Damage Widespread In Texas Tornadoes

Monks Vow Viet Riots To Persist

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government braced today for more street violence after the Buddhist leadership vowed to keep up demonstrations until the U.S.-backed junta quits.

"Only when our aspirations are met and our demands satisfied will there be no more demonstrations," the country's most powerful monks declared in a joint statement Sunday.

ACCUSE REGIME

In militant tones echoing their declarations of political war on the government of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem three years ago, the Buddhists accused the regime of lying, irresponsibility and placing "too many obstacles" in the way of civilian rule.

At a news conference in Saigon, the monks asked the nation to rally behind the "Viet Nam Buddhist Forces," a new anti-government political action organization created by them.

PEOPLE'S WILL

They were asked if a popular civilian government might seek peace with the Communists and order the withdrawal of U.S. forces. Thich Thien Minh, co-leader of the Viet Nam Buddhist Forces and chairman of the militant Buddhist Youth Movement, replied:

"If that is what the people want, then that is what they will get. We want to fulfill the aspirations of the people."

The Buddhist leaders denied they were anti-American or responsible for the attacks on individual Americans by rioting, Buddhist-led youths in Saigon last week. "The monks involved were just letting off steam," they said. "We abide by nonviolence."

WANT ELECTIONS

They accused the Ky government of destroying "the democratic spirit in Viet Nam" by promising elections no earlier than next year. They said elections could be held right away.

The Buddhists said the pacification and reconstruction programs warmly endorsed by President Johnson at his Honolulu meeting with Ky in February could move ahead only "with strong provincial and central governments."

"We can get this with general elections, the elections we have demanded for three years," they said. "In this way we can make the whole country stable and prevent opportunists from making headway."

Pair 'Chute Safely From Awry Balloon

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Two aeronauts parachuted safely from a balloon before it crashed today after ascending to attempt a transcontinental flight.

The pilot, Tracy Barnes, 27, and his engineer, Terry Wright, both of Chester, S.C., were unhurt, the sheriff's office reported.

A sheriff's dputy who saw the crash said the hot-air balloon was up about five minutes and about 1,000 feet high when it started drifting west instead of east.

The 70-foot-tall balloon, valued at $15,000, crashed in the open field near the Sweetwater reservoir in which it landed Saturday afternoon after a first attempt failed. The aeronauts also landed in the field.

Bell Is Low For AF Pact

Bell Flying Service, Inc. of Pensacola, Fla., was apparent low bidder as contractor of the new year's T41-A flying training (light plane) program for Webb AFB, when bids were opened at Webb Monday morning.

Figures submitted by Bell in the amended bidding were: $17.09 per flying hour; $759 for engine overhaul; for a total estimated bid of $219,506.

Bell had been the low bidder in an original letting March 4, but these bids later were thrown out and the government stipulated minimum wage scales for the contractor. The earlier Bell figure had been a total of $169,482.

The Air Training Command contracts to private operators to give primary instruction in Cessna aircraft, the program operating here from Howard County Airport.

Base procurement officials said that a team would probably conduct a capability survey before contract is formally signed, but that this should be done in the next 30 days.

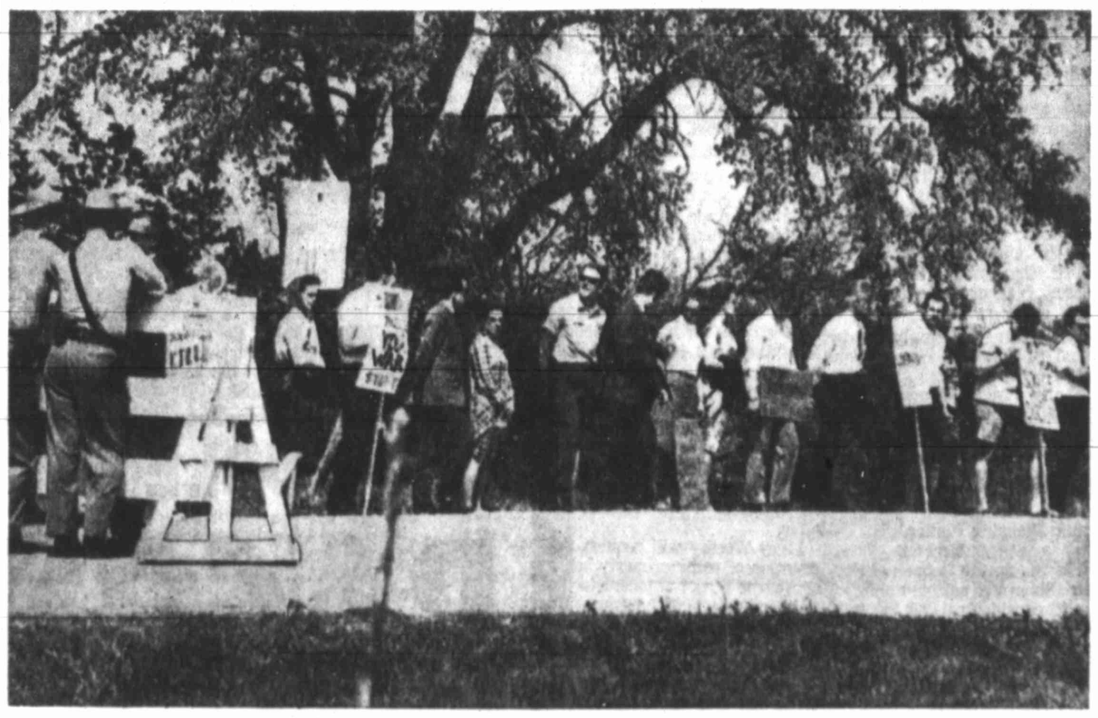
June 1 is the scheduled date for the new contract to go into effect.

Apparent second low bid was submitted by Hallmark Academies, Inc., Amarillo, whose figures were $18.07 per flying hour; $1,000 for engine overhaul; and a total of $234,068.

Apparent third low figures were those of Central American Airways, Louisville, Ky., presently conducting the primary training at Howard County Airport. Their figures were $18.46 per flying hour; $775 for engine overhaul; for a total contract of $236,654.

A total of eight contractors submitted bids under the amended schedule. Other bidders and their figures included: Colorado City Flying Service, Colorado City, $18.12, $1,500 and $239,688; Brownfield Flyers, Inc., Brownfield, $20, $1,000, and $258,000; Kerrville Flying Service, Kerrville, $20.42, $1,000, and $263,208; Hugh Yates Service Co., Laredo, $22.20, $650 and $285,780; and Big Spring Aircraft, Inc., Big Spring, $24.22, $1,000, and $310,328.

All those submitting bids specified Howard County Airport as the training facility, except Colorado City Flying Service, which proposed to conduct training at Colorado City.



Easter Peace Vigil Near President's Ranch

A Texas group of demonstrators lines the road near President Johnson's ranch Sunday in an Easter peace vigil protesting the war in Viet Nam. The group, listed as the Houston Citizens for Action on Viet Nam, numbered about 50. Some of the group held signs denouncing U.S. actions in Viet Nam. The demonstrators stood silently for three hours under the watchful eye of state patrolmen, secret service and FBI agents. Later, upon departure, members of the body complained no one would listen to them. Story on Page 8-B. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Lake Sector In North Part Of State Hit

By The Associated Press

Hurricane-strength winds and a ripping tornado caused widespread damage in Texas during the night Sunday and today, destroying a quarter million dollars in boats at Lake Texoma alone. Expensive craft suddenly became kindling wood.

The phenomenon that some called a tornado hit the northwest edge of Gainesville in North Central Texas, causing extensive damage to at least three businesses.

OLNEY AREA

Two other tornadoes dipped down farther west but caused only some disruption of power in the Olney area.

The $250,000 damage at Lake Texoma on the Texas-Oklahoma border was estimated by the Denison Herald.

Hardest hit were Little Mineral Dock, seven miles north of Pottsboro, and Loe's Highport, seven miles northwest of Pottsboro.

BOATS SINK

At Little Mineral, one boat was blown ashore and smashed into kindling. Thirteen boats were sunk, a house boat went under, and seven other cruisers damaged. The cruisers were in the 30 to 35-foot class.

Ten to 14 boats rented to fishermen at Little Mineral were blown into the huge lake and sunk by waves kicked up by winds reaching an estimated 80 miles an hour, well over hurricane force.

At Lowe's, two cruiser boat houses were destroyed along with 32 boats destroyed, sunk or badly damaged. They, too, were in the 30 to 35 foot class.

STRUCTURES UNROOFED

In another boat house, 23 boats ranging up to 20 feet were destroyed, sunk or heavily damaged. Two other boat houses were unroofed and some damage occurred to 32 boats there.

Another boathouse containing eight large cruisers ranging to 54 feet was blown loose, and caused some boat damage.

Lesser damage occurred at half a dozen other resorts on the big lake.

In Denison, eight miles from the lake, 15 to 20 large trees were blown down, blocking streets. Some plate glass windows were destroyed. A Baptist church under construction suffered the loss of a part of a wall.

Damage occurred at Gainesville in North Central Texas, where some witnesses said a small tornado passed through the northwest edge of the business district.

BUILDINGS DAMAGED

At Gainesville, one unit of the Curtwood Motel was destroyed; as was the McIntosh Laundry, a concrete-type building. The Joe Walter Lumber Co. also suffered extensive damage. Radio Station KGAF was knocked off the air for a period.

Other tornadoes were sighted west of Jacksboro in Jack County and at Lake Cooper, five miles northwest of Olney in Archer County. The Olney tornado knocked down some lines.

Blustery winds received blame for a 25-minute power failure Monday in portions of Highland and University Parks, suburbs of Dallas. Investigators said a large tree limb was blown across a power line and cut off power from 6:05 to 6:30 a.m.

Estes Expected To Tell Part Of Money Dealings

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—After four years of guarded silence, ex-promoter Billie Sol Estes was expected today to tell for the first time about some of the financial bijinks which put him behind bars.

Estes, once a multimillionaire but now bankrupt and serving a 15-year prison sentence, goes into court today arguing he should receive a new trial because false testimony was given in his El Paso trial.

A jury convicted him here in 1963 of mail fraud and conspiracy. It heard testimony that (1) he induced about 100 investors to sign mortgages in payment for non-existent anhydrous ammonia (fertilizer) tanks, (2) leased the tanks back at rentals matching their monthly mortgage payments and (3) sold the discounted mortgages to some of the nation's biggest finance companies for about $24 million.

Estes' intricate operations collapsed with echoes heard in Wall Street and Washington on his arrest in 1962.

U. S. marshals brought him back from the Leavenworth, Kan., federal prison 10 days ago to help his lawyers prepare for today's hearing before U. S. Dist. Judge Leo Brewster. He started serving the prison sentence slightly more than a year ago.

Estes told the court Friday, during a brief preparatory conference, that he intended to testify at the hearing starting today.

He has taken the witness stand only once before in three criminal trials. That was in Dallas last year, when Estes detailed some of his dealings in ammonia but said little about the tank mortgages. In that case he was acquitted of lying to the government about his financial worth to qualify for huge surplus grain storage contracts.

In asking Judge Brewster for the new hearing, Estes and his lawyers said they have new evidence. They told the court this consists of proof that Hilbert Kreeger Jr., then a junior executive with the Walter E. Heller Co., of Chicago, knew there were no tanks for security before Heller paid out at least part of the $7 million it put into the tank mortgages.

On file with the court here are Estes's answers to questions made recently to written questions in Leavenworth. He states that he twice saw and twice telephoned Kreeger in the transactions, and in each case informed Kreeger there were no tanks for collateral.

Kreeger has testified previously that he never met nor talked to Estes, and that he was unaware there was no security for the mortgages.

The defense has contended throughout Estes' trials that no fraud was perpetrated because Estes and all other parties to the mortgage dealings never pretended there were any tanks in most instances.

Although available for the hearing, Estes remains in federal custody. He is confined in the El Paso County Jail except during closed conferences with counsel in the U. S. marshal's office or while he is in the courtroom.

His wife and their five children, who now live in Abilene, Tex., arrived Sunday night to attend the hearing and visit with him as much as possible.

In jail with Estes was another acquaintance—L. Clayton Rivers Jr., an El Paso lawyer who once handled some of his affairs. Rivers now is held on a federal charge of transporting false checks across state lines.

Maj. Penn Killed In Viet Nam Area

Word was received through the military today of the death, in Viet Nam, of Maj. Charles H. (Chuck) Penn, formerly Civil Engineer at Webb Air Force Base. Details concerning the tragedy were not immediately disclosed.

MAJ. CHARLES H. PENN

Maj. Penn was assigned to Southeast Asia last October, after having been at Webb for some two years. His family continued to make their home here, residing at 401 Pennsylvania.

A B-17 pilot during World War II, Maj. Penn was shot down over Germany and spent 21 months as a prisoner of war. After a period of retirement, he was recalled to active duty to serve in Korea, and remained in the Air Force.

His decorations included: Air Force Commendation Medal, World War II Victory Medal, Europe, Africa, Middle - East Campaign Medal, Korean Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal, Air Force Reserve Medal with hourglass, Air Force Longevity Medal with three bronze clusters, and the Good Conduct Medal.

In addition to his widow, Maj. Penn is survived by Chuck Jr., Dick, Debbie and Jim.

Public Relations Veteran Dead

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Fred W. Jameson, who had been public relations director for Montgomery Ward and Co. for 44 years, died here of a heart attack.

Among his survivors was a sister, Mrs. Louise McKee of Brownwood, Tex.

Jameson, 87, collapsed on a bus at San Diego.

Bosch Seen Top Contender In Dominican Republic Vote

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Juan Bosch, self-styled spokesman for the Dominican Republic's underprivileged, may soon have a second chance as president of his troubled nation.

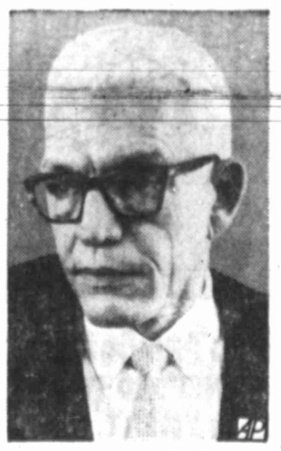
Cheering delegates nominated the 56-year-old writer-philosopher Sunday as the presidential candidate of the Dominican Revolutionary party in the June elections.

FRONT RUNNER

Bosch, whose followers triggered the 1965 revolution in which the United States intervened, is considered the front runner in a contest expected to include at least three other major presidential aspirants.

Bosch couches his speeches in simple folksy language that appeals to the common man.

His upper-class critics see distortion, bitterness and vindictiveness woven skillfully into his oratory. But in the neighborhood grocery stores, bars and fruit stands, the ordinary folk cluster transfixed around their radios when Bosch speaks.



JUAN BOSCH

"KNOWS ALL"

"Juan Bo' lo sabe todo — Juan Bosch knows it all," they say reverently.

Bosch is a political paradox. A left-of-center liberal, he is damned by other liberals while conservatives are among his staunchest partisans. He has often been accused of playing up to the Communists, but Red leaders are known to fear his hold over their favorite prey, the common man.

Bosch took office in February 1963 as the first freely elected Dominican president in 30 years. Prospects looked promising. He had a mandate from more than 60 per cent of the electorate. Sugar, keystone of the Dominican economy, was selling on the world market at 11 cents a pound. It brings only two cents now.

FORCED BACK

But the political machine Bosch had helped create became enmeshed in a factional power struggle. Just seven months after he took over, a military coup forced him back into exile. There were no demonstrations or protests on his behalf.

Last spring followers of Bosch touched off bitter fighting in an attempt to bring him back from exile in Puerto Rico.

Judges To Meet On Youth Award

This was the final day to receive nominations for the Zale-Herald Youth Achievement Award and it saw another half-dozen ballots come in. Many nominations have been for the same boy or girl. New names on the list today were those of Jerry Cuthberson, Margie Newman, Beverly Peters and Judy Daniel.

The judges are to have a preliminary meeting Thursday evening, to start review of the nominations. They will select a young person who has, for the past year, done outstanding volunteer work in association with churches, civic and service organizations, in the area of general school and community improvement.

The Youth Achievement Award will be marked by a public presentation of a large trophy and an engraved watch from Zale's. Plans for the presentation affair will be announced after the judges' gathering.

The program is designed to give full and proper public recognition to those young people who have established marks of good citizenship, and is planned as one of the major honors that can come to a high school senior or junior.

El Paso Paper Marks Birthday

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — The El Paso Times celebrated its 85th anniversary Sunday while Dorrance C. Roderick marked his 35th anniversary as publisher.

Beach Booms On Weekend

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. (AP) — One hundred thousand vacationers gave South Carolina's Grand Strand, the beaches from Myrtle Beach to the North Carolina line, one of its most prosperous Easter weekends in recent years.

Hotels, motels and camp sites were filled by Friday night. The amusement areas and beaches were crowded although the temperature was generally too cool for swimming until Sunday.

Slain

Cpl. William Murphy, 21, of New York, a former sweetheart, was charged with murder today in the slaying of Sue Prober, 21, above of Palatine, Ill., a suburb of Chicago. She has been missing since Dec. 3 and was found slain last week. Murphy was assigned to a Nike missile site near scene of the slaying. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Four Young People Die As Train Crumples Car

MARIETTA, Okla. (AP) — A Santa Fe passenger train crumpled a car containing seven persons Sunday, killing four young persons on their way home from an Easter visit with relatives.

None of those aboard the train, the Texas Chief, was injured.

Authorities said the car turned left onto the crossing here and into the path of the train, which knocked the auto more than 200 feet down the track.

Killed in the accident were two Ardmore, Okla., brothers, Charles Smithwick, 17, and Richard Smithwick, 12, and a cousin, Sylvia Brashear, 18. Sylvia's sister Judy, 12, died en route to a hospital.

The girls' mother, Inez Brashear, 44, and another sister, Margaret, 16, both of Choctaw, Okla., were hospitalized in serious condition at Ardmore.

Storm Spreading Rainfall In U.S.

By The Associated Press

A storm developing over the Central Plains brought rain today to most of the nation.

South Central Oklahoma and North Texas were under the severe thunderstorm watch for a while.

HEAVIEST RAIN

The developing storm is spreading rain from Missouri to the central and north Pacific Coast. The heaviest rain was near Topeka, Kan., where close to an inch has fallen.

Light snow fell in the Northern Plains and through the western mountain areas. Livestock warnings were posted for central Nebraska and most of the Dakotas.

COOL AIR

The large pocket of cool air which has brought unseasonably cool weather to the East for two weeks was moving out to sea. A few snow flurries were reported in the Northeast.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 15 at Marquette County Airport, Mich., to 75 at Carlsbad, N.M.

New Mayor To Be Named, Heavy Agenda Scheduled

Swearing in three newly-elected city commissioners, Arnold Marshall, Walter Stroup and Jimmy Morehead, will be the first item on a heavy agenda for city commissioners Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The swearing-in will be followed by the election of a new mayor. Mayor George Zacharia was defeated last Tuesday. John Stanley is mayor pro tempore.

Commissioners will consider adopting revisions to the city building code, as recommended by Ernest Lillard, director of public works, and Tom Newton, building inspector.

"We have completed a review of the newest edition of the Southern Standard Building Code," they wrote to Larry Crow, city manager. "It is our opinion that we should adopt the (new) Code and its future revisions as they become available rather than limit our code to a single addition.

COLLEGE PROBLEM

"You are familiar with the problem which has occurred with the new building at Howard County Junior College on the allowable travel distance required to exits. The revised code will permit the construction of the building as they have designed it. The adoption of this ordinance will relieve any conflicts between our present building code and the building as designed by the architects for the junior college."

Commissioners will hear a request by the Texas Highway Department to replace the Benton Street viaduct. The old viaduct is an antiquated, brick-paved structure, and is quite narrow, according to Larry Crow.

The state will probably be asked to do some curbing and guttering on US 87 south, within the city limits, from FM 700. City hall sources said today that the curbing and guttering will not involve a great deal of work, as there are a number of entrances and exits at the site, mostly around the Highland South Shopping Center.

MORE WATER

The Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs will ask commissioners to consider raising the minimum water use rate from 3,000 gallons to 5,000 at $3 per month during the months of June, July and August on a trial basis. The council indicated it feels the increase in the minimum will result in more water being used.

Roy Anderson, assistant city manager, has indicated that a temporary change at any level of the water rates is not feasible. He said, however, "the providing of a greater quantity of water while maintaining the current minimum charge would be most feasible. This would meet the needs of light consumers and assist those who will water profusely anyway."

He said under the proposed system, the maximum revenue loss would be $27,000. "However," he said, "the loss would not approach this figure because there would be some stimulation of increases usage; some steady consumers of the regular minimum will continue this rate of usage; and weather factors more than off-set a possible revenue loss."

Anderson said he does not believe the revenues would suffer by more than $8,000 to $10,000 at the most.

HEARING

A public hearing will be held to allow commissioners to determine if some buildings are to be demolished. The buildings are those of A. L. Axtens, 1622 Mesquite; Jean Lawrence, 807-09 N. Aylford and 802-810-812 Wyoming; Grinnan Mortgage Co., 905 NW 3rd; Mrs. George M. Hanks, 603 NE 9th; Robert W. Palmer, 119 Mesquite; and Dick Worley, 1102 NW 7th.

Truman Jones has offered the city a small piece of property at 909 Auburn for right-of-way, so that Eleventh Place can be extended without difficulty. Commissioners will consider the offer.

Jerry Worthy will request annexation of some property south of Hearne Street adjacent to the southernmost city limits. He wishes the annexation in order to secure city services.

Commissioners will be asked to authorize taking bids for a group life and health insurance policy for the city, and for a new tractor and mower for city use.

Commissioners will hear recommendation of the planning and zoning commission for a zone change for the Spanish Main property, 2303-09 Austin, from "neighborhood service" to "retail" by Tom McAdams, who wishes to secure a beer permit.

A traffic commission recommendation for yield signs on Nolan Street at Ninth will be heard.

PERMITS

Four persons will make separate requests at a public hearing for on-premises consumption permits.

The requests will be made by David Gomez, for Carlos' Restaurant, 308 NW 3rd; David Gomez, for Gomez' Cafe, 508 NW 4th; Billy Weatherall, Bosanova Lounge, 503 NW 4th; and Mrs. H. M. Rainbolt, Wagon Wheel Restaurant.

Commissioners will be asked to pass a resolution declaring the necessity for street improvements in the 200 block of Main Street. This is part of the downtown improvement program which included the new free public parking lot on the old First National Bank lot.

Five ordinances will be read. Three final readings will take place. They involve Marquez' Place, the Cotton Club, and a "general residential" to "commercial" zone change in Bauer Addition.

An ordinance allowing some upright markers at an increased price at City Cemetery will be read. Another will involve the legal technicality of a paving abandonment on property which will not be paved. Not enough persons signed up for paving on the block in question, on North Fifth from Main to Scurry.

CLOSE ALLEY

A resolution will be read on closing an alley at the request of Foster Shirley. The alley is an east-west alley in Fairview Heights. In 1957, the city told owners it would issue quit-claim deeds for such alleys upon request.

Vaccination Might Aid Cancer Fight

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne State University medical researchers say they may have discovered a way to treat cancer by vaccination.

Results they claim for a four-year program so far include:

— Two cancer patients, earlier given up as hopeless cases, completely freed of their tumors.

— Eight others once considered beyond help still alive, their cancers either halted or growing more slowly.

ADVANCED TUMORS

— Two patients with advanced tumors, their lives believed prolonged by the treatments.

Others among the 20 patients treated showed no improvement, said Dr. Paul L. Wolf, Wayne State professor of pathology and director of experimental pathology at the Detroit Institute of Cancer Research.

Failure in these cases, Dr. Wolf said, probably came because the disease was too far advanced and the patient's body no longer capable of producing cancer-fighting antibodies.

GIVES BENEFIT

The Wayne group's vaccine, he explained, aids the victim's body in producing these antibodies.

Many cancer patients are lost, Dr. Wolf said, because their bodies don't fight the disease. The body recognizes the malignant cells as part of it, and doesn't react by producing the chemicals needed to kill them.

The Wayne State group combines cancerous cells taken from the patient with chemicals obtained from the cells of rabbits. Then the combination is injected into the patient.

RETARD MALADY

His body recognizes the matter as foreign and produces antibodies to fight it. In the process, Dr. Wolf said, the antibodies may kill or retard the tumor.

The researchers, working with mice and human patients at Northville State Hospital, reported success with reducing cancers of the skin, liver and breast.

Expect To Clear Up Vandalism

"We have good leads on the vandalism which caused at least $2,000 in broken plate glass Friday and expect to have the matter cleared up shortly," Jay Banks, police chief, said today.

The vandalism involved 13 plate glass windows in 10 business establishments Friday night.

The vandals, the chief said, apparently drove along the streets in cars and tossed rocks varying in size from large pebbles to stones weighing up to a pound or more through windows selected at random.

Banks said three juveniles have been questioned, and that several more may be involved in the destructive activity.

Statue Of Churchill Is Vandal Target

WOODFORD GREEN, England (AP) — Vandals tried to overturn the statue of Sir Winston Churchill Sunday night here in the district northeast of London which he represented in Parliament.

Police found a 20-yard piece of rope tied to the neck of the statue and tire ruts where a car had apparently pulled on the rope.

The statue was loosened from its base. The city council arranged for it to be repaired.

President's Club Democrats, Staunch Group, To Convene

By The Associated Press

The art of being tapped to support a political candidate's campaign reaches a new high April 28 in Houston.

The Texas Chapter of the President's Club meets in a cozy, closed session to shake hands with and hear a personal campaign report from the leading Democrat of all, President Lyndon Johnson.

A member in good standing of the President's Club, which has chapters in other states, must contribute at least $1,000 each year to the Democratic war chest.

If a staunch Democrat wants to bring his wife or date to the Houston affair, then there goes another $1,000 donation.

State Democratic Chairman Will Davis estimates at least 750 persons will attend from Texas and the four adjoining states.

The President's Club originated some time back before the 1964 election. At the Atlantic national Democratic convention, club members wore a special red, white and blue badge that admitted them to a plush clubroom back of the speakers' stand and close by Johnson's private convention office suite. Club members who did not choose to face the rigors of the convention floor a few steps away could watch proceedings on television. Thirst quenchers were provided.

Texas Republicans claim they do not have direct competition to the President's Club. This does not mean they discourage $1,000 donations. In fact, a $1,000 contributor frequently gets to have lunch and a quiet talk with any of half a dozen national and state party leader he chooses.

Texans Ready Historic Party

By The Associated Press

A 19th century birthday party given by Gen. Sam Houston for his wife Margaret Lea will be recreated — sideburns, long dresses and all — in Huntsville Sunday.

The seventh annual birthday celebration dates from an appeal by former Gov. Price Daniel for emphasis on Texas' heritage between March 2 and April 21.

Between those dates in 1836 came Texas' declaration to break away from Mexico, crushing defeats inflicted by the Mexicans, and, finally, a victory for the rebels that clinched Texas' independence.

STEPPED UP

Gov. John Connally has stepped up the campaign to awaken Texans to the history around them. He emphasizes that restoration of historic houses and public places and celebrations such as the one in Huntsville Sunday are not only valuable as an insight for Texans into their state but attract tourists and enrich their visit within the state.

Today, Texans are more history-conscious than ever.

In 1965, the Texas Historical Survey Committee designated 1,297 buildings worthy of official state of Texas "historic landmark" seals. About 3,000 have been issued since the committee was formed.

SHRINE RESTORATION

One of Texas' most significant shrines, the long-neglected Presidio la Bahia in Goliad, where Col. James W. Fannin and his troops were massacred March 27, 1836, is being painstakingly restored through a private grant.

A private historical association says it will help cities and groups with the research and financing involved in preserving or restoring historic sites.

The most famous celebration linked with history is San Antonio's week-long Fiesta. It is held every year to coincide with the anniversary of Texas' independence, April 21, when Sam Houston's troops routed Mexican Gen. Santa Anna at San Jacinto. Fiesta week opens with a somber pilgrimage to the Alamo, then livens up each night in the jubilant spirit of independence.

Another well-known historical celebration is Jefferson's pilgrimage April 22-24, when the town's women wear hooped skirts and open the palatial homes to the public. Jefferson was a thriving river port before and after the Civil War.

OLDEST DESCENDANT

In Huntsville Sunday, Sam Houston's oldest living descendant, Mrs. Jennie Morrow Decker of Houston, will be on hand for the imitation birthday garden party. She is 95.

The dean of men at Sam Houston State College, George L. Morton, will put on sideburns and depict Sam Houston. Descendants of early East Texas settlers from 20 towns around Huntsville will help show the public the state park's new horticulture trail, Houston's home, law office and kitchen, and the steamboat house where he died.

The director of the Sam Houston museum, Mrs. Grace Longino, said she felt the garden party would be similar to one Houston would have given.

"We are trying to recreate the serenity and graciousness of an unhurried era, and show Southern hospitality at its best," she said.

Space Stargazer Satellite Fizzles

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — "We're heartbroken," said a space agency spokesman in announcing the failure of America's Stargazer satellite after only two days in orbit.

For an unknown reason, the orbiting astronomical observatory (OAO) lost all its battery power Sunday, and the two-ton satellite whirled silently and uselessly around the globe.

It never had a chance to exercise its 10 telescopes, which astronomers had hoped would unlock secrets of the stars and perhaps provide clues to the origin of the universe.

Scientists had worked for years to perfect OAO, the first astronomical observatory ever sent into space. All were disappointed at the failure but said they hoped it would teach them lessons about the second OAO, scheduled for launching early in 1967.

The lessons will be costly. The satellite, one of the heaviest and the most complex unmanned payload ever launched by the United States, had a price tag of about $50 million. The Atlas-Agena rocket that hoisted it from Cape Kennedy Friday cost about $12 million. Several thousand dollars were added to the cost by five postponements of the flight.

The failure of an Atlas-Centaur rocket Thursday pushed the total cost of the back-to-back fizzles here to more than $75 million.

Blackened Hulk Of Ship In Tow

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The blackened hulk of the cruise ship Viking Princess, apparently involved in a salvage fight, was somewhere south of Cuba today, being towed toward Jamaica.

The once gleaming white $16-million pleasure craft, which carried carefree passengers on winter Caribbean cruises, burned Friday morning in the Windward Passage, between Cuba and Haiti, while sailing to Miami with 496 passengers and crew members.

Two passengers died of heart attacks when the ship was ordered abandoned shortly after a fire and explosion had occurred in the engine room.

TOWARD JAMAICA

After the flames had died, a Liberian freighter, the Navigator, put a line on the abandoned vessel and started towing it toward Jamaica, according to the Navy's Atlantic Fleet Headquarters in Norfolk, Va.

The Navigator was joined Sunday by the salvage tug Cable out of Key West, Fla., hired by the owners of the Viking Princess.

Salvage rights to the Viking Princess appeared to be in dispute.

LEAVE SCENE

Navy and Coast Guard vessels, which had aided in the evacuation of the passengers and crew, left the scene Sunday, saying there was nothing more they could do.

Capt. Otto Thoresen, credited with saving the lives of many of the passengers and crew by ordering the ship abandoned, said in Miami Sunday that salvage rights on the ship would be left up to the insurance companies. Thoresen, a veteran of many years at sea, was the last man to leave the stricken vessel.

The ship is owned by a Norwegian company, Berge Sigval Bergsen, and is operated by Flagship Lines Agency, Inc., of New York.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

A Devotional For The Day

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. (I Peter 1:3, ASV)

Good Idea But Go Slow

Few will argue with the contention of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., that the smuggling of illicit drugs across the Mexican border into the Southwestern states is a large and increasing traffic. The reports of often, and sometimes huge, confiscations confirm this conclusion, though it is hardly subject to exact statistical proof.

Dodd heads the subcommittee to investigate juvenile delinquency of the Senate Judiciary Committee. Pertinent to its main interest, the subcommittee has been studying interstate and international trade in illegal and dangerous drugs for five years. There is little doubt that Dodd's comments on the "high incidence" of dope smuggling across the U.S.-Mexican border hit near the mark.

Sen. Dodd has introduced in the Senate a joint resolution to create a commission of high-level U.S. and Mexican officials to study how each nation might improve its laws and their enforcement and cooperate more closely to reduce the border dope traffic. Such a commission, if strongly supported by both governments, could be substantially helpful in researching and recommending ways to reduce that viciously criminal traffic.

However, we think it would be wise for the Congress, through the State Department, to find out quietly and diplomatically the Mexican government's view of the idea before the bill is passed, or even carried further in the legislative process. For the legislation would be worthless unless the Mexican government is prepared to participate in a joint commission with vigor and an attitude of good-neighborliness. Premature pushing of the Dodd bill without a green light from Mexico City might only impair the cooperation that already exists in coping with this problem.

Costly Filing Fees

Sooner or later, something must be done about the exorbitant filing fees charged candidates in many instances in the Democratic Party primaries in Texas.

For many offices, the fees now run into the thousands of dollars. They are set locally by the party's county executive committee. The fee for statewide offices is set by the Legislature.

It is obvious that in many races the candidate must depend on the contribution of friends to pay the filing fee, a favor which in due time may have to be returned contrary to the public interest.

Furthermore, high filing fees strictly limit the number of candidates who are able to file for an office. The fee system, as it now is, favors the incumbent, and rules out many persons of high caliber who might otherwise seek state and local offices.

Admittedly, a solution to the problem is not easy. There is some question about the propriety of the state paying for party primaries, and thus eliminating candidates' filing fees, but there also is strong argument that this may be the solution.

In any event, the present system is, in many respects, unsatisfactory. This is a question which the Legislature might well turn over to its research arm, the Texas Legislative Council. Many states take a financial hand in all elections—including primaries.

Johnson Fights Inflation

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson is using his persuasiveness in an attempt to swing businessmen into line behind his war on inflation.

The President has used pressure, he has called businessmen on the phone and he has entertained them at a White House dinner.

ALL OF these means have been employed to get his message across: Hold the line against price and wage increases beyond the guidelines his administration has set up.

The big question: How successful is he going to be with the economy booming and the Viet Nam war increasing pressure?

The administration and its economists feel that the economy with its twin pressures is in danger of overheating and generating inflation.

ONE OF the first developments that brought presidential pressure was the increases in aluminum and copper prices Johnson immediately announced that a substantial amount of these metals would be released from the national stockpile to hold prices steady.

The result was that both industries rolled back their increases.

IN EACH case the administration made it plain that it considered price increase was not only unwarranted but unpatriotic while the Viet Nam war was being pressed.

Then the tobacco industry announced a wholesale price increase for cigarettes that would have been reflected in a boost of about a cent a package at retail.

JOHNSON LET it be known that he did not consider this hike in the interest of the consumers. The industry halved its price increase and this was acceptable.

The President next turned his attention to curtailing corporate expenditures for plant expansion and modernization as a means of heading off inflation.

HE TURNED to his telephone technique and called 25 to 30 businessmen to ask them to cut back on these expenditures.

Then he called 150 of the nation's top businessmen to the White House for a dinner at which he again urged a slowdown on capital spending.

He was reported to have received considerable support. Half a dozen companies later publicly said they would heed.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The legal definition of obscenity, written by the U.S. Supreme Court in the so-called Roth case of 1957, remained unchanged through a series of three rulings by the high tribunal yesterday.

Without discarding or revising its 9-year-old yardstick, the court clarified it somewhat by reiterating its established criteria and emphasizing that all three must be present before a publication may be banned as obscene. Those criteria are: The material's dominant theme must appeal to prurient interest, it must affront contemporary community standards, and it must be without redeeming social value.

By a 5 to 4 ruling, the court overturned the Massachusetts court's ban on "The Memoirs of Fanny Hill." Justice Brennan (author of the Roth case opinion) said in the majority opinion:

"A book cannot be proscribed unless it is found utterly without redeeming social value. This is so even though the book is found to possess the requisite prurient appeal and to be patently offensive. Each of the three constitutional criteria is to be applied independently; the social value of the book can neither be weighed against nor canceled by its prurient appeal of patent offensiveness."

In a second case involving the quarterly magazine "Eros" and two other publications, the court upheld the conviction of the publisher of "Eros," Ralph Ginsburg of Philadelphia. The three publications, stepped beyond the protection of the First Amendment, a majority of the court found, by appealing solely and deliberately to prurient interests, Justice Brennan's majority opinion said: "Where the purveoy's sole emphasis is on the sexually provocative aspects of his publications, that fact may be decisive in the determination of obscenity."

The rulings confirmed the difficulty if not impossibility of defining obscenity to everybody's satisfaction. They testified also that since 1957, no measuring stick has been devised that serves better than the three criteria of the Roth case.

Billy Graham

I was told that the Christian life is "by faith," but I have no faith. Please explain what faith is and how I can acquire it. J.F.

You say you have no faith, but I have never met a person without faith. Faith is something we exercise, not only every day, but every hour of the day. It takes faith to drive a car, to walk down the street, to order from a mail order house, or to do as simple an act as to get up in the morning. It takes faith to open a can of food, for you must believe that it is what it is represented to be before you consume it.

Faith in Christ is human faith, something we all have, lifted to the highest level. The Bible says, "Lay hold on eternal life." We take the faith we ordinarily put in the common, everyday things and direct it toward Christ. "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent," said our Lord and Savior. And when our faith rests in Him, and Him alone, there is no wavering or disappointment.

Secretive Monk Now Leading Power in S. Viet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration isn't saying much — if it knows much — about the secretive monk, Thich Tri Quang, the man behind the Buddhists' efforts to throw out the government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky in South Viet Nam.

But at this moment Tri Quang is the most important man and force in that country and, despite all the American efforts to the contrary, in the end could be responsible for turning it over to the Communists.

Undersecretary of State George W. Ball on television Sunday dismissed the turmoil and rioting in South Viet Nam as simply the "evidence of a political process at work." All factions, he said, are determined to resist Communist aggression from North Viet Nam.

BUT SUNDAY the Buddhist leaders indicated Ball was seeing the situation a little too simply. At a news conference Buddhist officials said they have lost confidence in Ky's government and have vowed to form a caretaker government to organize general elections.

Asking if they envisioned an elected civilian government seeking peace with the Viet Cong and asking the United States to pull out of Viet Nam, a Buddhist spokesman replied: "If that is what the people want, then that is what they will get. We want to fulfill the aspirations of the people."

FIRST, A little background. Ho Chi Minh, Communist leader of North Viet Nam, is the best known figure in that country, north and south. To many he is a hero, to all a legend while still living. He has been a fighting leader 20 years.

If open elections were tomorrow in both Viet Nams, Ho Chi Minh would seem to have the best chance of winning, particularly when it is remembered many Vietnamese have little or no knowledge of communism or democracy and the Viet Cong still control about 75 per cent of the countryside in South Viet Nam.

No South Vietnamese leader has been allowed to last long enough to build up real power of a real following or come close to being a rival to Ho Chi Minh as a leader in the public mind.

THE MONK, Tri Quang, has been a major factor in toppling every Vietnamese government since November, 1963, when President Ngo Dinh Diem was not only ousted but shot to death. Now Tri Quang is working on Premier Ky.

What is Quang's background and possible connection with the Communists of North Viet Nam? The Washington Star's correspondent in Saigon, Richard Critchfield, Sunday wrote one of the most thoughtful and intelligent stories to come out of Viet Nam since the present troubles started.

He pointed out that Tri Quang's chief religious and political teacher was Thich Tri Do, today the Buddhist superior in North Viet Nam and a member of its Cabinet. And, Critchfield said, Tri Quang, has a younger brother who is a Buddhist monk in North Viet Nam and who paid a secret visit to him in 1964, accompanied by a member of the Viet Cong's political arm.

QUANG DENIES that his brother is a North Vietnamese monk.

And, Critchfield said, Tri Quang twice told a Vietnamese newsman in 1965 that he wants to stop the war as soon as possible by a cease-fire or by any negotiation that will have the people's support.

False Scare Stories Delay Bunion Cure

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is surgery effective in removing a bunion permanently? How long does it take to heal? I heard that it never heals properly and also that you never walk the same. Is this true? — M. C.

The biggest problem in curing a bunion is to offset the amount of misinformation that is still being spread. People hear the rumors you have heard, and as a result they avoid, or at least postpone, the one thing that will really help.

What is a bunion? It is bursitis of the joint of the big toe. Shoes that are too tight or heels that are too high subject the joint to continued pressure. The bursa (a little fluid - filled sac in the joint) becomes inflamed and terribly sore. The metatarsal bone becomes misshapen. At that point, getting that bone back to normal size and shape is the only thing that will really correct the situation.

Bunion pads and other makeshifts may remove some of the pressure and afford a little comfort, but they won't correct the deformity of the bone, and hence can't really cure a bunion.

Is surgery effective? Yes. It is almost always successful — provided, of course, that the patient follows the doctor's instructions and uses good common sense. However, be sure that the work is done by an orthopedic surgeon or an able podiatrist.

How long to heal? Obviously that will depend on how much bone must be removed. The surgeon can give you a reasonable estimate after examination. Obviously you aren't going to be walking on that foot in a couple of days. You have to let the tissues heal, then work out the stiffness, and finally begin to let the foot bear your weight.

This does not mean you must lie abed all that time. A suitable splint or brace to keep weight off the toe joint will permit you to get around, just as people can get around with a broken leg or ankle before the fracture has knit fully.

The story that a bunion operation never heals is absolutely false, yet it keeps on circulating without foundation. It is another of those false scare stories that people seem to delight in telling, no matter how much harm is done.

Around The Rim

Building A Beautiful City

If I were king and wanted to improve my capital so that all the world would take note and fall in love with it, I would:

Change the name of Main Street to Gainsborough Place or Rue de Fougeres.

Make the architecture in the business district more like a European city and less like every other commercial community in America—if I had to import designers from Austria to do it.

PUT AN eight-lane overpass above the railway track on my principal traffic artery, if I had to move a few buildings to do it.

Have at least one broad avenue in the community where gracious trees met in the center.

Build a coliseum that was partly underground.

Create an amusement park that would give the appearance that it was hanging over the side of a neighboring hill.

Stage a Mardi-Gras or fiesta-type celebration during each year where the people were required to take part and dress appropriately.

CREATE AN archway in the center of the community that would make tourists want to detour through the city instead of going around it.

Devote a solid block to a downtown park, complete with brick walkways, a small body of water with a bridge and an area for flower gardens. Make part of it a "rain forest," which would prove especially popular when the sun beats down.

Move all car cemeteries off main thoroughfares.

DOUBLE THE width of some sidewalks and give them unusual designs like you see on the walkways of Rio de Janiero.

Build an ornate wishing well, so nice that people would feel compelled to throw coins in it. Use the money derived therefrom to provide scholarships for deserving young people.

CLEAR A COUPLE of blocks in the heights overlooking the business district for as many mansions, complete with flower gardens that would enhance the beauty of the entire community. And to complete the scene, I'd hire English butlers and Japanese gardeners.

Losing While You Win

WASHINGTON—In the midst of life, there is always death — and in the midst of success, failure. This is presently the tantalizing situation, as White House spokesmen describe it, in Viet Nam. Will Gen. Westmoreland's success spoil the efforts of Ambassador Lodge to keep a viable government in Saigon?

WITH SOMETHING like 235,000 troops available to him, Westmoreland has been chewing up the Viet Cong at an annihilation rate that until recently permitted optimists to see light at the end of a dark tunnel. The U.S. Army and Marines, backed by the Air Force, have been killing Communist guerrillas in numbers such as no enemy in the field can long sustain. A Pentagon survey shows these figures:

In the half-year ending last December, U.S. forces mounted 10 offensive operations. But in January alone that figure went to 11, in February there were 10 more, in March there were 17. From March 1-26, Viet Cong losses were 5,451 killed and 607 captured. There were more than 2,000 V.C. defectors in February, and the unreported March figure will be higher.

BUT INSTEAD of being undiluted good news, these successes have brought about distressing side results:

1. The Buddhists and student groups, demanding civil liberties, were relieved from the crisis situation which impelled them to support whoever was in power. The uprising against Premier Ky took place not because the war was going badly, but because it was going well.

2. ALARMED BY heavy casualties and lost battles, the Ho Chi Minh government in Hanoi increased reenforcements in the south. Pentagon officials say it will take two months to get accurate figures on the new infiltration, but it is known to be substantial.

3. Success of American arms has caused the South Viet Nam forces, both ground and air, to leave the fighting to the Yanks. Government officials have ducked reporters' questions on the lack of action by the Viet Nam loyalists, but it is known to be Westmoreland's fear that the more we fight for Viet Nam, the less its military forces will.

HERE, THEN, are the wages of military success, which we have not learned to exploit. As field victories mount, political stability goes down. It is a state of affairs which usually signals another Lyndon Johnson "sensational." The last of these was his Honolulu Conference, at which he gave his personal blessing to Premier Ky and turned loose the Agriculture and Health-Education-Welfare Departments to buy us some wholesale friendships. But there have admittedly been no results to show from the Honolulu Conference, or from Vice President Humphrey's personal appearance tour.

BILL MOYERS, a presidential favorite and next only to Sargent Shriver as the Peace Corps mahatma, has been scheduled for a Saigon mission—indicating that the President may have another "sensational" in the making. But the reports are that Ambassador Lodge would be just as well pleased if Washington miracle-makers stayed home. The ambassador is as much our field manager in Viet Nam politics as Westmoreland is in Viet Nam warfare. Both men desire the right of tactical command.

INDEED, there is little disposition here to deny their rights to either Westmoreland or Lodge. Washington is stumped by the riddle of what to do with the victories which seemingly carry the seeds of political defeat. As one spokesman put it, more wryly than seriously, the only sure way to improve political stability for the Vietnamese is to stop winning their battles.

No one is advocating that—and yet this is the kind of quandary in which "no win" policies are bred.

New Problems In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON—While the friction inside the South Vietnamese government is a disconcerting development, it could turn out to be a means of hastening the establishment of a government in Saigon supported by all the people.

Naturally, the Communists are trying to exploit the situation and complicate it further, but the South Vietnamese factions—both the Buddhists and the military—are basically anti-Communist and will not consciously, at least, allow anything to happen that would give the Communists control of the country.

OBVIOUSLY, the United States government cannot play any role except that of mediator and must convince the leaders of both factions in South Viet Nam that American help would be futile if a civil war emerged and the Communists got the upper hand over both of the contesting groups.

On January 15, Prime Minister Ky promised democratic elections in 1967, and the American government supported this objective. The Buddhists now feel there should be a faster timetable, and this is what prompted the demonstrations and brought turmoil. Yet it is recognized here that, back of the demand for a speed-up, there was a basic fear that maybe the military would dilly-daily over procedure and perhaps delay the elections indefinitely. The latest developments, therefore, will tend to clarify the situtation, and undoubtedly a definite date will be set for free elections.

MEANWHILE, further demands doubtless will be heard in the United States that the American troops be pulled out. This is not likely to happen. But as reports of such a trend trickle in to Saigon, it will become apparent to the Buddhists and other civilian groups, as well as to the military, that the situation cannot be left to drift and that all the anti-Communists must in the long run be consolidated and present a united front against Communist infiltration.

Perhaps the best answer to those who superficially comment that the United States ought to "pull out" is an editorial in the London Daily Telegraph on Thursday, which said that the United States has no alternative but to "soldier on" in Viet Nam, "accepting the handicap of ineffectual and unrepresentative governments until peace brings the possibility of democratic settlement."

THE EDITORIAL further expressed the belief that Prime Minister Ky's readiness to negotiate and perhaps even compromise with the Buddhists about the date of the elections "may have eased the immediate threat of civil war in Viet Nam, but it has not solved the political crisis."

The Buddhists want a constituent assembly to take over in the next three months, and they have been boycotting the national meeting called to discuss the change. But whatever government is established, it has to have the backing of the military or else chaos will result. The London Daily Telegraph editorial suggests that there might otherwise be a take-over by another military ruler before many months have elapsed.

THE DEPARTMENT of State is trying hard not to become involved in factional disputes in Saigon and is interested only in protecting the South Vietnamese people against any Communist conquest. The whole situation is not a happy one for the United States government. But, in the long run, it will have proved to the whole world that this country is interested not in promoting the ambitions of any group or bloc but solely in making sure that the Vietnamese themselves choose their own government and its personnel. The real issue is whether, when free governments are established, they can survive on the Asian continent in the face of Communist imperialism.

Christians Note 'Eternal Springtime'

By The Associated Press

From humble chapels along the twisting alleyways of old Jerusalem to stately churches adorning broad avenues, the world's Christians — rich and poor, the mighty and the humble — gathered in their places of worship to celebrate Easter Sunday, the climax of Holy Week.

Pilgrims in Jerusalem paid homage in churches ranging from the tiny to ornate Byzantine structures.

KNEEL IN FIELD

A few Protestants knelt in a field outside the city, praying before a cleft in a rock, which they believe is the spot where Christ was buried.

Across the storied valley, on the Mount of Olives, Lutherans held services in the Church of Mary Magdalen near the Garden of Gethsemane.

Some of the pilgrims retraced the steps of Jesus along Via Dolorosa to Calvary.

ST. PETER'S

In jam-packed St. Peter's Square in Rome, Pope Paul VI in his annual Easter message pleaded for an end to war, racism, nationalism, and social conflict.

The Pope termed the celebration of Christ's Resurrection "history's eternal springtime."

If all men listened to the Easter message, he said, he felt confident about "the possibility of this triumph of unity in love and justice, in liberty and progress."

ATTENDS SERVICES

In Fredericksburg, Tex., President Johnson attended services at St. Barnabas Episcopal church with his family. Daughter Luci — who became Catholic, as is her fiance, Pat Nugent — later attended a Roman Catholic service.

There were peace marches in England and in New York City.

About 100 demonstrators joined the thousands in the Easter parade on Manhattan's Fifth Avenue, handing out literature calling the war in Viet Nam "immoral, illegal and inconsistent with Judeo-Christian principles."

AVENUE CLOSED

The avenue between 57th and 46th streets was closed to traffic as more than 160,000 persons overflowed the sidewalks showing off their holiday finery after attending church.

A group of French students complained they were caught in the crowds and could not find the "parade."

Firms Plan Consolidation

HOUSTON (AP) — The proposed plan to consolidate Pennzoil Co. of Houston and United Gas Corp. of Shreveport, La., includes the sale of more than $100 million worth of United's retail gas distribution facilities.

The consolidation plan, announced Sunday, must be approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

A spokesman said sale of the facilities, about 15 per cent of United's total holdings, would not adversely affect gas service. "A purchaser capable of continuing the present standard of services will be sought," he said.

REDUCE DEBT

Funds from the sale would be used to reduce United's bonded indebtedness. Consolidation procedures would begin after the facilities are sold.

When the consolidation plan becomes final, Pennzoil will apply to the Securities and Exchange Commission for an order terminating its registration as a holding company, Sunday's announcement said.

Gas utility systems in Houston, Louisiana, Mississippi and Florida are among the facilities to be sold. United's other holdings, including pipelines, oil and gas producing firms and mining interests, would be integrated into the consolidated company.

PREFERENCE

Under terms of the planned consolidation, United Gas stockholders would receive one convertible preference common share of the consolidated company for each two shares of United now outstanding or, at the option of these holders, two-thirds of a share of the ordinary common stock of the consolidated company for each share of United now outstanding.

Pennzoil stockholders would receive ordinary common stock of the consolidated firm on a share-per-share basis. United stock owned by Pennzoil would be cancelled.

Car Looted, Safe Burglars Failed

Seven thefts, burglaries and attempted burglaries were reported to officers over the weekend.

A money bag containing $50 in checks, $100 in credit cards and $84 in cash was stolen from his car while he was in the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, 803 E. 3rd, Sunday, Al Acuff, 1017 E. 21st, told officers. He said the money bag was under the front seat of his car.

D. E. Heffington told officers someone entered his home at 1412 W. 3rd, and took three hunting knives, a .22-calibre rifle and a transistor radio either Saturday night or Sunday.

Doyle Irwin, 1806 Laurie, told officers he and his companions returned from fishing at Moss Creek Lake to their campsite nearby Sunday and found all their camping and fishing equipment had been stolen.

An attempted burglary at the offices of Drs. Rainwater, Sackett and Smith, 704 Main, was reported this morning, officers said. The yeggs forced the restroom window on the north side of the building and attempted to force the safe. The attempt was unsuccessful. Officers said today that since several valuable office machines and other items were untouched, they are specualting that the burglars were looking for drugs. Nothing was missing in the attempted burglary, officers said.

Monroe Gafford, 1607 Indian Hills, said the office drawers and filing cabinets were ransacked at Universal Body Works Sunday or Saturday night. Overlooked in a cabinet by the yeggs was $2, he said. A peanut machine was manhandled, but the attempt to force it failed, officers said. Nothing was missing.

Three cartons of cigarettes were stolen from a Ponca Wholesale truck parked at the Sav-Mor Grocery, 1210 W. 3rd, Saturday, officers said.

And Gene A. Wintamute's car's trunk was forced open while it was parked at the Silver Saddle Motel Saturday, he reported to police. Nothing was stolen however.

Maybe Spring Is Here To Stay

These towering black locusts on the old Willcox farm, East Seventeenth and Lexington, are truly blooming this year for the first time in over 20 years, according to Mr. and Mrs. David W. Jones, who have lived on the farm since 1946. The locusts are nearly 50 feet tall and approximately 75 years old. Mrs. Jones said that if the weather was kind for the next few days, the locusts would keep their blossoms. The latest 32-degree or below temperature was May 7, 1917, but the weatherman is predicting only fair and mild weather for the coming week. (Photo by Frank Brandon)

County Apparently Has Enough For ROW Needs

The Howard County right-of-way fund is now $200,087 richer than it was last week.

Check for that amount for the recent sale of $200,000 of the 1965 road bond issue has been received by Edgar Phillips, county auditor, and deposited.

Lee Porter, county judge, said there is $67,000 left of the original $400,000 bonds sold last year so the total assets on hand to pay for needed right of way for scheduled rebuilding of FM 700 from Goliad street west to IS 20 is now $267,087.

A committee from the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce was at the meeting of the county commissioners today to discuss plans for proceeding with right-of-way purchase or condemnation if necessary.

The committee included R. W. Whipkey, John Taylor and Clyde McMahon Sr.

There were on hand as result of a meeting of the highway committee of the Chamber of Commerce last week. At that meeting, information was provided which indicated more money might be needed, but apparently the county can meet its needs, if appraisals can be followed.

Porter told the committee he feels there is enough money on hand to acquire the additional tracts needed and cited the list of properties still to be acquired.

He told the committee that taking the appraisal figures and adding 20 per cent to the total, he still felt the $267,000 on hand will complete the job.

"We have eight or nine tracts of land yet to acquire and only two or three of these, I believe, will be expensive.

We also have some damages to meet growing out of removal of utility equipment.

"Even with these, I still feel that we will be able to get by with less than $200,000," said Porter.

U.S. Program 'Waste' Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A top Republican financial adviser says the federal antipoverty program should be scaled down because there is "tremendous evidence of waste and inefficiency."

Maurice H. Stans, Budget Bureau director under President Dwight D. Eisenhower, also called for cuts in agriculture and foreign aid programs to curb inflation and preclude a tax increase.

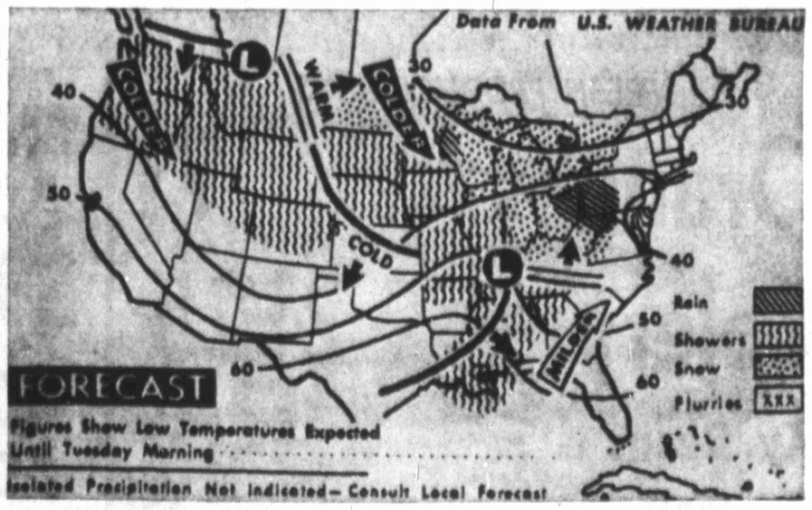
But speaking on the ABC television-radio program "Issues and Answers," Stans ruled out reductions in defense spending or the new federal Medicare program.

Grand Jury To Meet Tuesday

Howard County Grand Jury will convene at 9 a.m. Tuesday to consider 15 or 16 cases which have developed since the body was last in session.

Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, has recalled the jurors at the request of Wayne Burns, district attorney.

Primary matters to be heard by the jury are two murder cases pending against William Thomas Patterson, 33. He is accused of shooting Tony Bert Hampton and Wayne Ralph Patterson to death on the night of March 16. Burns has said the grand jurors should complete their work in two days.



Weather Forecast

Rain and showers are forecast Monday night for most of the nation. Exceptions are areas from California to Texas and New England to Louisiana. The Great Lakes region will have snow mixed with rain. The north will have colder temperatures while little change is expected elsewhere. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Rhodesia Oil Carrier At Beira Dock

LONDON (AP) — One Greek tanker loaded with oil for Rhodesia finally docked at the Mozambique port of Beira today while another headed for South Africa after the British Navy diverted her from Beira.

The Joanna V, carrying 18,700 tons of oil, pulled into an offloading berth at the docks from the anchorage two miles out where she had stayed since last Tuesday, the South African Press Association reported.

The Joanna's agents in Beira said she had docked only to facilitate repairing her propellers. But Beira shipping sources said the tanker would have to unload some of her oil cargo to raise the ship higher in the water for the repairs.

LEAVE WITH IT

They did not say what might happen to the offloaded oil. The ship's captain, George Vardinoyannis, has said he plans to leave Beria with his oil cargo.

Another tanker, the Manuela, steamed toward Durban after the British navy withdrew the armed boarding party that had diverted the ship and its 16,000 tons of oil from Portuguese Mozambique.

"Surveillance of the Manuela is being maintained by air for the time being," the British Defense Ministry said.

The boarding party seized the tanker about 150 miles southeast of Beira Sunday, acting under a U.N. Security Council resolution authorizing Britain to use force if necessary to block the flow of oil through Beira to the rebellious white minority regime in Rhodesia.

If the Manuela unloads her cargo at Durban, about 750 miles southwest of Beira, Rhodesia presumably could still get the oil but it would take longer. South Africa's white minority government has permitted private companies to provide Rhodesia with enough oil by truck and train to sustain essential services during the British embargo.

Pressure is mounting in the U.N. for sanctions to be applied to South Africa if more oil flows over the border to Rhodesia.

Autopsy Due In Death Of Accused Canadian

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — George Victor Spencer, whose firing as a postal clerk led indirectly to the Canadian furor over German beauty Gerda Munsinger, apparently died of alcohol poisoning, City Coroner Glen McDonald says.

McDonald said there were many questions still to be answered about the death of Spencer, whose body was found in his Vancouver home Saturday night. He said an autopsy-inquiry would be held Thursday.

WAS DISMISSED

Spencer, 57, was dismissed without pension from his postal job last Dec. 30 because of allegations that he had sold information to the Russians for between $3,000 and $4,000. Justice Minister Lucien Cardin told Commons the alleged offenses began "well before 1960."

When Conservatives attacked the Liberal government's handling of the case, Cardin countered with a charge that two members of the former Conservative cabinet had associated with Mrs. Munsinger, whom he called an ex-spy.

The Liberal government of Prime Minister Lester Pearson was elected in 1960, succeeding the Conservative government of John Diefenbaker.

INQUIRY WAS NEAR

A federal inquiry into the dismissal of Spencer from the Vancouver post office was scheduled to open here Wednesday. Justice Dalton Wells of the Ontario Supreme Court, who heads the inquiry, said the hearings here would be canceled and closed sessions would be held in Ottawa instead.

On a television program March 6, Spencer denied ever having spied for the Russians.

Sub Pilots Describe Bomb Recovery Ordeal

WOODS HOLE, Mass. (AP)—Two pilots of midget submarine Alvin say they were nearly trapped on the ocean floor during their efforts in recovering the hydrogen bomb lost off the Spanish coast.

The Alvin's three pilots, William O. Rainnie Jr., Marvin J. McCamis and Valentine P. Wilson, returned Sunday to the Oceanographic Institution, which operates the research submarine.

The bomb that had been missing since the crash of a U.S. nuclear bomber Jan. 17, was recovered from the Mediterranean after it was located about five miles off shore by the Alvin.

The pilots said the narrow escape occurred after the bomb had been found once, lost again and then found a second time.

Rainnie said McCamis and Wilson made a last-minute check of sonar devices attached to the bomb, maneuvered it and then brushed against a parachute billowing out behind the bomb.

By reversing engines, Wilson said the sub moved gingerly out from the parachute. But he said had Alvin's propeller become entangled in the chute there would have been no way of getting them back to the surface.

Boosters Meet

The Big Spring Choir Boosters will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Big Spring Senior High School Library. An executive session is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Judges Announced For Spelling Bee

Judges have been announced for the Fourth Annual Howard County Spelling Bee, which is to be staged Saturday morning in the high school cafeteria.

The judges are Ralph L. Caton, judge of 118th District Court; Maj. Benjamin Meacham, chaplain at Webb AFB; and the Rev. Clyde Campbell, pastor of Crestwood Baptist Church.

The official pronouncer for the spelling bee will be Mrs. O. T. Brewster, language teacher in Big Spring High School.

The spelling bee is at 10 a.m. All parents and friends of the young spellers are welcome to attend.

Don Hickson, who was last year's county and regional spelling champion, will be on hand to formally present the winner with a trophy for his 1966 victory.

The Fourth Annual Howard County Spelling Bee is sponsored by the Daily Herald.

Winner of the county championship will compete April 30 against 23 other county champions at Lubbock in the regional bee. Should he win there, as did last year's Howard County champion, he gets a free trip for himself and his family to Washington, D. C., in June to try for the national title.

Fifteen schools have champions listed for competition in the Howard County bee Saturday.

Stolen Money Is Recoveerd

Most of the money stolen from Nichols Laundry last Thursday has been recovered, city detectives announced today.

"The money bag and $113 in charge have been recovered from two juveniles who were involved in a Lamesa burglary," Detective Sherrill Farmer said today.

"From two others, we cleared up the burglary of a fruit stand which occurred April 1," he added. He said 15 cartons of cigarettes and a saw and chain were recovered.

Two adults, one involved in the fruit stand burglary, were released to Lamesa police, who have charged them with a burglary in that city, Farmer said. Jay Banks, police chief, said one of the men had a pistol in his pocket when apprehended Friday. The pistol is alleged to have been from the Lamesa burglary.

Local charges have not been filed in the fruit stand burglary, Farmer said.

New Record For Aviatrix

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Thirty one hours, 4,550 miles and several bumps on the head after taking off from Honolulu, weary but jubilant Jerrie Mock arrived home late Sunday night with a second world record under her wing.

The tiny 40-year-old aviatrix, who nearly two years ago became the first woman ever to fly solo around the world, touched down at Port Columbus Airport at 10:36 p.m. on the longest nonstop airplane flight ever made by a woman.

Mrs. Mock bettered the old mark of 3,671 miles, set in 1938 by three Russian women, by nearly 900 miles.

FUEL GONE

She couldn't have added another mile to the mark, landing nearly out of fuel and keeping a crowd of about 500 well-wishers anxiously in doubt until just before she arrived as to whether she would make it.

Mrs. Mock, the mother of two grown boys and a young daughter and grandmother of one, said the roughest part of her trip was "the winds over the Pacific and turbulence over the Rockies."

BUMPS

"I bumped my head a few times," she said of the flight over the Rockies, adding that was "the only part of the trip that worried me."

She said she also got "banged on the head by my flashlight and lost most of my personal effects" behind the special fuel tanks that took most of the passenger space in the six-seater Cessan Super Skylane.

Tired? someone asked.

LITTLE TIRED

"Just a little," she answered, closing her eyes. She remarked that was the first time she had closed her eyes since awakening at 5:30 a.m., Honolulu time, Saturday morning (10:30 a.m., EST), more than 36 hours earlier.

The 5-foot, 105-pound pilot took off from Honolulu, bostered by three ham-on-rye sandwiches and a vacuum bottle of water, at 3:34 p.m., EST, Saturday.

Primaries To Partly Test LBJ Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Party primaries in 13 states will offer some tests at the polls next month of President Johnson's Viet Nam policies.

They will provide hints also on the extent of the political upheaval that has raised Republican hopes in the South. They seem likely to demonstrate more party division among Democrats than among Republicans.

Oregon's May 24 primary is shaping up as a test of Pacific Northwest sentiment on Johnson's conduct of the Southeast Asian war.

SENATE SEAT

GOP Gov. Mark O. Hatfield, who is critical of the President's policies, seems certain to become his party's nominee for the Senate seat being vacated by Democratic Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger.

In the Democratic primary, Rep. Robert B. Duncan has jumped into the senatorial nomination race with an announcement of all-out support for Johnson's course.

Howard Morgan, a member of the Federal Power Commission in the Kennedy administration, is in the contest with the claimed support of Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., outspoken dissenter to the Johnson war policies.

ON MAY 3

Primary voting takes place May 3 in Alabama, Florida, Indiana, Ohio, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

In Alabama, which has seen some switching by local officials from the Democratic to Republican parties, Mrs. George C. Wallace is trying for the Democratic nomination for governor, for which her husband is barred from running again.

Republicans think that the Democrats may come out of this contest so disorganized that GOP Rep. James D. Martin could win the governorship in the fall elections. They are hoping any such result might increase their 5-3 margin over Democrats in House seats.

Democratic Sen. John J. Sparkman has no primary election opposition but may face a tough Republican challenge in November.

TEXAS PRIMARY

Gov. John B. Connally, a supporter of the President's Viet Nam course who is at odds with his old friend Johnson on some domestic issues, is counted as certain of winning renomination in the May 7 Texas primary.

In Nebraska, on May 10, Gov. Frank B. Morrison is likely to become the Democratic nominee to oppose GOP Sen. Carl T. Curtis in what would be billed as a liberal vs. conservative general election contest. Curtis, a conservative, has supported Johnson's war policies. Morrison has voiced no dissent.

West Virginia's May 10 primary will be followed by those in Pennsylvania May 17, Kentucky May 24 and North Carolina May 28.

The Pennsylvania voting will coincide with the filing deadline in New York State, where the Democrats are far from achieving any unity on a candidate to oppose GOP Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Mammal Show Good, Human Comedy Weak

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television programmers seem to feel that they must provide special entertainment for children on holiday nights — particularly Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. Most kids are exhausted then and it is the adults who need a bit of special entertainment and relaxation.

Ed Sullivan devoted a great chunk of his Sunday night program to some circus acts — elephants, clowns and trained dogs. Then came the annual CBS demonstration from the Pacific Coast Marineland of its trained dolphins, walruses and seals. Their acts are getting to be almost as familiar as Alan King's monologues.

The Marineland mammal actors are fun to watch. It is the feeble comedy added by the human guest stars that is likely to send a tired adult viewer into another room.

The "Beverly Hillbillies" characters can be fairly amusing in their own show, where the scripts are generally shrewdly constructed. They seemed grotesque and self-conscious competing with the dolphins for laughs. They weren't funny at all.

It is one of television's unwritten laws that a program that gets good ratings is never dropped. Thus one of the current television mysteries is why "Branded," a good, classic Western with Chuck Connors, is being dropped by NBC at the end of this season.

In the most recent Nielsen report, the Sunday night show was among the top 30 programs and it has been in the top 10 from time to time. Since it started in mid season two years ago it has often been pointed to as an example of a replacement that became a hit.

Sunday night's episode was not up to the normal level. The author took some ridiculous liberties with history.

Young Fashionables Parade On Easter

Big Spring Country Club members who attended the club's Easter buffet were entertained by children who modeled their Easter costumes as Mrs. Larson Lloyd served as narrator. Among those who appeared were Gwendy and Greg Galbraith, left, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Galbraith. Gwendy's A-line shift is of white lace over pale blue, and the trim is blue flowers and velvet ribbon that ties in a bow at the back. Her accessories were white. Greg wore a blue plaid Madras jacket and pale blue shirt and handkerchief with navy pants and tie and black shoes. At right Larson Jr. and Lisa Lloyd, children of Mr. and Mrs. Larson Lloyd. Lisa models a rose and white striped polished cotton dress with lace-edged Bertha collar which she wears with lace bonnet and white patent slippers. Young Larson's blue and white cord suit is worn with a white broadcloth 'little boy' shirt, and his shoes are brown and white saddle oxfords.

Bride-Elect Honored At Coke Party

An informal Coke party honoring Miss Mary Locke Crosland, bride-elect of Thomas Cross, was held Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Bledsoe O'Brien, 1205 Goliad.

Hostesses were Mrs. Arlen Bryant and Mrs. Skip Franklin.

The theme of the party was "Daisies Don't Tell," and a white cake, decorated with yellow daisies, was inscribed with appropriate wording. The refreshment table cloth was of yellow linen, and the centerpiece was an Easter basket arranged with yellow daisies which was given to the honoree. Napkins were yellow, and Coke bottles were sprayed yellow and decorated with yellow daisies.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Fred Crosland and the late Mr. Crosland, and her fiance's parents are Judge and Mrs. Thomas Cross of Terrell. The wedding is slated for June 4 in the First Baptist Church.

High school friends called between the hours of 3 and 4:30 p.m.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Plastic Bags Shape Up In No Time

Dear Folks:

Last year so many of you wrote to me about beautiful patent and plastic purses that had been crushed out of shape.

You have asked for a solution to bring them back to their original shape.

HELOISE

Well, the answer will bowl you over. And I tested it on my three - year - old plastic purses. First stuff them inside with a folded bath towel. (Be sure that it is folded neatly so that it hasn't any wrinkles or bulges.)

Wrap a bath towel around the outside of the bag.

Then get out that old heating pad and let's put it to work . . .

Lay the bag on a pillow on your bed (this will cushion the bottom when the heat starts to work).

Place the heating pad on top of the outer bath towel and turn it on low.

Leave it at least 30 minutes to an hour. Then go look!

The bag will be softened from the minute amount of heat, and the wrinkles will have left. Mold it with your hands if you have a hard wrinkle left, and turn it over.

Replace the same way under the same conditions so this side will soften gently.

I found that placing a pillow on top of the heating pad on one badly out-of-shape purse held the heat in far better and took heavy, indented wrinkles out.

Let cook slowly. Just turn off the pad.

And if you have one of those inexpensive white plastic bags that has picked up some lipstick stains (looks orange and pinkish), try wetting an old, dry wash rag with some rubbing alcohol and just rub away. Removed the stains on my purse beautifully. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Do your readers know how convenient an overnight bag is for use as a sewing basket?

The removable tray can be used to store spools of thread, pill-boxes of buttons, your scissors, etc.

The pockets are great for scraps of elastic, rick-rack and all those little leftovers.

The bottom of the case holds leftover material, patterns, your marking paper, etc. . . . Antje

* * *

Dear Heloise:

I enjoy baking, and my family loves cupcakes, especially with the gooey-gooey frostings. So, when I make them, I bake upwards of two dozen at a time.

Rather than have the table strewn with several plates of iced cakes, since they can't be stacked because of the sticky frosting, I do this:

I put four small plastic glasses with the wide edges down at each corner of an oblong cookie sheet, fill the sheet with iced cupcakes, stack a smaller or equal size cookie sheet on top of the glasses and fill it with cakes.

As the top layer is eaten, I just remove the empty platter and glasses, and my family start on the next layer. . . . Evelyn Smith

Dear Heloise:

Here is a quick, easy way to clean corn on the cob:

Take a stiff vegetable brush and run it up and down over the ear of corn. Presto — no more silks. . . . Steady Reader

Egg Hurlers Attack Group Against War

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Smashed eggs and shaving cream covered the automobiles of peace demonstrators when they ended a 10-hour vigil outside a Nike missile site north of here Sunday.

The demonstrators arrived early with the number increasing to 12 before disbanding. Signs said "Make Love, not War," "Negotiate, Tolerate" and "Peace Is Our Only Defense."

The egg throwers outnumbered them, with more than a score of young people coming past several times in cars and on motorcycles to throw eggs and grab at the signs.

The demonstrators left at 4:30 p.m.

Dear Abby

'Twasn't A Nightcap

DEAR ABBY: I have been a faithful reader of yours for many years and hope you can straighten me out on something. Our changing moral code has me stumped! I went out with a fellow I like a lot, and after a movie he asked me up to his apartment for a nightcap. I considered the late hour and the fact that I didn't know him too well, (second date) so I refused politely. He seemed to understand but he never called me again. Now I'm wonderfing if I did the right thing in refusing his invitation. PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: I think you did right. If it was only a nightcap he wanted, he could have obtained one with you publicly. And judging from the way he faded, t'wasn't.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am 19 and have been married for 10 months. My husband is 20, and in the Navy. He has been overseas for nine months and three days. When I first learned I was pregnant I was thrilled and told everyone. The baby is now overdue, and my mother-in-law told me she is giving me just one more wek to have the baby, and if it isn't here, she'll know it's not her son's, and she will have my marriage annulled. I am very hurt and upset about this, Abby, because the baby couldn't possibly be anyone else's but my husband's, and that kind of talk is ruining my reputation. How can I prove to my mother-in-law that she is wrong about me? And if I can't prove it, what can I do? HURT

DEAR HURT: As long as YOU know the baby couldn't possibly be anyone else's but your husband's, ignore the accusations and hold your head high. The gestation period is normally 280 days, but women have been known to miscalculate, thereby making the "due" date as much as 30 days off. (Both early and late.)

• • •

DEAR ABBY: When the children began to arrive, my husband started to complain. He didn't like driving them to school, to the doctor, dentist, or shopping. So finally I learned to drive so he could rest. Then he complained about having to do all the odd jobs around the house, so I learned to do them myself. (I can change a washer with the best plumbers.) Then he complained that his money was paying for the food in our mouths, the clothes on our backs and the gas in the car, so I went back to my old job, and the kids picked up odd jobs whenever they could. Guess what happened? He began complaining that he wasn't "needed" at home. Well, I agreed with him. Who needs a man who shoves off all his responsibility on his wife and kids? So, I divorced him. Do you know, Abby, we miss him. We miss hearing him complain. That's about all he ever did. Everything else we manage to do ourselves.

Jacobs, Brewer Matched With Nicklaus In Playoff

Round Slated For Today

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tommy Jacobs and Gay Brewer, a couple of outsiders, were overshadowed by the menacing, dominant figure of Jack Nicklaus going into today's three-way, 18-hole playoff for the green coat that goes to the Masters champion.

"I've blown three chances," the defending champion growled after finishing the regulation 72 holes in a tie with Jacobs and Brewer at 288, even par for the demanding Augusta National Course.

"I don't intend to blow another."

Jacobs and Brewer had already finished and were sitting nervously on the sidelines Sunday when Nicklaus missed by about two inches on a 25-foot birdie putt on the 18th that would have won it for the Golden Bear.

When it just missed, Jacobs and Brewer suddenly — and just for today — were elevated to The Big Three. The exclusive club more normally composed of Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player has shared the title in this classic seven of the last eight years.

Palmer made his bid and failed, finishing two strokes back. Player never was in it.

The playoff was scheduled for 1:45 p.m., (EST) with national television (CBS) of the concluding holes starting three hours later. In the event of a further tie, sudden death will be in effect, starting at the first hole.

It's the fifth playoff in Masters history and the second involving three players.

The winner will get a check for $20,000. The runnerup will receive $12,300 and third place will be worth $8,300. The total purse was $152,880, an increase of $15,205 over last year.

Nicklaus, gunning for a third Masters title and a record second straight, has had rounds of 68-76-72-72; Brewer has turned in scores of 74-72-72-70 and Jacobs has scored 75-71-70-72.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Money winners in the Masters Golf Tournament Sunday: (Playoff winner to receive $20,000; second $12,300; third $8,300; y-in playoff, x-amateur)

Pitching Pair Ready For First Assignments

By The Associated Press

Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale aren't acting any more.

That became apparent during the weekend when baseball's first $100,000-plus pitching pair, holdouts until 12 days ago, put in strong bids for opening-week starting assignments with the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

Koufax pitched six innings of no-hit ball, striking out nine and retiring the last 16 men in order, as the Dodgers defeated Cleveland 3-0 Saturday. Then Sunday, Drysdale pitched six innings of shutout ball, allowing just six singles and striking out four in a 6-0 victory over the Indians.

ANXIOUS FOR START

The performances in the closing exhibition games left the aces of the Dodger staff, who combined for 49 victories last year, anxious to make their first starts sometime this week.

"I'll be ready to pitch Wednesday and I'll go as far as I can," said Koufax. But he cautioned that "we'll just have to wait and see how far that can be."

"I feel the same way," said Drysdale. "I'll be ready Friday and I'll pitch as many innings as I can."

In light of their lengthy holdout siege, the ability of Koufax and Drysdale to pitch as effectively as they did Saturday and Sunday has to be considered a plus factor for the Dodgers, who earlier estimated longer delays before the pair would be ready.

Koufax, as a matter of fact, will be getting a jump on last year's pitching schedule if he opens Wednesday — the Dodgers' second game — since his arthritic elbow kept him on the sidelines until the fourth game last season.

OSTEEN GETS NOD

Claude Osteen draws the opening day assignment for the world champions. He is scheduled to go against veteran Robin Roberts of Houston as the regular season gets into full swing with an eight-game program following Monday's traditional openers at Washington and Cincinnati.

With President Johnson remaining in Texas for an Easter holiday, Vice President Humphrey will be his reliever, throwing out the first pitch of the season as the Senators meet Cleveland.

Then Pete Richert will take the mound for Washington while Sam McDowell, the American League's answer to Koufax, starts for the Indians. At Cincinnati, the 82nd National League opener will match the New York Mets and Jack Fisher against the Reds and Milt Pappas.

TUESDAY SCHEDULE

Tuesday's schedule shows five day games and three nighters. The American League has most of the day action with Kansas City at Minnesota, Detroit at New York, Baltimore at Boston and California at Chicago.

Chicago also will be at San Francisco for a day game with the remainder of the National League schedule at night. Pittsburgh will play the first major league game at Atlanta, Philadelphia will be at St. Louis and Houston at Los Angeles.

Besides Atlanta, one other franchise shift has been made—the Angels moving south from Los Angeles to Anaheim — but six clubs will show off new managers.

The Cincinnati - New York meeting focuses on two of the rookie managers, with Don Heffner making his debut as the Reds' field boss and Wes Westrum beginning his first full year as Casey Stengel's successor with the Mets.

NEW PILOTS

Other new managers are Leo Durocher with the Cubs, Eddie Stanky with the White Sox, Al Dark with the Athletics and Grady Hatton with the Astros.

In all, 20 teams are confident they have a shot at the two pennants, but the Las Vegas oddsmakers are sticking with the Dodgers in the National League while champion Minnesota and Baltimore have been established as co-favorites in the American League.

The Orioles have received strong backing since acquiring one of the National League's brightest stars, Frank Robinson. Robinson, the slugging outfielder who compiled a .303 lifetime batting average in 10 seasons with the Reds, already is being called the AL's top player.

The entire American League, meanwhile, came out ahead of the National in games played between the two leagues during the exhibition season. The AL won 80 games and lost 74.

AMERICAN RECORD

The Reds had a particularly tough time against the Chicago White Sox, finally getting their first victory in eight meetings Sunday, 9-3, with home run help from Tommy Harper, Don Pavletich and Tommy Helms. The White Sox finished with the best exhibition record, 21-7.

In other closing pre-season games, St. Louis edged Kansas City 7-6 in 10 innings, California downed San Francisco 6-5, Boston belted Washington 6-1, the New York Yankees nipped Atlanta 2-1, the New York Mets thumped Baltimore 6-3, Philadelphia crushed Pittsburgh 11-5, and Minnesota whipped Houston 8-1.

Detroit and the Chicago Cubs took on Pacific Coast League opponents, the Tigers losing to Oklahoma City 9-4 and the Cubs beating Tacoma 3-1.

DERBY FAVORITE

Graustark Entrenched, Moccasin's Lustre Dim

By The Associated Press

Graustark was more firmly entrenched than ever as the Kentucky Derby favorite today. But some of the luster had worn off Moccasin, 1965 Horse of the Year and champion two-year-old filly.

The long-striding son of Ribot, out of action since being sidelined two months ago with a hoof injury, came back to competition last Saturday at Keeneland in superb condition.

It was only a six-furlong race compared to the Derby distance of 1¼ miles and the competition in a betless race was nothing to shout about.

But Graustark, with Braulio Baeza in the saddle, won by four lengths as he stepped the distance in 1:09 3-5, then went another eighth of a mile to complete seven furlongs in 1:22 3-5. He eased up the mile in 1:37—all of which pleased owner John Galbreath and trainer Loyd Gentry very much.

The victory was the sixth in an unbeaten career for Graustark. He won three last year before suffering a leg injury and now has chalked up the same number this year. His next start likely will be the 1⅛ miles of the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland, 10 days before the Derby.

Moccasin also is eligible for the Derby but she'll likely sidestep that race in favor of the Kentucky Oaks for three-year-old fillies on May 6.

Moccasin, however, turned in a disappointing performance, losing by four lengths as she finished fourth in a six-furlong race with Stealaway, stablemate of Graustark, winning in 1:10 1-5. It was the Claiborne Farm filly's first start since last November when she took the Gardenia for her eighth straight triumph.

Moccasin also is eligible for the Derby but she'll likely sidestep that race in favor of the Kentucky Oaks for three-year-old fillies on May 6.

Eastern - based Derby nominees get another chance this Saturday to show whether they are worthy of challenging Graustark in the Run for the Roses. They'll meet in the one mile of the Gotham at Aqueduct with Priceless Gem, another highly regarded filly, a likely starter against the Max Hirsch-trained entry of Indulto and Buffle and the Eddie Neloy - trained duo Impressive and Stupendous.

Bragan Hopeful

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Major league baseball officially comes to the Deep South Tuesday night and Atlanta Braves' Manager Bobby Bragan [illegible] "why not a pennant, too?" type of attitude on the eve of the opening game.

Braves officials report that about 45,000 tickets have been sold in advance for the opening game with Pittsburgh. The $18 million stadium seats 55,000.

With a smile of optimism, Bragan said he sees the National League pennant chase as a six-team race, "and we're one of the teams."

His opening opponent, Pittsburgh, also is one of the teams, he said. The others are Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and San Francisco.

But Bragan, anxious to bring a World Series to the South in a hurry, eyes Cincinnati as the team to beat. "I pick us and Cincinnati to battle it out for the pennant," he said.

Terry To Play For Athletics

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ralph Terry refused to sign with Cleveland when the Indians offered him $31,000. But the veteran right-hander agreed to terms Sunday with the Kansas City Athletics — for $31,000.

The A's received the right to negotiate with Terry by trading left-hander John O'Donoghue to the Indians. Cleveland also sent Kansas City $25,000 in the deal.

"I agreed to terms because I want to play baseball," Terry said.

Steers Meet Midland Here

Still confident they can get back into the thick of the fight for 2-4A baseball laurels, the Big Spring Steers meet Midland High here at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Roy Baird's nine now stands 2-2 in district play after getting off to a perfect start and faltering with a brace of losses last week. Except for a mental lapse which cost a run, the Steers would have beaten Permian instead of losing, 3-2, and that would have put them in second place.

Bobby Griffin is likely to be the starter against Midland, but Gary Miears will be ready to come on if Bobby should falter.

For the season, the Steers are now 7-9 and Baird is hopeful that after this week the score will be evened and the Steers back in contention in the district. If the hitting keeps coming on, this might happen.

Astros Open With Champs

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Astros, who wound up the exhibition season Sunday in the Astrodome with an 8-1 loss to Minnesota, head for Los Angeles today to open National League play against the world champion Dodgers Tuesday night.

The Astros closed with a 14-14 record in exhibitions after falling twice to American League champion Minnesota and taking three straight triumphs over Detroit in a five-game exhibition series in the domed stadium.

Houston with an 11-7 exhibition record against American League teams and 3-7 against the National League began slumping early in Sunday's loss to Minnesota.

In the first two and one-third innings, the Twins scored six runs off Dave Giusti, who previously had given up only five earned runs in 21 innings this spring.

Houston went hitless in the last five innings against Jim Perry and Johnny Klippstein. Jim Kaat, an 18-game winner for the Twins, gave up all five Astro hits in the first four innings.

Reports Great Luck With Trout

Marvin Boyd, 2608 Cheyenne, had good news today for fishermen. He has located a place in New Mexico where anglers are bringing in the limit of Rainbow Trout in three hours.

"It's the best trout fishing I've ever seen," he said this morning. He had returned from Lake Chicosa, which is 90 miles west of Dalhart near Roy, N.M. The limit is 12 in possession, he said. They were being taken with corn and salmon eggs, and running from 15 to 20 inches long. All the fishing is off the bank, he added.

Reports are the trout have been biting every day since the season opened on April 1.

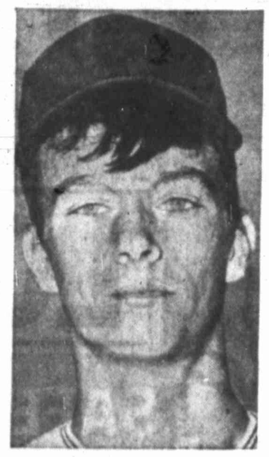
Hank Pope Has No-Hitter In Nightcap At Snyder

Pitching with flawless precision, Hank Pope hurled a no hitter at the Snyder Eagles Sunday to win 6-0 for the Gage Oilers and avenge an earlier victory by Snyder.

The 4-3 win by Snyder in the opening game is the only blot on the Oiler record for the season, but Pope's perfect performance took away most of the sting.

Not a batsman got on base in the seven-inning nightcap against Pope. He struck out 15, and in the third, fifth and sixth innings he struck out the side. From the fifth through the first batter in the seventh, he whiffed seven straight men. The last two batters rolled out harmlessly.



HANK POPE

While this was going on, the Oiler batters found the range and hammered 10 hits off Snyder pitcher Biggis. Included were doubles by Finkenbinder and Blizzard, the latter batting in two runs. Emerson also made two hits count for two runs.

Two innings of loose play cost the Oilers the first game. In the opening frame, the first two men got aboard on errors, then H. Malone connected for a double. Hernandez, the next man up, was safe on another error and Malone scored. Snyder's final run came in the sixth in much the same manner. Brazri walked, advanced on a single then came home on successive errors.

McAdams homered in the final inning for the Oilers, but he was the first man up and the next three men promptly struck out. The Oilers left their hitting clothes home for the first game and 11 of them went down swinging at Buford Thompson's pitches. Chubby Moser was charged with the loss giving up three runs and one hit. He walked one and struck out four. Freddy Miears gave up one hit, one run, a pair of walks and struck out three.

Purvis Signs With Patriots

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots of the American Football League have signed a third member of the 1965 Southern Mississippi defensive unit which held opponents to 161.2 yards per game.

The Patriots signed quarterback and defensive back Vic Purvis as a free agent during the weekend. Defensive tackle John Mangum and linebacker Doug Satcher agreed to terms earlier.

Also entered in this invitational match will be the freshmen from the Air Force Academy, as well as junior colleges at Rinidad, the host New Mexico Military Institute, and from Amarillo, South Plains and Odessa. Based on the showing so far, the Hawks rank among the favorites to win the meet.

Dobbs Silent On West Point

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Texas Western football Coach Bobby Dobbs says he will remain tight-lipped about the West Point football coaching vacancy until sometime today.

Dobbs and Col. Ray Murphy, Army's athletic director, met Saturday night and Sunday in El Paso to discuss the West Point coaching post, opened last week with the sudden resignation of Paul Dietzel.

"At this time I have no plans past the telephone conversation with Murphy on Monday," said Dobbs. "Neither side is committed right now."

Dobbs disclosed that he will confer again with Murphy about the position.

Looking For A Receiver

Wilt's 76ers Near Brink After Losing To Celtics

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Hawks have scraped themselves off the floor in the National Basketball Association playoffs. The Philadelphia 76ers are still trying to figure out what hit them.

St. Louis fought off elimination in the Western Division playoffs Sunday night by outlasting Los Angeles 112-100 on the Lakers' court.

The Boston Celtics pushed Philadelphia to the brink in the Eastern Division finals Sunday afternoon by erasing an eight-point deficit in the fourth quarter and stunning the 76ers in overtime 114-108.

Tuesday night St. Louis, trailing Los Angeles 3-2 in their best-of-seven series, entertains the tired Lakers while Philadelphia, down 3-1, tries to rebound at home against the Celtics.

"I can't believe it, man. I can't believe it," Wilt Chamberlain muttered after the Celtics rallied behind Sam Jones and John Havlicek to overtake the 76ers before a screaming crowd of 13,909 at the Boston Garden. "It will be a long, hard road for us now."

The 76ers must win three in a row to make the final round. Two straight will do the job for the Hawks, who bounced back on the scoring of Len Wilkens and Cliff Hagan.

The Lakers, showing the strain of back-to-back games more than the the determined Hawks, fell behind by 10 points in the third quarter and couldn't catch the visitors. Jerry West led Los Angeles with 31 points.

Sam Jones scored nine points and Havlicek eight in the Celtics' fourth quarter spurt. Then, after K.C. Jones' free throw with 39 seconds to go tied it at 100-100, forcing the overtime. Sam Jones and Havlicek hit for four more points apiece as Boston pulled away in the extra period.

Corbett Mistaken For A Prowler

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The bullet that gravely wounded James J. Corbett, Louisiana State University athletic director, was fired when he was mistaken for a prowler, police report.

Chief David Keyser said it happened Thursday night when Corbett, a heart patient for seven years, stumbled to a motel window seeking help after being stricken with severe chest pains while driving.

Keyser said the occupant of the motel room, O. S. Coleman, about 45, of Sorrento, La., fired a 22-caliber Derringer out of the window when he saw a hand reach in.

Corbett said his chest pains were so severe it was a moment before he realized what had happened, though the impact of the bullet knocked him down. He then made it back to his car and tried to drive on.

The auto swerved off the street and hit a tree.

Chief Keyser called a news conference Sunday night to outline the case. The investigation had marked time for two days while police waited for Corbett to recover sufficiently to be questioned.

Coleman told police he didn't realize anyone had been hit until he learned the next day that Corbett had been found, near death, slumped in his car in the same general vicinity as the motel.

Chief Keyser said Coleman then returned to Baton Rouge to report the shooting.

Milwaukee Suit Verdict Is Near

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The verdict in Wisconsin's antitrust battle with baseball now is expected to come only hours before the former Milwaukee Braves are scheduled to open in Atlanta Tuesday.

White-haired Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller, who worked from morning until past midnight Easter Sunday preparing his decision, said he did not expect to be ready to announce the ruling until Tuesday morning.

The State of Wisconsin is asking that the Braves be ordered to return immediately to Milwaukee unless and until expansion is assured. Should it win its suit, the verdict could leave the National League wrapped in a legal web of epic complications at the very outset of the season.

The 38-day antitrust trial, with more than a million words written into the record, ended last Wednesday with a dramatic offer by the state to drop its demand for the Braves return if the National League would promise Milwaukee an expansion team not this year but next.

Rumors of a settlement since have come and gone. Nothing of substance has surfaced.

Baseball Commissioner William Eckert said last week the Wisconsin offer would be studied. He said nothing over the weekend. In both Milwaukee and New York, there were uniform denials that any contacts toward a compromise had been made.

Man Leading 'Gator Nabbed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Police arrested a man wobbling along a downtown street Sunday leading a tipsy alligator on a string.

"The man was drunk and the 'gator was staggering a little," police Lt. J. O. Brannon said.

When the man paid his bail, he left his two-foot-long friend with police.

"We don't get many 'gators down here, especially one half crocked," Brannon mused. "We can't leave him in the drunk tank."

Police put the alligator in a box to sleep it off.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Big Spring, Texas, this the 29 day of March A.D. 1966.

Reds Eye Moon Landing By '68

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union is preparing for the celebration Tuesday of the fifth anniversary of Yuri Gagarin's first manned space flight, with optimistic talk about putting a man on the moon.

Soviet cosmonauts have been giving indications that their government will attempt man's great lunar adventure sooner than had been expected.

Alexei Leonov, the first man to walk in space, March 18, 1965, said in Budapest that a Russian will land on the moon as early as 1968.

FIVE YEARS'

Gagarin told the Czechoslovak news agency that Soviet space research had advanced more rapidly than planned. He said he was convinced there would be a man on the moon within the next five years.

Gherman Titov, the second Soviet cosmonaut, predicted Sunday that the moon would become a giant space center where ships would be built for flights "into the depths of the universe." He talked of complicated operations being undertaken in space by men "soon."

HAS SUPPORT

The cosmonauts, all speaking in connection with the Gagarin anniversary, made no mention of President Johnson's claim that the United States would beat the Soviet Union in putting a man on the moon. The President gave 1970 as the target for the U.S. program.

The cosmonauts' optimism gets support from two big successes the Soviet space program has already achieved in 1966.

First came the soft landing on the moon Feb. 3 by the unmanned Luna 9 spaceship.

On April 3 Luna 10 was put into orbit around the moon, another first and another essential for getting a man there. The most discussed plan for a manned landing calls for the trip to be made in stages, jumping off for the final one from a lunar satellite.

One possible next step in the Soviet program is a manned flight to explore the vicinity of the moon without attempting a landing.

Soviet space flights are never announced in advance. The cosmonauts give hints in general terms, but the world can only guess the rest.

A current rumor is that another space spectacular will be launched Tuesday on the anniversary of Gagarin's flight.

Coal Miners Strike Before Talks Resume

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Miners struck soft-coal operations in six states today hours before the resumption of contract talks between the United Mine Workers Union and mine owners.

The strike spread to Ohio early today.

Picket lines appeared in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Illinois, Kentucky and Alabama.

In Washington, a spokesman at UMW headquarters said "there wasn't any sanction" for the walkouts. The spokesman said the situation between the union and the Bituminous Coal Operators Association was unchanged from Friday.

UNION'S STAND

UMW President W. A. Boyle had said then the union "considered itself at liberty to strike at any time."

As late as Sunday afternoon, UMW Vice President George Titler said he knew nothing of a rank-and-file movement for a strike.

But "we don't have a contract and we can't work without one," said C.W. Moore, president of a local at the Bell and Zollar Mining Co. Oriole mine near Madisonville, Ky.

The Washington UMW spokesman said Boyle and BCOA officials meet sometime today to reopen negotiations but the time was uncertain.

The mineworkers' contract with the BCOA expired April 1, but miners had continued to work pending the outcome of negotiations which began on Feb. 21.

REACH AGREEMENT

The union reached agreement Friday with three coal producers employing 6,500 of the UMW's 100,000 members in the soft coal industry.

The three were Peabody Coal Co. of St. Louis, Mo., the nation's largest soft coal producer; Ayrshire Collieries of Indianapolis, Ind., and Southwest Illinois Coal Corp.

Hunger Strike By Irish Due

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Eighteen young Irish militants planned to start a hunger strike today as their nation celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Easter uprising.

The youths said they would fast from noon today until 3:45 p.m. Saturday, recalling the duration of the bloody 1916 rebellion crushed by the British. The uprising eventually led to the creation of the Irish Republic.

"BETRAY IDEALS"

Ireland has no cause to celebrate, the hunger strikers said. They accused the Irish government of betraying revolutionary ideals by letting Gaelic die out and by tolerating Ireland's partition and economic dependence on Britain.

The hunger strikers included several Dublin University students and six supporters from Belfast in the north. They are members of a fringe organization of the Gaelic revival movement called Misneach — Courage.

Inside Dublin's main post office, Joe Clarke, 84, revisited the place where he participated in the uprising and laid a wreath at the foot of the Cuchulainn statue, which is dedicated to a legendary figure symbolizing Ireland. The wreath carried the words, "To the forgotten ideals of 1916."

ACCUSES GOVERNMENT

Mairtin O'Cadhain, a leading Gaelic author, Sunday night accused the government of selling out the aims of 1916 and fearing the spread of the Irish language because it would stir up Irish nationalism.

Despite these protests, there were no outbreaks of nationalist violence. Irishmen celebrated the anniversary by singing patriotic songs or paused to remember the bitter uprising. The Archbishop of Dublin was to dedicate a garden of remembrance today in Parnell Square, where the British had held most of the prisoners from the post office garrison.

Nuclear Arms Pact 'Possible'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States' chief disarmament negotiator believes there is a chance of obtaining agreement this year on a worldwide treaty banning spread of nuclear weapons.

William C. Foster, who returns shortly to the 17-nation disarmament conference at Geneva, said the need for such a treaty is urgent because it is becoming easier and cheaper to make nuclear weapons.

He said some nations, which he did not name, "feel that perhaps they could gain prestige" by manufacturing such weapons. Foster appeared on NBC's television-radio program "Meet the Press."

Violence Kills At Least 36 In Texas' Easter Weekend

By The Associated Press

At least 36 persons died violently in Texas during the Easter weekend, including 24 who died in traffic accidents as thousands of Texans took to the highways for the holiday.

The Associated Press tabulation of violent deaths began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Wesley Justin Woods, 23, was shot to death Sunday outside a West Fort Worth club. Police charged the club owner with murder. They said Woods was an innocent bystander.

Johnson Remains At Texas Ranch

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson got a relief pitcher to open the American League baseball season in Washington today so he could stay on and enjoy a post-Easter holiday at his Texas ranch.

He set no time for his return to the capital.

HUMPHREY ASSIGNED

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey got the job of throwing out the first ball at the Washington-Cleveland opener.

Johnson kept a relaxed schedule, including a bit of desk work, boating, church-going and looking over the spring-green acres of his LBJ Ranch.

He told reporters to go "kick up your heels" in San Antonio, the press headquarters 65 miles away, indicating he didn't want them to zero in on his activities during his ranch vacation.

Peace Vigil Near Ranch

STONEWALL, Tex. (AP) — A spokesman for a group that lined the road near President Lyndon B. Johnson's ranch Sunday and protested the war in Viet Nam complained that "no one will talk to us."

The group staged an Easter peace vigil and two spokesmen handed a letter to Clarence Knetsch, a Secret Service agent, who said he would mail it to the President in Washington although the President was at the ranch.

A request to see another representative of the President was denied.

"We're disappointed," Mrs. Linda Briggs of Houston said. "No one will talk to us."

The group was the Houston Citizens for Action on Viet Nam. Many of them said they were here last Christmas and Easter opposing the war.

The letter said the nation was "committed to perpetuating a military dictatorship against the popular will of the people," and that the administration's policy during the past two years will, in time, appear as a terrible strain on American history."

There were about 50 persons in the vigil, all on one side of Ranch Road 1. A wooden barricade, manned by state police and Secret Service agents, blocked the road.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AKQ32 ♡A2 ◇AQJ ♣KQJ
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
2 ♠	Pass	4 ♠	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. The jump raise in the opening two bid suit is a specialized bid and by convention describes a hand which contains very good trump support but no aces or kings and no singletons. Therefore, it is clear that your side lacks the club ace. Furthermore, there is a heart loser to dispose of and a diamond finesse to contend with. Slam, therefore, should be regarded as too remote for practical consideration.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AK652 ♡AJ ◇AQ3 ♣KQ8
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
Pass	Pass	2 NT	Pass
4 NT	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—This hand contains 23 points in high cards in addition to a good five card suit. Consequently you have sufficient excess values to accept the invitation and should bid six no trump.

Q. 3—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠Q10532 ♡43 ◇K62 ♣964
The bidding has proceeded:

West	North	East	South
1 ♣	Dble.	1 ♠	Dble.
Pass	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
Pass	2 ♡	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. Partner has a more or less reasonable idea of your holding from your double of the one spade bid. You have done your duty and should sit back and relax.

Q. 4—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠K73 ♡K54 ◇AJ92 ♣AJ5
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 NT	2 ♡	2 ♠	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass; this hand is a rock bottom minimum one no trump, and it is not to be presumed that partner has as many as 10 points, else he should make a jump bid.

Q. 5—Both sides vulnerable with 60 part score and as South you hold:
♠K10642 ♡7 ◇KQ1042 ♣A8
The bidding has proceeded:

West	North	East	South
1 ♡	Pass	2 ♡	?

What do you bid?

A.—Our own choice lies between a double and a bid of three diamonds, with a slight preference for the latter. This may seem unorthodox, inasmuch as the normal call would appear to be two spades. However, preparation for the next round suggests the wisdom of a three diamond bid. When the opponents bid three hearts, which is probable, you may then compete conveniently with a bid of three spades. Whereas, if you bid two spades now and the opponents bid three hearts, you will find it necessary to bid four diamonds in order to carry on the fight.

Q. 6—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠K8632 ♡53 ◇92 ♣A1096
The bidding has proceeded:

North	East	South	West
1 ♡	Pass	1 ♠	Pass
1 NT	Pass	?

What do you bid now?

A.—Two clubs. With two worthless doubletons, a suit contract would seem preferable. This is not forcing, for a new suit after a one no trump bid may be dropped.

Q. 7—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A10 ♡AQJ975 ◇94 ♣976
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 ♡	Pass	2 ◇	Pass
2 ♡	Pass	2 ♠	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Three hearts. Inasmuch as you have a minimum hand in high cards, you must do no more than make minimum rebids.

Q. 8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AQ104 ♡64 ◇AQJ72 ♣82
The bidding has proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 ◇	Pass	2 NT	Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Three spades. Inasmuch as you are committed to reach a game contract, nothing is to be lost by stopping off on the way to try out your major suit. The three-spade bid does not necessarily show additional values.
