FARMERS URGED NOT TO SELL COTTON

Yearly Advises Farmers Hold for 45 Cents or More Staple

Quannah, Texas, March 15.—The following is given out by the State Agricultural Department:

Yearly, Cotton Marketing Agent of the State Department of Agriculture, has returned to Austin on an extended trip of inspection and investigation of cotton conditions in the State, and finds general dissatisfaction among the farmers and buyers as to grade and price of their cotton by the buyers. Yearly states that "while the general price is at the top for cotton at interior points, the price offered, generally speaking, is below that paid for the staple in November. Men not satisfied with prices offered at home, have taken their cotton to Houston and Galveston, where they are offered at points in numerous cases their cotton is graded two grades below the grades they are entitled to; besides the price is lower after the grades have been determined. There are several government graders in West Texas, but their services are too often ignored. Some men pay several cents below neighboring towns, claiming the staple at the former towns are shorter at the latter; but tests do not show such to be true."

Because of these conditions and the fact that it is a strain on the farmer's pocket to buy heavy grades of cotton which is costing them 65 to 75 cents per pound for the staple when money was easy and plentiful, and observing that spinners all over the world attempt to get out of the market as soon as they can, a few weeks supply, in an effort to get the price, Mr. Yearly is convinced the proper thing to do is:

1. For the farmer to cease selling; have his cotton graded, stapled and listed, and then offer below the market price, which is 45 cents in middling, 1/2 inch staple." The force of the Department has been hurriedly campaigning the State for three weeks, urging this action, and is being readily agreed to everywhere, as result many offerings have been withdrawn from the market. The effect of which has caused an advance in New York and New Orleans, and if continued by the farmer will be felt at every local market as soon as present holdings buyers can be shipped out and the market relieved.

Mr. Yearly says "Some farmers and buyers have double 'wants.' They want to sell at once and 'want' the price. They can get either 'at once,' or rather give it away; they can ignore any price below their own and get it in a few weeks months. If they will systematically cease selling, 50 cents may look up for good cotton in a short time. It is why his advice is to "close like a clam and let selling cease."

As to bollies and very low grades, they have no class or grade and can be sold on type. They should be listed, samples drawn and sent to the State for bolls. This is all any buyer can do, and the President of the local chamber of commerce can do it as well as a buyer. Quit selling cotton until you can get the price.

200 Secured For Armenian Relief Fund

Rev. J. H. Hamblen reports that something like a fund of $200 has been raised in the county for Armenian relief. This amount has come from the Sunday Schools of the county and while this is not a big amount of money it will be some help to those unfortunate Armenians. Several hundred of them are at the mercy of the Christian people of America and they get the help they need they will almost be wiped out of existence. They are looking for help from the County for life-saving aid.

Mr. W. H. Hayes returned Tuesday on a trip to Foard County. Mr. Hayes likes that country well and he believes that the better he will know it the better he will like it. —Boys City News-Times.

Furniture and Seats Bought for New M. E. Church

Progress in the construction of the new Methodist church continues at a satisfactory pace. Rev. Hamblen tells us that he closed a deal for the seats and furniture recently at a cost of $4,000 put into the new building.

He figures that a good deal was made in this, inasmuch as they were bought for several hundred dollars less than was at first thought possible, but when the company saw they were going to miss a deal if they did not get down to bed rock prices they agreed to the proposition made them. The contract price calls for the seats and furniture placed in the church ready for use without additional expense to the church.

If the work goes forward with its present rate of progress it is expected that the building will be completed by August of this year.

THE BIGGEST STEER IN THE WORLD

When J. E. Bray returned from Fort Worth where he had attended the stock show we asked him what he had to report that would be of interest to our readers and this is about what he said:

"Among other things of interest to me was that I saw the biggest steer in the world." Of course, he was giving this as second-hand information, for he has not seen all the steers in the world, and even if he had, he might have overlooked some others that would have measured up to or a little above the said steer at Fort Worth. But he says this particular one was a "whopper." "It was the first one," he said, "that I could not chin. I walked up to him and tried to put my chin over his shoulders and I lacked about 5 inches being tall enough to perform the act." He said the one they had there a year ago which was claimed to be the biggest steer in the world would look like a two-weeks old calf by the side of its mother as compared with this one. He said they claimed this steer was 17 hands high but he firmly believes he would measure fully 18 hands.

He said not to report this for nobody would believe it. He told him that was what we knew. Really we doubt whether or not he went to Fort Worth.

Miss Emma Stuhmer, who is in charge of the millinery department at the R. B. Edwards Co. store spent the first part of the week in Dallas buying new goods.

New Restaurant Opens Tomorrow

Messrs. E. L. Aiken and Paul Clifford are the proprietors of the Sanitary Cafe which will open for business tomorrow in the building formerly occupied by the Elk Cafe on the north side. These boys are putting in new equipment and will make everything modern in every particular.

Mr. Aiken comes from Quannah and has been in the restaurant business practically all his life. Mr. Clifford is one of our own boys reared in Foard County and is known by everybody.

THE NEWS IS $2.00 PER YEAR

Some of our foreign readers have evidently overlooked the fact that the News has been advanced to the price of $2.00 per year. Within the last few days we have returned several checks of $1.50 calling for a year's subscription. This we do not like to do, but it is better, we think, that our readers understand the matter, and that is why we return their checks and make explanation. As long as the $2.00 rate is in effect we will not accept a check of $1.50 from any one for subscription for a year. Our readers do not expect us to do so, they have merely overlooked the matter.

SPECTATORS AT GAFFORD TRIAL ARE SEARCHED

Quannah, Texas, March 16.—With a distinct tenseness apparent among the spectators in the courtroom, composed chiefly of friends and acquaintances of the parties concerned, from Crowell and Foard County, the taking of testimony in the case of the State vs. Mrs. Myrtle Gafford, charged with murder in connection with the difficulty in which former State Senator W. S. Bell and her husband, Jim Gafford, sustained fatal wounds, began in the Forty-Sixth District Court here this morning.

The feeling in the case is believed by authorities to be such that before the case opened Judge J. A. Nabors, who is presiding, announced to the crowd that, as a precautionary measure, a deputy sheriff stationed at each door would examine the spectators to see that they were unarmed before permitting them to enter the courtroom.

Secure Change of Venue According to the testimony introduced this morning, the fatal difficulty occurred in front of a Crowell picture show June 21, 1919, while the crowd was leaving after the performance.

Bell died the next morning and Gafford succumbed some ten or twelve days later.

The case against Mrs. Gafford was transferred here because both families concerned were so well known in Foard County that a trial there was almost impossible.

The State presented its case during the morning hours, resting early in the afternoon. Only a few witnesses were presented by the defense prior to adjournment, none of the members of the immediate Gafford family being introduced.

Witnesses for State Among the important witnesses introduced by the State were Dr. J. M. Hill, a Crowell physician, who attended the parties concerned following the difficulty; Sheriff Ed P. Eomar of Foard County, Paul Williams and Joe Brown, Crowell young men who were at the scene of the difficulty; W. L. Ricks, brother-in-law of Bell; Mrs. W. S. Bell, wife of the deceased, and Everett Bell, a son.

Witness Closely Questioned

The physician was questioned closely as to the nature of the wounds sustained by all parties to the difficulty, as to the calibers of the bullets and shot and the angles of penetration.

His testimony was to the effect that the pistols were of different calibers and that shotguns figured in the shooting.

The sheriff testified as to the weapons used and as to the location of various buildings and other objects in the vicinity of the difficulty. A sketch and photographs were introduced by the State in this connection, over the objection of the defense.

The remaining witnesses testified as to the movements of the defendant and members of her family prior to the difficulty.

One of the grounds on which it is believed the defense will contest the case figured in the cross-examination of Ricks, brother-in-law of Bell, who was questioned in connection with the sudden death of the wife of Fred Bell, son of former Senator Bell and who was a daughter of the defendant, Mrs. Gafford.

Big Array of Legal Talent

In addition to District Attorney J. V. Leake the State is represented by W. D. Berry of Vernon, Robert Cole of Crowell and M. M. Hankins of Quannah, Berry conducting the examination of witnesses for the State.

For the defense there is Judge A. J. Fires of Childress, C. E. Shepherd of Sipe Springs and W. T. Perkins of Quannah, Judge Fires conducting the principal examination, assisted by Shepherd.

Quannah, Texas, March 17.—Testimony brought out by the defense to the effect that on the night of the difficulty in which former State Senator W. S. Bell and Jim Gafford lost their lives, Everett Bell, son of the former senator, made the statement that the fatal wounds sustained by his father had been from firing by Jim Gafford and that the wound which proved fatal in the case of Gafford had resulted from the firing by his father, Senator Bell. He also stated that the shots fired by Mrs. Gafford had gone wild as he was holding her arms from behind. This testimony featured today's

25-FT. VEIN OF COAL ENCOUNTERED BY DRILLERS IN TEST

Indications of a 25-foot vein of coal were encountered in the well being drilled in the western part of Foard county on the Herring-Johnson ranch at a depth of 2,995 feet, according to a statement of L. K. Johnson, one of the lessors, Monday.

The well is now at a depth of 3,000 feet and will go until a depth of 4,000 feet is reached or oil is encountered sooner. It is being drilled by the Emerald Oil & Gas Company, a subsidiary of the Empire, and has been in progress for two and a half years. Several remarkable showings in oil and gas have been met with, and the drillers are confident of hitting oil in paying quantities.

The discovery of coal is an interesting feature of the well. According to Jim McAdams, who owns the ranch adjoining the Herring-Johnson property, prairie dogs on his land have brought up coal. It is thought from this that fuel may be found in paying quantities at a practicable depth. Should this turn out to be true the industrial outlook in this section is due to experience a definite and advantageous change, according to business men here.—Vernon Record.

RETURNS HOME FROM DALLAS

Alton Andrews came in last week from Dallas where he has been taking a business course. He will keep books for R. B. Edwards Co. and took charge of them Monday. We are glad to have Alton back with us.

session of the trial of Mrs. Myrtle Gafford, charged with murder in connection with this difficulty. This testimony was substantiated by the evidence of several witnesses who testified that they were at the Bell home on the night following the difficulty.

Several eye witnesses were introduced by both sides, the substance of their testimony being that the firing, which took place in front of a Crowell picture house in June, 1919, just after the close of the performance, was opened by Mrs. Gafford, who called out the name of Fred Bell, her son-in-law, and son of Senator Bell and fired in his direction. Testimony was introduced by the defense to the effect that Senator Bell, who was in his car in front of the show, then struck Mrs. Gafford over the head, inflicting a T-shaped wound, and that as she went down she cried out to her husband to "shoot, shoot, shoot." The fatal firing followed this.

Mrs. W. S. Bell, wife of Senator Bell, was on the stand for a short time, testified to the fact that Senator Bell had used the shot gun which was in his car to push Mrs. Gafford away.

Circumstances surrounding the marriage of Fred Bell, son of the former senator, to Suetta Gafford, daughter of the Gaffords, and surrounding the sudden death of the bride which took place shortly before the difficulty, were gone into rather closely in the testimony of several witnesses introduced by the defense at today's session, at times over strenuous objections by the counsel for the state.

Three Crowell physicians, Drs. J. M. Hill, Hines Clark and R. L. Kincaid, who composed a board of physicians who exhumed and held a postmortem examination of the body of Mrs. Suetta Bell, were called by the defense, and testified to the fact that the examination showed that she had been pregnant for several months previous to her death and that her throat showed marked discoloration.

Counsel for the state countered with an attempt to show that the discoloration might have resulted from decomposition, as the board for this postmortem was appointed several months following her death.

Attempt by counsel for the defense to introduce testimony to the effect that the flour at the Fred Bell home had been found to contain strychnine; that neither Fred Bell nor the hired man were at the home on the day of Mrs. Bell's death and that a dog which drank water at the place had died from the effects of it, were blocked by the objections of counsel for the state, which were sustained by the court and went to the jury only by implication.

That Fred Bell's marriage was a forced marriage was testified to by Baxter Johnson, a boy friend of Fred Bell's, and also that Fred Bell had declared that he would marry the girl but would not live with her.

Sufficient Force to Hold Territory Is Sent to Scene

Austin, March 15.—Governor W. P. Hobby has ordered sent to the Texas-Oklahoma boundary a force deemed sufficient to hold land involved in dispute between Texas and Oklahoma and to surrender it to no one except upon a decree from the United States supreme court.

Governor W. P. Hobby said in a statement issued today:

"The territorial integrity of Texas will be maintained and this state will not surrender territory over which it has exercised sovereignty and of which it has been in actual and unquestioned possession for eighty-four years except upon a decision of the United States supreme court, and the case is now pending in that court.

"Without a trial to determine the issue of rightful ownership, an Oklahoma federal judge has entered an order to the effect of which is to dispossess the state of Texas of a portion of its public domain leased for oil development and to dispossess a receiver appointed by a Texas court, and has enjoined peace officers of the state who have been sent by me to prevent trespassing.

"The attorney general of Texas has advised me in a carefully prepared opinion that the order of the Oklahoma court is void and without justification in law, and Judge Calhoun of the district court of Travis county has asked me to use the executive power of the state to enforce the orders of his court.

"This property consists of 160 acres on the south side of the middle of the Red river, whose value is estimated at $10,000,000. There are three producing wells on the property, and perhaps forty wells are now being drilled. The property is now yielding the state about $1,000 per day.

"The duty of the state to maintain sovereignty is not only involved, but it will be seen that a valuable financial interest to the state is also involved.

"Therefore, sufficient force has been ordered to hold the territory and surrender none of it except upon the decree of the only court having jurisdiction over the boundary lines of states, and that is the supreme court of the United States.

"This course finds precedent and is in full accord with the resolution passed by the legislature of Texas in 1850 to the effect that the state will maintain the integrity of Texas territory."

25 Cent Ad Sells $150 Worth of Hogs

It would be fruitless for one to try to prove to J. E. Bell that advertising does not pay. John has been an advertiser for several years, that's the reason he keeps advertising, because he gets results. But within the last few weeks he has been advertising his Big Bone Poland China hogs a little more extensively than formerly and says he is just about to sell everything he has. Only a short time ago he placed a 25 cent ad in the paper and from it alone sold $150 worth of these fine hogs. Of course, a 25 cent ad is small cost, but that does not aggregate the amount of John's advertising. To that one ad he can trace the sales above referred to. Also as the result of advertising a bank of one of our neighboring counties took the matter up with Mr. Bell as to supplying the Boys' Pig Club of that county.

The point is this: if you have something that the public wants, advertise it. If you have not what the public wants you had better move out.

J. E. Bray and daughter, Miss Hettie, Tip Edgin and wife, G. J. Benham and Miss Ruby Matthews went to Fort Worth last week in Mr. Edgin's car to attend the Fat Stock Show.

Miss Mildred Tharp of the Clarendon College has accepted a position as teacher of the 5th grade in the Crowell school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Adele Ragland.

A bee tree in West Texas is very rare, yet according to reports W. A. Copeland found five gallons in a cottonwood tree in Childress County recently. The story is more interesting by reason of the fact that when the tree was cut down two coons ran out of it and Mr. Copeland's dogs killed them, and then the branches of the tree furnished four wagon loads of cord wood and its body one 16 foot watering trough.

WOULD REDUCE STANDING ARMY

Hon. Marvin Jones Favors 200,000 Instead of 300,000 Men for Army

By B. N. Timmons
Congressman Marvin Jones made a fight in the House to have the provision for 300,000 men, as stipulated in the new Army Bill, reduced to 200,000. "All through the War," said Mr. Jones, "we heard continually that one of the lessons every nation on earth would learn was the utter folly of continuing the immense armaments that the world was cursed with and which brought on the war. If there is a nation on the face of the earth that is in a position to set the example that country is the United States of America.

"In 1914, before the War came on, the peace time strength of Germany's army was 870,000 of the army of France, 783,000; of Russia, 1,500,000; of Austria, 435,000; of Italy, 306,000; and of Turkey, 230,000. I have always believed that a 'pistol-toting' man would sooner or later get into a fight. I believe that applies to nations. If you have military establishments bristling over the face of the earth you are going to have war. Consider the nations of South America. They had practically no peace time military strength in 1914. Argentina had 18,000 men; Chile, 19,000; Peru, 6,000; Venezuela, 9,000; Bolivia, 3,000; Columbia, 5,000; while in Europe even little Bulgaria in 1914 had a peace time army of 65,700 men. There have been more than thirty wars in Europe during the last 100 years, and during that same time no war of any consequence in South America. Europe has had these vast armies. The South American countries have lived in peace. They have had small armies.

"As a matter of fact to the magnificent work of the National Guard rather than to the Regular Army our success in the War was due.

"My amendment will reduce the annual appropriations by nearly $200,000,000. Somehow, somewhere, these tremendous appropriations must be reduced. National economy is absolutely necessary, and yet each Committee asks us to begin with some other bill. I am in favor of reducing the appropriations all along the line. On no other basis will we ever get back to normal conditions.

Quality Goes Clear Through

Herein lies the significance of the remarkable simplicity of Dort construction. There are fewer parts to get out of order so that chances for trouble are reduced to a minimum. It is surprising how seldom Dort owners find need for service attention.

MARGARET MUSINGS

(By Special Correspondent)

Walter Ross and wife have returned from the Fat Stock Show.

Our farmers are planting corn and preparing for other spring crops.

The weather has become so dry that we have had to start our irrigation plant in our Joe Bailey garden in order to make our seeds germinate.

We have all the indications of spring. The grain is growing, the birds are returning to their summer home and the cold northers have lost their grip.

Mr. Miniard has suffered a serious relapse from the flu and is now at the sanitarium at Crowell for treatment. We hope he may be able to pull through.

C. B. Graham has a bunch of men employed in putting in the concrete foundation for his new residence and from present indications it will be quite an improvement to our town.

Mrs. W. T. Dunn, Louis Kompf and C. B. Graham have each purchased a large number of lots in Margaret and the Orient Townsite Co. will soon have all their property sold to actual settlers.

We are informed that Mrs. Agnes Dunn underwent a serious operation in Fort Worth on Monday and is doing nicely. We are all glad and hope to have her with us again entirely well.

The colored population here has become so numerous that it was necessary to give them the large waiting room at the depot, and the poor whites have to occupy the small room that was formerly marked: colored.

We have a stock law which prohibits stock from running at large and a nice bunch of cows and horses could be gathered in almost every day. If our prohibition law was as elastic as our stock law we could get plenty of the beverage that cheers.

Miss Margaret Taylor while practicing one of her school exercises fell on an old rusty plow and cut an awful wound in one of her lower limbs. They phoned for an M. D. but failing to get him the wound was dressed by amateurs and we hope she may be out again soon.

Our school is progressing nicely, especially in its out-of-door exercises. Our Fred is not well and we were obliged to keep him home and he grieves because he may fail in his athletic studies. Bro. Tharp says his children are so enthused that they dream of basket ball and other games and fall out of bed trying to win out.

A word of warning to those who expect to need fuel: There will be a 25 per cent raise in the pay of mine operators and a greater raise in the railroad transportation and the cheapest coal will be sold in April and May, and we advise all who can to lay in a supply for the coming winter. Think of the hardships of the past two winters and be warned.

Our farmers held a meeting last Friday to make arrangements for building a new gin. The old rattle-trap closed down two weeks ago, and cotton picking is still in progress, and many are turning their stock in to graze on the ungathered crop. A new gin will cost twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars but will be a money saving investment for the farmers and an advantage to the merchant and the people generally.

HOLDING DOWN THE RENT

Last week in Jersey City advertisements were published calling on tenants who felt that they were being made victims of profiteering landlords to refuse to pay the increases and to report the cases to James Cannon, Jr., of the municipal government.

In Jersey City 3,500 tenants have gone on a strike and 1,000 cases have been settled. The city has declared seven and a half per cent a fair return to the landlord after deducting upkeep and expenses, and has warned all landlords that they will be held to strict accountability for all furniture put into the street.

The Jersey City effort will be watched with interest. In this city most landlords would agree, we think, to seven and a half per cent as a fair net return. Some of them are no doubt making more on old, worn-out houses, and would like to get more still, but in the face of present prices it is not a paying proposition to build new houses for rent.

ADVERTISING HELPS FARMING

Not long ago a South Dakota farmer gave a country editor in his vicinity one of the surprises of his life. Stepping into the editor's office he announced briskly: "I want to contract for some space in your paper weekly for the coming year"

The editor gasped but then smiled happily.

"I always have something to sell or trade or else I want to buy something," the farmer continued, "and so I want the space reserved for me. That will save my running to town every time I have an advertisement to insert. Regular advertising is the sort which gets results."

That editor is losing no opportunity to point out that in one very real sense a farmer is a business man and can promote his business by intelligent, systematic advertising.—Southwest Plainsman.

As a rule business farmers believe in advertising as much as the average business man and in some instances a great deal more, for some business (?) men never spend a cent telling the public what they have to sell and consequently the big mail order houses get the business that would otherwise go to the home man. There is not just one way to advertise, there are hundreds of ways and every way is better than no way at all, but about the cheapest and poorest way is for the tightwad to mark up the sidewalk with ads.

GOOD HOGS PAY

Below we give the experience of one Poland China breeder of the Lockney section. Mr. J. E. Lee is specializing on pure bred Poland China hogs and here is what he says in reference to the matter:

"Raising pure bred or registered hogs costs no more than to raise a scrub. Of course your first cost may be a few dollars more, but the upkeep is the same. From one sow last year I sold $175 worth of pigs and now have 3 pigs on hands at a cost of about $75 for expenses. Also fattened one pig for meat that would have weighed about 350 pounds at a little over 10 months old.

"My hogs being the Big Bone Type Poland China, develops quickly, and you have a big 300 pound hog to kill or sell at from 9 to 12 months old, owing to how you crowd or push them to maturity. In the Big Poland you have a hog that you can finish for market from 225 pounds up or as large as you want to grow them."—Lockney Beacon.

We have men in Foard County who have as good pure-bred stock as you

WHAT OUR NEIGHBORS ARE DOING

The Benjamin Post reports that Truscott is planning to put in a Deleo lighting system.

Wellington has secured a laundry, parties from Vernon having gotten a lineup with that city for same.

Childress County claims the largest pig in the world for its age. The animal will be one year old the 15th of April and is 39 inches high and 72 inches long and belongs to the Poland China stock.

A movement has been launched, says the Haskell Free Press, by the Chamber of Commerce of that city to pave the public square, and the prospects for carrying the proposition to success is favorable.

The Wellington Leader announces that after March 31 the subscription price of that paper will be $2.00. One by one the best papers of the country are going to the $2.00 rate. It is absolutely necessary to their existence.

Scurry County is to have a poultry and stock show on March 27th. It is claimed that a great quantity of registered stuff is in that county and that a county show will increase interest in that line and give them good advertising.

At noon Sunday was a week ago 135 bales of cotton were burned at the compress at Quannah. Shortly after the flames were extinguished 40 more bales were burned in a box car some distance away. How it happened that fire got into the cotton is not explained.

Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock a Frisco locomotive left the Quannah yards and took down the Fort Worth & Denver at the rate of 40 miles an hour. It reached Chillicothe before the steam was exhausted and stopped without having caused any damage. A leaky valve is given as the cause of the runaway.

On Wednesday morning of last week about 2 o'clock the annex to the Y. M. C. A. building in Childress was destroyed by fire, the main building being saved. In the annex were included a cafe, barber shop, game room and shower baths. The amount of the damage was about $4,000 with insurance to the amount of $1200.

The Quannah Tribune-Chief says the oil mill of that city is getting ready to have a community garden this spring. It says that a world of vegetables were raised last year. It is a great waste of land for any town to allow its vacant lots to lie idle and grow up in weeds.

FARMER MAKES LIVING OFF OF CHICKENS AND COWS

The poultry industry and the dairy industry are both growing in Foard County. This does not mean that there are any exclusive poultry establishments. Neither are there any such dairies, so far as we know, but with a great many families in the country they are carried in connection with farming as a side line. And they are becoming more general each year. We are here mentioning only two.

W. W. Kimsey, who lives some 7 miles southeast of Crowell and who is one of the wheat growers of the county, is now milking 7 cows. He also has about 100 thoroughbred Buff Orpington hens. Or they may perhaps belong to his wife. Anyway they have these on the place and from those cows and that bunch of chickens they are well high making their living. Asked what the revenue from the hens and cows were, Mr. Kimsey replied that it would amount to about $60 per month.

Will L. Johnson of near Thalia is also making good money off of his thoroughbred Brown Leghorn chickens. Since the laying season opened up he has been realizing about $20 per month from 85 hens, and that is net, because he says he is not out anything for feed as they do their own rustling and feed on what would otherwise go to waste.

There are scores of other instances where nice incomes are realized from chickens and cows, and when it is all aggregated it amounts to quite a sum. We have no means of determining the amount of these products for the county, but if each person would keep a record it could be done. Kimsey has commenced to do that.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Strengthened by Experience
Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of backache, headache, dizziness or urinary disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Crowell people rely on them. Here's one of the many statements from Crowell people.

Mrs. S. J. Vernon says: "I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them off and on for many years. Whenever my back gives me any trouble aching and painful and I know my kidneys are a little out of order, I just take a few of Doan's. They never fail to give me great results."
Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy--get Doan's Kidney Pills--the same that Mrs. Vernon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE NEW ERA AMONG NATIONS

Many of us hoped that the close of the World War would usher in a new era among nations; that, henceforth, good will and mutual respect would be entertained one for another by the great nations.

The new era has failed to dawn, and each day we are losing our present hope of its realization. Whether it is over the Adriatic, over the fate of Constantinople, or any other problem, we will see powerful nations selfishly calculating!

Throughout it all the United States leads in a disinterested and genuine hope of a new world order; somewhat behind, but far ahead of other nations, Great Britain follows, and her dominion of Canada is ahead of the mother-country; but, when we leave these countries it is hard to find a bit of real idealistic faith in a better future for international relations.

GLYCERINE MIXTURE FOR GAS ON STOMACH

It acts on both upper and lower bowel and removes all foul matter which poisoned stomach. Often CURES constipation. Prevents appendicitis. ### AIRMEN REPLACING AN ARMY

An interesting exhibition of the usefulness of aeroplanes is found in the report from London that the army of 36,000 which Great Britain has held on the border patrol in Mesopotamia has been replaced by an aerial force of 500 officers and men.

It is stated that this move is in conformity to the new policy of the government, which plans to cut down its infantry and cavalry arms and hand over their duties to a smaller number of airmen. It means that Great Britain will always have a strong force of trained airmen, ready for instant fighting anywhere.

It seems that this policy has been widely adopted by Great Britain. In the accounts of the trouble in India repeated instances were shown of the bombing of crowds by the aviators. That a bombing airplane is worth a hundred or so troopers in the mountainous regions of England's half-civilized minions is evident. The airmen will have nothing to fight except the elements, and while the work of hounding undefended people may be exasperating the method is such an improvement over the foot fighting days that its general adoption is to be expected.

Save Work Time and Steps In the Kitchen

with this Curtis built-in ironing board. It is always ready for use, always clean, always handy, never in the way, no flimsy folding legs to worry with, no need for chairs or props, no heavy board to lift. Equally convenient to iron the week's wash or a single piece.

If you have flat irons, build the cabinet into the wall by the range so as to save steps in using the irons. If you use an electric iron, put the socket inside the cabinet.

This board is made of light, white pine, which will not warp, crack or split. It is contained within a built-in case made of durable yellow pine.

The board can be raised or lowered to suit the height of the person working at it.

If you build a new home you want to be sure to include this extraordinary convenience. But you can remodel your old kitchen and equip it, too, with this work-saver.

The cost is hardly worth mentioning compared to the backaches it will save you.

Decide where you want this ironing board in your kitchen and have it built-in. Begin now to save work time and steps in the kitchen.

What Every Farmer Needs E-B Godevil

Six Reasons Why You Should Buy an Emerson Godevil--

- 1st. The E-B No. 37 Lister Cultivators are very durable and easy to operate.
- 2nd. They can use either 31 or 40 inch side knives.
- 3rd. The runners are thoroughly protected on bottom and sides.
- 4th. Nearer dust proof boxes than on any other Godevil known.
- 5th. The disc gangs are easily set at an angle, throwing either to or from the row, can be set to cut below the bottom of the runner, thereby loosing up the soil for roots of the young plants, if desired.
- 6th. Wings of heavy steel are so set as to be most effective in leveling top of ridge, destroying weeds and leveling a dust mulch for the conserving of moisture.

WELL KNOWN TEXAS WOMEN

San Antonio, Texas—"In my early married life I became very ill with feminine trouble and no doctoring or medicines gave me any relief until I started to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was down in bed, unable to do my own housework, but it was only a short time before I was feeling stronger and all my pains left me. I took about six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and can say positively that it cured me of all feminine trouble for I have been in perfect health ever since. I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all women suffering with inward trouble."—Mrs. ANNIE F. Epps, 224 Rogers St.

Houston, Texas—"For more than thirty years I have always spoken a good word for Dr. Pierce's Medicines. The 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pleasant Pellets' were my 'standby.' 'Favorite Prescription' was the medicine I would take for nervousness, weakness and run-down conditions and the 'Pellets' for constipation and sluggish liver and these medicines have never failed to give me just the help and renewed health that I needed. I still take the 'Pellets' when I require a mild laxative, and consider them the very best medicine of that kind I have ever taken."—Mrs. M. PARISH, 911 Dowling St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret remedy for all the ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Contains no alcohol or narcotics. Sold by druggists in liquid or tablets. If your druggist does not keep it, send 60c for tablets, or you can send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., ten cents for trial package.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty its bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get a genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

MARKED EPOCH IN INDUSTRY

Experience of Years of Warfare Should Have Effect on Coal Mining in This Country.

The inventory of the nation's resources that the war made necessary brought to light many new facts about coal mining which will be of lasting value to the industry and to the public. As long as the war lasted these incidental lessons were lost sight of under the pressure of meeting the emergency created by the shortage of fuels, but with the return of peace the experience gained during the war is being gathered together in a series of reports on the industry, the first of which, "Coal in 1917," by C. E. Leshar, has been published by the United States geological survey, department of the Interior.

The period from 1914 through 1917 and 1918 and into 1919 may be regarded as a distinct epoch in the coal industry, of which the year 1917 represented only one section, but a section which, if not the most remarkable for its achievements, was at once the most chaotic and the most momentous in the history of the industry.

In response to the unprecedented demand the bituminous mines produced 551,790,563 tons, or nearly 10 per cent more than the output of the year before. The anthracite output was 99,611,811 net tons, an increase over 1916 of 13.7 per cent. The total output of both hard and soft coal was thus over 650,000,000 tons.

This record output was accomplished by a labor force of 603,143 men in the bituminous and 154,174 in the anthracite mines. In spite of the draft the number of workers in the bituminous industry was greater in 1917 than in 1916.

Many Tales Concerning Fishes.

In the "Arabian Nights" is the well-known tale of the priceless diamond which the fisherman takes from a fish and which, placed on a shelf in a cottage, gives so much light that they are saved all expenditure in oil and which, when sold, makes the family rich forever and forever. In Scandinavian myths is that of the long-lost crown, which the fishes kept down among the rocks till the real heir to the throne came a-fishing, when they rolled it into his net; in Russian, that of Ivan, who finds the all-important ring by the help of the perch—the herrings try to lift the casket to the surface, but fail, and so two dolphins came and put their shoulders to the wheel and the ring is regained.

FEW REALLY UGLY PEOPLE

Many There Are Who May Be Unattractive, but Not a Lot Definitely Ill-Looking.

Looking for beauty in the faces and forms passed on the street is such a fixed habit with people in general that it was a bit startling to hear of a man in London who was looking for some one ugly—the ugliest female, in fact, that he could find. This man was an American theatrical man and he desired the ugliest woman to contrast her in a production with a girl said to be beautiful.

The showman found his ugliest woman after looking over eight contestants. The prize winning "clock-stopper" was thirty-two years old and a music teacher. She entered the contest because her mother told her "there would be no harm in trying." On winning she at once insisted on taking a stage name, as she "did not want all the neighbors to know about it." The runner-up in the contest, whose name was not given out, had an unfortunate nose and an "out-size" in mouths.

The contest really was of concern to the theatrical producer, but it served to impress upon Londoners in general the old truth that few people, after all, are really ugly, that every individual looks good to some one.

Two people, who came upon the advertisement of the ugly contest, began to amuse themselves in the genial way of human nature by examining their friends and acquaintances to discover which of them had the best claim to the job.

To their disappointment, says a writer in the London Telegraph, they could not think of anybody, not even their pet abomination, who was, considered impartially, very ugly. Plain people—oh, yes, hosts of them; disagreeable-looking people—quite a lot; silly-looking people—any amount; but people definitely and conspicuously ugly—not one.

VANISHED WITH THE BUFFALO

Few Left of the Pronghorn Antelope, That Once Roamed the Plains in Vast Numbers.

Next to the buffalo, the most numerous animal in the United States not more than 50 years ago was the pronghorn antelope. About half the size of a deer, but a bit more compactly built, it ranged the plains from the Missouri river westward to the Pacific in places.

Antelopes were dry-country animals, and were always found wherever sagebrush, bunch grass and the short, curly buffalo grass existed. Their favorite range was the plains country just east of the Rocky mountains, where they migrated with the seasons, from Alberta to Mexico, and between the Rocky and the west coast ranges from the Big Bend of the Columbia in Washington, southward to the Gulf of California and the Mexican west coast. It was the best runner of all the plains animals, and had endurance for long-distance running, being well able to take care of itself when in danger. Its meat is not very attractive to the white man's palate, being stringy, tough and dry, and having somewhat the taste of goat meat. Some are still found, but only in widely scattered areas.

Fishes Figure in Miracles.

There are many legends paralleling the Gospel story of Peter's finding the piece of money in the fish's mouth.

St. Benno, bishop of Meissen, in Saxony, on June 16, 1106, left his see and went to Rome to avoid the persecution of Emperor Henry IV and ordered that the keys of his cathedral should be thrown into the sea when Henry was excommunicated. When he returned he found the keys in a fish.

St. Erwin, bishop of Worcester, on January 11, 720, wanted to punish himself for his worldly life when a youth and put fetters on his feet, throwing the key into the sea. On his way back from Rome the seamen caught a huge fish, in whose inner parts was the key, which the saint considered a sign that his penance was abridged and therefore he released himself.

Soap Bubbles Puzzle Dog.

A humorous happening is to get a dog to chase soap bubbles. He will be highly interested if one is placed on the floor, and if the breeze forces it to move he will follow it, keeping a respectful distance, however, at first. After several bubbles are blown he will gradually draw closer and very soon will touch his nose to one of them. Then is when a genuine look of astonishment comes over his face as the bubble vanishes and perhaps he gets a tiny bit of soap in his eye. The dog gives ample evidence of his perplexity whenever he sees anything that excites his curiosity, for who of us has not seen them pucker up their foreheads and stare in a quizzical manner at something they had not seen before?

Reason for Snake's Hissing.

The hissing of a snake is caused by the long, sac-like lung being inflated with air, which is forcibly expelled through the glottis and nostrils. The puff edder makes the loudest and most prolonged hiss of any snake. When alarmed, snakes hiss with the object of frightening off their enemies. If snakes were not able to make their presence known they would be frequently trodden upon and injured by the various creatures of veldt, forest and mountain.
