Ex-Chief Gets $100 Reward In Arson Case

An ordinance common to most cities, but probably forgotten by many has paid off $100 to Sam Hulme, former police chief here.

The ordinance provides for $100 reward for the arrest of any person convicted of arson.

It is common to most cities because adoption and posting of the ordinance provides for credit on a town's key insurance rates.

Hulme, who now resides in Monahans, remembered the ordinance and applied for the $100 reward after J. S. Rogers was sent to prison at Huntsville.

Rogers, after four years and eight months of litigation began a two-year term in February for arson in connection with the Gosnell Hotel June 16, 1951. He was owner of the hotel and arrested at the scene of the fire.

City Manager Rollin K. Snethen, who checked to see who was due the reward after Hulme's application, said that Hulme and Police Chief Leon Yeager, who then was a sergeant on Hulme's staff, were in the hotel building at the same time.

"And as best as I can determine," the city manager told councilmen, "he is the eligible one . . . and he has applied for it."

$4,000 BUDEGT ITEM

New Uniforms Due For School Band

New uniforms for Colorado High Wolf Band will be included in the 1956-57 school budget.

Actual work on the new budget won't begin until next month, but Colorado Independent School District's board of trustees already have approved the budget item for band uniforms.

Price list for the uniforms indicates an expenditure of approximately $65 per uniform or a total of about $4,000, according to a report by band director Curtis Baker to Supt. Ed E. Williams.

Inclusion of the band uniform costs in the district school budget is something new for Wolf band. Previously, the Band Boosters, business men and other individuals have contributed free-will funds for uniform purchases.

Decision to put the band uniforms into the 1956-57 budget was made by school trustees at the request of a Band Boosters committee composed of Ira Uttz, C. G. (Skeet) Harkins, A. L. McSpadden and Frank Massad.

Uttz, president of the Band Boosters, told the school board at its March meeting that the band is a school program and merited support just as any other school program of value.

He emphasized the need for new uniforms and said the boosters believe the furnishing of uniforms to the band was the responsibility of all the school district and not just a few business men and other interested persons.

Dr. Oscar Rhode voiced the opinion of school trustees last week as they approved the new uniforms as a budget item.

The band, he said, should receive the same deal as the athletic department which has its uniform equipment furnished in the regular school budget.

A major problem in purchasing new uniforms will be in selecting type and color combination. Director Baker has been considering a basic color uniform and using the school colors of red and black for trim and emphasis.

Rev. Selcraig Is Elected PTA President

Top official in Hutchinson Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association during the next school year will be a man.

He is Rev. Jack Selcraig, pastor of First Baptist Church.

The new officer slate headed by Selcraig will head PTA activities beginning next fall.

All members of the new officer slate were submitted as nominees by the PTA's nominating committee, chairmaned by Mrs. Glenn R. (Bob) Robinson.

Presiding at the election was Mrs. J. S. (Jay) Craddock Jr., Hutchinson teacher and current PTA parliamentarian.

Mrs. Ray Noble, whose term as president ends this school year, presided during other phases of the PTA meeting.

Program features were a folk dance by Bert Scrivner's homeroom, a play — "Good Little Citizen" — by Mrs. Jack Byrd's homeroom and choral readings by Mrs. Craddock's homeroom.

Winner of the prize for the most parents attending the meeting was Mrs. Craddock's room.

Miss Jean Rogers has been elected one of six cheer leaders for 1956-57 at Sul Ross State College, Alpine.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan L. Rogers of Looney community and a freshman education major at Sul Ross.

Westbrook Sets Election On $240,000 School Bond Plan

Trustees of Westbrook Rural High School District have called elections May 12 to determine if $240,000 in bonds will be issued for construction of a new Westbrook school building.

Decision to call the elections was made Thursday night by unanimous vote among trustees.

The action came at the second meeting of the board of trustees within four days and culminated a four-month study of the school district's building needs.

* * *

If approved by voters, the bond issue will finance the construction of a new, modern school plant to replace the district's present building that was constructed in the 1920's.

Planned in the proposed new school building are 15 classrooms, a combination cafeteria-auditorium and other facilities.

Haynes and Kirby, architectural firm of Lubbock, has drawn plans for the new building.

Actually, the bond voting will involve three separate elections and three propositions.

And it will be the first in this area under Senate Bill No. 116, voted by the 54th Legislature to allow schools to adopt a special tax for building purposes above their regular taxing limits.

Here are the propositions listed for the May 12 voting:

1. Whether the special authorization of Senate Bill No. 116 be adopted and made applicable to Westbrook Rural High School District.

2. Whether the board of trustees be authorized to issue $240,000 in bonds for construction and equipping new school building and levy taxes for payment of the issue.

3. Whether the board of trustees be authoirzed to assess, levy and collect an annual ad valorem maintenance tax not to exceed $1.50 on each $100 valuation (as provided in Senate Bill No. 116).

* * *

Complicating the three-part election is the fact that the propositions have separate requirements for determining the eligibility of voters and setting out the three elections.

Resident, qualified voters of the district and resident qualified voters of the district who have property rendered for taxation on county tax rolls will vote in separate elections on whether Senate Bill No. 116 is made applicable to the district.

And resident, qualified voters of the Westbrook school district will vote on Bill No. 116 and also on two other propostions — whether the bonds are issued and taxes levied for payment of the bonds, and whether a separate maintenance tax is levied.

BROWNSVILLE HONORS

Jaycees Win State Agriculture Award

Award for the oustanding Jaycee agriculture project in Texas was presented Saturday night to Colorado City Junior Chamber of Commerce in Brownsville.

The state award, for towns under 10,000, was presented Saturday night at the final banquet of Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce annual convention.

Presenting the golden "Jake," traditional first place statuette and award of the Jaycees, was Ed Stumpf, state JCCC president from Houston.

Goodwin Simpson, Texas Jaycee vice president and member of the local agriculture committee, and Robert Kirschbaum, 1956-57 president of the local organization, accepted the "Jake" on behalf of Colorado City Jaycees.

With them at the banquet and other sessions of the convention were Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Kirschbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deregibus.

The state award was presented to Colorado City for a series of agriculture projects and programs carried out in 1955 under sponsorship of the local Jaycee agriculture committee.

Leader and chairman of the award-winning program was Elmer J. Martin, who only last week was cited and praised at the Jaycee installation banquet here in Civic House.

Serving with Martin on the committee were R. H. (Bob) Ratliff Jr., Francis Winn, Simpson and Bob Reinkemeyer, who has moved to Arkansas City, Kan., and Red Thompson, now in military service.

The state award presentation cited local Jaycees for a successful nine-point program that encouraged small-plot irrigation, aided farmers in their farming program, and assisted in developing a spirit of cooperation between farers and business men.

The projects, listed below, required 1,432 man hours of work on the part of Jaycees during 1955

1. Irrigated 4.3 acre tract and showed that sprinkler irrigation system on a small scale will pay off even during drouth. Yield was 6.6 bales of cotton.

2. Purchased lady bugs and released bugs on the 4.3 experimental tract to eat larvae and eggs of crop destroying insects.

3. Sent delegate to Clinton Harber banquet, honoring outstanding young farmer of Texas.

4. Sponsored a field day tour of Clinton Harber farm, which was attended by 28 Mitchell County farmers studying conservation and soil building.

5. With cooperation of Col-Tex Refining Company chemists provided free chemical salinity analysis of irrigation wells to farmers in Mitchell County area.

6. Selected a 22-acre tract, provided through cooperation of W. R. (Jinks) Powell, for experimental plot to assist ranchers in range improvement.

7. Sponsored farm implement field day with showing of late model tractors and plows.

8. Scheduled a grass judging contest for FFA and 4-H Club boys of the county.

9. Had community farm meetings for Mitchell County to map best ways for agriculture agencies to serve farmers in the area.

Training Course Set For Grocers, Staffs

Grocers and grocery employes will brush up on their food store manners and procedures at a special short course here.

The training course, which opens April 30, is being co-sponsored by local grocers, Colorado City Chamber of Commerce and Texas Retail Grocers Association.

Conducting the course will be Clyde Bennett, grocery training specialist and staff member of University of Texas, according to Bill Quimby, Chamber manager.

Bennett, who taught in Colorado City Public school from 1927 to 1930 before serving six years as superintendent at Loraine, is a former grocer with 16 years of experience as grocery operator in Central Texas.

In 1936, after his superintendency at Loraine, he opened a grocery in Waco. His business expanded into an operation of four stores.

Bennett sold his grocery business in 1950 and retired, but his interest in teaching and food store business has brought him from retirement to part-time work as training specialist with the university.

The course that Bennett will teach here to grocers and their staff is "Grocery Checking Procedures." Purpose of the course is to aid in the development of better trained personnel.

Dealt with in the course will be personal appearance, customer relations and all problems concerning a check stand.

Grocers and their employes interested in the course should enroll with Quimby at the Chamber of Commerce office as soon as possible before the opening session, Monday, April 30 at 8 p.m.

IF GROWTH CONTINUES

Schools May Need New Campus Areas

School officials may look for new campus space if Colorado City schools continue to expand.

That was the report given Lions Club members Friday in Civic House by Supt. Ed E. Williams.

The superintendent reviewed the school expansion program that has resulted in three building programs here since World War 2.

Third of those programs is scheduled to begin May 1 and will include additions at Hutchinson Elementary and Colorado High plus complete renovation of the present high school building and construction of a modern physical education plant.

Williams told the Lions that when the new $500,000 bond financed expansion is completed all schools will be capacity.

"And the campuses will have all the youngsters they ought to have.",

The superintendent said his own appraisal indicated that if additional building is necessary in the future, then "we will have to expand into more campus."

"I don't think we can add to present buildings to care fore more youngsters," he explained.

Williams said he could not predict for the future. However, he emphasized that drouth conditions during the last few years has not cut into school enrollment and attendance.

"We have more now than ever before," he declared.

Williams, reporting on the awarding of $139,857 in contracts for the new construction starting May 1, said that the school district saved money in letting contracts on several units. The system was recommended by the schools' consulting architects and engineer to attract smaller companies in the bidding.

Details Ready For Cotton Classing Data

Mitchell County cotton farmers can get the details now about the U. S. Department of Agriculture's 1956 Smith-Doxey program.

This was announced Thursday by H. J. Matejowsky, who is in charge of the Agricultural Marketing Service's Abilene cotton classing office.

"Mitchell farmers will follow about the same procedures as in past years in signing up for this program," Matejowsky said.

Under the Smith-Doxey program, farmers get their cotton classed without cost. Also, they receive by mail a weekly cotton market news bulletin prepared especially for their locality.

Matejowsky pointed out that farmers must take these steps in order to be eligible for Smith-Doxey services: organize a group to promote the improvement of cotton; adopt a variety of cotton that grows well on local soil; file an application with AMS before Aug. 1, 1956; arrange for sampling and meet certain other requirements as to membership in the group.

Applications and more details about the program can be secured at the Abilene cotton office, 1407 So. First, or from county agents, state and county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices, or the Southwest Cotton Division, 506 Terminal Annex Bldg., Dallas 22.

The footprints on Adam's Peak in Ceylon, India are attributed to Adam, who stood there 1,000 years on one foot mourning his expulsion from Paradise.

EYE EXERCISES HELP

Look to T.O.A. members for complete EYE-CARE!

The field of visual training is new in its application to a greater number of visual problems, although forms of eye training have been used for the past 500 years.

It is particularly valuable to youngsters while eyes are still developing . . . but it also has great value for adults too.

Listed here are some visual conditions which respond to visual training and symptoms which reveal the need of training.

CONDITIONS—

★ Crossed eyes
★ Amblyopia (one or both eyes partially blind)
★ Cocked eye (one eye turns out)
★ Children who are retarded readers or non-readers

SYMPTOMS—

★ Child tires quickly of reading
★ Child unable to stay at any task very long without jumping up and moving about
★ Children who squint to see
★ Frequent rubbing of eyes

Visual training is not a cure-all and it doesn't always eliminate the need of glasses. It does help children, who need visual care, to do better in school. It makes eyes fit the job!

Final Rehearsals Begin for Senior Play

Final rehearsals will get underway Monday for the annual senior class play at Loraine High School which is to be presented Thursday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The play, "Deadly Ernest" is a three act farce, written by Donald Payton and directed by Willie Spurgin and Miss Gladys Phillips.

The story is about Henry Gilcrest, portrayed by Billy Ray, who goes into shock every time he hears the name, Ernest.

It all started when Henry's boss fired him, his girl friend, played by Connie Liles, threw him overboard and Aunt Ethel, characterized by Gaylene Taylor, ordered him from her boarding house because of no rent money.

While spending the night in the park, Henry meets Mr. Bumpus (Dale Nash), who tells him of a friend who, for only $17.83, gets poor downtrodden souls like Henry out of their misery.

Henry pays the money, goes home and finds Aunt Ethel is ready to forgive him, his girl wants another chance and his boss has given him a raise.

He's really in misery now, especially when virtually everyone he encounters is named Ernest.

Other cast members for the three act frolic are Bill Narrell as Margie's beau, Virginia Cain as Clarissa, Eddie Galvan as C. E. Grimm, Roy Epperson as Dr. Ernest, John Miles as Sleepy and Berta Alsobrook as Gladys.

Admission for the play will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Proceeds will go into the class treasury to finance the senior trip.

SUN POWER

Probably all of us can remember flashing messages with a mirror on a bright, sunny day. Or maybe you burned holes in dry leaves.

Well, we were all using "sun power." A simple form of it, yes. But it was still power from the greatest source of energy man has ever known, the sun.

For years, we've been reading about how men have been trying to capture and put to work the sun's energy. And telephone scientists, just in the past few months, have come up with the first workable device to do the job. It's called the Bell Solar Battery.

Believe it or not, the heart of the Bell Solar Battery is common ordinary sand. From this sand, silicon disks are made which can convert sunlight into electrical power.

How will the Bell Solar Battery affect your telephone service? Really, we don't know yet. But right now, an experimental installation of solar batteries is supplying power on rural telephone lines in another part of the country. This experiment may give us some answers.

Regardless of the future of the Bell Solar Battery, it is already proof of one thing. Telephone scientists will go to any lengths to find ways of improving your service.

This time they've even brought the sun into the act.

THE MILES FLASH BY

When you pick up the receiver of your telephone to make a Long Distance call, you're turning hours or days into seconds.

That's because a Long Distance call puts you in touch almost instantly with friends or relatives in a distant city.

As well as being the best way to keep in touch any time, a Long Distance call is also a happy thought for a special occasion—such as a birthday, anniversary, wedding, or just a family get-together. You can talk as long as you like because Long Distance rates are low, especially if you call station-to-station. Remember, also, to call by number. Your calls will go through twice as fast.

This is the sixth in a series of articles telling the story of the Christian Church—

DISCIPLES of CHRIST ... and HUMAN DIGNITY

● It is the aspiration of Disciples of Christ to express the idea of a common brotherhood among all men regardless of race.

Disciples of Christ have in National and State Conventions endorsed the Supreme Court ruling on desegregation and have called on all of its members to recognize the human worth and dignity of all men without respect to color.

● As the Apostle Peter said, "God hath shown me that I should call no man common or unclean," so the Disciples of Christ Church seeks to accord all men the same fair consideration. The Church believes that all men are brothers in creation as it is pointed out in the Bible. That is that, "God has made of one blood all the nations of men for to dwell on the face of the earth." Furthermore, segregation and discrimination is completely inconsisten with the spirit of Jesus Christ who died on the cross for the black as well as for the white.
