Garbage collection topic of called council meeting

Garbage and its collection was the subject of a called meeting of the Colorado City Council Thursday.

Mayor Jim Baum said there is a problem with the collection of garbage since the city switched from three trucks to two trucks the first of this month.

The decision to cut the number of trucks and manpower by one person was approved by the city council during budget workshops earlier this year as a cost-saving measure.

City Manager Brenda Hammond said that as of Thursday, city hall had received 69 complaints from citizens whose trash had not been picked up on the days scheduled.

Workers who drive and man the garbage trucks were on hand for the meeting, and they indicated that they do not have enough time to make all their rounds. They said they have been trying to catch up on Wednesdays, but that hasn't proven successful.

The workers indicated that summer is always harder for them because of grass clippings and tree limbs that they try to pick up along with the regular trash.

Hammond said the pickup schedule has been hampered further by equipment failure and that a dump truck has been utilized to pick up trash, but that proved to slow the men further because of the number of trips they had to make to the landfill in the smaller capacity dump truck.

No decision was made at Thursday's meeting, other than a pledge on the city's part to try to get caught up with the work.

"We'll see what the next two weeks will do," said Baum.

Baum, along with council members Brian Bassham, Eric White and Gary Redwine expressed their appreciation to the workers for their dedication and hard work.

"We appreciate your work and the quality of work you do," said Baum.

Unable to attend the special council meeting were council members Dee Hearn, Rex Thackerson and Bob Reily.

Awards presented at banquet

Amy Chitsey was awarded the Outstanding Senior Female Athlete Award Thursday night at the annual Colorado High School All-Sports Banquet.

Chitsey has had success all season, earning births on the first team All-District team and 6-AAA Academic All-District team during the volleyball season; Honorable Mention and Academic All-District honors during the basketball season; and district champion in the 400-meter dash and a regional qualifier as well.

The "C" Award, given to individual who displays courage, as well as other characteristics such as dedication, motivation and heart, was presented by Coach Wayne Alexander to Bridgett Bridgford, a junior. Bridgford was a two-sport performer. In basketball, the Lady Wolf was an honorable mention guard and in track, she was a regional qualifier in the 400-meter relay and the 800-meter relay.

The last female award given was the Spirit Award. This year's recipient was Brittany Bridgford, winning the coveted title for the second year in a row.

Female athletes who received the Most Valuable Player Award were selected by their peers. Brittany Bridgford was selected as the MVP for the basketball season. Bridgford was the Lone Wolf to be selected to the 1st Team All-District Basketball squad. Taking top honors for the Project Celebration

Donations sought for event

Donations for Project Celebration, the drug-free and alcohol-free graduation party for high school students on May 31, are still coming in, but they are rather slow, reports event chairman Roxie Strain.

As of Thursday, $4,500 had been received compared to last year when the amount stood at $7,600.

"I know a lot of people are intending to give, but haven't yet done it," said Strain. "There's only a little over a week left before the night of Project Celebration, so if you are planning to donate, please do so as soon as possible."

"Last year we were able to give two grand prizes away to two lucky seniors and we'd like to do the same this year, but we will have to get more money in before we can," she said. "Lots of our prizes have to be ordered, and everything has to be bought and labeled ahead of time, so we really need the donations in early."

She said all prizes are bought from local merchants and the committee does not go out of town to spend any of the prize money.

Also, any senior parents who have been contacted about donating $5 for the swimming party for the seniors need to get that money in Barbara Westbrook or Melinda Hoover.

There will be a meeting of the committee chairmen on Tuesday, May 22, at 7 p.m. at Fort Wood to make some final decisions. On Tuesday, May 29, there will be a meeting for all those who have volunteered to work at Project Celebration to let them know what they will be doing and what time they need to work. Time and place of the meeting will be announced later.

Decorating is under way at the ag barn and anyone wishing to help should contact Jane Findley or Kim Anderson, or just go out to the barn when they are out there and pitch in.

"More volunteers are needed to help and more donations are requested and both are greatly appreciated," Strain said.

Recent donors to the project are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ginzel, Carolyn Walker, Mrs. C.C. Thompson, Noon Lions Club, Walt and Anna Staats, Wiggins Chevron, Southwest Savings, PTL Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church, Ramage Appliance, Robert Bracy, Texas Instruments, Nike, Helene Curtis, Calvin Klein, Lone Wolf Electric, Mr. and Mrs. A.K. McCarley, Jerry and Mary Ann Wilbourn, Lee Woods, Dee A. Roach, M.D., Dink rees, Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Jackson, FCA, Mitchell County Farm Bureau, Clay Strange.

Contributing to the swimming party are Mr. and Mrs. Ronney Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ritchey and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker.

SBA luncheon tickets on sale now

Tickets for the Small Business Administration luncheon honoring David and Melody Stubblefield of Colorado City as the SBA's District Outstanding Business Person of the Year for 1990 are on sale at First National Bank, City National Bank and at the chamber of commerce office, 157 West Second.

Tickets are $7.50 each with the deadline for sales Wednesday, May 23. Tickets will not be sold at the door. The luncheon will be held from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday, May 25, at the Civic Center.

Featured speaker at the luncheon will be Charlie Hicks of Abilene, a certified financial planner.

The Stubblefields, owners and operators of Gas 'N Grub, a multi-convenience complex, represent the 71-county area served by SBA's Lubbock District, according to David Fronstin, SBA's Lubbock district director.

Gas 'N Grub, located at the edge of Colorado City at the intersection of highways 80 an 208, offers travelers a variety of services: a fully equipped trailer park, with laundromat, restroom and shower facilities; lock box; camping equipment; recreational licenses; and gasoline for their vehicles. Of, if travelers wish to take the bus, the facility is a station for the Greyhound Bus Line. Both tourists and Mitchell County residents patronize the small business through purchases of gasoline, fast food items, packaged goods, delicatessen items, reverse osmosis water and Morgan Portable Buildings.

This family-owned and operated "one-stop" business, in operation since 1981, is truly the "Best Little Country Store in Town". They even do catering, which, of necessity, involves the whole family.

The Stubblefields were nominated for special recognition from the SBA by the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce.

Property Tax Protest and Appeal Procedures

The law gives property owners the right to protest actions concerning their property tax appraisals. You may follow these procedures if you have a concern about:

- the value placed on your property;
- exemptions that may apply to you;
- cancellation of agricultural appraisal;
- whether your property is taxable;
- which local governments should be taxing your property; or
- you think the appraisal district has done something else that adversely affected you.

INFORMAL REVIEW: Ask appraisal district staff to review your appraisal with you. Call 915-728-5028 before June 4.

Review by the Appraisal Review Board: If you can't resolve your problem informally with the appraisal district staff, you may have your case heard by the appraisal review board.

The appraisal review board (ARB) is an independent board of citizens that reviews problems with appraisals and other concerns listed above. They have the power to order the appraisal district to make the necessary changes to solve problems. If you file a written request for an ARB hearing (called a notice of protest) before the deadline, the ARB will set your case for a hearing. You'll receive written notification of the time, date, and place of the hearing. The hearing will be informal. You and the appraisal district representative will be asked to present evidence about your case. The ARB will make its decision based on the evidence presented. You can get a copy of a protest form from the appraisal district office at 1132 Hickory, Colorado City.

Note: You shouldn't try to contact ARB members outside of the hearing. The law requires you to sign an affidavit saying that you haven't done so before the ARB hears your case.

Review by the District Court: After it decides your case, the ARB must send you a copy of its order by certified mail. If you're not satisfied with the decision you have the right to appeal to district court. If you choose to go to court, you must start the process by filing a petition within 45 days of the date you receive the ARB's order. If the appraisal district has appraised your property at $1,000,000 or more, you must file a notice of appeal with the chief appraiser within 15 days of the date you receive the ARB's order.

More information: You can get more information by contacting your appraisal district at 1132 Hickory, C City.

You can also get a pamphlet describing how to prepare a protest from the appraisal district or from the State Property Tax Board, 4301 Westbank Drive, Building B, Suite 100, Austin, Texas 78746.

Deadline for filing protests with the ARB

(the deadline is postponed to the next business day if it falls on a weekend or holiday)

Usual deadline:	On or before June4 (or 30 days after a notice of appraised value was mailed to you, whichever is later).
Late protests (If you miss the usual deadline for good cause. Good cause is some reason beyond your control, like a medical emergency. The ARB decides whether you have good cause.)	Before the day the appraisal review board approves records for the year. Contact the appraisal district for more information.

Special deadlines:

Change of use (if the appraisal district has informed you that you are losing agricultural appraisal because you changed the use of your land)	Before the 30th day after the notice of the determination was mailed to you.
ARB changes (if the ARB has informed you of a change that increases your tax liability and the change didn't result from a protest you filed)	Before the 10th day after the notice of the determination was mailed to you.

If you believe the appraisal district or ARB should have sent you a notice and did not, you may file a protest until the day before taxes become delinquent (usually February 1). The ARB decides whether it will hear your case based on evidence about whether a required notice was mailed to you.

Laubert, Baum united in marriage on May 19

In a double ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, May 19, 1990, in St. Martin's Catholic Church, Tours, Patricia Rhea Laubert of West and Douglas Edward Baum of Waco were married with Rev. Isidore Rodzycki officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Laubert of West and Mr. and Mrs. James Gerald Baum of Colorado City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a designer bridal gown of white satin, crystalline, lace and Schliffli embroidery. The bodice featured a sheer sabrina neckline accented with pearls and deep v-back. Short ruffled sleeves with satin roses enhanced the elongated Schliffli lace embroidered, pearled and sequined bodice with a full skirt sweeping into a ruffled cathedral-length train. The bride's headpiece consisted of a pearled crown with back bow enhancement and a sheer sabrina veil. The bouquet, designed by the bride, featured pink and white roses.

Mrs. Douglas Edward Baum
...nee Patricia Rhea Laubert

Serving as maid of honor was Donna Laubert, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Beth Laubert, sister-in-law of the bride, Laura Baum, sister of the bridegroom, Elizabeth Herrera, Lanette Jerik and Elaine Owen. Amber Adams was the flower girl. The attendants chose long satin gowns with lace bodice insets accented with Basque waists and candy bow bows.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Groomsmen were Joe Laubert Jr., David Laubert, B.Z. Lewis, Paul Arellano and Paul Richards, nephew of the bridegroom. Richard Baum served as the ring bearer. Jim Baum and Bill Baum, brothers of the bridegroom, and John Oakes served as ushers. Houseparty members were Janice Baum and Kathy Baum, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Shannon Thomas. Steve Leuschner and Randy King served as witnesses.

A graduate of West High School and McLennan Community College, the bride is a senior student at Tarleton State University. The bridegroom, a graduate of Colorado High School and McLennan Community College, is employed by KWTX broadcasting in Waco.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the Tours Hall with the bride and bridegroom sharing a table featuring the bride's cake, a four-tiered heart-shaped wedding cake with bridesmaids and groomsmen figurines placed on stairways connecting to the heart-shaped satellite cake on either side. The bridegroom's cake was designed as a drum with drumsticks as accent pieces.

Out-of-town guests attended from Dallas, Irving, Lubbock, Colorado City, Topeka, Kan., Mineral Wells, Waco and Austin.

Following a wedding trip to Cozumel, Mexico, the couple will be at home in Waco.

A party for the wedding attendants was given May 12 in the bride's home in West and a shower honoring the couple was given April 29 by Donna Laubert and Beth Laubert, both of Waco.

NOTES

by ETTIE WALKER
Manager, Exec. Vice President

Tickets for the Small Business Administration luncheon honoring David and Melody Stubblefield as the District Outstanding Small Business Person of the Year for 1990 are on sale at First National Bank, City National Bank, and at the chamber office, 157 West Second. They are $7.50 each with the deadline for sales Wednesday, May 23. Tickets will not be sold at the door. David and Melody were Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce business of the year nominees. They had certain criteria that had to be fulfilled to be chosen and we are all extremely proud to be honoring them at this luncheon. Come help us congratulate and show our support to David and Melody by attending this luncheon.

work is now being done by Sheila Plagens and Joan Beach to get a chamber dance sponsored for June. We have had many requests to have one and they are striving to do their best.

After our Small Business Administration luncheon on May 25 and the dance in June, we will be working on the July 4thFest. Anyone interested in having a booth, game, or etc. needs to be planning soon and call the chamber office. Who is ready for beach volleyball? This committee will be meeting soon. If you would like to help, just call.

Next will be the Mitchell County Fair. The organizations need to be planning on having a booth if you're needing a fund raiser to begin the school year.

We have already mailed our booth reservations for the Railhead Arts & Crafts show which will be Oct. 13-14.

As you can see, we have been busy for you at the office. Let's plan early on all our events and see if we can make them the best and most fun ever.

We would like to welcome our new members. When you see them, thank them for supporting the events and efforts of the chamber. The new members are Finch Radio Systems, T&T Transports, Dennis Printing Co. and Andrea Gardens Apartments.

Council hears reports

The Mitchell County Literacy Council met for its May meeting in the hospitality room at First National Bank. The president, Louree Upton, presided as the group heard reports from various committees.

Mrs. Dee Foster, representative of the West Texas Council of Governments, was present. She has been actively involved in the organization of literacy work in this West Texas area. She reported that the West Texas Council of Governments has agreed to underwrite the cost of council affiliation with the Literacy Volunteers of America. There are now three affiliated councils in West Texas. They are Mitchell, Eastland and Jones counties.

Since Mitchell County Literacy Council is affiliated with the Literacy Volunteers of America, it is recognized as a non-profit organization. Because of the need for furnishing materials for pupils to use, there will be an effort to made to solicit funds from businesses, clubs, organizations and individuals. Coleen Palmer is chairman of the donations committee.

Betsy Aycock, chairman of the tutor training committee, announced that a workshop will be held by the San Angelo unit of literacy volunteers on Saturday, June 9 and 16 and then on Sunday afternoon June 17. Carol Weaver and another teacher will be coming from San Angelo to teach each session. It will be free to those who are interested in becoming tutors. The teachers will be teaching the study of English as a Second Language, which teaches oral communication as well as reading skills. All interested persons are urged to be involved in the workshop. The first session will be from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, June 9, at the First Baptist Church.

Those present at the meeting were Louree Upton, Iris Preston, Coleen Palmer, Frances Godwin, Charlene Riley, Peggy Manning, Betsy Aycock, Rachel Parras and Earline Sellier.

Residents to attend conference

Several Mitchell County residents will be among the more than 1,000 United Methodists who will gather June 4-6 for the 81st session of the Northwest Texas Annual Conference, to be held at First United Methodist Church in Midland.

The event, an annual meeting of clergy and elected lay delegates from United Methodist congregations, is the official business and policy-making session for the denomination in the Northwest Texas area.

Local residents attending will be Lloyd Richards, Peggy Ratliff, Elmer Martin, Frank Brownfield, representing Colorado City First United Methodist Church; Margaret Brown, Fern Thompson, representing St. Luke United Methodist Church; Sylvia Clanton and Jessie Dorn, representing Dorn United Methodist Church; and Ralston Bruce and Lola Bennett, representing Loraine First United Methodist Church.

Highlights of the annual conference will include a State of the Church address at 7 p.m. June 4 by Bishop Louis W. Schowengerdt, area bishop of the Northwest Texas/New Mexico Area since 1980. The giving and receiving of new pastoral appointments for 1990-91 will also take place during the evening worship service.

Wilson to attend workshop

Kathy Wilson, Spanish teacher at Colorado High School, has been chosen to participate in an eight-day Spanish workshop in Mexico City, Mexico, this summer.

The workshop is sponsored by Scott, Foresman Publishing Company, which publishes the Spanish textbooks used at CHS. The workshop will stress teaching techniques and everyday living in a Spanish-speaking city. Participants will be given specific tasks to complete either on their own or in small groups. They also will attend classes to discuss teaching ideas specifically geared to teaching culture and language.

Wilson will be one of 38 teachers in the United States participating in the workshop June 27-July 4.

Letters to the Editor

Literacy

TO THE EDITOR: Did you know that the 1980 Census tells us that 25 percent of the adult population of Mitchell County is illiterate? Mitchell County Literacy Council is looking for sponsors for students who wish to learn to read.

We have the teachers willing to volunteer, but the cost of the student books and workbooks is around $25 per student.

We are asking individuals or groups who are interested to sponsor a student at the cost of $25. In return, the tutor will be happy to keep the sponsor updated on the progress of the student so that the sponsor may see the results of his investment.

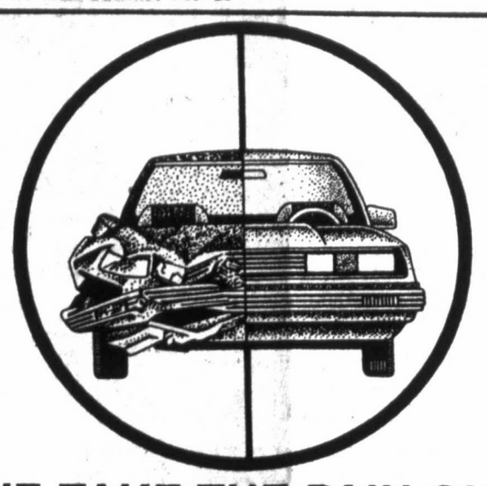

We encourage you to sponsor a student, but if you do not desire to do this, could you please send us a donation of any amount to help defray the many small costs that go into running an organization such as this. We are a non-profit organization, affiliated with the Literacy Volunteers of America - Texas. Your donations are tax deductible and may be mailed to P.O. Box 992, Colorado City, Texas 79512 or sent to First National Bank.

We have available a program explaining our organization and the plan we follow in teaching a student to speak, read and write English. We would like to speak before your group at your convenience. Could you have your program chairman contact me or Betsy Aycock (728-3639) and give us a date to speak?

Thank you for your help.

ANSWER TO LAST WEEK'S QUESTION: "Rightly dividing" God's word is the ONLY way one can be approved of God, 2 Timothy 2:15.

QUESTION: Why is it SO important to obtain the "sum" of God's word on every Bible subject, Psalm 119:160; Matthew 4:4?

WTC to offer courses here

Western Texas College in Snyder will offer two courses at the Colorado City Extension Center this summer.

Registration for the classes, BUS 131/875 (introduction to business) and ENG 131/876 (composition I), will be Tuesday, May 29, from 6:30-8 p.m. at the Wallace Center.

Classes will begin June 4, said coordinator Mark Merrell.

Those registering must have their Social Security number and driver's licenses, a completed early admissions form (if applicable) and ACT or SAT test scores if available.

Students who have not earned three semester college credit hours before the 1989 fall semester are required to take the Texas Academic Skills Program (TASP) test. Such students must take the test before completing their first 15 hours of college coursework. All students will be required to provide documentation of TASP status. This documentation will be TASP score reports, transcripts or both.

Placement testing is required for students enrolling. Bring ACT or SAT scores. If ACT or SAT scores are unavailable, a WTC placement test will be given on the evening of registration. A $10 fee will be charged for the test. Placement testing will be done at 6:45 p.m. on the day of scheduled registration only.

Cost is $89 for one course, $143 for two and $207 for three. Rates do not include lab fees or books.

Body control mini-session starts Monday

There will be a two week mini-session in body control starting May 21 and ending on May 31. Instructor will be Joanne Sanderson.

Fee for the session will be $10 for three nights a week, or $8.50 for two nights a week. Classes will meet on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 6:15-7:15 p.m.

Anyone interested may sign up at the Wallace Center.

Body control consists of cardiovascular and toning exercises that strengthen the heart, as well as burns fat and tightens and firms troublesome areas.

CHIEF LONE WOLF

Time was when all Colorado City streets were not paved and that included the downtown business district. To help keep the dust settled, the city provided a street sprinkler. It was actually a horse-drawn water wagon with a contraption across the back which sprayed water.

In the late 1800's, Colorado's boys loved the water sprinkler. During the summertime, barefooted lads would run behind the wagon, sticking their feet into the sprays of water. It was also fun to stomp in holes filled with water so other boys standing nearby would be splashed.

But, the purpose of the sprinkler was to keep clouds of dust from rising up and drifting into businesses, as horses and wagons made their way through town. And also, women riding in wagons, or walking along the board sidewalks, were less likely to have their finery soiled if the streets were watered.

In the summer of 1887 the town council of Colorado decided to save some money. They cut out the practice of sprinkling streets. Local businessmen were quick to circulate a petition containing 80 names of men who were opposed to the decision reached by our local officials.

And so, the classic confrontation; representatives of the city versus the very taxpayers who support city government. To sprinkle, or not to sprinkle, that was the question. In all fairness it should be pointed out the city was also trying to preserve its precious water supply, but, to placate the business community, the council agreed to resume watering the streets. However, there were two conditions.

First at no time was the water level in the standpipe (the one out behind today's Wallace Center) to fall below 50 feet. Secondly, the merchants, not the city, would have to pay the man who operated the waterwagon. The cost? One dollar per day.

A petition, a compromise and an agreement; Democracy, 1887 style. Like today, the squeaking wheel was greased. And the streets were sprinkled.

Summertime and the livin' is easy! For many people, easy is the watchword for their spring and summer clothing, too. So whether you're buying new clothes or freshening an existing wardrobe. Consider these care tips for several popular warm-weather fabrics:

Polyester is practically care-free! Machine wash in warm water and tumble dry (to avoid static cling, though, don't overdry).

Most polyester-cotton blends are easy-care and require just machine washing and drying.

For cotton items, machine wash and dry. Keep in mind that many all-cotton knitted items shrink if they are overdried.

Machine wash and dry acrylics at moderate temperatures. Avoid hot water, high dryer temperatures and hot irons.

Most linen, silk and rayon garments carry permanent care labels which specify "Dry Clean Only" or "Hand Wash Only."

For all clothing and household items, read and follow label instructions for care.

For more information about clothing or clothing care, contact County Extension Office at 728-3111.
