Water District Okays City's Request for Water Rate Hike

Approval of the city of Rockport's recently enacted ordinance to increase water rates was voted unanimously by directors of the Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District at a meeting of the Board in the County Commissioner's Courtroom at the Courthouse August 31.

Herman Johnson, representing the city, reviewed the current water revenue situation, pointing out that during the past nine months costs had exceeded income. He estimated that the higher rate schedule would cost the average consumer about $1 a month additional and the city would realize approximately $20,000 more income a year.

Because the city buys its water from the Aransas County Conservation and Reclamation District, it must have approval of the District for any change in consumer rates. Prior to the August 31 meeting the District audited the city's books and verified Johnson's claim that the water department has been operating at a loss.

One of the loss factors involved was reduced consumption below the estimated volume particularly during the summer, a time when consumption usually is expected to increase substantially, according to Johnson. He added that no "free" water is being supplied by the city with the exception of the local cemetery, and this is being discontinued, Johnson said.

In an effort to help the city make ends meet on the water problem, the District board has temporarily waived an $833.34 car. It was missing after the charge to the city, according to Jack McDavid, District president.

Reporting on recent activities of the Board with reference to a possible county-wide sanitary sewage system, McDavid said he and Vice President, John P. Mitchell, Jr., met recently with Emory M. Spencer, local representative on the Council of Governments. It was explained that approval of the Council of Governments is essential in obtaining funds to make a preliminary study of the county's sewage needs.

The District now has the necessary application form and is collecting data on which to base its appeal for funds. A rough survey of present potential users of a county sewage system whose homes are within a feasible service area indicates there are approximately 1,363. Neither City by the Sea nor Palm Harbor were included in the "feasibility" area, it was reported.

Petitions which included several hundred names of property owners requesting sanitary sewage service were received and made a part of the District's reocrds.

New Phone Book Out September 8

The new Rockport telephone directory will be mailed to telephone customers on Friday, September 8, according to Mrs. Pat Bailey, manager for Southwestern Bell.

The Rockport, 1972 phone book will exceed all previous distribution records here. The directory contains 25 pages of alphabetical listings for Rockport, including more than 3,900 up-to-date listings of Rockport telephone subscribers.

Mrs. Bailey said nearly 11,000 copies of the new directory have been printed for distribution to local phone users and for future requirements.

The cover features a color photograph of a Texas scene painted by Dallas artist, Bud Biggs.

High School Students Complete Summer Home Experiences

Marsha Carpenter, Joann Davidson, Sylvia Frazier, Mary Garza, Rhonda Haskins, Cindy Henry, Ophelia Morales, Vera Perez, Connie Perez, and Pam Rowan successfully completed projects in summer homemaking and earned one-half credit toward graduation.

The summer homemaking program officially began on Monday, June 4, when the girls came to the high school homemaking department to participate in the group projects of interior decoration, playschool, and clothing construction. The group projects were two weeks in length, during which time the students' work in the classroom was supervised by the homemaking teachers.

The students were then advised to select an individual project which would be personally beneficial to each of them. They then established goals which they wished to accomplish through their project. After that, many hours were spent by the girls achieving these goals. Projects were selected in such areas of homemaking as foods and nutrition, clothing, home management, child development, and housing and home furnishings. Some of the activities performed by the girls in completing their projects were making wall hangings and decorating, sewing school clothes, babysitting, and planning and preparing family meals.

By Friday, August 14, these girls had encountered many new challenges, experiences and learnings. At this time, they submitted a written report of their project to their homemaking teachers for evaluation. With satisfactory evidence being shown, the students were awarded one-half credit toward graduation for their efforts of the summer.

Mrs. Janice L. Spears and Miss Frances Mutscher, homemaking teachers supervised the summer homemaking students.

Banks Sponsoring TV Football Games

With the conclusion of professional football pre-season games and the start of the regular season about to get underway, fans throughout the country are anticipating a record-breaking season, both as to attendance and quality of play.

As it did last year, First National Bank is joining other Full Service banks in sponsoring televised games of the National Football League this season. Games will be on both CBS and NBC networks.

Instead of the usual commercials, specific examples of how individual Full Service banks have served their communities and individuals will be described by the Full Service Bank Foundation which is directing the bank sponsorship, according to Eddie Ratliff, First National's assistant vice president.

A limited supply of illustrated leaflets explaining and describing some of the fine points of professional football is available free at First National.

PIRATES OPEN SEASON SEPT. 15

By BOB CRAWFORD

As the Texas high school football season opens this next week, the Pirates of Rockport-Fulton will have an off week, and open their schedule next week, September 15, against Mathis in Mathis.

This past Friday night the Pirates scrimmaged the Bloomington Bobcats and held the Bobcats scoreless until the last play of the second Bobcat possession. The score, by way of a 24 yard pass play, evened the score in the scrimmage after the Pirates had taken the lead early in the scrimmage on a 67 yard run for the score by junior fullback Rickey McLester.

Coach Bobby Flanagan was pleased with the progress of the Pirates in the week since the Woodsboro scrimmage, but he also stated that there is still a long way to go. The Pirates have been hard hit with injuries and sickness in the last week and will have to get it all together before next week.

The Pirate JV and Freshmen had troubles with Bloomington, but the outlook is still bright if all the people show up that should be there.

Many of the teams in Rockport-Fulton's district will open the season this Friday night. Some football fans might like to take in one of these games to size up District 15-AAA competition.

Heart Fund Gifts Help the Living

"It is gratifying to find so many Aransas County residents using Heart Fund Memorials as a way of paying respect to relatives, friends and associates who have passed away, and giving hope to the living by supporting projects designed to help reduce the toll of death and disability resulting from the various forms of heart and circulatory diseases," according to Mrs. Robert Wofford.

"Memorial funds received throughout the year are added to funds contributed during the Annual Heart Fund Campaign to be used in the Association's programs of research, public and professional educational and community service," she explained.

Mrs. Wofford said that memorial gifts received by the Association are not only in memory of those who have died, but that many people are using the Memorial Fund to honor happier events such as birthdays and anniversaries.

Every memorial gift is acknowledged with a dignified white card naming the person in whose honor the gift is made and the donor. It is sent to the person designated by the donor. The amount of the gift is not stated.

Mrs. Wofford said that the process of making a memorial is simple. The only information needed is the name of the person honored, the name and address of the person to be notified and name and address of the donor.

Memorials should be sent to American Heart Association, Aransas County Division, P. O. Box 1313, Rockport, Texas.

C of C Honors Delmar Hiller

Former Mayor Delmar R. Hiller was honored Tuesday by the Chamber of Commerce.

At a luncheon meeting at the Rockport Racquet and Yacht Club, Ed Harper, president of the Chamber, presented a resolution paying tribute to Hiller for his dedicated service as mayor during three successive terms.

The resolution stated:

"Whereas, Mr. Delmar R. Hiller served faithfully as Mayor of Rockport from 1966 to 1968, from 1968 to 1970, and from 1970 to 1972, and

Whereas, during those six years he provided outstanding leadership, wisdom and inspiration in guiding the deliberations of the City Council in actions which have proved beneficial for the City of Rockport and its citizens, and,

Whereas, he gave unselfishly of his time and effort not only in presiding at City Council meetings, but also in instituting and conducting workshop sessions to provide additional opportunity to consider matters of vital importance to the community, and,

Whereas, it is generally recognized that he was one of the best Mayors the City of Rockport ever had,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Directors of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce do hereby commend and express appreciation to Mr. Delmar R. Hiller for his dedication and leadership during three successive terms as Mayor of the City of Rockport."

Present at the meeting were Gordon Stanley, Hiller, Bill Janecek, Raymond Owens, Loyce Landrum, John P. Mitchell, Jr., L.E. Casterline, Roy Rogero, Sr., John Kinsey, Harper and James H. Sorenson, Jr.

During the business session Gordon Stanley reported that six new members have joined the Chamber since Aug. 1.

United Fund Goal Is $14,442 Campaign Sept. 18 to Nov. 15

A goal of $14,442 for the 1972-73 Aransas County United Fund with the campaign running from September 18 to November 15 was set at a meeting of the fund's board of directors at Corky's Restaurant August 31. The new goal compared with $11,053 raised last year.

Chairman of the drive is Sam Simpson, with Jimmy Fowler as co-chairman. Solicitation will be by mail with the possibility of some late-campaign personal solicitation, Simpson said.

Fifteen agencies will participate in the drive, two more than last year. The agencies and the amounts budgeted for them this year are as follows:

Red Cross, $2,500; Aransas County Emergency Corps, $500; Aransas County Youth Council, $500; Boy Scouts, $3,080; Coastal Bend Association for Mental Health, $350; Coastal Bend Council on Alcoholism, $75; Family Counseling Service, $200; Paisano Council of Girl Scouts, $2,000; local Girl Scouts, $1,500; Salvation Army, $1,600; Texas Rehabilitation Hospital, Gonzales, $500; Texas United Community Service, $125; Southwest Diabetic Foundation, $336; Texas Association for Mental Health, $61; and Aransas County Outreach Fund for Retarded Children, $240.

The three last-named organizations have been added this year, while the Medical Foundation of Texas has been dropped. The Outreach Fund will pay only for materials and supplies to be used by the classes for retarded children which are operating for the first time this year.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church is providing the meeting rooms in the former parochial school building. The state of Texas, through the State School in Corpus Christi is providing trained teachers for the program.

In addition to grants for participating agencies, the 1972-73 United Fund budget includes $600 for expenses of the drive and office and clerical costs, as well as a $150 item for subsequent campaigns.

Because the 1971-72 campaign did not reach its goal of $13,200, it was necessary to pay agencies approximately 85 percent of their approved allocations. At the meeting last week it also was voted to distribute a balance of $1,443.74 remaining in the Fund to agencies on a pro rata basis.

Officers and directors for 1972-73 elected at the August 31 meeting were:

Bill Janecek, president; Bob Mosier, executive vice president; Simpson and Fowler, drive chairman and co-chairman; John Kinsey and David H. Crooks, public relations; Wayne Smith, Delmar Hiller, Ruby Hart, Frank Kirk, Walter Falk, Mildred McDonald, Bernita Kinsey, Vernon Kleypas, Rev. Lester Hill, John P. Mitchell, Jr., James H. Sorenson, Jr., Roy Rogero, Sr., Virginia Shivers, Lola L. Bonner, Mrs. Herbert French, Mrs. Lynn Wendell and Ottie Mundine.

Two Prisoners Sought After Escape from County Jail

Two inmates of the Aransas County Jail escaped about noon Monday, apparently in the car of one of the escapees.

Sheriff Bob Hewes said Ambrose Jackson Roach, 39, of Charlottesville, Va., and James Edward Hull, 32, of New Jersey, apparently walked out while performing duties around the jail. Roach was a trusty.

Authorities put out an alert Monday afternoon for a white 1966 Ford belonging to Roach. The car had been placed in a nearby parking lot after Roach was arrested for speeding and refusing to stop for a police car. It was missing after the prisoners were found to be gone.

A spokesman for the Sheriff's Department said Hull was being held on a felony theft charge and also for questioning by the U.S. Secret Service in connection with a counterfeiting case.

It was reported on Tuesday that the two escapees sold their car to a used car dealer in Corpus Christi and said they were going to head for Minnesota by bus.

Young Homemakers Form Organization

On Thursday, August 24, a group of young ladies interested in homemaking and interested in organizing a Young Homemakers Organization met in the Homemaking Building.

The meeting was opened with a get acquainted game involving all the women. After playing the game, Miss Frances Mutchner, High School Homemaking teacher, gave an interesting talk on how to organize a chapter, what the organization was all about, and what the main purposes were for forming one. Literature was passed out to each of the ladies. After the literature was read and all questions were answered a motion was made to elect officers for the chapter.

The chapter voted to elect five officers. Those elected are: Becky Livingston, President; Marilyn Bennett, Vice-President; Linda Puster, Secretary; Jane Browning, Treasurer; and Debra Kelly, Reporter. Becky Livingston, the new president, was presented with a red rose--which is the flower of the Young Homemakers.

After the officers were elected, the chapter then decided to meet the first Tuesday of each

Twister Seen

Mrs. Bill Rice reported that while she was putting out the garbage Sept. 1 she saw a small twister moving down the street.

She ran for the car which took a good shaking. The twister traveled about two blocks and then moved up into the sky. Garbage was scattered all over the highway and against the house. The twister also blew down the fence. The twister was later seen in the sky in the Hill Village area.

Laos Escapee Addresses Rotary

The first flier to be shot down and taken prisoner by the communists in the Vietnam conflict recounted his prison experiences and subsequent escape at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club August 30 at Corky's Restaurant.

Commander John Klusman, who is stationed with the Air Training Command at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi, flew his first photo reconnaissance mission over northern Laos in May, 1964. His assignment was to photograph troops and supplies in Laos destined for Vietnam. The next month on a similar mission he was shot down in mountainous territory. He ejected safely but was taken prisoner almost immediately.

Klusman said he was taken on a tour of nearby villages the first week of his captivity. Apparently the communists were not sure what to do with him, their very first American prisoner, according to Klusman.

Finally, he was put in solitary in a 12 by 14 foot bamboo hut. He was given a blanket, a mosquito net and a canteen of water. This was to be his home for the next two months. He was fed twice a day, the menu consisting of rice, watery soup, occasional vegetables and almost no meat. The food was just sufficient to keep him alive and there was no medical attention, he said.

His only recreation was walking back and forth across the room. Klusman estimated that he walked a total of more than 300 miles during his imprisonment. Each night he underwent an indoctrination session with an English-speaking communist. His interrogator never asked him any questions of military significance but spent his time talking about world affairs, on which he appeared to be well informed, and attempting to enlist Klusman's sympathy for the communist cause.

Klausman was promised freedon "depending on your attitude and cooperation." Apparently he never displayed the right kind of attitude and cooperation because his interrogators stopped visiting him and at the end of two months he was transferred to a nearby prison compound where there were a number of Laotian prisoners. Klusman and three other prisoners decided to escape. They made it one rainy night by crawling through a hole they had painstakingly worked in the barbed wire fence during the previous weeks.

Two of the escapees were recaptured and shot, but Klusman and the fourth reached friendly territory.

Speaking of the Vietnam war in general, Klusman pointed out that a flier who was shot down in North Vietnam in August, 1964 during the first air raid over that country is still a prisoner after eight years, the longest an American has ever been held prisoner of war any time in hostory.

He said North Vietnam has completely disregarded the Geneva Convention regulations on treatment of prisoners. Although conditions in South Vietnam prisoner of war camps have not always been ideal, Geneva Convention regulations are respected, be asserted. The International Red Cross makes regular inspections, the prisoners are given adequate food and medical attention and their names are supplied to the Red Cross. North Vietnam refuses to do this, according to Klusman.

In his opinion, pictures of American prisoners provided by Vietnam are staged and unreal propaganda as their only objective. Klusman believes Hanoi is sensitive to world public opinion, and he urges American people to continue to exert pressure for the release of the prisoners. Commenting on the current political scene, he declared that you can't negotiate between governments in newspapers.

Area Losing Live Oak Trees

The Rockport area has been experiencing an unusually high loss of live oak trees in recent months, according to reports coming through Pearson's Garden Center. Personnel at the Garden Center, in company with Dr. C. Wendell Horne of Texas A&M, examined a number of these trees several weeks ago and sumbitted limb samples to laboratory examination at Texas A&M to determine the exact cause. Isolations were made from this plant tissue and it was determined to be the oak decline fungus (Cephosporium sp) commonly known as Live Oak Decline.

Live Oak Decline is noticed by the following symptoms:

Leaves of affected live oak trees may first turn yellow. Leaf yellowing may occur on certain branches or on the entire tree. In this case the leaves generally do not fall, and death is rather sudden (1-2 weeks). More often the decline is very slow, taking one or more years and is first evidenced by a progressive necrosis drop and die-back of the twigs. This condition progresses until defoliation is complete and death quickly follows. Heartwood of infected trees has a brown discoloration and a faint odor resembling acetic acid. In advanced cases the discolored area extends to the fascular system. The discoloration generally progresses vertically and more slowly laterally until the fascular tissue is invaded and wilting and dieback becomes apparent.

The presence of Live Oak Decline in south Texas has been known for about forty years but the current seeming increased presence in the Rockport area is puzzling. One possibility is hurricane Celia left trees in general more susceptible to attack the same as a person might be more susceptible to the presence of a virus if they are in a weakened physical condition. There is really no way to know for sure what is causing an increase of the problem but research is being done by Texas A&M testing new fungicides to see if they are effective against this fatal fungus.

Melton Pearson, owner of Pearson's Garden Center, says "we have been sufficiently concerned with the problem and our responsibility to the community that we have taken the initiative in having laboratory analyses made and we are actively seeking a possible answer. There is no known cure, but recent test work using an injection method of a systemic fungicide is showing promise. We have obtained technical assistence to teach us the treatment methods involved in the injection of these new fungicides (into the tree trunk) and we have already commenced our first test work. I want to emphasize this is not a proven cure and we are not soliciting business for treating sick live oaks. Our live oak trees are a major asset and we are sincerely hopeful that these tests will show promise so that we can offer treatments in the future. But until the methods are proven we will not be in a position to offer much more than sympathy to those folks who have the problem."

Man is always under the influence of trees. They are as basic to his needs as the food he eats, both physically and psychologically. The Rockport area is indeed fortunate to have so many fine trees.

Texas Near Top In Vacation Popularity

AUSTIN, Texas -- Texas is near the top of the popularity list with vacationing American families, a newly published National Family Opinion survey has disclosed.

The study, commissioned last fall by Better Homes and Gardens magazine, provides first-time comparisons of family vacation preferences for all 50 states.

Projections based on response from more than 8,000 U. S. panel families rank Texas sixth in the number of family visits during 1971, and fifth in visitor spending.

With 2.8 million family vacation visits credited to the state last year, Texas was exceeded only by California (5.6 million), Florida (5.5 million), New York (4 million), Pennsylvania (3.5 million), and Tennessee (3 million).

The NFO probe found that visiting families spent $474 million in Texas. The figure was surpassed only by spending in Florida ($1.9 billion), California ($1.5 billion), New York ($684 million), and Hawaii ($650 million).

"This new study is significant in that it provides one of the first comparative measurements of American families' vacation preferences," said Frank Hildebrand, executive director of the Texas Tourist Development Agency.

"The fact that it places Texas among the handful of states enjoying the largest numbers of visitors, and visitor spending, is further documentation of our popularity with vacationers.

"This is especially gratifying when one considers that the only states exceeding Texas' share of the market are those that have been the nation's most popular family destinations for years. To have joined their ranks virtually overnight is eloquent testimony to the rapidly growing tourist appeal that Texas possesses."

In terms of average spending by visiting family, the study put Texas tenth with $166. Hawaii was first with $1,138. It was followed in turn by Alaska ($720), Florida ($338), California ($277), Arizona ($183), New Jersey ($182), Colorado ($174), New York ($171), and Massachusetts ($169).

Arizona was the only state in the six-state Frontier West promotional region that enjoyed higher family spending than Texas. The other four states, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri, all showed average spending of less than $100.

The NFO reported that families visiting Texas spent an average of 5.1 days in the state --longest of its Frontier West neighbors. Exceeding Texas' length-of-stay nationally were Hawaii (12 days), Florida (11.3), Alaska (8.6), California (6.8), Colorado (5.4), Maine (5.3), Michigan (5.2) and New Jersey (5.2).

Half of the families visiting Texas included children, the study found. In the Frontier West only Missouri, with 51 per cent of families traveling with children, surpassed Texas. Delaware experienced the largest proportion of families with children, 60 per cent. Other states with more children-oriented families were Maine (59 per cent), New Jersey and Wisconsin (54 per cent), Alabama (52 per cent), and Maryland/District of Columbia, Missouri, Rhode Island, and South Dakota, (51 per cent).

Episcopal Summer Camps Successful

San Antonio--Summer camps for young people in the 60-county Episcopal Diocese of West Texas were highly successful this year, Bishop Harold C. Gosnell, D. D., has reported.

Five-hundred-nineteen boys and girls attended the summer camping sessions. There were 307 girls and 212 boys.

The diocese operates two camps, Camp Capers at Waring, 45 miles northwest of San Antonio, and Bishop Elliott Conference Center at Rockport. The locations provide a contrast between the Hill Country and the seashore.

One full week of summer camping was offered at the Rockport site for the first time in the summer of 1971. It proved so popular that two sessions were held there this summer, with 30 boys attending the first session and 23 in the second.

Mrs. Virginia Serrem, diocesan registrar of camps and conferences, said: "The campers loved the seashore bit with all the fishing and swimming. As a special highlight they studied fishing as it was done in Biblical times. Very interesting."

Both Camp Capers and Bishop Elliott Conference Center were improved this year with monies from the Everett Holland Jones Episcopal Advance Fund, which is restricted to capital improvements.

"We received many favorable reports on the camps this year. Everyone seemed well pleased. Parents of second-generation campers at Capers were heard comparing notes on how that camp had improved over the years." Mrs. Serrem stated.

One-hundred-eleven persons served on the staffs during the summer, with several serving more than one session. In the total were 19 clergymen who served as directors, chaplains or faculty members; 18 lay persons, including college students, as faculty; and 74 cabin counselors.

Twenty-seven youngsters attended a session with diocesan scholarship aid. The only sources the Department of Camps and Conferences has for this scholarship money is from individual gifts, offerings at Camp Capers or Bishop Elliott, and memorial gifts to the camps.

Several individual scholarships were given and some of the churches paid part, or all, of the camp fees for a number of their campers. In addition, there were special gifts that enabled 28 children from Good Samaritan Center in San Antonio to have a week's camping.

Prelate's Skull Cap

Zucchetto is the name given to the skull cap worn by Catholic prelates. Rank is distinguished by the color of the zucchetto: The Pope's is white; a cardinal's is red; a bishop's is violet and that of others is black.

'Castaways' Plan Rummage Sales

The group of Concerned Women of Aransas County who have most frequently worked on the weekly rummage sales have agreed on the name "Castaways" to identify their sales.

The Castaways are still in need of a new rummage "home". In the meantime the ladies continue to sort and mark contributions.

This project is an outgrowth of the concern of the St. Vincent de Paul men in this area to have a ready source of clothing for emergency calls. Knowing how welcome a weekly sale of used things would be to the strained budget or low income budget, the ladies took the project a step further. St. Vincent de Paul members still have a ready supply when called for help. When the ladies find a new base to sell from they can again provide the week to week budget stretching service.

There is one side effect that many may overlook. That is the ecology benefit of these things being offered where they can continue to be used until worn out and of no further use to anyone -- then burned or buried. Please help this recycling process with your castaways. Most important right now is helping the ladies find a building to hold the sales. Call 729-5500, 729-2164 or 729-2308 if you can help.

W. J. ROEDER DIES

W. J. Roeder died Monday, September 4 at Memorial Medical Center after a sudden illness.

Marshall Funeral Home in Rockport is in charge of the arrangements. Services will be held at 3:00 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 7, at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Roeder, 78, was a retired ginner and cotton grader, and most recently operated a small saw sharpening shop at his home. He had been in the gin business in Shiner and in Robstown for over 30 years. He was born in Shiner, Lavaca County.

Survivors are his wife, Albina, one daughter, Mrs. Jack Parker of Corpus Christi; two sons, Bennie Roeder of Robstown and Laddie Roeder of Dallas, nine grandchildren, three sisters and two brothers.

Help for Alcoholics Is Made Available

Richard L. "Dick" Parker, representative of the Coastal Bend Council on Alcoholism, Corpus Christi, has given the Pilot some information on how that organization helps alcoholics. The Council is one of the agencies which benefit from money contributed to the United Fund in Aransas County.

Following is the information Parker furnished.:

"I am your Regional Alcoholism Services Developer. I represent the Coastal Bend Council on Alcoholism, which is your Regional Alcoholism Authority under the Texas State Plan for the Prevention, Treatment and Control of Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism. "Authority" may not be just the right word, since we have, not so much authority as responsibility.

"Our responsibility is to assist the citizens of your community and county to identify what your problems relating to alcohol abuse and alcoholism are, to reach a decision as to what you want to do about them, and to carry out that decision.

"Your representative on the Board of Directors, Coastal Bend Council on Alcoholism, is Judge John D. Wendell, of Rockport, phone number 729-2403. Through him you can make your voice heard in governing the Regional Alcoholism Authority.

"It is my purpose, first of all, to meet and talk to all citizens of the county who are interested in solving the many problems caused by the excessive use of alcohol and to prevent future problems of this nature. I would like to talk to people in all segments of society--labor, business, rich, poor, all ethnic groups, clergy, professionals, etc.

"When we have identified as many concerned citizens as we can, we would like to call them together and talk things over. By getting the input from various sources, medical, law enforcement, clergy, and many others, we should get a truer picture of the existing problems. In the same manner, we will be able to ascertain our existing resources for coping with the problems and to make a decision as to what needs to be done.

"After one or more meetings of all concerned citizens, perhaps a standing committee, representative of all segments of society, could be formed to carry on continuous study and action. I will be at your service to help you to obtain outside sources of help from the region, state, and federal governments where needed.

"If you have indicated that you are interested in meeting with your fellow citizens to talk about these matters, you will receive a letter notifying you of time and place of meetings."

Library News

Your Aransas County Public Library had added a number of new books to its collection. For the children, Charlie Bucket and Willie Wonka are back in Roald Dahl's "Charlie and the Great Glass Elevator".

New additions to the adult section include "Eleanor: The Years Along", by Joseph P. Lash. "Shadow on the Alamo", by an Investigative Journalist, Harvey Katz. In this book Katz unravels the shocking story of the corruption that extends from the floor of the legislature to the banks and business offices of some of Texas' leading citizens.

Other new books added to the shelves are Ralph Mayers revised and expanded "The Artists Handbook" and "The Peter Prescription" by Laurance J. Peter.

It will be greatly appreciated if those who have overdue books will return them. Fines will be forgiven on all overdue books returned before September 8th.

Summer reading participants who have not picked up their "reading certificates" will please come by the library and do so. Enter our "Name the Scarecrow" contest. Reminder: the copy machine at the library is available when the library is open, 12 to 6 daily, Monday through Friday.

Shortest distance across the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific is a straight line drawn from a point near Charleston, S.C., to a point near San Diego, Calif. The distance is 2,152 miles.

Earlier Quail Date Set In South Texas

AUSTIN-Quail season for the South Central District has been changed to begin earlier than the uniform statewide dates set last month by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission.

The season now is Nov. 18, 1972, to Jan. 31, 1973, with a daily bag of 12 and 36 in possession. Previously, all counties in the state under the regulatory authority of the commission were given the same quail dates of Dec. 1--Feb. 15.

Counties affected by the change are Aransas, Atascosa, Bee, Bexar, Cameron, Dimmit, Duval, Frio, Hidalgo, Jim Wells, Karnes, Kinney, Live Oak, Maverick, Medina, Starr, Uvalde, Webb, Willacy, Wilson and Zavala.

In six of these counties, the dates are subject to approval of county commissioners courts. They are Dimmit, Frio, Kinney, Medina, Uvalde and Zavala.

The commission adopted the change on a staff recommendation based on July census line data which indicated an increase of 182 percent in the quail populations in the South Texas counties.

Many of the birds were one-half to three-quarters grown.

B&PW Has Supper Meeting

The August 28 meeting of the Rockport Business and Professional Women was held in the backyard at the home of Ruby Hart. It was a covered dish supper. Special guests were Mrs. Inez Morrow, new District Director and Miss Molly Kusel, past district director. Other guests were Mrs. Louise Zeisler, Mrs. Irene Soria, Miss Frances Munschler, Mrs. Lahoma Roaten, Mrs. Val Jean Eaton and Mrs. Mary Gilliam. Myrt Blocker was voted in as a new member and Mrs. Mildren Le Maire was welcomed as a transfer from Corpus Christi. Members present were Msdms. Betty Abt, Lois Atwood, Penny Bladwin, Rossi Clark, Corrine Crabb, Peggy Davis, Duck Eller, Pepper Everett, Flo Griffith, Edna Hamilton, Bird Harrell, Ruby Hart, Elsie Hawes, Gwynne Howland, Cepha Jesse, Dorothy Leslie, Van Morgan, Lilliam Moulton, Loyce Ogle, Pat Oliver, Kathy Rogero, Virginia Shivers, Thelma Sours, Vennett Stone, Buna Suttles, Marie Tong and Miss Veronica Klaesar.

After the delicious supper the meeting was called to order by the president, Penny Baldwin. Yearbooks were passed out by the treasurer. They are in loose-leaf style and cost a dollar for the notebook. The minutes were read by Loyce Ogle in absence of the secretary. The recommendations of the Executive Board were read. Recommendation #1 in regard to the sponsoring of a Niki Club by this organization was unanimously voted and Mrs. Deane Steele will be chairman of this committee.

Since the scholarship money that was given to a senior girl was returned by her as she is getting married, the next two recommendations of Executive Board were changed. The club voted unanimously to divide the $500 equally between the next two runners-up, Miss Joy Bright and Miss Jeannie Kleypas, and present it to them now to be used for this semester.

The District Conference at Beeville on October 7 and 8 was announced and thirteen reservations from the Executive Board have already been sent in. Anyone else wanting to go should contact Dorothy Leslie who will make the reservations.

Mrs. Louise Zeisler spoke briefly on a Community Action program she is trying to promote--music programs by local talent and promotion of a Community Center.

Ruby Hart, chairman of the foundation committee presented Molly Kusel who spoke on what the Foundation is and how it can benefit B&PW and how the club can use the Library, etc. Virginia Shivers, Personal Development Chairman presented Pepper Everett who gave her ideas on personal development and passed out some helpful hints--when we do something for our club it also expands ourselves, she said, and goes from here on to our nation.

Cepha Jessie will be in charge of the program on Sept. 25, which will be a supper meeting. Members will be contacted as to where and the cost. Cepha is also in charge of the Bazaar and a called meeting on this has been called for 7:30 p.m. Sept. 11 at Women's Club. She also showed samples of several things that can be made and gave some more good suggestions. Club members are asked to save boxes, small cans and lids of squirt cans, and anything else that can be used in making things, also rummage marked and put in garbage bags should be taken to Loyce Ogle's.

The "Ha Ha Fund" was won by Thelma Sours.

Should the time for completion of work be extended, it would be for a three year period ending 31 December 1975. The decision as to whether an extension of time will be granted will be based on an evaluation of the impact of the proposed work on the public interest. Higher Social Security Payments

Tuesday, October 3, is a red letter day for some 50,000 beneficiaries in the Corpus Christi area. That is the postal delivery date of the first social security checks with the 20% increase which Congress recently voted, according to H. M. Cleveland, District Manager of the Social Security Administration.

"The higher amounts go to those persons who have previously applied for and established their eligibility for retirement, disability, and family insurance," he says. They are insured workers who have retired or who are disabled for work and the wives, widows, children, and dependent parents of retired, disabled, or deceased workers.

"The new higher benefits go to those persons who become entitled to social security payments in the future as well as present beneficiaries," Cleveland stated. All workers are now earning substantial financial protection for their families against the time when their earned income is reduced or cut off in older years or death or if accident or disease prevents one from working for a year or more."

He cited the example of a man who had average earnings of $4200 a year under social security. In case of his retirement, disability, or death, maximum family payments can amount to as much as $370.70 a month when there are three or more family members who are eligible to receive the benefits.

"A new leaflet titled, 'Higher Social Security Payments,' will be mailed to anyone who requests it," Cleveland added. In Corpus Christi, telephone 883-5511, extension 308, or address the Social Security Administration, 1802 South Staples, if you would like to have a free copy.

Higher social security payments

This table gives examples of higher social security benefits payable as a result of a 20 percent increase recently signed into law. The first monthly checks including the increase will be sent out October 3, covering payments for the month of September. As a result of the increase, the average monthly check for a retired worker rises from $129 to $156, and the average monthly check for a retired couple rises from $224 to $271. For a disabled worker, the average check rises from $144 to $173. People who get benefits will receive the increase automatically. They don't have to take any action themselves.

Average yearly earnings after 1950*	$923 or less	$3,000	$4,200	$5,400	$6,600	$7,800	$9,000

Maximum family payment	126.80	267.30	370.70	467.90	522.30	579.30	620.40

*Generally, average earnings covered by social security are figured from 1951 until the worker reaches retirement age, becomes disabled, or dies. The maximum benefit for a retired worker in 1972 is $259.40 a month, based on average yearly earnings of $5,652. The higher benefits shown in the chart, based on average earnings shown in the columns on the right, generally will not be payable until later.

The Kinsey Report

An erudite gentleman, who either has a remarkable vocabulary or spent many hours perusing the dictionary for big words, wrote this column last week.

I want to thank him for filling this space and also for the nice things he said about me and my wife and about this column. I guess he said nice things. He used such fancy words that I'm really not sure.

For example, he described my column as "sapid." At first I thought it was a typographical error for "stupid." But I looked in the dictionary and sure enough there was "sapid," which means "agreeable to the mind."

As my worthy substitute said last week, Mrs. Kinsey and I were enjoying a short vacation in Hendersonville, North Carolina, visiting three couples who were our best friends when we all lived in Deerfield, a suburb of Chicago. Their hospitality was wonderful and we had a grand time.

Hendersonville is a beautiful, restful community which certainly has perfect climate, at least this time of the year. During the days the temperature was in the high 70s or the low 80s and at night it dropped down to between 50 and 60 for perfect sleeping, with no air conditioning.

Hendersonville is located in the lower Appalacian Mountains in Western North Carolina between the Blue Ridge and Smoky Mountain Ranges. It is situated on a plateau extending to Asheville--about 2,200 feet above sea level. The country has all deciduous and evergreen trees, more varieties than in any other section of the country. There are many kinds of birds; some are year-round inhabitants; for others it is stopping point in migration.

Asheville is 22 miles north, Greenville, S. C. 40 miles south, and Charlotte 100 miles east. The Smoky Mountains are 60 miles west, Blue Ridge Parkway 24 miles northeast, and the Pisgah National Park 25 miles west. The city is in the midst of this beautiful scenic area in a typical mountain setting. It is but a short drive up the Blue Ridge Parkway to Mt. Mitchell, the highest point east of the Mississippi; to the Roan Mountain and Craggy Gardens rhododendron and laurel beds; to the Pisgah Forest National Park area, for picnicking and camping, and for deer, bear and other wild game hunting in season.

Information On Proposed Amendments

Continuing its analysis of the proposed amendments which will be voted on Nov. 7, the Pilot offers the following information regarding Amendment No. 6.

The proposed Amendment No. 6 would add a new subsection to Article VII, Section 1-b, to allow political subdivisions of the state to exempt not less than $3,000 of the value of persons 65 years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes levied by the political subdivision.

Background: During the decade of the depression, interest began to develop in the possibility of abolishing the state ad valorem tax as a means of reducing the burden of property tax on Texas citizens. In 1932 the first step in this direction was taken with the adoption of an amendment which added Section 1-a to Article VII to exempt $3,000 of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads from all taxation for all state purposes. Then in 1948, the present Sections 1-a, 1-b and 1-c were adopted, and effective on January 1, 1951, the state abandoned property tax for its revenue purposes, with a few minor exceptions, although the ad valorem tax remained a major part of the tax structure of the political subdivisions of the state. The amendment in 1948 also provided that the exemption of $3,000 valuation of the homestead apply to both state and county taxes.

The proposed Amendment No. 6 would extend further the homestead exemption by allowing a county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the state to exempt not less than $3,000 of the value of residence homesteads of persons at least 65 years of age from all ad valorem taxes levied by the political subdivision. This provision is not mandatory, but stipulates alternative methods of determining the exemption. The governing body of the political subdivision may allow the exemption by its own action, or the voters may determine by majority vote to allow the exemption at an election to be held on receipt of a petition signed by 20 percent of the voters who voted at the subdivision's last preceding election.

Arguments: For: 1) Ad valorem tax is the basic form of taxation which counties, cities, towns, school districts, and other political subdivisions depend upon for revenue, and the largest taxes on real estate are levied for local purposes by local governments. Therefore, the present homestead exemption does not grant any of the relief needed from the most burdensome ad valorem tax existing in Texas today.

2) Texas has a long history of protecting the homestead. The senior citizen who lives on a fixed income is hurt by inflation and needs the protection and relief which the proposed amendment would allow.

3) The proposed amendment protects the local government and its creditors by granting the option of allowing or not allowing the exemption and by authorizing taxing officers of the political subdivision to continue collecting the tax against the homestead if it has been pledged for the payment of a debt and is needed to prevent the impairment of that obligation.

Against: 1) The reduction of tax revenues of city, school, and other taxing districts could handicap the political subdivision in performing essential functions and services.

2) A basic concept in Texas law demands that property taxes shall be equal and uniform, with all property taxed in proportion to its value. Special tax treatment for one age group would be inequitable and discriminatory and result in shifting a greater tax burden to all the age groups which are not granted such exemptions.

3) Social security, retirement, and welfare programs of today so assist those over 65 that the need for further protection of the homestead is consequently diminished.

"Hangman of Buffalo"

President Grover Cleveland was known as the "hangman of Buffalo." As sheriff of Erie County, N.Y., he personally hanged a murderer, refusing to give the unpleasant task to deputies.

If you're old enough to want your own telephone, you're old enough to want your own typewriter.

There comes a time in your life when all of a sudden privacy really counts.

You need to be alone. In your own place.

With your own things.

You want your conversations with your friends to be just that—not a family gathering.

We understand.

Which brings us to your own typewriter.

Your own typewriter says you're getting serious (and better be left alone).

After all, when people hear the tappety-tap of a typewriter they figure you're into something important and automatically steer away from you.

Besides, when your own typewriter is sitting there, it has a way (a neater way than anyone else) of reminding you of the work you have to do.

And somehow you'll find yourself doing it.

And doing it faster—because with say, an electric portable, even a beginner can get to type twice as fast as writing by hand.

Other things can happen too. Like spelling can improve. Because a typed word that's misspelled looks misspelled, and just asks to be corrected.

You'll find your creative thoughts won't slip away from you, because a typewriter really listens to you—actually accepts every idea as fast as it comes up.

And then a little miracle called Organization can occur. When that happens, you can get a feeling of confidence you won't believe.

So drop a hint or two about wanting your own typewriter.

The mere act of asking says something about where your head's at.

Which could even go a long way toward getting you that telephone.

At the very least, your own extension.

Just remember when you're asking, who reminded you to ask.
