

No. 1 In Nation To Agriculture For Service

Eddie Braswell Receives ASCS National Award

Mitchell County's manager for Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Service is the national winner for distinguished service to agriculture among ASCS employees.

Eddie Braswell will receive the award Friday in Grand Rapids, Mich., at convention of National Association of ASCS County Office Employees.

The award is presented annually by the association to an ASCS employee who has best served the interests of agriculture and agriculture's citizenship.

One day earlier, Thursday afternoon, in Grand Rapids Civic Auditorium Braswell will be presented the association's South Central Area Award for the same distinguished service to agriculture.

The Texas award, first in the series of outstanding achievements for the Colorado City agriculture, church and civic leader, will be presented Braswell in Dallas Nov. 1.

Braswell and his family will leave Monday or Tuesday for Michigan to receive the area and national awards. He was notified of his honors this week by Raymond Vanderhorst of Oskaloosa, Ia., president of the National Association of ASCS County Office Employees.

The Mitchell County manager was nominated by fellow employees in this West Texas area for the service award. His nomination first was submitted for the statewide honor, then to the multi-state South Central Area competition and then to national.

His association cited a long list of meritorious achievements on the job and in job related programs in addition to outstanding community citizenship and leadership.

Braswell's performance within the ASCS setup, his pioneering of new techniques and systems beneficial to the local farmer and rancher, his communication and leadership which resulted in understanding and superior cooperation from the agricultural industry are among the prime citations for his achievement.

This has resulted in progress for the farm and has created a Mitchell County agricultural industry and public which is aware of the needs for efficient farm programs, the association pointed out.

Braswell's knowledge, interest and extraordinary service to agriculture included the development of new ASCS procedure now used throughout the state for late reports of destroyed cotton which assist the local county to maintain production. And he has led in the utilization of production records for setting of cotton yields for individual farms.

Several emergency programs for Mitchell County are credited greatly to his initiative. These include emergency feed, grazing and hay programs of 1963-64 emergency Agricultural Conservation Practice findings of $77,000 for 1966-67 and the just announced emergency ACP program for the current year -- all designed to assist localized farmers hard hit by either extensive dry weather or extraordinary water damage.

His service has extended far beyond the walls of his ASCS See BRASWELL Page 10

Amendments Due Light Vote Here

Light voting is expected Tuesday when Mitchell County citizens go to the polls with all of Texas to decide the fate of nine proposed state constitutional amendments.

Courthouse observers predict the amendments will attract probably no more than 1,250 voters to the county's seven boxes.

Indicative of the small turnout is the absentee balloting with only 18 listed Friday.

Increasing interest in proposed amendments No. 2 and No. 5 -- the Texas Water Development program through bond financing, and the proposal for increasing state funds for public assistance payments -- is the may spur locally for balloting.

However, campaigns for both amendments -- generally considered to be supported by this area -- has been informal and with emphasis mostly on individuals writing opinions in letters to newspaper editors.

Other amendments to be decided in the election will have to do with salaries of the legislature, lieutenant governor and speaker of the house and also whether the Texas Legislature changes to annual sessions rather than the 2-year plan.

Polls in Mitchell County will open at 8 a.m. Tuesday and close at 7 p.m. at these locations:

Courthouse -- for Voting Precinct No. 1 in Commissioner Precinct 1.

Civic House - Voting Precinct 8 in Commissioner Precinct 3.

Loraine Lions Club -- Voting Precinct 7 in Commissioner Precinct 4.

Westbrook Agriculture Building -- Voting Precinct 2 in Commissioner Precinct 2.

Cuthbert - Fairview Church

Sunday School Room -- Voting Precinct 5 in Commissioner Precinct 2.

Buford Methodist Church Log Cabin -- Voting Precinct No. 13 in Commissioner Precinct 1.

Voters will mark either FOR or AGAINST on a ballot which lists the proposed amendments as follows:

1. The constitutional amendment to repeal the obsolete, superfluous and unnecessary sections of the Constitution.

2. The constitutional amendment broadening the powers of the Texas Water Development Board and the purposes of the Texas Water Development Fund; eliminating the interest limitations on Texas Water Development Bonds; raising the authorized amount of Texas Water Development Bonds by $3,500,000,000; extending the maturity schedule on Texas Water Development Bonds; eliminating the procedures for curtailment and the curtailment date of financial assistance to be provided by the Texas Water Development Board.

3. The constitutional amendment providing that the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall receive a salary fixed by the Legislature not to exceed one-half the salary of the Governor; providing that the Legislature shall fix the salary of the other members, not to exceed that received by a district judge from state funds; and removing the 120-day limitation on per diem for regular sessions.

4. The constitutional amendment to exempt nonprofit water supply corporations from taxation.

5. The constitutional amendment providing for assistance to and/or medical care on behalf of the needy aged, the needy blind, the needy disabled, and the needy dependent children and their caretakers; establish See AMENDMENTS Page 8

Rites Conducted For Alton Myers

Funeral service was conducted Saturday afternoon for Alton D. Myers, prominent businessman, church and civic worker, who died unexpectedly Thursday night.

The 55-year-old owner of Myers Auto Parts and past president of Kiwanis succumbed at 10:40 p.m. in Root Memorial Hospital after being stricken with an apparent heart attack about 30 minutes earlier.

He was at home when he became ill.

Myers, who had been in business here since 1950, had been prominent in numerous areas of community life during the 19 year span.

He was a charter member and one of the leaders in the organization and building of Calvary Baptist Church, where he still served as a deacon at the time of his death.

In addition to his Kiwanis service, he has worked with Chamber of Commerce programs, been an active and ardent supporter of Little League baseball and bowling teams.

Myers was born April 7, 1914, in Hunt County and married Maurine Cloninger in Hugo, Okla., in 1933.

Funeral service was conducted in Calvary Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Saturday with Rev. Jim Carraway of Shreveport, La., pastor of the church when it was organized, officiating. Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery under direction of Kiker & Son.

Survivors include his wife of the home address, 1431 Watson; his mother, Mrs. Della Myers, also of Colorado City; two nephews and a niece -- David, James and Sherry Myers -- who are being reared in the Myers home; a sister, Mrs. Herbert Shead of Tulsa, Okla., three brothers -- Dewitt Myers of Colorado City, Dennis Myers of Commerce and Jack Myers of Greenville.

Emergency Funds To Mitchell

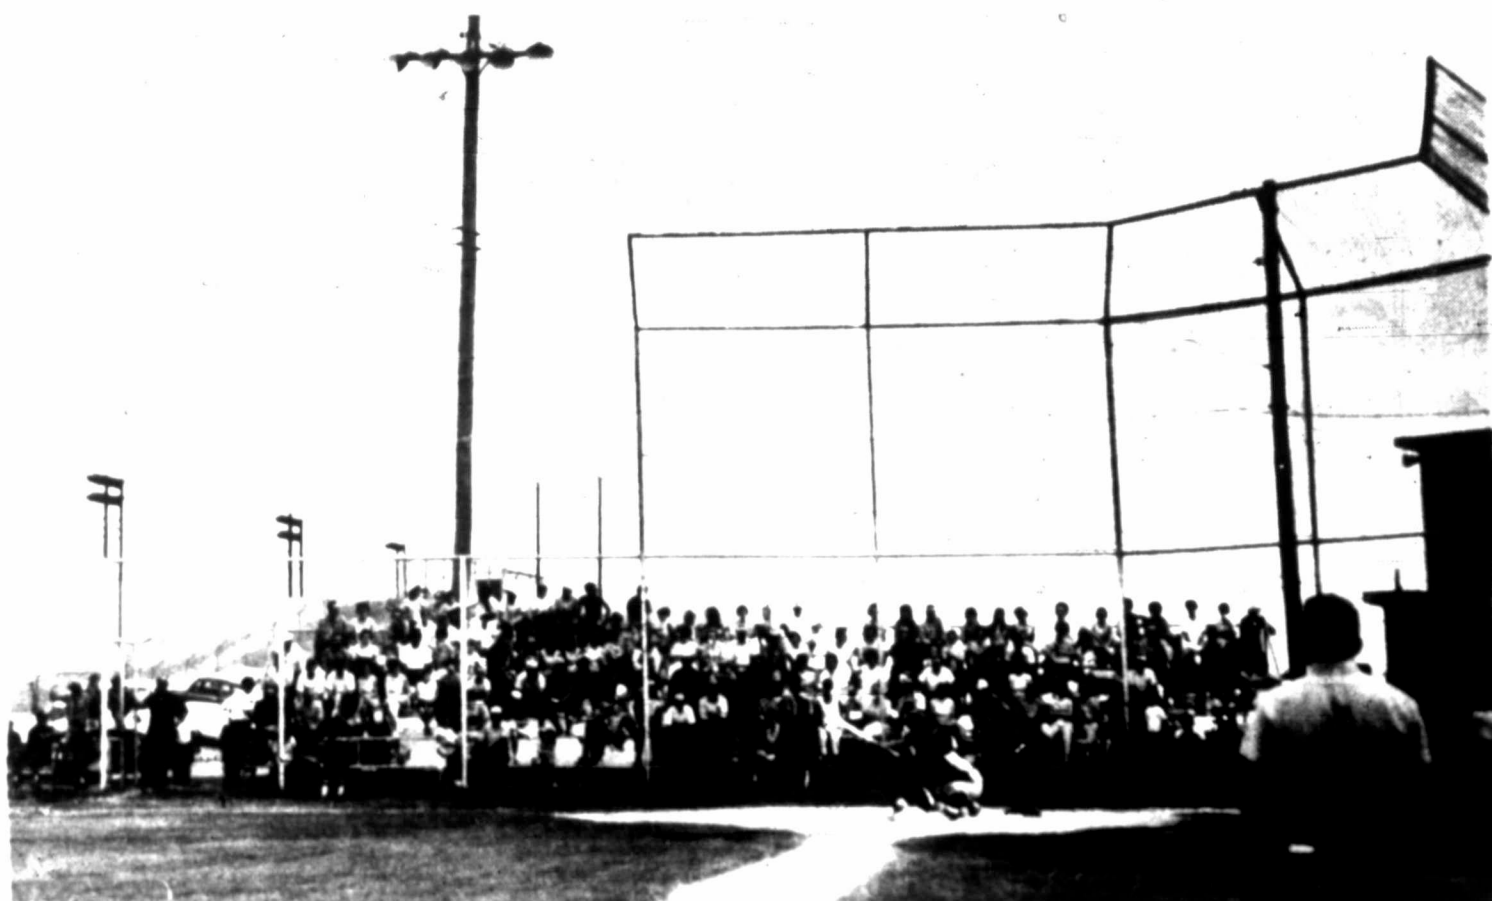

U. S. Department of Agriculture has approved Mitchell County for extra emergency funds for repairing rain and water damaged farm terraces, waterways and ponds.

The money will be administered by the Agricultural Stabilization & Conservation Service through its ACP program.

Notice of the approval had not been received at ASCS office Saturday, but Sen. John Tower announced in Washington that $200,000 had been set aside for emergency help in Mitchell, Scurry, Shackelford, Taylor and Jones counties.

Mitchell's ASCS County Committee applied for the special financing immediately after the heavy rain damage in May. The request, originally asking for $186,000 -- here alone, was approved on state level and sent to Washington for final consideration.

Mitchell's share of the $200,000 earmarked for five counties was not known here Saturday.

Sunset For The Day... And Season

Many viewed the day's end as a fitting sunset Thursday as the fall season began. The day's end was marked by a beautiful sunset over the city.

Lone Wolf Co-op's Annual Meeting

Approximately 2,000 members and guests gathered for the Lone Wolf Co-op's annual meeting at the Civic Center.

The meeting was held in the evening and featured a variety of entertainment, including a band and a dance.

Members were treated to a delicious meal and a variety of prizes were awarded to the winners of a contest.

The meeting was a great success and the members of the Lone Wolf Co-op were very appreciative of the efforts of the staff.

Principal speaker will be Gene Linn Rogers in Central Texas, who operates a 150-acre river bottom farm after a successful 10-year business career.

The meeting in Lone Wolf Co-opatorium will begin at 7 p.m. with registration, door prizes, refreshments served by Ira Future Farmers.

Tijana Rejts from Roscoe will offer 30 minutes of musical entertainment at 7:30, followed by the 8 p.m. business session and Linn's talk.

Special features for the 1969 meeting will be a small enclosed ferris wheel for children and a merry-go-round.

More than $1,500 in prizes -- mostly electrical and household items -- will be awarded at intervals throughout the meeting, according to Martin Murphy, president of Lone Wolf's board of directors.

Members will elect two new directors with a ballot listing four nominees -- two for each place on the co-op board to be decided.

Nominees for Area 2's board place are Roscoe Hudgins, and Linn Rogers, who operates a 150-acre river bottom farm after a successful 10-year business career.

Farrar Suit Loses In Appellate Court

Court of Civil Appeals has upheld a 32nd District Court decision dismissing a legal suit by Charles Nichol (Nick) Farrar against Colorado Independent School District and its superintendent, James G. McMath.

It ruled that Farrar should resort first to avenues of appeal with school authorities before the court will entertain jurisdiction of a complaint.

Farrar, former school tax assessor-collector, filed suit in 32nd District Court after he was not retained in his $5,400 school job in 1967.

He alleged that he was wrongfully "fired" by the board and, therefore, had suffered $10,800 actual damages and was entitled to recover $5,000 exemplary damages.

School district, however, contended that Farrar did not have a valid legal contract and that he refused to accept a contract tendered him.

Judge Joe Dibrell of Coleman, sitting on the 32nd Court bench for Judge Austin McCloud, decided that the district court lacks jurisdiction to hear and determine the merits of the controversy and granted the school plea for dismissal.

It was this decision which prompted the appeal by Attorney

Dell Barber on behalf of Farrar before Court of Civil Appeals.

The plaintiff in his appeal contended that the lower court erred in dismissing the action which the schools claimed should have first been submitted to the State Commissioner of Education in Austin. In addition, Farrar asserted his pleadings in the district court allege a cause of action involving purely a question of law and not of fact, and that the trial court therefore had jurisdiction of the case.

Associate Justice Collins wrote that "It is well settled that an employee of a school See SUIT Page 10

Million To Landowners

From County's $9.7 Million Oil, Gas

Mitchell County oil and gas wells pumped to 9.7 million dollar industry in last year, according to a study released by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Value of production from oil wells was 9.5 million dollars, $168,000, based on the most recent U. S. Bureau of Mines figures compiled by the association. Mitchell County ranked 100th in the state in value of production.

Last year, the county produced 3.3 million barrels of crude oil and 1.3 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

Of this total, Mitchell County landowners and others with mineral interests received royalty payments of $1.2 million.

The state received $451,000 in production taxes with crude oil accounting for $439,000 and natural gas $12,000.

Drilling expenditures were an estimated $1.6 million. Of the 21 wells drilled in the county, 13 were completed as oil wells, according to Ira Rinehart's Yearbook. The dry holes cost $801,001. There were 10 wildcats drilled.

The Texas Employment Commission lists 108 workers on oil and gas payroll, which totaled $564,000.

Letters to the Editor

July 28, 1969

Dear Editor:

May I have a little space in your letters to the editor section to bring before the voters of Texas a subject that is not a pleasant one? It is one that we have pushed aside too long -- so long, in fact, that we have almost reached the point of no return as far as thousands of elderly people in our state are concerned.

In Texas, we have over a quarter of a million old age pensioners trying to live on an average grant of $58.96 a month. Many of us spend more than that on one fishing trip or an out of town football weekend. It is hard to enjoy these things knowing that others live a whole month on this amount. That is, they try to live on this amount.

On Aug. 5 Amendment 5 must pass so that this $58.96 will not be cut and our loved ones receiving old age benefits suffer more. Unless this amendment passes, according to reports, Texas will lose 56 million dollars in Federal money which will go to other states for the purpose of helping those less fortunate.

Thank you for this space, and I urge all voters to work for and vote for Amendment 5 on August 5.

Sincerely,

Myrtle Edwards

Dear Editor:

This next Tuesday on August 5 an election state wide is to be held whereby the people of Texas will vote on Constitutional Amendments.

Amendment # 5 deserves special consideration by the people because it is so important to those of our society who are less fortunate. Less fortunate because they are blind. Less fortunate because they are disabled. Less fortunate because they have lived too long? The people of Texas and our nation are known for their compassion and concern for the less fortunate. Let us continue this.

Presently, those in Texas on old age pensions receive an average of $58.96 a month. Grants to the blind average just $71.71 a month and the totally disabled receive $59.74 a month. Texas ranks near the bottom of the list of states in payment to old age pensioners. These payments

Berkman On District Program

Dr. Elton Berkman will present a report of public health committee activities in District VII during a district meeting of Texas State Chiropractic Association Sunday (today) in Abilene.

Dr. John H. Smith of San Antonio, will be principal speaker for a buffet luncheon in Starlite Motor Inn.

Dr. Smith Saturday conducted a Seminar on Advanced Kinesiology in Starlite's Jade Room.

The seminar was the second study taught by Dr. Smith in Abilene. He is a graduate of Texas Chiropractic College and has done research of Kinesiology technique with Dr. George Goodheart of Detroit.

The seminar was sponsored by Abilene Research Unit of Abilene Chiropractic Association.

Mrs. Ralph Perkins will report on the "Try Walking campaign sponsored by District VII and Women's Auxiliary of district VII."

CONVERSATION CORNER

BEEN meaning to say ever since the Chiropractic Association began sponsoring their "Try Walking" health campaign that there's one thing about it that tickles me pink.

And that is the sight of a sleek new 1969 model automobile zooming by with the green sticker on bumper or rear glass saying "Try Walking."

It gives me the giggles every time because it strikes me as an inconsistent suggestion for a driver breezing along at 70 miles per hour.

It might even be construed as the raspberry for older and slower traffic.

SOMETIMES you see, too, the "Try Walking" challenge on a beatup pickup truck chugging along the middle on the highway at nine or ten miles an hour.

That's funny, too. Only in that case the pickup driver always seem to have taken the slogan to heart and is doing the next best thing to walking and may try walking any minute.

NOW this is not to infer that there is anything a-tall amusing about the walking for better health campaign.

The slogan itself is not funny. It is offered as a public reminder and in good faith by nice people like Dr. Virginia and Dr. Elton Berkman and their associate Dr. William Pattillo.

It's just that it strikes my funny bone when that slogan shows up on wheels.

Spied it on a shining limousine, complete with uniformed chauffeur no less, in the Highland Park area at Dallas. Caught a glimpse of it on a bright blue convertible, top down and teenage locks blowing in the wind, as it streaked by near Weatherford.

Saw it again on the toll road between Ft. Worth and Big D, this time on a deserted station wagon with the hood raised to signal for help.

WALKING goes on every evening here in C-City for reasons of health and relaxing the tensions.

Any number of heart patients try walking around here—mostly after they've driven themselves home from work. Take a drive late in the day and you'll see couples strolling along or jogging alone.

Several groups of young wives make a practice of "going walking" together. Don't offer them a ride. They LIKE to try walking.

It's all a splendid and perfectly sound habit for the young and healthy or would-be-healthier. But have yet to see anybody actually on foot wearing or carrying the emblem of the crusade, "Try Walking."

WALKING is just not for everybody. There is a big group of us in the "Walkers Retired" bracket.

We are the ones who used to walk the baby night after night, developing ballet muscles in the process.

We are the ones who walked to and from school, church, and all day picnics. We grew up in the occasional walk home from a date era.

We are the ones who have walked thousands of miles between the stove, the refrigerator, and the dining table year after year.

We are the ones who did try walking as a necessity, not necessarily a joy.

We are the ones who know from experience. Sitting down is more fun than walking. Lying down is more fun than sitting. And riding is most fun of all. It's not only faster, it's air-conditioned.

PAT NIXON, beautiful blond wife of the President, was riding along in a Rolls-Royce in India, of all places, when the Rolls' air-conditioner failed.

Every newscaster on the air had fun saying that the gracious First Lady "lost her cool."

It is not very likely that she saw any "Try Walking" stickers in New Delhi. So she stayed in her limousine. Am strictly on her side.

SEEN LATELYS here include this time Inez (Mrs. Graydon) Howell who was saying she spent most of her July vacation sensibly lying down and resting. She did go visit her son and his family in Ft. Worth.

Saw Eddie Piland, too, sorta chewing on a cigar. He's at war with the cigarette habit, he says.

Mary Anne McCloud, wife of District Judge Austin McCloud, was looking cool, slender and entirely beautiful in a white summer frock and sandals. Elizabeth (Mrs. Lewis) Elliott was strolling down Second St. in the morning.

Spied the Jess Craddocks, Sr. and their friend Mrs. O. L. Simpson headed for Jim's Truck Town restaurant at the supper hour.

FAMILIAR FACES over in Big Spring's popular Spanish Inn, enjoying Mexican food, were Avilene Hallmark, Margie Currie, Virginia Yeager, all of C-City, and Crispin Hrbacek who lives in Midland now. Avilene discovered the Inn while she was studying in night classes at Howard County Junior College.

That reminds me to say that a drive around HCJC campus might surprise anybody who hasn't tried it lately. It is an attractive, very modern, small campus. No wonder so many C-City students commute to classes there.

Bobby Sparks, son of Wann and Flo and grandson of Lily Sparks, intends to transfer from Sul Ross to HCJC this fall, by the way.

HEAR TELL that Lu Hertenberger (Mrs. Buddy) her daughter Jerry Lyn and son Russell are visiting Lu's mother in Paducah.

That Nick Martinez, his wife Alice and their family have moved back to C-City from San Antonio, Alice's hometown, after two years there. Nick has returned to the City Police Department here as patrolman.

Here, too, that M. C. and Geneva Bynum have been visiting Geneva's mother in the State of Colorado. Geneva's working in the office of the county clerk here now.

And that Marsha and Carl Ginzle, daughter and son of Frank and Betty Ginzle, are visiting Betty's mother in Farr, down in the Rio Grande valley. First Ginzle daughter, Carol is working in a bank at Austin this summer.

Dorothy Jeffrey, wife of City Attorney Jim, and her children Jimmy, Ann, and Tommy, are visiting Dorothy's sisters in Arlington and Irving and Jim's sister in Farmer's Branch, all a part of Greater Dallas. Jim expected to drive to Big D Saturday and bring his family home Sunday—today.

DID YOU KNOW that Montie and G. D. Foster are vacationing in Canada and Alaska?

That Billy Joe Woods, his wife Bernice, and their children are visiting his sisters in the State of Washington? After they, and Joe Clark who went with them, visit Telitha Stokes and Juanita Holby in Washington, Billy Joe et al will visit Disneyland.

Did you know that Rush Moody Jr., former Citian, his wife and their five older children are also visiting Disneyland about now? Rush is an attorney in Midland. He's son of Rush Sr. and Lois Whipkey Moody. And if you're wondering about the "five older Children" bit, the Moodys left the baby in Texas.

THE BRIDGFORDS, Emily and Dr. Dave, left July 24 for Wyoming where they will vacation until about September 1.

They are at the Bridgford family cottage about 30 miles from Sheridan, Wyoming, where Dr. Dave's brother Bruce lives.

Younger brother Edwin, who finished high school here at CHS met his brothers in Wyoming. Edwin lives in Charlotte, North Carolina. Both Edwin and brother Bruce are insurance brokers, says Dr. Bill (Billy Bruce) Bridgford of our town.

Tournament Winners

Mrs. Fla Joyce and Mrs. Bill Ellis of Snyder were winners in a duplicate club tournament Thursday afternoon at Colorado Country Club.

Mrs. Ray Preston of Loraine and Mrs. A. G. Furlow Jr. won second place.

Third place winners were Mrs. E. L. Dorn and Mrs. Clay Smith.

Tying for fourth place were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Coon of Loraine, Mrs. R. P. Ainsworth and Mrs. J. W. Randle.

Five Entries Named Saturday In "Miss Cotton" Contest

First entries in the 1969 Miss Mitchell County Cotton contest were announced this week by sponsoring organizations.

Among the first contestants were four candidates for Miss Cotton and one entry for the Little Miss Cotton contest.

They are Miss Cindy Waldrip, Miss Linda Banks, Miss Terri Stricklin, Miss DeLynn Grisham and five-year-old Robie Ann Raschke.

Miss Waldrip, sponsored by VFW Auxiliary, is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. (Dub) Waldrip of 812 Cedar Street.

The black haired, black eyed beauty was graduated last spring from Colorado High School where she was homecoming queen and cheerleader.

She is enrolled as a fall term freshman at University of Texas at Austin and will be in Austin this week for UT orientation.

Miss Waldrip, one of five children, has been employed at Marshall's Variety this summer. Her hobbies are reading and dancing.

She is five feet, four inches in height.

Miss Banks, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Banks Jr. of 1345 Pine Street, is being sponsored in the contest by Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club.

She is five feet, two inches tall, has brown hair and green eyes.

One of three children in the family, Miss Banks will be a senior in Colorado High next fall. She is a cheerleader and active in various school activities.

She has been employed in the Mitchell County Tax Collector-Assessor's office this summer. Her favorite hobbies are sewing, typing and cheerleading.

Miss Grisham, who will be freshman in Sul Ross University in Alpine this fall, is being sponsored in the pageant by Anthony's.

ROBIE RASCHKE

The charming 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Grisham of 1083 Oak Street is tallest of contestants entered as of Saturday. She stands five feet, seven inches.

Miss Grisham has dark brown hair and green eyes. She likes to water ski and swim. She is one of five children.

Terri Stricklin, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stricklin of 1109 Hickory, is being sponsored in the contest by Eddie's Pharmacy.

Miss Stricklin is 17 years old, has dark brown hair and green eyes. Also one of five children, she is five feet, five inches tall.

She enjoys sewing and dancing. She will be a senior in Colorado High School where last year she was a member of several organizations.

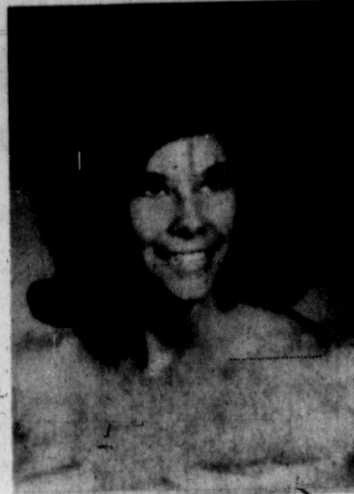

LINDA BANKS

Robie Ann entry in the Little Miss Cotton contest, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Raschke.

Approximately 10 entries are expected for the Saturday evening pageant.

Deadline for entering the contest is Monday with initial meeting of contestants set for Monday evening, according to

DeLYNN GRISHAM

Mrs. Bob Northcutt, pageant director.

Activities for entries will include a get-acquainted luncheon, rehearsal session, a "Miss

CINDY WALDRIP

Cotton Pageant Ball" and an evening of dress rehearsals.

The pageant is being sponsored locally by Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee.

FOR THE YOUNG MAN

One of the more important decisions facing the young man who has just become engaged is that of selecting the engagement diamond. This is one purchase that is really "forever", and if done wisely, will be a joy and not a disappointment. Perhaps I can help in this matter by giving a few tips about diamond values and qualities.

Whether you buy your first diamond from me or elsewhere (and we do have a fine selection), there are certain basics to consider. First of all, determine how much you have to spend on a diamond. An amount of approximately one to two months salary is usually suggested.

Second, learn something of the "four C's" which is the basis for diamond pricing. The American Gem Society Diamond Grading Standards lists them as Cutting, Color, Clarity and Carat Weight. Unless the diamond is scientifically cut and properly polished, the stone lacks brilliance and is greatly reduced in beauty. The finest color in a diamond is pure, crystal white. "Blue White" is a term that is not usually used by ethical jewelers since it is rather misleading.

Clarity is the absence of any internal inclusions which may mar the appearance or the durability of the diamond. A flawless diamond according to FTC regulations, is one that does not show obvious inclusions under ten-power magnification. Minor inclusions may reduce the value of the stone, without harming beauty or durability. All of this is fully explained in some of our free brochures. Stop by soon for further facts.

MRS. RAYMOND GLEN HUTCHINS, nee Carrolle May Hanford.

Carrolle May Hanford Wed To Raymond Glen Hutchins

Miss Carrolle May Hanford of Abilene became the bride of Raymond Glen Hutchins Saturday in a mid-afternoon ceremony in Fairmont Methodist Church in Abilene.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Hanford of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Hutchins of Colorado City.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, pastor of Fairmont Methodist, officiated in double ring vows.

Wedding music included a piano solo, "Theme From Romeo and Juliet," by Miss Mary Pat Pollock of Abilene and a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Miss Brenda Howe of Abilene. Miss Mildred Balch of Abilene was organist.

Church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore an A-line gown of silk organza and pear d'ange lace fashioned with a scalloped jeweled neckline and bell sleeves. The lace cage back extended into a chapel train.

honor. Miss Caroline Hutchins, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Pam Pollock of Abilene were bridesmaids.

Attendants wore blue georgette dresses styled with empire waists and long full sleeves.

They wore headbands of white pom pom chrysanthemums and carried nosegays of white pom poms.

Steve Pouns of Abilene was best man.

Groomsmen were Pat Muckleroy of Abilene and George Schargen II of San Marcos. Serving as ushers were Pat Hanford of Abilene, brother of the bride, and Jim Pouns of Abilene.

Westwood Club in Abilene was setting for the wedding reception.

In the houseparty were Miss Sharon Hutchins of Colorado City, sister of the groom; Miss Frances Hambrick of Abilene, Mrs. L. O. Tatum of Abilene, bride's aunt; Mrs. Sue Luckinbill of Houston, great-aunt of the bride.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Colorado, the bride wore a cinnamon and black dress with a matching jacket. Her attire was complimented by a corsage of bronze pom pom chrysanthemums.

They will be at home in Austin where the bridegroom will continue his education at University of Texas. Both the bride and groom were graduated from Abilene High and attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene and UT at Austin.

The bridegroom is a member of Acacia Fraternity.

W'Brook Coach Accepts Hale Center Position

By MRS. W. A. BELL, Record Correspondent.

WESTBROOK - L. M. (Sam) Scroggins, boys' basketball coach at Westbrook High School for the past six years, has accepted the position of head basketball coach at Hale Center High School.

In compiling a record of 124 wins and 84 losses at Westbrook, Scroggins' team have twice won district championships.

Three other years WHS had runner-up teams.

Last season the Wildcats won first in district with a 31 won, eight loss record. He coached a second team all state player, Robert Chambers, and four all-area boys - Chambers, Don Jarratt, Bo Jackson and Elmer McMahan.

Scroggins coached three years at Klondike High School

Mrs. Scroggins and children will visit her brother, Jeff Smith, in Lewisville while her husband is in Dallas.

prior to joining Westbrook School staff. He is a graduate of Merkel High School, Cisco Junior College and Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

He is married to the former Bette Flo Smith of Merkel. They have two children - Stuart, 9, and Stephanie, 7.

Scroggins will attend annual Texas High School Coaching Association school this week in Dallas.

Highlights of the school will be an all-star basketball game Wednesday night and an all-star football game Thursday evening.

Larry Don Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dawson, returned home Wednesday following a tonsillotomy in Snyder hospital.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Byrd last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Candler and daughter, Joyce, of Monahans.

The Candler son, Steve, who had been a guest of the Byrds, returned home with his parents.

Joining the families for a visit last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George Candler of Colorado City.

"Goodbye, Columbus"

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Klugman (Richard Benjamin and Ali MacGraw) register at a sleazy downtown hotel during Neil's visit to Boston in "Goodbye, Columbus" starting Sunday (today) at Palace Theatre.

3 Local Sites In Camp Guide

Colorado City is listed three times in the new Texas Highway Department publication directing travelers to 350 public campgrounds within the state.

The guide is published to serve the growing popularity of camping and recreational vehicles. It lists only those campgrounds which are operated by tax-supported agencies -- federal, state, county, city and river authorities.

Private commercial facilities are not included in the state guide because that data usually is available in commercial tour and camping directories.

All three of Colorado City's campsites in the Texas guide are on city property at Lake Colorado City, Lake Champion and inside the city at Ruddick Park.

The listings for the city are about on par with surrounding towns, but below the number listed by San Angelo, Snyder and Robert Lee.

Robert Lee has five of the

John Riffes Have Son

WESTBROOK - Mr. and Mrs. John Riffe of Forsan announce the birth of a son, John Marlin, born Wednesday in Big Spring.

The infant weighed seven pounds and one ounce.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Read of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Riffe of near Houston.

district is required to apply to the school authorities for relief before filing his suit."

This does not deprive any party of legal remedy, the opinion continued.

It was further contended by the appellant that minutes of the school board April 10, 1967, and May 9, 1966, constitute a complete contract upon which he is entitled to recover damages.

"We cannot agree with this contention," the appeals court opinion stated. "The minutes of the board provide for a contract of employment in general terms but do not set out in detail the full provisions and terms of a contract of employment including such matters as the amount of the appellant's hours and conditions and numerous other matters common to employment contracts."

"The minutes themselves," the opinion continued, "do not show a complete contract. For appellant to recover the damages prayed for in his pleadings he would need to show additional terms of the claimed contract which are not shown in the minutes. Appellant admits that he refused to sign the contract tendered to him setting out specific terms of employment but states that the tendered contract was not in accordance with the agreement between the parties. All of these matters involve questions material to appellant's right to recover herein, and are questions of fact."

"It thus appears," the opinion stated, "that the pleadings raise questions of fact material to a determination of the controversy as to whether appellant was rightfully or wrongfully discharged, if any contract or employment was entered into."

"Therefore, resort must first be had to school authorities and the method of appeal provided for in such cases exhausted before the courts will entertain jurisdiction of a complaint with reference to such matters."

"The trial court properly sustained appellee's (the school district's) plea to the jurisdiction."
