CITY PARK IN 1989

Development of City Park

The City has been notified that its application for development of the City Park has been approved by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. This is a matching grant with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department supporting the project with $38,000 and the City matching that amount with labor and equipment, donated land, and funds. The City is acquiring 1.3 acres by donation to expand and further develop the park with a 0.5 mile lighted, walking/jogging trail along what is now a drainage ditch that extends to the Senior Citizens Center. A pavilion will be constructed with 4 picnic tables, one of which will be handicapped accessible, and new grills will be installed. A new piece of playground equipment will be added, as well as a sand volleyball/croquet court, creek improvements, landscaping, and signs.

The City's first application for this grant missed being funded by a narrow margin. The City then reapplied, and learned last week that the application was successful. The City is very pleased that the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department found this project worthy of funding as it will afford a great improvement to our City park that will benefit citizens of all ages.

Any individual or organization that would like to volunteer to work this summer on the Park's flower bed or other improvements is invited to contact City Hall so that collectively the City and citizens can restore our City Park into a place of beauty and recreation in which everyone can be proud.

Cast members play nightly to full houses of 1,600 persons from every state and over 100 foreign countries.

Set beneath the towering cliffs of Palo Duro Canyon near Amarillo and Canyon, Paul Green's "Texas" opens its 25th anniversary season on June 13, 1990, and plays nightly except Sundays at 8:30 p.m. through August 25. Rehearsals begin May 20, 1990.

The audition in Canyon on Saturday, February 17, will be held at the West Texas State University Mary Moody Northern Hall from 11 to 5 p.m. with dancers at 4 p.m.

Previous auditions were held in Phoenix, Arizona; Stillwater, Oklahoma; and Dallas, Huntsville and Lubbock, Texas.

Anyone, 18 years or older, may audition for "Texas". Men and women MUST bring a picture and reference.

All voice ranges are needed, and singers should bring one prepared number of their choice. An accompanist will be furnished or a singer may bring his own.

The dancers should have ballet or modern dance training. Men and women are required to wear appropriate workout clothing.

Musicians are needed who are experienced in string bass, acoustic guitar, banjo, accordion and with concert training in violin.

"Texas" is a combination of historical romance, spectacular sound and light, and colorful music and dance. Told by a cast of 80, "Texas" relives the settling of the Panhandle and the coming of the railroad.

Indians perch on rocks, a real train rumbles across the prairie, cowboys ride the range and a realistic storm rocks the audience as thunder roars and lightning strikes.

Over two million people have enjoyed the production, written by Pulitzer Prize winning author Paul Green.

Under the direction of Neil Hess, company members not only have an opportunity to play to full houses every night but also to receive expert instruction and valuable exposure.

For an audition brochure, reservations for the show or more information on "Texas", call 806-655-2181 or write P.O. Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015-0268.

Salad Supper

The Laker's Homemakers were hostesses to a Salad Supper for all the Clubs. This affair was well represented with members from the Young Homemakers, the Early Birds as well as the Lakers.

The Howardwick City Hall was turned into a "Fisherman's Paradise" with a large mounted fish decorating one end of the room, a sailboat fashioned from cloth on one side wall, and a bait and tackle building on the other side. The tables were festive with conch shells in the middle and small shells which had been found along the shores of Greenbelt Lake.

The invocation was given by Mr. Lawrence Whitehead and then a very delicious supper was served consisting of brisket, salads, vegetables, an assortment of cakes, tea and coffee which all the clubs participated in furnishing, and which everyone enjoyed.

President of the Lakers Mrs. Rosemary Winters welcomed everyone and then Club Reports by Denise Bertrand, Betty Hester and Margaret Pettit were given. Entertainment by Jim Shadle was enjoyed when he sang three beautiful songs.

Cheryl Pickard gave the County Agents' Reports. Following that all the ladies present were awarded gifts. This was lots of fun and was a very nice finale to a very enjoyable meeting.

We had a very busy week with numerous activities. The Collingsworth Health Care Agency held another Blood Sugar and Blood Pressure Clinic on Tuesday Jan. 30th. They checked 30 people and we so appreciate this service the Agency provides for the Center.

Had a nice turn out for the Birthday/Anniversary Supper, Tuesday night, Jan. 31st with 45 guests attending. Creed Smith opened our evening with prayer then we sang "Happy Birthday song" to: Bradis Ballew, John McCauley, Jake Smith, and Frank Barbee. There were no Anniversary couples present this month. Also, assists with information pertaining to Medicare and some insurances and various needs. We appreciate learning about these services that are available. Should anyone need further information or assistance in those areas, contact the Center and we can refer your inquiries to Charlotte.

The Fun-After-Fifty Club met here at the Center, Saturday, Feb. 3rd with Valentine's month as their theme. Sounds like they had a lovely party and nice crowd. Sorry I had to miss, but I had a date with the "Computer". It seems to demand a great deal of time these days.

Cancer Society Met

The Donley County Unit of the American Cancer Society met Monday, January 23, 1990 in the Hospitality Room of the First Bank & Trust of Clarendon.

President Genevieve Caldwell called the meeting to order, and Helen Estlack read the minutes from the previous meeting.

Carol Grady, GASO chairman, reported on the activities of her committee during the Great American Smoke Out. Those activities included handing out packets to Kay Hayes to distribute to the public school students, to Darlene Spier for Clarendon College students, and to Dr. Gilkey's clinic. Also, posters were placed in local grocery stores and other businesses; and with Pat McCombs' help, survival kits were made and distributed to local businesses. A special "postcard" was on exhibit at the post office. GASO was also advertised through KLSR and the local paper. The Clarendon EMS team also distributed stickers and pamphlets at the annual Christmas Bazaar. Polly Sarich was in charge of the GASO campaign in Howardwick.

In addition, Darlene Spier reported that Clarendon College now has designated areas for smoking. Mrs. Caldwell also noted that Kay Hayes had distributed GASO materials to sixty-two junior high students and 83 high school students.

Mrs. Caldwell announced that the next mammogram screening will be held February 26 from 1 to 5 p.m. at the Medical Center. If you are interested in making an appointment for screening, please call 1-800-274-4673 and ask for Wanda. This is Harrington Cancer Center's 800 number.

Amy Marshall, Field Representative for the eastern half of District 15 of the American Cancer Society, discussed the Great American Food Fight, which is the American Cancer Society's new program on nutrition. She also explained that a series of programs called "Health Breaks" are available if anyone needs a short program for an organization. These can be obtained from Kay Hayes. "Volunteer Calendars" are also available.

Ms. Marshall made a number of presentations on behalf of the American Cancer Society. The "Life Saver Award" went to Kay Hayes for reaching 10% of the adults and 40% of the youth in Clarendon with literature from the ACS. The Donley County Unit received the "Award of Merit" for exceeding the per capita goal of 1989.

Ms. Marshall presented certificates, and pins for fifteen years of service to Genevieve Caldwell, Barbara Cosper, A.R. Henson, Frankie Henson, and R.L. Gilkey, M.D.

In further business, Barbara Cosper read the treasurer's report; and A.R. Henson reported that the Services and Rehabilitation Committee had served eight patients in 1989 and seven so far in 1990. Services included equipment and drivers to get patients to treatment centers.

Darlene Spier made a motion that the Donley County Unit accept recertification for another year. It was seconded by Jeff Walker and the motion carried.

Charlotte Rhodes, Director of Development at Harrington Cancer Center, brought a very informative program on the history, aims, and financial status of the Harrington Cancer Center. She said that the three major areas of service were treatment, education and research. Ms. Rhodes reported that 93 to 94 percent of the cancer patients from the Panhandle area are seen at HCC, that there are about 8,000 cancer cases being treated, and that there were 988 new cancer patients diagnosed in the Panhandle last year. Noting that Dr. Allen Edmunsen had opened the Research Institute at Northwest Texas Hospital, she announced that a bone marrow transplantation unit is to be installed at High Plains Baptist Hospital in the near future. In closing, Ms. Rhodes emphasized that Harrington Cancer Center strives for the best quality of life and care for its patients.

Ms. Rhodes also announced the Krazy Maze Gala Event sponsored by Harrington Cancer Center in Westgate Mall would be held during the weekend of March 30. Chubby Checkers and the Sharks will be the featured entertainers. Proceeds will go to benefit patient care at Harrington Cancer Center.

Fort Worth Ballet Scheduled

The Lone Star Ballet is pleased to announce the appearance of the Fort Worth Ballet under the artistic direction of Paul Mejia on Wednesday, February 14, at 8:00 p.m. in the Amarillo Civic Center auditorium.

The Fort Worth company is a professional company with full time dancers and artistic staff. Partial funding for this performance is provided by the Texas Commission on the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts. Mr. Mejia was trained at the prestigious school of American Ballet in New York City and upon graduation from the school worked under the internationally known director and choreographer George Balanchine as a full fledged member of the New York City Ballet.

Mr. Mejia later married Suzanne Farrell, America's leading ballerina and together they have worked to enrich the world of dance in the United States. Miss Farrell is a frequent visitor to Fort Worth and is involved in the development of their company.

Before coming to Fort Worth, Mr. Mejia was director of the Chicago Ballet and is credited with bringing that company to new artistic heights.

The Fort Worth Ballet performance in Amarillo will consist of two of Mejia's works, and one choreographed by his mentor, George Balanchine.

The Mejia's ballets are Brahms Waltzes with music by Johannes Brahms and Joie de Vivre, with spirited music by Offenbach.

The Balanchine Ballet scheduled for Amarillo is the masterpiece Appollo, one of the choreographer's most acclaimed ballets using the birth and education of Appollo in poetry, music and dance by the muses.

The Fort Worth appearance promises to be an exciting evening of dance for Amarillo patrons and will be a thrilling way to spend Valentine's evening. Tickets for this single performance may be purchased in the Lone Star Ballet office at 1000 South Polk. Please call 372-2463 for additional information.

Crop Pest Numbers

A benefit of the record-setting cold temperatures across Texas in late December will be a reduction of some costly insect pests in the season ahead, according to entomologists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

It's too early to tell, however, whether these blows to insect populations will translate into increases in crop production. The entomologists say that other factors will have an influence, including the length and severity of the remaining winter, the amount of soil moisture, and growing conditions this spring.

On the High Plains and Rolling Plains, insect populations in small grains and cotton have taken a double blow from the recent cold weather and dry conditions. Similar situations also exist over a large portion of West Central and Far West Texas, but more southern areas were less affected by the freeze.

Emory Boring, Extension Service entomologist at Vernon, said the extreme cold in late December greatly reduced Rolling Plains greenbug activity.

"The greenbug numbers are way down, with a reduction of 75 percent or more," he said. "Because of dry conditions before the freeze, wheat growth had been slow and greenbugs had been light in most fields."

Boring said brown wheat mites, on the other hand, survived the cold, which seldom hurt them. "These pests occur in large numbers in very dry years. Moisture, however, will take them out," he said.

Greenbug population development shows little increase when the maximum temperatures are below 50 degrees for several days, Boring explained.

"Lack of egg-laying and feeding sites late in the season, primarily because of short moisture, reduced the overwintering population of boll weevils," Boring said. The entire area had a very dry summer.

Boring said the weevils that did remain were caught by the early freeze in mid-October and again by the extremely cold weather in late December.

"Last year, parasitic wasps and lady beetles began to in crease and bring greenbugs under control in December and January. The extreme late December cold eliminated these beneficial insects," Boring said.

Research Entomologist Dr. Don Rummel, project leader for cotton insect research with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock, said the year-end cold snap had resulted in "a pretty severe reduction" in weevils at a test site in the Rolling Plains.

"We sampled the population on December 15, 1989, and found an average of 45 percent of the weevils we put there in the fall were still alive," Rummel said. "After the cold spell two weeks later, only 5 percent were still alive."

The cold temperatures, preceded by extremely dry conditions, reduced many grain pest populations across the panhandle.

Dr. Carl Patrick, Extension Service entomologist at Amarillo, said the dry conditions have made it difficult for winter wheat to emerge and develop, and have reduced the food supply for insect pests.

"We have relatively few problems in wheat," Patrick said.

The year-end cold snap will have an effect on the southwest corn borer, Patrick said, but those present in crop residue can survive unless something else is done to them, such as stalks being plowed under.

There is a good chance that insect problems will be reduced for the 1990 crop season, which is good news to farmers.

The Coors Light Rodeo METRO Express will run every day, beginning Saturday, Feb. 18, 9 a.m. to midnight Saturdays and Sundays and 5 p.m. to midnight Monday through Friday.

The shuttle also will pick up passengers at three shopping centers this year: Gulfgate, Meyerland and Northline malls, still for only $1 per person round-trip.

Another Show highlight, the Conoco Rodeo Run, will again officially kick off the downtown rodeo parade, Saturday, Feb. 17, 10 a.m.

Conoco donated $52,000 in entry fees from the 1989 10K Rodeo Run to the Show's scholarship fund, making them the largest single scholarship donor. They expect 4,500 to 5,000 runners again this year.

Ticket prices for the 1990 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo are still a bargain at $5 to $12, depending on seat location and performance date. Tickets are available at all Ticketron and Rainbow Ticketmaster locations and the Astrodome box office.

The 1990 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo opens with horse show competition Thursday, Feb. 15; other livestock competition starts Saturday, Feb. 17; and the first rodeo performance is Sunday, Feb. 18. All events run through March 4.

Rural Hero Nominations Sought

If you know someone in Texas who saved another's life last year in circumstances related to farming or ranching, there's still time to nominate this person for the title of Texas' rural hero of 1989.

The deadline for nominations is Feb. 16, said Thomas Valco, Texas Agricultural Extension Service agricultural safety engineer and a member of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council which presents the annual rural heroism award. Send entries to the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, P.O. Box 2689, Waco, Texas 76702-2689.

Valco said the recipient of the award will be announced March 12 during the 51st annual Texas/Southwestern Safety Conference and Exposition at the Hyatt Regency Downtown in Houston.

"To qualify as a candidate, a person must have performed a human lifesaving act related to farming or ranching in 1989 within Texas," Valco said.

He said a nomination should include a written account of the incident and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all the people involved. Photos and news clippings should accompany the nomination if they are available.

Winner of the award in 1988 was David Roberts of Morton, who rescued his younger brother, Dakota, from being injured by an electrical wire near their home in June of 1988. David received his award in Dallas last March.

Nest Boxes Available

A limited number of bluebird nest boxes will be offered free by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department during February.

The project was initiated to increase the availability of nesting sites for eastern bluebirds and other cavity nesters such as chickadees, wrens and some flycatchers, according to Catrina Martin of the department's nongame program.

"Natural nesting cavities, usually found in dead and hollow trees and old fence posts, have decreased in recent years," Martin said. "By providing nest boxes, the breeding success of these birds can be increased." Bluebird trails have been established by individuals and groups throughout the bird's range, she added.

The department's nest boxes are made of a specially treated, weather-resistant cardboard, and they usually last two years. Approximately 1,500 boxes will be available to persons contacting the department by Feb. 9, 1990. Boxes must be placed at least 100 yards apart to prevent territorial disputes among nesting birds. Persons accepting boxes will be asked to keep a written record of usage by bluebirds and other species.

To participate, write the Nongame Resources Program, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, TX 78744, or call toll-free 1-800-792-1112, ext. 4505 or (512) 389-4505 by Feb. 9.

A Town Killed By Lead Poisoning

Smeltertown was both born by and killed by the great copper, lead and zinc smelter at its side. The bones of the former town lie bleaching on the banks of the Rio Grande just above El Paso.

The community came into existence in the 1880's on a flat piece of ground between the Rio Grande and the slag heaps on the side of the hill from which the smelter overlooked the site. From here workers could walk to work at the smelter. The smelter itself was established in 1887 by the Kansas City Consolidated Smelting Co. Its purpose both then and now was to conduct custom smelting of metallic ores produced by mines in northern Mexico and the American Southwest.

One of the keys to the long-term success of the El Paso Smelter was its access to inexpensive workers. After it burned in 1901, the facility was rebuilt, according to the Engineering and Mining Journal, "largely with the idea of utilizing hand labor, cheap Mexican labor being then available."

This "cheap Mexican labor" lived in adjacent Smeltertown for nearly a century. The town, described as "a hive of workers," had its own Catholic church beginning in 1891. This parish grew to have as many as 5,000 members, most of them living in the immediate neighborhood.

Smeltertown constituted a very closely knit community. Although many of its inhabitants lived at or below the poverty level, they boasted of having comparatively little crime. A local once declared, "When I leave I can keep the house unlocked, because nobody steals from anyone."

Built on private property, Smeltertown had not only its own church and school, but also such commercial ventures as grocery stores, taverns and a billiard parlor. During the 1930's the community even boasted of having its own social clubs, a live Spanish-language theater and a 40-piece band. Residents paid monthly rent for the ground on which they erected their homes.

Patriotism was an important element in Smeltertown life. All the east-west streets in the town were named in honor of local boys killed in World War II, while the main north-south thoroughfare was called Veterans of Foreign Wars street.

The giant smelter that spawned Smeltertown as a home for workers also destroyed it. In 1972 excessive lead levels from the smelter were found in the blood of a fourth of the school children tested, from the neighborhood. Over the next several months arguments raged over how to resolve the medical problem, and by the end of the year the private landowners decided to deal with the situation by expelling all of the residents. Many of them were forced to accept shelter in public housing, and Smeltertown as a community ceased to exist.

During the following year all the Smeltertown houses were demolished, leaving only the school and church. Then even the church was torn down in 1979.

Today when you head up Doniphan Drive from El Paso along the west side of the smelter, you see only a wasteland adjacent to the old E.B. Jones school. This is all that remains to mark the site of Smeltertown—the town killed by lead poisoning.

Old-Time Texas Kissers

While reading along looking for other material in The Texas Republican newspaper published in Marshall, Texas, in the 1850's, I found something I didn't expect to find: A how-to article on kissing 1854-style.

You'd think that articles of advice on matters as intimate as this wouldn't have appeared at least until the 20th century, but such is far from the reality of the past. So, what did The Marshall Republican for June 17, 1854, have to say?

"Hardly any two females kiss alike," penned the male author of the article. "There is as much variety in the manner of doing it as in the faces and manners of the (female) sex."

The author, perhaps the Marshall editor himself, complained that the 1854 kissing situation was "a sad aggravation."

Giving examples of the annoyance, the writer complained that some "delicate little creatures" merely gave their gentlemen friends slight touches of the lips. To this he peevishly grumbled, "We seem about to 'have a good time,' and actually get nothing."

Contrasted were other ladies, who the Marshall writer described as going "into us like a hungry man into a beefsteak, and seem to chew up our countenances." He observed that this over-enthusiasm for osculation resulted only in driving away "delicate lovers."

Yet other sweethearts, according to the Marshall writer, were "like hens when burying themselves in the dry dirt." He then explained, "The kiss is won by great exertions, and is not worth as much as the trouble it costs." Women and men both could easily have uttered this complaint.

After describing these extremes in smooching, the gentleman writer turned to advise his female readers:

"We are in favor of a certain shyness when a kiss is proposed, but it should not be continued too long."

"Let there be soul in it," he continued.

The writer earnestly recommended that ladies "should be careful not to 'slobber' a kiss, but give it as a hummingbird runs his bill into a honeysuckle, deep, but delicately."

"There is much virtue in a kiss when well delivered," added the writer. Such kisses he contended could provide memories to last a lifetime.

"We have had the memory of one we received in our youth last us forty years," the Texan declared, adding, "we believe it will be the last thing we shall think of when we die."

Four Medicines for Peptic Ulcers

An ulcer is an open sore or eroded area on the surface of any organ or tissue. Ulcers that form on the walls of the digestive tract (esophagus, stomach, or small intestine) are commonly referred to as "peptic ulcers." Peptic ulcers are thought to occur as a result of the secretion of excessive amounts of digestive juices such as hydrochloric acid and pepsinogen.

Antacids are the most commonly used medicines for peptic ulcer relief. Because of the possibility of interactions with other medicines, antacids should be taken two to three hours after taking certain medicines such as tetracycline, theophylline, digoxin, and cimetidine.

Special antihistamines which are referred to as H2 antagonists reduce the amount of digestive juice secreted into the gastrointestinal tract. The H2 antagonists include cimetidine and ranitidine.

Coating agents such as sucralfate bind tissue in the gastrointestinal tract, insulating ulcers from the corrosive action of acid.

Anticholinergic agents such as propantheline block the action of acetylcholine, thereby decreasing hydrochloric acid production.

Hedley News

The community was saddened at the death of Lillian Walker on Tuesday, January 30. Mrs. Walker passed away in Childrens General Hospital. She had been quite ill for a number of weeks. Sympathy is extended to all her family, and especially to Dot and Dudie Messer and family, who have lost loved ones twice in four days.

Hedley Fire Department was called late Sunday evening to aid Memphis firefighters in battling a large grass fire near the county line and north of Highway 287. The fire was in rough country, making access to the blaze very difficult. But the two departments soon had the blaze under control, and the Hedley truck was back about 8 p.m.

The youth of First Baptist Church will have a car wash Saturday, February 10, at the fire station, beginning around 9 a.m. Proceeds will go toward a ski-and-Bible retreat in mid-March.

Seven members of the Hedley FFA Chapter, Chapter Advisor Glenn Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hill, and Leon Ward will attend the San Antonio Stock Show, February 12-16. The seven students planning to make the trip are Timothy Bramblett, Brannon Stephens, Robert Long, Chad Landrum, Robert Stafford, Amanda Ward, and Jennifer Hill.

The Hedley FHA will host a Valentine dance this Friday evening, February 9, beginning at 8 o'clock, in the school cafeteria. Hedley students in grades 6 through 12 are invited.

Last week was an excellent week for Hedley basketball teams in that all of them won at least one game.

On Tuesday, January 30, the high school teams played at Samnorwood. The boys won by a score of 57-31. Kevin Johnson led the Owls, scoring 14 points.

The girls were defeated by Samnorwood, 38-56, but kept the score close through most of the game. Tylenea Bright scored 14 points and Marisol Andaverdi scored 10 to lead the Lady Owls.

On Friday, the Owls hosted Lakeview for homecoming. The girls played a very aggressive game, and defeated Lakeview 55-18. Tylenea Bright scored 20 points; Marisol Andaverdi, 17; Amanda Ward, 10; and Sonia Ford, 8. The Lady Owls hit 100% from the free-throw line.

The boys were fired up after the girls' victory, and defeated the Eagles 74-53. Four of the Owls scored in double figures: Curtis Neeley, 22 points; Anthony Carson, 17; Kevin Johnson, 14; and Danny Mullins, 12.

Sonia Ford and Robert Long were named Homecoming Queen and King at the dance following the games.

High school teams were to wrap up their season on Tuesday of this week at Valley.

The junior high boys played well in last weekend's tournament. On Thursday, they played Samnorwood and lost 45-38. David Neeley had 17 points; Chad Campbell scored 12. In the first game on Saturday, the team lost to Silverton 31-40. David Neeley had 23 points and Kenneth Imler had 4. On Saturday evening, the boys won their game with McLean 41-39. David Neeley scored 21 points and Noah Solis scored 8.

The junior high girls defeated Samnorwood by 6 points in the first game, lost to Silverton by 3 points in the second game, and lost by 7 points to McLean in their final game.

Both junior high teams placed third in the tournament.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Patrick Lambert, who was hospitalized this weekend following a severe asthma attack; to Homer Hill, who is still in High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo; to J. T. Lamberson in Coronado Hospital in Pampa; and to Paul Ferguson, who underwent knee surgery in an Amarillo hospital late last week.

Bill and Veda Waddell returned home Saturday from a week's trip, visiting with Bill's sisters and brothers in Devine, Rockdale, Ennis, and Irving, and with Veda's son and family, the Harold Elliotts, in Arlington.

Fascinating Figures

by Jon Leggett

I like statistics. Just hand me an almanac, and I can entertain myself for hours. Facts and figures can be surprising, funny, awesome, even appalling.

Surprising? Daniel Boone was supposed to have said that his neighborhood was getting too crowded when someone moved in eighty miles away. He wouldn't like New Jersey. If Donley County had New Jersey's population density, we'd have nearly a million residents.

It's also surprising to learn that I, "Mr. Average American," ate about eighty pounds of fresh fruit last year. I don't remember being such a pig, but surely my almanac didn't lie.

Funny facts? Did you know that at least two species of snakes--the black mamba and the six-lined racer--can outrun a squirrel, and can almost keep up with a charging bull elephant? The elephant can hit 25 miles per hour, the book says, the snakes about 20 mph, and the squirrel 12. Can't you just see the mismatched critters at the starting line? Ready, set,....

Awesome numbers? Over 200,000 cubic feet of water plunge over Niagara Falls every second. At that rate, Greenbelt Lake would be completely drained in just under four-and-one-half hours!

Appalling? The annual per capita income in the central African nation of Chad is $73. Life expectancy is 35 years. Per capita income in the United States is over SIXTY TIMES as much, and life expectancy is over 70 years.

Appalling? Yes, indeed. But read on.

In a recent year, while Americans spent seventeen billion dollars for ALL religious and welfare activities, they spent ninety-one billion dollars for recreation. "...In the last days...people will be...lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God" (II Timothy 3:1-4).

In the same year, over seventy billion dollars were spent in eating and drinking establishments. "...whose god is their belly..." (Philippians 3:19).

And in that year, over eighteen billion dollars went for cosmetics. "...You resemble whitewashed tombs which appear beautiful on the outside, but inside...are full of dead men's bones and every impurity" (Matthew 23:27).

Yes, statistics can be surprising, funny, awesome, and appalling. But they can also quantify a situation so that we see it in a way that we had not considered before, and in the process, challenge us to be better. Do I really, like the American public in general, spend over four times as much for recreation as I give to the work of my church? Do I spend more preening myself than I contribute to missions?

Numbers can be depressing. Have I depressed you? If I have, be cheered by one of God's statistics: John, having been granted a glimpse of Heaven's glory, wrote, "...I looked and there was a vast host that no one could count out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes and with palm branches in their hands. And they shouted with a loud voice: 'Salvation is due to our God, who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb'" (Revelation 7:9-10). Lord, I want to be in that number!

MAKE $25,000 SITTING AT HOME!

DON'T LET THIS OPPORTUNITY PASS YOU BY.

Can you picture yourself making at least $5000 dollars a week, every week? If you can, I urge you to read this article, it could be worth thousands of dollars to you!

My name is Mark Preston. I am 32 years old and a self made millionaire. A few years ago I discovered a money making method that changed my life forever. This is not just another "get rich quick scheme." This is a unique new system that is in demand everywhere, yet few people even know it exists.

Anyone can do it. Trust me. If you want to make money, this system is for you. When I first started this money making program, I was flat broke and at least $10,000 dollars in debt. My family thought I was crazy and said I should be out looking for a "real job." That did not stop me. I was determined to make it with this fantastic money making plan I had discovered.

I started at home on the kitchen table with no capital. Within a year I was taking in over $20,000 A WEEK... MORE THAN A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. You heard me right, OVER A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR! I went from driving an old beat up Pick-Up to a Brand New Lincoln Continental. I paid for it in cash. I bought a new home in a prestigious neighborhood, a waterfront summer cottage, and a Townhouse in Florida. I do not mean to brag, but these are my results using this amazing money making system. Do not envy me, join me!

THE SECRET REVEALED

I knew then I had discovered a revolutionary new money making program that would continue to make me thousands of dollars a day. It seemed so easy. I asked myself why everybody wasn't rich? Then it dawned on me that not everyone knew about this secret method of making money. You do not need special training or even a college education for this money making system to work for you.

Once you have learned how to use it, your money worries will be over for life. You will have financial security and peace of mind. This money making system is perfectly legal and amazingly simple. It has nothing to do with real estate, the stock market, or gambling of any kind.

It does not matter what your financial situation is now. You can start this money making program at home in your spare time with less than $15.00. In a few short weeks you will see the cash start to roll in. Once you put this money making system to work for you, the sky's the limit! You will have cash to spend on whatever you want, whenever you want it. Think of it! Enough cash to finally put an end to economic nightmares forever!

HERE'S PROOF

I am sure you are somewhat skeptical at this point. That just shows you have good business sense. Read what a few people had to say about my money making program.

Dear Mark,
I ordered your program 3 months ago and started using it the day I got it. To say the least I was shocked at the results. Last month I deposited over $11,000 in my bank account. Thank you so much.
N.C., Stuart, Florida

Dear Mark,
When I first saw your article I had my doubts. I said to myself I might as well try it, at least I'll be $25.00 ahead with your guarantee. Well, your material changed my life from being flat broke in July to practically a millionaire in December! If I can do it, anyone can.
J.S., San Diego, CA

Dear Mark,
Before I ordered your money making method, I was slaving away cutting lawns for $4.00 an hour. At 19 years old my future looked bleak. Last week I made over $14,000 in less than 20 hours of work. I am the envy of all my friends. Thanks for a new life!
J.B., Loudonville, NY

IT'S UP TO YOU

Your life can change now by taking simple action. Order my money making program today and see for yourself. All you have to do is follow the step-by-step procedures I provide you with. It will only take you about an hours reading time to master the program. If you can see yourself being rich, you will be rich! I make it easy for you. Included in my

You either raise $15,000 using my money making system, or I will send you a certified check for $25.00. That's right, $25.00 just for giving my money making program an honest try. Minutes

January 23, 1990

The Board of Aldermen of the City of Clarendon met in regular session on January 23, 1990, in the Board Room, City Hall at 7:00 p.m.

Members present: Mayor James Sharrar, Aldermen David Pitts, Paul Bivens, James Kuhn, and Bobbie Kidd.

Members absent: Alderman David Davidson.

Others present: City Secretary Donna Edwards, San Thompson, Bob Williams, Jamie Johnson, Neal Harris, and Ernie Johnston.

Minutes of the January 9, 1990, meeting were read, and upon a motion said minutes were approved. Motion carried.

The Board then discussed the matter of a City resident wanting the City to pay for a plumbing bill. Alderman Kidd has talked to the plumber who installed the sewer line and he explained that he had told the resident when the line was installed that it should not be put where the resident wanted the line because there was no grade. It was agreed that the City is not responsible for this bill.

The City discussed removing the barricade from a designated street running west of Bugbee Street. The Board agreed that since this is a dedicated street, the City should remove the barricade. City Secretary Donna Edwards was asked to write letters to the parties involved informing them that the barricade will be removed and that damage to the curb or newly paved street resulting from equipment that exceeds the width of the entrance from Bugbee Street will be the responsibility of the party creating the damage.

San Thompson explained to the Board that he has raised 30% of the money needed to erect a new sign at each end of town from donations. He requested the balance needed for the signs that will advertise Clarendon and promote tourism from Motel Bed Tax Funds. Motion was made to pay $2,785 to the Chamber of Commerce to complete the project. Motion carried.

Neal Harris of Panhandle Container Service discussed his services to the Board and presented a proposal for a transfer station and trash hauling services from the transfer station to a landfill.

Motion was made to hire Ernie Johnston as the Sanitation Operator for the City. Motion carried.

Mr. Johnston will start working alleys to get them ready for the City's sanitation truck.

There being no further City business at this time, motion was made to adjourn. Motion carried.

The Texas Hunting Lease System:

by Tim Trimble

Another Texas hunting season is nearly over. Hunting lease operators are preparing to close their books on this year's hunts and make plans for next year. Lease hunting occurs throughout Texas, but lease operations vary considerably. Many lease operators would like to know how others are providing services and facilities, managing game animals, protecting their operation, pricing their leases, and the range of lease charges. How can they obtain this information? Beginning January 22, 1990, all 12,500 hunting lease operators in Texas will receive a one-page survey that asks for answers to these questions. The survey is easy to complete but of most importance to hunting lease operators will be the results. Finally, they will be able to compare their lease operation with others in the county and state.

This study is a cooperative research effort between the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Extension Service. County agents are helping get an excellent response rate by supporting this study and answering questions their lease operators may have about it. The value of the information to hunting lease operators will be directly related to the number of surveys returned. The Extension Service will provide county/state data results to each county Extension agent for your area of interest.

They will receive the results that compare their personal operation with others in the county and state. This information should help operators and land owners improve their hunting lease programs.

Hunting lease operators that have multiple permits will be sent a survey for each permitted area. Each area under permit is described on the survey by acre and/or names—exactly the way it was described in the permit application. Some operators or landowners may receive from two to twenty-two surveys in one day. It is important that each survey for each permitted area be completed as a separate acreage. All hunting lease operators that have four or more permitted areas have been contacted about the study and that they would be receiving a lot of mail the third week of January.

The Texas hunting lease system has been in operation since 1929. There has never been a statewide study of how lease hunting contributes to wise management of the wildlife resource. Other states are beginning to consider lease hunting as an alter native to traditional agricultural land uses. The results of this study may demonstrate that lease hunting on private land is a practical and sensible alternative.

Selective Service Notice

Young men who will turn 26 in 1990 will be reaching an important milestone, according to the Selective Service System.

Beginning on Jan. 1, 1990, men who were required to register with Selective Service in 1982 will be turning 26 and will no longer be eligible for induction should a draft be reinstituted. Selective Services does not have the authority to accept late registrations after a man reaches his 26th birthday.

Selective Service State Director Harold D. Doyle warned that, with few exceptions, a man who fails to register before turning 26 will permanently forfeit his eligibility for certain benefits such as federal student aid, job training, and most federal employment in addition to facing possible prosecution as a felon.

Some states also require registration for state student aid, entrance to state-supported colleges and universities, state employment, and permission to practice law.

Doyle points out that men age 18 through 25 who have not yet registered can avoid the risk of prosecution and loss of benefits by registering promptly at any local post office. Failure to register is a felony punishable by a fine of up to $250,000, up to five years in prison, or both.

Over 14 million men, age 18 through 25, are currently registered with Selective Service. Over one million of those registered are from Texas.
