Mrs. Kyle Vick Wins Tournament At Port Isabel

Mrs. Kyle Vick, Jr. of Rockport sacked up the 25th Texas International Fishing Tournament at Port Isabel Saturday by whipping two sailfish on mere 10-pound test line. Her husband, Kyle Vick, Jr., landed one fish.

Her two fish scored more points because of the spiderwebthin fishing line than anyone else could accumulate. The fish weighed 60 and 48 pounds each and accounted for 900 points on the system which gives greater points for the lighter line.

Jimmy Ehman of Boerne, 10-years-old but still a veteran at this fishing, tournament business, took second place. He landed a 44-pound opening day Thursday, brought in two Friday and Saturday boated a 45-pounder, all on 20-pound test line, for 865 points.

Otto Koehler of San Antonio, who led for the first two days with 36 and 57 pound sailfish, was third with 787 points. He used ten pound test line, also.

In this tournament points are figured according to the breaking test of the line and the weight of the weight of the fish.

Catching sailfish the final day, besides the top three, were Lewis is Boggus, Jr., of Corpus Christi six foot 11 and seven foot; Mrs. Billy Pugh of Corpus Christi, 7-1; Al Harper, Alice, 6-10; Mrs. Ed Kilgore of Alice, 6-9; Jack Boeck, Corpus Christi, 6-6; Kyle Vick Jr., Rockport, 7-0; Dr. Howard Tewell, Harlingen, 7-5; Bob Stahlman of Houston, 7-4; Doyle Wells of Port Isabel, 7-2; Tom Sheba of Mission, 6-8; A. H. (Buddy) Cadwallier, III of San Antonio, 6-9; Mrs. Ralph Plumlee, Dallas, 7-0.

The largest sailfish of them all was taken final day when Linwood Bland of Brownsville brought in a 7-4, 66-pounder.

VFW ERECTS SAFETY SIGN

The VFW has recently erected a sign at the entrance to the street leading to the high school from Highway 35. Money for the sign came from one of the members who prefers to remain anonymous. The sign says "The VFW Welcomes You To Rockport. Give Our Kids a Break, Drive Safely."

The American Liberty Oil Co. Requests Engineers Permit

The American Liberty Oil Co. has requested a permit from the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, to operate in the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway and Aransas Bay, 300 feet southwesterly along the centerline of the water from Aransas Bay Light 13 and central to a point approximately seven miles north-east of Rockport.

The company proposes to dredge a channel and erect channel and route markers and a sign at the above location. A 60-foot wide channel having a bottom elevation of five feet below mean low tide would be dredged from a point 300 feet southwesterly from Aransas Bay Light No. 13 westerly from the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway for 1,500 feet.

Spoil would be placed 1,000 feet west from the centerline of the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway and beyond the crest of the Federal project spoil bank.

Route markers starting 100 feet west from the centerline of the waterway would be placed at 1,000-foot intervals and run westerly to a point beyond the Grass Island Reefs then turn and run northerly to the Sea-Gun Sports Inn Marina.

The last 12 route markers would be spaced 200 feet apart. A proposed informational sign, having a top elevation of ten feet above mean low tide, would be erected approximately 725 feet west from the centerline of the Waterway and opposite Aransas Bay Light No. 13.

C of C Directors Hold Regular Meet

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce were told at their regular meeting that an invitation had been extended to Governor John Connally through his former roommate, James B. Jackson, to speak at the annual Chamber banquet in March, but that his schedule would not be made up until later, at which time a definite reply would be given.

Mrs. Mary Juergens reported that only four merchants had replied to a circular letter on the subject of Christmas decorations, and final plans were laid to serve coffee to some 150 members of the Hug-the-Coast Highway Association meeting expected here on a bus tour Monday afternoon. Also a number of the directors signified their intention of attending meetings of the Association to be held in Corpus Christi Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Juergens told the directors that Mrs. Pepper Everett, chairman of the tourist promotion committee, had received requests from the Aransas Pass Shrimp-oree and Comal County County Fair Committees to enter the Rockport float in their parades, and that it would definitely take part in the Aransas Pass fiesta, although no decision had been reached on the trip to New Braunfels.

Membership chairman Lola Bonner reported no new members during the past month.

A discussion then arose over what is a Chamber of Commerce, and what is its function in the community.

This was defined as a voluntary organization of the business community, acting as a central agency of business and professional individuals and firms which occupies itself with improving and building a better community.

It was brought out during the discussion that a Chamber of Commerce enables these people to do collectively what none of them could do as individuals, and that the greatest strength of a Chamber lies in attracting the greatest number of individuals and firms into membership, thereby creating a pool of resources—natural and human—from which ideas and energy can be drawn.

Directors also discussed the tourist guide that has just been issued, and of which copies may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce, and then-listened to Jack Sanders as he told them of a new tourist publication to be issued once a year by firms in the area.

This is patterned after a similar publication that has proven exceptionally successful in attracting tourists and keeping them fully informed of the advantages of the territory around Del Rio. This city, as a number of the directors pointed out, has not nearly the advantages tourist-wise that Aransas County possesses, yet Sanders told them that it was rapidly growing into a center where many small conventions poured dollars into local pockets every year.

The publication is patterned after a newspaper, but has this difference: You can buy advertising space on the front page—a thing no conventional newspaper does in these days. The very attractive sheet issued by the Del Rio group lists the advantages of that area; the types of recreation; points of interest; places to go, stay, see and do, and items of a similar nature.

Sanders said that he had been able to get a similar paper underwritten here, and showed a very attractive layout he had made which, he said, would probably be used for the first issue.

The directors voted to give Skinner, publisher of the new guide book, a letter of commendation for the excellent job he had done in assembling the booklet, which includes 28 pages besides the cover.

COUNCIL AWARDS TANK CONTRACT

At a special meeting of the City Council, Samsco was awarded a contract for a 200,000-gallon ground storage tank for water, to be erected of welded steel, and to cost $12,032.

70 MPH Speed Limit Effective On Most Texas Highways Aug. 23

The Texas Highway Department district office in Corpus Christi listed farm to market roads which will have daytime speed limits increased to 70 miles an hour when the state-wide blanket increase to 70 becomes law Aug. 23.

Most state highways and all U.S. highways in the area, outside of control zones, will have speed limits of 70 miles an hour. The district office, listed three segments of state highways, however, which will maintain the 60 mile daytime, 55 mile night, speed limit.

In the ten counties under jurisdiction of the Corpus Christi office, three state highways maintaining the old limits are Highway 72 from Kenedy east to the Karnes County line; Highway 80 from Karnes City northwest to the Karnes County line near Nixon, and Highway 119 from Yorktown north to the Dewitt County line at Davy and from Yorktown south to U.S. Highway 183.

The two farm to market roads in the immediate area which will have 70 mile an hour speed limits (65 at night) are FM 624 from U. S. Highway 77 at Calallen to U.S. Highway 281 between Alice and George West, and FM 881 from Sinton east to Highway 9 and from five miles east of Sinton to Highway 136.

Any youth who would like to bake a pie or cake, please call one of the numbers given for donation calls.

The funds will be used to finish paying off the patio. Since the youth center has reopened, members have been able to pay $300 on their debt and are well on their way to paying off the rest.

If things keep up this well, they will be able to finish paying off the debt before school starts.

They want to thank everyone who has made donations to the club. They were all greatly appreciated.

SARA Offers Assistance To Water Problems

The San Antonio River Authority has written the newly-formed Aransas Conservation and Reclamation District, offering cooperation in helping solve our water problems.

In a letter from David Brune, assistant manager and general counsel of the San Antonio River Authority, he says:

"As you know, this Authority and the Gualupe-Blanco River Authority have entered into a plan for the development of the water resources of their 14-county area on a coordinated basis. . . . A part of this plan is the proposed Goliad reservoir which the two authorities contemplate developing on a fifty-fifty basis.

"Ultimately, the Goliad reservoir is nearing completion, and as you know, the GBRA owns the right to divert water therefrom at the rate of 50,000 acre feet per annum. It might be that your district would want to consider the possibility of purchasing water from GBRA, such water to be diverted out of the Guadalupe River at the location of GBRA's salt water barrier a few miles north of Texas 35. Just looking at the map, it would seem that it might be an easy job to bring your pipelines . . . right down Highway 35 right-of-way into Rockport.

"If we can be of any assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call upon us."

Coaches Attend Houston School

Dave Segler, director of physical education for the Aransas County Independent School, along with coaches John Baker, Pat Smith and Gene Wilkins, left last Sunday to attend the 31st Annual Coaches' Clinic to be held in Houston from Monday through Friday.

Coaches from 14 states and Germany started arriving in Houston Sunday, along with football and basketball All-Stars.

The gathering should establish a new record for attendance in what is already the largest school of its kind in the world, with a previous high mark of 3,333 at the San Antonio school in 1961.

The All-Stars, representing the northern and southern parts of Texas, checked in at Rice University on Sunday to start workouts.

The North, blending the height of 6-7 stars Bob Glover of Dallas Jefferson and David Wray of Abilene, plus the scoring punch of Dale Dotson of Rusk, Milton White of San Angelo, Mike Gannon of Denton and Bob Berger of Canyon, are favored in Thursday's basketball date.

Eleven all-starters are on the Yank squad, while the South's main punch comes from Rick Greenlaw of Spring Branch, Jon Gorenflo of Milby, John Hatch of Buna, Curley Lenox of Clear Creek and Bill Overall of San Marcos. Tipoff time is 7:45 at the Sam Houston Coliseum.

Friday's football game at Rice Stadium will close out the coaching school. A strong air game rates the Rebels a mild favorite in this 7:45 p.m. session.

The All-Star coaches include Paul Smith of Galena Park in football and Jimmy Littleton of South San Antonio in basketball for the South. Borger's Gene Mayfield in football and Lubbock Monterey Berald Myers in basketball will handle the North.

A highlight of the school will be the annual Awards Luncheon on Friday when four coaches will be inducted into "Hall of Honor." Chronicle columnist Morris Frank will be the master of ceremonies and Berl Huffman of Texas Tech will be the main speaker.

Lee Mitchell of Columbus, George Forehand of San Antonio, Howard Lynch of Amarillo and the late Paul Tyson of Waco are the coaches being brought into the "Hall of Honor."

Smith's grid forces is triggered by the passing of such top-flight quarterbacks as Dennis Gann of Bay City, Victor Castillo of San Antonio Breckenridge and Randy McCollum of Barbers Hill.

The running of Odessa Permain's Mike Love, plus the line play of John LaGrone of Borger and Kelly Baker of Dumas, are expected to be the North push.

ARANSAS OILER 218.5 BARRELER

Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1 State Tract 113, Aransas County South Copano Bay Field producer 3 1/2 miles east of Bayside, completed on the upper tubing side for a daily flow of 218.5 barrels of 43.5 gravity oil plus a trace of water.

Production is through 16-64-inch choke from perforations at 7,947-51 feet in 7 inch casing at 9,102 feet, with total depth 10,303 feet.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,913-1 and flowing tubing pressure was 925 pounds.

Sea Gun Restaurant New Units To Hold Open House Sunday

The formal opening of the new Sea Gun Sports Inn Restaurant and Reef Club, along with 34 more units of the Inn, will be held Sunday, Aug. 11, when an open house will be given lasting from 2 until 6 p.m.

The new restaurant, part of the tourist complex that Toddie Lee Wynne's American Liberty Oil Company is building on the shore of Aransas Bay, seats 140 people in the main dining room, which can be divided into two for smaller parties, such as bridge clubs and civic organizations.

The Reef Club, for which applications are being taken, can seat another 100 in air-conditioned comfort, and looks out over a small tropical garden.

Managing the new facility are Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Brumley, former managers of the old Big Tree Restaurant before it burned, where they were famous for their service and cuisine.

Brumley said the new restaurant would be open seven days a week, from 5 a.m. until 10:30 p.m., and that later on, would feature a series of special nights, in which the cuisine may vary from seafood buffets through Swedish smorgasbords and Mexican dinners.

One of the interesting features of the new restaurant is a giant mural along one wall, painted by Al Hagy, which depicts the coast in this area from Panther Point to Rockport, and which furnishes an accurate map with all place names correctly indicated, for use of hunters and fishermen as they plan their trips.

Also of interest are the place mats, one kind for adults, another for children.

Those for adults are decorated with charming sketches of treasure chests, Morgan Line steamships loading cattle, turtles, LaFitte and other pirates, the Big Tree of Lamar, Indians, whooping cranes and turtles. To accompany these are little paragraphs of information of the area and its history.

For the children, there is a mat that should be a delight for mothers. On it are sketches of frogs, turtles, fish, starfish, seahorses, ducklings and sail boats that can be colored. Besides these, there are four sets of numbered dots that the small fry can join with a pencil mark, producing a whooping crane, an anchor, a sailboat, and a fish.

Another service the restaurant performs is the cooking of game and fish shot or caught by sportsmen staying at the Sea Gun Inn, and among the first fish offered for this service was a string of big angel fish that Buck Wynne of Wills Point caught at one of the offshore rigs in the Gulf of Mexico. There was a big tub full of them, and most of them were a foot long, and at least that wide.

Library Loans 2041 Books In Month of July

According to a report compiled by Mrs. Valgene Eaton, the Aransas County Public Library issued 61 new borrowers' cards during July, and circulated 2041 books, to children and adults.

There were 16 adult borrowers' cards issued, and 45 juvenile cards, Mrs. Eaton said.

Adult fiction borrowed during the month totaled 359; there were 179 adult non-fiction loaned. Children borrowed 1408 books of fiction and 95 non-fiction, Mrs. Eaton said. During the month she also collected in $7.79 in overdue fines and 61 books were added to the shelves.

Mrs. Eaton said a number of long-past due books had been returned as the result of a drive by members of the library board and the librarian, in which an effort was being made to trace the many books that had been borrowed, some of them as much as two years ago, and that have not been returned.

She also indicated that the paper back rack, from which many people borrow, on an exchange basis, needed some new books badly. This rack is filled with books donated by readers who are supposed to replace the books they take to read with others they have already read, she said. However, she pointed out, these paperbacks soon go to pieces under intensive reading, and new ones are always needed.

There have been a few gifts of other books or of money to buy other books during the summer, she said.

TWIRLING SCHOOL TO BE HELD HERE DURING AUGUST

Twirling lessons will be offered during the month of August at 1601 Bay Shore Drive.

New Guide Booklet Ready For Public Distribution Now

A new, 28-page booklet, "The Toast of The Coast—A Guide to Pleasure" made its appearance here this week, and details the points of interest in the area for the use of tourists and vacationers that come to Aransas County.

Introduced by a letter from the Chamber of Commerce the publication goes on to show the way to Rockport and Fulton through a series of maps, and tells the tale of Aransas County from the earliest times until now.

The influences that shaped Rockport's growth included the early beef packers that sprouted here after the Civil War, to utilize the great herds of longhorns over-running the country. The area was guided throughout its early years by proprietors of these packing companies.

LOCAL PEOPLE AMONG BOWLING LEAGUE WINNERS

A number of local people were members of the two teams that fought it out for top honors in the Rockport Mixed League this week.

The Cobb's Electric Company team of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. G. Swan were tops in the tournament, and Lee Cobb was winner of the trophy for the highest series score by a man.

Lassiter's Cleaners' team, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lassiter, Mrs. Lou White, and Bill Blevins were second with Mrs. Lassiter winning the high individual series score trophy for women.

Mrs. White won the trophy for the highest score rolled by a woman in one game and Blevins won the man's trophy in the same event.

In the series, Lassiter and Harry Mills both rolled 200 in a sanctioned game for the first time, and both were awarded trophies for their performances.

Mrs. D. O. Lee is now home from the Aransas Hospital.

"Dog Days" Are Not for People...

"The sultry, close part of the summer" — that's one definition of dog days. This time of year used to mean discomfort for people, as well as dogs — but not any more. Not if they make the most of their comfort-giving electric service.

When hot weather comes, many people simply give Reddy Kilowatt the summer jobs to do — keeping the house coolly air-conditioned, chilling the refreshments, providing light for outdoor activities. With all this extra work for Reddy to do in addition to his regular year-round chores, summer electric bills may be larger — but isn't summer comfort worth far more than it costs? The value of electric service from Central Power and Light Company was never higher than it is today — and the average price per unit was never lower.

Area Firm Has Contract On Houston Stadium

It makes no difference what it is—a house, troughs for feeding cattle, a houseboat, or Houston's new domed stadium—if it can be built of aluminum the Walter Brauers, father and son, will build it.

Their firm, the Brauer Engineering Company, now occupies seven acres of land between Ingleside and the big Reynolds Metals Company aluminum plant a mile or so down the road—part of the land once occupied by a Humble refinery. From here, later this fall, they will take part of their equipment and personnel to Houston, where they have a $35,000 contract to produce patented Brauer Structural Aluminum panels to cover that city's new stadium.

These panels were the beginning of everything. Devised by Walter the elder, a number of years ago, they can be fabricated in any desired length by an ingenious and complicated machine which he built for the purpose, using coiled aluminum sheets as the raw material.

And, because some of the panels to be used on the stadium will be seven stories tall, it is simpler to move men and machines to Houston than it is to try to ship the panels after they are finished.

Three men are required to operate one of the machines, which can eat of a freight car load of rolled aluminum sheeting in a ten-hour run.

Besides being used for walls of factories, warehouses and similar buildings, the Brauers have figured out a whole series of new uses for the panels.

The house occupied by Walter

Brauer, Jr., is an Ingleside show place, while another constructed by the senior Brauer for a seaside retreat was set high on stilts, with parking space underneath. Portable aluminum classrooms for schools have attracted a great deal of attention among school administrators; they have built aluminum crew boats for drilling contractors and an aluminum houseboat for the family, which they housed in an aluminum boat house; and they even fabricated 400 feed troughs for the King Ranch.

Major aluminum companies such as Alcoa and Reynolds are much interested in the stadium project, the younger Brauer said.

"It will be a prestige job to which they can point as an outstanding use of aluminum."

Brauer expects to start the Houston project later this fall, depending on how fast other phases of construction proceed.

Walter H. Brauer, Sr., says he is convinced there are many other opportunities in this area for development of other small industrial plants that could use available skilled labor and basic products of the region's large industrial plants to produce consumer goods. All it takes, he says, is imagination, hard work, initiative, and salesmanship.
