Plans In Making For Invasion Of Japanese Islands Nimitz Says

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Ranking U. S. commanders talked openly Wednesday of the forthcoming invasion of Japan as returning American pilots reported the crippled enemy air force failed to send a single interceptor against their raids on Nipponese airbases and transportation lines from the home islands to the Indo-China border.

Plans are in the making "for us to invade Japan," said Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, who added that Navy planes would be flying continually over Japan Wednesday if he had three times his present force of carriers.

Japanese ground forces, only potent stumbling block to conquest of Japan, made their first successful counter-attack in the Southern Philippines; held U. S. lines on rain-soaked Okinawa; retreated on Tarakan off Borneo and lost 3,000 of a force of 4,000 in fighting out of a trap in China.

Tokyo propagandists said Japan's fight was "absolutely unaffected" by the end of the war in Europe, and American commanders were inclined to agree. Nimitz said "We do not count on a quick end to our war with Japan." Other commanders spoke of "this tough, determined enemy," heavily armed, unwavering and determined. A Chinese spokesman laughed at rumors of a Nipponese peace feeler.

The Mikado's air force has been wasted away trying to stem the invasion of Okinawa Island, top rung on the island ladder to Japan.

Lavishly and liberally More than 3,000 planes have been lost in these abortive attempts, leading Admiral Teijiro Toyoda, Nippon's munitions minister, to call on the Japanese aircraft industry to use materials "lavishly and liberally" to turn out defensive planes quickly.

Wildcats Staked In S-W Crane And S-C Martin Areas

By JAMES C. WATSON
Oil Editor

Locations for wildcats in Southwest Crane and South-Central Martin counties were reported Wednesday.

Richfield Oil Corporation No. 1 Sumner & Burley to be a 5,000-foot exploration, will be about eight miles northeast of Midland.

Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 11, block 38, TP survey, T-1-S, in South-Central Martin County. It is approximately 15 miles west and slightly south of Stanton. Rotary rig is to be moved in at once.

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1-B Tucker, 1,863 feet from north-east and 330 feet from northwest lines of section 25, block 1, H&C survey, in Southwest Crane County, is slated to dig to around 7,000 feet. The wildcat is about two and one-half miles northwest of the McKee field, where production is from the McKee section of the Simpson, at around 6,100-6,200 feet.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-A Thomas, in southwest corner of section 8, block 45, TP survey, T-1-S, one location due east of initial producer in the TXL field, in West Ector County, was making hole below 8,075 feet in lime.

A drillstem test had been taken to that level. It failed to show any signs for production. The project has shown for sufficient oil to make a well from the Devonian, but unofficial sources indicate it will be attempted to test the Silurian, before attempting to complete in the Devonian.

Found Soft Digging Mabey Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Mabey, in section 8, block 38, G&M&B&A survey, T-1-N, slated 5,200-foot wildcat in Southwest Martin County, about six miles southeast of the Mabey field, had reached 4,525 feet in lime, and was drilling ahead. The formation had softened recently.

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1 Humble fee-Bubank, section 6, block AX, psd survey, in Southwest Gaines County, ran a drillstem test at 4,602-4,880 feet. Tool was open one hour and 50 minutes. Recovery was 720 feet of drilling mud, with a slight odor of gas. The project (Continued on Page 5) the leadership of the Reich from Hitler.

Goering's wife and child were taken into custody with him.

Kesselring was the last German commander in chief on the Western Front. He was shifted from Italy

FIELD MARSHAL KESSELRING to succeed Field Marshal von Rundstedt, captured earlier by the Seventh Army.

The corpulent 51-year-old Goering is the self-styled "most faithful paladin of the fuhrer" and had been designated by Hitler as his successor. But that was before the Reichsmarshal fell from favor in the closing months of Nazi Germany. He is one of the world's greatest collectors of medals, uniforms and art—the latter largely pilfered from countries which Germany overran.

MORE CIVILIAN TIRES

WASHINGTON—(P)—The end of the war in Europe will mean an early increase in tires for civilian cars, a War Production Board official asserted Tuesday before the Senate Defense Investigating Committee.

Mrs. Walter Cowden Dies At Her Home

Mrs. E. Walter Cowden, 66, died about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in her home, 111 North F Street, following an illness. She suffered a fractured hip in a fall April 3 and had been ill since that date.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Jess C. Ward of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. W. T. Averitt Jr. of Midland; four grandchildren, Lt. Cowden Clark Ward who is in France, Lt. Jess C. Ward Jr. who is in China, Miss Eva Moizelle Ward, a student at Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, and W. T. Averitt III, of Midland; two great-grandchildren, Gloria Hope Ward and Cowden Clark Ward Jr., who now are residing in Fort Worth, and a sister, Mrs. J. N. Jackson, of Midland.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Vernon Yearly officiating. The Rev. Raymond Hall will have charge of the music. Arrangements are being handled by the Ellis Funeral Home. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

A pioneer resident of Midland, Mrs. Cowden was a native Texan. She was born Feb. 14, 1879, in Comanche County, and moved to Midland when 12 years of age. She attended schools in Midland and was married here March 17, 1897.

Mrs. Cowden was well known in Midland and West Texas for her church and civic work. She took an active part in affairs of the First Baptist Church of Midland and was one of its most faithful workers in the Sunday School Department. The Eva Cowden Class was named for her and she served as class mother.

Conference Members Seek Agreement On Island Trusteeships

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Diplomatic Editor

SAN FRANCISCO—(P)—The United States is seeking an agreement on control of lands seized in both world wars which will allow the Army and Navy to set up bases at any point in the world considered vital to United States security. The question involved—labeled here one of trusteeship of territory seized from the enemy, mandated after the first world war or incapable of self government—is still a point of controversy between the big-five powers. It is one of the two most critical issues remaining before the United Nations Conference upon the departure of Soviet Foreign Commissar V. M. Molotov.

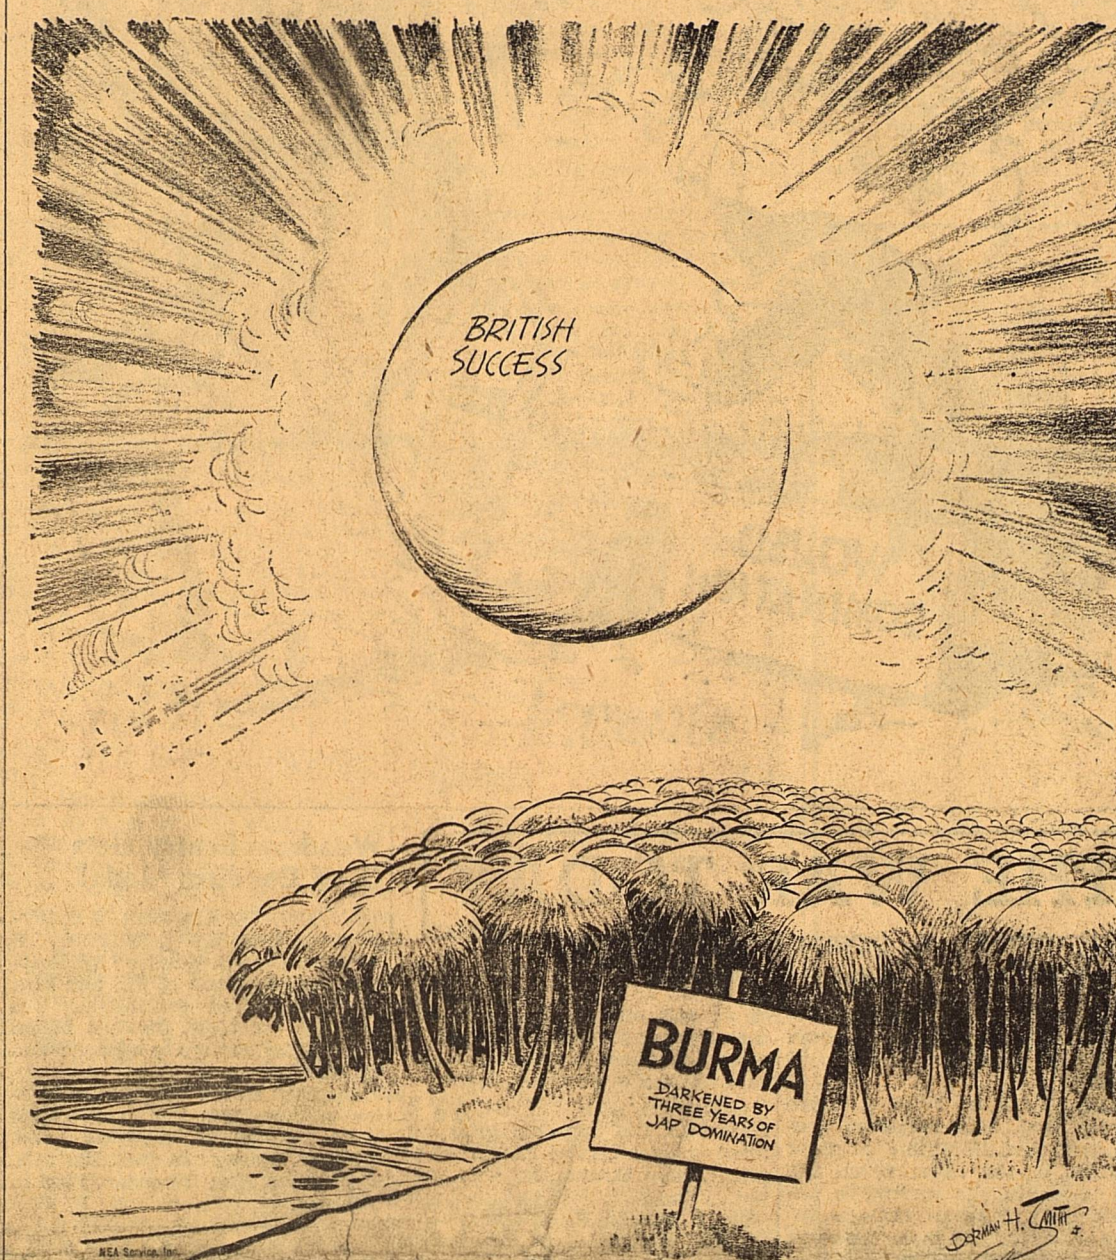

The other issue is how to dovetail the Pan-American security system, recently worked out at Mexico City, into the security council of the proposed world organization. The American delegation is sharply divided on this question at the moment. Some members favor giving the Pan-American set-up no special treatment, but strong opinion appears to be developing for a proposal that the council be given supreme authority over the Pan-American system, but be instructed to delegate to it the power to enforce peace in strictly regional disputes in this hemisphere.

Molotov leaves the conference in an atmosphere of big-power harmony that few would have been willing to forecast within a few days ago. The Soviet ambassador to Washington, Andrei Gromyko, takes over chairmanship of the Russian delegation.

British Joyfully Enter Into Second Celebration Day

By EDWARD J. DENNEHY
LONDON—(P)—Buoyant merry-makers in this British capital embarked Wednesday on their second V-E Day celebration, while parading Soviet citizens in the streets of Moscow held their first rejoicings over the tidings of peace.

There was frolicking in the streets of Paris, Brussels, Amsterdam, Copenhagen and other cities to which peace had come after long tribulation.

In Oslo, capital of Norway, armed German soldiers strolled about the streets watching the jubilant Norwegian celebrants. That curious V-E Day situation was due to the fact that Allied authorities had not yet been able to collect enemy arms.

President Signs Bill Extending Selective Service

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Truman Wednesday signed legislation extending the Selective Service Act as a "compelling necessity in the continuance of military operations against Japan."

The President said he signed the bill extending the military draft a year from May 15 (or until the war has ended on all fronts) with reluctance because he did not wish his action to be interpreted as expressing concurrence with a section of the legislation placing "added restrictions on the War and Navy departments in their management of the fighting forces."

The measure, as passed by Congress, prohibits the use of 18-year-olds in combat unless they have had at least six months of training.

The War and Navy departments opposed the restriction on use of 18-year-olds when the bill was before the House and Senate.

Reconversion Will Be Started Immediately

WASHINGTON—(P)—Wartime controls over production, rationing and pricing will be continued until Japan is defeated, the administration said Wednesday, but "some reconversion will start immediately."

Highlights of the program, as outlined at a White House news conference by War Mobilizer Fred M. Vinson:

1. Immediate suspension of the ban on horse and dog racing, and lifting of the midnight entertainment curfew.
2. Release of enough materials and manpower, no longer needed for the Pacific war, to produce a few new automobiles within six to nine months.
3. Some prospects of an early increase in gasoline allowances for civilian motorists.
4. Vinson said he saw no indications of any early general improvement in the civilian food supply situation.
5. No general reduction in taxes until final victory is won.

Russians Go Wild At News Of End Of European War

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW—(P)—Thousands of Russians swarmed through Red Square shouting "Long Live Stalin" and "Hurrah for Victory" as the Soviet capital turned out to the last man, woman and child Wednesday to celebrate the end of the European war.

In the center of the cheering, singing throng a group of American "G.I.s" attached to the U. S. military mission in Moscow danced across the cobblestones with girls from the factories, which had shut down for the celebration.

Uri Levitan, a small dark man with a big voice, gave to 190,000,000 Russians Wednesday the momentous news that the war against Germany has ended in a crushing victory for the Soviet Union and her Allies.

Typical Slavic Reaction The immediate reaction to the stirring event was typically Slavic. It was 1:10 a. m. when Levitan—star announcer for the Moscow radio and the man who has broadcast all of Premier Marshal Stalin's orders of the day—came on the air with the glad tidings.

Most of Moscow's residents were asleep, but the announcement acted like an alarm clock. Thousands (Continued on Page 5)

Germans Surrender Three French Ports As Hostilities End

By ROMNEY WHEELER

LONDON—(P)—Russian troops and tanks, striking swiftly by night from the north, liberated Prague at 4 a.m. Wednesday—four hours after the official deadline for all Germans to lay down their arms—Premier-Marsh Stalin announced.

Warfare between Germans and Russians apparently continued beyond the time set for complete cessation of hostilities. Earlier Wednesday, a station calling itself the Prague Radio said German planes bombed the Czechoslovak capital and three other points in the republic shortly after Russian troops had entered Prague.

'Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight'

WASHINGTON—(P)—Immediate lifting of the midnight entertainment curfew and the ban on horse and dog racing was announced Wednesday.

Fred M. Vinson, director of War Mobilization and Reconversion, said that the action was effective as of Wednesday and quipped: "The curfew shall not ring tonight."

ODT Rulings Stand

He told a news conference that the lifting of the ban on race meets did not affect restrictions on the shipment of race horses, and referred inquiries respecting these restrictions to ODT officials.

At ODT, it was stated that the lifting of the racing ban will be followed up by an order from ODT permitting the shipment of horses, but it was emphasized that travel restrictions in effect prior to the ban will continue.

Wednesday's action means that racing's "triple crown"—the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont Stakes—will be run this spring and summer. The Derby probably will be held June 2 or 3 with the Preakness the next Saturday and the Belmont Stakes two weeks later.

Edward Kennedy States AP's Side Of Case In War's Top News Scoop

By The Associated Press

Edward Kennedy, whose Reims dispatch to The Associated Press Monday gave the first eyewitness account of the German surrender, made Wednesday his first direct statement concerning the story and denied in a separate message that he had "admitted any breach of confidence."

Kennedy, chief of the AP's Western Front staff, has been under suspension since Monday, and Gen. Eisenhower, in a telegram to Kent Cooper, executive director of the AP, said this was "due to self."

Conference Jitters

The first few days of the San Francisco Conference were marked by a good deal of factional bickering. The struggle between the London and Lublin Poles formed a major center of dispute, and there was a stormy press conference sideshow put on by Tito and Mikhailovitch champions of a Yugoslavian representation.

These and other flareups were probably unavoidable. There has been a lot of smoldering feeling which was bound to burn briskly once a rostrum was available from which the aggrieved parties could speak their pieces. And almost all of this feeling has involved Russia or communism or both.

Hence it would seem, from sub-surface rumblings traceable to the Golden Gate area, that distrust and dislike of Russia are present where all should be sweetness and light. For this Russia is as much to blame as the opponents of all things communistic, or so it appears from a distance. The Russians at San Francisco have been by turns aggressive, adamant and inscrutable.

But through all this it may be hoped that the delegates and their governments will bear two things in mind. One is Russia's present position; the other is the consequence of Russophobia, as evidenced in Europe today.

To take the second point first, it should be remembered that fear and hatred of communism gave the world Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini. Whatever grandiose devilment they may have dreamed up later, it was their promise of salvation from bolshevism which was largely responsible for their original toehold. And that promised salvation served as a cloak for their tyrannies and atrocities to the very end. In fact, Hitler's anti-communism was almost more ingrained and violent than his anti-Semitism.

As for Russia herself, it is unthinkable that she wants anything but peace. Her land is devastated, her resources depleted, her people near exhaustion. Russia has done a magnificent job, but she could not have won the war single-handed, and she knows it. It is ridiculous to believe, as some people apparently do, that Russia would want to go to war over anything now, let alone embark upon an armed conquest of Europe.

Russia, a kicked-around stepchild after the last war, is insisting today upon her place as a great power and a major contributor to victory. Russian diplomacy is occasionally baffling and generally unpredictable. Americans—government, press and public—have sometimes been abashed by its devious realism, and their diffidence has seemed like weakness and retreat.

But there has been a different attitude at San Francisco. America has been realistic, too. Frankness and plain talk seem now to be the keynote. It looks like the right prescription for settling not insoluble differences.

Private De Lorenzo

An Army Uniform now is dignifying the figure of Thomas V. De Lorenzo, convicted assaulter, self-confessed perjurer, who once told a Congressional committee that as between producing planes for the Navy and winning a pay raise, he would take the raise.

De Lorenzo is the union leader who, though his local had become virtually non-existent, got Draft Director Hershey to intervene in his induction on the ground that he still, as a civilian, was essential to the prosecution of the war.

If De Lorenzo proves a reasonably apt rookie, he may get to the China Coast or the Japanese homeland in time to learn at first hand what would happen to soldiers if many American union leaders shared his attitude toward war production.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Germany's capitulation will release a tornado of military power against the remaining world enemy—Japan.

Japan Tuesday received stern warning from both President Truman and British Prime Minister Churchill of the storm which will rend her until she surrenders unconditionally. Truman, however, injected a significant note which is receiving wide attention. He held up to the Japanese people the advantages of capitulation, and concluded a statement to the press with this:

"If (unconditional surrender) means not prolonging the present agony and suffering of the Japanese in the vain hope of victory.

"Unconditional surrender does not mean the extermination or enslavement of the Japanese people. Makes It Easier

Many congressmen looked on this statement as making it easier for the Japs to quit their suicide war. Some legislators also thought it lent support to rumors of Nipponese peace overtures.

Well, it's legitimate for us to consider the possibilities of an early surrender, if we do so cautiously. The Japanese leaders already know they're beaten, and on this basis the more moderate element might force a termination of the conflict as a matter of horse-sense.

However, we shall be foolish if we don't follow the lead of our high command, which may recognize this possibility but most certainly doesn't accept it as a probability. We are going right ahead with all-out war, which among other things contemplates invasion of Japan.

Death Throes

The fall of Germany is a terrific blow to Japan. The London Daily Mail sums up the situation graphically thus: The Japanese leaders realize what their people are only just beginning to realize—that Germany has been the real outer defense of Japan, that the frontiers of Japan have been protected by the Rhine, that the death throes of the Third Reich are the first spasms of Japan's own death agony, and that Japan without Germany is in much the same unenviable position as a tortoise without its shell.

Coincident with the collapse of Hitlerdom, the Japanese have suffered another capital blow in being routed from Burma. By this great victory the back door to China once more is opened for the movement of vital supplies from the outside world. The great port of Rangoon again is in Allied hands, and ships from the Indian Ocean will be able to steam up the Irrawaddy River to Mandalay, where their cargoes can be transferred to trucks for the tortuous journey over the famous Burma Road to Kunming and Chungking.

Somewhat Obscured

This clearance of Burma has been obscured by the fast-moving events of Europe, but it represents one of the great campaigns of the whole war. It has been a tremendous test of stamina and courage, for it has been fought among fetid jungles which are filled with a myriad of awful forms of death.

Burma has been the shield of Japan's position in Southeast Asia. The loss of this bulwark may prove to be a strategic catastrophe since it uncovers all the Jap-held territory between the China border and Singapore. Malaya and French Indo-China also become vulnerable to Allied attack.

We soon shall see great developments in the Pacific war. One of the earliest will be intensification of the bombardment of the Mikado's home domains. Japan is on the verge of terrible punishment.

This pile of discarded automobile tires (the picture was taken in 1936) is as non-existent today as the Big Rock Candy Mountains—where the cigarettes grew on trees and the springs gushed pure lemonade.

Maybe you remember driving past those junk yards where the homeless jalopies used to rust in the rain, and the pile of tires grew mountain-high.

And then, one day in December, 1941, that mountain became a gold mine!

In a few terrible moments, America's access to the raw rubber of the Indies was cut completely. Throughout America, junk yards, garages, and back yards were scoured for every scrap of precious rubber that could be found. We were on a spot—a bad one.

The fact that we got off the spot is due, to a great extent, to companies such as Phillips. For it was Phillips chemical research ability and Phillips production facilities that produced an important share of the vital butadiene which is so essential to the manufacture of synthetic rubber!

Today, we think we have a well-earned right to stick out our chests—because the Phillips Petroleum Company is one of the largest producers of butadiene in the United States!

With today's ever-increasing emphasis on the chemical production of new and better things from petroleum, let the Phillips 66 Shield remind you that Phillips refineries, in addition to producing gasoline, lubricants, and fuel oils . . . are also gigantic chemical plants pouring out weapons for victory.

Centennial Program Presented By Members Of First Baptist WMU

All circles of the First Baptist Woman's Missionary Union met at the church Monday afternoon for a program on "Consecrating the Centennial to Christ." It was on May 8, 1845, that the Southern Baptist Convention was organized by a small group in Atlanta, Ga.

Members of the Rebekah Circle gave the program under the direction of their chairman, Mrs. Herbert King. After singing the hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers," Mrs. W. H. Hall gave the devotion from the book of Revelation. Mrs. J. M. White led a prayer praising God for a century of glorious achievements.

"The Centennial Crusade" was discussed by Mrs. C. H. Craft, and "A Crusade for Evangelism" by Mrs. O. R. Phillips. Mrs. John Godwin talked on "A Crusade for Enlistment," and Mrs. Herbert King on "A Crusade for Enlarged Gifts." "Centennial Comparisons," a comparison of the achievements in 1845 and 1945 was given by Mrs. A. E. Houck. Mrs. Frank Taylor, and Mrs. A. B. Clements.

Mrs. Clint Dunagan closed the program with a prayer stressing the fact that all members of Woman's Missionary Union may faithfully do their part in the Centennial Crusade.

Business Session
During the business session, Mrs. S. L. Alexander, community missions chairman, presented a group of children from the negro kindergarten. They gave a group of songs and scriptures learned in the school, which is sponsored by the WMUs of the First Baptist and the two negro Baptist churches.

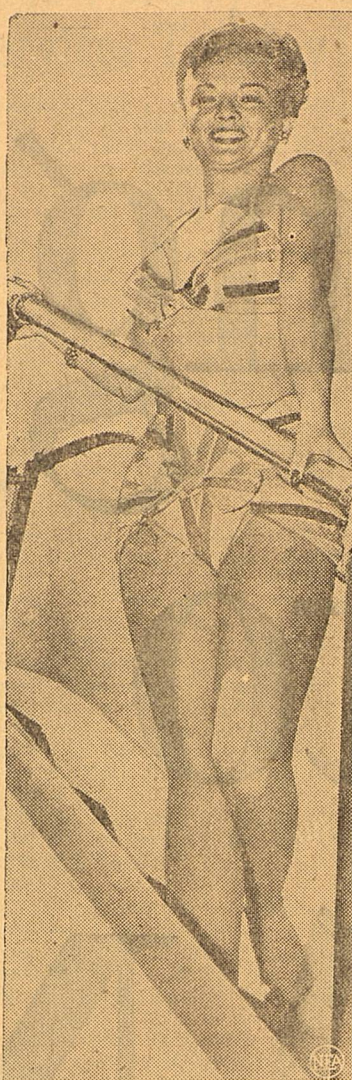

Mrs. R. W. Harris, counselor of the Young Woman's Auxiliary, gave a report of the plans for YWA Focus Week, which opened Monday. Extensive plans have been made for a full week of activities, opening with a reception for the Eloise YWA of Odessa Monday evening.

Hostesses for the afternoon were members of the Mary Elizabeth Truly Circle. Refreshments were served to: Mmes. C. M. Dunagan, G. A. Wakefield, J. C. Dunagan, George Phillips, Russell Howard, J. G. How long will it take to beat JAPAN?

*One Year? Three Years? Five Years? Look at these Facts...
From the Army and Navy. Then Figure it Out for Yourself!*

 In spite of Midway, Bougainville, Tarawa, Saipan, Leyte, Manila, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, and all the other American victories, Japan now controls an area and population far larger than the United States, and with many natural resources greater than ours.

Her home islands are industrialized and organized to the last rivet, the last kilowatt of power, the last pair of human hands.

Japan can put in the field over 4,000,000 well-trained, battle-hardened troops, many with ten years of war behind them. This force is twice as large as all the German armies which defended France, the low countries and the Western front of the Reich against the combined armies of the United States, Britain, Canada and the Free French.

Back of these soldiers are more than 70 million civilians on the Jap home front, firmly indoctrinated in emperor worship—every man, woman and child ready and eager to die for the man they believe is a god.

Japan is fighting on "interior" lines. It's true that its fleet is now much smaller than ours. But never forget that the U. S. Navy has a much bigger job to do.

The Japs have stated, and no thinking man or woman doubts it, that they are prepared to sacrifice 10,000,000 men to hold their empire. To the Japanese, life is cheap. The emperor and the state mean everything—the individual, nothing.

If the war were to end tomorrow, Japan would have put the seal on a conquest greater than Napoleon's.

"But," you say, "the war with Japan won't end tomorrow."

Well, what about it? Will it end "tomorrow," or next month or next year, for you?

Are you planning to quit your war job, stop your blood donations, slacken your bond buying, use black market gas, have more fun, ease up generally?

Before you do, remember that many a gallant American boy, now vibrant with the breath of life, will die at the hands of the Japs.

How many?

Thousands? Certainly. Hundreds of thousands? Probably.

Well, how many?

That's up to you.

How you can help

- 1 Keep that war job!
- 2 Keep buying Bonds!
- 3 Keep doing all your country asks!

at it again Tuesday, sinking a cruiser and damaging two other U. S. ships.

Nimitz reported only that the Third Fleet bombarded the enemy's highly fortified Okinawa line for the third day and fired illuminating shells to prevent night infiltrations. The first Japanese counterattack on Mindanao in the Southern Philippines smashed through a thin American line near Davao, isolating a battalion of the 24th Division. District Governor Pays Official Visit To Midland Lions

Members of Midland's Lions Club were told something of the scope and magnitude of Lionism by Lee Johnson of Wink, district governor, at their meeting Wednesday noon in the Crystal Ballroom of the Scharbauer Hotel. It was the official visit of the governor to the club.

Lionism originated at Dallas in 1917, Johnson said. Since that time it has grown to more than 4,700 clubs in 15 nations, all on the Allied side in the war. There now are 205,000 active members of Lions Clubs, and 25,000 more are in the armed forces.

Concludes 70,000 Projects
Lions Clubs brought to a successful conclusion more than 70,000 worthwhile projects in the past year, the speaker asserted.

In Texas there are 340 clubs with a membership of more than 17,000. The Rev. Hubert Hopper, president, who presided, appointed a nominating committee composed of J. S. Noland, Frank Stubbeman and Joe Mims to suggest new officers for the next year. The committee will report in two weeks and the new officers will be chosen the second week in June.

Paul Nelson was presented with a past president's button.

Robert Bunnelle Is Suspended By SHAEF

LONDON —(P)—SHAEF Wednesday notified Robert Bunnelle, managing executive for The Associated Press in the United Kingdom, that he was suspended as a war correspondent in the European theater of operations.

It is assumed that the suspension was ordered in connection with the SHAEF investigation of the story on Germany's surrender, filed Monday by Edward Kennedy, chief of the Paris AP Bureau.

troops and former Nazi collaborators as well as Germans marred the celebration in Copenhagen.

Despite three earlier talks Prime Minister Churchill appeared on the balcony of the Ministry of Health at Whitehall Tuesday night and exchanged repartee with thousands jam-packed into that section.

He reminded the British that "one deadly foe has been cast on the ground and awaits our judgment and our mercy. But there is another foe who occupies large portions of the British empire—a foe stained with cruelty and greed—the Japanese."

admitted deliberate violation of SHAEF regulations and breach of confidence."

Distributed Statement
Kennedy distributed his statement to correspondents accredited to SHAEF and the Paris press. It was the first time Kennedy, speaking for himself, had presented his case. Previous efforts of the AP, made in direct messages to its Paris bureau and also to Gen. Eisenhower, had failed to obtain a statement from Kennedy, who, under suspension, was not permitted to communicate directly with his home office.

His statement said:
"I saw the representative of the existing German government sign the agreement of unconditional surrender."

"No Security Involved"
"I was informed by a representative of SHAEF (Supreme Headquarters) public relations that, although no issue of military security was involved, SHAEF public relations intended to suppress this news from the public until a later time."

"I informed a representative of SHAEF public relations that I could not accept this view, since it had been conceded that no military security was involved and that I intended to send this story."

"I sent the story."

Brig. Gen. Frank A. Allen Jr., director of Supreme Headquarters' public relations division, declined to comment on Kennedy's statement.

poured into the streets—some still clad in pajamas and nightgowns. Many wept openly, some fell on their knees in prayer. Everywhere people were shaking hands, embracing and kissing one another on tear-wet cheeks.

"It's over, Thank God, it's over," was a cry so recurrent among the women that it sounded like a choral chant.

For Russia—the only one of the three great powers not at war with Japan—the news really meant the dawn of peace.

Had Had No Word
Up to the moment of Levitan's broadcast announcement the Russian people had no word—not even an official hint—that Germany had surrendered.

Levitan followed his announcement with a special order from President Michael Kalinin decreeing a public holiday.

It did not take long for the word to spread. Children in stocking feet dashed through apartment houses and up and down the streets, beating on doors and crying:
"Wake up, Wake up! Victory! Victory!"

Officers and soldiers in uniform were besieged by delightfully joyful women, who threw their arms about the men and smothered them with kisses. A regular lineup queued in front of a handsome young captain who happened to be caught downtown in the crowd about 2:45 a. m.

The strains of the Soviet national anthem, the Star Spangled Banner and God Save The King mingled as the celebrants gave vent to their feelings in song.

Midland Churches Hold V-E Day Services Tuesday

Special services of thanksgiving for the end of war in the European theater were held in churches of the city on Tuesday, V-E Day. The First Methodist Church was filled to capacity for the union service held at noon.

Raymond Hall directed the music heard at the evening services at the First Baptist Church. Prayer and scripture readings were heard and memorial services conducted for four service men of the church who paid the supreme sacrifice in the war. A girls' ensemble presented a group of songs and formed a lighted cross with candles where a girls' trio knelt as they sang, "We Pray For Peace."

Calvary Baptist
A season of prayer and thanksgiving hymns were featured for the services at the Calvary Baptist Church. The Rev. A. W. Smith, pastor, used as his subject message, "The Victory That Overcomes."

Members of the First Presbyterian Church gathered in the church auditorium during the evening for prayer and thanksgiving service. Mrs. R. W. Harris was at the organ and Merl Cornelius led the singing.

Rev. R. J. Snell conducted the prayer service held at the Trinity Episcopal Church.

St. George
St. George Catholic Church observed V-E Day with morning mass at the church. The MAAP mass of thanksgiving was offered at 12:15 p. m. at the post chapel. The Catholic military choir under the direction of Blanche E. Dunsby sang a Solemn Te Deum (Gregorian). Low mass followed, offered by Chaplain James F. Orford, S.J., during which the choir sang the Gregorian hymn for Easter season, "O Filii Et Filiae" by Tisserand, and "Ave Maria" by Arcadelt (15th Century). Preceding the communion, First Lieutenant William Vogel sang the 12th Century crusader's hymn, "O God Of Loveliness." At the conclusion of mass, the prayer for world peace was recited in concert by the entire congregation after which all present joined in singing "America."

The Christian Science Society held services at 8 p. m. in the private dining room of the Scharbauer Hotel.

No Shows Yet
Humble No. 2 Word, North-Central Pecos County exploration in Mrs. E. J. Carlton survey No. 601, about 11 miles northeast of Fort Stockton, had resumed drilling at 7,673 feet, in Ellenburger dolomite, after coring and drillstem testing from 7,656 feet to 7,673 feet and having no shows of petroleum or water.

Flugging-Back
Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Martin, West-Central Andrews County development in section 13, block A-47, psl survey, was to plug-back with 25 sacks of cement, from current plug-back at 8,780 feet. No commercial oil had been developed so far.

Chalmette Petroleum Corporation
No. 1 Lakeshore fee, in section 24, block A-26, psl survey, north and east of production in the Union-Fullerton area, in Northwest Andrews, was to plug back to about 4,940 feet, to test a showing of oil in the Sandres. It was dry in the Fullerton, and in the section below which had shown slight indications of oil.

To Squeeze Water
Continental Oil Company No. 1-D Settles, South Howard County possible discovery for production in the Strawn-Pennsylvanian, was to drill out cement, from current plugged-back total depth of 9,260 feet to 9,310 feet, to squeeze off water zone which had put considerable black, brackish water in the hole after the section at 9,100-9,200 feet had been acidized.

Presidio Oil Corporation
No. 1 Conning, in section 102, block 4, H&TC survey, in Presidio County, had resumed drilling, at 2,535 feet, after being shutdown for some time, and had reached 2,680 feet in blue shale, and was drilling ahead toward its new objective of 4,500 feet.

In Ellenburger
Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1-A TXL, West Ector County discovery for Silurian production, had reached 9,640 feet, and was said to have topped the Ellenburger at 9,610 feet, on an elevation of 3,292 feet.

Operator had conditioned the hole to take a drillstem test, with packer at 9,600 feet.

The Atlantic Refining Company No. 1-A University, in section 33, block 31, University survey, possible discovery for Devonian production, in East-Central Crane County, had progressed to 8,070 feet in line and chert, and was slated to run a drillstem test, after some more hole had been cut.

German planes came from.

Reopened Fire
The patriot radio earlier said last-ditch Nazi SS fanatics reopened fire at 7:50 a. m. (6:30 p. m., Central War Time Tuesday), almost two hours after the agreed deadline for cessation of hostilities.

Later, the station calling itself the Prague Radio, broadcast a message to Czech President Edouard Benes saying: "The city of Prague and surrounding country has been cleared of German occupants and we will rejoice at your return to the capital." Benes' government presently is at Kosice (Kassa) in Slovakia.

"All the Germans have capitulated," the same station said.

Final Humiliation
The final humiliation was delivered Tuesday to the Nazi regime. No more striking evidence of the totality of German defeat could have been conceived than the ceremony amid the wreckage of Berlin, where the surrender was ratified.

There Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the German general staff, and his aides met with Allied and Russian representatives — Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder for Britain Gen. Carl Spaatz for the United States, Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov for Soviet Russia, and Gen. de Tassigny for the French.

One far-flung point of German resistance evaporated Tuesday. The German commander of the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean Sea, Gen. Wagener, surrendered with 10,000 troops. There was no word early Wednesday from Crete, last Nazi outpost in the Mediterranean.

TRANSPORT CRASH KILLS 30
LONDON —(P)— More than 30 persons were killed Sunday in the crash of a U. S. transport plane on a flight from the Continent to England, it was disclosed.

5,063 feet in San Andres-Permian lime.

A core at 5,045-63 feet, recovered six feet. There was one foot of black shale, and five feet of brown dolomite, with a slight oil stain and some porosity.

Stanford No. 1
Slaughter, deep exploration in Central Cochran, in labor 49, league 101, Jeff Davis County School Land survey, was bottomed at 10,839 feet, and was taking a Schlumberger.

May Be Granite
Some sources reported the test had gone into granite. Top of the section had been called. It is understood there was some granite wash above the solid granite.

The Texas Company No. 1-B Fraser, West Ector County wildcat, testing the Silurian between 9,105-9,339 feet, was swabbing, with 6,000 feet of fluid in the hole. Recovery in eight hours was 8.97 barrels, mostly water, with a slight show of oil. The hole is not cleaned out from acid injection.

Russians Pay America Greatest Tribute Ever

MOSCOW —(P)— Thousands of wildly-celebrating Muscovites gathered in front of the U. S. embassy Wednesday afternoon shouting "long live America!" in the greatest spontaneous tribute to the United States ever staged here.

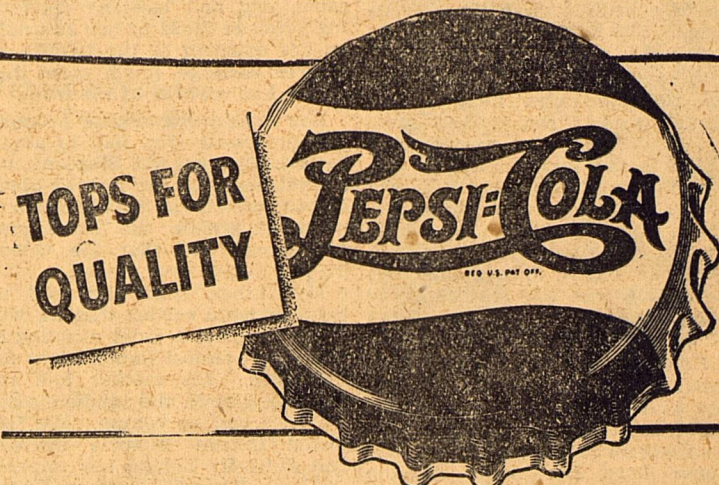

"Long live America! Long live Truman! Long live the memory of Roosevelt! Long live the great American people!" they shouted.

Officers, non-coms, privates, and members of the diplomatic staff flocked out of the embassy, joining the demonstration. Russians kissed them, beat them on the backs and lifted them into the air.

Uncle Sam's Best Friends Are His Mothers

No question about it, essential war worker Number One is Mother. What a day . . . every day! All of the chores of peacetime and more —stretching ration points and still keeping the family well nourished . . . preparing bandages . . . salvaging paper, cans and fats . . . budgeting for War Bonds and holding onto them . . . tending her Victory Garden and preserving its surplus . . . ending a long day by writing morale-building V-Mail.

We've all made an important discovery in the last three years—that our nation is one big family whose every member is essential to our country's will to win. There's a new understanding of the other fellow's problems . . . a new appreciation of our individual ability and resourcefulness. We've seen with pride what our younger generation can accomplish . . . and we're determined to safeguard their right to opportunity in the land they call Home.

The women of America have proved their resourcefulness in the kitchen in countless ways. Many have discovered that a glass of cold, golden Budweiser makes their simple wartime meals taste better.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE

By Virginia Chase

EARLY in February Cousin Victoria wrote us that she would board for the remainder of the winter at the American House. Balmoral was getting too much for her. She would arrive, she announced, on the afternoon of the fifteenth. (Cousin Victoria never consulted anyone's convenience. She merely announced her own.)

"I suppose we should be thankful for the extra money," my mother said. "But it does seem a little strange." What she meant was, "This is the last straw."

"She won't stay a week, if she comes," my father assured her. "You know Victoria. As likely as not, she won't turn up at all. Someone ought to convince her that the Queen was steadfast," he added with a wink at the three of us.

Cousin Victoria had always imitated the Queen. From girlhood she had studied pictures of the royal costumes, and, being an expert seamstress, copied them. Her home bore the name of the Queen's. Her dog, now buried under the lilac bush, had been called Dash. Reading once that the Queen had gobbled her food, Cousin Victoria had formed the habit, too, and as a result was constantly "in distress." Naturally she kept a Journal, which now in her seventy-third year had reached its eighty-second volume. This was her second most valued possession. Her first was a letter, dated Nov. 16, 1898, from a Lady-in-Waiting to the Queen herself, replying to Cousin Victoria's cabled felicitations upon the Jubilee of 1897.

Like the Queen, Cousin Victoria was a widow, and still (ostensibly) grieving. Her husband's picture hung above the fireplace in the parlor of Balmoral, delicately mustached and whiskered. His name, discordantly, had been Hiram, a circumstance which Cousin Victoria had found hard to bear. She was childless. When she lamented this state, you had the feeling that her grief was less for the children she lacked than for the opportunity she had missed of presenting them with royal names.

INSTEAD of arriving on the afternoon of the fifteenth, as she had announced, Cousin Victoria came, bag and baggage (including volumes 76-82 of her Journal) on the morning of the twelfth in a hired carriage, much upset that no one had met her at the train.

She was a handsome woman. She possessed—you had to admit it—a truly regal air. Stepping out of that carriage, her hair as black as her bonnet, her eyes bright and her body nimble, she had a good deal about her that the Queen herself might have envied.

My father, who had told us only an hour earlier that he was going to spend a quiet morning at home, left almost immediately for his office. My mother had responsibilities in the kitchen. But we girls had no escape. We followed Cousin Victoria upstairs and dutifully helped her unpack. Cousin Victoria's room was next to the parlor and facing the village. It was the best room in the American House. "If I put her there in the first place," my mother said, "there won't be any excuse for her wanting to change." But Cousin Victoria took nothing on faith. Before we could unpack a bag she had to be shown every bedroom, including our own. Then, satisfied, at least temporarily, she allowed us to help her settle.

In selecting Cousin Victoria's bedroom, my mother had thought of its convenience to the parlor, where she had planned for her to sit during the day with her crocheting.

Cousin Victoria used her spare time and surplus energy in making lace for edging. This never wore out. A pair of drawers might fall into shreds, but the lace remained as good as ever. In order that none should be wasted, my mother used it lavishly around nems, necklines, and even arm-holes. We girls had hardly a spot on us that had not at one time or another been scratched by it. (Cousin Victoria had a very embarrassing way of lifting our skirts to see how it was wearing.) Roll after roll lay untouched in her work basket. Yet she kept right on. . . .

BUT Cousin Victoria soon made it clear that she didn't care for the parlor. She preferred the sociability of the office. She ignored Mr. Cutter—as she did all the help—but she relished the drummers. One of them couldn't be in the office five minutes before she knew his product, his route, his schedules, and the size of his family. Even the most agile couldn't escape her, for she had her chair right by the door with another drawn up beside it. If a victim started by, she seized his forearm, and under her grip even the strongest wilted.

This distressed my mother terribly. Something had to be done, she said.

Something was. During the morning Cousin Victoria wrote in her Journal, but during the remainder of the day keeping her away from the office became another of our chores.

There were just two ways you could keep her in the parlor. One was to get her to give you a lesson in lace making; the other was to get her to read aloud from one of her Journals. (These were underlined, of course, in the manner of the Queen.) Since long and intimate association had made us detest the lace, we usually promoted the Journals. They were dull reading. "Awakened at seven. Lay until seven-fifteen. For breakfast oatmeal, prunes, gooseberry jam, toasted muffin. Two cups of tea. (Green.) Recorded the books of F. of the R. F. Branch 2. Found them in good order. Re-read In Memoriam. Here follows my reflections on it. . . . Those reflections might cover from 10 to 20 pages.

We began to think more longingly than ever of the time when vacation would be over.

Thursday Is Mother's Day In Old Mexico

MEXICO CITY.—(AP)—Thursday is Mother's Day in Mexico.

It is called "The Day of the Mexican Mother" and presents are distributed as in the United States.

Mrs. Soledad Orozco de Avila Camacho, the president's wife, will give a month's supply of provisions to each of a number of mothers of poor families.

The defense department will award to mothers of men serving in the Mexican Expeditionary Air Force, the famous 201st Fighter Squadron, a diploma testifying she has given a son to Mexico. The squadron is now in the Philippines with MacArthur.

While the suit directing convention has a lot of possibilities, do not think that you can use it on every hand or you will spoil your game. But there are many sound ways in which the convention can be employed.

Popcorn Vendor Pays $10 For Victory Paper

SANTA FE, N. M.—(AP)—The paper shortage wasn't that acute, but popcorn vendor James Zervos paid $10 for a newspaper telling of Germany's capitulation.

Months ago he advertised offering that amount to the first newsboy bringing him a paper with word of the surrender. He kept his word, and Alfred Rivera, 15, cashed the $10 check on which Zervos noted: "For the surrender of the German murderers."

Used Car Ceiling Do Not Apply To Insurance

DALLAS.—(AP)—Federal Judge William H. Atwell ruled here Tuesday that Office of Price Administration used car ceilings can not be applied to insurance adjustments when a car is destroyed by fire.

The ruling was in a case brought by Don F. Tierney of Dallas against the General Exchange Insurance Corporation.

King Leopold III Faces Uncertain Future

LONDON.—(AP)—Liberated by American troops after five years of Nazi imprisonment, King Leopold III of Belgium Wednesday faced a future beset with uncertainty.

The 43-year-old monarch and his queen, a commoner whom he married while a prisoner, were rescued by U. S. Seventh Army doughboys who overpowered German SS (Elite Guard) troops guarding the royal party at Strobl, eight miles east of Salzburg in Austria.

With the king and queen were 18 members of their staff and their four children.

Some Belgians resent bitterly the fact that Leopold did not flee to an Allied haven, as did the queen of the Netherlands.

Temple's 'Killer Kollege' To Operate As Usual

TEMPLE.—(AP)—The surrender of Germany changed nothing but a few names at Camp Hood's famed "Killer Kollege."

The "Gestapo Village" and the buildings down its bullet-marked streets will be given Japanese names but the training will be about the same, Brig. Gen. Thomas F. Bresnahan said Tuesday.

Infantry trainees went right on training on V-E Day. They marched, crawled through the infiltration course, sowed and breached mine fields, assaulted mock enemy fortifications, raided enemy villages, shot rifles and bazookas, machine guns and rockets.

"He's carrying her books again. Guess her Mother got in a new supply of Wheaties."

Annie's got "It." Yes, Wheaties. Big flakes of good whole wheat—with all the bran. Roasted honey brown, toasted crispy fresh. And flavored just right to make a big hit with the younger generation. Give 'em lots of milk, fruit, and Wheaties. "Breakfast of Champions." And save a big bowlful for yourself.

Army Plans Extensive Athletic Program In European Countries

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Now that the war with Germany is over, the Army will swing swiftly into Allied athletic championships in Europe. The purpose of these games is to keep combat men physically and mentally fit for the occupation job in Europe and for carrying on the war with Japan.

The athletic branch of the Army Service Forces also will start a vast program in the Pacific Theater.

Approximately $7,500,000 worth of athletic equipment is available for the games in Europe, and plans are well under way for starting competitions soon.

The Army hopes to get almost every man in Europe into some form of competition.

Paris, Rome and London will serve as key points for these eliminations.

OBTAIN MARRIAGE LICENSE

SMU Meets Longhorn Nine In Austin

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Texas Longhorn baseball team meets the Southern Methodist Mustangs here Wednesday in the first of a two-game series. The second game is scheduled for Thursday.

If the Mustangs win both games, they would pass the Longhorns in the Southwest Conference standings and grab first place.

Coach Redman Hume of SMU said his charges were hitting better in practice Tuesday than they have at any time this season.

Jack Barry Today

Jack Barry, above, shortstop of Connie Mack's $100,000 infield of 30-odd years ago, launched his 25th season as Holy Cross coach by seeing 18-year-old southpaw freshman Jack Tivnan pitch a no-hit, no-run game repelling Charlestown, R. I., Naval Air Base, 7-0.

Sportsmen Await Lifting Of Racing Ban By Vinson

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Sportsmen confidently expected War Mobilizer Fred M. Vinson to lift the ban on racing Wednesday.

Vinson called a 10 a. m. (CWT) news conference, and his office said, "Yes, there will be a statement on racing, one way or the other."

From various sources, word came that the prohibition probably will be abolished by Vinson.

James F. Byrne's, former mobilizer and the man who shut the tracks down last Jan. 3, recommended before his resignation that racing be allowed to resume operations after V-E Day.

Will Take Two Weeks
Turf officials said that preliminary preparations were well under way for re-opening of the tracks in about two weeks after the ban is lifted.

Schedules have been drawn tentatively with the Kentucky Derby set for early in June and the Preakness and Belmont Stakes following in their regular order.

Meanwhile, the War Department suspended indefinitely a resolution requiring review of all cases of professional athletes rejected in the draft.

House To Home

CHILLESFORD, SUFFOLK, ENGLAND—(AP)—Because he will not have his wife made an "unpaid domestic drudge," Rev. Arthur Snell is moving out of his 20-room rectory into a cottage which used to be rented at three shillings (67 cents) a week.

According to estimates of astronomers 15,000,000 shooting stars appear in the heavens every 24 hours.

St. Louis Rocks Washington 7-1 At Sportsman's Park

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
St. Louis greeted the Eastern visitors like long lost brothers Wednesday after the overdue Browns rocked Washington, 7-1, in the first intersectional tilt of the season.

It was against the brethren from the Atlantic Seaboard that Luke Sewell's 1944 "Cinderella Gang" clinched the American League flag a year ago and Sportsman's Park customers were hoping the new edition could pull out of the second division in the long home stand ahead.

Nelson Potter, the ace in the hole who was the "stopper" for the Browns last season, turned in his best job of the season with a brilliant three-hitter.

Rookie Outfielder Boris Martin, counted heavily in Sewell's winter plans off his 350 season in Toledo, finally began to come through with a single, double and triple off Johnny Niggeling and Reliefer Al Carasquel.

Embrease Makes Grade
Fred Embrease, another promising freshman who had failed to hit the win circle, finally made it in pitching Cleveland to a 7-1 decision over the league-leading Chicago White Sox.

Cincinnati's night tilt with the New York Giants was washed out but rescheduled for Wednesday night and Skipper Bill McKechnie announced he was benching Shortstop Kermit Wahl for Walt Flager, up from Birmingham.

Philadelphia, St. Louis and Boston took advantage of the off day to plug lineup gaps. The Phils sent Outfielder Buster Adams back to the Cards again for two infielders. Shortstop Glenn Crawford and Third Baseman John Antonelli, thus apparently forecasting the removal of Jimmy Foxx and Wes Hamner from the lineup. The Braves acquired Veteran Left-hander Bob Logan from Indianapolis for Pitcher Ben Cardoni, Infielder Ben Geraghty and two others to be named later.

Gray Likely To Reach Yankee Stadium May 27

CHICAGO—(AP)—It looks like Pete Gray, the St. Louis Browns' phenomenal one-armed outfielder, will realize his greatest desire.

Pete, whose real name is Peter Wyshner, sat in the stands of Yankee Stadium a few years back when the late Lou Gehrig, baseball's "Iron Man," officially bowed out of the game because of the malady that eventually caused his death.

As Pete tells it, he said to himself that afternoon: "Boy, I just want to play one game as a major leaguer in this park."

After a sensational record in the minors, Gray apparently is a cinch for that. The Browns go into Yankee Stadium May 27 and, barring injury, Gray probably will be in the outfield.

NEW YORK—(AP)—When the University of Kentucky basketball team beat Marquette on a last-second basket from mid-court a few years ago, Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler, then governor of Kentucky, drove a spike into the floor to mark the spot from which the winning shot was fired. . . . Any gags about what he'll have to spike in baseball are your own responsibility. . . . One thousand seats will be eliminated in the Griffith Stadium for Washington Redskins football games next fall, giving each customer two inches more space and giving Owner George P. Marshall a headache.

WEDNESDAY'S GUEST STAR
Porter Wiltich, Joplin, Mo., Globe: "Of Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler's $50,000 salary, the government gets more than $26,000. So the commissioner now knows what is meant by a double steal."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Athletic Director Dale Arbuckle of Oklahoma U. announced that all 1945 home football games will be returned to Norman as a result of the end of the war in Europe. Hadn't that ruling about playing on "home" fields reached Oklahoma yet? Well, it still stands. . . . Joe McCarthy took two of his Yankee coaches to a Boston art gallery the other day to see some winter-landscapes by Aldro Thompson Hibbard. Joe didn't explain whether it was because Hibbard had a trout with the White Sox in 1907 or because he wanted the guys to see just how the opposition should be snowed under.

SERVICE DEPT.

The Eastern Flying Training Command plans to have another big football team based at Maxwell Field, Ala., next fall and is working on a 10 or 11 game schedule. . . . Lt. Jim Reed, formerly one of the more prolific Mid-Western sports scribes, means that he does more writing in the Army than he ever did on a sports desk. Jim's public relations task at Miami Beach, Fla., calls for separate hometown stories on each wounded soldier who lands there from Europe.

25 Years

Holding old friends and making new ones is fundamental with an organization that completes its 25th consecutive year of service.

Dallas Union Trust Company is still serving clients it first served 25 years ago and the many, many more acquired through the ensuing years.

We feel that any acknowledgment of this achievement would be incomplete without a public expression of our deep appreciation to our friends who have made it possible.

Pro Keeps Golf Balls In Safe Deposit Box

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. —(AP)—Tom Kerrigan, veteran Siwanoy golf pro, doesn't believe in taking chances. He keeps his supply of new golf balls in a safe deposit box in a local bank.

The last time Kerrigan visited the bank, the owner of a machine shop was putting his dies back in the vault next to the golf balls. The dies, valued at $100,000, are taken out each morning and put back in the vault every night.

What's In A Name Say These Brownies

CHICAGO —(AP)—Three players with the American League champion St. Louis Browns have changed their names for the benefit of baseball fans.

Len Schulte's full name is Leonard B. Schultenhenrich, Boris (Babe) Martin's correct name is Boris Martinovich, and Pete Gray's real name is Peter Wyshner.

It Is Later Than You Think, They Hope

JOLIET, ILL.—(AP)—A sign printed on a wall of a war work shop in the Stateville penitentiary reads: "Every Minute Counts." Under it, in the longhand scrawl of an inmate, is this footnote: "Let's hope so!"

In What Spare Time?

CHICAGO—(AP)—A man of parts—and many of them—is Gordon Sherman. At 17, he's a top-flight gymnast and student at the University of Chicago. He paints with oils and draws with pen, ink and crayon. He's a sculptor, pianist and taxidermist. In his spare time he built a bagpipe. Plays it, too, in a band.
