(By The Associated Press)

A letter demanding that amount was received at Aurora yesterday by Miss Morrison's partner in business, but while neither its contents nor the address on the envelope was in the missing woman's handwriting, the writer explained the substance was "dictated" by another individual.

Search Is Started

J. Mohr at the request of her father, Robert Morrison, Central City farmer.

ROOSEVELT IS GIVEN FAVOR

GARNER PROXY LOSES BY A BIG MAJORITY IN GEORGIA POLL

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, March 24—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt won Georgia's 28 convention votes in yesterday's Democratic presidential preference primary by overwhelming Judge G. H. Howard of Atlanta, who advocated the candidacy of Speaker John Garner.

The New York executive had a popular plurality of approximately ten to one on the latest tabulations and 398 of the possible 410 county unit votes had been placed in his column with five counties missing. Judge Howard was leading only in Catoosa county and newspaper correspondents there said complete returns would give the county to Roosevelt.

If he captures Catoosa county's six unit votes and wins in the five missing counties as his supporters have predicted, he will score a grand slam with 410 county unit votes and have the unanimous approval of the state convention.

FORT WORTH, March 24. (AP)—W. A. "Billy" Soucy was in jail here today charged by a federal indictment with using the mails to defraud Miss Marguerite Becker of Chicago of $14,000.

He was charged with urging her to deposit sums of money with him for trading in commodity futures which he promised would earn 100 per cent on the investment before July 1.

AMERICAN NOW IS CAPTIVE

CHINA AGREES TO TRY PLAN IN EFFORT TO OBTAIN RELEASE

By The Associated Press

SHANGHAI, March 24—The Chinese government agreed today to go in for kidnaping in an effort to save the life of a captive American.

This course was decided on when friends of Charles Baker, a Yangtze river boat captain of Pasadena, Calif., found themselves at their wits' end to pay the ransom demanded in exchange for his life.

Ransom Is Paid

Lansing Hoyt, president of the Yangtze Rapids Steamship company, Baker's employer, tried paying a ransom, but the brigands got the money by a ruse and kept their prisoner.

All governmental agents were helpless because Baker is held in Kienli province where communists have complete control.

Then somebody thought of a plan—whence it came none is saying. But Nanking finally agreed, it was learned here today, to try it.

To Seize Hostages

Orders went out to the Chinese navy patrol in the Yangtze to seize hostages in bandit centers in Kienli province, thus turning the tables on brigands.

But whether the idea will work is another matter, for Kienli province covers some 10,000 square miles in central China.

Baker's boat ran aground in January of this year and since then his friends have done nothing but pay and negotiate without results.

Calf judging will not begin until tomorrow morning.

Boys And Girls Here

Practically every one of the nearly 100 club boys and girls who had calves entered in the show, were around the livestock pavilion, while over on the old pavilion where the hogs were quartered there were just about as many boys and girls with hogs on display. Parents in most cases were also on hand.

A group of breeders were on hand to look over the livestock. There were delegations from towns as far away as Odessa, where John M. Gist, past president of the state Hereford association, resides. Mr. Gist was here for the show and sale.

STORM'S TOLL OF DEAD IS MOUNTING

LIST GROWS TO 358; APPEAL FOR AID IS BEING BROADCAST

(By The Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Mar. 24—Relief agencies and neighbors of the stricken lent a hand of mercy to the south's tornado victims today as the death list grew to 358.

Survivors worked with the American Red Cross, the American Legion and other organizations to bury the dead, care for the injured, house the homeless and launch a program to rehabilitate devastated regions.

The Red Cross established relief headquarters here and authorized eight centers of operations over the storm area after the arrival of Dr. William Kleine, general medical advisor, and C. Wade Downing of the Washington office.

Appeal Broadcast

Field representatives pushed into the less accessible communities dashed flat by the freakish winds of Monday night to survey damage and determine the amount of aid needed. An appeal for contributions was broadcast last night after relief workers conferred and estimated from $150,000 to $200,000 would be required for immediate needs of the storm victims.

Today the death list by states showed: Alabama 298, Georgia 37, Tennessee 18, South Carolina 3 and Kentucky 2.

Rosa Ponselle Seeking Missing Link--Husband

* * *

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 24—Rosa Ponselle, 34-year-old prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera company, is seeking the missing link in the charmed chain of her life—a husband.

"All my girlhood was a battle between career and marriage," she said today. "I have the career, I must now have a husband. If the right man came along, I wouldn't hesitate a moment."

Wants a Home

For the past 13 years Ponselle has sung with the Metropolitan Opera company. She has been singing in public ever since she was five years old. She couldn't stop now and she doesn't want to.

"If he were the right man, you see, I wouldn't have to give up my career entirely. But I would want to be able to stay in one place long enough to maintain a home for him and raise children," she said.

Wears Wedding Ring

Ponselle wears a wedding ring on the third finger of her left hand. She never takes it off, believing it will bring her marriage soon. She found the ring in a railroad station several years ago.

Ponselle's idea of a husband is someone tall and blonde, serious minded and wholesome. She doesn't want a molycoddle, or a man so poor she will have to buy his neckties. Most of all he must be understanding.

Rudy Vallee To Seek A Prosperity Theme Song

* * * * * * * * * * * *

"VAGABOND LOVER" GETS TOUGH ASSIGNMENT BUT HE IS TO SCOUR TIN PAN ALLEY FOR SNAPPY TUNE TO MAKE PEOPLE FORGET

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 24.—All Mr. Rudy Vallee has to do to make a name for himself—again—is to write a theme song for prosperity.

President Hoover handed the megaphone maestro the assignment yesterday when Vallee called at the White House to pay his respects.

"Mr. Hoover smilingly told me," Vallee said, "that if I could sing a song that would make people forget their troubles, he would give me a medal."

Good Number Being Sought

The idea of a serenade to the goddess of plenty—"Cornucopia, Here We Come!" was a title one songwriter thought up, quick as a flash—bounded around Tin Pan Alley today like a ball on a roulette wheel looking for a good number to land on.

One of the more talkative, if possible, piano-punishers broke into a cold sweat at what he frankly confessed was the first inspiration he has had since he did that smash, "Ducky-Wucky, Don't Youse Leave Me No Mo'."

"It Would Be Surefire"

"It would be surefire," he exclaimed, fumbling for a handkerchief and coming up with the laundry bill.

"A wow," said another, clamping his hoof down on the loud pedal and whaling the keyboard with all the delicacy of a circus roustabout driving a tent stake.

The more mature minds among the music makers, however, mulled the matter. They recognized the task would be no light one. Finding rhymes for "moon" (croon, spoon, June) and "love (above, turtle dove, shove) is tasch tasch!) a simple matter. A rhyme for "reconstruction finance corporation" is not so easy.

Tin Pan Alley All Aflutter

Tin Pan Alley is not a thoroughfare to curl up and roll away at the first breeze of an idea, some erudite persons to the contrary notwithstanding. It began casting about today for the find of lyrics that would definitely launch America down the way of happiness.

Prosperity lyrics suddenly were thicker than Mississippi mud. A tune tinker who had been at work on a "wow" titled "With You, Dear Elaine, in Spain in the Rain," tore it up and began humming madly.

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 24 (AP)—Aroused by a shooting which developed from a hitherto harmless undergraduate "feud," University of Missouri authorities today pursued an investigation into the clash that sent three students to a hospital Tuesday night with bullet wounds and a fourth suffering from blows on the head.

GAS STYLE SHOW TO BE STAGED AND EVERY KNOWN KIND IS TO BE SHOWN

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, March 24—A gasoline style show will be put on by the American Chemical society at its meeting beginning here Monday.

Instead of plain, old-fashioned gasoline, the proper scientific term today is "gasolines," some for hot weather, others for cold, gasolines for heavy engines and for hig-speed motors.

All are products of "fractionation," a cracking process which draws a substance as explosive as dynamite from one part of the oil still and from another a remarkable gasoline that can quench a lighted match.

Scientists will discuss the latest plans for fitting these mixtures to motorists to drive engines faster, farther and more cheaply at a symposium on chemical engineering processes in the oil industry.

More than 1000 scientists are expected at the meeting.

NEW PRICE TO BE LAUNCHED APRIL 1

CONTINENTAL COMPANY STARTS MOVEMENT IN NEW SCHEDULE

(By The Associated Press)

TULSA, March 24—Dollar oil, the unreached goal of Governor William H. Murray's military-clamped oil field lid last summer and fall, again will flow in the midcontinent area next week.

The Continental Oil company announced last night it would post a top price of $1 a barrel for midcontinent crude petroleum, effective April 1. The prevailing top price is 85-cents.

D. J. Moran, Continental president, said his company's new schedule would begin with 76-cents for oil of 29-degrees gravity or below and range upward 2-cents for each higher degree, making the highest price $1 for oil of 40-gravity or above.

Announcements of other midcontinent companies as to whether they would follow the Continental advance, were awaited today. The Continental company led the last price hike, a 15-cent increase last fall.

Oil men here predicted the new increase, if generally followed, would boost retail gasoline prices.

SINCLAIR COMPANY WILL FOLLOW LEAD

TULSA, March 24. (AP)—H. L. Phillips, president of the Sinclair Oil and Gas company, subsidiary of the newly merged Sinclair and Prairie companies, said today his company would meet the 15 cent price increase announced by Continental Oil company, effective April 1.

NEW TAXATION PROPOSAL IS UP TODAY

RAGING CONTROVERSY BEING FOUGHT OUT BY TWO FACTIONS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24.—The crisis of the raging controversy over new taxation was imminent as the house reassembled today to vote on rejecting the general sales tax proposal of the billion dollar revenue bill. The onrush of the rebellious factions, which four times have bowled over the bi-partisan leadership since work on the bill began, was unslackened.

The faithful who have stuck by the bill faced the issue with stubborn determination, hoping that in the maneuvers preceding the decision they would swing into line a number of the border-line objectors.

Plans Are Talked

First to be settled was the proposal of the ways and means committee, sponsoring the bill, to exempt all foodstuffs and clothing, medicines and other necessities. Another plan in line for a vote was that of Representative Ramseyer (R., Ia.) to write into the bill authority for the president to suspend the sales tax upon the return of commodity prices to normal.

On such changes as these the leadership staked its chances of success. But Representative LaGuardia (R., N. Y.), who has been in the van of the anti-sales taxers, destroyed part of the effect obtained by the exemption offer when he pointed out that cloth, leather and other products entering into the finished article were subject to tax so that the bill's burden on poor purchasers of necessities still would be there.

The principal vote turned on the amendment by Representative Doughton of North Carolina, leader of the Democratic insurgent wing, to strike out the entire sales tax section of the bill. Doughton, LaGuardia and Representative Rankin (D., Miss.), another anti-sales tax leader were without hesitation in predicting victory, while only majority leader Rainey would assert positively that the tax would be retained.

FOOD HABITS

"I DON'T want this oatmeal, give me some corn flakes" commanded the boy of eight. His mother gets the corn flakes. May arrives. "I want a soft boiled egg this morning, mother." "Make it two fried with a little bacon, for me. Remember I like them turned," adds Adolescent Fred. Dad orders up some buttered toast. "A slice for me" too hollars May.

Do you make your home ining room a restaurent? Do you serve food to your children a la carte? A great many mothers do. Some wear themselves out being chefs and waitresses for the other members of the family. In doing so they make themselves their children's slaves, teach them to be finicky about food, and rob them of good qualities of character.

For children of school age to eat happily what is set before them, asking no questions, making no remarks, is a goal not to high to reach at home. Expect the same of all other adults. Any father who carries sportsmanship into his home, and cares to set good models of conduct before his children learns to eat the regular family meal.

If you desire your children to acquire good food habits and grow up to welcome guests at meals in others homes, serve them merely the family meal.

No reason why the members of the family should not take turns in making, on the evening before, the choice of cereal for the family breakfast, within a range convenient to the mother or the maid; then let all the family abide by this decision asking in the morning for no substitututes. At other meals, except for the children very young, let there be one menu for the group. Every child, old enough, will be served with some of each food. If it is one of which he is not very fond honor his request for a very small helping. If is is one particulary disliked be satisfied if his helping is exceedingly small. Have no arguments, no sceenes; have even no remarks about the food. Let each child learn that complaint about his food automatically removes him from the family group.

Keep the family conversation above the stomach. Make interesting in a cheery atmosphere.

In some homes it is not always convenient nor always desirable for either parent to rise early enough to eat breakfast with the high school child who may leave to go to school very early. In that event he selects and prepares his own food. What he gains from independence may be very wholesome.

If, however, the child does not choose enough or proper food for breakfast then his mother, where there is no other help, can afford to make considerable sacrifice to rise on time to prepare his breakfast. In any event, either she or the father or both should nearly always eat breakfast with him in order to enjoy his companionship and to send him off for the school day's work with cheer and good wishes.

In most homes the family can eat the evening meal together. When properly conducted this dinner hour is the most valuable means of education which the child can have anywhere.

When all eat together the same foods in an atmosphere of calm and leisure, where each one learns to be courteous and considerate of every other member, and where they engage freely in conversation the whole setting helps to unify.

BROADCAST TO START SOON

RADIO STATION BEING INSTALLED; BROUGHT FROM ABILENE

Radio station KFYO, transferred here from Abilene, is being installed and Lubbock listeners-on-the-air will have an opportunity of hearing programs broadcast by a local station about April 15, T. E. Kirksey, manager, announced Wednesday.

The station will be a 250 watt powered unit on day time operation and 100 watts at night and will broadcast on a frequency of 1310 kilocycles. Studios will be on the third floor of Lubbock hotel and the transmitting station on West Fifth street near College avenue. The transmitter is a new type low level modulated direct crystal control with the latest type of frequency control and, according to Mr. Kirksey, will be able to broadcast for a radius of between 250 and 300 miles.

"We expect to broadcast about fourteen hours a day and possibly sixteen after a few months," Mr. Kirksey said. He said the station operated from 12 to 16 hours a day in Abilene.

To Offer Variety

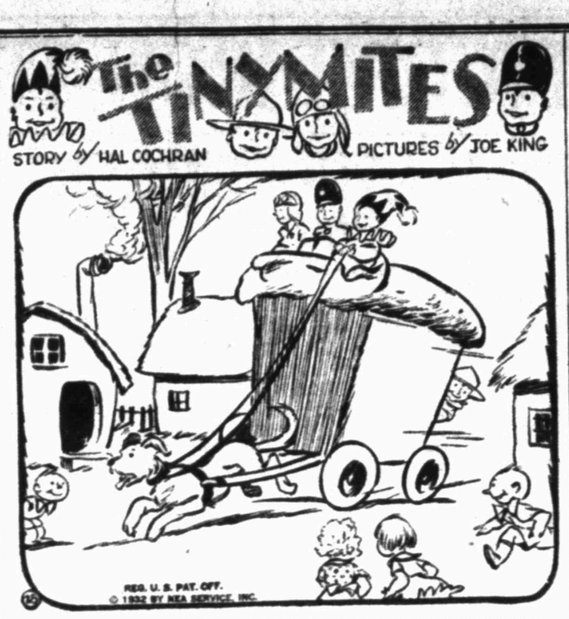
A variety of programs will be offered each day, the manager said and announced that he had obtained new entertainers as staff artists. A staff orchestra will be maintained soon after operation is begun here, he said. Phonograph record broadcasts will be included in the daily programs.

Ray Mullholland, chief technician, is engaged in installing the transmitter and expects to have the unit ready for operation soon after the antenna towers are erected. The antenna wires will be 100 feet in the air.

Included in the group of new staff members coming to Lubbock will be Douglas Doan, experienced announcer from Salt Lake City, Mr. Kirksey said. Another announcer from Oklahoma City is to join the staff later, he said.

The station operated in Abilene for about four years. Recently permission for its removal to Lubbock was granted by the federal radio commission and the first equipment arrived here the past week.

Auto traffic is said to move more steadily at a speed of 34.5 miles an hour.



(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

It didn't take the Tinies long to raise their voices, good and strong, and shout to Driver Duncy, "Now be careful how you drive. We'll climb aboard and go with you, but you must promise you won't do a lot of crazy things. We want to end our trip alive."

"Don't worry," Duncy snapped. "I'll see that you're as safe as safe can be. This bakery wagon's not so hard to steer. I'm sure of that. And, too, the baker says his hound is sure to get to where he's bound. Each one of you just jump aboard and hang on to your hat."

Then, as the whole bunch climbed inside, the friendly baker loudly cried, "Don't try to steer the dog. He knows the proper way to go. Just jerk the reins and shout giddap! Then you can drop them in your lap. The trip may last a little while, because the dog runs slow.

"When you lads have sold everything, come right back here so you can bring the money you've collected for my pies and bread and cakes. I'm going to wait right here for you. I know that nothing wrong you'll do. I'll time you from the time you start and see how long it takes."

Then Duncy very loudly cried "All ready. We're set for our ride. Giddap, kind hound, and take us to the little town nearby. Don't run too slow, or try to race. Just keep an even sort of pace. We do not want to spill, because we're sitting rather high."

They traveled half an hour or so and then brave Scouty shouted, "Oh, I see the little village. We are on the outskirts now. Bring on the tots who want to buy the things we've brought. Oh, me, oh my, I've sold a lot of things before, so I will show you how."

TEXAS TECH MATADORS TAKE TO GRIDIRON TRAINING

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

This spyer relieved himself of routine duties yesterday, by getting up early and staying up late, long enough to spy on a few sports and meet some good sports in a couple of counties south.

Almost ran over Lefty (Whataman) Squires at Tahoka, but he didn't see us. He was wearing a red cap and a sweat shirt and evidently hurrying to a checker game, so we deducted that the annual trip to the grapefruit league had been concluded. It was Galveston this time, we think.

Breezed on to Lamesa where a lot of good guys gave us the glad hand and where the girls, most of 'em, gave us the go by. Met a Mr. McCall in a drug store, ate lunch at Bill Waldrop's and discussed the Lindbergh case and other cases in Sheriff Gus White's office. Gus is running again and he's scared off all his opponents except one. Says he guesses his baseball days are about over, and we couldn't gripe at that because we've seen him slam too many over the heads of Hubbers at Merrill Park.

Went up to the high school to see how sports were coming along and found Assistant Coach Vernon (Willie) Bryant peddling knowledge to a squad of arithmetic scholars. Head Coach McCollum eluded us but we learned from Willie that Lamesa expects to repeat its winning ways at the second annual Texas Tech relays, slated for April 9. They're already getting prepared, and Willie said they have a better team than last year, when they won the Tech carnival. We were made to get all impressed about the work of one Norris, who gave his opponents plenty of trouble here last year. Willie says they're going to win the relay events, the 880 and anything else we have up here. Power to 'em. Bryant was no mean track and field man at college, and he's passing his knowledge on to the Lamesa athletes. Lamesa ran second in a meet at Midland last week in which some of the best teams of the Oil Belt took part.

"Skinnay" Yates (he's particular about the spelling of "Skinnay") was out in the country trying to sell hardware so we didn't see him, but we located Gus Ragsdale, genial manager of the Lamesa ball club last year, and enjoyed a baseball session with him, also learned that he'd been on that same filling station corner for nine years, coming there shortly after a season or part of a season with Portland. Murray McWherter was there, too, and he and Gus promised us a quail hunt next winter. We're remembering that. Met a Mr. Simpson and a Miss Simpson and Miss Margaret Garland, a former Texas Techite, who passes regards on to friends here.

Headed back homeward, after a little more business, and stopped at O'Donnell learning at Lamesa that things were booming in a baseball way at the former point. Inquired the way to the ball park and found Bailey "Boots" White, originally of Lamesa but who's been practicing around down at O'Donnell with Buford Cox and the rest of Shorty Wright's outfit. Shorty, who pulled down quite a bunch of spinach in Hollywood studios last year and who is going back this fall, plans to put O'Donnell on the baseball map this summer. They were working out on a prairie and smacking the ball for some lusty rides. Assistant Edgar Hambright, with whom we made all this trip, couldn't resist the temptation to swat at a few, but he kept his cost on as an alibi for the little poop-ups he batted to short right. Ed and Bailey talked over plans of going to Akron next month and seemed to get quite a large kick out of anticipating the trip up there. With our usual wit we reminded that the trip home might not be so hot, and suggested they take a pair of overalls to wear back in the open air pullman. Really, we hope they stick. Bailey is to be first baseman on Honest John McCloskey's Central League team. He's going up with Hambright, Evolution Marshall, Red Gaither and Dobbs, the Amarillo chunker. They leave April 10.

Buford Cox was with Henderson last year in the East Texas League, where some of the local talent and Lefty Squires and Larkin of Tahoka spent a few miserable weeks after the usual tryouts in the Texas loop. They recalled the East Texas League days, while we were yet at O'Donnell, but not with a great show of pleasure. They're still wondering when they'll get paid for their work down there last summer. Optimistic souls!

The trip home from O'Donnell was uneventful save for a soda at Tahoka, Ham again outfumbling us for the check. Lefty apparently was still busy with checkers and Larkin must have been with him.

OVER 100 ARE EXPECTED TO OPEN WORK

HARD SPRING SEASON GRIND PROMISED BY COACH CAWTHON

Football training and practice for nearly 100 potential Texas Tech Matador varsity candidates was to get under way at 4 o'clock this afternoon on the practice fields. Head Coach Pete Cawthon issued the call early this week for prospective wearers of the Scarlet and Black to report for equipment at the field house at 1 o'clock.

Spring training means at least a six weeks' grind, perhaps two months of it, for ambitious and serious minded athletes. Coach Cawthon has attempted to stress the importance of spring training urging that all candidates report and stick it out.

To Be Held Daily

Practice will be held daily, when weather permits, from now until near the close of the spring term of school. A firm believer in spring training, Coach Cawthon sees the present training period as one of the most important steps toward building up the team for next year. With the toughest schedule in Tech history to face, the Matador mentor hopes to accomplish about half the work needed to put the Bullfighters in shape for the card. Among the teams appearing on Tech's schedule next fall are S. M. U., Texas A. and M. and Baylor University of the Southwest Conference, University of Arizona, University of New Mexico of the Border States Conference, Notre Dame "B" team and Colorado School of Mines.

Expected to report th's afternoon at 1 o'clock for regulation football equipment are the following members of last year's varsity squad.

Captain Ross Ayers of Wheelock, guard; Curtis Allen of Lubbock, center; Elva Baker of Abilene, tackle; Raymond Barton of Lubbock, center; Aubrey Butts of Waco, fullback; Marvin Collins of Celina, fullback; Harold Crites of Lubbock, fullback; Albert Greer of Comanche, guard; Matt Hitchcock of Cameron, end; Harlan Howell of Brownfield, end; Eli Harris of Ralls, guard; Basil Hill of Lamesa, halfback; Bennie McWilliams of San Benito, tackle; Milton Moffett of Stanton, quarterback; Carl McAdams of Sherman, quarterback; Murray Nichols of De Leon, fullback; Truett Owens of Sherman, tackle; Yancy Price of Lubbock, end; L. J. Sollis of Sherman, halfback; Bill Teal of Enochs, end; Lacey Turner of Claude, guard; Lester Tribble of Sherman, center and Clarence Young of Ralls, tackle, and Cy Le Masters.

Intramural "Discoveries"

Members of last year's freshman squad who are expected out for spring training are:

W. B. Barrett of Sulphur Springs; Comer Burton of Abilene; John Beauchamp of Greenville, Roy and Leonard Curfman of Electra; Adrian Clark of Denison; Renouf Crittendon of Lubbock; Gwynn Dowell of Royse City; Elmer Fortner of Sherman; W. N. Puqua of Hamilton; Wilson and Braxton Gilmore of Olney; Wayne Larsen of Amarillo; Carlton Luper of Houston; Bill Lott; Charles Lemmons of Hamilton; Dub Lawson of Lubbock; Malcolm Martin of Lubbock; Floyd McLane of Lufkin; Ed McKeever; Roy and G. B. Morris of Seymour; Milton McGehee of Lubbock; Lawrence Priddy of Gainesville; Jim Bob Pool of Brady; Carl Turner of Lubbock and Woodrow Wilson of Mexia.

Out of the more than one hundred hers who took part in the intramural season this winter 28 have been invited to report today.

George Anderson of Corpus Christi; Joe Bush, Hubert Baird of Vernon; Bob Crawford of Lubbock; Demp Cannon of Slaton; Raymond Gill of Levelland; Rankin Goode; Billy Holmes of Shamrock; Leon Ince of Cleburne; Fred Jordon of Portales, N. M.; Lucian Josephs; Raymond Johnson of Tyler; Homer Murphy of Hermleigh; Jay Maffy of Desdemona; Walton Nixon of Waco; George Norman of Glen Rose; Richard Mundine of Taylor; Harold Prather of Greenville; Hubert Proctor; Ed Ratliff of Eldorado; Major Schroeder of Abernathy; Mack Scoggins of Lubbock; Pete Smith of Sherman; Mina Watkins of Lubbock; Harold Welsh; J. Philadelphia Nationals Are Strong; May Figure In Race For Fourth Place

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

IS JOE SLIPPING

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 24 (AP)—The New York Yankees are accusing Joe Sewell, their veteran third baseman, of "slipping" after only a dozen years in the major leagues. The eagle-eyed Joe actually struck out yesterday. He has been known to go through a whole season with only four strikeouts.

IS BETTER HURLER

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 24 (AP)—Waite Hoyt may be of more use to the Brooklyn Dodgers this season as a pitcher than as a dietician. Hoyt showed mid-season pitching form in the five innings he worked against Cincinnati yesterday but two players who have tried to follow his reducing methods, Hack Wilson and Dazzy Vance, have made very little progress along those lines.

PROSPECTS NOT BRIGHT

BILOXI, Miss., Mar. 24. (AP)—Prospects for developing a pitcher from among the young aspirants down here with the Washington Senators certainly were no brighter today. Manager Walter Johnson picked recruits Johnny Boyle and Bud Thomas for the day's hurling against Springhill college of Mobile, in an attempt to see if there was some good material in them.

Yesterday, against the Baltimore Orioles, young Mike Delaney went wild, walking four to account, with one hit, for as many Oriole runs.

HOGAN IS INJURED

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 24. (AP)—The New York Giants have their first casualty of the training season since Frank Hogan came out second best in a collision with the Wrigley field grandstand. Freddy Lindstrom has a strained muscle in his right thigh. It kept him out of yesterday's game with Detroit, giving Chick Fullis a chance to play.

DOUBLE-HEADER SET

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 24 (AP)—A double-header, if the weather man is nice, was on tap for the Red Sox today. The game scheduled for yesterday was washed out as it has been intraclub games earlier in the season. So when a double-header was suggested for today, Manager Collins jumped at the chance.

LAST HOME GAME

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 24 (AP)—The Phillies today play Newark in the last game here this season. They rest Friday and Saturday go to St. Petersburg to engage the Yanks in the Phils' last game in Florida this year. They got an unexpected rest yesterday when a downpour prevented their scheduled game with the St. Louis Browns.

CONGRATULATES SELVES

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 24 (AP)—Bowman and Merritt "Sugar" Cain congratulated themselves today on having survived a weeding out which saw three slabmates fall by the wayside. Connie Mack announced that Eddie Trask, William Brigham and Robert Chandler, hurling hopefuls, had failed to make the riffle.

PRIDE IS SWELLED

TAMPA, Fla., March 24 (AP)—Cincinnati's pride in acquisition of Ernest Lombardi and Wally Gilbert from the Brooklyn Dodgers was swelled further today. Though that scorer marked the contest with the Dodgers a 3-3 tie when rain drowned out the last three innings yesterday, the Reds confidently held it should have been 1 to 0 in Cincinnati's favor, and the victory chalked up to the excellent work of those two ex-Dodgers behind the plate and at third.

IS FIRST CASUALTY

NEW ORLEANS, March 24 (AP)—Dick Porter, Indian ball hawk, remained behind today when the Tribe left for Gulfport, Miss., for a game with the Baltimore Orioles. Porter, suffering from a strained leg muscle, is the first casualty in four weeks of training. With the squad getting rapidly into condition, it seemed likely that New Orleans will be the Cleveland training camp for another year. It appeared for a time that the camp would be switched to California.

GEHRINGER IS BACK

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 24 (AP)—Charlie Gehringer is back in the game. That was the big news as the Detroit Tigers arrived to open a two-game series with Hollywood here this afternoon. Having conquered stubborn and belated case of oak poisoning, Gehringer was in the line-up yesterday for the first time since the training schedule opened, but even his presence at second couldn't stave off a 6 to 1 defeat at Los Angeles, the third in four starts against the New York Giants.

PITCHERS ARE READY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24 (AP)—First string pitchers of the Cubs are ready for the full nine innings. Pat Malone and Guy Bush have come through for the route and Manager Rogers Hornsby has decided all of them must do the same thing before the eastward trek. Bush was hammered for nine hits yesterday but mostly after a Cub four-run splurge in the first inning which won them a 6 to 5 decision over San Francisco.

CAN FEAR LYONS

SAN ANTONIO, March 24 (AP)—American league batters can start fearing Ted Lyons right now. The White Sox star made his pitching debut yesterday and held San Antonio of the Texas league hitless and scoreless for the three innings he worked. The team started breaking camp today for the exhibition tour that ends in Chicago April 11.

GO FISHING TODAY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 24 (AP)—The Braves are out to catch fish today instead of baseballs. As no game is scheduled for today many of the Boston team are going out on the water to try their luck. The others are going to watch the game between the Yanks and the Cardinals.

TEXANS PLAN TO ENTER IN MEET

HOUSTON, Mar. 24. (AP)—Eight Texas men will compete in the National Amateur Athletic Union meet for the right to represent the United States in boxing at the Olympic games.

They won state amateur titles with victories here last night after a series of elimination fights.

The winners were: Heavyweight, Jimmy Dee of Houston and Rice Institute; light heavyweight, Harry Leinbach of the University of Texas; middleweight, Emanuel Dee of Houston; welterweight, Ralph Sikes of San Antonio; light weight, Tony Plaza of Beaumont; featherweight, Domingo Martinez of Houston; bantam weight, Nick Peters of San Antonio; fly weight, Benny De Leon of Houston.

MEET LONGHORNS

SAN ANTONIO, March 24. (AP)—Nineteen San Antonio Indian players left in a bus this morning for Austin, to play the University of Texas Longhorns this afternoon.

BY ALAN GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 24 (AP)—Far from appearing a futile factor in the National league picture this spring, the Philadelphia national look strong enough to figure in a prospective five-club scramble for fourth place.

They do not hear the pennant bee buzzing nor does Manager Burt Shotton dream of miracles in this age of enforced realities but he most decidedly thinks his club will show improvement, for at least three reasons.

Pitching Better

First and foremost is the Phils outlook for much better pitching with some adequate talent for the all-important "mop-up" work, as well as a "big four" consisting of Phil Collins, Jim Elliott, Ray Benge and Clise Dudley.

Second, there is more speed and aggressive spirit manifest. The team is varying the slugging monotony by bunting and base-running. Finally Shotton has real hopes of bolstering an outfield that for the past few seasons has consisted of Klein, Klein and Klein.

Has Good Average

Personally, Shotton does not think there is another outfielder in the league as good as Charles Herbert (Chuck) Klein of Indianapolis, the broad shouldered lad who passed Grover Alexander for a double the first time he batted in the big show and who has thumped out a four-year average of .360.

To strengthen the outer patrol, Shotton has confidence in Hal Lee for left field and a new comer, George Davis, from St. Paul, for the middle garden.

Aside from Benge, Dudley, Collins and Elliott, the big southpaw who won 19 games for a sixth place club last year, Shotton bases his anticipation of better pitching upon the showing of a trio of newcomers—Roy Hansen, tall southpaw from Dallas, Reg Grabowski signed as a free agent and Edgar Holley, right hander from Kansas City.

Todd Looks Good

Al Todd from Dallas is one of the best looking young backstops on view in any Florida camp. He seems certain to make himself useful in support of Virgil Davis, number 1 receiver, and Harry McCurdy.

With Captain Arthur (Pinkey) Whitney in improved health, for his work at third, and Les Mallon a much-improved second baseman, the infield appears the backbone of the club's defensive strength. Dick Bartell is at short and Don Hurst, a slugger, on first.

Jess Willard Will Return To Boxing

LOS ANGELES, March 24 (AP)—Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion, has announced through his managers, Frank Kerwin and Carlos Curtis, he contemplated a return to the ring to engage in exhibition bouts.

Only recently Willard admitted his various real estate and meat market ventures had failed and that he was earning a mere living. His managers said he would go into training immediately and that they hoped to match him with Jack Dempsey to whom he lost the title, and Jack Johnson, from whom he won the crown, in four round exhibitions.

The former champion is now 49 years old and weighs 300 pounds.

BATTALINO TO FACE A TEST IN FIGHT

BILLY PETROLLE PUTS OUT BIG BARRIER TO YOUNG HOPEFULS

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 24—Bat Battalino, the boy who had the fight faithful wondering a couple of years ago how he ever became a champion, offers the fans a new puzzle tonight. That is, can he get past the barrier old Billy Petrolle has put in front of so many hopeful young boxers.

Since he captured the featherweight championship from Andre Routis, Battalino has shown great improvement as well as a sudden increase in weight, but the confidence of the fans seldom has been with him. They made Petrolle an 8 to 5 favorite tonight, then promptly raised the question whether Bat can be beaten when he is the underdog. He hasn't been yet.

Petrolle also looks like one of the ring's unbeatables. He came out of retirement a year and a half ago and has been carrying on a great comeback campaign ever since.

Taking in everything, Battalino appears to be about the toughest customer Petrolle has met in his 18 months of triumphant warfare.

COME, COME ALFRED

BIRMINGHAM, Eng.— He may never have kissed a woman, but Alfred Blythwait has missed a lot. The 87-year-old bachelor avows his lips have never touched those of the opposite sex, and he lives alone here, darning his own socks, sewing buttons on his shirts, and doing all his own housework. "I'm healthy, happy and have money in the bank," he says. "And the reason is that I've never kissed a woman."

Dallas Entry Gets Strength For Race

DALLAS, March 24 (AP)—The Dallas entry in the Texas league has been strengthened by arrival of Lena Styles, a catcher bought from Cincinnati last winter. Styles reported yesterday, thirteen days later than some others, because of an attack of influenza.

Manager Happ Morse announced morning and afternoon practice would be resumed. He was pleased with the showing of some of his men in defeating the Southern Methodist university Mustangs, 10 to 2, as well as with the work of two Steer pitchers, Otho Nitcholas and John Whitehead, loaned the collegians.

Railroads In Texas Operating At Loss

AUSTIN, March 24 (AP)—Texas railroads operated at a loss of $38-787 for the month of January, a report to the state railroad commission showed. The new operating income for the same month last year was $367,189.

Total operating revenues were given as $10,283,087 and total operating expenses as $8,668,159. The net revenue from operation of $1-614,928 was more than absorbed by tax accruals, equipment rents and joint facilities rent, the report showed.

Fire insurance policies underwritten in the United States in 1931 totaled $301,000,000,000.

Seward Pulitzer Is Married Wednesday

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP)—Seward Webb Pulitzer, grandson of the late Joseph Pulitzer, founder of the New York World, married Wilma Boldermann of San Mateo, Calif. yesterday.

The ceremony lacked the usual pomp of weddings involving members of the Vanderbilt family—Mr Pulitzer is a direct descendant of the original Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt—and was attended only by members of the two families.

IDEA THAT UNIVERSE IS EXPLODING GETS ADDED SUPPORT WITH STUDIES

BY F. B. COLTON
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP)—The idea that the universe is "exploding," with space constantly increasing in size, is regarded as receiving added support from new studies of Dr. Albert Einstein and Dr. Willem De Sitter, just announced through the National Academy of Sciences.

A joint statement by the two world-famous scientists, as interpreted in scientific circles here, indicates that they have decided there is more evidence that the universe is expanding than that it is not, as some scientists have held.

The old Einstein theory that "space on the average is curved," may not be necessary to explain the structure of the universe, the statement hints.

The two scientists, leaders in the effort to learn how the universe is put together, have just completed a winter study at Mount Wilson observatory of the Carnegie institution of Washington near Pasadena, Calif. Their statement apparently is the first published result of their investigations. It may have far-reaching effects on theories of the structure of the universe.

BUSINESS ITEMS WERE IMPORTANT

WINDSOR, Ont., March 24 (AP)—Frank Winters, 72-year-old carpenter, had two items of business at the city clerk's office here.

The first was to register the birth of a nine pound boy, the Winters' fourth child, and the second was to file a petition for an old age pension.

His son was born Tuesday to his wife Iva, whom he married seven years ago.

Women Identified As Robbers Of Man

Identification of two negro women, Topsy Smith and Emily Hawkins, by a Levelland farmer as the women who held him up and robbed him of $127 in the 1300-block of Avenue N, was effected Wednesday at examining trial for the two women.

Bonds of the women were set at $10,000 each by Justice H. K. Porter, awaiting action of the grand jury on the charges of robbery with firearms against them. R. H. Epperson the victim, identified the women at the examining trial, Assistant County Attorney William H. Evans said.

DALLAS MAN ON BOND FOR PERJURY

WAXAHACHIE, March 24 (AP)—J. Robert Kelley, young Dallas plumber, furnished $1,000 bond for his release under charges of attempted subornation of perjury.

He was indicted in connection with alleged threats against a witness in the trial of Schuyler Marshall, jr., former Dallas county sheriff, on burglary charges.

Kelley, Herbert W. McBride, Marshall and Herbert Scales, all of Dallas, were indicted in connection with the disarming of a night watchman at Ferris and a futile attempt to burn into the vault of the Farmers & Merchants bank there the night of last November 17.

Marshall was given an instructed verdict of acquittal on the burglary charge but McBride was assessed a 12-year sentence on a robbery with firearms charge. Kelley and Scales yet have not been tried.

Gas Saving Hints

1
Be sure that every appliance that uses gas is properly adjusted and operates satisfactorily.

2
Do not turn on appliances until they are needed. Stove burners use gas from the moment they are lighted, whether they are cooking food or not.

3
Do not try to hurry cooking or heating by turning the gas flame too high. Do not use the large burner when a smaller one will do.

4
Keep all gas burners and other gas using devices clean, so that every burner opening will feed its share of gas to the flame.

5
Do not use the range oven to heat the kitchen, because it uses twice as much gas as a small portable heater. A small heater for the kitchen will pay for itself quickly in gas savings.

6
Never allow hot water faucets to run or drip. The gas wasted to heat water that runs away, in a short time, will pay for many washers for your leaky faucets.

There May Be a Lesson For You in This Cartoon

Dear Sir:

Some business men pride themselves on their ability to economize. They make a cut here and a slash there. In some cases the business is actually starved.

When the human body lacks a supply of water or food, the nerves register a complaint. But when a going business does not have such a nervous system and when a business is starved, sometimes the warning comes too late.

An eminent business authority says that genuine executive ability is shown more clearly by wise spending rather than by false economies. Anyone, he says, can make a decision not to spend. But it requires courage and outstanding judgment to spend—that is, to invest.

How did John H. Patterson beat the panic in 1893? He did not sit back and clamp down on expenses—not Patterson. He improved his selling methods and beat all previous records when business was supposed to be at a standstill.

Too many merchants still look upon newspaper advertising as a luxury to be indulged in when times are good.

Why not use advertising to CREATE business instead of using it as a barometer to REFLECT business? Use LESS advertising in flush time and MOST advertising in hard times.

"Attention" can be bought today for less than at any time in the past five years. Take advantage of this condition. Advertise now.

Increase your sales. Increase your profits. The arguments in favor of strong, enthusiastic, adequate advertising NOW seem unanswerable

Very sincerely yours,

Thought For Today

The wicked flee when no man pursueth.—Proverbs 28:1.

* * *

They whose guilt within their bosoms lie imagine every eye beholds their blame.—Shakespeare.

Over The Horizon

Far up in the Himalayas, several Englishmen are getting ready to climb the hitherto unscaled peak of Mount Nanga Parbat, which rises some 26,000 feet above sea level and which has rocky sides that run almost straight up and down.

On top of this mountain, say the Kashmiri shepherds who live along the lower slopes, there is a marvelous crystal palace. No one has ever been up there to find out, but a legend dating back far into the past tells about it, and the shepherds have always been willing to take it on faith.

The Englishmen probably do not take any stock in this palace. They are going to make the climb in the interests of pure science, or pure sport, or something of the kind, and if they find nothing on top but snow and ice and bare rock and a gorgeous view of the surrounding country they will be perfectly happy—providing of course, that they ever get there.

We stay-at-homes may wonder, though, why on earth any man should want to leave his comfortable home and risk his neck climbing a barren mountain in the interior of Asia. There is not, as the saying goes, any percentage in it. What is the sense of it?

The answer, of course, is that there is seldom any tangible reward for the explorer, and there is seldom any very obvious, common sense reason for his journeyings. But there is something in the human heart that gets uncontrollably restless when a new vista opens before the eyes—a desire to go where no one else has ever gone, an imperative yearning to see what lies beyond the next hill. The desire is as old as the race, and it probably will last until the last rocket car has explored the last distant planet.

It sent the old Phoenicians out through the straits of Gibraltar in their flimsy galleys, thousands of years ago, and it sent trappers and adventurers out to the Rocky Mountains within the last century. It sent Marco Polo to China and it sent Amundsen to the South Pole. It is irrational and compelling, and none of us is wholly free from it.

For we are a restless, questing race, and no horizon ever quite contents.

* * *

Excellent Idea

Mayor Jack Edwards of Marion, Ind., seems to have had an idea that many another city could profitably copy.

Mayor Edwards' idea, briefly, is to have all traffic law violators pay their fines in articles of food, clothing or fuel. The commodities obtained in this way are turned over to the city's needy.

It would be hard to imagine a better way of killing two birds with one stone. The traffic offenders get punished for their misdeeds, the city is materially helped in its task of caring for the unemployed, and there is no extra burden on anyone.

The idea is one that mayors and city councilmen everywhere ought to examine.

* * *

Capone's Proposal

Preposterous as the idea sounds, it actually might be a very good thing if Al Capone could be let out of jail to hunt for the Lindbergh baby.

In the first place, he could probably find it and get it safely back to its parents.

In the second place, such a step would bring home to all of us a realization of the scandalous way in which we have let gangsters erect an invisible government in the United States. The underworld has a frightening amount of power; most of the time we escape being frightened simply by refusing to admit that conditions are as they are.

And now the Sino-Jap war is about to be succeeded by the war over what Japan will get out of it.

That Girl on Broadway says some women grow old before their time trying to look young after their time.

ALTHOUGH Mr. Sterling is playing eenie-meenie-minie-moe at the present time, the chances are about ten to one that he'll announce for re-election. Friends have tried to get him out of politics by persuasion; enemies have tried to scare him out. And ever before his eyes is the Ferguson bugaboo of a hot campaign of charges and counter-charges.

But Mr. Sterling likes to be governor and, after all, why shouldn't he like the job?

* * *

The Plainsman, however, is betting that the people of Texas will not be satisfied to choose a governor between Mrs. Ferguson and Mr. Sterling.

Several other aspirants have announced but none of them offers a serious threat at the polls.

Because people aren't going to be satisfied to choose between 'Ma' and the present governor, a third, strong candidate is going to pop up from somewhere.

The opportunity is too great.

* * *

THE people of Texas want a new deal. Mr. Sterling's famous 'business operation' hasn't aroused many cheers from the sidelines. The Fergusons, whether rightly maligned or not, have been in the political picture so long that a lot of folks are tired of them.

There's bound to be a Moses lurking in the bullrushes somewhere.

Texas is too big, too resourceful, has too many big men for the 1932 campaign to be a hectic horse race between two candidates, each of whom has more than his share of opponents in the ranks of the voters.

DID you work the puzzle about the farmer boy and the apples, which appeared in this column yesterday? You remember, the boy's prospective father-in-law told him to go to the orchard and get a basket of apples to be divided, as follows, without cutting a single apple:

One-half of the total number, plus half an apple over to the prospective mother-in-law.

One-half of what was left, plus half an apple over, to the prospective father-in-law.

One-half of the left-over apples, plus half an apple over, to the prospective bride.

Then the boy was to have one apple left for himself.

The correct answer is 15 apples. That was the number he was to bring in from the orchard.

* * *

Today's puzzle is contributed by Maurice Scroggins, telegraph operator for the Santa Fe. His proposition is:

Three women each had a number of eggs to sell.

One had one dozen eggs and seven eggs over.

Another had two dozen and four eggs left over.

The third had three dozen and one egg left over.

Each sold the eggs she possessed at the same price per dozen and at the same price per extra egg and each received the same amount as the result of the sale.

How much did each receive per dozen and per extra egg?

"Communism in Russia," declares Frank Buckingham, Kansas City attorney now lecturing in this country after a visit to the Soviets, "is none of our business. If the Russian wants communism and thinks he enjoys it, I am in favor of letting him have it. But I am interested in seeing that communism does not raise its slimy head in our country!"

What could be a fairer statement?

DEPRESSIONS and rheumatism have something in common. You can't do anything for either except just 'tough it out.' Narcotics, anaesthetics and what-have-you will give temporary relief, but it's only temporary.

The Plainsman has often wondered what they did during past depressions when there were no statisticians, no expert commentators, no Reconstruction Finance corporation, credit pools, et cetera and et cetera and a jolly, old et cetera.

One thing is that the people finally came out of those depressions—which is more than we've been able to do so far!

What A Year This Is For "Uncle" George Norris; His "Lame Duck" Bill Is Passed With Ratification Asked

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 24—Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, foremost political independent in American public life, is the hero of one of the most extraordinary single-handed legislative accomplishments ever achieved.

Dutcher

With the Norris Lame Duck amendment at last passed and on its way to state ratification and insertion in the Constitution, the Norris anti-injunction law passed by enormous majorities and the Norris Muscle Shoals bill up again under unusually favorable circumstance this is certainly Uncle George's big year and no other member is offering him any competition.

They are almost exclusively Norris measures.

* * *

Others Mass Efforts

Previous constitutional amendments — those for prohibition and woman suffrage, for instance—have been put over by mass action and propaganda of strong groups, the names of members of Congress attached to the legislation being merely those of the men who sponsored it.

But now one man's efforts are changing the Constitution. Norris hammered away year after year, fighting for a thing that was obviously right — making Congress more quickly responsive to popular will and destroying the evil of the "lame duck" system.

He made the Senate pass his resolution repeatedly, was repeatedly balked by the administration House machine and finally, with a new set-up in the House, saw it go through in this session. A constitutional amendment is obviously a major piece of legislation, but the other Norris measures may be ranked as of equal importance.

* * *

A Hearty Blow for Labor

No heartier blow was ever struck by Congress for the rights of American labor than when it passed the Anti-Injunction bill by votes which were nearly unanimous in both Houses.

That measure destroys the power of controlled or prejudiced judges to help employers break up strikes by drastic legal assaults on strikers, declares labor's right to organize and bargain collectively as a public policy, outlaws the "yellow dog contract" which forbids employes to join unions and provides for jury trials in contempt cases.

Various anti-injunction bills were introduced over a period of years, but labor leaders and members of Congress disagreed among themselves over the provisions which were necessary or most desirable. About four years ago, Norris, as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, took that legislation under his own personal wing and began to iron out differences. More and more teeth were put into his bill as time went on and it was as a Norris proposal that it went out on the floors of the two chambers to victory although the House bill had a difference or two which remained to be ironed out in conference.

A complete Muscle Shoals victory will be more difficult because of the likelihood of another Hoover veto for the Norris government operation plan and the doubt whether it could be passed over that veto by the requisite two-thirds majorities.

* * *

Another Shoals Bill

But Norris unquestionably will continue to be victorious in his long battle to keep the Shoals development from the power companies.

In this session he has continued to demand in his bill that the government retain the project, that provisions be made for transmission lines for power, that safeguards be stringently erected which will prevent the "power trust" from grabbing the plant under guise of wishing to make fertilizer for farmers and that states, counties and towns be given surplus preferential power rights.

A Norris Muscle Shoals bill is reasonably sure to pass again. The old administration House machine usually opposed all measures sponsored by the veteran Nebraskan progressive, but Democratic Speaker Jack Garner has been a supporter of the Muscle Shoals bill.

The measure ranks in importance with the Lame Duck amendment and the Anti-Injunction bill because it involves the promise of cheaper electricity for consumers and the important issue of government operation.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening answers readers' questions on diet and health in this column. Enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1455 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Reducing and Gaining"; "Diet of the Normal Diet"; "Diet of Bonavon"; "The Care of the Baltimore"; "Feminine Hygiene"; and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." TREATMENT FOR NEURALGIA

DURING THE war in Germany a white liquid of a peculiar sweetish odor was used in factories for removing grease from the metal parts of machinery and in a varnish for aeroplane wings.

Dr. Clendening

It was observed that some of the workers in these factories developed a numbness of the face in the region supplied by the trifacial nerve. One man came back to the factory after a year to get a whiff of the stuff which had cured his facial neuralgia.

On this hint, the substance, trichlorethylene, began to be used deliberately to cure trifacial neuralgia. Within the last year or two it has been somewhat extensively used in this country. The drug is now prepared by drug manufacturing firms and can be obtained through any pharmacist.

It is put up in thin glass ampoules with a covering of knitted silk. The ampoule can be crushed in a handkerchief and the fumes inhaled. The dosage is three or four of these inhalations in twenty-four hours, and this should be kept up for a month or six weeks. If relief is obtained sooner the treatment can be stopped. But the trial should not be given up until treatment has been carried out for a month or six weeks. Excessive dosage is harmful, and the method, should, therefore be used under a physician's supervision.

A certain number of patients obtain relief from their neuralgia by this method. The relief appears to be quite permanent. After relief is obtained, they are advised to inhale the drug one or two days of each month. It seems to act exclusively on the trifacial nerve, diminishing pain and sensitivity.

Trifacial neuralgia causes such terrible suffering that the method should be worth a trial in all cases. Especially since the other methods which are likely to give relief are somewhat drastic—consisting as they do of either injections of the nerve with alcohol, or surgical removal of the ganglion of the trifacial nerve.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

A. M.: "Do you favor inoculation against diphtheria for children, and if so, what age do you consider best for this inoculation?"

Answer: I most certainly do favor inoculation against diphtheria. In former times diphtheria was one of the most deadly of diseases. It was particularly fatal to children. It is now possible by inoculation to render any child immune to diphtheria. The method has been used in many thousands of cases. It is known not to be dangerous and it is known to be effective. The age at which the inoculation should be given is preferably about one year. Many parents hesitate to give it to children at this age, but as a matter of fact, they stand it just as well, or even better than children of older ages. At any rate, every child should be immunized against diphtheria before entering school.

I. F.: "Is a case of anemia transmitted to children by inheritance? Should anemic people marry?"

Answer: There is no good evidence that anemia is transmitted by inheritance, and it is perfectly safe for anemic people to marry on the grounds of eugenics.

The Lively "Dead" Road

NEW YORK, Mar. 24.—Billy Rose, who was a Tin Pan Alley piano thumper not so many years ago, has returned to Broadway from what has been laughingly referred to as "the road," convinced that there's more gold in "them thar hills" than in Broadway.

Rose, in case his show happened to miss your town, is the snappy young man who set forth with a musical production, "Crazy Quilt" to see what would happen to a one-night stand brigade of touring troubadors. He knew he would have to use Shrine auditoriums, Elks halls, public buildings, and whatever other spot might be available.

Amazing rumors began to come back to stagger the Broadway entrepreneurs who insisted that "the road" was dead: $12,000 in Memphis; $10,000 in Indianapolis and Louisville; $400 over capacity in Kansas City; similar showings in Ft. Wayne, Nashville, Peoria, Sioux Falls, Phoenix, El Paso, Tulsa, Wichita, Joplin, Amarillo, Dallas, Houston, Shreveport, San Bernadino, San Diego, El Paso—and way points.

And now so heavily booked that it will have to run until June!

Plans Good Things

SO what? So Billy Rose leans back on his roll top and gazed across the room toward the funniest painting ever made. John Decker's portrait of Fanny Brice, in imitation of Mona Lisa.

"It means that you can tell the folks out there that I'm going to put two shows on the road a year—yes, sir. I'm going to try to become the Barnum of the road business," he began. "Got two musical shows in rehearsal now, and my future plan is this. I'll bring a show into New York and give it eight weeks run to get embroiled. Only eight weeks, no matter what it looks like. Then I'll rank it out and send it out for a 42-week run. That's what I think of the road. 42 weeks and one show limping in the other four months."

* * *

Dress—and How!

EVERYONE in Broadway, of course, asks the question: how did he do it? What sort of experiences were encountered?

"We call it the sticks here . . . well, let me tell you in San Antonio one of the opening nights I ever saw turned out said Rose, warming up. "Nothing but evening clothes in the house. Yes sir. I became the natural born enemy of moths. Dinner jackets that had been in the moth balls all over the land came out.

"No, we found darn few straight theaters ready. Once or twice we went into places that had been empty so long we had to shoo the mice off the seats. But we hit Shrine auditoriums where the size we-up would stagger you. Best thing as you ever saw; best spots and best dressing rooms.

"In Omaha we had to play in a high school auditorium. Balcony and no hall. In Nashville we used an auditorium that was built in the Civil War and had church pews for seats. If a ticket holder sat on either side he could only see the head of the orchestra leader. In another town, the stars had to dress in the washroom.

"Most places had no accommodations for seat selling. We literally sold 'em out of a hat. We used the town book store, the drug store, and in one place a big meat market.

"The whole thing was done just as though a circus was being billed. I got hold of John Ringling and asked him to loan me one of the best and biggest circus men he had: someone who could figure the jumps and knew the show towns. I got Nick Alvord. And we made our jumps without missing a performance. When it came to the billboard stuff, we sometimes posted barns and fences 90 miles away from the show town. We had them coming in by train, car and motorcycle.

"The road dead? Well, we took about $175,000 out of twenty-four stops."

COUNTY AGENT OFFERS PLAN

NEW TYPE PROGRAM IS STARTED BY AGENT IN SHACKLEFORD

E. G. Tomlinson, county agent of Shackleford county, one of the county agents here for the second annual Lubbock kFat Calf, Pig and Cured Meat show, has a unique record in developing a new type of program in his county in the way of securing hogs without an outlay of a considerable amount of money on the part of farmers who were unable a year ago, because of conditions, to do so.

Mr. Tomlinson devised the plan of securing business men of Albany, the county seat, to buy hogs and place them with farmers, on a return basis of unusual merit.

"We got 20 business men to place one bred gilt with a farmer, with the understanding that the farmer was to return to the business man a dressed and cured 200 pound gilt," Mr. Tomlinson said when asked about the plan. "The farmer was to kill and dress the animal and to cure the hams, bacon and shoulder. All of this was to be given to the man who furnished the gilt in the first place. The rest of the animals the farmer was to dispose of as he pleased.

Killing On Increase

"A 200 pound hog dressed out about 160 pounds or better. The cured part averaged about 80 pounds.

"I was unable to find any hogs in the county a year ago. There were non for demonstration or other purposes. When I was at the meat show here I secured through Walter Evans, then county agent at Lamesa, 20 gilts from a farmer in Dawson county.

"After I made the arrangements I found that 45 families had killed and cured a hog for last winter. This year we had 325 families doing that same thing. There are but 465 families in the county."

Mr. Tomlinson is here with an exhibit of cured meats.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at an advance of 4 to 7 points on covering and trade buying, promoted by firm cables. May sold at 6.53.

Houses with Liverpool and continental connections were said to be among the buyers at the opening while there was considerable covering in preparation for the holidays just ahead. The demand was supplied by some further liquidation and a little southern selling, however, and the volume of business tapered off with the market comparatively quiet by the end of the first half hour at net advances of 7 to 8 points.

The market eased later in the morning under some further scattering liquidation which seemed to be coming partly from brokers who sometimes act for Japanese interests. There may have been some selling on the easier tone of the market. May contracts sagged off to 6.48 and December to 7.03, with the market quiet and fairly steady around midday at net advances of 2 to 3 points.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 24 (AP)—The cotton market today experienced a firm and active opening. Liverpool cables came in much better than due and May here opened 12 points up. Later months showed gains of 5 to 6 points.

The market continued firm in sympathy with a favorable opening of the stock market and May traded at 6.60, July at 6.71 and October at 6.91, or 7 to 12 points above yesterday's close.

The market gradually eased off during the morning on pre-holiday liquidation and in sympathy with the trend of stocks. May dropped to 6.49 July to 6.65 and October to 6.85 or 8 to 11 points below the early highs, but still 1 point above yesterday's close.

Near noon prices rallied on fair trade buying and evening up in advance of the holidays. Recoveries of 7 to 8 points from the lows were realized. The market here and in New York and Liverpool will be closed after today until Monday morning because of the Easter season.

Nichols, employes, discovered the office had been entered, he said. W. R. McCarroll was listed as manager.

"Too Tall" Dietzel Is Leaving T. C. U.

FORT WORTH, March 24 (AP)—Adolph "Too Tall" Dietzel has withdrawn from Texas Christian university. He may or may not reenter, Butler S. Smiser, business manager of the university, said today.

Dietzel, who already has left for his home in San Antonio, could not be reached for a statement.

The reason of the withdrawal was the discovery of a secret marriage when a freshman in T. C. U. T. C. U. has a rule that any student who is a party in a secret marriage is subject to suspension. Faced with these facts, Dietzel voluntary withdrew.

Frat Members Are Sponsoring Sales

As another means of raising funds for paying the expenses of five delegates to the national convention at State College, Pa., the first week in April, members of the Tech chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon are selling tickets today to "The Expert", comedy film starring Chic Sale at the Lindsey theater Friday and Saturday. The boys are to get a percentage of their sales.

The fraternity, honorary geology society, sponsored a dance at the Hilton Monday night and netted approximately $40 of the $300 needed to pay the trip expense. They expressed gratification to the management of the Hilton and to others who made the dance possible.

The five boys going to the convention are: Shelby Read, Henderson; Macon Smith, Los Angeles, Malcolm Patterson, Jack Flowers Big Spring and Morgan Gist, Colorado. They will make a bid for the 1934 convention of the organization before the session at State College which will inlude more than 2000 representatives from 25 colleges and universities of the nation.

DISTRICT TWO SETS PACE

AREA REPRESENTED BY 14 AGENTS; ALL ARE ATTENDING SHOW

Leaders in agricultural and livestock club work intimate, privately at least, that this district sets the pace in home demonstration work in the state. The district, No. 2, is represented by 14 home demonstration agents at the second annual Panhandle-South Plains Calf-Pig-Meat show, which opened today and will continue through Friday. Miss Myrtle Murray, district demonstration agent, is attending.

The agents assist in the handling of show details, discuss methods with experts who are here and exchange notes on methods and plans they have worked in their respective counties. Most of the agents are more or less acquainted throughout the area, because of having worked in other counties and have a personal touch with a great many farm women over the South Plains.

Agents here include: Rozelle McKenney, Dawson; ElFleda Harrison, Lynn; Nannie Hall, Hockley; Ruby Mashburn, Lamb; Izora Clark, Castro; Pauline Lokey, Swisher; Mrs Julia Kelley, Hale; Martha Faulkner, Floyd; Clara Pratt, Dickens; Johnny Reed, Kent; Velma Heaid, Fisher; Mile Halsey, Shackleford; Eileen Partlow, Haskell, and Isla Mae Chitwood, Lubbock.

KIWANIANS HEAR NUMBER OF TALKS

Meat show visitors, Dr. J. L. Joekel of Austin and Garland Woodward, Kiwanis lieutenant-governor were heerd on the luncheor program of the Lubbock Kiwanis club today noon at Hotel Lubbock. Dude Buster and J. D. Carroll were in charge of the program.

G. W. Barnes, field representative of the Federal farm board; Sterling Evans, district agent; K. F. Warner of the department of agriculture at Washington and Col Earl Gartin, auctioneer of Kansas City, made short talks concerning the show. They were introduced by George Simmons, general chairman of the meat show committee.

Predicting that "in the next decade or two the greatest production in the United States would be quality character, Dr. Joekel gave an interesting ten-minute talk on "quality production". Referring to the meat show leaders as proponents of quality, Dr. Joekel pointed out that quantity and mass production of material things in the United States in the past had caused the present "morstorium" and the real values of life would count now. The production of people of intesrity, people of character people that won't let the things hapoen that have in the past will be the world's greatest asset, he said.

"A few weeks ago we were startled out of our beds by the most damnable assault in one of the most prominent place of the nation," he said. "But for the past twenty years the American people have been complacently engaged in production saying that things like this wouldn't never happoen. They have forsaken the finer things of life in this production of tangible assets Now they will see that these things don't happen again".

Roy W. Snyder, W H Darrow College Station; John Gist, Odessa and J. E Boggscott of Coleman were other out of town visitors at the luncheon.

Bonds Of $250 Are Set For Men Here

Bonds of $250 were set by County Judge E. L. Pitts for each of 11 negroes charge with gambling, after their arrests late Wednesday at a house in the 1700-block of Fourteenth street by the sheriff's department. The men were participating in an alleged dice game when the raid was made. They pleaded not guilty.

Three negro women, arrested late Wednesday by the sheriff's department, were charged with vagrancy They also pleaded not guilty. Judge Pitts fixed their bonds at $200 each.

SUDAN WOMAN DIES

The body of Miss Adah Carruth, 27, of Sudan, who died at 10:45 o'clock Wednesday night in a sanitarium here, was taken to Sudan last night. Funeral arrangements had not been made. Death of the young woman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carruth, was attributed to pneumonia.

SIDELIGHTS AT THE MEAT SHOW

POLISH UP PRODUCTS

Several of the exhibitors of hams and bacons were seen yesterday afternoon polishing up their products in anticipation of making a better showing. Considerable elbow grease was used to get just the right color and polish and visitors noted the bright appearance of a number of these displays.

HAS A GOOD STORY

Miss Sybil Thomas, home economics supervisor for this district under the Smith-Hughes act, has the best "farm depression" story heard during the show. "The farm boys taking home economics in our high schools have been hard hit by these stirring times and they have had to curtail some of their expenses." Miss Thomas related. "Some of them had to forego the use of even haircuts and dressing for the hair after the visit to the tonsorial artist. So they decided to use Crisco—its shortening."

TELLS OF TROUBLES

Several friends of R. K. Warner, Washington, D. C. meat specialist for the department of agriculture, tell about his troubles in getting a trip to Lubbock for the show. Mr. Warner was here last year and his return was requested from many quarters. However some of the powers that be in the nation's capital, did not quite see the need of a trip to the South Plains of Texas, so pressure was brought to bear on them. The official order for the journey was made just 35 minutes before train time. Extension service men declare that "K" as he is known, had his grip packed, and waiting beside his desk, so all he had to do when the missive came was to get in a car and go to the depot.

LOANED TO BOARD

G. W. Barnes, for many years a livestock specialist with the extension service, was loaned to the federal farm board two years ago by the state college to help organize the livestock marketing association and the credit corporation. His leave of absence was for a year and then extended another year. Now with the livestock work well under way, the farm board released Mr. Barnes but held a string to his services in that the extension service was asked to have him continue his work in livestock by supervising the operation of cattle credits and loans to livestock men and farmers.

Testimony In Case Being Heard Today

Taking of testimony continued this morning in 99th district court before Judge Clark M. Mullican in the case of the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland against the Citizens National bank of Lubbock. The first testimony, dealing principally in introduction of copies of old bonds and papers in a related case, was heard by a jury Wednesday afternoon.

The plaintiff, bonding company for J. R. Germany when he was city secretary here, asks $8,107.25 from the bank. Handling of city finances in 1924-25 is pertinent. The Fidelity and Deposit company paid the city $8,000 February 15, 1928, for money which Germany allegedly handled irregularly, the company's petition states.

Consolidation Bill Looks For Approval

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP) — The house expenditures committee today tentatively approved the Cochran bill to consolidate all personnel activities affecting the 1,200,000 civilian government employes.

The measure, Chairman Cochran asserted, would save $1,000,000 the first year while the consolidation is being effected, and increasing amounts thereafter.

First places in the three divisions of boys and girls debating in preliminary matches were won by Idalou, Slaton, Hardy, Hurlwood, Acuff, and Shallowater, E. P. Reeves, director of the forensic division, reported.

The Idalou girls, who defeated the Slaton team for class A honors, will meet the Shallowater team, which ousted Acuff for first honors in the upper division of class B, in room 318 of the Texas Technological college administration building at 1 p. m. Friday for county honors. Acuff boys will meet Slaton boys at 2 p. m. for county honors. The Acuff team won a round-robin schedule in the upper B division, and the Slaton boys deefated Idalou for class A ranking. In the sub B division, Hardy boys won by default, and Hurlwood girls defeated Hardy school.

The one-act play contest was to have opened Wednesday night at Idalou, with eight teams entered. The play contest will be ended Thursday night, said E. P. Reeves, director. Schools entered are: Idalou, Slaton, Acuff, Hardy, Liberty, Carlisle, Hurlwood and Wolfforth. The first three casts were to have been presented Wednesday night.

Use Of Troops In Mine Zone Delayed

COLUMBUS, O., March 24 (AP)—State officials have decided against immediate use of troops in handling the situation arising from recent disorders in the Hocking Valley and Sunday Creek mine strike zone.

While Governor George White has issued an ultimatum to the strikers that violence will be put down by force of arms if necessary, Adjutant General Frank D. Henderson reported to the chief executive late yesterday that he saw no reason for calling out the national guard at this time.

Scout Court Plans Are Altered Here

So patrons can attend that part of the court and still have time to see the senior play at Lubbock High school, merit badges will be awarded first and attendance determined immediately afterward at a monthly Boy Scout court of honor in the district criminal courtroom here at 7:30 o'clock Friday night. D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council executive, made the announcement.

The council activities and civic service committees will meet at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in scout headquarters at City hall to plan programs in their respective fields for the rest of the year, Executive Jennings said. J. T. Herd of Post is activities chairman and J. J. Clements of Lubbock is civic service chairman.

MAN INDICTED FOR MURDER

E. R. NEAGLE'S BOND SET AT $5,000 BY DISTRICT JUDGE

LEVELLAND, Mar. 24.—(Special)—Bond for E. R. Neagle, 37-year-old transient cotton picker, was set at $5,000 by Judge Homer L. Pharr of 72d district court here, after a grand jury Wednesday indicted Neagle for the murder of B. F. Driggars, 74, who died in a Lubbock hospital without regaining consciousness after being struck on the head with an ax February 2.

Twelve other indictments, including one for incest against Claud Atkins, and one for statutory rape against Eurel Lee Krantz, also were returned by a grand jury in 72nd district court, said District Attorney Durwood H. Bradley of Lubbock. The district attorney aided the grand jurors in their investigations.

Atkins and Krantz were arrested by Lubbock county officers in Lubbock March 6 after a baby girl, born to one of Atkins' sisters in an automobile, died.

Driggars was struck with the blunt end of an ax at the home of his son-in-law, P. S. McGuire, two miles northwest of Whitarral. McGuire had bought the farm only a few weeks earlier and with his father-in-law had started to move into the house, then shared by Neagle and his family. The Neagles had been picking cotton in the vicinity. Differences over possession of the three-room frame house on the farm was said to have precipitated the attack. Driggars and McGuire formerly lived in Wilson, Okla.

CAN'T BE DONE

HOUSTON, Tex., —After he is divorced, a man is free from his former wife's clutches and can marry again—if his love gets the better of his discretion. Charles and Olina Sloane were divorced in 1928. Olina recently filled a bigamy charge against Charles when his intentions to marry again were made known. Judge Ray ruled that a woman can't divorce her husband and keep him from marrying again three years later.

EXHIBITS ARE JUDGED HERE

WORK OF EXHIBITORS IS GIVEN PRAISE BY ALL JUDGES

Work exemplified in the 10 divisions of the cured meat division of the second annual Panhandle-South Plains Calf-Pig-Meat show "compares favorably with that of last year's show" and "is better both in quality of products and of the work done," Miss Zetha McInnis, a judge, commented.

Miss Myrtle Murray, district home demonstration agent, last night announced placings in cured and canned meats.

Judging was done by Miss McInnis, home industry expert of the extension service, assisted by Miss Sybil Thomas, supervisor of home economics under the Smith-Hughes act, and Miss Johnnie Hemphill McCrery, professor of foods of the school of home economics at Texas Technological college.

In speaking of the work of women of the home demonstration clubs this year, as compared with that of last year, Miss McInnis said:

Compares Favorably

DAHLBERG FILES DIVORCE ACTION

CHICAGO, Mar. 24. (AP)—Bror G. Dahlberg, manufacturer, filed suit for divorce yesterday from Mrs. Mary Dahlberg, the former Mary Alexander of San Saba, Tex. The charge was desertion.

Dahlberg, head of the Celotex company, was mentioned in a senate investigation last November when a witness charged he paid $100,000 to unnamed senators in an effort to obtain a high duty on sugar. He was exonerated.

The Dahlbergs were married in 1921 and Dahlberg charged his wife deserted him in January, 1931. Reports Mrs. Dahlberg obtained a Paris divorce never were verified.

A spokesman for Dahlberg indicated the separation arose over his unwillingness to spend his time in Europe. Mrs. Dahlberg and their adopted daughter were said to have lived abroad the past several years.

Mrs. Dahlberg wrote a novel entitled "Dagger."

WEATHER DAMAGE NOT ESTIMATED

WASHINGTON, Mar. 24. (AP)—The weather bureau said that while late reports indicated winter wheat was set back by recent freezes, considerable uncertainty still existed as to the extent of actual damage.

In the eastern and southern parts of the Ohio valley, the bureau said, damage apparently was confined to local areas or to the most advanced fields. Elsewhere in that section some injury was indicated, but growing weather is needed to learn the degree.

In central and western parts of the winter wheat belt, the crop is brown and has been set back, the bureau said, but it is not believed seriously injured in Kansas, except in the western third where much was frozen down and soil blowing was harmful. In the southwest wheat was retarded, with some injury in Oklahoma, but the condition is still fair to good.

DAIRY COWS TESTED

OLTON, (Special)—Twenty-nine dairy cows have been tested for tuberculosis in Olton's area says C. M. Owen, local dairymen. Mr. Owen has about 40 more animals lined up for tests. A Lubbock federal veterinarian did the work, assisted by C. I. Holt, local veterinarian.
