Oklahoma post office...

Gunman kills 14 early today

EDMOND, Okla. (AP) — A part-time postal worker facing dismissal opened fire in a post office this morning, killing 14 people and wounding at least four before taking his own life, police said.

The gunman, identified by police as Pat Sherrill, 44, was hired last year and was about to be fired, said postal officials in Washington.

Sherrill's body and those of 14 others were found inside the post office and in the back parking lot of the post office after police moved into the one-story brick building about 9 a.m.

It was the nation's worst attack by a lone gunman since a rampage at a McDonald's restaurant in San Ysidro, Calif., on July 18, 1984, left 21 people dead.

Four of the injured were taken to hospitals, where two were listed in critical condition and undergoing surgery.

Police said Sherrill was carrying at least three handguns when he entered the post office through an employees entrance around 6:45 a.m. and opened fire.

Normally, there would be 90 postal workers in the building at that hour, officials said.

Vince Furlong, an eight-year employee of the post office, said he was working at a postal tray at his station when he heard a noise like a firecracker.

"I looked down under my tray and saw one of my good friends hit the floor with blood coming out of him," Furlong said.

Furlong said the gunman had locked some of the doors to the post office.

Q. — Regarding the "retreat" by college administrators, who paid for it, was the trip for education and who was selected to go?

A. — The annual retreat dates back to the creation of WTC. It has been used annually as a long range planning session for college administrators and division chairmen, the only college staffers who attend. As answered earlier, 13 went two weeks ago at an expense of $1,495 paid for by the college.

Mize honors slated

Roger B. Mize--Snyder banker and civic leader for almost 30 years--Thursday will be honored at a joint-civic club luncheon at the Scurry County Coliseum.

A delegation of state officials--headed by Gov. Mark White--will be on hand for the observance of Roger Mize Day.

Tickets for the luncheon are $6 and will be available at the door.

Following the luncheon, a reception in honor of Mize and Gov. White will be hosted by Western Texas College in the Student Center on the WTC campus.

Some 700 persons are expected for the luncheon which will be attended not only by local citizens, but by many friends and business associates of Mize from across the state.

In addition to Gov. White, State Sen. Ray Farabee and State Rep. Steve Carriker are expected to pay honor to Mize.

The Rev. Miller Robinson will serve as master of ceremonies and will introduce special guests. Snyder Mayor Rod Waller will present the proclamation which designates Thursday as Roger Mize Day.

Several presentations are expected including a special award from the local unit of the TSTA for Mize's many years of contribution to the Teachers Retirement System of Texas. Betsy Griffin, president of the local TSTA, will present the award.

Mize is a former chairman of the teacher retirement system board and is currently chairman of the real estate investment advisory committee. Several officials from the state retirement system are also expected to be present Wednesday.

An honorary Texas Ranger award will be presented to Mize by Capt. Gene Powell of Company E, headquartered in Midland.

Also on the program is a longtime friend of the honoree--Austin attorney Edward Clark, a former ambassador to Australia and former Texas secretary of state.

The Rev. Bob Metzger, pastor of the First United Methodist Church, will give the invocation. Jane Womack, music instructor at WTC, will sing "God Bless America." Dinner music will be provided by Mrs. Earl Watts.

Steering committee members noted that serving will begin promptly at 11:45 a.m. and the program will be concluded by 1 p.m.

ISD drop forecast 'slight'

As the day to register for elementary classes passed here Tuesday, Snyder school officials say they are watching this year's enrollment much closer than previous years and predicted a "slight" decrease in student numbers this fall.

Assistant Superintendent Jack Gorman cautioned that it is never certain until classes actually start, but he offered an early prediction Wednesday for the downward trend in students.

If the elementary enrollment does decrease, it will mark the first loss in student numbers for

In Brief

Crime is up

AUSTIN (AP) — Statistics compiled for the first half of 1986 showed an increase in both the crime rate and the total number of crimes committed in Texas, the Department of Public Safety said today.

Col. Jim Adams, DPS director, said the crime rate for the first six months of the year was up 15.8 percent to 3,604 crimes per 100,000 people.

The volume of crimes for the same period was 589,985, an increase of 18.6 percent compared to the first half of 1985, Adams said.

Adams said all seven major crime categories saw increases — murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, theft and motor vehicle theft.

"Robbery showed the largest increase in the violent crime listings, increasing 34.6 percent," Adams said.

Man gagged

HOUSTON (AP) — A defendant would not remain quiet during a court hearing, so the judge ordered him handcuffed to a chair and his mouth sealed with a sanitary napkin and duct tape.

Christopher Masters, 22, was first ordered gagged by Visiting State District Judge Neil Daniel of Abilene after he refused to be quiet during a pretrial hearing Monday.

Masters ignored repeated warnings to remain silent and berated the judge, prosecutor Carol Davies and even his own attorney.

"He just won't shut up," Ms. Davies said. "He was being totally disruptive. He kept jumping up and interrupting and yelling and refusing to comply with the procedure of the court."

Daniel finally ordered Masters gagged, and a man's tie was wrapped around the defendant's head and mouth. Masters ripped that off and kept talking, so bailiffs tried tape, and finally had to handcuff Masters to restrain him, Ms. Davies said.

Sale to liquidate McKanna estate

The doors of the late Edith Whatley McKanna's Rock Ledge Farm south of Fluvanna will be opened at 9 a.m. Thursday for a four day sale aimed at liquidating the estate.

Mrs. McKanna died March 26. The proceeds from the sale will become part of the estate willed to the Western Texas College Scholarship Foundation, the First Presbyterian Church of Snyder, The Ranching Heritage Association in Lubbock and the Texas Tech Medical Foundation.

Each of the four entities is to receive a one-quarter share of the estate's assets.

To be sold are the contents of the McKanna home and three other houses on the farm.

Items offered range from common kitchen items to fine china, crystal, linens, silver and furniture.

Included in sale are over 200 pieces of wrought iron lawn furniture as well as Mrs. McKanna's large collection of oriental art and antiques.

Several horse drawn wagons and buggies as well as associated tack will also be sold.

Landscape plans ok'd by chamber

Chamber directors approved a scaled down landscaping project for the chamber grounds Tuesday during the regular August meeting of the board.

The estimated expense for the work is not expected to exceed $1,500, the board was told.

At the July chamber meeting, the board voted to postpone any plans to install an underground irrigation system at the chamber building.

Tuesday, however, they decided to proceed with plans to remove gravel located east of the building and to replace this with a 3 ft. wide sidewalk running north and south.

In addition, plans are to pull up shrubs around the chamber building which have become overgrown.

With the exception of laying the sidewalk, the work is expected to be done with volunteer help, noted Chamber Manager Mort Ewing.

At Tuesday's meeting, the board also heard reports regarding the recently completed AJRA National Finals Rodeo, the Ranch Breakfast held Tuesday morning and a planned new teacher reception scheduled for 4 p.m. next Monday at Willow Park Inn.

In addition, Chamber President Jack Denman noted that

School board at Ira finalizes new budget

Ira School trustees approved a $986,809 budget for the 1986-87 school year during their regular August meeting Monday night. The budget figure includes a bond payment of $141,925. It also represents a significant decrease from last year's budget which was in excess of $1 million.

According to Jay Martin, superintendent and principal, "budgets in all areas were cut."

Trustees will wait until September and the close of the special session in Austin before setting the tax rate.

Trustees also turned down an offer for additional liability insurance. In other business two student transfer requests were approved and trustees informed Martin that one bus route was to be cut if possible. Martin said this action was prompted by the fact that one route has very few students on it and other arrangements were going to be made for getting them to school.

Martin was also appointed the text book custodian. Trustees also approved a travel request submitted by Barry Ezra. Ezra, a 1985 Ira graduate, will receive his American Farmer's Degree in Kansas City, Mo. and the board okayed the travel expenses for both Ezra and Richard Long, the vocational agriculture instructor.

Troy Lily's resignation as science teacher was accepted and Lynda Fronenberger and David Brown were hired.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Laughter is like changing a baby's diaper. It doesn't permanently solve a problem, but it makes things temporarily more bearable."

Tomorrow is Roger Mize Day, and a story about a banker and a past due bill seems appropriate.

Many these days are having problems trying to satisfy their financial obligations. The banker was trying to collect an overdue personal note from an oilman who had, until just a few months ago, been on a roll.

The banker received no response from his by-mail reminders. He was having absolutely no luck reaching him by telephone.

Finally, in desperation, the banker mailed a photograph of his 9-year-old daughter to the oilman with a scribbled plea: "This is the reason I need the money."

That drew a response. The oilman sent the banker a photo of a gorgeous young woman in a bikini, along with a note of explanation. "This is why I can't pay."

Oilmen and farmer stories are plentiful these days.

There's one about the two near-bankrupt farmers who were lamenting their plight over the fence one day.

"I'm about to go broke," sighed one farmer.

"You think you've got it bad," countered the other. "I got some really bad news last week--they've discovered oil on my property."

We noticed where everybody in Washington is hailing the tax reform bill as a "great victory for the American people."

It makes us nervous. Just about the time we get one set of rules figured out, they change 'em.

Plus, history plays a part in our skepticism. We also remember the federal paper work reduction act, we remember the income tax simplification act, and we remember that famous old line, "Hi, I'm from the federal government and I'm here to help you."

TV show site is to move

DALLAS (AP) — Managers of InterFirst Plaza, the city's tallest skyscraper, want to play host to oil industry mayhem, so they've asked J.R. Ewing to conduct it from their building.

Officials said Monday that when the new season of CBS-TV's evening soap opera "Dallas" opens, the office scenes will be shot in their new building.

The show's producer, Lorimar-Telepictures, had used the nearby InterFirst II building since the show began running in 1978. But the skyscraper is being renovated and is unsuitable for filming because of scaffolding.

Officials with Bramalea Ltd., owners of the InterFirst Plaza, said they grabbed the opportunity to play host to the televised mayhem of the Ewing Oil Co.

"We figured since we had the tallest office building in Dallas, J.R. ought to be in it," said Bramalea spokeswoman Gayden Scott.

Bramalea began wooing Lorimar's location managers more than a year ago while the 70-story building was still under construction, said Doug Salter, head of the company's Dallas office.

He said eight company officials managed to get invitations to the end of the season party for the cast and crew of the show.

"My wife even danced with Larry Hagman," Salter said. Hagman plays the conniving J.R., the oldest son of the Ewing clan.

Hance defends Clements

AUSTIN (AP) — In apparently softening his pledge to veto any tax increase, former Gov. Bill Clements is only being realistic, says Kent Hance, who lost the GOP gubernatorial nomination to Clements.

"You're being picky on him," Hance told a news conference Tuesday.

"Bill Clements is trying to take the responsible position. He's against taxes, he doesn't want a tax bill. He's leaving that opening just in case something happens (economically) that would be extremely difficult," said Hance, now honorary chairman of Clements' campaign.

Hance, touring the state to boost Clements' bid against Democratic incumbent Mark White, said he thought all the attention being given Clements' recent tax comments was unnecessary.

"I think it's a big to-do about, really, nothing," Hance said.

In an interview published Monday, Clements appeared to back away from his oft-made pledge to veto any new taxes if elected. In the interview, he said it would be "nonsense" to make such a promise now.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your pleasing manner will evoke a warm response from those with whom you deal today. It pays to be charming.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Rewards for work well done will be better than usual today, not just in the material sense, but in additional ways as well. Do your best.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You are much more popular at this time with your peers than you may realize. Even persons you feel don't like you are saying kind things about you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your greatest enjoyment today will be the hours you spend with people you truly like. Schedule something that includes those close to your heart.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Give important communications top priority today. You'll have luck reaching people you couldn't get in touch with before.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Two friends who are looking out for your interests may give you information today that could save you all money.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Good things will happen today as long as you keep a tight grip on operations. Don't delegate important responsibilities.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Something with far-reaching, fortunate effects may occur for you today. However, you're not apt to be totally aware of all its ramifications right now.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Today you will be well-received by the very same people who have been treating you indifferently lately. Don't resurrect the past.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Have faith in your abilities today and set your sights higher than usual. Lady Luck will help further your aims if your attitude is positive.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Someone who has successfully solved a problem like one you now face can provide you with a solution.

The cue-bid told all

The Michaels cue-bid usually shows five cards in both major suits when used over an opponent's minor suit opening. In today's deal the use of the bid impelled South into a precarious contract that was made with an overtrick because of the information given by the opposing bidding.

South should have passed three clubs. When his three-diamond bid was raised to four, however, it was OK to go on to five, and declarer justified the bidding by the play. South considered it likely that West held a singleton diamond. To guard against that card being the king, he tabled the diamond ace at trick two. Next he played A-K-Q of clubs, while shedding a spade, and ruffed a club. He now took the spade ace, ruffed a heart in dummy, and ruffed a spade in his hand. When he ruffed another heart with dummy's trump 10, he was left with the Q-8 of diamonds and a losing heart. East was holding the J-9-5 of diamonds. When a black card was played, East could ruff with the five, in which case declarer would score the eight. If East trumped in with the nine, declarer would simply shed his heart, leaving the Q-8 of diamonds to make two tricks over East's jack and five. Note that if West's singleton diamond had not been the king, the play would go the same way, but declarer would now make only 11 tricks.

Belt study blasted

DALLAS (AP) — The president of an emergency physicians' group said Tuesday that a government agency's study indicating lap safety belts sometimes contribute to injuries was ill-advised and sends the public mixed signals.

Dr. Richard Stennes, president of the American College of Emergency Physicians, said the National Transportation Safety Board acted hastily in releasing a report this month that indicated lap safety belts worn by backseat passengers contribute to injuries in automobile accidents.

"Our concern now is that the NTSB has come out with a suggestion that lap belts in the back seats of the cars may make things worse rather than better," Stennes said.

Stennes said the board drew conclusions from sparse research and gave the public mixed signals on whether to wear the lap safety belts.

Mayor fires 150 trash collectors

HOUSTON (AP) — Police were called in to escort garbage trucks on their rounds today after city officials warned that more trash collectors could be fired if they continue to stay off the job in a wildcat strike.

Mayor Kathy Whitmire fired about 150 workers who returned to their jobs Tuesday but refused to work, said spokeswoman Joanne Adams. Others who continue to call in sick or fail to report to work also could be fired, she said.

Tuesday's terminations were the first in the protest that began Monday and concerns increased workloads caused by worker layoffs.

Police escorts for garbage trucks were ordered today in an effort to prevent possible confrontations between workers and those participating in the wildcat strike, Ms. Adams said.

"We'll see how many (workers) we can get out that way," she said.

Kids clothes may change color

ASHEBORO, N.C. (AP) — Traditionally, color markers and children's clothes can create extra headaches for mothers on washday.

But among fashion notes for youngsters this year is a shirt that comes in a package that includes a set of four felt-tipped markers with colors selected according to the design on the shirt.

According to the manufacturer, the markers are water soluable, so the shirt can be colored, worn, washed and colored repeatedly with no fear of damage to the shirt or to other clothes when washed together.

Popular designs and characters, selected for appeal to appropriate ages and sex are outlined on the garments.

"We wanted to create both a useful apparel item and one which would provide children with a creative outlet," explains Lee Klinetobe, president of Stedman Corp., of Asheboro. He says the shirts are designed for boys and girls aged 4 through 10.

Randy Lynn Woolls...

Convicted killer is executed

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — A man who beat, slashed and burned a drive-in movie cashier to death was executed early Wednesday after the U.S. Supreme Court and the governor rejected last-minute appeals.

Randy Lynn Woolls, whose arms were tattooed with symbols of death and drug abuse, died by injection at 12:23 a.m., said Attorney General Jim Mattox.

"I'd like to say goodbye to my family, I love all of them," Woolls said just before the needle was inserted.

"I'd like to tell the people fighting against the death penalty to continue their work," he said. "I'd like to say I'm sorry for the victim and the family and I wish there was something I could do to make it all right."

Woolls, 36, blamed drugs for his repeated trouble with the law, including the 1979 slaying of Betty Stotts.

Woolls' lawyer, George Scharman, took the case to the Supreme Court on Tuesday after the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals rejected motions last week. Scharman challenged the exclusion of jurors opposed to the death penalty and claimed the jury failed to understand reasonable doubt.

The Supreme Court rejected the request for a stay by a 7-2 vote. Justices William J. Brennan and Thurgood Marshall, opponents of capital punishment in all circumstances, voted to spare Woolls.

After the Supreme Court ruling, Gov. Mark White rejected an appeal for a reprieve.

"I guess it's showtime," Woolls said when assistant warden Robert Ott informed him of the Supreme Court ruling.

At midday, Woolls was taken by van the 15 miles from the Texas Department of Corrections Ellis Unit to the Walls Unit, which houses the death chamber.

"He appeared to be somewhat nervous," said prison spokesman Charles Brown.

Woolls ordered a final meal of two cheeseburgers, French fries and iced tea. He designated two of his cousins to witness the execution, Brown said.

Woolls, a ninth-grade dropout, said he was introduced to drugs about age 13. Drug use was responsible for each of his three prison sentences, he said.

"My whole complaint is that I'm being executed for a crime I can't remember committing," he said. "I was flipped out on drugs."

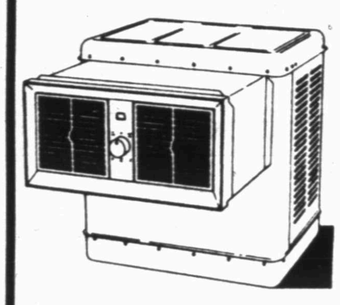

He said he had injected himself at least 40 times with Valium stolen from a veterinary clinic before killing Mrs. Stotts.

"I don't know what's supposed to be done with me. I don't know whether I deserve a life sentence. I feel death is a little severe for something that was a mistake," he said.

Mrs. Stotts, 44, was collecting ticket money at the Kerrville drive-in on June 16, 1979, when she was killed.

Stool tests are highly accurate

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT — How useful and accurate are tests that detect blood in the stool? What does blood in the stool look like?

DEAR READER — Modern tests for blood in the stool are highly sensitive. They can detect small quantities of blood. In fact, they are so sensitive that they can show a positive reaction in some people who have eaten red meat the day before the stool analysis was obtained.

Blood from the upper intestine, including the stomach, often will color the stool black. Doctors refer to this as "tarry stool," and the description is accurate. The blood turns black because it is digested before it is expelled.

Bleeding from the lower intestine is often red. Bright-red bleeding can be seen in diseases of the colon and rectum, including hemorrhoids.

Sometimes the blood is a mid-range color. Doctors call this the "port-wine stool" and it may reflect bleeding from the small intestine or upper colon.

Small amounts of blood may be invisible to the naked eye. Tiny quantities of bloody leakage from polyps or small cancers may become diluted by and mixed with the stool so that no discoloration is noticeable. In such cases, the chemical stool-blood analyses become extremely useful. For this reason, many doctors are now urging patients over 50 to have regular screening tests for blood in the stool. The tests are cheap, reliable, safe and easy.

DEAR DR. GOTT — Does cigar smoking do as much damage as cigarette smoking?

DEAR READER — Tobacco is tobacco; it's dangerous whether it is smoked, sniffed or chewed. Cigar and pipe smokers generally don't inhale, so they are statistically at less risk than are cigarette smokers. However, cigar and pipe smoke, when inhaled, can do as much harm as the cigarette variety. Non-cigarette tobacco users have an additional problem: an increased incidence of lip, mouth and throat cancer.

DEAR DR. GOTT — My daughter gets migraine headaches that her doctors say are the worst they've seen. Do you have any suggestions? No drugs seem to ease the pain.

DEAR READER — Some forms of migraine seem to be triggered by stress, temperature change and certain foods. Your daughter might have to experiment a bit to determine if these factors are contributing to her headaches. In addition, many patients can reduce the severity and frequency of attacks by taking the prescription medicine propanalol. Finally, your daughter might be helped by a referral to the headache clinic at a teaching hospital. Ask her doctor about this.

DEAR DR. GOTT — What is alopecia areata and what causes it?

DEAR READER — Alopecia areata is a disease of unknown cause that is characterized by round patches of baldness on the head and other body areas. Although the condition can clear up within a year, it tends to recur.

Dr. Gott's new Health Report on weight loss tells you how to lose weight wisely — and keep it off. For your copy, send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 2597, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to ask for WINNING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE.

The secret is out. According to the Peanut Advisory Board, adults consume almost 50 percent of the peanut butter eaten each year. In fact, 95 percent of all households — whether children are present or not — have peanut butter in the cupboards.

Dear Abby

Patrons Who Don't Speak Out Can't Be Mad If Others Shout

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1986 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: What can you do for those of us who find ourselves being "robbed" in a new way? In the last two weeks, I've been to a concert, a movie, a Protestant wedding and to my own place of worship — a Catholic Mass. I was robbed.

The worst was in church, where I found it necessary to pray fervently the entire time to keep from behaving in an uncharitable manner that would have been at odds with the very purpose of attending church. In each instance, I was seated near people who whispered, talked and giggled with an utter disregard for those around them.

I protested once in the movies and once at a concert to the noisemakers who robbed me of my concentration. My complaints were rudely ignored. Now, rather than complain, I have given up with the passive majority who find it impossible to deal with that kind of robbery.

Smokers who used to rob nonsmokers of clean air have been stopped for the most part, Abby. Will you please speak up for those of us who have paid good money to attend a movie but are not allowed to enjoy it? Or worse yet, those who wish to worship in peace without becoming angry with a brother?

Dear, Dear Abby, speak up, please. So many of us need you.

SILENCE, PLEASE!

DEAR SILENCE: Sorry, each of us who feels "robbed" must do his own speaking up. At a theater or concert, report the offenders to an usher or the manager. And if no action is taken, demand that your money be refunded.

In church, complain to church authorities. Obviously, parents should teach their children in the cradle respect and consideration for others.

Failure to do so breeds selfish, inconsiderate people who create disturbances in public places. Then, because people like you give up and accept that kind of behavior as something that must be tolerated, the meek shall inherit the earth populated with rude and inconsiderate people.

DEAR ABBY: I am worried about how to handle a situation that is coming up soon. My uncle is coming to visit us, and although he is a nice, older gentleman, he has some very bad grooming habits. He does not bathe often enough, and he uses no deodorant.

How do you suggest I handle this? He always reads your column. Will you please spell it out?

SMELLBOUND

DEAR SMELLBOUND: Tell your uncle, lovingly, that a daily shower or bath and a fresh change of clothes is the rule in your house. And if he argues — show him this letter. Whew!

DEAR ABBY: You advised an overweight woman to say, "Thank you," to people who came up to her and said, "My, but you have a pretty face, you really should do something about your weight." I agree with you 100 percent.

How would you like to have someone come up to you and say, "My, but you have a beautiful figure, you really should do something about your face"?

Poll: Bishops would allow priests to marry

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A survey of Roman Catholic bishops by a former Jesuit indicated that nearly a quarter of those who responded believe priests should be allowed to marry, it was reported today.

The Rev. Terrance A. Sweeney, who resigned from the Jesuit order last week rather than comply with Vatican pressure to destroy his survey, mailed a copy of the research to Pope John Paul II.

A copy also was sent to the Los Angeles Times, which reported on the poll in its editions today.

Paper discloses second fire

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet newspaper today disclosed a fire broke out May 23 in the building housing the Chernobyl nuclear reactor that was destroyed by an explosion and fire nearly a month earlier.

The report said firefighters were forced to work in a high-radiation zone to stop the flames from spreading to an oil storage area.

The newspaper Leninskoye Znamya, a publication of Moscow's Communist Party, reported the May 23 fire in the middle of an article about firefighters working at the Chernobyl nuclear plant in the northern Ukraine.

It was the first report of the May 23 fire. The newspaper said the fire broke out early in the morning in the building housing the No. 4 reactor, the one involved in the April 26 disaster.

LAFF-A-DAY

"As you can see, this ventriloquist is drinking a glass of water while I talk... this would be more amazing if this wasn't just a cartoon..."

Roger Mize booster of Snyder area

Most everyone can attest to the fact that Roger Mize is a well-respected banker--a hard-nosed businessman who rises early and stays late.

But since 1957, Scurry County residents have learned other things about Roger Mize--a man of compassion, a man who pulls for the underdog and a man who loves his community and works to make it better.

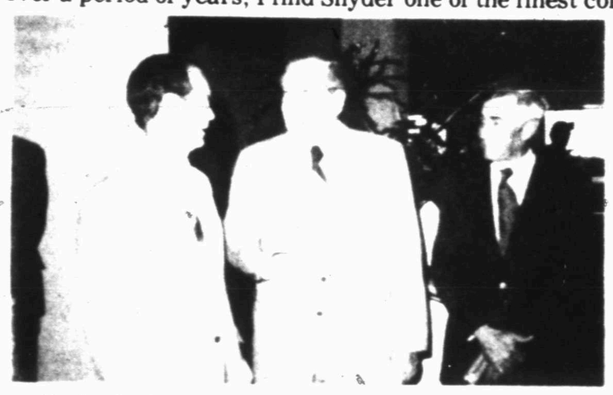

In some ways Roger Mize is a paradox. He is flamboyant, he is dominant and he is firmly in charge. On the other hand, he is humble, gentle, caring and fun-loving.

It is a variety of characteristics that has caused Snyder area residents to set Thursday, Aug. 21, as Roger B. Mize Day--officially proclaimed by Snyder Mayor Rod Waller.

In addition, a host of state officials, friends and family of Mize will be in Snyder Thursday to honor the long-time banker and civic leader.

Roger Mize is a Mississippian by birth and a Texan by choice. He once wrote:

"Having been born and raised in the Delta in Mississippi and having lived in various places in the State of Texas over a period of years, I find Snyder one of the finest communities anyplace in this state or any other place to live. Although I served as president of a bank in Dallas, I communted back and forth from day to day in order to spend as much time in this community as possible.

From the beginning, Roger Mize has been a supporter of Western Texas College and serves as chairman of WTC's Scholarship Endowment Fund. Mize helped bring then-Gov. Dolph Briscoe to the campus several years ago and is shown visiting with former WTC president Dr. Robert Clinton.

Long active in state political circles, Roger Mize has a long-standing friendship with U.S. Senator Lloyd Bentsen. Mize knew Bentsen from his early days in the Valley of South Texas.

"When you put all the facts together, anybody can see why Snyder, Texas is one of the finest places to live: it has a great school system, a fine city and county administration, a good police force. The service clubs are very active and when all the Scurry County citizens put their heads together, there is no project too large or too small for them...

"For its population, Scurry County and Snyder is a wealthy community and I think all of its citizens have benefitted from the oil, farming and ranching businesses over a period of years.

"Let me say from the bottom of my heart again, it is a great community to live in and has some great people residing therein. This is what makes Snyder and Scurry County a wonderful place to live and raise a family."

That statement was printed in the state-wide publication "Texas Parade," which featured a section on Snyder soon after it was named an All-American city.

Mize currently serves as president and chairman of the board of Snyder National Bank and Snyder Savings and Loan. He also is chairman of Elsa State Bank and Trust.

At one time, Mize was involved in 11 banks across the state but his desire to spend more time in Snyder resulted in the sale of his interests except for three financial institutions.

Mize takes pride in the conservative nature of the financial institutions over which he presides. Recently, Snyder Savings and Loan was noted as being one of the top 100 savings and loans in the nation. Only one other Texas S&L was on the list. Snyder Savings was number 16.

Snyder National Bank, with assets just under $100 million, is noted for its capital strength. It's capital to deposit ratio is 13 percent--well over twice the amount required by regulators.

Mize has always had a hand in civic affairs and industrial development. He was named Snyder's outstanding citizen in 1974 and in 1977 he was recipient of the Mayor's Award given by the City of Snyder.

In industrial development, Mize organized the three financial institutions in the city to help finance the industrial building on U.S. 84. Mize personally, in 1975, donated the land on which the chamber of commerce building now stands.

Over the years, Mize has lent his support to a variety of fund-raising efforts. In a more quiet manner, Mize has generously donated to many Snyder area churches and to various civic clubs.

In promoting community projects and industrial development over the past 29 years, Mize has footed the bill for many trips which includes the use of his private airplane.

Although he no longer is a pilot, Mize served in the Air Force during World War II. Mize has also been active in state-wide politics and in 1982 he was appointed to the Governor's Task Force on State Trust and Asset Management.

He is a former chairman of the board of the Texas State Teachers Retirement System, and currently is a member of the system's investment advisory committee.

Presently he is a director of LDB Corp., a director of the Texas Association of Taxpayers, Inc.; and a director of the West Texas Rehab Center.

Locally, he is a member of the First Christian Church, a member of the Men's Early Bible Class at Colonial Hill Baptist Church, a member of Blue Lodge of Snyder and a Shriner.

He formerly has been chairman of the board of Citizens State Bank of Donna, president and director of RS&P Railway Company, director of Red Ball Motor Lines, Director of Telecom Corp., director of Silco, Inc., vice chairman of the board of First State Bank of Corpus Christi, vice president and director of Southwest Railway Equipment Corp., vice president and director of RS&P Holding Company, director of ADAP Corp., director of Abilene National Bank, president of Texas State Life Insurance Co., and director of Texas Capital Corp.

Roger Mize was in Austin in 1985 to help honor Sen. Ray Farabee who served as Governor for a Day. Mize led a Snyder delegation of eight persons.

Roger Mize was Snyder's top citizen in 1974, and in 1977 he was given the City of Snyder Mayor's Award at the annual chamber of commerce banquet. Making ing.

Roger Mize hosted a law enforcement appreciation dinner in 1985. Among those attending, from left, are Colonel Leo Gossett of the DPS, Texas Ranger Capt. Maurice Cook, Mize, Texas Ranger David Byrnes, and Texas Ranger Capt. Gene Powell.

Fund-raising has been a big part of Roger Mize's contribution. He recently presented proceeds of his fund-raising efforts to representatives of SCOOP, Peggy Kennedy and Carol Miller.

Roger Mize's personal airplane has become Snyder's "company plane" in terms of using it for civic and industrial projects. One such trip included Mize, Jack Smartt, Sen. Ray Farabee, Roy McQueen and Jack Denman.

Over the years, Roger Mize has helped bring many chamber banquet speakers to Snyder. One such personality was Astronaut Storey Musgrave.

Last year, Roger Mize hosted the quarterly meeting of the directors of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas. Mize is a former chairman of the board and currently serves as chairman of the real estate investment advisory committee. Pictured with Mize are Ed Wicker, Harold Achziger and Bruce Hineman.

Roger Mize was on hand when Gov. Dolph Briscoe visited the WTC campus. Pictured with Mize and Briscoe is Dr. Robert Clinton, the first president of WTC.

The late C. T. McLaughlin often teamed up with Roger Mize to bring political figures to Snyder. McLaughlin, a former Texas Public Safety Commission chairman, was a strong supporter of law enforcement and Mize has continued that tradition.

Becky Robinson and Sheriff Keith Collier, representing SCOOP and NOAH, visited with Roger Mize before he kicked off the fund raising efforts. SCOOP eventually became part of the United Way of which Mize has long been a booster.

Volleyball team opens 1986 with victory over Brownfield

The graduation of four of Snyder's six starters from last year's state championship volleyball team may have left local fans wondering if the 1986 unit would be competitive. Those fans got their answer here Tuesday night as the Lady Tigers gunned down Brownfield 15-3, 15-9 in the season opener.

"It was an overall team effort. The girls played together and that's been one of our main goals from the beginning of workouts," said second-year head coach Vicki Nelms.

While Snyder made a lot of mistakes, the team showed sparks of excellent defense, solid setting and passing, and some flashes of good front line play.

"We still haven't adjusted to playing with everybody yet. We knew that was going to be a problem, though," said Nelms. "This team has a lot of potential. We just need to keep improving."

After a slow start, Snyder ran roughshod over the Cubs in the first game. The Tigers led 5-3 when senior Tammy Williamson went to the backline. Her low, spinning serves seemed to befuddle the visitors, who quickly fell behind 9-3 before calling time out.

The pause didn't faze Williamson. Her next serve was an ace, and Snyder ran up a 14-3 advantage before she finally hit one too low and into the net.

The serve exchanged hands several times until Shondra Robinson delivered one Brownfield couldn't handle, and the Tigers won, 15-3.

Brownfield made a better try of it in the second game, finally going up 8-3 and 9-5 before Snyder slowly rallied back.

A spike by Sharnette Thompson gave Snyder its sixth point. Seven came on a block from Allison Adams, and eight was on a bad hit by a Cub player.

Brownfield regained the serve but lost it on a thundering spike from Donna Clay, bringing Williamson back to the serving line again.

This time, Williamson opened with an ace to tie the game at 9-9. Snyder then went in front to stay, 12-9, with two of the points coming on ace serves.

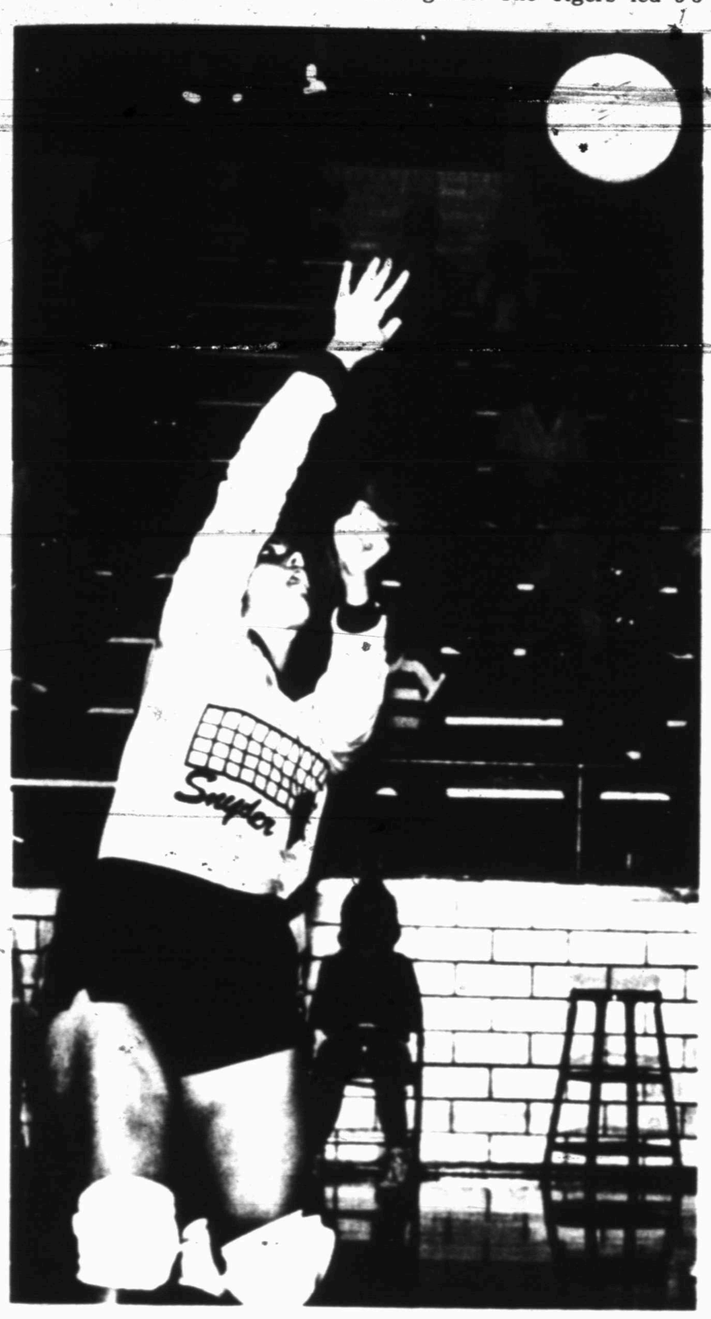

Point 13 came on a hit into the net by Brownfield, 14 on a hit out by the Cubs after a long volley, and 15 on a serve by Denise Overton that Brownfield's Rachel Gongora couldn't control.

"I usually have some top spin on my ball," said Williamson, who was more interested in talking about the team than in her serving. "I think we have a good team. We've improved a lot. We know we still have a long way to go, though."

Co-captain Thompson, also a senior, agreed. "I think we did pretty good. We were maybe a little nervous, but not much," she said.

Williamson served up 15 points for the night. Overton and Robinson 4 each, Clay 3, Becky Becerra 2, and Thompson and Adams 1 each.

Snyder will play Denver City at 9 a.m. Friday in the Monahans Tournament at the Multi-Purpose Complex in Monahans for its next outing.

Three players hit 600 or more home runs during their major-league careers. Hank Aaron is the all-time leader with 755. Babe Ruth had 714 and Willie Mays connected for 660.

Dorsett still contends he wants to be traded

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) - Dallas Cowboys running back Tony Dorsett says he has repeated a request that he be traded, saying it isn't economically feasible for him to remain on the team with Herschel Walker.

Dorsett reiterated his request Wednesday to Cowboys president Tex Schramm, who had received a similar phone call on Monday from Witt Stewart, Dorsett's agent.

"Economically, I think it would be impossible to keep both Herschel and myself," said Dorsett. "Pretty soon, the Cowboys are going to wonder if they're going to get their money's worth.

"I just think that a trade would be the right thing to do," he said. "That doesn't mean I want to leave Dallas. But I've got to be realistic about all of this. In reality, it's not a decision based on talent. It will be a decision based on economics."

Stewart asked Schramm to arrange a trade with either Miami or Pittsburgh. But Schramm said Dorsett would not be traded this season.

"He (Stewart) said Tony would like to be traded," said Schramm. "I said I didn't intend to trade him. That was about it. I'm not considering a trade at this point."

Coach Tom Landry, asked about the likelihood of trading the club's leading career rusher, said, "Who says anything isn't a possibility But I don't intend for that to happen. He's got a job. He's got to play tailback for me as long as he can carry the ball."

Walker will be paid $5 million for five years. The club has placed $1 million of his $1.4 million bonus on escrow.

Dorsett, after learning last week of Walker's contract, said the club should trade him. He changed his mind less than 24 hours later.

But, with Walker learning the plays for the tailback position, Dorsett reversed his position again. He said public pressure will eventually force the Cowboys to trade him.

"It won't be long before the press and the fans get involved," said Dorsett. "The first time I fumble, people are going to say that it's time for Herschel to play.

Cowboys majority owner "Bum Bright is going to start asking questions," Dorsett said. "People are going to start nit-picking me. If I make any mistakes, they're going to want Walker to play."

JV, frosh win openers

Snyder junior varsity defeated Brownfield 15-7, 15-7 in its season volleyball opener here Tuesday.

Sandra Morin and Kelly Walker served up 9 points each; Jennifer. Alarcon 5; Christy Greene 4; LaFon Williams 3; Holly Fuller 2 and Meredith Goodwin 1. Also playing were Rhonda Echols, Holly Page, Nellie Rodriquez and Lena Hodges.

"I thought for the opening game we did real well. We had been playing a 5-1 and we're playing a 6-2 (two setters)," said Coach Patty Grimmett. "They hustled and played real hard."

The JV will play Kermit at 1 p.m. Friday at the Monahans Junior High School in the Monahans JV Tournament.

Snyder freshmen also won Tuesday, 15-0, 12-15, 15-7.

The frosh will entertain Abilene Cooper at 6 p.m. Aug. 26.

Rangers fall 5½ back

by The Associated Press

It will likely be a long, long time before another pitcher yells at Frank White.

The veteran of 12 outstanding seasons put on probably the best performance of his career Tuesday, driving in seven runs and winning the game in the 11th inning with his second homer of the night as the Kansas City Royals defeated the Texas Rangers 9-8.

"If I had a better game, I can't remember when," White said.

White singled in a run in the first inning, but it all really started in the second against Rangers starter Mike Loynd.

"The second time out, when he struck me out, he started yelling at me," White said. "I don't know what he was yelling at, I guess he wanted to show me up. I started to shout back at him, but I didn't.

"I just believe in the old-fashioned approach."

So White gave the Texas pitchers an old-fashioned whipping. The Rangers took a 7-1 lead, but White doubled in two runs in the fifth and hit a three-run homer in the sixth, giving the Royals an 8-7 lead.

Texas tied it up in the seventh, but White led off the 11th with a line drive over the left-field wall.

Ragin' Tiger report...

Heat, injuries slow Tiger grid practice

Good news from the Tiger camp this week came when it was learned that an injury to Doug Smith is minor.

Coaches first feared Smith had suffered a dislocated kneecap during Friday's intrasquad scrimmage. It turned out to be only a bruise, however, and Smith was back in workouts Tuesday.

Much of the news from two-a-days was not as good, though. Heat, sickness and injuries have beset the Ragin' Tigers.

"Our biggest problem has been the heat," said Coach Dennis Tomlin. "We're really doing everything we can to make sure the kids have plenty of water and ice towels around. The heat has actually slowed down our practices."

Also hampering workouts have been injuries to returning starters Dewayne Murdock (groin pull) and Trey Tippens (cracked bone in hand).

"We're holding them out of practice so that hopefully they can scrimmage Friday (6 p.m. vs. Vernon in Stamford)," said the coach. "It is slowing down their progress some. It does give us a chance to concentrate more on the kids that are backing them up though."

Murdock was all-district and all-South Plains at offensive tackle. Tippens made all-district at defensive end.

Stepping in for them have been Henry Treat and Steven Mack and Tomlin said "they've played real well for them."

The coach said the squad has also had two or three players out with a virus each day this week.

"I have talked to some of the other coaches in the area and they say they are going through the same thing," Tomlin said. "It's something that occurs about this time each year."

Thirty students filed out for the first freshman football workouts Monday.

"We're hoping for a few more because we do have a schedule for two teams," said Coach Larry Scott. "We'd like to see between 40 and 45."

Scott said the freshman group is further along in workouts and progressing faster this year because the players were under the current system as seventh and eighth graders.

The frosh were to put on pads for the first time today.

Assault trial is ongoing

SAN ANGELO, Texas (AP) — A 22-year-old defendant in an aggravated sexual assault trial testified that a Terlingua woman lured him to her home and seduced him with alcohol and drugs.

Refugio Gardea Gonzalez of Jimenez, Mexico, is standing trial on charges that he abducted the woman, robbed her at knifepoint and repeatedly raped her during an eight-hour period in late October 1985.

He denied the charges in court Tuesday, saying instead that the woman had lured him to her home and offered him drugs, sex, alcohol and money.

"At her house she invited me to drink a beer and smoke marijuana, but I didn't want to," Gonzalez said through an interpreter.

"She said I could be an expert and I took a puff and it stuck in my throat and I felt hot and dizzy. Then she came to me and she told me she had what I needed and I had what she needed."

Gonzalez also said the 39-year-old woman consented to sexual intercourse with him numerous times during the evening.

The 39-year-old woman, however, denies Gonzalez' claim that she forced him to smoke marijuana. She also told jurors she was forced to walk over desolate desert canyons for several hours before she was robbed at knifepoint and raped repeatedly over an eight-hour period.

Car bomb terror said to be gripping Iran

by The Associated Press

A siege of car-bomb terror has gripped Iran's cities. Explosives have been planted in busy plazas, outside mosques and near bazaars in an apparent campaign to underine Ayatollh Ruhollah Khomeini's rule.

Two explosions the last four days in the Iranian capital of Tehran and the Shiite Moslem holy city of Qom have killed 33 people and wounded at least 100.

They were the latest in a series of at least 16 bombings — mostly the explosions of dynamite-laden automobiles — that have killed at least 55 people and wounded more than 300 the last 15 months.

Khomeini's 7-year-old revolutionary government, speaking through the Islamic Republic News Agency, in most cases has blamed "U.S. agents," Iraq, which has been at war with Iran since 1980, or the leftist Iranian guerrilla group Mujahedeen Khalq for the bombings.

American officials dismiss the allegations of U.S. involvement. The Mujahedeen Khalq, based the past 2½ months in Iraq, also reject the charges and contend that agents of Khomeini's own government are planting the bombs.

Drug may speed up disease onset

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Cocaine could speed the onset of Parkinson's disease by at least two decades, meaning that users who would have developed tell-tale tremors around retirement age may begin to see them before they are 40, a researcher says.

Dr. Michael Trulson, a Texas A&M University medical anatomy scientist, said Tuesday that his prediction is based on a soon-to-be-published study which found that routine cocaine use adversely affected key nerve centers in the brains of rats, perhaps permanently.

Parkinson's, a progressively degenerative disease, is marked by tremors at first, followed later by difficulty in speaking clearly, writing legibly or moving about unassisted. Mild symptoms can sometimes be treated but not cured.

Trulson said that because cocaine apparently upsets the brain's chemical balance and destroys nerve cells, use of the drug might also trigger the earlier onset of such nerve diseases as Alzheimer's or rarer conditions such as lateral sclerosis or Huntington's chorea, an inherited disease.

"What we think will happen is that abuse of cocaine will accelerate the loss of cells that would normally happen as a function of age," Trulson said.

"Our research suggests that cocaine destroys 60 percent of the cells related to motor skills, and that leads to an earlier onset of a condition like Parkinson's," he added.

Those effects may be even greater than predicted, he said, because cocaine now tends to come in purer forms such as "crack" and is often smoked rather than snorted, increasing its potency.

Also, more cocaine is available to more people than ever before, said Trulson.

The study, to be published this fall in the journal Experimental Neurology, examined levels of an enzyme essential to the production of the vital brain chemical dopamine.

Obituaries

Maye Rogers

Services for Maye Rogers, 90, of Abilene, former longtime Snyder resident, are to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at 37th Street Church of Christ. Burial will follow in Snyder Cemetery under direction of Bell-Cypert-Seale Funeral Home.

She died at 5:30 a.m. Wednesday at Humana Hospital. She was born Sept. 7, 1895. She was married to H. F. (Abe) Rogers Feb. 14, 1916 in Merkel. He died Nov. 14, 1976. She was a member of 37th Street Church of Christ.

She is survived by three daughters, Netha Lynn Jones of Waco, Lola Jo Hall of Stephenville, and Jane Evans of Abilene; and one son, Jay Rogers of Lubbock.

Jack Richburg

SWEETWATER–Services for Jack Richburg, 78, of Sweetwater, former Snyder resident, will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Lamar Street Baptist Church with the Rev. Orvel Brantley, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Edward Healer, retired Baptist minister. Burial will follow in Garden of Memories Cemetery.

He died at 3:15 a.m. Wednesday at Rolling Plains Hospital. He was born April 24, 1908 in Ellis County, Tex. He moved to the Loraine area in 1925, to Pyron in 1934 and to Sweetwater in 1950.

He was retired from the real estate insurance business.

He is survived by his wife, Katie of the home; four sisters, Eva Richburg, Era Richburg and Rossie Richburg, all of Sweetwater, and Winnie Richburg of Hermleigh; three brothers, Quincy Richburg of Sweetwater, Herman Richburg of Hermleigh, and Jim Richburg of Dallas.

Emil LoPour

HOBBS, N. M.–Services for Emil S. LoPour, 87, of Hobbs, N. M., former Snyder resident, will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Griffin Funeral Home Chapel in Hobbs. Burial will follow in Prairie Haven Cemetery.

He died Monday in Lea Regional Hospital. He was a retired farmer and construction worker.

He moved to Hobbs, N. M. 33 years ago from Snyder.

He is survived by his wife, Leah of the home; two sons, Lavon LoPour of Hobbs, N. M. and David LoPour of Lovington, N. M.; one daughter, Mrs. Wanda Tracey of Lovington, N. M.; three brothers, Anton LoPour and Joe LoPour, both of Snyder, and Eddie LoPour of Buena Park, Calif.; one sister, Frances Gordon of Lubbock; six grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren.

Estate sale set to begin

Lubbock have been contracted by the First National Bank of Lubbock — trustee of the estate — to conduct the weekend sale.

Little and McCarty have been working at the farm for the past month compiling an inventory for the thousands of items to be sold and assigning prices.

The liquidation of the estate is being conducted as a sale rather than an auction with the farm to be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday through Saturday and from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Little said Tuesday the sale format will be used primarily because of the number of items and the "quality" of the estate.

"There are simply too many items to auction (in a reasonable time)," she said.

"Mrs. McKanna had very nice things in her life and we are doing the sale in a manner that I think would have pleased her."

Customers will be asked to register as they enter the farm and numbers will be assigned each person.

Only a few people will be admitted to each house at a time in order to avoid crowding and confusion.

Security guards have been hired for the sale primarily to discourage theft of the merchandise which will be displayed throughout the houses.

A concession stand operated by the SCOOP organization of Snyder will be set up in the patio area of the compound for the convenience of those attending the sale.

Tuesday afternoon, Little was continuing work to get items at the farm priced for sale. She said they were still finding items packed away — some in the original boxes — as they began going through a garage and storage building.

Enrollment may be down the past seven to eight years, Gorman said.

Smaller numbers have been expected all summer due to the drop off in local economic activity--primarily due to layoffs in the oil field accompanying the dramatic drop in the price of oil.

But the indication as of Wednesday was if decreases in student numbers occur, it will be slight, estimated in the 2 to 3 percent range.

Enrollment in the elementary grades are traditionally viewed as the indicators of long range enrollment trends.

Regarding total numbers, the students counted Tuesday actually exceeded the number estimated this time last year.

However, Gorman attributed the higher figure to "our working harder to get an exact figure" rather than increased students planning to enroll here.

Regarding this, he said elementary principals had been contacting parents by telephone rather than simply taking the number of students who actually pre-registered.

As of Tuesday afternoon, the number of students accouted for at the six elementaries totaled 1,863. The same figure after pre-enrollment last year was 1,697.

To support his theory that a slight drop in enrollment will eventually be counted, Gorman noted that the first day of classes last year produced some 589 more students than counted during pre-enrollment.

During the first week of classes last year, the number of elementary students increased to in excess of 2,200 students.

The following profiles the number of students registering at each elementary campus Tuesday. The figure shown in brackets is a comparison figure from last year.

These include: Stanfield, 319 (308); Northeast, 333 (316); West, 394 (356); East, 312 (243); Central, 310 (321); and North, 195 (153).

Gorman noted that parents who have yet to register their child should do so if possible this week. This can be completed at the elementary campus in their attendance zone area.

School begins here Sept. 2 with teacher in-service to start Monday.

RANCH BREAKFAST — Pictured are some of the 66 persons who gathered on the Jack Martin ranch north east of Snyder Tuesday morning for the first ever Scurry County Ranch Breakfast. The event was sponsored by the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District and those attending heard reports from several authorities on conservation and ranching related topics. A second breakfast is now tenatively planned for April and organizers say they hope to make the breakfast a semi-annual event. (SDN Staff Photo)

White opens special session to include sales tax increase

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Mark White today opened the Legislature's special session to consider his proposal for a temporary increase in the state sales tax rate.

White also agreed to allow lawmakers to debate bills that would permit out-of-state banks to purchase Texas banking institutions and to impose a constituional prohibition against a corporate or personal income tax.

In Texas, special legislative sessions can only consider those topics permitted by the governor.

During a brief news conference, White said his order will be specifically limited to his proposal to increase the sales tax rate from 4⅛ percent to 5¼ percent for one year, beginning Sept. 1.

White said he has no plans to open the call to bills to legalize parimutuel wagering on horse racing or creation of a state lottery.

The governor said he doesn't believe that either horse racing or a lottery would generate sufficient money quickly enough to help solve the state's estimated $3.5 billion deficit.

"I want to focus the attention of the Legislature on the very serious problem we have for additional revenues that will be effective in dealing with our problem," he said.

Aides to White said the one-year sales tax increase would raise about $810 million. Combined with $1.4 billion in spending cuts he has recommended, White said that would balance the state's budget.

Comptroller Bob Bullock estimates that the state faces a $3.5 billion deficit, but White has said that total includes some contingencies, such as the outcome of various lawsuits, which aren't in effect now.

Asked whether he would veto any other tax bill should the House and Senate send him one, White replied, "I'll just have to wait and see."

nominations for new chamber directors are now due. He said these should be submitted to the chamber executive committee prior to Sept. 1.

The executive committee, comprised of Denman, President-elect Elizabeth Potts, Vice President Fred Castillo and Treasurer Margaret Drum, will make the nominations to the full chamber board.

Three directors will have terms expire at the end of the year, Max von Roeder, Phil Fortune and Jerry Vestal.

More cutbacks expected for farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — American farmers may soon incur another cutback in their federal price support benefits, courtesy of a revived Gramm-Rudman budget-balancing law.

If the law's sweeping powers to impose across-the-board spending cuts are restored and if those cuts are applied equally to eligible federal programs, it could mean slashing $2 billion out of the Agriculture Department's budget, agency officials said Tuesday.

And if the cuts are imposed within the department the same way similar reductions were distributed this year, about 60 percent of the cutbacks would come from farm programs financed by the department's Commodity Credit Corp., the same proportion as this year, said Robert E. Sherman, deputy director of USDA's office of budget and program aalysis.

Purse theft noted locally

Police are investigating a purse theft reported Tuesday night.

Linda Cozart of Snyder reported at 10:15 p.m. her purse had been stolen from her car while it was parked in the 2700 Block of 29th St. earlier in the evening.

In other action, police took one juvenile into custody for being a minor in posession of alcoholic beverages Tuesday night. He was later released to the custody of his parents.

Minor injuries noted in wreck

Three traffic accidents, one recorded by police as major, were reported withing an hour Tuesday.

A passenger in a 1982 Chevrolet driven by Nancy Rendon Candonoza of 1411 20th St. reportedly sustained minor injuries that did not require medical treatment.

The Candonoza vehicle was involved in a collision with a 1982 Mercury driven by Pauline Ballard of 2507 College Ave.

The passenger was not identified on the accident report.

That mishap occurred at 2:11 p.m. at the intersection of 27th St. and Ave. Q.

The day's first accident occurred on the parking lot of the Scurry County Senior Citizen's Center at 2:06 p.m.

According to police reports, a parked 1977 Ford owned by Marvin Gary of Rt. 2, Snyder was struck by a 1977 Ford driven by Ben Revis Laster of 2006 37th St.

The parking lot of the Dairy Queen at Ave. A and the East Highway was the scene of the third accident at 2:41 p.m.

Involved in it was a 1976 Ford driven by Dana Jo Crawford of 2910 Ave. C which struck a parked 1986 Oldsmobile owned by Dale Siefker of Arvado, Colo.
