Quarter Horse Royalty Due

The Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show will be held Saturday, Nov. 9, the first time it has been held in fall. Tony White, chairman, reminded this week. It is the 11th year the show has been held, however.

This is an American Quarter Horse Association approved show and insofar as is known here, it is the only one to be staged at this time nearer than Fort Worth.

Because of this, an unusually large number of entries is due.

All classes are limited to AQHA Registered horses.

The Collingsworth Show will be held at the VFW Rodeo arena at the northeast corner of the town section.

It will be an all-day event, with the judging at halter due to start at 10 a.m. and the performance classes at 1 p.m.

Of greater interest to the spectators will be the latter class, and both junior and senior divisions are scheduled, Mr. White said.

These classes will include the cutting contest, reining contest, roping contest, and western pleasure riding for both divisions, and a single barrel race that will include all ages. Horses shown in the performance do not have to be shown at halter.

There will be three divisions in the halter classes, said Mr. White, with a total of 15 classes.

The first six classes will be 1968 fillies, 1967 fillies, 1966 mares, 1965 mares, 1964 or before mares and brood mares.

Five classes of stallions are set up: 1968, 1967, 1966, 1965, 1964 or before.

The last four classes to be judged will be geldings, 1967, 1966, 1965, and 1964 or before.

A grand champion and reserve champion mare, stallion and gelding will be named.

Trophies will go to the winner of the performance classes. In the halter classes, trophies will go to the first place winners and ribbons to second through sixth places.

Working with Mr. White will be Bud Higginbotham, ring master, and Mrs. Kirby Campbell, secretary. Johnny McClellan of McLean will judge the show.

"We urge the people of this area to attend our show Saturday—either all or part of it. You will see some of the most beautiful quarter horses in the southwest, and if you are not a quarter horse fan, you will find out why so many people are."

Quail Goes to Flomot Friday; Hosts Estelline

The Quail Quails and Bobwhites will play one game at home and another away during the coming week, Coach Billy Wilson announced.

The teams will travel to Flomot Friday, Nov. 8, for their second meeting with those teams. The two schools opened their seasons in games at Quail, with the Quail boys and the Flomot girls winning.

All four teams should be considerably improved, Coach Wilson believes.

On Tuesday, Nov. 12, the Quails and Bobwhites will host the Estelline teams in what is expected to be another good game.

Dodson Church Sets Week-End Revival Service

Plans have been completed for a week end revival at the South Baptist Church in Dodson, with the release of names of those in the revival team to be in charge of the series of services scheduled to begin on Friday evening, Nov. 8, with subsequent services on Saturday and Sunday evenings, as well as at the Sunday morning worship hour.

Time selected for the opening of the first two services is 7:30 p.m., but with the earlier hour of 6:00 p.m. for the Sunday

Toys for Tots Drive Begun by Jaycees, FFA

Wellington Jaycees and the Future Farmers Chapter of Wellington High School have opened their annual Toys for Tots drive to insure that every child has a good Christmas this year.

The FFA is ready to turn its workshop over to toy repair and anyone with toys to give may bring them to the FFA department in the new metal building at the southwest corner of the school campus.

A committee composed of Leroy Belew, Ralph Owens and Duggie Jameson will pick up toys after 5 p.m.

Clothing also will be accepted, Mr. Belew said.

Those in the two organizations working with the toy drive believe that there will be a greater need for toys this year than for any time in several years.

As in the past, the FFA will take care of all repair and repainting of the toys and the Jaycees will distribute them to needy children on Christmas eve.

There is a use for all toys, Mr. Belew emphasized. Those that are too badly damaged to be repaired can still be used for parts.

Warning Given on Expiring Soil Bank Land

"We wish to caution all farm operators who have soil bank contracts expiring on Dec. 31, 1968 that the condition of the contract must be complied with until the Dec. 31 expiration date, even though the last annual payment has been made," reminded Millard Brown, ASCS office manager.

The soil bank land is not released for grazing until Jan. 1, 1969.

"Any grazing prior to this date is a violation to the contract and a civil penalty will be assessed against the contract signers. We have already discovered two farms that are in violation for grazing," Mr. Brown continued.

"Also, the burning of the cover from the soil bank land is a violation. We trust that each one will fully comply with his contract and not have to be penalized for a violation," Mr. Brown said.

Rocket B to Meet Shamrock There Thursday

The Wellington Skyrocket B team will travel to Shamrock Thursday, Nov. 7, for its second meeting with the Irish B. Shamrock won the first encounter, 26-0, but Coach James Stavenhagen predicts his Rockets will play an improved game.

"They got some breaks in the last game and capitalized on them," he said.

Jaycees Host Work Forum Here Tuesday

Wellington Jaycees will host a work forum for Area 1-B Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be in the VFW Hall at Marian Airport.

The new state director, Morris Wilson of Pampa, will be introduced and take charge of the forum. He will also be the principal speaker.

Presidents of each Jaycee group present will report on the work done in that unit. Donald Settle, Wellington president, is in charge of arrangements.

Invited to attend are Ronald Wright of Borger, vice president, and Quilen Stapleton of Amarillo, internal vice president.

Jaycee units due to be represented are Canadian, Clarendon, McLean, Spearman, Perryton, Shamrock, Pampa, and Wellington.

Smith Receives Big Margin in Collingsworth

Collingsworth County voters spoke their voice Tuesday, Nov. 5, and joined other Texans in naming Preston Smith the next Governor of Texas.

Mr. Smith received 1150 Collingsworth votes to 697 for his Republican opponent, Paul Eggers. The 60 percent vote which Mr. Smith received in Collingsworth County was far higher than the percentage of his vote in the remainder of the Panhandle, and also higher than the vote in the state as a whole at the count Wednesday morning.

The closeness of the presidential vote paralleled the state trend: The Humphrey-Muskie ticket received 746 votes; Nixon-Agnew 712; and Wallace-Le May 475.

Collingsworth also joined the Panhandle in voting to return Bob Price to Congress from the 18th District, but by the narrow margin of 945 to 910, over his Democratic opponent, Dick Brown.

In the race for Representative, 75th District, Republican rancher, Tom Christian of Claude, defeated incumbent J. M. (Red) Simpson in the overall vote, but Collingsworth favored Mr. Simpson 1116 to 658.

Mr. Christian, through his wife, has close Collingsworth ties. Mrs. Christian is the former Ann Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Kalls, formerly of Wellington. She is a niece of County Judge Zook Thomas and Trusten Thomas.

Collingsworth voters approved only four of the 14 proposed constitutional amendments:

—No. 3, Investment of the permanent University Fund by the Board of Regents of the University of Texas.

—No. 5, Setting the salary of members of the Legislature at $8,400.

—No. 7, Abolishing the state ad valorem tax.

—No. 9, Full salary contributions by members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas.

There were no contested races on the local level, but voters gave the Democratic nominees a rousing vote of approval.

The Collingsworth vote in the other contested races was:

Lt. Governor: Ben Barnes, D, 1363; Doug DeCluit, R, 438.

Comptroller, Public Accounts: Robert S. Calvert, D, 1332; John M. Bennett, Jr., R, 454.

Treasurer: Jesse James, D, 1394; Manuel Sanchez, R, 396.

Commissioner of Agriculture: John C. White, D, 1195; E. G. Schuhart II, R, 459.

Railroad Commissioner: Jim C. Langdon, D, 1283; Jim Seagrist, R, 441.

State Board of Education, 18th District: Herbert O. Willborn, D, 1197; Hugh Burdett, R, 474.

Attorney General: Crawford C. Martin, D, 1297; Sproesser Wynn, R, 455.

Singers Invited to Join Annual Church Cantata

The annual Christmas cantata has been selected for the choir of First United Methodist Church, and an invitation to all singers who would like to participate was given this week by Mrs. Jack Davis, director.

It will be presented Sunday, Dec. 15.

This year's cantata will be "God in a Star." The lyrics are by Frank Cross, while James Denton composed the music.

Work will begin immediately and practice sessions will be held each Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Participation in the cantata is not limited to Methodists but is open to anyone wishing to sing, both in Wellington and outlying towns and communities, Mrs. Davis emphasized.

High school students as well as adults are included.

Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., will be the organist for the cantata.

Dinner, School Observance

Veterans Day Plans Given for Dodson

The observance of Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11, will be sponsored in Dodson by the American Legion Post No. 535 and the Auxiliary unit.

The Legion Auxiliary will serve a turkey dinner for the public. Mrs. F. L. Kizer, Auxiliary president, said the serving will start at 11:30 a.m. in the American Legion building on Dodson main street and continue through 2:30 p.m. The dinner will be served cafeteria style, and tickets may be had at the door.

Mrs. Kizer said that proceeds will go into the American Legion Building Fund.

The Dodson Post will sponsor special patriotic observances in two schools, Dodson and Arnett, under the direction of Duard Luck, commander, and Dennis Holland, 18th District vice commander.

Keith Myers, Hollis attorney, will be the speaker at both schools.

The Dodson service is set at 1 p.m. and that at Arnett will begin at 2.

Mr. Myers is a veteran of the Korean War and is active in behalf of former service men. He has been a practicing attorney in Hollis for several years.

The public is urged to attend the turkey dinner, and also to attend the services at the two schools.

RC&D Project Hearing Set for Nov. 20 & 21

A hearing on the proposed Resource Conservation and Development Program will be conducted Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 20 and 21 by three representatives from the State Office of the Soil Conservation Service.

Announcement of this latest step in the proposed multi-county RC&D project came during the week end from Gary Reed, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service.

The location of the hearing has not been made, but it will be within one of the counties in the project, Mr. Reed said. One or more of the other counties may be included in the visits, and the three-man board will likely spend part of their time with the RC&D steering committee, which is headed by Harry Frye of Shamrock, Mr. Reed indicated.

Member counties in the project are Collingsworth, Hall, Donley, Wheeler, Gray and Hemphill, with Briscoe as a potential member.

At present, each of these counties is now gathering material to go into the application for approval. This material will define the county's need for assistance under the RC&D program. After all counties have collected the necessary material, it will be put together for the joint application.

In RC&D projects, Mr. Reed reminded, all segments of the community can work together to solve local problems and im-

Quail Season Opens in County Saturday

The quail season will open in Collingsworth County Saturday, Nov. 9, against the will of many county landowners. This is the earliest opening date in recent years, and many farmers and ranchers feel that it is too early and that the birds are too small.

However, any Collingsworth residents planning to hunt in Childress and Hall counties will have to postpone this for another three weeks for the opening date in those counties is Dec. 1.

Again the bag limit is 12 per day and 36 in possession, and the season will be open until Jan. 31.

Other counties with a Dec. 1-Jan. 31 quail season are Briscoe, Motley, Cottle and Har-

Thrill Packed Game

Rockets Beat Strong Quanah Team 20 to 8

By JACK FORD

In a hard-hitting and thrill-packed football game, the Wellington Skyrockets upset the favored Quanah Indians 20 to 8, before an estimated 1500 fans at Powell Field in Wellington, Friday night, Nov. 1.

The Rockets, led by Charles Mauldin, Ricky Brown, Tony Hurst, Don Martin, Nicky Watts, Andy Lowe, Larry Robinson, Danny Watts, Jimmy Bohannon, Larry Kane, Mark Killian, James Jones, Ricky Nall, Teddy McLain, Jerry Woolridge, Chuck Wilbur and Danny West, played a fine defensive game, and the offense, when it finally started to roll, exploded and kept a consistent pressure on the Indians.

After a shaky start the Rocket defense settled down and stopped the Indians drives most of the game, and their hard-hitting tackles caused a number of Indians fumbles and helped in the interception of two Indian passes.

It was a Rocket night, and the Rockets were not denied their victory. From the beginning until the end of the game the Rockets stayed in there and fought the heavier Indians for this game and another win. The Rockets wanted this game and they went out and won it.

The Rockets won the toss and received the kickoff to open the ball game, but they had troubles moving the ball for the first half of the quarter. The Rocket defense did a great job in stopping two Indian drives on the Rocket 30 and 45 yard lines.

It was at this point of the game that the Rockets exploded with their offense. Putting the ball in play on the Rocket 5, A. Lowe, C. Mauldin and N. Watts, behind that fine Rocket line, drove to their 26. Then Quarterback C. Mauldin threw a beautiful pass that was gathered in by D. West who went all the way for the touchdown. C. Mauldin passed again to D. West for the 2 extra points. Rockets 8, Indians 0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Indians came right back to score in the first part of the second quarter, driving and passing 73 yards in 9 plays for their only touchdown. The try for 2 extra points was good. Rockets 8, Indians 8.

After exchanging punts, the Rockets came to life again and started to lower the imaginary roof on the Indians.

Putting the ball in play on the Rocket 33, A. Lowe, C. Mauldin and a 5-yard penalty placed the ball on the Rocket 38 yard line. Then A. Lowe, following some great blocking, and doing a fine job of running, ran for 58 yards to the Indian 4 yard line. A penalty against the Indians moved the ball to the 2, and from this point N. Watts drove into the end zone. The try for extra point failed. Rockets 14, Indians 8 at the half.

The Rockets scored their last touchdown in the third period. After exchanging punts the Rockets were forced to punt again. The Indians fumbled on their own 9 and Rocket J. Bohannon fell on the ball for a Rocket recovery on the Indian 6. C. Mauldin, N. Watts and A. Lowe drove to the Indian 1 yard line. Again N. Watts drove into the end zone for a touchdown. The try for extra

Hunters Must Remove Guns, Long Knives

New State law now makes it a felony for anyone to carry hand guns or knives (over 5½ inches long) into any retail outlet that sells alcoholic beverages. Deer hunters are urged to remove hunting knives before entering a cafe for a cup of coffee before the long drive home or a drive-in grocery for a pack of cigarettes.

point failed.

From here on out the Rocket defense did a great job of stopping the Indians. Pressure by the Rocket linemen on the Indian passer helped set up pass interceptions by D. West and A. Lowe that stopped Indian drives, while the Indian ground game came to a complete halt.

In the last quarter the Rockets drove to the Indian 8, but were stopped by the defense. Five plays later the game ended. Rockets 20, Indians 8.

This Friday night Nov. 8, the Rockets travel to Childress to meet the Bobcats. Game time 8 p.m.

This should be another great game for the Rockets. The Bobcats have a fine football club, and injuries have hurt them for the past part of their schedule. But again it will be the Bobcats meeting the Rockets, so both teams will have to play their top game to come out on top. The Rockets can win this one, but again they will have to put out everything against the heavier Bobcats. The Rockets can do it and they will need everyone's support, so let's try to get to Childress and cheer our boys on to win. See you all in Childress.

317 Prairie Chicken Taken in Season

Hunters in eight Panhandle counties killed 317 prairie chickens during this year's two day season, according to Dick DeArment of Wheeler, biologist for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. The kill by counties was not given.

This was the second time the prairie chicken season has been open in 31 years. Last year's two-day season was the first since 1937, and was open in three counties, Lipscomb, Hemphill and Wheeler. This year the season was extended to Collingsworth, Donley, Gray, Ochiltree and Roberts counties. A check of the hunter success this year reveals that hunters averaged 1.53 birds compared to last year's average of 1.55 birds, DeArment said. Last year 363 birds were killed.

DeArment said the prairie chicken has been making a strong comeback in portions of the Panhandle in recent years, but despite recent population increases, the future is not bright.

"Prairie chickens are dependent in a large part upon native brush cover and tall grasses," the biologist said. "As more and more land is taken out of the Soil Bank program and put back into cultivation, the prairie chicken is pushed back."

Coming Scout Meetings Set

Comanche District Scouting activities for November and December were announced this week from the Adobe Walls Council headquarters in Pampa.

The District Scout Committee will meet Wednesday, Nov. 6, at the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative building at 7:30 p.m.

The Cub Leaders Roundtable will be at the Clarendon Methodist Church Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. and the Boy Scout Leaders Roundtable Thursday, Nov. 14 at the Carnegie Library in Memphis, also at 7:30 p.m.

The Cub Leaders Roundtable will meet again Tuesday, Nov. 19 at the Episcopal Church Parish Hall in Shamrock at 7:30 p.m.

December meetings include two at Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, the Cub Leaders Roundtable Tuesday, Dec. 10, and the Comanche District Committee meeting Tuesday, Dec. 17, also at 7:30.

The Boy Scout Leaders Roundtable will be Thursday, Dec. 12 at First Christian Church Fellowship Hall at 7:30 p.m.

One Test Due in County

An intention to drill a test in North Collingsworth has been filed by Texas Pacific Oil Co. It is the operator's No. 7 Oscar Laycock, 1039 feet from the south and 1030 feet from the east line of section 15, in block 13. The proposed depth is 2250 feet.

This is in the north tier of sections in the county, approximately 8 miles east of US 83.

Thanksgiving Noted

Royalty Crowned at Norwood Fall Festival

Samnorwood's three fall festival queens were crowned Saturday evening, Nov. 2 in a setting that heralded the coming of the Thanksgiving season.

The queen chosen from the high school was Kay Snead, a freshman, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Snead. John Stages, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stages, Sr., was the king. They were accompanied by the prince and princess, Laron Breeding and Brenda Bentley.

Chosen queen from the junior high level was Robin Waters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Waters, while Doug Coleman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Coleman, was her king. They were accompanied by Jeff Pendergraft and Jeanette Oldham as prince and princess.

The youngest queen was Jayne Ann Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morgan, and her king was David Deger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Deger. Their escorts, the prince and princess, were Bobby Myers and Cindy Coleman.

Gary Oldham was master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Dick Roehr, president of the Parent-Teacher Organization welcomed the guests. The PTO sponsors the harvest festival each year.

A chili supper with a cake walk, fishing pond, and other entertainment preceded the coronation. For the young children, a costume contest was held.

The Queen's Contest brought the PTO just over $400. Rev. Roehr announced, and activities sponsored by the juniors and seniors jointly amounted to approximately $150.

The coronation was held in a gymnasium decorated for the Thanksgiving season. As the contestants entered, they passed a tableau, young Pilgrims and Indians sitting down to the first Thanksgiving at Plymouth Rock.

Tiny blanketed Indians and pioneers were along the way. Brilliant fall leaves were woven into garlands that marked the path along which the royalty and their court passed, and which took each couple near the entire audience.

The contestants were:
Seniors: princess, Regina Glazner; prince, Max Paschall; duchess, Odessa Stice; duke, Doug Darrow.

Juniors: princess, Jan Christner; prince, Kim Janes; duchess, Rita Lackey; duke, Ray Dwyer.

Sophomores: princess, Mary Schaub; prince, Larry Waters; duchess, Beth Sanderson; duke, George Bruton.

Eighth grade: princess, Janice Webb; prince, Bryan Bell; duchess, Diana Barefoot; duke, Randy Garner.

Seventh grade: princess, Nelta Webb; prince, Scotty Bast; duchess, Mary Blair; duke, Larry Stages.

Mrs. Jack Lowry's room: princess, Diana Schaub; prince, Leonardo Segura; duchess, Margaret Sanderson; duke, Mary Tarver.

Mrs. Velma Hiatt's room: princess, Tammy Clark; prince, Johnny Oldham; duchess, Tonya Kincannon; duke, Gaylon Kirkland.

Miss Rama Camp's room: princess, Cheryl Birkey; prince, David Tarver; duchess, Elaine Bentley; duke, William Thompson.

Crown bearers for the high school king and queen were Karen Webb and Roger Dale Stembridge; for junior high royalty, Rosa Berton and Don Oldham; and for grade school, Deanna Britten and Dean Schaffer.

Class Sees Tour Slides

The boys and girls of the 4th grade in Wellington elementary school were treated last week to a tour, by means of color-slides, of London, Spain and the Netherlands.

Showing the slides, at the invitation of 4th grade teacher, Mrs. Duncan, was Father Pat Burke, parish priest of Wellington and Shamrock. Also present was Mrs. Savage of the 4th grade faculty.

The pictures were from a large collection which Father Burke took on his world-tour of 1950. He urged the children to take every opportunity to travel, as it broadened their outlooks on life and was one of the best forms of education available.

About 55 boys and girls attended the 40-minute showing.

About 35 million persons served in US Armed Forces during the nation's wars. Nearly one million gave their lives and additional millions were wounded.

Registration of Some Types of Guns Due Nov. 2-Dec. 1

DALLAS.—Anyone having an unregistered machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, short barreled rifle or other gangster-type weapon, or a device such as a bomb, grenade or land mine, may register it with the Internal Revenue Service without penalty from Nov. 2 through Dec. 1, according to B. Frank White, regional commissioner, Southwest Region, IRS.

The Gun Control Act of 1968, signed into law last week, establishes a 30-day period for the registration of certain weapons and destructive devices. The registration requirement does not affect ordinary rifles, shotguns, pistols and revolvers.

The Gun Control Act Law provides that information or evidence submitted in registering a weapon during this period cannot be used against the registrant in any criminal proceeding arising out of a prior or concurrent violation of the law. However, this would not prevent prosecution for furnishing false information.

Firearms and devices covered by the registration requirements must be registered by filing Form 4467 in duplicate with Director, Alcohol & Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224.

"Anyone with a weapon to register," White said, "should write or phone an office of the IRS and obtain a copy of Form 4467. Weapons and devices should not be brought to IRS offices for purposes of registration."

Former servicemen should register any automatic weapon, pistols with shoulder stocks, or other national firearms act weapons they might have as a souvenir of their military days.

Anyone with a bomb or grenade should make sure it is deactivated. The IRS can make arrangements to have the device inspected and deactivated.

The registration requirement for gangster-type weapons dates back to the National Firearms Act of 1934. There is no federal registration requirement for ordinary rifles, shotguns, pistols and revolvers, although certain controls on the sales of these weapons become effective Dec. 16, 1968, as part of the new gun law.

Firearms which must be registered under the act include shotguns with barrels less than 18 inches long, rifles with barrels less than 16 inches long and altered rifles and shotguns with an overall length of less than 26 inches, such as shotguns or rifles cut down to pistol size or shape.

Other firearms covered by the registration requirements: fully automatic guns, such as machine guns and pistols that fire more than one shot by a single function of the trigger, and firearms mufflers or silencers. In addition, registration is required of all weapons or devices, except for conventional pistols or revolvers that are capable of firing a shot and being concealed on the person and weapons formerly classified as "DEWATS"—deactivated war trophies.

Destructive devices, such as explosives, incendiary or poison gas bombs, grenades, rockets, missiles, mines and certain projective firing weapons, namely anti-tank guns, bazookas or mortars, also must be registered.

White said anyone who possesses a firearm or destructive device, as defined by National Firearms Act, and who fails to register the weapon between Nov. 2 and Dec. 1 as required by the gun control act, will be subject to imprisonment up to 10 years, a fine up to $10,000 or both for each weapon not registered. Under certain condi-

7th Grade Drops to Childress

Wellington 7th Grade football team lost to Childress 7th Grade 38 to 0 in a game played there Thursday, Oct. 31.

The Wellington team played good ball during the first quarter, their coach, Raymond Hamilton, reported, then again in the last two or three minutes of the game, Wellington moved the ball down in scoring position, but were unable to move it across for a touchdown.

Good passing and catching, as well as general moving of the ball were seen from several of the boys, he added.

Welcome to the Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show! SATURDAY, NOV. 9

The Quarter Horse carries a proud heritage, and the AQHA Approved Show in Wellington Saturday will do justice to the best of them.

It is the only Quarter Horse Show this side of Fort Worth at this time and we congratulate the young men who are putting it on.

This is another of the major events that makes Collingsworth a County that is going places.

Get the Most Out of Your 1968 Cotton Crop

We have our gin in first class Condition to better serve you

The repair and improvement we did this summer is part of our continuing policy of keeping the Wellington Gin in first class condition in order to do a better job of ginning for our customers. It is one way we say "Thank You" for your business.

When your cotton goes through the Wellington Gin, you are sure it is ginned to bring out the best in grade and staple, micronaire and Pressley Strength—the things that in the end determine how much profit you get out of your cotton crop.

We invite you to gin your 1968 crop with us. Our reputation is built on quality ginning, and every time you bring us a bale, we work to back up that reputation.

Bonnie-Clyde Story Retold

"The True Story of Bonnie and Clyde" was reviewed for members of the 1924 Study Club recently by Mrs. R. L. Templeton.

The most interesting part to the club members was the episode in 1933 in which these two, along with others in their gang, drove their car off the abutment where a bridge was under construction across Salt Fork River north of Wellington.

The car fell in the creek bed, but landed upright, and none of the passengers was badly injured. They went to a nearby house for help, and this house still stands near the bridge.

Presenting Mrs. Templeton as the guest speaker was Mrs. Jim Bowling, who also read the club collect.

The president, Mrs. J. B. King, directed the business session.

Mrs. Sam Adams was hostess at the Cherokee Inn Restaurant dining room.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Templeton, Mrs. Bowling, Mrs. King, Mrs. Jack Moreman, Mrs. B. M. Sims, Mrs. Don VanPelt, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Mrs. George Henry, Mrs. Lynn Jenkins, Mrs. J. F. Michael, Mrs. Chester Fires, Mrs. Lindall Norman, Mrs. R. R. Crawley, Mrs. James Ross, Miss Sara Jones and Mrs. Adams.

January Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Haning of Houston announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Jeanne, to Raymond Wayne Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders of Wellington. The couple will be married January 25 at Athens. Mr. Sanders is currently stationed at the Marine Air Base Buford, South Carolina.

Twin Brides-to-Be Honored at Double Bridal Shower Saturday Afternoon

The late autumn social season was high-lighted Saturday, November 2, with a pre-nuptial courtesy that has no precedent here. This was a double bridal shower honoring the twin daughters of Dr. and Mrs. James Milton Orr, who will be married in a double ceremony on Friday, November 29. At that time Miss Ann Orr will become the bride of Lynn Ross McLain and Miss Jane Orr will be married to Tommy Glenn Thomas.

The shower was held in the home of Mrs. Bill Hatch, and joining her as hostesses were Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Mrs. Heber Brantley, Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mrs. Earl Clark, Mrs. Louis Allred, Mrs. Lawson Holton, Mrs. John Holton, Mrs. Elvis Crawley, Mrs. Herman Moseley of Quitaque, Mrs. L. C. Hill, Mrs. Edd Henard, Mrs. Emory Hunter and Mrs. John R. Henard, Jr.

Mrs. Hatch received the guests and presented them to the honorees, their mother, Mrs. Orr, and the mothers of their fiancés, Mrs. Glenn McLain and Mrs. Bob Thomas.

Mrs. Joe Davis of College Station, sister of the two who were honored, was at the register.

Gifts were displayed in a series of upstairs rooms. Guests were then directed to the dining room where they were served from a table covered with a gold cloth, overlaid with a leaf motif in rich autumn colors. A silver bowl held a low arrangement of chrysanthemums, ranging from bronze through red to gold. Other appointments were silver.

Members of the house party, who alternated at the refreshment table and in the gift display rooms, were Mrs. Larry Oswalt, Mrs. Kent Holland of Amarillo, Miss Diane Moseley of Lubbock, Mrs. Bobby Langford, and Mrs. John Barton.

Approximately 75 friends called between two and four o'clock in the afternoon.

WSCS Entertains Church Women at Luncheon, Program Friday

Church women of Wellington were the guests of the Women's Society of Christian Service of First United Methodist Church for a program and luncheon Friday, November 1, in observance of World Community Day.

Mrs. Gary Reed, spiritual life secretary of the WSCS, directed the program.

Mrs. R. L. Karnes gave the devotional and Mrs. A. L. Elliott a prayer, then representatives of three churches explained the women's work in their denominations. These were Mrs. Thomas Jesse, Assembly of God; Mrs. Leroy Gaston, First Baptist Church; and Mrs. Bob Hightower, who is president of the WSCS, spoke for the Methodist Church.

A duet by Mrs. Fred Covey and Mrs. Reed and the dismissal prayer by R. T. Dyess completed the program.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Attending were Mrs. James Jackson, Mrs. J. L. Burt, Mrs. W. W. McClaskey, Mrs. Coy Vaughan, Mrs. J. A. Poteet, Mrs. Rena Slay, Mrs. Doshia Dix, Mrs. Ray Clubb, Mrs. Howard Riggs, Mrs. C. T. Hubbard, Mrs. Milford Harris, Mrs. Guy Clement, Mrs. Charles Carson, Sr.,

Mrs. Carroll Daves, Mrs. Milburn Derryberry, Mrs. Gaston, Mrs. J. D. Wilson, Mrs. E. F. Bartlett, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. A. J. Fires, Mrs. Karnes, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. Dyess, Mrs. Emma Jones, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. J. B. King, Mrs. W. F. Vaughan, Mrs. Bob Sessions, Mrs. Jack Moreman, Mrs. S. L. Lindsey, Mrs. Cal Hurst, Mrs. Henry Vaughan, Mrs. John Henard, Mrs. W. M.

Favorite Food Luncheon Set by Home Demonstration Club Council

The Collingsworth County Home Demonstration Council will hold a Favorite Food Luncheon Wednesday, November 13, in the Community Building.

All Home Demonstration women will bring their favorite dish to serve between the hours of 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. They will charge $1.25 for a plate and you may taste all of the dishes. This $1.25 includes a recipe booklet for the food served at this luncheon.

The council hopes that everyone will come and have lunch with them on Wednesday, November 13, said Mrs. Creed Hill, home demonstration agent. This luncheon has become a popular event for the Home Demonstration Council each fall. There will be a wide variety of foods, which include entrees, vegetables, salads and desserts. Many will feature variations on standard recipes which give a personal touch to these dishes.

Wedding Vows Exchanged Saturday By Joan James and Jack Ellison

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Joan James and Jack Ellison of Lubbock in Hodges Chapel of First Christian Church in that city, Saturday evening, November 2, at seven o'clock.

The Rev. Dudley Strain, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ace Rainey of Wellington, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellison of Tyler.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Julie Richards of Lubbock, who also accompanied Raymond Horton, Jr., of Canyon as he sang. The bride was given in marriage by her twin brother, John James.

She wore a formal length cage gown of Chantilly lace over a sheath of peau de soie. It was fashioned with a wedding ring collar and long petal point sleeves. The empire bodice was marked with a bias fold and a bow accented the waist, while a satin band edged the hemline.

Her headpiece was a forward cluster of lace petals edged in pearls, which held her shoulder veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Susan Sullivan was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Sowell of Wellington, and Miss Susie Walker of Snyder.

Walter Ellison of Tyler was the best man and ushers were Ben Shelley and John Hrcnr of Lubbock, and Mike Layton of San Antonio. Groomsmen were Mack Walker of Snyder, James Locke, Jr., and Roy Jack Atwood of Tyler.

Amy Eikner of Tyler was the flower girl and Billy Jack Colson of Lubbock was the ring-bearer.

After the ceremony, a reception honored the couple in the Green Room of the church.

Members of the house party included Miss Betty Webb of Denver City and Miss Janyth Estes.

Upon returning from their wedding trip to Dallas, the couple will be at home at 3827 51st Street, Lubbock.

The bride was graduated from Wellington High School and attended West Texas State University two and a half years. She is also a graduate of International Beauty School, Amarillo, and is employed at the Inn Town Inn, Lubbock.

The bridegroom attended Tyler Junior College two years and also Washington University. He is now manager of the shoe department at Lena Stephens, Lubbock.

ABOUT MONEY DESIGNS

The Secretary of the Treasury is responsible for the design selection of our paper currency, which also includes choice of portraits.

Here's an interesting sidelight relative to how portraits are chosen: there is a law which stipulates that portraits for our paper currency shall be of deceased statesmen, historically well established and well known to the American people.

The Director of the Mint is responsible for the selection of coin designs, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Here's another interesting sidelight: Congress can and does prescribe coin designs, usually for centennial or bi-centennials of our greats.

One law governing coin design stipulates that the design of a coin may not be changed more often than once in 25 years.

Trinity Methodist Women Hold Charter Service Wednesday Night

A service of celebration and charter meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild and Woman's Society of Christian Service of Trinity United Methodist Church was held Wednesday evening, October 30.

The two organizations in Trinity Church are merging and will hold regular evening meetings.

Rechartering of the Woman's Society of Christian Service also came about through the merger of the Methodist Church with the Evangelical United Brethren Church earlier in the year, and the corresponding merger of the women's groups, the Women's Society of World Service of the EUB Church and the WSCS of the Methodist Church.

The Rev. Loyd Futch, Trinity pastor, read a "Statement of the Purpose of the Meeting," followed by the call to worship.

The histories of the two parent groups were given, with Mrs. R. H. Isbell presenting the Evangelical United Brethren, and Miss Leota Ammons the Methodist Church.

The meditation, "Bread of Life," was given by Mrs. C. D. Damron, who stood behind the worship center, on which a loaf of bread was placed.

"Daily bread symbolizes our daily life in Christ," she said, "and our task in the mission of the Church. The ecumenical offering means bread for the world. Bread symbolized security around the world. Bread represents Fellowship. Bread supplies the nourishment that leads to renewed energy and strength. Renewal is one of the important words and needs of the Church."

The basic ingredients of bread were presented by four members: flour, Mrs. Loyd Futch; milk, Mrs. Eugene Morrow; salt, Mrs. R. L. Johnson; yeast, Mrs. Billy Waters.

"Our Purpose" was pledged in unison, followed by the recitation of the Litany of Purpose and the signing of the charter. Sixteen members were presented membership cards.

Holy communion was administered by Rev. Futch.

Mrs. Damron gave the closing prayer.

President of the united organization is Mrs. Isbell, while Mrs. Ike Rogers is vice president; Miss Ammons, secretary; Mrs. John Gollighugh, treasurer; Mrs. Billy Waters, coordinator. The committee on nominators included Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Richard Peters and Mrs. E. F. Morrow.

Edith Blacksher Becomes Bride of Jerry Hurst in Quiet Ceremony

Miss Edith Blacksher of Hollis became the bride of Jerry Ed Hurst in a quiet ceremony performed at the parsonage of First United Methodist Church Friday, October 25, at seven-thirty in the evening.

The Rev. R. T. Dyess, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Blacksher of Vinson, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Hurst of Wellington.

The bride wore a street-length sheath of white lace, made with short sleeves and a high neck. This was accented with a corsage of blue flowers.

Mrs. Darlene Wilson of Hollis was the bride's attendant. She wore a blue street-length dress with a white corsage.

Bud Bryant was the best man.

The bride received her education in the Erick, Oklahoma Schools, and is now employed as secretary to Leon Hicks, attorney, in Hollis.

The bridegroom attended the Wellington Schools and is employed by L. C. Hill.

The couple will live in Hollis.

Nursing Home Admits Two

Two Wellington women were admitted to Thomas Nursing Home recently, Mrs. Alice Lindley and Mrs. Homer Holton.

Both are long-time residents of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horn were in Wagoner, Okla., last week to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, O. L. Hutchins.

Family Attends Witness Meet

A local family will spend three days in Levelland this week attending a Christian convention sponsored by the Watchtower Society and Texas Circuit #9 of Jehovah's Witnesses, Nov. 8-10.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Dement and their children, Vickie and Duane, and Mrs. Emma Walker will drive to Levelland Friday afternoon to be delegates to the assembly that is expected to attract more than 500 witnesses from the area representing some 30 communities in the Texas Panhandle.

The theme of the gathering is entitled "Sharing Fully in Preaching the Good News," according to Dement. The meeting will feature three days of intensive Bible training with a baptism of new ministers as one of the convention highlights.

Dement described the meeting as a family affair with children as well as parents participating in looking up the Scriptures cited during the Bible talks and dramatizations that will be presented throughout the sessions.

Climax of the meeting will come Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. when the main speaker, L. M. Dugan, traveling representative from the world headquarters of the Witnesses in New York, will speak on the subject, "God's Way Is Love."

"Moral Responsibilities of Parents and Youth" is another subject that is to be discussed, according to Dement. "The problems facing parents these days regarding children are being met squarely by frank discussions at conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses. Assemblies of this type are not old people's affair—there are many younger married couples and single young people, teenagers, youths and children. All

Our Quarter Horse Show Will Be a Major Area Event

Wellington will be host again Saturday to an event that is of area wide significance, although it is sponsored locally—the annual Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show.

Approved by the American Quarter Horse Association, it will interest breeders of registered horses, to whom shows are part of their business. A fall show may have advantages. The weather probably will be more comfortable and as an event it stands out individually. There is no other show in this part of the tri-state area to cut participation.

The Collingsworth show will have the vitality of youthful leadership . . . the young men who head it will have the experience of serving their community.

Most of us in the Southwest have a love of fine horses in our blood. Saturday, we will have the opportunity to enjoy it and at the same time extend our famous Wellington hospitality to visiting Quarter Horse breeders.

AUSTIN. — Texas' first bilingual education plan designed to curb the school dropout rate and provide better teaching for 500,000 children has been cleared for action.

Fifteen-member advisory committee approved a plan as drawn by the Texas Education Agency task force.

Dr. Severo Gomez, director of TEA International and Bilingual programs, said the high dropout rate among Spanish-surnamed pupils is largely due to traditional instructional methods.

New statewide plan would enable young pupils to learn their lessons in Spanish until they get thorough grounding in English.

At the same time, it seeks to teach English-speaking children to be fluent in Spanish as well.

Federal government has allocated $7.5 million for bilingual education programs, and Texas is due to get a substantial share early next year.

Liquor Importation

Texas Liquor Control Board is launching a new program of public information, figuring if the average citizen is well informed, he'll stay out of trouble more.

One new area is educating persons headed for Mexico. This will be in the form of letters handed out at all likely spots, telling the visitor that, when he returns, he can bring back only one quart of liquor every 30 days, and Texas law requires a tax of 42 cents per quart.

Emphasized will be the state law against importation or even possession of any liquor container of less than one-half pint. This prohibits the mini-bottles which many tourists try to bring back as souvenirs.

New Bottle Club Plan

Liquor Control Board staff has drawn another new set of rules for conducting private bottle club business which soon will be subjected to public hearing.

While rules of last February sought to tighten guest card distribution and eliminate cash sales of mixed drinks, this latest revision is not so strict. It does not deal with controversial guest card and cash sale issues which are still under court challenge.

Rules would require a minimum of 25 members to form a club and provide that new members be approved by a membership committee.

Courts Speak

In a key labor case, Texas Supreme Court reversed the Beaumont Court of Civil Appeals and dissolved a temporary injunction which had halted picketing by the millwright's union at Owens-Illinois' plant in Orange.

High Court denied a rehearing sought by a Waco man who unsuccessfully filed a defamation case when Sears, Roebuck posted his name on a hot check list.

In line with the U.S. Supreme Court Witherspoon decision prohibiting automatic exclusion from capital case juries of those who object to the death penalty, Court of Criminal Appeals reversed two Texas death penalty cases and affirmed two others.

Conviction of an Abilene man for violating the state securities act was reversed by Court of Criminal Appeals which earlier had upheld the trial court finding.

Police Training Push On

War on crime efforts are proceeding on many fronts.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

A couple of Washington, D.C. teenagers robbed a bank and got $9,000. The judge fined one of them $200 and the other $100 and turned them loose to give them another chance.

The bank got some of its money back, so that after the fines and lawyer fees, the boys' profit on the deal was slim. The judge must have felt like it would be unfair to segregate them away from equal opportunity to try another bank.

The Great Sucker Society goes big for giving ruffians second, third, fourth, etc., chances. Even murderers are not hampered much any more by a closed season or a bag limit on people.

D. E. SCOTT.

Many center around improvement of police training.

Sam Houston State College at Huntsville is pushing for recognition as the site of a statewide police academy.

Unless a statewide academy is created, says Sam Houston College President A. B. Templeton, 30 to 40 local academies soon will be started with federal funds. He proposes to build facilities between Sam Houston and the penitentiary at Huntsville with convict labor and materials produced at the prison at a cost of about $2 million. Federal government would be expected to pay half that cost.

Bail Bond Reform

State Bar of Texas and the State Junior Bar will ask the Legislature in January to change the state's system of making bonds for release while persons accused of crimes are awaiting trial.

Idea behind the new plan is to let judges release people, when possible, without making bond at all. But when the judge feels a bond necessary, the prisoner could deposit up to 10 percent of the bond himself.

As it is now, the accused generally has to pay the 10 percent to a professional bondsman, and the money is a fee for services rendered and is not returned. In the proposed system, the man would get his deposit back when he showed up in court.

College Enrollment Up

Enrollment in Texas' senior colleges and universities has grown by more than 88,000 students—47%—since 1963, the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, reports.

Almost 274,000 students enrolled this fall, compared to about 135,000 in 1963. An increase of 58% was recorded by the 22 public senior institutions and private schools numbering 37 grew by 20%.

No public senior institution has declined in enrollment.

Highway Delay Possible

Texas highway projects may be stalled and their prices advanced by federal policies just invoked, according to a state highway commissioner.

Garrett Morris of Fort Worth said the Commission is concerned that the federal policies may further force the state to take over right-of-way buying now done by counties.

Morris said the state will be required to get appraisals and make money offers to land owners before any property is acquired for road building.

Water Research

The University of Texas at Austin has set aside $375,000 for a 35,000-square-foot building to house facilities for its Center for Research in Water Resources.

Pointing to Texas' gigantic water problems, Dr. Earnest Gloyna, director of the center, said the facility will be dedicated to solving those problems. "In establishing this research capability," he said, "we expect to attract top-flight students and researchers from all over the U.S. and other parts of the world."

Unit will include such sophisticated equipment as special environmental control chambers, hydraulic model facilities, tanks for study of wave actions, flumes to evaluate selected stream flows, models for measuring mixing and dispersion patterns, pilot plants for water and waste water treatment studies, and a materials test capability.

Penal Code Revision

State penal code revision has been aided by a $5,000 grant to the State Bar of Texas committee on revision.

Committee, assisted by the Texas Legislative Council, expects to have the proposed code ready for submission to the 62nd Legislature in 1971. A law

Quarter Horse Worlds Fastest Growing Breed

The Quarter Horses that compete in the Collingsworth County Quarter Horse Show Saturday, Nov. 9, can hold their heads high with justified pride. They rank first in so many things.

Collingsworth folks see them every day as a working cow horse, or in rodeos, but that is only one small part of it.

Quarter horse registry was started 27 years ago here in the Panhandle, and the headquarters of the American Quarter Horse Association remain at Amarillo.

Since then, the Quarter Horse has increased in greater numbers than any other of the world's breeds.

Garford Wilkerson of Amarillo, who knows more about quarter horses than any other writer, said recently it is because they do so many things well.

A race horse, Mr. QH, has run for the world's richest racing purses.

Larger number of Quarter Horses are registered than those of any other breed. More than 560,000 had been registered through September 1968, by owners in the United States and 38 other countries, and this year alone registration figures should approach 70,000. Mr. Wilkerson wrote in The Western Horseman.

The horses that compete in Wellington Saturday will be among the 40,000 Quarter Horses that will compete in 1,400 shows approved by the AQHA this year.

Next to this were 9,041 Quarter Horses racing last year for purses totaling almost $7 million. A motion picture, "The World's Richest Horse Race," was filmed recently in honor of the All American Futurity staged each Labor Day at Ruidoso Downs, New Mexico. The winner in 1967 received $228,300.

Aside from the record number of registrations of recent years, the number of transfers of ownership are mounting. This represents largely new comers to the industry, and are considered to be the life blood of all livestock registries. These sales are expected to reach about 85,000 this year.

The Quarter Horse is frequently thought of as a Southwestern horse. He is more than that. Golf Professional Gary Player recently shipped a breeding herd to his ranch in South Africa.

There is a regional Quarter Horse organization in Australia, and others in Mexico City and Canada. Quarter Horse popularity is growing in South America.

But the biggest surge in the Quarter Horse industry comes from boys and girls, in both rural and urban areas.

Some of these youngsters will be participating in the junior division of the performance class here Saturday. Last year more than 10,000 competed.

The events in which they compete are familiar to every rodeo fan or 4-H Horse Club—western pleasure riding, cutting, reining, barrel racing, pole bending, and a number of others.

The growth of the Youth Activity program of the AQHA is credited with helping revive interest in the 4-H Horse Clubs. Material is available to boys and girls who participate, as well as to their leaders. It is also available to Boy Scouts wishing to earn medals in horsemanship.

Pandering Ads Can Be Curbed

Mail patrons offended by pandering advertisements can now take steps to curb such mail. Postmaster L. B. Bratten said today in announcing plans for administering a new law which gives each family the right to decide that an ad is "erotically arousing or sexually provocative."

When an advertisement sent through the mails is offensive on these grounds, a postal patron can now ask the post office to direct the mailer to send no more mail to him and to remove immediately the patron's name from all mailing lists he owns, controls or rents.

To assist patrons, the Post Office Department has published a brief pamphlet — "How You Can Curb Pandering Advertisements" — which is now available at the Wellington post office. In addition to explaining how the law works, the pocket-size leaflet contains a form letter one can use when sending his complaint to the post office.

Student Can File Now for Merit Tests

Wellington High School students who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and enter college in 1970 can register now to participate in the 1969-70 National Merit Scholarship Program, according to Louis Graham, Wellington High School counselor.

The first step for all students who wish to enter the nationwide competition is to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST). This test will be given at Wellington Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1969, beginning at 9 a.m.

Participating students will pay a fee of $1.25. If an unusually promising student is unable to pay the test fee, it will be paid by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) at the request of the school.

When his NMQST scores are reported, each participating student will receive a handbook to help him evaluate his scores and compare his performance with that of other high school students across the nation. The handbook also contains information about choosing a college and financing a college education. The handbook and other interpretive materials are furnished as a part of reporting the test results.

The highest-scoring students in each state will be named Semifinalists and will be eligible for Merit Scholarship consideration. In addition to the National Merit Scholarships financed by NSMC, more than 370 business corporations, foundations, colleges, professional associations, unions, trusts, other organizations and individuals offer scholarships through the Merit Program.

About 18,750 students have won Merit Scholarships in the 13 Merit Programs to date. Approximately 2,900 new winners of Merit Scholarships entered college this fall.

Four Register for Draft

Four Collingsworth County boys were registered for selective service during October, Bill Hatch, registrar, reported.

These were Richard Eugene Needham, Robert Charles Wilbur, Barry Eugene Johnson, and Alfonso Robles, Jr.

State FFA President Speaks to Wellington Student Body

Bill Sarpalius of Boys Ranch, State president of the Future Farmers of America, was a guest at Wellington High School and spoke to an assembly of all students recently.

Wellington students were impressed with his friendly and congenial manner, and his talent for holding their attention. In an inspirational speech centered around high ideals and ambitions, he drew freely on his own experiences, unusually varied for a 20-year-old.

Bill arrived at Boys Ranch at the age of 12. He had never spent an entire year in one school, and he had been hospitalized for three years.

"I was very shy and dumb when I first reached Boys Ranch!" exclaimed the state FFA president. But by the time he was a senior in high school, he was vice president of his FFA chapter at Boys Ranch. Sarpalius attended Clarendon Junior College as a freshman last year. In July, 1968, he was elected president of Texas Future Farmers of America.

Since his duties require him to travel all year, Bill is not attending college this year. He plans to return to Clarendon for his sophomore year after his term as president ends. He hopes to receive a scholarship to help with his education.

Sarpalius states that the highlights of his presidential career have been meeting Ben Barnes and Richard Nixon and speaking at banquets. His main ambition in life is to work with young people and help them the way he has been helped.

Arnett Indians Both Small and Young

The Arnett Indians, both boys and girls teams, opened their season Nov. 1 and will be playing a heavy schedule this year.

Bob Copeland, Arnett superintendent and coach, pointed out that both are young teams and both are small.

Of the 12 girls on the squad, there is one junior, eight sophomores and three freshmen. The starters average only 5'5". The tallest girls are 5'7" and the shortest 5'1½".

Fourteen boys are on the traveling squad, and of this group, there are four seniors, seven juniors and three sophomores.

The tallest starters, both juniors, are 6', and they range down to 5'10". Compared to some of the Oklahoma teams they will meet this year, this height is not impressive, their coach points out. However, both teams appear to have a capacity for improvement, plus a zest for the game, and their fans are expecting two of the finer teams of southwest Oklahoma as the season nears the end.

Arnett will meet all three of Collingsworth County's Class B teams during the season, Quail, Samnorwood and Dodson.

Oklahoma determines its district winners in a somewhat different manner to Texas, with the outcome of the district tournament at the end of the season determining the entire standing.

Both season district games and the tournament are considered in Texas.

Members of the Arnett Indians girls starting team are Debby Powers, a junior, Cathy Carter and Merle Bennett, sophomores, who are forwards, while the guards are Sherry Ginn and Marlene Bell, sophomores, and Myrtle Denton, a freshman.

Other players are LaQuita DeFoor, Retha Moore, Dorothy Rountree, Syble Woods, and Rose Zepeda, guards, and Sharla Sikes, forward.

Bruce Rumbaugh, only starting senior on the Indians, is out of play at present with a hand injury, received two weeks ago in chemistry lab. Sophomore David Dickson replaces him and other starters are Robert Scott, Stevie Sikes, Steve Carter and Preston Wood.

Other members of the team are Ronald Cummins, Bob Argo, Ronald Bailey, Reggie Bailey, James Kuykendall, Jay Argo, Kenneth McDowell and Woodrow Denton.

Bobo Castleberry

Castleberry Named General Agent for Insurance Company

Bobo Castleberry has been appointed a general agent for Volunteer State Life Insurance Company in the Wellington area.

The announcement was made by Joseph H. Davenport, Jr., president of the Chattanooga, Tenn., based firm.

A native of Wellington, Castleberry is a graduate of the University of Texas with a BA degree. He joins Volunteer with more than eight years of life insurance experience and is a member of the Greenbelt Life Underwriters Association. Castleberry is also a member of the Kiwanis Club, the American Legion, the U.F.W., and the Chamber of Commerce.

Castleberry is married to the former Billye Tenison and they have three children. He attends the First Baptist Church and resides at 1306 Amarillo St. in Wellington.

Brothers, Both Sergeants, Complete Stay in Armed Forces

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Barton have completed their enlistments in the Armed Forces and are now visiting their parents. They are Sgt. William Barton, who served three years and 10 months in the Air Force, and Sgt. Wayne Barton, who was in the Army three years.

William Barton has been stationed at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, but he also was stationed 18 months at Karamursel, Turkey, in the northwest part of that nation.

He served as a teletype operator in Turkey, but he points out that much of the information concerning his tour of duty is classified information.

"You learn a lot of responsibility over there," he said. "It was a chance to learn what others live like, and it's not very good. You won't believe it till you see it."

He feels the people are not trying to help themselves, but his greatest pity is for the children who will have to grow up in this situation.

He had an opportunity to visit it Istanbul a number of times, and one of the places he saw was Topkapi, a museum filled with diamonds and other jewels, and the setting of a motion picture.

Sgt. Barton was about 250 miles from the earthquake that devastated a section of northeast Turkey during the summer.

Before going to Turkey, Sgt. Barton received his training at San Antonio and Sheperd Air Force Base.

After visiting his family here he plans to live in Atlanta, Ga.

Sgt. Wayne Barton was stationed at Fort Bragg, N.C., as an Army paratrooper, and he also was a teletype operator.

All of his service was in the United States and he received most of his training at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

For the present he plans to make his home in Wellington.

High school training taken under the GI Bill does not reduce eligibility for advanced training.

PTO Hears of Traffic Law, School Safety

Police Chief Donald Nunnely was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Elementary School Parent Teacher Organization Monday afternoon, Nov. 4, discussing traffic law and safety around the school.

Mrs. Billy Langford, president, introduced Mr. Nunnely. He discussed the new flashing lights with posted speed zones that are to be installed in front of the schools. Along with that, he said, there are in the working stage plans for placing signs for different types of parking. Some of these will be: right angle parking only, no parking, loading zone, no double parking, and for parallel parking only on the right side. The latter, he explained, is needed because many people drive on the wrong side and park on the wrong side.

In answering the question of why the lights have not been installed already, Mr. Nunnely pointed out that some of the city officials will attend the Texas Municipal League next week and will look over numerous types of signs on display. Upon their return, they will order the ones best suited to the local situation. These should be received and erected in the latter part of December or early January.

While explaining the different speed limits and traffic violations, Chief Nunnely brought out that a lot of the congestion is caused by the turning movement and parking by the parents themselves.

Thayne Amonett, elementary school principal, asked for a safety program to be held in the near future for his students. This will be held as soon as a date can be arranged with Patrolman Chester Fant of the Safety Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Also present for the meeting were Mayor John Coleman, Mayor Pro Tem Sam Adams, Jones Singley, president of the school board, and John Sherman, school board member, along with approximately 150 PTO members.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Collingsworth has its own individual way of voting as does the rest of the nation and the method follows no party pattern. The county gave Democrat Preston Smith nearly a 2 to 1 vote over Republican Paul Eggers; but the voters reversed the party look and gave Republican Bob Price a 945 vote over Democrat Dick Brown's 910. The county went for Humphrey, 746, with Nixon receiving 712 and Wallace 475. But the real surprise was in the race for state representative. Tom Christian won in the district; but Collingsworth gave the loser, Red Simpson, 1,116 votes with Christian receiving 658.

At this writing the presidential race has not been decided on the national scene although Nixon is far in the lead in electoral votes. If it had not been for the protest vote that went to Wallace, this county probably would have voted for Nixon by about the same percentage that it went for Eisenhower in 1952.

The recent pancake supper sponsored by the Kiwanis Club proved to be the most successful of any held up to this year. The Kiwanians served 384 plates of hot cakes and sausage and the sale of tickets in advance and at the door brought in $380.00 by far the largest amount received from any of the suppers which have become an annual affair with the Kiwanis Club. C. T. Hubbard was head of arrangements and every Kiwanian took a part both in selling tickets and in cooking and serving the food.

The Rockets won a hard game against Quanaah last Friday although the Indians were the favored club by all of the sports writers of the area. It was a pleasing contrast to the 38 to 14 defeat the Indians handed the Skyrockets last year. The spirited and improving Wellington squad has a better than even chance of defeating both Childress there this Friday and Memphis here to wind up the season. Tickets to the Childress game can be purchased at Wellington High School for $1.50; but they will cost $1.75 if you wait and buy them at the gate in Childress.

For the second week in a row, Mac Percival, whose father was basketball coach here for several years, kicked the Chicago Bears to victory over a strong opponent in the last seconds of the game. Sunday it was the Greenbay Packers and the week before it was the Minnesota Vikings who tasted defeat from the toe of this kicking specialist who was once with the Dallas Cowboys. Percival played football and basketball at Vernon and later basketball at Tech. He entered the pro football ranks as the result of a contest which he entered reluctantly at the insistence of his wife.

In the game with Green Bay, Percival's winning kick came under a rarely invoked rule which allows a team a free kick if they get the ball after a fair catch of an opponent's punt. There were no battling lines, no charging ends or blitzing backs. While the Green Bay players stood at a distance and twiddled their thumbs, the Bear holder placed the ball down and with more time than he needed Percival kicked it through the uprights.

Mrs. Ocie Scott would like for me to publish Mrs. Rube Crawley's recipe for uncooked Chow-Chow again this year. Here it is just in time for the last of the green tomatoes and low priced cabbage:

UNCOOKED CHOW-CHOW
3 pints white vinegar
4 cups sugar (or 5 cups)
Dry mustard
1 teaspoon celery seed or celery salt
2 teaspoons tumeric powder
1 teaspoon cloves
4 lemons
Mix all ingredients and bring to boil. Set aside and cool.
Grind the following:
1 gallon green tomatoes
2 small heads cabbage
8 medium onions
6 sweet peppers, hot to taste
Pour one half cup salt over ground mixture, let stand one hour.
Drain well, add to cool vinegar mixture and seal in jars.

On Elm Bridge

Kansas Man Injured In Freak Accident

A Kansas couple en route to Mexico narrowly escaped death when their camper came loose from their station wagon on Elm Creek bridge Thursday evening, Oct. 31.

Patrolman Doug Wright, who directed the investigation, said that Mr. and Mrs. Martin Frederick Springer of Ludell, Kan., were traveling south when cross winds coming down Elm Valley apparently caused their camper to begin whipping from side to side. It broke loose on the bridge, and the Jeep station wagon was balanced on across, according to Patrolman

Mr. Springer, about 65, was pinned inside the station wagon by his leg for about an hour before officers, a Shamrock ambulance driver, Highway Department personnel returning to Wellington, and other volunteers could get him out. Traffic was tied up for a considerable period.

He remains in a Shamrock hospital, Mr. Wright said. Mrs. Springer was reported uninjured.

Both the station wagon and the camper were heavily damaged, the patrolman added.

Rocket B Ties Strong Bobcat Team 14-14

The Wellington Skyrocket B team met the Childress Bobcat team at Powell Field Thursday, Oct. 31 and came away with a 14-14 tie. This was the second meeting of the teams and Childress had defeated the Rockets in the previous game 24 to 20.

Childress dominated the first half of the play. They scored on a 70-yard drive in the first quarter and then in the second quarter, they returned a punt 55 yards for their second touchdown.

The two-point try was good, to give a 14-0 lead going into the half.

Up to this time Wellington has been unable to mount an offensive. The Bobcat defense was tough and contained all of offensive efforts of the Rockets.

The thing that broke the game wide open was an interception and runback of 50 yards for Wellington's first touchdown by Julius Johnson. The extra point pass play from Denny Carter to Johnson gave the Rockets 8 points on the score board.

Both teams played good defense from this point until the last four minutes of the game. Wellington took over on their own 20 yard line and started a drive that ended with Julius Johnson going around left end for 7 yards and the tying touchdown. The try for extra point was no good.

Mrs. Annie Ogle Dies at Chico

A Wellington trio was in Chico Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Annie Ogle, a resident of that town much of her life. They were her nephew, James Sullivan, and two cousins, Mrs. Robert Goodloe and Luther Sullivan.

Mrs. Ogle was a sister of the late Pink Sullivan.

Her death was due to a heart attack and came unexpectedly. She was a frequent Wellington visitor over a long period of years, until failing eyesight caused her to limit her activities. Her friends here included those she had met during these visits, as well as some who had formerly lived at Chico.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruby Mae Easley of Azle, and four brothers: Clarence Sullivan, Charley Sullivan, Carl Sullivan and Other Sullivan, all of Woodson.

20 to 8 Friday night. "Individuals did a fine job but it was team effort more than anything else."

"We were well pleased with our efforts Friday night and felt the boys gave a fine effort," he continued.

"We hope we can get the same effort for the next two ball games, and if we do we can make a good showing."

In the remaining district games, Electra will play at Shamrock, Seymour at Memphis and Iowa Park at Quanaah.

Bob Miller, pastor of Cliffside Baptist Church, Amarillo, and a senior at Wayland, will be the evangelist for the series of meetings, to be assisted by Mike Wiley, who will conduct the music, accompanied by Jeanine Grisham at the piano. Both of the latter are also Wayland students and active in religious activities.

The church extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend this revival series, states Rev. Benny Graham, pastor.

FB Queen Candidate

Miss Sue Sloan of Hansford County will represent District 1 in the state finals of the 1968 Texas Farm Bureau queen contest Nov. 11 in Dallas. The 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Sloan of Spearman was selected to represent this area during recent district elimination.

Quail Takes Double Header from Brisco

The Quail Quails and Bobwhites traveled to Briscoe to take a double header Friday, Nov. 1.

The girls had little trouble in assuring their 54 to 32 victory, staying ahead throughout the game.

"The team showed more improvement than it has all year," said Coach Billy Wilson, adding that the guards were especially effective in containing the Briscoe scorers.

Paula Langley was Quail's high pointer, with 18.

The Quails had a little more trouble on their hands, and the lead changed several times during the first two quarters.

They led by eight points at the half and managed to hold on to this lead and won 65 to 57.

In the fourth period, however, three starters fouled off and were replaced by Elmer Earl Feemster, Mark White and Lanny McGill.

"The team played a fairly good game, although not as good as they are capable of," said Coach Wilson.

Three boys went in the high scoring bracket: John Blevins with 20, Gary Barton 17, and Steve Tennison 16.

Sorority Elects Regina Ferguson

DENTON.—Regina Juanita Ferguson of Wellington is among students elected officers of pledge classes to the eight national social sororities at North Texas State University.

Miss Ferguson, daughter of Mrs. Laura J. Ferguson, 1410 El Paso, was elected treasurer of Alpha Delta Pi, national social fraternity for women.

She is a 1967 graduate of Wellington High School and a sophomore elementary education major at NTSU.

Faith Baptist Holds Dinner

Members of Faith Baptist Church held their annual Thanksgiving dinner in conjunction with their Revival on Sunday, Nov. 3, after the morning worship.

The Rev. Jimmy Wilson, pastor of First Baptist Church in Shamrock, was the evangelist and preached at the morning service, with Tom Wilkins as song director and King Bowen pianist.

The dinner is an annual affair in which the Men's Brotherhood furnishes the turkeys.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Keys and son of Childress, the daughter and son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. Jack Tutor.

Approximately 60 attended the dinner.

Mrs. Morris Wells' Family Visits Here

Visiting with Mrs. Morris Wells from Friday through Sunday, Nov. 1 to 3, were two brothers and sisters-in-law and two sisters.

These were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Prater of Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Prater of Midland, Mrs. N. C. Mathews of Troup, and Mrs. S. J. McCauley of Canton.

Another brother who lives in Texarkana was unable to come.

man. The remaining Panhandle counties have the same season as Collingsworth, Nov. 9 to Jan. 31, except Hemphill, where the season is Dec. 1 to Jan. 15, and Lamb County where hunting runs from Dec. 1 to Dec. 20.

As in the past, hunting is from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

Those hunting quail in their own counties do not have to buy a hunting license.

A check at the county clerk's office shows that during the fall season 63 resident hunting licenses were sold; three non-resident; and there were 18 exemptions.

Better Picture in Bigger Area

KVII Gets Texas' Tallest Tower

Added Experience Gives Greater Depth

Veterans Staff Channel 7's Pro News Team

If experience is the criteria for measuring the worth of professional newsmen, then the Pro News Team on KVII-TV rates right at the top.

Experience they have!

Take Jim Pratt and Bob Izzard, for instance. As "anchor men" on the Pro News Team, they add to the depth of reporting found in every newscast on KVII-TV.

Pratt is a veteran newscaster and managing editor of the Channel 7 news team. He has had 21 years of broadcast journalism, covering news for radio and television stations throughout Texas. He knows the Panhandle and the state intimately.

He has received numerous broadcast awards, significant among them being the CBS News-Fellowship to Columbia University Graduate School.

News Director Bob Izzard is a familiar face around news time. Since 1948, he has covered nearly every major story in and around Amarillo—and many from afar—from the spectacular Tex Thornton murder to the Alaska earthquake.

He has traveled the world over, and his first-hand knowledge of conditions in troubled spots, such as Vietnam, gives him special insight into news reported from those areas.

When you hear, "The Pros are on Channel 7," that means, in addition to Pratt and Izzard, the new faces of Woody Van Dyke in sports, Fred Norman in weather and Roger Davis, news hawk.

Woody Van Dyke is one of the state's best-known television sports personalities. It's not often a station can acquire a man who is both a top athlete and top-notch sports reporter.

A 9.7 sprinter, he attended historic William and Mary College on an athletic scholarship. Woody Van Dyke is a graduate of the National Academy of Broadcasting in Washington, D.C.; he broke into professional broadcasting in Kilgore, moved to Waco, then to WFAA-TV in Dallas.

When it comes to authorities, there are few weathercasters as qualified as Fred Norman. He first studied the elements as a B-17 navigator on strikes over Germany. Twice he barely escaped alive in hair-raising crashes of his riddled bombers. Quickly changing the subject, he recalls, "Clark Gable was in the same wing at the time."

Concentrating on meteorology, he became an Air Force inspector of prime NATO weather stations. During one of several Asian duty tours, he was assigned to Kwajalein Atoll, where early nuclear tests were conducted. While attached to Far East Headquarters, Norman personally flew through a raging typhoon to study firsthand the anatomy of these vicious storms. In Tokyo, he served as chief forecaster for the Korean Airlift, an operation that contributed materially to the end of fighting there.

When General Curtis LeMay reorganized the Strategic Air Command with jet bombers, Fred Norman was chief weather officer for the first jet wing sent to Europe.

Later a civilian, he faced another brand of natural monster—the tornado—as a Weather Bureau forecaster in Tulsa. A year after, in Tampa, Florida, he suddenly found himself the ranking bureau official when Hurricane Alma struck. For 24 straight hours he monitored the storm, successfully making the nerve-wracking decisions of when and in what area to order evacuation, trying to avoid unnecessary alarm while being certain to alert endangered areas. "To borrow a phrase," Fred comments, "it was a hard day's night!"

Fred Norman's pursuit of weather knowledge has taken him through numerous Air Force schools, and the University of Washington, the University of Miami, Florida State and Texas A & M.

Roger Davis, 24, also is new to Amarillo viewers. He started his career as a P.A. announcer at high school football games. A Fountain Inn, S.C., radio manager discovered him and offered him a job. Later he moved to a larger station in Greenville, S.C., where he was a combination disc jockey and newsmen.

Shifting to news, he became assistant news director at a major TV station in Spartanburg, S.C., and while there filed several reports on a local labor dispute that were broadcast nationally on Walter Cronkite's network news program.

Davis received the School Bell Award presented by the South Carolina Educational Association for public service.

As if all this accumulated talent wasn't enough, there are Tom Martin and Jack Tompkins, both as familiar to local viewers as favorite slippers on a cold winter's night.

Martin has received many accolades during his 20-year career in journalism. His astute analyses of local, state and national events have won him the coveted Sigma Delta Chi award for television editorials. His "Hot Line" interviews, seen nightly, have resulted in numerous civic improvements.

Tompkins is a familiar face in agri-business circles throughout the state. He has a closet full of awards for expert farm and ranch reporting. Among them are the Outstanding Service to Conservation Award from the Fort Worth Press, Distinguished Service Award from the Vocational Agricultural Teachers Association of Texas, Man of the Year in Agriculture Award from the state's county agents.

Pratt, Izzard, Van Dyke, Norman, Martin, Tompkins and Davis—the KVII-TV Pro News team, professionals among professionals. When these men ride to the scene of action in KVII-TV's psychedelic Mustang fastbacks, you know you'll be seeing the breaking news on television shortly.

The highest compliment paid in any field is, "They're real pros." The PROS are on KVII News!

Ruth Brent Moves To Channel 7

The Ruth Brent Show, 12:30 p.m. to 12:55 p.m., Monday through Friday, provides a pleasant interlude between lunch and dishwashing for the area's busy women.

Ruth, a charming hostess, has a lively collection of features full of entertainment and enjoyment for the active housewife.

She visits with the nationally famous and the locally talented, talks about fashions, provides household hints, decorating tips, gift and party suggestions, new and unusual recipes, and being an accomplished cook, she includes demonstrations of food preparation on the show.

Ruth has a background as a singer, dancer and actress. She's an ex-Conover cover girl, and is now a housewife, mother and area television personality.

She has been a familiar face to television viewers in the area since 1952. Recently she moved to Channel 7 to expand her show and provide nearly double the entertainment she had previously.

Jerry Green, KVII-TV's Program Director, says of her that "she's as personable off camera as she is on. Our women viewers like her, and Ruth's being on Channel 7 is another indication of our full spectrum programming."

Texas' tallest television tower is no Texas tall tale. Bill Canady, Channel 7's Director of Engineering, explains: "We'll begin erecting the new tower in about a month. To give you an idea of its height—it's three times taller than Dallas' highest building: it's 15 of our own Santa Fe buildings stacked on each other; it's 200 feet higher than the tallest antenna atop the Empire State Building; it's equivalent to a 150-story building. In other words, it's tall!" The station's new tower will stretch upward 1,706 feet above average terrain, with an overall height above mean sea level of 5,049 feet.

PRIME SHOWS FOR AFTERNOON

"Our afternoon lineup of shows is one of the finest available anywhere from the California coast to New York Harbor," John Tyler, Channel 7's general manager, observed.

"It's designed with the home-maker and youngster in mind," he added.

For example, at 2:30 p.m., PASS-WORD is on. "These are specially selected programs from the best of this highly popular word game show hosted by Allen Ludden," Tyler said.

3 p.m., RUN FOR YOUR LIFE. "This engrossing adventure series stars Ben Gazzara as the stricken attorney with only a few months to live. We're sold on the quality of the series, and viewers can see it on 7."

4 p.m., DARK SHADOWS. "Teen-agers flooded us with letters to move this series of tales from the nether world from an earlier time spot to 4 p.m. Many told us that they were just getting home from school about this time, and would we show it then? We are!"

4:30 p.m., TUGGIE TIME. "He's ageless," Tyler says. "Adults like him just as much as the kids do. He's one of the most natural performers we've run across in many years of television." Tuggie entertains with cartoons, Laurel and Hardy, Comedy Capers and his ever-fresh wit and wisdom.

5 p.m., FLINTSTONES, and 5:30 p.m., GILLIGAN'S ISLAND. "Here are two light comedy shows with an appeal for youngsters and adults alike. We thought that since both were recently released to syndication that our viewers would enjoy seeing them. Both shows have been tremendously successful, and we know they will be in our viewing area."

"When we finally top her out and begin transmitting from the new stack, we'll increase our service area by nearly 9,000 square miles (about the size of New Jersey and Rhode Island combined). That means that cities such as Hereford, Pampa and Dalhart will receive essentially snow-free pictures; in other words, about the same quality picture we've received in Amarillo," Canady said. "Area viewers with their own antennas will get substantially better reception than they are now getting from any Amarillo station," he added. "Cable viewers also will see a definite improvement in reception."

Foundations for the structure have been laid.

"You can tell a little about the tower's size by the foundation required to support it," Canady noted. "The base contains 73 cubic feet of concrete and four tons of reinforcing steel. The whole thing covers about 625 square feet."

Construction is expected to begin December 1, with completion set for around January 15. The tower will be located 12 miles north-northwest of downtown Amarillo, 5 miles northwest of the present tower north of the city.

Canady, a veteran television engineer with experience in tower construction, is still somewhat awed by this one. "Everything about it is huge," he said, studying photographs of the steel giant. "There will be 191 tons of steel in the tower, including the 6-ton helical antenna portion that bolts on top. The guy cables are 31,000 feet long; if they were unraveled and the individual wires laid end to end, there would be 400 miles of wire in each cable. That's about as far as from here to El Paso. There are two-and-a-half miles of electrical wiring. It'll take about two-and-a-half tons of zinc to galvanize the thing." Canady paused a moment, apparently thinking about who's going to have to change the lights that burn out at the top. "For anyone in physical condition to attempt it," he finally went on, "it'll take about an hour-and-a-half to climb the 1,230 steps in the ladder to the top." He hesitated again. "That's for somebody in good shape," he repeated.

"Any way you look at it," Canady mused, "it's a long way to the top!"

Ratings Play Big Role in TV Programming

Broadcasters depend on the ratings to tell them what viewers prefer. The surveys—taken in the fall and spring in this area—serve as a barometer of viewing trends. Because of the importance of the ratings, it is vital that viewers participating in the surveys keep accurate lists of the programs they watch, remembering to record programs viewed on all sets that may be in the home.

KVII-TV is particularly responsive to indications given by the ratings. For example, Amarillo surveys revealed a desire by many watchers for more news. KVII responded by adding significantly to their news staff and expanding the ten p.m. news program to allow more in-depth coverage. In another instance, ratings showed the word-game show "PASSWORD" to be a popular favorite that was not available to area audiences. KVII's programming officials promptly acquired local broadcast rights to the syndicated show to please the station's afternoon viewers.

Quick response to viewer wishes has been a distinguishing feature of the locally-owned station. Commented one regular TV buff: "At least Channel 7 will listen to us."
