CISD takes drug, alcohol stand

The Colorado Independent School District board of trustees Monday night took a firm stand against drugs and alcohol in the schools by adopting a policy calling for the suspension of students caught with either.

CHS principal Jerry Reynolds said that House Bill 13 allows for student suspension on the first offense and Supt. Charlie Uselton recommended that the policy be adopted.

The policy will go into effect Monday, the beginning of the second semester, and reads that if a student is caught with either drugs or alcohol at school, the student will be suspended from school for the remainder of the semester.

"We have been concerned about drugs and alcohol for years, but we could not find it," said Reynolds. "We've always had good discipline and we will continue to have it."

Reynolds said he solicted ideas from students, teachers and parents on how best to discipline students caught on campus with drugs and alcohol.

Uselton said other school districts had been contacted about their discipline policies and said that suspension for the remainder of the semester is not uncommon. He referred to the five-day rule which states if a student has five unexcused absences, the student automatically fails the course.

Uselton said the new policy is for all grades and that notes explaining the new policy will be sent home with students to be signed by parents.

Board president Dr. Billy Bridgford said the school district is also considering the use of a drug-sniffing dog to sniff out concealed drugs or alcohol on school campuses.

Uselton said the cost for such a dog could run anywhere from $150 a day to several thousand dollars a semester depending upon the type of program.

Uselton said the dog sniffing program will get the drugs and alcohol out of the schools, but the problem will still exist in the community.

Uselton said there are some programs available for entire communities, not just schools, and that he will gather information on the various programs offered and report back at a later board meeting.

In other business, citizens Priscilla Martin and Jane Mitchell told the board about the formation of a parent-teacher organization to work with the school district in a positive manner to address problems in the schools. The board pledged its support to the group.

Mrs. Martin said the parent-teacher group will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Civic Center to elect officers and explain to the board that the purpose of the organization will be to work in conjunction with the school board in formulating policies and to act as a direct link between parents and teachers.

She said the drug and alcohol problem in schools is a major concern of the group and said that "we will take whatever steps are necessary to eliminate the presence of drugs and alcohol."

"We want the PTO to be a strong, viable force in the community," she said.

Board member Dwayne Harris said "I'm glad to see you doing it (forming a PTO). I think we can work with it."

Uselton said that "we have been encouraging parent involvement for quite some time."

Rogene Spruell, who had addressed the board at its December meeting about a number of subjects, asked if the school district had determined the amount of supplies it buys from the local athletic supply store as compared to out-of-town suppliers. Athletic director Tom Ramsey replied that C.C. Athletics has 35 purchase orders in the 1986-87 school year, more than twice as many as the next supplier. He said for the past two and a half years, the school district has purchased $56,059 worth of supplies from the local store, slightly more than the $55,729 spent with West Texas Stadium Sports in Midland, second on the list.

In response to a question by Mrs. Spruell, Ramsey read rules concerning coaches being in the in-field during track and field events. He said regional and state meets prohibit coaches from being in the in-field and that district rules are set by each district. At other events, the host team sets the rules, he said.

In other business, Uselton distributed copies of a letter from John Taylor whose son was injured in football in 1985. Taylor wrote of the problems he has encountered in getting insurance claims filed.

The board voted to extend Uselton's contract for one year with the same salary of $55,525.35. The one-year extension gives Uselton a three-year contract.

In other business, the board:

- approved the sale of two school buses to Manuel Del Real for a total of $2,251, the highest bids;
- gave permission to advertise for bids for the sale of an un-used boiler in the administration curriculum center building;
- agreed to purchase a new 54-passenger school bus;
- approved a request for an overnight stay in Sonora Feb. 13-14 for the high school UIL speech and drama students, and;
- approved a proposal from CHS band director concerning letter jackets for band members in their junior year.

7 named to board

Seven citizens were named to a child welfare board by the Mitchell County Commissioner's Court Monday to assist and advise Terry Jagger, child welfare worker.

The seven-member board includes Travis Monday, Tom Carlock, Billie Forbes, Elexie Johnson, Chris Castillo, Ida Salazar and Elaine McMichael.

In other business, the commissioners reappointed Dr. Joe Terry as county health officer for the two years and agreed to advertise for bids for a county depository for 1987-88.

A new county grievance committee composed of Cecil Oursbourn, Bobby Lemons, Margaret Baum, Mike Ratliff, Helen Franco, Brenda Kelley, Kay Nell Cornutt, Bobby Kimmel, Don Webb and County Judge Bill Carter (as a non-voting member) was appointed.

The commissioners approved a one-year contract with Joe Morren, CPA, to conduct the outside county audit for 1986 at a cost of $4,500 plus cost of postage and supplies used.

The court also set 10 holidays for 1987.

'Headhunters' are chamber members

"We just received the latest bulletin concerning the Headhunters who plan to work the entire county in just seven hours on January 21," announced Penny Solomon, manager of the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce. "They are searching for potential leaders for their organization; people who can really get things done! The organization they represent is progressive and innovative and they are interested in talented, committed business and professional people."

The six men who will use the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce office as their headquarters from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. next Wednesday are well known to the people of Mitchell County.

Who are these men, and what organization do they represent? "According to the recent bulletin they are, in fact, residents of Mitchell County. They are dedicated members of the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce and are looking for far sighted, enthusiastic and dedicated citizens to join forces with them. Their purpose is to make a major investment in Mitchell County's future and enlist others to make the same commitment and investment," explained Solomon.

Further questioning revealed that these headhunters have set some very high goals for themselves, and the consequences of not achieving those goals are not the most desirable. These six men will form three teams of two each. The team responsibile for obtaining the largest number of investments and investors during that seven hour period will be the recipients of a valuable award.

What is the award? "These six men chose as the most valuable award for their efforts the joy of not receiving the award the losers will receive. As professionals they are so confident that they will win that none of them believe that they will actually receive the

What will the losers receive? Believe it or not these men decided to award the losers by presenting them with this unique award at the annual Chamber Banquet. The losers will each receive in the presence of about 300 people a pie in the face! When questioned about the identity of these headhunters Solomon explained, "That is all the information this bulletin contains. It does state that another news flash will be released in the near future."

Pull together to find solution

By Lloyd Bentsen
United States Senator

The Book of Joshua tells of the people of Gibeon who, recognizing they could not compete with the approaching Israelites, were satisfied to win for themselves a place as hewers of wood and drawers of water.

The fate of Gibeon is not my vision of America's future. But our nation's power and prosperity are threatened by serious problems.

–We have a national budget deficit of some $210 billion.

–In 1986, we imported roughly $160 billion more from other countries than they bought from us, while countries like Japan and Germany had trade surpluses exceeding $100 billion.

–In six years, we have lost two million jobs to trade problems. Half of those were skilled, full-time, high-paying jobs in manufacturing. Ninety percent of the new jobs created since 1980 were in retail, trade or services–low-paying, and often unskilled or part-time jobs.

–Three times in 1986 we were net importers of food. We have the most productive, efficient farmers in the world, yet they have trouble exporting because of the barriers and subsidies established by our trading partners.

–In four years, we've gone from being the number one creditor nation in the world to the world's largest debtor nation–owing more than Mexico and Brazil combined.

If those trends continue much longer, American workers may well end up like the people of that Biblical village. We must pull together to find solutions.

There are no quick fixes, but it's obvious that a tough, comprehensive trade policy is part of the answer. Trade is at the top of my agenda as chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

Whenever anyone suggests the present world trade system is unfair or ineffective, dark mutterings begin about protectionism and the Smoot-Hawley tariff.

I am not a protectionist. I am a pragmatist who believes in changing the international trading system to create an environment where world trade can grow, benefiting all nations.

America still has the leverage–as the world's most attractive marketplace–to press for tough, long-overdue changes in the way world trade is conducted. We can make our trading partners see that the benefits of world trade carry with them responsibilities.

If the Europeans and Japanese, for example, would buy goods from the Less Developed Countries at the same per capita rate we do, world trade would expand by $250 billion a year.

Our own trade laws must be modified to reflect the unequal assistance given to foreign exporters by their governments. It's simply not fair to ask even the most effective, efficient, enlightened American farmer or corporation to compete against the treasuries of foreign governments.

We have the right to demand that nations who export to America grant us equal access to their markets; to insist that each nation do its fair share to increase trade; and to demand a rollback in protectionist, non-tariff barriers.

But we must also look in the mirror for answers. It's time to make some fundamental policy changes. We must reduce our $210 billion budget deficit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joey Loper

Chandler, Loper united Nov. 29

Jalynn Cay Chandler and Joey Dwayne Loper were united in marriage Saturday, Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. at Sixth and Jackson Church of Christ in Odessa.

Earl Danley, pastor, read the vows in the double ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Charlotte Chandler of Odessa and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Currie of Colorado City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Loper of Odessa.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mark, the bride wore a floor length gown of white re-embroidered Alencon lace appliqued on white silk organza. The molded bodice overlaid with imported French lace was intricately beaded with tiny seed pearls. It was fashioned with a low neckline featuring leg-of-mutton sleeves, accented with re-embroidered lace and pearls. The bodice back and sleeves were closed with tiny fabric covered buttons. A softly pleated skirt of white satin swept to a wide cathedral length train. The cathedral length veil featured the re-embroidered Alencon lace and tiny pearls on each side and scattered over the back and was gathered to small Juliet cap of matching lace. She carried a cascade of purple and white roses, stephamotis intermingled with baby's breath.

Her something borrowed was the wedding dress, borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mark Chandler. For the something old, the bride wore her grandmother's, Mrs. Allen Currie's, wedding band. The touch of blue was her handmade garter. Her snow white pumps were the traditional something new.

The marriage vows were exchanged before an altar in front of two heart shaped candelabra with purple and white roses in the middle. In flanking positions to the altar were large fern and flower arrangements. Music was provided by the Sixth and Jackson Church of Christ singers, highlighted with a solo by Duane Adams.

Maid of honor was Miss Sharon Kwiatkowski of Odessa. Bridesmaids were Miss Renee' Henderson of Odessa, Mrs. Julie Chandler of Austin, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Susan Runke of Dallas, a cousin. They wore matching tea length gowns of dark lavender taffeta with fitted bodice with a low "V" back and gathered at the shoulders. Each bridesmaid carried a bouquet of purple and white roses.

Flower girl was Lindsey Runke, a cousin, of Dallas who wore a floor length gown of matching lavender and carried a basket of purple and white roses.

The best man was Jay Chandler of Odessa, brother of the bride. Groomsmen were David Loper, groom's brother, of Odessa, John Muery of Odessa and Stacy Meeks of Houston.

Ushers were Kevin Hagar, Brian Vickers, Kevin Burchfield, Odessa and Rusty Ray, all of Odessa.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. David Loper of Odessa registered guests.

The bride's table was covered with a white floor length cloth and each corner was tied with purple bows. A candlabra entwined with greenery provided the centerpiece. A four-tiered square cake was decorated with purple orchids. Lavender napkins, mints and candles carried out the bride's chosen colors.

The groom's table featured a chocolate cake with a fruit tier for the centerpiece.

Members of the house party included Mrs. Leslie Wilson of Abilene, Miss Kelly Shifflet of Odessa, Miss Erica Kroh of Fort Worth, Sharron Deax of Odessa and Susan Deax of Odessa.

The bride is a graduate of Permian High School in Odessa and attends Odessa College.

The groom also is a graduate of Permian High School and also attends Odessa College.

Mrs. Bessie Lou Doelling and Mrs. Frances Camp hosted the rehearsal dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Doelling.

Among pre-nuptial courtesies were a luncheon gift shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kwiatkowski of Odessa, a gift shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley Hawley of Odessa and a bridal luncheon at Cindi O's, hosted by Mrs. Raye Anne Hawley of Odessa.

Badgers coast

The Colorado High School varsity boys basketball team put on a good second half showing here against Merkel Monday but it wasn't enough to overcome the Badgers' 24 point halftime lead as the visitors won the 70-57 district 5AAA contest.

Merkel led 18-8 after one period and 41-17 at halftime. The Wolves cut the 24 point Merkel lead by outscoring the Badgers 20-9 in the third period and 20-18 during the fourth.

Hot shooting sophomore Pat Ridge led the Wolves with 15 points. Ridge scored 8 and Dane Hoover, Ken Woods and Guy Compton scored 4 during the third quarter of the Wolves' second half rally.

Ridge capped the short Wolves comeback by making the first of two free throws that cut Merkel's lead to 57-50 early in the fourth period. Hoover offensively rebounded Ridge's second attempt and converted to make it 57-52.

Merkel was then able to score the next six points to jump back out 63-52 and all but ice the game. Woods, who had a team high 13 rebounds, led Colorado City's fourth quarter scoring with six while Terry Jackson added 5 in the period.

The loss dropped the Wolves to 2-13 on the year and 0-2 in district play. Merkel moved to 15-5 and 2-1.

Woods was the second leading scorer for Colorado City with 12 followed by T. Jackson with 9, Hoover 8, Compton 6, Bubba Bailey 3 and Paul Ausbie 3.

Top scorers for the Badgers were Ramon Moreno 19, Kenneth Jowers 16, Lynn Hays 15 and Lance Jones 10.

A good second half defensive showing was overshadowed by 29 turnovers during the game and 22 of 42 shooting–including 5 of 23 shooting in the first half. The Wolves made 11 of 19 free throws while Merkel sank 20 of 33.

The loss followed Friday night's 51-40 loss to class A Garden City. Scoring in that affair were Hoover 12, Compton 7, Ridge 7, Bailey 5, Mayes 3, Woods 2, Ausbie 2 and Darvin Jackson 2.

Greg Stringer, Brian Dalton and Sergio Rosas led the Bearkats with 13, 12, 11 points, respectively.

Colorado City, with 16 points from Ismael Silva, won the Monday junior varsity boys game 54-46. Also scoring were George Rivera 5, Mark Alvidrez 5, Mark Russell 8, Duane Jones 6, Brandon Fuller 4, Tracy Ausbie 5 and Hal Morren 5.

The Wolves made 8 of 12 free throws and 23 of 60 shots while Merkel made 8 of 16 free throws. Russell and Fuller made 12 and 4 rebounds for the Wolves.

Scoring for the Wolves in Friday's 42-11 win at Garden City were Silva 8, Fuller 8, Rivera 8, Ausbie 5, Bruce Williams 4, Jones 4, Alvidrez 3 and Morren 2.

Scoring for the freshmen boys in their 47-39 win over Merkel Monday were Ray Rivera 12, Rene Silva 8, Ricky Westbrook 6, John Phariss 4, Tracy Edwards 3, Stan Bradbury 3, Abel Arellano 2, Gabriel Ornelas 2 and Sammy Contreras 2.

Boxers hosts Saturday

The Mitchell County team was in action Saturday at a tournament in Odessa, where they will return for a Golden Gloves tourney February 12-16.

Luis Martinez battled to the teams lone win at Odessa Saturday.

Winning by default were Adrian Martinez and Eddie Martinez. Greg Rodriquez, Shane Jones and Greg Gaona lost their bouts.

"People can come out and help the Mitchell County Boys Club Saturday," said coach Vince Gaona Sr. "Admission will be $3 for adults and $2 for students."

Loraine Club installs officers

The North Loraine Extension Homemakers met in the home of Mrs. Ruth Holman January 7, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lola Faye Bennett, club president, presided. The meeting opened with the club prayer said in unison. Mrs. Bennett also asked the club to read aloud "Ways to build your club."

The roll call was answered with "Something I hope to accomplish in the club this year."

Mrs. Bea Harlow from Colorado City was present to install the new officers for 1987. They were as follows: Mrs. Nina Meadows, president; Effie Wheeler, vice president; Leona Linam, secretary; Eva Wells, treasurer; and Jimmie Jacks, council delegate. Mmes. Linam and Jacks were unable to attend so Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Hamilton served as "stand-ins."

Following the installation, the year book was filled out through the month of June. Two new members joined the club at the meeting–Mrs. Veida Gage and Margaret Brame.

Mrs. Brame was a charter member of the club when it organized in 1946, but had not been active or many years, as she worked for the public. Mrs. Gage is new in the community, having moved here from Plainview. Mrs. Gage accepted the recreation leadership for the club.

The hostess served refreshments to the following: Margaret Brame, Veida Gage, Eva Wells, Nina Meadows, Lola Faye Bennett, Blondie Hamilton, Effie Wheeler, Debbie Christian, extension agent and Bea Harlow.

The next meeting will be in the home of Nina Meadows, Jan. 21.

To the editor:

Once again, the Helping Hand would like to say a big "thank you" to all of Mitchell County by helping us prepare food baskets this Christmas.

Approximately 60 families were helped with food and toys. This would not have been accomplished without the support and concern by the following individuals, churches and organizations:

First United Methodist, First Baptist, First Christian, Assembly of God, Plainview Baptist, Calvary Baptist, Kiwaniannes, Episcopal, B&PW, Rose Ella Ball, Mary and Jim Petty, Josephine Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Turner, Virginia Whirley, Westbrook Baptist, Loraine Methodist, Loraine Baptist, Nutty Acres, Corky's True Value, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Arlene Morris, First Presbyterian, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Byrd, CISD Teachers, Jaycees, CISD Students, and Oak Street Baptist.

A special thank you to all the hard workers in the Opti-Ms. that collected, sacked and delivered toys.

Also, we want to thank all individuals who gave time, money, food in order that someone might have a nice Christmas but who did it without it being publically known.

Dolores Wood

W.M.U. program heard

The Loraine Baptist Women met in the church annex at 9:30 a.m. Monday for their general meeting.

Mrs. T. L. Holman presided. Meeting opened with the group singing "I Must Tell Jesus."

Mrs. Holman gave out scriptures to be read and led the opening prayer.

Title of the program was "W.M.U. was there." Mrs. Holman began the discussion with others taking part in telling of the beginning of W.M.U. work of Baptist women in helping to shape Southern Baptist Mission Board Ministries. It was women who pioneered in stewardship teaching, the Annie Armstrong Easter offering and week of prayer for home missions.

Clara Butler read Psalms 55 and gave names of missionaries whose birthdays were on this day and gave the prayer for these.

The group discussed plans for serving the meal for B.S.U. students at Western Texas College in Snyder.

The mission and Bible study group will meet in the home of Mrs. Clara Butler next Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Porter led the closing prayer. Eight members were present.
