WITHOUT TAX INCREASE

City's Higher Budget To Draw on Reserves

There's no tax raise included in Colorado City's $388,892 municipal budget proposed for the 1960-61 fiscal year. But to pay the bill—about $17,000 more than the current fiscal year ending this summer—the city will have to take almost $10,000 from reserves.

City Manager Rollin K. Sneath points out the increase and need for dipping into the reserve in his budget explanation to City Council. He explains that the new budget—without a tax increase of 10 to 15 cents—will place less in the interest and sinking fund and will necessitate drawing on this reserve account.

Tabbed for the largest chunks of the $388,892 in the budget spending for 60-61 are the operations of public safety, public works, water and sewer, plus the interest and sinking funds.

Public safety—which includes police and fire departments—has an allocation of $63,530 in the new budget. Of this amount $46,465 will be for police and $17,065 will be for fire.

Budget expenditure for public works is proposed at $83,613. The street department will get $48,978 and the sanitation department will receive $29,535. Earmarked for the cemetery is $5,100.

Allocated for water and sewer departments is a total of $89,045. This is distributed $6,004 for water office, $2,333 for water works, production, $10,353 water production at lake, $28,000 for purchase of water from Texas Electric Service Company, $18,880 for water and sewer distribution, and $5,290 for sewage treatment plant.

Scheduled for the interest and sinking fund—which pays off the city's bonded indebtedness—is $75,000.

Other main expenditures estimated in the 1960-61 budget are $30,500 for administration, $6,020 for health and inspections, $29,004 for parks and recreation (including both Ruddick and Lake Colorado City parks), $1,980 for contributions (library, National Guard, etc.), $3,000 for contingency.

Increase of the library contribution from $150 to $250 per month, 5 per cent salary increase for regular city employees, merit raises for Police Chief Leon Yeager and Building Inspector J. A. Sadler Jr., higher social security payments are among the items increasing the municipal expenditures for the next year.

An additional $1,000 will be spent for water service lines in the City Cemetery connecting with new water mains in that area.

Purchase of new pickup truck and new flat bed truck are included in public works department allocations according to a 19-year plan of capital expenditures.

THAT'S SCHOOL CALENDAR

Every Year, Just A 'lil Bit Sooner

Just a tiny bit sooner, kids—that's the way for school—at least for next fall.

Tentative calendar for Colorado City's 1960-61 school year lists Aug. 17 as the starting date for final student registration.

And classes are scheduled to begin Aug. 30, one day ahead of the schedule which opened studies last fall. The early class date will be the same week as the Wolves opening football game.

School board members gave nodding approval this week to the tentative schedule as it was outlined by Supt. Frank Wilson.

Holiday routine for the 60-61 year will be about the same as this year, except the Christmas holiday period will be trimmed slightly to 12 days. First holiday on the calendar next fall will be Sept. 5, Labor Day. Classes will be dismissed 2 days (Thursday and Friday) Nov. 24 and 25 for Thanksgiving.

Christmas vacation will start closer to Dec. 25 than they did last winter. The holidays will start at the end of classes Wednesday, Dec. 21, and resume again Tuesday, Jan. 3, so that despite the slight cut the period will still extend past New Year's Day.

District 4 teachers conference March 3 will provide a 1-day holiday and Easter holidays will include Friday, March 31, and Monday, April 3.

Tentative registration schedule for the 60 fall term is: Seniors and freshmen, Aug. 17; Juniors and 8th grade, Aug. 18; Sophomores and 7th grade, Aug. 19; orientation of teachers, Aug. 26 and 29; or teachers, Aug. 26 and 29; registration, Aug. 26 and 29; reg.

FOR COLORADO HIGH

Stronger Graduation Plans Are Formulated

Colorado City High has 2 graduation plans now in operation — 1 for the top 2 grades now in high school and another for Sophs and the 9th grade.

A third plan will begin in 1961 for the grade which ultimately will be graduated in 1964.

The 2 new plans—those for the classes graduating in 1962 and in 1964—are part of the strengthening of curriculum requirements for Colorado City High.

This strengthening is in line with requirements and recommendations coming from modern re-appraisals of public school education.

Supt. Frank Wilson conferred with Colorado Independent School District board of trustees this last week about the 1962 and 1964 graduation requirements. And the board supported the plan with unanimous approval.

Along with the stiffening of graduation requirements, the high school will seek also to expand its summer school program—not just for students making up credits, but for those students who desire to broaden their scope of learning of their own initiative, the superintendent said.

Present graduation plan at Colorado High—applying to members of the current senior and junior classes—is as follows: 4 units of English, 2 units of social studies (1 must be American History), 2 units of mathematics (must be algebra or above), 2 units of science (2 units of foreign language or vocational work may be substituted for general science), and 6 units of electives (only 1 unit in physical education and 2 units in music can be used to meet graduation requirements).

For the graduation plan already adopted and beginning for the 1962 senior class (those in 10th grade today), required courses will be increased 1/2 credit and electives will be trimmed from 6 to 5 1/2 units. The extra 1/2 credit will be applied to social studies—boosting this requirement from 2 to 2 1/2 credits and specifying 1 1/2 units to be world history and civics.

With the decrease in electives to 5 1/2 units, no physical education credits will be allowed toward meeting graduation requirements.

This 1962 plan, however, will be in operation for only 2 graduating classes. For the second strengthening will go into effect for the 1964 graduating class.

The '64 plan will increase the graduation requirement from a total of 16 to 20 units. Sixteen of these will be academic units and 9 1/2 will be electives.

All students in the 1964 plan will be required to earn 1 non-academic unit per year among such courses as band.

PULLED FROM LAKE

Fishing Delight: 25 Heavy Bass

You would think it a fisherman's dream, except it was real.

We're speaking of the string of 25 bass pulled from Lake Colorado City Saturday morning by 3 young Colorado City boys.

The fish ranged in size from 1 to 6 pounds—and most were in range from 2 1/2 to 5 pounds.

Making the catch were Bill Worrell, young Baptist minister, Clark Jones and Jack Caffey.

The trio reported they made the fine spring catch with fly rods and minnows, fishing from the bank.

They weren't exactly anxious to tell where they ran into such fine fisherman's luck. However, they did say they were fishing in vicinity of the lake's railroad bridge.

Thieves grabbed approximately $250 in dimes Monday night at the Humble Service Station, corner of Hickory and Sixth St.

O. C. Palmer, station operator, reported the thieves broke into the station's soft drink machine and raided the cash box.

The word came from a round-about way Thursday when Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department answered an alarm on Interstate 20 (to Big Spring), west of the city.

Heavily damaged in the blaze was a 1956 Cadillac driven by Albert Sidney King of Dallas.

Notice to the local fire station came from Midland.

Here's how it happened. An employe of Department of Public Safety's weights and measures division was traveling Interstate 20 when he saw the Cadillac on fire.

His radio frequency wasn't. See FISH Pg. 7

Rabbit Drive In Champion Ared Tuesday

Another rabbit drive is scheduled Tuesday in the Champion Creek area 7 miles southeast of Colorado City.

Hunters are requested to meet on the Bowen farm located on the old Robert Lee Road, according to Roy Buchanan.

Lunch will be served at the Bowen farm after the morning portion of the drive in that area.

Women of the community are being asked to provide pies and salads to supplement the barbecue and beans which will be prepared at the lunch site, Buchanan said.

1-Day Event Thursday in Civic House

Civic leaders from a 300-mile area in West Texas will be here Thursday for a one-day workshop sponsored by Community Services Committee of West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

At least 150 Chamber of Commerce presidents, committee chairmen and members, and chamber managers are expected for the event.

Invitations were mailed to civic groups in 157 towns. About 40 of those are due to send delegations.

Workshop sessions and luncheon will be in the Civic House, according to Rex Felker, Colorado City Chamber of Commerce manager and chairman of the workshop's program committee.

Directing and leading panels in the workshop will be officials and professional administrators—from chambers of commerce organizations in 7 West Texas cities.

Bill Quimby of Big Spring, former C.C.T.Y. chamber manager and chairman of the West Texas Chamber's community services committee, will preside at morning and afternoon workshop sessions.

Opening assembly Thursday will follow immediately the 8:30 registration in Civic House. Rev. Clarence Collins, minister of First Methodist Church, will pronounce the invocation and Max Caddell, Chamber of Commerce president, will welcome the workshop participants.

Workshop sessions, conducted concurrently, will begin at 10 a. m. in three categories—1 for presidents, another for committee chairmen and members, and a third for managers of local chambers of commerce.

The workshops will follow a keynote talk—"Building the Community Through the Chamber of Commerce," by Joe Bell, editor and co-publisher of the Colorado City Record.

The presidents will consider "The Job of Being President," which will be discussed by Claud Holley, president of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, and by Bill Collins, past president of the Midland Chamber.

Committee personnel will participate in a panel discussion on "Responsibilities of Committee Chairmen and Committee Members." Leading the discussion will be Ted Snyder, chairman of the Aviation Committee, and Clifford W. Fisher, president of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

Managers will hear three addresses: "Responsibility of the Manager to the Community," by Homer Tanner, manager of the Brownwood Chamber; "Responsibility of the Manager to the Profession," by Fred H. Husbands, executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Abilene; and "What the Businessman Expects of the Manager," by Byford Slady, president of the Andrews Chamber.

W.T.C. President R. C. Jordan of Amarillo will preside at the luncheon at which all groups will hear an address, "Leadership: It's a responsibility," by the Reverend Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Big Spring.

A question-and-answer general discussion after lunch will conclude the program. Heading the final portion of the workshop will be Paul D. Strickland, general manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

FOR MORE LIBRARY PAY

Women Await County

Mitchell County Federation of Women's Clubs have asked Commissioners Court for $100 more each month for the county library sponsored by the federation.

The same request went to City Council last Monday night. Result was a quick nod by councilmen, heading the city's contribution to $100 each month.

But the county is reluctant to pay the city for the library. This week, however, the city tied no strings to their contribution, at least as far as the county is concerned.

The women's delegation before the local government—consisting of Mrs. Lawrence Ruth, Mrs. Austin McCloud and Mrs. J. S. Jones Craddock—urged an increase in county expense for the expanding facilities, service and operation. Can be an

This trial takes place when Sir Mark Loddon sues for libel after a newspaper has published a letter in which the handsome, young British Baronet has been pointed out as an impostor. The letter was written by Jeff Buckenham, one of three British prisoners of war who had escaped from Germany. ## L. B. Elliotts Named as District Family of Year

By KAY GRESHAM
Record-Women's Editor

For the third time in four years Colorado City claims the outstanding family of District 6, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

The district's honor was bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Elliott Friday in the concluding session of the 6th District's 45th convention in Civic House.

Mitchell County Federation of Women's Clubs nominated Elliott's for the honor earlier this year—in competition with other families nominated by club groups in the district's broad area of 24 counties.

Mrs. Hart Shoemaker, of Abilene, announced the Elliott's as the outstanding family before an audience of approximately 300 persons in Civic House.

The Elliotts—parents of four married daughters—join the families of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Bill) Rhode, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salter as Colorado City families winning the award in recent years.

Like their predecessors—the Rhodess, who were No. 1 family in 1958, and the Salters, outstanding family in 1957, the Elliotts were selected for their overall fitness in family life and citizenship. Mrs. Elliott has been an active member in many outstanding fields. She is a past district president of the Women Society of Christian Service, of the First Methodist Church, a past district president of the American Legion Auxiliary, a state officer in the Order of the Eastern Star.

In addition, she served for 16 years as a district officer or chairman in the Texas Federation of Women Clubs and she organized and was first mother advisor of the local Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

Mrs. Elliott is a charter member and still active in the Self Culture Club of Colorado City.

She also serves as a teller and bookkeeper for the Colorado Federal Saving and Loan Association and the Mitchell County Abstract Company.

Mr. Elliott was honored Feb. 28 with a wrist watch for his outstanding service in the masonic lodge here over a period of many years.

Featured on the wrist watch was an inscription "... to Bro. L. B. Elliott for long outstanding service to this lodge."

Mr. Elliott is executive vice president of the Colorado Federal Saving and Loan Association, owner and manager of the Mitchell County Abstract Company. He is also past president of the Texas Title Association, the Lions Club, past commander of the American Legion and a life member of the Masonic Lodge, where he holds a K. C. C. H. degree.

The Elliotts and their 4 daughters are all members of the Methodist Church and active in their membership.

Their 4 married daughters are also active in their own right. Mrs. Charles M. (Frances) Godwin has a degree in library science.

Mrs. Bill S. (Ruth) Cooper is secretary for the Colorado Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. C. W. (Esther) Saunderson of Big Spring is a secretary for the Cosden Petroleum Corporation of Big Spring.

Mrs. Bryan R. (Shirley) Wilkinson of Waco has served as secretary in the oceanography department at A&M.

Pre-Banquet Chat

Mrs. Joseph Perkins, Eastland, chats with Mrs. H. Jene Steakley before the beginning of the Thursday evening banquet of the 6th District of Federated Women's Club convention. Mrs. Perkins was principle speaker for the event.

BY MRS. JOSEPH PERKINS

6th District Growth Explained to Group

The seed, of growth, must be planted and then it must be harvested again and again each year to insure proper growth of Women's Clubs, said Mrs. Joseph Perkins of Eastland here Thursday.

Mrs. Perkins was feature speaker on the opening night of activities of the 6th District of Federation of Women's Clubs convention in the Civic House at a St. Patrick's Day banquet.

The 6th district, said Mrs. Perkins, is to be redone, but this will only mean that more clubs and more women can become club members due to this change.

She stated that April 12 in San Angelo would be the final meeting of the 6th district officers with this convention here in Colorado City as the final session of the delegates of the 6th district meeting together.

Mrs. Perkins based most of her talk on a book compiled by Mrs. Sam L. Majors Sr., "Sheaves We Have Bound."

She told the group that due to the determination and the strive of "our grandmothers and mothers" all have the foundation for the many strong clubs of today.

The speaker said that each member, after the change of the district, must strive to work even harder to make the

the 'seniors' at Col-Tex

This is one of a series of special Col-Tex presentations recognizing long and valued service of those employees who have been associated with Col-Tex 15 years or longer. Col-Tex is proud of its workers who have contributed their efforts so many years for the company's success.

- * C. H. Williams has one of those Col-Tex Refining Company assignments the general public usually never sees. But like the many other jobs at the refinery, it is an important step in the coordinated setup for manufacturing and moving out petroleum products.
- * Williams, another of the Col-Tex seniors with at least 15 years of continuous service with the company, is a loader. And his job is to load diesel oil, liquid asphalt and cracked tar into railroad tank cars—sending the products on their way to distant points.
- * Loading of tank cars has been Williams' job for about 10 years. Truck and pipe line now transport much of the Col-Tex production, but there have been times when the loader has filled 65 to 70 tank cars a day.
- * It was Aug. 14, 1944 when the "senior" worked his first day at Col-Tex. He started in the maintenance department, fired boilers and worked at crude stills before becoming loader, a job which begins each day at 7 a. m. and ends at 3 p. m. Before working at the refinery, he worked for Ohio Oil Company, T&P Railroad and Dr. Harry Logsdon's stock farm.
- * Mr. and Mrs. Williams live at 141 N. Houston and are members of Southside Baptist Church. A daughter, Mrs. Don Henderson, lives here and another, Mrs. Harvey Rexroat, resides in Moran.
- * Reared in Palo Pinto County near the site of the now Possum Kingdom Dam, Williams still remembers the good channel cat and sand bass fishing holes in that area. He keeps a boat ready, too, for a "right smart" of fishing in this area and on the Concho River near San Angelo.

319 Person Attend Final Day of 6th District Meet

By KAY GRESHAM
Record Women's Editor

Even though the final meeting of the 6th District Federation of Women's Club was closed Friday many of those attending will look back in the years to come and remember all the many things that took place during those 2 full days of activity.

They remember that the convention started with a touch of green in memory of St. Patrick.

Registration reached 150 before the formal convention opening Thursday afternoon and soared to more than 300 Saturday morning.

Past District and state presidents were honored with a luncheon in the home of Mrs. L. B. Elliott with Mrs. H. B. Broadbent as hostess assisted by Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. C. P. Gary.

Mrs. Richard Moseley, president of the 6th district, opened the Thursday session and was followed with reports and presentation of those attending.

Approximately 150 persons attended the St. Patrick Day dinner, held in the Civic House and featuring on the program Mrs. Joseph Perkins, GFWC Treasurer. Following the banquet a reception honoring state and district presidents was conducted in the Garden Terrace Room of the Baker Hotel with Mrs. J. W. Watson, local president of Mitchell County Federation of Women Clubs, presiding at the refreshment table.

The Friday morning activities began with a courtesy coffee hosted by the Mitchell County Federation and again Mrs. Moseley, for the last time, gave the 6th District convention in the Civic House to order.

During the report of the Life-Membership Committee by Miss Ethel Foster of Sterling City, it was revealed that Mrs. Ed Jones had been voted life membership into the federation.

At the Friendship luncheon, featured speaker was Dr. John Stevens, assistant president of Abilene Christian College. He cited the need for foreign language studies, more reading by young and old alike.

Following the speaker was a vogue style show with Mrs. Tom Wilson of Eastland winning first place; Mrs. C. K. Cook of Glyde winning second place and Mrs. W. B. Brooks of Sterling City winning third place.

Mrs. Hart Spookmaker of Abilene, announced the winners of the family of the year, the teacher of the year, and the mother of the year to the group.

A final registration report of 319 was presented to the group which topped the number expected to attend.

With the last echoes of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" the 6th District of Federated Women's Clubs met for the last time.

But this was not the end, for a complete new district is to be set up with hopes of many of the same and a lot of new faces, too, for next year's convention to look forward to.

Tagging Out-of-Towners

Life Membership Received

FROM MERTZON

Mother and Teacher of the Year Named at Convention

One of the annual events of the 6th District Federation of Club Women is to pick the mother of the year and the teacher of the year.

Friday afternoon in the Civic House Mrs. Mae Sheen of Mertzon and Mrs. Archie Nickols of Baird were chosen to receive these honors.

Mrs. Nickols, the district's outstanding teacher, was an honor graduate of Baylor University. She has been teaching school in Baird for 25 years, where she instructs in English, Spanish and speech.

She is a past vice president of Parent-Teacher Association and past superintendent of the Intermediate group of the Baird First Baptist Church, where she also supervises Young Women's Auxiliary.

Mrs. Nickols sponsored the Latin American Mission work with the late Joe R. Mayers in her home town area and initiated the first homecoming for Baird High alumni.

She has a son, Leslie, a daughter, Carolyn who is now Mrs. R. T. Gunn, and one granddaughter, Cynthia Ann.

She reported that her hobbies are reading and Spanish. And she still wishes high classes.

Mrs. Nickols is a member of the Corinne Blackburn Study Club of Baird.

duced Mrs. Nickols, said that the qualification for the teacher of the year include scholastic attainment, teaching technique, good professional attitudes, outstanding work beyond the call of duty, and interest in community, state and national affairs.

Mrs. Mae Sheen of Mertzon, who was selected as mother of the year, is a ranchwoman and school teacher, and civic leader for 59 years.

She has 4 children, Mrs. Stanley Casper, Mrs. Ann Fisher, Winston Sheen, John Sheen.

Mrs. Casper is of Presidio. Mrs. Sheen and Mrs. Fisher are from El Paso and John Sheen is of Mertzon.

Mrs. Shoemaker stated that the outstanding mother must portray successful motherhood; must have as evidence character and achievement of her individual children.

APRIL 4, 5, IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Annual Senior Class Play Is 3-Act Mixed-Up Comedy

A merry mixed-up comedy in three acts will be presented by the senior class of Colorado City High School April 4 and 5.

Curtain time for "Once and For All" will be 7:30 p. m. in the High School Auditorium.

"Once and For All" is not the usual 'senior play'. It has an interesting plot and scenery that is more on the professional than the high school level.

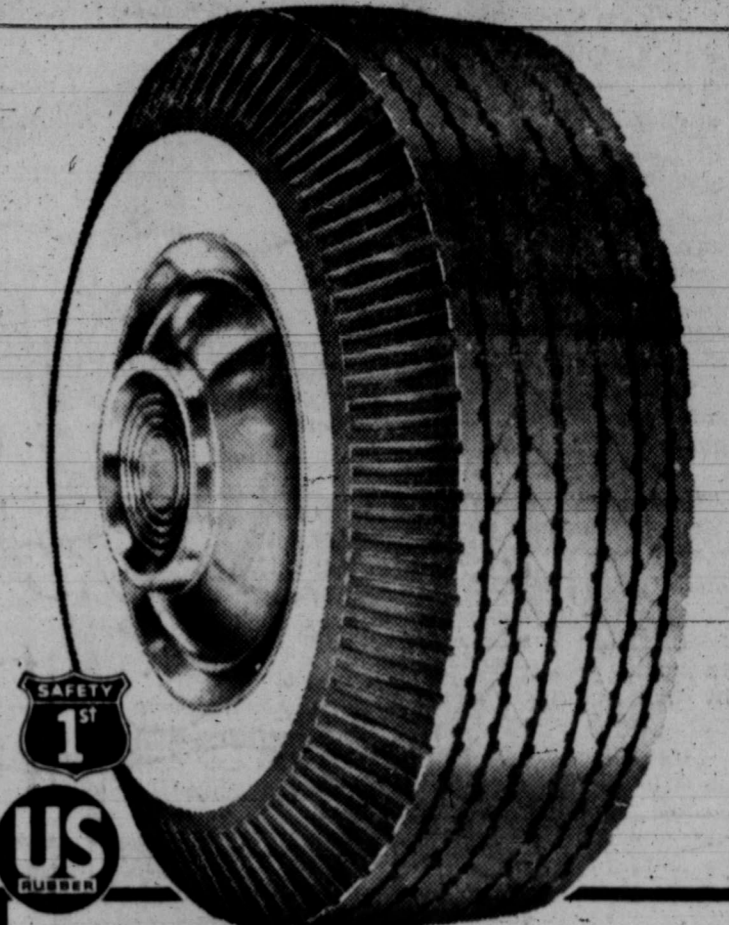

Scene of the play is a third-rate apartment building in a large city's crowded section. The building was once the home of the 'well-to-do'.

The story of the people who live in the apartment building, "Once and For All" has a large cast. Portraying the Benzettis family, who own a fruit truck are Nick Martinez and Laura Barber; a young man who is interested in 'quick' money, Nicola, is played by Billy Bobo. A young man about ready to finish high school is portrayed by Larry Moser. (These people live in the ground floor.)

Housed in the basement are Sver-Svenson, portrayed by Gary Yancy; his wife Cora, played by Gloria May; Michael Webb, played by Jay Allen; his bride, Linda, daughter of one of the city's leading citizens, portrayed by Lincy Johnston; Natlynn Smith as a stenographer; Christine Defarge, and her mother, Flora, played by Anna Lee Root; two ambitious but unsuccessful dancers, played by Linda Garcia and Byrdie Herring; and the real estate woman who frequents both sides of the court, Mrs. Bilge, played by Judy Bilberry.

Linda gives up her wealth to live with Michael in the style which he can afford. Her parents can't understand how she can love Michael enough to live this way when she could have married Arnold Rice; portrayed by Larry Hardcastle, a man who could have supported her in the style she was accustomed to.

Events come thick and fast in the comedy play; there is a plain-clothes man, portrayed by Russell Morris, who enters the scene, plus many more. Others in the cast include Sheila Wallace Phippin as Mrs. Pettigrew; Carolyn Howell as Mrs. Harrington; Peggie McCallie as a violinist; Marilyn Penny as the messenger.

Joint Meeting For Landers, Looney Clubs

Members of Landers and Looney Home Demonstration Clubs combined their meetings last week to learn tips about automatic laundry equipment.

The combined meeting of the 2 clubs was in the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc. Building.

Program concerning the care and use of automatic laundry equipment was by Mrs. Cricket Taylor, county home demonstration agent.

She discussed use of 140 to 160 degree water, softened water, specified washing times, pre-treating of soil spots and correct measuring of detergents as aids for improving the appearance of clothes washed automatically.

Mrs. Taylor also advised the club women to consider available home space for automatic equipment, installation costs, electric wiring requirements, available water supply, motor protection, type of clothes, loading facilities and reliability of dealer when preparing to buy automatic washing equipment.

Refreshments were served to the club women attending by co-hostesses from the clubs.

chorus, physical education and athletics.

The strengthening in graduation requirements are placed ahead for future senior classes in fairness to students. Therefore, each freshman class knows in advance what will be required for graduation 4 years later and can plan curriculums through the 4-year period without fear of extra requirements in the last year or 2.

At the same time Wilson said additions are planned in the curriculum offered under the strengthened graduation plan.

Courses available to sophomores are algebra 1 and 2, athletics 2, biology, English 2, homemaking 1 and 2, shop 1 and 2, band 1 and 2, chorus 1 and 2, physical education 2, plane geometry, Spanish 1 and 2, speech 1, typewriting 1, vocational agriculture 1 and 2, world history. Addition of music theory is proposed.

Proposed for addition to the curriculum of juniors are civics, music theory, physical education 3, Spanish 2 and Texas history. Courses already on the junior list are algebra 1 and 2, American history, athletics 3, biology, bookkeeping 1, chemistry, English 3, home and family life, chorus 1, 2 and 3, secretarial training, physics, plane geometry, Spanish 1 and 2, solid geometry, homemaking 1, 2 and 3; shop 1, 2 and 3; mechanical drawing, journalism 1, band 1, 2 and 3; speech 1, trigonometry 1, typewriting 1 and 2; vocational agriculture 1, 2 and 3; world history.

Planned for addition for seniors include civics, music theory, physical education 4, Spanish 3 and Texas history. The senior curriculum previously includes algebra 1 and 2, American history, athletics 4, bookkeeping 1, chemistry,

THE GARDNER'S ALMANACK

March Is Good Time To Fertilize Lawns

(Editor's Note: Following is another Gardner's Almanack, a series of articles prepared for The Record by Colorado City Garden Club in interest of community beautification.)

By KATHRYN HOLLEY
C City Garden Club

Beware the lures of March if roses are not in place. Danger lies in disturbing plants which have already started to grow.

Hang out bird houses to attract the first contingent of early arrivals. Avoid trying to devour all little wigglers that venture out on balmy days.

Apply the blossom spray to peach and plum trees when they have shed 1/2 of their petals.

If the space is small, es- palier a magnolia or a pear tree against a wall. They are quite decorative, but must be kept trimmed to grow flat rather than branching out- ward.

Fertilize the lawn now. Grubworms already are ac- tive, so mix children or lho- dane with the fertilizer.

Keep children and pets off the lawn if using children un- til it has been watered. Slow- ly and thoroughly.

When chrysanthemums are from three to five inches high, make cuttings from this new growth. Set them in moist sand until they root. Cutting propagation is still, by far, the best method of chrysan- themum propagation.

The vigor and performance of a chrysanthemum variety depend upon the woodiness or growth of the clump that is being divided. Timing is very important. Extreme early di- vision will result in a tall, large plant that will be easily broken by wind and rain. Very late division of woody clumps will result in low sur- vival rate, decreased vigor and quality, and may cause dwarfing.

Divide perennial phlox.

Remove the winter bedding of mulch piecemeal. Not even your plants like to have all their covers yanked off and be left to shiver. Leave the bottom layer for nourishment and fork it into the soil later. Toss any excess onto the com- post pile.

Set out annuals such as pe- tunias, verbenas, lantanas, sal- via, collins, marigolds, snap- dragons, asters, vinca, morn- ing glories etc.

Put in another planting of gladioli corms. Try some of the lovely new varieties.
