Ku Klux Klan Infiltrated, Says Hoover

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover told Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Tuesday that the FBI has infiltrated the Ku Klux Klan and other racist groups much as it did the Communist party, it was learned after the two had chatted in the FBI director's office.

And, King told reporters after the 1¼-hour session, Hoover indicated arrests will be made in the next few days in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

King requested the meeting and Hoover agreed to it. There was no comment from the FBI director afterward, but King, a leader in the Negroes' drive for equal opportunities and rights, told newsmen: "I might say the discussion was quite amicable."

Last month, Hoover departed from his general practice of not granting interviews and told a group of women reporters King was "the most notorious liar in this country."

King, a minister and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, had claimed FBI agents in Georgia, because they were Southerners, did not investigate complaints from Negroes.

Later, the Negro leader said Hoover "has apparently faltered under the awesome burden, complexities and responsibilities of his office."

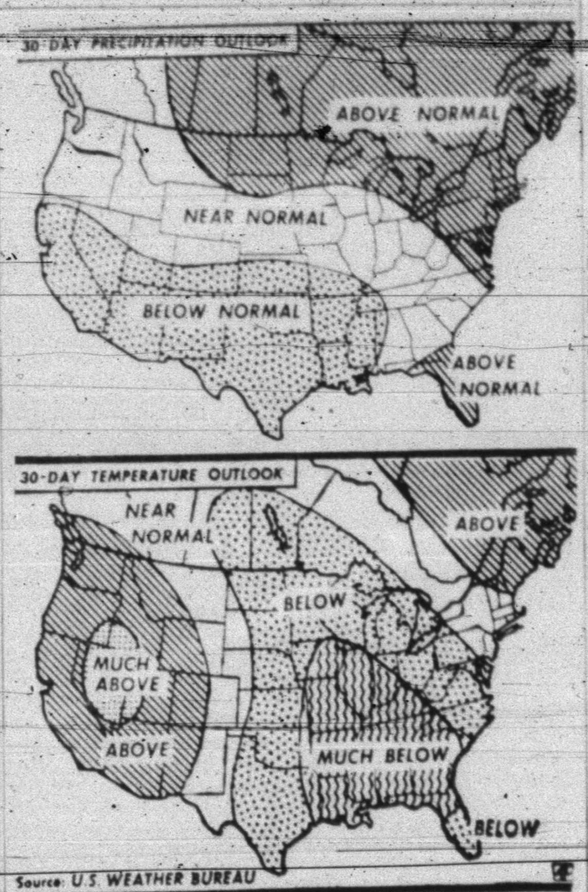

Hoover's disclosure of FBI infiltration into racist organizations is the first to this effect. His comment that arrests in the Philadelphia slayings will be made in the next few days follows an FBI announcement of last week that "we know who is responsible."

Last Aug. 4, FBI agents found the bodies of the three rights workers — Michael H. Schwerner, 24, Andrew Goodman, 20, and James E. Chaney, 21 — in a recently built earth dam five miles southwest of the Mississippi city. They had disappeared June 21.

Last week an FBI spokesman said "it has not yet been possible to obtain evidence or confessions that would insure successful prosecution." Tuesday spokesmen for the FBI refused to pinpoint the day the arrests Hoover spoke of would be made.

Otherwise, it was learned that in the talk between Hoover and King:

King expressed appreciation to Hoover for what the FBI has accomplished in the South and said it had overcome many obstacles.

Two Perish In Blizzard

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Men and snow removal equipment in northern and eastern Maine labored today to clear highways of heavy drifted snow that stranded hundreds of travelers in a chaotic white night mare.

The snow Tuesday skipped past most of the Atlantic Coast but smacked sections of Maine. Driven by winds which sometimes reached 60 miles an hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet.

At least two persons died Tuesday in the blizzard which heaped nearly two feet of snow on Eastport and heavy amounts on other areas of Hancock, Washington and Aroostook counties.

Snow and cold prevailed across the northern half of the nation from the Rockies to the western slopes of the Appalachians.

Freezing weather again nipped areas deep in the Southland, with the mercury dropping to 24 in Macon, Ga., and 29 in Tallahassee, Fla., Montgomery, Ark., and Albany, Ga. The below zero belt covered northern Midwest areas with 11 below at Grand Forks, N.D., one of the lower readings.

The temperature in Maine was in the low teens in northern sections.

At least two deaths, both in Maine, have been attributed to the storm. A 72-year-old Bangor, Maine, woman, Helen Stoddard, died apparently of exhaustion after struggling through foot-deep drifts. Near Presque Isle, Maine, Elmer K. Stackhouse, a snowplow operator, was found dead as the storm abated.

Hundreds of Maine motorists were stranded Monday night as the swirling snow piled ever deeper on highways. About 100 persons crammed into a service station at Machias. At Presque Isle every hotel, motel or rooming house space was taken by travelers blocked by the storm.

Sections of U. S. 1 were clogged by snow or by traffic jams of up to 50 cars and trucks.

Off Nova Scotia, near Halifax, the 3,800-ton Liberian freighter Fury was driven aground by winds estimated as high as 90 m.p.h. and high waves.

The Furty, with 18 men aboard, was tossed about so vigorously that she lost several lifeboats and both anchors.

Rescue ships struggled through the storm-tossed seas to reach the disabled craft.

Another craft, the fishing vessel the Friars, out of New Bedford, Mass., was buffeted by the high seas some 90 miles southeast of Nantucket Island, off the Massachusetts coast. A Coast Guard rescue ship reached her side and stood by to help as the Friars struggled toward port.

Brazil Says Peron Cannot Stay There

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Ex-dictator Juan D. Peron arrived in Rio de Janeiro today on the first stage of his return to Argentina, but the Brazilian government refused to let him continue his journey.

"He will not go on" to Montevideo, said Joao Lampreia Gracie, chief of protocol for the Brazilian Foreign Ministry who was at the airport to meet the Iberia airliner that brought the former dictator from Madrid.

Lampreia said Peron would be returned to Madrid.

Peron had planned to fly to Montevideo, the Uruguayan capital, and transfer there to a plane for Asuncion, Paraguay. He was to take up residence in Paraguay until he felt the time ripe for him to return to Argentina.

Lampreia said Peron is persona non grata in Brazil and as such was not permitted to touch Brazilian territory. Since he had violated this, Lampreia said, he would be returned to his point of origin.

It was reported unofficially that Peron, 69, would be detained at the military section of the Rio airfield until the Iberia plane heads back to Madrid tonight.

Spanish officials had indicated earlier, however, that Peron might not be allowed to return to Spain if his trip failed. They said this would be decided by the Spanish government in agreement with the Argentine government.

"But this (Peron's return to Spain) would be very difficult," one official said, "because he has openly broke the conditions under which he came to Spain."

A major condition of Peron's asylum in Spain was that he would not engage publicly in politics.

In Buenos Aires, Argentina's defense minister said the Argentine armed forces would bar any attempt to restore Peron —driven from his homeland in 1955—to power.

President Arturo Illia was awakened during the night for an urgent meeting with Defense Minister Leopoldo Suarez, Interior Minister Juan Palmero and top army and navy officers.

5 SHARE FINAL PRIZE IN FOOTBALL CONTEST

The Snyder Daily News Football Contest closed its season just as it began — with an acute case of upsetitis.

The final weekend of the contest season found favorites falling on all sides, from top-ranked Notre Dame in the college ranks down to the Texas High School playoffs. It was reflected in the contest when nine misses out of 26 selections was good enough for a share of the prize money.

The closing contest of the season found five entrants claiming the prize. So, the $15 (which includes $2.50 carried over from last week) will be divided into five shares.

The week's winners are Jamie Ward, 3200 Hill Avenue; Robert Hobbs, 314 Thirty-second Street; Frank Overton, Route 1, Snyder; Jimmy Vaught, Box 835, Snyder and Jane Ann Cotton, 3774 Dalton, Snyder.

And that winds it up for 1964. See you next season.

Huge Crowds Greet Pope Paul In India

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

BOMBAY, India (AP) — A gigantic, fervent sea of humanity surged around Pope Paul VI as he arrived today, saying "we come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace of joy and love."

After the longest mission ever undertaken by a pontiff, the Pope for 1½ hours, over a distance of 13 miles was encompassed by hundreds of thousands. They pressed against his car and at times seeming almost to spill over it. Police estimated there were 100,000 at the airport and more than one million along the way.

It was an enormous reception, in the view of veteran observers surpassing any in recent Indian history.

All around, covering the fields and hills and running forward like a stampede, the vast landscape of humanity sought to keep abreast of the motorcade.

The pontiff, 67, riding in an open white Lincoln convertible, alternately smiled and looked about in wonderment, waving almost continuously and occasionally pressing a dark hand stretched to him.

Security guards on either side pushed and shouted to hold back the crush that often slowed the car to a crawl.

Pope Paul called his trip here a "journey of peace and love" and of "friendship and brotherliness."

"All men are brothers under the fatherhood of divinity," he said on his arrival.

There was no single incident, although police had been prepared for hostile acts from fanatical Hindu sects opposed to the papal visit to attend the 38th International Eucharistic Congress.

Wearing a white skull cap, a red silk stole and a red brocade cape at the end of the 4,000-mile journey, Pope Paul walked down a 40-foot red carpet spread from the ramp of the plane.

Waiting to greet him were Prime Minister Lal Bahadur at first to have opposed the Pope's visit to Hindu India; and Vice President Zakir Hussain, a Moslem.

"We rejoice in the honor of meeting you," the Pope said in his address to Shastri and Hussain.

After praising India for its efforts for world peace, the Pope added:

"We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love. We greet all the Indian people, every man, woman and child. And we extend our greeting to all the nations of Asia, to every nation in the world."

While there were nearly 100,000 Indians at the airport, many barefoot and wearing the dhoti or robe of their impoverished land, only about 8,000 were permitted to enter the airport. Many of those were Indian Catholics.

Chamber Elects New Directors

Six new directors of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce were elected Tuesday night to serve for a two-year period beginning Jan. 1.

The new directors are Charles Blakey, Ed Dickerson, Billy McCormick, Dr. Jack Nesbit, Bill Seale and R. E. Weber.

The new directors were elected as the result of the mail ballots cast by members of the Chamber. More than 150 ballots were received.

The new directors and officers will be presented at the Chamber of Commerce banquet in January.

A nominating committee consisting of H. A. Johnson, Jr., chairman, and Bentley Baize, Dr. Nesbit and Bill Seale was appointed by chamber president John Boren to nominate officers for the coming year. That committee will meet this month.

Holdover directors are Bentley Baize, Joe Carroll, Herb Feather, H. A. Johnson, Jr., Felix Jones and Doug McGlaun. Ex-officio members of the board next year will be Mrs. Sallie Blythe, representing the Business and Professional Women's Club; Dean Floyd, representing the Jaycees; and John Boren, immediate past president.

Directors whose terms will expire at the end of the month are Gene Best, Carl Whitfield, Paul Sizemore, Sterling Parker, Guy Sullivan and R. C. Patton.

Only three of the new directors were able to attend last night's meeting after being informed of their election. They were welcomed to the chamber's board and heard a review of the last year's activities.

No date has been set for the annual January Chamber of Commerce banquet, but plans are underway and will be announced soon.

Conviction Is Upheld

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld today the murder conviction and death sentence given James Lee Marion in the October, 1963, death of Mrs. Fred W. Turner Jr., wife of a wealthy Midland oilman.

The high court said it found no error in the 22-year-old Midland Negro's trial, in which a Lubbock jury found him guilty of pistol whipping Mrs. Turner to death.

Donations are coming in every day, but more is needed. Especially, the Goodfellows say they need good men's clothing.

And speaking of clothing, something else the Goodfellows need right now to make their work of sorting easier are coat hangers. That's a little thing, but it takes the large and small to make the Goodfellows program a success.

McLeod Denies Knowledge Of Alleged Secret Payment

WASHINGTON (AP) — William N. McLeod Jr., a former congressional aide, denied today any part in or knowledge of an alleged $25,000 secret payoff to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

McLeod, former clerk of the House of Representatives District of Columbia Committee, also denied testimony given by insurance man Don B. Reynolds to a Senate inquiry that McLeod had used his influence to win congressional approval of legislation authorizing construction of the $17 million Washington, D.C., stadium, the project from which the payoff allegedly came.

Reynolds handled the construction performance bond on the stadium after Congress finally approved it in 1960.

Reynolds swore Tuesday that Bobby Baker, the secretary to the Senate Democratic majority and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey, who held the stadium construction contract, had agreed to inflate the premium on the performance bond and funnel $25,000 of it into the Kennedy-Johnson campaign.

McLeod acknowledged that he received $1,500 from Reynolds after Reynolds' insurance firm was chosen by McCloskey as broker to handle the performance bond. But McLeod insisted the money was for "past favors" and had nothing to do with the stadium. He called it a "gift".

STAR WITNESS — Don B. Reynolds, star witness in the Senate Rules Committee probe of the Bobby Baker case, arrives for a closed door session before resumption of public hearings on the case. (AP

Baker was under subpoena to appear today and Maj. Lennox P. McClendon, the committee counsel, said "his attorney told me he'd be here."

But there was no indication that Baker was ready to answer any questions. The last time he appeared in the investigation of his outside business activities while secretary of the Senate Democratic majority, Baker invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to testify.

McLeod admitted giving Reynolds' two invoices of $1,000 each for "legal services rendered."

"Don told me to do it that way because that's the way his accountant told him to do it," McLeod said. "I never rendered any legal services."

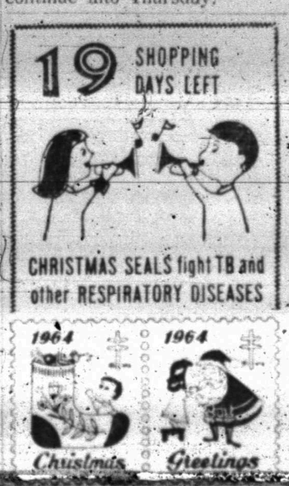

He only got $500 the second time, McLeod testified, because "Don said he didn't have a

Taylor Set For Viet Nam Return

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions would include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective actions.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines through Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam. The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

"The meeting reviewed the accumulating evidence of continuing and increased North Vietnamese support of the Viet Cong and of North Vietnamese forces in, and passing through, the territory of Laos in violation of the Geneva accords of 1962.

"The President instructed Ambassador Taylor to consult urgently with the South Vietnamese government as to measures that should be taken to improve the situation in all its aspects.

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them."

Taylor returned to Washington from Saigon a week ago for consultations, and in an interview with Life magazine in advance of his return said air strikes against the Red supply lines in Laos could contribute to the eventual defeat of the Viet Cong guerrillas. He also said there could be advantages in attacking bases in North Viet Nam that are sources of infiltrating supplies and trained men.

The White House statement, while spotlighting the passage of men and supplies through Laos, made no reference to the bases in North Viet Nam. This was generally taken as an indication that if the military operations of the U.S.-supported South Vietnamese are now to be broadened the first phase at least would be concerned with trying to cut the flow of supplies and reinforcements rather than bombing the bases.

Youth, 18, Is Burned

GALVESTON (AP) — Alton Wade Crook, 18-year-old freshman basketball player at West Texas State University in Canyon, was in critical condition today with burns suffered in an accident Sunday night.

Crook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Crook of Fritch, Tex., in the Texas Panhandle, was admitted to the burn ward of John Seely Hospital after receiving emergency treatment at a Canyon hospital.

In Canyon, Sheriff's Deputy James Hunt said the boy went to a service station with a can and bought 3.2 gallons of gasoline, telling an attendant his car was out of gas.

Hunt said Crook disappeared down an alley and came running back moments later with his clothing envelo+oped in flames. Men at the station threw a blanket around the youth and smothered the fire.

The sheriff's office said Crook's father told them the boy had wanted to leave school for a job in California, but was persuaded to finish the fall semester.

Viet Cong Arsenal Is Enriched

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong arsenal was richer today by 113 weapons — including 33 machine guns — which Communist guerrillas captured after wiping out a government district headquarters.

North Viet Nam claimed that U.S. planes strafed and bombed three villages Tuesday in its half of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

The big haul of weapons — enough to arm a reinforced company of guerrillas — was suffered Tuesday at Thien Giao, 100 miles northeast of Saigon. About 200 Communist guerrillas overran the district capital, killed the district chief and 13 of his men. Thirty defenders were wounded, six were missing and two Viet Cong were reported killed.

Responding to a call for help, fire-dropping planes and two companies of ground troops from the coastal town of Phan Thiet headed for Thien Giao.

When the ground troops arrived just before dawn, the Viet Cong had left with their booty.

The North Vietnamese broadcast said Tuesday's bombing was the fourth recent attack on North Vietnamese territory. Radio Hanoi charged that U.S. planes bombed and strafed five villages in the demilitarized zone on Oct. 16 and Oct. 17 and on Nov. 25 "U.S. puppet warships" shelled Co Con Island, off the northern part of the zone.

American military sources in Bangkok said that a search for two U.S. T28 planes which disappeared over Laos Nov. 19 has been called off.

The planes, with four U.S. airmen aboard, were on their way to South Viet Nam from Udorn, an air base in northeast Thailand.

It has not been determined whether they crashed due to mechanical failure or were shot down, the sources said.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a very dear friend whom I've had for many years. She recently lost her husband and lives alone with her small dog. When my husband is on the road I invite her to spend the night with me. We have a one-bedroom apartment with a large double bed. This friend lets her dog sleep with her at home, so naturally, when she's here she loves the same. I fixed up a "bed" for the dog on the floor, but he wouldn't sleep there. My bed has begun to take on a doggy odor, and my husband is complaining. My friend is very sensitive, so I have to be careful not to say anything that might hurt her feelings. What can I do? I wouldn't give up her friendship for the world.

TRUE FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: If your friend enjoys sleeping with her dog, that's HER business. And if you don't mind sleeping with her AND her dog, that's your business. But you owe your husband more than you owe your friend, and if you don't know that, you belong in the doghouse. I admire your loyalty, but your husband's complaint is legitimate, so tell your friend she can't have her dog in YOUR bed, or you'll "lose" YOUR husband.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Is there anything wrong with a girl going with a man who is LEGALLY separated from his wife? I am almost 19 and my parents have told me that they do not want me to go out with this perfectly wonderful man (he is 27) because, as far as they are concerned, he is still MARRIED and will be until he is DIVORCED. They say I will hurt my reputation if I am seen with him. Abby, he is working on getting a divorce and he says that he is sure he can get one eventually, so I don't see WHY I shouldn't date him in the meantime. I would like your opinion.

TROUBLE AT HOME

DEAR TROUBLE: If you have marriage in mind, you could wait a long time before this man's divorce comes through. And it may never happen. Your parents are thinking of your welfare and future happiness. I agree with them.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and am engaged to a young man who is away in the service. I work and keep myself busy and would never think of going out on him, but I get many chances. My fiance could not afford to buy me an engagement ring, but that didn't matter. We love each other and have plans to marry as soon as he gets back. My problem is trying to convince other men that since I have no ring I am NOT engaged, and if I don't want to go out with them why don't I just say so? Does a girl need an engagement ring to be officially engaged? How can I convince these persistent men?

ENGAGED BUT RINGLESS

DEAR RINGLESS: Ring or no ring, if you and your young man have agreed to marry, you are indeed officially engaged. It's not necessary to convince anyone that you are engaged. Just convince them that you aren't interested in dating them.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "C" at HALL HIGH: A good friend of mine said, "A team is where a boy can prove his courage on his own. A gang is where a coward goes to hide." The friend is an authority on teams. He is Mickey Mantle.

OPEN HOUSE HELD—Mrs. Hedwig Hildebrande, left, was a special guest as Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schulze observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Couple Observes Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schulze celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on November 29th, with an open house at the Union community center, hosted by their daughter. The calling hours were from 2 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Hedwig Pieper Hildebrande, who was bridesmaid that 24th day of November, 1914, when Rose Schneiderjans and Herman Schulze married in Lanham, Kansas, traveled from Scottsbluff, Nebraska for the occasion.

Mr. Schulze was born in Olpe, Kansas, and Mrs. Schulze in Hanover, Kansas. They have one daughter, Mrs. Jim Moss of Snyder, and three grandchildren. They have lived in Texas 42 years with 11 of them spent in Scurry County. Mr. Schulze is a retired farmer.

A gold and white color scheme was carried out at the event. Over 200 persons signed the register. Three of Mrs. Schulze's nieces, Mrs. Paul Blood, Mrs. Tank Morgan, and Mrs. Don Duncan, traveled over 900 miles to be at the celebration. Other out-of-town guests came from Roscoe, Big Spring, Hermleigh, San Antonio, Odessa, Abilene and Fluvanna.

The house party consisted of Mrs. Harold Kelley, Mrs. Jack Harless, Mrs. Leo Schattel, Mrs. Lallie Porche, Mrs. Bob Hood, Mrs. Jack Yates and Misses Ann Kelley, Chris Hood, Polly Wadleigh, Linda Schattel, Blanch Bruns, and Linda Green.

WOMEN

WHAT'S GOING ON

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Kriwanek of the Applied Arts Department of Texas Tech, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. and A. L. Martin. Mr. Kriwanek is using Scurry County clay in many of his fine ceramic pieces.

Mrs. Jeta Plant of Irving and Jody Plant of Big Spring spent Friday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Landrum. While here they also visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Sue and Ann, and Mr. and Mrs. Jeptha Langrum.

Browning Hashed Browns

Cooking specialists say you can get a nice brown, crisp crust on hashed brown potatoes by pan frying the potatoes slowly over a low flame for 30 to 40 minutes. Don't stir or turn. To remove them from the pan, loosen the edges with a spatula and turn the pan upside down over a heated platter.

Economy Tip

If your home is heated by a warm air furnace but you have a room that's particularly hard to keep comfortable, the ducts from the furnace to the room may not be adequately insulated. In this case, wrap asbestos or fiber glass insulating material around the duct. The added insulation not only will prevent the warm air from cooling down before reaching the room, it will also speed up the flow of air.

Choir Will Open Season At Gardens

The traditional songs of Christmas will ring through the hills of Sabine Parish Friday evening, December 11, when the Centenary College Choir opens the yuletide season at Hodges Gardens, in Many, La., with a special blend of choral music and exquisite outdoor beauty.

From a float on the lake, the choir will sing the old familiar carols with a number of modern Christmas songs programmed. Director is Dr. A. C. Voran, whose internationally famous choir has charmed garden visitors for more than a decade.

Christmas celebrations at Hodges Gardens always point up the religious significance of the holidays, and is, in effect, a "spiritual trek back to Bethlehem where Christmas first began." On the lakeshore stage will be a Nativity scene with giant configurations of the wise men, their slaves and camels along the hillside to the rose garden.

Climaxing the program will be the brilliant flash of thousands of lights along the lakeshore and garden structures, giving a quality of magic to the towering pines and natural architecture of the forest garden.

The choral program, which is open to the public, will begin at 6 p.m. and visitors are invited to drive through the lighted gardens evenings throughout the holiday season. Hodges Gardens is a year-round showplace in the pine hills of Western Louisiana, just fifteen miles south of Many, La.

Statements Still Vague On Plans In Viet Nam Action

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fog never lifted.

As the American-backed war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam steadily deteriorated there was a dense fog over this country's plans, if any, for saving the chaotic situation.

Then the U.S. ambassador to Saigon, Maxwell D. Taylor, came home to talk to President Johnson. After they met Tuesday the White House issued a statement which indicated neither a solution nor a new idea.

This doesn't mean the two men didn't reach a decision on how to save Viet Nam and perhaps all Southeast Asia from communism. But they were very careful in the vaguely worded statement not to say so.

By their very vagueness they left themselves enormous room for a far tougher American policy — if that's what they have in mind — but this becomes understandable only if you can remember the background.

The White House statement said:

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them.

"It was noted that this policy accords with the terms of the joint congressional resolution of Aug. 10, 1964, which remains in full force and effect."

When North Vietnamese PT boats attacked two U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin last August, Johnson promptly ordered American planes to retaliate by bombing North Vietnamese coastal bases, patrol boats and oil installations. That was Aug. 4.

This attack spread over five hours and 100 miles of coast. The next day Johnson asked Congress to give him advance approval for any steps he thought necessary in the Southeast Asia predicament. Congress obliged.

It approved a resolution authorizing Johnson to "take all necessary steps, including use of the armed forces," to assist South Viet Nam or any other country under the protection of the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty which asked for help in defense of its freedom.

Although Johnson said "the United States intends no rashness and seeks no wider war," this resolution was a green light. The fact that he referred to it Tuesday could mean he now intends far more drastic action than anything this country has attempted yet.

But, if so, it almost certainly means widening the war, which is what Johnson said in August he didn't intend to do. There was no hint of this in Tuesday's statement but then, of course, it might be poor strategy to telegraph a punch to the Communists ahead of time.

Yet, all through 1964 Johnson has given the impression of a man reluctant to do anything different from what has been done in the past and what has been done was limited even though the war crumbled day by day.

Johnson's hesitancy about broadening the war is understandable, although hesitancy may lose it. If, for instance, North Viet Nam were bombed, Red China might come to its aid, thus turning a small war into an American-Chinese war.

Meanwhile, it's not just the Red guerrillas who are frustrating the American efforts so far. The South Vietnamese themselves are doing it, slowly sinking their country into chaos with their own instability and riots against their government.

The White House statement — that "the President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people" — is a repetition of what he said last Jan. 1.

He promised the Vietnamese that American forces and materiel — "as needed" — would be kept in South Viet Nam to help them in "achieving victory."

At other times in 1964 he promised this country "would stand firm" in Viet Nam and that withdrawal was "strategically unwise and morally unthinkable." At the same time he said enlargement of the war would be "reckless."

Remarks That Santa Could Do Without

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a department store Santa Claus gets tired of hearing:

"Last year I told you I wanted a bike and ya brought me a pair of roller skates, ya bum. This year I want ya to get it straight. Bring me a bike."

"Let me down! Let me down! I want my mama!"

"We like you to show enthusiasm, Roscoe, but don't you think you're overdoing it a bit? Just kiss the children — and let the mothers alone."

"Hey, fellow, I have to play Santa Claus for my kids on Christmas Eve. How about letting me in on a few secrets of the trade?"

"Of course, they ain't real whiskers. When he takes you up on his lap, give them a big pull —and I betcha they'll come right off in your hands."

"No, Johnny. You musn't punch Santa in the stomach. He's a nice man."

"Would you mind keeping an eye on my little boy while I go over to the lingerie department, Santa? I won't be gone more than a few moments."

"Whatever you bring me, don't bring my little brother anything at all. He's been bad —and he pulled my hair, too."

"Your 'Ho, ho, ho' sounds a little hollow this morning, Roscoe. I suggest you'd better practice up on it during your lunch hour.' "

"I know my little girl didn't mean to get her lollipop stuck in your whiskers, Santa. If we can just find a pair of scissors, I think I can cut it out."

"The kid next door told me that Santa Claus is really your father, but you sure don't look much like my old man to me."

"When he bends down to pick up the next little girl, Jimmy, you sneak up behind him and put this tack in his chair. I double-dog dare you."

"You ought to have had better sense than to eat a garlic bread sandwich, Roscoe. I'm afraid I'll have to dock you half a day's pay. The kids won't come within a mile of you now."

"How are you fixed for blades fatso?"

A Junior Editors Quiz About TIDES

QUESTION: What causes ocean tides?

* * *

ANSWER: The men rowing back from a pleasant sail in the harbor of Provincetown, Mass., in the upper picture, come from the Great Lakes region. They are unacquainted with the rise and fall of ocean tides, which is very strong at Provincetown. So when they come back for another sail, the boat they rented is resting on the sand, for now it's low tide.

Tides are caused (right) mainly by the pull of the moon's graviational force on the ocean (scalloped area surrounding the earth). It is high tide at X on top because the moon is pulling the ocean out toward it. It is also high tide on the opposite side because the moon also pulls the solid earth a little way toward it, away from the far-these water, giving more water there. In this picture, the two sides of the earth have low tides. But the earth spins around every 24 hours. When it's low tide at the place marked X (lower picture), the moon is pulling a high tide up on the place where it was low 6 hours before. The shape of the sea coast makes a great difference in how high the tide rise is. In places on the Bay of Fundy the sea gets bottled up so much that a tide up to fifty feet higher than the low mark can come boiling in.

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: In what is called spring tide, there is more difference between high and low tide than usual; in neap tides, there is less. There are 26 spring and 26 neap tides in a year. Find out what causes them.

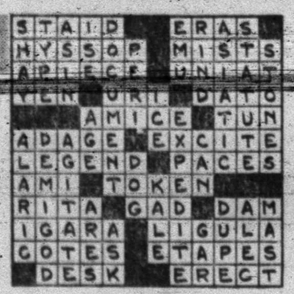

(Marianne Amaral of Taunton, Mass., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper and you may win the weekly grand prize of Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia.) 12/2

Tigers Rip Hamlin For Second Victory

HAMLIN — The Snyder Tigers, functioning smoothly through most of the ball game, made Hamlin's Pied Pipers their second successive victims in the young basketball season Tuesday night as the Hamlin quintet fell before the Bengal onslaught, 88-52.

Once again the short Tigers displayed potent rebound ability, and their shooting waxed warm, especially in the second half when they hit 67 per cent of their tries from the field.

The victory came after the Snyder B team had trounced Hamlin B, 70-29.

The Tigers leaped out to a 22-9 advantage at the first period, hiked their count to 44-22 at half-time and then kept it up in the second half.

In scoring, the Tigers had four men in double figures, and every able bodied man on the varsity squad contributed to the total. Leslie Brown hit 10 field goals and one free shot for 21 points to lead the way. Leslie Anderson got 19, Drew Bullard 17 and Jerry Vestal 13.

Steve Crowell led in rebounding, taking 11 off the boards while Jimmy Featherston gathered in 10 as the Tigers outrebounded their foes by 49-23.

In the first half, Snyder hit 12 of 39 field goal attempts for a percentage of 48, while Hamlin was hitting 9 of 27 on 33 per cent. In the second half Snyder's 67 per cent came on 22 of 33 shots, while Hamlin hit 10 of 30 for 33 per cent.

The Snyder B team took a 13-4 lead in the first quarter and led by 31-11 at half-time. David Cadena and Vernon Moore shared scoring honors with 15 points each.

Robert Pearce scored 28 points for Hamlin's A team, while Joe Adams roped 7 to pace the Hamlin B team.

Next action for the Tiger varsity team will be in the Seminole Tournament Friday when the Snyder team faces the Monterey Plainsmen of Lubbock in a first round game.

Snyder B will be matched with Big Spring B at 6:30 p.m. Friday in the Snyder Gym in the first round of the annual Snyder B Team Tournament.

Pokes Sign 2nd Draftee

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys have grabbed two top draft choices away from Houston of the American Football League and are hot after another.

Tuesday they signed Malcolm Walker, the Rice linebacking great who also had been drafted by Houston. Each league — Dallas is in the National — had him No. 2 on its list.

Previously Dallas signed Russel Wayt, the other Rice Linebacker and No. 6 draft choice of Houston. Dallas picked him No. 8.

Still in the tug of war is Jerry Rhome, the Tulsa passing sensation who was drafted last year by the Cowboys and also has been drafted by Houston. Rhome has indicated he won't talk contract until after Tulsa plays Mississippi in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Positions Retaken By Laotian Army

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian army recaptured Tuesday the positions lost Monday to the Pathet Lao in the Tha Thom sector and killed 37 Pathet Lao soldiers in the battle, Western military sources reported.

Tha Thom is a small town on the road from the Plaine des Jarres to Pak Sane, a Mekong River community below Vietiane.

Ponies, Bears In Easy Victories

By The Associated Press

Southern Methodist scored an impressive victory and Texas and Baylor showed scoring power to burn as the Southwest Conference basketball season moved in Tuesday night.

Two other teams, Arkansas and Texas A&M, the defending champion, took intersectional defeats to put the league behind the first crack out of the box.

SMU beat highly rated Oklahoma City University 89-76 with a couple of sophomores showing great promise to go along with the steady influence of veteran Bill Ward, who threw in 20 points.

The sophs are Charles Dunkley and Denny Holman, who led a last half scoring spree. They were too much for Jim Ware, OCU's star who outscored everybody with 23 points.

Texas went on a scoring binge by strapping Texas Wesleyan 104-84 and Baylor whipped Arlington State 103-65.

The Aggies gave Memphis State a tough game for a half but in the final period State pulled away, once gaining a 17-point lead. Memphis State won 82-73 with John Hillman scoring 22 points. John Beasley managed 18 for A&M.

Arkansas ran up a 14-point lead but couldn't hold it. Kansas whipped the Razorbacks 65-60. The Razorbacks threatened in the last half, too, but couldn't quite overtake hustling Del Lewis.

Texas hit a sensational 57 per cent from the field to beat Texas Wesleyan despite the fact that two Wesleyan players — David Weber and Larry Phelps — led in scoring with 26 points each. Jimmy Clark topped Texas with 20.

Spencer Carlson flipped in 25 points to pace Baylor to its record school score and victory over Arlington State. The Bears also had four other players in double figures.

Texas Christian won its first game in almost a year, breaking a 15-game losing streak by bashing Austin College 91-66. The Frogs had to overbalance sensational Jerry Popp to do it. Popp scored 32 points, the most for anybody.

TCU may have lost its playmaker, Wayne Kreis. He suffered what appeared to be a broken toe.

Texas Tech, the championship favorite, opens the campaign tonight. The Red Raiders clash with McMurry at Lubbock.

Jurgensen's Injury Hurts Washington

NEW YORK (AP) — If Sonny Jurgensen had been healthy all year, the Washington Redskins might have been in the thick of the race in the National Football League's Eastern Conference.

Jurgensen missed the pre-season exhibitions because of an injury and had to take over a new club under the pressure of regular season. It took time to learn the habits of his new receivers after spending years at Philadelphia.

The former Duke star hit it big Sunday with 319 yards against the New York Giants. It was his third 300-plus day of the season. The Redskins have won six of their last eight games.

Jurgensen's latest effort put him in a tie with Bart Starr of Green Bay for the NFL passing lead, figured on a complicated basis of percentage of completions, touchdown passes, percentage of interceptions and average yards gained.

Jimmy Brown continues to run away with the rushing race. The Cleveland fullback has gained 1,268 yards on the ground in 241 carries and leads John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh by 369 yards. Johnson is being closely pressed by Jim Taylor of Green Bay.

Johnny Morris, the Chicago Bears' brilliant flanker, has set a record for pass receptions with 90 for 1,171 yards and 10 touchdowns. Mike Ditka of the Bears is second with 70 catches.

Just Forget About The Challenge Bowl

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Anybody planning to see the third annual Challenge Bowl football game Jan. 2 can just forget it.

The game has been called off because sponsors couldn't get a television hookup. They also faced the prospect of no top players because of other bowl games.

The Challenge Bowl was about $40,000 in the red and couldn't see its way clear to hold a game unless it had some reasonable idea of meeting expenses. That can't be done with just the gate receipts.

The game, which matches Southwest players against the world, should be revived in 1966 because ABC has promised a two-year contract, officials said.

Colts Out, Astros In

HOUSTON (AP)—There is no longer such a team as the Houston Colt .45s. Now they are the Houston Astros.

Club President Roy Hofheinz announced the National League team's name change Tuesday night.

"We think it is in keeping with the situation in which we are the space capital of the world," he said. "The name was taken from the stars and indicates we are on the ascendancy."

The nation's Manned Spacecraft Center, a training facility for astronauts, is 25 miles east of the city.

The Colt Firearms Co. had questioned the club's use of the name Colt .45s on souvenirs sold at the Houston park.

Hofheinz told newsmen, with a smile, that the permission of the astronauts had not been obtained, and wasn't necessary.

Typical Problem In A Cuban Textbook

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — New official public school textbooks in Communist Cuba, say exiles in touch with sources there, contain arithmetic problems such as this:

"Of the 180 million inhabitants of the United States, one-ninth are discriminated against for being Negroes and one-sixtieth for being Latin Americans. How many millions of Negroes suffer discrimination in the U.S. and how many Latin Americans?"

Bill Elias is in his fourth season as football coach at Virginia.

Lincoln In 3 District Victories

The Lincoln High Trojans marched their district basketball season on a pleasant note last night in their own gym by taking three games from Slaton.

The Lincoln varsity boys team brought the night's action to a climax by whacking the Slaton boys A team, 64-40. Lincoln's girls team already had dispensed with the Slaton girls team by a topheavy 67-11 count and the Lincoln boys B team had routed Slaton B by 34-31.

Paul Barnes paced the Lincoln boys A Team with 18 points, while M. C. Powell had 17. Bill Cobbs 10, Brady Cobbs 9, Leon Riggins 5, L. J. Brooks 3 and Billy McClain 2. Billy Cobbs pulled down 12 rebounds.

In the girls game, Lincoln's [illegible] as they romped to an easy victory. Pearlie Scott scored 28 points, while Mary Helen Goosby had 19, Johnnie Goosby 13, Yvonne Sanders and Evelyn Braziel 4 each and Roann Cobbs 6. Evelyn Braziel led in rebounds with 8.

Sylvester McKnight paced the Trojan Boys B team with 14 points. Billy McClain had 9, Leon Riggins, Hayward Clay and Daniel Creighton 3 each, and C. V. Sanders 2. Leon Riggins was the leading rebounder with 11.

Next action for the Trojans will be Saturday morning in the Sweetwater Invitational Tournament.

Money Talks At Pro Signup Time

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Money talks — and makes college coaches scream.

It spoke to Kansas halfback Gale Sayers and Tennessee guard Steve DeLong, giving the Chicago Bears of the National Football League a split Tuesday with the rival American League as the multi million-dollar pro football war continued.

Sayers and DeLong — both picked on the first round of the NFL draft by the Bears — went different ways. Chicago won the battle for Sayers against the Kansas City Chiefs but lost DeLong to the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the first major breakthrough for the younger league.

Meanwhile, both leagues came under fire from college coaches for signing futures — players who still have a year of college eligibility remaining but whose college class has graduated and thus are eligible to be drafted.

The two cases involved Los Angeles State tackle Walt Johnson, signed by the NFL's Cleveland Browns, and Arizona State halfback Larry Todd, signed by the Oakland Raiders of the AFL. Coaches from each team said they were considering official protests.

"They don't have any business signing a boy when he has a year to play," said Los Angeles State Coach Homer Beatty. "They waved so much money in the boy's face he couldn't turn it down. They have no regard for the boy or his coach."

Browns President Art Modell said "it's ridiculous" to the charge of waving money at Johnson and said Cleveland found out he had no intention of going back to school. The Browns never have and never will take people out of school to play football."

Todd's coach, Frank Kush, charged the Raiders talked to the player throughout the season and implied this was unethical since the coaching staff was not contacted.

The American League, meanwhile, signed its first No. 1 pick in direct competition with the NFL when DeLong agreed to a San Diego contract. DeLong said he was "very honored to be considered by both clubs. The offers were about the same but I decided to go with San Diego."

The split kept the NFL out front of the AFL in signing first-round draft choices. NFL clubs have signed five No. 1 selections and lost only DeLong. The AFL, meanwhile, has signed three of its top picks and also lost three to the National League.

No. 1 Wolverines Are Impressive

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Michigan Wolverines, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press pre-season poll, opened the college basketball season impressively Tuesday night with a 92-70 romp against Ball State.

The fourth-ranked Davidson Wildcats, the fifth-ranked Duke Blue Devils and the ninth-ranked San Francisco Dons, the only other teams in the Top Ten to see action, similarly got off on the right foot.

Davidson came from behind to defeat Wake Forest 95-88, Duke whipped Virginia Tech 98-63 and San Francisco downed Oregon State 66-58.

Oregon State's setback marked the coaching debut of Paul Valenti for the Beavers. Johnny Oldham also suffered a defeat in his coaching debut at Western Kentucky. The Hilltoppers were upset by Belmont, Tenn., 52-50.

Other new coaches won their first games. Notre Dame beat Lewis 99-87 for Johnny Dee, South Carolina downed Erskine 76-59 for Frank McGuire, Iowa tramped South Dakota 93-70 for Ralph Miller and Marquette drubbed St. Thomas 69-49 for Al McGuire.

Cazzie Russell with 33 points led the Michigan attack that crushed Ball State. Big 6-foot-8 Fred Hetzel tossed in 28 points as Davidson wiped out an early 10-point Wake Forest lead to down the Deacons. Hack Tison's 24 points sparked Duke over Virginia Tech and Russ Gumina led San Francisco over Oregon State with 21 points.

Minnesota, expected to provide stern opposition for Michigan in the Big Ten, crushed South Dakota State 101-55. St. Louis, favored to win the Missouri Valley Conference, slaughtered North Dakota State 114-50. Kansas, the Big Eight favorite, came from 14 points back to defeat Arkansas 65-60 and North Carolina, expected to contend with Duke for the Atlantic Coast Conference crown, overcame Clemson 77-59.

AFL Teams Set Attendance Marks

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Football League has set an attendance record of 1,263,186 in 47 games as compared to the old mark of 1,241,741 set in a full 54-game schedule last season.

The two clubs that have completed their home seasons have set new marks. New York drew 298,972 for seven home games, compared to 103,550 last year at the Polo Grounds. Buffalo drew 257,324 to 209,719 in 1963.

East Carolina is ineligible for the Southern Conference football crown this year, its first in the circuit. The Purple and Gold play three SC rivals.

Holdup Trio Is Sentenced

DALLAS (AP) — Three men pleaded guilty and Judge John Mead sentenced each to 16 years in prison Tuesday for the $41,000 holdup of the Inwood National Bank Sept. 11.

They are brothers Don Frank Vouras, 24, and James Peter Vouras Jr., 25, sons of a Dallas restaurateur, and Edmund Xavier Ramirez, 26, also of Dallas.

Using false beards, a beatle wig and heavy makeup to hide their identity, the trio staged the daylight holdup with clocklike precision.

Their case had been set for trial next Monday. Asst. Dist. Atty. William Alexander agreed to recommend 16-year sentences provided the three pleaded guilty.

Don Vouras also entered a guilty plea to an Aug. 2 robbery of the Esquire Theater and drew a concurrent 16-year term.

Living Costs Are Merely Following Business Swing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The cost of living continues to rise but the government assures us that this isn't inflation.

This can be confusing to multitudes of Americans who look upon inflation in terms of consumer prices. When the cost of goods and services goes up they call it inflation. Or, put the other way around, when the dollar buys less than last year, to them that's inflation.

But government economists are saying, with considerable evidence to back them up, that times are different now and so are the terms to describe conditions.

The real inflation took place during and after the war. It was considerable and painful. Today's slow if steady creep of living costs to higher ground is just part of the continuing upswing of business activity, of personal incomes, of general prosperity. Everything is bigger, but not inflated.

The same thinking applies to the current attitude toward business cycles. The economists are saying that wide and often sharp swings up and down were the traditional marks of an economy adjusting itself after a war. Today's peacetime one is different and the causes of former overheated rises and disturbing tumbles aren't present now or have little punch.

All of this also is tied into the new thinking on federal financing which will influence the budget now taking shape. Taxes can be cut when the Treasury is running a deficit, and the economy will be healthier for it. The federal debt will rise, and the annual interest on it, but the general prosperity makes up for it.

The cost of living, as measured by the government's consumer price index, rose on almost all fronts in October to hit a record 108.5 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was 1.2 per cent higher than in October 1963. But the rise held within the range that has characteried it for most of the last four years. The government expects the rise to continue at about the same rate the rest of this year. The index means that it takes $108.50 now to buy what you could get for $100 in the 1957-59 period.

It is the steadiness of the rate of rise as much as the smallness of it that comforts the economists. To them inflation is something sharp and marked implies real deterioration in the purchasing power of the dollar.

But in the current type of rising cost of living there is no general increase in prices, just an advance in some and a drop in others, marked up charges here and there for services.

Business is still too competitive for any general price rise to have developed in recent months. Industry is expanding, but there is still enough idle capacity to prevent any shortage of goods or crimping of services.

Labor costs are going up, but so is the efficiency of making goods, so that unit costs stay remarkably stable. The number of unemployed also acts as a governor on the demands of labor, especially in the lower skilled fields.

All of this could change, and then there would be a chance for inflation of the size and speed that broke out several times in the postwar years. But just now, the economists insist, there are few signs that it will —and many indications that it won't for some time to come.

Methodists In Battle With Reds

By PRESTON GROVER

LES OUADHIAS, Algeria (AP) — The Methodist Church and the Soviet Communist party are waging a quiet battle for souls in this little upland village in central Algeria.

The Russians have arrived in numbers, assisted by groups from satellite countries. Matched against them are the Rev. John Paolini, from Cranbury, N.J., and his wife, Marilyn. He has been a Methodist minister for 10 years, four of them in Algeria and the past 14 months in this village.

The Russians have started building a village for Algerians not far from here. The job started with considerable fanfare six months ago but has slowed down. Young Russians, Yugoslavs, Czechs, Bulgarians and Algerians are living in tents near a wooden headquarters which displays pictures of Alexei N. Kosygin, new premier of the Soviet Union, and Todor Zhivkov, premier of Bulgaria.

Young men come from the Soviet Union and satellites to work two to four months constructing the village. The aim is to build a model farm village with tile and brick apartment houses instead of the rock houses usual in this part of the country. They are running a small school, teaching French to Algerian teen-agers who didn't write any language at all.

Signs in the headquarters urge everybody to work for communism and against corruption, capitalism and dishonesty. One of Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella's slogans urges Algerians to be ready to die for the country.

Paolini has his home a short distance away, in the village. Russians have called on him and he has visited the Soviet camp but they don't see much of one another. He runs a library where he teaches French and English to Algerians. His wife teaches a kindergarten and primary class. In a little church he preaches in French and a translater converts it into Kabylie since this is Kabylie country — an old center of resistance against the French.

"I tell them stories from the Bible," he said. "They like the stories where the good people triumph over the bad."

Many of those Bible stories also are in the Koran, and they sound familiar to some of the 150 or so villagers who crowd into the church on Sunday.

Young people come to his library located conveniently in a main street of the village. It is far better stocked than the library in the Soviet camp, but he would like more illustrated American magazines.

The Soviet camp will contain a small hospital. The Methodists have been running a hospital at Zeouin also in the Kabylie country for more than 30 years.

The Russians are expected to bring in machinery to show the villagers modern farming. That will make an impression, but so far the pastor is doing all right.

Family Of 4 Is Doubled Unexpectedly

By LEN TALIAFERRO

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — A Salvation Army family of four, living on $60 a week, has taken four orphaned children into their home.

"We want to be able to give them the love they need and want," said Capt. Bill McFarland.

"Anyone would have done the same thing. It's something you don't have to think about. You just know what to do."

McFarland and his wife took the children after they found the youngsters' 71-year-old father, a retired laborer, dead on Thanksgiving Day.

"They didn't know who to call, so they called me," McFarland said.

"I was their pastor. They had relatives here but they didn't know how to get in touch with them right away."

McFarland refused to name the children and would not allow them to be photographed. He would say only that the two boys were 11 and 14 years old and the girls were 15 and 16.

Mrs. McFarland said their own children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 3, loved having the four.

Asked how she felt about suddenly doubling the size of her family, Mrs. McFarland replied, "I'm used to it. I was raised in a large family."

The McFarlands live in a three-bedroom house provided by the Salvation Army. McFarland, 30, has charge of all the army's activities here.

McFarland said there would be no financial problems because the children would receive Social Security benefits which would care for them until they finish school.

"The only thing I'm worried about is being equipped to handle teen-agers," he said, "especially teen-aged girls and their boyfriends."

Wife Finds Man Dying In Truck

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — A woman motorist found her husband dying in the wreckage of his pickup truck Tuesday.

Police said Kathleen Adkins, driving the family car, was following her husband's truck home from their service station.

She fell behind at a stop signal, then caught up and was the first driver on the scene after the truck failed to negotiate a curve and hit a power pole.

Van W. Adkins, 24, was dead on arrival at Santa Monica Hospital.

Town In 11th Year Without Tax Levy

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Madisonville City Council has announced that 1965 will be the 11th straight year without a property or poll tax in the city.

The council did, however, set a levy Tuesday of 20 cents per $100 fair cash value on shares in banks and trust companies. This revenue will go to operation of the city library.

Madisonville, a city of 17,000, gets its revenue through the city-owned and operated light and water system.

Weather Varied During November

By The Associated Press

Near drought conditions and unusual cold plagued some Texas points in November but generally the state's rainfall and thermometer readings were above average.

Plainview recorded a Nov. 30 low of -14 degrees. El Paso received no rain and Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Laredo, Lubbock and Midland-Odessa less than an inch. Heavy hail damaged Hondo, and tornadoes struck near Cleburne and Lufkin.

Cold fronts spread moisture from the Panhandle to the Gulf of Mexico during November's first and third weeks. Heavy rains fell in the north central and south central portions, bringing monthly totals to 5 or 6 inches in some places.

Fort Worth measured 6.23 inches of rain for its wettest November in 18 years.

Bowie, in North Central Texas, gauged 7.48 inches in 48 hours and Poteet, south of San Antonio, received 5.80 inches in 24 hours.

Lesser amounts fell on the High Plains, across East Texas and along the coast.

Average temperatures were above normal despite strong cold fronts that barged across the state Nov. 21 and 30. The state's first significant freeze occurred Nov. 21, the Weather Bureau reported.

Two persons drowned Nov. 18 in North Central Texas as heavy rains caused flash floods.

At Hondo, southwest of San Antonio, a severe hailstorm caused considerable property damage Nov. 3.

November rainfall measurements, cumulative totals for January through November and the departure from normal included:

Unusual School Serves Dropouts

By DICK BIESER

ROSEMEAD, Calif. (AP) — Students from 4 to 40 attend the unusual school founded by Mary and Lester Stewart.

One of the basic courses is learning how to read. They also get lots of advice, a good bit of philosophy and considerable personal attention.

The name of the school, housed in an 11-by-60-foot store building, is unusual, too. It's called "Dropouts Anonymous."

Dropouts Anonymous has processed nearly 1,000 persons. Some have gone on to barber or beauty colleges and some are being trained by Los Angeles County as landscape architects.

Some aren't dropouts at all. They are children who need special help.

"We tell our students you should like your job better than eating," says Mrs. Stewart. "Because if you don't eat — if you diet — you probably won't get sick. But working at a job you don't like can make you desperately ill."

In 1939 Mrs. Stewart, now 43, left high school in her senior year. It was strictly a matter of money — the lack of it.

Since then she has undergone an intensive program of self-education. A housewife, she is the mother of three sons who have completed high school.

Although their own children had no trouble staying in school, she and her husband, a machinist, became interested in the children of friends who did have trouble. So two years ago they founded Dropouts Anonymous.

The Stewarts don't honor education for education's sake alone.

"Education is learning, not just getting a diploma," says Mrs. Stewart, adding: "And education doesn't mean a thing if you haven't got something in the noodle to back it up."

Approximately 60 per cent of her students needed help with their reading skill when they entered the tuition-free school.

Classes are held five nights a week from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Friday evening is what Mrs. Stewart calls "true confession night."

"We discuss our goals and ambitions," says Mrs. Stewart. "We toss in an idea and see what happens."

Three adults regularly help the Stewarts with the program, including actress Ruth Warrick. The others are Cal Edinger and Doris Patterson.

One day soon, the Stewarts hope colleges in the area will assign student teachers to the school.

Financial help comes from individuals and from women's clubs.

LBJ Firm Asks Sale

WASHINGTON (AP) — Approval for sale of a Lafayette, La., television to a company in which the family of President Johnson has an interest has been asked of the Federal Communications Commission.

FCC records show the application was filed Nov. 10 for purchase of KLFY-TV (Channel 10) in Lafayette by Texhoma Broadcasters, Inc., for $2,559,000 and assumption of $134,311 in obligations.

Stockholders of Texhoma are listed as M. N. Bostick of Waco, Tex., president, with 20 per cent, and KWTX Broadcasting Co. of Waco, with 80 per cent.

Texas Broadcasting Co., largely owned by the Johnson family, owns 29 per cent of KWTX. Johnson's wife and two daughters own most of Texas Broadcasting. Their holdings were placed in trust soon after he became President.

Camellia Broadcasting Co., Inc., of Lafayette now owns the Lafayette Channel 10 station.

Illness Not Contagious

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Doctors reported Tuesday that the death of a Sam Houston State Teachers College student resulted from a non-contagious type of meningitis.

The school's clinic had given about 500 students precautionary shots of penicillin, sulfanilamide or erythmycin earlier because physicians at first believed it was a highly contagious form.

Rebecca Thompson, 18, of Houston died Sunday while home for the Thanksgiving holiday. She left the campus here last Tuesday.

Her doctor in Houston said laboratory tests established that it was not a contagious meningitis. A spokesman said the college was halting the preventive shots.

Rebel Congo Republic Is Dead, But Revolt Goes On

By ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The rebel "Congolese People's Republic" in Stanleyville is dead, but the revolt in the northeastern Congo refuses to lie down.

Disorganized, its lines of communication shattered by seizure of the rebel capital, its leaders hiding or in flight, the Communist-backed insurrection is being driven into the dark rain forests and impenetrable bush.

Premier Moise Tshombe's tough mercenary fighters from South Africa, Rhodesia and Belgium go in shooting when they capture towns and rescue white hostages, but the rebels close in behind them as their armed columns roll out.

For the South African mercenary commander, Maj. Michael Hoare, the difficulty of getting to grips with his enemy raises the prospects of a long, dirty war.

"A military solution is not enough. There must be some sort of political solution as well," says the 46-year-old Dublin-born veteran of war behind the Japanese lines in Burma and in Tshombe's secessionist Katanga.

Some foreign military observers believe it will be months, possibly years, before it is safe to travel through the rebel area without a strong military escort.

Hoare's mercenaries move in trucks bristling with guns. Every tiny hamlet, every crossroads and every clump of bushes where ambushers could lurk is sprayed with machine-gun bullets.

Rarely do the mercenaries see anyone as they drive by. I counted only six humans and two goats while traveling an entire day through rebel territory with Hoare's men. Four were old, decrepit men and two were women.

But the mercenaries often find food still bubbling in pots.

Hoare's biggest problem is to consolidate his winnings. He has too few men to spread them around to hold captured towns.

Big centers can be held, but they may have to be supplied from the air.

At the moment, all evidence points to a complete lack of rebel central organization. Their radio network fell apart when the main transmitter at Stanleyville fell into government hands.

The rebels are negotiating with the new government in neighboring Sudan for military aid and permission to use the country as a base. Western diplomats in Khartoum, the Sudan's capital, said they believed there were strong chances the Sudanese government would help them.

Reports received in Khartoum said a number of wounded rebels are being treated in southern Sudan hospitals. But Sudanese officials deny that rebel President Christophe Gbenye and his key lieutenants have crossed into the Sudan.

Sen. Keating Rumored For Many Jobs

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Will Sen. Kenneth B Keating go to Hollywood next year and become movie czar?

That's one of the jobs rumored for the 64-year-old New York Republican since he was defeated for re-election Nov. 3 by Robert F. Kennedy.

But all the affable silver-haired senator will say is that he has had no direct contact with anyone from Hollywood.

"Of course," he mused with tongue-in-cheek during an interview, "There's a dearth of mature stars in Hollywood now."

He was one of several unpaid senatorial consultants who helped producer Otto Preminger with the movie "Advise and Consent" several years ago.

In addition to a Hollywood job, Keating has also been rumored for baseball commissioner, ambassador to Israel and an unspecified post with the Johnson administration.

He said, however, that no one has ever approached him about the baseball commissioner's job and no one in the administration has contacted him directly or indirectly about a government assignment.

Keating plans to withhold a decision on his plans until next year.

Baptists Set Top Budget

ATLANTA (AP) — A record $6.8 million budget for 1965 has been approved by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The budget, which sets aside $4.3 million for the missions division, includes $240,000 for continued missionary efforts inside Communist Cuba.

Southern Baptists plan to support 2,369 missionaries next year in the United States, Cuba, Panama and Puerto Rico.

At its annual meeting Tuesday night, the board voted unanimously to move its nine-member evangelism division from Dallas, Tex., to Atlanta by June 30, 1965.

The decision follows a trend of recent years to locate all administrative offices in Atlanta. The evangelism division will be housed in the eight-story office building owned by the board in Atlanta.

Barry Looks To Ike, Nixon For Solution

EDITOR'S NOTE — In this exclusive AP interview, Sen. Barry Goldwater tells of plans for a GOP summit meeting and gives his views on demands by some Republicans that the party chairman be replaced. Goldwater says he does not plan to grant additional interviews or hold news conferences.

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he plans to meet soon with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon for a "general discussion" of the Republican party's future course.

The defeated GOP presidential nominee said in an interview on his return to Washington from Phoenix, Ariz., that he doesn't know where the summit conference discussion will lead. But he indicated he is willing to cooperate with the former president and the former vice president in trying to bring peace among the bickering factions of the Republican party.

Goldwater said the meeting originally had been scheduled for next Thursday at Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pa., but had to be delayed because of Nixon's trip to Japan. He added, however, he hopes it can be fitted into the schedules of all three principals before his return to Arizona next week.

Goldwater made it clear he would encourage the formation of the kind of advisory council suggested by some GOP governors and other party leaders to bring all factions into the formation of future party policy.

"I tried to get Milton Eisenhower's group to continue its work," he said. "I thought they were making some headway."

Eisenhower, brother of the former president and head of Johns Hopkins University, is chairman of the Republican Critical Issues Council. The council, a panel of leading Republicans, issued gop policy statements through special task forces during the recent presidential campaign.

Goldwater remained adamant in his opposition to the replacement of Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, his personal choice for the job after the San Francisco nominating convention.

"They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

Goldwater said he regards himself now as "a free man," able to speak out on issues of paramount interest to the nation. He indicated he no longer feels any of the restraints he implied had been placed on him as a presidential candidate in dealing with international issues.

Goldwater indicated his criticism may center on President Johnson's course in the South Viet Nam hostilities.

"We're in war there and it's time that the American people found out just how deeply we are involved," he said. "I pointed that out in the campaign and I am going to speak out on it some more."

Asked when he intended to speak out, the Arizona senator replied he will do so when his newspaper column is resumed in January. He suspended publication of this column when he became an announced candidate for the GOP presidential nomination early this year.

Goldwater, who has not met with reporters except for a brief news conference in Jamaica, said he is going over to the side of the writing men and does not intend to have additional news conferences or interviews.

The senator, bronzed from his Jamaica vacation and a subsequent rest at his Phoenix home, gave no indications that he was downcast by his landslide defeat by Johnson.

"They can't discount the fact that 27 million Americans voted for me," he said.

When his interviewer noted that other Republicans contended the GOP conservative strength left included Republicans who did not necessarily agree with his views but opposed Johnson and his program, Goldwater replied cryptically:

"That's what they say. I think the conservatives are going to be heard from."

Republican governors, meeting in Denver this weekend, may come up with some recommendations for realigning the party organization. Burch has called a Jan. 21-22 meeting of the National Committee in Chicago at which he plans to ask for a vote of confidence.

The newest demand for replacement of Burch came Tuesday from Charles Percy, defeated in his race for governor of Illinois. Percy, the 1960 GOP convention platform chairman, said "we must have a change in command at the national level."

Percy proposed setting up a national policy committee. He suggested that it be headed by Gov. Robert Smylie of Idaho, Sen. Thruston B. Morton of Kentucky or Rep. Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio.

Senate Republican leaders showed no enthusiasm for Percy's suggestions.

Belli Will Defend Texan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Melvin Belli, who unsuccessfully defended Jack Ruby in Dallas, has agreed to represent Dykes Askew Simmons, a Texan who faces a 30-year prison sentence in Mexico.

Simmons was convicted and given a death sentence in Monterrey for what Belli described as a "viciously brutal murder in which two Mexican children and an adult were hacked to death in 1959."

The death penalty was commuted to 30 years in prison by the governor of Nuevo Leon after the Supreme Court of Mexico upheld the death sentence.

Simmons said he would rather die than spend 30 years in a Mexican jail. His home is in Fort Worth.

"Simmons says he was 50 miles away when the murders occurred," Belli said. "They arrested him under very strange circumstances. Simmons denies he committed the murders."

Belli said he would fly to Mexico City before Jan. 15 on another legal matter and will confer afterward at Monterrey with the imprisoned Texan.

"I don't know what we are going to do," Belli said. "But Simmons wrote me asking if I would represent him. I told him I would. After I see him in Monterrey, I will know better what procedure he will follow."

Burglar Leaves Finger At Scene

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — David Pehrson, who literally put the finger on himself, is in police custody today.

"I'm wanted in Minnesota," Pehrson, 31, told the desk sergeant Tuesday, holding up a bandaged left hand.

Officers said Pehrson explained that he bungled a safe burglary last Nov. 13 in Hopkins, Minn. He said the safe he was trying to move slipped off a dolly and severed the second finger.

While he waited in Orange County jail, police said, confirmation came from Hopkins sheriff's deputies. Yes, a burglary warrant had been issued, detectives had found the finger at the scene and had taken Pehrson's print from it.

The Audubon Society operates four year - round educational and demonstration centers in California, Ohio and Connecticut. These museums are designed to show dramatically the interrelationships of rocks, water, soil, plants and animals.

Robbers Leave Victim Stitchless

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Clive Manley dropped a whole row of stitches — mentally, that is — when he returned to his parked car.

Someone had stolen his knitting needles, three sweaters and a pattern book from the unlocked vehicle, he told police Tuesday.

"The sweaters were going to be a Christmas present for my old gray-haired mother," Manley said sadly. "There's nothing to do but to start all over again. But I sure will miss that old pattern book. It can't be replaced."

Manley learned to knit more than 20 years ago, while a World War II prisoner of the Japanese. He weathered the ridicule of his fellow Navy officers and he never gave up his hobby.

Books Closed On Historic Case

By ERNEST STROMBERGER

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — Dist. Judge J. H. Starley closes the books today on testimony in the historic Rio Grande water rights case, one of the most tortuous, drawn out and costly water controversies in the nation.

Starley, the third judge involved in the case's eight-year history, likely will hear closing arguments next month.

"This is a monumental occasion," Asst. Atty. Gen. Frank Booth, who has devoted the last two years to the case, told an interviewer.

"It is a substantial accomplishment that the testimony in this case is completed."

Today's testimony, like that offered during the past 11 months, is as dry as much of the lower Rio Grande bed. Much of the tedium and confusion, Booth believes, could be averted by action of the legislature.

At stake in the suit is the water needed for about 500,000 persons and 800,000 acres of land in this semi-tropical commerical vegetable and citrus fruit growing area at the tip of the lower Texas coast.

Experts figure the once mighty Rio Grande can meet only three-fourths of the irrigation needs. Lawyers estimate the water's value at $5 million to $15 million.

Controversy arose when irrigation demands caught up with the dwindling river flow and landowners began asserting claims to the precious water.

A suit was filed in 1956. The state took one look at the jumble of more than 3,000 conflicting claims accumulated over more than 60 years and appointed a water master to apportion the water while the suit was tried.

Lawyers soon found they had no ground rules.

"We just had to make up the rules as we went along and hope the appellate courts would approve," Booth said.

"I haven't been able to find a suit concerning water rights in the United States decided under such trying circumstances."

Although Booth has handled the legal work alone, he estimates 15 employes of the Texas Water Commission have been assigned for two years. The state has put more than $300,000 into the case.

"The trial of this case demonstrates there must be legislation and more expeditious and more economical procedures set up to adjudicate water rights," Booth said.

"The final decision necessarily must cut across and decide every substantial, controversial legal question of water law in the state today."
