward movement. He called it a slowdown. He said the Red offensive "definitely petered out x x x."

"But," this officer cautioned, "the enemy is still capable of continuing his advance."

UN patrols reported entering valleys stacked with Chinese dead.

"We could hear the wounded moaning as we approached," a sergeant said.

In the far west, a strong task force stabbed deep into enemy territory (Continued On Page Eight)

Cattlemen See Return Of Rationing

WASHINGTON —(P)—Spokesmen for Texas ranchers Tuesday forecast rationing of meat in about 10 months as a result of the beef price rollback order.

Ray Willoughby of San Angelo, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, made the prediction at a news conference. He and other growers declared the OPS price ceilings on livestock are "unworkable" and will cause blackmarketing.

"The order will lead to rationing because the legitimate slaughterers will have to comply with the law," Willoughby said, "and therefore will not be able to buy enough beef to meet the demand."

Black Market Seen

"That will result because production, at both the grower and feeder level, will be curtailed. The biggest percentage of the beef will go to the black market."

He said the effect of the beef rollback order is to put the cattle growers under a ceiling of about 25 to 30 cents a hundred pounds for livestock which cost about 34 to 35 cents to raise to marketing weight.

"Consequently, as your cattle clear out of the feed lots, you'll have fewer and fewer come to market," Willoughby added. "It would be my guess that next Spring is when the housewife will feel the real pinch and rationing will result."

Claude McCann, Victoria rancher, agreed, adding:

"You can be sure that there will be a repetition of the situation that occurred during World War II. Someone will be offering the grower a better price for his cattle and he will take it."

Joe Montague of Fort Worth, counsel for the Cattle Raisers Association, said another reason the order may curtail meat supplies is that many growers will sell their cattle as veal, to which the ceilings do not apply.

Collins Firm Bids Low On 122-Block City Paving Project

The Collins Construction Company of Austin, which is constructing the new highway west of Midland, probably will pave Midland's better streets.

The firm was the low bidder—by some $300,000—Monday afternoon when bids were opened for a 122-block street and alley paving project.

The Austin firm submitted a bid of $649,638.70 while the only other bidder, H. B. Zachary of San Antonio, set a figure of $950,951.80.

The bids will be submitted Tuesday night to the City Council for formal action.

The bids were submitted on re-advertisement after the original advertisement brought no bidders.

New Grand Jury Summoned Here

A new grand jury was called Tuesday for the June term of 70th District Court.

District Clerk Lucille Johnson announced the following 20 men have been summoned to report at 10 a.m. June 4.

Moore, Lowe Testers Near City Of Midland In Spotlight Tuesday

Two wildcats in the immediate vicinity of the City of Midland were in the spotlight Tuesday. Both those prospectors had developed interesting angles.

Moore Exploration Company No. 1 Baumann, three miles southeast of Midland had developed a strong blow of gas from an unidentified section above the present total depth of 11,291 feet.

The well had been blowing gas and drilling fluid for several hours. No signs of oil had appeared with the gas and the mud, according to persons who had been on the location.

Operator was trying to get the gas under control so the project could be deepened a few feet. It was understood that after the deepening had been done a drillstem test probably would be undertaken.

The section which is making the gas is probably in the lower Pennsylvanian. Up to now this project has logged only slight shows of possible oil and gas production.

Location is 467 feet from west and 990 feet from south lines of the east 200 acres in section 14, block 38, T-2-S, T&P survey.

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Faaken, one mile west of the west city limits of Midland, and 860 feet from north-west and northeast lines of section 4, block 39, T-3-S, T&P survey, is bottomed at 10,835 feet in Pennsylvanian lime and it is running a drillstem test to check for possible shows of oil and gas.

Top of the solid lime in the Pennsylvanian has not been officially reported.

This prospector developed an interesting show of oil and gas in a lime stringer at 10,189-316 feet. During a seven hour and six minute drillstem test gas surfaced in three hours and 55 minutes.

Recovery was 230 feet of heavily oil and gas cut drilling mud and 90 feet of 39-gravity free oil. There were no signs of formation water.

This wildcat had slight shows of oil in the lower Spraberry at 8,444-825 feet and at 8,725-8,900 feet.

Penrose-Andersons Gel Shallow Oil In Andrews Wildcat

Neville G. Penrose, Inc., and W. D. Anderson & Sons are preparing to complete their No. 1 Lydia Littleman as a small pumping discovery from the San Andres-Permian lime in extreme Northwest Andrews County.

It is six miles southeast of Uth House field in Central-East Lea County, New Mexico, which is the nearest San Andres producing area. The oil well is one mile west of the discovery well of the Smith-Clear Fork field. The Clear Fork pay is below the San Andres pay.

The wildcat discovery is seven and one-half miles northeast of Eunice, N. M., the closest town.

Location is 600 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 6, block A-29, pal survey.

Ellenburger Being Tested By Gulf In NW Upton Project

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1-H McElroy, Northwest Upton County wildcat, six miles northwest of the Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 McElroy, discovery for flowing production from the Strawn lime of the Pennsylvanian and from the Ellenburger, is taking a drillstem test in the top of the Ellenburger.

The Gulf wildcat topped the Ellenburger at 12,216 feet, to give it a datum of minus 9,382 feet. A core at 12,176-224 feet recovered 48 feet of sand, lime and dolomite, with no shows of oil, gas or water. No Shows Of Petroleum

Another core was taken at 12,244-233 feet. Recovery was 28 feet of fractured lime and dolomite, no appreciable shows of oil or gas.

The test is being run on the zone at 12,216-282 feet.

The prospector is 1,980 feet from east and north lines of section 109, block E, OCS&RONG survey. This wildcat has already shown possibilities of production in an unidentified lime at 9,135-90 feet.

Condemnation Action Begun To Clear Way For Drainage Project

Condemnation proceedings against the owners of a 3,500-foot strip of land needed for initial phase of the Front Street improvement project was authorized Tuesday by the Midland County Commissioners Court.

County Judge Clifford O. Keith said the 30-foot-wide right-of-way is needed before a work order can be issued on a $750,000 drainage project, the contract for which was awarded several weeks ago.

He said the county had been unable to reach an agreement with three property owners involved and that the condemnation suit is being filed as a last resort.

The strip is needed for the eastern end of the proposed drainage canal which would empty into Midland Draw, east of Midland.

Meanwhile, the Commissioners Court formally canvassed the results of Saturday's election on a proposed $1,250,000 bond issue to provide additional funds for the Front Street project.

The results were the same as those announced Saturday night after the polls closed, 239 to 106.

Nationally Famous Clowns To Appear At Midland Rodeo

Ken Boen and Jim Schumacher, nationally famous rodeo clowns, will clown the 17th Annual World Championship Midland Rodeo, May 29-June 3. Clarence Schorbauer, Jr., president of Midland Fair, Inc., announced Tuesday.

Schumacher and his famous bull-fighting barrel have been seen at previous rodeos here, but it will be Ken Boen's first appearance in Midland.

Boen also will be presented at each of the five rodeo performances in his popular comedy horse act, "The Old Gray Mare" which is termed one of the really outstanding comedy acts in rodeo business.

Schorbauer said he has been advised by Everett Colborn, producer of the show, that Ray Lackland of Dallas, again will announce the Midland Rodeo. Lackland, one of the best in the business, was at the loud-speaker microphone during the 1950 show here.

It Threads Needles And Peels Potatoes

LONDON—(AP)—The Soviet Union announced Tuesday it has perfected "improved types of electronic machines for artificial rain."

But the Russian rain-maker also has a fair weather use, the Soviet news agency Tass said in a dispatch from Moscow.

The machines, Tass said, "also mechanize the application of fertilizers and chemical substances for fighting weeds and vermin." The announcement did not elaborate.

Here's How Filmmakers Feel --And You Can Quote Them

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—On the Record: Veteran actor H. B. Warner on Hollywood's current crop of new faces: "Most of them don't know Friday from Philadelphia about acting."

Rita Hayworth's agent, Abe Lastfogel: "Rita has never looked more beautiful. She's learned the realities about the good things of life worth holding."

Gary Cooper, on autograph collectors: "I like 'em as long as they bring their own pencils and don't push."

Varga, creator of the leggy Varga girl, on how long he's been fascinated by feminine legs: "When I was eight years old and in school I dropped my pencil all the time so I could get a better look at my teacher's legs."

Sophie Tucker, about TV censorship: "I won't let them blue-pencil me. I've never gotten along in the movies and radio because they won't let me be Sophie Tucker. Listen, I'm not a 16-year-old girl. I know what to do and how far to go."

Linda Darnell, about romance: "I've got a year to wait before I can marry again. Once I had three dates in a row with a very nice guy. Everybody said 'Oops!' so we stopped seeing each other."

Scotty Beckett, whose divorce from Beverly Baker is final May 31, has been rejected for military service because of an asthmatic condition.

Hollywood's animal eyes still is cycling. Now it's a bull named Saturn due for a glamour buildup in "Ring Around Saturn."

Jazz has replaced Schmitz in Germany for the first time in history, with Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington leading the record sales there. . . . Paul Henreid's return to the stage, in "The Merry Widow" in San Francisco, has Hollywood buzzing. "Another Pinza?" The Frisco critics are still raving.

Handyman Grilled In Disappearance Of 10-Year-Old Girl

SANTA ANA, CALIF. — (AP)—A guitar-playing handyman, Henry Ford McCracken, 34, was being grilled Tuesday about the disappearance last Saturday of 10-year-old Patricia Jean Hull.

Sheriff's Sgt. Boyd Sturgis said a witness had been located who saw McCracken take a little girl answering Patricia's description into a Buena Park auto court cabin late Saturday afternoon. Bloodstains were found in the cabin after McCracken's arrest.

But McCracken stubbornly maintained his innocence. He admitted he was at a children's movie matinee which Patricia attended, but he denied he had attempted to molest her in the theater or that he went to the cabin with her.

Holly Holland, 27, a house mover, nevertheless told officers McCracken brought a little girl "who looked like Patricia, even to her blonde braids" into a cabin across the court from the one Holland occupies.

Bloodstains found in McCracken's cabin—on the bed, the mattress, a pillow, walls, the floor and on the shower floor, as well as in the shower drain.

Sheriff's Chemist Jack Cadman said the blood is not McCracken's and that he hoped to determine Patricia's blood type Tuesday through perspiration tests on clothing provided by her family.

A widespread search for the girl is continuing throughout Orange County.

Sergeant Sturgis said McCracken, held on suspicion of kidnaping, also had failed to register for Selective Service, and failed to register as a convicted sex offender.

During a break in the questioning early Tuesday McCracken talked briefly with newsmen. He displayed a bruised and cut thumb, which he said had been caught in a car door, and an injury on his right leg caused, he said, by a dog bite. McCracken said these injuries accounted for the blood found in his auto court cabin.

OHIO STATE CO-ED WATER FIGHT ENDS IN STUDENT RIOT
COLUMBUS, OHIO — (AP)—A friendly water fight among sorority sisters dressed in swim suits mushroomed into a near riot of 8,000 Ohio State University students Monday night.

Before the melee ended in High Street—one of the busiest in Columbus—police quelled the students with tear gas and carried off nine of them on disorderly conduct charges.

University officials put out a rearing bonfire the students started in High Street.

Things were quiet enough when about 100 members of Pi Beta Phi and Kappa Alpha Theta sororities started squirting water at each other. Then the football Halfback Walt Kivay appeared on the scene.

Some of the girls started after Walt, one reporter said. That was the signal for his fraternity, Kappa Sigma, to enter the battle.

When the party got rougher some called the cops. They came in 10 cruisers. A co-ed poured a bucket of water in the first. She was the first to be arrested. Minutes later students greeted police in other cruisers with well-aged eggs and over-ripe tomatoes. They also let the air out of tires of three cruisers.

An extensive program of activities for the welfare of disabled veterans will depend on a little red poppy next Saturday.

Saturday is Poppy Day in Midland and members of the American Legion Auxiliary and other groups will offer the bright crepe paper flowers for sale.

It means a lot to the disabled veterans, and Mrs. Vivian Steele, rehabilitation chairman of the Wood W. Lynch Post No. 19 unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, Tuesday explained why.

"The dime, quarters and dollars which people contribute in exchange for their memorial poppies," she said, "form the backbone of the financial support for the extensive activities carried on constantly by the Auxiliary for the welfare of disabled veterans."

"If it were not for the generosity of the millions of people who wear the little red poppy each year in memory of the war dead, the many services of the Auxiliary to the living victims of the two wars could not be continued."

The city announced Tuesday a new policy for handling Midland's dog problem.

The animals will be exterminated only in cases of extreme viciousness or incurable illness.

City Manager W. H. Cawalt said the new program was worked out Monday in a conference with officials of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The conference was arranged after the SPCA had protested announced plans to enforce the city's dog ordinance. One provision called for extermination of unclaimed animals after a prescribed period.

"But the SPCA agreed to provide food for the unclaimed dogs and to find homes for them," Cawalt said Tuesday.

"If they fill the present animal shelter to capacity, it will be up to the SPCA to find additional space for their care."

Under plans announced by the city manager, dogs will be picked up by the poundmaster only on complaint and if the animals are not under restraint.

For repeated offenses by the animals, owners are subject to prosecution in Corporation Court.

106-Year-Old Baptist College May Be Moved

BELTON — (AP)—Trustees of historic Mary Hardin-Baylor College are considering proposals to merge the school with the University of Corpus Christi or move it to Houston.

A committee is to investigate all possibilities. The date it is to report hasn't been announced, some trustees of the Belton area say they believe a way can be found to keep the 106-year-old Baptist school here.

Mary Hardin-Baylor once was known as the largest women's college west of the Mississippi. Its resident enrollment was from 1,500 to 2,000. It reached a peak enrollment in 1920. Since then the number of its students has declined gradually.

Enrollment this term is about 200. Candy is important in the armed services because much nourishment is packed in a small and easily carried form.

Harry Hamilton's Paintings To Be Exhibited Here

The paintings of Harry Heber Hamilton, a former college president, will be on exhibit at the Palmetto Club for a week beginning at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Paul James of Midland arranged for the exhibit to be brought here.

Hamilton showed natural talent as a child and has sketched all his life but he never took his painting seriously until he retired from the educational field in 1944 and took up oil painting. His only formal training was a few art courses in college. His paintings are characterized by a spirit of serenity and naturalness and his work is said to be an inspiration to those who have always wanted to paint but never had the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton live in Keene, home of the Southwestern Junior College of which he was president. He also has been president of Southern Junior College near Chattanooga, Tenn., and Washington Missionary College in Tacoma Park, Washington, D. C.

Allied Solidarity Essential

Most Americans probably muttered "it's about time" when they learned that Britain finally had decided to stop shipping rubber to Red China.

Nevertheless, they aren't likely to be contemptuous of the action simply because it is belated. They can read this and other signs as evidence that the British do not value lightly their ties with the United States.

Differences among allies are, of course, to be expected. But some of the differences separating the U. S. and Britain in the Far East have seemed to be serving the Communist enemy too well, both directly and by dividing the free world.

The shipment of materials useful in war was one such difference. Another is Britain's insistence on recognizing the Red China regime and encouraging other nations to follow suit.

British politicians, who are quite astute when it comes to gauging storm signals, realized these differences were exerting a serious strain on the Anglo-American alliance.

Consequently, the curbing of rubber shipments must be taken as a definite attempt by Britain to avoid any real breach and draw the two nations closer on the critical Far Eastern front.

Winston Churchill, a keen analyst of American attitudes, virtually demanded that the British Labor government go further and withdraw its formal recognition of Communist China.

He urged the Attlee cabinet to take no course which would harm U. S.-British relations and leave the impression that Americans are "left to do all the work while we pull at their coat tails and read them moral lessons in statecraft and the love we all ought to have for China."

Churchill went on: "It is the duty of His Majesty's government so to act to prove beyond all doubt and question we are full comrades of the American democracy and stand with them, whatever may happen, as brothers in arms."

There's no indication yet that the British government is prepared to cancel out its recognition of Red China. It may reach that point, especially since recognition has not been reciprocated by China and the British thus far have had very little for their pains.

However that may be, we on this side of the Atlantic must welcome the signs that Britain understands the need of all free men to stand together against a common foe.

The important thing is to gain and hold solidarity of purpose and strength. For with that, the enemy can be thwarted in his objective to conquer the globe.

Kibitzer's Delight

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Joint Chiefs considered MacArthur a rash commander; MacArthur indirectly killed U.M.T. bill; Italy and Peru volunteer troops for Korea.

WASHINGTON — The Senate's ruling that star witnesses in the MacArthur hearings will not have to testify regarding confidential conversations presumably will hold for confidential conversations between Gen. Omar Bradley and the other members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

However, some of the private reactions during the MacArthur discussions are significant. Inside fact is that the joint chiefs were extremely nervous about the idea of ousting MacArthur and took care to avoid the word "recommend" in reporting to the White House that MacArthur be fired.

Instead, and after considerable private debate, they decided to use the word "Militarily Advisable." Therefore, a report that it was "militarily advisable" to relieve MacArthur was signed by all four of the joint chiefs.

Despite this compromise-wording there was no question among the joint chiefs that MacArthur should go. There were three general reasons for this view, and it is interesting that none of them really agreed with Truman's reasons—namely, MacArthur's flouting of orders by discussing foreign policy.

Reason No. 1—Was the fact that the joint chiefs considered MacArthur too rash as a military commander and likely to let American forces in for more trouble.

Tying MacArthur's Hands That was why they actually tied his hands with the military directive regarding the bombing of Chinese bases. They decided he could bomb Chinese bases if—and they were two very big ifs—(1) The Communists threw in enough air power to jeopardize our ground troops; or (2) if the Chinese attacked any U.N. ships or installations outside Korea.

But MacArthur was given a further directive that before he could do any bombing in either of the above categories he must first consult the joint chiefs. In other words, what might provoke MacArthur into bombing Manchuria might not be enough to provoke the joint chiefs. They didn't trust his judgment, were afraid he would interpret these conditions far more liberally than they.

Reason No. 2—Was the fact that MacArthur was not one to take suggestions or guidance from the joint chiefs. While it is J.C.S. policy not to dictate to the commander in the field, they do reserve the right to give general guidance and make suggestions.

And they were quite provoked during MacArthur's November advance into North Korea that he ignored their warning that there was not battle communications between General Walker's 8th Army and General Almond's 10th Corps. When the joint chiefs warned MacArthur about this, he replied, rather coldly, that there was sufficient liaison.

However, the joint chiefs, still not satisfied, asked MacArthur a second time why General Almond and his 10th Corps were operating independently of the 8th Army, leaving a big gap between the two forces. MacArthur replied, unconvincedly, that General Almond and his 10th Corps were drawing Chinese pressure away from the 8th Army.

Later when the Chinese struck, they picked the hole that had worried the joint chiefs, and smashed right into the vacuum between the 10th Corps and the 8th Army.

Reason No. 3—However, what finally got the joint chiefs really sore at MacArthur was the way his statement about using Chiang Kai-Shek's troops in Korea killed the Universal Military Training Bill.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Probably each of us knows some bridge player who plays by hunch and most of us wish we didn't. A hunch is that strange instinct that tells a bridge player he's right—whether he is or not.

When today's hand was actually played, South had a hunch that the king of trumps would drop. He took the opening lead in dummy.

with the ace of clubs, finessed the queen of spades, and then confidently banged down the ace of spades.

This brilliant maneuver did declare no good at all. He had to lose a trump, a diamond, and two clubs.

Do I hear somebody say that the contract must be lost anyway? Look again, for South can make four spades if he plays the hand properly.

Correct play is to win the first trick with the ace of clubs and finesse the queen of spades to begin with. When the finesse holds, South should abandon trumps. The chance that the king will drop is far too small.

South leads a heart to dummy's ace and ruffs a heart with the eight of spades. He leads a diamond to the king and ruffs another heart with the nine of spades. He then gets to dummy with the ace of diamonds and ruffs still another heart with the ten of spades.

This leaves South with just the ace-jack of spades and three losing cards in the minor suits. He leads a club or a diamond to let the enemy take their three tricks. When they have done so somebody else will be in the lead, and South must surely make both his ace and his jack of trumps.

Extra! Senator's Maiden Speech Eleven Words Long—Count 'Em

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The newest senator, Blair Moody of Michigan, acquitted himself in fine form in his maiden speech. Until his appointment to succeed the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg, Senator Moody was a Washington newspaper correspondent himself.

So the capital press corps was watching closely and critically for his first utterance on the floor. It was clear, direct, right to the point, delivered in fine voice, and it was brief. In fact, it was only 11 words long.

It came after Senator Kerr of Oklahoma had answered a speech by Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan. Senator Kerr kept referring to him as just "the senator from Michigan."

Whereupon Senator William F. Knowland of California rose to point out that the Congressional Record should be changed to identify Senator Ferguson as "the senior senator from Michigan," so that school children of the future would know which one he was talking about.

Senator Kerr thanked him for the suggestion, and then up rose Senator Moody. Obtaining recognition, he said loud and clear: "Mr. President, I should like to thank the senator from California." Then he sat down.

Catmen in A Stew The convention of catmen which met in Washington last week to protest against meat price controls had quite an argument over what to serve at the dinner they gave for congressmen, the press and radio correspondents. As loyal catmen, they thought they ought to serve beef. But the story they were trying to put over with the Congress was that the price control order would create a shortage of beef.

So some thought they ought to serve pork or chicken. In the end they served beef. Congress Passes The Buck Congress is in a funny kind of box on renewal of price control authority in the Defense Mobilization Act, which expires June 30. If Congress doesn't renew the authority, and prices go up, Congress gets the blame. On the other hand, if Congress renews the authority, and if price control regulations then don't stop price rises, congressmen always can put the blame on Office of Price Stabilization for writing regulations which didn't work.

This reasoning is what made many congressmen shy away from the meat lobby's suggestion that price control authority be killed. Politicians have to be awfully careful on what they say. Some careless remark that would be regarded as just a wisecrack when uttered by an ordinary citizen can be picked up and used with damaging effect against a politician.

Senator William Benton of Connecticut ran into this at a recent Jackson Day dinner speech in New Haven. Like all the guests, Benton had to pay his $100 for a ticket to get in. "I hope you won't decide that every time I open my mouth you've got to charge me $100 to make me enjoy it and to make me realize that I'm a resident Democrat," said Benton in his opening remarks.

Then he added: "But I'll be back next year—and the year after that—even if I have to get a loan from RFC to swing it." Republican National Committee promptly picked up this gag and broadcast it with the query, "Has it come to this?" Domestic Detractor Rep. James P. Richards, of South Carolina, new chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, has a consistent voting record in favor of most Truman Administration foreign policy measures.

In the 80th Congress, he voted for full Marshall Plan appropriations, extension of reciprocal trade act, and maximum admission of displaced persons. In 81st Congress he voted for Point Four, Korean aid and Far Eastern aid. In the present Congress, with the late Chairman Keefe much of the time, Richards took the lead in supporting Truman foreign policy proposals. But on domestic issues Richards has voted almost as consistently against the Truman proposals.

Operating On Credit Newest lobby to put in an appearance against renewal of stabilization controls is an outfit called American Finance Conference. It's made up of credit organizations who want to repeal Regulation "W." This is the Federal Reserve Board regulation which limits payments on auto and other consumer purchases as one measure to check inflation. When William Howard Taft was Secretary of State, he hardly ever missed a baseball game in Washington. He was a large man, weighing over 300 pounds and he always bought two seats so as to have plenty of room. One day the usher took a look at the tickets and then laughed as he remarked, "You are going to have a little difficulty; these seats are on opposite ends of the row."

THE STORY: Lucilla Webb, 37 and slender, enrolls in the Beautiful-You School to improve her figure, but she does not tell her husband that she wrote a check for $200 on their joint account to pay the fee.

WHEN Lucilla Webb went in the direction Mrs. Coxthwaite had pointed, to the same corner Mrs. Coips had been hopping in, she discovered that the Glamour Guide in charge there really was Miss Willit, but a far brisker Miss Willit, who didn't even mention her old pupil Clarice Tompkins. She turned Lucilla all around, prodded her spine with a businesslike finger, and said "You've got kyphosis and lordosis, but especially kyphosis. That means hollow-chested and sway-back." Lucilla straightened, trying to pull in and push out her chest. "And when you do that, your chin sticks out much too far." The chin retreated. "Now, if you'll close your eyes and hop on one foot toward the wall."

Lucilla was chagrined to teeter so wily on the third hop that her other foot hit the floor. Miss Willit said mmmmm, and made a mark in a notebook. "A bit off balance, aren't we? Oh well, that can be remedied." "I'm glad," Lucilla said humbly. It seemed very important to learn to hop on one foot with both eyes shut. As she proceeded, now on both feet, to the fourth and final corner, she passed Paris Green moving with majestic calm. They greeted each other like comrades reunited in the ebb and flow of battle. "I got to take two inches off the upper hip," Paris announced, patting her own bare leg affectionately. "Calves are okay." A faint film of bafflement covered her lovely face. "That dame with the breastwork says she gets change my voice." Paris massaged her middle. "If they take care of this belly-roll and the upper hip, I say to heck with the voice."

"Girls! Please!" It was their floor mother. "Have you been in all four corners? Because if not, I see no reason for your wasting time." They were guiltily silent. Without another word, Paris went off to Hopping and Candid Body View, and Lucilla hurried to the far right-hand corner where an impressive out-size machine crouched on iron legs, a cross between something at the Hayden Planetarium and an atom-smashing cyclotron. This was the Pore Telescope. Behind it stood a Glamour Guide wearing a mauve smock over her satin panty-waist.

She introduced herself as Miss Dottle, Skin and Contour Study, and motioned Lucilla to sit on a chair before the Pore Telescope and stick her face into the near end of the machine. Miss Dottle then pressed one eye to her end of the lens, and viewed Lucilla's pores. "Oh ohhhhhh!" she said, as if she'd just discovered new craters on the moon. "There at the side of the nose—the pores I see through this powerful magnifier lens are really distended." She peered again, giving circles of discovery or distress. "Wait till we've unseated that baby sine, subcutaneous tissue. Off with the old—on with the new. Like snakes."

"Snakes!" Lucilla's head withdrew from the telescope hastily. "Even a snake has sense enough to slough off that skin when it gets too scaly," Miss Dottle announced. "And as Mary Meadows always tells the students, we must follow Nature if we're going to get anywhere." She put her eye to the telescope again. "Mrs. Webb! There was anguish in her tone. "Have you had your face out in the sun?" "Why, I—why, yes." She had sat on the bench in Washington Square the day before, while Hoopy rode her bike around the fountain.

"Don't ever, ever do that again. Mary Meadows says a woman over 25 must never allow the sun to touch the face directly." LUCILLA found herself standing horribly alone against one mirror, with her classmates all on the opposite tent. For some reason (perhaps because the floor mother said, "Hold it, girls!") she had the feeling she must keep her eyes fixed straight ahead, on some particular object. Since the Bulgies were the only objects in her direct line of vision, this was awkward; there was an irresistible urge to stare at the weakest parts, at a sagging middle or a varicose-veined leg, at the broadest point of an upper hip or the lowest lap of chin. Seeing them all at once, she had a sudden sorrowful realization of how large a miracle was needed to produce the New You. Doubt began to stretch through her tighter and tighter. She forgot why they were standing there, until a movement at the door distracted her. The Glamour Guides had lined up forming a kind of archway. Mrs. Coxthwaite stepped in front of them, and gave the impression she was about to blow a bugle, or beat her breasts like a drum-roll. "Miss Meadows."

A tall, regally handsome blonde woman walked through the archway of Glamour Guides and stood in the center of the room, not saying a word until the hush could be cut with a vowel tone. "Hello." It was no ordinary greeting. Her voice had that warm, devastating simplicity of a leading lady who comes out before the curtain on opening night to thank the enraptured audience for being so very sweet. Her outfit had the same beautifully calculated simplicity, as if the actress had sat down with Molyneux and said, "Darling, in the first act my costume must be chic, but utterly, utterly well-bred."

Mary Meadows was smiling, the handsome red lips parted just so far, to display perfect teeth, and the large dark eyes. (To Be Continued)

Questions and Answers

Q—What is the relationship between peat and coal? A—Peat is the first step in the changing of vegetable matter into coal. If there had been enough pressure and heat it would eventually have become coal.

Q—Why has Bolivia no coastline? A—Several thousand square miles and its outlet to the Pacific were taken by Chile after a disastrous war in the 19th century.

Q—Where are the asteroids located? A—Asteroids are small planetary bodies between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter, revolving about the sun. The first asteroid was discovered by Piazzi in 1801. The number known at the present time is about 990.

Q—When Abraham Lincoln delivered his inaugural address how many future Presidents were present? A—Four future presidents of the United States stood on the platform near Lincoln: Hayes, Garfield, Arthur and Benjamin Harrison.

Q—Who composed "Taps" a bugle call of the United States Army? A—"Taps" was composed during the Civil War by Gen. Daniel Butter of the Union Army.

Two Airman Die In Trainer Crash

WACO (AP)—Two airman were killed in the crash of a Connally Air Force Base training plane Monday on a farm near Mt. Cain, Hill County.

They were Second Lieutenant Richard I. Palm, 23, of China Lake, Calif., and Cadet Harvey Salbars, 27, of Webster, Harris County, Texas. Palm was an instructor.

The plane's undercarriage struck soft dirt of a field terrace and the craft nosed over. Witnesses said it apparently was attempting a forced landing.

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Trick Of A Trickster

Senator Algyon was a trickster. He had given Daddy Ringtail a box for Mother Ringtail to put her flowers in. The Senator had even nailed the box onto a tree for a place to keep it. Oh, but now the Senator wanted five dollars for all the nothing the box was full of. "Senator," said Daddy Ringtail, "I don't want to buy the nothing the box is full of. I don't want to pay you five dollars for it. It isn't fair to pay for nothing, you know."

But Senator Algyon (poor fellow) had not yet learned to be fair, he said. All he wanted was the five dollars for the nothing that was in the box. Oh yes! Senator Algyon was a trickster. The box itself was a present. He wanted money for the nothing in it. The Senator laughed and said: "Daddy Ringtail, of course you don't have to buy the nothing. You can shovel it out if you want to." With these words, the Senator laughed out loud. It was impossible, he knew, to take a shovel and shovel out the nothing in the box.

By Wesley Davis

He was a trickster, right, all right. Yes, and do you know what a trickster needs? He needs to be tricked himself. Oh! yes he does! A trick on a trickster is just the thing to teach him not to be a trickster any more.

Well, Daddy Ringtail knew what to do, and so he did it. He got a shovel and was all ready to begin his shoveling. How the Senator laughed to see it! The Senator knew that Daddy Ringtail could not shovel out the nothing—not even with a million shovels.

Ah yes, and that is when the trick began to do its tricking. Daddy Ringtail began to shovel dirt up into the box. As the dirt in the box became more and more, the nothing in the box became less and less. At last, the box was full to the top with dirt. Not a bit of nothing was left inside, and so this was the happy trick on a trickster, all on a very happy day.

Happy day to you at your house! and to the folks next door.

Iran Rallies Called To Fan Resentment Against U.S., Britain

TEHRAN, IRAN—(AP)—Iran's Moslem religious leaders and her Communist underground—both sworn to drive foreign oil interests out of their land—called mass rallies Tuesday to fan growing resentment against Britain and the United States.

The Moslems, who threaten holy war if the British resist nationalization of their giant Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, called a demonstration to "express hatred against interferences which violate our independence." The rally also was aimed against America taking any hand.

The underground Tudeh (Communist) Party, which opposes Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's electoral reforms and accuses him of dealing on oil nationalization, has summoned a meeting of trade unionists. This also was expected to develop into a blast against Britain and the U. S.

Anti-British and anti-American sentiment grew in both press and parliament following Monday night's diplomatic protest in which Iran's nationalistic government accused the U. S. of interference in its internal affairs by siding with the British in the critical oil dispute.

The Communists put up only light resistance to the United Nations advance, AP Correspondent Nate Polowetzky reported from S Eighth Army headquarters. Allied troops pushed ahead two miles and more Tuesday morning.

Reds were reported withdrawing across the Imjin River, northwest of Seoul. Pursuing South Koreans marched through Munsan for the second straight day. Some units reached as far as 25 miles northwest of Seoul.

Americans Cross Hongchon British, American and Korean forces pushed up to the Hongchon and Pusan Rivers southeast of Changong, 25 miles northeast of Seoul.

American units crossed the Hongchon southeast of Kapyong. Red artillery center 32 miles northeast of Seoul. The Red bridgehead across the rivers virtually had disappeared.

An Eighth Army officer said the Reds were withdrawing to escape American artillery fire, a major factor in the destruction of an estimated 60,000 of their comrades in five days on the central front.

Allied troops were aided by round-the-clock air support.

Warplanes were at it again Tuesday, despite unfavorable weather. During the night, B-29's dropped 640 bombs on the Red front lines.

Results of "precision bombing carried out within 400 yards of the front line were amazing," a ground officer reported.

FEAF said its daytime raiders inflicted 750 Red casualties. The Navy reported its carrier-based planes accounted for 650 more.

Heavy Wind—

Henry Barbee, U. S. Army engineer from Denison, said it was difficult to tell whether the winding river had reached its crest, but estimated that if it hadn't it would Wednesday.

Meanwhile, U. S. weather observers said all of Texas was generally cloudy Tuesday except the El Paso area. The forecast called for scattered thundershowers through Wednesday in the northwest and extreme north portions of East Texas. Rain also was forecast for the Panhandle and in the South Plains from the Pecos Valley eastward.

Hard thundershowers and stiff winds beat at points from Dallas to San Angel Monday night and early Tuesday. Fort Worth had 1.43 inches of rain, Dallas 1.16; Abilene 1.20; Childress .80 and Mineral Wells .69.

A cold front extended from Central Oklahoma through Wichita Falls and Abilene into the Big Bend country, leaving thundershowers and gusty winds in its wake. It had caused precipitation in the Panhandle, South Plains and the upper Red River Valley. It was not expected to extend into South and Southeast Texas. Weather officials said it probably would become stationary in the next 24 hours and move northward as a warm front.

Rains were more or less general within a 100-mile area of Abilene. Winds up to 55 miles an hour caused some damage at Abilene Monday. A garage at the State Hospital, southeast of Abilene, was blown down and four cars were damaged. Abilene had 1.30 inches of rain.

Gusty winds accompanied a thundershower at Amarillo. The wind was 42 miles an hour with gusts to 55. Wichita Falls had light rain. There was rain and blowing dust at Big Spring, and rain at Mineral Wells and Del Rio.

Another MacArthur Staff Officer Retires

TOKYO—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, General MacArthur's intelligence officer almost 10 years, Tuesday sailed for the United States and retirement.

Willoughby asked to be retired shortly after MacArthur was ousted as Far East commander. He said he wanted to help MacArthur.

He has been in the Army 40 years, the last 14 in the Pacific and Far East.

Evening Lions Club To Nominate Leaders

Nominations for regular 1951-52 officers to take office in July will be made at a meeting of the Evening Lions Club at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The meeting will be held at the Ranchland Hill Country Club, where the new Lions club now convenes weekly.

Officers now serving the club, which recently received its charter, are doing so on a temporary basis. Some of them will retain their positions, however.

A nominating committee is at work and nominations will also be made from the floor.

Temporary officers include Robert Drake, president; Morris Hill, first vice president; Clem Ware, second vice president; Charles Fredregill, third vice president, and B. L. Critch, secretary-treasurer.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★
Don't Try Eye Exercises Unless Advised By Specialist

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

"A person is near-sighted and wears glasses. Will eye exercises improve his vision of distant objects beyond the degree to which glasses will help?" This question raised by J. W. points up the subject of eye exercises—a matter which is most difficult to discuss, partly because it has become an emotional matter with some people.

Now it is almost certain that eye exercises will not change the size or shape of the eye permanently and therefore it could not be expected to do much for near-sightedness or astigmatism. For such purposes, properly fitted glasses are likely to do more.

The testimony of those who claim to have been helped by exercises in such conditions cannot be ignored, however, and this subject deserves and is receiving the serious attention of those who are qualified to judge.

In disorders of the eye such as glaucoma and cataracts there is little reason to believe that eye exercises are helpful. In fact, exercises may be dangerous because they delay or prevent treatment with drugs or surgery which would prevent blindness.

It is not wise, therefore, for a person to start on eye exercises (J. W. in latter part of his letter asks for specific directions) unless he is so advised by a competent eye specialist who can observe the progress and is alert for any developments which make it hazardous to continue.

Eye exercises have recognized value in certain kinds of squint, a condition in which the two eyes do not focus together satisfactorily. Used for this purpose the exercises are called "orthoptics," and when properly performed are really useful.

Need Study

It does not help to get all excited about some new development such as eye exercises, because too many people get disappointed or may even be harmed. It is worth while, however, to take such things seriously and study them carefully. In weighing the advantages and disadvantages—and the possible uses—surely someone who has spent his life studying the eye is in a better position to judge than the rest of us.

Tennessee Shine Makers Go Modern

CHATTANOOGA, TENN.—(P)—TVA power, coupled with some native East Tennessee ingenuity, has resulted in a new device in this region of moonshine whiskey: an electric still.

Hamilton County Sheriff Rex Richey Monday confiscated an elaborate, electrically heated "pot" stop remote Daisy Mountain.

Six heating units, which eliminated the giveaway smoke, were built inside the 50-gallon pot, the officer said.

Richey said Harold Crowe, 43-year-old former State Forestry Service worker, was arrested and charged with possessing untaxed whiskey.

The sheriff quoted Crowe as saying he got his idea for the operation from hearing advertisements boasting the area's "cheap electricity."

Rotation Program Shifts Into High

SAN FRANCISCO—(P)—The military rotation of combat veterans home from the Korean fighting front has shifted into high gear.

Two transports bearing 1,906 soldiers and 358 Marines docked Monday. It was the third shipload of Army men and the fifth of Marines to come home.

Tuesday, 1,488 soldiers were due on the transport Gen. William Mitchell.

Thursday, the Gen. E. D. Patrick will arrive with 418 Air Force men—including pilots who shot down MIG jets—the first airmen to come home under the rotation program.

1951-1950 Outfits Set For Spring Grid Clash

Midland High School's Spring football training comes to an end Tuesday night, when the 1950 gridviers will with Coach Turboat Jones' 1951 eleven on the Memorial Stadium sod.

Kickoff time is 8 p.m., with regular paid officials due to run the show.

The 1950 team will wear purple jerseys, while Jones' coming-up team will be decked out in white shirts. Programs will be available for the affair, Jones said.

The Midland mentor said the "Seniors looked good in workouts Monday, and we expect a good ball game."

Red Rutledge or Audrey Gill will tutor the 1950 bunch. Admission prices are 30 cents for children and 60 cents for adults.

Six Americans Gain Victories Tuesday In British Amateur

PORHCRAWL, WALES.—(P)—Smiling Sammy Ursetta, the 25-year-old "baby" of the U. S. Walker Cup team, made his debut in the British Amateur Golf Championship a victorious one Tuesday as he defeated Steve Trednick of England 3 and 2 in a second-round match during a driving rainstorm.

Ursetta was preceded into the third round by Bill Campbell, a Walker Cup teammate from Huntington, W. Va., who bested Henry Howell of Wales 5 and 3.

Bo Winger of Pleasantville, N. J., racked up another American victory at the expense of C. D. Lawrie, a former Scottish champion, 4 and 3.

Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, the 1948 American Amateur champion, scored a 6 and 5 victory over George Coleman of Miami, Okla. First U. S. Casualty.

The first casualty among the U. S. cup players came when Harold Paddock of Cleveland bowed to Graham Packer of South Africa 3 and 3.

The American ranks were thinned further as R. J. Duncan of Scotland eliminated W. P. Scott, Jr., of San Francisco 4 and 2, and Wilbur Multhead of Scotland knocked out Ted Bassett of Rye, N. Y., 4 and 3.

Richard Gibson of Los Angeles did not show up for his scheduled match with W. A. Stark of England and was scratched.

Jimmy McHale of Philadelphia played sub-par golf to win a 6 and 5 victory over K. G. Patrick of Scotland.

Harold Kirkpatrick of Owensboro, Ky., whose upset of Hobart Manley, Jr., of Savannah, Ga., featured Monday's opening round, reached the third round with a 1-up victory over Jackson Taggart of Ireland.

Major Leagues—Cards On The Move

By The Associated Press

The comeback of Vernal (Nippy) Jones has injected new life into the St. Louis Cardinals.

The rise of the fortunes of the Cards dates from Jones' return to the varsity on May 15. Jones, whose career appeared ended two years ago, was shunted to the Rochester farm club early in the season in favor of Steve Bilbo. But Bilbo failed to come through and Jones was brought back up. His bat has been blazing since his return.

He has hit safely in the last seven games and is flailing away at a .407 clip at this point.

Monday, he drove in three runs to lead the Cards to a 5-3 victory over the New York Giants in the only game scheduled in the National League.

Meanwhile, the New York Yankees protected their two-game lead in the American League with a 2-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns while second-place Chicago was beating Washington 5-3. The Boston Red Sox outlasted Detroit 9-7 in the only other game scheduled.

Standard Of Texas Climbs To Third In JayCee League

Rendezvous shoved American Legion deeper into the cellar and Standard of Texas defeated Shell Oil 10-3 in JayCee League softball games Monday night.

The Rendezvous nine won 10-1 as H. Brown buried two-hit ball. He struck out two. A. Z. Sturges was the losing pitcher. Sturges allowed but five hits. Bases on balls was his downfall as he walked nine. The winners scored four runs in the fourth off three hits and a pair of walks.

Milton (Daddy) Montgomery won for Standard, as he limited Shell to four hits and struck out eight. Jack Smith, the loser, gave up five hits. Standard put together three hits, three Shell errors and a base on balls to score seven runs in the fifth inning.

City Major standings:

W	L
Rotary Engineers	6 2
Western Plastic	5 2
Standard of Texas	5 3
Shell Oil	4 3
Rendezvous	2 6
American Legion	1 7

Midland Youths Get Chance To Play 'Texas League' Ball

Four Midland boys probably will get the thrill of a lifetime Tuesday night in Fort Worth.

Don Stringer, Arthur Mayhew, Dick Mills and John Redfern III are to be guests of the Fort Worth Cats baseball club Tuesday night, and will work with the Fort Worth and Dallas nine prior to their contest at LaGrave Field.

The Midland youngsters were to fly to Fort Worth Tuesday afternoon with Bill Holland, president of the Shorthorn League, and John Redfern, Jr., Little League official. The Midland boys are players in the two loops here and will wear their uniforms while in Fort Worth. They are to appear on a television show at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Curtiss Candy Company is sponsoring the lads' appearance in Fort Worth.

United States President John Tyler was the father of 14 children.

THEM WUZ THE DAYS—Billy Sullivan shows Cy Young where the ball was when he was one of the immortal right-handers' 2836 strikeout victims. Sullivan caught for the Hillless Wonders, the White Sox of 1901-06. Young won 511 games in the majors. The Grand Old Men were in Boston to help celebrate the American League's Golden Jubilee. (NEA)

Cowtown's Colonial Open Attracting Big Name Golfers

PORT WORTH.—(P)—The field was gathering fast Tuesday for Fort Worth's $15,000 Colonial Open. More practice rounds were on tap.

There was a chance three of the event's top-rated players: Sam Snead, Ben Hogan and Lloyd Mangrum, would tour the 7,035-yard Colonial Club layout.

They weren't on hand Monday when Vardon Trophy Leader Jim Ferrer "just practiced" a bit and three of the several native Texans who will play posted fine practice scores.

There'll be no more practice after Wednesday. The first round of the 72-hole event will be played Thursday. First money is $3,000. There are 42 entries.

Jackie Burke, Jr., of Houston had a two-under-par 68 in practice Monday. Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., had a 69. Chuck Klein of San Antonio also had a 69, and Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill., and Tony Penna of Cincinnati fired 70's.

Cotton

NEW YORK.—(P)—Tuesday noon cotton prices were $1 a bale lower to 10 cents higher than the previous close. July 42.25, October 39.25 and December 38.75.

Indians Come Back To Nip Vernon 8-7 On Jones' Hit

Midland and the Artesia Drillers open a two-game series at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Indian Park, before the Indians depart on a road trip. Dave McKennie is the probable Midland pitcher.

Catcher Kenny Jones slammed a sharp single to center field in the last of the ninth with the bases loaded to score Eddie Jacome from third and give the come-back Midland Indians an uphill 8-7 win over the Vernon Dusters here Monday night.

It was the second successive game Midland nipped the Dusters in the last of the ninth.

Longhorn League Bronc's Sanchez Trims Rockets In Double Bill

By The Associated Press

Paul Sanchez turned in an iron-man stunt in the Longhorn League Sunday night, pitching the Big Spring Broncs to a pair of wins over the Roswell Rockets.

The twin victory moved Big Spring into a third-place tie in the pennant race and gave Sanchez his fifth and sixth victories of the 1951 season.

The big fire-baller gave up two hits to the Rockets to beat them 2-1 in the first game. He gave up six hits in the second but a fifth inning, when his mates scored five runs, gave him a comfortable lead from which to work behind. Big Spring won 8-2.

Midland nipped Vernon with a strong finish, winning 8-7, and Odessa beat Sweetwater 10-8. Artesia at San Angelo was rained out.

Midland scored two runs in the eighth, three in the ninth and the winning run in the ninth to beat Vernon. Three Duster pitchers could not stop the Indians.

Kenny Jones singled with the bases loaded to drive in Eddie Jacome with the winning run. It was the second night in a row for Midland to win in the last of the ninth.

Ray Miller, young right-hander started for Odessa and was credited with the first win of the season although he had to call for help. It was his first appearance of the season for the Oilers.

Manager Pepper Martin homered in the third with a mate aboard for the big blow of the game.

The scores:

First Game

Roswell	000 100 0-1 2 0
Big Spring	200 000 2-3 2 2
Shinn and Sanders; Sanchez and Valdes.

Second Game

Roswell	110 000 0-2 6 5
Big Spring	005 300 8-11 1 1

Sweetwater	000 005 003-8 12 1
Odessa	303 301 00x-10 16 2
McClish, Cloto, Zavala and Falcinelli; Miller, Johnson and Castro.

Brook's Abrams Leads National League Batters

NEW YORK.—(P)—Remember when Cal Abrams was low man in a four-way wrestle for Brooklyn's left field job? Well, now he's leading the National League in hitting with a .431 average.

It all happened suddenly with Abrams' six-hit surge in Sunday's doubleheader at Cincinnati sending him in front of teammate Jackie Robinson.

But Robinson didn't slump. He lost only five points from last week's leading mark. But he's 27 points back of Abrams with .404.

The league-leading Brooks monopolize the big hitting marks with Captain Pee Wee Reese third at .374.

Then comes Bob Elliott, Boston's slugging third baseman, at .367, Dick Sisler of the Phils, .357, and Virgil Stalcup of Cincinnati, .356, follow in that order.

A pair of first basemen, Dick Kryhoski of Detroit and Veteran Ferris Fain of Philadelphia, are battling for the American League batting lead.

The 26-year-old Kryhoski was going at a 403 clip through Sunday's games with 25 hits in 62. He collected four hits in 10 trips during the week to slip a point from his .404 a week ago.

Fain, 29-year-old Athletics' reliable who carved .382 last season, slammed 11 hits in 25 tries to climb 14 points to .393 and second place.

Last week's leader, Gil Coan of Washington, skidded 52 points from 412 to a third-place 290. Rookie Jim Busby of Chicago was fourth with .359 followed by Orestes Minoos of Chicago with .354; Ray Coleman, St. Louis, .347; Nelson Fox, Chicago, .340; Eddie Robinson, Chicago, .330; Yogi Berra, New York; .327; and Chico Carrasquel, Chicago, .325.

WT-NM League—Lubbock Earns Sixth Straight Win

By The Associated Press

The beleaguered West Texas-New Mexico League took another drubbing from the weatherman Monday night. Two of the four games were rained out.

But the rain didn't dampen the drive of the Lubbock Duffers, who won their sixth victory in a row and moved within two games of the league-leading Albuquerque Dukes. Lubbock beat Borger 8-1 while Lamesa was edging Amarillo 8-3. Albuquerque at Abilene and Clovis at Pampa were rained out.

Chris Haskins pitched and Al Kubeki batted Lubbock to its win. Kubeki had a two-run homer and a single that drove in another run. Haskins notched his second win of the season.

Lamesa's Lobos handed Amarillo its twentieth loss of the season although outbatted by the losers. Amarillo got 12 hits off Jim Reynolds while Lamesa was getting only seven—but they couldn't get to Reynolds with men on base.

McCAMEY—Ed Weatherby of Iran is the champion of McCamey's annual Country Club Tournament by virtue of his 4 and 2 victory over Red Quin of McCaskey in the tournament finals. Weatherby and all flight winners received wrist watches.

Roane Puett, Midland, defeated Pop Meador, Alpine, 3 and 2 to take the first flight consolation championship.

Sybil Flournoy Draws Polly Riley In Lubbock Tourney

LUBBOCK.—(P)—Medalist Betty Dodd of San Antonio squares away against Hilda Urbanke of Austin Tuesday in first-round play of the Women's Texas Golf Association Tournament.

A field of 141 moved out in a quest for championships in seven flights and one special event. A score of 90 or less Monday qualified for the championship flight.

Betty toured the Lubbock Country club course in men's par 71 to lead the qualifiers. Polly Riley of Fort Worth had a 77; Pat Garner of Midland a 78. Mrs. Frank Goldstein of Fort Worth and Mrs. Harold Delbacher of San Antonio tied for fourth with 79.

Officers and directors Monday voted Texarkana the site for next year's tournament.

Miss Riley meets Mrs. Frank Flournoy of Midland in Tuesday's first round. Miss Garner plays Mrs. Lou Louis of Lubbock.

Abilene Conference Will Attract Many Area Methodists

Ministers and lay delegates from Midland's three Methodist churches prepared Tuesday to attend the annual Northwest Texas Conference of Methodist churches in Abilene.

The meeting opens at 10 a.m. Wednesday at McMurry College and closes Sunday night with the reading of appointments for the coming year by Bishop William C. Martin of Dallas.

More than 600 ministers and delegates will attend the five-day conference.

Pastors of the Midland Methodist churches are the Rev. R. Luther Kirk, First Methodist; the Rev. J. B. Stewart, Asbury Methodist; and James B. Sharp, St. Mark's Methodist.

Animals with long legs also have long necks in order to reach their food without bending their knees.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-

Lonesome Offset Gets Show In Bend

The Texas Company No. 1-D Clarence Scharbauer, diagonal northwest offset to the one-well Lonesome field in Northwest-Central Midland County, has indicated as a discovery from the Pennsylvania Bend lime.

A drillstem test was made in the interval from 10,514 to 10,724 feet. Tool was open five hours. Gas surfaced in 15 minutes at the rate of 3,000 cubic feet per day. No fluid surfaced while the tool was open.

Recovery was 525 feet of gas-out mud and 2,830 feet of free oil. No water was recovered.

Flowing pressure ranged from 338 to 330 pounds. Shut-in pressure after 11 minutes was 1,625 pounds.

Ralph Lowe No. 1 Hill, discovery well of the Hill-Lohesome field, did not have signs of commercial production in the Bend. It was completed from the Dean sand of the Wolfcamp.

Operator is now drilling the project below 10,736 feet. After a few more feet of hole is made another drillstem test will be taken.

Location is 1,980 feet from south and west lines of section 19, block 39, T-2-S, T&P survey.

Oiler Finaled Near Midland Fields

Two and one-quarter miles southwest of the Germania field of Northwest Midland County, James H. Snowden and Associates completed their No. 1-9 McClintic from the Spraberry for a daily flowing potential of 168 barrels of 39.2-gravity oil.

The new oiler was finished through a 24 1/2-inch tubing chokes. Gas-oil ratio was 691-1 and tubing pressure was 125 pounds.

The well is two miles north of the nearest producer in the Tex-Harvey field and three-quarters of one mile southeast of Snowden No. 1-58 McClintic which was completed on the pump as a three mile south-west extension to the Germania field.

Location is 330 feet from north and 2,640 feet from east lines of section 14, block 3, MK&T survey. It is eight miles north of McCamey.

Opener Is Completed In E-C Runnels Area

Russell Hays and Ed Watts of San Angelo completed their No. 1 William Fowler, Jr., as a discovery and producer in East-Central Runnels County, and Youngblood & Foree of Dallas staked location for a 4,200-foot wildcat in the same portion of the county.

No. 1 Fowler was completed on the pump for a 24-hour potential of 35.76 barrels of 46-gravity oil. Production is from open hole in the Serratt sand at 2,344-2,352 feet.

Location is 2,250 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 150, ET survey. That puts it one and three-quarters miles southeast of the Patsy-Swasitka field.

Youngblood & Foree will drill No. 1 Hamp Byler 4,000 feet from north-east and 2,300 feet from southwest lines of Rama Christa survey 432 and two and one-half miles north-west of Ballinger.

Deep Wildcat Staked In SE Reagan Sector

Continental Oil Company has staked location for a 9,800-foot wildcat in Southeast Reagan County No. 1-3 University.

Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 3, block 49, University survey. That makes it four and one-half miles southeast of Big Lake.

Drillsite is three and one-quarter miles west of the Barnhart field and one and one-quarter miles southeast of Sun Oil Company No. 1 Gula Wilson Young, a 2,557-foot well.

SW Martin Wildcat To Test Fusselman

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 2-E-B G. W. Glass, Southwest Martin County wildcat, is at plugged back depth of 12,200 feet and is preparing to test the Fusselman through perforations.

A 5 1/2-inch liner was run from 10,400 to 12,198 feet. The liner will be perforated from 12,100 feet to 12,180 feet for tests of the Fusselman, which yielded oil on a drillstem test at 12,100-12,165 feet.

Shallow Explorer Staked In Sterling

Butler, Roche and Stallier of Austin have staked a 1,500-foot cable tool wildcat in Southeast Sterling County, three and three-quarters miles northwest of the Shallow Clark San Andres pool.

No. 1 L. C. Clark will be 330 feet from north and 2,310 feet from west lines of section 16, block 15, H&T O survey.

Drillsite is three miles east of the Marvin Wichita Albany pool.

Operator reported a daily flowing potential of 207 barrels of oil based on an actual 16-hour flow of 138.18 barrels of 38.5-gravity oil.

Producer Finaled In Schleicher Pool

The Ohio Oil Company No. 2 H. F. Thomson has been completed as the third producer in the Huldale, North-Low Canyon field of Central-North Schleicher County.

Operator reported a daily flowing potential of 207 barrels of oil based on an actual 16-hour flow of 138.18 barrels of 38.5-gravity oil.

Potential test was made on a one-quarter-inch choke and from casing perforations at 5,909-15 and at 5,920-26 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 593-1 and flowing pressure ranged from 200 to 500 pounds on casing and from 380 to 300 pounds on tubing.

Location is 1,385 feet from north and 467 feet from east lines of section 80, block TT, TC survey. That makes it a southwest offset to Hla-watha No. 1 Runge, the opener.

Pearson-Sibert Will Re-Drill Upton Test

Pearson-Sibert Oil Company have filed application for permit to re-drill a 3,586-foot failure in Upton County.

No. 1 King Ranch was originally drilled as Gulf, Sanger Brothers No. 1 King Ranch, plugged at 3,588 feet in 1926. The project will be drilled out to 3,200 feet and tested.

Location is 330 feet from north and 2,640 feet from east lines of section 14, block 3, MK&T survey. It is eight miles north of McCamey.

Opener Is Completed In E-C Runnels Area

Russell Hays and Ed Watts of San Angelo completed their No. 1 William Fowler, Jr., as a discovery and producer in East-Central Runnels County, and Youngblood & Foree of Dallas staked location for a 4,200-foot wildcat in the same portion of the county.

FESTIVE PHILATELY - The set of special commemorative stamps has been issued in connection with the Festival of Britain. The 2/6d stamp shows Lord Nelson's flagship HMS Victory. The five-shilling stamp the white cliffs of Dover. The 10-shilling one depicts St. George slaying the dragon. The one-pound stamp bears the Royal Arms. The 2/4d design is a cornucopia, symbol of abundance, crossed with the caduceus, carried by Mercury, god of Commerce. A Four-pence stamp has Festival of Britain symbol.

Police Run Down Two Young Bandits; Third One Escapes

GRAND PRAIRIE (AP) - Grand Prairie police Tuesday caught two of three youthful robbers in a gun-fire-marked downtown footrace.

The third, said Sgt. Clyde Oldham, "Well, he just plain out-ran us." The one at large was armed.

Police here had been alerted that the three, driving a stolen car from Southwest Texas, had robbed a filling station in Fort Worth about 5 a.m.

At 5:50 a.m., with three Grand Prairie squad cars guarding highways, the youths sped across the Tarrant County line into Grand Prairie.

All three squad cars set out after them and soon ran them down. The youths jumped from their car and ran on foot. Two were captured by Officers Clifford Mills, Wayne Walker, John George and Ed Horn.

"It wasn't long until we had 25 to 30 officers—from Fort Worth, Dallas and Arlington—here helping us," Sergeant Oldham said. "But we couldn't find that third one. He sure could run."

The Grand Prairie officers fired at the fleeing youth during a footrace which began a block from the police station. It ended with the youth losing his pursuers someplace in the residential section.

Four Persons Die, Four Are Hurt In Crash Near Tahoka

TAHOKA (AP) - Four persons were killed in an auto collision between Tahoka and Brownfield Monday night. Four were injured.

Sheriff Roland Clem of Tahoka identified the dead as Mrs. Calvin Edwards, 32, of Tahoka; her mother, Mrs. O. T. Rogers, about 70, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Riley of Lamesa. Riley was 50, his wife 45.

Injured are Calvin Edwards, 34, husband of Mrs. Edwards; their two children: Elva Jo, two, and Calvi Ann, four, and Roy M. Maxey, 27, of Rossville, Texas.

The accident scene was about 15 miles from Tahoka and the same distance from Brownfield.

Flier Finds Liquid Gas Does It Cheaper

CHICAGO (AP)—L. L. Hughes, of Oklahoma City, arrived here recently in his own plane on $4.00 worth of gas. He flew the country's only propane-powered airplane to attend the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Association's convention. He said he paid about eight cents a gallon for propane; a gallon of aviation gasoline costs him 31 cents.

Congress Passes Bill Banning Aid To Soviet Helpers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress has completed action on a money bill which also would deny American economic aid to any nation which sends war goods to Russia or other countries in the Soviet bloc. House and Senate approval late Monday sent the bill to the President, who asked $896,000,000 more to finance various agencies in the fiscal year ending June 30 and was voted only $368,000,000.

Biggest cuts made by Congress were in the requests for the Civil Defense Administration and the State Department's "Voice of America" broadcasts. The rider on economic aid, attached in the Senate and accepted by the House, would apply for the duration of the Korean war. Countries receiving American economic aid would be required to certify they are not sending any military goods to any nation in the Russian orbit.
